Cisco Police Are Busy Over Weekend Making Arrests For Drug Possession

Cisco police arrested six men over the weekend for charges ranging from theft, drug charges and driving while intoxicated, according to Billy Rains, Cisco Chief of Police.

At 1:55 a.m., Saturday morning officers Larry Weikel and Donald Wiley stopped a 26-year old male on West 8th and Ave. M. The officers recognized the man as having a capia profine warrant against him out of the 91st District Court. During the arrest the officers found a small bag of marijuana. He was charged with a Class B possession of marijuana.

Later that morning at 6:27 a.m., officers Donald Wiley, Larry Weikel and Chief Billy Rains arrested a 20-year old man for possession of a controlled substance with the intent to deliver in the 1100 block of Conrad Hilton. The Cisco police officers were acting on a confidential information tip they had received. An undetermined amount of white powder believed to be speed was found on the subject. He was taken to the Eastland County Jail.

At 1:25 p.m., Saturday, Cisco Police officer Frank Thumsuden arrested two 24-year old white males from Bedford, on warrants out of Tarrant County, for possession of a controlled substance. They were taken to Eastland County jail awaiting transport back to Fort Worth.

At 3:30 p.m., Saturday, officer Chris Key arrested a 19-year old male at Thrift Mart grocery store after he was caught stealing three packs of cigarettes by the store manager. The man was taken before the city judge and fined $89.00.

At 7:49 p.m., Saturday, officer Chris Key arrested a 51-year old man at West 9th and Conrad Hilton for Driving While Intoxicated. He was taken to Eastland County Jail.

Cisco police officers were also busy over the weekend investigating thefts in the city. Early Friday morning Butch Willingham on East 21st reported the theft of his 1979 aluminum bass Tracker III. The 16ft outboard bass boat had a 1979 Mercury 40 hp engine. The boat and the boat trailer, valued at $5,900 were stolen from Willingham's carport sometime between 6:30 p.m., Thursday and 8:00 a.m. Friday. Chief of Police Billy Rains is investigating the incident.

Chief Rains is also investigating a reported theft by deception, reported by Charles Taylor last Friday. Rains said it involves the trade of a vehicle for a mobile home and cash. He said the theft was valued at $160 cash.

Officer Kenneth Preston and Chief of Police Billy Rains investigated a call about a theft from the Cisco Steak House. Rains said someone had taken various bedding items, including blankets, sheets and towels from a motel room. The theft was discovered at 10:45 a.m.

Sunday morning. The value of the items was placed at $82.00.

Police officer Frank Thumsuden is investigating a case of criminal mischief at the Cisco Dairy Queen. The front windows and the sliding side window at the Dairy Queen were shot with what appeared to be BB guns. The amount of damage was unknown at the time of the report.

"Project Graduation" is a chemical-free celebration concept developed by and for high school students in the state of Maine. The project began at one high school in 1980 after having lost seven seniors in alcohol-related fatal crashes the preceding year. As of the end of 1984 school year, 103 of 130 high schools in Maine held Project Graduation activities. The fact that there were no alcohol related fatal crashes involving students at these schools during the months of May and June for the past three years is testimony enough of the worth of such a project.

The concept has subsequently spread to other states during the past several years, and as a result of a national conference in Springfield, Ill., in March, 1984, introduced a few representatives from the State of Texas. Even though the time remaining to graduation was short, two high schools initiated projects at the end of the school year. Both were highly successful and received statewide attention.

The projects are organized by students, and parents with the support of churches, and the local community. Although the project graduation taking place are designed primarily for the graduating class, the development, organization and participation is not necessarily exclusive of other school students or parents. It would be to the advantage of any underclassman and his parent to help with

Plans Are Being Made For This Year's Project Graduation

Senior Class parents of 1988 Cisco graduating seniors are extending an invitation to all Eastland County seniors and parents to join them in making plans for Project Graduation 1988.

Project Graduation will be held after Friday, May 27, 1988 graduation exercises. Eastland County and area seniors will be invited to attend the all night graduation party.

Cisco Junior College has graciously offered the facilities of the Student Union Building for the affair. Food, games, music, bowling, video games, pool, ping pong and movies will be offered for the night. Plans are in the making to gather door prizes galore for Project Graduation.

For any parent, it is a terrible thing to contemplate and an awful, impossible thing to live with - the tragedies that seem, inevitably, to accompany the excitement and pride of high school graduation week.

Parents try their best to explain the facts of life and booze to kids. Forbidding alcoholic beverages, preaching temperance, warning of the consequences of drinking and driving - all of it works, a little, but not if it can't completely overcome the irresistible social pressures, the coercive peers, the temptation unleashed on any high school student, especially this time of year.

Some kids listen, some of them don't; but every parent knows that it only takes one time, one party, one concession to the crowd and a drunken trip behind the wheel to snuff out a life that was given so much love and held so much promise.

The months of May and June are a period of high anxiety for thousands of parents who have invested time and money and personal sacrifice in the life of a child who is becoming an adult. They know about the beer parties, the camps, the rented motel rooms and apartments that will be crammed with drunken kids, their kids, with car keys in their pockets.

This year, parents in a number of Texas communities who are tired of feeling powerless and able to do nothing more than pray and watch the clock on graduation night are determined to do something different. They decided to offer their child, and every child, an alternative to alcohol at graduation time. They are committing themselves to a program that will show kids they don't need booze to have a good time. Maybe they'll save a life in the bargain.

In Cisco, parents are planning to provide an alternative to graduating seniors of the area on graduation night. Already, great plans are being made for Project Graduation for a memorable night. With the consent of Cisco Junior College, area seniors have been offered the use of the College Student Center. How lucky we are to have this facility, with a generous administrator, in our town.

The program deserves the support and participation of young men and women who will be graduating--especially the student leaders in the school. If there is ever a time that visibility, popularity and leadership mean anything, it is at graduation time.

But if this program is going to have the appeal it must have to attract these students, its organizers need the support of the community. They need funds from donations, they need chaperones, fund solicitors, people who will donate food, baked goods, and drinks for the receptions and parties--the whole gamut, from the

Super Tuesday May Alter Local Politics

The national media has focused attention on the presidential candidate selection process in Iowa and New Hampshire. There aren't that many votes in the two states, but the real contenders are being separated from those who are "testing the waters" or gaining name recognition that might help them in later political races.

Among Democrats, Michael Dukakis has the lead with Dick Gephardt and Paul Simon following. Al Gore, a name we have heard mentioned locally, and Jesse Jackson, who has the best name recognition, have done poorly, but may pick up more votes in the South. The other six candidates don't look like contenders this early.

The Republican list is being trimmed to the real presidential and maybe vice-presidential contenders. Vice President George Bush, Bob Dole and Pat Robertson are leading early with Jack Kemp looking more like a strong vice-presidential candidate at this point.

