Grand Jury

Among the indictments handed down Tuesday by the 91st District Court Grand Jury was one for murder.

Cookie Sales To Begin Here Friday

January 29 marks the start of this year's Girl Scout cookie sale. An American tradition that dates back to 1933, it's still a popular event for the girls and their customers.

Once upon a time cookies were home-baked, but the rapid growth of Girl Scouting and the public acceptance of their cookies soon required higher technology. This year there will be seven favorite varieties, including a new Chocolate Chunk cookies made with real chocolate chunks. There are Samoas, a delicious vanilla cookie, covered with caramel on top and bottom rolled in toasted coconut and striped with a yummy cocoa coating. The Thin Mints are made with natural peppermint. They are double rich with a fudge middle. The Do-si-dos are a oatmeal peanut butter sandwich cookie with no artificial color and no artificial flavor. The family favorites are vanilla and chocolate cremes called Van'chos. They got their chocolate in their peanut butter and added a crisp cookie and called it the Tagalongs. Delicious! Trefoils are old fashioned tender short bread with only 24 calories per cookie.

Girl Scouts in Heart of Texas Council have set a new sales record for the past four years in a row, according to council executive Donna Fincher of Brownwood.

"Like every part of the Girl Scout program, the cookie sale offers opportunity. It is a method for girls to earn their own way, and they have demonstrated over and over again that opportunities earned have greater value than any free ride," Fincher said.

The cookie sale is a way for girls to share in the benefits of Girl Scouting regardless of their ability to pay. Through their own hard work in the sale girls earn their way to camp, pay membership dues, earn trips with their troop, or pay for books and other equipment.

Official estimates, based on prior year sales, are that girls will average earning almost $10 individually, while each troop will average earnings of $142. Camp fee credits and special scholarships are additional programs paid from cookie sale profits.

Girl Scouts will be taking cookie orders from their customers from January 29 through February 8. Cookies will be delivered beginning March 5.

Girl Scout officials remind the public that no Girl Scout will be accepting payment for cookies until cookies are delivered. Anyone who asks for money in advance might not be a Girl Scout.

Cookies will sell for $1.75 per box this year.

Betty Ritchie To Display Oil Paintings

Betty Ritchie, a well San Marcos artist, will display her oil paintings January 28, 29 and 30 at the Frame Makers from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Ms. Ritchie is a self taught artist. She has taught classes in Cisco the past two years. Her paintings are of landscapes and western scenes.

Loboes In First Place Tie

The Cisco Loboes defeated the Ranger Bulldogs 41 to 35 last Friday night to move into a first place tie with the Bulldogs. The Loboes were led by determined defensive play and strong rebounding. The Loboes and Bulldogs finish first half play Tuesday night, and if both win the first half will end in a tie. Randall Rattan led the Loboes with 12 points and Larry Adams, Mike Gallegos, Joey Worley, Gary Speegle, and Kendall Anderson had outstanding defensive games.

Last Tuesday night the Loboes won over the Bangs Dragons by the score of 50 to 41. A hard fought first half ended with Cisco leading 24 to 20, but the second half was decided by the Loboes defense and Mike Gallegos finding the hot hand. Mike scored 10 points in the third quarter and the Loboes jumped to a 40 to 26 lead. The Loboes record is now five and one in district and 14 and 7 overall.

The Queens had two fine ballgames last week when they lost to Bangs 61 to 60, and then beat Ranger 53 to 39. The Queens have come on strong lately and are looking forward to the second half. Improvement on offense and better rebounding is giving the Queens the boost to be a factor in the second half race.

The Queens and Loboes play in Eastland Friday night with the J.V. girls starting at 5:30 p.m., Varsity girls at 7:00 p.m. and the Varsity boys at 8:30 p.m. The teams end the first half Tuesday at San Saba. Come help the teams get a good start on the second half of the district race.

Wrangler Belle Auditions Set Feb. 14

Auditions for the 1982-83 Wrangler Belles drill team of Cisco Junior College will be held Sunday, Feb. 14, in the gymnasium on the CJC campus.

The tryouts will begin at 1:00 p.m. and should be completed by 5:00 p.m.

Mrs. Pat Owens, director of the Belles, said that a simple routine will be taught to the girls, and they will be auditioning in groups.

All senior girls are invited to audition, and no previous experience is necessary. Shorts and tennis shoes should be worn by the girls.

Congressman Stenholm Believes American People Still Want Change

United States Congressman Charles Stenholm stated that he believes the "American people still want a change" in the way things are going. Congressman Stenholm was the guest speaker at the 66th annual Chamber of Commerce banquet here Saturday night.

