

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERBERT HALLMARK

HASN'T THE past few days been exceptionally pretty, with their clear skies and warm temperatures? I have really enjoyed the weather and am looking forward to more of the same.

Everything is beginning to look very green and grass, as well as other things, continue sprouting up as if overnight.

I have heard some people say they will never gripe about hot weather again, after the long months of cold weather this year, but don't we all complain about the weather no matter what. After a while we get tired of one type of weather and long for the other.

It is just like the old saying, "The grass always looks greener on the other side of the fence." That is true, unless your yard needs mowing, then your grass looks greener and more noticeable than that on the other side of the fence which belongs to your neighbor.

EVERYBODY is getting fired up for this year's Folklife Festival planned this month in Cisco. Let's all plan to do our part to make this year's festival one of the most successful ever.

Stories and schedules may be found elsewhere in this edition of The Cisco Press concerning the Festival.

CISCO IS beginning to look nice in the parts of town where citizens are taking advantage of this week's offer by the city to haul off garbage or any other type of trash free of charge. It is the annual clean-up week of Cisco and the weather could not be more suitable.

If you have not already cleaned up your property, set aside some time to do so before the end of the week.

If each person will clean up his or her own property, then a noticeable improvement would be made in the way Cisco looks to persons just passing through, as well as to the people who live here.

City Golf Tourney Begins This Week

Bobby Smith, defending champion, will head a list of a dozen or more area golfers in the top flight as the annual Cisco City Golf Championship tournament takes place this weekend.

Plans call for two 18-hole matches to be played Saturday with the finals Sunday afternoon.

Among those qualifying this week were Bennie Nichols, former city champion who lost to Smith in the finals last year, Delbert Schaefer, Ralph Glenn, Bob Bennie, David Callarman, Carrel Smith, Tracy Owens, Donnie Cates of Eastland and others.

Chairman Charlie Graham reported that interest was good in the tournament. He expected four flights. Entry fee is $5 for club members and $10 for non-members.

Winners of all flights will receive trophies and golf balls. Deadline for entering is Friday afternoon, Mr. Graham said.

Eastland Man Is Killed In Wreck

An Eastland man was killed early Sunday when his pickup truck missed a curve on a highway in north Eastland overturned several times.

George Herrera, 33, was pronounced dead at the scene at 1:38 a.m. by Justice of the Peace Guy Iyerla, according to Eastland Police Chief Bobby Arriola.

The accident had occurred about 20 minutes earlier, Arriola said, as Herrera was southbound on Texas Highway 69 about nine blocks north of the Eastland County Courthouse.

He was born June 23, 1949, in Eastland and was a lifetime resident of Eastland.

Rosary was held at 7:30 p.m. Monday at Edwards Civic League

Civic League Members Due On T.V. Show

Several Cisco Civic League members will be guests on the "Mid-Day With Kay" show on KRBC-TV.

Vallie Parker will be demonstrating Indian pottery making, Pat Isbell will be spinning, and Jo Ann Cermin and Ruth Heidenheimer will be pulling taffy. These are a few of the skills that will be demonstrated at the Cisco Folklife Festival.

Be sure to watch these ladies on Tuesday, April 19th at 12:15 p.m. as they will be advertising the Cisco Folklife Festival. (Beth Ward has been working for two weeks on a taffy recipe. It can be made at 6 o'clock in the morning and is still pliable enough to pull at noon. And it isn't SO HOT that it blisters your hands by that time.)

During the weeks of April 10-17 and April 18-23, there will be shown over KTAB a second spot commercial several times throughout the day. This will be showing scenes of previous Cisco Folklife Festivals. Watch and you might see yourself.

CISCO KID CAR WASH
3rd St. and Ave. E
Where Most People Wash. Wash your venetian blinds, throw rugs, motor.

Funeral Home. Services were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church in Eastland.

The Rev. Bob Strickmatt of Breckenridge officiated. Burial was in Eastland Cemetery, directed by Edwards Funeral Home of Eastland.

He attended the Eastland schools. He was a member of the St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church and he was a maintenance man for Fullen Motor Company for the past 15 years.

Survivors include his mother, Vicenta Herrera of Eastland; seven brothers, Raul of Cisco, Lupe of Fort Worth, Manuel of Fort Worth, Tommy of Arlington, Joe of Eastland, Sammy of Eastland and Ernie of Eastland; six sisters, Felipa Sandoval of Chicago, Ill., Sally Lopez of Fort Worth, Marie Fernandez of Arlington, Irene Fernandez of Fort Worth, Esther Herrera of Abilene and Carmen Swinson of Eastland; and 24 nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were Randy Butler, Isaac Orocco, Joe Flores, Gill Gaeta, Larry Jones and Danny Thomas.

Dinner Enjoyed At F.E.M.C. Sunday Evening

A fellowship dinner was enjoyed by all at the First Evangelical Methodist Church Sunday evening, which brought to a close the Sunday School contest of the Daniel team against the Ruth team.

The Ruth team (the women's team) won the contest and the prize was having dinner cooked and served to them by the Daniel's team (the men's team).

It was an enjoyable evening with a large choice of delicious food brought to the church fellowship hall. The men did a wonderful job of serving and cleaning up the kitchen at the church.

Joe Gosch gave the evening message.

The people in the church received their blessing from the contest by going out to tell other people of Jesus and inviting them to church to hear more of the good news.

Cleanup Campaign Off To Good Start

The annual Cisco Cleanup Campaign got off to a good start Monday and Tuesday as area residents took advantage of spring weather and free pickup service to rid their premises of trash and debris.

Both City Manager Mike Moore and Mayor Eris Ritchie were well pleased with response to the campaign and express appreciation for the cooperation of residents in the effort "to clean up our city." The campaign will continue through Friday.

Several city trucks were patrolling residential districts to pick up piles of trash and debris. A front-end loader was being used to pick up heavy items, tree stumps and the like. City Hall was accepting calls from citizens reporting locations of trash to be picked up.

"Call us (442-2111) if you have large items to be hauled away," Mr. Moore said. "Leave your name and address."

The city landfill grounds will be open all day during the week and will be open until 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Mr. Moore said. The dump gate will remain open until 4:30 p.m. Saturday, April 16.

In a statement, Mayor Ritchie stressed the value of removing trash and debris from residential areas in improving health and safety conditions.

"We need to remove mosquito and insect breeding places," the mayor said. "By starting now. We can keep control of mosquitos that often are a real menace. There is nothing like cleanliness to make our community a better place in which to live."

Tickets For County Law Banquet On Sale

Tickets for the 12th Annual Eastland County Law Enforcement Banquet went on sale this week and are available from all members of the law enforcement organization, President Steve Foster reports.

Texas Attorney General Jim Mattox will be the principal speaker at the 7 p.m. event which will be held at Wendell T. Siebert Elementary School on Thursday, April 28.

Vance Godbey will be caterer and tickets are available at $7 per person.

Traditionally the Law Enforcement Association honors a citizen for outstanding contribution to good law enforcement and the Eastland County Newspapers helps in recognizing good law enforcement.

Blood Pressure

Cisco Care Center at 1404 Front Street will be providing a blood pressure check for your convenience. To get B/P checked free, simply stop by the Cisco Care Center, seven (7) days a week, twenty-four (24) hours a day. Ask for the charge nurse.

