EY SAVINGS

OPPS! The brakes on a dump truck failed to hold last Saturday night when the Texas Highway Department was sanding the intersection of 8th Street and Conrad Hilton Ave. and the truck rolled down the street into the Olney Savings building. The truck, that was unmanned at the time of the accident, knocked down a pillar loose at Olney and damaged the awning at the Twice Around Shop next door. (Staff Photo)

Weekend Ice Storm Hits Eastland County

Eastland County was decorated for Christmas - but it could have done without some of that glittering stuff left on trees, roads and highline poles.

The ice here was not as bad as that in a winter storm from Abilene west, however. And one plus was a good rain that fell in the county early on Christmas day, Friday.

Some of the rainfall totals on December 25 were: Ranger, one inch; Eastland, .8; Carbon 4; and south and southwest of Eastland and Cisco, from one and one-half up to two inches.

The temperature held above freezing until around 5 p.m. on Friday, then started dropping. By 6 p.m. it was 30 degrees, and a freezing mist began to coat roads and vegetation. A hard freeze that night made driving very hazardous the next morning.

The south and east side of the county was not as hard-hit, but Rising Star had some heavy icing. Ranger Hill managed to stay fairly clear of ice, with warmer temperatures from there through Fort Worth.

There were no accidents reported in Ranger, but by Saturday morning there was a TU Electric line down on the north side of town. It was soon restored to service.

A number of cars were involved in minor accidents on the Interstate near Eastland. Law enforcement officers and other emergency personnel were out in the weather, with at least one extra DPS Trooper reportedly called out at 3 a.m. Saturday morning.

Saturday morning in Cisco a Highway Department truck rolled from 8th St. north down 183 (Main St.) to Olney Savings, striking a pillar at the front of the building. According to information, the truck was being used in a sanding operation at the 8th St. location.

Cisco was pretty well "iced in" Saturday, with a few cars out stirring. Some WTU lines were down for about 5 hours around Lake Bernie, and another line down on an access road of the Interstate. Travelers to the north reported that the ice let up around the Stephens County line, with "all clear" around Breckenridge.

By Sunday morning a bright sun woke up the county, and slivers of ice started dropping. Another hard freeze Sunday night froze the surface of wet rural roads, however.

Most of these county roads are in bad shape right now, due partly to the slow rains. But, like one rancher said, "It's better to have a muddy road than a dry pasture."

Commissioners Discuss Jail Expansion

Eastland County Commissioners voted Monday to wait to secure the Lasater property north of the Jail before proceeding with any final Jail expansion construction plans.

Some technicalities remain on the purchase of the more than half-block of land, which is costing $75,000. In about 90 days the county is scheduled to take possession of this property.

While finalizing transfer of the property, the Commissioners also discussed compliance of the present 24-bed jail and possible delay on expansion.

Discussion of the delay came up when Abilene architect James Wheeler told the commissioners he would like their approval to proceed with plans to expand the Jail to a 48-bed facility.

The cost of this project would be around $1.3 million, Wheeler said. "This is a working budget only - it might be more, it might be under," he added.

L.T. Owen, Comm. of Pet. 3, said that he hated to start building unless forced to start. He noted that the current jail population was 12, and everything should be in compliance when the latest work was done on the Inter-com.

Norman Christian, Comm. of Pet. 2, said that he understood that as long as we had the Jail in compliance - or as long as prisoners are hauled somewhere else when the population gets too high - the facility could be kept open.

Richard Robinson, Comm. of Pet. 1, indicated that he thought the Commissioners had no choice to make on delay - they had to go ahead and expand. "The decision has already been made in Austin by the State Jail Commission," he said.

"They put us under a Court order to expand or be shut down - that's the way I understand it."

County Judge Scott Bailey said that the County had been placed under an intermediate order, in which the Jail could be run with up to 24-25 prisoners of a certain class, provided that deficiencies such as the lights and inter-com problems were removed.

"We also have to tell them (the State Jail Standards commission) what plans we have to relieve crowded conditions," the Judge said.

Billy Bacon, Commissioner of Pet. 4, said that he would like to "put it (Jail expansion) off as long as we can ... at least until the present Jail is paid off in 1990."

He also said he would like to "set and wait" until the present Jail had its annual inspection, which is expected to be in February.

During the discussion Richard Robinson said that "transporting prisoners to some other jail is the poorest economics I know of."

Norman Christians replied that it might be cheaper to transport prisoners than to pay interest on the million dollars it would cost to expand the Jail.

Several of the Commissioners mentioned that county prisoners are often arrested over and over, and turned loose each time. This, as well as overcrowding in state prisons, has a bearing on the Jail population here, they said.

Bob Glasgow Announces He Will Seek Re-Election

State Sen. Bob Glasgow has authorized this newspaper to announce that he is a candidate for re-election in the March 8 Democratic Primary.

Sen. Glasgow was elected to the Texas Senate from the 22nd Senatorial District in 1980 and again in 1982 and 1984.

Cited as an "instant superstar" by Texas Business magazine, his legislative record included the passage of forty bills that he sponsored during his first session. This ranked him first among freshmen legislators and seventh among the 181 senators and representatives.

In 1987, Glasgow was selected as one of the "Ten Best" by Texas Monthly magazine and recognized by the Houston Chronicle as having given the Best Speech of the 70th Regular Session during legislative debate. He is additionally one of the main individuals chosen to serve on Legislative conference committees which work out differences in bills being considered by the Legislature.

