By J.E.

Wasn't the rain nice? Reports range from around 1 1/2 inches north and south of town, to 2 1/4 to 3 inches in town. The forecasts were calling for a chance of rain for the rest of the week. Doesn't it usually rain during the West Texas Fair?

Received a nice note from Mrs. J. Merle Murphy the other day. She wrote: Hello Cisco,

How I do miss all of the nice people there! I left Cisco the last week of June, but it seems much longer. No matter where I roam, I call Cisco my home.

When I left Cisco, I gave my daughter's address to forward my mail. I have bought me a mobile home in a park, so please change my paper address to 1710 Euclid, Sp. 69, El Centro, Calif. 92243.

My best regards to everyone.

J. Merle Murphy (Mrs. Virgil)

Mrs. Murphy would like to hear from all her friends in Cisco.

We offer our apologies to Mike and Sharon Thiberville, new owners of Philpott the Florist, and to the Cisco Chamber of Commerce, for the poor quality of the picture in Sunday's Cisco Press. Apparently, the camera's flash didn't go off and we were not aware of it until the picture was developed.

Class 4 Senior Gilts: Brad Fleming, fourth place, Duroc Gilt.

Ken Drozeski had grand champion scramble gilt. The Scramble Show is the conclusion of the year worth of work. It begins at the West Texas Fair and Rodeo the year before, were member participate in the Calf Scramble. If they catch an animal, they will later go and buy a registered animal with money from the fair, they feed the animal and take care of it until the show, which is the next fair and rodeo. This just shows how the member of FFA take care of their project animals.

Loboes To Play Gorman Friday

Anson Edges Loboes 9-to-7

A young but surprisingly quick team of Anson Tigers took advantage of the Cisco Loboes slower start in the season's first high school varsity football game for the two schools to score on their first possession. And that six points along with a field goal in the third quarter were too much for the Loboes to overcome.

Cisco got on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter when Matt Goosen passed to Joe Campbell for about six yards and a touchdown. The scoring play was set up by a long Goosen to Campbell pass for field position. And Campbell kicked the point after.

The Loboes depended mostly on the tackle to tackle running of fullback David Zell and tailbacks Brad Goosen and Darryl Morrison and the scrambling of quarterback Matt Goosen to advance the ball, but they found it necessary to pass to put the ball into the end zone.

Penalties killed some Lobo drives and a second quarter drive which advanced to the Anson five ended with an Anson interception of a Cisco pass.

Zell with 44 yds. led Cisco's rushing and Harvey Perkins led the receivers with 3 for 70. Cisco had 16 first downs, 133 yds. rushing, and 86 yds. passing. But the Loboes punted 5 times and had 58 yds. in penalties. Anson punted twice and had 168 yds. rushing.

Cisco played well defensively at times with Brandon Honea, Chester Vara, and Dusty Schaefer among those making tackles for losses.

Benefit Bowl In Breckenridge Saturday

Wranglers Defeat Blinn JC By Score Of 25-to-7

Jeff Cheatham threw two first quarter touchdown passes to give Cisco Junior College an early 12-to-0 lead en route to a 25-to-7 win over Blinn Junior College in Brenham Thursday night.

Cisco jumped ahead 6-to-0 only 2:24 into the game when Cheatham hit Troy Templin from 22 yards out. CJC followed that with another touchdown 10 minutes later when Anthony Stinnett caught a 7-yard pass.

Terry Strambler increased the Wrangler lead to 18-to-0 in the second quarter when he fought his way in from the two yard line.

After Blinn's Chris Barnes scored on a 29-yard run to cut the Cisco lead to 18-to-7, CJC responded with a 96-yard, 15-play drive that started midway through the third quarter and ended up in the fourth when Baldon Polk dove over from a yard to complete the scoring.

The game was a defensive struggle as CJC earned 206 yards, while Blinn could muster only 201.

The Wranglers defense dominated Blinn's offensive line as it recorded 12 sacks, recovered three fumbles and intercepted two passes.

Cisco head coach Rick Frazier was also impressed with Blinn's defensive play.

The Wranglers will travel to Breckenridge Saturday night to meet Ranger Junior College in the annual Lions' Bowl.

Coach Buddy Sharp said that the boys gave a good effort and there were bright spots, but there are still some things which the Loboes need to work on.

The Loboes will play the Gorman Panthers this Friday night in Cisco at 8 p.m.

Gorman is Class A, but they have a lot of tradition and they are usually good. Gorman didn't complete a pass in their first game with Perrin, they used 432 yards rushing to gain a 35 to 12 win. Brandon Gilmore had 177 yds. and Kevin Hirst 103 yds. to lead Gorman's rushing.

Cisco and Anson fans and the chain crew became alarmed when the referee apparently became confused and had the marker advanced to show first down rather than fourth down on Anson's last possession. But since it was the last play the game, Anson didn't get an extra down and it didn't affect the outcome of the game.

Lobo Quarterback Matt Goosen carries the football for yardage against the Anson Tigers Friday night.

CLASS MEETING

The Dorcas Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Paul Harper Thursday and Mrs. Ralph Snyder was co-hostess.

Installation of officers for the ensuing year were installed.

Mrs. Dale Phippen, president, called the meeting to order and Mrs. James Matthews gave the opening prayer. The class song, "Have Faith in God" was sung.

The minutes of the last meeting were read. The financial statement was given. The ministerial report was given and the 1989-90 year books were planned.

Mrs. Elaine Shelton installed the officers for the year, using "Shoes of Christian Service" as the theme, and reading scriptures from Acts 7:23. "Then said the Lord to him, put off thy shoe from thy feet, for the place where thou standest is Holy ground."

Amy Bolding tells this story: "Our two smallest granddaughters met at Christmas time. They were three years old and seemed quite happy to find that belonged to each other. As the happy excitement of taking gifts off the tree progressed, we noticed Sherri seemed to be pouting and brooding about something.

"Sherri was wearing nice suede slippers. They were black and tied with a shoestring. In a moment she took off her slippers and went to her cousin. She took off Melonie's slippers which were bright red with a brass buckle. Leaving the black one with Melonie, Sherri went to a corner and trying to get the red slippers on her chubby feet. They just would not fit. Sherri began to cry and only stopped when her mother promised that her next pair of slippers could be red ones."

"As we listened to the installation service for the officers, some of you might be like Sherri and feel that you are not capable of filling the shoes of service which you have taken. But you know that with the Lord's help you can and that he will be with you.

"The teacher, installed, Mrs. Paul Harper, was called up. You have been elected by our church to teach this group. Your shoes are not new. You have taught faithfully many years. Your shoes show much signs of polishing and care. The Psalmist wrote: "Thou hast set my feet in a large room". (Psalms 31:8). Indeed your feet are set on a large room of service for the coming year. May God bless and keep you as you seek to help these class members grow in grace and knowledge.

"The president, Mrs. Boyd Tabor, was called up: I have selected a pair of stout walking shoes for you. You will have to walk ahead of the others in order to lead them in activities and projects. We know that by the end of this year of service these shoes will show many signs of service well rendered. "He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness: for by strength shall no man prevail. (I Sam. 2:9)

"The vice president was called up, Mrs. Dale Phippen. I selected a nice serviceable pair of house slippers for you. Just when you think you are set to rest awhile, your teacher, or the president will call upon you to take charge of the meeting. You must be versatile and uncomplaining when it is time to change.

"How beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince's daughter" (Song of Sol 7:1).

"The secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Jack Dennis, was called up: We have such a neat dainty pair of shoes for you. They symbolize how neat and dainty your records will be kept. You will report regularly on the activities of the class. You will see that each person has literature at the proper time. People usually take better care of fragile dainty things, so we know you will take your records seriously and care for them tenderly. "Every wise woman buildeth her house; but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands" (Prov. 14:1).

"The reporter, Mrs. Ralph Snyder, was called up. I have selected a pair of rain boots for you. Rain or shine the news of the class meetings should be given to the Moran correspondent so that it might be printed in the paper. "I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies" (Psalms 119:59).

"The class ministries, Mrs. Kenneth McKinney was called up. I have selected a pair of rebok for you. With this many cards that you send to those who are sick, those who are in sorrow, and those who have birthdays, you will need shoes that are comfortable and help you move in a hurry. Much fruit can be borne for Christ by thoughtfulness. "Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established" (Proverbs 4:26).

"The group leaders were asked to stand, group leader No. 1 Mrs. Sam Brewster and group leader No. 2 Mrs. Dary Edwards; the Indians have a saying "Judge no man until you have worn his moccasins for a week." When members make excuses about not attending don't grow impatient.

