The folks over at First United Methodist Church are getting things ready for their seventh annual Lord's Acre Fall Festival scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 21. They'll have a country store with lots of homemade items and a bake shop with cakes, pies, cookies, breads and various canned goods. An auction will include beautiful quilts made by the ladies of the church. And their annual turkey and dressing and all the trimmings dinner will be served from 11:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. Make plans to attend.

The community choir will begin rehearsals Monday, Oct. 23, at 7 p.m. in the First Baptist Church auditorium for the Community Christmas Celebration at the Hilton, set for Saturday, Dec. 9. The rehearsals will be held each Monday at 7 p.m. through Dec. 4. Doug Bromley is choir director, and the choir will sing traditional sacred and secular music.

The Cisco Service Club is finalizing plans for their annual Fall Carnival which will be held from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 29, at the Cisco Elementary Gym. This event offers children and adults a place for a safe and fun filled Halloween evening. There will be lots of fun booths featuring games and snacks and meals. This has been a project of the Cisco Service Club for several years. See you there.

Cisco Loboes will travel to Ranger Friday night to open district play. Game time will be 7:30 p.m. Cisco Junior High and Junior Varsity will play Ranger here Thursday at Chesley Field. The seventh grade game will begin at 5 p.m. followed by the eighth grade and junior varsity games. Remember the Cisco Band Booster concession stand will be open.

The following "Drug Bulletin" was brought in by an Eastland County Crimestoppers board member. It is from the Dallas Police Department, and we want to share it with you.

A form of tattoo called the "Blue Star" is being sold to school children. It is a small sheet of paper containing blue stars the size of a pencil eraser. Each star is soaked with LSD. Each star can be removed and placed in the mouth. The LSD can be absorbed through the skin simply by handling the paper.

There are also brightly colored paper tabs resembling postage stamps that have pictures of Superman, butterflies, clowns, Mickey Mouse and other Disney characters on them. These stamps are packed in a red cardboard box wrapped in foil. This is a new way of selling acid by appealing to young children. A young child could happen upon these and have a fatal "trip." It is also learned that little children could be given a free tattoo by other children who want to have some fun or by others cultivating new customers (without the child's knowledge).

A stamp called "Red Pyramid" is also being distributed along with "Microdot" in various colors and another kind of "Window Pane" which has a grid that can be cut out. These are laced with drugs!

Please advise your community and children about these drugs. If you or your child get any of the above, do not handle them barehanded! Contact your local police department. These are known to react very quickly and some are laced with strychnine.

Symptoms: hallucinations, severe vomiting, uncontrolled laughter, mood changes and change in body temperature.

The search is underway for the rural hero for 1989, according to Ben Bullard, president of the Texas Farm & Ranch Safety Council which presents the annual rural heroism award.

Deadline for submitting 1989 entries will be Feb. 9, 1990. Nominations should be sent to the Texas Farm & Ranch Safety Council, PO Box 2689, Waco, Tx. 76702-2689. The recipient will be announced March 12 at the 51st annual Texas Southwestern Safety Conference and Exposition in Houston.

To qualify for the honor, a candidate must have performed a heroic act of human-lifesaving within Texas during 1989. Preferably it should be related to farming and ranching, Bullard said. Nominations should include a written account of the incident and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all persons involved. Newspaper clippings and photos should also accompany when available, Bullard said.

Student Tickets Go On Sale At Schools

Because of a district ruling, student tickets to the remainder of the varsity foot games for this season will no longer be sold at the gate. All tickets at the gate will be $3.00. Student tickets may be purchased for $2.00 prior to 1:30 p.m. each Friday from Mrs. Jeanene Puryear, Cisco Elementary; Mrs. Mary Bailey, Cisco High School; and Jim Puryear, Cisco Junior High School.

THURSDAY GAMES
Cisco Junior High seventh and eighth grade football teams and the junior varsity will play the teams from Ranger Thursday, Oct. 12, at Chesley Field. The seventh grade team will begin action at 5 p.m., followed by the eighth grade game, and the junior varsity.

United Methodist Church Plans Annual Fall Event

First United Methodist Church of Cisco will have their Seventh Annual Lord's Acre Fall Festival on Saturday, Oct. 21.

There will be a Country Store which will have a large and varied selection of homemade items that will make wonderful Christmas gifts. The Bake Shop will have cakes, pies, cookies, breads, and various canned goods. The Country Store and Bake Shop will open at 9 a.m. An auction will be held at 10:30 a.m. and will include quilts made by ladies of First Methodist.

The traditional dinner of turkey and dressing will be served between 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Tickets are $4.50 for adults and $2.50 for children under 12 years of age.

1990 Lobo Yearbook To Go On Sale October 26-27

The 1990 Lobo Yearbook will go on sale Thursday and Friday, Oct. 26-27. The Lobo Staff will take orders for yearbooks at Cisco High School and Cisco Junior High on Oct. 26. On Oct. 27, the staff will be at Cisco Elementary School between 12:30 and 1:30 p.m. to take orders for the book.

The 1990 Yearbook will begin a new, exciting trend. Instead of publishing a yearbook that covers only six months of the school year as the yearbook has previously, the 1990 Yearbook will cover events and activities from the beginning of the school year through the Elementary and High School graduation exercises at the close of school. The book will actually be a true yearbook, not a partial yearbook as in the past. In past years, the cut-off deadline for copy and pictures in the Lobo Yearbook has been March 1st. Due to this procedure, such events as UIL, all banquets, honors, spring sports, and graduation have not been represented in the book. The deadline for copy on the 1990 book will be June 2, 1990.

The 1990 Yearbook will arrive for distribution shortly after the middle of July. The date of distribution will be scheduled and publicized. Those classes wishing to plan annual-signing parties will have the opportunity to do so.

The cost for the 208-page book will be $24. If you wish to have your name printed on the book, the cost will be an extra $2.

On Oct. 26 and 27 you may pay the total amount for your yearbook, or you may order a yearbook by making a downpayment of $12. If you make a downpayment of $12 on these dates, the balance owed will be payable on or before Feb. 28, 1990.

Don't miss purchasing your 1990 Lobo Yearbook. The book will definitely depict that the students of the Cisco Independent School District are "Loboes with Class."

Lela Latch Lloyd Is Guest Speaker At First Industrial Arts Meeting

The First Industrial Arts Club met in regular session at the Women's Club House on Thursday, Oct. 5, 1989, at 2 p.m. with Mrs. Evelyn Fry, president, presiding.

Bernice Carter led members and guests in giving the club collect and pledges to the United States and Texas flags.

Mrs. Lela Latch Lloyd was presented as program speaker for the afternoon. The subject of her presentation was "Preserving Our Heritage." Mrs. Lloyd named a score or more of "firsts" for Cisco, from the time of its founding to the renovation of the Conrad Hilton Hotel. The members and guests were surprised at some of the "firsts," many of which they knew but had not thought about their being first of their kind. The discussion of these "firsts" was most interesting. Each of us was challenged to remember them as part of our heritage.

Mrs. Fry discussed a few items of business and adjourned the meeting.

Albany Upends Loboes; District Begins Friday

By TOMMY J. WELLS

Billy Bob Browning and the Albany Lions overcame a first quarter scare from the slumping Cisco Loboes to tally 16 unanswered points in the second half for a 32-to-7 victory.

The loss, Cisco's third in a row, closed out the Loboes tough 1989 pre-district slate.

Albany, coming off last week's thrashing by the No. 4 ranked Eastland Mavericks, jumped on top first. Scoring on the first of two browning touchdowns runs. The Lions, who in amassing a 4-1 record have knocked off Baird and Throckmorton, expanded their lead to 15-to-0 later in the frame on a 10-yard jaunt from Michael Carter.

Carter, with 184 yards, finished as the game's top rusher.

Albany's lead crumbled a short while later as Cisco, behind the strong arm of quarterback Brad Goosen, snapped the Lions' shut out bid on a 45-yard aerial strike, Goosen to Joe Campbell.

Cisco trailed 15-to-7 at the start of the second period of play.

Browning, with his second TD carry of the first half, pushed the ball over from one yard out to propel the Lions into a 23-to-7 lead at the intermission.

Cisco's defense, with aid from Manuel Anaya and David Zell, blossomed into action in the second half, turning back drive after drive in route to a blanking of the tradition-rich Lions in the last two stanzas.

