Schroeder Rites Were Held Tuesday

Albert Schroeder, 73, passed away Sunday night, April 13, at 11:45 o'clock in Memorial Hospital, Clovis, of a heart ailment. Mr. Schroeder was admitted for treatment Friday morning, April 4.

Funeral services were conducted at Lariat Lutheran Church Tuesday, April 15, at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. Wedig. Interment was in Oklahoma Lane cemetery.

The Schroeder family have lived northwest of Muleshoe since 1925.

Mr. Schroeder was born August 7, 1873, in Warrenton, Texas. He was married October 14, 1894, to Anna Lorenz, at Giddings, Texas. To this union were born five children, two boys and three girls, of whom one boy and one girl died in infancy. The family lived at Giddings until 1908, when they moved to Headrick, Okla., where they lived until 1925 when they came to their present home.

At the age of 20 Mr. Schroeder became a member of the Lutheran church and has always been a worker. He has always enjoyed good health until the last few years.

His wife and children have been with him all the time he was in the hospital. He was partially conscious until the end.

He is survived by his wife, Anna; one son, Gus Schroeder, Headrick, Okla.; two daughters, Mrs. Louise Mills of Muleshoe; Mrs. Esther Brooks who lives with the family, six grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Other survivors include two brothers, who were with him during his last illness; Martin Schroeder of Mantou, Okla. and Fritz of Giddings; and many other relatives and a host of friends.

Mr. Muleshoe

This scribe likes to live in a small town. He is just a small town boy, I reckon. I attended the annual Press Association convention held in Amarillo last week end with my wife and behold not once was I accosted on the street by a fellow citizen and asked to buy coffee. No one hollered, "Hey there, Forbes, you neel, where you going?" The people passed me up with respectful silence. Some didn't even look in my direction. I spoke to one man and thought he would like to call a cop. Seriously, how does one live in a big town, where everything is hustle and bustle, and where the main object and aim of everyone seems to beat the other fellow to a taxi cab or into an elevator. Their preoccupation with their own affairs discourages familiarity. Me, I like to live where people speak to you every time they see you, if it's ten times a day; where I can walk home if I choose; where life moves along a little more leisurely, yet where business seems to get transacted anyhow. I guess I am just a small town boy.

Eternal vigilance, my fine feathered friend, is the price of liberty. Every individual has to be on the alert to be really, personally free. And every people has to be vigilant to get free and more vigilant to stay free. April 21, we celebrate the anniversary of the day when Texans proved to the world that they intended to get free and to protect that liberty forever. On this subject, I picked up the following paragraph, swiped it from San Antonio:

"Just as the American Declaration of Independence did not in itself obtain that independence, that of the Republic of Texas on March 2, 1836, was followed by a series of battles to implement it. Many of these battles were disastrous for the small groups of Texas settlers involved. On March 6 the last of the 386 Texans in the Alamo was slaughtered by the attacking enemy, which had itself lost more than 1,000 of its 8,000 professional soldiers. The Mexican Army then moved to Goliad and killed the garrison of 300 there after promising them freedom on parole for surrendering. Other smaller groups met similar fates until the Mexican Army clashed with Houston's force of 800 Texans near the present site of Houston. In the battle at the junction of San Jacinto River and Buffalo Bayou on April 21, the Mexican Army and General Santa Anna were captured. The remainder of the Mexican Army, which had not been with Santa Anna at the time was driven out of Texas."

Muleshoe City Commission Tuesday awarded the city paving contract to Panhandle Construction Co., of Lubbock, which submitted the only legitimate bid. Since the bid was lower than the engineer's estimate, it was accepted. This is the firm which has just completed improvements and additions to the water works and sewer systems here.

The contract calls for construction of about 22 blocks of paving in the city of Muleshoe, and for the construction of curbs and gutter along 42 blocks of state highways.

Total amount of the contract given Panhandle was $89,812.50.

Property owners will pay for curb and gutter along the state highways that are to be widened. The state highway department will pave the strips between the present paving and the curb.

It is understood that the two jobs will be done simultaneously.

Attending the bid opening session of the commission Tuesday were Mayor Julian Lenau and Commissioners Mat Dudley and Ray Edwards.

Benton's Formal Opening Saturday

Formal opening of the Benton Food Market here is set for the coming Saturday, April 19, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Benton, owners, announce.

They have extended an invitation to everyone to visit the store that day and become acquainted with the new management.

