

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERREL HALLMARK

I HOPE you did not forget to vote in Saturday's important bond election here in Cisco. Every effort was made to encourage people to vote and voice their opinions for the benefit of the city council.

THE FOLLOWING article is from Marietta Fuller of Jeffersonville, Indiana, and is entitled: THE SUFFERINGS OF THE CROSS BRING BLESSINGS TO YOU AND ME TODAY!

Jesus, knowing that the time had come to accomplish God's purpose for redeeming the souls of men, steadfastly set His face toward Jerusalem and the "Way of the Cross," for in Jn. 14:6. He had said, "I am the way (to heaven), the truth, and the life." But the ways of wicked men in those days were to seek to kill Him for they did not believe He was the Son of God. He gathered His disciples for that last supper to try to prepare them for His death. Today, the Lord "prepares a table for us in the presence of our enemies." (Ps. 23:6); and this includes not only the Lord's Supper but also fellowship all throughout the day and night as we commune with Him in prayer.

Jesus knew His disciples would desert Him in the hour of need, but His words of the Bible echo in our hearts: "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee." (Heb. 13:5) Taking with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, Jesus went to the Garden of Gethsemane to pray; but they all fell asleep and did not pray with Him, nevertheless the Lord has prayed for us in Jn. 17 and admonishes us to heed Matt. 26:41 so that we won't deny Him as Peter did. In those days, a kiss was a token of friendship but with Judas it was a token of betrayal; and for you and me "there is a friend (Jesus) that sticketh closer than a brother." (Prov. 18:24)

Our Saviour was taken to Pontius Pilate and though sinless, a Lamb without spot and blemish, was judged and condemned to die on the cross. Because He paid our sin debt in full, "There is therefore now no condemnation to them, which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit." (Rom. 8:1). They beat our Saviour with 40 lashes of the whipl. Folks, it should have been you and me that should have been beaten, but "with His stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray;..." (Isa. 53:5-6) and 1 Ptr. 2:24. They mocked Him and put on His head a crown of thorns; whereas, in the heavenlies we will be rewarded with crowns for our services of love for Christ. The purple robe denotes royalty and His blood mingled with it; and He gives to us a robe of righteousness if our sins are covered by His blood shed at Calvary. Furthermore, we are to reign with Christ. To those who mocked Him then and yet today, there is a time coming when "every knee shall bow...and confess that Jesus is Lord..." (Phil. 2:11). They spit on Him, plucked out His beard, slapped Him, and buffeted His body, pounded nails through His hands and feet onto the cross, dropped His body into a hole thus jarring all organs; and Isaiah 53 says our Saviour was such a bloody mess that no one could recognize Him; and yet on that cross, He said, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do." We should be ashamed when we cannot find forgiveness for others.

One thief on the cross had faith and said, "Lord, remember me when thou comest unto Thy Kingdom."

And Jesus said unto him, "Verily, I say unto thee, Today thou shalt be with me in paradise"; (Luke 23:42, 43) and Jesus before His death prayed, "Father into thy hands I commend my spirit." (Luke 23:46). These sayings verify the fact that we do not die if we believe on Jesus but our spirit goes immediately to be with Him in Heaven.

God covered the earth with a mantle of darkness so that human eyes could not look upon that suffering for all our awful sins were upon the Holy One. And Jesus cried out in anguish, "My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me?" for the fellowship of God was denied Him as He paid our sin debt in full; but Jesus sent back His Spirit--The Holy Comforter--so that we can ever have His presence. And Jesus cried out in a loud voice: "It is finished!" One would have thought He would be too weak to cry at all; but it was a shout of victory for He had conquered sin and the devil and taken back all the blessings lost to mankind through Adam and Eve. "And, behold the veil of the temple was rent (torn)..." (Matt. 27:51); showing that we now go directly to the priest in the heavenlies, rocks were split in two; and some graves of the saints were opened and they came forth. The centurion and others with him seeing these wonders believed and said, "Truly this was the Son of God." (Matt. 27:54). Today, seeing God working miracles both physically and spiritually in the lives of men should lead others to believe.

On the third day, the Lord conquered death for us, for He arose from the dead, showing that we, too, will arise. (1 Thess. 4:16-18). Oh, that precious cross and all it means to you and me today!

Four Break-Ins

Reported in City

City and county officers are investigating four break-ins in Cisco last Wednesday night, police reported Friday. Victims of the vandalism were Speegle's Service Station, Lobo Barber Shop, Intermediate School and Sight-n-Sound Television Store.

A 17-inch television set was missing from the television store. Coke machines in the other three establishments were robbed of an undetermined amount of money.

Lemon Tree Boutique Changes Owners

JUANITA HARTSELL

The Lemon Tree Boutique of Cisco, located at 612 Avenue D, had a change of ownership effective Thursday, April 1, according to an announcement by the store's owners, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pippen. The women's-children's retail store was purchased by Southwest Enterprises, a Cisco-based company that was a previous owner of the business from 1969-79.

Mrs. Juanita Hartsell, who has been an assistant manager of the Lemon Tree during the Pippens' ownership, is now the store's manager as of Thursday. Mrs. Annita Ritchie of Southwest Enterprises will be a fashion buyer and will assist in the store's operations.

Mrs. Maxine Smith and Miss Eloise Torres will continue with the Lemon Tree as employees, the new owners have said.

The Lemon Tree specializes in a full line of women's ready-to-wear clothing and also has as a major feature the "Raggedy-Ann Shop" with infants and little girls' garments and accessories. The boutique also

Wiley Cox Installed As New Postmaster

Wiley Cox, a veteran of some 18 years in the postal service, took over duties as Cisco Postmaster here Friday, succeeding Louie Gilbert who resigned six months ago to accept a postmastership at Hurst.

Mr. Cox, 41, shown at left in the accompanying picture, is a native of Stephenville and has been supervisor of postal operations at the Eastland Post Office for the past two years. Previously, he spent ten months in Cisco as officer-in-charge of the post office prior to the selection of Louie Gilbert to be postmaster.

Mr. Cox lives with his wife and two children, Gregg, 15, and Lori, 13, at Stephenville. He is a member and past president of the Kiwanis Club at Stephenville. The family attends the Church of Christ there, and expects to move to Cisco eventually.

Mr. Deweber, pictured at right, will return to his post office work at Jacksboro. He has supervised operations of the Cisco Post Office for the past six months while a new postmaster was being selected.

Walter L. Jones of Fort Worth, postal systems examiner, was here Friday to install the new postmaster.

Polls To Remain Open Until 7 Saturday For Voters Of Area

The polls were to remain open until 7 p.m. at the Laguna Hotel Corral Room this Saturday (April 3) as voters of the Cisco area were deciding the fate of a water and sewer improvement bond issue, electing city councilmen, public school trustees, college regents and hospital directors.

Election Judge Doug Fry, who was in charge of the city and hospital voting, predicted that there would be a good turnout of voters. Mrs. Wilson was in charge of the polls for school and college officials. More than 2,500 persons were eligible to participate in the elections.

All voting will be in compliance with state regulations. The polls were to open at 7 a.m. Saturday. Each election judge had a half dozen assistants to issue ballots and count votes.

The city bond issue ballot contained three propositions: (1) For or against issuance of $1,450,000 for a water filtration plant and water system improvements; (2) For or against issuance of $300,000 for sewer plant improvements; and, (3) For or against spending $175,000 for new sewer out-fall lines to relieve congestion in west and northwest Cisco.

Places 3 and 4 on the City Council will be filled on another city ballot. Incumbents Loyal Lundstrom and Bobby Rains are unopposed.

Voters will fill two places on the Cisco Public School board of trustees. Candidates for Place 6 are Eddie McMillan, Bill Kendall, and Jackie A. Witt. Place 7 candidates are Emmett Rich and Steve Cozart.

Four CJC board of regents places will be filled. Lloyd McGrew is unopposed for Place 1. Candidates for Place 2 are Wm. E. (Bill) Austin and B.D. Trice. Place 3 candidate is Billy Reynolds, and Place 4 candidate is Roy Dennis, both unopposed.

Candidates for three hospital board vacancies are Emma Lee Donovan, Dr. Charles M. Cleveland and Dr. Ayres Cermin.

A total of 26 absentee votes were cast at City Hall.

Christmas In May Needs Donations

"Christmas in May" donations have now reached almost $2,500, but the board of directors and the Cisco Chamber of Commerce, which is backing the project, is calling for small donations ($1, $5 etc.).

