The production's estimate was up 1,475,000 bales from the September 1st forecast of 16,098,000 bales. The Department said the crop would be the third largest ever produced in this country.
The Bureau of Census reported 8,259,445 bales ginned from this year's crop prior to October 1st, compared with 6,031,960 for 1936 and 4,232,068 for 1935.
Department of Agriculture officials immediately pointed to the large estimate in substantiation of their demand for a special session of congress to enact crop-control legislation for the next year.
The Texas yield was estimated at 5,025,000 bales.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 8 (U.P.)—The Yankees took the third game of the World Series by a score of 5 to 1, forcing the Giants to use four pitchers. Schumacher, Berger, Melton and Brennan.
Pearson started pitching for the Yanks, lasting until the last half of the ninth inning, when he got into trouble, loading the bases. He was relieved by Murphy. Up to the sixth inning there was not a man to reach first base for the Giants.

Waste Land Haven For Texas Fowl

BONHAM (U.P.)—A 25,000-acre patch of Fannin county land that was worn out and denuded of vegetation is providing a haven for wildlife propagation, according to a report to the Texas Game, Fish and Cyster Commission.
Three years ago the Resettlement Administration took over the land, no longer suited for irrigation. Glenn Briggs of Dallas, regional director of the Farm Security Administration, said quail had been stocked on the land, two man-made lakes are stocked with fish and ducks covered the lakes last season.
Briggs said efforts were being made to re-forest the area and provide food and cover for wild birds and animals. Artificial propagation of quail in the area are already has been successful.

Under the rate offered, it was computed the city will be furnished electric energy at 4.5 mills per kilowatt hour. A sliding scale provides still cheaper energy for larger quantities.

Judith Sings $2,000,000 Love Song Over Lost Jack

Judith Allen

Delphine Dodge Goode

Jack Doyle

Claiming the siren song of dollars had deflected her boxing, crooning ex-husband to her love song, Judith Allen, top photo, sinner, shapely Hollywood starlet, filed suit for two million dollars against Mrs. Delphine Dodge Goode, lower left, who, Miss Allen claims, has ensnared the affections of that ex-husband, Jack Doyle, lower right.

Reconciliation with the singing slugger, whom she divorced last April, was blocked by the heiress to the Dodge millions, who is planning a marriage to Doyle as soon as she divorces her third husband, accused Judith, herself the ex-wife of Wrestler Gus Sonnenberg.

Outweighed 10 pounds to the man the Cisco Lobos were unable to get going in the first half when the Steers made 14 to Lobos' 0. In the second half Cisco came back fighting to make six points, failing to convert. They outplayed their opponents throughout this half to hold them to an even score of six points.
Fumbling the ball in the Steer's territory early in the game when they seemed headed for a touchdown, seemed to take the spirit out of the Lobos who could not get going during the first sector of the game.
Yancy, Preston, Steyer and O. Harrison were outstanding all back and end. Warren was only in a few minutes, but was able to wiggle through for good yardage during that time.
All is nervous tension today preceding the football game between Cisco Lobos and Big Spring Steers as merchants prepare to close their places of business preparatory to attending the dedication ceremonies scheduled for 3 o'clock closely followed by the game, itself.
Some of the old time enthusiasm which marked Lobo games in Cisco was in evidence early this afternoon as gaily decked Big Spring cars paraded the streets with streamers flying to the wind and cheers for the Steers whom they hope will get the big end of the score.
Coaches Petty, Cooper and Garrett have drilled diligently throughout the week. Those of the team who are to play in the game are said to be in fair condition, with enthusiasm built up through the week by means of pep and work of the coaches.
The Lobo band, the pep squad and the pep rally attended by many citizens at the high school last night have piled Lobo spirit to the highest pinnacle for the affray this afternoon. If Cisco fails to win scores this afternoon it will be just because Big Spring is too tough for the local team.
The Lions attended in a body at the pep rally at the high school last night and many of them made talks assuring those present that this club would be on her cheering line when the game began and remain there to the end, win or lose.
Dr. Don Morris of A.C.C., Abilene, will make the dedication oration at the ceremonies over which Supt. R. N. Cluck will preside. B. A. Butler will review Lobo history and victories. C. J. Russell, president of the school board, will make remarks representing the school's part in building the splendid stadium, and field. Rev. Joe I. Patterson will give the invocation.