Albany, which ranks in the top 10 all time victories for a high school football team, derived their only points on a fumble recovery that Chad Bartee returned 95 yards for a touchdown.

The Loboes, now 1-4 for the year, travel 20 miles east on Friday night to face District 8-2A rivals, the Ranger Bulldogs. Ranger, led by one of Eastland County's top passers in Wade Casey, touts a 3-2 ledger this season. Ranger has lost their last two games. Kick-off for both squads' district opener is set for 7:30 p.m. at Bulldog Stadium.

In other area gridiron action, Eastland heads to Dublin, DeLeon faces Jim Ned, Carbon hosts the state-ranked May Tigers, No. 10 ranked Strawn is at Blanket and the No. 10 ranked Rising Star Wildcats hosts the Gorman Panthers.

New Girl Scout Troops Are Formed Locally

Girl Scouting is a movement that gives girls a chance to develop their potential, to make friends, and to become a part of the community. Though activities that promote self-discovery, the girls are introduced to the excitement in the worlds of science, outdoors, art and people.

Girl Scouts is the largest voluntary organization for girls in the world. It is open to girls in K-12. In our community there are 88 girls participating in the Girl Scout program.

Each troop is led by two adults. They work directly with the girls, helping them to have a good time and to carry out a program which will lead to new skills and adventures. The leaders also help girls take responsibility, to learn to accept and appreciate other people, and to live up to the ideals expressed in the Girl Scout Promise and Law.

Due to the great response from girls this year, several new troops have been formed. We are very excited to have these new leaders and girls in the Girl Scout program. This year's troops and leaders are as follows:

Troop No. 202-- Liz Nichols and Sharon Mellette, 14 girls.

Troop No. 203-- Lynn Johnson and Cladean Kisner, 12 girls.

Troop No. 53-- Jacque Holliman and Shelia Conger, 13 girls.

Troop No. 204-- Beverly Rains and Randa Bishop, 12 girls.

Troop No. 54-- Denise Connell and Deborah Reed, 16 girls.

Troop No. 55-- Joy Abbott and Elaine Johnson, 11 girls.

Troop No. 51-- Sarah Hounshell and Janet Hounshell, 10 girls.

Cisco VFW Activities

Saturday, Oct. 7, the first chili-bean supper was held at the City Park due to the temporary closing of Dr. Brown's Sanatorium. One member of the Food and Beverage Committee, George Brown, was outstanding in satisfying the taste of those in attendance. Another member of the committee was called upon to volunteer to return to government service in support of "Hugo" relief. We missed you, Max Giles, but are indeed made happy that you were called for support of this mighty effort.

The VFW Work Center at 700 Avenue A is in the process of being made ready for use. Our thanks to Gordon Cannon for the use of the building. Five officers from the Cisco post attended the District 8 meeting in Brownwood on Oct. 8. After the business meeting, an excellent barbecue dinner was served by the Brownwood post and its Ladies Auxiliary. The Ladies Auxiliary was celebrating its 50th anniversary of operation. After the lunch, a drawing was held for $35 bags of groceries. Cecil Brewer, Cisco post adjutant, brought a bag home. During the meeting, our service officer and membership chairman, Lefty Young, received $50 on a "new members enlisted" drive in a two man run-off decision. Hurray for Lefty! Then on a drawing for a $100 bill, he won again!

The open regular meeting for the VFW will be held the third Tuesday at the Ranch House dining room, located on the north access road east of Highway 183. $10.00. A special matinee performance with curtain at 2:30 p.m. will be held Sunday, November 5. Admission is $5.00. Call 442-2589 to make reservations.

Cisco Service Club Plans Fall Carnival

The Cisco Service Club will have their annual Fall Carnival on Saturday, Oct. 29, at the Cisco Elementary School gym. The carnival will be held from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

The Service Club has held a carnival each year for children and adults to have a safe and fun filled Halloween evening.

There will be several game booths to entertain all ages, and food booths with different kinds of snacks and meals.

Everyone is urged to come out to the carnival and enjoy a night of fun.

'People For Progress' Explain Goals and Platform in Statement

Editor's Note: The following article explains who 'People for Progress' are, their platform, and what their goals are.

WHO ARE WE?
People for Progress is a grass-roots movement of area residents of all ages, racial backgrounds, economic levels, and occupations who are dedicated to maintaining an acceptable quality of life in the Cisco area. We take pride in the fine institutions and businesses which comprise the backbone of our economy, serve the essential needs of our people, and provide jobs for area residents.

WHAT IS OUR PLATFORM?
1) People for Progress believe that since Cisco institutions and businesses are available at all times, safeguards and services for area residents, civic duty demands that we reciprocate by supporting them and looking to their welfare even as they look to ours.

2) People for Progress applaud the health providers of Cisco who, despite the adverse conditions facing rural doctors and hospitals, have continued to administer medical treatment and nursing care equal to or superior to any in the area - and often at great personal sacrifice.

3) Believing that the continued operation of E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital is crucial to the life and well-being of every individual in the Cisco area, we support the tax raise adopted by the hospital board and consider the cost an extremely modest investment in exchange for the security and peace of mind that come from having medical assistance in the immediate vicinity in time of crisis, disaster, or critical illness.

WHAT ARE OUR GOALS?
1) To work toward an informed public and bring about a spirit of unity and civic pride in the Cisco area.
2) To bring to public attention and to preserve the many assets and advantages offered by Cisco.
3) To keep E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital operative until such time as recently enacted state and federal programs of relief for rural hospitals can be activated.

4) To support the effort to bring a federal prison to Eastland County.
5) To garner the support of every resident who desires to maintain an acceptable quality of life in our area and assure its growth and prosperity.

It became increasingly evident that a town either progresses or stagnates. People for Progress choose progress! We covet your support in preserving the many good things Cisco can boast of and building toward an ever-expanding future.

Deputy Franklin Arrests Escapee In Houston; Returned to Jail

Daniel Perales, the Eastland County Jail trusty who walked away and left the county recently, is now back in the county jail and scheduled to return to TDC on Thursday. Officers of the Eastland County Sheriff's Dept. were able to track Perales and a woman charged as aiding his escape as they traveled around and finally ended up in Houston.

The pickup the woman was driving was recovered in south Texas after being sold without the title. Deputy Frank Saylor returned the pickup to the woman's husband, who reportedly is filing for divorce.

Deputy David Franklin, who had to go to Houston on other business and is familiar with Houston since he was formerly a deputy there, did some investigating while in Houston. He located Perales, who offered no resistance and greeted Franklin by name as he and other officers approached to arrest Perales, according to Sheriff Dee Hogan.

Cathy Taylor, who was reportedly with Perales, was arrested along with him, and she was also charged in the escape. Her bond was set at $75,000 by Judge Alford Bush and she was being held in the Eastland County Jail.

The cases will not go to the Grand Jury until next month. The F.B.I., which was keeping a close watch on the

Fiddler's Contest Draws Crowd

The traditional "Fiddler's Green" turned out to be the Courthouse Square in Eastland last Saturday night, as musicians from all around Texas gathered for a big Contest.

This event was part of the Old Rip celebration, and was sponsored by the Eastland Chamber of Commerce and the Texas Old Time Fiddler's Association.

Robert D. Weeks Sr. was in charge of the competition, with his wife, Bonnye, and Mrs. James Rushing registering contestants. Chamber of Commerce Manager James Wright was Master of Ceremonies, with Al Anderson assisting.

Even the weather cooperated with the Contest, giving spectators a balmy night with light breezes. Several hundred people sat around the Square and cheered favorite players.

Twenty-four fiddlers participated in the Contest, with Texas Fiddlers Association President Jim Day of Burleson among them. There were a number of top guitar players around to give the right "second" to the music. Some of these top musicians were so near in ability that it was hard for the Judges to make decisions.

In the final count Jimmie Don Bates of Burleson, Texas State Champion, won his age Division and then the Grand Champion.

Some other highlights of the event were the various places awarded to the Weeks family. Another local winner was James Rushing of Ranger. A Guitar Contest followed the Fiddler Contest.

The list of winners included:

0-15 age Division: 1. Robert Weeks Jr., 2. Brandy Weeks, 3. Mandy Fenn, Alvarado, 4. Shawna Miller, Odessa and 5. Rebecca Weeks of Eastland.

