

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERREL HALLMARK

The following article is from Marietta Fuller of Jeffersonville, Ind., for the month of July. The article is as follows:

I, TOO, WAS ONCE IN PRISON

I love you people in jails and prisons because God loves you. I love you because I, too, was once in prison and that for a long, long time; and truly I know what it is like. Mine was a dark cell filled with the same monotonous days of eating, sleeping, talking about the same dull things, doing the same monotonous work, fellowshipping day after day with the same people who were in the same condition as me. Mine was a deep vacuum of a life filled with fear, wicked imaginations, selfish thoughts and deeds, and with no love for either God or my fellow man. For I loved to gossip about them, I judged them, I quarreled and fought with them, I gave them no helping hand, and I even lied about them. In our work together, I always took the easy way out rather than putting my shoulder to work to lift their burdens, and I never stood up for the fellow who was right.

Yes, you guessed it! I never had a friend there. But later I found a friend who "sticketh closer than a brother." (Prov. 18:24); and He came to my aid and released me from the darkness of a prison cell, from a dead life, and He put a new spirit into me. You see He had piercing eyes which looked right through my inner being and He knew that I was dead -- dead in trespasses and sins; but He said: "...awake thou that sleepest (blinded to my awful life by the devil) and arise from the dead, and Christ will give thee light." (Eph. 5:14).

And, He did bring LIGHT INTO MY LIFE FROM HIS WORD for I had turned on the radio and heard the sermon about the 99 and the one lost sheep which Jesus searched for and found! My husband had just passed away and I was worrying about how I could have taken better care of him so that he might have lived; and meanwhile, the devil had me in unrest and torment for several weeks. I did not know it at the time, but it was the Holy Spirit trying to convict me of my sins, and so I was prepared TO HEAR THE WORD OF GOD AND TO RECEIVE JESUS. The closing passage went like this: "...Rejoice with me for I have found my sheep which was lost. Likewise, I say unto you there is joy in the presence of the angels of God (my loved ones had been told that I was saved and would finally join them) over one sinner that repenteth." (Luke 15:6-7).

"There is," I cried, through my tears; and I was saved. I had admitted that I was a sinner and had received Jesus into my heart! Do you know what that light means? It is this: "I am crucified with Christ (my sins are covered by HIS BLOOD and my old life is dead to self but lives for others) nevertheless I live, yet not I, but CHRIST LIVES IN ME." (Jn. 8:12). He makes me into a new creature and puts a new heart within me -- that of love, and then He can live within me -- walking in me, talking through me, and telling me I AM HIS.

I was that lost sheep. So, today, I sing like a lark regardless of where I am or what state I am in even though all around me is a world of darkness and of sin. The devil gives one unrest, turmoil, worry, fear, war, anxiety; but God gives the peace that passeth all understanding. The devil brings sin and hatred into men's hearts through jealousies, an unforgiving spirit, anger, pride, wicked words, coveting or wanting possessions of others, stealing and the like. But the Lord gives love, mercy, and forgiveness each day and throughout the day for He is only too willing to forgive us and to cleanse us from ALL WRONG DOING, if we but ask Him. (1 Jn. 1:9). The devil is a liar and the truth is not in him; but Christ is the WAY (to heaven), THE TRUTH (Bible), and the LIFE (everlasting in heaven). Nothing can survive in darkness "for the wages of sin is death." (Rom. 6:23); so the devil brings death and a person dies two times -- physically and spiritually. But Christ brings two lives -- a physical and abundant life on earth, and then after death, a life that will be forever and ever with Him.

No, I am no longer in prison and darkness but in light and freedom THROUGH HIM WHO LOVED ME AND DIED FOR ME, PAYING MY SIN DEBT IN FULL ON THAT OLD RUGGED CROSS! My heart rejoices, it sings in melodies of praises to my GLORIOUS SAVIOUR for I AM HIS AND HE IS MINE!

Rev. Clower Is Speaker For Revival At Pleasant Hill

Rev. Dwayne Clower, pastor of the Mangum Baptist Church, will be the speaker for the revival meeting at the Pleasant Hill Baptist Church beginning August 1 with the Sunday morning service and continuing through August 8. Sunday School begins at 10 o'clock with the morning message at 11 o'clock. Weeknight services will be at 7:30 p.m. for prayer service and 8 o'clock for the evangelistic message.

REV. DWAYNE CLOWER

The Pleasant Hill Church is located eight miles south of Cisco on the farm-to-market road 2526 toward Carbon. The public is invited to come and worship. Rev. Clower and his wife, the former Angela Braynt of Carbon, are the parents of two children. They have served in the ministry in the Sweetwater area before coming to the Mangum Baptist Church about three years ago.

Donald Nicholas of Eastland will be directing the music. Dr. Leon Woods, pastor, extends a special invitation to come and hear these messages from God's Word.

County Dispatch Equipment Is Damaged By Lightning

The Eastland County Dispatch, the regional communications center that serves police, fire and ambulance agencies throughout the county plus radios in the motor vehicles of police and others, was hopeful Tuesday that its lightning damaged equipment would be back in operation by mid-week.

Lightning that accompanied a thunderstorm that moved through this region Monday morning struck the Dispatch Center's radio tower near IH-20 south of Eastland. Bob Burkett, dispatcher on duty, said a ball of fire seemed to leap out of the radio on his desk. The storm struck at 7:26 a.m. Monday.

