In Any Foreign War—"Include Us Out"

The first job of the United States government is to see that Americans in the war zones around Peiping, China, or in Spain, for all that, are given the best possible chance to get out of there to places of safety if they want to go.

The second is to make it clear to them that if they do not want to take advantage of such a chance for safety, they remain in the danger zones at their own risk.

That is 1937 talk. Back in 1900, we went all mooney about the idea that an American must be safe anywhere in the world, and that the last ounce of American force would be exerted to make him so. That sounds dandy in a Kipling poem, but today we feel different. Even August Britain, which has done considerable sounding off about the safety of a British citizen wearing his dress suit in the jungle, has backed down from this stiff-necked dictum on several recent occasions.

Today, the question is asked with reverse English. Has an American citizen, given a chance to get out, the right to stay in a situation of danger where injury or death to him may bring down a horrible war on the heads of millions of people back home who had no interest in him or in the enterprises which led him into the danger zones?

Today we are beginning to feel that only Americans actually on public business for the government have a right to expect its protection, and that private individuals selling oil or salvation in dangerous quarters are strictly on their own.

Any one of the 1300 Americans in Peiping and Tientsin who refuses to cooperate in safety measures taken for Americans; who stubbornly insists on remaining when it is no longer safe, may be killed and thus precipitate a crisis.

But today we at home are likely to ask questions before our temperature rises in a hot demand for a war of revenge for some such "incident." We want to know what the victim was doing there? For whom? Was any American public interest affected? Did the victim cooperate in efforts to remove him from the danger? Would going to war about it do any good anyway, in the long run?

Specific problems arising out of ticklish situations like those at Peiping must be solved as they come along. Most of us don't understand the details, anyway.

But the government ought regarding any pending legislation 44-100ths per cent of all Americans of Mr. Sam Goldwyn: "Gentlemen, include us out."

Some years ago the Pulitzer cartoon of the year went to J.

BEHIND THE SCENE

WASHINGTON—Congress will continue in session at least until Aug. 15, but confusion as to what it will do before it adjourns has not been reduced by the postponement of the Democratic love feast at Jefferson Hotel.

Whatever else may have been the results of the outing, there is today in Congress a marked swingback of reaction, from the bitterness of the committee report against the court plan, which was signed by seven Democratic senators. The outing seems to have been a turning point.

Referring to the now historic party, one of its stage managers explains, "Everybody got all honed up, and we agreed a way to a compromise on the program that will be generally acceptable."

One of the administration's most persistent foes in the House came back on the boat assuring his comrades: "You know, I like that fellow Roosevelt. You can't help liking him. We all ought to get together with him more and do some of the things he wants and talk him out of the rest of them."

MEANWHILE the leaders who were exposed to Roosevelt by night, when the real nuddles took place at the island, are exploring around Capitol Hill to find out what they think can be passed by Aug. 15. Here is a rough outline of present prospects and perplexities.

COURT: Senate Majority Leader Joe Robinson is sure he can get a majority vote for a compromise. The opposition will try to force a vote on the original bill and keep the compromise off the floor. That attempt may be thwarted by a quick move to have a compromise bill passed by the House.

WAGES AND HOURS: The leaders, chiefly southern, want to drop the minimum wage and other provisions of the administration bill and substitute a flat 40-hour maximum hour law while a congressional committee investigates the problem of minimum wages between now and January.

LOW COST HOUSING: Roosevelt wants a bill making optional with local housing authorities the terms of the Treasury capital grant plan, and Senator Wagner's bill for construction loans and rent subsidies. All housing experts agree only the latter can produce genuine low-cost housing, which makes the choice somewhat like that between a box of candy and a sock in the jaw. Housing may be dropped because of apathy among congressional leaders.

GOVERNMENT REORGANIZATION: Some bill almost certain to pass—assuming no long court filibuster—along lines of Robinson's compromise calling for a new Department of Public Welfare, six presidential assistants, abolition of the General Accounting Office and comptroller general's office for a new set-up and a civil service administration to replace the present commission.