16-29 Division: 1. Jimmie Don Bates, Burleson, 2. Robin

Westmoreland, Comanche, and 3. Don Miller of Odessa.

Winners in the 30-59 Age Division: 1. Weldon Turpin, Lubbock, 2. Bill Gilbert, Milsap, 3. James Rushing, Ranger, and 4. James Vandergritt, Weatherford.

Ages 60 and over: 1. Robert D. Weeks, Eastland, 2. H.D.

Westmoreland, Gustine, 3. Jim Day, Burleson, and 4. Marvin Shockler, Burleson.

Winners in the Grand Champion Playoff were: 1. Jimmie Don Bates, 2. Weldon Turpin and 3. Robert D. Weeks Sr.

The Guitar Contest Winners were: 1. Royce Franklin, Roanoke, 2. Butch Westmoreland, Gustine, and 3. Gene Westmoreland, Comanche.

Winners in the Contests were all awarded cash prizes, with $100 going to each First Place winner in the adult division and $60 to First in the 0-15 yr. Division.

Robert D. Weeks would like to again thank each contributor who made these awards possible. They are: Eastland Chamber of Commerce, $600, Virginia Russell $100, Anonymous $100, EBAA Iron $50, Mary Sneed $25, E.G. Rice $15, Wal-Mart $25, Thrift Mart $25, Hood-

King Motors $20, Moylan Construction Co. $25, Poe Floral $15, Joe Hudspeth's Tire Co. $15, Fullen Motors $25, Perkins Implement $15, Coats Furniture $10, Victor Cornelius $20, Viola Payne $20, H&R Lumber $25, and Eastland Drug $25.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Willis (left and center) and friend, Emily Coats of Houston are shown enjoying the Fiddlers Contest. Gerald Willis played the guitar with some of the contestants.

Jim Day of Burleson, president, of the Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association, participated in the Contest.

Jimmy Don Bates, Texas Champion, gives a sizzling version of 'Cripply Creek'. He won the Grand Championship here.

The Weeks youngsters Brandy (l) Robert Jr. (r) and Rebecca all won in the 0-15 age division.

George Brazell: His Book Offers Dynamic Lifestyle

By Viola Payne
During his years at Cisco Junior College George E. Brazell's Psychology students said that he "could make anything interesting."
Not only were his classes popular, but the Desdemona Professor/Rancher/Minister always seemed to have extra time for his students after scheduled lessons were over.

It's perhaps this willingness to put something extra into his endeavors that makes George Brazell's new book "Dynamic Stewardship Strategies" a wise and appealing one.

The sub-title of the book says: "Harnessing Time, Talent, and Treasury For Church Growth."

No, the title won't make the average reader want to rush out and buy this book! It might scare him off, in fact. It sounds like a "Church book", doesn't it?

Technically that is correct - the 144 pg. volume is published by Baker Book House, Grand Rapids, Michigan. It has an attractive earth-toned cover, and is designated as part of a Pulpit Library.

But this book is more than just for Church fold. The irony of such a publication is that those who never stick their feet inside a church door probably need to read it worse than the others do. Unless, of course, there are still some "whitewashed sepulchrs" around!

for this "Dynamics" book is actually about managing life and living more than the technicalities of Church organization. It is highlighted by Brazell's comments on the basics of ideas can open th heart and mind to a truly abundant life.

Choice statements begin early in the book, actually with the Preface. Brazell explains his reason for writing "The Volume" with "It is my firm conviction that believers in the gospel should 'Christianize' all the processes of daily living. Being a Christian here and now sustains the hope that the Kingdom of God will soon come and His will may be done 'in earth as it is in Heaven.'"

The first Chapter of the book discusses the Bible basis for Stewardship, and what the world really means. It's not just the handling of money, as the reader soon sees. The "Treasury" is only a part of the three possessions mentioned in the sub-title.

Now and then the book seems to take aim at the human condition, and there's a considerable target to shoot at! "On the fringes of Christianity wander many who allow their materialistic craving for possessions to lead them away from fellowship with God," Brazell notes. He says a little later, "To omit God's will for one's life, when setting goals and making plans, will lead only to disaster..."

This thought is enlarged on quite graphically. "If the chief purpose in someone's life is to pile up earthly treasure, that goal will not be a secret very long. If a man is more concerned with what he owns than with God and his fellow man, his wrongly placed love will quickly come to light....If the goal of the strong man is to seize power, he will be seizing it at the expense of all others..."

There is a better, more satisfying way to live, the book seems to say. First, you acknowledge that nothing really belongs to you - it was entrusted to you by God, your Creator. How you handle the things trusted to you reveals your heart and probably the destiny of your existence.

There are highlights in each chapter, including the ones on "A Christian's Value System," and "Stewards in the Home." On parenting, Brazell says that "Parents cannot choose to transfer their character development responsibilities to a grandparent, a baby-sitter, a teacher, friend, or even to the minister and the Church. Children begin forming their characters as they watch their parents, who are their first and most influential teachers."

Brazell says there are seven gifts that parents owe their children. He has this list:

1. A good name.
2. A clean, healthy body.
3. The best possible education.

tion.

4. The ability and desire to do an honest day's work for an honest day's pay.

5. A good example of moral behavior.

6. Christian training at home and in the Church.

7. Instructions regarding the use and abuse of money. He calls these the "Best of Everything" gifts - a legacy that will ensure the finest and happiest life possible.

All through "Dynamic Stewardship Strategies" the author cautions that the only acceptable motive for following these principles is love, not a desire to "get back" what you can in the here or thereafter. He calls service to God a privilege, and not just a duty. One of the last Chapter's subtitles says that "All life is stewardship," and that principle means total dedication.

Persons wishing to obtain a copy of this book may write Baker Book House at P.O. Box 6287, Grand Rapids, Michigan, 49516-6287, or contact George Brazell at Desdemona, Texas for more information.

'Making The Grade': Report Card On American Youth for years a movement has been stirring, an outcry to save this country's most valuable asset—our youth.

Now, thousands of leaders in Texas and across the nation are undertaking that challenge in a project called "Making The Grade: A Report Card on American Youth."

People from all walks of life—young and old, educators and parents, policymakers, human services providers, civic and youth advocacy groups, business and labor representatives and church and synagogue members—are coming together to discuss the most critical issues facing youth today and to jointly find solutions.

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service 4-H program is one of the lead agencies helping to coordinate these combined efforts, according to Dannie James of Dallas, Extension 4-H specialist serving the North Central Extension District.

The project works in well with Extension's long-range planning since youth at risk is one of its national initiatives, said James.

Some Texas communities have already completed the first stage of the project. They've made a report card on the major problems facing youth in their particular communities.

For some the list will contain what's considered the nation's most critical problems facing youth—substance abuse, teen pregnancy, functional illiteracy, school dropouts, juvenile crimes and youth unemployment.

Each community is taking the project step-by-step, identifying problems of that community, evaluating available youth services and resources, prioritizing local community concerns and developing a plan of action to solve these problems.

This innovative project is a joint effort of the National Collaboration for Youth and the Roosevelt Center for American Policy Studies designed to raise public awareness and stimulate action on behalf of youth at local, state and national levels.

Among industrialized nations, the United States leads the nation in infant mortality, juvenile crime, substance abuse and teen pregnancy.

Despite mandatory school enrollment, our literacy rate is below that of other developed nations.

Twenty percent of our children live in poverty and 40 percent of our nation's poor are children.

"Making the grade" evolved from a need to educate the public of these critical issues and others affecting America's youth and to provide opportunities for citizens to come together at the community level to find collaborative solutions to these problems.

So far, 22 counties in Texas are participating in the project, said James. They are Dallas, Orange, Bastrop, Bell, Ector, Bexar, Harris, Travis, Martin, McLennan, Galveston, Nueces, Angelina, Victoria, Potter, Taylor, Smith, Jefferson, Brazos, Webb, El Paso, and Hidalgo.

Heart Attacks Do Not Have To Kill You

If you have a pain in the chest, be a pain in the neck.

Complain to an emergency physician. Truth is, more than 300,000 heart attack victims die each year before reaching the hospital, many of them because they refused to take their symptoms seriously.

Most of them tell themselves that it's indigestion, or that a heart attack couldn't possibly happen to them, or that they don't want to bother the doctor. Some even feel that they'd be embarrassed if they raced to the nearest emergency facility and it wasn't a heart attack.

