The hospital tax rollback election is behind us and now we must all work together for the betterment of our community. One way to show our support is by attending the annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet which will be held Thursday, Feb. 1, at 7 p.m. in the Cisco Elementary School Cafetorium. Tickets are on sale now.

Mrs. George F. Connally (Edleen Armstrong) of Houston sent best wishes to "our Cisco friends" when she renewed her subscription to The Cisco Press. Mrs. J.L. Sherman of Kerrville sent in a renewal with the following note: "I don't want to miss any issues! I have taken the paper for about 50 years. I am the former Norma Ghormley, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. W.I. Ghormley."

Gabe Struggles, PO Box 293, Waldron, Ark. 72958, is planning a reunion of the 2nd

Armored Division and he sent the following letter: "Forty-five years ago we were helping to make news for the media. Now we need to use your newspaper to locate and inform all 2nd Armored 'Hell on Wheels' Division and all attached units of our reunion at Killeen, Fort Hood, Texas, at the Sheraton Hotel, May 30-June 3, 1990.

Write to Loren O. Guge, Reunion Chairman, 8053 High Point Blvd., Brookville, Fla. 34613 for information. Among the many who lived in Texas that we would like to contact are Sgt. Clark of Fox Co. of the 41st Inf. Reg. who was wounded at Humain, Belgium Dec. 26, 1944 in the "Battel of the Bulge," and the McEroy Brothers who rode motorcycles for the 41st Inf. Reg.

Congratulations to the Cisco band students of Wayne White who were chosen All-District in Abilene Saturday.

Cisco City Hall Plans Move To New Location

The permanent City Hall will be established at 500 Conrad Hilton Avenue and the Police Department will be at 502 Conrad Hilton. City Hall will be closed on Friday, January 26th to facilitate the move but will be open for business on Monday, January 29th in the new permanent location. Fortunately, the telephone number will remain the same.

While the city employees are happy to be established in a permanent location, we apologize for any inconvenience caused our residents.

Avoid High Interest By Paying City Taxes Now

Did you know that you may pay as much as 84 percent annual percentage rate interest on your delinquent taxes?

The City of Cisco reminds all its citizens that have not yet paid their 1989 taxes that they have until January 31, 1990 to pay them before they become delinquent.

On February 1, 1990, all unpaid taxes become delinquent and a penalty and interest rate of 7 percent is automatically added to those taxes. (That 7 percent rate when carried out as an annual percentage rate actually amounts to 84 percent.) Then an additional 1 percent interest per month is added to delinquent taxes each and every month thereafter until the taxes are paid. Also, if your city taxes are not paid by July 1, 1990, an additional 15 percent for attorney's fee is automatically added on.

To avoid this extra cost, everyone who has not yet paid their 1989 City taxes are reminded and encouraged to do so before January 31, 1990.

The City of Cisco has many obligations and service requirements that must be met over the course of the fiscal year, and they can only be met by the timely collection of city property taxes. Please help your city serve you by paying your taxes on time.

Chamber of Commerce Banquet Tickets On Sale

Jerry Larned of Midland, noted humorist, will be guest speaker at the annual Cisco Chamber of Commerce banquet scheduled for 7 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 1, in the Cisco Elementary School Cafetorium, according to Rex Fields, CoC president.

Tickets for the banquet are available from any CoC director, at the chamber of office, Olney Savings, First National Bank, West Texas Utilities, Hargrave Insurance or Cisco Lumber and Supply. They are priced at $10 each.

Lobo Sculpture Is Approved And Taken To Bronze Foundry Jan. 17

The life-sized Cisco Lobo sculpture commissioned by the Cisco Lobo Committee was accepted January 15, 1990, at a meeting at Cisco High School.

Dale Stewart, bronze sculptor from Cisco, was asked to make the wolf look "lean and mean". According to the unanimous and enthusiastic acceptance, the goal was accomplished.

On January 17, 1990 the sculpture was taken to Joe Schaefer's Art Bronze foundry in Arlington, Texas. Since Joe Schaefer was a graduate of Cisco High School, he had a special interest in the project and was pleased that the Committee chose him to cast the bronze sculpture.

The bronze is to be completed and in place at Cisco High School for the All-School Reunion June 9, 1990. The fundraising has reached the one-half mark and the Committee expects that the rest of the funds will be in by the date of the unveiling.