"We need another $1,500," Dr. Norman E. Wallace, chairman of the board, and he adds that to do the job the project is designed to do, $5,000 is the minimum amount needed.

The selection committee, chaired by Red Honea, has chosen two homes to benefit from the first annual housing repair project. The repair is scheduled to begin Saturday, May 1.

Homes owned by Mrs. Alice Peavy, 1200 Avenue A, and Mrs. Trudie Andrews, 106 West 10th, have been selected to receive the benefit of the project.

Volunteers are needed to aid in the repair work, which should take several days and will be conducted through the month of May. Work days after the May 1 starting date will be announced later.

Donations for the project, in cash, now total some $2,500. The latest material and labor donation has come from Bill Austin, owner of Austin Furniture. Austin has donated the material and labor for a kitchen floor as part of the project.

Several clubs and organizations have been or will be contacted to help gather workers for the project. The May 1 starting date will be a day-long affair, with dinner provided by many of Cisco's ladies.

According to Honea only three applications for consideration in the project were received by the March 1 deadline, and one of those withdrew during the selection process.

Applications for the 1983 "Christmas in May" project may be picked up and returned to the Chamber of Commerce office anytime before March 1, 1983.

City Council Sets Meet Tuesday Night

Returns of Saturday's bond issue and City Council election will be canvassed and certified at a special meeting of the Council at 7 p.m. Tuesday at City Hall, according to an announcement.

Voters were to decide a $1,925,000 bond issue for water and sewer system improvements and to elect two councilmen. Candidates were Loyal Lundstrom and Bobby Rains, who were unopposed for reelection.

The newly elected councilmen will be honored at a reception in the council meeting room upstairs at City Hall immediately after the election result is certified and the councilmen are sworn in for new three year terms of office.

Mayor Eris Ritchie invited the general public to attend the meeting and reception.

Mary Jane Rowch Is

Candidate For District Clerk

Mary Jane Rowch, appointed in May, 1981, by 91st District Court Judge to complete the unexpired term of Roy L. Lane, who resigned, is announcing her candidacy for re-election for 91st District Clerk; subject to the Democratic Primary.

I have served as Chief Deputy for ten and a half years under two District Clerks and have served as your District Clerk since May, 1981. As of December 31, 1982, I will have served twelve years in the office of District Clerk.

I feel with the knowledge and experience of the many Civil, Criminal, Tax and Juvenile transaction processed through this office and the vast amount of paper work involved in each individual case, the filing of appeals from lower courts, processing of all Child Support payments ordered by the Court, the handling of very large sums of money deposited into the Trust Registry of the Court, preparing Civil and Criminal transcripts which are transmitted to our Court of Appeals here in Eastland, Texas, and many, many other responsibilities qualifies me to remain your 91st District Clerk.

I have lived in Eastland, Texas, since 1933. I am an active member of the First United Methodist Church and a member of the choir in Eastland, Texas. I attended public schools in Eastland graduated from Eastland High School in 1947. I attended Texas Tech University two years and Cisco Junior College.

In 1965 I married the late Robert L. (Buddy) Rowch, who was Justice Of The Peace, Precinct 1, Eastland County, Texas. I have four sons, Michael W. Arther of Iowa Park, Texas, Brett J. Arther, Phillip H. Arther and Thane R. Arther of Eastland, Texas, and eight grandchildren.

Prior to my working in the 91st District Clerk's office I worked for Lone Star Gas Company and The Department Of Human Resources for over eight years in Eastland, Texas.

To the many people of Eastland County I want to extend my apologies in not being able to personally contact each and every one of you but due to many circumstances I have not been able to leave the office to do so. Please do not feel slighted if I do not see or contact you before the primary.

I believe the decade of the eighties will be a trying time for county government and I feel with the courtesy I have given to the public and the people of Eastland County and my knowledge and experience of this office will benefit the people of our county. Your vote and support of my continuing to serve as your District Clerk will be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

REST OF THE GOSPEL
In writing these articles I have been accused of deceiving the innocent and doing Satan's work. I did not make up Luke 23:43 and John 20:17 which shows that Jesus did not take the thief to heaven but to another place where the dead go. I did not make up I Peter 3:19, 4:6 that Jesus preached His gospel to the dead. I did not make up John 9:1-2, John 3:13, Jeremiah 1:4-5 or other verses that show we existed before we came to this earth. I did not make up Ephesians 2:20 upon which only the true church can stand; or Ephesians 4:11-13 for who Jesus gave to lead His church. I did not make up the fact that what Jesus did and said is forever, thus these things must be forever. If you read the Bible and say these things are not in it, then you deceive yourself about the fullness of the gospel. I will always speak for the full truth. The Rest of the Gospel, P.O. INSPECTING the 80-gallon water tank that is part of the new Reynolds Aluminum Solar water heating system at the Hogan home are Gail Hogan, left, S&M Supply Co. official, and Roy L. Griessmyer of Dallas, district manager for the Reynolds energy products group. The system was installed at the Hogan home during the past week. (Staff Photo)

S&M Supply Named Solar Distributor

S&M Supply Company of Cisco has been selected as a wholesale representative of Reynolds Aluminum Solar Systems in this region, according to an announcement here Thursday by George Owens, S&M president.

As a regional distributor, S&M will supervise the installation of Reynolds solar water heaters in the region, which includes Abilene and other cities. The first Cisco solar heater was installed during the past week at the residence of Gail Hogan, executive vice president of S&M, and his family at 904 West 12th Street.

Roy L. Griessmyer, Reynolds district manager for energy products in Dallas, was in Cisco to supervise the installation at the Hogan home. The installation included two collectors on the roof of the carport, exchanger coil and the solar loop, an 80-gallon water tank and the assorted other equipment of the package. The solar 80-gallon tank is connected to the 40-gallon electric water heater already in use at the Hogan home. The electric heating equipment will operate less than half as much time as it normally does during winter months and virtually never in summer while providing plenty of hot water for the Hogan family, the installing engineer said.

Mr. Griessmyer said that IRS gives a 40% investment tax credit on the systems. The state charges no sales tax and property values are not increased. The average solar water heating system costs around $3,500 installed. Savings from IRS tax credit plus money normally spent to heat water will pay for a system in three years if it is supplementing a gas heater or seven years if an electric heater, Mr. Griessmyer said.

The Reynolds company gives a five-year unconditional warranty on the system that is expected to last for at least 20 years, he said.

Mr. Owens said his company would begin work in the near future to make the Reynolds Solar System available through its network of dealers. Local residents were invited to inquire at S&M Supply for information.

The roof collectors are the only visible part of the solar system equipment. The water circulating lines are in the ceilings and the storage tank was installed next to the electric water heater in a closet. The collectors are special heavy duty glass that hail storms won't damage, officials said.

The S&M company's first industrial sale was completed last week for the installation of several solar systems at a military base in San Antonio.

"Our investigation convinces us that the Reynolds solar system does the job and we are very pleased to be able to represent this company in the territory we serve," Mr. Owens said.

County Citizens Asked To Help Police In Drug Fight

District Attorney Emory Walton called on the citizens of Eastland County to join hands with police efforts to fight the drug problem in a talk last Wednesday noon at the weekly luncheon of the Cisco Lions Club.

"The drug problem appears to be growing in our county," Mr. Walton told Lions. "It would be very helpful for city or county police officers to receive a call from any citizens with knowledge that would help them cope with addicts and find pushers."

Mr. Walton said the new state facility at Vernon, where addicts age 21 and under are sent for treatment and counseling, was doing a good job. A 13-year old Eastland County youth, whose parents appealed to county authorities for help recently, has been a patient there for some three weeks, Mr. Walton said.

Drug sellers know police over the county and catching them is a big problem, the district attorney said. Concerned citizens can be of much help, he added.

Mr. Walton said state laws seem to favor the criminal. The recent change in the appeal procedure has been helpful, he said. Under new regulations, court verdict appeals are processed by the Court of Appeals in Eastland instead of going directly to the Texas Supreme Court. This takes two or three months instead of several years.

Qualifying For Men Golf Tourney Will End Friday

Qualifying for the men's city golf tournament will conclude Friday, April 9, at 6:00 p.m. Score cards should be turned in to either Bob Bennie or Charlie Graham.

There will be flights for all golfers. Entry fee is $5.00 for members and $10.00 for non-members.