Please, don't die of embarrassment. Let an emergency physician tell you it's indigestion.

How to spot a heart attack. You can fight back at heart attack by learning the warning signs:

-Uncomfortable pressure, fullness, squeezing or pain in the center of the chest lasting two minutes or longer.

-Pain spreading to the shoulders, neck or arms.

-Severe pain, dizziness, fainting, sweating, nausea or shortness of breath.

Not all these warning signs occur in every heart attack. And sometimes the symptoms subside and then return. But if you notice any of them, don't wait to see what happens next.

Don't push the panic button.

During a heart attack, the heart muscle doesn't die instantly - the damage increases with time. There are medications that can help stop the damage if you can get them early enough. So, if you have chest discomfort that lasts two minutes or more, stay calm, tell someone near you what is happening, and:

-Call the EMS system. Depending on your community, this could be the fire department or ambulance service, 911 or a locally designated emergency number.

-If you can get to the hospital faster by car, have someone drive you. Go to the nearest hospital emergency facility.

Don't learn about heart attacks the hard way.

Reading about heart attacks and memorizing the warning signs are by far the easiest way to learn. But don't stop there. Ask your doctor for information and advice. And - just in case - keep a list of emergency numbers by your telephone and in your wallet or purse. Cisco EMS emergency number is 629-1728.

In the three minutes it took you to read this, eight people in this country had a heart attack. If it ever happens to you, we want you to be ready to save your life.

Texas Criminal Justice Summit

Governor William P. Clements, Jr. February, 1988 STATEMENT OF PROCEDURE
The summit process was designed to develop consensus recommendations from a diverse group of state and local government leaders and private sector executives each of which had a major stake in the resolution of the overcrowding of Texas' jails and prisons. Participants included appointed board and commission members, mayors, judges, district attorneys, sheriffs, chiefs of police, state senators and representatives and civic leaders.

The leveling of information and problem awareness were initiated prior to the actual meeting through a series of monographs and reports developed by state agencies reporting the current status of policy and programs as well as recommendations of issues for consideration of the summit. Other preparatory activities included contact from the Summit organizer explaining the purpose and goal and asking for commitment to participate.

The summit was organized to provide maximum interaction between participants. We began with introductions and small group interaction activities. The key note speaker, a nationally recognized expert and federal executive, underscored the importance of full attention to this problem and called the group to join together in a statesman like manner to recommend strategies to resolve this problem.

The meeting was chaired by a neutral but knowledgeable civic leader, who had stature in the community and in the eyes of the participants. The first segment was designed to report on the current status of the overcrowding issue in Texas and report on the results of strategies used by other states with similar overcrowding problems.

The following segments were designed to maximize the expertise and perspective each participant brought to the problem statement and recommendations. The participants were assigned to three groups structured to focus on Alternative Incarceration & Enhanced Sanction Strategies, Capacity Strategies, and Release Restrictions & Confinement Option Strategies. The group process entailed a significant amount of information sharing and consensus building around strategies. Each group developed a summary report of major strategies which could affect the resolution of each of these issues. The groups reported their recommendations to plenary session and issued a written report.

The participants were then reformed into a second set of three groups. The membership of each group included participants from the earlier Alternative Incarceration & Enhanced Sanction Strategies, Capacity Strategies and Release Restrictions & Confinement Option Strategies group. These groups were charged with developing a series of recommendations to address the problem of overcrowding in the Texas Prisons and Jails drawing from the expertise in their own groups as well as the reports generated by the earlier issue groups. These groups reported the product of their mirrored tasks in a plenary session. The summit moderator presided over a plenary session drawing broad based final recommendations from the report and securing a consensus on the recommendations. The recommendations were reported in a press conference attended by the summit participants, staff and press.

BLUEPRINT FOR ACTION
Alternative Incarceration & Enhanced Sanction Strategies

- Prioritize the sentencing of offenders to make the most effective use of the limited prison capacity. It is essential to address all the components of the adult criminal justice system to maximize diversions to the fullest extent possible for those offenders who can be effectively managed by alternatives to incarceration without undue risk to public safety and with due regard to other criminal justice goals such as rehabilitation, deterrence, and punishment. In so doing, we enhance the likelihood of making the most effective use of the available bed space by incarcerating those offenders most deserving of this more severe sanction and for a more meaningful period of time. Sufficient resources must be provided to permit the wide range of intensive and specialized supervision needed as well intermediate sanctions to strengthen and enhance the discipline of probation supervision.

- Drug testing throughout the criminal justice system for better decision making concerning bond, probation and parole. This will impact jail populations by allowing the magistrate to consider, when setting bail or bond options, drug treatment or diversions as opposed to high security for court appearances. In addition, at the post conviction stage sanctions can be fine tuned to the individual addition level and supervision required for behavior modifications.

- Reduce the inmate population through the transfer to federal custody of Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) detainees and those held in county jails pursuant to other federal holds.

Capacity Strategies

- Establishment of Jail Policies and Procedures Review Committees in those counties which do not currently have one through the technical assistance of the Commission on Jail Standards. Such committees will involve local decision makers such as police, prosecutors, defense, judiciary, probation, and parole along with public members in collecting necessary data on jail populations and case processing; identifying, implementing and evaluating appropriate changes in programs or processes to insure that existing bed space is used effectively.

- Recommend that funds be appropriated during the next legislative session to construct a minimum of 8,000 additional beds in the Texas Department of Corrections. In addition, funding is requested for 2,000 beds capacity for a "boot camp" shock probation program for 4,000 capacity beds of intermediate sanction facilities for parole violators of which 2,000 are to be constructed immediately.

- Create and fund an intensive supervision parole program in which offenders have a high level of supervision for a determinate period of time, after which, if no violations have occurred and at the discretion of the Parole Board, the offenders may be discharged from parole supervision.

- As additional prison capacity is realized, priority should be given to reducing jail overcrowding by accelerating the intake of felony prisoners awaiting transfer to TDC.

- The Governor's Texas Criminal Justice Task Force should study and propose specific legislation that will enhance penalties for repeat sex offenders, major drug offenders and career criminals as well as create asset forfeiture provisions to combat racketeering, organized crime and major drug trafficking.

Release Restrictions & Confinement Option Strategies

- Mandatory drug testing and drug rehabilitation treatment as a condition of parole.

- The requirement of continuing education as a mutually agreed and stipulated condition of parole for those parole candidates below a specified literacy level and continuing until they reach such a level. Pilot project centers would be established by the State in Dallas, Houston, San Antonio and Fort Worth to begin the program. The continuance of vocational training begun in TDC, but not completed at the time of release, as a condition of parole with financial assistance in the form of vouchers to selected vocational educational enterprises.

Information Policies

- Establishment of Offender Based Tracking System (OBTS). The OBTS will provide for the systemic collection of essential data with common data elements permitting an automated exchange and analysis of relevant information for law enforcement, court management and the proper management of offenders under supervision.

- The standardized collection and dissemination of data and the development of information management systems for the use of various components of the criminal justice system. The development and maintenance of this information system is essential for the proper management of the criminal justice system and for the development and evaluation of criminal justice policies at the state and the local level.

CONCLUSION

The Criminal Justice Summit recognized first and foremost that the fundamental step in restoring public trust in the system is responsible, decisive action to combat crime.

Capitol Update

In lieu of my annual commentary of the constitutional amendments that you all will be voting on November 7th, I want to comment on only one of the proposals that will come before you, that being Proposition #1 which relates to a salary increase for state legislators.

If it were simple, this would be just a question to you, as a citizen and voter of the State of Texas, as to whether or not you want to increase legislators' salaries. Unfortunately, the question is not that simple.

As historical background, legislative salaries, the salaries of your state representative and senator, are set by the Constitution and the only entity that can increase that salary is you, the people. In the 71st Legislative Session, the Legislature proposed and passed a legislative provision for a salary increase for legislators from $7,200 per year to one-fourth of the Governor's salary. Currently that would be $23,358.

I voted for the proposal because it has been 14 years since the salary has been increased. Frankly, I am having second thoughts. First, I remain convinced that we don't want a "professional" legislature. On the contrary, we want a citizen legislature comprised of people who, because of personal finances, must go to Austin, tend to the state's business and come home to tend to their own business. The other side of the coin is that the Legislature is tending to become an enclave of the elite in that the average Texan simply can't afford to serve.