Members of the committee who were present at the meeting were President Danny Schaefer, Gene Kinsler, Lela Lloyd, Mary Bob Leverage, Don Shepard, Coach Buddy Sharp, Ruth and Dale Stewart and Mr. Phil Warren, principal of Cisco High School.

Contributions for the Cisco Lobo Fund may be sent to the First National Bank at Cisco, Texas. There are still several small table models of the sculpture available for $375. Cisco exes are encouraged to purchase these historical mementos while they last. (There are only 200 edition.)

GUESTS

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Revis Gregg over the weekend were their daughter and grandson, Joyce and Craig Surlis of Arlington, and granddaughter and husband, Suzanne and Scott Alderink of Hurst.

Chambers of Commerce Support Statewide Voter Registration Drive

The Texas Secretary of State's Office and the Texas Chamber of Commerce have launched a voter registration drive called Vote '90. To help ensure the success of the campaign, the Cisco Chamber of Commerce will have voter registration application cards available at their office, located at 309 Conrad Hilton Ave.

Those interested in registering must be Texas residents and U.S. citizens and must be at least 18 years of age on election day. To be eligible to vote in the March 13 primary, applicants must register prior to February 11, 1990.

Cisco Man Is Jailed For Drug Possession

A 37-year-old Cisco man was charged Sunday with possession of amphetamines with intent to deliver after officers searched his residence late Saturday night.

Floyd Keith Clark is in the Eastland County Jail under $50,000 bond set by Justice of the Peace Alford Bush of Ranger.

Authorities declined to release the amount of drugs found in the residence.

Junior High Lady Lobo B-Ball Results

The eighth grade Lady Lobes continued their winning ways by defeating Ranger 49-18. This win concluded the first round of district play, and the eighth grade went through the first round undefeated. Scoring for Cisco were Traci Crocker with a season high of 20 points; Kerstin Gerhardt 9, Ginger Rhyne 7, Carrie Kearney 4, Stacy Smith 4, Mandi Senterfitt 2 and Christy Manning 2.

The seventh grade girls lost a heart breaker to Ranger 19-18. This group of girls played a real good game and everyone hustled, according to Coach Lori Whatley. Scoring were Carrie Roark 7, Jenny Potter 4, Tessie Ingram 3, Jane Hounshell 2 and April Duncan 2.

Hospital District Tax Rollback Is Approved By Slim Margin

By a slim margin of 23 votes, voters of the Cisco Hospital District approved the tax rollback in an election held Saturday, Jan. 20.

The unofficial vote was 690 in favor of rolling back taxes and 667 against. The hospital board was to meet Wednesday, Jan. 24, to canvass the vote.

Approval of the rollback means the tax rate will drop from 28 cents per $100 valuation to 14.135 cents.

Some $115,000 in taxes collected at the higher rate will be refunded to taxpayers, according to E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital Administrator Don Henry. This amount is the difference between the two tax rates, and it was placed in an escrow account pending the outcome of the election, Mr. Henry said.

A new chemical dependency treatment program which opened recently at the hospital might make up some or all of the lost tax revenue, Mr. Henry said.

President of Citizens for Accountability Committee Herman Eaker said they didn't want the hospital to close, they just don't want it to "cost any more." This group supported the tax rollback.

In May, a non-binding referendum on raising the tax rate from 12 cents to 28 cents was turned down by a 29-vote margin, 372 to 343.

However, the hospital board of directors raised the tax rate from 12.7 cents to 28 cents four months later, saying the higher rate was necessary for the 30-bed hospital to remain open.

Within weeks more than 700 signatures had been gathered on petitions calling for a rollback.

Representatives from the Secretary of State's office monitored the voting Saturday. Both supporters and opponents had requested the monitors.

Cisco Band Members Named To All-District In Abilene

Seven members of the Cisco High School Lobo Band and two members of the Junior High School Band were named All-District in All-District Band tryouts for classes A, AA, and AAA held last Saturday at Hardin-Simmons University, according to Cisco Band Director Wayne White.

Named to the All-District High School Band were Phillip Gattis, tuba; Tammy Glover, contra-bass clarinet; Henry Ingram, trumpet; Clay Lorange, alto saxophone (second consecutive year); Sarah Zell, clarinet (third consecutive year); Rachel Valck, clarinet (fifth consecutive year); and Mary Garza, flute (third year). Miss Garza was named First Chair of the All-District Band.