Efforts to repair the damage locally were not successful Monday and Monday night. A General Electric service unit was due in Eastland Tuesday. Equipment at the Dispatch Center was built by GE.

Dispatch work was being handled largely by telephone. A temporary radio was hooked up in a shed back of the center and it was available for emergencies.

The Center serves the cities of Eastland, Cisco, Gorman, Ranger and Rising Star plus the Eastland County Sheriff's Office, Comanche County police auto radios, the Texas Electric Service Co. and REA radios, Highway Patrol, Odessa Natural Gas radios and area ambulance services.

The police teletype network equipment also went out with the lightning bolt. Radio receiving equipment was not affected, and office dispatchers were able to receive calls and relay messages by telephone or via the emergency radio outside the center.

The Center is a cooperative venture of the cities and units using its services. It has been in operation for several years.

East Cisco Baptist Group Will Leave For Mission Work

A group of youth and adults of East Cisco Baptist Church will leave Saturday, July 31, for Eau Claire, Wisconsin, to lead in a mission work. The youth will conduct back-yard Bible Clubs and the pastor will preach in a revival. The church has been involved in mission work in the Minnesota-Wisconsin area for several years. Bro. Evan Holmes is the director of Missions in the area.

The youth participating in the trip are Leanne Agnew, Mary Ann Cox, Lana Hogan, Steve Jackson, Bryan Covington and Kendall Anderson. Adults are Mark and Donna Bird, Gary and Sheryl Stennett, and Bro. Armo and Juanita Bentley.

Mission points have been set up in this area of Wisconsin, and the purpose of the trip is to advance the work to the point that a church is started.

The youth will conduct the Bible Clubs at the home of some of the interested families. They will also assist in the revival services at night led by Bro. Armo, Bentley. The services will be held under a tent in the city of Eau Claire, a city of about 50,000 population. The group will return on August 10th.

Courses to be offered include band rehearsals, section rehearsals, rhythm classes, theory and possibly a stage band class. Classes will meet from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. A recreational break period will be included in each day's activities.

Light Rain Brings Relief From Heat

Rainfall that measured from a trace to more than half an inch fell over this region Monday morning as a cold front thunderstorm situation developed. Cisco rain gauges averaged around a quarter to half an inch.

Heavier rain and hail was reported in the Moran area.

Assistant County Agent John Blair said the moisture was welcomed by peanut farmers whose 1982 crop planting was delayed by heavy rains in the spring and early summer. Some 90 percent of the county's approximately 28,000 acres of peanuts was planted late -- in late June and early July. An early front would damage the yield, Mr. Blair noted.

The peanut crop is doing nicely but a good rain would help, Mr. Blair added.

The rain and cloud cover brought relief from a heat wave that had area temperatures up to 95 and higher for the past few days.

Forecasters called for possible thunder showers the next few days.

1982 Cisco Lobos Will Begin Two-A-Days August 9

The 1982 Cisco Lobos will start their two-a-day practices on Monday, August 9. All high school players should report to the Lobo Gym across from Chesley Field on Wednesday, August 4, to be measured for shoes. Coaches will be present at the gym from 9:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m.

Junior High players will not start practice until the first day of classes on August 23rd.

Twelve lettermen return for the Lobos and most of them were starters on offense or defense. Returning from last year's team which finished with six victories in a row but lost the coin flip to represent the district are: Randall Rattan, quarterback; Jason Potter, running back; Brian Fleming, running back; Franky Seabourn, running back; Larry Adams, receiver; Glen Starr, receiver; Bud Wood, lineman; Brad Hawari, lineman; Mark Petree, lineman; Kenneth Preston, lineman; Sean Manire, lineman and Greg Sipe, receiver.

Additional help for the Lobos is expected from some of the players who made up a strong Junior Varsity team last season. Also some upper classmen who have been absent from football the past year are expected to return. Mike Williams, junior quarterback, will be a transfer from Strawn High School, where he played last year.

All high school players are urged to have completed their physical before August 9th so that they may start practice. The junior high players do not need their physicals completed until a later date.

The Varsity season opens Friday, September 3, against the DeLeon Bearcats in Cisco beginning at 8:00 p.m. Season tickets will go on sale soon.

Free Anti-Pollution Booklet Available

A new, free, eight-page illustrated booklet, entitled, "The Story of Willie Bacteria, or HOW TO TAKE CARE OF YOUR SEPTIC TANK OR CESSPOOL" is now available to owners of Septic Tanks and Cesspools from: Gibson Products, Highway 80, Eastland, Tx., 76448.

In a light vein, illustrated by cartoons, the booklet explains the workings of the septic tank and cesspool in simplified fashion. It describes the bacterial action of the disposal system and what is necessary for its proper functioning.

Chief attraction in the booklet is a humanized "Willie Bacteria", who is responsible for maintaining the efficiency of the disposal system. When the septic tank or cesspool user ignores the fact that "Willie" is working to keep the disposal system free from disease, and saturates him with an overdose of detergents, acids, lyes, caustics and other irritants, "Willie" is very unhappy, and more often than not, just stops working.

But, there is a bright side to the story too, for "Willie Bacteria" has found a way to educate the septic tank or cesspool user, so that "Willie" can do his job under modern, up-to-date working conditions, and prevent the fess, mess, inconvenience, and expense of a clogged disposal system. The booklet was produced by the FX Lab Company, Inc., 1275 Bloomfield Ave., Industrial Park Bldg. No. 2-13, Fairfield, New Jersey, 07006.

