DEVELOPING FILM is a process which requires complete darkness while loading the roll of film into the developing canister. If the tiniest amount of light hits the film, the whole roll will be exposed and none of the pictures will be any good.

That is apparently what happened this week to a roll of film which was taken for publication in today's Cisco Press. While being developed, the film was somehow exposed and the entire roll turned out black.

I apologize to the Cisco Chamber of Commerce for this unfortunate accident and any inconveniences which may have been caused those in the photos. Those photos which can be retaken will be done so for later publication.

The film contained photos from Thursday's Economic Business Development Conference in Cisco. The photos were of the five seminars being held which included 1) Financial Assistance to Business, 2) Agriculture, 3) Assistance to Existing Business, 4) Community Development, and 5) New Industrial Development.

Also on the roll was a photo of Cisco Chamber of Commerce manager Gene Abbott and CofC president Dick Woolley talking to Bob Gallagher, West Central Texas Council of Government, and Carmon Stiles, Director of U.S. Department of Commerce in Dallas, at the Thursday Conference.

Another photo showed CofC president Woolley welcoming Dale King, District Representative for Charles Stenholm, to the Conference. Mr. King was the noon speaker since Congressman Stenholm was unable to attend the Conference.

The final photo was of the new restaurant which opened along I-20 Thursday in Cisco. CofC president Woolley and Brad Kimbrough welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hester as new members of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce with their Colony Restaurant.

Pleasant Hill Cemetery Assn. To Have Special Meet

The Pleasant Hill Cemetery Association will have a special called meeting Monday, Nov. 19, at 6 p.m. at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church.

Different arrangements must be made concerning the perpetual trust fund for the cemetery.

All interested in the cemetery are asked to attend to assist in this affair.

Eco Conference Attracts Good Crowd

The federal government has 1,315 assistance programs available to the communities of the nation, Dale King, Congressman Charles Stenholm's district office administrator in Abilene, told a Business Development and Economic Conference luncheon here Thursday.

Some 150 business and civic leaders from throughout the 17th Congressional District attended the conference at the Laguna Hotel. Six state and federal agencies had teams here to work with the visitors during the all-day meeting.

Speaking at the luncheon in place of Congressman Stenholm, who was unable to leave Washington due to official duties, Mr. King said the Council of Government was the best approach for cities and political subdivisions to seek participation in the assistance programs. The COG has a staff that is familiar with the various programs, he said. COG can supply basic information and advise anyone the best procedures to follow, he added.

The Congressman's office can best help after the application has been submitted to an agency of the government, Mr. King said.

Mr. King, who held a similar post under Congressman Omar Burleson who retired last Dec. 31st after many years in Washington, said that Mr. Stenholm "is doing well as your man in the capital." He reported that Mr. Stenholm was one of 11 of the 70 freshman congressmen who was invited by President Carter to the White House recently for a meeting.

"I am optimistic that there is trend toward more conservative government," Mr. King said. "A proposed amendment that would have required a balanced budget by 1982 was defeated recently by only two votes. There is other evidence that congress is becoming more concerned for the future."

Mr. King said that 1980 will be a political election year. "Regardless of your party, get involved," he urged. Our system, which we all regard as the best, will fail if we let it down."

During both morning and afternoon sessions, the various state and federal agencies held conferences to work with anyone interested in their particular field. The agency officials were well pleased with the good turnout.

President Dick Woolley of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce presided at the noon luncheon and introduced Mr. King.

Bucks Clinch District 9-AA Championship With 46-8 Win

The Loboes of Cisco High School were unable to stop the Breckenridge Buckaroos here Friday night before a capacity visiting crowd, as the Bucks clinched the District 9-AA Championship with a 46-8 victory. The Bucks will face Decatur next week in Bi-District action.

Breckenridge is undefeated this season holding a perfect 6-0 district record and a 10-0 record for the season. The Loboes split their district games, ending with a 3-3 record and 4-6 for the season.

The Bucks scored three times in the first quarter, once in the second quarter, twice in the third quarter and once in the final quarter of Friday night's game. They held the Loboes to only three first downs in the game while they made 19 first downs. The Bucks led at half-time 26-0.

The Loboes only score came about with 2:19 left in the game. They started with the ball on their own 20 yard line following a missed field goal attempt by the Bucks' Dale Dixon. On the first play quarterback Barton Philpott connected a pass to Mark Evatt at the 30 yard line and he carried it four more yards before being tackled. On the next play, an incomplete pass, Breckenridge was penalized 15 yards for unsportsmanlike conduct moving the ball to the Bucks' 46 yard line. Evatt then received a pass from Philpott at the Bucks' 28 yard line and carried it into the end zone with 4:26 left in the quarter. This time Dixon's PAT kick was good making the third quarter score 39-0.

The Bucks made their final touchdown of the night with 8:41 left in the game. This time a handoff to Jerry Don Slemmons from the Cisco 24 yard line got the touchdown. Dixon's PAT kick was good making the score 46-0.

Outstanding players on the Cisco defense were Forrest Starr, Mark Evatt, Audie Woolley, Steve Hopson, Gary Speegle, Sy Tabor, Tommy Green, Dean Hendricks, Tracy Owens, John Hagan, Curt Posey, Ronnie Eudy and Keith Winnett.

Standouts on the Bucks' defense were Brad Woodward, Tyn-dall Cooper, Terry Slemmons, Troy Roberson, Joe Stoker, Mike Funderburg and Jerry Don Slemmons.

STATISTICS
First downs: Cisco-3; Breckenridge-19.
Rushing yardage: Cisco--14; Breckenridge-230.
Passing yardage: Cisco--105; Breckenridge-120.
Passes completed: Cisco-6 of 17; Breckenridge-6 of 13.
Intercepted by: Cisco--0; Breckenridge-4.
Punts, Average: Cisco-6 for 42; Breckenridge-2 for 41.
Penalties, Yards: Cisco-5 for 47; Breckenridge-12 for 116.
Fumbles lost: Cisco--1; Breckenridge-1.

The Bucks scored first in the game with 8:48 left in the first quarter. Buck quarterback Brent Parker hit Gilbert Luna with a pass from the three yard line for the touchdown. The extra point kick by Mike Funderburg was good making the score 7 to 0.

The Bucks scored two more times in the first quarter, first with a pass interception by Luna at the Loboes 35 yard line which he carried into the end zone for a touchdown with 7:39 left in the quarter. Funderburg's PAT kick was no good making the score 13 to 0.

The Bucks next touchdown play was a pass from Parker to Dale Dixon at the 20 yard line with 4:16 left in the first quarter. Again, Funderburg's kick was no good making the score 19-0.

The Bucks scored once more before half-time on a one yard run by Byron Baxley with 5:35 left in the half. Funderburg's PAT kick was good making the half-time score 26-0 in favor of the Bucks.