But Super Tuesday is March 8 and the South, including Texas, will make its opinions known, and the lead could change drastically or stay about the same. We won't know until after Super Tuesday. More people are registering to vote this year and it may be because they like one of the presidential candidates.

The only 'grass roots' campaign for a presidential candidate that we have been able to learn about here at the newspapers is the local Pat Robertson effort.

Richard Watson of Gorman is Chairman of a district that stretches from Weatherford to Snyder in the Robertson organization and Jerry Luster of Cisco is the Eastland County campaign Chairman.

Local volunteers are canvassing by phone, distributing information, stickers and signs, and showing video programs for the Pat Robertson campaign.

The response they are receiving is the only local indicator that we have seen. And the favorable response they are receiving seems to agree with Kent Hance's statement that he expects the Republican race to be between George Bush and Pat Robertson in Texas. Bush is a resident of Texas and Pat Robertson's strong Christian beliefs are more popular in Texas and the South.

If more people are registering to vote as a result of the Robertson campaign, it can be assumed that more people will vote in the Republican Primary this year. And a large turnout at the Republican Primary can change the thinking in a county where local candidates have almost always run on the Democratic ticket, and are doing so this year.

voters responses totalled, the results were 13 percent for Robertson, 26 percent opposed to him and 60.5 percent undecided.

Eastland worker Clay Wheat said that most of those opposed to Robertson stated plans to vote for a Democratic candidate and a few were prejudiced against him because he is also a preacher. He said that otherwise people seemed to agree with his platform and beliefs.

The large number of undecided voters seems to indicate an inclination of local voters to look at the individual candidates of both parties rather than to just follow a label. And of course many wait until the last week of the campaign to take time to look at the candidates and decide.

What also reported that many people wanted to help with the Robertson campaign. In Ft. Worth with word-of-mouth advertising, over 600 who wanted to help showed up and paid $6 a plate for dinner, so the feeling seems to be widespread.

It may be that all of the local officials elected this year will be elected by a minority of the voters. If that happens, some losing candidates may reason that they could win if all of the voters got to vote on them.

In a two party situation a candidate is only voted on by all of the voters in the General Election. The popular thinking that a local candidate must run in the Democratic Primary to be elected could change when one considers that the county has been going Republican for some state and national offices while going Democratic for others.

Candidates could decide that the best way to oppose an incumbent would be to run on the other ticket rather than on the same ticket. That way if there were only two strong candidates, all of the voters would pick the officeholder.

The local Pat Robertson organization, which is trying to call every registered voter here, reports that with about one third of the Eastland

Robert Dale, Jr. And Brandy Tyrone Weeks Featured In "The Texas Fiddler"

Reprinted - "The Texas Fiddler"
ROBERT DALE, JR. and BRANDY TYRONE WEEKS

by Norma Gilbert
Two newcomers on the Texas fiddling scene are Robert Dale, Jr. and Brandy Tyrone Weeks. Robert, born June 2, 1977 and Brandy, born November 4, 1979 are the talented sons of R.D. and Bonnie Gray Weeks, Sr. of Eastland, Texas. Perhaps being sons of a fiddler and hearing music since birth gave these young fiddlers a head start, for both have made remarkable progress in the short time they have been playing.

Except where music is concerned, Robert and Brandy are typical of most youngsters their age. During school terms, both attend Siebert Elementary School in Eastland, and both make good grades. They like swimming, bicycle riding, sports, and watching their favorite football team, the Houston Oilers, on television. They like vacations, too, and getting to stay with their Uncle Dick and Aunt Louise Weeks.

It was December, 1986 when Robert and Brandy told their dad they wanted to play the fiddle. Since their father had "waited a lot of years to have a son play the fiddle," his pleased reaction was "to run and get the fiddle before they could change their minds." At first, the boys learned simple tunes like "Mary Had a Little Lamb" and "Boil the Cabbage." They rapidly went through a fiddle course by Mrs. Carolyn White of Uvalde, Texas that teaches tunes by numbers and were soon out of new tunes to learn so their father began writing tunes by number for them. Very shortly, the boys were playing more difficult tunes, learning more just by listening, and adding some of their own fiddle licks. They worked to improve and were fortunate to have so many people to help and encourage their efforts. Their parents and younger sister, Raymond Hart, Al Anderson, and many other musicians, friends, and relatives played a large part in getting them off to a good start.

Although Robert and

Brandy had not been playing long when the 1987 contest season started, both began competing. The contests were fun, and especially so when they stayed overnight at a motel with a swimming pool! Crockett was named as one favorite. At that point, neither youngster had won much but each earned one of the belt buckles presented to winners there and considers it a most-prized award. Brandy also favors his 1st Place award from the Fort Worth Town Center Contest and Robert is very proud of his 1st Place Texas-shaped award from the Gilmer Yamboree Contest. Both like their 1987 TOTFA State Contest awards. The boys earned several awards each by the end of the contest season. They also earned honors in two pageants. In the Kids of America Beauty and Talent Pageant, Robert placed 1st in the 10-17 Talent Division while Brandy placed 3rd in the 9-under Talent Division and 1st in the Mr. Handsome Division, making both eligible for further competition at Dallas in July, 1988. In the America's Charisma Pageants, each placed 1st in his Talent Division and may now compete at San Antonio in May, 1988. Just as important to Robert and Brandy as the awards and honors, was the fact that their fiddling hero, Wes Westmoreland, helped them with a new tune.

Since taking up fiddling, Robert and Brandy devote a lot of time to it. They practice an hour each day during school terms and two hours a day during vacations. In addition to competitive fiddling, they often play for hometown events, civic groups, school programs, or one of the monthly musicals in their area. They play twice a month at resthomes and are also helping a young friend learn to play the fiddle.

Robert and Brandy Weeks have just experienced one year of happy and successful fiddling. Hopefully, they will experience many more.

4-H NEWS

By Crystal Wilbanks, County Agent—

The 4-H Showmanship Clinic and Contest was a tremendous success last Saturday, with over 100 people attending the day's activities.

Showmanship and grooming classes were held for Horses, Sheep, Beef, and Swine. Taci Ellis, Vocational Ag teacher from Woodson, taught the sessions with help from students Cary Matthews, J. Lee Potts, Jim McComas and Gary Matthews. Mrs. Ellis and her students did an excellent job in teaching the participants how to show their animals and prepare them for the upcoming Eastland County Livestock Show.

Following the classes, a showmanship contest was held in each division. Trophies and ribbons were sponsored by the Eastland County 4-H Adult Leaders and Parents Association.

Results are as follows: Champion Horse Showman - Tessie Ingram of Cisco; Champion Sheep Showman - Diane Butler of Eastland; Champion Beef Showman - Kerstin Gerhardt of Cisco and Champion Swine Showman - Diane Butler of Eastland.

