Farm Heads Consider Cotton Price Control

3 MEASURES DISCUSSED BY DEPARTMENTS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (U.P.)—Farm administration leaders conferred today on emergency measures for the cotton prices resulting from a forecast of a 17,573,000-bale crop, the second largest in American history.
The spokesman for Secretary Harry A. Wallace said "we are canvassing the entire situation" with a view to bolstering the market and revising the 1938 agricultural adjustment program.
Wallace, an official of the Commodity Credit Corporation, the Agriculture Adjustment Administration, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and other administration agricultural agencies discussed:
1. Increase of the loan rate on cotton now ranging from 6 to 9 cents a pound.
2. Modification of requirement for obtaining 3 cents subsidies payment.
3. Change of the 1938 soil conservation program which now calls for between 29,000,000 and 31,000,000 acres in cotton next year.
Will Clayton, head of the Anderson & Clayton company, Houston, Tex., the world's largest cotton firm, joined in the conference with Wallace which were resumed today. He said he agreed with Wallace that a permanent cotton subsidy program is necessary and suggested a revival of processing tax to finance it.
Chairman Jesse H. Jones of the RFC assured Wallace that the RFC will provide "whatever funds are necessary to finance the cotton program."
The Commodity Credit Corporation already has borrowed $150,000,000 for the RFC enough to finance loans on about 3,250,000 bales. Some officials believe that if the present loan rate is maintained, or increased, that the government may find itself in possession of nearly half of this year's crop. The RFC still has 1,500,000 bales on which it made loans in 1935.

Trying to Keep Black Off Court

Challenging the right of Associate Justice Hugo Black to sit on the Supreme Court bench, because he was a member of the Senate which increased the emoluments of that court is Albert Levitt, above, former assistant to the attorney general. He has drafted a petition to file suit in the Supreme Court to compel Black to show cause why he should be permitted to accept the appointment.

GIANTS UPSET DOPE, PROLONG WORLD SERIES

The outstanding pitching of Hubbell upset the general prophecy of local baseball fans who had thought the Yanks would win again Saturday and thus end the series, but the Giants' score of 7 to the Yanks' 3 prolonged the play and they will play today at the New York Polo grounds. Gehrig hit a homer, the second of the series.
An estimated 55,629 people saw the game Saturday. Gomez will probably pitch today for the Yanks and Nelson to pitch for the Giants. The Yanks used three pitchers, Hadley, Andrews and Wickers in the vain effort to dethrone Hubbell, who was king of the box for the day, pitching the entire game. Selkirk has played in 10 World Series, was an interesting sight on Saturday's game.
First Inning
YANKS—Crossett flies out to centerfield. Rolfe hits grounder, safe at third for a triple. Di Maggio flies out to Ripple. Scoring Rolfe. Gehrig flies out to McCarthy. One run, two hits, no errors.
GIANTS—Moore flies to left field Bartell flies out to Dickie. Ott gets one base hit, stopping at first. Ripple grounds out to first. No runs, one hit, no errors.
Second Inning
YANKS—Dicke flies out to center field. Hoag gets hit through pitcher. Selkirk walks. Hoag goes to second. Lazeri hits to third, forcing out Hoag and Selkirk. No runs, one hit, no errors.
GIANTS—Leiber gets single to center field. McCarthy gets hit to right field. Leiber stopping at second. Danning gets hit to right field scoring Leiber. McCarthy at third, Whitehead gets hit which Daning forcing in out. Hubbell gets hit to first, scoring McCarthy. Moore gets hit to right field, scoring Whitehead at home. Andrews relieves Hadley. Bartell gets hit to centerfield, scoring Hubbell. Ott (owns out to catcher. Ripple walks leading the bases. Leiber gets hit, single, scoring Moore. Bases still full. McCarthy grounds out to Gehrig at first. Six runs, seven hits, no errors.
Third Inning
YANKS—Andrews safe at first on

LOBOES NOW POINTING TO SAN ANGELO

"On to San Angelo" is the cry of the Lobos now that the Big Spring game is past history. The fact that Sweetwater defeated San Angelo 20 to 0 in Friday's tilt, leads Cisco fans to believe San Angelo might not be so tough as was indicated at the beginning of the season when that team was mentioned as one of the probable champions of the district.
If the Lobos will build on to what they showed in the third quarter last Friday, anything might happen in the San Angelo game. If a big group of those fans who have never stopped boosting for their beloved Lobos will accompany the coaches and team, and if the band and that wonderful pep squad could be taken along to cheer for Cisco, a real, straight out victory might be copped for the Lobos—one that showed up in scores gained by crossing the goal line.
The old motto of the First National Bank of Cisco which says, "You are not licked until you quit—don't quit" is a good one—none better. So let's point to San Angelo as our first real victims and stay with the Lobos until the last whistle has blown at the end of the season. And then if no real victories have been won, go with them into spring training, preparing for next year's games.
Cisco fans suggested Saturday that the band be sent by all means so that the team will have backing Madox and his squad mean a lot to the Lobos.

