

'Queen' To Kick-Off Centennial Activities

To "kick-off" the beginning of the Cisco Centennial activities, the Centennial Queen, and her attendants will be announced Monday evening at the Corral Room. A "pot-luck" dinner will be held at 6 p.m. Monday, April 13, and the announcement will be made concerning the lady who was elected queen for the centennial.

The queen, and her attendants, will be at least 75 years of age, and have lived in Cisco 50 years or longer.

Mrs. Ruth Cartee, director of the event, stated "we will have a short program but the highlight will be the introduction of the elected queen and her attendants."

Mrs. Cartee stated the drinks will be furnished for the dinner, but everyone should bring their own plates and silverware, and at least two covered dishes.

CISCO KID CAR WASH
3rd St. and Ave. E
Where Most People Wash. Wash your vegetation blinds, throw rugs, motor.

We will also have our concession stand open serving homemade tamales, tacos and nachos. There will be soft drinks and ice tea. There will be tickets on sale at the local merchants good for one taco or tamale. The money we raise is used for equipment for the kids, and various improvements. Last year we raised money for our concession stand. The kids worked real hard and it was quite an achievement.

This year we are real pleased that we have 11 teams formed. We are quite pleased with the response we've had. There are still openings on the teams, if there are any kids interested in playing softball. The coaches of the teams have permission slips available. If interested, please contact Delores Maserang, 442-3280; Lola Cozart, 442-1912 or Brenda Harrison, 442-3421.

I hope everyone will come out and support these kids. Help celebrate the Centennial!

Celebrity Due as Diorama Opens New Section for Old Testament

The Kendrick Diorama, which depicts life-like scenes from the Bible, will open a new section devoted to the Old Testament this coming weekend and a celebrity will be on hand to herald the event.

The celebrity is Sugar, the nine-year old camel that has become a star attraction at the Kendrick Egg Farm, located midway between Cisco and Eastland on Highway 80. A grown female, Sugar makes frequent public appearances over the state and region.

The Diorama, created by the Kendrick family, is located in a huge building adjoining the amphitheater where an annual Easter pageant attracts many thousands of people. Opened some five years ago with a dozen New Testament scenes, the Diorama has enjoyed good attendance. The guest register has been signed by people from virtually every city in Texas, every state in the union, and from nine foreign countries.

Phil (Shorty) Kendrick of the family took Sugar to Abilene last week for an appearance on Channel 12 television, advertising the upcoming Easter pageant and the Diorama. She was in the studio during the interview, and another tv interview is scheduled next week at Odessa.

The program is a talk show with Phil presenting slides as he tells of the pageant and Diorama. The camera often focuses on Sugar who seems a real part in the program.

Public appearances are not new for Sugar. She was in Dallas last January when a big insurance company held a conference for salesmen from five states. Sugar was engaged by a Fort Worth multi-millionaire last Christmas for a Yuletide party, and she appeared in Christmas costume and colors.

Pier One Imports, a franchise gift chain, has hired Sugar on several occasions for store openings in the Dallas and Fort Worth area. Martin Industries of Fort Worth recently announced a new $150 million dollar contract with Saudi Arabia and Sugar, a native of Arabia, was on hand for the firm's president's birthday where the contract was announced.

Just before Governor Briscoe left the state's highest office, he had Sugar in Austin for a gathering of prominent people. And she did such a good job that Sugar was invited the next week to Uvalde to help Mr. Briscoe's daughter hold a unique party.

Mr. Kendrick said they had five camels at one time but four of them left for homes in zoos, leaving Sugar behind. She appears in the Easter pageant in Biblical scenes and in other shows at the amphitheater. Sugar is due to meet a boy friend later in the year and, perhaps, there will be a blessed event at the Egg Farm.

Meanwhile, Sugar enjoys life in a 10-acre grass field with two donkeys for company. The three animals, all veterans in Kendrick programs, are good friends and stay together. Camels live 40 to 45 years, so Sugar appears to have a bright future in the entertainment field.

The new Old Testament section of the Diorama, built over several years and after much research, is expected to add considerably to the appeal of the center to visitors. New IH-20 signboards have resulted in a lot more people stopping there.

The new section has some 15 Biblical scenes, all taken from the Old Testament.--JWS

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,
By the time this letter reaches the press, the city election will be over. I hope that the losers in the election will be able to accept their defeats, and the winners their victories. Also, I hope that the candidates will realize this is truly what the citizens of Cisco want. We now know that we have some people in Cisco with a lot of energy to use towards the growth of Cisco. So far, this energy has been used in a very negative way. Most, maybe all, of the candidates claim to be Christians. Lets pray that they make a stand for Christianity and for what Jesus Christ lived and died for--Love and unity.

Sincerely,
Gary D. Fink

JUST A LITTLE BOY
He stands at the plate with heart pounding fast.
The bases are loaded; the die has been cast.
Mom and Dad cannot help him, he stands all alone.
A hit at this moment would send the team home.
The ball meets the plate; he swings and he misses.
There's a groan from the crowd, with some boos and some hisses.
A thoughtless voice cries out: "Strike out the bum."
Tears fill his eyes; the game's no longer fun.
So open your heart and give him a break.
For it's moments like this, a man you can make.
Keep this in mind when you hear someone forget.
He's just a little boy, and not a man yet.

Thank you,

Officials Expect Special City Election To Be Held May 23rd

A special election for City of Cisco voters to select a new mayor and four councilmen to replace those recalled in last Saturday's regular city election is expected to be held on Saturday, May 23rd, city officials reported Friday morning.

A special meeting of the City Council was scheduled for 7 p.m. Friday, and the agenda called for newly elected Councilmen Ivan Webb and Bobby Ingram to be given the oath of office to succeed retiring members Lucy Collier and Raymond Whitley.

The agenda also called for a canvass of the election results and for selecting a date for a new election.