Special thanks goes to John Gerhardt, Gary Butler, Skeet Wilbanks, Delbert Grace, and Ray

The successful bidder, upon award of the contract, will be furnished with a permit number, which will enable him to purchase the required materials without payment of such taxes.

7. Specifications and plans may be obtained from the Architect, Huckabee and Donham, Architects and Planners, Drawer 611, Stephenville, Texas 76401, 817-968-5588, in accordance with the stipulations set forth under Deposits and Refunds, bound in the Specifications.

Addenda will become part of the contract documents when the construction contract is executed.

11. Each bidder, by making his bid, represents that he has read and understands the bidding documents.

12. Each bidder, by making his bid, represents that he has familiarized himself with the local conditions under which work is to be performed.

13. All bids must be prepared on the form provided by the Architects and submitted in accordance with the instructions to Bidders.

14. A bid is invalid if it has not been deposited at the designated location prior to the time and date for receipt of bids indicated in the Advertisement or Invitation to Bid, or prior to any extension thereof issued to the bidders.

15. Unless otherwise provided in any supplement to the Instructions to Bidders, no bidder shall modify, withdraw or cancel his bid or any part thereof for thirty days after the time designated for the receipt of bids in the Advertisement or Invitation to Bid.

Addenda issued after the receipt of bids will be mailed or delivered only to the selected bidder.

17. Each bidder shall examine the bidding documents carefully, and not later than seven days prior to the date for receipt of bids, shall make written request to the Architect for interpretation or correction of any ambiguity, inconsistency or error therein which he may discover. Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

A search is presently underway for "Orphan Train" riders, especially those now living in Texas, or were brought to Texas.

Between 1854 and 1929, over 150,000 orphaned, abandoned and homeless children were taken out of the institutions of New York City, and transported by trains to rural America.

At stops along the way, the children were lined up on railway station platforms, churches, schools, and opera houses for local residents to look them over and perhaps choose a child to take into their homes.

Those not chosen were loaded back on the train, traveling to the next stop where the entire procedure was repeated.

Texas has received 1,527 of these children by 1910, according to a New York Children's Aid Society report. The number of infants brought by the Foundling Hospitals on "Baby Trains" is not known.

The United States Catholic charities also placed-out infants and children. Agents arranged in advance for families to accept the waifs when they arrived.

Federal child welfare reform laws were enacted in 1929. The "Orphan Trains" were stopped forever.

The Orphan Train Heritage Society of America, Inc. (OTHS) is a clearinghouse for information concerning the history of the era.

Your readers are invited to share any information they have about Orphan Train riders, or if they would like a free OTHSA newsletter, send an SASE to: OTHSA, Rt. 4 Box 565, Springdale, AR 72764.

"Jimmy Swaggart Confesses Sin" was the headlines across the top of some of the Metroplex's largest newspapers this week.

Many of us realize that if Swaggart, who is a preacher or evangelist of a denomination that I don't belong to, had led one million people to Jesus Christ, his name would not be in these newspaper headlines.

Was the fact that TV personality Swaggart has sinned newsworthy? Not really, the Bible tells us that Swaggart, you, I, and everyone has sinned; that only God is perfect.

Is Swaggart's confession then worthy of headlines? Yes, it must be as the Bible tells us that Jesus Christ, the Son of God, came to Earth and died a horrible death in order that those who believe and trust in him and confess their sins may be forgiven and be able to live forever in heaven with Christ.

Anything important enough for the Son of God to willingly die such a death is certainly deserving of newspaper headlines.

Swaggart's being a preacher and celebrity only points out that everyone needs the forgiveness of the only perfect one in order to avoid damnation.

Wheelchair Athletes Compete In Biathlon

(Editor's Note: The following article is a reprint from "Sports 'n Spokes", January/February 1988 edition.)

About $2500 was raised by the Second Annual Sunrise Lions Biathlon in Kerrville, Texas, in November. The money was donated to the Lions Camp for disabled children.

Among the participants in the biathlon were wheelchair athletes Troy Jones of Eastland, Texas, a former camper at the Texas Lions Camp, and Sherry Baker of San Antonio, a multi-gold medal winner in national competition.

Jones teamed with bicyclist Bruce Witter to win first place in the mixed-team wheelchair division. Baker came in second with Paul Yocum.

May I suggest that a master of ceremonies be appointed to introduce groups that appear at the Majestic Theatre, Saturday February 20, 1988, the Glory Road Singers gave an excellent concert. They came from Bridgeport, Texas at the last minute to replace the group scheduled. They walked out on the stage without any introduction and it was embarrassing to them and I also was embarrassed for them. I hope this does not happen in the future.

Thank you,

"Jimmy Swaggart Confesses Sin" was the headlines across the top of some of the Metroplex's largest newspapers this week.

Many of us realize that if Swaggart, who is a preacher or evangelist of a denomination that I don't belong to, had led one million people to Jesus Christ, his name would not be in these newspaper headlines.

Was the fact that TV personality Swaggart has sinned newsworthy? Not really, the Bible tells us that Swaggart, you, I, and everyone has sinned; that only God is perfect.

Is Swaggart's confession then worthy of headlines? Yes, it must be as the Bible tells us that Jesus Christ, the Son of God, came to Earth and died a horrible death in order that those who believe and trust in him and confess their sins may be forgiven and be able to live forever in heaven with Christ.

Anything important enough for the Son of God to willingly die such a death is certainly deserving of newspaper headlines.

Swaggart's being a preacher and celebrity only points out that everyone needs the forgiveness of the only perfect one in order to avoid damnation.

Wheelchair Athletes Compete In Biathlon

(Editor's Note: The following article is a reprint from "Sports 'n Spokes", January/February 1988 edition.)

About $2500 was raised by the Second Annual Sunrise Lions Biathlon in Kerrville, Texas, in November. The money was donated to the Lions Camp for disabled children.

Among the participants in the biathlon were wheelchair athletes Troy Jones of Eastland, Texas, a former camper at the Texas Lions Camp, and Sherry Baker of San Antonio, a multi-gold medal winner in national competition.

Jones teamed with bicyclist Bruce Witter to win first place in the mixed-team wheelchair division. Baker came in second with Paul Yocum.

May I suggest that a master of ceremonies be appointed to introduce groups that appear at the Majestic Theatre, Saturday February 20, 1988, the Glory Road Singers gave an excellent concert. They came from Bridgeport, Texas at the last minute to replace the group scheduled. They walked out on the stage without any introduction and it was embarrassing to them and I also was embarrassed for them. I hope this does not happen in the future.