Junior High Band members named to the All-District Band were Rebecca Elliott, flute, and Brenda McFadin, trombone (second consecutive year).

The All-District Band concerts will be Saturday, Feb. 3, in Breckenridge.

Eastland County Commissioners Discuss Treatment Centers Monday

There was much discussion but not many final decisions at the County Commissioners Court meeting Monday.

One item concerned parking around the Courthouse, which Commissioners agreed had a number of problems.

Nancy Trout, County Tax Assessor-Collector, brought the minutes of the Dec. 18 Eastland City Commission meeting to the Court.

At that meeting the City of Eastland granted Eastland County control of parking next to the Courthouse.

The Commissioners discussed employee parking in these spaces, saying that each elected official should urge his employees to park away from the area. There should be spaces near the Courthouse set aside for jury members, they agreed however.

Other suggestions ranged from a designated loading zone to places for the public to conduct business.

County Judge Scott Bailey asked Nancy Trout to work on the matter and bring recommendations to the Court next time.

Another main topic was a request for the Commissioners to consider the authority of Eastland County Law Enforcement Agencies (Sheriff's Dept. and local Constables) to cooperate with E. L. Graham Memorial Hospital (Cisco Hospital District) for approval for treatment as an alternate to arrest.

This had reference to the new Chemical Dependency Treatment Center at the Cisco Hospital. Kathy Swift, Program Director of the Center, spoke to the Court on behalf of this request.

David Allsup, Counselor-in-Training at the Substance Abuse Treatment Center, Ranger General Hospital, requested that Ranger General Hospital also be considered for treatment. Later Jerry Edwards, President of the Ranger Hospital Board, brought the same request to the Commissioners.

Kathy Swift spoke to the Court, saying that the Cisco Treatment Center was presenting this suggestion as a part of licensing - and this alternate to incarceration concerned only those people who were picked up for public intoxication - not those arrested on DWI.

She said each situation would have to be looked at differently - to break down the denial of addiction. She indicated that this treatment plan was approved by the Texas Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse, as another means of the war on drugs.

Sheriff Dee Hogan then addressed the Commissioners, stating that the considered drug and alcohol abuse treatment a good thing, and would support it in any way he could. He had a letter for Kathy Swift in which he state these general principles. "But I don't have the authority to release anyone incarcerated by the Court - it must be the Court where the charge is filed," the Sheriff said.

Hogan also said it was putting too much responsibility on an arresting officer to attempt to get an intoxicated person into treatment at that time. "A mad drunk is not very receptive," he remarked.

Commissioner Richard Robinson agreed that the options should be with the Judge, not the arresting officer. "The Judge can make treatment a part of the sentence," he said.

County Judge Scott Bailey said that the Court was "Caught in the middle." The Treatment Centers are valuable resources to have as a referral, he said, but certain procedures and liabilities called for caution in sending intoxicated persons directly to them.

For one thing, they are not locked facilities, so a person must agree to stay there - or the Treatment Center must have a Court order.

On other law enforcement matters, The Commissioners asked Sheriff Hogan if he was "ready for the Sate inspection," which was supposed to take place Feb. 20.

"The jail is in as good a shape today as it will be when inspected," Hogan replied. "That's a daily routine we stay in. We have written an operational program for the jail to meet new standards."

Commissioner Billy Bacon agreed that the jail should pass inspection. "Talk about clean! I could eat dinner on the floor there and it wouldn't bother me," the Commissioner said.

Bacon reported there were 19 prisoners currently in the jail, with 12 of these county prisoners, 6 for TDC, and 1 on a "blue warrant," or for another County.

A Thought For The Day....

The hustle and bustle of life is much like a billiard game. Just as billiard balls bump into one another, we are constantly making contact with persons.

There is a big difference, however, between our contacts and that of the hard billiard ball. One ball hits another and moves it, leaving no marks on either ball. With people it is different, for we leave some kind of mark on everyone we contact. This mark may be ugly if we are mean, selfish, and unthinking. If we are thoughtful and kind, the mark we leave may contribute to the other person's development and enrichment. As we travel our path, we need to be more aware of those around us - our family, friends, business associates, persons of other churches, nationalities, and races. All of us, no matter what age, have some kind of influence. What kind of responses are we encouraging in others?