In second half action, the Bucks scored two touchdowns within 28 seconds of each other. The first touchdown was a quarterback keep from the one yard line with 4:54 left in the third quarter. Dixon's PAT kick was no good making the score 32-0. The Loboes took the kickoff, but on their first play Breckenridge's Johnny Dean intercepted a Philpott pass and carried it into the end zone with 4:26 left in the quarter. This time Dixon's PAT kick was good making the third quarter score 39-0.

Judge Conner Earns Retirement

By Viola M. Payne
Retirement can bring mixed emotions to anyone. For District Judge Earl Conner Sr. of Eastland, his mandaback in Court, on a temporary basis, unless Gov. Clements decides to appoint someone else to fill his unexpired term. For the Judge, who is in excellent health, will remain available for further Judicial duties.

There are about 200 District Courts in Texas now, and most are larger than the 91st District, which only covers Eastland County. This Court takes certain Civil cases from the County Courts, Appellate cases, and all local criminal cases.

Judge Conner, who is slender, pleasant, and composed, seems to blend right in with the decor of the District Courtroom. There is an atmosphere and dignity about it - fine oak paneling, tall windows, a silence weighted by the past. The Judge's chamber, to the left of the main room, is lined with books defining points of the law. But the Judge can look down from its windows to a street where he laid brick many years ago. For all of his life has been closely involved with many facets of the town and community around him.

Judge Conner was born in Eastland in 1904 - right on the corner of Moss and Lamar Streets. He says he decided on the legal profession when a boy - probably because his father, Earl Conner Sr., and other relatives aroused his interest in it.

This pioneer family of Conners came to Eastland County around 1875 - supposedly from a place named Connersville, Indiana. An Uncle, Truman H. Conner, was County Attorney, and later served as District Judge. In 1898 he moved to Ft. Worth, and was elected to the Court of Civil Appeals. He was Chief Justice of the Court until he died, in 1933.

Earl Conner Sr. began his practice of law in Eastland in 1896. He also served as a special Judge in the Court of Civil Appeals.

Earl Conner Jr. also had an Uncle, J.H. Calhoun, who served as District Judge.

During the time Earl Conner Jr. grew up in Eastland his father taught him the value of faith in God, education, the law, and work with his hands. He attended the Methodist Church, kept up his schoolwork, and entered in athletic events. In his Senior High School year, in 1923, he set the State Record for the mile run at the Interscholastic League Meet at Austin. He also won the one-half mile race the same day!

During the summer he worked at various jobs, including bricklaying and oil field work. After graduation from Eastland High School, Conner attended the University of Texas at Austin, where he studied law. He was also on the Track Team, and on the Freshman Football Team.

He passed his Bar Exams, and in 1931 he came home to begin work in his father's Law Firm. His starting salary was $25.00 per month.

"This was the worst of the depression," Earl Conner recalls. "And Eastland was hard hit. The boll weevil had ruined cotton farming, the oil boom was over, and few people had any money. Some were losing their land and leaving the County - heading west. Many were having to live by sort of a barter system. It was a bleak time to begin practicing law."

"My first year in the firm was mostly spent in the collection business. I would go out in a Model T trying to collect merchandise for accounts. We would sell the stuff in Eastland, and the people who had the claims would take whatever they could get from it. It was several years before this situation really improved."

In 1934 Earl Conner Jr. married attractive Edna Day, an Eastland teacher. While he continued his work as a lawyer, she taught school.

"Her salary was $50.00 per month, paid in script," the Judge remembers. Edna Conner was a gifted artist, and particularly enjoyed painting still life pictures. She loved flowers, and often drew them with a rosy, apricot glow.

Mrs. Conner was also interested in dramatics, and in various Club and Civic projects. In 1937 the Conner bought their home on South Seaman Street, and Edna Conner utilized her talents in decorating it.

Conner served as District Attorney from 1937 to 1947, then went back into private practice. He was appointed again as District Attorney in 1958, and served until 1964. After that term he again went into private practice, but on June 1, 1968 was appointed by Gov. John Connally as Judge of the 91st District Court. This filled the unexpired term of Judge Frank Sparks. After this, Judge Conner was reelected for three terms, with his last unexpired term running until Dec. 31, 1980.

Judge Conner's wife, Edna, died in May of this year. He has two sons, Earl III of Huntsville, and Clark of Houston. There are two Grandsons in the family - Mark Conner of Ft. Worth, and Chris Conner of Eastland.

Judge Earl Conner Jr. has seen a lot of human drama come and go in the old Courtroom. Much has been serious, some tragic, and some with moments of humor. His goal as a Judge was to be fair and impartial, with consideration. He has seen the world we live in change to a more complex environment, with different sets of accepted social values. Some of these changes, he feels, have contributed to the rise in crime. He mentions the lack of employment available for young people as being another contributing factor.

The Judge has lived a full life outside the Courtroom, helping various Civic functions and working with the Democratic party. During his lifetime he has met many State and National figures in the party. When not involved with campaigns he has managed to spend some time golfing, fishing, and hunting. He also enjoys restoring antique furniture, and hopes to have more time for this hobby. He lists traveling, and visiting with old friends, as other favorite recreations. But regardless of how far the Judge travels, Eastland will always be his home. For a person can't give 75 years of his life to a place without being vitally interested in the town and its residents.

Nazarene Church Members Meet in Cisco Building

By Viola M. Payne

The one hundred Eastland County members of the Nazarene Church meet in an attractive red-brick building on 10th Street in Cisco. The Pastor is Edward O. Jackson, and the Director of Music is Loyall Lunsford. This spacious Church was completed around 1962, and combines the best features of modern and traditional styling. The Sanctuary will seat around three hundred people, and the furnishings include a fine piano, organ, and chimes. There are sleeping quarters for visiting Ministers located off the Fellowship Hall, and these are called "The Prophet's Chamber". These facilities are used frequently, for the Nazarene Church has two revivals each year - and visiting speakers between times.

The main services of the Church are on Sunday, beginning with Sunday School at 9:45. Worship services begin at 10:45. At 5:00 each Sunday afternoon an Interdenominational group call "The Concerners" meets in the Church. This unique program was begun in Cisco, and received its name from the fact that the people there were deeply concerned about the spread of Christianity, about people of all ages, and topics vital to our world today. Various interesting speakers give talks during meetings of "The Concerners". This is followed, at 6:00 P.M., by evening worship services. Other programs of the Church include a Tuesday noon prayer meeting, and a Wednesday evening prayer meeting. Communion is observed every three months, and all Christians are invited to participate.

The Eastland County Nazarene Churches have had some notable members. Among those now working in the Church are Dr. and Mrs. C.M. Cleveland. Dr. Cleveland, a long-time Youth Leader, is now the Sunday School Superintendent. In community life Dr. Cleveland is a noted Optometrist, and a Civic worker.

Although Cisco is the location of the Church now, there have been Nazarene Churches in other parts of the County in times past. Rising Star, in fact, was the place the Church was first established in this area, being the site of the merging of two groups who later united with the Church of The Nazarene. These were the "Holiness" Church, and the "New Testament Church of Christ". (A different organization from the present-day Churches of Christ in this area).

