Rappin' Reynolds

Dear Rappin' Reynolds,
 What if you like someone but just don't know how to approach that person and let them know you like them. If this person is a friend, should you tell them or continue to be friends and hope it will blossom?
 Interested

Dear Interested,
 Take a chance and tell them you'll never know unless you try. The best of relationships start out as 'friends'. So take the chance you may come out on top. You'll never know till you try. Be bold, be brave. You'll be better for the experience.
 Rappin' Reynolds

Dear Rappin' Reynolds,
 I have a really serious problem, and I hope you don't think it is a joke. I am (or I think I am) gay. I've never really been attracted to girls, but guys really turn me on. I hope you don't think I'm some kind of pervert. I really can't help myself. I've heard that if you are a homosexual, you are born that way. What do you think? I wish I could talk to you personally, but I'm too embarrassed because I'm a pretty well-known dude.

 Please help!
 Signed,
 Sweet Boy

Dear Sweet Boy,
 Well, in my opinion, you aren't born with homosexual tendencies. I'm no expert, but 'fagginess' is something that develops with time. I really don't have a solution for this problem of self worship, but I urge you to find someone who does. All I can say is, resist your urges till you can get your head on 'straight'. Seek one-to-one help. My column is not the best place to solve personal problems of this kind. If you can work up your courage, I'll be glad to talk with you. Keep on the 'straight' and narrow.

I've Been Wrong Before

By Gordon S. Clark

Long ago we were taught values in school. Maybe some of the things we were taught just weren't very true. Maybe they weren't the way things really are but were the way many thought things should be if people embraced the ideal.

We were taught, "Crime doesn't pay," and "Be sure your sins will find you out." Unfortunately crime does pay if it is the right kind of the operation is skillfully done. As for sins find you out, many today don't believe there is such a thing as sin. Only the religious believe such things and most of them are forced often to admit that that reasoning will come in the hereafter.

Where one man used to teach that "Every day in every way things get better and better," in this day of situation ethics many have opted for "worse and worse." Indeed, how much worse is not hard to see. We seem to be in the age of the antihero.

Some teachers even tried letting the students control what was to be learned in certain college classes. If that strikes you like the blind leading the blind you are about as old fashion and reactionary as I am.

Some undoubtedly agree with a columnist in Mineral Wells who wrote that I was a narrow minded conservative with a jackass mentality. Still, I would bet the old boy held many of the same things of value that I do. It was only on party politics we clashed.

He inferred that I might want to bring back the bustle and hobble-skirt. Both of those were a bit before my time and what were called "gay deceivers" in the old days would hardly get by in competition with what can be seen in many places today. What many would try to see in the past are things many may turn to avoid seeing too much today.

Respect? What is that today? And how do you respect anyone whose actions clearly show that they respect nobody nor anything, not even themselves? Do they respect their own body? The cost of disrespect can be read in all sorts of statistics yet they rush on like a buffalo stampede I once read of where they ran over a cliff either unaware or unable to halt the push from behind. The suicidal lemmings of Scandinavia are reflected in segments of our people.

Change will come because the only constant thing in life is constant change. Whether the direction is for better or worse depends on many people but they are just many individuals. Therefore, you can affect the rate if not the direction things go or you can sit idle while events sweep over you. In any case, you may exert an influence but not if you think to run with the fox while barking with the hounds.

One of those moralistic stories they used to teach us was about an old horse turned out by its master to starve after it became too old to work. The town had a trouble bell which was rung in times needs public participation and the townfolk answered the summons of the bell then decided what to do.

Times must have been too good because the rope of the trouble bell was so seldom used that it rotted and one helpful soul spliced it with a twist of straw. The village calm was shattered by the ringing of the trouble bell so long silent and all rushed to learn the cause. But it was only the old horse eating the straw on the bell rope. Still, some believed an injustice had been done and a hearing convened in belief that even a dumb animal deserved justice and had called even if by accident. So, justice was ordered and done.

Today, if there were a trouble bell we would hardly know where to find it, the rope wouldn't rot because someone would have long since staid it, the people would ignore any tolling of the bell because public officials either elected or appointed should see to such problems, and if an old horse nobody wanted should ring the bell the humane society would put him to sleep shortly.

Thus it was once and thus it now is. I believe there was a shorter story of bells of old times when a bell was tolled to morn the death of a citizen. In fact, the Liberty bell was cracked twice. Once for tolling the death of my great great grandfather Chief Justice John Marshal.

But one man said of the morning bells, "Run not to see for whom the bell tolls. The bell tolls for you." The meaning being that one persons loss is everybody's loss. Conversely, I believe that any small gain benefits all.

A question I leave with you. Can any tell when it is hypocrisy and when it is one assuming a virtue until it becomes natural with him?

Letter To

The Editor

Dear Editor,

I hope everyone who reads this paper will take time to read and think about this particular article.

I have a friend who went to work in an out-of-town hospital about 12 years ago. While at work one day she was taking care of a little two year old boy who had been in the hospital all of his life. He had a spinal problem at birth that could not be fixed. Therefore he would be paralyzed from the waste down the rest of his life, and in a wheelchair.

