Mrs. Francis Justice, math teacher at Cisco High School, attended a Mathematic's Teacher's Conference in San Antonio on August 3. At the conference she was nominated, and then chosen as one of the Teacher of the Year. During the conference they recognize about 40 teachers a year. She is well deserving of this award.

Adam Montgomery, age 13, was pleasantly surprised last week when he made a purchase at Dollar Video, located at 813 Conrad Hilton Ave., and discovered he was their 10,000th customer. In addition to getting the purchase he made free of charge, he will also receive a VCR video of his own choosing each day for two weeks. In addition to home movie rentals, Dollar Video keeps a good selection of comic books. Adam has been a customer at Dollar Video since they opened for business in Cisco.

Col. Robert A. Snyder and his wife, Bethel, recently purchased a small farm south of Cisco. At the present time Col. Snyder is still stationed in Stuttgart, West Germany. He will soon retire from the Army after serving 26-years, and he and his wife will move into their new home. Bethel is formerly from Cross Plains. Her maiden name was Couch. Both the Snyder's are looking forward to living in the Cisco area.

Mrs. Debbie Evett and children, Serenity and Matthew Norman, of Charlotte, N.C. have arrived in Cisco for a 2-week visit with their mother and grandmother Charlene Wheat.

If anyone has any firearms in their home it might be a good idea to stop by City Hall and pick up a "Personal Firearms Record" located on a shelf in the hallway.

On the record you can list the manufacturer brand, type of firearm, model, caliber gauge, barrel length, serial number, where purchased, and date purchased. Citizens can fill this out and put it in a safe place, and if the need arises, (heaven forbid) and the guns are stolen, then the information can be turned over to the police. Several times people cannot readily identify the brand name and type of guns. This way, when your stolen guns are found they can easily be identified and turned back over to you.

Hospital Auxiliary Needs Books For Book Fair

Keep all those books coming, is the message from the E.L. Graham Hospital Auxiliary. The group is soliciting donations of books - hardbacks and paperbacks - for its annual book fair to be held Sept. 15-16 in the Corral Room.

Persons who have excess books they would like to give to this cause are encouraged to do so, says auxiliary project chairman Janelle Schrader.

Youth with the First Evangelical Methodist Church attended Six Flags earlier this month. The youth had made their money for the trip by washing cars and bake sales.

It was reported that everyone had a good time. Those attending were Kimberly Clinton, Teresa Pevey, Amanda Palacio, Keith Johnson, Billy Black, Stanley West, Ken Drozeski, and Ken's cousin, Charley.

Drove into the parking lot and wondered why the buses were parked in the way, so after driving around one, it was realized that they were painting parking stripes and the paint was still wet! The buses were there to keep people from driving on the wet paint!

After parking quickly, and walking up to the school, without looking back, (can't stand it when people are giving me dirty looks) I was hoping that some of their parking stripes were not placed on the side of the car when the interview was over.

In a recent Wanda's Corner, I endorsed keeping E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital open. I heard that some of the citizens think that since I don't live here in Cisco that I don't pay any taxes here so I have no right to voice my opinion. But, my mother's home is still here and we have to pay taxes on it. So the issue of paying higher taxes or not does affect me personally.

Gabriela Moreno of Cisco, recently celebrated her 77th birthday. Mrs. Moreno was at one time a cook at The Spot Restaurant. I worked with 'Moreno', as everyone called her at The Spot in 79-80. Moreno is also the great-grandmother of Michael Johnny Moreno, who happens to be my grandson.

Johnny was down visiting last week. He was here at The Press one day helping grandma 'write stories'. While answering the phone, I saw Johnny near the typesetter, and before he could be stopped he erased three stories!

But when he smiled that sweet little smile, he was quickly forgiven. But he was also watched a little bit closer.

Hours for the book fair are from 5 to 9 p.m. Friday, Sept. 15, and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 16.

Those who have books they would like to donate may call Mrs. Schrader at 442-3329, or drop them by the Chamber of Commerce office or Thrift Mart.

New Cisco High School Principal Phil Warren Says Students Will Be "Loboes With Class"

PHIL WARREN

Phil Warren, the new principal at Cisco High School, said he will endeavor to build on the strengths of the high school students. He said the new Lobo motto for this year will be "Class Above The Rest."

Mr. Warren said the school students will be known as "Loboes With Class." He said the Class will stand for Character, Leadership, Attendance, Scholarship, and Sportsmanship.

He talked about some of the new programs for Cisco High School. He said the students can work for high school and college credits at Cisco Junior College. He said during the first hour of the day, some classes can be taken at the college and credits will be given for CJC and CHS. He said this will be an incentive for the students to start their college courses.

Warren said there has been a curriculum update at the school for both high school and junior high. He said they will have business courses, word processing, accounting and have more classes that are supplemented by computers. He said this will also encourage all teachers to have hands on experience with the computers.

He said that he and the teachers will build on the positive things and work on this idea and make the school better than ever before. He said they have some good people at the school who will help the students become a valuable part of the community. He said Cisco High School needs to be the model for other schools. They need to be the trendsetter.

Warren said that high school students are getting close to adulthood and they realize this and will be treated as such. He said in the adult world, hard work is awarded and bad work is punished. He said this will be the way it will be at Cisco High School. He said there will be contests for attendance and students will be awarded again for this as they have been in the past.

He said the teachers will take on the elementary concept of teaching so that they can get to know the student's better. He said in elementary school teachers know their students very well because they are with them all day. He said the teachers will become better acquainted with the students and their families.

Powder Puff Football Game To Be Played Saturday At Chesley Field

The Cisco High School Girl's Powder Puff Football game will be played at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, August 19, at Chesley Field. The game will be sponsored by the Senior Class as a fund raiser.

The Batgirls team, made up of Senior and Freshmen girls, is coached by Delbert Schaefer and Jimmy Yowell. They will play the Steedmuffins team, made up of Junior and Sophomore girls coached by Dr. Allen McGinness and Mark McGinness.