Sen. Glasgow, a former District Attorney, has carried many measures strengthening the Texas Criminal laws such as an oral confessions bill, legislation to suspend a driver's license upon habitual violation of traffic laws, a measure providing penalties for the manufacture and delivery of imitation controlled substances, a bill creating the offense of tampering with food or drugs and providing for capital punishment for murder committed under this offense, a series of bills relating to oil field theft, and a measure enhancing the penalties for rape. He has also assisted in passing measures enhancing the penalties for sexual abuse of children and child abuse.

To help in ailing Texas economy, he carried an economic development package to enhance business opportunities, which in turn provide additional jobs and infuses more money into the Texas economy.

He is additionally recognized by teachers, administrators and educators as a "friend of public and higher education" having continually supported efforts and funding for a better education system. He has also been commended by the Chairman of the State Board of Insurance for sponsoring legislation which would compel insurers who have violated the Insurance Code to make restitution to consumers they have wronged.

Sen. Glasgow has sponsored and passed legislation in such varied fields as setting standards for firemen's protective clothing and legislation dealing with use of solar energy in state office buildings; he has carried Sunset legislation to continue the State Banking Board, bills assisting other agencies and professions and bills of a local nature for the counties, cities, special districts and colleges in his district. In addition, he carried the legislation for the control of brucellosis in cattle and the bill requiring smoke alarms in sleeping quarters in hotels, motels and boarding houses. He was a cosponsor of legislation restoring the lateral road fund to counties and a proposed constitutional amendment creating the Veterans Housing Assistance Program.

Sen. Glasgow currently serves as Chairman of the Senate Rules Committee, Vice-chairman of the Finance and Economic Development Committees and as a member of the Administration and Criminal Justice Committees. He has additionally been appointed by Lt. Governor Bill Hobby as a member of the Texas Legislative Council and the Tax Equity Committee which during his interim will be studying Texas' current State and local taxation system and making recommendations for changes to the next Regular Session of the Texas Legislature. In making the appointments to the Tax Equity Committee, Hobby stated that "this is a critically important task at this point in Texas history, and we need the best minds at work on the problems."

The Senator also has been named to the Joint Select Committee on Workers' Compensation Insurance. This Committee is to conduct a detailed study of the workers compensation system in Texas and make recommendations as to changes necessary to make the system more efficient and more responsive to the needs of workers and employers.

During his previous tenure on the Select Committee on the Judiciary, the Senator, as Chairman of the Sub-committee on Criminal Matters, directed the compilation of the proposed Criminal Rules of Evidence, a harmonization and integration of the Appellate Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure, and the study into existing problems and suggested reform in the bail bond laws of this State. Additionally, the Senator served on the Texas Legislative Council's Advisory Committee on rewrite of the Rules of Criminal Procedure.

The Senator was born February 28, 1942, in Eastland County. He grew up in Stephenville and graduated from the local high school. He then served three years in the United States Army.

After his discharge, the Senator attended Tarleton State University in Stephenville where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1967. While at Tarleton he served as class president, student body president and was named to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

While attending Tarleton State he met a young lady named Deanna Carr of Huckabay. They were married in 1965 and have three children: Delaina Taylor, Hollie, and Jody.

Upon graduating from Tarleton State, Senator Glasgow entered the University of Texas School of Law and received his Juris Doctorate in 1970. While attending law school, the Senator worked as an administrative aide to Governor Preston Smith and, after graduation, served as Governor Smith's administrative assistant.

In January, 1971, Senator Glasgow returned to Stephenville to enter private law practice.

In October, 1972, the Senator was appointed District Attorney for the 29th Judicial District which serves Erath, Hood and Palo Pinto Counties. He was elected to the post in November, 1972, and was reelected in 1976. He served in that capacity until January, 1980.

Engagements

Justice - Potts

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Foy Justice of Cisco are proud to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sabrenia Kay To Steven E. Potts of Morton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Potts of Woodson.

The couple is planning a January 16, 1988 wedding in Mangum Baptist Church.

Sabrenia and Steven are both graduates of Cisco Junior College.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hines Enjoy 70 Years Together

As of Wednesday, December 30, Henry and Willie Hines, who live five miles west of Carbon near the Pleasant Hill Community, have been married for seventy years.

Born in Bell County near Temple, Henry Hines moved to Eastland County in 1905 with his family when he was eight years old. His parents, Jeff and Mattie Hines, farmed the farm that is now his and Willie's.

A few years later he saw and was attracted to a nine year old girl named Willie who was the daughter of J.L. and Mary Black. The Blacks farmed in the Longbranch Community where Willie was born.

The attraction continued and when Willie was seventeen, Henry took her for his bride. The date was December 30, 1917.

Living on the farm that was first his parents and later his, Henry Hines, with the help of his wife Willie, farmed mostly peanuts and cotton. By cutting down trees and using a mule to pull the stumps, he added about 120 acres to the cultivated land on the farm.

Mr. Hines also worked as a butcher at times in Carbon and Eastland.

After narrowly escaping death with a head injury as a small boy in Bell County, Mr. Hines had enjoyed good health until just recently when he had to pay a visit to the hospital.

Mrs. Hines says that they were poor and had their ups and downs, but they made a living and it was a good life.

Mr. Hines added that they never had a bad disagreement and he called his wife "the best woman in the country."

She says that she praises the Lord for allowing her and her husband to live this long together. She is 87 and he will be 91 in March.

The Hines have been long-time regular members of the First Baptist Church in Carbon where he is a deacon. And friends from the church check on them.

Henry And Willie Hines

Mr. and Mrs. Hines are proud of their two daughters, Mary Arlene McCurry and Marjorie Ruth Adair, their grandchildren, and their great grandchildren.