The Nazarene Church was organized in America as a result of what was called the "Holiness" revival - an upsurge of religious emphasis calling for a sanctified life worked by the Holy Spirit in the lives of believers. This movement began just before the Civil War, and spread rapidly afterward. At first Methodist Church members were involved in these revivals, then Baptists, Presbyterians, and other groups took part.

Many of the "Holiness" groups left their own Churches, but belonged to no central organization. They did a large evangelizing and charitable work among the poor, both in cities and rural areas. An Eastland County historian reports a Holiness Church in Rising Star in the late 1800's, but no detailed records of its works are available.

The Church of the Nazarene was organized in Los Angeles, Calif., in 1895. Its Charter members consisted of leaders of the Methodist Church in California, and some members of the Holiness groups. They set out to unify various independent groups who held similar doctrinal views.

A few years later Rising Star, besides having a Holiness Church, was the Headquarters of the West Texas Branch of the New Testament Church of Christ. William E. Fisher was the leader of this group. He discussed doctrinal questions at length with the Holiness Association of Texas, and scheduled a meeting between Church leaders in Rising Star in November, 1904. At this meeting, which was considered important, decisions were reached which united the two groups. This was called "The Rising Star Union", and the Church which emerged was named the Holiness Church of Christ. The groups worked under that name until 1908, when they united the Church of the Nazarene.

In the summer of 1910 the Nazarene Church held a meeting in Cisco, and organized a Church of thirty or thirty-five members. They purchased a building owned by the Northern Methodist Church (a different organization from the present-day Methodist Church in Eastland County), and this became their first house of worship. It appears that they got most of the Northern Methodist membership along with the Church building. These Charter members were joined by some other Methodists. Several families came by wagon from the country to worship with the group. Charlie Robinson was the first Minister.

In August, 1928 the Cisco Nazarene went to Eastland, cleared weeds off a vacant lot on East Commerce Street, and set up a tent for a meeting. After a successful evangelistic effort a Church was organized, with Lon R. Woodrun as the first Pastor. The group rented a store building on West Main until they bought a building on Sadosa Street. In 1946 they built a rock Church on Main and Connelley. In the early 1960's the Eastland congregation decided to merge with the group in Cisco.

A Nazarene Church was organized in Ranger in the early 1930's, but disbanded some time later. The Rising Star Church, too, closed some years ago.

Basic beliefs of the Nazarene Church can be summed up in these statements:

There is one God - the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The Old and New Testament Scriptures, given by inspiration, contain all truth necessary to faith and Christian living. Several translations of the Bible are used in religious study, but the King James version is the one preferred for use in Church.

Man is born with a fallen nature, but whoever repents and believes on the Lord Jesus Christ is justified and regenerated and saved from the dominion of sin. Belief in the "two graces" marks a difference between the Nazarene Church and other Churches. The first grace gives salvation, the second sanctification. The Holy Spirit bears witness to the new birth, and also to the entire sanctification of believers.

The sanctified life, as taught by the Church, covers all areas of living, including the keeping holy of the "Lord's Day", (Sunday). The Church speaks clearly against the use of "intoxicating liquors as a beverage, or trafficking therein; giving influence to, or voting for, the licensing of places for the sale of same; using of tobacco in any of its forms, or trafficking therein". It teaches against dishonesty in any form, taking advantage in buying or selling, or the indulging of pride in dress or behavior. The Ten Commandments are considered to be basic rules of Godliness.

The marriage covenant is considered morally binding so long as both partners live, and divorce is permissible only for infidelity. Ministers of the Church do not solemnize the marriage of persons not having the scriptural right to marry or remarry.

The Church holds to a distinct difference between Church and State, and does not believe that Church property or Church Schools should be taxed.

The Church is supported by tithes and offerings, and these funds are handled by elected treasurers. Local Churches elect various officers, and call their own Pastors. This representative form of Government is also followed in the District and General Assemblies, which oversee area and world-wide work. Local Church supply funds for Mission work in many parts of the world, including remote and undeveloped areas. The Church also supports various schools and Colleges here and overseas. The World Headquarters of the Church is at Kansas City, Missouri.

The Nazarene Church stresses that it is essentially evangelistic in nature. Anyone may be added to the Church who accepts Christ and desires to follow Him. The Church accepts persons with experiences in salvation, and baptism, from other Christian faiths. Baptism in the Nazarene Church may be by sprinkling, pouring, or immersion.

The Church speaks often of the return of Christ. "Our Lord will return, the dead will be raised, and the final judgement will take place." This time, it is felt, is very near.

But while awaiting the return of Christ, the Nazarene Church speaks of growth in grace. "There is a marked distinction between a perfect heart and a perfect character. The former is obtained in an instant, the result of entire sanctification, but the latter is the result of growth in grace. Our people should give careful need to the development of Holiness ...to the promotion of Christian graces in the heart, and to their manifestation in the daily life."

Hanna Tells Lions Club About Agriculture Tour By Texans

State Representative Joe Hanna told the Cisco Lions Club about touring Russia and several iron curtain countries as a member of Gov. Bill Clements' special Texas delegation last month in a talk at the Wednesday luncheon. Lion J.C. Fletcher was the program chairman and introduced Mr. Hanna.

Mr. Hanna, who is serving his 5th term as representative of the 54th District, was one of two legislators who were invited to take part in the tour of three weeks. Some 15 Texans, headed by the governor, studied agriculture and industry on the trip.

The group stopped first in Belgrade, Hungary, where they saw little evidence of Communism and no soldiers. Most farms were owned and operated as coops. Private farms were no larger than two and a half acres, Mr. Hanna said. The average worker's salary was between $175 and $200 monthly.

In Prague, the Texans found a depressed atmosphere with shortages aplenty. Conditions were much better in Poland and Tito's Yugoslavia where there is more privately owned land and apparent prosperity.

Sunday, November 18, 1979

In Moscow, the Texans stayed in a hotel overlooking Red Square and the 20-acre Kremlin with its many buildings. Eight million people live in Moscow which has a 100-mile subway system. They visited the 115,000 seat stadium where the 1980 Olympics will be held. They found that Moscow has 55 churches and "tolerates" religions.

The Texans visited industrial plants and saw one that turns out 60,000 grain combines yearly. They found cattle similar to Santa Gertrudas on the ranges. They visited huge agriculture centers and learned that increase grain imports from the USA and other countries has resulted from prolonged droughts.

Mr. Hanna described the tour as "very enlightening and educational."

Mike Lauch, CJC instructor, was a guest.

The Rev. Lawrence Trott of Abilene, Vic Allen of Amarillo and Ray Ash of Brady officiated. Burial was in Pleasant Hill Cemetery, directed by Bakker Funeral Home.

Born Nov. 27, 1902, in Smith County, he attended Howard Payne College and Hardin-Simmons University. He married Florris McCord April 10, 1922, in Pleasant Hill. He pastored the First Baptist Churches in Loraine, Post, Sundown and Tahoka; the Second Baptist Church of Lamesa; and Grace Temple Baptist Church in Kerment, retiring in 1963. He also was interim pastor at Monahans, New Home, Bovina and Desdemona.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Dalton C. of Eastland and Lee Wayne of Denver City; three daughters, Mrs. R.L. Buck, Estel Stewart and Maxine Gressett, all of Midland; two brothers, Henry of Eastland and Eston of Snyder; a sister, Grace Carter of Odessa; 16 grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren.