CHS Jazz Band Earns First Place In Class AA

Cisco High School Jazz Band earned 1st place in Class AA in both sightreading and concert performance at the A.C.U. Jazz Festival held in Abilene, Saturday.

The newly-formed C.H.S. musical group performed "Skyhook" by Dave Barduhm, "Flight of the Foo Dird" by Count Baie, and "Que Pasa" by Jay Chataway.

Judges Guy Gamble and Ed George complimented the band on their interpretation on the solos played, the saxophone sounds, the drum work, and the over-all improvement of the group.

The members of the 19 piece organization are: Trumpet - Matt Ritchie, Kyle Anderson and Pete DeLeon, Harold Roan; Trombone - Tommy Cross, Kendall Anderson, Eric Zarate and John Bailey; Saxophone - Margaret Yeager, Frances Channess, Sheila Prickett, Leach Lambeth, Randy Hastings; Drums - Greg Sipe, Randy Batteas; Guitar - Eric Nichols; Piano - Tracy Couch; Bass - Tricia Zellman, and Sue Scott.

Three Jr. High Students Selected To All-District

Three Cisco Junior High students were selected to the All-District and Junior High band, held Saturday in Stephenville.

Selected for the 105 price honor organization were: Stephanie Clinton - Percussion; Keith Johnson - Tuba; and Amanda Kaltenbaugh Tenor Saxophone. After rehearsing all day Saturday, under the direction of Band Director Douglas Fry, of Abilene, the group performed a concert that evening. Accompanying the Cisco students to Stephenville was Mrs. Charlotte Kaltenbaugh.

Theft Probed By City Police

City Police are investigating the theft of a quantity of bakery products stolen from Super Valu Grocery, 1002 Hilton Avenue, early Sunday morning. Chief Randy Whittle reported Tuesday.

Taken were 11 trays of snack treats and three trays of bread. The store's bakery wholesaler had delivered the products and left the trays in front of the store around 1 a.m. as usual.

The empty trays were found near the city water storage tanks on College Hill early Tuesday, Chief Whittle said.

Police handled three arrests over the weekend, including one for drunkenness, one for disorderly conduct, and one for simple assault.

Pat Owens Will Perform At Festival

One outstanding talent act that will be performing at the 10th annual CISCO FOLKLIFE FESTIVAL this year will be vocalist Pat Owens. Besides being an outstanding popular female singer, she is also recognized locally as Director of the Cisco Junior College Wrangler Belles. She is the wife of George Owens of S & M Supply.

In addition to her act will be the piano accompaniment of Reggie Griffin, a freshman student and basketball player at CJC from Gary, Indiana.

They will be performing Sunday, April 24th from 1:30 to 2:00. So we know you won't want to miss them.

Cisco Folklife Festival Is Planned For April 23-24

The tenth Cisco Folklife Festival will be held on April 23-24 at the Cisco Junior College Ag Building.

The Cisco Civic League members have been putting in many hours trying to prepare for a bigger and different festival this year in the way of entertainment and pioneer skills demonstrations.

Beth Ward, the general Folklife Festival chairperson, reports that there will be 40 exhibitors' booths this year. Many of these will be making their first appearance at the festival.

The exhibitors and their arts or crafts or wares are: Jon Cermin-wood toys; The Lackeys-toys, crafts, bread boxes and swings; Louise Cherry-counted cross stitch; Norma Schaefer-needlework; Nelda Lofland-needlework; Cisco High Resource Room-ceramics; Helen Fine-afghans; The Dickeys-rocks, belt buckles, rattlers; Kenn Norris-antiques, barbed wire; Ronnie Fiedler-cowhide bar stools and chairs; Abilene Gift Shop-silk flowers, baskets, brass; C.A. Sanders-wall hangers, puppets and toys; Graham Memorial Hospital-Health Services; Eastland Manor Home-Health Services; poisonous household plants; Sherwood Sutter-watercolors, oils, landscapes, abstracts; Marlo Brashier-personalized items, acrylic gifts; Twentieth Century Club-display and book sale; Jake Womack-crystal jewelry, hangings, desk pieces; Adele Bass-homemade candy; Eastland County Bass Club-fishing lures, fillet techniques; Bernadette Lipkin-silk-screened initials on fabric; Cisco Service Club-games for children; Bob and Kay Westby-wood burl clocks, tables, wire trees; M.L. Herold-wood toys and handicrafts; Letha Stafford-oil paintings and portraits; Cisco Writers Club-works by area writers; Cisco Senior Center-crafts; Mary Huling-cloth dolls, stuffed animals and plaques; Susan Widmayer-handcrafted stoneware and off-loom weaving; Lorenzo Castaneda-western oil and watercolor painting; Dorothy Leard-wood memory frames for photographs; CJC College Women-cake walk; Keith Taylor-mesquite clocks and taxidermy; Connie Edmondson-decorative painting and crafts; Lillian Fry-china painting; Linda Miller-wood craft; Bob Lindsey-pro-gro fertilizer; Ruby Begley, Laverne Maynard-natural foods/herbs/vitamins; Jim Sublett-stained glass/etched glass.

Old Tyme Fiddler's Contest Set April 23

This will be first year that the Cisco Civic League has sponsored an Old Tyme Fiddler's Contest. It will be held during the Cisco Folklife Festival. The contest will be on Saturday, April 23rd at 3:00 p.m.

Anyone who would like to be a participant is encouraged to be in the entertainment tent at 3:00.

If more information is needed, call Carolyn White at 629-2344.

The director for the contest will be Davis Jones of Stamford. Mr. Davis organized and ran the Fiddlers' contest at the Stamford Cowboy's Reunion. He is a regular entertainer at the "Sagerton Monthly Musical". (Mr. Davis is the father of Mrs. Jerry (Davena) Jeffcoat, local public school music teacher).

Prizes for the contest will be: 1st-$75, 2nd-$50, 3rd-$25.

Barbara Pope Is Learning And Teaching Pioneer Skills

Barbara Pope has been learning and teaching different types of pioneer skills this past year - some that have not been shown in the past are: tin punching, netting, chain rushing, and hide tanning. (A schedule of demonstrations appears elsewhere in this paper).

During the first seven years, the CISCO FOLKLIFE FESTIVAL activities were held in the Ag Building - but more space has been needed to take care of the many people who attend. Therefore, two large tents will be rented again this year (like last year) to take care of the food and entertainment.

Since there is a producing oil well just south of the Ag building this year, the location of the tents has had to be moved. The entertainment tent will be near the entrance to the Ag building (on the southwest corner of the building). The food tent will be located adjacent to the building on the south. People sitting and eating in the food tent should be able to see and hear the entertainment.

In the food tent, the Noon Lions Club will have a Sausage-on-Stick booth, the First United Methodist Church youth will sell hamburgers, and the Cisco Civic League will have a variety of Mexican foods for sale. Also the Civic League will prepare "on-site" strawberry shortcake and cinnamon rolls. The Eastland County Child Welfare Board will offer all kinds of sweets: pies, cakes, and cookies.