Everyone is invited to attend the game. Members of

The new principal said the school will established a set rule that zero's are not permitted. A new program "ZAP" will be installed so that the students will have to make up their work on their free time after lunch. He said they have set up two classrooms for this. Out, he said, the students need to turn in their homework when it has been assigned to them.

He said if students are having troubles with their studies they can come in 25 minutes in the morning at 7:45, or after school after 3:45. He said there will be certified teachers for the tutorial program.

He said the students will be expected to dress for school like they were going to work. He said students will be expected to abide by the handbook as far as school clothes are concerned.

Warren said the Cisco Independent School board of directors and the Superintendent want to have a good school system. He said people can tell that by the new school buildings and the type of curriculum that is offered to the students.

Phil Warren and his wife Gwen, have two children, Joshua, 11-years old who will be in the sixth grade, and Roxanne, 9-years old, who will be a 4th grade student. Gwen will be an elementary counselor and co-ordinate the gifted and talented program in kindergarten through sixth grade. Mr. Warren is a member of the Cisco Lions Club.

Mr. Warren grew up in Crosbyton, Texas, east of Lubbock, on a farm. He said his family has a cotton farm and also did some ranching. He graduated from high school in Crosbyton. He attended Abilene Christian University and finished at Lubbock Christian University. He began his studies again at Texas Tech University in Lubbock and received his master's at West Texas University in Canyon. He is presently working on his superintendent's certification and will finish this at Tarleton.

He was the principal at Witharrah School District for five year before coming to Cisco. He said it is just out of Levelland. He was the principal there previously for three years. He has also been a principal at Stratford, in the panhandle, for five years, and also a principal at Wilson, located just outside of Lubbock for two years.

Don Shepard Tells Lions Club City's Future Looks Bright

Don Shepard, Cisco Chamber of Commerce manager, spoke to the Cisco Lions Club at their regular meeting held last Wednesday at Tradition's Restaurant. Mr. Shepard spoke about the happenings in Eastland county. He spoke first about the proposal given to the Texas Department of Corrections in an effort to secure a prison for Eastland County.

Shepard said seven prisons will be constructed in Texas. He said officials from the TDC will be in Eastland County in September to visit with the HOOS-GOW members.

He said that if Eastland County is chosen as the site for a new prison, the TDC will be a good neighbor.

Shepard said a western wear store is looking to locate in Cisco. He said another business that will sell men's women's and children's clothes is looking to open in Cisco.

He said a manufacturing business is looking seriously at Cisco and the chances are very good of them settling here. Shepard said it looks like the stores will be filling back up in downtown Cisco.

Shepard talked about the E.L. Graham Memorial hospital. He said they hope to have federal help for rural hospitals in the next two years. He said bills about this issue are being proposed at the present time. He said

Dow Grant Aids Texas Historical Commission Book Contest

The Texas Historical Commission recently accepted a $25,000 commitment from The Dow Chemical Company to expand its T.R. Fehrenbach Book Award.

The contribution will fund up to three $1,000 cash prizes annually for the next five years.

The book award, an annual program of the THC, was established in the 1960s and has grown into one of the most prestigious writing competitions in the state. It is named in honor of T.R. Fehrenbach, author, historian, and current chairman of the THC. Fehrenbach, the author of 18 books, including the widely acclaimed Lone Star, is considered one of Texas' leading authorities on Texas history.

"Dow's involvement will ensure that Texas' finest writers are recognized for their labor," said Curtis Tunnell, THC executive director. "The contest has always attracted the best and the brightest, and we fully expect that tradition to continue."

Nominations for the 1989 contest year, which can be submitted by anyone interested in Texas history, will be judged by a panel of distinguished Texas scholars, and winners will be recognized during the THC's annual preservation conference next spring. Eligible books must have been published between Jan. 1, 1989, and Dec. 31, 1989.

The Texas Historical Commission, the official state agency for historic preservation, oversees a variety of programs that seek to protect and preserve Texas' archeological and architectural heritage.

News From The National Exercise For Life Institute

Diet And Exercise Help Balance Cholesterol

About one-third of American adults are at high risk for coronary disease and need to balance their blood cholesterol, says a new study from the National Center for Health Statistics. The best ways to balance blood cholesterol levels are to eat a low-cholesterol diet and get regular aerobic exercise, advises The National Exercise For Life Institute.

"An individual's cholesterol level is constantly changing. It fluctuates with diet, medication, illness, stress, exercise and weight change," says Diane DeMarco, executive director of the Twin Cities-based institute. Controlling blood cholesterol is complicated, so people need to be more aware of the factors they can influence. Aerobic exercise, for example, is vital in balancing HDL and LDL cholesterol levels.

Cholesterol — fatty substances that travel in the blood attached to proteins — are also called lipoproteins. Harmful low density lipoproteins, (LDL) promote the build-up of plaque on the interior walls of the coronary arteries, a condition called atherosclerosis. Atherosclerosis reduces blood flow, and can eventually close off the artery, which could cause a heart attack. High density lipoproteins (HDL) are the beneficial cholesterol. HDL helps carry LDL cholesterol away from the artery walls and back to the liver, where it's broken down and eliminated.

So, while medical experts agree that it's important to keep one's total blood cholesterol within the normal range, a proper cholesterol balance requires high HDL and low LDL cholesterol levels. "And other than medications, exercise is the only means of raising HDL cholesterol," says Douglas A. Godfrey, M.D., a Minneapolis

Done on a regular basis, aerobic exercises such as walking, jogging, swimming and cross-country skiing will burn calories and raise your metabolism, which in turn helps to reduce body fat. As you lose body fat during exercise, your total cholesterol decreases while your HDL level increases.

High calorie burning exercises, such as cross-country skiing, can be especially effective. NordicTrack, the in-home total body exerciser that simulates the motion of cross-country skiing (which experts agree is the world's best aerobic exercise), is popular because it burns more calories in less time than other in-home exercisers. In a test conducted at the Oregon Health Sciences University, Human Performance Laboratory, NordicTrack test subjects burned 1,100 calories per hour.