LOOP-HOLE LEGISLATION: In all probability. FARM BILL: Administrator gets hot and cold on this measure prepared largely by American Farm Bureau Federation. Currently it's hot, may get cold later. Senate and House leaders are definitely cold, so it's a toss-up.

toon showed a sad and shabby man seated upon a park bench. A squirrel playing in front of him asked: "Why didn't you save your money?" The derelict replied, "I did!"

Thousands of men have saved their money—only to lose it at an age when their fortunes could not be rebuilt. For saving is one thing, and security of principal is another. Unhappily, they don't always go together.

Every man should place a large part of his savings in some plan, such as life insurance, which guarantees the maximum of security. Only the spare dollars should be used for speculation—for ventures which, though they may return great profit, may also result in 100 per cent loss of the principal employed. Before taking risks, it is essential to build a sound financial bulwark for the future.

Texas Will—

Shenandoah park became a national park in 1936, and during the first year it was open 694,093 tourists visited this park.

The national park service, basing its estimate upon attendance at other national parks, has issued a circular indicating its belief that once the Big Bend national park is under way out-of-state tourists will spend in Texas a minimum of $3,600,000 annually. Once the land is added to the national government, the national park service will undertake to develop and maintain the park at its own expense. This plan contemplated an annual expenditure of $250,000 for development only.

Conrad L. Wirth, assistant director, Oklahoma park service, has the following to say with reference to the Big Bend national park: "It is apparent that the Big Bend national park will be recognized as one of the outstanding geological laboratories and classrooms in the world. The establishment of the Big Bend national park gives the service its first opportunity to set up a boundary that will protect a logical and complete biological unit."

Advertising Value
The advertising value to Texas of a national park within its borders will be of greater value to the state of Texas than the amount of money necessary to purchase the land. Old Mexico has agreed to establish a complementary park just across the border. With a boon to international good feeling and in international trade an international peace park would be!

People from the north and east would come south to see Carlsbad cavern the McDonald observatory the international park, and on into Old Mexico. Can you visualize a more compelling lure for tourists? Wouldn't you like to have a proprietary interest in a Big Bend national park for Texas and her people?

Write your check payable to 'The Big Bend National Park Fund,' and mail it to the secretary of your local chamber of commerce, or to the editor of either your local or daily newspaper, or send direct to Honorable Wendell Mayes, chairman of the state park board, Austin. If you prefer to donate cash it is suggested that you get receipt for same from your local chamber of commerce, which in turn will transmit same to the chairman of the state park board. It is suggested that the local and daily newspapers publish from time to time the names and addresses of those who have donated to this fund.

Can Texas, with her vast resources and patriotic citizenship afford to contribute less for a national park than did the citizens of Virginia?

BALL TEAMS TO BATTLE OVER UNITED STATES

By RICHARD M. MOREHEAD
United Press Staff Correspondent

FORT WORTH August 5 (U.P.) — As if they didn't have enough space to cover in the broad expanse of Texas and Arkansas, the seven Southwest Conference football teams this fall will travel from coast to coast for international battles.

Coach Homer Norton's Texas A. & M. college eleven, pre-season favorites, with all-American Guard Joe Routt in the lead, will open the season in New York City, Oct. 2, return to Tyler, Tex., to meet Mississippi State Oct. 12, and end their season against San Francisco university at San Francisco Dec. 4 after meeting six conference schools in a row.

The Texas Christian University Horned Frogs, tutored by Leo Dutch Meyer, face a major test in the opening game at Columbus, O., Sept. 25 against Ohio State. The Frogs will be without Sammy Baugh, the All-American passing wizard who graduated, but anticipate a strong line and better-than-average running game.