Colored M. E. Church Announce Service

The final service before the annual conference will be preached at the A.M.E. church (Colored) Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Joe I. Patterson, pastor of the First Methodist church will be present and deliver a sermon at Pleasant Chapel. All members and friends are urged to be present.—R. E. ELMORE (Colored) pastor in charge.

Howard - Payne Teacher to Preach

Dr. Todd, assistant Bible teacher at Howard Payne College, will preach at the First Baptist church Sunday at both morning and evening services. All members of the church and congregation are requested to attend.

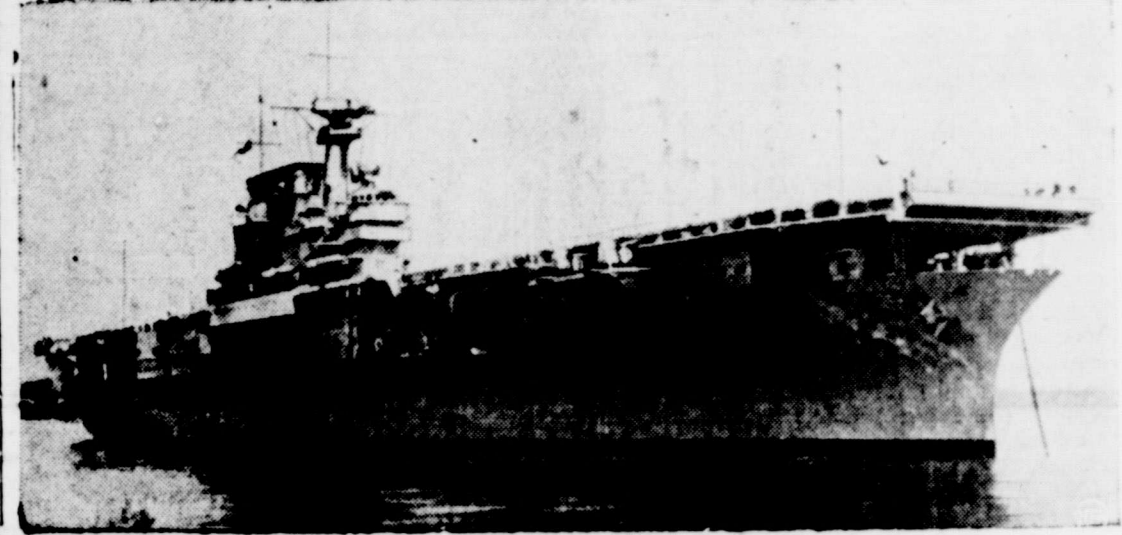

CISCO PEOPLE PROUD OF LOBO SPIRIT AND WORK OF COACHES

Numbers of Ciscons were complimenting the work of the coaches and praising the Lobos for their playing Friday, even though they did not win the big end of the score. "We didn't do so bad," said J. E. Cate, city secretary. "Our boys fought a good battle and had they not been outweighed so badly, could have made a much better showing. I am sure," he continued.
"This is a sample of many expressions Saturday. The first impression was that we still didn't have pulse was that we still didn't have much team to brag about, but after mature thought, they changed their ideas and are now confident that a continuation of training by the present appointed coaches and a year of added weight will do wonders in reviving the Lobo squad to victories such as were won in days gone by. Many expressions served to give the boys credit for the splendid fighting spirit manifested against odds, especially in the third quarter of the Cisco-Big Spring game.
"Perhaps every man on the team who saw service should be men-

"These projects will give employment to many men and will create a payroll of no mean proportions for Cisco through the fall and winter months," said a merchant Saturday. "When people are busy, they are happy," he continued.
"When merchants are having good business because business establishments are the backbone of the community. When business is dull the whole community life is the same for business furnishes constant employment for the local citizenship."
This is very true. And most certainly these two projects together with that of the fish hatchery which is practically all labor and totals $25,000, will provide employment for all idle labor in this vicinity, and will make the payroll very satisfactory, indeed.

New Nest for U. S. Navy's War Birds

Addition of nearly 150 fighting seaplanes to the U. S. Navy air forces has been made possible by the acceptance for service of the new Aircraft Carrier Yorktown, seen at anchor in Hampton Roads, near Norfolk, Va. The flagship of Rear Admiral Charles A. Blakely, the Yorktown cost $20,000,000, has decks 100 feet wide and more than 800 feet long.

