HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERREL HALLMARK

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY to all mothers on Sunday, May 9th. It is your day and I hope your individual families remember to make it special for you.

I WISH the weather would decide whether it wants to be cold or warm. Last week was warm and people started putting their air conditioners in and turning on the cooling systems in their homes. Now this week furnaces are having to be relit and stoves turned on for the early morning hours.

Temperatures were in the 40s during the mornings of this week.

DIDN'T WE get a good

Scranton High

School Homecoming

Set For June 6

The annual 1982 Scranton High School Homecoming will be held Sunday, June 6, at the Scranton Community Center (on the school grounds).

Registration will begin at 9:00 a.m. Each family is requested to bring a covered dish to be served at noon. Drinks, tableware, plates, cups and bread will be available at the Center.

Saturday night, June 5, preceding homecoming, is the date of the monthly musical at the Community Center.

The officers for 1982 are Donald Rhyne, president; Mary Alice (Morgan) Edwards, vice president; Mildred (Boland) Geist, secretary-treasurer; Opal (Gattis) Edwards, chairman program committee; Jean (Bailey) Posey, program committee; and Joe Wheatley, program committee.

rain Wednesday night? It was accompanied by some lightning and thunder but overall was just a good, steady rain.

EVERYTHING seems to get greener and greener as the days go by and gardens all over town are growing.

IT WON'T BE long now until Cisco's public school students get out for the summer. The local schools will dismiss May 28th.

TRYOUTS WERE held here Thursday night for Pony League baseball teams. I understand there will only be one team this year in Cisco's Pony League.

SOFTBALL games and Little League games are in full swing now and provide family entertainment for local citizens.

CHS Track Team Is At Regional Meet

Eight Cisco High School track team members went to Stephenville Friday to participate in the two-day regional track and field meet. Preliminaries in all events were on the Friday program. The finals will begin at 1 p.m. Saturday (May 8).

Coach Tom Slagle had his Lobo scheduled as follows: Sprint relay—Joe Perry, Randall Rattan, Jason Potter and Larry Adams or Doug Hendricks.

High Jump—Gary Speegle Hurdles (high and intermediate)—Gary Speegle. 100 and 200 meter sprints—Jason Potter.

Shot putt and discus throw—Kenneth Preston. Shot putt—Mark Humphries.

Judge Is Studying Defense Motions In LeFlore Case

Judge Jim Wright of 91st District Court has taken under advisement motions by Defense Attorney Don Wilson before setting a trial date for Charles A. LeFlore, 20, on charges of murder in the Nov. 29th death of Debra Garcia of Cisco.

The second session of a pre-trial hearing was held last Thursday in Judge Wright's court. The first session was held April 30th.

LeFlore's court-appointed attorney asked the judge to suppress a reported confession to Sheriff Johnny Morren of Eastland County. The Abilene attorney was appointed by the court to defend LeFlore.

Mrs. Garcia, a night clerk at Quickway Grocery, disappeared from her job and her body was found in a roadside ditch west of Cisco two days later. Attorney Wilson said LeFlore's arrest was illegal because no warrant had been issued and there was no probable cause for his arrest.

The attorney contended that he was seeking to determine whether LeFlore's constitutional rights had been violated because it was uncertain if LeFlore understood his rights when the reported confession was made.

Sheriff Morren testified that LeFlore was advised of his rights by Carleton Holder, Cisco justice of the peace, when the youth was arrested on Jan. 6th in Cisco. LeFlore was held in the county jail from Jan. 6 to Jan. 9 without being charged, the sheriff said. Mr. Morren said he warned LeFlore of his rights each time he questioned him.

Authorities said LeFlore was released Jan. 9 and taken in custody again Jan. 14. At that time, Texas Ranger Gene Kea and Cisco Police Chief Larry Jernigan took LeFlore to Abilene for a polygraph test, and LeFlore was again advised of his rights, Mr. Morren said. The sheriff added that he was present Jan. 18 when LeFlore dictated a confession to Ida Quinn, jail matron and the sheriff's secretary.

Justice Holder testified that he had advised LeFlore of his rights on Jan. 18th when the murder charges were filed.

LeFlore remained in the county jail under $50,000 bond.

Judge Wright was expected to rule on the defense motions during the coming week. A trial date has not been set.

Pole vault—Brian Fleming.

Larry Adams qualified for the long jump event by winning first at the recent district meet in Brownwood, but he has a leg injury that will likely keep him out of this event. If his leg permits, he was expected to run with the sprint relay team.

Speegle won the regional high jump last year and went to the state meet. Preston and Humphries have been throwing the shot well and Coach Slagle felt that one or both would qualify for the state meet.

Patty Sellers was the only Cisco High girl to qualify for last week's regional track meet for girls at Stephenville. She placed 6th in the 100-meter dash.