Nobody loved this little boy, (family that is) therefore nobody cared about him, no one except this one nurse. So she went through legal actions and adopted this little boy that had no loving family.

She quit the hospital and devoted her full time to raise this little boy. She taught him how to write his name, count to 10, and say his ABC's before he started school. He had 3 sisters who really loved him also.

Then he started to school. You see he wasn't like all the other kids at school. He was paralyzed and in a wheelchair. He couldn't run and play. But he was smarter than any kid in his class.

Then one night March 24th 1987, age 14 he wrote a note that read:

"Mother and family, I love you all very much, but I can't take the kids at school laughing at me any longer." Signed his name and took his own life.

You see, there is so much of this thing called suicide going on in this world. Some are from depression, some are from marital problems, some are from family problems. And then some are from being laughed at, just because your different.

If we all take a good look around we will find no one is perfect! So next time we think about laughing at someone because they can't walk, run, or play, think again. It might just cost them their lives.

TEXAS HEALTH NEWS AND VIEWS

QUESTION: I have received a letter from medicare saying they were unable to pay on the part B (Doctor's portion) of my claim. They say I can appeal. How do I do it?

ANSWER: The appeal process is not all that difficult, yet, you must have supporting evidence to justify it. About 3% of the claims are appealed but more than 50% are successful. We encourage you to call 442-2263 for guidance.

QUESTION: I have a supplemental insurance policy to help pay for my doctor bills. The man who sold it to me said it would pay 100% of what medicare did not pay. But it doesn't. Is there such a policy as I want to get it?

ANSWER: We normally do not discuss insurance policies in this column. Insurance policies that pay 100% of what medicare does not pay would be very high. You should return to your agent and get a thorough review of the benefits of your policy.

QUESTION: My doctor does not take the medicare assignment. How can I insist that he do so because I cannot afford to pay the medical bills.

ANSWER: The taking of medicare assignments (payment for the allowable portion of the doctor's charges) is optional with the doctor. A doctor also has the option of treating medicare patients and may hold the patient liable for any expenses. I would suggest you talk with your doctor asking him to take the assignment explaining your financial situation.

You may have questions concerning your medicare and medicaid. If so send them to the Eastland Telegram, P.O. Box 29, Eastland, Texas 76448.

Columbia Study Club Meets

Members of the Columbia Study Club gathered for their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. David D. Pickrell II, hostess. Mrs. S.M. McAnelly, president, conducted a brief business meeting before introducing the program.

Mrs. J.P. Morris presented a most interesting review of "Stepping Down From The Star", written by Alexandra Costa. The author, wife of a Soviet official in the Russian Embassy in Washington, D.C., relates her discovery of new freedoms found in the United States and her feelings and experiences in the decision and actual implementation of her defection to this country. It is the story of one woman's journey "from the star of the U.S.S.R. to the star of freedom".

Members were served delicious refreshments from an attractive serving table centered by beautiful exotic flowers accented with gerber daisies. Enjoying the gathering were Mesdames: P.M. Kuykendall, J.P. Morris, L.R. Pearson, David D. Pickrell, A.N. Larson, S.M. McAnelly, Morris Newnham, I.J. Allen, Miss Betty White and Mrs. Pickrell, hostess.

Medical Perspectives

By Robert Matthews, M.D.

TO BE WITH CHILD
Pregnancy is a normal part of life from which we all derive much pleasure and yet which is also punctuated with pain and difficulty. The book of Genesis, a book about the beginning of human life, attributes the pain of childbirth to the fall of the human race in the Garden of Eden. Since that time, billions of babies have been born. Childbirth was largely the domain of midwives until this century. Only in the present century has medical supervision during pregnancy and delivery achieved general acceptance. A recent issue of the New England Journal of Medicine reports that amniotic mortality in the state of Massachusetts declined dramatically by eighty percent during the period from 1954 to 1985. The leading cause of maternal death in the 1950's were infection, cardiac disease, toxemia and hemorrhage. Today, trauma (motor vehicle accidents, murders and suicides) and blood clots in the lung are the most common cause of death of a pregnant woman at the rate of ten for every 100,000 live births or 0.01%. Mortality rates are considerably higher for those who receive little or no prenatal care.

With this background, I would like to discuss the course of pregnancy. Conception, when a sperm and an egg unite, usually occurs about 14 days after the of a menstrual period. The due date is usually calculated to be about 280 days (40 weeks) from the first day of the last menstrual period but can vary by several weeks. For convenience, pregnancy is often spoken of as consisting of three trimesters, each being three months in length. By the end of the first trimester, all of the structures destined to be present at birth have appeared, and the developing embryo is then called a fetus. The second trimester is a period of rapid growth and yet if born at the end of this period, the fetus is still not likely to survive. The rate of growth slows in the last trimester and survival becomes increasing possible.