The McCurrys live in Missouri City, but they plan to move to Eastland soon. The Adairs live in Richmond.

Grandchildren include Dyanne Thompson, Dean McCurry, Marsha Ingram and Chuck Adair.

Brad and Bryan Thompson, Charmange and Forest Beeman, Farah and Zackery Adair, and Kaylen and Scott McCurry are great grandchildren.

Their daughters planned a 70th Anniversary Celebration, but it has been delayed until they can all be present.

The Hines still enjoy being together on their farm, so they have delayed making any plans for when they get old, such as moving to town.

Lights From The Christian World

Josephine Cleveland

On a night nearly 2,000 years ago a Jewish maiden gave birth to a Child. She called his name Jesus, a name that has echoed down the corridors of time. This child lived in solitary life. He was born in an obscure village. He played in the dust among the cobblestones of the tiny village. He worked in a carpenter shop with his earthy father until he was thirty. He then became an itinerate preacher. A few listened to his words and became his followers. Many more despised him and cursed him. He was never elected to any office. He never had a family or owned a house. He never had money to deposit in a bank. He rode on another man's beast. He sailed the lakes in another man's boat. He was buried in another man's grave.

Nineteen centuries have come and gone, and today he is the central figure of the human race and all the armies that ever marched, and all the navies that ever sailed, and all the parliaments and kings that ever reigned, have not affected the life of man on earth as much as this one solitary life.

Today, as during the thirty-three years when Jesus walked among us and offered us peace on earth, goodwill toward men, the world has rejected the program that Jesus came to offer. It was the greatest peace plan the world has ever known.

Nations are still in turmoil. Individuals are suffering at the hands of greedy men. Many are being tortured. There is no room for mercy in the hearts of those who deny that the Child, who was born of a virgin nineteen hundred years ago, is our Emmanuel, God with us. There is no room for the mercy which promises us that we are saved through humble, penitent, trusting faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

Are you puzzled and disturbed? Do you feel there is no way out for you, no way to find release from your dilemmas? Jesus can bring peace to your heart. He can lift your burdens and help you solve your problems. He can forgive your sins. He can make you a new creature and change the direction of your life if you will come in faith and let him be your Savior and Lord of your life. Why wander alone when he offers you so much?

Financial Record Keeping For 1988

If you're paying year-end bills and wondering where your money went in 1987, now may be the time to improve your financial record keeping for 1988.

"The best record keeping system is one that works for you," says Nancy Granovsky, a family economics specialist. "Typically, this will be a simple system that allows you to easily retrieve the information you want and need."

She maintains that an effective record-keeping system will provide a means of organizing and filing receipts, cancelled checks, income statements and other financial papers and a method for summarizing information about income and expenses.

According to the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist, any one of several basic record keeping strategies will be helpful:

•Receipt method. Keep, file and sort receipts according to categories of expense, such as food, utilities, or entertainment.

•Envelope method. Place

the money you have allocated weekly or monthly for each category into an envelope. As you spend the money, write what you spent it for on the envelope.

•Checkbook method. Code each entry in your checkbook according to the category of income or expense.

•Ledger system. Keep detailed daily entries in a ledger. You can buy a record-book in almost any size at a store, obtain one at your county Extension office or make your own forms in a spiral notebook.

I've Been Wrong Before

By Gordon S. Clark

It seems that too many things failed to make a deep impression on me and so I forget far too much. Other things are so vague and blurry that I may recall but with gaps and misconceptions. Many things may be so painful that the mind locks them away tightly. If the human mind could be as impersonal as a computer such survival tactics would not be employed. However, a computer could know neither grief nor joy. Its lack of hate would be nice but it would also probably be incapable of love. It seems we live in a dualist world. No joy without possibility of pain, no love without existence of hate, and no God without the existence of Satan?

How incomprehensible then is heaven wherein there would be no knowledge of evil. Throughout the ages men have striven to live in only one half of our dualist world, to shut out the ugly and the hurtful, to deny pain the right to exist. Yet, this is not how the world is nor has been since the dewy days of Eden.

Some deny the very reality of existence and say there is to them neither joy nor sorrow and neither wrong nor right. A moment's reflection on their premises that wrong does not exist can reveal the hazard there because hardly would they do a thing others consider very wrong that they would need to call upon all their powers of mind control in order to deny the existence of the pain inflicted by the party who considered himself wronged.

If that verges on abstract philosophy I repent of it with the reflection on the reply I got when I asked a highly educated man what philosophy was. He said that everybody had a philosophy whether they recognized it or not even when some peoples philosophy boiled down to nothing more than minding their neighbors business.

That was long ago and among those vague memories is part of an old song about "funny how time slips away". The people do not change so much as their way of looking at things and the way people see and react to actions of others.

If I understand, without looking it up, what an anachronism is, it is something out of proper order in sequence of events. I believe that the term has even been applied to persons and things. In SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGIES then Miniver Cheevy would have been one. The closest I can recall of people seemingly out of time and place were those who were in fact the last of a dying yet noble breed. They seemed to personify a more leisurely and honest way fast disappearing in a cloud of dust stirred up by our hectic, throw away life style.

Carroll Waters was in Carter-Ivy Hardware in Weatherford to pick up an item or two when he asked one of the proprietors, "By the way, I want to know how much I owe. I don't recall getting a statement last month nor this and you must have missed the things I charged here in April."

The old proprietor replied, "Oh, Mr. Waters, Carter-Ivy don't send out dunnies."