Robert Dudley told the board that this year's observance will be held on Monday, July 5, as the 4th falls on a Sunday and many offices and businesses will observe the 5th as a holiday. A number of new events will be added to the park program, Mr. Dudley said.

The July 4th committee includes Chairman Steve Cozart, Roy Smith, Randy Speegle, Linda Cozart, Gene Abbott, Charles Cox and Mr. Dudley.

Chairman Gene Guinn told the board that the Christmas in May Project got off to a good start Saturday, May 1, with some 75 persons volunteering their labor. The initial two projects will be completed within three weeks, Mr. Guinn said.

The chamber's tourist and convention committee, including Joe Wheatley, chairman, Harry Brown and Mrs. Lucille Hester, also attended the meeting and took part in the discussion.

Mr. Abbott said three proposals are under study and a recommendation to the board is expected to be ready for the June meeting. Routine reports, including a financial statement, were given to the board. President Elaine Dixon presided. The invocation was given by Brad Kimbrough.

Annual Club Partnership Golf Tournament Set This Weekend

A good turn-out of area golfers was expected this weekend for the Cisco Country Club's annual J.L. Stafford Classic, a partnership golf tournament. Qualifying ended Friday and the first 18-hole rounds were scheduled Saturday.

The finals will be played Sunday with the second and third flights teeing off at 8:45 a.m. and the championship and first flights at 1:45 p.m. A hamburger luncheon was planned at noon Saturday at the club for tournament players and others buying tickets.

Entry fee for the club's "fun tournament of the year" was $40 per two-man team. The format called for Friday play to be a low-ball par 18-hole event. Saturday was to be "scotch" day with the players hitting alternate shots. The Sunday final rounds will be a scramble event with both team players hitting from the spot of the best ball.

Prizes will be cash awards in all flights with the amounts depending on the number of teams participating.

Bennie Nichols and Mike Thiberville, last year's tournament winners, were defending their championship. Don Johnson of Athens, who has played in the Cisco partnership for many years, was on hand to team with Ralph Glenn in the championship flight.

Bobby Smith, Cisco city

champion, and Delbert Schaefer were a team in the tourney.

Thirty-three teams played in last year's tournament, which was limited to 40 teams. Chairman Ralph Glenn said the golf course was in excellent condition for the event.

The tournament honors the memory of the late J.L. Stafford who was a leader in Cisco Country Club golfing activities for many years.

Worley and Winnett Will Receive Rotary Awards

Joey Worley and Leslie Winnett have been named recipients of the Cisco Rotary Club Citizenship Awards for 1982, according to an announcement by Eris Ritchie, chairman of the Awards Committee of the club.

The two Cisco High School graduating seniors were chosen by a select committee from the Cisco High School faculty. The award is based on meritorious conduct in some dozen traits of good citizenship as demonstrated by the two during their four years at CHS.

Joey and Leslie will be honored at the Rotary Club's annual Citizenship Awards Luncheon on Thursday, May 20, at 12:00 noon at the Colony Restaurant. Speaker for the occasion will be Dr. William J. Teague, president of Abilene Christian University.

Joey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Worley of 500 West 8th Street in Cisco. In CHS he has been quite active in sports, participating in football, basketball, track, golf and tennis. He has also been on the one act play cast, French Club, Drama Club, and Athletic Council. He was a coronation representative and class favorite, and also was nominated for King Lobo. He has served on the student council and newspaper staff, and is currently president of the newly-organized CHS Key Club.

Leslie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Winnett of the Old Abilene Highway, has been an active member of the Lobo Band, and she served that organization as a flag corps girl. She was also a Band Sweetheart nominee. Leslie was in athletics through her junior year, and participated in the Distributive Education program this year. She is a member of the National Honor Society, Student Council, and D.E. Club. She has been a class officer as well as nominee for Queen Lobo and Homecoming Queen. She was also selected for Senior Who's Who.

The Citizenship Awards program is an annual project of the Cisco Rotary Club which was begun in 1966. Mr. Ritchie was president of the club at that time, and he has been chairman of the program each year since then. Quite a number of well-known speakers have been featured at the annual affair, including a congressman, lieutenant governor, state Attorney General, a state judge, a county judge, well-known newsmen, and several college and university presidents. Each speaker appearing at the annual luncheon has been a person interested in the promotion and encouragement of good citizenship among youth.

Last year's address was given by Scott Bailey, county judge of Eastland County.

Anyone who would like to attend the luncheon is invited to do so, Mr. Ritchie stated. Reservations are not necessary. "Just come out to the Colony, go through the buffet line, and join us in the meeting room," Mr. Ritchie said. Parents of the two young people as well as CHS administrative officials will be special guests of the club for the occasion.