Diet is another factor that influences cholesterol levels. Americans have one of the fattiest diets in the world. About 41 percent of all calories consumed today come from fats, compared to 32 percent at the start of the century. The largest portion of our fats come from animal sources, which are mostly saturated. "Increasing complex carbohydrates in your diet will also help balance your cholesterol," says DeMarco.

Most experts consider a total blood cholesterol level under 200 to be safe. Borderline high cholesterol is between 200 and 240, and cholesterol level above 240 is in the danger zone.

"A healthy HDL level ranges from 45 to 50 for men and 50 to 60 for women," notes DeMarco.

"Check with your physician before starting on a diet or exercise program to balance total cholesterol levels," adds DeMarco.

The purpose of The National Exercise For Life Institute is to collect and disseminate information about the many benefits of regular aerobic exercise, in order to convince more Americans to start and maintain a personal program of exercise.

For more information on the benefits of regular aerobic exercise, call The National Exercise For Life Institute, 612/448-3094 or write Box 1, Chaska, MN 55318.

SOMEWHERE THERE IS A BOY
Somewhere there is a BOY.
A BOY with decisions to make.
He must choose from so many options.
He has the choice about being "in".
He has the pressure to be "one of the group".

Somewhere there is a BOY that nature has created.
He, like all BOYS, has built inside clock.

The clock that's within him is not only ticking, it's running swiftly.
It's running swiftly because today's Boy will soon be tomorrow's man.

Somewhere there is a BOY who is building memories now.
Memories of home, family, and friends.

Memories of an entire childhood.

These precious memories will be the ones he will live with for the rest of his life.

They will be the memories he will share with his family and his children.

Somewhere there is a Boy who will be President, who will lead our great nation.

Somewhere there is a BOY who will find the cure for each of our deadly diseases.

Somewhere there is a Boy whom this world so desperately needs.

CAPITOL UPDATE

by Jim Parker

For those of you who woke up this morning with nothing in the way of a long term issue to worry about, let me help you.

You will recall that Mark Twain said, "There are lies, damned lies and statistics." In spite of that ringing endorsement, statistics can be fairly illuminating.

Recent statistical reports show that on any given school day 3,800 teenagers drop out of school. Of every three urban high school students, one will be on welfare as an adult and the remaining two will have to support the welfare recipient.

Nationally, only one high school graduate in ten meets the minimum literacy standard for mail clerk jobs. Eighty percent of all job applicants to Motorola fail an examination that requires seventh grade English and fifth grade math.

Recently when New York Telephone Company announced job openings, 117,000 people applied. 2,100 passed the basic exam.

I could go on and on, but I think you get the idea.

We now spend more money on education than at anytime

Cisco

in the history of our nation and state and an excellent argument, well supported, can be made that we are doing the poorest job of educating our children in our history.

Right here in this state we throw billions of dollars, over half our state budget, at the education program and consistently get disappointing returns.

What is the cure? There likely is no single cure. Certainly the problem cannot be cured by the application of more of that magic elixir, money. Probably the changes that would truly effectuate a cure, such as total elimination of all non-academic activities, are so socially unacceptable as to be wishful thinking.

It does occur to me that if you have been engaged in an activity for a long time and it stops working, you go back and do it the way you did when it worked. I suggest we are seeing this in the form of home schools. More and more people are doing it and, so far, the results are phenomenal.

In the short term, look for a dramatic increase in public school alternatives, even for people of modest means. Also look for our local schools and local control of our schools to become further ensnared in the tar baby of State and Federal bureaucratic reforms.

Hoffmann - Smith

A garden ceremony at the home of the bride's mother was the setting for the marriage of Ginger Helen Hoffmann and Jett Barker Smith. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Hoffmann of Eastland, Texas, and the groom is the son of Mr. E.E. Smith of San Antonio, Texas.

and Mrs. Eckey J. Smith of Irving, Texas. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, W.H. Hoffmann, Jr., of Eastland, Texas. The Reverend Len Layne of Mineral Wells, Texas, performed the evening ceremony under a white iron arch surrounded by arrangements of white ginger white lilies, and calladiums. A large pyramid of fuchsia azaleas and sparkling white wispy vines, accented by white doves and trailing greenery floated in the pool along with white gardenias.

The bride wore a formal gown, designed by Illisa of New York, of silk taffeta with a designer peplum slightly gathered around the waist. The bodice was edged with bugle beads and crystals. The skirt was bordered with alencon lace encrusted with pearls.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white bridal roses, star-gazer lilies, stephanotis, plumosa and ming fern. Under her bouquet, for something old, she held a handkerchief which belonged to her grandmother, the late Mrs. Myrtle Richardson. For something new, the bride chose her Illisa wedding gown. For something borrowed, she wore her mother's crystal earrings and for something blue, she wore a lace and beaded garter designed and made by Gay Hart. The six-pence in her shoe was given to her by the late Verna Johnson of Eastland, Texas.

The Matron of Honor was Kay Swanson, sister of the bride, of Wichita Falls, Texas. Bridesmaids included Karel Hoffmann, sister-in-law of the bride, of Eastland, Texas; Dinah Smith, sister of the groom, of Irving, Texas; Dixie Bossie, sister of the groom, of Dallas, Texas; Kim Mansion of Plano, Texas; Jana Voight of Kerrville, Texas; Susie Wade of Dallas, Texas; and Lisa Morrison of Orlando, Florida.

The attendants wore gowns of fuchsia pink of Jena of New York. The bodice was off the shoulder with a gathered edge. The gown had a point peplum attached to a full length skirt. The attendants carried arm bouquets of pink ginger, star gazer lilies, and ming fern.

The groom's father, Mr. E.E. Smith, was best man. Groomsman included W.H. Hoffmann, Jr., of Eastland, Texas, brother of the bride; Chris McDougal, Bryan Holloway, Chris Arrington, and Bruce Stone all of Irving, Texas; David Pencsak and Tim Martin, both of Dallas, Texas.