LEGISLATORS AT SESSION'S MID-WAY MARK

AUSTIN, Oct. 9 (U.P.)—Texas legislators today neared the half-way mark in their 30-day special session, apparently farther than ever from a solution to the tax problem.
Governor James V. Allred, ill at home, found some consolation in the house action Friday which kept an omnibus tax measure pointed toward consideration. The senate had taken affairs in its own hands and decided to cut departmental appropriations before asking more taxes.
Representative Joe Keith of German today proposed a plan by which he hoped to eliminate the need for $1,000,000 a year in the Texas Teacher Retirement fund.
Under the recent constitutional amendment adopted the state obligated itself to match teacher retirement payments. An estimated $5,000,000 a year will be paid from the fund under maximum requirements.
Keith said he would introduce a bill to fix a revolving fund rather than a reserve fund. He believed $500,000 a year would suffice for the state's share at first, and would eliminate the need for $1,500,000 a year from the state as is now proposed.

'OLD AGE AID' MAY LAPSE FOR THREE MONTHS

Discontinuance of old age assistance after October, or a prororation resulting in a sharp reduction in grants, was forecast this week by the Texas Board of Control in an official communication addressed to State Representative Harry N. Graves.
The official statement indicated the possibility that payments to the needy aged might not be made in November, December, January, and probably in February. Cause of the crisis, as explained by the members of the Board of Control which is the Old Age Assistance Commission, is that all or nearly all of the present available state-assistance funds will have to be used to take care of $1,827,000 owed a Dallas bank and due not later than January 1.
Further, it was pointed out, the income from present state sources is $100,000 less each month than Texas funds paid to the needy aged, which necessitates a drastic reduction in the size of the average grant. Grants average about $14 per month.

AN ALL-TIME HIGH FOR OIL TAX COLLECTED

AUSTIN, Oct. 9 (U.P.)—An all-time high production tax on oil, $14.459, 943 was collected during the 1936-37 fiscal year, it was revealed today by Comptroller George H. Sheppard.
The previous high for the fiscal year ended August 31, 1936 was $8,559,874. Sheppard attributed the $5,899,938 increase within a year to a higher tax, a higher production and a higher price for oil. The state collected 2 and three-quarters cents a barrel on 480,406,835 barrels during the fiscal year ended last August, 31st.
The tax is two and three-quarter per cent when oil sells for more than $1 a barrel.
A tax of 3-15 of a cent per barrel to pay for regulations brought $900,134, making a total tax on that natural resource of $15,359,977 for the year.

Suit Voiding Beer Election Dismissed

The Eleventh Court of Civil Appeals dismissed Friday the 19-month-old suit of Joe J. Mickie and others against Clyde L. Garrett, county judge last year, which had been appealed from 91st district court for the invalidation of a beer and wine election.
C. C. Funderburk, associate justice, stated in the opinion, "There is no statute so far as we know authorizing this suit by applicant (Mickie and others) and by their pleadings they show no right to sue."

ITALY, JAPAN DISTURBING WORLD PEACE

LONDON, Oct. 9 (U.P.)—Europe headed for a new grave crisis over the Spanish civil war today.
Italy in a note to Great Britain, rejected in fact if not in principle, a British-French demand for direct negotiations on withdrawal of foreign volunteers from Spain.
Coincidentally the Spanish loyalist government in a note to Great Britain charged that Italy was embarking intimately on a fresh campaign of aggression and terror in aid of the nationalists.
It was reported not only that France would open her frontier to permit arms and men to go to the loyalists through French territory, but that she might if Italy persisted in her course, permit men of her own crack army, Europe's most powerful, to volunteer for service with the loyalists.
ITALY TO GAIN SUPPORT OF JAPAN
TOKYO, Oct. 9 (U.P.)—Fascist Italy today came to a conference with the Japanese vice-foreign minister, and afterwards, the Domei News agency, whose reports are regarded as authoritative concerning government matters, asserted that Aritzi assured Japan of Italy's sympathy and support in Japan's "self defense" campaign in China.

Supreme Court Will Hand Down Rulings

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (U.P.)—The supreme court met today for a final conference before handing down Monday its first order list, which probably will include rulings on two petitions challenging the eligibility of Associate Justice Hugo L. Black.

CISCO CONTRACT LET; OVERPASS WORK ORDER EXPECTED MONDAY

Fred Hall of Waco was low bidder on grading, drainage, flexible base course and double asphalt surface treatment of 1.4 miles of highway 1, known as the east end of the new highway through Cisco. His bid was $41,611. The bids were let at Austin Friday and it is expected the work order for this project will be issued in about two weeks.
R. R. Huntington, highway engineer for the overpass across the Katy said he understood the work order for that project was issued

LEONARD LATCH EX-LOBO STAR FLIES TO GAME

Leonard Latch, three-year letterman and former captain of the Cisco Lobos, flew from Fort Worth, Texas, to Detroit, Michigan, Friday to play for the Texas Tech Red Raiders against the University of Michigan Saturday night.
The Red Raiders were welcomed at Fort Worth by I. E. McWhirter, president of the Optimistic Club of the city.
You welcomed T. C. U. in the last year, but we want you to go when you are as much our enemy when you play in Detroit as you are our team when you play at Fort Worth.
The Red Raiders carried with them enough woolen clothing, dyes and woven on the campus to make Henry Ford happy. Ford met the team at the airport and took them through his city.
Coach Pete Cawthorn says that this is the first team in the south to ever make such a flight. Coaches and 20 boys arrived in Detroit Friday in time for a workout on the field there. They fly back to Fort Worth to take the train for Lubbock.