I think it is ridiculous when the LL Governor of a state such as Texas receives a $600 per month salary. By the same token the flaw in the current play may well be the near fraudulent language in the amendment. The amendment reads in terms of "limiting" legislative salaries, when in fact, it is an almost three-fold increase. That's going to mislead a number of people, and while I had nothing to do with wording, I am a little embarrassed.

The second flaw is that it takes the salary setting authority away from the people and invests it with the Legislature itself.

Since I cried "foul" when the United States Congress recently attempted their big pay hike through a similar shenanigan, I suppose, in all fairness, I have the same obligation to point out to you the warts on the proposal for my own pay hike.

As bad as I hate to say it, I advise you to vote against it. If the Legislature truly wants a pay hike and you truly believe it is merited, let us come to you in a straight-forward manner without trickery and guile, and ask for it like honorable people.

New gynecological guidelines say that woman can deliver a child naturally, barring specific medical reasons, even if she's had two cesarean sections before.

Researchers at the University of Louisville are fooling decay-causing bacteria with a substance that looks and acts like glucans, the part of plaque that attracts and holds sticky stuff. Germs bind to the fake plaque and can be flushed out of the mouth.

From Japan comes news of the use of CDP-choline a form of a B vitamin, for victims of moderate to severe stroke. Researchers believe the vitamin helps repair cell membranes and reduces fatalities, too.

Safe Driving Tips from Rhonda
What are the effects of alcohol on driving? It affects coordination. A person can't coordinate what his eyes see with what his hands should be doing. Alcohol affects judgement. It is difficult to choose the proper alternatives that are so often presented while driving. Alcohol affects perception. Alcohol makes it difficult to perceive exactly where the vehicles are on the road ahead. Alcohol affects the emotional state. You become moody and are more likely to overreact to situations. With all this information, why do people continue to drink then drive. The answer? Maybe they have already impaired their judgement with the first drink. Don't drink and drive.

Carbon News

By Dorothy Jackson

The weather man keeps giving us all this changeable weather. One day it's hot, the next it's cold, but this is fall of the year. It tried to rain one day, but mostly a sprinkle.

The farmers are getting itchy feet to get some of their peanut vines plowed up. A few peanuts have been dug in some areas, I hope all have a good crop this year.

With all the homecoming activities at Carbon last week and with the gathering of the news, I omitted the activities of the Ranger Jr. College Band. Special thanks go out to the band and their director for their fine performance at the downtown pep rally, and at the game. I heard good reports from lots of people as to how much they enjoyed them being at Carbon.

Saturday in Eastland at the "Old Rip Parade" the Carbon Wolverine Cheerleaders received an award in the area float division, they placed 3rd. Congratulations Cheerleaders!! They raised all the money and worked hard on getting their float ready. We should be proud of these girls as well as the Wolverine Football team who had the honor to ride on the float with the girls.

Thursday, October 12th, at 6:00 p.m. the Jr. High football team will travel to Blanket for their game this week. The high school game will be here Friday, October 13th. The Wolverines will host May at 7:30 p.m.

On Monday, October 9, nine students and their teacher were on a Journalism field trip.

TEAMS practice test are being given this week. Report cards will go out Wednesday, October 11.

Some more changes have taken place in Carbon. "The Carbon Farm Supply" sign has come down and has been replaced by a new sign "Carbon Agri-Center". Charlie Bradberry opened the Carbon Farm Supply in 1969. The city and all the farmers welcomed "Charlie" and his new business. This meant the farmers did not have to drive several miles to get their feed, seed, fertilizer and other supplies. Mr. Bradberry lived in Dublin and had a store there. Baxter Jacks of Dublin helped Charlie operate the Carbon Store. Later Danny Norris was hired to help operate the store with Jeannie Pack as bookkeeper. In 1976 Ronnie Pack was hired as manager of the store. Jeannie Pack took a leave of absence when her daughter, Lacy was born. Lavada Jackson, Carol Little and Janice Bradberry did the bookkeeping until Jeannie came back. Some years later Charlies turned the business over to his son Harry Bradberry, and he owned the store, with Ronnie Pack as manager. This fall Mr. Harry Bradberry put the business up for sale. The community did not want the store to become history, so Ronnie Pack and other investors have made it possible for the store to stay in business. Ronnie will still manage the store and his wife Jeannie as the bookkeeper. Terry Sallee will continue as a employee full time. In the busy months of the spring time, part time help is hired. We are very proud of this place of business and wish all to continue to be a success.

several miles to get their feed, seed, fertilizer and other supplies. Mr. Bradberry lived in Dublin and had a store there. Baxter Jacks of Dublin helped Charlie operate the Carbon Store. Later Danny Norris was hired to help operate the store with Jeannie Pack as bookkeeper. In 1976 Ronnie Pack was hired as manager of the store. Jeannie Pack took a leave of absence when her daughter, Lacy was born. Lavada Jackson, Carol Little and Janice Bradberry did the bookkeeping until Jeannie came back. Some years later Charlies turned the business over to his son Harry Bradberry, and he owned the store, with Ronnie Pack as manager. This fall Mr. Harry Bradberry put the business up for sale. The community did not want the store to become history, so Ronnie Pack and other investors have made it possible for the store to stay in business. Ronnie will still manage the store and his wife Jeannie as the bookkeeper. Terry Sallee will continue as a employee full time. In the busy months of the spring time, part time help is hired. We are very proud of this place of business and wish all to continue to be a success.

Kokomo News

We are having beautiful fall weather, cool at times and little warm at times. JOHNNIE B. GRIFFITH HONORED WITH BIRTHDAY TRIP

Ottis and Johnnie B. Griffith took a trip through parts of East Texas and the Gulf coast recently. This was a birthday gift to Johnnie B. from Ottis.

They stopped in Groesbeck at Fort Parker Memorial Cemetery and the Old Fort, then on to Huntsville and saw all of Sam Houston Memorial sights, and on to Navasota to see the first capital of Texas "Washington on the Brazos". They traveled to Texas City and on to Galveston seeing old churches and Bishop house. It was cool and the water in the gulf was rough and dirty.

From the coast they went to the Big Thicket and the walk through it was beautiful. They also enjoyed a visit to the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation.

Along the way they stopped anywhere they wanted to from flea markets to just enjoying the view.

Johnnie B. says thank you to her husband Ottis, that it was a birthday she will never forget.

Norma Webb and her aunt Mrs. Adine Huckabay and cousin Janet Setliff of Sweetwater went to Lubbock for a weekend visit with another aunt, Mrs. Helen McMullan.

Jimmy Little, J.L. Morrow, Leona Wilson, Helen and Woodrow Browning rendered the special music at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday night.

J.L. and Naoma Morrow visited one day last with Melvin Logan at Dublin and they all went on to Stephenville for a visit with Earl Morrow.

Delmon and Joyce Eaves went to Ennis on Sunday for a visit with Randy, Deliah and Christopher Lewis and the birthday celebration for Randy's dad, Jelly Lewis. Others there for a visit and birthday celebration were Mark & Margaret Eaves of Arlington, Mr. & Mrs. Dennis Lewis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Darren Lewis and family, Wayne and Lacy and family, and Paulette Black and children, D'Ann, Jamie and Megan of Cleburne, Delmon and Joyce returned home on Monday.

Talou Edwards of Gatesville, Billie Stacy and Lurline Nelson of Carbon, Ava Rodgers and Berneice Rodgers, and Naoma Morrow were visiting with Zelda and Glenn Jordan on Saturday afternoon.

The J.L. Morrrows, Glenn Jordans, Clifford Nelsons and Bill Brown attended the annual Farm Bureau meeting and Bar-B-Que dinner at Eastland on Saturday night.

Buddy and Ethyle Lovell of Brownwood visited with Lurline Nelson on Sunday afternoon.

Dora Garrett has returned home from a visit with the Jerry Hallmark family in San Angelo. Jimmy and Verne Little met Jerry and Lavell Hallmark in Coleman on Thursday night to get Mrs. Garrett and bring her home.

Zelda Jordan visited with Joyce Eaves on Monday evening.

Joe, Michael and Falyn Fields of Bryan, Richard, Teresa, Taylor and Trevis Nachtigall of Morgan Mill and Buster Johnson of Carbon were visiting with Vernon, Deon, and Lindell Fields during the weekend.