T. C. U. will journey to New York City Oct. 23 in the midst of the conference season, to meet Fordham university.

Southern Methodist university again will send its spectacular football team away from important games—Washington university at St. Louis Oct. 9 and U. C. L. A. in Los Angeles in Nov. 20.

Arkansas, 1936 champion, will play Mississippi university in Memphis Nov. 13 and George Washington university in Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 20.

Baylor university will entertain Loyola of Los Angeles at Beaumont, Texas, Nov. 20, and Coach Jimmy Kirt's Rice Institute Owls will play Auburn University at Houston Oct. 30.

Other major non-conference clashes include: Arkansas vs. Tulsa at Tulsa Nov. 25.

Rice vs. Oklahoma at Norman, Okla., Oct. 1. Rice vs. Louisiana State university at Houston, Oct. 9, and Rice vs. Tulsa at Houston, Oct. 16.

Baylor vs. Oklahoma City university at Oklahoma City Oct. 1; Baylor vs. Centenary at Shreveport Oct. 16.

S. M. U. vs. Centenary at Dallas Oct. 2.

Texas vs. Texas Tech at Austin Sept. 25; Texas vs. Louisiana state at Baton Rouge Oct. 2; and Texas vs. Oklahoma at Dallas Oct. 9.

Fort Worth and College Station will be the scene of two chief Southwest conference "grudge" battles that annually draw the largest crowds. T. C. U. will meet its sister-city foe, S. M. U., at Fort Worth Nov. 27. The annual Texas-Texas A. & M. feud will be renewed at College Station on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25.

S. M. U. has 11 games scheduled, compared with nine for Texas and Texas A. & M. and 10 for the remaining schools. Arkansas and A. & M. have only three home games; T. C. U. four; Texas four; Baylor four; Rice six; and S. M. U. six.

Pictures Furnish Sermon Subjects

The Ladies' Philanthropic class of the First Methodist church are sponsoring a series of four sermons during the month of August. The leaders of the class are Mrs. Rufus Merrett and Miss Lela Latch. The subject of the sermons is "Pictures that Preach." The first picture that will furnish information for a sermon is "The Angelus," painted by Millet, a nineteenth century French artist. The theme of this sermon is "Worship." The class is asked to contribute a name of a picture they would like to hear a sermon preached on. These names are to be submitted at the church on Sunday, August 8. The services will be held on the church lawn and will begin each Sunday at 8 p. m.

The women of the Philanthropic class are making it their duty to see their friends and tell them about the services.

 came frightened and jumped in front of a truck, driven by Duke
 Koonce who lives south of town.
 The horse was being ridden by Mrs.
 Dale Keith of Fort Worth, a bride of a few days, and a friend of hers, Miss Morgan of Abilene. In the crash of the horse and truck Mrs.
 Keith had one ankle badly broken besides other injuries. The horse had one leg broken and had to be killed and the truck had one fender broken off and was otherwise damaged. Dale Keith was reared here and moved to Fort Worth with his parents a few years ago. He and his bride, his mother, Mrs. Ed Keith and Miss Morgan were visiting friends here when the accident occurred. Their many friends hope Mrs. Keith Jr. may soon recover.
 It was said that Mr. Koonce was driving very slowly and for that reason the accident was not as serious as it might have been.
 Friday afternoon Desdemona citizens were made to rejoice when the news was brought from Eastland that details had been worked out with the commissioners' court whereby a state highway would be secured. The proposed highway is to be constructed from De Leon to Strawn and to a point between Strawn and Ranger to connect with State Highway No. 1. Representative business men from Strawn, Desdemona, De Leon and other places in this section have been working on the proposition for two years. Those from Desdemona who went to Eastland Friday in the interest of the road were: Mitch-Bailey, O. M. Harrison, L. E. Clark

 W. H. Davis, J. H. Rushing Jr., T.
 H. Key, T. L. Acrea and Joe Gibson. The survey for the road will begin in a few days. It was reported that owners of the immense Allen ranch had offered to give the right-of-way through their land and the people of Strawn had made up a large donation to be used in the purchase of right-of-way. Desdemona men signed a guarantee to secure the right-of-way through this section.