THE CISCO FOLKLIFE FESTIVAL will open on Saturday as soon as the parade downtown is over and will close Saturday night at 10:00. On Sunday the festival will be open from 12 noon until 5:00.

The admission booth to the Festival grounds will be at the "top of the hill" (the road entrance to the Ag building area). The Evening Lion's Club will be manning the admission booth and the cost is $1.00 per adult and 50 cents for children under 12 per day.

Carolyn White, entertainment chairperson, has lined up some new and different types of entertainment for the public this year. (See schedule elsewhere).

Buck Wheat Resources Bring In Gas Producer

A new natural gas producer has been brought on line in Stephens County's Smith Field by Buck Wheat Resources of Eastland. The well is designated as the No. 2 Smith "A", with drillsite seven miles south of Breckenridge.

On a .75-in. choke, it showed potential to yield 1,601,000 CF gas per day. It was given an impressive 11,200,000

CFD rating on absolute open flow.

Many Good And Sincere Individuals
...give little thought to the question of values when we should measure them in terms of personal worth in everything he buys, enjoys or does. For example, some folks will buy real estate without any kind of evidence of title disregarding the fact that the principal value of the purchase is in the title, not in the land itself or the improvements thereon. This kind of thinking costs property owners thousands of dollars annually which could be saved and a part of the savings wisely spent for an abstract of title or title insurance.

Putnam News

By Mrs. R.B. Taylor

Today has seemed like spring after three weeks of miserable weather, cold, wind and quite a lot of rain. The sunshine today has been nice, and I notice some of the beans and potatoes that we planted a month ago are peeping through the ground. However, we are due another cold spell around the 18th. It thundered on that day in February and will frost in April.

The youngsters of Putnam are really enjoying the playground. The community is indebted to Mr. Milton Donaway for the playground. He keeps it mowed, has furnished balls of all kind, moved the swings from the school house, has basketball court, also baseball ground. Now he is trying to collect enough money for a nice slide. So any contribution will be gladly accepted.

Those on the sick list include Mrs. Buster Hatchett between Putnam and Baird, who is a patient in a Dallas hospital.

Mr. Arnold Pruett is still in the hospital at Temple. He is doing fine after surgery.

My little neighbor, Mrs. Roland Rivers spent several days in hospital at Abilene. She is home now.

Add Patterns for Drama

There was a newspaper story that caught my eye awhile ago. It was so striking, I was able to recall every detail. Here's the way it went.

Some time back, somebody, I think it may have been some college students or someone, began "borrowing" all of the pink plastic flamingoes in some town or city somewhere. I think out east or maybe down south. Then at some time, maybe a week or two later or perhaps a couple months, somebody took all the flamingoes and set them up someplace, maybe on a hillside or golf course or something.

I know you envy my steel-trap memory. But the point is this: the photo of all those ganging plastic birds was truly remarkable. Even for those very few people in this world who hate pink plastic flamingoes (are there such people?), the shot was quite effective. The reason wasn't the subject — the flamingoes — but rather the pattern created by the repetition of the flamingoes. In short, the pattern became the subject.

Pattern — the repetition of shapes, lines, or colors — is a strong visual element which can function as an effective subject in a scene. You can't take a camera, point it at a hillside randomly covered with trees, and snap the shutter, anticipating an effective photo as the result. But you can photograph two or three neatly planted rows of trees and up with a powerful visual statement.

We're surrounded by a nearly infinite variety of patterns. Some are the handiwork of Mother Nature, while others are the result of man's infringement on the environment. The regularity in these patterns creates a pleasing sense of rhythm and harmony in a scene.

Ahh, but can't we have too much of a good thing? Yes, indeed. When that happens, the result is often boredom. The secret to using patterns creatively is to find those with enough variation in them to catch the viewer's interest.

Often, pattern shots are most successful when the pattern fills the entire frame and seems to extend endlessly beyond. An example? Picture a pond filled with lily pads . . . from one corner of the frame to the other, nothing but oval-shaped splotches of green. Add to that scene an unexpected diversion, like a single white flower in the lower left-hand corner, and you have the makings of an exceptional photo.

Or visualize a cityscape of tall buildings at dusk. One after another, steel-and-concrete structures stretching into the darkening sky, silhouetted against the background. But one of the buildings has a lighted beacon topping it off. There you have a pattern and a diversion working to create effective visual imagery.

Or how about a random maze of field corn, ear after ear piled several feet deep for as far as the camera can see. Then, in the lower right-hand corner, a field mouse nibbling away. That has the makings of a prize-winning photo, more so because of the absolute unlikelihood of seeing anything quite like that again.

Patterns don't have to be quite that dramatic in order to work. There are more common patterns all around us. In fact, it's hard to get through a single day without running across dozens of them. Sometimes, they're so common, the last thing we think of doing is photographing them. But that's far from saying it's the last thing we should do.

Picture a group of third-grade students emerging from school for a fire drill. Neat, orderly rows of little munchkins, all looking straight ahead . . . except for the third from the end who's peering up at a bird flying overhead. Or a bank of lockers in a bus depot . . . all closed, row after row, except for one, cracked open just far enough to allow the imagination to sneak in.

You get the point. Patterns, repetition, diversion — just one more way to add drama to your photos.

Cross Plains Roping Club Will Sponsor Ranch Rodeo

The Cross Plains Roping Club will sponsor a Ranch Rodeo on May 14th. Proceeds will go to the Junior Rodeo Association. Performances will be held at 2:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. at the Rodeo Arena.

In 1983 the first rodeo with prize money was held in Pecos. This first rodeo was for the ranch cowboys to compete against each other. Ranch Rodeo is like the early day rodeo. The broncs are snubbed in the arena and then saddled by a man on the ground (they will be halted in the chute), team roping without a barrier, horse catching will give the eight teams roping their horses as they would out of a remuda (all eight teams will go at the same time), team penning is the art of cutting animals out of a herd, roping and branding and cow milking will complete the events.

Cowboys will have four men to a team and eight teams will be accepted. All eight teams will have two go rounds. Teams interested in entering may contact Maxey Evans after 8:00 p.m. at 817-725-6209. The first eight teams to enter will be accepted. Trophy buckles will be awarded to each man on the winning team.

The youngsters will get in this act, too, with a Boot Race for those under 12 years. Trophy buckles will be given the winner at each performance. Their boots will be piled in the middle of the arena, when all the children are behind the line, the signal will be given for them to retrieve their boots, put them on and run to the line. The first one to the line is the winner.

Cowboys will be competing for $1600.00 in prize money.

Let's talk.

Information about your changing telephone service from Bob Cox, Community Relations Manager

Some telephones now offered for sale

In earlier columns, we've discussed several changes underway within the Bell System and Southwestern Bell. Now, there's one more.

If you are a customer with single-line telephone service, you may purchase certain telephones that were available only on a monthly lease basis. When you purchase your set, you may save money by eliminating monthly equipment charges on your statements.

Phones for sale include standard telephone sets in both rotary and Touch-Tone® service (desk or wall units), along with Trimline® and Princess® models.

The offer also includes special feature instruments such as the Touch-a-matic® 12 adjunct dialer, the Touch-a-matic 16 and Touch-a-matic S Series telephone sets, the Action Phone™ and TeleHelper speakerphone, and the TeleHelper answer-and-record units.