The groom and groomsman wore full dress tuxedos designed by Christian Dior. The black-in-black pinstrip was accented with white ties and vest. They wore boutonnières of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Dorothy Hoffmann was ushered into the wedding by her grandsons, Ryan and Matt Swanson, of Wichita Falls, Texas. She wore a gown of peach chiffon enhanced by crystal pearl and bugle beading. The gown featured a beaded overblouse with a jewel neckline and long narrow sleeves ending in crystal and pearl beading. A layered handkerchief hem of peach chiffon flowed gracefully to tea length.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Eckey Smith, was ushered by her grandson, Chase Gilmore, of Dallas, Texas. She wore a champagne colored ankle length gown with Victorian flair, trimmed and overlaid with cream-colored imported lace embellished with seed pearls.

Candlelighters were Ryan and Matt Swanson and Chase Gilmore.

In attendance was the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Corette Smith, of Franklin, Louisiana.

Mrs. Donna DeLuca sang "To Me" and "The Lord's Prayer". The trumpet soloist played the wedding processional. A string quartet included musicians Nancy Frost, Lori Lynn Christensen, Carolyn Rhodes, and Francis Powell. They provided the music before and after the ceremony until the wedding toast, which was given by Karl M. May of Waco, Texas.

Following the wedding toast, music was provided by Mark Jaco Productions of Dallas, Texas. A buffet dinner was served on a table decorated with two large white porcelain bowls filled with star-gazer lilies, pink ginger, curly willows, and white roses accented with white doves and sitting atop mirrored pedestal surrounded by runners of lemon leaves.

A large round table held the five-tiered wedding cake. The amaretto-toasted almond cake was decorated with hand-made sugar flowers of lilies, roses, bell flowers, cherry blossoms and accented with seed pearl sprays.

During the evening the music afforded dancing for the guests.

Following a honeymoon in Hawaii, the couple will reside in Dallas, Texas.

E.L. Graham Hospital Board, Voters At Odds

When the Cisco Hospital Board met Wednesday afternoon, there was an overflow crowd. Even after the meeting was moved into the hospital cafeteria, people still filled the hallway.

The Board usually meets in a small room with very little interest, but the future of the E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital is at stake and there is the prospect of a sizable tax increase for the Cisco Hospital Taxing District.

With the hospital averaging one and one half patients per day, Board members say a tax increase is necessary to keep the hospital open. And Cisco only has one doctor, Ayres Cermin, after Tim Boersma moved away due to a lack of business in Cisco.

Cisco residents are split between support for and opposition to continuing the Cisco hospital.

Supporters say that every community needs its own hospital and that if a hospital is located so that it can save one life a year, it should be kept open regardless of the expense and cost to taxpayers.

Opponents say that one or two patients a day does not justify the large expense and tax burden of keeping the hospital open and staffed. They point out that there is a better equipped hospital with more doctors just nine miles away in Eastland, that patients taken to the Cisco hospital are usually quickly transferred to Abilene if they are more than mildly sick or injured.

A non-binding election was held with the question being to raise taxes or to close the hospital. A majority of those voting voted against raising taxes to keep the Cisco hospital open. All but one of the Hospital Board members said that the majority vote against continuing the hospital was not big enough, so they would ignore the results and continue to work to keep the hospital open.

A second poll was conducted by hospital management with the results to be revealed at this Board meeting. Questionnaires were sent out in First National Bank statements and in bills from Cisco doctors.

Opponents said that those presently using the Cisco hospital were more likely to receive the questionnaires than those using other doctors and hospitals, and they said that many Cisco people would not use the Cisco hospital under any circumstances.

But once again the opposition vote was greater than the support vote in the questionnaires received by the Board. With 253 for and 389 against, there were 136 more against.

Opponents said that they would not be complaining if the votes and polls had gone the other way, but that they thought that the wishes of the majority of the voters should be respected by the Board.

A spokesman for the opposition who was scheduled to speak to the Board was allowed to address the Board, but was limited to five minutes.

In addition to voicing the opposition viewpoint, the spokesman threatened the Hospital Board with further legal action.

The Hospital Administration at the time of the election allegedly took the ballots and voter lists, in violation of state law, to a Hospital Board meeting after the election so that they might check the secret ballots to see how individuals voted. After officers gave the case to District Attorney Emory Walton to present to the grand jury, it was no billed.

The spokesman pointed out that the case could go to another grand jury in the future, or that the case could be taken to federal court as a civil rights violation and circumvent local politics.

The Cisco Hospital Board, while announcing that the next two Board meetings would be open to the public, voted to start the process for raising taxes to keep the Cisco Hospital open.

One Board member, Emmitt Rich, seemed to respect the wishes of the voters and he voted against the tax raise.

CTAMI To Hold Meeting

The next meeting of the (CTAMI) Central Texas Alliance for the Mentally Ill will be Tuesday, September 5, 1989 at 7:00 p.m. at the First Christian Church on Coggin Avenue, Brownwood. Melody Sweeny, MHMR Case-worker, will be the guest speaker.

Poetic Verse

ALONE
In a dim lit bedroom
A mother kneel in silent prayer

To ask for protection
For the ones she loves so dear.

Her mind starts to wander
To days in the past
When each day was a pleasure
And now it was just a task.
The sounds of sirens
Sends chills up and down her spine

She hopes no one had a wreck
And her love ones would be fine.
She waits for her love ones
To finally come to the door
But the Lord comes for her
To go to her heavenly home.

Gordon Spot

By DeMarquis Gordon, County Agent—

Stocker calves on winter small gains will be the subject of the sixth annual Tri-County Cow-Calf Clinic Monday, August 21st. The clinic will be at the Cowboy Sports Arena from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Registration begins at 8:00 a.m. The arena is located on Highway 281, five miles south of Mineral Wells.

County Extension Agent, DeMarquis Gordon says, the clinic was planned for cattlemen in Eastland, Stephens, and Palo Pinto Counties. It has been rotated among the three counties.

A free noon barbecue will be served, courtesy of sponsors. Gordon says a large number of agri-businesses and breed associations will have booths and exhibits. Live cattle will be used when Preston Hollis, Vice-President of AzTx Cattle Company, discusses raising, buying and selling the right kind of calf.

Other topics of interest will be small grain management, health program for stocker cattle, and the outlook for the cattle market.