Thank you,
Gall Dennis

KEEP ATTIC VENTS OPEN

Wrapping the attic vents on your roof with plastic because you think it will reduce energy costs, will actually increase them and may damage your insulation. Attic ventilation performs the vital functions of air flow and moisture removal. The air removal feature is most important in the summer, when ventilation through the vents reduces the hot air in the attic space. During the winter, moisture produced inside the house tends to migrate to the outside. Part of this moisture passes through the roof into the attic area. By placing plastic over roof vents, the homeowner is shutting off ventilation so that the condensation of moisture can occur in the attic space. Once this moisture has condensed in the attic, it will settle in the insulation, reducing its effectiveness and adding to your energy bills.

Over several heating seasons, moisture trapped in the attic may also cause structural damage. When there is no moisture-vapor proof barrier between the attic insulation and the ceiling, as is the case in many Texas homes, wet insulation can cause sagging or wet spots on the ceiling.

Moisture held against wood in the attic may also eventually cause it to rot. If you are concerned about losing heat through the attic, you should check to see if the pull-down stairway or other attic access inside your house is insulated.

Adding an insulation batt over this area will help reduce energy costs without damaging the rest of the attic insulation.

MOLD ON WALLS

Mold grows because condensation is occurring as a result of high humidity and low surface temperatures. Furniture, pictures, cabinets and other objects mounted on exterior walls can act as insulation. This causes the surfaces behind these objects to be cooler than exposed surfaces. If the humidity is high enough, the temperature of the walls behind these objects can be below the dew point, resulting in condensation.

Mold grows when enough moisture is available to germinate bacteria on these surfaces. This problem generally occurs only on poorly insulated exterior walls and in conditions of relatively high humidity.

The immediate solution is to move furniture away from outside walls, remove pictures, and open cabinet doors, and/or, use a small fan to circulate air behind furniture or through closets.

The humidity also may reduce by increasing ventilation with exhaust fans. If the relative humidity in your house is very high, with levels above 60%, an exhaust fan should be operated continuously until the humidity drops to below 50%. Eventually, you should try to maintain humidity levels in the 30% to 40% range. The long-term solution to mold buildup is to improve the insulation in your exterior walls. If this is not feasible, humidity control and good air circulation should keep the problem from reoccuring.

RECIPE FOR THE WEEK:

Salads are a favorite. I know everyone always enjoys a new recipe. The recipe for this week is Tomato Cornbread Salad. This is delicious when served with barbecue, ham, and that ever popular fried chicken. Blackeyed peas and fried okra would complement this salad in grand style.

TOMATO CORNBREAD SALAD

1 (9x9 inch) pan of cooked cornbread
3 med. chopped tomatoes
1 med. chopped bell pepper
1 med. chopped onion
10 slices cooked, crumbled bacon
1 cup mayonnaise
Combine all ingredients. Blend in mayonnaise. Chill until serving time. Makes 10 servings.

April Moylan, 14 year old Eastland County 4-H member, had the Reserve Champion Chianina Steer at the 39th Annual San Antonio Livestock Show. April's steer named "Planter" has won numerous breed championships during the summer and fall livestock shows. April is currently leading the Texas Club Calf Association in the A.O.B. category, as well as being second in the All-Around Standings. April will be in San Antonio this Friday to sell her steer in the Sale of Champions. She is the daughter of Jim and Sharon Moylan and the grand daughter of J.D. and Faye Wilson of Eastland.

Local Students To Attend Houston Livestock Show

The largest livestock show of the season in Texas is occurring soon...the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. Well over 3000 entries are expected in the Junior show this year, with 13 of those entries coming from Eastland County 4-H members.

Exhibiting a market steer for competition includes Brian Bailey of Rising Star and April Moylan and Ben Coan, both of Eastland. Three purebred heifers will compete against the best, owned by Toby Long and Brian Bailey of Rising Star and LaDawn Little of Ranger. Competing in the toughest market hog show in the state are Erin and Eric McDonald of Ranger, Maria Smith and J.J. Clark of Gorman and Paul Groce of Eastland. Paul and sister, Lyndee Groce will also exhibit market lambs during the Houston show.

The notoriety of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo has grown over the years and is known in livestock circles as the most prestigious event of it's kind.

4-H Project Show Committee To Meet

The Eastland County 4-H Parents/Adult Leader's Association will be sponsoring a countywide 4-H Project Show on March 17, in conjunction with the County Livestock Show activities.

The project show committee is Mrs. Patti Cozart, Mrs. Joann Greenwood, of Ranger; Mrs. Dorene Schuyler, of Cisco; and Mrs. Princess Krantz, of Eastland.

The planning committee will meet this Friday, February 26, at noon at the Eastland Dairy Queen states. Mrs. Janet Thomas, county Extension Agent-Home Economics.

The purpose of the 4-H Project Show is to provide 4-H'ers with the opportunity to show their talents and project handiworks. Mrs. Thomas states, that there will be many divisions to enter...everything from leathercraft, woodwork, needlecraft, photography, poster art, etc.

4-H'ers wishing to enter the 4-H Project Show are encouraged to pick up a complete listing of all the different project show categories from the Eastland County Extension Service office.

The Majestic Goes "Overboard"

This film is a cute and cozy comedy starring the cute and cozy couple, Goldie Hawn and Kurt Russell. The couple, who are married in real life, have a kind of easy intimacy that makes us feel like we're eavesdropping. Goldie plays a bored and pampered heiress who barks orders at everyone. For particularly abusive treatment, she singles out a handsome carpenter whose grim fate is to build a shoe cabinet for her yacht. When Princess Goldie fails to pay for the work and then falls overboard and loses her memory, her husband sees a chance for freedom. The widowed carpenter, played by none other than Kurt, sees a chance for revenge. He claims her as his wife, which is a quick, vengeful way for him to get a free housekeeper and mother for his four hell-raising sons.

"Overboard" provides a genuinely good, cute time and is rated PG. Feature times: Friday, Saturday and Sunday, 2:30 p.m. All seats are $2.50.

The Next Best Thing -
.....to a clear conscience and a good night's sleep is the feeling of security in owning your own home with a clear title. Peculiar to the real estate field, values are based on land and the improvements thereon, if any. But values on these are based on the title. The title then becomes the most important item to be considered when purchase of real property is contemplated. So be careful to buy good title based on an abstract of title or a policy of title insurance.

The famous Baird chef, Skip Parker, will be assisted by the political candidates, all wearing aprons and ready to help serve. At 7:30 p.m. a Homemade Baked Goods Auction will be held, so that delicious baked items may be carried home. All proceeds will be used to continue work on the historic Depot.

The Baird United Methodist men have begun a drive to establish a Blood Bank for the whole community of Baird. Commitments of participation have been made by the Baptist Church, and it is hoped that all the Churches and businesses in Baird will participate. The drive will be held on March 3 at the Community Center/Housing Authority Center from 4-8 p.m. Hopefully a minimum of 50 units of blood will be reached.