Remember you have not worn their shoes a week. For you group leaders I have selected a shoe with a soft rubber sole. These shoes will wear well, yet they feel soft as you walk. You must be persistent in reminding members of class meetings, and how much we miss them when they are absent. "For thou has delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling" (Psalms 116:8).

"All officers are asked to stand: As all of you put on your shoes of Christian service, I would like for you to repeat after me this pledge. "I pledge my loyalty to my class and church. I promise to fulfill my duty as worker to the best of my ability--to study, plan, pray and work for the best interest of the class. With God's help I will be the best worker that I can."

Mrs. Paul Harper gave the closing prayer.

At 1 p.m. a light finger food meal was served, and following the meeting dessert was served.

Others present were Mrs. Maezell Crocker and Jean Tabor.

Cisco Lobo defense holds Anson Tigers to short yardage.

ELAINE SHELTON

Elaine Shelton To Be Honored Sun. At Moran First Baptist Church

The First Baptist Church in Moran will honor Elaine Shelton, church organist for 55 years, on Sunday, September 17. The day has been officially proclaimed "Elaine Shelton Day".

Special recognition will be given to Elaine in the morning worship service at 11:00 with a luncheon following the service for the church family and family and friends of Mrs. Shelton. There will be a reception in her honor from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Moran Community Center.

Mrs. Shelton began playing the piano at the age of seven and through the years has provided music for not only her church but for literally hundreds of weddings, funerals, school and community functions. In addition to playing music, she has taught music to hundred of pupils. Her beautiful music has always been exceeded only by her lovely smile and sweet spirit.

All of Elaine's family and friends, along with former pupils and pastors will join the membership of the First Baptist Church in this expression of love and appreciation on "Elaine Shelton Day".

"We can never adequately say 'thank you' to Elaine," said Dr. Jack Clack, pastor of Moran's First Baptist Church, "for all the joy and inspiration she has brought to so many of us for many years. We look forward to hearing her music for many years to come. This special day is simply a way for everyone to give Elaine a big hug for all she has given to us."

Deciding About Your Hospital

by Congressman Charles Stenholm

Over the past two years, there has been no issue of greater concern to the residents of the 17th Congressional District of Texas, and therefore to me, than the survival of hospitals and other forms of health care in our rural areas. Eastland now faces the question so many of our other communities are facing: Do we want to hold on to our hospital, and if so, how can we go about doing it?

It comes as no surprise that the possibility of a hospital closing its doors is often very alarming to a community. The danger posed by such an event can threaten not only individual lives but the life of the entire community as well. A national study recently completed by the American Hospital Association revealed that often extraordinary hardship, particularly for the elderly and the working poor, results from the closure of a rural community hospital.

Despite the reputation of good, healthy living those of us who reside in rural areas enjoy, the facts show some startling figures indicating how much we need access to health care. For example, did you know that the death rate from accidental injuries in most rural areas is over twice the rate for the largest cities? Or consider the fact that almost two of every three deaths involving motor vehicles occur in rural areas. Or perhaps you would be surprised to learn that although farm workers constitute only 4 percent of total U.S. workers, 38 percent of all machinery-related deaths occur on farms. When its Daddy who just had a tractor accident or Mama who is ready to deliver her baby or Junior who broke his arm on the football field or Grandma who needs regular physician care, we suddenly consider the importance of available health care.

On a larger scale, the life of a community can also be at stake.

Often the largest or second largest employer in the community, a rural hospital's closure can substantially increase unemployment and decrease the value of the overall income and tax base in the area. In addition, businesses considering relocating to small communities are unlikely to choose a community without a hospital. Nor are physicians or other health care professionals likely to settle where no hospital exists.

So that's the bad news; now where is the good news? The good news is that all across the Country, including here in Washington, people are seeing the rural health care problem and trying to determine what portion of the solution they can contribute.

Three years ago, there were handfuls of Members of the House of Representatives who started talking about the problems facing rural hospitals and doctors. Now, this Spring more than 100 Members of the House Rural Health Care Coalition and I joined together to introduce a package of legislation to bring relief to rural health care. Some of the solutions we came up with during the last two years have started bringing some measure of relief to hospitals, but we still have a long way to go. I stand ready to continue fighting this battle as long as it takes.

At the State level, the most recent Legislature passed an omnibus rural health care measure seeking additional ways to preserve access to health care. The results of these new state laws should soon be evident.

At the local level, one of the many things your own hospital administrator and board recently tackled was the formidable task of writing a lengthy application for a "rural transition grant" to bring additional federal funds to your hospital.

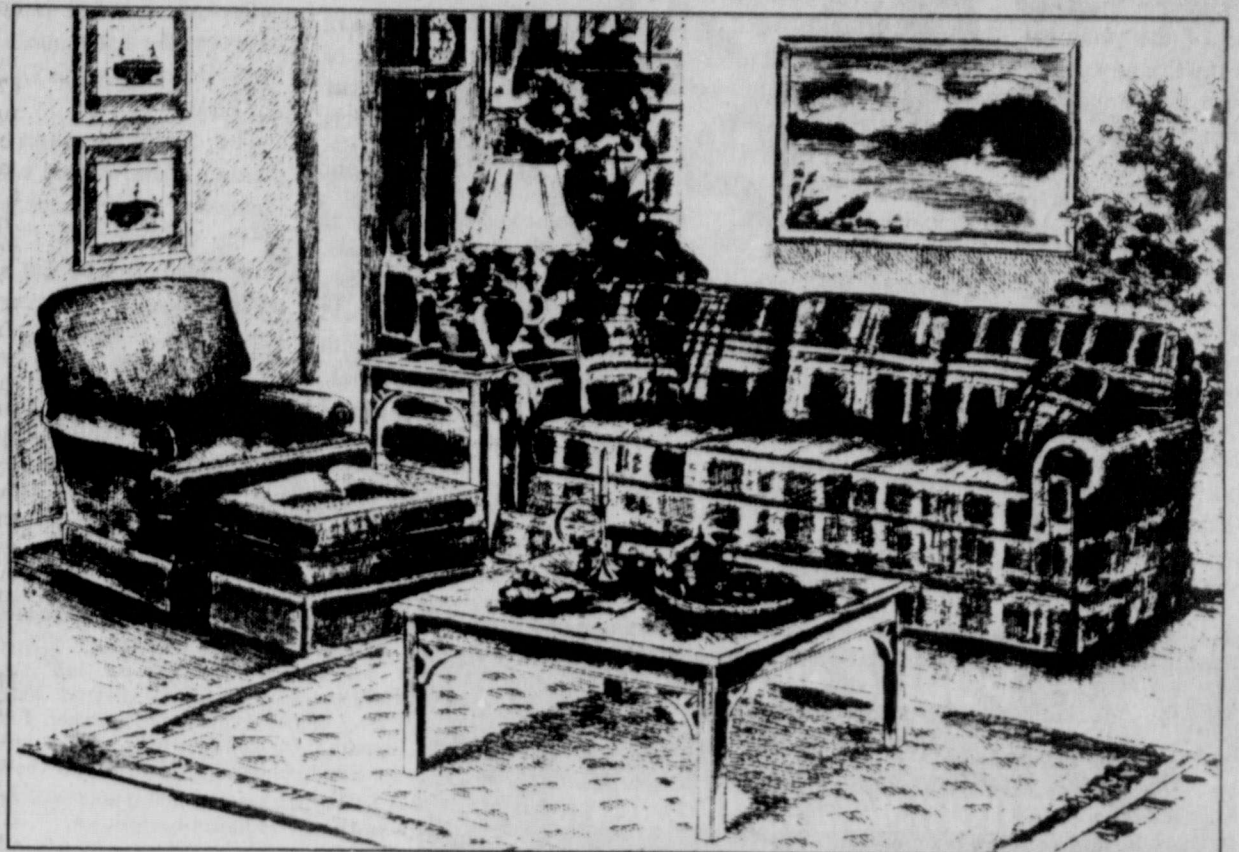

But despite all of these efforts, it may well be that the most important players in deciding the fate of a community hospital are the residents themselves. Not every community feels that it needs a hospital, and that decision should certainly be theirs to make. The extensive hospital construction that was encouraged by the government back during the 1960s established a system which may be unsupportable in today's economic environment.

The decision about access to health care which a community makes should not be made lightly. Either decision, to keep or to forego a local hospital, is a costly one and every taxpayer should carefully consider the costs and benefits involved on both sides. While such a decision may seem a heavy responsibility, we are indeed fortunate to live in a land where such self-determination is a privilege we enjoy.

Be sure that as an American and a resident of Eastland, you act on those privileges and responsibilities to decide: Our hospital—shall we keep it or let it go?