A number of blood tests are routinely done to determine your blood type, to detect syphilis, anemia and whether or not you are immune to German Measles (rubella). During the next few months your physician will follow your growth, watch for any problems that may arise and help prepare you for childbirth. Morning sickness commonly lasts through the first twelve to sixteen weeks of pregnancy. I do not ordinarily prescribe medications for this as none are proven safe in pregnancy, especially during the first trimester. However, if the sickness itself is severe enough to cause dehydration and endanger the baby, medications and hospitalization may be necessary. Most women tolerate smaller, more frequent meals better at this time, and dry carbohydrates like crackers, toast and cereals.

As you progress, you will notice many changes in your body and your emotions. As your abdomen grows, your breasts will enlarge and may be tender, more lumpy and may even begin to secrete milk. The uterus will press against the bladder, causing increased frequency of urination. The pelvic ligaments and joints will begin to stretch and the curve in the lower spine will straighten, causing pains in the lower back, the groin and the pubis. You may feel warmer than usual and may develop indigestion as the uterus grows upward against the stomach. You may become tired more easily. Mood swings may be more erratic, and sexual desires may vary. Feel free to discuss any changes with your physician and ask any questions you may have. Pregnancy is a wonderful yet tumultuous time of life for the expectant couple but seems to go much more smoothly when you know what to expect, how to deal with it and have someone to share it with you. In the next article I will discuss some of the possible complications of pregnancy.

Several Reports Of Break-ins Are Reported To Cisco Police

A number of thefts and break-ins occurring in the Cisco area during the past few days were reported Friday by Police Chief Billy Rains.

Dale McFaddin of 808 West 12th reported Wednesday that a blue Western Flyer man's bicycle valued at $80 was taken from their home. Howard Worley of 500 West 8th reported Wednesday that a 16 ft. blue 4-wheel tandem flat bed trailer was stolen between March 15 and 25 from behind the Worley's Video Store at 1000 West 8th Street. The trailer is valued at $725, the report showed. Last Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. Rusty Wells of 2200 Hilton reported the burglary from his pickup truck. Missing was a 303 Army rifle worth about $100, Chief Rains said. The pickup had been parked in the 700 block of West 17th when the theft was discovered. Patricia Morrison of 713 1/2

East 10th reported burglary of their residence. Missing was $50 in money, the chief said. Also on Tuesday Lyndia Reger of 414 East 20th reported the theft of a half a tank of gasoline from her car. She had parked at the White Elephant Restaurant and the gasoline was siphoned from the car while she was in the place, the report said. On Monday, March 23, Roy Lee Cozart of 1107 West 15th reported the burglary of a building. Missing was a Pioneer AM-FM radio cassette with speakers and brackets valued at $300. Andy Hobbs, Route 3, Cisco, reported the theft of a Hard-Free Style Bicycle with chrome frame and blue mag wheels and handgrips, taken from 801 East 8th last Saturday. The bike was later found but had been stripped, Chief Rains reported. It was valued at $300. The various theft cases were being investigated, Mr. Rains said.

Cisco Police Arrest Man On Drug Possession Last Week In Cisco

A Bursleson man was arrested at the Lake Cisco Park last Sunday at 12:20 a.m. on charges of possessing more than two grams of drugs and equipment for using it, Police Chief Billy Rains reported Friday. The man, Albert Moline, was placed in the county jail. Chief Rains reported that officers had received a tip that an alcohol and drug bust was planned at the park. Officers taking part in the investigation were Chief Rains, Policemen Dale Smith, Larry Weikel and Ronnie Huddleston. DPS

Trooper Robert Rails and Eastland County Deputy Sheriff George Yielding. Three kegs of beer, a quantity of liquor and drugs were found, Mr. Rains reported. Officers issued three tickets for alcohol possession and three for selling alcohol to minors and made the drug arrest.

Citizens May Still Donate To Bakeless Bake Sale

Thanks is extended to those who contributed to the "Bakeless Bake Sale" Saturday, March 21. However, because of the many activities going on last weekend, several have indicated they missed out on participating. Contributions will continue to be accepted by Lynn Wages at Merle Norman Studio at Eastwood Village. A $5 or $10 donation, more or even less, will go a long way in helping provide entertainment for Cisco teenagers. If upcoming fund raising is adequate, Parents for Teens plan to provide after the banquet dances in the spring at no charge to Cisco High School students. Funds are also being raised for summertime activities and to start off the 1987-88 school year activities of Parents for Teens. Please call 442-1795 or 442-3113 for further information.

The Sport of Kings Comes To Cisco Folklife Festival

For the first time in the area, visitors to the folklife will have the opportunity to see demonstrations of free-flying birds of prey. Dennis Smith of Dallas, who has been involved with falconry for eight years, and a bird lover since he was 13, will be demonstrating the ancient sport with a red-tailed hawk, a prairie falcon and a Harris hawk. In addition, he will be exhibiting a rehabilitated grey-horned owl.

Although falconry originated as much as 4,000 years ago, it rose from its obscure beginnings to become the sport of medieval Europe's aristocrats. In 16th century England a person's status determined what birds he or she was allowed to fly. The king would fly eagles and high-flying falcons, usually more for sport than for food, while the peasant would fly goshawks in the king's wood to catch hares for the dinner table. It was considered a serious offense if a person flew a bird of a higher status than his class.