The attorney general's office told city officials to select a suitable date and to report this on Monday to the Secretary of State in Austin. Arrangements will then be made for the Governor to issue a proclamation to call the election. This was the legal procedure as determined in recall situations by the attorney general's office, city officials reported.

Mayor Roy Cartee and Council Members Louise Allison, Jerry Jeffcoat, Harold Phippen and William J. Eudy will remain in office until their successors are elected, the attorney general ruling said. They were expected to attend the special meeting and next Tuesday night's regular meeting when regular business will be transacted.

Citations Served In Election Case

Citations in a 91st District Court suit styled Louise Allison and Roy V. Cartee vs. Marilyn S. McLean, or her successors in her capacity as city secretary of Cisco, and Alvin C. Warren, in his capacity as election judge for the City of Cisco, were served Friday morning by Deputy Sheriff Ben Sancillo.

The suit was originally filed in mid-March by an Eastland attorney, representing the plaintiffs, asking for "a temporary restraining order, temporary injunction and permanent injunctive relief," in connection with a recall election scheduled in Cisco for April 4th.

going against the plaintiffs, the suit was believed to be moot and the citations Friday came as a surprise to some observers. Mr. Cartee had been quoted in newspapers that he would no longer pursue the matter. Mrs. Allison, however, indicated that she might look into it further.

It was believed that City Attorney William B. Wright, Jr., would represent Mr. Warren and Mrs. Ginger Parker, acting secretary and successor to Mrs. McLean. The defendants have 20 days in which to answer the suit in the 91st Court, after which a hearing will be held.

Judge Jim Wright declined to issue a temporary injunction, citing a 1949 Texas Supreme Court ruling that district courts could not interfere with elections.

After the election, which resulted in recall verdicts

In the petition, Mrs. Allison and Mr. Cartee, alleged a defective recall petition with insufficient signatures to qualify for an election in accordance with Sections 29 and 31 of the city charter.

The plaintiffs further alleged the recall petition "was materially altered," and that explanations of the basis on which certification was made were ignored.

The plaintiffs further alleged that the recall election caused them to suffer irreparable harm and damage.

The plaintiffs asked damages "and for all other relief, both special and general, either in law or in equity, to which plaintiffs may be justly entitled, and for its cost of suit."

Faith Baptist Church Sets Revival Service

Revival services will begin Sunday, April 12, and continue through Friday, April 17, at the Faith Baptist Church, 409 West 11th Street, Cisco. Evangelist will be Mike Orsini of Strawn. Services will be at 7:30 nightly except for the Sunday evening services which will begin at 7:00.

The Faith Baptist Church is temporarily meeting at the West 11th street location and their plans are to begin construction on their new sanctuary in the late summer.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public for each of the services.

Since the election has already been held, it was believed that the original petition would need to be amended.

City Attorney Wright said the prospective court action would not interfere with plans for calling a new city election.

Agape Sunday School Class To Meet Thurs.

The Agape Sunday School class of Calvary Baptist Church will hold their monthly business meeting on Thursday, April 16, at 7:30 p.m. at the church.

Each lady attending should bring a snack. Secret pals will be revealed and new ones will be drawn.

Business will be conducted and all members of the class need to attend.

Cisco Softball Association To Meet April 13

The Cisco Softball Association will meet Monday, April 13, at 7:00 p.m. in the First National Bank Community Room.

All parents, players and concerned citizens of Cisco are urged to attend this open meeting. Anyone interested in helping the Cisco youth in this summer activity may contact one of these officers: Henry Masserang, 442-3285; Lola Cozart, 442-1912; or Shirley McCoy, 442-1743.

Can You Name The Persons Shown?

GORDON SPOT

By DeMarquis Gordon

We have had several calls and visits each day concerning problems with peach trees. The leaves on the trees are thicker and take on a grotesque, rubbery, almost artificial-looking appearance.

This is a fungus disease known as a peach leaf curl. This organism lives in the bark and in years when there is no rainfall during bloom it is not a problem. However, this year we had rain during the first three days of March when peaches were in bloom. Therefore, the peach leaf curl is a real problem.

The infected leaves will discolor from a green to a yellow, to a red, in these disfigured areas. If the disease is severe enough, it can also attack the small fruit and cause premature abortion, or loss of fruit.

Once you see this peach leaf curl problem it is too late to do anything about it. These leaves will soon drop off and by mid-season you can't tell that the disease was present. The fruit that is left will be fine.

The time to control this disease is during the winter when the tree is fully dormant. Kocide 101 should be applied to the trees early in the year prior to any bud swell. At this time, the disease has progressed to a stage too far to worry about control. We must think only about next year.

Too many of us, gardening simply means growing tomatoes. A few tomato plants in the backyard garden can be a fascinating and rewarding adventure or they can be a disaster. Sickly tomato plants which produce few, if any fruit, certainly do not help the gardening spirit. Some simple advice might help those growing tomatoes for the first time and perhaps even increase yields and satisfaction for you experienced gardeners.

First, you should not attempt to grow tomatoes unless they can be placed in an area that receives sunlight at least 6 hours a day. They will grow with less light, but simply will not produce much of a crop if placed between tall shrubs, beneath trees or between buildings.

Secondly, soil that has been well prepared and properly fertilized is essential for good growth and high yields. Poor soils can be improved with liberal amounts of organic matter and proper fertilization. A dark, heavy clay or even a fine sand can be improved by working 3-4 inches of organic matter and a small amount of fertilizer such as 10-20-10 or 12-24-12 into the area where your tomatoes are to be planted.

Variety selection is of utmost importance and is one of the keys to growing tomatoes successfully in Eastland County. Spring Giant, Terrific Big Set, Better Boy or Bonus or the small-fruited Small Fry are excellent for Eastland County.

Transplanting guidelines discussed earlier apply for tomatoes. Something that you should do is use a starter solution when planting tomatoes to insure adequate fertility during early stages of growth. Starter solutions can be purchased at local garden centers or they can be made at home by mixing one or two level tablespoons of a complete fertilizer in a gallon of water. Pour about a cup or so of the starter solution into the transplant hole prior to planting.