Carroll was dismayed and said he meant a statement like any business sent out but he soon learned that while they were not in the slightest worried about what he owed else he would never have received credit in the first place, some old customers would have been highly insulted by a statement and if every anyone got a statement in the mail from Carter-Ivy it WOULD BE A DUNN FOR SURE.

Funny how clearly I remember that conversation that only involved my friend Carroll but I can't remember where I put a certain mans name, address and phone number. I did, while hunting it, run onto a statement from the electric company I might not have paid yet. Maybe I better quit typing and see to such things before a friendly statement turns into a nasty DUNN.

So, maybe it's best to forget "has beans" but I once heard that it is better to be has been than never really was. Or like it said on a business card an older gent handed me at the employment office:

Yes, I realize that my life is all spent,

That my get up and go has got up and went,

But then I recall with a chuckle and grin,

Where that get up and go has got up and been.

•Computer system. Computer software is available that allows each income or expense item to be entered after a system of categories is established.

"When you use a credit card, be sure to record the individual purchases in the appropriate categories," advises Granovsky. "Recording a single credit card payment for a variety of purchases gives you very little information about how your money is being spent."

"None of these methods of keeping track of income and expenses will do much good unless you summarize the transactions on a weekly or monthly basis," she emphasizes.

However, once you have the summaries they will be invaluable for preparing your taxes at year's end, and getting a good grasp on your family's finances."

The specialist says there's no secret to organizing family finances; it's mostly a matter of having the time and discipline to make a record-keeping system work.

Commodity Recertification

It is that time of year when Central Texas Opportunities, Inc., which sponsors the Temporary Emergency Food Assistance Program, must recertify the clients who participate in this much-needed program.

The Texas Department of Human Services' guidelines state that to receive USDA commodities, households must apply once a year in the contracted service area where they live.

Peggy Roberts, Eastland County Center Director, and CTO staff will be in the following locations during the month of January, 1988 to assist clients in filling out their applications.

Outlooks
By Roy Cartee

QUESTION: Mr. Cartee, how does an individual become eligible for the hospice care in the nursing home?

ANSWER: Medicare beneficiaries who reside in nursing homes may elect the hospice benefit if the nursing home care is being paid for by the beneficiary. If the nursing home care is being paid for by Medicaid, the hospice benefit may also be elected if your state does not offer the Medicaid hospice benefit and if the hospice and the nursing home have a written agreement under which the hospice provides for the individual's hospice care needs and the nursing home provides for the individual's room and board. Sounds complicated doesn't it? Well, it is. If any one is interested they should contact their nursing home and determine if the hospice benefit is available.

QUESTION: Mr. Cartee, does Medicare pay for heart transplants?

ANSWER: Dr. William Roper announced that the following facilities have been approved as Medicare's first heart transplant facilities: Medical College of Virginia at Richmond; Stanford University Medical Center; Foster G. McGaw Hospital, Loyola University Medical Center in Maywood, Illinois; University of Minnesota Hospital in Minneapolis; University Medical Center at the Arizona Health Sciences Center in Tucson; the John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore; and the Methodist Hospital and Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. Medicare will only cover heart transplants performed at these locations.

The future seems to be a confusing one for the Medicare receivers. You may want to write to Roy V. Cartee, 900 Avenue H, Cisco, Tx. 76437 if you have a question.

1987 Savings Bonds Sales

United States Savings Bonds sales in Texas during Fiscal Year 1987 amounted to $366,982,471, T.J. Morrow, District Director for the U.S. Savings Bonds Division in Texas, announced today. These sales represent 94.6 percent of the state's 1987 assigned dollar goal of $388 million.

Sales of Series EE Bonds amounted to $2,625.00 during September 1987 in Eastland County, Jim Harris, Volunteer County Chairman, said. The October 1986 through September 1987 total for the County was $394,321.00, which represents 197.1% of the County's 1987 assigned dollar goal.

Nationally, September 1987 sales of Series EE Bonds totaled $474 million and brought total sales of U.S. Savings Bonds to $10.3 billion for Fiscal Year 1987, an increase of 24% over the same period a year ago. The amount outstanding in U.S. Savings Bonds as of September 30, 1987 was $98.5 billion, the highest total in the history of the Bond program.

The average yield for Bonds held since the beginning of the market-based interest rate on November 1, 1982 is 8.75 percent; the rate for the period November 1, 1987 through April 30, 1988 is 7.17%. Outstanding Series EE Bonds, Series E Bonds and Savings Notes held for at least five years after November 1, 1982 are also eligible for this market-based yield. All Series EE Bonds purchased on or after November 1, 1982 - and held at least five years - will earn 85 percent of the average market yield on Treasury marketable securities. Bonds held less than five years earn interest on a fixed, graduated scale.

EASTLAND
Weather made a lot of the news around Eastland County on the Holiday weekend, with a Christmas-day rain turning to mist and ice by late that Friday. Roads became treacherous and sidewalks slippery, but no serious wrecks were reported in the county. Back to the west I-20 was a lot worse, with a 10-car traffic pileup on an overpass east of Putnam. A bright sun has melted the accumulation of ice, but temperatures are still cold.

"Brown Bag Day" at Eastland Memorial Library will be Wednesday, Jan. 6 at 12 noon. Librarian Helen Osburn will give a humorous review of "A Nickles Worth of Skim Milk" - a story about a family during the depression days of the 1930's. Bring your lunch - come out and enjoy this informal, one-hour program.