During the entire day they will serve free coffee and doughnuts. The Bentons recently moved to Muleshoe from Sudan, buying the grocery formerly known as Bullock Grocery & Market, on Main street.

John Adrian is in charge of the meat market and John Shaw is a clerk in the store.

DYER AND PROSPECTORS VISIT PUEBLO, COLO.

C. L. Dyer of the R. L. Brown real estate agency left Muleshoe Wednesday morning with two prospectors to view lands listed by the firm around Pueblo, Colo.

The two local men accompanying Mr. Dyer are C. M. Baker and Jack Julian, both farmers residing near Muleshoe.

Egg Shortage Is Predicted

Every sign today points to a shortage of eggs and poultry next fall. The Journal was told this week by J. Clyde Taylor, hatchery proprietor of Muleshoe.

In an advertisement in this issue of the paper, Mr. Taylor has pointed out some of the factors which are bound to have a bearing on egg and poultry prices in the coming months.

Two months ago, Mr. Taylor said, and even 30 days ago, nobody would have believed in a shortage. Folks were talking of an egg surplus. The Government said it would support the price of eggs.

"What has happened?" Mr. Taylor asked.

"Eggs are disappearing as fast as they are laid. And far too few baby chicks are being started to meet the demand for poultry and eggs next fall."

"Poultry experts don't need a crystal ball to predict this coming shortage and high egg and poultry prices. They just look at cold facts recently released by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to tell the story."

Mr. Taylor believes that this year to start chicks might give a yield for a dollar a dozen fall, in the opinion of marketers. But chicks will have to be started soon to be ready to lay that will sell for one dollar a hen.

Funds For Relief Of Storm Area Collected Here On Voluntary Basis

Voluntary subscriptions to the fund for relief of the storm stricken area will be handled in Muleshoe at the Berry Electric. Tom Berry of that firm is one of a committee named by the Chamber of Commerce and Lions Club to accept funds. J. M. Forbes and Charles Lenau were other members.

Many people have been asking where or to whom they might send their contributions and the two organizations felt some central place should be selected and the money collected there and forwarded. Checks should be made to "Panhandle Storm Relief," and handed in at Berry Electric or given to either of the above named persons.

Funds so contributed will be used for rehabilitation purposes, it was said. Other agencies have provided aid for more immediate needs. Panhandle communities outside the storm area have contributed more than $100,000 to this fund.

Leo Baker, chairman of the Bailey County Chapter of the Red Cross, said this organization would send a check for $150. The congregation of the First Methodist Church of Muleshoe Sunday gave $191 to assist in rebuilding the Methodist church and parsonage, destroyed there.

Many members of the Lions Club wrote out checks for the fund during their meeting Wednesday.

Judging Team In First Place At Dairy Show

Muleshoe high school's FFA dairy cattle judging team won first place in the judging contest held at the Panhandle - Plains Dairy Show in Plainview this week.

Muleshoe's win was remarkable inasmuch as the local boys had never before entered such a contest. Seventeen teams competed, and Muleshoe beat out the defending champions of Tulia high school, veteran judges.

The team was composed of Cecil Mardis, Hoshall Thomas, and Dean Williams.

The Muleshoe group placed several of their animals in the show to make it a very successful trip indeed.

Ernest Ramm was in fifth place in the club show with his Jersey heifer, and fourth in the open classes.

Cecil Mardis, showing the club bull, Welcome Volunteer Standard, was in 4th place in the open show in this bull's class.

In the county group, showing 4 heifers, Muleshoe's boys were 4th. Seven counties competed. All of the Voc. Ag. class attended the show Monday and watched the judging. F. W. Jones and Edward White accompanied them.

Charlene Black, Bailey County's princess was among the top ten in the Dairy Show pageant held Monday night. She was escorted by Donald Bryant.

BAILEY COUNTY COUPLE HONORED AT PLAINVIEW

Charlene Black, princess from Bailey County at the Dairy Show in Plainview and her escort, Donald Bryant were selected in a group of ten couples for seats of honor in the pageant held there Monday night. It was a signal honor for the local young people and all are mighty proud of them.

Cancer Discussed By Dr. Green

Dr. M. F. Green of the Green Hospital & Clinic was speaker at the regular luncheon Wednesday of the Lions Club, giving his hearers a few highlights on cancer in the club's observance of National Cancer Week, sponsored by the American Cancer Society. Glenn Rockey program chairman, introduced the speaker.