Groundbreaking for West Texas Utilities Company's first coal-fired power plant will be held Saturday, May 22, at the plant site eight miles southeast of Vernon.

The public ceremony at 2 p.m. will be jointly sponsored by WTU and the Vernon Chamber of Commerce. Participants will include U.S. Representative Jack Hightower of Vernon; Glen D. Churchill of Abilene, president of WTU; Bob Arnold, Wilbarger County judge; and Roy Dickey, Jr., mayor of Vernon.

A luncheon for members of Vernon civic clubs and their spouses will be held earlier at the Wilbarger Auditorium in Vernon.

The Oklaunion Power Station will be a joint project of three operating companies in the Central and South West System. WTU will be the major owner and will operate the plant, while Public Service Company of Oklahoma and Central Power and Light Company will own smaller shares.

Total capacity of the plant's first generating unit will be 640 megawatts. Construction is expected to take more than four years, with the unit scheduled for commercial operation in December, 1986. Boiler fuel will be low sulphur coal from Wyoming.

Ryan Construction Company of Wisconsin is contractor for site preparation. Foundation work is scheduled to begin in October.

Three Oil Companies Hold Annual Meetings

A report on a producing oil and gas well in Lee County, Texas, that yielded a return of 117 per cent on the investment in an 18-month period was a highlight at the annual meeting of stockholders of three oil and royalty companies here Thursday, May 6.

The three companies are International Royalty & Oil Co., Black Giant Oil Co., and Golden Triangle Royalty & Oil, Inc., all headquartered at Kamon House, 1304 Avenue L. in Cisco. Stockholders were present from a number of states, including Wyoming, Florida, Colorado, New York and Texas.

All three companies hold royalty interests in the Faske Well in Lee County. The report said that the well is currently producing 190 barrels per day and yielded 105,000 barrels of oil plus 106 million cubic feet of gas in the 18-month period since it went on production.

Richard F. Hare of Fort Worth, president of IRO, was re-elected. Robert Kamon was re-elected president of Golden Triangle, and Ivan Webb was re-elected as Black Giant's president. Other officers and directors of the three firms were also elected.

Mr. Webb, reporting to Black Giant stockholders, said his company has added new emphasis to shallow oil production prospects where drilling costs are considerably less than deep holes. BG has acquired interests in 216 acres for shallow pay in Eastland County, and in Indiana where eight wells are projected on 1,600 acres. Another deal pending is a three well program on 8,200 acres in a proven gas area of Pennsylvania. Mr. Webb said. BG is also negotiating for interests in Kansas and Ohio, he added.

Mr. Kamon, who returned April 30th from Australia, reported on activities in Queensland.

A major new Australian discovery, the Jackson field, is located five miles from AP 267 P, a concession in which International Royalty & Oil and Golden Triangle Royalty & Oil hold royalty interests. Three Jackson wells are reported to have come in with potentials of 4,200, 1,000 and 800 barrels of oil per day. Drilling projects on AP 67 P are planned as well as on other concessions in which the Cisco companies hold interests.

In various concessions in Queensland, Australia, International Royalty & Oil holds 360,960 net royalty acres under 83,933,440 gross surface acres; Black Giant Oil holds 726,750 net royalty acres under 35,357,440 gross surface acres; and Golden Triangle Royalty & Oil holds 3,649,738 net royalty acres under 88,183,840 gross surface acres as well as a 12 1/2% net profits interest under 11,923,200 acres.

The concession holder of the 114,000 acre lease is currently seeking a farmout arrangement for a 3-well program. The concession is in the second year of a 10-year term. Mr. Kamon plans to return to Australia later this month to continue his work there in behalf of the companies.

Mr. Webb told the Black Giant Oil and Golden Triangle Royalty & Oil stockholders that the three companies approved plans to hold their annual stockholders' meetings on the first Thursday in August, beginning August 5, 1983.

Records showed the number of stockholders: IRO 1,436; BGO 1,715; and GTRO 2,188.

Assets were shown as follows: IRO $2,118,937; BGO $1,240,816; GTRO $1,631,291.

Number of wells each company has interests under were shown as follows: IRO 475; BGO 343; and GTRO 70.

by DeMarous Gordon

Before long, blooms will be dropping from squash, cucumbers and tomatoes in many home gardens in Eastland Co.

On squash and cucumbers, male flowers which produce pollen are separate from female flowers which produce fruit. To complicate matters even more, male and female flowers may not be open on the plant at the same time. If this happens, flowers will fall off due to lack of pollination.

Usually male blooms will appear first on squash and cucumber plants. Male blooms are attached to the plant by a green stem while each female bloom has a small squash or cucumber attached directly behind the petals.

Female squash and cucumber blooms falling off early in a plant's life when male blooms are not present is normal. However, when female and male blooms are both present and female blooms continue to fall off, then there's a pollination problem.