Eastland Goodfellows delivered Holiday foods, toys and gifts to 120 families, a record number. These families were helped in Eastland, Olden, Carbon and Morton Valley. The recipients wish to thank those who work to make the Goodfellows assistance possible.

The Eastland Music Club, Library, Eastland Telegram and several local individuals have been awarded honors for their work in 1987 on behalf of music. This list of honors has been released by Mrs. Lavoy Whitworth, President of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs. The Eastland Music Club won a double blue ribbon for its Parade of American Music programs during last February. Listed for other special awards were Eastland Memorial Library, Grover Hallmark, Eastland Mayor, Mrs. Jack Frost, Program Chairman of the Eastland Music Club, The Eastland Telegram, and Georgia Dill, Dallas

Composer who presented one of the American Music Week programs in Eastland.

CISCO
Representatives of the Cisco Civic League have presented a check for $1014.69 to the Hilton Community Center. These are the proceeds of "Christmas at the Hilton", a program which featured a community chorus, special Nativity scenes, and refreshments. Eris Ritchie, President of the Hilton Community Center Board, accepted the check on behalf of the group. Ritchie stated, "We cannot adequately thank the Civic League for this gift, and for producing such a wonderful and inspiring program for the benefit of the whole community..." Combined with last year's gift, the Civic League has now made more than $2,000 in profits with their special Christmas program.

The Cisco Goodfellows helped 71 families at Christmas this year, spending around $61 per family. More was spent on larger families and less on smaller ones. Food was furnished for 65 families, with six more families asking only for toys this year. The Cisco people gave generously to those less fortunate than themselves.

A New Year's Eve special communion service will be held at the First Christian Church in Cisco beginning at 11:15 a.m. in the Sanctuary. Ken Diehm, minister of the First United Methodist church, and Roy Cartee, interim minister of the First Christian Church, will conduct the service. The communion is open to all who believe that Christ is the Son of the Living God. The service will be one hour in length, and all are invited to start the year with Christ by receiving the holy communion.

The Gospel Assembly

Church, located at 1000 Ave. A in Cisco will have a Watch Night Service on New Year's Eve. The Service will begin at 8 a.m. and continue until 12 midnight. Several churches from the area will be at the Service with preaching and singing. The Rev. Ken Wheststone, local Gospel Assembly minister, invites everyone to attend this special service. Refreshments will be served after midnight.

RANGER
Ranger Volunteer Fireman delivered toys and food baskets to about 38 families before Christmas. One fire truck, two pickups with one flat-bed trailer were filled with toys and food baskets. During delivery the firemen were called to a grass fire. When they returned the "Toys For Tots" signs had been blown off the fire truck by the wind. After replacing the signs, back on the truck hopped Santa and his helpers to finish their rounds.

RISEING STAR
Rising Star High School is offering Art as an elective class this year, with Mrs. Blanche Byrd as the instructor. The students have been very interested in the work of this class, and have participated in several special projects. One is the making of "Ojos De Dios", or "God's Eyes", and old Indian craft. Another is German paper cutting. In both cases the results have been beautiful. The young people used the "Ojos De Dios" for Christmas gifts.

BAIRD
Owners of the U-U Steakhouse Restaurant and the Baird United Methodist Church Men's Group made a joint presentation of a $400 check to the Callahan County Child Welfare Board last week. The money is the result of all the morning coffee money collected at the U-U being matched dollar for dollar by the Methodist Men's group. This is the second year that this project has been conducted. The money was placed in the Christmas Fund, so that

Bad Battery?

How many times have you seen or had happen to you, "the unknown dead battery." Drive to that haug lake only to be let down. The following are some helpful hints on battery charging so your special outing might be a little brighter.

There are a few little things that will make a big difference in how your battery performs. You want to maintain the battery at full charge at all times. And you want to maintain the proper liquid level in the battery.

Also, you want to recharge as soon after use as possible. Make sure you bring the battery to full charge when recharging, but exercise care that you don't overcharge. Overcharging can cause damage because of overheating or burning. And keep the battery exterior dry and free of corrosion.

The lead sulfate that forms on battery plates as a result of the chemical action that takes place during discharge will harden over a short period of time if the battery is not recharged properly. A sulfated battery will be incapable of accepting a full charge, the capacity will be drastically reduced, and if undercharged many Callahan County children could have presents for Christmas.

Scouts representing each den of Pack 222 presented canned goods they had collected in a door-to-door campaign to the Callahan County Food Pantry. This is in conjunction with the Child Welfare Board. Many county residents will benefit from their hard work.

Ferne Lee, Director of the Baird Meals on Wheels, reports that the Thursday covered dish luncheons will resume at the headquarters on Market St. on Jan. 8. These ladies really serve good food. The Meals program is very busy these days. Some nice donations came in around the Holidays, and all are appreciated.

ing continues the battery will soon become worthless.

A proper liquid level in a battery is important in a battery for two reasons. First, any portion of the plate not covered with electrolyte will dry out and air-harden so as not to accept a future charge. Second, any portion of the plate that is dry during recharging will harden, causing that portion to be lost forever. It is important to add the proper amount of liquid before recharging.

Often it may be impossible to fully charge the battery system during the allocated time between tournament days. In such instances, its best to use the battery as needed, provided the battery system has the capacity to allow this, then recharge after the tournament when time can be given to the recharging process.

If water needs to be added to the cells, be careful not to overfill. That can

Musical At Putnam

There will be a musical at the old school at Putnam, beginning at 6 p.m. on New Year's night, Jan. 1.

Bob Weeks of Eastland will be Master of Ceremonies for the program. A number of musicians from Strawn, Ranger, Eastland, Cisco and the area are also expected to be present.