 leave but congratulate him on his promotion. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bragg have been very active members of the Methodist church and their the tabernacle. As a result of the

 DAILY NEWS—AMERICAN AND ROUNDUP

A "bargain" is sometimes a bargain --
 A good many people look on August as their lucky month —and we don't mean those who spend it lying on the sand and taking in salt air.
 We mean those people who have formed the habit of buying things when other people aren't... porch rugs and luggage and towels and lamps and all sorts of things, for use now and for use next season.
 Of course they have learned that "bargains" are not always bargains. They know how to recognize quality and styles and worth, how to find the strong points and how to avoid weaknesses. And much of their knowledge has come from the advertisements in this newspaper.
 All of us follow advertising, but some people study it so thoroughly that they know exactly what they want and where to get it. They are the ones who find the real bargains. Their money buys more things and better things—in August and all through the year.

The Ladies Philanthropic class of the First Methodist church are sponsoring a series of four sermons during the month of August. The leaders of the class are Mrs. Rufus Morkett and Miss Lela Latch. The subject of the sermons is "Pictures that Preach." The first picture that will furnish information for a sermon is "The Angelus," painted by Millet, a nineteenth century French artist. The theme of this sermon is "Worship." The call is asked to contribute a name of a picture they would like to hear a sermon preached on. These names are to be submitted at the church on Sunday, August 8. The services will be held on the church lawn and will begin each Sunday at 8 p. m.

The women of the Philanthropic class are making it their duty to see their friends and tell them about the services.

The Men's Goodfellows class has just sponsored a series of sermons on "God and the Out-of-Doors." They have created a feeling of interest and have increased the attendance to the night services. Lawn seats are provided and the services are promising to be effective and evangelistic. Be sure to attend these meetings each Sunday night at the First Methodist church lawn on the corner of 8th and Avenue H at 8 p. m.

GETTIN' THE BUSINESS

means giving the mileage

It's up to me to make this business go, because it's mine. I never did a smarter thing than featuring Conoco Germ Processed oil, with all its long mileage for you. Talk doesn't make mileage or customers, but I can tell you what does... Oil-Plating your engine with Germ Processed oil. The patent Germ Process makes oil actually take hold of every working part and keep it coated with a durable Oil-Plating... entirely extra to the regular moving type of oil film. Oil-Plating backs up the oil film while the car is running, and never drains down during hours of parking. Then you'll never start up without lubrication. And at the end of your longest run on a hot day, your engine will still have its full safe plating of Conoco Germ Processed oil. The way it lasts gives me a right to be called Your Mileage Merchant.

Ghost of 'Shylock' Visits His Debtors

HYDERABAD, India (U.P.)—What is probably the world's most useful ghost is reported to be wandering about at large at Karimnagar, near here.

He, or it, is the ghost of a money lender known during his life as the "Shylock of Karimnagar," who had difficulty in collecting his debts when he lived, but whose ghost is having none now.

The debtors, who owed several thousand rupees at the time of the money lender's death, are reported to be rushing to pay their just debts before the ghost pays them a visit.

It appears that the debtors settled down after the money lender's death with that "come and collect it" expression for his heirs. Then one of them was visited by a ghost one night; and then another, and another, so the story goes.

The heirs, who in a less credulous district might be credited with having something to do with the "ghost" are sitting back and collecting both capital and interest as fast as they can.

Spencer Introduces New Kind of Peach

J. E. Spencer, who has just returned from an extensive trip to Mexico and surrounding communities, in the interest of the fruit growers of Cisco and vicinity, displayed two large baskets of peaches at the Chamber of Commerce rooms morning.

Mr. Spencer desires to encourage the growth of more and better peaches in Eastland county, and is concentrating on the Tena and Frank varieties of the Stubenrauch peach.