Lights From The Christian World

By Josephine Cleveland

Your comfort is in the Lord. He was a Man of Sorrows and acquainted with grief. He came into the world and overcame that we might be an overcomer through Him.

He desires you to overcome your griefs and hurts. He gives you the formula when He instructs you to, "Weep with them that weep and rejoice with them that rejoice."

Compassion, motivated by Christ-like Love brings warmth to your heart. Serve, Serve. You will find comfort and gladness as you give in service.

Abraham Lincoln burdened by events in his personal life and in the conflicts of the nation he served followed the formula Christ left for His followers.

A mother lost five sons during the Civil War. November 21, 1864, Lincoln took time from his busy schedule to write this mother.

His letter reads in part: "To Mrs. Bixby, Boston, Mass.

Dear Madam,

I cannot refrain from tendering you the consolation that may be found in the thanks of the republic they died to save. I pray that our Heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement, and leave you only the cherished memory of the loved and lost, and the solemn pride that must be yours to have laid so costly a sacrifice upon the altar of freedom.

Yours very sincerely and respectfully,
A. Lincoln"

Olden Ex Releases New Book

Just in time for the Olden Homecoming (Saturday, Nov. 24) is the release of a new book "A Tapestry of Childhood" by Bettye Vaughn Colburn, a 1952 graduate of Olden High School.

Complete with 39 photos, the book tells the story of Ms. Colburn's childhood when she accompanied her parents when they were in the Philippines after the war, where her father was an advisor.

She married Walter Ed Colburn, and she is the daughter of Mrs. George Brand, 3313 Thomas, Midland, and the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Whorton of 401 S. Daugherty.

The Colburns now live at Lusk, Wyo. Her address is Box 664, 82225.

She wrote the book so that her two children would know the story.

Arsenal Uncovered In Cisco

Forty-one weapons have been re-covered and a Cisco man is charged with felony theft.

Terry Gosnell was arrested by Eastland County Sheriff's Department shortly after 7 p.m. at his home in Cisco following a raid on the residence that netted 28 rifles, ranging from expensive large bore guns, shotguns and 22 caliber antiques. Also recovered were 13 pistols, all of high value, some collector models, along with a complete stereo system. Officers were uncertain as to how many of the guns were actually stolen but about a half dozen were known to have come from the Eastland County area.

Also assisting in the raid and capture of the merchandise were Cisco patrolmen Billy Reynolds and Louis Hollywood, Eastland County Game Warden Kenneth Payne, Department of Public Safety Troopers, Kenneth Rose, and Steve Foster, also Sheriff Johnny Morren and deputies Ben Sancillo and Gene Millican.

After the arrest bond was set in Cisco Justice of Peace Court by Judge Carlton Holder at $5,000.00. Afterwards the subject was transferred to the Eastland County Jail where he remains.

Eastland County Sheriff Johnny Morren wishes to thank all of the departments that assisted in the recovery of the stolen goods.

Estate Course Begins Tues.

What will happen to your estate when you are gone? Will it be transferred to the persons of your choice, or will it end up in long court proceedings? If you have not made adequate plans, now is the time to learn what plans you should make.

Plan to attend the Estate Planning Short Course on the next three Tuesday nights, at the Eastland County Farm Bureau Building.

County Extension Agents, DeMarquis Gordon and Janet Thomas says, "the short course has been planned because the Program Building Committee identified the need for estate planning, as a major problem in Eastland county."

Estate Planning Short Course

November 20, 27, and December 4th
7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Farm Bureau Meeting Room, Highway 80 E., Eastland

November 20: Estate Planning, Who, Why, When; James S. Denton, Area Economist-Management, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Stephenville, Texas.

Intestate succession (Death Without A Will) powers of Attorney, Community & Separate Property, Bank accounts, Certificates of Deposit; Mike Siebert, Attorney-at-Law, Eastland.

November 27: Insurance-Taxation, for estate Tax payments, Insurance Trusts, Pitfalls; Buddy Aaron, Agent Farm Bureau Insurance.

Probate, Estate Administration, Tax returns; Jim Wright, Attorney-at-Law, Eastland.

December 4: Trusts-Types, functions, Advantages, disadvantages; Tom Lang, Assistant Vice President and Trust Development Officer Continental National Bank Ft. Worth, Texas.

Wills-When, kinds, purpose, advantages, Do's and Don'ts; Virgil Seaberry, Attorney-at-Law, Eastland.

Sponsored free for public by: Eastland County Program Building Committee, and Eastland County Extension Service.

To the Editor

I doubt that I could be won to vote for Jerry Brown. Still I would listen to what he has to say, if anything. The thing that gripes me is that it seems Carter and Kennedy by refusing to let Brown in on any debate are either of the opinion that they are the only ones deserving the public's ear or they are dictating who the people have to choose from.

I just can't believe two or even three people are the only ones with what it takes to run this country and if the number is that limited it wouldn't include the ones who have offered themselves thus far.

I am certain no candidate is as good as his P.R. men say by I hope few are so bad as some we could name.

Carter made a lot of points with his boycott of Iranian products. That and restraint have been his best moves. His decision to freeze Iranian money here could, however, have some bad side effects. If other countries become fearful that any incident could suddenly get out of hand and jeopardize their investments here they may start draining off their cash as quickly as possible and in the end hurt the economy worse than if he had told them to take their money and jam it up their nose, as he did with the oil.

Some students who were sent here by the Shah and are pro-American may get tangled in the machinery of bureaucracy and if they end up in Iran God help them!

As to the Shah himself we may wonder at so many Americans like Chad Green's family going to Mexico for cancer treatment while the Shah comes here from there. All that seems clear is that cancer is about as murky a subject as politics.

Fruitcakes Available

The ladies Altar Guild Society of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Eastland has received a shipment of Benson's Old Home Fruitcakes. The sale of these fruitcakes has been an annual project of the ladies of the church for the past 37 years. All proceeds are used by the church.

Many people in Cisco, Ranger and Eastland have bought these cakes year after year because the quality of Benson's products has remained consistently high. Those who have never tried Benson's fruitcakes are invited to try them.

The three pound fruitcake is $5.00 and the two pound fruitcake is $4.25. Anyone wishing to buy fruitcakes may call in Cisco, Connie Raittan at 442-1957 after 4:00; in Eastland, Pearlina Beil at 629-1319 and Neda Housson at 629-2591 before 5:00 and 629-1314 after 5:00. Residents of Ranger may call Ruby Dawn at 647-3805. Fruitcakes may be bought anytime between now and January 1 at Cisco Florist. Also, arrangements may be made for delivery upon request.

WORD of GOD

Talk is cheaper than you think.

How to save up to 60% on Long Distance.