Lights from the Christian World

By: Josephine Cleveland

Have you been working for God, fretting over details, struggling with feelings of inadequacy and ending up very exhausted? You need not face this dilemma.

The Apostle Paul in trying to live, love, walk and talk like Christ, finally said, "When I would do good, evil is present with me." Rom. 7:18. Finally Paul cried, "O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?" Rom. 7:24.

Paul discovered what every Christian must sooner or later discover who would know triumphant living. Was it to do his best? No Friend, self would do its best and take credit but self cannot be Christlike. Heed the Word - CHRIST IN YOU THE HOPE OF GLORY.

This truth was Paul's Hope and it is your Hope for a triumphant life.

Christ for us is a glorious fact. Christ with us is even more glorious. But Friend, Christ in you is unspeakably glorious.

Your life based on this truth will set you free.

Ted Brice The Garden Editor

13940 Peyton No. 110 Dallas, Texas 75240

Probably no single feature add as much charm to a garden as an aquatic display. In addition to grace and beauty, there are both tranquilizing and rejuvenating qualities in water--great for today's besieged and battered nerves. And yet, how many of us have the beauty of water in our gardens? There is no reason for the unfortunate neglect of this easy, satisfying way to garden. From a fountain to a trickling waterfall to a pool as large or as small as one's resources will allow, there is some sort of water display that will fit every situation.

Perhaps the most desirable choice is the garden pool. The thoughtfully planned, well-placed aquatic pool with interesting plants, colorful fish and intriguing reflections makes a focal point of serenity that adds to the grace of any garden, large or small. Also, the pool can easily have a fountain or waterfall incorporated into its design.

Today a do-it-yourselfer can install a garden pool relatively easily and inexpensively by doing the excavating himself and using one of several methods to line or seal the hole.

LINING: Instead of concrete, fiberglass or metal, which are good pool lining material but unfortunately share the disadvantage of being difficult for the amateur, consider one of the following easier methods:

1. Sink, or partially sink, a child's plastic wading pool or a galvanized watering trough (available at farm supply stores) which has been painted both sides with an epoxy paint. Blue paints gives the illusion of deeper water; black paint reflects the sky and clouds on bright days but tends to look gloomy on dreary days.
2. Use a flexible plastic pool liner designed especially for this purpose. Available in a number of shapes, sizes and depths, these start at about $1 for a 2x3 foot size.
3. Use of the sheets of heavy plastic made especially for lining pools. These last a long time and conform to any shape.
4. Apply several inches of smooth clay worked to mid-pie consistency to sides and bottom of hole. This makes a natural pool.

5. Pour a special sealing material (for use with clay-type soils only) into the water of the newly dug and filled pool. When using this be sure to follow the instructions concerning any waiting period from date of applications to time of planting and introduction of fish.

Consult the yellow pages of the telephone directory for the nurseries which stock aquatic plants and supplies.

EDGING: For aesthetic reasons, concealing the edge is often desirable with concrete, fiberglass, plastic or metallined pools. Rocks, stones, bricks and/or plants make attractive edges. The natural or clay-lined pool usually needs no concealing edge for appearance's sake. However, with any type of pool it's advisable to erract about 12x15-inch barrier of some kind, such as concrete, brick or wire to prevent a boom in the toad or frog population. Toads and frogs seek out water in which to lay their eggs. These are stringy and messy looking and later hatch into tadpoles. Also, frogs have a habit of croaking all night long.

PLANTING: A number of our local wild water plants adapt well to culture in the home garden pool. Such species as water hyacinth, American lotus, the native Nymphaea water lilies, arrowhead, pickerel weed and swamp iris are beautiful, of easy culture and grow naturally in our area. In addition to these, numerous cultivated species are commercially available for use in almost any size pool.

Some water plants are floaters, requiring no soil in which to grow, such as the beautiful water hyacinth and floating heart.

Usually, water lilies require at least 18 inches of water depth (24 is even better), full sun and still or only slightly moving fresh water. Most gardeners prefer to plant their lilies in plastic or wooden containers of rich soil rather than directly in the mud in the bottom of the pool. Since container size, planting method and depth requirements vary with different species, follow the supplier's planting instructions. Generally, however water lilies like a rich soil and fertilizer every year.

GOOD GARDENING UNTIL NEXT WEEK FROM THE GARDEN EDITOR, TED BRICE.

COWBOYS

By Richard

With most of the media's interest in the National Football League presently centered on players using dope, a possible player strike, and the league's planned response; Cowboy coaches are more concerned with which players to keep and which to cut as the Dallas Cowboy's rookie camp comes to a close with the arrival of the veterans at Thousand Oaks.

The Cowboys, who plan to fly Delta this year, cut seven players in their first cut including Kevin Haney (TCU), Ed Culver (Okla.), and Eddie Wright (U of H). That leaves 71 rookies in camp along with some second and third year players who reported early.

Of the rookies and veterans only Ed (Too Tall) Jones is yet to come to contract terms.

With the Cowboys rookies scrimaging the L.A. Rams in camp, General Manager Tex Schramm reported that the Cowboy draftees were living up to expectations.

Cornerback Rod Hill has been a standout with big play ability and linebacker Jeff Rohrer looks like he will develop into a fine player. Linebacker Jim Eliopoulos

Strake Starts Weekly Column To Discuss Issues

Former Texas Secretary of State George Strake announced today he is beginning a series of weekly columns in newspapers all over Texas, including this one, in which he will discuss issues of interest to Texans.

will be out about ten days with a knee injury and will miss most of the rookie camp.