EASTLAND
Eastland County will host the Texas Old Time Fiddlers Benefit Show at the Majestic Theatre on Saturday, Feb. 27. The event will begin at 1 p.m., with entertainment until 6 p.m. All will be open to the public without admission charge. There will be a special appearance on the Folk Dance Group from Siebert Elementary School, with local fiddlers Robert and Brandy Weeks. During the afternoon arts and crafts will be sold to benefit the State Fiddlers Association, which has members in most parts of Texas. Robert Weeks Sr. is the local coordinator for the statewide convention, and extends a welcome to local people and all visitors to this area.

A program of classical music will be presented at the Majestic Theatre by the College Symphony Orchestra at 8:15 p.m. on Tuesday, March 1. The 60-member group is composed of musicians from Hardin Simmons and Abilene Christian University, and McMurry College. Conductor of the Orchestra is W. John Williams, who was burned in a grass fire accident in Stephens County last week, is in need of 60 to 70 pints of blood. He is presently in the Parkland Burn Unit in Dallas. Williams, who lives in Breckenridge, is the Treasurer of the Cisco Baptist Association, and a good friend of Pastor Cecil Deadman of the East Cisco Baptist Church. Deadman says there will be a blood drive for Williams in Breckenridge on Saturday, Feb. 27 at the First Christian Church. The drive will be held from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. A bus will leave East Cisco Baptist Church at 9:30 a.m. on that date, and will take anyone to Breckenridge who will donate blood for Mr. Williams.

The Cisco High School Seniors who are planning to go on the Class trip following graduation will sponsor a Bake Sale at the First National Bank Friday, Feb. 26, beginning at 9 a.m. Special orders may be placed by calling Peggy Phillips at 442-1264 by Wednesday afternoon.

Vina Burns, teacher of the Adult Education Classes in Cisco, encourages any adult who would like to receive their GED to attend the classes. These are held each Monday and Thursday, 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Cisco High School. Also there are classes for students who already have their GED or High School Diploma, but who want to brush up on their math or English. There are also classes for anyone who would like to learn English as a second language, or for any adult who would like to learn to read. All the classes, as well as workbooks used, are free.

Fishing Outdoors

By Terry Wilson

A recent outing to Lake Proctor showed me one again just how fickle the Micropterus Salmoides (Largemouth bass) can be. This is even more so during pre-spawn water temperatures. One week prior to this outing water temperatures were stable in high 40 degrees. Catches were reported as being good, with many four pound fish being caught. Two lunkers over seven pounds were taken. All these fish were caught in 2.5 feet of water. This past weekend things turned around. Water temperatures actually improved, raising to 52 degrees. But the fishing slowed down to a crawl. What happened? My guess would be the warmer water prompted those lunkers to begin roaming, in search of those spawning grounds. The Brownwood Bass Club held their February Club Tournament at Lake Proctor Saturday 21st. Fifty-two anglers beat the water to a froth with only fair results. Fourteen anglers were able to land a bass 14" or longer. Winning string was caught by Chuck Loudermilk, 3 fish 12 ounces. As you can see, with only 14 anglers able to connect. Fishing had fell off, even with warmer water temps.

Other area lake reports were just as fickle: Leon - black bass fair to 6 pounds, very few fish over 14", on north banks in protected pockets, crappie very good in numbers. Brownwood - black bass very good to 3 pounds on spinners and lizards; crappie fair up both creeks, catfish good to 4 pounds. Pioneer - black bass slow to 3 1/2 pounds on spinners, no other reports. Lake Cisco - black bass fair to 4 pounds on jigs in 12 feet of water.

Bass pros know these submerged hilltops as "humps", and many count them as the most productive of deep-water structures.

Find some in the best depth range for bass on the day you're fishing. Work them properly, and you're very likely to catch bass. Humps are good fish attractors for several reasons, prime among them is the fact that very few fishermen bother to find them. These hilltops also serve as oases of cover amid acres of open, empty water, luring baitfish and their predators.

In winter and summer, locate humps at likely depths by searching for circles on a topographical map. Pinpoint them with a depth-finder and fish with worms, the jig and pig, tailspinners, jiggling spoons or swimming lures like Cordell Spots. If fishing the tops of humps doesn't produce, drag bottom hugging lures down or up the slopes, testing other

Fifteenth Annual "Nostalgia Night" To Be Presented

Dinner will begin at 7:00 p.m. and the music will start at approximately 8:00 p.m. After 30 to 45 minutes of listening music, dessert and coffee will be served during the intermission, and the stage band will return to the stand.

depths bass may be holding. Till next cast, keep your feet dry, and good fishing. Terry L. Wilson

County to be represented in 'Miss Rattlesnake Classic'

Three girls will be representing Eastland County this weekend in the "Miss Rattlesnake Classic 1988" beauty pageant in Breckenridge.

Contestants from Eastland County will include Lela Reye Beckett, daughter of Robert and Dawn Beckett of Cisco; Debbie Endsley, daughter of Bruce and Ginger Stovall of Cisco; and Angela Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Gregory of Eastland.

A total of 15 teenage girls will compete for the title during the Breckenridge Kiwanis Club's First Annual Rattlesnake & Gun Show Classic. The two-day event will be held Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 27 and 28, in the Stephens County Agriculture and Community Center, located along Hwy. 180 East in Breckenridge.

There will be girls from Cisco, Eastland, Breckenridge, Graham and Throckmorton competing in the pageant. Contestants—other than those from Eastland County—include Wendy Bradshaw, Melinda Capps, Mandy Gandy, Misty Gandy, Dana Jensen, Paula Morris, Jennifer Murphree, Shawnda Patterson and Victoria Reynolds, all of Breckenridge; Stacey Hardcastle and Tina Rodgers, both of Graham; and Jerri Ann Cornett of Throckmorton.

The beauty pageant will be held at 4 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 27, with Bill Chaney of KTAB-TV, in Abilene, acting as master of ceremonies. The winner of the Miss Rattlesnake Classic title will receive a tiara, a banner, a custom gold necklace with a rattlesnake pendant from a Breckenridge jewelry store and a $100 gift certificate from a Breckenridge western store. The first runner-up will receive a banner and a $25 gift certificate from a Breckenridge western store.

Nancy Bode, coordinator of the pageant, said judges for the contest will be from out-of-town. She also pointed out that all the judges are professionals in the field of beauty pageants—either having judged pageants before or conducted a pageant on their own.

In other events during the weekend, over 50 tables have been reserved inside the building for dealers in a gun show to display antique guns, edged weapons, militaria and 14 karat gold or sterling silver jewelry. Several spaces have also been reserved for outside vendors of various items, according to Richard Byars, overall club coordinator for the event.