For best results set transplants in your garden on cloudy days or late in the afternoon. Space plants at least 3 feet apart in the row and 3 to 4 feet apart between rows. Protect plants from adverse conditions such as high wind and excessive heat for a week or so after transplanting.

Stake, trellis or cage all tomato varieties for best results. I highly recommend using cages to support plants. Cages are nothing more than cylinders of concrete reinforcing wire, hog wire or similar material used to support plants and keep fruit off the ground. Make the cylinders 18 to 20 inches in diameter and from 2 1/2 to 5 feet tall. Concrete reinforcement wire is readily available and is generally considered best for tomato cages. It usually comes in 5 foot widths, and a 5 1/2 foot length will make a tomato cage about 18 inches in diameter. The cage can be held together by bending or crimping the wire ends around one of the vertical wires.

Place cages over plants shortly after transplanting. One plant per cage is recommended. To provide support, cut off the bottom ring of the cage so the ends can be pushed into the ground. You may want to support cages with wooden or metal stakes to keep them from falling over later in the season. The great thing about caging is that

by Michelle Lindsey
Stories about local youngsters who enter the "big time" are always interesting and the story of Debra (Debbie) Smith runs true to form.

Debbie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith Sr., former Eastland and Abilene residents, and now of Yoakum, Tx. Her maternal grandparents are Ruth Carey of Cisco and the former Lane Carey. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Smith of Eastland.

She was born July 1, 1956 in Eastland. This is where she lived until she was about three years old. Her family then moved to Abilene, where Debbie graduated from Cooper High School in 1974.

In 1975, she traveled to Fukuoka, in southwestern Japan to spend her college sophomore year as an exchange student at Seinan Gakuin University. Debbie states "I returned in June 1976, but my ten months in Japan made me anxious to go back."

Debbie did return, in June 1979 to go to work for an English language edition of the top Japanese newspaper, the Ashai, as part of her graduate work.

The Associated Press, Tokyo's largest news agency, hired Ms. Smith as a reporter and editor in February 1980. She handles copy from Tokyo and other Asian bureaus. The Tokyo bureau is Asian headquarters.

In between her first trip to Japan and her return she worked for the Abilene Reporter News for two summers and in the first six months of 1979. She stated "I enjoyed working as a reporter in my hometown, covering the police beat and writing news and feature stories."

In 1977 she graduated from Baylor University in Waco, with a Bachelor of Arts; journalism major. In 1979 she received her Master's in International Journalism from Baylor.

Ms. Smith speaks Japanese but continues her study weekly with a private teacher. According to Debbie, Japanese is one of the hardest languages because it has different words depending on the person's age or rank, and women must use the most polite form.

She says, "Since there are few women journalists in Japan, sometimes officials and company spokesmen are not used to hearing questions in such formal language. But I find that most people are helpful and informative, regardless which language (Japanese or English) I use."

Debbie makes her home in Western Tokyo about forty minutes by subway from her office. She states "few people use cars for everyday use since gasoline is $2.50 per gallon and parking is limited."

Her apartment is in a section where there are trees, which is rare in Japan. She had to purchase her own light fixtures and water heater upon renting her apartment, of which she had to pay four months rent in advance.

Comparing our prices to those of Japan we should feel quite fortunate. Coffee is $1.00 a cup, eggs with ten in a box sale for $1.50, ground beef is $5.00 a pound. A half loaf of bread is $1.00 but it is fresh baked. One Hershey bar is 75 cents to $1.00 and a can drink (1/2 of our size) is 50 cents.

Debbie recently flew back to the states and was in Eastland County visiting her family which also includes aunts and uncles, Lula Mae and Harvey Basham, Ray and Leta Carey of Eastland, and Roy Lee and Wanda Smith of Cisco.

During the week of April 6-13 she was in New York City at the Associated Press general headquarters (home office).

Then its back to Japan, Debbie's home now.

District Clerk R. Lane Resigns

Dear Judge Wright

It is with the deepest of regret, but after many weeks of very serious thought, that I hand you at this time my Resignation to the Office of District Clerk of Eastland County for the 91st District Court, effective May 15th 1981.

Judge Wright, in connection with my resignation, I would appreciate having a complete Audit of my Receipts, Disbursements and Bank balances from January 1, 1979 through May 15, 1981 for the benefit of yourself, the people I have tried to serve and myself.

I want you to know, that I deeply appreciate having had the Privilege of working with you both as an Attorney and as Judge of this court.

Your understanding and courtesy, plus a word of encouragement and a thank-you Roy, so often, has inspired me to try a little harder, to render the kind of service that you as Judge, and the people who elected me, so rightly deserve.

I am sure that you are fully aware of the harassment that I have had from the withholding of my checks, to my inability to show the Commissioners Court the need for some additional help and obtaining same, is the sole reason for my resigning, and I trust, that these same things will not happen to my successor.

Again may I say thank you, for the encouragement you have given me, and please be assured that it has been a pleasure to work with you.

Respectfully Submitted,
Roy L. Lane, Clerk
91st District Court
Eastland County, Texas

TO OUR MANY FRIENDS AND THE CITIZENS OF EASTLAND COUNTY, TEXAS

It was with the deepest regret and after many weeks of serious thought, that on April 3, 1981, I handed Judge Jim Wright my resignation as your District Clerk, effective May 15, 1981, and I feel I should take this method of letting you know why I have decided to leave the office before my term is out.

