SWEET N' SOUR

would like to do and only seven days to do 'em in.

Carol Lynn McGowen is one little gal who is making the most little gal who is making the most of these last days of summer. Tuesday evening she entertained the younger set with a swim party and hamburger supper. Occassion (and a very pretty one too) for the party was Diane Young, Carol Lynn's campmate from Sweetwater. Diane came down for a few days visit and Carol Lynn honored her guest with a party. On the guest list were Jenice Hatchett, Paula Corn, Lulamae Walker, Nancy Gardiner, Ramona Lewis, Roberta Lawrence, Mary Lynn Hodson, Karen Bearden, Peggy Payne, Karen Gaye Jones, Beatrice Turner, Joy Lynn Bruce, Vickey Finley, Ann Barton, Janet Ross, Linnea LaCour, Nancy Johnson from Clyde, and Billye Ruth Kelly from Ajo, Arkona.

Maggy Green returned from Sonora this week and brought her nelee, Clara Margaret Schweinig, for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hughes have just returned from a most pleasant trip to Okiahoma City to visit Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Buckner, Linda, Duane and Sylvia. The trip came as a surprise gift from Mr. and Mrs. Linton Hughes and Jerry Mrs. Hughes and son Jerry drove out from Magnolia, Arkansas to Insist in the visit to Okiahoma and every one enjoyed it immensly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Corn have had a happy time these last days of August — Weldon, Claudene and the children, Barbara, Don and Weldon Jr. are here from Ajo, Arizona for a visit. Also here from Ajo are the Kellys — Billy Bob, Ruth, Billye Ruth, and Debbie who are dividing their visit with the Corns and the George Kelly family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Hogan of Rt. 1, Baird, had cause to celebrate — tiny grandbaby Mary Ann Corcoran and her parents, Paul and Theresa, of Ft. Worth spent the weekend with them. The Corcorans also visited Paul's mother, Mrs. Sophia Corcoran in Big Spring. Sunday, by the way, was Theresa's birthday so the trip "jome" was a celebration in more ways than one.

Six Attributes

White, the reunion speaker, has lived in the county 58 years. After contrasting conditions in ploneer days with those of today, White named six attributes of early-day settlers and dwelt on each. They were:

ion and courage to brave the wilderness.

4. They had the attitude of self-reliance.

5. They had a spirit of friendship and neighborliness 6. They were inherently hon-est, "their word being their bond."

The Reunion was dedicated to Noah Smedley, 100, Rowden; Mrs. J. A. Jackson, 98, Baird; and Sam Gilliland, 99, Coleman. All but Smedley were present at the reunion. Betah Freeland, former Callahan County Judge,

TO MY FRIENDS AND PATRONS:-Patterson's Cafe has won national honors in the Patterson's Cafe has won national honors in the Rwift & Company's Part and vear Sales promotion contest, and I am deeply grateful for our coveted first place. I realize that we were able to do this because of you, our patrons, who have given us the pleasure of serving you. You have given us a reputation throughout all of West Texas for fine food and special personal service, which gives dining out that 'lift to life" and makes any meal a special occasion.

It is our promise to live up to your high regard for us and to maintain that service you expect at Patterson's. You have come from all sections of the Fatterson's. You have come from all sections of the state to visit us, and we appreciate your interest. We believe your patronage is the highest compliment that could be paid our Cafe, and we enjoy your every visit. Our aim, as always, is to give you the finest food, prepared in the best way, and served in the most pleasant atmosphere possible. We are never satisfied with anything less than perfection for our friends and that shall always be our aim.

If the people are saying that Patterson's is THE place to dine, tell them it is because Pattersons serves THE people, the best people anywhere, YOU.

Sincerely,

Jane and H. N. "Pat" Patterson PATTERSON'S CAFE

at Patterson's. Mr. Andrews is an engineer with Swift and Company in Abilene.

A guest at the swimming pool last week stopped the show, so to speak with some spectacular feats of diving and swimming. The guest was Doug Franklin of Abliene. Franklin was a member of ACC's famed "Flying Cats", tumbling team and is now athletic director at North Junor. letic director at North Junior High in Abilene. You've seen him on TV in connection with coaching work with the City's recreation dept. Franklin also recreation dept. Franklin also friends, Mr.

The young man was quite impressed with the build-up Alvis Dill gave his Junior Life-Guard, Dill gave his Junior Life-Guard, Ronnie Ault and he graciously offered to coach Ronnie in preparation for the Diving-Swimming Contests at the VFW Pool Saturday week. Ronnie has been spending his mornings at the Sands in Abilene and Franklin is quite as enthusiastic over Ronnie's ability as we here at home are. He thinks that he's grooming the winner and so do grooming the winner and so do we. On his visit to Baird, Mr. Franklin was accompanied by his wife and baby daughter and