"We would like to have all the tables and spaces reserved prior to the first day of the event," Byars said. He suggested reservations be made as soon as possible because the number of tables is limited.

There will be live snake handling demonstrations and snake milking demonstrations performed throughout both days of the event, while cooked rattlesnake will be available. There will also be holding pits for the viewing of rattlesnakes outside the show area.

The handling demonstrations—inside a Plexiglas pit—will be performed by the same professional snake handling team which performed in Breckenridge last year. The group, Texas State Diamond Hunters, is headed by Steve Raines of Granbury.

Raines also does a special show called "Cobra Snake Kiss of Death," using cobras. He also said the group is planning to add some new demonstrations to this year's event.

Persons wishing to sell rattlesnakes to the show may begin taking their snakes to the ag center after 5 p.m., Friday evening. Snakes will also be accepted for weigh-in throughout the day Saturday and Sunday.

Byars stated, "As we did last year, top dollar will be paid per pound for snakes brought into the show during the weekend." However, Byars pointed out that any snakes brought in after 12 noon Sunday, will be paid for at a reduced rate.

Snake entrants to be judged for contests must be turned in by 3 p.m., Sunday, and prizes will be awarded at 4:30. Byars said all snakes entered in competition become the property of the Kiwanis Club.

Trophies and cash prizes will be awarded for the longest snake and most pounds of snakes turned in during the weekend, while trophies only will be presented for the shortest snake. Three places will be awarded in each of the three divisions.

For complete information on the gun show, tables, outside spaces or entering the contests, call 559-2301 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., weekdays, or 559-6777 after 5 p.m. and on weekends.

Wedding Bells

Rose - Lucasey

Tammy Lea Rose and Patrick Thomas Lucasey were married in a double ring ceremony Saturday, February 6 at 7:00 p.m. at Calvary Baptist Church in Eastland. Rev. David Henley, pastor of the church, officiated. Parents of the couple are Tommy and Margaret Rose of Eastland and Carolyn Littlepage of Hawaii.

The church was decorated with chosen colors of blue and white. Two heart shaped candelabras decorated with blue flowers, blue bows and greenery and a heart shaped archway with the same colors, white doves and greenery accented the altar. Mrs. Nell Ragland played traditional wedding music before the ceremony and during the lighting of the candles by Jim Clark of Waco, cousin of the bride and Terry Lee Rose, brother of the bride. Before the ceremony began, Mrs. Nell Ragland, accompanied by Mrs. Lois Robinson, sang "You Light Up My Life".

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown was white satin stayed with seed pearls and satin appliques along the neckline, sleeves, and full skirt. The chapel length veil accented the dress. The bouquet of blue and white silk roses with baby's breath was given to the bride by her aunt, Ann Jesse of Eastland.

At the end of the ceremony as the couple turned and faced the audience, Mrs. Nell Ragland sang "One Day At A Time".

Debi Clark of Waco, cousin of the bride was matron of honor and bridesmaid was Tracey Maynard of Eastland, also cousin of the bride. They wore one piece floor length dresses of blue taffeta accented with a blue and white wrist corsage. Ring bearer was Jim Bob Jesse of Eastland, cousin of the bride. Best man was Mark Slaughter, cousin of the bride. The usher was Jim Clark of Waco.

The bride's mother wore a yellow silk street length dress with pale yellow accessories. The groom's mother lives in Hawaii and was unable to attend.

The reception was in the church fellowship hall. The bride and groom's table was decorated with a blue cloth with white lace overlay and blue bows on the corners. The three-tiered white cake was decorated with blue roses, silver wedding rings and white doves with the traditional bride and groom on top backed by a blue satin heart outlined by white seed pearls. A lovely three tiered fountain with sparkling blue water graced the center. Following the heart theme were four heart shaped bride's cakes surrounding the fountain cake. The groom's cake was a chocolate sheet cake with chocolate decoration topped with the bride and groom's name. Both of the beautiful cakes were made by Nancy Trout of Eastland. Serving at the table were Connie Underwood, Jackie Maynard and Tracey Maynard.

A bridal shower, hosted by friends of Eastland, was given honoring the couple, on January 23 at the Eastland National Bank conference room.

Harley Gwyn Is Hired By County Commissioners

Harley Gwyn, a computer specialist, told Eastland County Commissioners Monday that he became frustrated with the Company which had hired him to service the County Courthouse.

Recently he formed his own Company, Harley Gwyn and Associates. He offered a Software and Development plan for the County offices, and this was approved by all four Commissioners.

The cost for Gwyn's services will be $17,000 annually, with a $6,000 retainer fee up front, and a $1,000 discount to the County. Under this contract Harley Gwyn will spend one week each month working with the office equipment.

The Commissioners also voted to contact Apollo (the Company now contracting the leased equipment) and ask about a purchase price on the equipment in the Courthouse and Sheriff's office.

This action by the Commissioners reflected the dissatisfaction expressed by County officials about the Computers and programs leased to the county. Payment for these services has been around $33,000 per year.

County Clerk JoAnn Johnson was among those who had previously stated: "We're not getting all we paid for."

The officials stated Monday that this lack of service was not the fault of Harley Gwyn, who had made numerous trips to the Courthouse in the past.

"He would have liked to stay and help us," they said, "But the Company wouldn't let him."

Gwyn stated that Judge Bailey wrote letters to the Computer Company and attempted to get the situation corrected, but nothing changed. He then decided to leave Apollo and form his own service company. He promised that things were going to be different now - that he would do everything possible to expand the service.

On other matters, the Commissioners heard that 22 inmates were currently in the jail, which put it in compliance with the population "guidelines" from the Texas State Jail Standards Commission.

Sheriff Don Underwood reported that the Company supposed to fix the Intercom equipment at the front and back doors of the jail had not shown up. He said these matters were actually not necessary to comply with the next jail inspection, which is scheduled for March 30.

Commissioner Billy Bacon of Pct. 4 said he had called Architect James Wheeler of Abilene "several times" on this matter. Wheeler was supposed to get the San Angelo sound systems company to fix these parts of the system, although this had somehow been left off the work contract.

Commissioner L.T. Owen, Pct. 3, said this work might not be "necessary", but he would sure hate to see the State Inspector come in and find something not fixed - and turn the whole jail down again.

Other discussions ranged through various topics. County Clerk JoAnn Johnson said she was surprised at the light turnout to date on absentee voting for the March 8 election. She had expected a lot more voters in her office by this time.

Several people speculated on reasons. "Maybe the voters just haven't made up their minds yet," or, "This thing of having to vote straight Democratic or Republican in the primaries may have some people confused."

Judge Scott Bailey and other members of the Court told how glad they were to learn that Mr. Clark of Desdemona was recovering from the assault on him last week. Mr. Clark was expected to be dismissed from the hospital in a few days, Judge Bailey said.