Pollination means the transfer of male parts to female parts. This task usually is accomplished by bees or insects visiting the flowers. Blooms of squash and cucumber plants are only open for one day. If pollination does not occur during this period, when the bloom is open due to lack of pollinating insects, then inadequate pollination occurs and fruit drop follows.

If pollination is a problem, you can hand-pollinate the blooms. This involves pulling off a male bloom and rubbing or dabbing it on the female bloom. The result will be that you'll have squash to eat within five to seven days.

Tomato blooms drop off because of another type of pollination problem. The tomato bloom, unlike squash and cucumber, is classified as a perfect flower, which means that the same flower has both female and male parts. The problem is that female parts of the flower that must be pollinated are located above the male part which produces pollen. If pollen is inactivated by high temperature or made sticky by cool, wet, cloudy conditions the female part will not be pollinated and the potential tomato will fall off.

Tomato flowers are wind, or mechanically pollinated, so you don't have to worry about having bees. Flowers can be artificially set or made to stay on plants by using blossom-set hormone which is sold by many local garden centers or nurseries. These tomato-setting products are most effective during early spring when cool temperatures and cloudy conditions cause poor fruit set.

So, if your blooming vegetables start dropping their flowers, try to figure out the reason why. A little time and attention paid to your plants during this critical period will result in more groceries on the dinner table.

Demaris Blachly presents program on historical dolls

Nine members and 14 guests enjoyed a fascinating display of historical dolls by Mrs. Demaris Blachly, Arlington, Monday, April 26, at 2 p.m. at Eastland Women's Club.

Mrs. Blachly, mother of Linda Kiser, a member of Charles Crawford Chapter, also showed slides and gave the history of many of the dolls. This doll-making span of history covered years from 1830 through the Civil War, 1861-1865, to 1890. There was a "Flapper" doll of the 1920s, a Shirley Temple, 1935 to Scarlett O'Hara, 1937. There were also interesting personality dolls.

The dolls were made of wool, clay, mohair, human hair, cloth and sawdust, porcelain and metal, and china. Each doll was dressed beautifully in the style of the day. They ranged in size from one inch to 17 inches. There was a sizable investment on that table as old dolls are rare and extremely valuable.

Dorothy Perkins showed a dollhouse, completely furnished, and given to her by her grandfather Glesson. There was also a Betsy Ross doll holding a flag; doll and flag were made by an Eastland woman.

Guests were Mesdames Blachly, Merket, Corbell, Rebecca Perkins, Jeanie Griffin, Margaret DeFord, Thomas, Goodman, Kinaird, Smith, Michelle Lindsey and Anna Folsom.

Hostesses, Linda Kiser and Nannette Keith, served cheese-cream cake, pumpkin cake, an assortment of pickles, nuts, dainty sandwiches, coffee and sparkling punch.

GROWING GERANIUMS
It has been said that Geraniums which are natives of South Africa, are known and loved by more people than any other flower in the world. Geraniums grow almost anywhere with a minimum of care and are found in most gardens. The color range for geraniums are white, pinks, brilliant red and a purplish black. Geraniums grow outdoors from year to year with little attention.

They can become shrubby plants four to five feet tall while in colder climates they are treated as small delicate annuals. The Lady

Washington Geraniums also called Martha Washington may reach a height of three feet and have huge clusters of three to four-inch single and double blossoms sometimes blotched with a darker shade on the two upper petals.

The ivy and the common geranium produce single or double flowers. The ivy geranium receives its name from the ivy shape leaves and the trailing and sideways growth that can extend up to four feet. The common geranium which is the most popular normally grows two to three feet tall but may reach a height of six feet or more. The variety of geranium with the concentric markings on the leaves is among the common variety. Sometimes this geranium is also referred to as zonal geraniums.

There are many scented geraniums with a variety of scents. There is not a geranium scent such as other plants have. The geranium may have a rose, lemon, peppermint, apple or nutmeg scent to mention only a few. Then the geranium may have no scent whatsoever. The fragrance emanates from the leaves and not the flowers.

You may use the ivy and common geranium as borders, beds and pot plants because they will bloom throughout the growing season. The ivy geranium is particularly effective in hanging baskets and window boxes. They can also be used as ground cover.

The Lady Washington is not successful in many sections of the country as other geraniums since it needs temperatures below 60 degrees to bud. It is usually grown by forest for Mother's Day and Memorial Day.

Good Gardening until next week from your garden editor, Ted Brice.

County Extension Office Offers Advice On Crepe Myrtle Shrubs

The crepe myrtle is rapidly becoming the queen of landscaping shrubs in the south. The beauty of this plant can be seen in many places - including old abandoned homesites. Seeing the crepe myrtle still thriving under these neglected conditions says something for its stamina; being able to pull through some of the most adverse conditions.