Other players looking good according to Mr. Schramm include George Peoples, a good blocking 211 lb. fullback, Darrell Tucker, a small, quick and fast free agent tailback from Central Michigan, Phil Pozderac, an offensive tackle almost as big as Ed Jones, and defensive ends Bill Purifoy and Ron Spears, who reportedly looked awesome as rookies. Ron Spears is a second year rookie having spent last year on the injured reserve after converting from linebacker.

Strake, who is running for Lt. Governor, said he will discuss a variety of subjects in the weeks to come, including the New Federalism, the drunk driving problem, undocumented workers and education.

Said Strake in his first column, "We met in debate one time, in Houston. From all observers, Mr. Hobby lost and has announced that he will not debate again."

Also in his first column, Strake stressed the importance of the Lt. Governor's office saying "It affects all our lives."

um, "I believe these columns will provide a unique opportunity to stimulate public discussion on these important issues."

The 47-year-old Houstonian said he hopes these columns will fill the void left by the incumbent's refusal to debate.

"I have challenged my opponent, Mr. Hobby, to a series of free wheeling debates on political issues, so both our views could be put before the people of

Each traffic death costs us $287,175

This year, some 51,000 adults will die as a result of traffic accidents. Growing to epidemic proportions, traffic fatalities are now the third-largest killer of adults in the United States.

According to recent studies, 40 percent of all fatal traffic accidents are caused by a single vehicle that strays off the road. In 75 percent of these accidents, the out-of-control motorist strikes some fixed obstacle. Many of these roadside hazards, such as guardrails and bridge abutments, are necessary, but they're dangerous nonetheless.

A proposed program, called 4R, for reconstruction, resurfacing, restoration and rehailitation is intended to update and refurbish the Interstate Highway System, now in its 26th year. New highway legislation doesn't adequately address the elimination of existing hazards, since specific funds are not set aside to treat roadside obstacles.

Despite the lack of emphasis on funding highway safety improvements, highway engineers are still focusing their attention on safer highway design as a way of preventing more needless tragedies. For instance, engineers at Energy Absorption Systems Inc. have developed a number of different barriers to protect you from highway dangers. Officially known as impact attenuators, "crash cushions" absorb the energy from an impact and bring the car to a safe, controlled stop.

Last year alone, some 2,000 lives were saved by crash cushions. Since the U.S. Department of Transportation estimates that a single traffic death costs us $287,175 in lost output, the effects are staggering. If more people can walk away unharmed from crashes, it translates into savings for all of us in property loss, time lost from work and rising insurance and tax rates. And who can place a dollar value on human life?

According to officials at Energy Absorption, the epidemic of highway deaths can be stopped. The question now is whether highway authorities will have the funds to do it.

Forty percent of all fatal traffic accidents are caused by a single vehicle that strays off the road. Without proper cushioning, blunt-nose guardrails become dangerous roadside hazards.

TURNING SOUTH, and east, from Ashville bound for Charlestown, S.C., made the family as though it was partially homeward bound. Getting onto the peninsula that is the old, old historic town late on a rain Friday without reservations, we spent the first night in a trucker's motel, ate at a trucker's cafe, and turned off X-rated HBO television. The welcomed dawn brought a sunny move through the old town out to an outer island (Isle of Palms) where we found several days of peace and contentment in a beach side two bedroom, two-bath, furnished kitchen, condominium, before starting the fast trip back home.

The Atlantic surf and sand are no different than Texas Gulf Coast surf and sand, maybe just more of it. Even though it's a long way from home, it was a restful stop.

Of course, Fort Sumter with its history is a Number One tourist attraction. Federal forces moved into the fort Dec. 26, 1860, and on April 12, 1861 were fired upon by South Carolina troops of the Confederacy from nearby Fort Johnson, first shot of the War Between the States. Occupied by Confederates April 14, 1861, Sumter was held, despite almost constant attack and bombardment, until Feb. 18, 1865, when evacuated by Confederate troops.

We didn't visit, but Boone Hall Plantation (where much of Gone With the Wind and the Avenue of Oaks was filmed) is just up the road from Charleston.

We visited the First Baptist Church, oldest Baptist congregation in South Carolina, present church begun 1819, and a sign made us wonder: "Mother church of the Southern Baptists"

The City Market on Market St. is a conglomeration of shops, boutiques, etc., as well as an open air flea market.

We looked for, and got close to "Catfish Row" of Pogy and Bess fame, but figured that the city might not list it as a tourist attraction now.

SOME INTERESTING CHARLESTON "FIRSTS" In 1736 the first fire insurance in America was the "Friendly Society for Mutual Insurance of Houses against Fire."

Charleston shipped America's first export cotton seven bags to England in 1748.

The Charleston Chamber of Commerce was the First City Chamber of Commerce in this country. Organized in 1773.

The Charleston Museum Society, also organized in 1773, was the first in America.

The first time a British flag was hauled down and replaced by an American flag was in Charleston in 1775.

At Fort Moultrie the first decisive victory of the American Revolution was gained when in June, 1776, strong British naval and land forces under Sir Peter Parker were repulsed.

The first prescription drug store in America began operation in Charleston in 1780.

The first municipal institution of higher education in the U.S. was the College of Charleston, chartered in 1785.