By far the most common form of cancer, Dr. Green said, is that of the skin. Twenty to 25 per cent of the men attending this meeting would, by the law of averages, have to consult a physician some time about this form of cancer, so prevalent it is.

Cancer represents a change in the growth of body tissues, he said. While experts still argue about the cause of cancer, they agree that some of the causes are x-ray and irradiation, soot, working around aniline dye, repeated burns or bruises. The sex hormone plays a prominent part in the development of the disease, the doctor said. Blondes are more susceptible to skin cancer than are brunettes.

Hereditarily does play a part in determining whether the individual is susceptible to cancer, Dr. Green believes. The next common form of cancer is that of stomach cancer in men and cancer of the uterus or breast in women. And while he would not say that tobacco causes the dread disease, figures do indicate that the increase in cancer of the lungs of women parallels the increase of smoking among women.

Dr. Green urged that early attention be given to cancer symptoms, such as weakness, loss of weight, etc. A competent medical authority should be consulted at once and many forms of cancer may be cured if proper therapy is used.

Pat Bobo, Leon Boss, appointed Tom Berry and J. M. Forbes to work with Charles Lenau of the Chamber of Commerce in working out plans for collecting volunteer subscriptions to the storm relief fund. Lions present gave over a hundred dollars. It was decided that all money collected will be turned in at Berry Electric to be forwarded to the proper committee in the storm area for distribution.

Bill Moore reported that the Flying Wrestling Circus sponsored by the Lions was well attended. The club realized $197 from the entertainment. Moore said the club now has about $300 of the $500 necessary to carry on their planned summer youth recreation program. During the luncheon two Lions kicked in with checks of $25 each. Donations from merchants of balls, bats, or other athletic equipment were authorized by the club and Supt. Cunningham said the athletic club will give a bunch of baseballs to the program. The club's summer program will be inaugurated with an "All Kids Day" entertainment May 20.

Snow And Rain Left Moisture Of 1.19 Inches In Muleshoe Country

The Muleshoe country received moisture totaling 1.19 inches in the snow Saturday and the rain Monday, R. J. Klump, weather recorder said.

Snow fell most of the day Saturday, melting as it fell, and left moisture of .44 inch. Rain Monday fell slowly throughout the day and added .75 inch.

Farmers said the moisture, falling as it did, penetrated the soil, very little of it getting away. Not in recent times has such a season been in the ground just before planting time.

Wheat already looked good. There was a good season in the ground all through the winter. Now it will really hump. Planting likely will get underway in some quarters as soon as the ground is dry and warm.

There are indications that a large acreage will be planted to cotton this year in Bailey County, where the drought of the last two seasons has almost eliminated cotton from the farmer's program.

Santa Fe Helps In Storm Area

Officials and employees of the Santa Fe Railway earned widespread commendation from organization officials in charge of relief in the Texas Panhandle-Oklahoma tornado torn areas.

A special train carrying medical supplies from Waynoka to Woodward was one of the first relief trains on the scene. It carried 27 more seriously injured to Waynoka for hospitalization. Courier Nurses from the Scout worked throughout the night in an emergency hospital set up in the First Baptist Church at Woodward.

Scores of employees of the Railway at Woodward, Glazier, Higgins and Coburn were injured while a cook employed by the Hanlin Supply Company serving a construction crew was killed at Coburn when the tornado swept work cars off the siding.

WEST CAMP H. D. CLUB "The important thing in the pruning of landscapes, as in everything else, is using good common sense," said Mrs. Laurette Williamson in her demonstration on The Pruning of Landscapes. This meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Joy Jones on April 9.

Retirements of punch and cake were served to: Mesdames Susie Smith, Ethel Sheriff and Lloyd Stephens, guests; and to the following members: Mesdames Beulah Williams, Sis Cummins, Sylvia Couch, Wilma Austin, Naomi Austin, Bonnie Williams, Ethel Harding, Lee, McLarty, Snider and the hostess, Joy Jones.

After our business meeting and the demonstration a surprise pink and blue shower was given Mrs. Guy Austin.

We were very happy to have our old friend and neighbor, Mrs. Susie Smith visit our club. Mrs. Smith visited her daughters, Mrs. Guy Austin and Mrs. Parton Austin last week. Come again, Mrs. Smith.