Many crepe myrtle admirers are curious as to why those plants in the wild, so to speak, are less often attacked by the powdery mildew fungus than those that receive an abundance of TLC.

One explanation of this phenomenon might be the difference in the humidity level surrounding the plants in different locations. Usually crepe myrtle growing in well manicured landscapes are watered and fertilized frequently, thus increasing the humidity and promoting lush tender growth. This is an ideal environment and a perfect food source for the powdery mildew fungus.

Usually mildew is not a serious threat until the flower buds begin to form in late May or early June. It is at this time when the cellular carbohydrate level begins to increase and this is caviar in the mildew diet.

Mildew-infected flower buds are much more deforming and distracting from the plant's beauty than the leaf infection. Consequently, preventive measures should begin just at the first signs of flower bud formation. Repeated applications at timely intervals will be needed throughout the entire flowering period.

If insects such as aphids or "plant lice" appear during the blooming period, both problems can be taken care of by mixing an insecticide and fungicide.

General use fungicides for preventing mildew on crepe myrtle include: folpet, karathane, actidione PM, funginex and benomyl. These are compatible with insecticides diazinon, malathion, orthene and others.

Infected leaves, flower buds and petals drop off and collect around the base of the plants. This serves as the overwintering home for the mildew fungus. These should be raked up and destroyed to help reduce the chances for infection from this source the next growing season.

Mildew on other plants in the landscape, such as roses, euonymus, zinnias and daylilies, is not likely to spread with crepe myrtle. Powdery mildew is host specific and does not usually spread from one type of plant to another.

Feeding crepe myrtle with adequate amounts of phosphorus, the middle number, will help increase its tolerance level. Phosphorus promotes vigor and that is a necessary ingredient for disease prevention.

Vaccinating Adult Herds From Texas Animal Health Commission

AUSTIN—While a calfhood vaccination program is considered sound management practice for brucellosis, the question arises: what about adult vaccination?

"It's a good question, and the answer depends on several factors," Dr. James Alexander, epidemiologist, Texas Animal Health Commission, said recently.

Adult vaccination does have a place, but a producer must consider his own herd situation.

"Adult vaccination may be useful in herds that are chronically infected or where an 'explosive' situation exists; that is, the possibility of an outbreak of brucellosis. This would involve vaccinating all of the females in the herd that are over 12 months of age.

"This is most useful in herds with a low percentage or no vaccination at all. It should also be considered in non-infected herds when there is a high potential for exposure," Dr. Alexander explained.

He said by vaccinating the adults, the immunity of the cattle in the herd is increased which will retard the spread of the disease as well as reduce or prevent abortions. This allows for increased flexibility in the individual herd plan and should reduce the number of reactors eventually removed from the herd.

"Once an adult vaccinated herd is released from quarantine, the card negative cows are free to move in commerce," he explained.

He suggested any one planning to adult vaccinate should consult with his veterinarian or a veterinarian with the Texas Animal Health Commission.

An information program to encourage more vaccination for brucellosis control is in progress, sponsored by the Texas Animal Health Commission.

In 1981, about one-third of the eligible calf crop in Texas was vaccinated for brucellosis. A 70 percent level of vaccination of eligible calves is needed to significantly reduce the disease.

Vaccination ages for heifers as official vaccinates are 4 to 12 months of age. The reduced dosage of Strain 19 is recommended.

Lights from the Christian World
By: Josephine Cleveland

One can see the word exit printed in large, bold red letters in large auditoriums, hotels or hallways of buildings. This sign has often prevented people from experiencing a tragedy in their lives. It not only is placed there to give people a feeling of security but it provides for them a way of escape when it would be dangerous to linger.

Jesus provided an exit for his children when they are wandering in the troublesome darkness of this world. He says, "Come unto me and I will give you rest"

He provided an exit for you when he died on the cross, Trust Him to keep you when the days become long and you become weary. His help and comfort is available to you. You must believe that He is the rewarded of them that diligently seek Him.

Exit into the path that Jesus provided for you. You will find a place of safety from the difficult experiences that try you. The exit He provides will take you into a life of everlasting joy and peace. Yes, Friend, it is an everlasting way of escape.

WORD of GOD

PARABLE OF JESUS

A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the wayside; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit a hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Luke 8:5-8

Weddings

Elizabeth Jean Gray and Raleigh Ray Darnell Are Wed In Rising Star April 17

Elizabeth Jean Gray and Raleigh Ray Darnell exchanged marriage vows at 3:00 p.m. April 17, 1982, in the First Baptist Church of Rising Star with the Rev. R.D. Williams officiating the double ring ceremony.

Jean is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jim Gray of Carbon. Ray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Darnell of Rising Star.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of sheer white chiffon featuring a fitted bodice with net yokes and a net skirt; the bodice and skirt were edged in lace and satin ribbons. Her veil of sheer illusion, edged in white satin and accented with small pearls, cascaded from a small lace cap. She carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses set amidst all white carnations, stephanotis, baby's breath and ming fern.