Two matches will be played Saturday at 8:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Match play will determine the winners. The finals will be played Sunday afternoon starting at 1:30.

Test yourself on alcohol

Each year, one out of every two traffic deaths involves a driver who has been drinking. That translates into an average of 500 alcohol-related traffic deaths every week, according to safety authorities.

Part of the problem is that many people don't know how to recognize a potential drunk driving problem — their own or someone else's. The Highway Users Federation has prepared the following 10 question quiz to alert you and members of your family to the dangers of drunk driving. Answer the statements true or false, and see how you score.

QUESTIONS

1. You don't get as drunk on beer or wine as you do on whiskey.
2. Mixing water or soda in an alcoholic drink dilutes the alcohol and makes it less intoxicating than a straight drink.
3. Drinking milk or eating butter before drinking alcoholic beverages will line your stomach and keep you sober.
4. Martinis and mahhattans have more "punch" than other drinks.
5. Lots of black coffee will make you sober.
6. A drunk driver is twice as likely to have a fatal accident as a sober driver.

7. Drunk driving arrests are increasing.
8. On any given highway, the chances are that at least one out of 50 drivers is drunk.
9. In alcohol-related traffic crashes, about one-half of those killed are not the ones who have been drinking.
10. You are subject to arrest if your blood alcohol concentration is .10 percent or higher.

ANSWERS

1. False. The average 1½ ounce drink of whiskey, 5 ounce glass of wine, and 12 ounce bottle of beer all contain one ounce of alcohol. So they are equally intoxicating.
2. False. Mix or no mix, the alcohol content is the same.
3. False. Enough alcohol will make you drunk regardless of what you eat or drink beforehand.
4. True. Here you are adding alcohol to alcohol. Martinis and mahhattans definitely count as more than one drink.
5. False. Only time can sober up a drunk. The liver burns off only about three-fourths of a standard drink in one hour. A good rule of thumb is that for each one ounce of whiskey, a 150 lb. person should wait one hour before driving.

6. False. A drunk driver is 12 times as likely to have a fatal crash, and five times as likely to have a personal injury crash as a sober driver.
7. True. Over a million U.S. drivers are arrested for drunk driving each year, and the public is demanding more and tougher enforcement.
8. True. However, on weekend nights, as many as one out of 10 drivers is drunk.
9. True. Sober drivers, passengers and pedestrians should be alert to the danger posed by drinking drivers.
10. True, in most states. Do you know the drunk driving laws in your state?

JAPANESE TREE PEONIES

Tree Peonies have been honored for centuries in China and Japan. In four hundred years Japanese gardeners have developed more than two hundred fifty different varieties of this gorgeous shrub, making Japan the richest source of Tree Peonies in the world today.

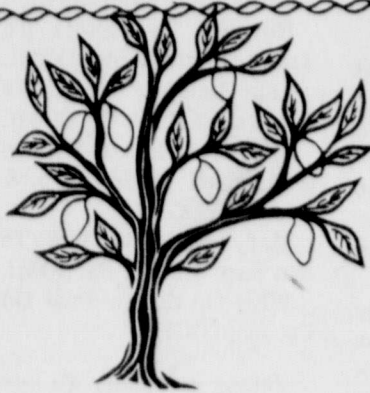

Three of the most elegant and coveted varieties of the revered Tree Peony are: Yachiyotsubaki (Eternal Camellian) is a brilliant double coral pink. It's a Japanese favorite blooming on young plants with stems that are also vibrantly coral. Shimadaijin (Island Minister) is an enormous, fully double flower which glistens with a purple hue of great beauty. Taiyo (The Sun) is a bright red double with petals that gleam with the satiny sheen. It's gigantic blooms have distinguished it as one of the true greats in its homeland.

Tree Peonies are remarkably hard and long-lived. They tolerate shade and require only routine care and maintenance. Use them toward the front of shrub borders, include them in your garden as accents and use them for foundation plantings.

Ornamental all year, Tree Peonies have decorative foliage which is deeply cut and soft in texture. The wood stems are exquisite. The texture and sheen of their petals has been described as being "like Oriental silk, ruffled, taffeta, or a crimped and glistening satin." The blooms vary in size from six to ten inches across, and the plants average three to six feet in height with a spread that often equals the height. Well-established plants bear as many as forty to fifty blooms.

The Tree Peony which was first introduced in 1787 in Tibet like a sheltered spot away from strong spring winds which can snap the brittle slender stems. They like full sun or semi-shade in hot areas. The tree Peony does best in a rich deep moist soil. They like lime and should be mulched annually. Water them regularly in very dry situations. Tree Peonies can be added to the landscape in that area that needs color and is in the shade for part of the day.

The Gordon Spot

by DeMarquis Gordon

Which grass has the best protein content for use in Eastland County?

Actually, protein content of a grass is influenced mainly by two factors: amount of fertilizer it receives and stage of maturity.

Fertilizer increases protein content. Nitrogen has been recognized for a long time to be important. The more nitrogen applied, the higher the protein content.

Phosphorus, potassium, sulfur and other nutrients are also important for improving protein content in grass.

All soils in Texas are inherently low in nitrogen and many also are low in Phosphorus, Potassium, sulfur and other nutrients. A soil test is the best guide for planning fertilization practices for pasture hay.

Maturity of a grass greatly influences protein content and other quality factors. As grasses begin to mature, protein content, digestibility and other quality characteristics decline rapidly.

As a rule, grasses are best quality when at three to four weeks of growth. Grasses which make seedheads, such as Kleingrass, Johnsongrass and bluestem, should be grazed or harvested for hay before seedheads appear.

Coastal bermudagrass makes no viable seed and should be used by the time it has three to four weeks of growth. If grown for grazing, cattle should be turned into Coastal pastures when they have less than three weeks of growth. Harvest Coastal hay at about four weeks of growth.

Soil and climatic conditions and fertilization practices influence growth rate on all grasses.

Numerous forage demonstrations have been conducted in recent years in Eastland County and results of these are available at the county Extension office.

OAK BUD POISONING IN LIVESTOCK

This is the time of year for ranchers to beware of oak bud poisoning in livestock.

Oak bud poisoning could be a particular problem this spring because cold, dry conditions have reduced range forage quality. Also, these conditions will slow spring growth of forage plants.

Oak buds are high in protein and begin growth before most desirable forage plants. They are readily eaten by livestock, especially cattle.

Tannins which are thought to be the toxic substances involved are most poisonous when oaks are budding and leafing. When more than 50% of an animal's diet is oak, the animal becomes sick. A diet of 75% or more usually causes death.

Signs of poisoning are a gaunt, tucked up appearance; constipation, frequently followed by profuse diarrhea; weakness; tendency to remain near water; reluctance to follow the herd; emaciation (wasting away); mucus in droppings; dark colored urine; and collapse.

Move animals showing symptoms to an oak-free pasture and put them on adequate feed and water. A supplemental feed containing 10% calcium hydroxide may help reduce losses.

However, prevention is a better cure for oak bud poisoning. Control oak in a pasture and save that pasture as a reserve for the oak bud season. Use moderate stocking and a deferred-rotation grazing program to improve range forage production.

Consult a veterinarian if you are unsure of the cause of livestock poisoning and losses.

FAD DIETS

Fad diets—they're becoming a "national obsession."

Americans spend billions of dollars on fad diets, pills, supplements and books in hopes of losing enough weight to become more attractive, healthier, sexier and younger looking.

But such desires to lose weight quickly actually can be harmful to your health. "What is a fad diet?" is the first question that comes to mind.

A fad diet is any diet concept that remains unproven scientifically to successfully and harmlessly lose weight.

One of the most common fad diets used by Americans today is "crash diet."

For example, the dieter may try to lose 20 pounds in 2 weeks. This is called the "yo-yo syndrome" because one quickly takes off the weight, returns to old food habits and regains the weight.

Some people are successful at losing weight in short times but seldom are able to keep off extra pounds over the long run.

Medical authorities now believe it's better to be a few pounds overweight than to put the body through the stress of losing and gaining weight over such a short time.

The low carbohydrate diet is another fad approach to losing weight quickly.

These types of diets are dangerous because carbohydrate intake is limited in an attempt to rapidly take off body fat.

Dieters, however, may go into ketosis — an abnormal condition which can lead to coma or death — on low-carbohydrate diets.

Another area of concern in fad dieting is the use of megadoses of vitamins to improve health.