As many of you know, we have had a steady increase in the oil business in this area and when you have more oil business in any area you have more legal litigation in the court, this coupled to an increase in our crime rate has caused a large increase in the work load in this office, one that could not be kept up with the limited help that I have had. The type of work which we do in this office affects all of our citizens and cannot be done when it should be, and I feel that you the people are not getting the kind of service you so rightly deserve or the Judge or the Attorneys who handle your cases are not being helped the way they need to be. In this connection I believe the records in THIS office will show that not only has the work load increased but that the revenue from same has increased for more than enough to take care of some additional help; however, even with the increase in revenue I have been unable to convince the Commissioner's Court of the need or the importance of our being able to get the work out, this being the prime reason for my resignation.

Another reason for my resignation was brought about by on several occasions, while all other County Employees and Officials were being paid regularly, my check was held up by the County Auditor, simply because I did not and could not, due to other press court work, have my report in by the time she thought it should be in. This my friends has been going on for the past two years and she says that she gets her authority from the District Attorney, who has refused to get an Attorney General's Opinion in this matter, not only for me, but other officials in the Courthouse. I am thoroughly convinced that he knows that he is wrong or he would not be afraid to get an opinion. This harassment I believe is more than you expect me to be subjected to.

May I say thanks once more to all of you who have placed your confidence in me and been so much help to my family and myself over the years that I have been privileged to know and serve you. Your friendship has helped us more than we can ever tell you.

I know Judge Wright will appoint someone to fill out my term that will serve you well and I have enjoyed working with Judge Wright very much.

Respectfully,
Roy L. Lane

Cisco volunteer firemen answered two alarms south of Cisco during the past week. On April 3rd, a small barn burned two miles from town. The loss included some 200 bales of hay.

A grass fire on April 4th on the Walter Hall place nine miles south on Highway 206 burned off pasture land and threatened an oil well for a time. News From The Center

By Mae Green

We think that spring has finally made it because the residents are beginning to sit out on the patio and enjoy the sunshine and fresh air, when they're lucky enough to catch the wind and dust settled. They are looking forward to being able to sit on the patio everyday.

CJC Singers To Give Programs

The CJC Singers will present student assembly programs in four area cities next Tuesday to advertise Cisco Junior College, Director Wyley Peelles reported. The group of some 20 young people will leave at 8 a.m. and present 45-minute programs at Breckenridge, Eastland, Goldthwaite and San Saba. Pianist Stephen Zell of the CJC music department faculty will accompany the group.

Land Band paid their monthly visit to the Center this week, singing many favorite country and western tunes and many songs of faith. We had quite a few visitors that came to enjoy this very talented group with us. You're always welcomed. We enjoy seeing new and familiar smiling faces. We appreciate others who come by or call asking what they can do to be of service to our residents. This is wonderful because we serve God by serving our fellowman.

We are so very happy to have all of our residents back home from the hospital. They are Houston Wink, Charlie Hibbert, Willie Walker, Jodie Gibbs, William Huestis and Lela McBeth.

We are so thankful for having volunteers to come to the Center on a weekly basis. This gives the residents activities to look forward to. It would really be boring if no one had anything to look forward to. Wouldn't it? God bless all of you for caring.

Homemaking Hints

By Janet Thomas

Why haven't American consumers seen many new kitchen appliances during the past two or three years? While some people might like to theorize that manufacturer's aren't as smart or as imaginative as they used to be, a more accurate explanation is the national economy.

The soaring cost of raw material (steel, silver, plastic) makes the risks of new product development much greater. New product failures cost companies a lot of money which brings the stockholders lower dividends and the consumers higher prices.

Consumers are also sending very definite signals to the manufacturers. Today's consumer attitude is - No More Gimmicks! In the 1960's and early 70's gadgets or "fun" speciality items filled a consumer need and they could afford them. Consumers are now buying basic products - basic toasters, basic blenders, basic toaster ovens, basic mixers and basic coffee makers. Consumers do not want appliances that are used twice and then put in a closet. And because consumers really use the appliances, the quality has to be higher.

Consumers are also demanding more multifunction appliances rather than the many single use appliances which had their heyday in the 60's and 70's.

Electronics or semiconductor "chip" technology will continue to influence the appliance industry. Electronic controls permit manufacturers to combine appliances that would not be possible with previous technology and at a lower overall cost such as the electronic food preparation center by one manufacturer. This appliance is the result of combining a mixer, blender, and food processor in one appliance.

The January housewares show in Chicago presented a few items for consideration. One company has attempted to combine the benefits of convention cooking into a small table-top appliance the size of a slow cooker. The fan located in the domed lid circulates the heat and supposedly reduces the cooking time.

The manufacturers of the kabob maker have introduced a smaller version suitable for two persons. Another manufacturer offers a potato baker. One manufacturer was offering an electronically controlled hair dryer (it senses heat variations and makes adjustments automatically to avoid burning the scalp.)

In general, there has been an upgrading in quality of housewares and appliances as well as an increase in consumer price.

Baling Wire & Memories

by Audrey Parker Brooks

The obscene word painted in bold black letters on the bridge railing high above the base of the dam, emphasizes the total decadence of a spot once hailed as "the show place of West Central Texas."

Across an adjoining washed-out road, rock-bordered hiking paths, overgrown with cactus and weeds, wind around a small hill. At the bottom of the hill a rock and concrete bench, with the initials "DAR", sits and waits for hikers who never come.

Guarding a huge, empty swimming pool is a burned out tree, its charred branches seeming to beckon to the nearby flock of roosting vultures. Lake Cisco, Texas - 1981 nearly a half century after its heyday ended. And what a heyday it was! But the once beautiful site has not aged gracefully. Its demise has not been pretty.

The pool, once acclaimed as the world's largest made by man, now is nothing more than a concrete-lined hole in the ground. It has no more glamour than an abandoned trench silo. Stems of dry grass protrude at awkward angles through cracks in the aging concrete. A stagnating puddle from a recent rain is the only water in the pool.

The high slide, part of 1930's pool decor, is long since gone. The low slide remains in the deserted pool, rusting into obscurity. The remaining two chains on the swing dangle listlessly in the chilly breeze. The life-guard's chair is a resting place for an occasional bird. Nothing more.