Attending the bride were her sister, Mrs. Ruth Tritton of Fort Worth, as matron of honor and Jeanie Mauldin of Kermit as bridesmaid. Carrying bouquets of pink carnations, baby's breath and ming fern, they wore dresses of mint green Quiana with capelet sleeves and lace ruffles forming scooped necklines.

James Cook of Rising Star served the groom as best man and Jeff Harrell of Early served his brother-in-law as groomsman. Ushers were Randy Goldston of Rising Star and the bride's brother-in-law, John Tritton of Fort Worth.

Kaye Pollock, organist, and Pat Walker, pianist, played a duet medley of songs as guests waited for the ceremony to begin. Amy Ashley, soloist, sang "I Love You With the Love of the Lord," and "Whither Thou Goest."

The reception given by the bride's family was held in the Activity Building of the church and was attended by approximately 106 wedding guests. The wedding cake, decorated with pink roses, and the punch were enhanced by the pink floral arrangement and pink candles. Chocolate cake, chocolate roses, honeyed nuts and coffee were served from the groom's table.

Highlighting the reception was music provided by Mr.

Dana Hamilton of Arlington on a "Hammered Dulcimer." Serving at the bride's table were Darla Hood, Mary Rankin and Tena Yeary.

Serving at the groom's table were Christy and Cindy Harrell.

Helping with the reception were Peggy Dennard, Ruby Murdoch, Bertha Mae White, Doris Griffin and Norma Carpenter.

Following a wedding trip to Jefferson and Caddo Lake the couple will be at home in Rising Star.

The bride attended Irving High School and Hardin-

Simmons University. She is an accountant for the City of Cisco.

CAVANAUGH MCMURPHY

'Clarence Darrow For The Defense' Will Be In B'ridge

The Monterrey Players, a company of Breckenridge actors, will present Cavanaugh McMurphy as Clarence Darrow, the renown lawyer, on May 14 and 15 at City Hall Auditorium in Breckenridge.

The one-man play by David W. Rintel is taken from highlights of Irving Stone's biography of Clarence Darrow for the Defense.

The concept of the show is similar to Hal Holbrook's Mark Twain interpretation and James Whitmore's Will Rogers character. In the two-act play, the famous attorney reminisces over his long and renowned career, touching on many of his famous trials including the significant "monkey" trial and the sensational Leopold and Loeb trial. Darrow reviews much of America's legal history with salty humor, courtroom gusto and human relish. His own private life and many contemporary events including labor conditions are woven into this story of a man who accepted unpopular cases and defended unpopular causes. This champion of dissenters and underdogs was also a writer and lecturer and in his tale, he conjures up many famous people of his life and times.

The original production which starred Henry Fonda, opened to rave reviews in 1974. Clive Barnes, of the New York Times said, "...I urge everyone to see this play. It is just plain wonderful." Tony Mastronianni of the Cleveland Press: "This is pure courtroom. It is also the story of one man, a champion of the underdog, a loner, a fighter for causes." WCTB (TV) New York: "Socko Theatre...in which one man says a lot of gutsy, exciting, inspiring, funny beautiful things."

The play however, ran for a limited engagement in only five major cities in the United States. According to Designer-Producer Debra Lynn Garza, the show has been revived very few times since and the May performances in Breckenridge with Cavanaugh McMurphy as Clarence Darrow, will provide an excellent opportunity for theatre-goers to view the show before it goes on tour to Sweetwater and other West Texas cities.

Actor Cavanaugh McMurphy received his theatre degree at East Texas State University in Commerce, Texas. While a student at the University, he was honored with the "Golden Masque Award" for acting and the American College Theatre Festival Award for Excellence for the play "The Time of Your Life." Cavanaugh has worked with the Amity Community Theatre in Marshall, Texas, the Gaslight Players in Shreveport, La., the Stephens County Community Theatre in Breckenridge, and the Laguna Dinner Theatre Company in Cisco. His stage credits number over 40 productions including "MacBeth", Tom prior in "Outward Bound," the father in "Six Characters in Search of an Author"; Julian Winston in "Cactus Flowers," George Antrabus in "The Skin of our Teeth"; Noah in "Rainmaker"; and King Arthur in "Camelot."

The presentation of "Clarence Darrow" is the first theatre offering in Breckenridge for the Monterrey Players. They intend to produce Edward Abee's "Zoo Story" and an original horror melodrama in the future.

Tickets for "Clarence Darrow" are priced at $3.00 for adults and $2.00 for students. Tickets will be sold at the door and may be purchased at Montgomery Wards in Breckenridge. The first nights proceeds will benefit the Breckenridge Day Care Center. "Clarence Darrow" opens a two night showing on May 14 and 15 at 8:00 p.m. in City Hall Auditorium in Breckenridge.