Dr. John McNeill, Extension Beef Cattle Specialist from Amarillo, is one of the top authorities on stocker calf operations, says the county agent. He will discuss an overview of the stocker calf enterprise.

Other speakers will be Dr. Dale Lovelace, Extension Agronomist; Dr. Dwayne Fitte, DVM from Marlin; and Clark Willingham, Texas Cattle Feeders Association Director.

Moderator for the program will be Curt Lancaster, VSA Radio Network in San Angelo.

Everyone interested in the program is welcomed and encouraged to attend.

Homemaking Hints

From Janet Thomas, County Agent—

Self-Esteem Built In School:

School days are just around the corner and that may be good news for some while other aren't quite ready to return to the routine. School offers much more than ready, writing and arithmetic, it is a time and place where young people learn much about themselves.

Young people spend about half of their time with classroom friends before they leave home. Much of their self-esteem is built during those years. Students at a recent day-long retreat in South Texas, talked about peer pressure and how to react when someone calls you chicken.

Many problems with school and at home begin as a result of peer pressure. Often when a young person fails to follow the crowd, the rest call him or her "chicken". There are several things to remember if young people find themselves folding under peer pressure. They are:

- * Everyone doesn't have to love you.
- * Your decisions don't have to be based on the approval of peers.

- * You can change.
- * You can be flexible.
- * Other people are capable. Don't keep your problems to yourself.

- * You can cope when things go wrong.
- * You are capable.
- * Other people are o.k. and you are o.k.

POP-POP-POP!
That friendly sound becomes more familiar all the time as an increasing number of Americans opt for popcorn to munch.

Popcorn has been around since the American Indians first popped it over open camp fires. Today, it is this country's fastest growing snack. The average American eats 46 quarts per person which is an increase of 50 percent from 1986. Much of this popularity is due to popcorn's health attributes—low in calories and fat, high in fiber — and the availability of easy-to-prepare microwave oven varieties.

Popcorn stores are making money on fancy popcorn that you can make at home. Try some of these flavors. For every 4 cups of popped corn stir in 2 tablespoons of butter or margarine and 1/4 teaspoon of salt. Some of the seasonings are naturally salty, so some may call for salt to be reduced.

NUTCORN... toss 1 cup of your favorite unsalted nuts with 4 cups of popped corn. If salted nuts are used, omit salt.
CHEESE CORN... Reduce butter to 1 tablespoon and salt to 1/8 teaspoon. Stir in 1/2 cup finely shredded cheese.
ITALIAN... Omit salt, stir in 1/4 cup Parmesan cheese, 1 tablespoon of dried whole oregano, and 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt.

or butterscotch morsels.
HOT CORN... 1/2 teaspoon chili powder and 1/4 teaspoon dried crushed pepper to 4 cups of popped corn.
CURRY CORN... 1/2 to 3/4 teaspoon of curry powder to 4 cups of popped corn.
CHIPPER CORN... 1/2 to 3/4 cup to 1 cup of semisweet chocolate mini-morsels to 4 cups of popped corn. For variation try substituting an equal amount of peanut butter

Safe Driving Tips from Rhonda

What do you suppose is the no. 1 killer of children these days? Automobile collisions! Although the seat belt law has been enacted for several years now, people continue to drive around with children climbing, hanging out windows, and standing in the front seat. Children can't be held accountable for not wearing seat belts, so their parents should be responsible enough to take the time and initiative to see that their children are safe in a vehicle.

Sr. Citizen's Bazaar Plans Projected

The annual fall Eastland County Senior Citizen's Bazaar is right around the corner, states Janet Thomas, County Extension Agent-Home Economics.

Thomas states, that the Bazaar has traditionally been in November. However, the idea is being explored to host the County Senior Citizens Bazaar on October 6 and 7, at the vacant Perry Building on the Eastland square. Changing the Bazaar to the first weekend in October would allow the Bazaar to be held in conjunction with the Old Rip Festival and big parade. This date change would insure good crowds and high visibility for our Senior Citizen Bazaar.

Seniors are you favorable to this date and location change? Let me hear from you! Call the Extension Service office at 629-2222 and let your wishes be counted. A FINAL DECISION WILL BE MADE ON WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, states Mrs. Thomas.

The Eastland County Junior Leader's Association met August 12, at the home of Monty and Pam Kea.

The Next Best Thing -

...to a clear conscience and a good night's sleep is the feeling of security in owning your own home with a clear title. Peculiar to the real estate field, values are based on land and the improvements thereon, if any. But values on these are based on the title. The title then comes the most important item to be considered when purchase of real property is contemplated. So be careful to buy good title based on an abstract of title or a policy of title insurance.

Wildlife Meeting Set

In May, 1989, 468 Eastland County landowners were surveyed to determine educational needs in the wildlife/natural resource area.

Results of this survey indicate there is a demand from lessors for educational programs in game management (57% responding yes), promotional associations (43% responding yes) and general information on leasing opportunities (64% responding yes).

In response to public demands and interests, the Eastland County Extension Service is hosting a WILDLIFE ENTERPRISE SEMINAR on Tuesday, August 22nd, from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. at the Eastland National Bank Community Room. This meeting was planned by the Extension Wildlife and Natural Resource Committee, a part of the Extension Program Development Council.

Topics of discussion will include "Income Potential From Wildlife Resources," "Liabilities In Leasing, Risk and Options," "Cooperatives for small Acreage Landowners" and "Update on the 1989-90 Hunting Laws and Regulations".

Speakers will include Kenneth Payne, Eastland County Game Warden; Dr. Dale Rollins, Texas Agricultural Extension Service Wildlife Specialist and Ray Cagle, Burnet County Extension Agent.

According to Crystal Wilbanks, County Agent, "Between 10-20% of landowners in the county have reported leasing land for some type of hunting within the last 3 years. The potential of generating a second income from a hunt/lease operation is tremendous in Eastland county. We have received numerous calls from people all over the state looking for a place to hunt. The Wildlife Enterprise Seminar is designed to answer questions landowners may have concerning a lease/wildlife management operation.