The first attempt at fireproof construction in America was the "Fireproof Building" overlooking Washington Square. It was designed by Robert Mills, designer of the U.S. Treasury Building and the Washington Monument, and was occupied in 1826.

The first steam locomotive train ever to operate with passengers and freight was "The Best Friend," from Charleston to Hamburg, S.C., in 1830.

The first submarine ever used in warfare was "Hunley's Boat," used by the Confederates 1863-1865 in Charleston Harbor.

Artificial ice first made by John Gorrie in Charleston in 1851.

First book jackets in America were made in Charleston by Isaac Hammond in 1890.

The Original Charles Towne In April, 1670, English colonists commanded by William Sayle landed at Albermarle Point up the Ashley River from Charleston Harbor, to establish the first permanent settlement.

This settlement was named Charles Towne, in honor of King Charles II of England, who had granted a charter to Edward, Earl of Clarendon, and his seven associates as Lords and Proprietors of "all territory between the 29th and 36th parallels of North Latitude."

There were about 150, men, women and children who landed from the three vessels. Two other ships sent by the Lords Proprietors landed in the vicinity in 1671, bringing more settlers. Twenty months later the population had increased to 263 men, 69 women and 59 children.

Within the next eight years the colonists found several disadvantages to the Albermarle Point location and in the Spring of 1680 the settlement was moved to Oyster Point, at the tip of a peninsula between the Ashly and Cooper rivers, site of the present city. In April, 1680, the population again increased by a ship bringing French Protestants under the leadership of Rene Petit, an agent of King Charles.

In 1773, five years after the organization of Charles Towne County, history shows that the county seat, the city of Charles Towne had a population of 12,000 and was described as the "most eminent and by far the richest city in the Southern District of North America," with maritime commerce "far surpassing even Boston" and more than 350 sailing ships in the harbor. It was in that year the Charles Towne Chamber of Commerce was organized and the Charles Towne Museum began.

In March, 1776, at Charles Towne the Provincial Congress met and established the first independent government. John Rutledge was named President, Henry Laurens, Vice President, and William Henry Drayton the Chief Justice. It created its own Army and Navy, elected a Privy Council and Assembly and issued paper money and coin.

In 1783, after the British occupation of Charles Towne ended, the city was renamed Charleston and was incorporated.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Editor: Isn't it amazing how our Justice Dept. works?

Last week a young man from Brownwood was convicted in 91st District Court in Eastland for burglarizing the Eastland High School Band Hall last Jan. 22 and received three years in prison.

Approx. 1 1/2 years ago, a group of Eastland High School students brought over some dynamite and blew a huge hole in Cisco's football field and did considerable damage to the press box, and they received a slap on the wrist and became football stars.

Did you notice how fast the Dublin case came to trial? I am not taking sides, nor am I condoling what the young man did, but I say we should have fairness in our Justice Dept. and I think this group from Eastland should be brought to trial the same as anyone else. And soon.

Thank you, Charles Preston

Strake Talk

Keeping In Touch

This is the first of what I intend to be a number of weekly columns from me, discussing various topics of importance to Texans. During the coming weeks, we will discuss such things as President Reagan's "New Federalism" proposal, the need for better laws dealing with drunk drivers, illegal aliens, the education of our children, and a host of other issues that will be on our political agenda.

I believe these columns will provide a unique opportunity to stimulate public discussion on these important issues. Indeed, this may be the only way I have challenged my opponent, Mr. Hobby, to a series of free-wheeling debates on political issues, so both our views could be put before the people of Texas. We met in debate one time in Houston. In the view of all observers, Mr. Hobby lost and he has announced that he will not debate again. So I have chosen this route to try to let you know my position on the issues. I feel you are entitled to know that before you make your decision in the November election. Additionally, I hope you will let me know your views. They are important to me.

The office of Lieutenant Governor is exceedingly powerful in Texas. It affects all our lives. In addition to presiding over the State Senate, the Lt. Governor appoints all Senate committees, their chairmen, and assigns all legislation to the committee of his choice. He presides over the Legislative Budget Board, which significantly shapes state spending. It is an office all Texans ought to be concerned about.

I hope you will watch for this column. Tell your friends and neighbors about it. Discuss the issues. Together, we can make a contribution to the political processes, and hopefully improve all our lives. Let me know your views on the issues I discuss in the weeks ahead. Just write me at 1213 W. 34th, Austin, Texas, 78705.

Volunteer of the Month

Giving of Her Time a Way of Life for Charla McCracken

By KAREN DYNES Staff Writer

"You're kidding!" Charla McCracken's reaction to being informed she had been chosen as Volunteer of the Month came with a rush of laughter, but it's easy to understand why she was chosen.

She's been volunteering to do things since she was a high school girl in Lufkin, where she lived until she went to college, and she hasn't stopped yet.

Each month the Retired Senior Volunteer Program and the Volunteer Clearinghouse alternately choose an honoree. This month it was Volunteer Clearinghouse's turn and Charla was picked.

Lynda Calcote, director of the Volunteer Clearinghouse program said of Charla, who does some of her volunteer work at the clearinghouse, "She has really been tremendously helpful. She has filled in on special needs and done extra things too."

Mrs. Calcote added Charla is extremely "self-motivated and that really says a lot about dependability. She's a very deserving person."

Charla's volunteer work doesn't stop with the Volunteer Clearinghouse, however. She keeps busy at the Abilene Chamber of Commerce writing the "Around Town" column for the chamber's monthly newsletter published by the Abilene Cultural Affairs Council.