Speaker Of The House Foley At Abilene News Conference

By Viola Payne
Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives Tom Foley-D, had high praises for Congressman Charles Stenholm at a Press Conference at Dyess Air Force Base last Friday, Sept. 8.

Foley said that Stenholm was "one of the principal voices in the Congress" and hoped that two important appointments might come soon to conservative members of the Democratic Party.

The Speaker, along with his host Stenholm and U.S. Reps. Bill Sarpalus, D-Amarillo, Mike Parker, D-Mississippi, Butler Derrick, D-South Carolina were in Abilene to tour Dyess Air Force Base. They also went to Stenholm's big Funday picnic at Ericksdahl on Saturday.

Around 3 p.m. Friday the Congressmen attended a briefing in the Conference Room of the Officer's Clubhouse at Dyess, and returned there at 5 p.m. after an inspection of Aircraft on the flight line.

It was a blistering afternoon, but the visitors (all hatless) survived their time on the grounds with high spirits. All seemed impressed with Dyess and the southwest hospitality.

Major Mary Beth Kilgore, Dyess Public Affairs Officer, welcomed area journalists to the news conference. Congressman Stenholm introduced Speaker Foley and the other Representatives, saying that it was vital for Congressmen to visit in Districts other than their own.

Foley agreed, saying that on the airplane down Stenholm had informed him of some of the problems of the oil and gas industry, as well as other matters critical to the 17th Congressional District.

The Speaker said he was from Spokane, Washington, in the eastern part of the state. There were some similarities between his and Congressman Stenholm's District, Foley said. They were about the same size, and each had a lot of agriculture. Much of the Spokane area consists of wheat farming, but also has some cattle and irrigated farming.

When asked about his opinion of the aircraft at Dyess, Foley called the B-1 a "truly impressive aircraft," but said there had been criticism with some of the plane's electronic systems. He said he hoped these problems could be corrected.

The Speaker didn't seem as sure about the B-2 stealth bomber, but said congress will give it another year and then come to some decision.

He said the MX Rail Garrison System is being considered, and a House-Senate Conference hoped to resolve the questions in several weeks.

Foley chuckled as he remarked that Fairchild Airbase in Spokane is one of the Airbases on the list requesting the System, as well as Dyess Air Base.

The Speaker made no mention of Jim Wright's resignation of this post recently, or the circumstances surrounding it. But he did say that the lack of progress reported in Congress isn't as bad as it seems.

"What happened is that the Congress has really gotten back to a good work schedule," Foley said. "We've been moving on all the legislation. I think we've made up for the loss of time we suffered earlier in the year."

He added that "the backstabbing atmosphere" is gone from Congress. Stenholm nodded in agreement.

When asked about President Bush's drug plan, Foley praised the proposal. He also said that the President has bipartisan support, and that "reports of criticism from House Democrats may have been blown out of proportion."

On whether any equipment from Dyess will be sent to Columbia, Foley said that was a matter for the Airforce and Department of Defense. But he did think the President was to be congratulated for taking a strong stand on the drug menace.

Before he left the Conference Room Foley was asked about the Health-Care crisis in rural counties such as Eastland.

He replied that he was aware of the problem, and that Congress was trying to do something about it. There should be some encouraging announcements shortly, Foley said.

This was another matter he and Stenholm had discussed while coming down on the plane - and one of the most urgent, the Washington Democrat added.

An Airforce officer was rounding up the Congressmen for another flight, so Foley and the other visitors concluded their discussions and visiting. But the personal contact between news media and the Congressmen seemed to make an impression on both groups.

Speaker of the House Tom Foley (in dark suit, center) and Congressman Charles Stenholm spoke to new media representatives at Dyess Air Force Base on Sept. 8. Also on the panel were U.S. Reps. Bill Sarpalus, D-Amarillo, Butler Derrick, D-South Carolina, and Mike Parker, D-Miss.

PUBLIC NOTICE BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 7, 1989

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 102 proposes a constitutional amendment that would increase the salary of members of the legislature to one-fourth of the Governor's salary and increase the salary of the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House of Representatives to one-half of the Governor's salary. The annual salary of members of the legislature, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives is currently $7,200. Under this provision, the annual salary of the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker would be $46,716, and the annual salary of members of the legislature would be $23,358, based on the Governor's current annual salary of $93,432. The increase for the Speaker and the members of the legislature would take effect when the legislature convenes for its regular session in January 1991. The increase for the Lieutenant Governor would take effect when the term of that office begins in 1991. The salary increase for the Lieutenant Governor would not make members of the legislature ineligible to run for the office of Lieutenant Governor.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to limit the salary of the lieutenant governor and the speaker of the house of representatives to not more than one-half of the governor's salary and to limit the salary of a member of the legislature to not more than one-fourth of the governor's salary."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 5 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Texas Water Development Board to issue an additional $500 million of Texas water development bonds. The additional bonds are to be used as follows: $250 million of the bonds are to be used for water supply loans and facilities acquisition; $200 million of the bonds are to be used for water quality enhancement projects; and $50 million of the bonds are to be used for flood control. The legislature may provide that $100 million be used for subsidized loans and grants to economically distressed areas of the state for water and wastewater facilities.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the issuance of an additional $500 million of Texas water development bonds for water supply, water quality, and flood control purposes."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 51 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to provide for the issuance of general obligation bonds to provide money to establish a Texas agricultural fund, a rural microenterprise development fund, a Texas product development fund, and a Texas small business incubator fund in the state treasury. The Texas agricultural fund would be used to provide financial assistance to develop, increase, improve, or expand the production, processing, marketing, or export of crops or products grown or produced in Texas by Texas agricultural businesses. The rural microenterprise development fund would be used to stimulate the creation and expansion of small businesses in rural areas. The Texas product development fund would be used to aid in the development and production of new or improved products in this state. The Texas small business incubator fund would be used to stimulate the development of small businesses in the State.

The principal amount of bonds outstanding at one time could not exceed $25 million for the Texas agricultural fund and $5 million for the rural microenterprise development fund. The financial assistance offered by both funds could include loan guarantees, insurance, co-insurance, loans, and indirect loans or purchases or acceptances of assignments of loans or other obligations. To carry out the Texas product development fund, the legislature could authorize loans, loan guarantees, and equity investments, and the issuance of up to $25 million of general obligation bonds for initial funding. To carry out the Texas small business incubator fund, the legislature could authorize loans and grants of money, and the issuance of up to $20 million of general obligation bonds for initial funding.

Bonds authorized under this amendment would be paid out of the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in any interest and sinking account at the end of the preceding fiscal year that is pledged to payment of the bonds or interest.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for the recovery and further development of the state's economy, with goals of increasing job opportunities and other benefits for Texas residents, through state financing of the development and production of Texas products and businesses."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 13 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature, by general law, to exempt from ad valorem taxes property owned by nonprofit veterans organizations that are chartered or incorporated by the United States Congress.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to exempt property of nonprofit veterans organizations from ad valorem taxation."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 11 proposes a constitutional amendment that would provide an exemption from ad valorem taxation for goods, wares, merchandise, other tangible personal property (including aircraft), and ores (other than oil, gas, and petroleum products) if the property is acquired in or imported into the state and is destined to be forwarded out of the state, regardless of whether the intention to forward the property existed when the property was acquired or imported into the state, if it remains in Texas for 175 days or less for assembly, storage, manufacture, processing, or fabrication. The proposed amendment would authorize the governing body of a county, municipality, school district, or junior college district to prevent the exemption of this tangible personal property from taxation by taking official action before April 1, 1990. A county, municipality, school district, or junior college district could rescind a decision to tax the property, in which case the exemption would become effective in the year of the rescission and the property could not thereafter be taxed.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment promoting economic growth, job creation, and fair tax treatment for Texans who export goods to other states and nations by restoring and allowing, on a local option basis, an ad valorem tax exemption for certain personal property that is in Texas only temporarily for the purpose of assembling, storing, manufacturing, processing or fabricating."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment that would enable the legislature to provide, by general or special law, that members of a hospital district board may serve terms not to exceed four years. Currently, hospital district board members' terms are two years.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"Authorizing the members of a hospital district governing board to serve four-year terms."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 40 proposes a constitutional amendment that would change the format of the oath of office for officeholders in this state. All elected and appointed officers would be required to take an oath or affirmation swearing to faithfully execute the duties of office and to preserve, protect, and defend the constitution and laws of the State and the United States. In addition, each elected and appointed officer would be required to sign a sworn statement that he or she had not paid, offered, or promised anything of value for a vote or to secure appointment to an office, as applicable. The written, sworn statement would be filed with the secretary of state. The information in the statement is currently contained in the oaths of office taken by elected and appointed officials.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to require that a member of the legislature, the secretary of state, and an elected or appointed officer, before assuming office, sign a written oath stating that the member, the secretary of state, or the officer did not engage in bribery to obtain the office."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 24 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to authorize the issuance of up to $400 million in general obligation bonds. The proceeds of the bonds could be used to acquire, construct, or equip new correctional institutions, mental health and mental retardation institutions, youth corrections institutions, and statewide law enforcement facilities and to repair and renovate existing facilities of those institutions. The bonds would constitute a general obligation of the state. The bonds and interest on the bonds would be paid from the first money coming into the treasury that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution, less any amount in a sinking fund at the end of the preceding fiscal year that is pledged to payment of the bonds or interest.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of general obligation bonds for projects relating to facilities of corrections institutions, youth corrections institutions, and mental health and mental retardation institutions and for the expansion of statewide law enforcement facilities."