Large amounts of fat-soluble vitamins A & D become stored in the body and can be toxic.

Vitamin A in large amounts can cause loss of appetite, desquamation (shedding of cells from the skin), bone and liver pain and enlargement of the liver.

Too much vitamin D can raise the blood calcium level, stunt growth in infants and form calcium deposits in various organs.

Oftentimes, arthritis patients follow fad diets in an attempt to relieve pain.

The American Arthritis Association says there is no cure for the disease and that some diets may be harmful to the individual.

Some common fad diets used by arthritis patients are: honey & vinegar, megadoses of vitamins, modified crash diets and eating only fresh fruit.

For best results, the AAA recommends that those with arthritis eat a balanced diet and maintain or attain a normal weight.

Food fads often may be difficult to identify.

Consider the following facts about fads before deciding what diets are good to follow.

* The author or proponent of the diet will try to undermine your confidence in the American food supply. But don't worry, we still have the safest supply in any nation.

* They may attack the Food & Drug Administration, the American Medical Association, the Public Health Service or any recognized authority on nutrition.

* They use "scare" tactics on health and play on emotions rather than issue factual data about their diet.

* They have something to sell, such as a book, supplement or food.

* They make extravagant claims about their product.

H & R BLOCK HAS 1040A'S INSTANTLY PROCESSED

With Prices Starting At $7.50

H&R Block fights inflation again for the "short form filer". PRICES ARE STARTING AT $7.50, which includes the full BLOCK guarantee. In addition, the 1040A form will be instantly processed, so you will only have one visit to H&R Block. All you will need to do is sign and mail it, to get your refund. (Some H&R Block offices are independently owned and prices may vary in outlying cities.) Block has never charged on the basis of income or the size of the refund, but solely upon the return's complexity. Skilled preparers conduct personal interviews to be certain that every legal deduction to which the customer is entitled will be uncovered. Often taxpayers are short changed when they simply file the form they received in the mail from the government.

All types of tax returns are done by H&R Block. This includes the Federal 1040A, 1040, State returns, complex corporations and foreign tax income and preparation.

Spring gardening 4-H style

Christy Gentry

As winter nears an end, young people involved in 4-H Gardening Projects look ahead to spring and planting of gardens.

These 4-Hers have found that gardening can be fun, educational and can result in dollars in their pockets as well as lots of fresh vegetables for the family, says Christy Gentry, Eastland County Extension Agent.

It seems that a strange phenomenon occurs -- vegetables grown in one's own garden through personal efforts taste 100% better than those bought in a store. The youngster who normally turns up his nose at cooked cabbage will ask for "seconds" if he grows the cabbage in his own garden.

Home gardens offer a good method for young people to help their families beat the high cost of living and provide wholesome and nutritious products for the dinner table.

Besides obvious savings in money, gardening also teaches youngsters responsibility and thrift. Responsibility learned from almost daily care in nurturing a tiny seed into a full grown, living plant cannot be taught but must be experienced.

Other side benefits for youth include the education which comes with gardening. Site selection and preparation, fertilization, a planting plan, seed and plant selection, planting, watering, insect and disease control and a multitude of other procedures must be mastered by the young person.

"Perhaps a foremost educational aspect of gardening is learning how a seed germinates and grows into a plant; how the plant uses water and nutrients from the air and soil to live and grow; and how the plant flowers and pollinates to produce its fruit and seed for future generations. Life itself is unfolded in a 4-H gardening project," explains

Christy Gentry.

A 4-H garden can take many forms: a large field garden, a smaller back yard garden, a container garden, (in baskets, cans, or plastic containers) a window box garden or a garden grown in the edge of a flower bed. Some vegetable gardens are decorative as well as edible. Lettuce, onions, carrots and parsley are attractive vegetables which will grow well in a flower bed.

Youth enrolled in 4-H Gardening Projects can participate in the 4-H Garden Show which will be held July 8, 1982 in the county courthouse. Ribbons will be awarded and left for display all day.

Regardless of garden size or type, 4-H members enjoy working with gardens. It is time to plan spring gardens, so join the fun. Join 4-H. For more information, contact Christy Gentry (629-2222) or John Blair (629-1093), at the county extension office in the courthouse.

Appraisal Review Board attends meeting

Steve Thomas, Head of the Eastland County Appraisal District office, along with a newly-appointed Appraisal Review Board, attended a training session in Abilene on Wednesday.

The three members on this Appraisal Review Board were selected by the Eastland County District Board of Directors, with a Board member from each locality having representation in the choice. 1982 is the first year the ARB is entitled by law to serve.

The training session, conducted in the new Taylor County Courthouse, was designed to acquaint members of Appraisal Review Board. The meeting was led by members of the State Agency's Office of General Counsel and Education and Standards Division. Speakers pointed out that functions of the ARB, while first set up in Bill 621, have been expanded by the Legislature (House Bill 30) over those of the old Board of Equalization.

While the old Board of Equalization (BOE) was limited to review and hearing of protests of property values only, the ARB is empowered to hear and determine such issues as improper granting or denial of exemptions or special-use valuation, questions of proper jurisdiction to tax a property by a particular appraisal district or tax office and a variety of challenges to taxing jurisdictions.

Like the previous Board of Equalization, however, the Appraisal Review Board has no authority over tax rates or budgets of taxing jurisdictions.

The ARB has the right to subpoena witnesses and certain records, to request assistance from the State Property Tax Board and to consult legal counsel if the appraisal district has budgeted funds for that purpose.

In addition, the ARB must maintain records of its proceedings and issue written orders concerning its findings.

County receives grant

Senator Bob Glasgow of Stephenville has just received notice from the State Criminal Justice Advisory Board that Eastland County has received a grant from the State of Texas.

The grant in the amount of $24,202.00 is to Eastland County for an assistant district attorney for that county.

"These grants are to assist local communities and counties in their law enforcement and criminal justice programs and are a must for our local agencies," stated the Senator.

He also added that this program of local assistance is one of the first to be cancelled by the Federal government and subsequently picked up by the State. Federal funds for the criminal justice grant programs were discontinued last year and have been continued with the State of Texas supplying the needed funds.

My Daily Prayer

Submitted by Lucille Joyce

Dear God, as I begin this day
Let me turn my thoughts to you,
And ask your help in guiding me
In everything I say and do.

Give me the Patience that I need
To keep my peace of mind.
And with life's cares, I hope, Dear God,
Some Happiness to find.

Let me live but for Today,
Not worrying what's ahead,
For I have trust that you will see
I get my "Daily Bread."

Give me Courage to face life's trials
And not from troubles run,
Let me keep this thought in mind,
"Thy Will", not "Mine", be done.

And if some wish I do not get
Though I have prayed to Thee,
Help me to believe and understand
You know what's best for me.

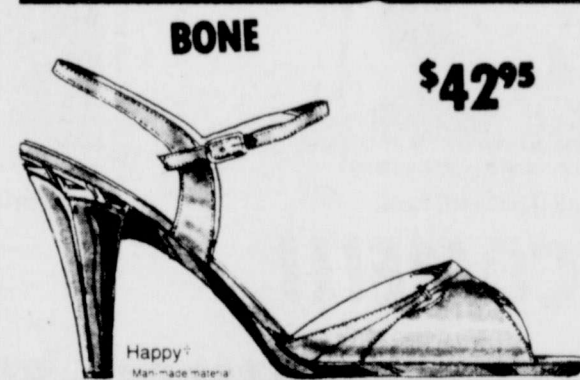

I've failed you many times, I know,
But when tonight I rest,
I hope that I can kneel and say,
"Dear God, I've tried my best."

Pest Alert

by GORDON WOOLOM

PESTICIDE SAFETY

Whether you're a veteran or a novice, there are some basic spraying facts every gardener should keep in mind. Proper and safe use of spray equipment and pesticides is important for health and good pest control. Spray materials should be mixed at recommended rates. All directions and precautions on the label should be adhered to. Use the proper chemical for the pest which plagues you.

Don't guess at amounts. Always measure the pesticide carefully using measuring utensils. Mix only the amount needed for a single application.

Good coverage is the key to efficient pest control. Spray on target, especially under leaves where insects settle and disease begins. A haphazard application will not curb an infestation of insects or stop the spread of plant disease.

It is not necessary to drench your plants; spray just to the point of run-off. You may think more is better, but over-spraying can injure plants.