Congressman Stenholm also stated he believes, "The people of the 17th District are in basic agreement that Congress is on the right track"; however, "they are a little concerned about the rise of unemployment and interest rates." He emphasized that it is necessary for Congress to attempt to reduce the growth rate of spending in this country.

He said there are two examples he can think of to demonstrate how tremendous the national debt of America is. He said every person in America would be required to pay $400 each just to pay the taxes and interest on the debt this year. The second example involved the selling of every farm and ranch in America, along with every animal on those properties, and they would not generate enough money to meet the national debt.

Ciscoans, as well as Americans, should look at their problems as opportunities and attack them for a solution, according to Congressman Stenholm. He stated that America did not "get into its problems overnight and we will not get out of them overnight."

The Congressman also emphasized, "if we make a mistake, let us know."

Cisco Mayor Eris Ritchie served as Master of Ceremonies at the banquet and introduced the retiring Chamber president and the incoming president.

Ronnie Ledbetter, the retiring president, said the largest item handled by the Chamber last year involved the Cisco's Centennial Celebration. He paid tribute to Joe Wheatley, who headed the Chamber's Centennial Committee, and also to Betty McGinness, who served as coordinator of the Centennial.

Mr. Ledbetter expressed a special thanks to Chamber manager, Gene Abbott, whom he said made the president's job a lot easier. He also introduced five retiring board members as follows: Bob Ford, Dick Woolley, Billy Wright, Joe Wheatley and Steve Cozart.

Elaine Dixon, the new president, presented a plaque to Mr. Ledbetter on behalf of the Chamber for his service as president during the past year. She stated that she is delighted to serve as the "first woman president of this 68 year old organization." She said she is excited about one of the upcoming programs this year, "Christmas in May." She said everyone will be learning more about this program in the future.

Mrs. Dixon announced the Chamber officers and directors for 1982 as follows: 1st vice president Robert Dudley, 2nd vice president Gene Gwinn, 3rd vice president Jerry Morgan, Frank Barrett, Rex Fields, Lloyd McGrew, Shirley Hargrave, Brad Kimbrough, Ronnie Ledbetter, Barbara Pope, Eris Ritchie, Dr. Norman Wallace, Fred Wheeler and Eddie McMillan.

Mr. Abbott is the Chamber

BANQUET SPEAKER Congressman Charles Stenholm (center) visits with Margie Brown of manager and Lisa Robertson is the new Chamber secretary.

One of the annual highlights of the banquet is the presentation of special awards. Those awards are Academic Excellence (in high school and college), Municipal Service, "Over Due" and Community Service.

Cisco High School principal Mike Turner presented Academic Excellence Awards to Becky Channess and Greg Cermin. Becky is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Channess while Greg is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres Cermin. Becky has maintained a grade point average of 94.31 and Greg's grade point average is 93.51.

Dean Clois Purvis presented Cisco Junior College's Academic Excellence Awards to Sue Hallmark and Johnny McCaghren, both graduates of Cisco High School.

Sue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hallmark. She has attained a 2.73 grade point during her three semesters at C.J.C. The highest average is a 3.0 which is a straight A.

Johnny, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross McCaghren, has attained a 2.83 grade point during his past three semesters. Both students have been named to the Who's Who Among American Junior College Students.

vice Award was presented by City Manager Mike Moore to Leon Boles, the water and sewer foreman of the City of Cisco. Mr. Moore stated that Leon Boles has been an outstanding city employee who has worked for the city since 1975. He stated that Mr. Boles qualified for the award in all of the requirements: quality of work, appearance and attendance, initiative and his attitude towards work.

The "Over Due" Award was presented by Mayor Ritchie to Tony White, Steve Clary and Hershel Penn, three citizens who have been instrumental in Cisco having a clean, well organized cemetery.

Mayor Ritchie also presented this year's Community Service Award to recipient, Joe Wheatley. Mayor Ritchie stated that Mr. Wheatley was the general chairman of the 1981 Cisco Centennial Committee and his work on the Chamber of Commerce airport committee "has been outstanding."

Mr. Wheatley was also the president of the Kiwanis Club in Cisco during the past year and he was instrumental in getting the local organization started. The Kiwanis have taken on a project of restoring the miniature golf course at Lake Cisco Park.

A graduate of Scranton High School, Mr. Wheatley attended Cisco Junior College and Hardin Simmons University in Abilene. He and his wife, Virginia, moved back to Cisco in 1976 where he purchased Cisco Lumber & Supply Company.

Mayor Ritchie introduced distinguished visitors and guests which included the Honorable Joe Hanna and his wife Betty, as well as State Senator Bob Glasgow of Stephenville.