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 101 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to pass laws to organize and combine state agencies that perform criminal justice functions. The legislature could combine into one or more agencies all agencies that have authority over the confinement and supervision of convicted criminals, that set standards for or distribute state funds to political subdivisions with authority over the confinement and supervision of convicted criminals, and that gather information about criminal justice administration. Agencies that could be combined would include the Texas Department of Corrections, the Board of Pardons and Paroles, and the Texas Adult Probation Commission. The amendment would also authorize the legislature to pass laws authorizing the appointment of members of more than one department of government to serve on the governing body.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to organize and combine various state agencies that perform criminal justice functions."

PROPOSITION NO. 10 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to enact laws requiring or permitting judges to advise juries that a defendant convicted of a criminal offense can receive credit for good conduct that results in a shorter prison term and that eligibility for parole or mandatory supervision can also affect the length of time a convicted criminal serves in prison.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to require or permit courts to inform juries about the effect of good conduct time and eligibility for parole or mandatory supervision on the period of incarceration served by a defendant convicted of a criminal offense."

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 102 proposes a constitutional amendment that would increase the per diem of members of the Legislature. The amount of per diem allowed during a calendar year would be equal to the maximum amount allowed for federal income tax purposes as of January 1 of that same year as a deduction for living expenses incurred by a state legislator. The per diem of $30 would increase to $81, which is the current maximum living expense deduction.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to set the amount of per diem received by a member of the legislature at the amount allowed for federal income tax purposes as a deduction for living expenses incurred by a state legislator in connection with official business."

PROPOSITION NO. 12 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 53 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to provide for the use of the permanent school fund and the income from the permanent school fund to guarantee bonds issued by the state for the purpose of providing loans or purchasing the bonds of school districts to acquire, construct, renovate, or improve instructional facilities. If the permanent school fund were required to make payment as a result of its guarantee of bonds issued by the state, the fund would have to be reimbursed immediately from the state treasury. The amount of bonds guaranteed by the permanent school fund could not exceed $750 million unless a higher amount was authorized by a two-thirds vote of both houses of the legislature. If a school district were to become delinquent on a loan, the amount of the delinquency would be offset against other aid to which the district was entitled.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide for using the permanent school fund and its income to guarantee bonds issued by the state for the purpose of aiding school districts."

PROPOSITION NO. 13 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 19 proposes a constitutional amendment that would provide a bill of rights for crime victims. This constitutional amendment would give crime victims the right to be treated with fairness and respect and to be reasonably protected from the defendant. On his request, the crime victim would have the right to notification of court proceedings, the right to be present at all public court proceedings unless a court determines that the victim's testimony would be affected by hearing other testimony, the right to confer with a representative of the prosecutor's office, the right to restitution, and the right to information about the conviction, sentence, imprisonment, and release of the defendant. The legislature would be authorized to enact laws to define the term "victim," to enforce the rights of crime victims, and to provide that certain public officers and agencies are not liable for a failure to protect a victim's rights.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing a bill of rights for crime victims."

PROPOSITION NO. 14 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 71 proposes a constitutional amendment that would require the district attorney in Fort Bend County to be elected and serve terms at the same times as criminal district attorneys in the state. Currently, criminal district attorneys are elected in gubernatorial election years and district attorneys are elected in presidential election years.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment requiring a district attorney serving in Fort Bend County to be elected and serve a term in the manner provided by general law for criminal district attorneys."

PROPOSITION NO. 15 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 32 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature, by general law, to permit charitable raffles conducted by qualified nonprofit organizations. The amendment would require that the raffles be conducted, promoted, and administered only by members of the qualified nonprofit organizations and that the proceeds from the sale of raffle tickets must be spent for the charitable purposes of the organizations.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to permit and regulate raffles conducted by certain nonprofit organizations for charitable purposes."

PROPOSITION NO. 16 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 34 proposes a constitutional amendment allowing the legislature to pass general laws authorizing the creation of hospital districts upon approval of a majority of the qualified voters of the district. The amendment would also permit the legislature to authorize the creation of hospital districts by general or special law in counties with populations of 75,000 or less and to authorize the commissioners courts of such counties to levy ad valorem taxes and issue general obligation bonds for the support and maintenance of such districts.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment granting to the people the right to decide whether to create and maintain hospital districts to protect the public well-being in a manner independent of the legislature."

PROPOSITION NO. 17 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 33 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature, by general law, to authorize the use of public money to provide local fire departments and other public fire-fighting organizations loans or other financial assistance to purchase fire-fighting equipment and to aid in complying with federal and state law. The legislature would also be allowed to authorize the use of public money for scholarships and grants to educate and train members of these organizations. Part of the money could be used for administrative costs of this program. The legislature would provide for the terms and conditions of all such scholarships, grants, loans, and other financial assistance.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the state to provide scholarships, grants, loans, and other financial assistance to local fire departments and other public fire-fighting organizations to purchase fire-fighting equipment, to aid in providing necessary equipment and facilities to comply with federal and state law, and to educate and train their members."

PROPOSITION NO. 18 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 44 proposes a constitutional amendment that would repeal subsection (e) of Article III, Section 50-d of the constitution. Article III, Section 50-d currently allows the Texas Water Development Board to issue and sell Texas agricultural water conservation bonds in an amount not to exceed $200 million, if two-thirds of the members of each house of the legislature approve. Under subsection (e), this authority will expire in November, 1989. Repeal of subsection (e) by passage of this amendment would continue in effect the authority to issue and sell the bonds.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to eliminate certain time limitations relating to the issuance of Texas agricultural water conservation bonds."

PROPOSITION NO. 19 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 59 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow local governments to invest their funds as authorized by the legislature. Currently, the constitutional prohibition against a grant of public money to an individual, association, or corporation or against becoming a stockholder in a corporation, association, or company prevents local governments from making some kinds of investments. This proposed amendment would allow local governments to make any investments authorized by the legislature.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize local governments to invest their funds as provided by law."

PROPOSITION NO. 20 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 16 proposes a constitutional amendment which, if passed, would abolish the office of county surveyor in Cass, Ector, Garza, Smith, Bexar, Harris, and Webb Counties. A majority of the voters in an affected county must vote in favor of this proposed amendment before the office is abolished in that county. If the office of county surveyor is abolished in any of these counties, the powers, duties, and functions of the office are transferred to a county officer or employee designated by the commissioners court of the county in which the office is abolished.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county surveyor in Cass, Ector, Garza, Smith, Bexar, Harris, and Webb Counties."

PROPOSITION NO. 21 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 74 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to enact laws authorizing the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board or its successor to provide for, issue, and sell an additional $75 million in general obligation bonds as college savings bonds. The form, terms, and denominations of the bonds would be prescribed by law. The interest rate and installments would be prescribed by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board or its successor. The maximum net effective interest rate would be set by law. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds would be credited to the Texas opportunity plan fund, which is used to make loans to students to attend institutions of higher education in Texas. The bonds and interest on the bonds would be payable from the first money coming into the treasury in each fiscal year that is not already appropriated by the constitution, less the amount remaining in the sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year.