If you're one of those who thinks a Long Distance call is a luxury, read on. The trick to saving money while keeping in touch with family or friends is knowing when to call, and calling One-Plus.

Call between 11 pm and 8 am.

Before you groan about how you can't stay up late or see straight in the morning, think about it. You'll be saving up to 60%! If you're a night person, you probably don't start counting sheep until after 11 pm anyway. And if you've got friends and family to call out west, it'll be a perfectly civilized 9 or 10 pm when their phone rings. If you like to see the sun rise, and you know folks back east, it'll be an hour later on their end.

Call out of state anytime before 8 am and you can talk all day if you want and still save 60%. In-state calls are also greatly reduced. Just remember to dial One-Plus.

Reach out on the weekend and save up to 60%.

Now this is a stroke of good luck: a really cheap Long Distance phone call just when you may want it most. Call any time between 11 pm Friday and 5 pm Sunday and really save. For instance, dial One-Plus and you can make a ten-minute call to Atlanta for only $1.55. That's almost worth making a new friend in Atlanta for.

Even on weeknights, save up to 35%.

Sometimes you can't wait for the weekend. Or you don't want to. But you can still save plenty Sunday through Friday from 5 pm to 11 pm. Think about what a bargain it is to call someone 1900 miles away, talk it up for ten minutes, and only run a tab of about $2.00. There's just no other way to get close to a faraway friend or relative so quickly, so cheaply.

On weekdays it's still a bargain.

Here's a surprise. From 8 am to 5 pm, a Long Distance chat still doesn't cost very much. A five minute call out of state, to anywhere in the continental U.S. is only about $2.50 when you dial One-Plus. Think of how good the sound of your voice would be to a friend (not to mention your mother!) right in the middle of the day.

Stone-Gentry Wedding Vows Said At Bethel Baptist Church

Miss Kelly Lee Stone and Jackie Doyle Gentry were united in marriage at seven thirty o'clock p.m. November 17, 1979 at Bethel Baptist Church, Eastland, Texas. Reverend Gayle Baucom, Pastor of Olden Baptist Church, performed the double ring ceremony.

Kelly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Stone and Jackie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Gentry of Ranger.

The Bride was given in marriage by her father. The Bride wore a Bridallure Collection Gown. The gown was of chantilly lace with a fitted Bosque Bodice topping a boufant shirt and a high rise neckline touched with pleat ruffles cascading the gown. The neckline was accented by iridescents and tiny seed pearls. The gown had long fitted sleeves and accented by seed pearls and tiny buttons at the wrist. The boufant skirt designed within tiers of chantilly lace ruffles that fell into a chapel length train in back.

The Bride chose a Juliet head piece surrounded by seed pearls and sequins. Chantilly lace bordered the two tiered fingertip veil of Illusion ending in a delicate walking length.

Her bouquet was of a dozen yellow roses and cymbidium orchids, styled in a Hogart Fashion, accented with baby's breath and softened with tree fern.

The Bride carried out the tradition of something old; she wore a strand of pearls belonging to the groom's aunt. Something new was her dress. Something borrowed was her sister's gold bracelet. Something blue was her garter which belonged to the bride's sister. For good luck she wore a penny in each shoe dated the years the bride and groom were born given to her by the groom's aunt.

Her Matron of Honor was Mrs. Rocky Maynard, sister of the bride, of Eastland, Texas. She wore a yellow polyester organza dress that was lined in acetate taffeta and was floor length. She wore a yellow wide brim hat of braided polypropylene trimmed with acetate satin ribbon and streamers.

Her Bridesmaids were Debra Gailey of Ranger, and Kelly Gentry, sister of the groom, of Ranger. They each wore gowns identical to the Matron of Honor.

The bride's attendants carried bouquets of yellow daisies, cocoa brown pompons entwining with baby's breath and tree fern, finished with cascading streamers of yellow and brown ribbon.

The Flower Girl was Miss Betsy Herrington, cousin of the groom, of Fort Worth, Texas. She wore a gown identical to those of the bridesmaids. She carried a small yellow basket filled with daisy petals. The basket was trimmed with brown satin ribbons.

The Groom was attired in a white single-breasted Tuxedo with one button styling complimented with tails. Peak lapels were trimmed in satin and the coat was edged in white satin also. His boutonniere was a single yellow rose bud matching the Bride's bouquet.

The Ring Bearer was Mr. Bradley Kincaid, cousin of the bride of Fort Worth, Texas. He wore chocolate brown Baron Tuxedo with a yellow shirt. He carried a white heart shaped lace covered pillow with the double rings.

Doyle Gentry, Father of the Groom was best man. He wore a chocolate brown Baron Tuxedo with yellow colored ruffled shirt. His boutonniere a yellow rose bud with baby's breath. The other Groomsmen were Danny McNabb of Ranger and Larry Herrington of Fort Worth, uncle of the Groom. They wore Tuxedos identical to the best man and their boutonnières were of yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Candle lighter were Miss Becky Gailey and Miss Marsha Jacoby both of Ranger. They wore identical street length dresses and each wore a corsage of yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Ushers were Rocky Maynard, brother-in-law of the Bride, of Eastland and Jim Carruth of Ranger. They wore tuxedos identical to the Groomsmen.

The Pianist was Mrs. Flo Clark of Eastland, a long time Friend of the Bride.

Soloist was Mrs. Polly Alexander of Ranger, Texas. She sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Twelfth of Never."

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose a two piece caribbean blue floor length dress of chiffon. She wore a cymbidium orchid corsage.

The Groom's mother chose a two piece light pink floor length dress and wore a cymbidium orchid corsage.

Kathy Herrington, the groom's aunt, of Fort Worth, Texas, registered guests for the wedding.

The church was decorated with floral arrangements of yellow gladiolas, enlightened with yellow daisies and carnations, in wicker baskets, stood on both sides of the arch, which was covered with lemon leaf and decorated with yellow bows. In the background, candleabras were flanked on each side of the arch, with the unity candle in the middle. Each candleabra was covered with lemon leaves.

The Family pews were brightly colored with small clusters of daisies and streamers of ribbon.

The Bride's parents hosted the reception in the Fellowship Hall at the Church. Members of the houseparty were: Melody Norris, Donna Crabtree, Sue Pierce, Michelle Butler and Ginger King, cousin of the groom. Mrs. Joyce Eaves catered the reception.

The Bride's table was laid with a yellow cloth with a white overlay. Appointments were in silver and cut glass.

The beautiful four tiered wedding cake was topped by the traditional Bride and Groom. The tiers of cake were divided by a fountain and white love birds. The cake was decorated with yellow and chocolate brown roses.

The Groom's table was laid with yellow cloth with a crocheted overlay. The Groom's cake was a German Chocolate cake in the shape of a Horseshoe. Appointments were in silver and cut glass.

Beautiful yellow and brown rose rice bags were passed out to the guest by Miss Betsy Herrington and Mr. Bradley Kincaid.

For her going away suit, the bride chose a two piece dark brown dress. Her corsage was two cymbidium orchids from her bridal bouquet.