Everyone interested in developing a hunt/lease enterprise or improving your existing operation is invited to attend.

9-1-1 Service Anticipated Here - Commissioners Hear Details Wed.

Eastland County Commissioners Wednesday moved a step closer to installing 9-1-1 Emergency Services in the County. They agreed to have the 9-1-1 Plan drawn up for the County, with formal approval expected when all details have been worked out.

The cost will be 50¢ per phone, with no cost to the County for actual installation. The monthly fees would begin 18 to 24 months before operation, with this time spent in the construction and installation of the System, data base building, and mapping.

Target date for the surcharge here may be as early as Jan. 1, 1990, but more likely will be April 1, 1990.

All of the County will have to be mapped, with rural roads designated and rural homes given numbers or specific addresses. This mapping procedure could cost the County around $30,000, but an undetermined part of this may be paid from a fund administered by the West Central Texas Council of Governments.

Jim Compton of WCTCOG reviewed both the regional and county 9-1-1 Plan during the called meeting in the Courthouse Wednesday. He explained that the State 9-1-1 Commission is looking at this as a Regional system, with the Council of Governments in each Region responsible for details.

Seventeen counties in the 19-county West Central Texas area will be involved in this area system, Compton added. Taylor County already has a System in operation, and Kent County does not have a phone system which will adapt to 9-1-1.

Eastland County is in a fortunate position on the installation of the 9-1-1 emergency system, Compton said. Unlike other counties, it already has a Central Dispatch to take the calls. All 9-1-1 numbers would be routed through this Dispatch.

The County also has more providers of emergency services than most counties. In Scurry County, for example, there are only three response points for emergency calls. Eastland County has at least 12, counting the Sheriff's Department, City Police Departments, Ambulances, Fire Depts., etc.

Compton told the Commissioners that Eastland County can afford a system as good as any in the region. The computerized 9-1-1 System response he suggested would give a location identification and a 1-button transfer of the calls.

Technology is changing rapidly, he explained, so new equipment may bring price changes requiring negotiations, hopefully downward. The 50¢ monthly fee is fixed by the Texas Legislature, however, and can be changed only by the enactment of new laws.

"We would have to put the heat on our State Representatives on that," Compton said. Expenses for the Service would be cut if 9-1-1 calls were arranged within the boundaries of telephone exchanges, the WCTCOG representative added. Eastland County would probably turn eight residences over to Stephens County and pick up 68 in Comanche County south of Gorman. A study indicated that the County would find it cheaper and easier to go with the phone lines already in existence here, Compton said.

Among the services of the West Central Texas Council of Governments will be the receipt and management of the 9-1-1 monthly fees, equalization of surcharge fees, investment of precollected fees in escrow accounts, and payment of all system costs.

WCTCOG has plans to develop a call taker curriculum and to provide in-service training, Jim Compton also said.

Sheriff's Dept. News

By Richard Kurklin

The Cuban man who was arrested along with a woman for transporting 44 pounds of marijuana in Eastland County was positively identified by the Eastland County Sheriff's Dept. Fingerprints were used to determine that the man was using a fake name and to identify him as a man with a criminal history in New York state. After pretending to only speak Spanish, the man spoke in excellent English after he realized that he had been identified, said Sheriff Dee Hogan. His last offense in New York, according to a report from there was also possession with intent to distribute.

The Sheriff's Dept. and the Cattlemen's Association are investigating the possibility of stolen cattle being in the southern part of the county. There is some suspicious activity.

A two ton wench truck, a television, and a VCR were reported stolen from a farm two miles east of Rising Star on August 13. An employee is suspected.

More checks, reportedly forged by a pair arrested in Rising Star, have turned up in that city.

The Dept. of Human Services is checking on a 16 year old girl for possible abuse.

Officers were to inspect the Adams roof in Olden and file a report. The insurance company would not accept a hail damage claim on the roof but insisted that someone had punched little holes all over the roof of the house.

A man was picked up for Abilene on a warrant for theft over $20.

A man was arrested on a Hamilton warrant by Cisco Police.

The three federal prisoners being held in the County Jail were returned to federal custody.

Deputies took statements relating to aggravated assault allegations in Rising Star.

Three prisoners in the county jail, Ray Bryant, Brian Whitehead and Billy Joe Daniels, were transported by Deputy Cathy Kannady to TDC. Bryant, a trustee, had volunteered to cook, care for the jail yard, and repair things around the jail. He may be missed.

In Eastland's 91st District Court, Daniel Peralez was found guilty of aggravated robbery and was sentenced to 25 years. Donnie McNabb was found guilty of aggravated sexual assault and is to be sentenced September 5.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I would like to address a situation that is very important to me and I think to every taxpayer in the E.L. Graham Hospital District in which the Hospital By-Laws say is Precinct Four (4), Eastland County, Texas.

A group of concerned taxpayers met with the Hospital Board on August 17, 1989, at 1 p.m. at the Hospital to try to get what we considered some very important questions answered. The group was comprised of approximately sixty (60) men and 5 or 6 ladies.

Among other things we wanted to know was why the Hospital Board insists on keeping the Hospital open, raising taxes to do so, when the patient load is from 0 to 2 or 3 patients per day, when according to the Hospital Administrator, as printed in the newspaper the hospital is losing $18,000.00 per month and it takes about nine (9) patients to break even?

We also wanted to find out where our tax money is deposited and how much, if any? Incidentally, the Charter says the Books are open to the public at all times.

We also wanted to know why the Hospital Board is mailing out Survey Ballots in the bank statements of the Banks rather than the taxpayers of the Hospital Tax? We also wanted to know why an Audit of the books is not done on a yearly basis and published in a local paper or mailed to each taxpayer and why when a Hospital Manager suddenly resigns and moves away why an Audit is not done immediately?

We also wanted to know why two meetings were held by the Hospital Board without posting the meetings as required by the Open Meeting Law that stipulates that business cannot be conducted by meetings or by telephone without proper public notice?

We also wanted to know why the May 6th vote that was against raising taxes by a forty-one (41) vote margin was not adhered to by the Board and why the Board voted to put a tax increase from 12 to 28 cents at the meeting August 16, 1989?