Social Security Beneficiaries Will Receive Statement

If you're a Social Security beneficiary, you should receive a Social Security Benefit Statement (Form SSA-1099) in the mail sometime this month. The form shows the amount of Social Security benefits you received or repaid in 1989. You should use the form to help you figure whether any of your Social Security benefits are subject to Federal income tax.

Most Social Security beneficiaries do not have to pay any Federal income tax on their Social Security benefits. If your Social Security check is your largest source of income, you probably won't owe any tax on your benefits. But if you have substantial income in addition to your Social Security benefits, up to half of your annual Social Security benefits may be subject to Federal income tax.

Your Social Security benefits may be taxable if your taxable income plus your non-taxable interest, plus half of your Social Security benefits exceeds the base amount. The base amounts are $25,000 if you are single, $32,000 if you are married and file a joint return; or $0 if you are married, live with your spouse at any time during the year, and file separate returns.

Included with your benefit statement will be an Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Notice 703.

If you have questions about the information on the SSA-1099, you can call the Social Security toll free number 1-800-234-5772.

STOP DRUNK DRIVERS BEFORE THEY STOP YOU

Statistics show, you or someone close to you will one day stop a drunk driver on the road. Whether we like it or not, we are all "under the influence" of people who will drink too much and then get behind the wheel. And even though the laws are cracking down to catch offenders and drinking ages have been raised in most states, your best protection is to know your own limitations with alcohol. Make sure your family and friends are also aware by learning the facts, and not allowing anyone to drive while intoxicated. Don't wait until you or someone you know stops a drunk driver on the road, before you discover the sobering consequences of mixing alcohol and driving.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—With the election just weeks away, the gloves are off in both primaries.

In the Democratic gubernatorial race, Attorney General Jim Mattox gambled to preempt the Texas labor convention endorsement over the objections of its president.

Meanwhile, GOP contenders combined to battle frontrunner Clayton Williams for a previous history of drinking and brawling.

One can safely say now that the Republicans' 11th commandment — speak no evil of other Republicans — is shattered forever.

The commandment worked fine when Republicans were a minority party, but last week's mud throwing was inevitable — one cannot win the brass ring with a wimp campaign.

Campaign spending continues at a record pace, with Williams leading all candidates in what promises to be the most expensive election year in Texas.

Former Gov. Mark White inflated his war chest by including $1 million he borrowed from a bank last month and repaid two weeks later.

On the Democratic side of the fence, Treasurer Ann Richards' status as frontrunner is now questionable, and she admitted for the first time that she and Mattox will probably be run-off opponents.

In the past three weeks, Mattox has dispelled early doubts about his strength with a textbook strategy that stunned everyone but his camp.

Mattox Marches On

Like a well-oiled conquering army, his campaign moves from victory to victory, making a mockery of an autumn poll painting him far behind primary opponents Richards and White.

One observer noted that Mattox "hones in on issues like a heat-seeking missile," and it has paid off in recent weeks.

The Targeted Coalition

Unlike the GOP, the Texas Democratic coalition is comprised of identifiable groups of varying strengths: labor unions, trial lawyers, blacks, Hispanics, feminists, teachers, and white male liberals.

These are the biggies, the groups that Republicans blast as the "special interest groups" that dictate policy.

Unapologetic and unabashed, Mattox takes a strong stand for them, expecting them to stand strong for him at election time.

A Near Endorsement

Last month, he angered state district judges everywhere by stepping into the court-ordered judicial election fray, but won the love of Hispanic and black leaders for fighting fiercely for them.

Some judges loudly accused Mattox of selling them out for minority votes. Days later, Mattox emerged from the Mexican-American Democrats' convention just 22 delegates short of winning the MAD endorsement.

Mattox Woos Labor

This week he's gambling for the Texas AFL-CIO endorsement, despite pleas from its president, Joe Gunn, who seeks to avoid bloodying or muddying the labor camp.

Gunn, who's not anti-Mattox, conceded that Mattox has more labor union support than Richards or White.

But Gunn doesn't think that Mattox can muster the two-thirds needed for official endorsement, and then AFL-CIO rules will keep union membership from campaigning for Mattox in the primary.