Economic Highlights Today

To put it mildly, the business outlook today is extremely confused. On the one hand, it is predicted that this winter's domestic commerce will be the best since 1929, with retail sales in some lines perhaps exceeding the boom-time figure.

This anomaly is easily explained. For, in the view of executives, the short-term outlook is favorable, and the long-term outlook is bad. Purchasing power is up, farm income is at a six-year high, consumer goods are moving rapidly.

As everyone knows, the stock market took its biggest drop in years a few weeks ago. And while the stock market is not necessarily an accurate barometer of actual business conditions, it does pretty closely reflect the views of finance on both big and small levels, and represents credit, capital and reserve spending power.

Business. This, coming on top of the present corporation income tax, the profits and loss levy, the surplus tax and other taxes, might make it impossible for business to maintain expected dividends, even in a time of heavy orders.

President Roosevelt's sweep around the country, in view of most commentators, is designed to give him a chance to meet and see people, to use his personality, and to enlist public support in his campaign against the conservative wing of his party.

In some quarters it appears that war scares have been exaggerated—and in others they have been too much minimized. A major war could not help but tremendously affect American industry, whether we became involved as belligerents or not.

the senators, defending the two departments against the complaint that they were aiding "land grabbers," announced that he had no special reason to favor either of the departments.

"I am under no obligation. They have done me no favors. No one I have recommended has been given a job in either place," the senator announced, implying that departments might carry favor by appointing persons with Senatorial endorsement.

Senator Weaver of Houston said that a girl he recommended for one department was told to find out whether the Senator had voted right.

I sent back word that I voted as I pleased, and used some adjectives that I will not repeat here," Moore told the Senate.

Blind Rep. Lonnie Alsop of Carthage is planning the purchase of a "seeing eye" to help him get about. He has a dog that goes around with him at Carthage, but it is not a trained animal. He does very well at Carthage, where both the dog and his master are well acquainted with people and locations.

Agitation for selection of women on juries has gained considerable headway since being proposed at a meeting of women Democratic leaders in Fort Worth.

Investigation here indicated that they might have the right to a place on civil juries. Several lawyers said they would like to see such selections tried. The state penal code and code of criminal procedure appeared to bar women from sitting on criminal case juries.

The state has different courts of last resort in civil and criminal cases. Each is supreme in its own field. Decisions of one do not take precedence over the other.

The argument that women might sit on civil juries was based on decisions in civil law defining "man" in a generic sense as denoting all members of the human race. After woman suffrage was granted it was unnecessary to change the male phraseology of other statutes on qualifications of office holders.

Criminal courts, however, are bound strictly by the state penal code of criminal procedure. The penal code says "man" means any male person. The code of criminal procedure says that a district court shall be composed of 12 men and a county court jury of six men.

A joint debate is probably the only thing that will halt the war words between Gov. James V. Allred and Sen. T. J. Holbrook of Galveston over state policies.

One day the Governor denounces "Holbrook & Co.," in catchy phrases and on the next, Holbrook hangs a new name on the Governor. The latest is "James Verbosity Allred."

Holbrook gave that version in the Senate this week.

"He (the Governor) says he does not know what the initial 'V' stands for, so I'll tell him—it's for 'Verbosity!'"

Allred replied by dubbing the Galveston Senator as "Thomas Jeremiah Holbrook," because Allred said "of his lamentations," but not because they are holy or sacred.

Each has accused the other of an "about face" in their respective positions.

"I have seen sicker cows get well," was the description of Rep. Emmett Morse of Houston of his bill proposing the sale of liquor by the mixed drink.

Morse has been persistent with the bill, which has met with much less opposition at this session than it encountered at previous sessions. This session it was given a favorable report by the House committee on liquor traffic, but suffered a relapse when it was recommitted for a public hearing.

Morse proposes a 10 per cent tax on all such sales. He has convinced many members that cocktail bars in hotels would be preferable and more profitable to the state than "bottle drinking" in automobiles.

How Southern Governors conclude their letters was given an entertaining if unpremeditated demonstration in the Oct. 2 issue of the Salvation Army's "War Cry." In it were printed letters of the South's Governors, congratulating the Salvation Army on accomplishments on the 10th anniversary of its entry into the South.

Gov. James V. Allred of Texas signed his letter "Cordially Yours," Governor George C. Peery of Virginia signed himself "Cordially" without the word "yours."