In recent times falconers have been more or less reclusive until the early 1970's. At that time in an effort to control the hunting seasons of migratory birds, the United States, Canada and Mexico established the Migratory Bird Protection Act. Birds of prey were included in the act, which seriously limited a falconer in trapping his birds.

Falconers banded together and successfully lobbied in Washington, D.C., for separate rules and regulations governing falconry. Today, a falconer traps his own birds, and his experiences dictates the number of birds he may have in his care. An apprentice is allowed to have one bird, while a person with two years experience reaches general class and may have two birds. At five years a falconer is considered a master and can have three birds.

Through Smith's love for his birds of prey and his involvement in falconry, the ancient sport will come to life at the Cisco Civic League Folklife Festival. He will be demonstrating his birds at the Festival at 11:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Saturday, May 2. His birds will be exhibited between demonstrations.

The 14th Annual Folklife Festival will be held Saturday and Sunday, May 2-3, 1987, in the downtown historical Rockwell Lumber Yard complex in Cisco. The Festival will open immediately after the 10 a.m. downtown parade, and be open until approximately 10 p.m. Saturday. Sunday hours will be from 12 noon until 5 p.m.

"Alive In Christ" Revival At First Baptist April 5-8

The "Alive In Christ" Revival will be held Sunday-Wednesday, April 5-8, 1987, at First Baptist Church in Eastland. Dr. Robert Jeffress, pastor, and the entire membership invite everyone to come and join in this time of revival.

Dr. Barry Landrum, pastor of First Baptist Church in Pasadena, Texas, will be the revival evangelist. Music will be directed by Steve Phillips, minister of music at the same church. Many people will remember Steve from last year's "Showers of Blessings" revival. Everyone is looking forward to working with this revival team. Revival services will be held on Sunday morning at 11:00, and each evening at 7:00. At 11:45 on weekdays, there will be a lunch served in the fellowship hall. Everyone is invited to come and join in this time of fellowship and worship.

Many special events are planned for the revival. Sunday night is children's night, with a pizza supper and special children's time at 6:00. Monday night the emphasis will be on the Sunday School and Senior Adults. A "battle of the banners" will be waged among the Sunday school departments. For the Senior Adults, a pie supper fellowship will be held before the service. Any senior adult who would like to attend may call the church office (629-3355) and transportation arrangements can be made.

Tuesday night is youth night. Dr. Landrum will bring a special youth-targeted message, and after the service there will be a pizza supper and a lip-sync contest.

The Wednesday night emphasis will be on young adults. A meal will be served to all young adults and their families before the service. The "Alive In Christ" Revival promises to be a time of praise, worship, and renewal. Please join us.

"TEXAS" Musical Drama plays nightly at 8:30 p.m. except Sundays in P.O. Box 914 Eastland, Texas. For tickets write "TEXAS," P.O. Box 208, Canyon, Texas or call 808-655-2461. B. Blaw photo.

Meetings today's needs... Creativity.

• In times of uncertainty, consumers are careful and a little reluctant to spend. They want to be sure before they buy; they want information. One of the main ways they get information about products, services, prices and values is from advertising. Your's or somebody else's.

• Maybe you figure other retailers in your line are going to cut back their advertising, so it's safe for you, too. Right? Wrong. You're in competition for the consumer's dollar with every other retailer in town, no matter what he sells. People have only so many dollars to spend and if they don't spend them for what you sell, they'll spend them for something else.

• Whether business is good or bad, you have to get your share of whatever business is around.

• Your advertising is part of your sales force. Ads help to pre-sell the customer and help you close the sale faster. They save you time and save you money.

• You say your customer's know you and for a while, at least, they'll keep coming in even if you don't promote? That's partly true, but short-sighted. Remember, one of five Americans moves every year, so there's a steady flow of your customers out of your market and a corresponding influx of new folks who don't know you at all. Tell them about yourself.

• You can't do much about most factors in the marketplace—rent, labor, costs, price of merchandise, what the competition will do. But one thing you do control is your own promotion. Remember that advertising is not just a cost of doing business. It's a proven sales tool that returns many times your investment in store traffic and sales.

• Remember how long it took you to get started? Once you build up business, you can keep it going with a moderate, consistent advertising program. But if you cut your advertising and lose your hold on the public, you'll find it's much harder to build it up again. It's sort of like starting all over.

• Here's a hard fact to chew on. Over any given period, a company that advertises below the industry average has sales below the industry average. • Advertising is "news" about products and services. Most shoppers look for this kind of new news in the pages of the newspaper. In plush times, retailers often experiment with other media. But when the going gets tough, they concentrate their efforts in the newspaper because it provides an immediate payoff at the cash register.

• Slow times ahead? There are more Americans working now than ever before. More women working, too, adding to family income. People still need and want goods and services and will spend for them. There is plenty of business out there. Your competitors will be bidding for their share and yours.

LAND PRODUCTIVITY VALUATION

MAY LOWER THE PROPERTY TAXES ON YOUR FARM, RANCH OR TIMBERLAND

Texas law provides farmers and ranchers with a way to lower their property taxes, known as productivity valuation.