Foreign Minister Koki Hirota addressed a cabinet council today on the crisis precipitated by United States and League of Nations condemnation of Japan's course in China.
Just before the meeting a foreign office spokesman disclosed that Hirota was drafting a statement on the situation in the name of the government and it was believed that declining to take personal responsibility for it had admitted the statement to the government as a whole.
Indications increased that the result of the international criticism of Japan might be sooner or later a formal denunciation of the 9-power treaty concerning China's status in a flat challenge to the world to stop China if it could.

What's News Today

President Roosevelt's speech on "Quarantining Offending Nations," like we do obnoxious diseases, has made a world-wide impression and nations of the earth have studied it earnestly.

Japan warns the United States that Uncle Sam had better remain neutral or it will surely prolong the struggle as any attempt to meddle with her and China's affairs will be repulsed with vigor.

The American Federation of Labor has aligned itself with the policy hinted at by Mr. Roosevelt, and has declared economic war on Japan.

Meanwhile England and France, feeling more confident in asserting themselves since the United States has seemed to be ready for morally backing them, have become bolder in their demands on Italy regarding affairs in Spain.

Italy refuses to take part in a conference regarding neutrality in Spain unless her partner, Germany, is also invited. She wants her backing brought into the matter.

Turning to state affairs, it would seem the "Economy Force" in the senate has the upperhand today as they make effort to cut about $3,000,000 from the departmental appro-

Mrs. Hal Cherry, of Brownwood, who is conference Supt. of Study led the program and gave much helpful information. She was assisted by Mrs. Bert McGlamery of Eastland, who gave a may talk on the countries of the world where most Moslems live. She was also assisted by Mrs. Edwin Snead, of Dublin, who gave a number of helpful suggestions. At noon a splendid dinner was served in the basement of the church. Each one who attended carried a covered dish and the Dublin ladies furnished bread, pies and coffee.

Snodgrass was leader of the program and gave as her part a very interesting paper on "Women Publicity." She gave short sketches of several women who have attained success in the newspaper business. The next number was "Freedom of the Press," by Mrs. W. C. Bedford who compared the "Free Press" of the United States with the censored press of the countries of Europe and telling of the few countries that have a semi-censored press. The closing number was the reading of a poem, "Makin' an Editor Aut'en Him," from Will Carleton which was read by Mrs. J. E. Heeter, who gave it with splendid expression.

IDAHO FALLS, Ida. (U.P.) — If John Bartlett, 275-pound Idaho Falls policeman, ever loses his job, he might teach home economics. The hefty policeman cans hundreds of quarts of fruits, vegetables and meats every season.

Stars and Stripes on Japanese Mill

A warning to warring forces, a symbol of safety and strength to non-combatants, the United States flag flutters bravely in the breeze atop a Japanese mill on Soochow Creek after U. S. Marines took over the building for an observation post in Shanghai.

VINCE BOSS WRITES STORY 'DEATH HOUSE'

LOCKHART, Oct. 8 (U.P.) — Vince Boss, condemned slayer of R. W. Albert, Brenham cheese salesman, has written a 4250 word story entitled "Death House Reveries," while in the Caldwell County jail awaiting the outcome of his appeal from the death sentence imposed in his recent trial here.
In the story, Boss does not mention the crime for which he was tried, nor discuss the question of his guilt or innocence.
His narrative opens with a soliloquy on his thoughts while the jury was deliberating in his first trial at Cuero.
"I looked around the courtroom," he related. "There stood the head of my defense counsel, joking with the prosecutor. Yesterday they were flinging insulting challenges at each other over a bar of justice in a legal conflict that often made it seem that a bodily duel was inevitable. Yet now they were jesting with each other. Was it all just a big show? Were they just two headline actors in a big comedy? Was human life so cheap that two of the state's most esteemed attorneys, most respected citizens, could all but come to bodily blows over it, then cast it aside with an indifference that made the whole legal procedure look like a comical farce with the judge acting as stage manager? What could be funny to them, with my life hanging by a thread between them?"
And referring back to the district attorney's speech to the jury, he wrote: "There he stood, a gentleman of the people's choice, denouncing me to the world as a heartless killer and at the same time demanding that I be killed. It didn't make sense."
Again, he old how, after he had been transferred to the death cell in the Houston jail, he had planned to take his own life, going so far as to write a farewell letter to his mother and make a hangman's noose out of bedclothes. He said he imagined he could hear newsboys crying, "Vince Boss Pound Hanging by His One Noose." "Again I thought of my mother," he wrote. "I tore up the hangman's noose that had taken me a day to manufacture, and sent it swirling down the sewer."
The story ends with his finding a new lease on life with news that he had been granted a new trial.
"The jailer at Cuero was right," he wrote. "As long as life there is hope, and with Christ leading my defense, I'm not afraid."