Blackeyed peas and all the trimmings will be served, at the concession stand. So come out and celebrate the New Year with your favorite music and some good food.

The musicals at Putnam are held the first Friday night of each month in the school building. There is no charge for attendance.

Thursday,

December 31, 1987

cause a number of problems, such as overfilling the acid and overflowing, which leads to excessive corrosion. Generally 1/4 inch of water above the plates is good. And distilled water is the only assurance that harmful mineral deposits are not being placed inside the battery.

A long, slow charge is preferable to a quick, high amp charge, because a quick will not completely remove the sulfate ions from the lead in order to restore the battery to full capacity.

As the battery approaches full charge, it will begin to gas or bubble. Excessive gassing is a sure sign that you should terminate charging, or that the amp rate is too high or too fast.

I want to thank the good folks at G N B Marine Batteries, Hester Batteries and C.C. Risenhoover for their assistance and comments on this piece.

The Next Best Thing -

.....to a clear conscience and a good night's sleep is the feeling of security in owning your own home with a clear title. Peculiar to the real estate field, values are based on land and the improvements thereon, if any. But values on these are based on the title. The title then becomes the most important item to be considered when purchase of real property is contemplated. So be careful to buy good title based on an abstract of title or a policy of title insurance.

In Hollywood, ideas sometimes seem as precious as the Crown Jewels. And, every now and then, two movie companies hit upon the same idea at practically the same time. The latest example of that is the father-son switcheroo. By this we mean a premise that involves a grown father and his young son somehow exchanging identities.

Dudley Moore, the gifted comic actor whose career has been on something of a low boil lately, plays Jack Hammond, a prominent heart surgeon. Kirk Cameron, the latest model teen heart-throb from TV's "Growing Pains," co-stars as his 16 year-old son, Chris. Through what is only described as "a crazy accident," the two exchange personalities and suddenly have to live each other's lives. So Chris finds himself performing delicate surgery (has the AMA heard about this?), while Jack is thrown back in the peculiar territory of high school.

Rod Daniel, who scored a surprise hit some time ago with "Teen Wolf," is the director.

Feature times: Friday, Saturday, and Sunday at 7:30 p.m. All seats are $2.50.

The Ritz Is Closed

Is The Ritz Gone With The Wind? We of Puttin' on the Ritz Inc. certainly hope not. We had to close temporarily because there wasn't enough business to operate profitably. We probably will be closed thru January and February in order to hopefully make favorable changes. We are hoping to raise approximately $25,000 to finish installing our elevator, put billboards on the Interstate, and improve our kitchen and our heating and air conditioning system. Our hope is to continue to make a contribution to the historical interest of Eastland County. People have signed our guest register from almost every state and most say they are impressed with Cisco and its assets. We are grateful to those who have supported The Ritz and we hope we can be more accommodating when we reopen. If anyone would be interested in any part of our secure $20.00 per share stock to assure the improvements please call 442-4707 or write Puttin' on the Ritz Inc., Box 626, Cisco, Texas 76437.

Faithful Workers Sunday School Class Make Gifts

The Faithful Workers Sunday School Class of East Cisco Baptist Church met during the month of November and early in December at the home of Mrs. Doris Crutchfield to choose and make little snowmen Christmas decorations for the residents at the Cisco Nursing Home.

On Nov. 10 they chose the gift pattern from quite a number of handwork examples Mrs. Crutchfield had on display.

On Nov. 17, they got the materials together, met and worked on the project. Again, on Dec. 1, they finished the 60 little decorations and on Friday, they delivered one to each resident of the Cisco Nursing Home, Canterbury Villa. On behalf of the class, two of the ladies made by hand two pillows and a wall plaque. They presented the lovely pillows to Anne and Russell Fink and the lovely picture plaque to Mary Hamilton.

Not all members of the class could be there at any one time, but the ones who could be there enjoyed every minute of making and delivering the gifts and especially visiting with the residents of Canterbury Villa.

This reporter, who is also president of the class, would like to express her heartfelt gratitude to each member of the class for all the help and kindnesses shown her during the month of November.

FIXING LINES-- West Texas Utility workers put in over 30 hours this last holiday weekend to fix downed power lines across Cisco. The lines fell due to the heavy ice on them from the ice storm that came across the big country on Saturday morning. Homes on the Lake Bernie road were without electricity for about five hours and some homes south of town in the country were without electricity for a short time according to a report from the WTU office. The class formed a circle of love, repeated the watchword and was led in prayer by Leona Morton.

Class members sat down at the table, beautifully decorated by Bonnie Ervin and Doris Crutchfield, and enjoyed the delicious meal.

New business was a discussion of gathering canned goods for either the needy or for the church pantry.

Old business was a report on the outreach project.

The ladies exchanged gifts and presented a gift to the teacher, Marie Ivie.

Those who attended were Marie Ivie, Brook, Clara Hallmark, Bonnie Ervin, Jaunita Hill, Doris Crutchfield, Marie Ivie, Omalee Holdridge, Leona Morton and Jewel Kinard.

Keep Texas Beautiful Honored As Best In Nation

Keep Texas Beautiful, Inc., the grassroots arm of the State Department of Highways' "Don't Mess With Texas" campaign, has won the top award in the country as the nation's most successful volunteer litter prevention program.

Keep America Beautiful honored the Texas organization at its annual meeting in Washington last week, calling it a "model for all states in its partnership approach to achieving permanent results in the battle against litter."