If you qualify, your agricultural land will be taxed on its capacity to produce crops, livestock, or timber, instead of its value on the real estate market. Productivity valuation can lower the taxable value of your land, and lower your property taxes as a result.

If your land has never received productivity valuation, you must apply to the appraisal district by April 30 to get tax benefits for 1987. You can choose from two types of productivity valuation.

If your land already receives open-space or timber (1-d-1) valuation, you don't need to reapply unless the chief appraiser requires you to. But remember, you must apply every year for ag-use (1-d) valuation.

For more information and application forms, contact the appraisal district office at the address shown below:

Commissioners Given 30 Days For Jail Solution

Eastland County's $1 million seven-year-old jail was labeled inadequate by the State Jail Standards Commission in Austin last Wednesday, March 25.

The Commission gave Eastland County officials 30 days to "work out a solution" to possible future overcrowding. The Jail Standards group will review the County Commissioner's plans, and meet with them again in June.

"We can't tell you what to build, but we think Eastland County needs a 48-bed facility," a Commission member is reported as saying.

Even after reports and assurances to the Commission that the jail was presently in compliance, except for a minor detail on lighting, County Judge Scott Bailey was asked: "Have you voted on what you are going to do?"

"We've only had a (consultant's) report (on expansion) for about three weeks. There's been no action yet," the Judge replied.

Chairman Amber Cree of Abilene said that in the past Eastland County has dragged its feet in cooperating with the Commission. She wanted the County Commissioners to promise a course of action quickly. She also urged the officials to make this solution "long term".

The implication was left that it would be difficult to expand the present facility enough to satisfy the Jail Commission's requirements.

Along with Judge Bailey at the meeting in Austin was County Commissioner

Robinson, Christian and Bacon; Sheriff Don Underwood, and the architect of the present jail, James Wheeler of Abilene.

Judge Bailey spoke to the Jail Standards Commission, explaining that the facility was now in compliance on population, proper segregation, and every requirement except the installation of lighting fixtures which will give the required 20-candlepower for each inmate area.

James Wheeler verified that the light fixtures had been ordered for installation, and that all possible was being done to keep the jail up to Federal and State standards.

The Sheriff also spoke to the Commission, telling of efforts to keep the jail in compliance.

The Jail was not recertified.

The Jail Standards Commission ruled more favorably on a request from Taylor County during Wednesday's meeting. The Commission gave approval for a technical variation from its regulation so that four extra beds could be placed in each of the jail's 15 eight-bunk cells. These cell areas will be classified as dormitories. A variance was granted on the percentage of the jail given to dormitory space.

The Eastland County Jail was constructed in 1980 by Boone, Pope and Wheeler of Abilene. The base cost was $825,000, with interest paid over the years bringing the cost to around $1 million. The county still owes around $400,000 on the building, with the last payment scheduled for 1990.

The current facility was built after much consolidation with Jail Standards officials and others, including a noted criminologist, a Dr. Free of Sam Houston State University. He and others outlined how a 25-bed facility should be adequate for Eastland County until the year 2000. When the Jail was opened on Sept. 1, 1980 it was considered a model facility.

It passed all inspections for five years. In 1985 there were some new regulations enacted, mainly concerning juveniles and segregation. Juveniles are no longer housed in the Eastland County Jail.

In Feb. 1986 the Jail was listed as out of compliance by personnel of the State Jail Standards Commission. Late last year it was placed under a court order to comply with a population count of no more than 26 inmates, and to segregate as to sex and offense.

It was brought into compliance on those counts shortly afterward. But on March 12, 1987 an inspector from the Jail Commission found the Jail defective on other items. These were the things the county officials discussed while in Austin.

County Judge Scott Bailey, after returning from Austin, said: "We felt like we had built a facility that was adequate until the year 2000 - and this building is not yet paid for."

"We did everything we could, based upon the requirements we were given, and we have made every effort to stay in compliance."

County officials will be discussing what can be done, the Judge said.

A list of nominees for club officers for 1987-88 was read by Chairman Jerry McBeth of the nominating committee. The club will elect new officers in the near future.

Daylight Savings Time Is April 5

Congress has voted to give us an extra 22 hours of daylight this year. Daylight Savings Time is to go into effect Sunday, April 5, the first Sunday in April instead of the last Sunday.

So don't get confused about our time change. The slogan to remember is spring forward - fall back.

So remember, on Saturday, April 4 when you go to bed set your clock ahead one hour. That way you won't be late to Sunday School or church.

REMEMBER!!! Sunday, April 5, DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME BEGINS!

Cisco Rotary Club Hears About Project Graduation

There will be a number of attendance prizes to be given away at the Graduation Night party that will be a county-wide promotion at Cisco Junior College's student union building during annual graduation week, it was announced at the weekly luncheon of the Cisco Rotary Club last Thursday noon.

The Cisco club voted to contribute to the door prize fund. Prizes already pledged include a $500 scholarship to attend Cisco Junior College and three color television sets to be provided by the banks of Cisco, Eastland and Ranger, President Joe Cooper of the Rotary Club reported.

There will be other door prizes. Details of the party appear from time to time in county newspapers.