Weather is an important consideration in pesticide application. Spray before the heat of the day and always avoid spraying when temperatures are high. High temperatures cause some pesticides to evaporate quickly and leave an oil base residue that can harm plants. Some pesticides are not effective at lower temperatures. Never spray when heavy rains are expected. Rain or watering after application will reduce the effectiveness by washing the spray material off plant leaves.

Pesticide "drift" can sometimes cause injury to non-target plants. Therefore, pesticides should be sprayed on a calm day. Drift can also be minimized by spraying at a lower pressure and using the largest practical nozzle opening.

Store pesticides in their original container. Not only is it important to keep all original label information on hand, but keeping pesticides in unmarked containers is dangerous. Keep all pesticides and spray equipment out of the reach of children. Always store them under lock and key.

A person's attitude in using pesticides is also important. Pesticides should not be considered miracle products or cure-alls. But instead should be thought of as tools to be used in a total pest management strategy. Precautions should always be taken when pesticides are being applied. Always read and follow label directions.

4-H-A PEOPLE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

How can anyone influence the development of people to make them responsible, self-respecting members of our democratic society?

The 4-H program can provide experiences!

When our nation was younger and even up to one or two generations ago, young people did not have the problem of meaningful experiences. They were in small, intimate groups, mostly farm and small church oriented, where they fit into the picture. But, because most people live in an urban setting today, meaningful experiences may be limited.

That's where 4-H comes in. 4-H can help the family, church and community provide proper development of young people by providing the right kind of experiences.

Most of the things we want young people to become are part of the 4-H program. The whole idea of 4-H is development of young people. Since 4-H is family oriented and co-educational, it is truly people.

4-H starts in one of our first "groups"—the family group which has so much influence on us. The 4-H program goes down to the "grass roots" because the people in it—from Extension to local leaders and even the young people themselves—actually help decide the kind of program they want.

So, besides involving the family group, 4-H also closely involves the community group.

Anyone who works with young people can tell you that most want and need to belong, to be recognized, be respected for what they are, develop a sense of responsibility and freedom which disciplines and have the good feeling of doing something meaningful by themselves.

Camp Inspiration Missionary Society recently installed new officers

The women of the Church of God at Camp Inspiration met Wednesday for their monthly Missionary Society. Officers were installed for the year. Installing officer was Lula Mae Basham, President Edna Johnson, Vice President Hester Laird, who will also be the Spiritual Life Director, Secretary-Treasurer Darlene Basham, Parliamentarian and Membership Chairman Eula Brown, Historian Mildred Johnson, Stewardship Director Nona Harris, Finance Director Stella Hallenbeck, Missionary Education Director Ruby Smith, Appointed Reporter Lula Mae Basham. Business meeting was presided over by Edna Johnson. The theme and scripture for installation was brought from John 1:5 "God is light and there is no darkness at all in Him" from the Good News Bible.

An old fashion window was used to show reflections, a dirty window will not give reflections like a clean window. Windows do not all have glass but the window lets in light, other people can see their primary usefulness as it reflects appearances, of what is inside and outside. Air and light are very important and our image is reflected, so is God's love for mankind. Each officer passed before the window and left an impression on the window of her office in the forms of Snow Flakes, Birds, Butterflies. As she received her obligations of her office as an individual, or leader, and opportunities, responsibilities, to guide others, witnessing by our reflections to carry God's light into all the community about us and on into a very wide world. We do not have to go far away to be a missionary. The Burden to share developed through fellowship and Bible Study, prayer and informative programs is to reflect like the window into the lives around us.

We would like for anyone to come listen and visit our programs just anytime you can. Fellowship and refreshments were enjoyed in the Camp Inspiration Dining Hall after the meeting.

BECKY CHAMNESS

GREG CERMIN

Two Students Place In Essay Contest

Two Cisco High School students, Becky Chamness and Greg Cermin, placed first and third in the Abilene Civitan Club Essay Contest.

The topic of the essays were "Influence in Government--Are your rights as a private citizen being threatened by special interest groups?"

Students from all schools in the Big Country area are invited to participate in this contest.

Becky is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Chamness, a member of the Cisco High School National Honor Society, recipient of Cisco Chamber of Commerce Excellence Award, and recently participated in the Lion's Club Speech Scholarship Contest. Her first place essay will proceed to higher competition.

Greg is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres R. Cermin. He is also a member of the CHS National Honor Society, high school Trig Club, and received the Cisco Chamber of Commerce Academic Award of Excellence for a male student.

On April 8, Becky and Greg, along with their parents and sponsor, Mrs. Louise Taylor, will be luncheon guests of the Abilene Civitan Club. Becky and Greg will present their essays to the club members, and they will in turn receive awards for their accomplishments.

Cisco Folklife Festival Will Entertain, Educate & Nourish

The Cisco Folklife Festival has things to entertain, educate, and nourish a person.

The Cisco Folklife Festival will be held on April 24 and 25 at the CJC Agricultural Building. The public can visit the Festival on Saturday from 10-10. Then the doors will be open to the public from noon to 5:00 on Sunday afternoon.

Continuous demonstrations and entertainment have been planned by the Cisco Civic League, sponsor of the Folklife Festival.

There will be about 40 booths of artisans displaying, demonstrating and selling their arts and crafts. These people are coming from Albuquerque, N.M.; Mesa, Arizona; Abilene; Brownwood; Big Spring; Ranger; Baird; Nacogdoches; Waco; Plainview; Rosco and several from Cisco.

Some of the arts and crafts to be featured by these craftsmen will be ceramics, stuffed animals, painting (oil, china and watercolor), denim purses, dolls, woodwork, Russian embroidery shirts, belts, buckles, billfolds, jewelry, stain glass, polished rocks, crochet, chimes, silk flowers, clocks and tables out of red wood, barb wire plaques, baskets, horse shoe nail art, stoneware, homemade fancy dipped and molded chocolates and others.

There will be demonstrations of watercolor painting and Roku. Most of the arts and craftsmen will be working on their product. So if someone is interested in any of these crafts, this will be a good time to get some timely advice and instruction. Maybe this would help them choose a hobby.

A schedule of the folkife demonstrations will be

3 CJC Cagers To Play In All-Star Game

Three Cisco Junior College basketball players have been chosen to play in the annual Hall of Fame All-Star basketball game in Waco April 16.

Sophomores Peggy Taylor and Carolyn Cheeks will play in the women's game, which will pit Region V against Region XIV.

Charles Houston will be on the Region V men's team in its battle with the Region XIV men.

Taylor and Houston were each named to the Region V All-Tournament teams in action at Big Spring earlier this month. Both also earned All-Region honors and were on the Northern Texas Junior College Athletic Conference team.

Cheeks, a sophomore from Lampasas, earned second team All-Conference honors.

The women's game gets under way at 6 p.m., with the men's game following at 8 p.m.

printed in the newspaper just prior to the Folklife Festival.

A new demonstration this year will be Wesley and Rachel Valek making sauerkraut.

A scheduled of the entertainment will also be printed later in the month.

Some of the entertainment will be the ever-popular style show, a ballet class dancing, square dance presentation, request music hour, etc. Watch for further announcements about an "old fashion ice cream freezing contest." Only hand-cranked freezers will be used in the contest.

A food tent will be set up adjacent to the entertainment tent. A variety of foods and drinks will be available. Hamburgers, hot dogs, sausage-on-a-stick, sausage plate, chalupas, cakes, pies, doughnuts. Table and benches will be placed under the tent for eating convenience. Homemade breads will also be featured again this year.

An entertaining and educational weekend has been planned for anyone who enjoys a fair-like atmosphere. So circle the April 25 and 26 weekend as a time to stay in Cisco -- and COME TO THE CISCO FOLKLIFE FESTIVAL.

If anyone is interested in a booth, call Mrs. Willis (Vallie) Parker.

Student Is Ranked Fifth

Fred Hernandez, a Cisco Junior College freshman from Abilene, is currently ranked fifth in calf roping among students competing in the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association's Southwest Region.

Hernandez has accumulated 80.00 points after three winter rodeos in the region.

He is up against No. 1 ranked Wesley Williams of Tarleton State University and is led by another junior college cowboy, Jesse Doss of Howard College, and by Guy Miller of Eastern New Mexico University.

The rankings are listed in the March issue of the College Rodeo magazine, which is published in Walla Walla, Wash.

The next area rodeo competition for the CJC Rodeo Team will be at the Tarleton State University Rodeo, which is scheduled April 14 in Stephenville.