We also had other familiar faces as our guests, as well as new ones, whom we wish to welcome at all times to our club meetings. Among these were Mrs. Ethel Sheriff and Mrs. Lloyd Stephens. We were happy to have three new members added to our club. These were Mrs.

Lt. Harry Abrams of the U. S. Navy and Mrs. Abrams visited here first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cox. The two men were shipmates during the war aboard a carrier. Lt. and Mrs. Abrams were en route to Honolulu where he will begin a tour of duty.

Chevrolet Builds Millionth Car

Detroit—With the assembly of its 1,000,000th postwar vehicle today, Chevrolet Motor Division became the first single producer in the auto industry to build a million vehicles since the war, it was announced here today by Nicholas Dreystadt, general manager of this largest General Motors division.

The unit, a 1947 model sedan, was produced in the Janesville (Wis.) assembly plant, one of nine across the country whose combined output has established numerous postwar production records for Chevrolet, including first-quarter output of more than 250,000 vehicles and a March total of 101,107 units, making Chevrolet the first producer to build more than 100,000 cars and trucks in a single postwar month.

Completion of a new assembly plant in Flint, Mich., in the near future and of a similar plant in Van Nuys, Calif., next fall, will further augment the Chevrolet production potential, Mr. Dreystadt pointed out.

With approximately 8,000,000 Chevrolets on the road today, Mr. Dreystadt added, Chevrolet represents approximately one-fourth of all motor vehicles in the service of the American motoring public.

BAILEYBORO 4-H CLUB

The Baileyboro 4-H Club met April 8, 1947.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Marie Knowlton.

The roll was called and everyone was present.

The minutes were postponed as the secretary did not have with her.

A business session was then held and Miss Evaline Dreadin was elected vice president.

Then we learned how to shampoo our hair and take care of it. This was discussed along with the subject of general grooming.

CORRECTION

In naming personnel of the new Benton Food Market this paper inadvertently mixed up the names Johnny Adair and Johnny Adrian. Everybody knew better except the editor, who apologizes. Mr. Adrian is in charge of the market department.

Dainty Feminine Star and Chalk Faced Clown present a sharp contrast to the gigantic bulk of Babylon, huge elephant with C. R. Montgomery Wild Animal Circus.

Elephant Is Useful To Circus In Both Work And Entertaining

Not the least among the attractions with C. R. Montgomery Wild Animal Circus coming to Muleshoe, Wednesday, May 7, is the rough, rugged and ready elephant.

An elephant is indispensable to a circus in more than one way. Elephants symbolize the circus more than any other animal, and certainly no circus would be complete without an elephant.

But they also earn their daily "wages" of hay and peanuts by an entirely different form of service. In setting up the circus, they do double duty by hoisting the heavy canvas of the big top, rolling wagons into place, and being generally useful wherever power is needed.

Likewise they lend a helpful push or pull after the night show and in pulling stakes when the tented city is folded and loaded for the movement to the next day's town.

Whether entertaining her public in the menagerie, or pulling a mired wagon off a muddy lot on a rainy night, Babylon, the huge C. R. Montgomery pachyderm is equally obedient and dependable.

Babylon shares honors in the C. R. Montgomery Wild Animal Circus with a variety of other wild animals and domestic trained beasts, these together with an amazing assemblage of outstanding circus stars and celebrities make up this modern circus. Performances will be given at 2 and 5 p.m. with doors to the menagerie opening one hour earlier to allow ample time for a leisurely inspection of the many strange beasts here assembled from the four corners of the earth.

Dr. Wallace P. Martin of Clovis, assistant surgeon at the Santa Fe hospital there the last three years, Monday announced his retirement, effective May 15.

Tech Engineers Hold 15th Annual Show

Lubbock—Thousands of visitors are expected at Texas Technological College April 18 and 19 when engineering students and faculty hold the Fifteenth Engineers Show and Home Economics Division holds Eleventh Annual Open House.

Designed to acquaint the general public with the type of specialized work taught in these fields, the events are scheduled to coincide with the Region I Interscholastic League meet in Lubbock.

Both divisions will maintain scores of continuous exhibits as well as a number of special demonstrations to be held at intervals throughout the days.

Engineering Division exhibits include amateur radio stations, cotton fabric production, transmission of voice and music on a light beam, industrial plant layouts and designs, apparatus for intensive testing of metals, machines and fabrics, and numerous other displays from the eight engineering departments, the physics department and the ROTC. Mechanical engineering shops will be open to guests who will see small machine parts in the various stages of production.