The pool, actually two pools, 700 feet long and 300 feet wide, was located directly below the Lake Cisco dam. The first pool was the standard depth. In the southeast corner was a small wading, or child's pool. There should be quite a few senior citizens around who had their very first "swim" in that little wading pool.

The second, much deeper pool, had concrete sides with an earthen bottom. It boasted two diving platforms - a high one and an extra high one. The boards of both are rotting and crumbling. The earthen bottom of the pool is waist high in dry grass.

Gone is the bath house that stood at the pool's south edge. Burned to the ground many months ago, only the charred tree and faint outline of a foundation are left to remind one of the halcyon years of the past.

Not long ago I stood at the edge of the old swimming pool and remembered the way it was. Once again I heard the gleeful chatter of bathers as they splashed in the big pool. On the second floor on the bath house roller skaters careened around the gigantic hardwood-floored room. A room that had been built to accommodate the big bands of the 1920's and 30's and the dancers they attracted.

I looked across the gullied road to the hill with its weed-grown paths. I remembered how beautifully landscaped it once had been. I have a picture of Lucion and me standing in one of the well-kept paths. Beside me is an elephant ear plant taller than I. At my feet are beds of flowers phlox if memory serves me correctly.

There was a zoo among the rocks on the hillside. Not a big one, true but an interesting one. In one of my pictures a sleek, alert lioness gazes through the bars. The day is sunny and the zoo pens are spick and span.

Each year there was a special fourth of July show at the lake. Occasionally a carnival would compete with the swimming pool and roller rink. Everybody for miles around attended. Cars were parked from the highway to the park area.

One year Duncan Renaldo, who played the title roll in movie's "The Cisco Kid" was the headliner. That was the year the late Mel Sandler directed a miniature water extravaganza. And always there were fireworks.

There was a bandstand. A miniature golf course. Shaded picnic tables. The Cisco State Fish Hatchery with its twenty pools, was located directly east of the swimming pools. Water drained in a constant stream from the lake through the swimming pools into the fish hatchery.

Very little of that scene remains. The fish hatchery has been closed for at least a quarter of a century. When State Highway 6 was re-routed, most of the picnic area went into the new travel route. The little golf course stands in lonely abandonment.

The beautiful spot that once attracted scores of family reunions and high school classes from all over the area, no longer exists. The landscaped hillside and small zoo are only memories. When the time of severe water shortages developed, the big pool was closed. Without that super pool, the park where so many of us spent warm Sunday afternoons, has languished into weedy obscurity.

Darrell Holt Heads Gun Safety Agency

DARRELL HOLT

Darrell Holt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Avery Holt of Cisco, was recently named hunter safety coordinator for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's volunteer hunter safety training program. He works in the Austin headquarters of the state agency.

Mr. Holt's promotion was announced on the retirement of T.D. Carroll who was the program's first coordinator and a 30-year veteran with the department. Mr. Holt had been the assistant hunter safety coordinator for some nine years.

A native of Cisco, Mr. Holt is a graduate of Cisco High School where he was a football star. He attended Cisco Junior College and Tarleton State University before going to Texas A&M University where he graduated with a BS degree in Wildlife Science in 1968.

Following graduation, Mr. Holt spent three and a half years as education specialist for the South Carolina Wildlife Resources Department before joining the Texas agency staff in 1971. His work includes teaching and lecturing on gun safety throughout the state. He often participates in such programs in other states and was due for appearances this month in Denver and Baltimore.

Mr. Holt is married to the former Bennie Kay Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cole of Cisco and they have two children, Stephanie, 12 and Scott, 8. Mrs. Holt and children recently visited relatives in Cisco, and they are due back here April 18 as Mr. Holt plans to hunt turkeys in this area during the spring season.

The Holts live at Lockhart where they own their home.

WANT ADS

Senior Citizen's Nutrition Menu

According to the College of Home Economics of Texas Tech University, "a great many elderly people are prime targets for ads that offer get-rich-quick schemes, cure-all pills, ointments, etc. and quick profits on investments. They also, most often, fall prey to slick, fast talking salesman and who offer once in a lifetime bargains, an opportunity they can't afford to pass up."

The report from the University continues to state, "These are the types of salesmen that cannot stand an investigative check and these are the ones that should be investigated thoroughly."

Many of these ads concern health claims, income schemes, lands in the sun, home improvement rackets, books and magazines, and charity solicitations, among many. Be sure and check out each claim that sounds "just too good" to be real.

The Center had excellent programs during the past week and they included: Jack Robinson, who sang old, old songs while accompanied by Carolyn Ingram on her guitar; and Wyley Peebles singing old songs that are appropriate for the Centennial accompanied by Stephen Zell at the piano. The menus for the week are:

Monday--braised beef, tossed salad, buttered squash, fruit cocktail, bread, butter and drink.

Wednesday--swiss steak, stewed okra, new potatoes, yellow cake, bread, butter and drink.

Friday--oven fried fish, creamy cole slaw, potato rounds, sliced peaches, bread, butter and drink.

P.A.C.E. Racing Pigeon Club News

On April 5 our birds were released from Monahans, TX, "A" birds at 7:00 A.M. and "B" birds at 7:30 A.M. Taking first in the "A" race was Floyd Frady with a time of 1150.972 yards per minute. Second place went to yours truly with a speed of 1147.255 yards per minute.

In our "B" race Lee Preston of Stephenville took first, for the third time this season, with a time of 1230.774. Floyd Frady was in the number two spot with a time of 1146.629.