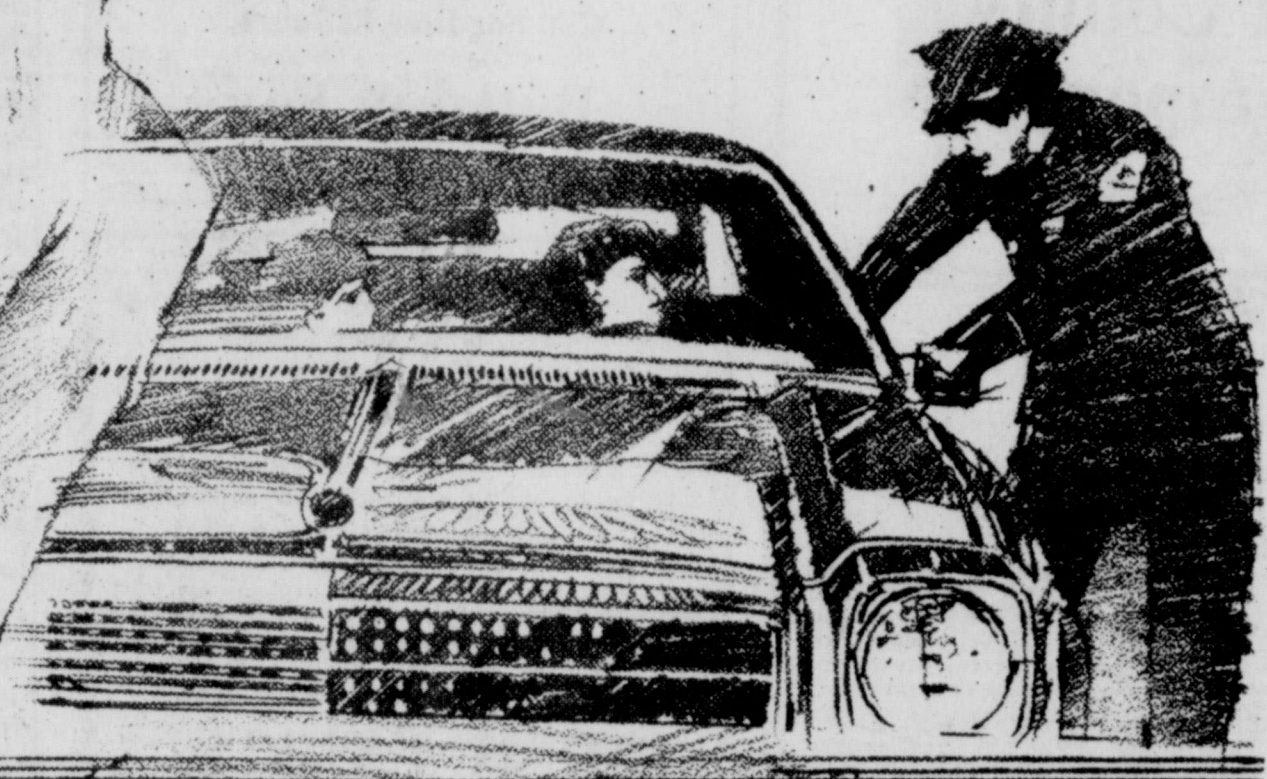

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds as college savings bonds to provide educational loans to students and to encourage the public to save for a college education."

STOP DRUNK DRIVERS
BEFORE THEY STOP YOU

Statistics show, you or someone close to you will one day stop a drunk driver on the road. Whether we like it or not, we are all "under the influence" of people who will drink too much and then get behind the wheel. And even though the laws are cracking down to catch offenders and drinking ages have been raised in most states, your best protection is to know your own limitations with alcohol. Make sure your family and friends are also aware by learning the facts, and not allowing anyone to drive while intoxicated. Don't wait until you or someone you know stops a drunk driver on the road, before you discover the sobering consequences of mixing alcohol and driving.

Petition Against Prison Brought To County Commissioners

Opponent of a proposal to build a prison in Eastland County had their day in Commissioners Court Monday.

Carol Bullock and Jimmie Hughes spoke for a overflow crowd at the Courtroom, and brought a petition with around 450 names of people who oppose the location of the facility here.

They also brought a Resolution from the City of Carbon opposing the prison, and a Resolution from the Carbon School Board not to support the prison.

The site presented to the Texas Department of Corrections for the 2500-bed prison is a 1,000 acre tract of land near Carbon at a projected cost of $650,000. The land would be donated to the State. This proposal was carried to Austin by the Eastland County Economic Development Council with Dr. Charles Barnes as Project Manager.

The petition brought by Mrs. Bullock stated that a prison would "strain resources of school, law enforcement, hospitals, water, and increase the tax burden to people of the County."

Bullock told the Commissioners that if they looked around they would find substantial opposition to the prison.

"In all fairness... in a matter of this sort... the people of this county should have had a vote on the matter. Our rights have been circumvented."

She and others referred to the action of the County Commissioners this summer. In June the officials set an election for August to let voters give their opinion on the prison.

But all Commissioners except one (Billy Bacon of Pct. 4) voted against the election when members of the Eastland County Development group came to a called meeting and urged them to drop the referendum.

The Commissioners had earlier signed a Resolution supporting the proposal for a prison, and promising "to issue necessary certificates of obligation or other instruments of financing to fund the purchase of land."

The discussion became heated Monday as several people told the Commissioners that the Economic Group had promised land would be paid for by donations and pledges.

County Commissioners who had voted to rescind the election agreed to agree. One said: "We signed an agreement with them. I don't think they're keeping their part of it."

John Berry, District Manager for TU Electric Co., defended the work of the County Economic Development Group and the location of a prison here.

He indicated the group couldn't absolutely guarantee that the full amount of money would be donated, but if Eastland County is selected "We'll have 45 days until we turn the deed of the land over to them."

"We are only asking for the County's credit. It may take years for pledges to come in," Berry said.

The Commissioners were questioned from the floor as to whether the Court was legally obligated to pay for the land submitted for the prison.

District Attorney Emory Walton was called in, and he said that the Resolution passed by the Commissioners made them "morally obligated, but not legally."

Carol Bullock and others continue to press for Commissioners for an election to see whether the people wanted the prison in Eastland County. She received a number of answers, most indicating that this would be very difficult right now, or there wasn't enough time.

County Judge Scott Bailey said he had originally supported a bond referendum election to gauge support for the county borrowing money on the land purchase. But he also said the petition brought to the Court against the prison was not worded in a manner so that an election could be legally called for now.

Mrs. Bullock requested a place on the agenda of the next Commissioners Court meeting, which will be held Sept. 25. At that time she may have a petition calling for a referendum.

County Clerk JoAnne

Johnson will study election laws to see if a special election would be possible.

"The County Economic Development Group members are not our elected representatives," one prison opponent said. "We want to speak for ourselves. That is the American way of doing things. Why are you so afraid of a vote?"

Health And Human Services Legislation

By Bob Glasgow

In the areas of health and human services one of the most important measures passed by the 71st Legislature was House Bill 18, known as the Omnibus Health Care Rescue Act. This legislation was passed in order to help rural hospitals stay open and to ensure that quality medical care is available to rural Texans.

Recently, a number of rural hospitals have closed their doors, leaving many communities without easy access to medical care. In addition, a crisis has developed in rural Texas due to a shortage of medical doctors and nurses. As a member of the Rural Health Care Caucus, passage of a rural health care bill was a top priority for me during the 71st Legislature, and HB 18 should do much in the way of easing the health care crisis in Texas.

The major provisions of HB 18 include: the provision for the indemnification by the state of health care professionals for medical malpractice claims up to $100,000 for care relating to the birth of a child; provides for a premium discount for certain health care professionals who provide 10% or more care on a charity basis and establishes the Center for Rural Health Initiatives.

Also included in this bill are provisions requiring: the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, the Center for Rural Health Initiatives, medical schools and other institutions to cooperate in improving and expanding programs in rural areas; insurers to develop a procedure for reconsideration of a rate or premium charged a health care provider or physician for professional liability insurance coverage and requires the bureau of emergency management of the Texas Department of Health to develop and maintain a statewide emergency medical services and trauma care system.

In addition to HB 18, a number of other bills were passed by the 71st Legislature regarding health and human services that will impact residents of the 22nd Senatorial District.

HEALTH

SB 115 prohibits the sale of tobacco to persons under 18 years of age.

SB 312 provides for the regulation of emergency medical services providers.

SB 332 provides that the Texas Department of Health may request criminal history checks of employees of certain facilities that serve the elderly or disabled. This bill provides that conviction bars employment, with certain exceptions, and provides for the confidentiality of records.

SB 444 provides that plastic containers must be manufactured or distributed with a code that identifies the type of plastic resin used in their manufacture. This will aid in increasing the amount of plastics that are recycled in Texas.

SB 671 provides that certain prohibiting laws do not apply to dialyses, devices or drugs used for dialysis, and requiring the promulgation of rules to provide for the safe distribution of such items.

SB 788 allows a physician to supply a patient with free samples of a pharmaceutical.

SB 907 creates new law allowing for the creation, administration, powers, duties, operations and financing of hospital districts.