The banquet meal was catered by Oscar's Barbecue of Cisco and music was provided by a band from Cisco Junior College.

Reports from WASHINGTON CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower
U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

Enterprise and determination are among the key elements of the American spirit. Nowhere are these qualities displayed in more abundance than by our nation's disabled citizens.

People who have had to overcome disabilities to become educated, set up homes and move around their cities have shown us what can be accomplished through determination, a strong motivation to succeed and, in many instances, a great deal of ingenuity.

Employers have discovered that their disabled employees who possess these qualities make excellent workers. We have developed more sensitivity toward the needs of disabled Americans, and begun to realize that we as a people have an obligation and a need to bring the disabled into the mainstream of society.

The International Year of Disabled Persons in 1981 helped focus attention on the problems and needs of the 35 million Americans who are affected by physical or mental disabilities throughout their lives -- as well as the even more numerous temporary disabilities most Americans face at one time or another. A Senate resolution awaiting House action would make 1982 the National Year of Disabled Persons to continue this effort.

The disabled ask only that they be given the opportunity to participate fully in American society -- its work, its recreation, and its commerce.

Some of these activities -- most notably, education -- are the responsibility of federal, state or local governments. But increased public awareness has increased the private sector's role in this effort. This partnership of government, private organizations, employers, and individual citizens holds great promise for a brighter future for the disabled.

A nation's most valuable resource is its people. And we cannot afford to overlook what our disabled citizens have to offer. As individuals, our lives would be far less rich without knowing and coming into regular contact with our disabled neighbors. As a parent, I know that our children need the example of courage and determination demonstrated by disabled citizens.

I hope that all of us will be more aware of how we can contribute to the goal of full participation in society by the disabled, not just during designated years, but until the goal has been met.

Senator Lloyd Bentsen Watching Washington

Federal law, the Controlled Substances Act, has historically distinguished between "narcotic" and "non-narcotic" drugs. As a result, penalties for trafficking in "non-narcotic" drugs are much lighter.

However, the historical distinction between narcotic and non-narcotic substances loses its validity when you examine current patterns of drug abuse and consider that drugs like quaaludes, LSD, "angel dust" and amphetamines are classified as non-narcotics.

Recently I introduced legislation to sharply increase criminal penalties for illegal trafficking in such drugs.

My bill, in line with a recommendation by the General Accounting Office (GAO), would eliminate the distinction in penalties between "narcotic" and "non-narcotic" drugs listed in Schedules I and II of the Controlled Substances Act.

Right now, trafficking in narcotic drugs is punishable by a maximum 15 year prison sentence and a $25,000 fine, while the dealer in non-narcotic drugs listed in Schedules I and II is subject to a jail term of only five years plus a $15,000 fine.

My bill would require that all traffickers in dangerous drugs listed under those schedules be punished by imprisonment of up to 15 years and a fine of $25,000. Second offenders would face 30 years in jail and a $50,000 fine.

Narcotic drugs in Schedules I and II include heroin, morphine and codeine. Non-narcotic drugs in those two schedules include methaqualone (quaalude), LSD, phencyclidine (angel dust) and amphetamines.

There is, for example, no more dangerous drug used illegally today than angel dust. And while my legislation, passed in 1978 to clamp down on angel dust abuse is proving helpful, more needs to be done.

A recent GAO study reviewed cases involving 68 clandestine laboratories which were shut down by the Drug Enforcement Administration. These laboratories were manufacturing non-narcotic drugs listed in Schedules I and II. Two out of every three of the 153 violators arrested in conjunction with these lab shutdowns got off either scot-free or received prison sentences of three years or less.

The legislation I propose will put those persons who traffic in poisons like angel dust, LSD and speed on notice that--once they are caught--they will face more than a slap on the wrist.

Law enforcement officials will have renewed incentive to concentrate on putting these clandestine operations out of business. And, ultimately, my bill will help focus attention on the serious problems that result from abuse of so-called "non-narcotic" drugs.

National Bird Is Really Eagle-Eyed-But Not Bald

Want to know why the American bald eagle is called "bald"?

Or why "eagle-eye" is an apt description for someone with good eyesight?

A bald eagle isn't bald at all. His head is covered with white feathers. The word bald comes from the Old English work "balde," which means white.

And "eagle-eye" refers to the eagle's extraordinarily keen eyesight, which enables some of them to spot a fish from more than a mile away.

An unusually high number of "cone cells," or specialized vision cells, give the eagle's eye its long-distance focusing capability. The extra cells also make the eagle's eye large in proportion to the rest of his body. Some eagles have eyeballs larger than a human's.