Richards and White want labor to remain officially neutral.

Mattox, sensing weakness on their part, is going for the endorsement. If he wins it outright, it'll be the biggest coup of the primary so far, on either ballot.

Democrats Seeking Debate

Democrats seeking a TV debate between their nominee, state Sen. Hugh Parmer, and Republican U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm may not get that exposure for their lesser-known Parmer.

Gramm said in the last election Democrat U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen would not debate Beau Boulter, "who was a sitting GOP congressman, so I feel no obligation."

Strong-arming Utility

Public Utility Commissioner Jo Campbell, a Democrat, accused GOP Railroad Commissioner Kent Haace of "strong-arming" a South Texas power company into switching from natural gas to a more expensive fuel during the recent freeze, thereby raising utility bills for South Texas residents.

Haace answered he wanted to make sure Dallas-area residents had enough heat, and that he will make sure South Texans won't pay higher bills.

Other Highlights

- The Texas Department of Human Services plans to establish a special ethics panel to arbitrate conflicts of interest in the state's third-largest agency.
- GOP gubernatorial hopeful Jack Rains claims his former architectural design and engineering firm, 3D/International, produced 140,000 jobs through its import-export business.
- Unexpected increases in the number of Texans receiving welfare services will cause a 1990 budget deficit approaching $200 million for the Department of Human Services, officials said.

Taylor Receives Partnership In Advertising Agency

KAREN TAYLOR

Karen Taylor, former Cisco and Eastland resident has become a corporate partner in a Dallas advertising agency, according to Dave Winslow, owner and president of the firm. The March Agency, in existence since 1979, has become Winslow Taylor, Inc., Marketing, Advertising and Public Relations.

Taylor joined the March Agency in 1988 as vice-president and director of public relations. She will retain those titles and will assume some administrative responsibilities. The Winslow Taylor firm handles advertising and public relations for such businesses as HUD, Metro Hotels, M&S Systems, Dal-Tile, the Dallas Parkway Hilton, the DFW Hilton Executive Conference Center, the Fort Worth Hilton and Bruce Hardwood Floors.

Taylor grew up in Cisco and Eastland, attending Cisco schools until her high school sophomore year. She was graduated from Eastland High School and Cisco Junior College. She is a former employee of the Cisco and Eastland newspapers and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Taylor, long-time residents of Cisco and Eastland, now of Whitesboro, Texas.

Karen Taylor is a graduate of New Mexico State University, Las Cruces; was a news writer in NMSU's Information Services from 1972 to 1976; created the award-winning 1977, 55-mile-per-hour campaign for Gov. Jerry Apodaca's office; and in the mid-80s was marketing public relations director of the Museum of New Mexico. She is a former state officer of New Mexico Press Women and won numerous state and national awards from New Mexico Press Women and National Press Women.

Active in Dallas advertising and public relations beginning in 1972, Taylor ran her own advertising agency, The Taylor Group, Inc., an award-winning agency from 1979 until 1985.

In the early 80s, Winslow, 34, and Taylor, 46, simultaneously served on The Dallas Advertising League's Board of Directors and Winslow is now president of the board. He is a native of Kansas City, Mo. and a graduate of the University of Missouri.

Valentine's Day

Valentine's Day is the second largest card-sending occasion in the United States. About 900 million valentines are expected to be exchanged this year, according to Hallmark.

Valentines appeal to a youthful market — children and people in their 20s and 30s are avid buyers. Nearly 65 percent of all valentines are given to relatives.

History

At least three of history's eight St. Valentines had feasts on Feb. 14. Probably the saint for whom Valentine's Day was named was beheaded on Feb. 14, which is also the pagan holiday of the goddess of love.

According to legend, St. Valentine was imprisoned for his Christian beliefs. While jailed, he cured the jailer's daughter of blindness. On the eve of his execution in A.D. 269, he sent her a letter signed, "from your Valentine," which has become the universal symbol of love.

Most likely, St. Valentine's Day traces its customs to the ancient Roman Feast, Lupercalia, which was celebrated in February in honor of the pastoral god Lupercus. At the festival, young men and women were matched by drawing names from an urn.

The earliest known valentine was a letter sent in 1415 by Charles, Duke of Orleans, to his wife while he was a prisoner in the Tower of London. Commercial valentines appeared about 1800.