Toward the end of the Court session District Attorney Emory Walton spoke to the Court about the recent denial of the George Gray appeal by the State Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.

"It appears that Attorney Gray's lawsuit against Eastland County (for retroactive pay) has come to an end," Walton said.

The Commissioners said they hoped so too.

"Cotton-eyed Joe" and "Put Your Little Foot" will be the square dances performed by the young people during their part of the free five-hour stage show. Their presentation is scheduled between 1 and 2 p.m.

Robert Weeks Sr. is the coordinator for the statewide Fiddler's Convention, and he joins the Eastland Chamber of Commerce in welcoming local people as well as out-of-county visitors to the event. There will be no charge, and a number of champion fiddlers will play during the afternoon.

Since the Convention is a benefit for the Association, the members will be offering specialty food products, arts and crafts for a silent auction. Local people are invited to participate, and visitors and locals may bring items which they wish to contribute.

Some of the fiddle players in the Association saw the Majestic for the first time last October at a Fiddler's Contest during the Eastland County Fair.

They remarked that this was a fine building to play in - the acoustics were good and the seating and arrangements comfortable. Soon afterward Robert Weeks, champion fiddler and Association member, invited the Association to come to Eastland for this February meeting.

It is hoped that this state meet can be an annual affair here, adding another enjoyable event to the area.

Tax-Aide Program Is Held At Library

The Cisco Public Library is sponsoring, in cooperation with the AARP's Tax-Aide program, a free income tax counseling service every Wednesday from 2:30 p.m. until 5 p.m. throughout the income tax season.

"We have a supply of all necessary IRS forms and schedules to assist you in completing your income tax return," says Mrs. Mary Leveridge, librarian, "and also a complete set of forms that may be borrowed for copying."

Mrs. Wanda Seals, a certified tax-aide counselor, will be in the library reading room every Wednesday afternoon to answer any questions you have and also to assist you in the preparation of your return.

Taxpayers needing help with their return should bring with them all records of income, including all W2 and W2P forms, all their 1099 forms showing interest from banks, dividends from stock, royalties received and also the SSA-1099 from Social Security. They should also bring all records of expenses, such as doctor and hospital bills, interest on home mortgage, interest on personal loans or credit cards and all real estate taxes paid.

For further information stop at the Cisco Public Library at the corner of Avenue G and West 6th Street between the hours of 2:30 and 5:30 p.m.

W.Scott Mather To Conduct Orchestra

The Collegiate Symphony Orchestra scheduled to play at the Majestic in Eastland March 1 will have W. Scott Mather as Conductor. A program of classical music will be presented, beginning at 8:15 p.m.

Tickets at $5 for adults and $1.50 for students may be purchased at the Theatre box office, or from various locations in Eastland, Ranger, Cisco, and Breckenridge.

These include Radio Shack, Eastland Office Supply and Eastland Centennial Memorial Library, Greer's Western Wear in Ranger, Madison's Western Wear in Cisco, and Rafter F Western Wear in Breckenridge.

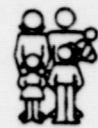

Mather, assistant professor of music at Hardin Simmons University, has had an impressive career in music. Before coming to Abilene he performed as principal trumpet with the Kenosha Symphony Orchestra in Wisconsin, and later served as assistant conductor for the orchestra.

He received both his BA and MA degrees in music from Washington State University, and is currently director of the HSU Band program. Besides these professional duties and his work with the Collegiate Symphony Orchestra, Mather serves as principal trumpet for the Abilene Philharmonic.

The Collegiate Symphony Orchestra is composed of 60 music students from Hardin Simmons and Abilene Christian University and McMurry College, Abilene. Members of the Orchestra were selected by competitive auditions held last September.

These gifted students and the outstanding conductor are certain to give a very special program in Eastland.

The Family Matters

Most teenagers would give their eye-teeth to tell their parents how to live their own lives. Unfortunately, few teenagers are given that chance. However, a group of teenage boys confined in a correctional institution were asked to draw up a code for parents, zeroing in on specific areas where they considered the parents had failed. It may surprise us as parents to read that their code for parents included:

1. Keep cool. Don't fly off the handle. Kids need to see how much better things turn out when people keep tempers under control.

2. Don't get strung out on booze or pills. Children are great imitators. We lose respect for parents who tell us to behave one way while they behave another.

3. Bug us a little. Be strict. We need to know we've got some strong supports under us. When you cave in we get scared.

4. Don't blow your class. Stay on that pedestal. Don't try to dress or talk like your kids. You embarrass us and you look ridiculous.

5. Light a candle. Show us the way. Tell us God is not dead or on vacation. We need to believe in something bigger and stronger than ourselves.

6. Scare us. If you catch us lying, stealing or being cruel, get tough. Let us know WHY what we did was wrong.

7. When we need punishment, dish it out. But let us know you still love us.

8. Call our bluff. Make it clear you mean what you say. Don't compromise. And don't be intimidated by our threats to drop out of school or leave home. Stand up to us and we'll respect you. Kids don't want everything they ask for.

9. Be honest. Tell us the truth no matter what. We can take it. Lukewarm answers make us uneasy.

10. Praise us when we deserve it. If you give us kids a few compliments we will be able to accept criticism a lot easier. The bottom line is, we want you to tell it like it is.

Surprised? Out of the mouths of babes come truths to haunt us as parents. Our kids are smart. Ask them, and they will tell us the family matters.

The town of Cisco would like to wish the Cisco Junior College Wrangler Belles good luck this Saturday when they participate in a drill team competition at Reunion Arena in Dallas.

There will be several high school and college drill teams competing. The winners of the competition will perform later on at Saturday night's Dallas Maverick basketball game.

The two college drill teams that will perform at the game will be picked by the participating high school drill teams.

The Wrangler Belles have a good chance to win so let's all wish them good luck on Saturday.

The Cisco Senior Class will sponsor a bake sale this Friday at the First National Bank and they will have some baked goods that can be eaten by persons who have diabetes.

There will not be a large selection of the speciality foods, so be sure and stop by early to pick up them and some of the other delicious desserts.

Noticed on the parking lot at Herman's Garage that he has placed the body of an Edsel station wagon on a four wheel drive frame. When he is finished, it's going to be an unusual vehicle.

Herman collects and refinishes the now popular Edsel cars.

We received a letter from Ann Wright Myer last week saying that the Cisco High School class of 1968 will have their 20 year reunion and the addresses of those students are needed. If you know of any member of that class send the address as soon as possible to Ann Wright Myer, 6918 Kenwhite, Dallas, Texas, 75231.

Ann said she would like to hear from the teachers who were at CHS during 1965-68 also.