How high do eagles fly? No one knows for sure. But they do fly high...even out of sight...by riding on top of rising columns of air, called thermals.

How big is a bald eagle's nest? They are often huge, because eagles (who mate for life) tend to use the same nest, piling new materials on top of the old year after year. One of the largest nests ever found weighed more than a ton, and measured 20 feet deep by 9 1/2 feet across. A new nest is small by comparison...about three feet deep and five feet across.

Do eagles nest in the same place year after year? Not always. Some pairs have several nests in the same area, and they use a different one each year. But one pair of eagles nested in the same place for 20 years.

How much do eagles weigh? A mature American bald eagle weighs between eight and twelve pounds. Most female bald eagles weigh a little more than their mates.

What do bald eagles eat? They seem to prefer fish...dead or alive. Eagles are great fishermen, able to nab a live fish right out of the water by swooping down and grasping it with sharp talons. But eagles will also eat ducks, geese, turtles, rabbits, rats, squittels...and even garbage.

Congressman Charles W. Stenholm

Congressional Comment

WASHINGTON, D.C. — There are few programs that exemplify the proper use of minimal federal funds to encourage maximum accomplishments better than programs designed to serve senior citizens.

In early December of last year, I received a letter from a constituent critical of some of these programs, which prompted me to contact my District Advisory Committee on Aging. I rely on this group for guidance in matters concerning senior citizens. I was so impressed with the overwhelmingly positive nature of their comments and the many insights these individuals were able to offer about these programs, that I wanted to share some of these thoughts.

The group addressed critical comments ranging from an exclusive "social club" attitude of the senior citizen center in her county, to discrimination, inadequate contributions by financially able participants and the suggestion that federal funding should not be continued.

Virtually every response I received from the advisory committee enthusiastically espoused the value and worthiness of these programs. Although it was stated in many different ways, all of the respondents agreed with the Fisher County member who said, "Many tax dollars are spent needlessly, but I feel such is not the fact in this program. It has in some way made a number of people productive who otherwise might have remained dormant."

A professional woman from Clyde explained, "Our main goals are to keep persons 60 years and over active in community activities, to be a resource in the community, instead of a liability. The reason that I so completely support senior citizens centers is because they are preventive medicine."

Another Abilene professional explained further, "Older persons living alone frequently do not eat balanced meals and consequently their health begins to deteriorate.

Hence, they are soon candidates for institutional care with all its escalating costs."

With regard to all income levels being able to participate, a Ranger man commented, "I do not believe the program was designed for low income only, nor should it ever become another form of welfare program. People in West Texas have a well developed sense of pride and many of the 'truly needy' would not participate if it were identified as a low income program. It would indeed be sad if the program were rewritten to promote further segregation of persons based upon their economic status."

Still another commented, "Indeed we want to be a 'social club,' but we add quickly that there are no restrictions for membership except for age."

The respondents did not try to claim the programs were perfect. "I suppose there will be abuses in all programs as long as human nature remains as it is. Certainly these should not be tolerated when brought to the attention of those in authority," mentioned another individual.

Numerous constructive suggestions focused primarily around sensitivity training for the directors, open discussions in the community about the purposes of the program, clearer understanding of program objectives by all administrators, and in general, greater community involvement.

It was encouraging and heart-warming for me to hear about these many valuable programs being made available to our senior citizens. I believe many of us can join the Knox County woman who said, "I work with many senior citizens on other programs and I find that I owe them so much. Most of them have been taxpayers, leading citizens in their own communities and have set the cornerstones on which our country stands. Many of these individuals are now lonely, ill, depressed and heavy hearted. How can we afford to let them down?"

CRIME STOPPERS

Drug traffickers are robbing our kids of their future. Over 17,000 Texas high school seniors are daily drug users... an alarming statistic that merely scratches the surface.

Kids from age twelve to seventeen are the victims. Their innocence earns these criminals easy money. Now is the time to shut down this business in Texas. It won't be easy. Dealers are just the bottom of the drug dealing pyramid. These pushers get their drugs from the kingpins... those at the top of the network... the drug traffickers.

Drug dealing to minors is a hideous crime and these criminals must be stopped. A joint effort by law enforcement and concerned citizens is necessary in declaring war on drug traffickers.

There are no absolute answers but a major step has been taken. Governor William P. Clements and the Texas Legislature have created a statewide anti-crime hotline through the Crime Stoppers Advisory Council.

This hotline is designed to aid law enforcement in a crackdown on drug traffickers.