That in itself entails a great deal of work, since Charla calls everybody who could possibly be connected with the arts to find out exactly what's going on in town and then writes her column from the information she's managed to garner. She used to do the Abilene Cultural Affairs Council Calendar also, but she said someone else is doing it this year.

Lynn Barnett, manager of the Abilene Cultural Affairs Council says Charla's "wonderful. For the past year she has done the quarterly newsletter and calendar, calling groups to find out what's going on and put it in order. She was the first one to do it.

"We're so thankful to have her, she does a wonderful job. I am so glad she was chosen," she said.

Charla and her husband, Vance, have lived in Abilene for the past two and a half years.

Her volunteering for things started, she said, when she was growing up in Lufkin, where the summers found her volunteering to work in the library there "for something to do."

She went to the University of Texas at Austin and received a master's degree in international relations from Johns-Hopkins University.

From there, she went to work in Washington, D.C. as an economist and later the volunteer bug got to her again. She joined the Peace Corps and was sent to Botswana, Africa.

After her stint with the Peace Corps was over, Charla stayed on in Botswana, working for the Botswana government as a contract worker. She also volunteered to teach an economics class at an extension college there.

Charla said Botswana was never a British colony, but was a protectorate, giving the British "wavy" authority. When the country gained independence in 1966, there were but a handful of college graduates and skilled workers in the country, she said. She worked in the Ministry of Finance while there and said her dealings with the people were always "pleasant experiences. They really needed help and were very nice people, very hospitable."

All official government work was done in English, she said, and although she studied the Botswana language she isn't fluent. And the country doesn't really have its own cuisine, as such. She said the food is primarily a sorghum porridge and corn meal mush made from "mealy meal," a finely-ground cornmeal. The influence of traders was evident, she said, with lots of curry. "It was delicious."

While she was working in Botswana, she threw an annual Texas Independence Day Party. These had become annual events while she lived in Washington and she couldn't see any reason to discontinue the practice in Africa.

A friend told her he and his wife knew someone from Texas working in Botswana and asked if they could bring him along. That someone from Texas turned out to be Charla's future husband, Vance.

Vance is a Cisco native and works for L & L, Inc. here. The couple decided to be married in Botswana "because we had so many friends there," Charla said.

They had a Congregationalist ceremony, with an African minister and a Botswana reception complete with "native songs and dances. We had a wonderful time," she said.

A bright-eyed, blonde-haired daughter who will be two years old in September was born to the couple and she was given an African name -- Shasha. Charla said they never were able to find out what it means, but "I just loved the way it sounded."

When the couple moved back to Abilene in January, 1980, Charla said she started working with the Volunteer Clearinghouse because "I wanted to meet people and get involved in the town." She and Vance are also active in their church, First Central Presbyterian.

She said she took some time off when Shasha was born and enjoys being able to do something for others and still have time for her family. "It's a real fun place," she said of the Clearinghouse. "I think it's made me feel so much more a part of the town. I feel as if I belong." Of her work at the Chamber, she said she is highly pleased with what Abilene has to offer. "Abilene has a lot. It's really high up on the list with cultural activities."

She said the benefits of volunteering are, "of course, helping people, but the primary benefit is to yourself." Making other people happy by helping them makes her happy.

Col. Weiner presented a special plaque from Boy Scouts of America to the Hornbeck family in recognition of all three being Eagle Scouts. Col. Weiner also presented Kelly's brother, Kurt, his Eagle in 1980.

Kelly is active in church activities at Clark (Air Base) Field Baptist Church in the Philippines. His Eagle project involved the establishment of a simple workable and lasting filing system for all of the music used by the Clark Field Baptist Church. His scouting career began on June 1, 1978. He has earned eight of the 12 Scout Skill Awards. His future plans include working on Eagle Palm awards, serving as a merit badge counselor and staff member for summer camp.

Kelly is the grandson of Mrs. Camille Lee of Fort Worth, formerly of Cisco, and the late O.L. (Bill) Lee.

Putnam News

By Mrs. R.B. Taylor

"Good Old Summer Time" evidently the poet who penned these words didn't live in West Texas. However we are still fortunate. Officially the weather bureau at Abilene has not recorded 100 degrees yet. Some folks in Putnam say their thermometers have registered over 100 several times. Anyway its hot and dry, we sure could use some rain. The grasshoppers are the only things that seem to be enjoying the heat and drought.

We were sorry to hear of the sudden death of Harry Tom (Fuzzy) Varner of Baird last week. He married Ila Mae White of Putnam. Our sympathy to the family.

There is not much going on around Putnam. Guess everyone is staying in with the air conditioner. Picnics and outings seem to be the thing.

The Calvin Kings had most of their family at a gathering at their home Friday evening. Among those present were Mrs. Mildred King of Cisco, Mrs. Joe Fiore and children of Houston, Mrs. Gaye McClendon and children of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Butch Petty and family of Eastland, Mr. and Mrs. Roddy Reynolds and children of Elmdale, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Green of Clyde, the James Isenhower family of Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. David Isenhower, Mr. and Mrs. John Doyle Isenhower, children and Mr. and Mrs. John D. Isenhower, all of Putnam, also Mr. and Mrs. I.G. Mobley.

Ray Green of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. Jammie Fry of Cisco entertained a group of friends with a barbecue supper at the tank near the Jammie Fry home Saturday evening.