"The Frank," he says, "has bigger commercial values than any of the other varieties. In thirty-two years of bearing fruit, it has never missed a crop."

"There was high production this year in the face of the freezes we endured last year."

The Frank is a large peach, comparing in size to a huge delicious apple. The largest Elberta peach is small when placed beside it.

Dishwashing Hint May Prevent Colds

FARGO, N. D. (U.P.)—The way the housewife washes dishes may have something to do with the number of common colds in the family each year, in the opinion of Dr. C. I. Nelson, professor of bacteriology at the North Dakota Agricultural College.

Forks, spoons and the rims of cups and glasses have been found to transmit bacteria that may be responsible for common colds or other diseases.

To guard against this danger, Dr. Nelson advised, dishes should be washed in good live suds as hot as the hands can stand comfortably. As real bacteria killers, the alkaline soaps are the most effective as they are the strongest. Soaps made of coconut oil and palm oil also are good and are least affected by hard water.

COBRAS FOUND IN BUS

RANGOON (U.P.)—Two deadly cobras travelled as unwanted passengers on a bus in Upper Burma and nearly caused a serious accident when they appeared in the driver's compartment. They were concealed among a load of furniture and flower-pots which were in a bus.

BUILDING AND LOAN ASS'NS NOW INSURED

and home-financing institutions total $49,044,924. Other Texas savings and loan associations have submitted applications for this protection for the funds of their investors.

Associations in the United States which have qualified for this insurance now number 1,756, having $1,427,103,165 in assets and 1,489,115 investing shareholders.

Eighty-nine of the insured institutions in Texas are Federal savings and loan associations, operating under charter and supervision of the national government, and are required by law to provide this insurance for the accounts of their investors and savers. The balance which are insured are state-chartered institutions which have met the requirements of the FSLC.

The Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation is a $100,000,000 instrumentality of the United States Government. To obtain insurance, an association must qualify as to the soundness of its finances and policies. After insurance, it must comply with the regulations of the FSLC, which examines the association regularly.

WASHINGTON, August 4 (U.P.)—F. M. Fallon, general manager of Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, has revealed savings of 43,778 persons in 112 building and loan associations in Texas are now insured up to $500 on each account by the corporation.

WASHINGTON NEWS

FROM CONGRESSMAN
CLYDE L. GARRETT

VISITORS—The office this past week has seen the smiling faces of Jack Sweeney of Breckenridge, A. H. Denke of Stephenville, George Bennett and James Beall, Jr., of Sweetwater, W. L. Fletcher of Hamilton and Mrs. W. V. Stephenson, formerly of McCauley but now residing in Baltimore, and Cliff Caldwell of Abilene.

TEXTBOOKS—In the installation of the air cooling system we have several thousand Agriculture Year-books which were being discarded and we have made up about sixty complete sets of them for 25 cents each, which are being shipped right away for the school libraries. They will go to those schools which have Vocational Agriculture first. Then to the other schools in order.

DIVERSIFIED INTERESTS—From what I have been able to see of the work here in our office we have about as diversified interest in the 17th district as it is possible for any inland district to have. Water transportation is about the only interest which our district does not have some action in at this time.

NORMAN GRANARY—A letter was sent to Chairmen of the Senate and House Committees by the President asking favorable consideration for a broad program of farm legislation, including continuance of soil conservation efforts and Secretary Wallace's ever-normal granary plan for stabilization of farm prices over prosperous and lean years. The bill has been introduced by Chairman Marvin Jones of the Agricultural Committee.

TENANCY BILL—The Administration's farm tenancy program, after a conference report, was passed by the House and sent to the Senate. The measure calls for a permanent program of loans to tenants and includes a provision of $50,000,000 to purchase and retire sub-marginal land over a period of three years.