With local programs in 265 Texas cities, Keep Texas Beautiful has served as the catalyst for thousands of grassroots initiatives aimed at changing the way Texans think about litter and solid waste.

Keep Texas Beautiful volunteers have placed an educational curriculum in 900 public elementary schools and involved thousands of businesses, civic groups and local governments in projects ranging from sponsoring trash receptacles to recycling to a self-sustaining county litter enforcement program.

At a news conference Monday on the steps of the State Capitol Building, Governor Bill Clements paid tribute to the volunteers who reached and involved 5 million citizens in the Keep Texas Beautiful program last year. KTB volunteers contributed more than $1 million in time spent toward cleanup projects alone.

"I like to think of this award as one brick in the foundation of the new Texas economy," Governor Clements said. "It is proof that Texans care about their State and are making Texas proud, clean and ready for the future."

Funded by a $300,000 contract from the State Department of Highways, Keep Texas Beautiful has become the largest volunteer program of its kind in the nation.

State Highway Commission Chairman Bob Dedman credited the grassroots efforts of Keep Texas Beautiful volunteers and the "Don't Mess With Texas" media campaign with reducing the amount of litter on Texas roadsides by 54 percent over the past two years and saving taxpayers millions of dollars in cleanup costs.

"This award is an honor for Texas and for our partnership approach to solving the litter problem," said Keep Texas Beautiful Executive Director Mary Ellen Shoop. "It is a tribute to our support from the Department of Highways and Public Transportation, the Governor's office, and the literally thousands of volunteers who make our program work. But the real winners are Texas and Texans themselves, whose local economies and quality of life improve with a more attractive environment."

"Not messing with Texas is getting to be a habit, and that's good news for our State's economy," said Dallas realtor Ebby Halliday, who served as Keep Texas Beautiful President during its award year. In addition to accepting Keep Texas Beautiful's award last week in Washington, Halliday was presented with Keep America Beautiful's prestigious Lady Bird Johnson Award for a career of outstanding civic leadership.

This year's Keep Texas Beautiful President, William Snyder of Corpus Christi, urged Texas communities not yet a part of the Keep Texas Beautiful program to consider getting involved through participation in the Governor's Awards offer a blueprint for action in addition to $700,000 in highway department landscape awards as incentives for civic leaders and local government officials to join together in meeting local litter and solid waste challenges head on (1-800-CLEAN-TX.)

Texas Quilt Search Has Begun

Phase Two of the Texas Quilt Search, a massive effort to document the state's quilt heritage, has begun. The first phase, which focused on antique quilts made between 1836 and 1936, is featured in the book Lone Stars: A Legacy of Texas Quilts, 1836-1936.

The authors of Lone Stars are now conducting a second phase of the search. This time they're seeking quilts made by Texans between 1936 and 1986.

Karey Bresnahan and Nancy Puentes are researching these contemporary Texas quilts for a companion volume to their award-winning book Lone Stars II will also be published by the University of Texas Press.

"More than 3,500 quilts were discovered and documented during the first part of this project, which was conducted for the Texas Sesquicentennial," said the authors, who are cousins. "We anticipate fully that many quilts, perhaps more, will be discovered in the period covering the last 50 years of quilt making in Texas."

They add that those 50 years have seen three wars, Texas' move from a rural to essentially an urban state, and the changing role of women and the family, and that they expect those changes to be reflected in the quiltmaker's art.

"Our state is one of the most active and exciting places to be for contemporary quiltmakers. There is a long-standing tradition of fine quilting here, as well as a very strong network of quilt guilds and quilt specialty shops. Furthermore, Houston is the home of both the American -- International Quilt Association, the world's only international quilt organization, and International Quilt Festival, the world's fair of quilts, which annually brings the world's largest quilt show and sale to Texas. There is so much stimulation for quilters that we're sure to see some wonderful work," the authors said.

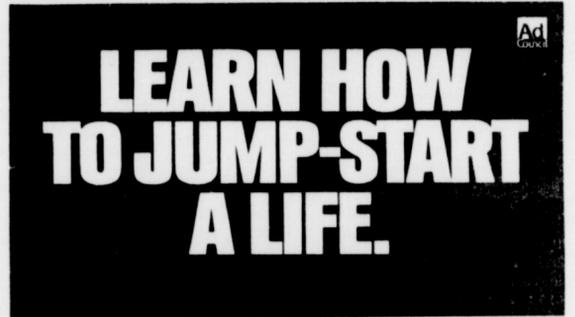

Quiltmakers, their families, or friends should send nonreturnable color photos or slides with a long, self-addressed envelope to Lone Stars II, 10885 Katy Freeway, Suite 968, Houston, Texas 77079. They will be sent a documentation form for completion on each quilt submitted. All photos, slides and documentation forms will become part of the information resources of the non profit Texas Quilt Archives.

The authors' current book, Lone Stars: A Legacy of Texas Quilts, 1836-1936, is selling briskly, according to UT Press, which notes that it is available in book stores, quilt specialty shops, and some gift shops for Christmas giving. The hardcover version is $24.95 plus tax, the softcover is $18.95 plus tax. Copies can also be ordered directly from UT Press by writing University of Texas Press, P. O. ## TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. BERIAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

CONFIDENCE IN DEATH

In the forty years of my ministry I have seen many people approach death and have seen some die.

Some, who knew Christ as their Savior, were ready, even eager, to go to be with Him. Some passed from this scene with songs or words of praise on their lips. Others, who had failed to prepare died in mortal fear, not merely of death, but of what lies beyond.