"Yours Very Truly" was the closing phrase used by Governors Hugh White of Mississippi and Clyde R. Hoey of North Carolina, while Gov. E. W. Marland of Oklahoma switched the same words into "Very Truly Yours."

Governors Fred P. Cone of Florida, Harry W. Nice of Maryland, Clin D. Johnson of South Carolina, E. D. Rivers of Georgia and Carl E. Bailey of Arkansas all signed themselves "Sincerely Yours," while Governor Bibb Graves of Alabama shortened it to "Sincerely," Governor A. E. (Happy) Chandler of Kentucky signed "Faithfully Yours."

CAST OF CHARACTERS PRISCILLA PIERCE—heroine, young woman attorney AMY KERR—Cilly's roommate and murderer's victim JIM HUNTER—Cilly's fiancé HARRY H. HOLBROOK—Amy's former lover SERGEANT DOLAN—officer assigned to solve the murder of Amy Kerr

CHAPTER XXII AFTER the investigation, Cilly waited for the others to leave in order that she might see Sergeant Dolan alone. She felt that she should try, at least, to correct the false impression Mr. Corbett had given of her. But Dolan himself was the first to leave the room; later Detective Martin told her that he might be out for the remainder of the day.

Returning to the apartment house late that afternoon, she found Mr. Johnson standing in front.

"Good evening, Miss Pierce," the superintendent greeted. "I was sort of hoping you'd come along. Can I see you for a few minutes?"

"Yes, Mr. Johnson?"

"It's about the other morning. I don't know how to tell you. Those books you saw..."

Cilly nodded.

"I hope you won't, Miss Pierce," he said, appealingly. "I never spoke to anybody about this before. I don't want it to get around. When my wife gets better, it won't help any to have it known that she's been away all these years..."

"Well, if there's anything else I can do, Miss Pierce..."

"Oh, yes, Mr. Johnson, there is something else. Remember what I said this morning, down at police headquarters, about Mr. Hunter?"

"You mean about seeing him walk last night?"

"Yes, that was the truth, Mr. Johnson. I went over on the roof across the way just to watch the Bayview. What I really hoped to see was somebody in one of the empty apartments. It just happened that I met Mr. Corbett first—he was drunk, and very unpleasant..."

Johnson nodded. "He looked that sort of a man."

"However, I did see Mr. Hunter walking about his bedroom just as sure as I see you now. He's faking this paralysis, for some reason, and I'm going to find out why. What time do you usually take him up on the roof, Mr. Johnson?"

"He's up there now. I took him up about 15 minutes before you came along."

bring her back... something which the doctors haven't thought of. The trouble came so sudden-like, you see. There must be something to bring her back... if we could only find it."

"There were tears in his eyes, which he hastened to brush away with a work-roughened hand. Cilly's heart went out to the man. 'I won't mention what you have told me, Mr. Johnson,' she promised."

"No matter what else he did," Cilly finished for her. "What is his other crime then, Mr. Hunter? Cheating an insurance company?"

It was a blind stab in the dark; at the moment Cilly did not know herself what prompted the words. They hit home, nevertheless.

MRS. HUNTER wailed. Beseechingly she held her hands out to Cilly. "Don't testify, miss. I'll tell you about it, but I beg of you, don't let them think my husband is a murderer. He was in his bed when it happened, I swear it!"

"Why does he pretend to be a helpless cripple when he isn't?" Gradually the woman's sobs subsided; she began to speak more calmly. "My husband was out of work, and we were up against it. One week we hadn't had food for three days. He was frantic. Late that third night he was coming home, when right in front of our house a big car came tearing down the street. All of a sudden, it hit a dog and killed him. The driver swerved, and kept on going. He hit my husband. I saw it from the window. I screamed and ran out. Somewhere down the street, the police got the driver of the car. He was so drunk he couldn't stand up. It made my husband wild with anger. We hadn't eaten for three days, and this man could go around in a $10,000 car endangering other people's lives and property."

"Mr. Hunter had studied medicine, so when the young intern on the ambulance arrived, it was easy to make out he was paralyzed. So easy, in fact, that he kept up the pretense. The young fellow who ran him down settled for $50,000. He'll never miss it—his father left him $4,000,000. We live here quietly, because the man's lawyers still check up on my husband. But sometimes we go away on little trips and my husband doesn't have to pretend. . . . Oh, I know it's wrong... but what does it matter to that man? He should have been taught a lesson..."

"I'd like to talk to you about your husband, Mrs. Hunter," she said unhesitatingly. "I've nothing to tell you!" the woman cried in terror. "You should be ashamed of yourself, making trouble for decent people. You're no right in my apartment. . . . I'll tell my husband..."