SOCIAL SECURITY—Every State and territory in the United States now has an unemployment insurance law that conforms with the Social Security Act. The last State law, that of the state of Illinois was approved by the Social Security Board. It is estimated that nearly twenty-one million workers are in employments covered by the 51 approved unemployment insurance laws which provide compensation to employees who lose their jobs through no fault of their own. The amount given, varies in different states.

TAX AVOIDANCE—The Joint Congressional Tax Avoidance Committee concluded hearings and executive sessions were started to draft legislation to plug loopholes in existing income tax laws.

AIR TRAINING—Any young men between the ages of 20 and 26 have an opportunity to go to an Army Air Corps Training School for two years and serve another year as a second lieutenant in the Reserve Corps with all expenses paid and $75 a month pay during the training period. Besides being between 20 and 26 years of age, an applicant must be unmarried, in sound mental and physical condition, and must agree to stay with the corps for at least three years. An applicant must fill out in triplicate application blanks to be obtained from the Adjutant General, in Washington, D. C. and return them with three letters of recommendation and a certificate from his college showing that he has completed at least half the regular college course. The applicant will then be notified when and where to appear for a physical examination.

LAG IN BUILDING—Home building early this year showed promising signs of giving the nation's business a decided lift. Then in May came some slackening and by June a definite set-back. This is regarded by the President and his advisers as a major important point. They have taken the matter into consideration and the point they make is that there exists a definite shortage of one family dwelling units in this country. There is a pressure on the existing supply as population increases, marriage increase and the "doubling up" of depression days goes into reverse. Rents have skyrocketed as a result of this President Roosevelt is exploring the situation, and is working on a remedy.

Veteran Waits 20 Years for Discharge

ROBBINSDALE, Minn. (U.P.)—Recently received, honorable discharge papers of Walter G. Grinols, of Robbinsdale, were 20 years late.

Grinols was discharged from the 151st Field Artillery regiment when he contracted pleurisy. At the time he received the customary $60 bonus and a blue discharge certificate on which was the statement "loyal and faithful service." The blue certificate, however, Grinols learned many years later, meant dishonorable discharge.

He started action to obtain redress and after several years he received the correct papers honorably discharging him from service.

Quilt Making Keeps Woman, 83, Happy

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (U.P.)—Fourteen months of work in "piecing" a huge quilt of 19,200 separate parts is "no job at all" for Mrs. Lillian Edwards Stead, 83.

Mrs. Stead in 1908 went alone to the bleak Montana plains and homesteaded 160 acres of land. "It's sin and a shame the way so many people refuse to work," said Mrs. Stead, who during the World War worked in a garment factory on a power machine, despite her advanced age.

Born in Ohio, a school teacher at the age of 13, Mrs. Stead has crossed the continent "times without number" she says and has been in Japan, Persia, India and other out-of-the-way places.

Mrs. Stead is proud of that fact she is of "real pioneer stock."

Engineer 58 Years; Last Train Late

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (U.P.)—Ira Enos, who completed his last run in 58 years of railroading by pulling his train into the station 15 minutes late, advises young people to "choose the job you like."

"If you're doing something you enjoy, it's easy to stick to it," the 74-year-old veteran engineer explained.

When Enos started his railroad career, it was necessary to break freight trains by hand and "begin slowing down a mile before you wanted to stop, or farther away if it was on a down grade."

"From now on I'm going to play," he said as he left the cat for the last time.

PAINTERS AT WRONG HOUSE
ST. LOUIS (U.P.)—Residents of St. Louis suburban home thought the landlord sent painters who removed their awnings and screens and began painting the window frames. So they said nothing—until the men moved on after painting only the back porch, a side door and several window frames. The painters explained they had the wrong house, should have been working a block away.

AUSTRALIA COMPUTES DEBT
CANBERRA (U.P.)—Australia's national debt is officially announced as $1,262,911,646 (about $631,458,300 representing $990 per capita).