Featuring the newest in home-making techniques, the Home Economics Division will present fashion shows and educational movies, demonstrate modern electrical home appliances, show time savers in food preparation, sewing hints, solutions to interior decoration problems and aids for homemaking teachers. The nursery school will be open, as well as the Home Management House, a model home on the campus where groups of students live for nine weeks periods to gain actual practice in managing a household.

Region I Will Hold Annual League Meet At Texas Tech College

Lubbock—Plans for the Region I Interscholastic League meet to be held at Texas Technological College April 18 and 19 have been announced by Dr. Earnest Wallace, director general. Around 800 contestants drawn from approximately 130 West Texas towns are expected to compete. Winners will represent Region I in the state meet in Austin May 2 and 3.

All contests will be held Saturday, April 19, except tennis. In accordance with Interscholastic League rules, it is not possible to complete tennis play in one day. All tennis contestants are to report at the Tech Gymnasium to draw for places at 1:30 p.m. Friday. Preliminary play will begin immediately, with the semi-finals slated Saturday morning and the finals Saturday afternoon.

Schools are directed to certify eligibility of contestants qualifying for regional competition immediately following the district or area meet. One act play entries should be sent to Miss Annah Jo Pendleton at Tech on the day the winner of the district or area meet is announced. All casts should be at the college by 8:30 a.m. Saturday unless otherwise notified.

Those entering debate, declamation, typewriting and slide rule contests are to report at 10 a.m. Saturday. Track and field preliminaries are also scheduled at that time on the college athletic field, and golf will begin then at the Lubbock Country club.

Shorthand and number sense contests are scheduled at 11 a.m. Ready writing contest will start at 1 p.m., extemporaneous speech at 1:30 and Spanish at 4 p.m.

Delegates from towns near Lubbock are urged not to plan spending the night here unless they arrange for their own lodging, because of the critical housing situation. The Lubbock and Hilton hotels are reserving a few rooms for contestants in which they will place several cots and charge one dollar each.

League officials are making an effort to secure a number of rooms in private home for contestants and sponsors who do not wish to stay at a hotel. Those desiring officials to arrange lodging in private residences should notify Dr. Wallace at the college as soon as possible.

Region I extends to Oklahoma on the north, New Mexico on the West, includes Lamesa on the South and Spur and Paducah on the East.

Baccalaureate Sermon To Be Given By Dr. Grant

Lubbock—Dr. J. Ralph Grant, pastor of the First Baptist church of Lubbock, will speak at the 21st annual baccalaureate services at Texas Technological College. Services will be held at 8 p.m. June 1 in the college stadium.

United States Attorney General Tom C. Clark will deliver the commencement address the following day and will receive an honorary doctor of laws degree from the college.

Dr. Grant, who held pastorates in Beaumont and San Angelo before coming to Lubbock last September, has written numerous articles for church publications and is well known as a speaker throughout the state.

Myron Pool was in Dallas over the weekend on business. He reports wonderful wheat and oat crops all the way and said flowers were in full bloom there. "That part of Texas certainly has on its best dress now," he said.

DRY FEED NOT HARMFUL TO CATTLE

Lubbock—Cattle are not likely to bloat when grazing pastures of alfalfa or alfalfa and grass mixtures if the pastures are completely dry and animals are full of dry feed when they are turned in, and if stacks of dry feed are available in the pasture, according to W. L. Stangel, dean of agriculture at Texas Technological College. Dean Stangel suggested that cattlemen start initial grazing about noon on a sunny day and watch the animals for signs of bloat at first. Cattle may then be left on the pasture, but if they are taken off, the entire procedure must be repeated before grazing begins again.

PRICES HIKED ON USED KITCHEN FATS SALVAGED

Proving that the new high prices being paid for used cooking fat is important food budget money, the amount of salvaged kitchen fat being turned over to the meat dealer is double what it was when the ceiling was four cents a pound. Retail prices now paid for used cooking fat throughout the country range from 8 to 16 cents per pound, depending upon the geographical area. February collections totaled 11,966,000 pounds, compared with 4,545,000 pounds in October, the last month that OPA price ceilings were in existence. "Meat is more plentiful now and helps account for the fat salvage collection increase of 164 per cent over last October," points out the American Fat Salvage Committee.