Cilly walked boldly into the living room and sat down. "There's been a murder com-

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY ROONEY DUTCHER NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Possibility that the Supreme Court might act in one way or another to keep Justice Hugo L. Black from its bench, although not considered a very strong one, calls attention to the court's recent record on cases involving civil and religious minority liberties such as were threatened by the Ku Klux Klan.

One idea is that the court might consent to hear a suit contesting Black's right to sit on the ground that he was in a Senate which voted new emoluments for Supreme Court justices.

Another rumor is that the other justices might decide that Black was ineligible in case he were found to have taken the Klan oath, assuming that oath were found to pledge a taker to continued intolerance toward Jews, Catholics, Negroes and aliens.

In case that isn't simply a pipedream—and no one is whispering that any justice actually talked to him about it—the position of justices who have taken strong or weak positions as to rights of Negroes, Catholics or Jews in certain cases might be an important factor.

At its last term the court voted five to four to invalidate the old Georgia "insurrection" law under which Angelo Herndon, a young Negro Communist leader, had been sentenced to 20 years for distributing literature.

business. This, coming on top of the present corporation income tax, the profits and loss levy, the surplus tax and other taxes, might make it impossible for business to maintain expected dividends, even in a time of heavy orders. There is no organized movement behind such a tax, however. Business is worried about the general tax policy, and about the continued government deficits which will require heavy new taxes of some kind—unless an unlooked-for retrenchment in government spending occurs.

In conclusion, it should be pointed out that some experts feel that the present business recession is less important than it seems, that the political and tax situation will work out without doing too much damage. Best guess is: The short-term outlook for commerce is favorable, and the long-term outlook is in the laps of the gods.

According to Business Week of September 18, a dollar of earning power could be bought for $11.49 at that time, as against $18.17 a year before.

NEW AIRPLANE COACH BEING BUILT BY HILL

LOS ANGELES (AP) - A railroad coach that looks like an airplane body on wheels and swings on its trucks like a backyard hammock is under construction here by the young grandson of Jim Hill, late "Empire Builder" of railroading.

The coach will be built of lightweight steel and duralumin," he said. "It will sit close to the rails, and be guaranteed jounceless." The 11,300-pound car will be suspended at the ends from uprights fastened to the trucks. On these it will swing from its ropes. When the train stops on a sharp curve, the suspended car will hang straight down from its uprights.

CISCO LOBOES SHOW OLD TIME SPIRIT IN LAST HALF RALLY

Although the Cisco Loboes disappointed fans Friday afternoon by not being able to get the long end of the score as was hoped for, yet they showed what they really could do by rallying in the third quarter and giving the Cisco fans and visitors an exhibition of the old time Lobo spirit.

But their revival to the Big Spring Steers at six points during that half could not overcome the 14-point lead the Steers had run up during the first two quarters.

Cisco made 12 first downs to Big Spring's 10. The Loboes apparently being steamed up for a better showing than expected. They began an early drive toward the goal which ended in Steer territory with a fumble and failed to regain their poise until the third period.

In that round Cisco drove from its own end of the field to the Big Spring one-yard marker from which Yancy crossed the goal on an end sweep.

The Steers however, already had done too much damage. It was Big Spring's initial victory of the year, following three straight losses.

Preston, Steyer, and O. Harrison joined Yancy in taking individual honors for the losers.

The "home-coming" program will include a parade, laying of the cornerstone of the new postoffice a luncheon honoring the distinguished guests, a football game and a program of street entertainment at night.

Surgeon Mends Two Punctures In Heart

WADSWORTH, O. (AP) - Joseph Somak, a 37-year-old match worker, owes his life to a miracle of surgery in which his heart—punctured in two places by a fish fork—was mended by a skilled surgeon.

In a scuffle at a fish fry, the sharp-tined fork pierced Somak's chest. The prongs were driven through the chest wall through the pericardium—the membrane that surrounds the heart—and pierced the heart muscle itself.

At Wadsworth Memorial hospital, Somak grew weaker as an increasing mass of blood flooded the pericardium and pressed against the heart. An emergency call was placed for Dr. J. G. Blower, Akron, O., surgeon.

Dr. Blower opened the chest wall and loosened the third, fourth and fifth ribs, lifting them up like the cover of a book. Draining a pint and a half of blood from the pericardium in Somak's slowly-beating heart. Then he closed the pericardium and put the ribs back into their normal position.

Physicians at the hospital said Somak would recover unless a chest infection developed.

BLANTON SAYS WILL APPEAL LIBEL CASE

ABILENE, Oct. 9.—The defendants, Congressman Clyde L. Garrett and his secretary, J. W. Cockrill, were favored in a report Friday of the jury that heard testimony in a hearing on their plea of privilege hearing in Thomas L. Blanton's suit for $100,000 libel.

Blanton announced he would appeal the case to the 11th court of civil appeals at Eastland, when answers to the 14 special issues on which the case was submitted to the jury were read. If the judgment in the hearing is affirmed, the case will be transferred to an Eastland district court, if reversed the plea of privilege hearing may be held again.