Mrs. R.B. Taylor and Mrs. I.G. Mobley visited Mrs. Fred Heysler and Mrs. Howard Farmer at Baird Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Carrico of Baird visited the I.G. Mobleys Thursday. They are spending this week with their daughter at Balmorhea.

The All Star Little League baseball team of Baird beat the Breckenridge All Star team at Baird last week. Sandy Wagley of Putnam was one of the players.

Billy Wagley went to Tulsa, Okla., last Thursday. He will participate in a seminar at the Oral Roberts University there. His mother, Mrs. Mary Wagley of Baird, is staying with the boys and keeping the cafe open while Billy is gone.

We had two different burglaries at Putnam last week. Both at the Hitch N Post. The first took drinks. The second took the money bag. Both groups were apprehended at Baird and Clyde.

Rev. Travis Crutchfield of Cisco visited the Putnam Baptist Church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guidrey of Lubbock spent the weekend with her aunt, Mrs. Ollie Burnam.

We are sorry to report that

Mrs. Maxwell of Cisco, Ray Maxwell's mother, is still very ill at West Texas Medical at Abilene.

Mrs. Lillie Bailey of Baird and daughter, Mrs. Robert Barnhill of Waco, and Mrs. Mildred Smith of Cisco were visitors of Mrs. R.C. Speegle this week.

Andy Maxwell is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. LaFlore at DeLeon this week.

Senator Glasgow Reports On Family Violence

Last week a special Senate Committee on Family Violence met and heard testimony on the growing problem of family violence in Texas. The statistics testified to and personal accounts of abuse and beatings were staggering.

Although this is a subject that is very difficult to quantify, many researchers in the field say that one out of two women will experience violence from a male (husband or boyfriend) at sometime during her lifetime. A special report on CBS's Sixty Minutes estimated the same thing (May 17, 1981). Other researchers estimate anywhere from one-fourth to one-third. Regardless, the number of cases of abuse are much higher than most perceive.

Two social scientists from the Center for Social Research at the University of Texas at Arlington conducted a study on domestic violence in Fort Worth and Dallas. They studied the background of women who sought help from beatings and went to shelters in Fort Worth or Dallas. Their profiles dealt in terms of marital status, age, ethnicity, education, occupation, finance, and alcohol drug-related problems.

Marital Status The majority (72%) of the clients are married, and of these majority (59%) are still in their first marriage.

Age They are relatively young women (average age is 25), still in the years when family and home are typically being established. The average woman brings two young children with her when she enters the shelter (only 90 women, or 16%, had no children).

Ethnicity A majority (64%) are white-Anglo, with 22% of the residents black and 10% of Spanish background.

Education Many of these women (40%) have less than a high school education, though a slight majority (56%) are high school graduates and may have taken some college courses. Very few have college degrees.

Income Economically these women could best be described as being in the lower-middle and lower socio-economic classes, a majority (74%) earning less than $10,000 a year. Few (7%) had been receiving AFCD aid or other forms of welfare (3%). At the time they come to the shelter most women are financially destitute. A majority (63%) do have some money on hand, but frequently it is less than $20. A minority have more than $50 with them.

Occupation The largest percentage of these women (56%) have no jobs and are full-time homemakers. One-fourth can be classified as currently having job skills, and 11% are unskilled laborers.

Alcohol/Drug-related Problems Few of these women have alcohol-related (4%) or drug-related (3%) problems.

The report goes on to make a point as to what the women are not. They are not the indigent poor (i.e., the stereotype of "welfare mothers" or "career" welfare recipients), nor are they predominantly minority women, nor do they have noticeable problems of drug and alcohol use. They are not well represented by middle and upper class women. Nor are they evenly representative of all ages.

Second, they are more often than not in the prime of their young adult, child-bearing years, with young children to care for. They may work, but the majority do not. Most follow traditional child-rearing homemaking domestic roles in their marriages.

The report further showed that of those who sought shelter because of being beaten, 46% were pregnant, 22% had received broken bones, 52% were threatened with a weapon and 21% had a weapon of some sort used on them as well as a gun and knife, (a weapon includes any object in the household that could be used to harm the other person).

Children cannot be separated from the problem of women-battering. They are often witnesses to the repeated physical violence and often a target for physical violence themselves (sometimes by both parents).

From the study 42% of those women seeking shelter were pregnant. 8% of the 42% experienced complications with the pregnancy as a result of the abuse.

The problem of spouse-abuse and child-abuse is certainly not limited to the Dallas-Fort Worth area where this study was conducted. From my experience as a private attorney and district attorney, I have encountered many cases of physical abuse.

The committee is meeting to try to come up with solutions to alleviate the problem. My staff is currently studying proposals to strengthen the protective orders and restraining orders issued by the courts (for example, give police greater latitude in enforcing a protective order or restraining order). We are looking at facilities, resources and counseling available in the 22nd District to assist victims of abuse. We are also going to meet with our local law enforcement officials, prosecutors and judiciary to determine what legislative assistance they need.

The problem of spouse abuse and child abuse is acute. Hopefully, positive advances can be made in order to reduce what is probably the most frequent crime in America.

COACH BOB Keyes and Coach Rick Frasier of Cisco Junior College spent last week in Houston attending the annual convention and coaching school of the Texas Football Coaches Association. It was an interesting and informative meeting, Mr. Keyes reports. There were lectures on the various aspects of football, movies and the like. And the annual all-star football game was a dandy, the coach said.