For the month of February, the Crime Stoppers Advisory Council is focusing its statewide "Crime of the Month" on drug trafficking. Any citizen having information about major drug trafficking is asked to call the Texas Crime Stoppers Advisory Council at 1-800-252-TIPS. Cash rewards are available for information leading to the arrest and indictment of criminals. Citizens do not have to reveal their names, just their information, and they will be given a unique code number for identification purposes.

Texas Legislators and our Governor have helped provide the criminal justice system with the punch it needs to find drug traffickers and put them behind bars. But they can't do it alone. Call 1-800-252-TIPS today with any information on major drug trafficking in Texas. Help stop this growing menace to young people of our state.

Mrs. Lois Holcomb CofC February artist

The Eastland Chamber of Commerce artist of the month will be Mrs. Lois Holcomb of Stephenville, Texas. She will have her artistic works on display during the month of February, 1982.

classes at McLennan Community College in Waco, and studied oil painting with John Goode and Bruce Cunningham. She was also fascinated in watercolor, but finding it difficult to get an artist in that area to teach the medium of watercolor it wasn't until she moved to Stephenville that she was able to take any kind of training in that medium. Since that time she has studied watercolor with Opal Black, C. Warren Culler, Jon Birdsong, John Carter, and Dr. Julius Zsohar. Lois uses watercolor in a number of techniques, in combination with ink, pastel, and the wet into wet method, dry brush and also gouache.

Mrs. Holcomb has won a number of ribbons on both watercolor and oil paintings, and paintings in both mediums are in private collections in Washington, Mississippi, Louisiana as well as here in Texas.

Farmers First National Bank owns an oil painting landscape. Her paintings are presently showing at the Sandlin House of Art, Stephenville; Hoka Hey Gallery, Dublin; and the Art Works in Cleburne, Texas.

Local Jehovah's Witnesses attend semi-annual circuit assembly

The semi-annual Circuit Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses concluded this past weekend in Arlington with many local members attending.

The area congregation spokesman, Mr. Joe Watts, reported "the program theme of 'Subjecting Ourselves to God' stressed the need of giving daily loving obedience to our Supreme Ruler, Jehovah God. We do so by closely following our Lord Jesus Christ, a perfect example of subjection. Cooperation, obedience and respect were highlighted in demonstrations that pointed out how children could show their subjection to parents and even school officials. The governmental authorities were shown to deserve our relative subjection because of numerous vital services they provide by our taxes. Talks explained how congregational overseers were one to be submissive to and also uphold counsel they give us. Examples of how to teach disciples to be in subjection to Jehovah was given. Many spending up to sixty hours a month in Bible instruction among the public gave experiences of fruitful results. Examining the scriptures daily and following God's rule within the congregation was emphasized. Breckenridge flood victims related marvelous love showed by the brotherhood of Jehovah's Witnesses in rebuilding their homes and property. We paid close attention to the Sunday afternoon public address entitled: 'Deliverance in A Time of Anguish'. 1052 attended to hear Luke 21:25-28, 34-36 expounded upon this discourse. Only the incorruptible King of kings and Lord of Lords, Jesus Christ will deliver us from Satan's corrupt world. And then finally we appreciated the last talks on how Jehovah prospers His servants and helps us to safeguard our association. We warmly welcomed eleven new disciples who were baptized at this convention", concluded Mr. Watts.

WORD of GOD

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised.

And he began to say unto them, This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears.

Pierced Duck, Menacing Cobra, Playboy Bird Made 1981 An Antic Year In Animal Kingdom

Those field mice infected with bubonic plague that threatened President Reagan on his California ranch and the stranded shark that got roped by Vice President Bush on a Maine beach were not the only wild creatures that made news in 1981.

An assortment of animals that Noah would be proud of crept into headlines around the world by causing trouble for some humans, helping others, and by just struggling to survive...sometimes unsuccessfully...in a world dominated by humans, the National Wildlife Federation found in its annual survey of animal antics during the past year.

Medflies on the West Coast, gypsy moths in the East, a duck with an arrow through her breast, a baboon that turned in a false fire alarm, and a deadly snake that pulled duty as a night watchman were among non-human newsmakers.

Donna the Duck was the victim and then heroine, of one of the most bizarre wildlife stories. The tiny mallard became a national celebrity when she appeared at a Los Vegas country club with an arrow through her breast. After two weeks of trying, veterinarians finally caught her, removed the arrow, and released her. At last report Donna was continuing her charmed life on a pond at the club's golf course.