News From The Center

By Mae Green

The residents' birthday party was held Thursday, March 18, at 2:30 p.m. hosted by the Pleasant Hill Homemakers Club.

The residents were all treated to assorted home baked cookies and green punch in celebration of St. Patrick's Day. Birthday honorees were Mrs. Era Hale and Charlie Hibbert.

On Thursday, March 25, at 10 a.m. M. Slaughter surprised the residents with a group of singers from the Intermediate school. This group of singers was accompanied by Mrs. Jeffcoat at the piano. The principal, Bob Lindsey, came along with the group.

We could readily see why the singers won first place in singing. The residents are still talking about the program. Thank you a lot for coming our way.

Roland Smith and the Sandy Land Band will be at the Center April 13 this month, the second Tuesday.

On Thursday, April 8, at 7 p.m. will be family night. All family members are invited to come. Looking forward to seeing you.

Announces Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. D.L. May of Abilene, formerly of Eastland, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Lynn, to Kory Banning Wallace, son of Dr. and Mrs. Norman E. Wallace Jr. of Cisco.

A graduate of Eastland High School, the bride-elect will receive an Associate degree from Cisco Jr. College in May where she is a member of the Wrangler Belles.

The prospective bridegroom graduated from Cisco High School and is presently attending CJC. He will attend Texas A&M in the fall where he will be working toward a B.S. degree in Petroleum engineering. He is employed by Nimrod Pipe and Supply of Cisco.

The couple plans a June 26 wedding at Southwest Park Baptist Church in Abilene.

Cisco Writer's Club To Meet Tuesday

The Cisco Writer's Club will meet Tuesday evening, April 6, 7:00 p.m., at the Cisco Chamber of Commerce Building on Avenue D. A special program will be presented for the evening -- photography and journalism by Julia and Walton Worthy of Waco.

Julia Worthy, who writes a regular front page column "Spotlight and Sidelights" for The Waco Citizen, will discuss this and other aspects of her prose writing. Then the husband and wife team will combine poetry with photography, using Walton Worthy's colored slides and poetry from Mrs. Worthy and various Cisco writers.

Bill Roberts, president of the Writer's Club, invites the public out for a very enjoyable program.

Sobering View Of Mexico Presented To Rotary Club

A sobering view of that part of Mexico outside the plush vacation and urban centers was revealed to the Cisco Rotary Club Thursday noon by Brad Kimbrough. He was one of a group of 12 members of the Cisco First Baptist Church, led by Bruce Stovall, who last December made a five-day tour of Baptist missionary efforts in one of the most primitive regions of that country.

His reminiscences, illustrated with slides of scenes photographed during the trip, added up to warning that unless American churches and service organizations take a more concerned and sympathetic interest in the lives of a people who live in virtual serfdom--a condition into which communism is making significant penetration--we risk an increasing hostility through misunderstanding.

CJC Will Offer

Petroleum Geology

Cisco Junior College will offer "Petroleum Geology" in Cisco on April 15, 20, 22, and 27 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the Science Hall lecture room on the CJC campus.

"Petroleum Geology" is a basic geology course for non-geologists as it pertains to the petroleum industry.

Instructor for the course is Jeff Jones. Jones has been Petroleum Exploration Geologist for the Jones Company in Albany since 1978. He has a B.S. degree in Geology from West Texas State University.

Fee for the 12 hour course is $60. This is an adult education course and all attending will receive a Certificate of Completion with continuing education units.

Registration deadline is April 14. To register or for more information call Mrs. Watts at 817-442-2567, extension 113.

With the unrest existing in that part of the world, he said, "we are going to be in need of their friendship." He had words of criticism for expressed ideals of service which ignore conditions elsewhere and are actually devoted to self-interest on the part of American people. "We need to work with our missionaries among the poor people of Mexico and help our neighbor to the south of us," he said.

Illustrations of a culture little advanced beyond that of hundreds of years ago were shown during his talk. An economy in which the ownership of a burro as a means of transportation is considered wealth, is based upon goat's milk, a bare roof over one's head and food little better than a bowl of porridge. It gives one a sense of shame to return from such a land where the soil is owned by the government and the people themselves are practically enslaved by the bankers who loan them the money to work it. Such is the social order that a farmer's standing with the authorities determines whether or not he can even gin his cotton before it decays in the fields in which it is piled, he said.

He compared the benefits of social security in the United States with the condition of a man about 75 years of age whose sole security was the corner of a barn, a stint of goat's milk that he made to last through the day and a bowl of some kind of soup.

There is a suspicion of the white man which is offset by the dedication and hard work of church missionaries who live and work among the poor as "real people." Although evidence of a change is stirring among these impoverished people, it is being resisted to a great degree by the government which does not want change to take place too fast, Kimbrough told the club.

Even in the matter of medical services, the government is dominant, he said. One of the scenes was that of a crippled boy who had no means of transportation except to be dragged about on a blanket until a wheel chair, provided by Dr. E.E. Addy of Cisco, was furnished him through the missionary group. Such equipment is controlled by the government and instead of being furnished the needy poor is sold on the black market, said Kimbrough. Families with insufficient income to meet the black market prices cannot save enough money to buy it and remain in need, he said.

The response of the people to the building of churches is encouraging, he told the club. In an arid land where church buildings are few and far apart, the group found that even the smallest so built drew sometimes hundreds of worshippers, crowding the building and looking in at the doors and windows. Most are built of adobe on rock foundations laid without benefit of costly concrete, although one of the scenes was that of a church made of concrete blocks cast in large meat tins.

Missionary work carried out by the church extension groups covers all types of social needs, he said.

"If we are to help these people," he said in effect, "we need to look outward more and inward less."

He found the people of the impoverished communities surprised and pleased that a group of Americans would come and help them without being paid for it.

Kimbrough, owner of the Kimbrough Funeral Home, was presented by James Cotton, program chairman. --BAB

C.J.C. Football Squad Signs Six High Schoolers

Cisco Junior College is announcing the signings of six high school football players to letters of intent, according to Bob Keyes, head football coach.

Matt Simpson, 6-3, 190, split end, Bonham; Darryll Sanders, 5-8, 170, cornerback, Killeen Ellison; Ken Lambert, 6-2, 215, linebacker, Arlington Sam Houston; and Scott Branstetter, 6-3, 200, tight end, Deer Park are among the top signees.

Also signing are Carl Rainwater, 5-10, 180, quarterback, Justin Northwest; Charles Groover, 5-8, 140, split end, New Caney; and Wade Ferguson, 6-1, 210, defensive end, Deer Park.

The CJC Wranglers play an independent football schedule each season. Last year, in his last year as head coach, Bill Anderson led the Wranglers to a 7-2 regular season finish.

The season record included wins over three Southwest Conference junior varsity teams (Southern Methodist, Texas Tech and Texas Christian) as well as wins over the McMurry, University of Texas at Arlington and West Texas State JVs. CJC's other victory came over New Mexico Military Institute.

Ranger Junior College and Northeastern Oklahoma A&M were the only teams to defeat the Wranglers during the regular season. CJC lost to Snow College of Utah 51-14 in the 16th Wool Bowl Classic in Roswell, N.M., on Thanksgiving Day.

CJC will play five home games and five road games during the 1982 season, opening at Chesley Field September 4 against McMurry College's junior varsity. It will host Tyler Junior College (Sept. 11), West Texas State University JV (Oct. 1), the UT-Arlington JV (Oct. 14), and will close out the season by hosting Northeastern Oklahoma in a 2 p.m. game Nov. 6.

Road games include Texas A&M JV (Sept. 10), Ranger Junior College (in Breckenridge, Sept. 25), Texas Tech JV (Oct. 7), New Mexico Military Institute (Oct. 23), and North Texas State University JV (Oct. 28).

Holy City Of The Wichitas - no place on earth?

Welcome to
Wichita Mountains
Wildlife Refuge and Holy City Of
The Wichitas
Near Lawton, Oklahoma

Christ Of The Wichitas fulfillment of a dream by Rev. Mark Wallock, founder of the Easter Sunrise Service. The 8000 pound white marble statue is twice life size, imported from Italy, dedicated on November 9th, 1975. It stands approximately twenty-four feet tall with its natural stone base. A gift from school children and many others.