Judge Milburn S. Long, who presided at the 11-day trial, said he would render a judgment next week.

Answers
Answers given by the jury to the special issues were to the effect that:

Blanton had resided in Taylor county from July 16, 1936, through August 23, 1936.

The defendants had not entered into a conspiracy to defame the plaintiff, and that there had been no malice in any such conspiracy.

Some material in seven specified exhibits of the plaintiff (newspaper advertisements and circulars circulated in opposition to Blanton) were untrue.

Garrett and Cockrill, acting together or singly, had not published or caused to be published any of these advertisements or circulars. Garrett or Cockrill, respectively, had not been actuated by malice, if they had published, or caused to be published, the articles.

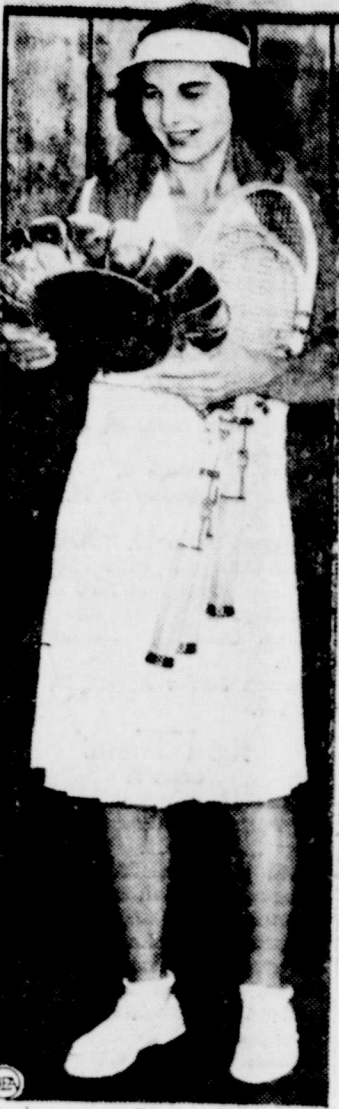

The defendants had not intended to show that Blanton had perpetrated a fraud upon his constituents or attacked his honesty.

Articles published were a fair comment or criticism of a public official.

The jury's verdict was presented by W. A. Ward, foreman.

RANGER WANTS TO FIND LOST OIL OPERATOR

RANGER, Oct. 9.—Where is Count Van Maurik de Beaufort? If the Belgian nobleman—one of the most picturesque figures in the Ranger oil field during the boom—is in the United States, Ranger citizens hope he will attend the 20th anniversary celebration of the great oil rush on Oct. 21.

The Count, wounded during the World War and later a war correspondent, came to the oil field as a writer but became so interested in what he saw that he entered the "oil game" himself. He is recalled as suave, courteous, polished; a man who dressed always with care. Even when he was going to visit a nearby inaccessible lease and serviceable clothing was necessary, his boots glistened and his khaki trousers were pressed. He was never seen without a coat. Old-timers still chuckle at memory of a fight between the debonair Count and a tool-dresser who had used insulting language. The nobleman's superior skill enabled him to give his adversary a neat lesson in boxing.

Mayor Hall Walker, general chairman of the celebration, is hopeful that Jess Willard, former world's heavyweight boxing champion, will attend. Willard visited the field while champion and was interested in drilling several wells.

Death has claimed some of the most noted visitors to Ranger, including Tex Rickard, Billy Sunday and John Ringling, but plans are being made to welcome back numerous notables who played a part in the great boom.

'Sissy' Brings In Snakes To Kittens

MINERAL WELLS (U.P.)—Frank Buck, he "bring 'em back alive," big game hunter, has a new initiator in "Sissy," a house cat owned by Mrs. Roy Gadd.

Sissy for several weeks would bring in small grass snakes—alive—and offer them to her kittens, disregarding all rules of diet for kittens.

Mrs. Gadd was only amused at that. Then Sissy became ambitious and dragged home a three-foot rattlesnake, also very much alive and rattling and doing its best to coil about Sissy's body as the cat gripped by the neck.

That Mrs. Gadd decided, was enough. She killed the rattler, but Sissy, silken away, seemingly disappointed at not being permitted to show the rattler to her kittens.

Don't Gamble with Food Protection

FRIGIDAIRE METER-MISER
Safeguards your food while saving money!

During the "cool" days of fall and winter thousands rely on inadequate refrigeration that cannot constantly protect their food. They little realize their danger. Food must be kept within a narrow range of temperatures—between 32 and 50 degrees Fahrenheit—all the time. Nature does not maintain these temperatures constantly, even in winter. Neither do old-fashioned refrigeration methods. Ill-health and money wasted can be the price you pay for improper refrigeration. Don't gamble with food protection. It is folly to take chances. Especially when there is no valid reason for doing so.