Some people have asked how we keep track of our birds or how can we tell them apart. Some people think all pigeons look alike. This is no more true than saying all cows look alike or horses or dogs or pigs or even people. Each pigeon I own is an individual that I can easily identify. I have raised a few pigeons in the last 24 years and no two have ever been alike. We also band our birds with an aluminum band that has the year that bird was hatched and his number. The band is required if a bird is to be raced. This band is usually put on the bird when it is six to eight days old. For example, a band might read (AU81PACE502), the AU stands for the American Racing Pigeon Union of which our club is affiliated. The 81 tells you the bird was hatched in 1981. PACE is the name of our club and the number 502 is the bird's personal number. This is an example of the kind of band our club uses. If you ever find a bird (dead or alive), please let me know. The owner will be glad to know this information.

IWU Reflections in Perspective

By I. Will Ussery

In several of his stories of the British soldier serving in the Indian Army (actually British Colonial Forces stationed in India) Kipling compares a regiment of bachelor soldiers, far from home and womenfolk with a class of girls in Mrs. Priddy's Grammar Schol. The stress of separation, together with difficulty of adjustment to a totally bachelor life sometimes has strange effect on men stationed far from home. The same may be applied to men on construction projects in far-flung corners of the globe. And Das Island was indeed a "far-flung corner".

Now Bob Rogers (not his real name) was an extremely well-skilled, efficient craftsman and middle-grade supervisor. And Bob was posted to Das Island early on in the setting up of our project there. And while Bob was known to have had a very close, perhaps even intimate relationship with bottled spirits of the grain, we were not fully prepared for him in the condition in which he stepped off the chartered DC-3 which brought him from Bahrain International Airport to Das Island. He didn't know whether he was on a lump of volcanic ash in the Persian Gulf...or in Navasota.

His almost total dis-orientation didn't appear to bother Bob a great deal. Greeted; guided through a cursory procedure of filing with the local immigration authorities (actually a matter of recording his name, passport number and classification with the personnel department of the Oil Company), Bob was escorted to his quarters in the Staff Camp and was deposited in his room in the barracks. In almost the same length of time that it takes to tell it, Bob had located the Staff Club, where alcoholic beverages were dispensed at ridiculously low prices. The bar had just closed, which occurred each working day at three in the afternoon. And Bob was complaining to the man who found him slouched on the bar stool that "This beer joint works mighty funny hours. Don't see how it can make any money closing in the middle of the day". Bob was talked to, much as a mother would speak to a recalcitrant child. And then it was observed to Bob that he didn't appear to be in the best of health.

Yielding to the power of suggestion for an excuse or explanation of his condition, Bob admitted that he was indeed suffering from what was perhaps an attack of the vapours. He's not been feeling althogether first-rate for several days.

Actually, we wondered how he'd been able to manage the transfer from one flight to the other in London. And Bob agreed willingly to a visit to the "dispensary" which the Oil Company maintained on the island.

Mike Bailey was Chief Medical Officer and held sway over the fully-equipped and -manned six-bed hospital. And a more highly qualified industrial physician it has never been my pleasure to know. In addition to being a highly qualified doctor of medicine, Mike was a psychologist who knew the workings of the mind of the working man. And he'd had his share of dealings with men who'd sought refuge from their loneliness by taking to the bottle.

Checking Bob Rogers over very thoroughly; Mike came up with a frightening diagnosis. Bob unquestionably had an ulcer which was only moments short of perforation, and must be hospitalized, but immediately. Bob went along with Mike. He was frightened stiff! It must have been something that had been given to him in the food aboard the airlines on which Bob had been travelling for the past two or three days. Bob agreed. And to bed he went, under what proved to be heavy sedation.

When Bob Rogers awoke from his deep sleep some twenty hours later, Mike told him that he could leave the hospital. But he must go to his quarters, take the medication which Mike was giving him in the form of huge, vile-looking capsules, and for three days eat only soft foods a list of which was provided. Bob agreed, meekly. And just as he was departing Mike's office, Bob was called back to the desk. "Now, Mr. Rogers, there's one warning I must give you. I don't know whether or not you're a drinking man, but this medication without which your life is in serious danger is one which absolutely, under no circumstance whatsoever will mix with alcohol. One drink while you're taking this medicine, and the effect will be fatal...and almost instantly. Just though I should warn you, in case someone insists you take a drink with them".

Bob protested insistently that he only rarely took a drink, but that he would heed the good doctor's warning, for which

Fund Drive To Benefit Shrine Burn Institute

A fund drive to benefit the Shrine Burn Institute was being conducted in Eastland County by the Cross Timber Shrine Club this Saturday (April 11), according to Bailey Stark of Houston, club president.

Special buckets were being used at some stores and restaurants to collect contributions to the fund. In Cisco the buckets will be at Dean Drug on Saturday, April 11, and at the Colony Restaurant on Saturday, April 11, and Sunday, April 12.

Three hospitals for treatment of burns are operated at the Shrine temples of the nation. A hospital at Galveston is supported by Moslah Temple Shrine at Fort Worth and a dozen other Texas Shrine temples, Mr. Stark said.

Mr. Stark and W.E. Dean of Cisco attended a meeting at the Fort Worth Temple Thursday night. The program was devoted to the Saturday fund drive to benefit the hospitals where burn victims receive treatment without charges.

An educational program is being conducted by Shriners throughout the nation to eliminate fire hazards around homes where an average of 15,000 persons die each year in fires, Mr. Stark said.

Anyone interested was invited to leave a check with Shriners or to drop contributions into the special collection buckets in Eastland, Cisco, Ranger, Gorman and elsewhere in the county.

Faith Baptist Revival

April 12 - 17

Revival services will begin Sunday, April 12, and continue through Friday, April 17, at the Faith Baptist Church, 409 West 11th Street, Cisco. Evangelist will be Mike Orsini of Strawn. Services will be at 7:30 nightly except for the Sunday evening services which will begin at 7:00.

The Faith Baptist Church is temporarily meeting at the West 11th street location and their plans are to begin construction on their new sanctuary in the late summer.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public for each of the services.