FCC regulations prevent party-line customers from purchasing these phones.

Purchase considerations and warranties

Instruments already installed in a customer's home or office will cost less than equipment in our inventory. Phones sold in place carry a 30-day warranty; those sold from inventory carry a 90-day warranty.

A full text of this warranty is available free upon request by writing to Southwestern Bell Fulfillment Center, 600 St. Louis, Room 619, Springfield, MO 65806.

Purchasing your phone is optional. You may continue to lease set(s) or any of the functional instruments on a monthly basis. When you lease equipment, there's no additional charge for repair work, and you can get replacement phones whenever you move.

When you purchase phone(s), you eliminate monthly equipment charges on your statement. Over a period of time, this could cost you less. But remember, if you purchase your phone(s), you will be responsible for repairs after the warranty expires.

With credit approval, you may purchase your phone(s) in equal monthly installments (two, three or four months) — all without interest. If you prefer, you can be billed in one lump sum on your next monthly statement.

The following charts compare monthly charges to purchase prices.

The club was entertained with several musical selections by the Intermediate School "Little Lobo" ensemble directed by Mrs. Davene Jeffcoat.

She spoke words of praise for Mrs. Jeffcoat for the fine work she had done in the music department with the "Little Lobo Choir" at the school. Mrs. Gardenhire closed her remarks with the quotation, "Where Words fail, music speaks."

Mrs. Ruby Lee Pirtle, president, called the meeting to order and extended a warm welcome to members and guests. Eighteen members answered roll call and Odessa Collins led the group in repeating the Club Collect and pledge to the flags.

After committee reports the club adjourned.

WORD of GOD

Prophecy (Old Testament)

Thus saith the Lord: A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rachel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

Jeremiah 31:15

WORD of GOD

Fulfillment (New Testament)

Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying,

In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

Youth Crime Educator Working In The County

Bishop L.C. Browning, founder of Youth Crime Prevention League of Texas, is working in Eastland County this week with churches, schools, Scout Troops, Boys Clubs and anywhere there are young people. His work is to educate the youth against crime and drug abuse. To achieve peaceful intergration and encourage youth to work together in building character and become good citizens.

Bishop Browning is the only crusader for youth and has completed 25 years in this program.

Browning tells parents to "be concerned and become involved. Know the valuable things that make life sublime."

Browning has risked "body and limb" for God and country keeping riots out of Texas by denouncing such people as Ralph Brown and Dick Gregory. His program is older than that of Rev. Martin Luther King. He worked often with King and they became close friends.

Dolph Briscoe, as Governor of Texas, commissioned Rev. Browning as Ambassador of Good Will in Texas in 1974. Gov. Bill Clements renewed this commission and Browning is looking forward to Gov. Mark White doing the same.

Browning celebrated his 25th Anniversary at the state capitol in October, 1982. Mayor pro tem of Austin presented him with a gold key to the city of Austin in recognition for his 25 years in service to the youth of Texas. This was the first time city officials went over to the capitol to present a key to the city.

Supreme Court Judge, the late Honorable James Norvell and the late Honorable W.M. Morrison, had been in Brownings tent and was always behind him in his work. Browning later dedicated his van in honor of these two men.

Browning was presented with a check from Betty McGee on behalf of Eastland County Newspapers. This was given to him in his drive to raise $200,000 for his crusade to establish a permanent office in Fort Worth. This office will be a memorial for his service to the present youth and future citizens.

Bishop Browning is asking all citizens of Eastland County to send at least $1 to: Youth Crime Prevention League Inc., 109 S. Judkins, Fort Worth, Texas 76111.

"I am thanking you in advance for your support and your donations that have kept this work going for 25 years," Browning said.

Reflections In Perspective

By I.W. Ussery

Ali Zolghadar has few if any of the characteristics of the "typical Iranian." Well over six feet in height, thin, and just a little hatchet-faced, Ali appears to be of either Kurdish or Russian extraction. Most people who knew him agreed to the latter.

Ali was at all times the perfect gentleman. One would peg him as holding high government position, perhaps in the Diplomatic Corps, but the only position he had ever held in government was when he was in the armed forces when he was a young man under the rule of Reza Shah the Great, father of the late Mohammed Reza, Shah Pahlavi. And of Ali's service with Reza the Great many tales were told. The most of them had to do with Ali's totally unpredictable escapades as a young officer.

Although to all intents and purposes a devout Moslem, it seems that Agha e Zolghadar felt that Allah would look the other way when he is indulged in slight violations of the Moslem rules concerning the consumption of beverage alcohol.

When Reza the Great mechanized his army, Ali was assigned as a young lieutenant to an armoured regiment which had its headquarters on the northern edge (then) of the city where the training regiment for recruits is now located. And Ali is said to have fallen in love with his tanks.

Now the entertainment center of Teheran is down near the heart of the city on Lalezar Avenue. Ranging from high class night clubs, complete with very decent floor shows and a dance floor to sleazy wine-and-strip joints, one could find just about any sort of entertainment he might want. And Ali Zolghadar was said to have been something of a sustaining patron of some of the places of entertainment. But Ali was also said to have nurtured quite a temper in those youthful days.

On occasion someone would rub Ali the wrong way, short-change him, or otherwise incur his wrath. He'd proceed to his regimental compound, crank up a tank and go lumbering down toward Lalezar Avenue, scattering the police, automobiles and pedestrians with utter abandon until he reached the entrance of the place where his dignity had been disturbed. Then he'd really shift into high gear! With no warning other than the crash of shattering timbers, he'd proceed to widen the doorways with his tank and crunch his way right onto the dance floor. Having achieved that, he'd proceed to dismount his cast iron charger and make a speech. And then he'd step outside into the waiting arms of the Military Police.

It was said that after Ali had sobered he'd be commanded into personal audience with His Imperial Majesty who would quite unceremoniously rip away his insignia of rank and literally kick him out of the throne room... and out of the army. Undaunted, Ali would give His Majesty a few weeks to cool off, and would then apply for re-instatement. Since he had an enviable reputation as a tactician, he would be accepted back into the army. But at a lower rank than that which he held. Six, maybe nine months would go by, and Ali would go on another tear. He was said never to have gone past the rank of major.

But things became too dull in the Shah's army. Ali resigned his commission, and after tramping around Western Europe for awhile (he came from a very wealthy family) enlisted in the French Foreign Legion not long before the outbreak of the French Indo-China Revolution (Viet Nam), where he was engaged near the end of that conflict in the final battle for the "liberation" of Dien Bien Phay where Ho Chi Minh led the "liberation forces."

In one fierce battle, or rather following the battle, while the fighting forces were being re-grouped bodies of the dead and wounded were being picked up from the battle field, loaded into open trucks in which they were carted to mass burial pits. The body of Ali Zolghadar was among those being so loaded.

When they reached the mass grave, so the story goes, the two who grasped Ali's body stopped with... "Hey! This one isn't stiff. Must still be alive." With which they tossed him aside to be gathered up by a makeshift ambulance.