Charles Wende, from El Paso, stopped by The Press recently to get a subscription to the paper. He is a graduate of Cisco High School.

He said he lives in El Paso now. He moved there in 1968. Charles said he loves the climate in El Paso. He said the wind doesn't blow and the humidity is always low.

They have had a record snowfall this year, but it's the good kind. He said it will snow one day, but by the next day it warms up to 50 degrees and the snow melts. It's the best kind of snow he said, because you can see it, but it doesn't stay around long enough to cause any trouble.

He said everyone in El Paso laughs about what the major news stations say about the snow. It's not as bad as they make it out to be.

He said he still has some "retirement" land here in Cisco, and he likes to come back home and visit here.

The Cisco High School student council presented the first CHS Basketball Beau and CHS Basketball Sweetheart last Friday. Jason Phillips and Leigh Callarman were nominated by members of the Varsity Basketball boys and girls teams.

I'm sure this tradition will continue through the years.

Mrs. Olga Fay Parker is finally getting to do some things that she had to stop doing while her right wrist healed after surgery.

Mrs. Parker asked if I knew what it was like to have to be driven everywhere and not be able to do as much work as she is used to doing. She is a very independent lady who enjoys working very hard. She said she can crochet and quilt now, and her wrist is getting better every day.

The following poem was written by Cisco High School senior William Pevey. William was a Varsity Lobo football player this year.

Football is over for another year.

With all its excitement and all its fear.

The band stops playing and the one cheers.

The lights are off with the turn of a switch.

The bugs fly away, inch by inch.

The fans go home, wherever that may be.

They get to the house and what do they do.

Sit down and turn on the TV.

Some are forgotten, but not all lost.

We still have the memories, no matter the cost.

Missy Jacobs, a sophomore at Cisco High School, wrote the following poem. She said her home life is definitely not like the one in the poem. She said ideas just pop into her head and she writes them down. The poem goes as follows,

I'm just a little girl,
Who has done nothing wrong.

But I get locked in the closet

The entire day long.

My mom's never home.

My dad stays out late.

I get reminded very often.

I was just a mistake.

I have bruises on my arms.

That have been there for years.

My eyes are so swollen

That it hurts to shed tears.

I hardly see daylight.

And then when I do,

It's screaming and yelling.

Why not something new.

They say I'm a brat.

And always in the way,

But how would they know

I'm locked up all the day.

Well, here goes again,

My dads coming near,

I'm getting sick at my stomach.

But I guess that's from fear.

Oh no, he opens the door,

Gosh he looks really mad,

He says something about me lying.

That I've really been bad.

He starting to beat me.

Wranglers Win At SWCC; Play Hill Here Tonight

Ronald Ateman, a 6-4 freshman forward from Garland, scored 28 points and pulled down 10 rebounds to lead the CJC Wranglers to an 85-76 win over the Southwest Christian Rams in Terrell Saturday night. The win was the first on the road in conference play for the Wranglers, and improved their conference record to 5-7 and 13-14 overall.

Cisco jumped out to an early 25-10 lead and appeared to be on their way to an easy win. However, they started turning the ball over midway through the opening period, allowing the Rams to close the gap to 41-39 at intermission. The Rams came out hot again in the second half, and even led by two at 45-43. However, the Wranglers settled down, cut down on their turnovers, and were able to regain the lead and ice the victory. Ateman's 26 points led the Wrangler scoring, while Tyrone Williams added 17, Thomas Miller had 16, and Mark Benson handed out eight assists and scored 10 points.

The Wranglers return home tonight (Wednesday) to play the Hill College Rebels at Wrangler Gym. It is the last home game of the season. Game time is 8 p.m., preceded by the women at 6 p.m.

Texas Old Time Fiddlers Show To Be Sat.

Eastland County will host the Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association Benefit Show at the Majestic Theatre, Saturday, February 27th - and it's stacking up to be an outstanding event.

"The Texas Fiddler" (statewide publication for the association) devotes a lot of space to the event in its recent issue, and says in Part: "There will be lots of Fiddlin', Pickin' and Grinnin' and along with a few surprises you never dreamed existed."

The event will begin at 1 p.m. and will be free and open to the public without admission charge. Locals are invited and urged to attend. The entertainment will be virtually non-stop until 6 p.m.

Among the many surprises will be a special appearance of the Folk Dance Group from Siebert Elementary School, directed by Mrs. Davene Jeffcoat, and accompanied by Local Fiddlers Robert and Brandy Weeks, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weeks.

The group does "Cotton Eyed Joe" and "Put Your Little Foot" and is scheduled to perform sometime between 1 and 2 p.m.

Robert Weeks is the local coordinator for the statewide convention of the Fiddler's Association in Eastland, and joins in extending with the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, a genuine WELCOME to all the visitors to our area for this event. It is hoped that it will become an annual event here. It traditionally attracts hundreds from all across the state and adjoining states.

"There'll undoubtedly be a great number of World Championship fiddlers here," Mr. Weeks said, as he described the interest in the music and fellowship that the members enjoy.

The Convention is a Benefit for the Association and the members offer specialty food products, arts and crafts for a silent auction, and other events. Locals are invited to participate. Visitors and locals may bring items which they wish to contribute to the cause.

Robert and Brandy Weeks were featured in the current publication with a beautiful photograph on the cover and a detailed story inside.

Officers and directors of the state association are:

President - Bud Otto, Llano.

Secretary - Vane Elms, Gustine.

Board of Directors - Gene Brown, Bowie; Robert Ferrell, Killen; Bart Trotter, Odessa; H.D. Westmoreland, Jr., Gustine and Boyd Long, Wolfe City.

Dear Editor,

A search is presently underway for "Orphan Train" riders, especially those now living in Texas, or were brought to Texas.

Between 1854 and 1929, over 150,000 orphaned, abandoned and homeless children were taken out of the institutions of New York City, and transported by trains to rural America. At stops along the way, the children were lined up on railway station platforms, churches, schools and opera houses for local residents to look them over and perhaps choose a child to take into their homes.

Those not chosen were loaded back on the train, traveling to the next stop where the entire procedure was repeated.

Texas had received 1,527 of these children by 1910, according to a New York Children's Aid Society report. The number of infants brought by the Foundling Hospitals on "Baby Trains" is not known.

The United States Catholic charities also placed-out infants and children. Agents arranged in advance for families to accept the waifs when they arrived.

Federal child welfare reform laws were enacted in 1929. The "Orphan Trains" were stopped forever.

The Orphan Train Heritage Society of America, Inc. (OTHTSA) is a clearinghouse for information concerning the history of this era.

Your readers are invited to share any information they have about Orphan Train riders, or if they would like a free OTHSA newsletter, send an SASE to: OTHSA, Rt. 4 Box 565, Springdale, AR, 72764.
Thank you,