Esther Howland, Worcester, Mass., published the first American valentine in 1849. Hallmark began making valentines in the early 1900s.

Today's Cards

Hallmark offers about 2,000 different valentine designs, the largest selection in the industry.

"Yesterday's Treasures," 18 classic designs reproduced from the 40,000-card Hallmark Historical Collection of antique cards, recapture the romantic past. Each design features a colophon on the back of the card, providing customers with interesting details about the card's original publication, and many of the cards include such special attachments as honeycomb and ribbons.

A new 30-card collection called "Fun and Fancy" includes elegant designs that feature such special processes as glitter, embossing and special attachments, and playful designs featuring Elmer Fudd, Tweetybird, Casper, Garfield and Mr. Rogers.

Hallmark's Shoebox Greetings offers 169 non-traditional, comic valentines this year, including one that says: "Take me out to dinner for Valentine's Day or I'll do something you'll regret! . . . Like cook Him. Ask Him to save you and make you ready for that day that only He knows; He will come and take us home. I hope and pray that you enter 1990 with Blessings, love, and above all Jesus Christ.

Implantable defibrillator that shocks a heart back into action if it stops has saved lives at the University of California/San Francisco Hospital. After four years, doctors judge the implant more effective than drugs for those with serious arrhythmias.

New drug—flutamide—that blocks the effect of testosterone on cancer cells has prolonged the lives of patients with fatal prostate cancer in trials at the University of Colorado in Denver.

Memopase seems to cause changes in women's blood, researchers at the University of Pittsburgh found. HDL levels (the good cholesterol) dropped 4 points while LDLs (the bad kind) went up 12.

More rubber-band "surgery"—Doctors at the University of Colorado and VA hospital are using the bands to tie off veins that protrude into the esophagus. Few complications are reported.

When your mother told you to sit up straight, she knew what she was talking about. Sitting up straight is one of the ways to lessen the chances of back pain while increasing back strength, according to a free publication on back pain available from Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

Many people experience back pain at one time or another, but most recover within a month or two; however, for 65,000 Americans, back injuries in 1990 will result in chronic suffering and disability as well as in long-term medical care.

Here are some other tips to prevent back pain while sitting for prolonged periods, standing, sleeping and diving:

- When sitting, push your hips back in the chair that has armrests and padded support for your lower back. The chair should allow your feet to rest flat on the floor; if necessary, use a footrest.
- Avoid bending over your desk for extended periods.
- To avoid fatigue when standing, change your posture frequently by walking, bending or stretching. Keep your knees slightly bent, and shift your weight occasionally.
- Stand erect with your chin in, head up and back straight.
- Sleep on a firm mattress, or place a plywood board between the mattress and box springs.
- Sleep on your side with knees bent and a pillow between your knees or on your back with a pillow under your knees; avoid sleeping on your stomach.
- While driving, move the seat forward to keep your knees higher than your hips.

More information on back health and on chronic back pain is available in "Managing Back Pain," a free publication available by writing to "We Care For You," Baylor College of Medicine at P.O. Box 13567, Houston, Tx. 77219, or calling 1-800-392-4444.

4-Hers Giving Initial Training To Guide Dog Puppies

Seven Labrador retriever puppies from Florida are spending the first year of their guide-dog lives with 4-H club members in East Texas.

The dogs are part of an agreement between the Smith County office of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Southeastern Guide Dogs, Inc., Palmetto, Florida.

"Most of the guide-dog organizations in the country arrange for foster families to take care of their dogs from about eight weeks of age until they are 14 to 16 months old," said Chris Bull, Smith County Extension Agent, who initiated the program. "Our effort is a pilot program in Texas requiring at least six participating families."

According to the American Federation for the Blind, approximately 1 percent of the U.S. population is legally blind. "In Texas, 198,000 citizens are blind or severely visually impaired," said Rolando Garza, public information officer for the Texas Commission for the Blind. "About 40,000 of these are legally blind and could benefit from having a guide dog."

"Currently, 10 guide dog schools produce about 800 trained dogs per year for the blind," said Julie Aichroth, puppy program supervisor and trainer for Southeastern Guide Dogs. "We have about 20 dogs in our breeding program and accept a few donated puppies each year."