SB 959 is the omnibus legislation relating to AIDS and HIV. This bill establishes the Texas Department of Health as the primary source for information and education about AIDS and HIV.

Under the bill, the Department of Health must: develop educational programs and model workplace guidelines; maintain and gather information about AIDS and HIV and contract with other entities who may provide information; provide technical assistance to community organizations and establish a grant program for community organizations; assist hospitals and hospital districts in the purchase of medication and establish a program of voluntary HIV testing and training of counselors.

In addition, the bill: requires the Texas Department of Human Services to develop a model program to deal with individuals who need long-term nursing care due to AIDS or HIV; establishes an offense of intentionally exposing another to AIDS or HIV and provides for a partner notification program.

SB 1678 requires the Department of Human Services to promulgate rules establishing presumptive eligibility for Medicaid benefits for pregnant women who meet federal requirements. The bill also requires the Department to establish a program for high-risk pregnant women and children to age one, and establishes the Maternal and Child Health Advisory Committee to monitor issues and coordinate delivery of services to eligible women and children.

HB 630 requires counties to adopt eligibility standards for indigent health care and to make them public.

HB 791 provides that it is the State's intent that up to 50% of first year resident physicians be in certain fields, including emergency medicine. Also requires the Department of Health to establish poison control centers and allows emergency medical service provides to establish subscription program to fund the services.

HB 1106 provides that hospitals owned, leased or operated by a city with a population of less than 5,500, and certain other hospitals are not public hospitals for the purposes of providing services under the Indigent Health Care and Treatment Act.

HB 1243 provides that the Texas Department of Human Resources may pay a licensed dentist for AFDC-Medicaid services.

HB 1345 sets the income eligibility cap for medical assistance to pregnant woman and infants at 130% of the federal poverty guidelines. This bill also requires the Department to establish rules governing a medically needy program for pregnant women, children and caretakers and to establish rules that guarantee that payments to hospitals are adequate.

HB 1849 requires a pharmacy make available information about the therapeutic use and generic name of a drug.

Human Services

SB 1 repeals the provisions for a lien on property and estate of individuals receiving medical assistance under Chapter 32 of the Human Resources Code held by the Texas Department of Human Resources.

SB 482 establishes the Options for Independent Living Program to help elderly persons remain at home despite limited self-care facilities.

Editor,

I have a copy of Mr. Millard Slauter's Ghost Town Memories" of Sunday, Aug. 31, 1969 page 7 and a copy of his and Luna Jackson's Nov. 1972.

I am sending you a copy of my "Memories" for you to use if you wish.

The Mangum Church is having their 85th anniversary and homecoming the 17th of this month.

Ghost Town Memories Mangum, Texas

In the year 1907 Mr. and Mrs. James C. Sanders with son Henry C. Sanders moved from Hasse, Comanche County, Texas to Mangum, Eastland County, Texas.

James C. was a carpenter helped build homes in the town of Mangum.

In 1908 built his own home on a hill west of the M.K.&T R.R. section houses in the south part of Mangum.

James worked for Mrs. Willie Switzer at the Maurice Mineral Water Plant pumping and bottling the mineral water to shop to Dublin, Waco and other towns on the M.K.&T Railroad.

Mrs. Switzer own and operated the three story hotel. Mr. David Switzer was a salesman for the "King Candy Co." Fort Worth, Texas.

The train would stop in Mangum long enough for the passengers and crew to eat lunch in the largest and finest dining rooms that I have ever been in.

On Jan. 1, 1909 my sister Gladys was born.

From 1909 to July 1912 I seem to draw a blank.

July the 18th 1912 my brother William C. was born.

In fall of 1912 the Sanders made a trip to Paducah Cattle Co. Texas to pick cotton.

In 1913 and 14 my father tried farming and raising hogs on the halves. The boll weevils got the cotton crop in Sept. 1914 my sister Elsie was born. I remember we owned one spotted milk cow "Butterfly" we called her. The spring of 1915 she gave birth to a heifer calf a solid white, my father said she was the first solid white cow he had ever seen.

In 1913 Gladys, William and I had our first Christmas, saw our first Santa Claus. We were told later that Walter Brown was Santa Claus. He worked at the water plant with my dad.

I don't remember all the peoples names, Bob Mancil of Cisco was Maurice Mancil's father. The Switzers raised him. In 1932 I talked with Maurice in Abilene, Texas.

June the 15th 1915 our family arrived in Paducah Cattle Co. Texas to live for almost four years. In 1918 my dad heard there was a oil boom in Eastland made a trip to Eastland Co. worked for Humble Oil Co. building Co. houses the big job was in Cisco.

In the spring of 1919 the mother and 4 kids made a trip back to Mangum, you see we still had our first home there, for three months I worked for Mrs. Dave Switzer in the water plant milked cows on a dairy about two miles northeast of town. Salary $1.50 per day.

At night some of us boy's unloaded lumber from box-cars for an oil co. I remember a couple than ran the rooming house in 1919. The lady did the cooking for the roomers that worked in the oilfield, the man drove a team a horse and mule. One was bad to balk.

I think the names were Foster from Lueders Jones County, Texas. A man named Earnest married Dorothy Foster. She and my mother were good friends. Mr. Earnest worked for the railroad. This happened in about 1913 to 1915.

Mrs. Foster owned a small dog name Pup. They had a few chickens so when Pup heard a hen cackling he would search out the nest bring the eggs and place them by the back door steps.

And as most boys I had a few pets.

A pet pig. Oh boy, what a pest and a pet crew pest No. 2. After he learned to fly, we had a wooden water bucket hanging on front porch he would light on the bucket for a drink and then change ends. We had to move the water bucket.

On July the 6th 1919 I had my 13th birthday. We moved back to Paducah that fall.

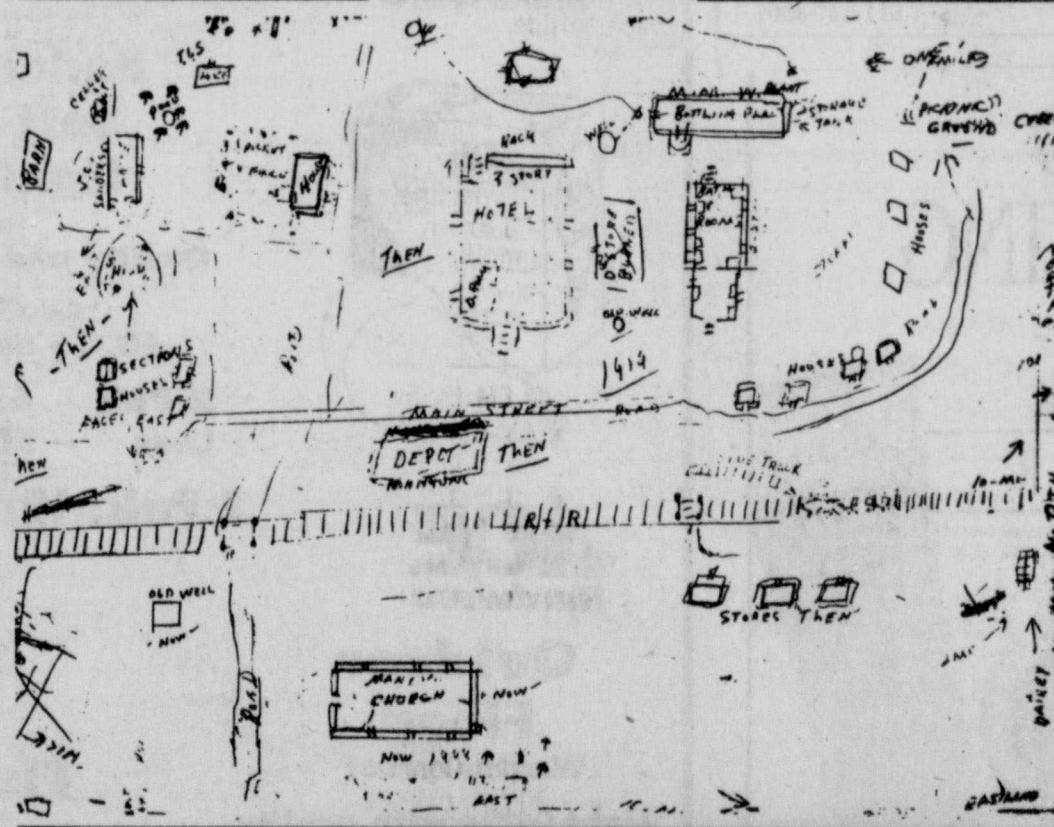

That's the time I saw or heard of Pete Mangum and his Depot. I was there in Summer 1969, the church and old well was all I could find.