By Viola Payne
EDITORS NOTE: Fortunately the problem outlined in this story, the litigation directed toward the Holy City of the Wichitas and its Easter Pageant, does not apply to the Kendrick Pageant at the local outdoor theatre. For the setting of the Kendrick Pageant, unlike that of the Holy City in Oklahoma, is privately owned. It is therefore not subject to laws governing the role of the Church on public lands.

Easter at the Holy City of the Wichitas, in southwestern Oklahoma near Lawton, will mean another large Pageant - with several thousand spectators arriving at the mountain amphitheatre by 2:00 a.m.

They will sit among rocks on a low hillside, gazing toward a wide sweep of cobblestone structures, waiting for movement and light to come from darkness. First there will be a burst of music and finally actors in colorful costumes will portray more than 50 scenes from the life of Christ. The resurrection will be depicted at sunrise, concluding the program.

Brooding above this, like a guardian spirit, will be a magnificent statue of Christ. Built of white marble, it has an almost alabaster glow. And visitors will remark that a more serene place than this Holy City of the Wichitas can scarcely be found.

The ironic thing about this serenity is that the whole repeated the sunrise service the next year.

Noting how closely the granite mountains of the present Holy City site resembled the countryside of the Holy Land of the Middle East, Wallock envisioned a permanent setting in this natural amphitheatre.

This portion of the Wichita Mountains, near the Ft. Sill Military Reservation, had already been placed in a National Wild Life Refuge. So during the depression of the 1930's a plan for the grounds of the Holy City was formulated. The setting would include a Chapel of all Faiths, where visitors could worship God in individual ways. This Chapel would be open to the public for weddings and other special services. About 15 other structures, each connected with experiences during the life of Christ, would be built in a wide semi-circle.

A Use Permit was issued by the Department of Agriculture and approved by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Then the W.P.A., under President Roosevelt, constructed most of the granite structures. These were finished in 1935 and '36.

Visitors are amazed at the care used in construction and the attention to intricate details. Similar buildings are scarce in the United States, for they reflect an abundance of hand labor. The Catholic Mission Churches of the southwest, constructed by native Indians under the supervision of Spanish artisans, are about the only structures in this part of the country with the same durable flavor. Buildings of the Holy City are made of countless thousands of small, russet-colored granite stones of a uniform round size, generally no larger than a baseball. The resultant effect is that of enduring timelessness.

Children love to come to the "Holy City". They pile out of cars with their parents and wander up and down the paths. There is never any charge for visitors at the complex and they can stay as long as they like. Some visitors, however, leave contributions in a small box at the Church. This goes for upkeep of the grounds, which are managed by the Easter Service Association of Lawton. A phone for the Holy City is listed out of Cache, Oklahoma, a predominately Comanche Indian settlement ten miles southwest across the mountains.

The Holy City is considered a valuable tourist attraction by towns of the area. So the current litigations generally hit local citizens right on their "fighting side". Visitors to the mountains, too, state that they hope the controversy will not cause the objects of art to be removed from their scenic location. So the outcome will be watched with considerable interest in Oklahoma and elsewhere.

Wheels For Life Bike Ride fights childhood cancer

Bike-a-thon chairman Bobby King today asked Olden residents to participate in the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital "Wheels-for-Life" Bike-a-thon, April 24, 1982.

Volunteer workers and riders are needed for the Bike-a-thon to raise funds for the world-famous research center and its battle against childhood cancer and other catastrophic childhood diseases.

Bobby said this year's ride is being dedicated to Terry, a leukemia patient in St. Jude. "By riding for Terry, we'll really be helping all stricken children since research is the only way these illnesses can be conquered," Bobby said.

"We're looking for people who will contribute some of their time and energy to help children live. We really need the ones who can make this Bike-a-thon successful."

In the Bike-a-thon, riders enlist sponsors who donate a sum for each mile completed. Riders who raise $25 will receive a St. Jude T-Shirt, and those raising $75 will receive a jacket," said Bobby. "We also have prizes for other riders." Sponsor forms are available at Olden Water Office, Olden General Store and Olden Baptist Church.

"You can put your muscles to work for a child's life in this Bike-a-thon," Bobby said. "We need every bike and every rider."

Interested persons can contact Bobby King, Box 30 Olden, Texas 817/653-2274.

St. Jude Hospital was founded by entertainer Danny Thomas and operates primarily from public contributions.

May 1, 1982 is Homestead deadline

There has been some confusion as to the deadline for the filing of Residential Homestead Exemption applications for 1982. A recent article in many of the papers indicated that the deadline was April 1, 1982.

The April 1, 1982 deadline was for a few property owners who were eligible for a special one-time only sign up. These were property owners who in 1979 had been 65 years of age or older and had not signed up for their 1979 homestead exemption.

All other homeowners, regardless of age, still have the month of April to sign up for the Residential Homestead Exemption which is given by all School Districts of the State.

The Homestead Exemption application; as well as applications for all other available exemptions can be obtained at the Eastland County Appraisal District office which is located on the 2nd floor of the Eastland County Courthouse. If you have a question, as to which exemptions are available, or as the eligibility requirements; you should contact the Eastland County Appraisal District. The phone number is: 629-8597.

The Deadline for All Exemptions is May 1, 1982. Please return your application prior to that date if you wish to have it granted for the 1982 tax year.

Senior Citizens Nutrition Menu

The Senior Citizens program is built around the theme of providing excellent and nutritious food plus the other many programs such as telephone reassurance, emergency alert, etc. but primarily to assure well-balanced meals.

Today we will discuss the use of fats and carbohydrates in our bodies.

Energy is obtained from fats and carbohydrates, but it is important to eat fat and carbohydrate rich foods that also contain vitamins, minerals or protein. This means eating plenty of fruits, vegetables, whole grain or enriched flour products, beans, rice and rolled oats. Candy, pie, cake and other dessert foods should be decreased or eliminated. The best snack foods are plain vegetables and fruits, which are high in vitamins and low in calories, fats, sugar and salt.

Whole unrefined grains are recommended because the refining process markedly decreases the amount of B vitamins (only 3 of which are added to enriched flour) Vitamin E and trace minerals.

To assure three excellent and nutritious meals per week, be sure and call 442-2263 or 442-1557 and make reservations for the luncheon.

The programs for the week included: Marcia Adams played her guitar and sang several songs, she introduced two of her students Leigh Callarman and Julie Dennis who played their guitars and sang several songs, one of which was an original song composed by the two girls. Also Mrs. Adams introduced

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

A pastor from a large city was asked to be the speaker in a small rural church. His son accompanied him. As the visiting pastor left the church after the program, he saw an empty collection plate and he put a dollar in it. After the coffee hour, the pastor and his son were ready to leave but an elder of the church stopped them.

"It is the tradition here," the elder explained, "that we give the visiting speaker whatever free-willing offering is left in the collection plates. I am sorry to say that all that was collected was one dollar."

The pastor accepted the dollar (the same one he had given) and as they reached the car, the son said, "You know, Dad, if you had put more into it, you would have gotten more out of it."

Apart from the humor of this story, it indicates something worth remembering. You can get more out of life in general - if you put more into it.

'ROUND AND 'ROUND SHE GOES...

The question is, where will it stop? Many people have no idea. Life can be lived in a flurry of activity - flitting from person to thing, to dream, and back again. Or it can just settle into a monotonous routine. Either way, meaninglessness has taken hold. Lack of meaning in life has been called furious activity around an empty center. That's what a whirlpool is. Activities, meetings, schedules, parties, appointments - but no direction. The swirling pace can get to you - especially if there's a hollowness inside. Jesus talked a lot about meaning in life. But he not only talked about it. He gives it! He came to take us out of the whirlpool and set us on course in the Life Stream.

THE EXCAVATION work just east of City Hall that began the other day was in preparation for a concrete slab that will be poured as part of a Memorial Park. This Cisco Civic League's project will honor the late W.B. (Bill) Wright, long time city attorney and prominent resident of our town.

After the death of the late Mr. Wright on Feb. 10, 1979, the Civic League received a gift from Mr. R.L. Parker of Tulsa, brother-in-law of the Ciscoan, for use in a suitable memorial. A committee of Civic Leaguers headed by Sherry Wright, daughter-in-law, decided on a memorial park near City Hall and plans for it were prepared by Rodney Paulcher, Abilene architect, and approved by the City Council.

The little park will have two concrete benches, brick and cement walk ways, shrubs, shade trees, and low maintenance plants. They're hoping to finish the project by May 1.

This will be a fine tribute to a man who did a lot of good work for his native city - a tribute that we know his friends and relatives will appreciate.