Two of the puppies are in Wood County with Deborah and Sara Shipman, Hawkins; one is in Gregg County with Sissy Casper, Longview; one is in Cherokee County with Rebekah White; and the other three are in Smith County with Carlisle Brinkley, Whitehouse; Joan Chabot, Lindale; and Andrea Dupree, Tyler.

"The 4-H families that received the puppies have an opportunity to interact with very special dogs," Bull said. "These seven puppies are from a litter of 10. Past history shows this particular breeding to produce a 95 percent success rate. These dogs are very intelligent and have the right temperament to be guides."

Sara and Deborah Shipman each have a puppy to care for.

"No major problems have been encountered," Sara said. Her puppy, Clare, is a live wire. "She has a real sense of rhythm and keeps time to music with her tail."

"It has been a real challenge to have two dogs in the house," said Sally Shipman, mother of Sara and Deborah. "Their personalities are entirely different. They already weigh about 25 pounds each. The experience has been rewarding and it probably would not be difficult to talk us into doing it again. The Gladewater Library Board has given us permission to take the puppies inside the library. Cooperation has been excellent."

Deborah echoes the sentiments. "We are helping other people be able to do things for themselves," she said.

The activity is part of the 4-H dog care and training program. However, raising a guide dog puppy is a unique opportunity. Any youngster with an interest in animals can learn responsibility and basic care and management practices.

During the next year, each foster family will provide their puppy with love, safety and the socialization necessary for it to be well adjusted to any situation it may encounter as a guide dog.

After the puppies are housebroken, public exposure starts. "This is where local businesses can assist the puppy raisers by allowing them to come into buildings," Bull said. "The dogs will be wearing jackets identifying them as guide-dogs in training. They need to be exposed to many different things, including stairs and elevators."

The families of the 4-Hers who take the dogs pay for the food and receive compensation for veterinary expenses not donated. East Texas veterinarians Drs. Michael Dixon, Bill Jernigan, Jim Lovrick, Steve Wilson, Tony Lobue and Grady Ellis are donating most of the veterinary services the puppies will require during the next year.

After about a year in Texas, the puppies will be returned to Florida for more formal training. The last 26 days of training includes continuous contact with the blind people they will guide for the next

Fishing Outdoors

By Terry L. Wilson

Hawg Hunting Is Upon Us

The season is upon us folks, the hawg season that is. From year to year with different weather the mating ritual of the black bass vary. Actual successful spawning probably won't take place in area lakes until mid February thru April. But those big sows will begin moving in and out towards spawning grounds more and more now. The recent week of warm weather should spark not only the fish but the fish-ers persons too. So if you're ready, gentlemen and women you may begin casing and good luck.

As always if you catch that bragging size bucket mouth I would love to hear about it. Or ever if you just want to talk a little fishing of any kind feel free to give me a call. I'll be glad to visit with you, if I'm not out on the water myself.

It gives me great pleasure in announcing the addition of eight to 10 years.

"The continuation of the program in Texas depends upon the interest generated and grouping of puppies," Aichroth said. "To expedite transportation and coordination of the program, we like to have the puppies with families in close proximity of each other."

The 4-H members and their families have been invited to attend graduation after the dogs receive the final six months of training in Florida. Most of them are making plans for a reunion with their puppies and to meet the person who gets the dog.

"We will then have something in common with that person and know that we helped someone have a better life," said Sara.

For further information, contact: Chris Bull, Smith County Extension Agent (214) 535-0885 or Herb Brevard, Extension Communications Specialist (214) 834-6191.

After speaking with Buddy Reynolds the B. B. C. president, I feel sure we will see you all at Lake Brownwood.

All area anglers are invited to attend the February 1, 1990 meeting of the Eastland County Bass Club. Once again the meeting will be held at the Eastland National Bank Bld. at 7:30 p.m. There have been many positive changes in this organization over the years and I feel you will agree. So make plans now to come sit in and talk a little fishing. For more information contact President Tommy Maynard at 629-3550. See you there.

AUSTIN - The Christmas-New Year's holiday period was tough on some of Texas' fish and wildlife, as cold temperatures killed fish in coastal bays and further stressed goose populations hit by an outbreak of cholera on the coastal prairies.