Right now, you can have and enjoy the constant, certain food protection of a Frigidaire with the Meter-Miser without increasing your present household expenses! For Frigidaire with the Meter-Miser pays for itself and pays a profit besides!

You cannot afford to be without the protection and savings of Frigidaire! Come in and we will prove it to you.

LOCKHART (AP)—Justice of the Peace J. Henry Martindale has his troubles.

In the first place, a fire went flat on his automobile. When he went to his garage to get the spare tire a nest of yellowjackets representing the intrusion on their new nesting place, set upon him. In his haste to escape from them he fell and broke his leg—but he suffered no great discomfort from that; the leg is wooden.

FRONTIERS END WITH CANADA'S AIR PROGRESS

MONTREAL, Oct. 9. (UP)—Canadian transport planes have set new records for amounts of express freight and airmail carried...

Commercial aviation in Canada provides perhaps the world's best example of the benefits conferred on mankind by the airplane.

Mining Plan Transported For the larger part of the aerial freighting is associated with mining. Typical of the kind of contract that mining brings to the air transport concern was that fulfilled by Wings, Ltd.

cluded a mine hoist, a mine cage, sinking buckets, rock drills and steel, steel rail, eight ore cars, 60,000 pounds of dynamite, 70 workmen and their belongings and foodstuffs, weighing more than 80,000 pounds.

Used to Ship Fish An interesting form of air freighting enterprise which is peculiar to Canada is the transport of fish from lakes inaccessible by surface vehicles.

During the past seven years, air freighting in Canada has grown from a few isolated operations to become an industry engaging more than 40 operating concerns.

Paris Monkeyed With Coat Modes

Flatteringly graceful is Paquin's brown and fast tweed suit with collar and cuffs of rich red fox. Notice the new sleeve mounting, the slimmest of the skirt and the popular bulky appearance, achieved by the lavish use of fur.

application of air services to problems of everyday transport and communications is bringing profound changes to the social and economic life of frontier areas from Alaska in the extreme westerly Arctic coast of Canada to the little Magdalen Islands in the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

Conduct of these freighting operations frequently demand the highest courage, resource and determination among pilots, engineers and other air transport personnel.

Rice Guilty in Statutory Case

Emmett Rice, Olden, was assessed a five-year prison sentence Thursday night by an 88th district court jury finding him guilty of a statutory offense.

He was charged with intimacy with a daughter, Loree. Jurors were A. E. Woods of Eastland, J. W. McKinney of Cisco, E. A. Elson of Gorman, R. C. Smith of Gorman, E. C. McClelland of Cisco, C. H. Yager of Eastland, O. D. Brogdon of Gorman, Jess Brinkley of Eastland, I. L. Gattis of Eastland, W. L. Pappen of Cisco, Jack Urban of Ranger and Fred Davenport of Eastland.

New Bar Leader Silent on Black

Refusing to comment on the controversy over Associate Justice Hugo Black after his radio address, Arthur T. Vanderbilt, Newark, N. J., is shown above as he addressed the convention of the American Bar Association in Kansas City, after his election as its president for 1933.

Guard Your Credit

Your credit standing is one of your most valuable assets. Guard it carefully. Credit when once destroyed is hard to rebuild. Don't fail to attend to your indebtedness on or before the day it is due.

If you are indifferent about paying your note or arranging its renewal when it becomes due you may expect to find this bank indifferent about making you another loan when you come back for more.

We have the greatest respect for the ditch digger who lives within his means and pays his debts and we have very little respect for the so-called aristocrat who dodges his debts and tries to get by on his aristocracy.

If you destroy your credit standing blame only yourself and then you will be right in one particular at least.

Italy-Japan—

The reported Italian assurances came soon after increasing anxiety over America's strong stand causing the cabinet to withhold a formal government reply to foreign condemnation of Japanese policy.

The government's statement was to tell the world of Japanese aims and determinations.

The statement argued Japan's legal right to maintain troops in China.

It charged that China started the present hostilities and thereby herself violated the spirit of the 9-power and Kellogg-Briand pact.

Most important, it is said specifically that Japan had no territorial designs on China.

But behind this statement lay the story of the tremendous effect of President Roosevelt's speech on peace-disturbing nations and the State Department's firm support of the League Assembly in condemning Japan for her war.

tioned," said one man. "They all fought valiantly and now that they have found out just how hard they can fight and what results come from such spirit, I believe we will see more of that spirit manifested from now on."

"We should now point to San Angelo for a win when we play them on their own field next Friday," another Cisco businessman said Saturday.

INDIA FAVORS OWN TONGUES

CALCUTTA (UP)—A widespread movement exists in India to replace English as the medium of instruction in schools by the language of the province. Calcutta University decided a year ago that instruction in secondary schools under its charge should be not in English but in Bengali.