After a short wedding trip to Fort Worth the couple will make their home at Rt. 2, Lake Leon, Eastland, Texas. Kelly is employed by the Eastland Medical & Surgical Clinic and Jackie is self-employed and owner of Gentry Auction Company.

Pre-Nuptial Events
On November 16, 1979; the Rehearsal dinner was hosted by the Groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Gentry at Lone Cedar Country Club, Lake Leon, Ranger, Texas.

On November 3, 1979; A number of friends hosted a miscellaneous shower for the couple at the Woman's Club in Eastland, Texas.

There will be a Defensive Driving course offered at Ranger Junior College on Tuesday and Thursday nights beginning at 6:30 each night and lasting until nearly 10 p.m.

On October 14, 1979; A number of friends and relatives hosted a miscellaneous shower for the couple at the Ranger Room, Ranger Savings, Ranger, Texas.

CJC Roof Garden Dinner Theater To Present Simon's 'Barefoot In The Park'

"Barefoot in the Park," by Neil Simon, will be presented in the Roof Garden Theater at Cisco Junior Col-thanks Mrs. Wallace, for her time and effort. Last Monday the members of the Senior Center once again had a real entertainment treat. Ernest Johnson and Mae Green played and sang the old hymns. Johnson has his own welding business in Abilene while Mr. Green is employed at the Cisco Nursing Center. Both of these talented people have dedicated themselves to serving others and those who are fortunate enough to hear them understand a statement of one of the Senior members "you know Ernie sings from the depth of his heart particularly when he sings some of the spirituals."

The 80 Plus Club had its first dinner since it was organized. Over 70 people attended the "pot luck" dinner and talked about the days of old in this community and Eastland County. Each member was allowed to bring one guest, but many of the 80, or older, members drove their own car to the event.

The Senior Center would be in difficulty if it did not have all of the volunteers. Some 50 people devote hours each month in serving each other and that is what is making the program so successful. For instance each week we can depend upon Vida Killion, Billie Woods, Marguerite King, Ima Thompson, Alberta Sims, Cora Lee Thomas, Pauline Jackson or Anna Dyzel to play the piano during the luncheon! The person in charge of the luncheon programs, Annie Rendall, states she feels any organization would be proud to have so much talent.

The word gets around, when Roland Smith comes to town! Roland now owns his business, the Dairy Queen in Gorman, but still wishes to bring entertainment to young and old alike. Roland an outstanding musician and singer is welcomed with praise and applause each time he comes to the Senior Center.

The Senior Center will be closed Thursday and Friday due to the Thanksgiving holidays. Lunch will not be served Friday, Nov. 23.

The menus for the two days, this week, are:

Monday--Beef tips, macaroni and tomatoes, English peas, pudding delight, bread, butter and drink.

Wednesday-- (Thanksgiving luncheon. Reservations requested.) Roasted chicken with cornbread dressing, giblet dressing, green beans, candied yams, ambrosia salad, bread, butter and drink.

Friday--No luncheon.

lege, November 29, 30 and December 1, at 7:00 p.m. According to Marion Castleberry, CJC Drama Instructor, this will be a student-faculty production.

The directing chores have been assigned to John Mormon, a student from Sonora, and Cleatus Rattan, CJC English instructor, will play a major role. Other roles will be played by students Lisa Sledge, Rex Graham, James Josey, Gene Dye, and Nancy Mahan. Lighting and technical direction is being done by Fred Mullinax, CJC speech instructor.

Mr. Castleberry says that Barefoot is one of Simon's most humorous and well known plays. The principal characters are a young lawyer (Gene Dye) and his bride of six days (Lisa Sledge). He has just won six cents in damages for his first client, and she is as pretty and addled as they come.

The story focuses on the problems encountered by the newlyweds as they move into their new high rent apartment. It is not only six flights up, but is bare of furniture, painted wrong, and has a leaky skylight. The plot is further complicated by a rather strange neighbor (Rattan), who lives in the attic above. "It's a hilarious play that you are sure to enjoy," Mr. Castleberry said.

The dinner will feature roast Cornish game hen with all the trimmings. Tickets for the dinner and show are $7.50 each. The cost of the show only, which begins at 8:00, is $2.50. Reservations are required and may be obtained by calling 817-442-2567, or 442-2589 on the weekend.

Beil Draperies Offers Ceiling Fans

Beil Draperies now offering Ceiling Fans for economy, comfort, and decor.

While drawing on a nostalgic past, and projecting a most modern look now in human comfort, the ceiling fan gives a very rewarding performance making any atmosphere more comfortable. A small amount of air movement in an area can render any room climate more acceptable, and do it economically.

Statistics in the use of ceiling fans now show that a 7 to 10 degree higher thermostat setting for air conditioning will produce the same degree of comfort while saving approximately 7 to 10 degree of energy per each degree of higher setting up to about 30 percent, dollar-wise. The same formula works with heating at a lower thermostat setting.

In addition to the comfort, and economy offered, ceiling fans can fit any decor, and enhance any room setting. Ceiling fans can be purchased with, or without light fixtures. The light fixtures, and fans can be compatible with early American, period, or contemporary appointments.

Ceiling fans are more effective when they have the reversible feature, so that they can move air up, or down, and the variable speed can be set to the amount of air required.

Beil Draperies fans guaranteed for all lines handled. Pearlina Beil, or Jane Carter welcome you to come by, and look at their fan lines, while considering ceiling fans for your Christmas giving.

Country Club Elect Officers At Business Meet

Ronnie Ledbetter, local insurance man, was reelected president of the Cisco Country Club by the board of directors following the annual stockholders meeting at the club last Thursday night. Jack Kennedy and Letha Stafford were reelected vice president and secretary, respectively.

The stockholders elected Ilene Cotton and Louie Gilbert to the board of directors. Mrs. Cotton was reelected, and Mr. Gilbert is new to the board. Hold-over directors are Mr. Ledbetter, Ed Wende and Mr. Kennedy.

It was announced at the stockholders meeting that Terry Stephens was moving from Fort Worth to Cisco to take over the vacant job as manager of the Cisco Country Club on Nov. 16th. Mr. Stephens, 24, has been playing golf most of his life and has been in golf course work for several years. He and his wife and three children will live in the residence at the golf course.

Mrs. Stafford gave a financial report at the meeting. She said the club had a good year, finishing with some $1,500 in the bank plus special accounts amounting to some $5,000.

Reports on the past year's activities were made by Charlie Graham, golf course; Ed Wende, clubhouse building; and Mrs. Cotton, chairman of renting the clubhouse. Mrs. Cotton said the clubhouse was rented 37 times during the year, bringing in some $1,350.

More than half of the club's some 80 members were present in person or by proxy. A covered dish supper was held prior to the business meeting.

Cisco Music Study Club Holds Meeting

The Cisco Music Study Club met Wednesday morning, Nov. 14, at the Federated Clubhouse at 10 a.m. Mrs. Hal Lavery, president, presided. Mrs. S.E. Hittson was secretary.