Don Haney to minister at Haven of Faith

Pastor Mike Boland of Haven of Faith Church located at Main and Connellee in Eastland invites you to a special concert this Sunday evening April 12, at 7:00 p.m. Ministering in song will be Don Hal Haney of Dallas, Texas. David Wilkerson, author of the best selling book, The Cross and the Switchblade says, "Don Haney is an excellent gospel singing artist...organist, and man of God. Don has ministered as soloist with the World Action Singers from Oral Roberts University and enjoys a good reputation throughout the country. Don loves to sing about the Savior."

For Don Haney, the world is his workshop. He has traveled extensively and ministered to capacity crowds wherever he goes. Countries hosting Don's ministry in song include: Israel, Finland, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Northern Ireland, England, West Germany, Holland, Switzerland, Italy, Greece, Haiti, and Canada.

In 1968 while traveling with the World Action Singers of Oral Roberts University as their featured baritone soloist, Don went behind the Iron Curtain and held services in Tallinn, Estonia, U.S.S.R. Don's secret meetings with members of the underground church while in Communist Russia and his actual consultations with those who have been "tortured for their Faith", has left an indelible mark of COMMITMENT and SERVICE upon everything Don does.

In 1973 Don received an appointment from David Wilkerson and joined the David Wilkerson Youth Crusades as crusade associate and organist. In Don's two years of ministry with the Crusade he sang and played to over 1/2 million people.

For many years Don Hal Haney has been a favorite minister of music and featured soloist in numerous convention, conferences, sacred concerts, and teaching seminars across the country. Traveling from coast to coast and to foreign lands...Don's ministry is to glorify Jesus. His singing is something the entire family will remember and enjoy.

Pastor Boland invites all the people of this area to come and share in this very special time of worship through music.

Mr. Davis was born December 31, 1910 in Chocoma, Oklahoma to Samuel A. and Laurah P. Davis, early residents of Eastland County. Mr. Davis married Cleo Carlisle April 8, 1930 in Albany, Texas. He operated an air condition business in Austin, Texas before returning to the Davis homestead on the Breckenridge Highway in 1952. The last few years he was a rancher and an independent oil operator.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Richard Schmidt (Katherine) of Austin, Texas, Mrs. W.H. Baker (Melba) of Pascagoula, Mississippi; one son, Jerry Kent Davis of Cisco, Texas; two brothers, Samuel Andrew Davis, Jr of Cisco, Paul R. Davis of Seymour, Texas; two sisters, Mrs. Happy Smith (Katherine) of Odessa, Texas, Mrs. Joe Williams (Oressa) of Austin, Texas; ten grandchildren, and nine great grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Mr. Jim Davis, Mr. June Davis, Mr. Sam Davis, Mr. Gerald Davis, Lieutenant Colonel Roy Smith, and Mr. Ernest Hollis.

The Eastland County Art Association met in the Texas Electric Reddy Room April 2, 1981 for their regular meeting. The club was honored to have as their guest artist, Dr. Gene Rister of McMurry College in Abilene, Texas. Dr. Rister is a professor of English and Literature at the college. He is a professional artist who achieves a realistic and detailed effect in his sketches of old homes, public buildings and landscapes. His work has appeared in such books as "The Texas Anthology" and "The Texas Reviews". He has held solo shows and many of his sketches are in private collections. He is a published poet and is in the process of writing a book.

Dr. Rister had on display many of his pencil sketches, portraits in pastels and books containing his illustrations and poems. One of the sketches on display was of an old German mansion in Paint Rock, Texas. He had written a poem about the mansion, which he read aloud to the club. The sketch and the poem are published in "The Texas Anthology".

Dr. Rister gave detailed information on the art of sketching and showed how to sketch clouds, a tree and grass. For his demonstration, he chose the old 1883 Taylor County Courthouse as his subject. He transformed the outlines into an exact likeness of the courthouse. His technique and the use of a pencil was a lesson in itself for everyone who attended the meeting.

Sun Production Co. Explains Oil Plans

By Viola M. Payne

Over 200 people from this area met with Sun Production Co. officials on the night of Apr. 7th at Siebert Grade School in Eastland to learn more about the plans to revitalize the old Ranger Oil Boom Field. Sun Production, which is a Division of Sun Oil Company (Delaware) featured a program of informative talks, questions from the audience, discussions, and an informal reception. Oil Company executives who participated in the panel discussion were Luther Ellison of Dallas, Vice President of Sun Production, John Hawkes, Midland Dist. Land Manager, Joe France, Chief Land Man, Joe Thornton, Manager of Unitization, Charles Dickson, Ranger Project Manager, and Patricia Biczynski, Coordinator of Communication and Public Affairs.

Mr. Ellison, the principle speaker for the evening, gave a detailed and generally non-technical account of what the Company hopes to do with their recovery project. He stated that even with the sketchy information available, Sun Production Company believes that from 25 to 40 million barrels of oil were taken out in the original Boom, and about 160 million barrels are still in place in the McClesky Sands, at a depth of around 3500 ft. With controlled water injection the Company hopes to recover about 20 million more barrels.

Sun Oil has leased around 20,000 acres in the Ranger vicinity, encompassing 16,000 acres of the original field.

"Sun Production Company", stated Mr. Ellison, "is one of the U.S. leaders in oil recovery. About eight years ago we began looking for old areas which might be rejuvenated, and thought of the Ranger Field. At that time the price of oil did not make it feasible, and it seemed like an impossible venture. Oil must be around $18.00 per barrel to make such a project break even - not to mention the risk involved.

"A rise in oil prices and other factors made us decide to go ahead. The Company has already spent ten million on the project - by the end of the year 25 to 30 million will be invested.

"I took an unbelievable amount of patience, time and money just to lease up the old tracts around Ranger, for the royalty owners were scattered all across the country. I can only say that the work of John Hawkes along this line was splendid. I call him 'the man who kept me from losing my job'. At one time Hawkes had over 50 people working throughout the United States.