ELSEWHERE IN The Press today you will learn that The Lemon Tree, local ladies and children's ready-to-wear store, has changed hands. Some years ago, Mrs. Eris (Annita) Ritchie was the store proprietor and decided to sell it because she needed to devote full time to babies.

Recently, the Harold Pippens, who purchased it from the Ritchies, decided that Betty Pippen needed to devote full time to the new baby at their house. So they sold the store back to the Ritchies whose youngsters have advanced beyond the baby stage.

The transaction took place April 1st. And Mrs. Juanita Hartsell, who helped Annita run the store and stayed on to help Betty, is still staying on.

The new little Pippen was adopted at age one-day last Dec. 23rd in time to be the big Christmas attraction at their home. And she still is a big attraction at age three months. She had a checkup last Monday, weighed 14 and a half pounds, measured 26 inches, and is fit as a fiddle. She answers to the name of Lindsey Lynn.

THE CAST COMES off Monday and they're looking forward to having Carolyn (Mrs. Doug, Jr.) back in charge at the White home, we're told. She suffered a broken leg in a icy weather fall a couple of months ago and has been pretty handicapped in the looking after sundry chores of a wife and mother to two boys.

Mrs. White operates the local travel service and husband Doug is a contractor.

GLAD TO HEAR that Senor S. Lopez is making progress in recovering from problems that follow a stroke he suffered several months ago. He goes to the Rehab Center in Abilene a couple of times a week for treatment and is responding. Local Lions Club members are helping transport SL over there for treatments. Harold and Ginger Redd of Arizona and John and Betty Butts of California are due in Cisco this week end for a visit with Mrs. Bill Wright and children, Billy and Sherry Wright and Gary and Ann Meyer. Mrs. Redd, Mr. Butts, Mr. Wright and Mrs. Meyer are nieces and nephews of the late Mary Jane Butts.

BLUEBONNETS and other spring wildflowers are making their annual appearance around town. Out on West 15th Street, the yard at the Gordon Davis home is full of beautiful blue. City Hall's front area is also a mass of blue. And the bluebonnets are beginning to bloom out at the Wesley Smith residence on the Lake Road. The Church of Christ yard on IH-20 is another area of bluebonnets worth seeing. The Walter Knowlens of 1212 West 9th Street spent last week down in the Hill country and found

NOTICE (OF MEETING OF GOVERNING BODY OF CITY OF CISCO)

Notice is hereby given that a special called meeting of the governing body of the City of Cisco will be held on the 6th day of April 1982, at 7:00 p.m., in the Council Chambers at which time the following subjects will be discussed, to wit:

- Old Business:
- Item I: Consider Approval of Bid Letting Date for Oil and Gas Leases on Airport and Landfill Tracts.
- New Business:
- Item I: Canvass of April 3, 1982 Bond Election.
- Item II: Canvass of April 3, 1982 City Officer Election.
- Item III: Swear in Elected Candidates.
- Item IV: Elect Mayor Pro-Tem.

I, the undersigned authority, do hereby certify that the above Notice of Meeting of the governing body of the City of Cisco is a true and correct copy of said Notice and that I posted said Notice on the bulletin board in the City Hall of Cisco, and said Notice was posted on April 2, 1982, at 10:00 a.m. o'clock and remained so posted continuously for at least three days immediately preceding the date of said meeting.

bluebonnets, Indian paint brush and other wildflowers in beautiful profusion.

FORMER POST Office official Jack Ledbetter, who is now a Scranton farmer, says he hasn't planted anything yet - the ground's still too cold. Wouldn't you like to go up in West Texas Utilities Company's machine - the one that raises folks like Vandell Weathers up to cut limbs or fix electric wires? Diana Clark Reynolds, No. 1 assistant to Dr. Kevan C. Blaser, Ranger veterinarian, had given away all but one of the puppies we mentioned here the other day. Somebody left a box full of puppies on the vet's office doorstep, if you remember.

THE W.E. (Dizzy) Deans went to Stephenville last Wednesday to attend funeral services for W.A. Deskin, 84, brother-in-law of Mrs. Dean. Sorry to hear that Floyd Craft, well known Ciscoan, suffered a broken leg when a car hit him near the Mobil station at Avenue D and 8th Street late last Tuesday afternoon. He is a patient at E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital. Golfer Sutton Crofts held out a 90-yard pitch shot on the Cisco Country Club No. 9 green last Wednesday afternoon for a birdie three that he appreciated. And who wouldn't?

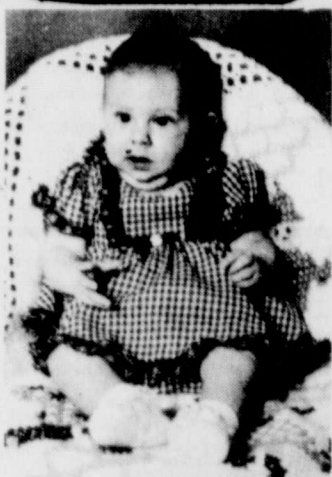

A RECENT visitor in Cisco was Jim Parker of Comanche, a candidate for State Representative of our 65th Legislative District. He attended CJC before going on to become a lawyer. As you know, our county used to be represented by Mr. Joe Hanna of Breckenridge but was moved out of his district by the last legislature re-districting program.

Cisco Library News

The latest Caldecott Medal winning book, "Jumanji," has been added to the Library's books for children of pre-school and kindergarten age. This annual award goes to the "most distinguished children's picture book." Among others are: "Nine Days to Christmas"; "Why

LINDSEY LYNN PIPPEN
Harold and Betty Pippen would like to introduce their 3 month old daughter, Lindsey Lynn, to all their friends and relatives in the Eastland and Cisco area. Grandparents are Clarence and Jessie Pippen of Cisco and Gene Millican of Eastland. Lindsey has two sisters, Julie Lund of Eastland and Suzanne Pippen of Tucson, Arizona, and a brother, Greg of Cisco. Lindsey also has numerous aunts, uncles and cousins in the area, and is especially proud of her nephew, Aharon Lund, of Eastland.

Mosquitoes Buzz" and "The Egg Tree."

Another local interest book at the Library is "The Raving Foe," a Civil War diary and list of Confederate prisoners written by Major James T. Poe, C.S.A., while he was a prisoner at Johnson's Island, Ohio. This 72-page book that includes maps, pictures and genealogical data of the Poe family, was compiled and edited by Major Poe's great-grandson, J.C. Poe, in 1967.

A second copy of "The American Red Cross-The First Century" is being ordered so that one book can remain at the Library, and another will be available for loan. This is a remarkable book and a mind-refresher of hundreds of important episodes in our Country's history.

Orvie Green, who moved here from New Mexico, and whose wife, now deceased, was Olivia Mayer, a Cisco High School graduate, was partially successful but not totally in his search for "The White House Cookbook."

This famous cookbook that survived for almost a century (1828-1929) was re-edited and redesigned although "faithfully retaining the flavor of the earlier editions" by Frances R. Grossman in 1976. Mr. Green wanted to make copies of certain pages of the old book for his niece, Sharon Mix of Roanoke, daughter of Marian Mayer Daly, also a former Cisco High graduate. Mrs. Mix had found one of the older editions but portions of the book were missing. Through the Cisco and Abilene Libraries, the 1976 Cookbook was obtained, but not an original. Very likely someone in Cisco has the old book - it would be nice to have a copy at the Cisco Library.

The "On-Loan" shipment of books from the Big Country Library System at Abilene has arrived and some among these fifty books are:

Non-Fiction: "Famous Ghost Stories"; "Complete Book of Knitting and Crocheting"; "The God Bit."

McNaughton Books: "Prize Stories"; "The Rockefeller Gift"; "The Appaloosa".

Fiction: Priestly's "Fog, Lost, Found"; Paterson's "Day of Judgment".

Thomas' "Firefox"; Wallace Irving's "The Man"; Heyser's "Faro's Daughter"; Joffo's "A Bag of Marbles".

Mysteries: "Death on the Rocks"; "The Shadow That Caught Fire"; "The Ivory Dagger".

Westerns: "The Cry of the Cat"; "First Claim"; "The Big Land".

Many of these are in large type for easier reading. The above is only a sample, of course, and besides, the Library has around 15,000 books.

Mrs. Mary Bob Leverage is alphabetizing the books now - a slow but important step toward the goal of accurate cataloging.

The Library is open Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m.