The program was "Our 19th Century Background." The members repeated the collect. Mrs. Harry Donica discussed the life of Steven Foster, an early song writer. The story of the hymn of the month, "Come Ye Thankful People Come", was brought by Mrs. Buddy Sipe. Members sang the hymn with Mrs. Ben Krauskopf as accompanist.

The members attending were Mrs. Robert Cole, Mrs. Harry Donica, Mrs. S.E. Hittson, Ora Howell, Mrs. Ben Krauskopf, Mrs. Hal Lavery, Mrs. Donald McClenny, Mrs. A.S. Mobley, Mrs. Buddy Sipe and Mrs. Lynn Williams. The meeting was closed.

MARY CAREY

Mary Carey Speaks At Cisco Writer's Club Tuesday

Mary Carey, of Talkeetna, Alaska, and past resident of Cisco, spoke to the Cisco Writer's Club Tuesday night.

"The Fringe Benefits of Writing" was the topic that Mrs. Carey spoke on, and she told a large group from Cisco and several area towns, of the many "fringe benefits" that have come to her as a writer. "Being a reporter - writer - photographer - opened many doors for me," Mrs. Carey said.

"Alaska: Not For A Woman," was the first book that Mary wrote. The title comes from Don Sheldon, the pilot who flew mountain climbers to and from snow-capped mountains. He constantly told her that Alaska wasn't for a woman, and he would not permit her to fly Mt. McKinley with him. Of course, she persisted, and it finally paid off. She flew Mt. McKinley with him many times, photographing the climbers on the mountain, and getting stories for her column that ran in an Alaskan newspaper.

Her second book, "Fireweed Philosophy," came out in the spring. Doug Lindstrand, Alaska's noted artist, was the illustrator for the book of verse. The fireweed is a wild flower in Alaska. "When there is a fire," Mrs. Carey said, "the fireweed is the first thing to come back." Mrs. Carey and Lindstrand are working on a third book for juveniles.

CISD Trustees Hold Regular Meet

Trustees for the Cisco Independent School District met for their regular monthly meeting Monday, Nov. 12, 1979. The Board took the following actions: (1) approved the minutes of the October meeting; (2) approved the audit as presented for 1978-79; (3) passed a resolution commending Mr. Charles Clark for his service to the school district as auditor; (4) approved the payment of current bills; (5) adopted a board policy concerning the use of buses by the 4-H Club; (6) appointed a textbook committee for 1980; (7) made arrangements to relieve overcrowding in the 3rd and 4th grades; (8) approved the use of 100 percent property values to comply with state law; (9) amended the board policy concerning personnel resignations.

The Board also received reports concerning the Tax Office, school transportation and the 1980-81 UIL schedule.

The School Board meets monthly on the second Monday night at 7:30 at the School Tax Office. Members of the Board are Charles Humphries, Emmett Rich, Shirley Smothers, Roy Hathaway, Willis Parker, Donald Gorr and Johnny Cagle.

Use the Classified

Each club member was encouraged to invite a guest. Guests present counted themselves in luck to be partakers of the delectable food and friendly fellowship.

Following the meal, emcee Roy Cartee opened the program, commending the group for participating in the most unique club in Cisco.

Ruth Cartee, Senior Citizens Program Director, extended a welcome to the group and presented membership certificates to two new members, Mr. A.E. McNeely and Mrs. Maude Walker, bringing the total enrollment to 105.

Special welcome was given to a guest from Alaska, Mary Latch Carey, formerly of Cisco.

A pledge to the flag was given in unison followed by singing the "Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Soloist, Ella White sang "Oh, Jesus I Have Promised" and "The Cross is Not Greater Than His Grace" accompanied by Vida Killion at the piano.

A highlight of the evening was an interview of six club members who shared some glimpses of their years in Cisco, momentous events in their lives, and significant changes they have observed.

Mrs. Maud Bailey has resided in Cisco 52 years. Significant high mark she recalls?

Some Folks Were Skeptical When 80-Plus Club Organizing

By Vida Killion When plans were germinating to organize the 80 Plus Club in Cisco, some folks were skeptical. Would it spark enough interest to justify the venture?

On Monday, November 5, a spirit of expectancy pervaded the air and dispelled all doubts as this distinguished group arrived at the Senior Center in the Corral Room of the Laguna Hotel for the nutrition program luncheon.

Yes, they came... some with nimble step, others at slow pace, some used a cane or walker, and some were in wheel chairs. But they came.

Ninety-eight pre-registered. Seventy were present and were presented membership certificates by emcee, Roy Cartee, and Eastland County Judge Scott Bailey. The certificates were signed by Ruth Cartee, director, and Judge Scott Bailey, Senior Citizens Council President.

A special honor certificate was awarded the oldest man, W.J. Prange, 94, and Zona Buford, 90, the oldest woman, present.

This prestigious club takes precedence over other clubs in that it has no dues, no officers, plus having to be 80 years or older to qualify for membership.

The 80 Plus Club's first meeting was held Monday evening, Nov. 12, at 6:00 p.m. for a "pot luck" supper. Rev. O.T. Killion offered thanks.

Leeray in 1920 and operated until the late forties. The EWF and G, built by Ringling Brothers, operated from Hulon, south of Breckenridge, Eastland and Mangum. It was abandoned in the mid forties. Most significant change? The abandonment of the railroads in Cisco.

Congratulations 80 Plus Club! May you ever enjoy the blessings inscribed on your certificates:

"May the road rise to meet you, may the wind always be at your back, may the sunshine warm upon your face, and the rains fall soft upon your fields, may God hold you in the palm of His hand. All of these plus more, are the benefits of being a member of this elite club."

Cisco FFA Places Two Teams In District Contest

Cisco FFA placed two teams in the Big Country District Leadership Contest at Cooper High School in Abilene on Thursday, Nov. 15.

The Senior Chapter Conducting Team and Senior Farm Skills team both placed second. By placing second the two teams qualify for the Area IV contest in Stephenville on November 20.

The Senior Chapter Conducting team demonstrated their ability to conduct a business meeting with correct parliamentary procedure. They also were asked questions on parliamentary procedure.

Team members are Johnny McCaghren, Mike Woolley, Johnny Moon, Forrest Starr, Ronnie Eudy, Mike Sherman and Ken Cunningham.

The Senior Farm Skills Team demonstrated their ability to artificially inseminate beef cattle. Team members are Wade Agnew, Craig Robert and John Hagan.

The farm radio team placed sixth. The Greenhand Chapter Conducting team placed ninth.

GORDON SPOT

by DeMarquis Gordon

Peanut harvest is almost complete in Eastland County. During this Thanksgiving season, we would be thankful for the abundant harvest of peanuts and other crops in our area. Not everyone made good peanut crops, because of the spotted summer rains, but in general it is a good year.

One of the better peanut crops we saw was produced by Cowan Hutton, north of Pioneer. We saw a field of irrigated peanuts that had been dug last week by Hutton. The peanuts, on new land, will produce about 135 bushels per acre.

Congratulations to R.D. Hart, who was a state winner in the recent State Hay Show, held in Lufkin. Hart's entry of grass-legume mixture hay won second place in its division. Hart and his family went to Lufkin on November 10 and received recognition and a price of one-half ton fertilizer.