Mr. Cooper reported that the club has received over 60 "thank you" notes from students and others for helping make the video tape McGruff series available for showing in schools.

Hank Durante of Orange, Calif., was a visiting Rotarian.

When Helen and Ana went to investigate, Ana's son, Joaquin, was in Don's office with the door shut and locked tight and her daughter Kathryn was standing out in the hallway.

Well Don was out of town that day and he had one of the keys on his keychain that fit the lock. So Helen got out the spare keys and they had to check through about 15-20 little envelopes that had 2 keys each in them. Ana said she could look in the window and see her little boy and every once in a while his lips would start quivering, but she said he was very brave.

Matthew Houston, a senior at Eastland High School, has been selected to receive a $1,000 scholarship from the Wal-Mart store in Eastland. Chosen as First Alternate was Becky Bullock of Eastland High School, and Second Alternate was Janice Wooley of Cisco High School. In making this announcement, store manager Larry Mulholland said "We are very pleased to award this academic scholarship to such an outstanding student. The judges had a slate of well-qualified students representing several schools to choose from." The scholarship selection was based primarily on academic performance and involvement in the school and community.

Eastland County Commissioners learned this week in Austin that they have 30 days to formulate plans for any future Jail Expansion. The State Jail Standards Commission indicated that the present Jail is inadequate. Although County Judge Scott Bailey, the County Sheriff, Commissioners and jail architect attempted to assure the Commission that all possible efforts were being made to comply with standards, the Commission did not recertify the present facility.

The Calvary Baptist Church will be celebrating a Homecoming and 3rd anniversary on Sunday, March 29. Dinner will be served after the morning service. Pastor David Henley and

RANGER
 The Ranger Volunteer Fire Department has accepted a donation of $25 from Lone Star Gas Co. Ike Ratliff, manager of the company in Ranger, presented the check to Arthur Camacho, volunteer fire chief. The donation will go toward the building fund for the new Fire Station. Because of such donations, the dream of a new Fire Station for Ranger is becoming a reality.

The Ranger City Council has approved a contract renewal with Telecommunications (Cable company) for 20 years. Under this franchise contract, the company will increase fees paid to the city from 3 percent to 5 percent of sales.

E.R. Phillips appeared before the City Council recently to discuss the continuation of his street sweeping. Phillips' original 30-day trial period expired two weeks ago. He was hired again last Monday night by the Council to continue the sweeping three times a week at a charge to the city of $85 per week. This will include a 20 square block area off and including Main Street. The Council also voted to pay Mr. Phillips for the past two weeks service.

For 1986, tax reform still allows most taxpayers to take the full $2,000 IRA deduction...same as before!

Current Rate - 7½% Guaranteed One Year!

IRA: Still The Tax Break To Take.

→ Anyone not in a qualified retirement plan can still contribute up to $2,000 and take the full $2,000 deduction.

→ Anyone who is in a qualified retirement plan can still contribute to an IRA. The deductible amount depends on your income level. When adjusted gross income is under $40,000 ($25,000 for singles), the full $2,000 deduction can be taken. Married couples can take up to $4,000 if both work and each earns at least $2,000.

→ No deductible IRA contribution can be made by those with adjusted gross incomes of more than $50,000 ($35,000 for singles).

→ When adjusted gross income falls between $40,000 and $50,000 ($25,000 and $35,000 for singles) the $2,000 IRA deduction is reduced. These taxpayers can deduct $200 worth of IRA contribution for every $1,000 in income below the $50,000 and $35,000 ceilings.

→ Even if your income level makes you ineligible for a deduction, you can still enjoy the advantages of tax-deferred earnings on your contributions.

Make a contribution by April 15, 1987 and deduct it on your 1986 tax return.

With tax-deductible contributions and tax deferred earnings, the IRA is still the break to take.

Your local Farm Bureau agent has all the details to help you open an IRA or to rollover an existing IRA to Farm Bureau. We're here to clear up the effects of tax reform on IRA's for you. Call today.

4-H NEWS

By Crystal Wilbanks, County Agent

The annual Eastland County Livestock Show has come and gone and once again it is time to begin looking for animals for next year's shows. If any of you are interested in trying some of the majors or would like to show at the prospect shows this summer, let me know and I'll see what I can do about locating some high quality animals.

The 4-H Petting Zoo was a big success this year, with a total of over 80 children touring this mini-zoo. The Petting Zoo was sponsored by the Eastland County 4-H Junior Leaders Association. Special thanks to each of you who brought animals and worked in the zoo last week.

It's that time of the year when young people start thinking about summer vacation. We have a lot of exciting, fun-filled opportunities scheduled for Eastland County starting in May. First, we are currently working on 4-H Camp. Theme this year is "Come To The Islands", with a Hawaii type setting at the 4-H Center. More details on camp will be coming soon. Second, we are currently accepting applications for District 8 4-H Leadership Lab. The date for this event is June 3-5 at the Texas 4-H Center in Brownwood. Registration fee is $38.00. Workshop sessions will include "Peer Pressure-How To Deal With It"; Public Speaking; and several others.