MINERS BURY "JINX"
EUREKA, Ariz. (U.P.)—A wooden cross with the words "Here lies the Jinx" marks the center of a small burial plot at the Buckhorn mine, 60 miles northwest of Eureka. Miners at the camp buried mining machinery that caused them considerable trouble in a fenced-in grave in a conspicuous place.

SACRED SKULLS OF INDIANS TO BE RECOVERED

By WALT RUNDLE
United Press Staff Correspondent

NIHU, N. D., Aug. 5 (AP)—Stewart Hidatsa braves have sworn in solemn tribal council to restore themselves to favor in the eyes of the rain god, Thunderbird, by recovering from the White Fathers the Sacred Skulls of the Two Eagles.

Chief Long Bull recounted how the white man carried off the Sacred Skulls and brought the great "never rain" upon the Hidatsa tribesmen and western North Dakota.

As he spoke, not winds rattled corn leaves in nearby fields and whirled spirals of dust from the dry plains of the Fort Berthold agency. Drought has withered this year's crops and the Hidatsa faces another winter of privation.

Things were not always so, Long Bull told his councilors—not until 1909, when the faithless keeper sold the skulls to a white trader.

For 28 years the skulls have been in the Heye Museum of the American Indian in New York. And for 28 years droughts have blighted the maize fields and impoverished the tribe.

The Hidatsa commissioned Arthur Mandan, chairman of the tribal council, to seek the aid of the Indian office in Washington. Next week in New York, tribesmen will meet the representatives of the Museum and the Indian bureau.

Long Bull has told his councilors that while the pledge of the two eagles was kept "there were plenty rain, much buffalo."

The legend is that 180 years ago the warring Shiwahua and Hidatsa were brought together by two youths, one of whom became a tribal leader, the other powerful in "medicine."

Their people grew powerful. Rains were plenty and buffalo numerous. Enemy tribes fell before them. The leaders became renowned heroes, were known as the Two Eagles.

Then the Shiwahua was killed in battle. His friend preserved his skull. Later, the Hidatsa eagle man lay on his death bed. He called the tribal leaders to him and said:

"Now I die here, but I make a solemn promise. My skull and my friend's skull shall be the medicine of my hand which shall be known as A-wapti-taka. Choose a trusted man among you to keep them in his lodge. So long as my skull and my friend's are kept in honor, my spirit will remain among you to help the people and be their guide."

The dying eagle revealed the mysteries of the skulls:

"If drought shall come and the fields wither, let the keeper of our skulls, mine and my friend's, set them on aromatic herbs and sprinkle over them some water. Then there will be rain."

"We must keep the pledge of the Two Eagles again," Long Bull told his tribesmen. They nodded assent.

Texas Monument to Be Nation's Largest

HOUSTON, August 5 (AP)—Growing two feet daily, the San Jacinto battlefield monument on the shrine of Texas independence has become the state's tallest structure and soon will be the tallest in the nation.

When completed, the $1,300,000 shaft will outstrip the 555-foot Washington monument by at least 10 feet. It is located on the spot where Gen. Sam Houston's band of 1,800 Texans defeated a Mexican army twice its size 100 years ago.

The shaft, constructed with state and federal money, will be penetrated by two elevators which will take sight-seers to a floor 483 feet above the ground.

Officials expect work to be completed by next March. They said that the monument will be exceeded in height only by two smokestacks in Japan.

The monument will weigh 70,300,000 pounds. The outer surface is of Texas limestone, quarried and fabricated at Austin. The limestone varying in thickness from three to six inches due to vertical flutes in the sides, binds solidly with reinforced concrete poured against

Museums Organize Trips to Arctic

OTTAWA, Ont. (U.P.)—Scientists from three countries will set out this summer to explore Canada's Arctic regions.

Dr. Charles Camsell, commissioner of the Northwest Territories Council, said expeditions from Great Britain, the United States and Canada have been granted licenses to conduct studies in the territories. The museums and other bodies which will send scientists and explorers into the region include the Carnegie Museum, Iowa State College, Cleveland Museum of Natural History, the United States Biological Survey, the National Museum of Canada, the Royal Geographical Society of Great Britain and St. John's College, Cambridge, Eng.