"Sun probably created a lot of rumors during that time. Due to the highly competitive position we were in, I made a judgement to not disclose the nature of our plans to the public. I regret that I felt this was necessary. During this time the people of Eastland County treated our people in a very cordial manner, and we appreciated it. In the future we plan to have much better communication with the local people. We will have to do some unusual things, and this will require the cooperation of the people."

Sun Production plans to move forward in an orderly fashion, Mr. Ellison explained. Cores from several pilot wells have been evaluated, are generally favorable. A water line is being laid from Possum Kingdom Lake, and should be finished by the end of the year. This is expected to furnish all water needed for the project. Plans call for the eventual drilling of 3 to 5 hundred wells on land which has been leased. Within 5 years, 25 or 30 Sun Oil families will be located in this area, with a Sun Office in the Ranger-Eastland vicinity. Sun pipelines will probably handle the oil in a highly automated system. But many supplies will be purchased locally, and influx from the related oil field business should benefit the local economy immensely.

Mr. Ellison mentioned that "unitization", or participation in the production from the reservoir as a whole, would be advantageous to the Lease owners.

When the meeting was opened to questions, a number of queries were about the contamination of water wells in the Ranger area by the water injection treatment. Although any contamination was classified as "pretty remote", Mr. Ellison noted there was "some risk" in undertaking of this magnitude. He explained, however, that the water would be injected through newly drilled wells down to the 3500 zone, where the pressure is now zero. (The water will not be heated before injection). The pressure will be gauged at all times, and it would take 1500 lbs. of pressure to push any liquid above the level into which the water is forced. Water will be reinjected into the ground if it comes up with the oil, in an attempt to infuse the sands with new energy. Old oil wells will be either utilized or plugged, whichever seems feasible. It is estimated that the life of the restored field will be from 25 to 30 years.

After the main program Joe W. Thornton, Manager of Unitization, was asked more about this plan. He stated that this plan would need to be approved by 65 per cent of the royalty owners in the area of oil recovery before it could be carried out. With their approval, a workable plan would be presented to the Railroad Commission. With official consent, the plan of sharing proceeds from the recovery operation would be implemented. The amount of land each owner had in the field would play a large part in his payment. Since the controlled water flooding should be underway by Jan., 1982, the Company hopes to move forward with this plan.

Among the questions Mr. Ellison faced was: "What if your plan fails?"

"Well, we can't see down into the ground," he said. "We can only do our best job and hope."

"But other things we want to accomplish while working on this job is to be good citizens and good neighbors in the community. We consider this very important."

"And one more thing -" he chuckled. "If the Ranger plan doesn't work - if all our dream and plans and hard work should fail - you won't have to worry about me coming back and talking to you any more!"

TOTAL RESOURCES of the First National Bank reflected a dramatic $2,050,000 increase during the past year as the Comptroller of Accounts called for a statement of condition March 31st and figures were released. The bank's total resources at the end of the quarter stood at $28,646,704.

Most of the increase was in deposits that totalled $25,713,075 -- up nearly $2,000,000. Loans amounted to a little over $9,000,000.

The bankers credit the increase largely to the health condition of the oil industry in this region and, too, to the general good business health of the community.

THERE WAS a big crowd of youngsters out at the Cisco Country Club golf course last Wednesday afternoon. High school golf teams from Carbon, Rising Star, Eula and Cross Plains were here to hold their Class A district interscholastic league meet.

Cisco High School and Cisco Junior College team members play at the golf course. . . CHS Golfer Tracy Owens hit a drive the other afternoon from the No. 6 tee box and his ball rolled up on the green -- 290 yards away. But it didn't end well -- he three putted.

MR. BOB BENNIE, the new club pro and manager at the golf course, reports that he started work last Monday and is enjoying his duties. They're in the middle of remodeling the pro shop, and they'd like to have an air conditioner for the shop. If you have one you're not using around the house, evaporative or otherwise, call out there and they'll be pleased to talk to you . . . Bob's brother, Dick Bennie, stopped in at the golf course last Wednesday afternoon.

Dick was in town to visit his mother, Mrs. Bill Bennie, and Bob. Dick is a DPS highway patrolman and had been to Austin to pick up a new car for use at Sherman where he is stationed. . . Does Bobby Smith, the new city golf champion, get any more respect around home or the office since winning his title last weekend? Not yet, he reports.

DISTRICT Attorney Emory Walton was studying an unusual case when he looked in at his office the other day. A man serving a sentence at the federal minimum security facility at Big Spring was given a weekend pass to visit home folks. And he was picked up in Eastland County on charges of driving while intoxicated.

Back at the Big Spring facility, Eastland County authorities wondered whether they could bring him here and try him on the charge.

MRS. KITTY McCracken played a leading role the other day in clearing away trash and tree limbs at the Cisco Public Library, which is owned by and operated under the direction of the 20th Century Club. When she saw her, Mrs. KM had on blue jeans and was loading limbs and debris into her pickup truck which she hauled to the dump grounds.

The library grounds look real nice. It is a real credit to Cisco.

$14,000,000 To Eastland County

Peanut Farmers... That's just the amount paid to our Eastland County peanut farmers in 1980. Multiply that many times (they spend a lot for food, machinery, clothes, cars, etc.) and you'll see how important this phase of agriculture is to our economy and state. Over $116 million was paid to Texas peanut growers.

This Money Could Disappear... If the peanut allotment is abolished as outlined by a new USDA Farm Program — Abolishment of the allotment system would wreck the peanut farmer, the agri-businessman and have disasterous impact on the economy of Eastland county.

Member F.D.I.C.

Dear Sir:

The peanut industry is mighty important to the economy of our county, as it is in many counties in Texas. We urge you to help us maintain the present peanut program.

Abolishment of the allotment quota system would wreck the peanut farmer, the agribusinessman and have a disasterous impact on our economy.

Please help us keep the present allotment system as part of the peanut program. Your vote and influence against proposed changes would certainly be appreciated.

Thank you.