These things do not always run true to form, however, for I have also seen the most hardened unbelievers go out of this life joking and seemingly unafraid, while on the other hand, I have seen sincere Christians cringe with fear at the approach of death. These human reactions did not change the fact that the unbelievers had reason to be afraid, while the believers need not have been.

The Word of God tells us that "it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment" (Heb. 9:27-28). It is the "after this" that makes men so afraid to die. They fear the truth of Romans 14:12 - "every one of us shall give account of Himself to God."

But wait: I didn't quote all of Hebrews 9:27-28. The full passage reads as follows:

"And AS it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment, SO Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for Him shall He appear the second time apart from sin unto salvation."

This can mean only one thing: That Christ died for us and bore the judgment for our sins—the "second death."

This is why Hebrews 2:9-15 declares that "by the grace of God" Christ "tasted death for every man... that through [His] death He might deliver those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage."

One night a mother said, "Johnny, run outside and get me the mop."

"I'm afraid of the dark," he sobbed.

"Don't be afraid," she replied, "Jesus is there."

Timidly little Johnny opened the door and, looking into the black night, said, "Jesus, please hand me the mop."

But Jesus won't do for you what you can do for yourself.

He will, however, give you faith for your fear, wisdom for your problems, strength for your weakness, and power for your temptation—if you ask Him.

Then you'll be able to say with St. Paul, "I can do everything God asks me to do with the help of Christ who gives me the strength and power."

letters to the editor . . .

Dear Editor,
I use to have perfect recall memory and I have been asked by a number of people to tell the stories I use to tell Barney while we were waiting to get our car or jeep fixed, and to write them up for the paper so others could enjoy them.

As long as Barney was here I never had the time, and I don't really guess I would ever write this if I hadn't lost the most beautiful flint chipped I ever had to work with.

Oh yes, I have about 5 gallons of others left I have been working with until 3:00 in the morning to get them ready to make pictures to sell at the Calvary Baptist sale on December 5, to raise money to help pay for the new building, so the youth of Cisco can have a building with a Christian influence to spend their time in bad weather.

In the Bible it reads, "God paid a ransom to save you from the impossible road to heaven which your father David had to take and the ransom he paid for you was not mere gold or silver, as you very well know. But he paid for you with the precious lifeblood of Christ, the sinless, spotless, Lamb of God. God chose him for this purpose long before the world began, but only recently was he brought into publicity, in these last days as a blessing to you."

Now it also says, "They were finally told that these things would not occur during their lifetime, but long years later during yours. And now at last this good news has been plainly announced to all of us, it was preached to use in the power of the power of some heaven; sent Holy Spirit who spoke to them; and it is all so stange and wonderful that even the angels in heaven would give a great deal to know more about it. So now you can look forward soberly and intelligently to more of God's kindness to you when Jesus Christ returns."

Now in our time of December, 1987, with the whole Bible so very much plainer now (the ships and submarines, plainly the prediction of all plain men darting beneath the water like fish; torches- running cars fast on the highways, airplanes carrying heavy loads in the air, means men fly like birds). We are still waiting for Jesus Christ return, so we need to obey I Peter 1:17, more than in Peter's time.

Back in 1912 and 1913 up to February 23, my and Barney's mother, Mrs. Gussie L. Sarre Hale, knew she would never live to see Barney and I, Oda Ople Hale, grown so she began to tell her mother-in-law, Mrs. Joly Ann Pernounce (Jollie) how she wanted her to teach us to be good honest God fearing children that worked hard to make a honest living here on this planet Earth, and to study God's Bible and live by his teaching. Well, my Uncle Joe Hale made me a hoe out of a brume handle. He sharpened the hoe real sharp with instruction to cut out every other stalk of corn to thin it so it would make good big ears of corn and not to cut myself. He put four on a row between my cousin Era, she was 10 1/2 years older than me, and Uncle Joe. They were soon out of sight. The corn stalks were lot taller than me, I knew better than pick my hoe up and follow them. Well Uncle Joe came back to see how or where I was. The first thing he discovered was I was off my row and on Era's re-thinning it by cutting every other stalk out. He said, "Young lady, (that's what he called me when I didn't do things right) I give you to understand Era does her work right, now you get back on your row." Well, Barney could see a white cotton bale a way back on my row and he always sent me back after it so at a early age I learned if I didn't do my work right I would have to redo it.

I was as curious as a kitten. I wanted to know what those marks were saying in books so I had my oldest Aunt Sallie Hale read to me out of the only Book she had, God's Bible, at about the age of 3-years old. The subjects in school were all a natural, except spelling and English were the impossible subjects for "Little Oda", as my mother and Grandma Hale called me, in their written but unmailed letters I found in my mother's trunk after I was 21-years old. Her trunk was kept locked by my Dad and Uncle Joe until then.

My first real memory was the night Barney was born and everything that followed in the week that followed. I begged my Daddy to take me to Mymc home each time he was helping Mr. Arch Harrelson grub out the tree by the roots just leaving the pecan trees along the South branch of the Leon Creek at 75 cents a day from sunup to sundown.

A Mr. Payne sold land to Mr. Wm Morgan, my grandfather, recorded on deed on February 5, 1882, and then a deed was recorded that from Wm Morgan to John Hale and wife Joly Morgan, on February 5, 1892, to John Hale about 50 acres of land. There were seven real rocky bluffs that great grandpaw made rocky fences on that still hold cattle. There is a foot trail up these bluffs and one travelled a long ways up. North East there is a canyon so deep there is about 40 acres, access only by foot, so rocky that there is very little grazing can grow. There the rattler and copper head snakes have their dens. Also