Ali slowly came back to life in a Viet Nameese hospital, and was returned to Parish where he finally reached full recovery. After having been highly decorated, he was separated from the Legion and returned to his beloved homeland. His principal badge of service with the Legion was his right hand, which consisted of nothing more than the second finger. "Grenade." He explained. "Tried to return it. Didn't have time." But he was alive, vibrant, the perfectly polished gentleman at all times. And he was a devoted Royalist. I've not had a report concerning his fate following the Islamic Revolution. I hope his luck held out.

THE REAL ESTATE CONSUMER is provided as a public service by this newspaper and the Texas Real Estate Research Center. Address inquiries to: The Real Estate Consumer, Texas Real Estate Research Center, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas 77843.

Many Texans are facing a capital gains dilemma—that is pressure to purchase a new home to avoid paying a tax on the gain from the sale of a previous home.

The income tax laws allow the seller of a principal residence to postpone the recognition of gain if the residence is replaced within 24 months by a home of equal or greater value. Failure to purchase within the legal period requires the seller to pay capital gains tax.

Because of record high interest rates and high home prices, many sellers decided to wait before making another purchase. Now they are having trouble qualifying for a home loan.

People facing the capital gains dilemma can either continue to rent and pay the entire capital gains tax or buy a less expensive house than their previous one and pay a tax on part of their gain. Remember—if you are nearing your 24-month deadline, a less expensive house will result in a considerable tax savings.

FIXED-RATE MORTGAGE POPULAR

Prospective homebuyers are interested in the varied array of mortgage alternatives available to them but are often uncertain as to the appropriate financial arrangements for their home purchase.

Based on a statewide survey of Texas homebuyers recently completed by the Texas Real Estate Research Center, the conventional, fixed-rate mortgage was still the most heavily used form of financing, especially for upper income, one-worker households.

FHA and VA fixed-rate financing tended to be used by young, married, two-worker households. Adjustable rate and graduated payment mortgage instruments were attractive to younger buyers.

Prices of homes negotiated with an adjustable rate loan tended to be either low, below $60,000 or high, more than 200,000. Finally, 6 percent of the survey respondents are paying for their homes out right with cash.

TEXANS PAY MORE PER MONTH

Because of the tax and investment advantages of homeownership, Texans continue to purchase residences, but Texas homebuyers in 1981 made larger monthly payments than homebuyers nationally.

A survey by the Texas Real Estate Research Center shows the average monthly payment was 30 percent of the Texas homebuyer's income. Of the state's homebuyers in 1981, only 5 percent were spending less than $400 per month for mortgage payments. The median monthly payment was $775.

First-time buyers and owners of previously occupied homes paid less per month than did repeat buyers and owners of newly built homes. In 1981, homebuyers with middle-range incomes had the highest monthly payments as a proportion of their incomes.

As you can see, many Texans, both first-time homebuyers and repeat buyers, have been willing to make great sacrifices to purchase a home.

EQUITY PARTICIPATION FINANCING

If you desire the benefits of home ownership but cannot afford it under existing market conditions, or if you are an investor looking for high performance, low-risk investments, equity participation financing can be the answer.

Equity participation financing allows an individual investor, corporation, mortgage lender or even the former owner of the property to share an equity interest in a real estate purchase. Such ownership benefits are in exchange for assisting with financing all or a portion of the down payment, closing costs and monthly payment.

Equity participation originated in commercial investment, but the need for creative financing in residential realty brought it into that market. And because the variations of equity participation are almost limitless, it is destined to assume an important place among creative financing techniques for the future.

DIVIDING MARITAL PROPERTY

Everyone realizes that when a marriage ends in divorce, division of property is necessary. When real estate is involved, this process can be not only unpleasant but also complex.

Few people realize that under Texas law, there are two categories of marital property—separate and community. And who gets what property depends on how the property is categorized. This situation can lead to lengthy legal battles and great expense to one or both parties.

Uncomfortable disputes of property ownership may be avoided by using certain legal devices. These include premarital agreements, the partitioning of property during the marriage and keeping accurate records to prevent comingling separate and community property. Well defined property ownership within the marriage can minimize court costs of a divorce and preserve good feelings between the parties.

When Our Trees Go Down In Flames, Our Dollars Go Up In Smoke.

Southern forests are more than homes for our wild-life and playgrounds for our people. They play a major role in our economy.

When our forests burn—by accident or arson—jobs and money are lost. And prices go up on the thousands of items made from wood and paper.

With these print materials, you can help make people more aware of how valuable these forests are to all who live here. You can help stop Southern forest fires.

Just spread the word—when our trees go down in flames, our dollars go up in smoke.

S.E.E. Class Will Perform Melodrama On April 23

The SEE class of Cisco High School is to perform the melodrama entitled "True Blue and Trusted" by R.A. Anderson and R.L. Sweeney. The cast includes Janice Woolley as Lily Lackamoney, a pure, virtuous heroine; Stephanie Clinton as Lily's mother; Kelley Cooper as Grandmama; Tracy Reeves as Jo Tamarak Gargle, a dastardly villain; Connie Gosnell as Maxine Mascarra, a conniving wench; John Bailey as Colonel Beaugard, a filthy rich horsefly collector; Robert McDonald as Balderdash Trustworthy, the hero of the story; and Trace Dunlap as a mail-order preacher. Members of the cast with non-speaking parts are Bryan Lorange, publicity chairman; Lance Angel, props and sound effects chairman; John Bailey, supervisor; Stacy Williamson, set design and make-up; Christy Smith, musical accompaniment. Director of the melodrama is Lou Jane Qualls.

The melodrama will be presented Saturday April 23 at the CJC Agriculture Building in the entertainment tent as part of the Cisco Folklife Festival. In order to ensure an opportunity for everyone to enjoy this program, it will be presented at 7:30 p.m. and again 8:30 p.m.

Telephone Calling Card Service Is Now Available

Cisco Telephone customers can now take advantage of Calling Card Service, a feature that permits placing of credit card calls without operator assistance. Using the new system won't require many changes for customers, according to Bob Cox of Southwestern Bell.

"Users will still dial zero-plus the telephone number as they do today," he said. "After the caller has dialed the zero-plus number, a tone will sound indicating the credit card number—now called a calling card number—should be entered. Billing will be handled quickly and automatically without operator assistance."

Service Club Will Sponsor Puppet Show

The Cisco Service Club, along with the organization of Parents Against Dangerous Drugs will be sponsoring a puppet show on Thursday, April 14.

Puppeteers from Sweetwater will be presenting an educational show in a delightful manner. "The Big Country Puppeteers," from Sweetwater work on a volunteer basis in presenting these puppet shows in area communities. The ladies are solely dependent on organizational sponsorship and donations to help with travel expenses.

These volunteers are interested in doing their part to help do away with drug abuse. It is the nationwide hope that with educating our youth, drug abuse will be curtailed.

The puppet shows will be held at both the Primary and the Intermediate Schools on Thursday, April 14. Primary School Shows will be at 10:30 a.m. and 12:10 p.m. The Intermediate School shows will be at 1:30 p.m. and 2:15 p.m. Each show is scheduled as a 30 minute program.

All interested persons are invited to attend the program of their convenience.

If the caller does not enter a calling card number, an operator will come on the line to assist in completing the call.

Calling Card Service is set for full-scale introduction in Cisco on January 10, 1983.

"Users will find the service helps speed their calls along," Cox said. "In public places, it insures privacy as the number does not need to be quoted aloud."