Veronica and Kaci Seaton and her mother, Jean Brinegar of Goldthwaite met Jean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Weller of Arkansas in Stephenville on Saturday for a visit. The Wellers are in the process of buying a home in Stephenville.

Facts Is Facts

An Editorial

In some quarters, things are getting a little confusing. Pulling erroneous information out of the air, and parading it as fact, gives cause for concern.

Paramount among a number that are floating is the rumor that Dr. Charles Barnes might in some way be profiting from the purchase of land in this county to be used for a T.D.C. facility if the county is selected as a site.

First of all the facts to show how utterly ridiculous the rumors about him are: Dr. Barnes is a retired United States military officer with a distinguished career as a veterinarian. He further served with the United State Foreign Service in sensitive and highly important posts in overseas assignments. Upon retirement, he and his family chose the rural living quality of this area because of friends and loved ones.

As a concerned citizen, he made one of the first trips to Palestine to look at a T.D.C. unit, became convinced that Eastland County's effort to secure such a unit was a viably and worthwhile effort. He reluctantly, after considerable persuasion by civic leaders here who convinced him that his available time and talents made him a natural for the job, agreed to serve in a no-compensation capacity. He does receive some expenses.

Now, the rumor about him: it's being circulated that he is a relative (depends on how far the rumor's traveled as to how close) to a former state official by the same name, and that they have conspired to purchase the land that's being considered, and plan to reap a giant profit from the sale of it for the T.D.C. unit.

Horsefeathers!

Charley Barnes, no kin to the other man, is a man of honor and deserves our thanks for the hard work he's doing for this county. But then there will always be those who'd rather wreck than build.

Citizens who have questions about the project should check the facts for themselves — don't take some somebody else's word for it.

Dr. Barnes' office telephone number is 442-3413. He'll tell you the truth.

CONSIDER THIS: There's a young man with a family here who might be typical of a good number trying to making a go of it in this county. With three children, the father (let's call him Jimmy) works as many hours a week as he can at minimum wage, and in his spare times, picks up a few hours cleaning and yard work. The mother has a few hours a week cleaning for others. Ask them if they'd like to see some better-paying payrolls.

CONSIDER THIS: There are 4,631 unemployed people in the eight county-area including and surrounding Eastland County, according to Texas Employment Commissioner Mary Scott Nabers. The national unemployment rate is currently 5.1 per cent. The state rate is 7.2 per cent and the following figures from T.E.C. tell the local story:

Brown County: 1,296 unemployed, 7.5 per cent.
Callahan County: 317 unemployed, 5.5 per cent.
Coleman County: 398 unemployed, 7.6.
Comanche: 385, 7.3.
Eastland: 609, 7.
Erath: 583, 4.4.
Palo Pinto: 791, 6.7.
Stephens: 252, 5.8.

And so, Eastland County would indeed be the ideal central and ideal site for the T.D.C. unit. There's be construction time employment, and all would have equal opportunity to make application for permanent state employment.

Yes, it could increase the average wage scale for this area, but you might ask my friend Jimmy if he'd mind that.

Dear Editor,
The County Commissioners have spoken; saying that they approve the certificates of obligation. The taxpayers and registered voters of the county will have an opportunity to answer back next election and vote them out of office. I think the commissioners forgot that their first obligation is to protect the rights of the taxpayers.

Your recent editorial, "A Time For Pulling Together," rehashed several topics about the prison. It mentioned that industries locating or re-locating in this area were good investments. You told how your late father might have been alarmed at today's price for newsprint. He also may have been shocked to see how certain businessmen want the government to furnish them with new customers by building a prison and pay for it with taxpayers' money.

I gathered from an article about the prison that Dr. Barnes and a few bankers were making an effort to obtain funds for the prison. I still do not know who this Dr. Barnes is, what he is a doctor of and has he ever done any of this doctoring here in Eastland County? The "Good ol' boyism" that was hinted of those men brought to mind a saying by LBJ. It goes something like: "When someone tells me that he is a good ol' boy, I hold on to my wallet for both hands." I guess that we should be doing the same or as taxpayers be prepared to "help" (with our tax money.)

Who owns the "inflated" land of the proposed site? (I have heard that this land was bought at $425 an acre six months ago and would be resold to the county at $650 an acre.) An earlier editorial letter stated that a large tract of land between Eastland and Cisco was available for a position. This would have made more sense as a greater part of the county's population live in the Eastland-Cisco-Ranger area. I wonder if the "right people" owned this Eastland-Cisco tract of land would the prison site have been near Carbon?

You ask, "Why would so many other towns have asked for the 'privilege' if it were not so?" Maybe it is the Eastland taxpayers who are serious about their tax money don't want another situation like paying for a Gorman hospital that doesn't exist.

Sincerely yours,
John M. Roe

STOP DRUNK DRIVERS BEFORE THEY STOP YOU

Statistics show, you or someone close to you will one day stop a drunk driver on the road. Whether we like it or not, we are all "under the influence" of people who will drink too much and then get behind the wheel. And even though the laws are cracking down to catch offenders and drinking ages have been raised in most states, your best protection is to know your own limitations with alcohol. Make sure your family and friends are also aware by learning the facts, and not allowing anyone to drive while intoxicated. Don't wait until you or someone you know stops a drunk driver on the road, before you discover the sobering consequences of mixing alcohol and driving.

"Terry Wilson Comes Back To Win Mini Classic"

The first ever Eastland County Bass Club Mini Classic was held this past weekend. Originally set up to host the top sixteen anglers, this years event had only eleven entries. Prior commitments and persons having left the area were the major reasons.

Lake Proctor was the site for the first day of competition, and as usual a weather change blew in and turned fishing off. At the 4:00 p.m. weigh-in the results for Lake Proctor were: 1st Rick Glenn 5 fish 10.90 pounds, 2. Butch Willingham 3 fish 7.29, 3rd Jim Freeman 2 fish 5.00, 4th Tommy Maynard 2 fish 4.30 pounds, 5th Howard Wilson 2 fish 3.74 pounds, 6th Chuck Burgess 1 fish 2.86 pounds, 7th Jimmy Johnson 2 fish 2.84 pounds, 8th Terry Wilson 1 fish 2.46 pounds, 9th Steve Pennington 1 fish 1.665 pounds, and Ira Pennington and Bobby Maynard were tied for 10th place with 0 pounds for Lake Proctor.

This was an unusually low catch for one of our premier lakes in the area. But as I stated the change in weather did slow the fishing down for most of the anglers.

Rick Glenn reported that his catch was taken on jigs in about 3 feet of water in the willows. And Butch Willingham took his fish on a worm in around 2-4 feet of water. Both Rick and Butch left Lake Proctor with a substantial lead over the rest of the field. Most of the anglers were expecting the usual tough fishing that Lake Leon is know for the second day.

Eastland Telegram - Ranger Times - Cisco Press
- Rising Star And Callahan County Star
Thursday, October 12, 1989

Sunday morning at 7:00 a.m. the classic qualifiers blasted off with another shotgun start in search of the elusive Leon largemouth bass. Day two was expected to be worse weather wise than the previous day. Winds of 30 mph were expected at sunrise. But to the anglers delight calm almost non-existing winds were present all day.

Many of the anglers were reporting clear water conditions all over the lake and had down sized their line to adjust. But to most surprise the high winds on Saturday had muddled the color some. I suppose one could say the conditions were great for fishing but the catching was rather tough, as the 4:00 p.m. weigh-in showed.

Sunday only three anglers were able to bring in one or more fish 14 inches or longer. In order to finish Sunday: 1st Terry Wilson 5 fish 11.30 pounds, 2nd Bobby Maynard 2 fish 3.85, and 3rd Tommy Maynard 2 fish 3.70 pounds. My fish were taken on jigs and spinnerbaits in 6 inches to 2 feet of water. Jigs seemed to be the preferred baits at Leon, if you can call any bait preferred when fishing is this tough.