We also wanted to know why our spokesman was only given five (5) minutes to ask these questions by the Chairman of the Board? The votes as tabulated August 16th that were sent out discriminatorily by the Board were as follows:

Approximately 74 said "We are against more tax." Some 253 said "We are for more tax."

Those that were brought by Herman's Garage were as follows:

315 said NO. "We are against any tax raise."

The 74 Bank Boards NO votes plus 315 Herman's Auto is equal to 389 NO votes. The yes votes were 253. The NO votes won by approximately 136.

This Hospital Board ignored the questionnaire when we voted NO to borrowing more money to operate and now when we voted no to raise taxes. Where is fair play Mr. Cisco?

My Company has spent a lot of money in our town. How long do you think we are going to tolerate these Cisco type politics, such as raising a tax ONE HUNDRED to ONE HUNDRED FIFTY percent?

Larry Campbell
Manager, Burgess-Manning

Dear Editor,

I realize the importance of keeping our hospital here in Eastland, but is raising our taxes the answer? It doesn't seem to have helped our neighbors Cisco, Ranger and surely not Gorman. We of the other county hospital district (Gorman) are still paying taxes and have been for several years and no hospital!

I think the taxpayers need to know, if taxes are still not enough to keep the hospital open, then do they have to continue paying?

Taxpayers get the answers to this important question before voting yes. Paying for something for years and doing no one any good really gets old. Believe me I know because we are still paying for a vacant building in Gorman.

Thank You
Name Withheld By Request

Dear Editor,

I VOTE NO!

With government having bailed out a major aircraft first, then one of the Big Three auto makers and now the savings and loans without hope or expectation of repayment to tax payers from future profits I think it is time to call a screeching halt!

I can not be persuaded to bail out a "community hospital" which is not community controlled, where the books are not open to community view, and where we are in effect guaranteeing someone's profit no matter what.

In Gorman they voted a hospital tax on themselves to have their own hospital in emergencies and for convenience. Now the hospital is gone, due to mismanagement, some charge, but they will probably have only the debt for many years to come. I heard of some deriding a veterinarian for his vocal opposition to a Ranger Hospital district but do you think they will acknowledge now that they were wrong? So, who once said, "I'd rather be right than president?"

We hear that there is desperate need in case of emergency. HOWEVER, getting a patient ready takes about as long as getting him there from out in the country and I would prefer the quicker entry in a bigger 24 hr. fully staffed emergency facility. Furthermore, the wider range and greater ability in handling different sorts of emergencies in a larger hospital is preferable.

I firmly believe we lose as many people due to stops locally and then dispatched to the big city where better facilities are available only to be D.O.A. as we would in extra time going direct.

Another tax of unknown amount or duration is not the answer.

Health Issues And Views

By ROY CARTEE. QUESTION: Mr. Cartee, I have tried to get Medicaid but one of the people interviewing me said I was not eligible because of the "deeming factor." What did she mean?

ANSWER: Currently when an SSI or Medicaid applicant lives with a spouse or another individual who is not eligible for SSI or Medicaid states can include part of the non-eligible person's income and resources among those belonging to the applicant. The income or resources are "deemed" to belong to the applicant. The applicant may be eligible as an individual but not when living with a non-eligible person.

QUESTION: Mr. Cartee, what does "spend-down" mean? I am trying to get SSI but was told I have to "spend down" my funds.

ANSWER: The term "spend-down" means you will have to spend certain funds (usually cash resources) down to a level that by law enables the person to be eligible for SSI. I would suggest you get the Social Security interviewer to redetermine your eligibility periodically.

QUESTION: Mr. Cartee, if I became eligible for Medicaid what benefits would I receive?

ANSWER: These are mandatory services: inpatient hospital services, outpatient hospital services, laboratory and X-ray services, skilled nursing care for adults, home health care, physician services, family planning services, rural health clinic services and certain other services for those under 21. The coverage by Medicaid varies from state to state as both the federal and state government funds are used for the program.

If you have questions concerning access to health care write Roy V. Cartee, Associate State Health Coordinator - AARP, 900 Avenue H, Cisco, Texas 76437.

On August 30, 1989 a developmental screening will be held for young children ages zero to six (0-6) at the Eastland County MHRM Center, Eastland, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

The screening, which takes about 20 minutes to complete, tests a young child in four areas: personal/social skills (playing, eating, dressing, etc.), fine motor skills (ability to manipulate small objects), gross motor skills (running, jumping, etc.), and language development (speech, following instructions, etc.). If a child is found to have two or more delays in one area, there is further testing available or referral to the appropriate agency.

The purpose of Early Child-

Nutrition Program

We received a booklet the other day giving various statistics concerning Texas.

Did you know if Texas was a nation it would rank number 10 in the world in regard to the gross national product? That the population of Texas, today, is 17,000,000 but in 11 years it will grow to 20.2 million. That in 1985 the population included 12.5 percent Blacks, 22.6 percent Hispanics, 1.9 percent Asian and other, and 63.0 Anglo. However, 11 years from now the forecast will be 12.2 percent Blacks, 28.9 percent Hispanics, 3.35 percent Asians and other, and 55.5 percent Anglo. One more forecast - in 11 years 600 hospitals in the nation will be closed.

Fall is creeping fast upon us - now is the time to attend a Senior Center. Call 442-1557 in Cisco and 629-1263 in Eastland for a luncheon reservation.

Faithful Workers Sunday School Class Meet Aug. 14

The Faithful Workers Sunday School Class of East Cisco Baptist Church met Monday, Aug. 14, 1989, at 7 p.m. in the lovely home of Doris Crutchfield, class president.

The event was to honor a member who retired from her job of many years. Mrs. Marie Brock retired recently from her job as church secretary and organist for East Cisco Baptist Church.

Mrs. Brock was presented a corsage made of money. The ladies visited before enjoying the supper of delicious salads.

After a leisurely meal the group retired to the living room for a short business meeting at which the president presented Mrs. Brock a money tree from her class. The teacher, Marie Ivie, then dismissed the group with prayer.