Calling Card Service is available only from residence, business or public coin telephones equipped with Touch Tone. Customers without Touch Tone service can continue to place card calls with operator assistance. "Calling card users should find the new service a fast and convenient way to place their calls," Cox said.

The Fantasticks Will Be Presented At Albany High

The longest-running off Broadway musical in American history, THE FANTASTICKS, will be presented by Texas Opera Theater at The Albany High School Auditorium on April 21st at 7:30 p.m. Even though it has had a successful run off Broadway since 1960, few people are aware of the fact that THE FANTASTICKS is a product of two sons of Texas. Lyricist Tom Jones (born in Lit-tfield, Texas) and composer Harvey Schmidt (born in Dallas) met at The University of Texas, where they first began collaborating. After each served a stint in the army, they met again in New York and continued working on a musical adaptation that became The Fantasticks.

This new production by The Texas Opera Theater is being presented as a benefit performance for The Old Jail Foundation. The production is underwritten by The Rockwell Fund of Houston and The Henry Martin Rockwell Fund of Albany and The Texas Commission on the Arts. The Albany

Chapter of the Junior Historians will assist backstage for the performance of this phenomenally successful musical.

Tickets are priced at $7.00 and for students at $3.00. Patron tickets are $25.00 and include supper after the performance with the cast and crew at The Old Jail.

Tickets may be purchased at The Old Jail Foundation and The Chamber of Commerce and are tax deductible.

For further information, contact Sherry Wright at 442-2501 in Cisco, Martha Montgomery at 762-2470 in Moran, and Sara Barnard at 559-5656 in Breckenridge.

MEMBERS OF the Albany Chapter of the Junior Historians are shown backstage at the Albany High School Auditorium. The Junior Historians will assist The Texas Opera Theater in the performance of THE FANTASTICKS. This performance for the benefit of The Old Jail Foundation begins at 7:30 p.m., April 21st.

Service Club Will Sponsor Game Booth

There will be a face painting booth, the Cisco Service Club will have a game booth, and children may peel apples using an old-fashioned peeler, dip candles, and pull taffy and make their own bread critters in the Kitchen Demonstration area.

A games time will be held for anyone who wants to participate. It is free. There will be age divisions. Prizes will be awarded in all divisions.

On Saturday, April 23, the games will be from 3 to 5 in back of the Ag building.

The games are: Chariot races, Toilet paper toss, roll, and pass, Sack races

The same games will be held on Sunday, April 24, from 1 to 3 at the same place.

Bennie Team Wins Tourney

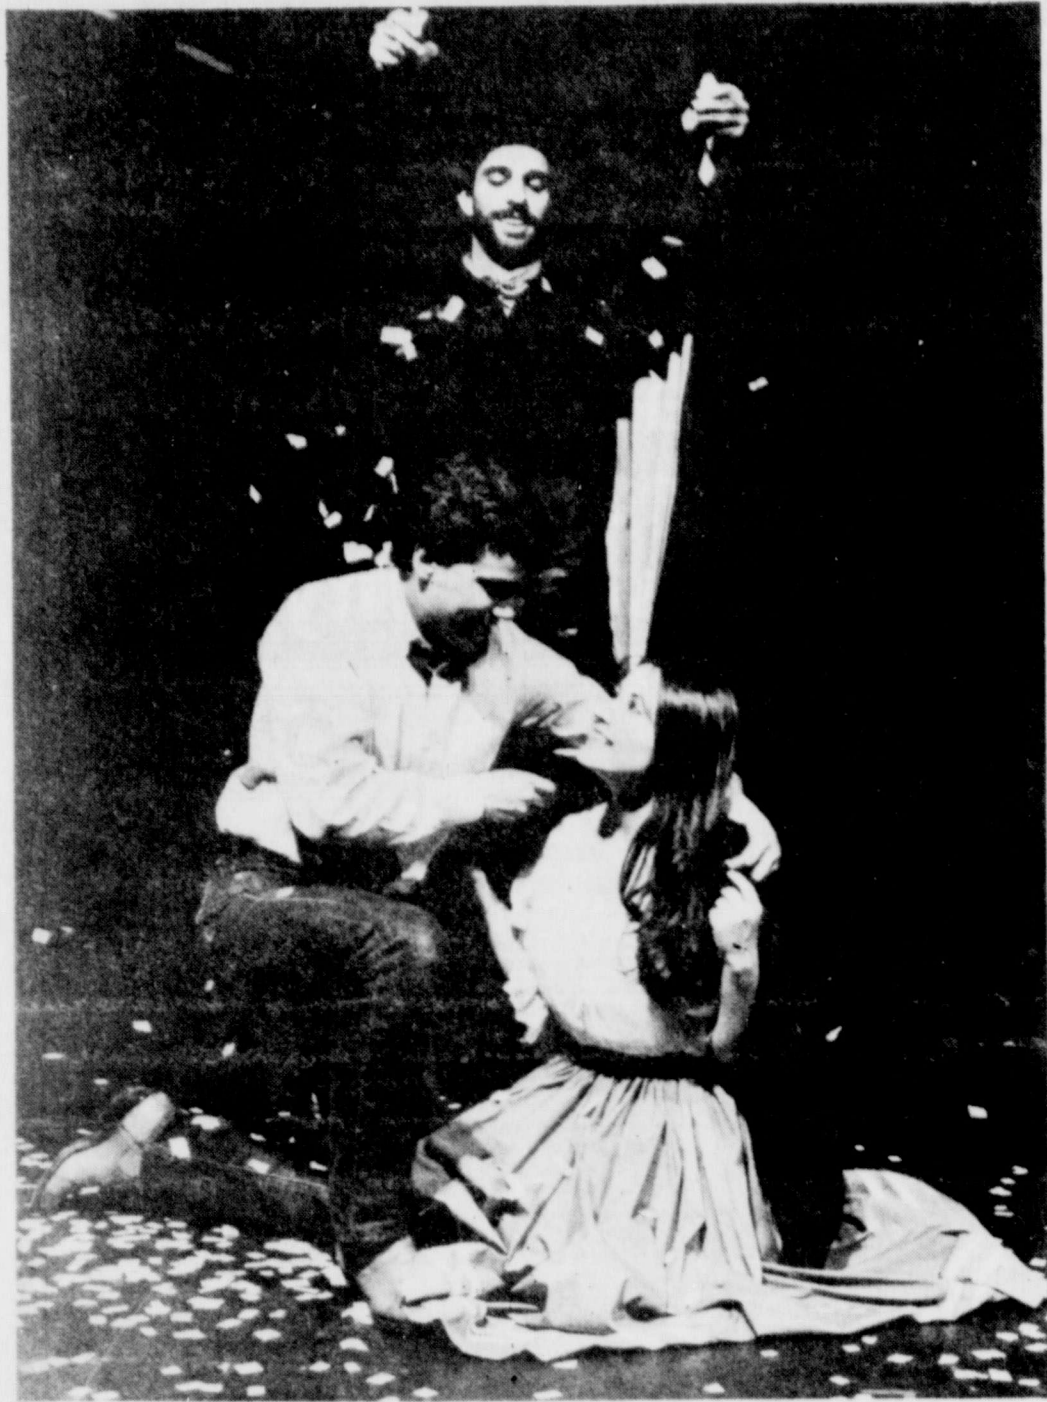

A score of 11-under par 56 won top honors for the team captained by Bob Bennie in a scramble golf tournament at the Cisco Country Club last Saturday afternoon. Five teams took part in the event.