Fishery biologists of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department are hoping that the fish kill will not be as severe as the 1983-84 freeze which was fatal to more than 15 million fish, and wildlife biologists likewise are hoping the cholera epidemic won't match the loss of 8,000-plus waterfowl that occurred in early 1989.

The magnitude of the fish kill may not be determined for several more weeks, as fish killed deeper channels are slow to float to the surface. A warming trend followed the Christmas cold snap, giving biologists reason to believe many of the cold-stressed fish were revived by the warming water.

On the coastal prairie west of Houston, and to a lesser degree elsewhere along the coast, dead waterfowl are continuing to be found and disposed of by department workers. Bob Jessen, waterfowl program leader, said total losses so far are in the 4,000 to 5,000 range, and involve mainly geese.

Disposal of affected birds, additional pumping of water into roosting areas and moderating weather conditions may combine to keep the current cholera outbreak from reaching crisis proportions, Jessen said.

POETRY CORNER

Love
by Bob Harbin
Brightly beams our Fathers mercy

As he sends to us His love
Like a shepherd that lost his sheep
In this sinful, trouble world.

Oh little child of sorrow

and trouble

Cast your eyes to the heavenly sky

You can see an artists masterpiece

As he paints the stars on high.

So when the load gets to heavy
And you never seem to get to the end

Remember that some one still loves you.

As our Jesus you still have friend.

So when the final trumpet are sounded
And the dead in Christ shall rise

Will you join in the celebration

And always have His love at your side.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,
I had information for this letter before election but somehow I didn't get it written.

When the smoke of the battle lifts, heroes and heroines remain and are sometimes recognized. The group I wish to recognize as unsung heroines are the 52 members of the Hospital Auxiliary. Through peaceful times and the time when things got hot on the battle line, these 52 ladies stood their posts. Unpaid, unheralded, and unsung these 26 active and 26 sustaining members served and have served voluntarily since E.L. Graham Hospital opened. The sustaining members, largest contribution is money; the active ones pay less dues but serve more.

Kitty McCracken, charter member, is now the statistician who keeps records of the number of hours the ladies serve. In the 18 years of the Memorial Hospital's existence, these volunteers have given, in round numbers, a total of 30,000 hours of their time without pay. Had that work been paid for at the present minimum wage of $3.50 per hour, their payment alone would have been $105,000.00. However, they worked "for free" and saved the hospital board much money.

What do they do? Hospital Auxiliary president, Pat Isbell, points out these services:

Operate hospital switchboard.

Decorate rooms, trays, and front of hospital for all holidays.

Operate hospital gift shop.

Buy and maintain large pots of geraniums at hospital entry way.

Serve as hostesses for hospital open house for hospital staff.

Make plans for the Meek Blood Bank twice yearly.

Sponsor Book and Bake Sale yearly.

Buy their own uniforms.

Pay for badges or emblems signifying their years of service.

Are a member of the Texas Hospital Auxiliary Association.

Emma Morris serves receptionist as weekly for Dr. Wheat, podiatrist.

Give all money they make for buying something the hospital needs; their last purchase was a Fax machine which transmits messages via telephone.

Mary Austin was founder of this organization in 1972.

Present officers are:

President -- Pat Isbell

1st V. Pres. - Kitty McCracken, - statistician

2nd V. Pres. - Ruth Heidenheimer - Membership

3rd V. Pres. - Janelle Schrader - Projects

4th V. Pres. - Wanda Giles - Program Chairman

During my recent stay in Graham Hospital, I was there through Christmas and New Year. On both occasions, there was a handmade card on my tray, on reading, "A Merry Christmas and speedy recovery"; the other, "A Happy New Year." A miniature wreath was on my door. Thanks, Ladies.

A hip, hip hooray! For all these wonderful women who give so freely of their time and money for the well being of our hospital and its patients.

Sincerely,
Lela Latch Lloyd

The Moran City election and Moran School trustee election will be held on Saturday, May 5. The city election will be held at the Moran City Hall and the school trustee election will be held at the Moran Community Center.

The people of Moran and community are rejoicing for the wonderful rains that fell last week. Some places received more than other places, but about three inches fell which will be beneficial to the whole area. The farmers and ranchers have had to feed the cattle all winter, now maybe the winter grass will start growing. People can start thinking about gardening and everyone will feel better. So far the flu has not raged in Moran, however several have had flu and colds. So we are all thankful for the wonderful rains.