Nipper, a ferret, made news...by lending a hand, or paw, to the British Broadcasting Corporation. The tiny weasel-like creature pulled TV cables through a twisted underground duct connecting Buckingham Palace to commentators outside and thus enabled BBC to broadcast to the entire planet a part of the commotion surrounding the wedding of Prince Charles and Lady Diana.

Not all animals were so helpful, the NWF survey found. Alexis, a baboon, brought six fire trucks racing to the scene when she grabbed the lever on a fire alarm box next to her quarters in a Baltimore research lab. Trouble is, there was no fire. Jonathan, a horse in Del Mar, Calif., turned in two false alarms before his owner stopped the horsing around by fencing off an alarm box.

All kinds of critters tangled with electricity. An owl knocked out a power system in Klamath Falls, Ore., when it landed on a hot line with a snake in its beak. The snake caught fire and 5,200 homes went dark. In a prison at Dallas, Texas a hungry four-foot king snake, looking for prey, knocked out three generators for three hours. In Washington, D.C., it was an errant squirrel that caused a blackout on Thanksgiving Day.

Another invention of man, the drainpipe, nearly cost the life of a black and white cat named Squeaky in Reston, Va. Instead he cost his owner $1,500 when it took two crews of plumbers two days to dig Squeaky out of an underground trap into which the drainpipe...and his curiosity...had led him. On the other hand, a 45-pound alligator got out of his outdoor pen at the Denver Zoo without any help from humans. The 'gator, inevitably named Albert, was captured 28 days later in a park pond.

A mess of reptiles made news when a Georgia dealer in protected wildlife handed over a bag containing a dozen eastern indigo snakes in exchange for $1,200. His customer turned out to be a federal agent who had videotaped the "snakescam" transaction. Other reptiles illegally traded and seized by the feds included Indian pythons, Gila monsters and a Jamaican boa.

It was in London that a "very venomous" cobra was placed inside a showcase containing the world's third largest star sapphire to discourage theft of the rare gem from Sri Lanka. Other animals that did people's work included two dolphins named Lady and Molly whose services were sought by a Florida ship salvager to locate silver bars in the wreckage of two Spanish galleons that sank off Key West in 1622.

Several species of wildlife made news for their roles in scientific research. At Athens, Ohio, biology researchers transferred the genes of rabbits to mice and then to their offspring...a breakthrough in genetic engineering that could lead to the transfer of traits from one species to another. In an Oak Ridge, Tenn., laboratory, crickets gave scientists some clues to dangerous side effects of contaminants in synthetic fuels by sprouting extra eyes and heads.

Not all lab critters enjoyed their assigned roles, the NWF report showed. In an experiment reported in the Journal of the American Medical Association, a ferret injected with a respiratory virus got even with the experimenter when the scientist bent over to check the animal for watery eyes and other symptoms. The ferret sneezed and the researcher caught the virus. A California brain surgeon sued the University of Oklahoma and others for $2.75 million, claiming he was "permanently disabled" when a chimpanzee named Washoe bit off the middle finger of his right hand during a visit to the University's Institute for Primate Studies.

In Montgomery County, Md., a medical researcher was fined $3,015 for failing to provide adequate care for six monkeys in his lab. But in Ann Arbor, Mich., another medic operated on a 3 1/2-pound Boston terrier named Sweetie Pie and removed half a pound of metal, including 80 cents in coins, from her stomach.

The National Zoo in Washington, D.C., imported a male panda named Chia-Chia all the way from London to mate with its famed but shy female, Ling-Ling. All that happened was that Ling-Ling got beat up. But in Green County, Wis., a judge had to sign a court order to restrain a bull owned by Glen Schmid from mating. Schmid's bull, his neighbors charged, jumped their fence and "immaturely impregnated" eight of their heifers. And in Miami the pink flamigos that ornament the infield at the Hialeah race track mated successfully for the first time in nine years.

An amorous bird thought to be extinct made news by reappearing in the mountains of New Guinea. Ornithologist Jared Diamond first heard a birdcall that sounded like "someone shoveling gravel", then spied a bird that more than a dozen expeditions had failed to find since the turn of the century...a yellow-fronted gardener bowerbird.

Courting a female perched nearby, the rare bird had built a four-foot-high bower of sticks and fronds in the shape of a maypole around a sapling. Stacked in the bower were three piles of brightly colored fruit. To express his ardor, the orange-crested male held a bright blue fruit in his bill, pointing it toward the female.

The 20-minute wooing ended sadly for the bower builder. The female, apparently unimpressed, flew away. A Yale biologist called the bowerbird's behavior "without parallel in the animal world." But Dr. Diamond saw some parallels between the exotic birds and domestic playboys with expensive pads and vans.