Playing with Mr. Bennie were Tim Jones, Roy Gevara, Kendall Anderson and Pat Owens.

Second place went to the Tracy Owens team with a score of 59, nine under par. Playing with him were Carrel Smith, Maryann Perry, Ed Wende, Lucy Collier and Irene Wende.

The Ralph Glenn team, with a score of 60, placed third. His team included D. Cates, George Owens, B.J. Perry and Charlie Graham.

Other team captains and their scores were Bobby Smith, 61, and Delburt Schaefer, 62.

THE CHAIRMAN of The Benefit Performance Committee for The Fantasticks is Nancy E. Green shown above. Other members of the committee include Betty P. Law, Lorene McComas, Sherry Wright of Cisco, Sara Barnard of Breckenridge, Matha Montgomery of Moran, John Horace Sedwick, Chairman of The Henry Martin Rockwell Fund of Albany, and Winifred Waller, Sponsor of the Junior Historian Chapter of Albany.

Regret nothing. Not even your sins and failures. Recall. Have you not at sometime in your life climbed some mountain? You did not spend your time in dwelling on the stones, the brushy bushes or the energy expended that marked your climb. Instead, you looked in awe upon the beauty of the view and revived as you breathed the pure air from your lofty height.

So now ... breathe in the bountiful blessings of each new day. Forget all that lies behind.

Man was created to carry the weight of twenty-four hours. Christ promised to help you with the burden of today. If you choose to carry your past burdens expect to carry them without His help.

Soldiers on a long march, fleeing from danger leaves behind the over-whelming weight of worn-out shoes and uniforms of past marches. Yet men in the mental and spiritual life foolishly continue to carry past loads.

Resolve now. I will cast aside those things which are behind. I will reach for that which is before—now.

Governor Signs Conservation Law

AUSTIN--Gov. Mark White today signed into law the Texas Wildlife Conservation Act of 1983 which will enhance the stability of the state's wildlife populations and expand outdoor opportunities for sportsmen and outdoor enthusiasts. The act gives the Texas

Parks and Wildlife Department statewide authority for wildlife management and eliminates locally specialized wildlife laws previously in effect in 116 Texas counties. The bill was sponsored by Rep. Fred Agnich, R-Dallas, and Sen. Ted Lyon, D-Rockwall.

Both Agnich and Lyon attended the bill signing ceremony in the state capitol. Also in attendance was Ed Cox Jr., vice chairman of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission.

Cox expressed the appreciation of the tens of thousands of sportsmen and conservationists who supported the efforts of Texans for Wildlife Conservation. The group, whose members include the more than 800 sportsmen's clubs in Texas, was formed to promote passage of the Wildlife Conservation Act.

"The Texas Wildlife Conservation Act will at last enable the Parks and Wildlife Department to manage our wildlife resources on a scientific basis statewide," Cox said.

"It is the most far reaching wildlife conservation legislation ever passed in the state," he added.

Cox explained that prior to enactment of the new law, locally specialized law was in effect in 13 counties. Some of these laws were first passed in 1925 and were not responsive to today's wildlife management needs. In 30 other counties, commissioners courts had authority to veto wildlife regulations developed by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. In 73 other counties, Cox said, the Parks and Wildlife Department had only partial authority to manage wildlife.

"The Wildlife Conservation Act puts wildlife management in the hands of professionals and eliminates the outdated laws that regulated wildlife in large parts of our state," Cox said. "The act will extend to every county the extraordinary success record of the Parks and Wildlife Department."

Cox praised the hard work of Senator Lyon and Representative Agnich in attaining passage of the legislation and Governor White's support of the law.

"Generations to come of outdoor enthusiasts and sportsmen truly owe you a debt of thanks," he told the Governor and the lawmakers.

TEXAS GARDENER TIPS

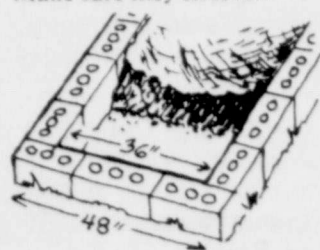

Raise Bumper Crops Using Raised Beds

The raised bed is the nearest thing to magic in the garden. It makes possible bumper crops in small spaces by utilizing closely spaced rows and highly fertile soil.

There are many places to using a raised bed. You can create your own tailor-made blend of soil, and you don't have to rototill it, either. It won't flood, and since you never set foot within the bed, the soil won't get packed down.

Raised beds require walls 8 to 16 inches high, which you can build from 2-inch-thick redwood, old railroad ties, or cinder blocks. Here is how to build a raised bed 36 inches wide and 10 feet, 8 inches long with cinder blocks.

You will need 22 cinder blocks, each measuring 16"x8"x6". Choose a level, sunny part of your yard, and arrange the blocks so 3 blocks form each end and 8 blocks form each side. Make sure they sit level.

It is important to fill the bed with a good soil mix, the optimal being about half topsoil and half soil amendment. Sandy loam topsoil is ideal, and peat moss, shredded bark, perlite, or vermiculite may be used as the amendment. If you use organic soil amendments, the soil mix will have to be renewed occasionally as soil organisms digest the organic materials.

Beds should be filled to within one inch of the top with soil mix. Along the edges of the bed, soil mix should be sloped up to the top to prevent irrigation water from flowing down the side instead of wetting the bed.

A raised bed must be fertilized well to support its intensive planting. You can make a seasonal or yearly application of a slow-release fertilizer, using either natural organics, such as manure, or slow-release fertilizer pellets, such as Osmocote. Or you can use a weekly feeding of an all-nutrient mineral fertilizer, such as Steiner Solution. If you use any natural organics except compost, you must work it in and wait 2 months before planting.

When you've finished constructing your raised bed, you will be able to run 3 side-by-side rows down the length of it, or you can go crosswise for small-size crops like onions and radishes. Your plants will thrive because you are giving them a near-perfect condition to grow in.

A BETTER CHANCE TO MAKE A BETTER BUY

Many of your friends and neighbors attend auctions regularly because they enjoy having a chance to offer their bids for items they want and need. Here's some tips to help you have a better chance to make a better buy.

Come to our auctions early on sale day so you can take your time and inspect all the items thoroughly. Your knowledge of the condition of the offering will give you an advantage when the bidding begins.

Find out the "sale order" so you can be ready to bid for the items you want. And think about the amount you will bid for an item before it comes up for sale.

Bid what you think is right for you. Make a good buy... or let someone else have the item. But don't fail to attend because someone else will get it if it's a bargain. And remember, when it comes to buying or selling AUCTION'S BEST.

Education: brings The joy of learning — a life-long experience

Education is a life long process, not something which can be contained within the walls of any school, however distinguished. It is as much a territory for adults as children — there is no limit on curiosity. For the person who truly believes that she has nothing more to learn, because that person has ceased to learn.