JOB INCREASE IN AGE GROUP FROM 40 TO 65

SAN FRANCISCO, August 5 (U.P.)—Life is really beginning again at 40, and even 50, 55 and 60, according to the California State Employment Service.

Statistics just completed by the agency show that where with the depression the man at 40 or 45 could apparently never hope again to find work there is now an ever increasing demand for men even beyond these ages, provided they are skilled workmen or their muscles will still stand up under the strain of ordinary manual labor.

Where, a few years ago, following the beginning of the depression, managements favored younger men for what few jobs they had open, the tide has now changed.

The secret, the agency found lies in the fact, not only that business is picking up but that a young university graduate or the man with limited skill in scores of different lines of work still cannot duplicate the output of the man who has a lifetime of experience and skill behind him. Between the two, business is again favoring the latter.

Skilled Men In Demand
The agency discovered an ever increasing demand for skilled carpenters, iron workers, auto mechanics, sheet metal workers, lathe hands, construction workers and others where skill is paramount regardless of age, and where the middle aged skilled worker is accorded preference over the younger and less experienced man.

Planing mill workers are making as much as $8 a day, the agency said; sheet metal workers $8.80 and cabinet workers $6 to $9. All of these and many others occupations require a degree of skill that the young university or technical graduate cannot yet supply, and employers prefer the older and more skilled men.

Labor is making as much as the average white collar worker at present, the agency found but employers demand results for the money they pay and these results can be obtained best from men with years of experience.

Age Average Up Sharply
Statistics of the state agency show that at present roughly 20 per cent of the men being put to work through its efforts are between 45 and 65 years old. Last year at this time the number in the same category was only about 20 per cent.

From a national standpoint, statistics just received by the employment service indicate that the situation is even better. Where 10 men between 45 and 50 were placed at work a year ago, 20 now find jobs between the 50- and 55-year span. 15 men are now placed where only 10 were employed last year.

The agency found that older women also are finding more jobs than at any time since the depression, provided they are skilled. Until apprentice training schools throughout the United States begin to turn out their quota of skilled workers, the agency is convinced that skilled men, regardless of age, instead of unskilled youth will have the preference.

Rural Electric to Have School Tues.

Assuming that electric service can be made as practical for the rural sections of West Texas as it is in cities and towns, officials of the Agricultural Engineering Committee of Texas A. & M. College will meet with farm leaders and representatives of electrical dealers and power companies in Abilene Tuesday morning for a one-day school of instruction.

Knox Parr, Taylor county agent who will serve as chairman, announced the session to be held in the ballroom of the Wooten hotel, opening at 9:30 a. m. Invitations to attend the school were sent to county agents, teachers of vocational agriculture, representatives of electric service companies, electric dealers and agricultural leaders in 20 counties in the Abilene area.

The meeting is one of a series of 17 rural electrification schools being held over the state. Others in West Texas were scheduled at Fort Worth, San Angelo, Lubbock and Wichita Falls.

P. T. Montfort, of the Agricultural Engineering Department at A. & M. College, will be in charge here. The Texas Committee on the Relation of Electricity to Agriculture is co-sponsor to the schools with A. & M. College. The West Texas Utilities company, a member of the committee, will be represented by T. J. McCarty, rural power engineer. McCarty is assisting Parr in preparing electric displays and demonstrations.

The primary purpose of the schools, it was announced by Montfort, is to demonstrate practical use of electric appliances in rural sections—a problem which has long vexed the power companies due to fluctuating farm income.

“We hope to make available information regarding the many practical uses of electricity on the farm to those agricultural leaders who will be called upon to assist the farmer with his problem of putting electricity to work in the most practical and profitable manner,” Parr said.