Commencement Set At Stephen F. Austin

NACOGDOCHES--Spring commencement is set for May 15 at Stephen F. Austin State University with approximately 839 candidates for degrees.

Steven Dale Thompson of 808 West Valley will receive a Bachelor of Business Administration.

Dr. Edwin W. Gaston Jr., interim vice president for academic affairs at SFA, said graduation will be at 10 a.m. in the SFA coliseum. Dr. William R. Johnson, president of SFA, will confer the degrees.

The graduating class includes some 738 candidates for the bachelor's degree and 101 for the master's degree.

Located in historic Nacogdoches, SFA enrolled over 10,000 students for the spring 1982 term.

The month of May has been designated as "Older American Month," and the Senior Centers throughout the country are recognizing the important proclamation. The average older American is a firm believer in himself...and herself. They believe in this very day because they realize every minute contains an opportunity to do good. Most of all the older American believes in the family and endeavors to create harmony by trust and cooperation. Studies have proven the older American is very optimistic and believes in well thought-out decisions because as one older person stated "consult God first then go ahead." These older people believe in the now, realizing that yesterday is past, and tomorrow may never come. Yes, the older American month is being recognized at the Cisco Senior Center this month using this theme as their motto "the most important thing in life is to love someone. The second most important thing in life is to have someone love you. The third most important thing is to have the first two happen at the same time. Plan to visit your Center this month. Call the registrar and tell her you plan to visit every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The phone number is 442-1557. The Senior Center is your Center and you will find people who are 60 years of age and older talking about their common problems. Plan to visit this week! The programs for the week included: Pat Owens, director of the Wrangler Belles, played the piano and sang several beautiful songs; and Faye and Jack Stevenson sang several "ole songs." Eastland Center was host to Cisco Center for an afternoon of games. The menus for the week are:

- Monday--swiss steak, cauliflower with cheese sauce, pineapple/carrot jello salad, cheese stick, cobbler, bread, butter and drink.
- Wednesday--macaroni-tomato beef casserole, english peas, tossed salad with french dressing, apple crisp, bread, butter and drink.
- Friday--chicken fried steak with cream, whole kernel corn, spinach, banana cake, bread, butter and drink.

In Brief

GOOD RAIN HERE
Rainfall measuring about two inches fell in this region last Wednesday night and Thursday morning, providing much needed moisture for spring grain crops and for land being prepared for planting. The rain was accompanied by a cold front that dropped temperatures to the low 40s early Friday. Clearing and warm weather were forecast for the weekend.

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

What one person deserves to be held in more esteem than any other? Most people will readily reply - "Mother." Without hesitation. The home is the foundation of moral and spiritual strength and mother is the central character in the structure. It is where character is formed, habits adopted, attitudes are born. For most people, mother had the greatest influence. Instinctively she is and always has been best equipped to create light in dark moments of despair. Her love, devotion and dedication are really unexplainable. Her endless unselfishness is unexplainable. When people condemn, for whatever reason, her belief and steadfast refusal to disbelieve are unexplainable. Her attitude and actions in her self designated responsibilities and obligations are likewise unexplainable. A mother is truly a mystery of creation, beyond the price of costly pearls. We think of these things on Mother's Day as we honor her on her day. Happy Mother's Day to all mothers - everywhere.

'ROUND AND 'ROUND SHE GOES...

The question is, where will it stop? Many people have no idea. Life can be lived in a flurry of activity - flitting from person, to thing, to dream, and back again. Or it can just settle into a monotonous routine. Either way, meaningfulness has taken hold. Lack of meaning in life has been called furious activity around an empty center. That's what a whirlpool is. Activities, meetings, schedules, parties, appointments - but no direction. The swirling pace can get to you - especially if there's a hollowness inside. Jesus talked a lot about meaning in life. But he not only talked about it. He gives it! He came to take us out of the whirlpool and set us on course in the Life Stream.

Auditions For CJC Theatre Set Saturday

Acting auditions for the Cisco Junior College Summer Dinner Theatre season will be held Saturday, May 8 and Saturday, May 15 at 10:00 a.m. in the Roof Garden Dinner Theatre atop the Laguna Hotel in downtown Cisco. This year's season includes Neil Simon's recent play I Ought to be in Pictures, followed by the musical comedy hit A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum, ending with a different kind of comedy in George Herman's

The Company of Wayward Saints. As in the past, a number of young professional actors will be cast in many of the leading roles with apprentices and members of the community acting all the other parts. C.J.C. theatre director Philip Craik says, "Our summer season this year should be of particular interest to students and community people looking for an opportunity to act. The musical (Forum) requires 18 cast members and our final production will be cast almost entirely with students from our apprentice program."