Henry C. Sanders Mangum, OK Hasse, Gladys Latimer, Vernon, Texas. Born in Mangum. Bill Sanders, Hurst, Texas born in Mangum. Elsie Hamilton, Childress, Texas born in Mangum.

Our mother passed away in 1932. James C., father, Jan. 13, 1969.

Letters To The Editor:

Editor,
For several years we have been bombarded with threats of closure of rural hospitals, failure to attract and keep young doctors, and loss of ambulance service. The threats are now a reality; they now exist for us. It is time to think about these affairs realistically — they are here NOW.

I have suffered several heart attacks myself. At least I had the necessary emergency care immediately. I hate to think of trying to arrange a trip to Abilene or Fort Worth under those circumstances — no emergency room, no hospital, and probably no ambulance.

Unfortunately the word "tax" always brings about negative thoughts. I have generally been opposed to new taxes. But I do endorse the formation of a hospital with taxing power. What is most important — a hospital district with reasonable taxes, or a gamble that you or your family will never need acute emergency care or hospitalization.

Think About It!
Sincerely,
H.J. Bulgerin, MD.

Dear Citizens of Eastland, friends, and patients:

tion of a hospital district for Eastland, and, to ask for your affirmative vote in the upcoming election on Saturday, September 16.

The board and administration of Eastland Memorial Hospital has worked long and hard and left no stones unturned in efforts to maintain a first class medical facility to minister to the health needs of our community. Asking for a tax district has been the last resort. But in the end, it all boils down to this - without tax support we will lose our hospital. With it we can continue to have a hospital capable of providing the health care our people need and deserve, and one of which we can continue to be proud.

Asking our people to voluntarily assume another tax is asking a whole lot. An additional tax will be a burden for all, a hardship for many. I can understand when one chooses a hospital elsewhere, or goes to a doctor in another town. But isn't it nice that its because we want to, rather than because we have to. I can not believe any of us would rather live in a town without a hospital.

We are not going to use space extolling the advantages of having a hospital in our community to prove routine as well as emergency care for our citizens. Dr. and Mrs. Oswalt, and others, have adequately and eloquently set forth many of these in this column. We would only second what they have said.

We would like to suggest that maintaining a viable hospital is essential in maintaining the progressive city we desire. Eastland is the hub or center of this area. The courthouse, our lawyers, and abstract offices make this a legal and political center. Our restaurants, motels, theater, and variety and quality of our merchants makes for a commercial and entertainment center. And our two nursing homes, three medical clinics, four pharmacies, and our HOSPITAL makes us a medical center. If Ranger and Cisco lose their hospitals, we stand to gain more in that respect.

We would further point out that Eastland Memorial Hospital is one of our biggest industries. Only a small part of the 2-2 1/2 million dollar annual budget will be derived from taxes - much of it comes from outside our community and brings with it added dollars spent in our city by patients, family of patients, nursing home residents, etc. We talk and plan for getting new industry for our town, and rightly so. Perhaps keeping what we have is number 1 priority, and more easily accomplished.

If our hospital closes, Eastland will certainly be less attractive to prospective new residents and new industry. Even without a hospital, I suspect most of our doctors would still prefer to live in Eastland, although the type of medical practice would be much less fulfilling. But it would be almost impossible to attract new doctors, nurses, and allied medical personnel in the future.

The idea of another tax is as repulsive to us as to any of you. But some things are worth being taxed for and we think our hospital is.

Saturday, we will be voting on whether or not we want a hospital in Eastland. We hope you will say yes.

Dr. and Mrs. Bob Alexander

Dear Editor,
I am responding to the E.M.H. brochure that was mailed out the first week of September.

We the voters left kindergarten many years ago so we don't need props such as building blocks or sticks of gum to figure things out.

The only thing wrong with your property tax chart it is incomplete.

Your chart was as follows:
For the first year 30¢ per $100.00 evaluation.

$10,000 property value — $30.00 per year hospital tax
$15,000 property value — $45.00 per year hospital tax
$25,000 property value — $75.00 per year hospital tax
$35,000 property value — $105.00 per year hospital tax
$50,000 property value — $150.00 per year hospital tax

I predict for the second year 37¢ per $100.00 evaluation
$10,000 property value — $37.00 per year hospital tax
$15,000 property value — $55.50 per year hospital tax
$25,000 property value — $92.50 per year hospital tax
$35,000 property value — $129.50 per year hospital tax
$50,000 property value — $185.00 per year hospital tax

I also predict the third year: The board will be back with open hands, shedding alligator tears asking for more taxes to save the hospital.

Once again I am asking the board to tell us what the hospital's total indebtedness is. Regardless of what any one may say, we the tax payers will become responsible for that debt.

The people pushing this sham are in a league with Jim and Tammy.

Arthur E. Crossby Eastland

(Ed. Note: It is our understanding that the total indebtedness is $800,000.00 owed on the last renovation and expansion.)

Dear Concerned Citizen,
As life long residents of Eastland, we would like to encourage each of you to please vote Saturday for the proposed Eastland Hospital District.

For those who might not see the necessity of a local hospital, let me cite a few personal reasons. First, consider parents or other loved ones who are terminally ill requiring long term hospitalization. How much easier that burden is having them a few blocks away while you must continue your daily routine. I cannot imagine the added stress of commuting to visit daily!

Second; consider a special loved one, an infant, who suddenly goes into congestive heart failure. Picture the winter weather being too severe for a Care Flight helicopter to ever leave Fort Worth. Had this hospital not been here, that child would have died in her mother's arms enroute to Abilene.

And again another relative who is confined for 50 days in E.M.H. recovering from burns. His wife must not only care for him but two small children while continuing her job. What would she have done without a local hospital?

Now folks, this doesn't even begin to mention the high fever, cuts, appendix attacks, severe viruses, earaches, etc. which of course always manage to hit your family members after 10:00 p.m. or weekends!

In summary, we think 21¢ per day is a small price to ensure continued, superb, round the clock medical care. Please vote for our hospital district this Saturday.

Don & Jeanie Griffin

To The Editor:

It would be a sad situation if the doctors in Eastland had to move out of Eastland because they had no hospital in which to practice. This could be the situation if people vote against the Eastland Hospital District.

Habits

"An old farmer walked into a restaurant, ordered his food and then sat at a table. Some unruly boys came in and set down beside him. When the food was brought to him he prayed. One of the boy's started to make fun at him. "Hey old man, does everyone pray over their food where you come from?" The farmer looked up and said, "No son, the hogs don't."

Prayer is important to this country. It's important to our family life and to our church. It is impossible to have a good relationship with God without prayer.

One of the best habits to have is the habit of prayer, prayer keeps you in touch with God.

How it would make a difference in our lives if we could go to God in prayer with all our needs.

Eastland County Bass Club's 14th Annual Open Invitational

The Nineteen Eighty Nine Eastland County Bass Clubs 14th Annual Open Invitational was held Sunday, September 10 at Lake Leon. This years event saw a decrease of near 100 entrants compared to past tournaments. Many items were thought to have contributed to this and probably one of the most was our change in weather we experienced Saturday. But one thing is for sure, the 135 Sr. and 15 Jr. entrants present were treated to some fair fishing and an excellent payback in this event.

The three o'clock start of weigh-in indicated that those little green wonders (Mr. Bass) were opening their mouths for some contestants. At 3:31 Sherry Johnson of Eastland entered weigh-in line with two nice fish for a weight of 9.21 pound.

Sherry's big bass went a huge 6.10 pounds. And by the 4:00 p.m. close of weigh-in line this weight had held for a first place in both heavy stringer and big bass. Sherry received a total of $1,570.00 for these two awards plus Sherry will be awarded $1,000.00 for having caught these fish while using an eligible Yamaha motor. This award will come from the Yamaha Co.

The final standings for 1989 of the top 20 went like this:

1. Sherry Johnson 9.21, $1,250; 2. Bob Freeman 9.15, $350; 3. L.H. Lance 8.63, $250; 4. Ray Neal Little 8.22, $175; 5. Morris Stephens 7.59, $150; 6. Bobby Maynard 7.50, $75; 7. Channing Asherfelt 7.46, prize; 8. Jerry King 6.72, prize; 9. Terry Rose 6.63, prize; 10. Don Holland 6.23, prize; 11. James Asher 5.81, prize; 12. Ira Pennington 5.71, prize; 13. Don Flowers 5.60, prize; 14. Tommy Rose 5.57, $100; 15. Ernest Boggs 5.24, prize; 16. James Fullen 5.18, prize; 17. Chuck Elliott 5.13, prize; 18. Tommy Maynard 5.09, prize; 19. Clyde Sico 4.99, prize; 20. Joe Baird 4.98, prize.