The overall two days totals and winnings were:

1. Terry Wilson 13.75 pounds $350.00
2. Rick Glenn 10.90 pounds $200.00
3. Tommy Maynard 8.00 lbs. $150.00
4. Butch Willingham 7.29 lbs. $100.00
5. Tim Freeman 5.00 lbs. $75.00

6. Bobby Maynard 3.86 lbs. $50.00
7. Howard Wilson 3.74 lbs. $25.00
8. Chuck Burgess 2.86 lbs. $25.00
9. Jimmy Johnson 1.66 lbs. $25.00

Big Bass for Saturday at Lake Proctor was 1st Chuck Burgess 2.86 and 2nd Tim Freeman 2.86. These gentlemen had two nice fish for the weather, but for Proctor they were pretty small. Big bass winners at Lake Leon were 1st Terry Wilson 2.90 and 2nd Bobby Maynard 2.08. Again two nice fish but small for Leon in the fall.

It is expected that the E.C.B.C. Mini Classic will become an annual event. All of this years participants truly enjoyed the draw format and who doesn't like fishing a money tournament for free. So lets everyone out there make plans now for next year. Come join the E.C.B.C., join in the fun and qualify for this very special event.

At present the Honey Hole Top Six appears to be the top five. Due to a couple of late dropouts a sixth is hard to come by on short notice.

Presently, Steve Pennington, Tommy and Bobby Maynard, Chuck Burgess and Terry Wilson be competing at Lake Sam Rayburn October 19, 20, 21 and 22 against teams from across the state. Good luck to these gentlemen and safe boating to everyone.

By ROY CARTEE

QUESTION: Mr. Cartee, I have been hearing so much about Congress possibly repealing the catastrophic medicare law. What do you actually think about the law as it stands?

ANSWER: You must remember the law was passed during an election year. Every politician wanted to be in on the act. The result they offered far too many benefits thus running the cost up tremendously. A lot of money was being gathered before many of the benefits were being offered. This is all right! But the surtax being placed on the 40 percent who pay taxes beyond a certain amount was more than the average older person could stand. Now, since the House of Representatives has repealed the law, and it is headed to the Senate this fall, the older person will probably end up with the same problems they had in 1987... such as very, very short stays in the hospital thus leaving sicker than when they entered. It is unfortunate that Congress went this route and it will no doubt be costly in the future.

QUESTION: Mr. Cartee, do you know an eye doctor that would remove my cataracts for what medicare pays?

ANSWER: This column will never recommend a doctor. It is non-ethical. Many eye doctors who are specialists in the removal of cataracts do take the medicare approved payment plus your supplemental insurance. It is difficult for me to understand why people are so reluctant to ask the doctors if they participate in the assignment plan. Many, many doctors do participate fully with the medical program in the area of payment. I suggest you ask your doctor if he or she takes assignment.

QUESTION: Mr. Cartee, apparently I am going blind. Could you refer me to an agency who might help me?

ANSWER: I am not sure what assistance you need.

But the organization Prevention to the Blind, or the State Agency for the Blind can help you.

Are you having a medicare problem? Do you feel you are eligible for SSI but need help. Write Roy V. Cartee, 900 Avenue H, Cisco, Texas 76437.

November Ballot Issues Receive Texas Chamber Endorsement

Proposed constitutional amendments appearing on the Nov. 7 ballot which will enhance critical aspects of the Texas economy have been endorsed by the board of directors of the Texas Chamber of Commerce.

These propositions deal with water development bonds, agricultural and industrial development bonds, corrections institution construction bonds, the combination of state criminal justice functions, guarantees state support for local school bonds, and bonds to fund the Texas opportunity plan for student loans and will appear as propositions 2, 3, 8, 9, 12 and 21 on the ballot.

These amendments are viewed as key ingredients in further stimulating growth in the Texas economy. While they provide direct assistance by creating jobs and stimulating economic growth, they will also relieve the burden on social programs while increasing state revenue.

Proposition 2 reads: "The constitutional amendment to authorize the issuance of an additional $500 million of Texas water development bonds for water supply, water quality, and food control purposes." It expands the opportunities created for the first time by passage of $1.3 billion 1985 Texas water plan.

Proposition 3 will appear as "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for the recovery and further development of the state's economy, with goals of increasing job opportunities and other benefits for Texas residents, through state financing of the development and production of Texas products and businesses."

Language for Proposition 8 will read "The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of general obligation bonds for projects relating to the facilities of corrections institutions, youth corrections institutions, and mental health and mental retardation institutions and for the expansion of statewide law enforcement facilities."

Proposition 9 will appear as "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to organize and combine various state agencies that perform criminal justice functions."

Proposition 12 will read as "The constitutional amendment to provide for using permanent school fund and its income to guarantee bonds issued by the state for the purpose of aiding school districts."

Proposition 21 will appear as "The constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds as college saving bonds to provide educational loans to students and to encourage the public to save for a college education."

The Texas Chamber of Commerce is a 3,400-member organization composed of large and small businesses, trade associations and local chambers of commerce. According to chamber president Larry Milner, "The Texas Chamber's goals are to see that laws and policies are implemented that will make Texas businesses and communities more competitive in the changing domestic and global community."

Commissioners Pass Resolution On Ambulance Service

At presstime Tuesday the Eastland County Commissioners passed a Resolution giving all parties involved in the Ambulance Contract a 180-day notice to terminate the contract, with a view toward renegotiation.

L.T. Owen, Comm. of Pct. 3, did not vote on the Resolution, saying he wishes to find out more about what was involved. All other Commissioners voted for it.

A more detailed report of this and other Commissioners Court matters will follow.

"Hud" To Show At Majestic Sunday

The 1963 classic film "Hud" will show at the Majestic Theatre in Eastland next Sunday, Oct. 12 at 2 p.m., and Tuesday, Oct. 14 at 7:30 p.m.

Paul Newman plays the leading role, with a cast which includes Patricia Neal. The story is set in the southwest, and based on one of the early novels of Larry McMurtry, North Texas author.

The film depicts hard times on a Texas ranch, and ranch owner whose life is made even more miserable by an arrogant, unfeeling son. The strong characterization and stark, beautiful photography make this a memorable picture.

When "Hud" came out in the 60's it made an impact on a whole decade. The picture, produced by Paramount, won two Academy Awards.

This picture is fifth in a series of Classic films being presented at the Majestic. The last of the Series will be shown in May, 1990.

You may purchase tickets to "Hud" at the Majestic box office Sunday, or buy a Classic Series of 12 tickets for $30. These may be used on any films desired. For more information contact the Majestic business office at 629-2102.

A Thought For The Day...
DeAlva Chambers
Someone once said, "The impossible should be done, the impossible has to be done."
Part of the joy of living is striving for the indispensable. Whether or not you attain all your goals is not the important issue. The satisfaction is derived from the honest effort you have made through life to reach the pinnacles of mortality. There is so much in life that is intolerable. The hungry get hungrier, the oppressed being more oppressed, and above all, the threat of catastrophic war hanging over our heads... These are situations that are not to be borne by civilization but to be fought constantly so that someday they may be eradicated. Do not bear the intolerable but be frightfully aware of the fact that they are with us. Being knowledgeable is the first step; the next step is to do something about them with every means possible... Don't have an attitude of accepting life as it is. Be optimistic - and further develop what is good and eliminate what is bad; and for the really good life, dream on with the intentions of making them come true...

Remember safety first when installing antennas.

- Stay clear of all electric lines, assume all wires are uninsulated.
- Be sure there's enough distance in every direction so that if your antenna should fall, it won't hit a power line.
- If an antenna does start to fall, let it go and stay clear. Never touch it until you're sure it's not in contact with any wires.
- Work only in dry weather and never on a windy day. Most antennas are top-heavy and difficult to control in the wind.
- Guy wires should be secured so they won't whip around and come in contact with power lines.
- Make sure antennas are grounded properly.

Saluting Our Volunteer Fire Departments

What Is A Volunteer Fireman?

By Richard Kurklin

A volunteer fireman is a man, or sometimes a lady, who at the sound of an alarm or a beeper leaves what he or she is doing to go to the aid of a neighbor.

A warm building in winter or an air conditioned building in summer are usually quickly exchanged for blistering intense heat, choking and blinding smoke, and the danger of burns, collapsing buildings, and suffocation. And if this tradeout isn't enough of a sacrifice, they go out in all types of weather and at all hours of the day and night.

Volunteer firefighters receive no pay for the work they do and the dangers they experience in controlling and extinguishing fires, or for the work they do in maintaining fire fighting equipment. In fact they usually work to raise funds to pay for part or sometimes all of the fire fighting equipment which they have to work with. And a many a night after completing a day's labors, volunteer firemen have worked at the station until the early morning hours completing a much needed fire truck or overhauling an engine so that a fire truck will run or a pump will work when needed.