Those interested in auditioning will be asked to read selections from the various plays, and, if they wish, they may present memorized audition pieces of no more than three minutes. For further information contact: Philip Craik, Director Summer Theatre, Cisco Junior College, Cisco, Texas 76437, (817)442-2567.

People n Things

DR. ROBERT Welker, a young Fort Worth medical doctor, has been in Cisco several days practicing in the offices of Dr. E.E. Addy, who was out of town attending a medical seminar.

Dr. Welker is serving a general practice residency at Peter Smith Hospital in Fort Worth and will be finishing his work in about a year. He is a native of Arizona and, we understand, he expects to establish a medical practice in Texas. His wife and three children joined him here Friday for the weekend.

The young doctor was a guest at local service club luncheons at their meeting this past week. We were pleased to hear that he has been favorably impressed with our town.

THE HOME OF the late Miss Martha Graves, 1010 West 7th Street, has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. John McGuire of Lake Cisco. The residence was sold for the Graves Estate by Jim Graves of Page, Arizona, a nephew of Miss Graves, who spent much of the past week here. He was accompanied by his family and his dad, Tom Graves of Farmington, N.M., was here part of the time. Tom, you know, grew up in Cisco.

There was a sale last weekend of items of furniture and the like and the residence sale completed the Estate's interests here. The McGuires have a nice home at Lake Cisco and have no immediate plans to move, Mr. JMcG told us. They'll probably lease it, he added.

BUILDING ACTIVITY seems to be accelerating at the new First National Bank location. The new building is 30 days behind schedule due to bad weather and the like. Completion date now appears to be about Nov. 1.

President Dick Woolley went with the bank building architect to Big D last month to look at interior furnishings for the new building. Date is arriving for bank personnel to begin studying the automatic teller machines that will go into the new bank.

STOCKHOLDERS attending annual meetings of the oil companies that have headquarters out at Kamon House, 1304 Avenue L, were very favorably impressed with progress of the facilities there Thursday.

The Hogue house, back of Kamon House, was acquired a year or two ago, and it is in the process of filling up with offices of the three companies that operate throughout the USA and in foreign countries. The Hogue house has a meeting room as well as offices, all tastefully redesigned and newly decorated. The exterior, as you can see, has had brick added along with a new roof, new windows and doors and the like.

Some 50 stockholders enjoyed a "luncheon by Susan (Hanlon)" and "flowers by Vera (London)" were real attractive. And the several Kamon Girls, young ladies who work out there, were impressive in something new - their identical skirts and blouses.

The progress of the Kamon companies has been steady over the year. They're important to our community's economy.

SUNDAY WILL be a pretty big day in the life of Mrs. A.D. (Jan) Novak, secretary to District Attorney Emory Walton at Eastland. Here are some of the reasons:

1. It's her birthday.
2. Her daughter, Mrs. Patricia (Lon) Mahan, will graduate from Tarleton State University in ceremonies Sunday.
3. It's Mother's Day. Need we say more?

THE SCHOOL YEAR is winding down. They held graduation services for CJC seniors Friday night and the coming week will be devoted to final exams with the year ending May 14th, reports Dr. Norman Wallace, president.

Out at Cisco High School, Supt. James Couch reports that the public school year ends May 28th.

LIGHTNING THAT accompanied a thunderstorm one night last week burned out the picture tube of the television at the Herman Dempsey home on Highway 80 (east).

Ken Kamon, son of the Robert Kamons, is working as a geologist for Tenneco, a large gas transmission company, in Houston. Glad to hear that Mrs. Alvin Kincaid is home from the hospital at their new residence north of town on the Breckenridge Highway. Her children gathered there last Sunday to say "welcome home".

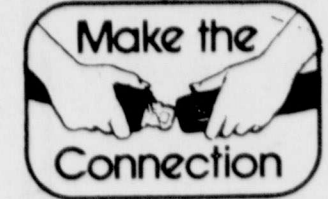

Bandito's Corral, Cisco nice Mexican food place, reports that business is a lot better since they moved out on West 8th Street to the former Super Burger location.

THE CISCO Lions Club received a small royalty check recently from the estate of the late Ed Huestis for us in maintaining the Lions Camp for Crippled Children at Kerrville. As you know, funds provided under the will enabled the camp's lunch room. Lions are getting ready to operate a flea market type booth at the coming downtown sidewalk sale. You can donate items by contacting a Lion.

MR. J.W. Cook of our town will be the master of ceremonies for a talent show that will be presented during a big Lions Club rummage sale at Mineral Wells this Saturday night. A number of Cisco folks planned to go over and eat a spaghetti dinner and attend the show.

We suspect that Mr. JWC will be part of the talent at the show as well as serving as the master of ceremonies.