While in Houston and out-of-town, the CJC coaches signed three more prospective football players. So far, 130 young men plan to try out for the CJC squad. Plans call for the players to check in at CJC on August 15th and to begin practice in pads on August 16th.

Coach Jim Puryear and his Cisco High School staff decided to skip the coaching school this year. They're planning to fire up fall football training in mid-August.

THE TWO YOUNG fellows who broke out of the Eastland County jail last Thursday night got themselves in a bit of extra trouble. County authorities caught them after they were at liberty for 15 hours (if you can call walking through the woods liberty).

Charges of escaping from jail (a felony) and for breaking a window, (a misdemeanor) were filed against the pair. It cost $168 to repair the window damages.

Funeral Services For Willard Gage Are Monday

Funeral services for Willard E. Gage, 86, of Coleman, were at 10 a.m. Monday at Trinity United Methodist Church. Burial was in Rocky Creek Cemetery in Brown County, directed by Henderson Funeral Home of Coleman.

Mr. Gage died Saturday, July 24, at 2:32 a.m. in Brownwood Regional Hospital.

He was born January 25, 1896, in Cottonwood. He attended Sabanno school near Cisco. He was an Army veteran of WWI. He married Dora E. Baker on August 2, 1928 in Brownwood. He was a member of the Methodist church and Bangs Masonic Lodge. He was a compressor operator for Bass Inc. until he retired in 1961. He had lived in Coleman County for the past 21 years.

Survivors include his wife, Dora of Coleman; two sons, Willard E. Jr. of Homer, La., and Gene W. of Baton Rouge, La.; a brother, Ether Gage of Azle; four grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by an infant daughter in 1929.

They'll be taken to 91st District Court for a hearing soon, we're informed.

Speaking of the 91st Court, our scouts report that Charles LeFlore, charged with capital murder in the shooting death of Debra Garcia, is expected to be taken to the court for another pretrial hearing prior to his scheduled August 16th trial. Motions by attorneys in the case will be considered.

CITY MANAGER Mike Moore and family are back home after a vacation trip to Atlanta, Ga., where they visited his brother and family. And they took in Disney World over in Florida before returning home. . . . Louie Hall, Stephens County's black sheriff who is making a good name for himself, is an ex-student of Cisco Junior College. . . . A new book just off the press is HOW TO RAISE CHILDREN AT HOME IN YOUR SPARE TIME by Marvin J. Gersh, M.D. Might be interesting, huh?

BILL HESTER of Colony Restaurant got his leg out of a cast Monday after nearly two months. And to celebrate Bill and Lucille Hester and Gilbert and Rosa Garces were scheduled to fly out from DFW Airport this Wednesday for a vacation at Puerto Villarta, Mexico.

Mr. Hester suffered a broken leg in a motor vehicle accident. He will be on crutches for a time. . . . Mr. Garces owns Gilbert's Service Station in Cisco, and he and Rosa live in Eastland. Rosa has worked for the Colony for a year or so.

WASN'T THAT a nice write-up in Sunday's Abilene newspaper about Mrs.

Vance (Charla) McCracken of Abilene. She was named that community's volunteer of the month for her civic work. The Press is seeing about re-printing the story in this or an issue soon. . . . Mrs. Evelyn McGuire, manager of United Savings in Cisco, was notified Monday that she has been promoted to be an assistant vice president. She'll continue as the local manager. Her husband, John, got home last Friday night after several days in Hendrick Hospital, Abilene, after suffering a broken leg. . . . Mrs. Betty Alford of United Savings got home Monday night after a vacation up north.

MARK HEIDENHEIMER of our town was scheduled to spend Wednesday and Thursday of this week in Big D taking the state bar exam. He's a spring graduate of SMU Law School. . . . Mrs. Helen Orr, administrator out at E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital, spent last Friday attending a meeting of medical folks over in Abilene. . . . They got the air conditioning back in operation at the local hospital last Friday.

THE JIM Grahams and her sister, Crystal Gaines and daughter Lana, of Cisco, got home Sunday after a vacation in Colorado. They visited in Colorado Springs, Denver, Estes Park and elsewhere. While in Estes Park, the Ciscoans toured the Rocky Mountain country where they saw a lot of super scenery. They were there a few days after the recent flood that caused four deaths and a lot of damage in Estes Park.

The Paul Farrow of Estes Park asked the Grahams to extend their greetings to old friends in Cisco. . . . In Colorado Springs, the Ciscoans were taken to the top of Pike's Peak where a snow storm was in progress. It was a nice vacation in all respects, Jim reports.

TWO GOATS, a white one and a black one, are inseparable friends out in the big thicket country of Lake Cisco's south shore. You can see them occasionally from a boat or from the north shore across the lake.

Understand the two goats are actually the property of Mr. George Owens of Country Club Ridge. He bought them some years ago to keep down weeds and grass at his place. They escaped and defied any efforts to capture them. Eventually, the efforts were abandoned and the goats are probably in the public domain now and are free for anyone to claim.

We saw them the other day. We watched from across the lake as they came down to water's edge for a drink. They appeared healthy and in good spirits.

ONE OF OUR scouts from down south told us the other day that a large telephone company - one of SWBell's competitors - closed their local offices a few years ago. And after a couple of years, they started reopening them and now have local office personnel in all of their towns.

You can't beat eye ball-to-eye ball contacts in any kind of business, our scout reported. He offered to wager us a chocolate soda with ice cream that SWBell will reopen their closed offices in this region within a couple of years.