"The males with the duldest plumage build the fanciest bowers," he said. "It's like the dull young man with a fancy sports car..."

Stone Slab Dates 1012 A.D. At Ouachita National Forest

Ouachita National Forest a vast area of rolling, wooded mountains - stretches from southeastern Oklahoma into Arkansas. One of the most unique attractions of the Forest is the Heavener Runestone, found near Talimena Skyline Drive. This is a large high slab of stone on which characters from an early-day alphabet have been chisled, dating back nearly 1,000 years. The inscription has been translated as the date Nov. 11, 1012 A.D., which is considered proof that Vikings visited the area some 500 years before Columbus.

Paper Desires News Of Young People

The Eastland County newspapers have had a number of favorable comments about the stories concerning young people who are attending College. Readers indicate that it is inspiring to learn about people who are trying to make the most of their lives.

The date on the stone was exactly five years later than the one on the Heavener Runestone, or Nov. 11, 1017 A.D.

Local Telephone Office To Close For Business

Beginning in March, Cisco telephone customers will find a new and more efficient way of doing business with Southwestern Bell, according to Bob Cox, local manager.

"We will close our

Putnam News

By Mrs. R.B. Taylor

We are enjoying seasonal weather this week. We sure could use some rain. The grain seems to be perked up some since the snow we had last week. Just hope it stays cold enough to keep the fruit trees from blooming too soon.

Some of our folks have been on the sick list.

Sid and Ruby Weathermon are both ailing. Sid has a case of shingles and Ruby has had the flu. Both are feeling better.

Mrs. Dink Pruett came home this week from Baird hospital where she spent some time.

Mr. R.D. Williams of Baird, formerly of Putnam, was moved from Hendrick hospital at Abilene to Baird hospital this week. He suffered a severe stroke just before Christmas.

Mrs. Faye Woods of Cisco is undergoing tests at Temple. She is a sister of Veda Yarbrough and Ollie Burnam.

Mrs. I.G. Mobley visited Mrs. Buster Hatchett one day last week. Mrs. Hatchett spent some time at a Dallas hospital.

Mrs. Naomi Heyser and Mrs. Maggie Cook of Baird had lunch with Mrs. R.B. Taylor on Thursday.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Wesley (Dewey) Williams of Stanton. Mrs. Williams was injured in an automobile accident on Thursday the day we had the snow. She died on Monday of this week. Mrs. Williams was the former Dewey Cathy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Cathy, pioneer residents of Putnam and grew up at Putnam. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Bess Herring also of Stanton.

The John Doyle Isehowers have received letters from their daughter and husband, the Kim Massingales who are currently working with a church group in India. Laura writes they are having a very rewarding trip. They will be home in a week or so.

Mrs. Dorothy Shirley of Cisco was visiting friends at Putnam last Monday.

Maxie Solomon's cousin, Mr. Harry Gurney of Abilene and his daughter, Harriett Threlkeld of Arlington, visited her one day this week.

Two of the former Carson girls who grew up at Putnam, Mrs. Ioma Howard and Reba Eubanks visited Mr. and Mrs. George Weeks Friday. Also visiting the Weeks have been their sons, Mr. and Mrs. R.D. Weeks of Eastland, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Weeks of Abilene and Norris Weeks of Baird.

Mrs. Marie McLendon and a friend, Mrs. Vickery of Odessa visited the Sid Weathermons this week. Also their son, Don of San Antonio.

Seven members of the china painting class met Friday. We welcome anyone wishing to paint. Mrs. I.G. Mobley had charge of Mary's china shop, which is open on Fridays and Saturday.

business office at 608 Avenue E, and customers will call a toll-free number to place orders for service or discuss their bills," said Cox. Cisco customers' calls will go to a group of employees in Wichita Falls who specialize in residence customer service.

"We can handle customer records and billing more cost-efficiently by taking advantage of computer technology and by using a larger work force at a central location in Wichita Falls. Not only will it help us fight the increasing costs of providing quality service, but we think Cisco customers will find improved service from the change."

Cox said the company will contract with a business here to serve as a payment agent. This will provide a location where Cisco telephone customers can pay their phone bills in person if they desire.

After placing an order, Cisco residents will be able to pick up their telephone sets at a local site to be selected later.

Southwestern Bell will notify its residence customers of the residence service center toll-free number when an exact date is established. Information about the payment agent and telephone pickup location will be provided at the same time.

Cox said that accounts of business customers have been handled from a central location for nearly a year.

Presently, the company has 17 persons employed here. Following the change, 15 persons will serve Cisco, including Sam Beggs, Network Services Supervisor.