The optional big bass pot was split between the top three fish of the day with a 100% payback. First $320.00 6.10 pounds Sherry Johnson, Eastland; second $192.00 6.09 pounds Ray Neal Little, Eastland and third $128.00 4.98 pounds Joe Baird, Eastland.

This event saw many first for the E.C.B.C. tournament. The first ever female angler winner, and the first winner of the Yamaha bonus program were only a few. Sherry reported to have caught both her fish behind her partner and husband Jimmy Johnson using a electric purple worm in about 7 feet of water.

The Jr. division is always one of my personal favorites this tournament. There is nothing more enjoyable than seeing the smiles on these kids faces at weigh-in. As in past years each jr. entrant was given an assortment of participation prizes which were sponsored by area merchants. Berkley Trilene, the E.C.B.C. and Fishing Outdoors.

Fifteen youths entered this years event which is about half the amount expected. This years winner were Jeff Dollar 2.41 pounds $175.00, second Dusty Ferguson 2.10 pounds $100.00 and third Jason Gilley 1.26 pounds $50.00. I visited with Jeff about his catch a little and Jeff reported catching this lunker on a jig in shallow water.

Due to this years low attendance a mere $3,250.00 was paid out to contestants in cash and prizes this year. But of the 135 entrants 22 places were paid and another 50 drawing prizes were awarded in this the largest water sporting event in Eastland County. The Eastland County Bass Club wishes to extend a hearty thanks to all the sponsors who once again helped make this event a success: The Crossin' Restaurant, Green Light Auto, Fullen Motor Company, Bryan's Auto, Steve's Garage, Eastland Service Parts (N.A.P.A.), Edwards Funeral Home, Eastland Fire Department, Berkley Trilene, Yamaha Co., Tommy Rose, The Wagon Wheel, and Fishing Outdoors. Without these and other sponsors who wish to remain unnamed this event would not have been possible.

A special meeting has been called by E.C.B.C. president Steve Pennington for Thursday at 7:30 p.m., September 14, 1989. This meeting need only be attended if you are a member of the 1989 Honey Top Six event or was a member of the Top Sixteen last year or as of September 5, 1989. Items to be discussed include funding for the top six team to Sam Rayburn and the date, location and rules for the 1988-89 Top Sixteen Classic. All members are invited to attend but are not required. The meeting place will be the Eastland National Bank Bldg. So make plans now to attend and voice your opinion on these very important matters.

Till next time out good fishing and safe boating.

Safe Driving Tips from Rhonda

What do you suppose is the no. 1 killer of children these days? Automobile collisions! Although the seat belt law has been enacted for several years now, people continue to drive around with children climbing, hanging out windows, and standing in the front seat. Children can't be held accountable for not wearing seat belts, so their parents should be responsible enough to take the time and initiative to see that their children are safe in a vehicle.

Former Ciscoan Dr. J. Durward Smith Honored In Texas Christian University Publication

(Editor's Note: The following article is reprinted from the Alumni Newspaper of Texas Christian University. Dr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Smith of Cisco, and is a graduate of Cisco High School. The article was entitled "Faculty Profile: Dr. J. Durward Smith.")

Since 1966 Dr. J. Durward Smith has contributed greatly to the biology and premed programs at Texas Christian University. Dr. Smith brings a diverse background together with practical experience to exemplify the outstanding caliber of professor which makes TCU's premed department one of the best in the country.

Dr. Smith did his undergraduate work at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas, where he received his B.S. degree in physical education with minors in English and Biology. After finishing college, he was drafted into the Army during the Korean War and was stationed in Salzburg, Austria. Dr. Smith became interested in the medical profession at this time, and after he returned home he attended North Texas State University where he received a B.A.

Degree in chemistry with minors in German and Math. After graduation Dr. Smith decided against going to medical school and instead took a job with General Dynamics as a process control engineer.

Dr. Smith's teaching career began at Decatur Baptist College where he taught during the day while maintaining his job at General Dynamics during the night. After ten years, Dr. Smith entered the graduate school at the University of Wisconsin where he received his masters and Ph.D. degrees in bacteriology.

At this point, Dr. Smith joined the faculty of the Department of Biology of TCU for several reasons. First of all, the science complex provided optimum facilities for his research, and secondly, Fort Worth was only about 100 miles from his hometown of Cisco. Finally, Dr. Smith's wife, Darla, had a position at Tarrant County Junior College in Fort Worth as a Med Tech instructor.

In his first year at TCU, Dr. Smith developed the biochemistry class that still exists at TCU today in order to accommodate the increasing number of pre-medical students TCU was receiving. In addition to biochemistry, Dr. Smith has taught microbiology, bacteriology, and clinical biochemistry. Outside the classroom, Dr. Smith served as chairman of the biology department for eight years and as chairman of the pre-medical advisory committee before Dr. Reinecke. He is presently serving his second stint as a member of this committee in addition to being Director of the Allied Health Program.

Dr. Smith has a variety of research interests beginning with cellular biochemistry, but recently switching to water system chemistry. His current project involves the interaction of different chemical compounds with the food chain of water ecosystems.

An interesting fact about Dr. Smith is that both he and his wife are professors at TCU. They share an office and have a good relationship both in and out of the university. At home, the couple has two children. Their daughter Jennifer (TCU, 1986) has just completed her first year at Baylor Medical School and their son, James Durward, Jr., is a senior political science major at TCU.

When Dr. Smith is not in the lab, in class, or with his family, he enjoys fishing. His favorite is fly-fishing in the cool, crystal-clear waters of the Colorado Rocky Mountains. In addition to fishing, Dr. Smith enjoys dove and quail hunting.

Dr. Smith brings both enthusiasm and experience to the TCU biology department faculty. His long tenure at TCU has allowed him to benefit and touch many students. Through the years, Dr. Smith has contributed to both the Texas Christian University Biology department and to the university itself.

Benny R. Thompson Wins Trophy Quest Fishing Trip

(Editor's Note: The following article was published in the August issue of "Texas Fish and Game" magazine and is about a Cisco man, Benny R. Thompson, winning a Trophy Quest Trip. The writer of the story was not named. Included with the article was a nice picture of Mr. Thompson with a couple of fish taken on the trip.)

Trophy Quest winner

Benny R. Thompson of Cisco and I were blown out by high winds on our first attempt to fish Lake Whitney in April. We made it back in May and it was almost a repeat of the first trip... but not quite.

We had to fight high winds the whole time and some rain, and our guide Ron Gardner, who holds the state record for smallmouth bass, a 7-pound, 11-ounce Whitney fish, was not able to take us to some of his favorite areas on the lake but we did get out and had a chance to try our luck.

When you have to set up trips far in advance, you just take your luck as to the fishing action. And, thanks to the high wind and some fronts, we found the fishing very spotty on this popular lake. In fact, it was downright tough.

We caught fish both days, but could never find that big smallmouth or striper. They were hid out somewhere. No doubt, out of the wind.

We did catch fish. Enough to keep things interesting, but no biggies, and mostly white bass with an occasional striper. We did pick up a couple of smallmouth bass and some black bass, but they were all on the small side. The big fish were just hiding out this trip.

One area we found fish, mostly feeding white bass and striped bass, was the water around the shoreline of the Lake Whitney State Park. It's a good area to try on the lake and apparently anglers fishing from the bank can get in on this action.

It was a pleasure fishing with trip winner Benny Thompson and guide Ron Gardner, and we definitely fought the elements on this trip, from high winds to rain, but we did win.

No lake records, but our trip winner did take home an ice chest full of fish fillets. So, it was a successful trip. We had a great time and Lake Whitney is a fine lake to fish.

THE TOWN & COUNTRY DIFFERENCE

DeAlva Chambers

Today, more people than ever are planning ahead. In such matters as insurance, wills, property and investments, families know the importance of looking into the future today.

That is why many people are discussing funeral arrangements in advance. Planning ahead gives you the opportunity to make known your wishes while giving full consideration to the needs, desires and sensibilities of others at a sorrowful time. Pre-arrangement does away with any possible disagreement among the bereaved as to what to do and how much to spend. In effect, pre-arrangement eases the burden placed on the immediate family - in terms of both the proper course of action to follow and it also gives peace of mind in knowing that arrangements have been made in advance.

We at the Cisco Funeral Home are available to discuss pre-arrangements with you at any time. We offer complete information on pre-arrangements and will answer all questions honestly and truthfully. Feel free to contact us at your convenience. There is no obligation, of course...