Firemen leave their places of business or jobs even when it costs them in sales or amount of work completed, they sacrifice some potential income, because every minute counts. A birthday dinner or a warm bed at midnight may be left to fight both fire and the freezing of water lines and wet streets in the dark of night. And what do they receive in return? They sometimes have to beg for equipment and the funds to keep the department going, and they may have to listen the screams of a parent while they remove the burned body of a dead child from a burning home. Or it may be the dismembered and bleeding body of a car wreck victim.

Why do people endure the hardships required to be a fireman? Each individual must have his, or her, reasons, but they probably include words like: concern, community involvement, pride in their community, and pride in doing a job that someone must do.

They hold insurance rates lower by protecting homes and businesses, and even entire cities, from total disaster, and even more important, they save lives and hopes.

October 8-14 Is Fire Prevention Week

Noting the tragic loss of lives and property from fire in Texas, State Fire Marshal Ernest A. Emerson today urged Texans to help reduce the number and severity of fires by learning effective methods of fire prevention and safety during Fire Prevention Week, October 8-14, 1989.

"Fire continues to be a major threat to all our citizens, particularly the young and old," Emerson said.

Fire departments in Texas responded in 1988 to more than 102,849 fires which killed 299 people, injured more than 2,400 and destroyed in excess of $340 million in property, according to data from the Texas Fire Incident Reporting System (TEXFIRS), operated by the State Board of Insurance, State Fire Marshal's Office. Three hundred and eight fire departments, protecting 74 percent of the state population reported fires to TEXFIRS in 1988.

"Much of this tragic loss could have been prevented," the fire marshal said. "We have the knowledge and technology today to prevent much of the needless loss of lives and property in this state and we urge every Texas citizen to practice fire prevention every day in an effort to conserve our valuable Texas resources."

This year marks the 67th anniversary of National Fire Prevention Week. The week-long observance was first established in 1922 by President Warren Harding in memory of the so-called "Great Chicago Fire" of October 9, 1871.

That conflagration killed 250 people and destroyed 17,430 buildings at a cost of $168 million. People began thinking in terms of fire prevention in addition to fire fighting as a result of this fire.

FIRE PREVENTION GUIDELINES

should be checked yearly by a qualified service person.

15) Do not overload electrical circuits with too many appliances.

16) When adding electrical wiring or appliances, have a qualified electrician do the installation.

17) Only special circuits should be used for heavy-duty appliances such as air conditioners.

18) Use only appliances that carry the seal of a nationally recognized testing laboratory.

19) Plan ahead.

a) Purchase a smoke detector with a nationally recognized testing laboratory label and install one or more at least outside the sleeping areas of your home. Check your detectors every week to make sure that they work properly. Clean the detectors according to manufacturers instructions. If detectors are battery powered, put in new batteries at least yearly.

b) Determine at least two means of escape from each bedroom. One will be the normal exit from the house or apartment. The other can be a window or a second door between bedrooms. Consider installing an escape ladder from windows.

c) Draw a floor plan to indicate the location of doors, windows, stairs and roof tops that can be used for escape. Always keep escape routes free from obstructions.

d) Agree on a warning device to be used when a fire is discovered. Set a meeting place outdoors for a head count of occupants.

e) Practice escape procedures: Sleep with your bedroom door closed. If you suspect fire, test the door. If it is hot, do not open it because the area on the other side of the door is too hot to enter safely.

If you think it is safe, brace your shoulder against the door and open it cautiously. Be ready to slam the door if heat or smoke rush in. Practice escaping and meeting outdoors at an assigned spot. In case of fire, call the fire department from a neighbor's phone.

The State Board of Insurance, State Fire Marshal's Office offer the following guidelines for practicing fire prevention in the home:

1) Keep matches and lighters away from small children.

2) Do not use gasoline or flammable liquids for cleaning in the home. Do not use them to start or freshen a fire for heating or cooking.

3) Provide proper ventilation for portable gas and oil heaters or fire places.

4) Do not smoke in bed.

5) Before going to bed, check upholstered furniture to ensure that smoking materials are not lodged in the furniture.

6) Dispose of smoking materials safely. Store them out-of-doors in a metal container and immerse them with water to make sure that they are completely out.

7) Make sure that heating and cooking appliances are properly installed and used according to instructions.

8) Make sure that all electrical cords are safe. Electrical cords should not be placed under rugs, over hooks, in door openings or other traffic paths. Check cords routinely for wear. Do not puncture cords with tacks, nails or other sharp objects and do not use cords which appear to be cracked, pinched, punctured or otherwise damaged. Electric cords that are worn or damaged should be disconnected and immediately disposed of.

9) Use only the correct size fuses in fuse boxes.

10) Keep basement, closets, attic and garage cleared of combustibles such as papers, cartons, old furniture, clothes or oil-soaked rags.

11) Store gasoline and other flammable liquids in closed containers away from heat, sparks and children, preferably away from the house. Never store flammable liquids in glass jugs, old bleach bottles or makeshift containers.

12) Keep paint stored in closed metal containers and discard paint-laden brushes.

13) Furnaces, stoves and stove pipes should be kept will away from combustible walls and ceilings. These appliances should be installed and maintained by qualified service people.

14) Heating equipment

Annual Baird VFD 'Hamburger Burn' Oct. 13

The Baird Volunteer Fire Department will hold their annual "Hamburger Burn" on Friday October 13th, before the Baird-Aspermont game. They will serve from 5 p.m. until 7 p.m. in the Baird School Cafeteria. The firemen will be serving hamburgers, french fries and special order onion rings. The cost of the meal is $5 for hamburger, french fries, and iced tea; onion rings are $3. Cake and pie will be 50 cents a slice or you can buy the whole cake or pie. The annual fund raising event is held in memory of Franke Crow and is a major fund raiser for the volunteer fire department. So come early and bring your money and your appetite! The firemen plan to have lots of help lined up so you won't have to wait long. See you there!

TEXAS FIRE DATA FACTS

Fire departments in Texas reported 102,849 fires which killed 299 people, injured 2,476 and destroyed more than $346 million in property during 1988, according to data submitted by Texas fire departments through the Texas Fire Incident Reporting System (TEXFIRS).

When compared to fires reported in 1987, the number of fires increased nearly ten percent in 1988 and property loss by a little over one percent.

Residential properties suffered the most damage from fire. Of the 25,419 building fires reported in 1988, 18,870 or 74 percent occurred in residences. In addition, more people were killed (175 fatalities), and injured (935 injuries) in residential fires than in any other type of occupancy.

The major cause of fires or fire-related injuries in residences last year was careless cooking. More than 4,000 residential structure fires involved cooking appliances. These fires resulted in at least 206 injuries, nine fatalities and an estimated 13.8 million in property damage.

Fires of an incendiary or suspicious nature ranked second among known causes of fires in residences, resulting in 3,502 fires, 19 deaths and 87 injuries. These fires caused over $40 million in residential property damage, the highest estimated dollar loss of any residential fire.

The greatest number of fatalities in residential fires occurred in fires caused by careless smoking. Careless smoking caused 1,046 residential fires which resulted in 25 fatalities, 85 injuries and an estimated $8.5 million in property damage. Incendiary and suspicious fires ranked second as the cause of fatal residential fires with 19 fatalities. Heating-related fires ranked third among fatal residential fires with 11 fatalities, 104 injuries and more than $15 million in residential property damage.

Among all fire related fatalities reported last year, young and old people were more severely affected than people in other age groups, according to data from TEXFIRS, the Texas Health Department, and the Federal Census Bureau.

Children aged four and under comprised 18.7 percent of all fire related fatalities, but children of that age group only made up 8.9 percent of the state population. Also, fires ranked third among the leading causes of accidental deaths of children in that age group.

Adults aged 60 and over made up 40.8 percent of all fire deaths but only 13.9 percent of the state population. Among the leading causes of accidental deaths, fire ranked fourth for people in that age group.

Together children aged 14 and under and adults aged 60 and over accounted for more than 201 fatalities, or 67 percent of all fire related fatalities in Texas last year, even though the people in those age groups only comprise 33.9 percent of the state population.