In addition, Southwestern Bell is forming an organization of regional managers in Texas to serve as the interface between the company and its customers. Each regional manager will be assigned a geographic territory where he or she will be responsible for monitoring service quality and representing Bell to customers, the news media, local government and community representatives. "We will do everything possible to continue to keep in close touch with our customers, making sure our service is meeting the demands of the public," added Cox.

Cox said the specifics of the company's regional reorganization will be announced in the near future.

Senior Citizens Nutrition Menu

What does it mean to be "aged?" To some it means it is time to place the individual in a home and let someone else care for the person! To some it means to be sure the older person is always a part of the family events and not to be separated from the family!

But to the person who is getting older it is an opportunity to be loved and be loved, to help their family and friends in time of need—and to be helped by family and friends in care of need.

The Senior Center programs in Cisco are for the purpose of not only providing a nutritious luncheon three times a week but to assist the family, friends and the older person in their problems.

Contact Ruth Cartee, director of the Center, 442-2263, for assistance in regard to the Senior citizens for Cisco.

The programs for the week, at the Senior Center, included: Wendell Rehems, trooper of the State Highway Patrol, talking about "Liability Insurance and other Factors in Driving"; Philip Craig and Steven Zell presented a musical; and Leah Brown, Vida Killion and Billie Wood provided the dinner music.

The menus for the week are:
Monday—braised beef tips, bean salad, orange squash, banana pudding, bread, butter and drink.

Wednesday—luncheon steak, macaroni and cheese, green beans, orange, bread, butter and drink.

Friday—chicken pot pie, broccoli, buttered corn, birthday cake, bread, butter and drink.

On Study Tour

A group of 18 students from Texas Lutheran College in Seguin, including Jon Cermin of Cisco, are currently on a study tour of Western Europe through the College's Interim program.

Cermin is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres Cermin and a graduate of Cisco High School.

Dr. Ray Gerhardt, professor of history at TLC, is leading the 27-day tour, which compares the historical past with current conditions. Included in the tour are visits to London, Stonehenge, Canterbury, Brussels, Cologne, Bonn, Rothenberg, Munich, Salzburg, Innsbruck, Oberammergau, Heidelberg, and Frankfurt.

The group is also making special trips to Dachau Concentration Camp and NATO headquarters.

Three other TLC student groups are currently gaining "on the scene" knowledge in Hawaii, Austria and the Bahamas.

WHERE FAMILIES OF ONE-OR-MORE ARE WELCOME

What picture comes to mind when you hear the word "family"? Do you see a mother, father and 2-3 children? What does a family look like?

Every family is unique. There are families with children, some with no children, some are single-parent families, and there are "blended families" — where a new family is formed from former ones. "Part-time" families occur when a parent has custody on week-ends or during vacations. Families come in all sizes and in wide variation.

Your family — of one or more — is welcome with us. Though every family has its own specific set of problems and potentials, we all need Christ, His love, and human caring. Let us meet your family this week!

Cisco Blood Drive To Be Held February 3

A Cisco Blood Drive sponsored by the Cisco Civic League will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 3, 1982, at the E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital. A team of laboratory technicians from Mary Meek Blood Center of Abilene will be present from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

To date, the units of blood owed to Mary Meek Blood Center have been gradually reduced, and the Cisco citizens cannot be commended enough for their outstanding support of this ever so important project.

Due to Federal Drug Administration legislation, there are no longer routinely paid donors; therefore, blood donors must be solicited on a voluntary basis.

So necessary is this blood, for life itself, every appeal for your continued support is sincerely offered and appreciated. Please be aware of the following when preparing to give blood:

1. All donors must be age 18 or older; there is no age limit, only that each donor is healthfully able to give blood.

2. Blood donors should eat normally, and are encouraged to do so before giving blood.

3. No medication should be taken 18 hours prior to donating blood.

4. No medication should be deleted without checking with the prospective donor's own doctor.

5. Any person who has been sick or had a cold within the last seven days prior to donating blood, should not donate blood.

6. Any person who has had ears pierced within the last six months at any place other than a doctor's office should not donate blood.

7. Any persons who has been in Southeast Asia in the last three years should not donate blood, due to malaria possibilities.

8. Any woman who has menstruated in the last three to four days prior to donating blood should not donate.

9. A woman who is pregnant, or suspects pregnancy, should not give blood, and should not do so until six weeks after termination of pregnancy.

10. Persons can donate blood every two to three months, with no foreseen problems, although it is hopeful to not have to call on the same donors nearly this often.

For further information call Bob Conner at 442-3951 or Ruth Heidenheimer at 442-1777.