The hostesses were Leona Morton, Doris Crutchfield and Jean Posey.

The delicious food included the following salads: two tuna, chicken decorated with small tomatoes and cucumbers, nine layer salad, pasta salads, and slaw, sliced tomatoes, small cheese and cracker sandwiches, various small crackers, chocolate, banana and pineapple cream cake.

Those present besides the hostesses were Bonnie Ervin (who helped Doris make the cute money tree), the honoree Marie Brock, Omalee Holdridge, teacher Marie Ivie, Clara Hallmark, Jewel Kinard, two guests, Ruth Kinard and Anne Fink.

the word about the pictures so that every senior will be informed.

To get to the Wright's home go out the Albany Highway past the dam. Just as you top the hill on the north, you will see a gate on the right. Enter the gate to reach the house (a sign will be posted on the gate).

Rev. Linam To Preach At East Cisco Sunday

Rev. Larry Linam of Summer, Texas, will be in the pulpit of East Cisco Baptist Church Sunday in view of a call.

The Rev. Linam will meet with church members at 5:30 p.m. Saturday at the church. All members are invited to attend.

Troop 287 Can't Take Paper Goods Anymore

Due to conditions beyond their control Troop 287 will not be collecting paper products for a while. "We were told there is a bill being considered that has to do with recycling paper products and the recycling centers across Texas are unable to accept paper products until the bill has either been disposed of or passed. We hope to collect newspapers again very soon," a troop spokesman said.

The troop will continue to collect aluminum beverage cans. They can still be dropped off at 301 East 21st Street but the trailer will not be available.

"We want to thank all of the citizens of Cisco and the surrounding area for saving and bringing your papers to us. We enjoyed visiting with many of you when you delivered them. Continue to read the paper and watch for a new date when we will once again collect newspapers," the spokesman added.

Sea World Of Texas Lights Up Summer Nights

SAN ANTONIO— As the grand finale of every summer evening at Sea World of Texas in San Antonio, fireworks, lasers and special effect lighting illuminate the sky in a dynamic production, "The Lights of Summer Nights."

Choreographed to an original music composition, "Lights" concludes the marine life park's nightly "Summer Nights '89" entertainment program, which runs through Labor Day.

"The show is a multimedia event that stimulates many emotions within an eight-minute period," said Denise Wine, show producer for Sea World of Texas. "It's a composite of four vignettes, all carefully balanced and timed with specially produced music."

Each night, over 300 firework shells, two powerful argon lasers and imaginative special effect lighting combine with the music to produce over 2,500 flashy effects in a dramatic nighttime spectacle.

"The Lights of Summer Nights," sponsored by the San Antonio Light, originates from the islands on Sea World's Water Ski Lake at 10:15 p.m. every day except Saturday, when the show starts at 10:50 p.m.

Guests can watch the show from the 3,500-seat Water Ski Stadium or from any point along the shoreline of the 12-acre lake.

"The biggest challenge of designing 'Lights' was making it a 360-degree show, staged consistently around the lake area," Wine said. "Also, because we wanted the audience to be able to sit close to the show, we had to be extremely conscious of safety factors. Two months of research went into planning the show."

Each show is run by eight members of Sea World's Entertainment Department: three pyrotechnics personnel, laser operator, lighting technician, audio engineer, safety officer and stage manager.

The four-part production opens with special effect lighting to create an ethereal feel, followed by fireworks and laser beams to speed up the tempo. The pace slows down for the second vignette, which highlights laser animation of Sea World's marine life on large screens. Fireworks take center stage for the fast-moving action of the third segment. For the finale, all the elements come out in full force.

In all, 101 layers of pyrotechnics fill the sky, including eight variations of mines, seven kinds of shells, three different candles and assorted cake effects. The lasers slice through the darkness to dazzle the audience with three types of beam effects.

The lasers also create blazing animation on three giant transparent screens, from spinning dolphins to penguins waddling to killer whale Shamu doing a bow. The six animated figures originated from 850 frames drawn by an artist.

The main island in the middle of Sea World's ski lake serves as the show's nerve center and headquarters, with a specially constructed magazine bunker, pyrotechnics control booth and laser control booth. It also is the focal point of the show.

"It took a lot of testing to get everything just right," said Bob Zaborski, supervisor of pyrotechnics at Sea World of Texas. "When designing our fireworks production, we had to strike a careful balance between art and safety. Not only did we strive to have the jazziest show possible, but we worked hard to ensure the safety of our guests, employees and animals."

Over the course of summer, Sea World will shoot off more than 14 tons of fireworks. "Because the wind can change dramatically in the course of a show, it is necessary to have a person gauging weather conditions at all times," Zaborski said. "We can adjust our shooting boxes with the wind, turning them 360 degrees."

The shooting boxes also make it possible to load a second show in case further adjustments have to be made.

"We are very safety conscious and disciplined because even our smallest aerial, a 2-inch shell, can cause a lot of damage," Zaborski said. "The laws are very tough for Class B explosives, with fines for violations running up to $10,000. A lot of people don't realize how dangerous fireworks are. You need a lot of experience to handle fireworks properly."

Sea World of Texas is licensed by the city, state and federal governments to stage a nightly fireworks and laser display.

For more information on Sea World of Texas, call toll-free (800) 422-SWIX or, in San Antonio, 523-3611.

A Thought For The Day...

DeAlva Chambers

Friendship is a great gift in life. It is equally great in the giving as well as in the receiving. Real friendship requires a genuine like of the person, not what the person can give us or do for us. To receive the gift of friendship, we must in turn give it. Unlike a Birthday or Christmas gift, the gift of friendship is intangible. Above all, it is a gift we must earn. This is often a forgotten truth. Because of this, friendship can be easily forfeited. For example -

All of us have forgetful friends. And lest we ourselves forget, let us remember we, too, at times are the forgetful friends to others. We forget to say, "Thank you" ... forget to say nice-to-hear things on this 'n that ... forget to give a word of affection and encouragement...

Incidentally, may we take this opportunity to say "Thank you" to all our friends who have taken the time to write, phone and comment on these articles...