People learn by a variety of methods. Book learning is the most common, but as is the interchange of ideas among people, teacher to pupil, pupil to teacher, and so on, people learn by opening the mind to the possibilities of learning. By allowing their senses to interpret the world around them, they learn to see, to feel, to taste, to hear, to touch, to think, to dream, and all and emotions have to do with it.

Whether your interests lie in the sciences or whether you are enthralled by everything the world has to offer, there is one principle always to keep in mind: There is nothing so small it is not worth learning, nothing so large it is not worth tackling.

Perfect picture

Capturing the spirit of summer in photographs can be as easy as looking in the sun when you follow a few simple tips on picture taking.

No matter how ideal the lighting and other conditions, ultimately the quality of your pictures depends on the way you handle your camera.

Although many of the new cameras are easy to use, what appears on the film is the result of how you compose the shot.

One of the greatest advantages of an instant camera is that you can see your results immediately. You can tell right away when you took the time to compose a shot in the viewfinder or when you need to try again.

The new Kodamatic 9701 is a perfect example of this.

Commissioners Grant M.A.D.D. Rally

THERE WILL BE an announcement soon about a dedication service for the Wm. B. Wright Memorial that has been built just east of City Hall. The event is scheduled for May 1st, and details of the program are now being worked out.

The memorial is a fine tribute to the late city attorney and long time good citizen.

THINGS ARE shaping up nicely for Cisco's 10th anniversary Frontier Jubilee, which includes the Folklife Festival and Cisco Junior College Ranch Day. That's the word from CofC Manager Randy Speegle who is devoting just about all of his time this month to the April 22-25 event.

Such time as he has left over, Mr. Speegle dons his hat as president of the Cisco Little League. They're getting organized for a new baseball season.

A DISTINGUISHED visitor in Cisco last weekend was Mr. Rega Zaheri of Houston where he is president of OXCO Corporation, an oil company that operates on an international scale. He was a student at Cisco Junior College some 12 years ago and has fond memories of CJC and our town. His wife is the former Nancy Elliott of Eastland.

In Cisco, the Zaheris visited the Lloyd Londons. He is a native of Iran who has lived in Houston for some years.

GUESS THE Ralph Glens of our town will vacation in Africa next summer instead of Switzerland and Germany where their daughters live. Daughter Doris Lee and her husband Gunter Wagner will be going to Tanganyika for a year. Dr. Wagner will teach in a university while his wife will do research work on African music for her doctor's degree.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Wagner teach in Switzerland. The other Glenn daughter, Marcia, is a bilingual secretary in Germany.

AMONG THOSE who competed in the 26-mile marathon at Abilene last Saturday was Mr. Eddie Jackson of Garland, son of the E.L. Jacksons of Cisco. Eddie and family came out Friday and spent the night, and he went over bright and early Saturday.

Like a good many others, Eddie didn't finish the race. The route wasn't properly marked and after 20 miles or so, he lost his way and had to drop out. It was a nice outing and an enjoyable run, he told his folks. Eddie is a frequent participant in marathons and has run in some of the biggest in the USA.

IF YOU'VE LOST a dog, check in with Nina Jo Anderson at Walton Electric. A male dog has turned up at the Anderson home out on the Rising Star Highway. Nina Jo feels that he's a pretty high calibre dog as he has on a collar (no name) and is well groomed.

Unless an owner claims him, Nina Jo expects her husband Teddy to take possession as he and the dog are already on good terms.

Nina Jo tells us that between being Cisco's Greyhound and Trailways bus agent and looking after the bookkeeping at Walton Electric, she has a pretty full day every day.

THE REV. Buddy Sipe, pastor of First Baptist Church, completed a short revival meeting at a Baptist church in Ranger last Sunday night. Fireman David Gill reports that they're conducting a survey of homes in Cisco to determine how many have wooden shingles. A credit on the city's fire insurance key rate could be the result, he reports.

Prof Wesley Valek of CJC has some new baby chicks out at their house. They have a flock of hens that originated in South America - hens that lay eggs of assorted colors.

THE REV. JOHN Clinton of Evangelical Methodist Church was the No. 1 assistant chef when his missus' Girl Scout troop enjoyed a cookout at Lake Brownwood last Saturday. An orchestra from Rising Star provided musical entertainment when some 50 Cisco Masonic Lodge members and wives enjoyed a dinner at the local lodge last Saturday night. Dr. and Mrs. Ayres Cermin (drums and piano, respectively) played with the orchestra. Mr. Melburn of Lake Leon, Texas grand master in 1980, was the speaker for the event.

MRS. MARY Karau, who lives at Pembroke, 90 miles north Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, helped her sister, Christine Reich of Cisco, give a birthday party for their mother, Mrs. Dorothy Janzow, on the latter's 95th birthday at Cisco Nursing Center last April 5th.

Mary and Christine were hostesses and entertained and served cake and ice

Eastland County Commissioners Court met Monday and voted to grant permission for Mothers Against Drunk Drivers to hold a rally, June 11 on the courthouse grounds.

Mrs. Shoope, representing the MADD organization, appeared before the court requesting permission to assemble for the rally.

In other action the commissioners court: • voted for a budget amendment that would allow the county clerk's office to computer index their records.

Reed Roach of Business Records Corp. of Dallas and County Clerk Jo Ann Johnson explained the service to the court. Estimated cost of the remainder of the fiscal year is $10,800.

Granted Sun Pipeline Company permission to cross three county roads in Precinct 1 and three roads in Precinct 2 with four-inch oil pipelines.

Accepted an insurance settlement of $1,450 for damages to a county bridge during a December 14 accident involving a truck owned by Smalley Drilling Co. of Albany.

Heard a report on the progress of work being done cream to 75 folks. Mrs. Karau, a widow for five years, still lives in the home in which she and her husband raised their children. And she has a vacation cabin in the area. She works three days a week, sharing a job with a friend. She came to Cisco to help with the 95th party and to visit relatives and friends.

Firemen Of Area Fight Big Pasture Grass Fire

Fire of undetermined origin burned off several hundred acres of pasture land some 15 miles south of Cisco in the area of the Union Community Monday night. Firemen from at least 10 towns of the region responded to calls for help in bringing the blaze under control.

The area south of the Wayside Cemetery and along FM Road 2731, included a number of oil well installations, a compressor station and improvements. There was no estimate as to the damage to fences. There were no reports of damage to oil installations or of injuries.

The fire was reported first to the Rising Star Fire Department at 6:10 p.m. Cisco received a call at 6:30 p.m. and Chief C.W. Guthrie ordered a truck and a rescue unit to the scene. The rescue unit was used as a CB radio center for a time.

Local firemen assisting included Chief Guthrie, Fireman David Gill, and Volunteer Fireman John Jarvis, Kenneth Boyd, Richard Connell, Odell Rains, Billy Bacon and others. The Cisco units returned around 10:30 p.m.

Other fire departments sending units were Eastland, Ranger, Gorman, Carbon, May, Early, Lake Brownwood and Brownwood. At 11 p.m., Cisco firemen received a call from Rising Star to help put out a barn fire four miles east of Rising Star. The blaze there broke out around 3 p.m. and Rising Star firemen responded. Some 3,000 bales of hay in the barn started burning, bringing the second alarm. The loss there was estimated at $15,000 or more.