If you are interested in attending this lab, please let me know ASAP. Deadline to register is May 21, 1987.

4-H leaders and members from Eastland County who are interested in swine and related projects will have an opportunity to gain in-depth information on swine production and management at a special workshop at the Texas 4-H Center at Brownwood, April 24-26.

The workshop will be conducted by specialists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The Texas A&M University System, and staff of A&M's Department of Animal Science. The first evening will feature the 4-H show barrow from 7:00 - 10:00 p.m. Self-instruction video tapes and other materials will be available all weekend.

Sessions on Saturday will include nutrition, housing, feeding, management, swine marketing, genetics and swine selection. Sessions will also be conducted on Sunday morning.

Extension Service specialists involved in the workshop will be Dr. Bill Thomas, swine specialist; Dr. Ernie Davis and Dr. Jim McGrann, economists; Dr. Bruce Lawhorn, veterinarian; and Dr. Darrell Knabe, swine nutritionist.

If you want to attend this workshop, register fee is $45.16. I need to have your name by April 10th.

Do you have a yearning for lots of learning? If so, the U.S. Agency for International Development has made it possible for people in Eastland County to acquire knowledge of Central American Culture. There are 10 4-H delegates coming to Texas in May. They need host families to live with during the summer months. Time spans range from 2-4 weeks. If your family wants to host a Central American visitor, contact me IMMEDIATELY.

Attention Eastland 4-H

Club mothers! If you loaned kitchen appliances and utensils for the 4-H Livestock Show concession stands, please remember to come by the Extension office and claim your equipment. Crockpots, pots and pans, plus many miscellaneous kitchen items are needing to be returned to the owner.

The District 8 4-H Council met recently for their spring Leadership Retreat at the State 4-H Center on March 20-21.

4-H youth from 18 central Texas counties participated in the retreat which is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Toby Long, outstanding Eastland County 4-Her, was elected treasurer of the District 8 4-H Council. Toby is currently serving as chairman of the Eastland County 4-H Council.

Toby is the son of Barbara and Tony Long of Rising Star. Congratulations to Toby for this fine accomplishment!

Other Eastland County 4-H members who participated were: Stephanie Long, currently serving as Vice-Chairman of the District 8 4-H Council and State 4-H Council Secretary; LaDawn Little, of Ranger 4-H Club; and Natalie Stevens, of Eastland 4-H Club. Also attending were adult leaders Mary Jane Little and Barbara Long.

The Harpersville 4-H Club in Stephens County is sponsoring a dance on Friday, April 3rd, at the Stephens County Agriculture and Community Center in Breckenridge. The dance will get started at 7:00 and last until 11:30 p.m. Cost is $2.00 per person and proceeds will be donated to Jerry Wylie, who is in need of a lung transplant. Refreshments will be provided and everyone from Eastland County is invited to attend.

Fifty people were on hand last Monday night at the Eastland County 4-H Method Demonstration contests. A method demonstration is a planned presentation by one or more 4-H members that teach information related to a project or activity. Simply, they are ways of showing and telling others how to make or do something and sharing useful information.

Mr. Jerry Jackson, Ranger School Superintendent, Mrs. Janet Thomas, Eastland County Home Economist and Mrs. De Gordon, Eastland County Agriculture Agent served as judges for this annual contest. Members competing to determine who would advance on to District 8 4-H Contests on April 11 at Tarleton State University in Stephenville.

Participants and titles of presentations are as follows: Junior Division - Leanne Connell and Stacey Beller - STEPS IN HAVING A HEALTHY BODY; Tommie O'Neill and Niki Cozart -

TABEL SETTING; Christy Arther - SIGNING...THE SILENT LANGUAGE; Shannon Parks and Kim Fisher - SAFE TOYS FOR TOTS Senior Division - La Dawn Little - OPPORTUNITIES IN 4-H; Phillip Allen - UNUSUAL DISEASES OF SHEEP; Natalie Stevens - SIGN LANGUAGE; Teresa Cockburn, Shad Kline, Jodi Wesley, Brandy Sharp and Melissa Ratliff - PEER PRESSURE - WHY IT'S SO HARD TO GO AGAINST THE CROWD; Jerry Long and Toby Long - ECONOMIC FACTORS OF FARM AND RANCH MANAGEMENT; Christy Edwards and Christina Howell - HEALTH-THE BIG THREE; Sabrina O'Neill and Paula Porter - SURE SHOT HORSE CARE; Karen Barker and Misty Barrett - GARBO THE ROBOT.

There was also a Share-the-Fun contest. The entry in this division were titled "Guitarzan" and was performed by Missy Hill, Terry Kay White, Susie Walker, Chris Cockburn and Kyle Compton.

Each of these 4-H members received high ratings and will advance to the District 8 Contest. If any civic group is in need of a program, these 4-H'ers are willing to present their method demonstrations. For further information contact Crystal Akers Wilbanks at 629-1693.

The Eastland County Extension Service is sponsoring 4-H Clothing Project training for 4-H parents and leaders on Tuesday, March 31 from 4 to 6 p.m.; and repeated on Friday, April 3 from 7 to 9 p.m. (The Saturday, April 4 training date has been canceled due to a conflict.) Both training sessions will be held in the Eastland National Bank Community Room.