Peanut producers in 50 counties will be exhibiting their crops in November and December, in competition for the best pecans in Texas.

Each county peach show will feature about 60 different varieties, that will be graded for nut size, percent kernel, and freedom of defects.

Pecan producers will be at each show to answer questions on pecan culture and where current season nuts can be purchased.

The idea of county pecan shows began here in Eastland County 27 years ago. This, the oldest of all pecan shows, will be held December 7th and 8th, in the county courthouse.

The rapid acceptance of new varieties, such as Choctaw, Wichita, and Kiowa, can be contributed, to a great degree, to pecan shows. It's a good way for growers and consumers to become familiar with the new varieties and their characteristics.

In the pecan show, samples entered will be weighed to determine the number of nuts required for one pound. This can range from 32 nuts per pound for large Mohawk, to 80 nuts per one pound for the small varieties.

Percent kernel is also measured. The Wichita variety can be as high as 62 percent kernel, while Stuart, at its best, will only be 49 percent kernel.

In addition to size and percent kernel, pecans are graded for freedom of insects and disease, blemishes, uniformity, and kernel color. A total of 43 nuts of any variety constitutes an entry in the show. The pecans entered must have been grown in 1979 and be entered by the person or family who produced the pecans. Native variety seedlings and improved varieties may be entered in the show. A grower may bring one entry of each variety, and as many different entries of natives as he chooses. All entries become the property of the Pecan Growers Association. Winning entries will be sent to the regional pecan show. Ribbons will be given to exhibitors who have first, second, and third place entries. Trophies will be given to the exhibitor of the champion shelling pecan, champion in-shell pecans, and champion native pecans. There will be a class for the smallest pecans.

Both, commercial pecan growers and yard tree growers in Eastland County and surrounding areas are encouraged to enter pecans in the county show. There will be no county pecan show in Comanche County this year, and growers from that county have been invited to enter pecans in our show.

Start selecting pecans for the show now. These should not be put in air-tight containers. They need to dry; therefore, put entries in paper or cloth bags.

There is no better place to view a wide range of pecan varieties than at a pecan show. Consumers can see high quality pecans on exhibit and can then determine the type of pecans

THE FACE OF the man wearing a City of Cisco water department uniform looked familiar. And it should have because it belongs to Mr. Bobby Ingram.

Bobby retired Sept. 31st as a veteran of more than 20 years in the U.S. Army. An appropriate retirement ceremony was held for First Sergeant Ingram at Fort Sill, and he hastened to Cisco to join his wife and two children who have been living here for the past year or two.

During his military career, Bobby had two tours of duty in Europe, two in Korea, one in Turkey and one in Vietnam. He has a chest full of medals and ribbons. Bobby is the son of Lake Patrolman C.H. (Cats) Ingram and the late Mrs. Ingram. He was born and raised here.

The biggest difference that Bobby notices between military and civilian life is that he has changed from being a supervisor to being supervised. He likes his city job and is happy back home. His wife works over at the Longhorn Cafe.

LOOKED IN AT the Colony Restaurant out on IH-20 Friday and found them open for business and going full speed. They opened up Nov. 15th and figure to have an official opening in the near future.

The Colony, which was built by the Bill Hesters, has a nice dining room plus a private dining room suitable for meetings, luncheons and the like. The kitchen features stainless steel equipment. Two familiar faces are Ruby Owens and Cindy Dunahoe, both long-time local restaurant workers. The Hesters are operating their new business, which is a credit to our community.

DR. AND MRS. H. Chief Brown paced up and left out early Friday for Houston where the Cisco Mayor joined Hotel Man Eric Hilton and others in receiving a Knighthood by the Sovereign Military and Hospitalier Order of Saint George in Carinthia. This considerable honor was conferred on Dr. Chief and Mr. Hilton "for dedicated services to man."

It was a very formal affair and a coveted honor. Hopefully, The Press will have additional information plus pictures for publication soon.

VISITING IN our town last Monday until Thursday was Mr. P.H. (Pete) Kelly of Houston. He is the chief petroleum engineer for Exxon USA, and he was here visiting his parents, the Jack Kellys. Jack is a retired Exxon official.

Jack and Pete enjoyed golf at the Cisco Country Club last Wednesday. It was the first time Jack had played in five months as he has been recovering from surgery. He'll probably be back shooting his age soon.

INSURANCE MAN Ronnie Ledbetter enjoyed a big game hunt in Colorado last week with a couple of friends from Breckenridge. Understand he's still eating last year's venison.

Photographer James Cotton went into a local business firm the other day. When he opened the door the plate glass somehow was shattered. James volunteered to make repairs. A few hours later, he got a telephone call. "The glass is here and ready to be put in," he was told. And he helped put it in.

OUR SCOUTS report that Frank Stamey, grandson of the O.L. Stameys, is a junior student at Cooper High School in Abilene and is a math wizard. He comes by it honestly for his grandmother, Mrs. OLS, taught math in high school for many years. His dad, Joe Stamey, is a prof at McMurry College. Donald Gorr of our town is an independent gasoline wholesaler. With the coming of cooler weather, we note that Dr. E.E. Addy is wearing his beret again. What was it his sister said about him wearing a beret?

THE ALFORD folks, who are building the convenience store out on West 8th Street, have 127 of them - 125 more than Cisco's Jammie Fry, we overheard somebody say. Understand the Alfords are also building new stores in Eastland and Ranger and they'll all be open soon. . . . Golfer Bennie Nichols, a championship class player hereabouts, was visiting his brother over in Dallas last weekend. The brother lives in an apartment house below Bobby Nichols, nationally known golfer on the pro tour. They noticed the trash cans contained a golf bag that Bobby Nichols had discarded - a beautiful bag with hardly a scratch on it. You can see the bag when you watch Bennie Nichols play at the local course.

SPEAKING OF golf, O.L. (Rob) Robinson, local retired gent who devotes quite a bit of time to the game, fired a one-under par 33 at the Cisco course last Thursday. This was his best score - two strokes better than his second round of 35.

Guess we'll be seeing Rob's name as the captain of scramble teams in local tournaments. . . . Rob and Charlie Graham killed a rattlesnake at the golf course the other day. . . . Saw Tommy Broyles, Abilene CPA and son of Mrs. Rosa Lee Broyles of Cisco, on Channel 9 TV the other night. He was being interviewed about the recent refinery fire there.

MRS. SUTTON Crofts of our town likes to work crossword puzzles. Twice lately she has been working puzzles that had a blank place to be filled in by answering this: "— and Crofts, musical duo." And she got the right answer both times. Their son, Dash Crofts, you know, and his partner, Jimmy Seals, are nationally known TV stars and night club entertainers. . . . Postmaster and Mrs. Louie Gilbert expect their three sons and wives and five grandchildren here for Thanksgiving weekend. The Gilberts are getting ready to move into the nice mobile home at their 10-acre piece of land out on the Rising Star Highway around December 1.