Mrs. Janet Thomas, County Extension Agent - Home Economics, states that the 4-H Clothing guides are new this year and they are excellent.

The 4-H Clothing project will feature lessons on (1) building self-confidence, (2) care of clothes, (3) shopping strategies - labels, fit, accessories, etc. (4) Textiles, (5) Wardrobe planning, and (6) Sewing and construction skills.

4-H Clubs will be starting their 4-H Clothing project groups next month. To complete a clothing project the 4-Her must complete at least 6 learning experiences and do not have to sew.

The County Fashion Show will be June 25 and hosted by Rising Star 4-H Club this year. There will be two divisions: (1) Construction (you sew the garment), and (2) Ready-to-Wear (you buy your outfit).

For more information about clothing projects, 4-Hers and parents should contact Mrs. Thomas at 629-2222. Everyone interested in being involved with the 4-H clothing projects is urged to attend one of the upcoming training sessions.

The Eastland County 4-H Parents-Leaders Association say, "THANK YOU" for supporting 4-H at the Eastland County Livestock Show concessions.

Also a special thanks to the public for eating hundreds of hamburgers, barbecue and Mexican plate dinners plus all the other food items. The concessions were a great success and all proceeds go to finance 4-H activities and awards in Eastland Co. during the coming year.

A special thanks to John and Betty Kidd at Leon River Feed Store for supplying baby chicks and ducks for the 4-H Petting Zoo.

Fishing Outdoors

By Terry Wilson

"Lunkers"
It's time for those lunker bass folks, water temperatures are warming and the spawn is here. But don't take my word for it, ask Craig Flowers of Hawaii. Craig was recently home on leave from the service visiting Don and Laura Flowers of Lake Leon.

The visit began with a fishing trip on Lake Leon. This days catch consisted of 18 fish between 2 and 4 1/4 pounds. These fish were taken in water ranging from 8" to 3 feet, and many of these were holding eggs. Most of these fish were released along with a number of smaller fish.

Pretty good day of fishing I would say. But the following day supplied the icing on the cake. Around 2:15 Craig was using a Cotton Cordell Rattling spot in the crowded print. 14 pound Trilene XT line, set on the Ambassador XLT plus reel with a 5 1/2 foot Diawa rod. Casting into less than four foot of water Craig felt the big sow attack the lure, and the fight was on. A short e minute battle and it was over. Netting for Craig was Uncle Don Flowers, who was also acting as guide on this trip. The combined efforts of these gentlemen resulted in a 10 pound 4 ounce largemouth bass. (See Photo). This lunker was kept on a stringer for about 4 hours prior to certified weighing losing perhaps as much as 4 ounces.

Weather conditions were described as pre-frontal. That time when we should all be fishing somewhere. This lunker was taken on a normal spawn pattern of north east bank, protected from the wind and open to receive most of a full days sunshine.

The exact location of this catch shall remain open for your speculation per Craig's request. But a little hint, fish the north banks for awhile in Craig Flowers of Hawaii with a 10 pound 4 ounce Eastland County Lunker.

Eastland County, there's bigger fish just waiting for you to come by. Congratulations to both Craig and Don, that's some fish to hang on the wall.

Anytime I hear the name Mister Twister Inc. any reflex action is to set the hook. Because I know the excellent quality with which these products are made do induce strikes.

One of my personal favorites has been the Double Tail. Used with jigs or spinner baits these trailers have produced some excellent fishing. Now thanks to Mister Twister the Double Tail 4" now offers twice the action. Dubbed as the Split Double Tail, now four (rather than two) tails entice fish to bite.

This addition gives an irresistible, mouth-watering presentation to all species and is especially effective being bounced along the bottom on a jig and when used in a flipping situation.

The new Split Double Tail is available in seven colors: white, yellow, black, purple, chartreuse, chartreuse flake and rocket red.

Other new additions to the quality line of Mr. Twister include the new Keeper Lightware hooks. Offering three major improvements: stronger by virtue of a larger fanged wire, sharper because they are laser-sharpened and corrosion resistant because of a blued finish. A gold-plated Keeper shank holds the soft plastic lure in place.

Also new from Mister Twister is the new revolutionary diver jig. It does everything a standard jig does and more.

And by press time I am sure Mr. Twister Inc. is already developing more fantastic fish catching items to help you and I land those

Eastland Manor News

We at Eastland Manor would like to introduce our readers to our new administrator, Terry Drake. Mr. Drake comes to us from Alice, Texas, where he was co-owner in a family operated nursing home. He is married, has four children and hopes to move his family to this area when school is out. Mr. Drake has many innovative plans and we hope to show him what a nice place Eastland County is to live and work in.

Plans are under way to raise funds for more activities for the residents. We big ones. Mr. Twister truly stays just a tail's twist ahead of the competition.

Two area lakes are hot hot for bass. Leon and Proctor, both lakes are producing large numbers of fish as well as many in the 6 to 10 pound range. Time is a wasting, if anyone ask's tell "I've gone Fishing".
