

MEMORIAL DAY

Let's Always Remember Their Great Sacrifice

Let us pause on this special day to pay tribute to those courageous and dedicated men and women of our armed forces who gave their time, their energy and their lives to protect the ideals we so strongly believe in. We shall not forget them... now or for generations to come.

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERREL HALLMARK

PUBLIC SCHOOLS are officially closed now with the Seniors of 1983 graduating Friday night. Classes were dismissed Wednesday afternoon and local students were turned out for the summer.

Be sure and remember that children may be playing near streets this summer and be on a constant look-out for them. Let's all help the children to have a good vacation.

MEMORIAL DAY is Monday across the nation and everyone is urged to remember those who gave up their lives in recent wars to help keep America a free nation. We have a lot to be thankful for in this country and we should all strive to do our patriotic part to keep America great.

Be sure and read the box on this page which deals with Memorial Day and above all else, Remember.

Drug Menace Is Outlined To Lions

The goal of the recently organized People Against Dangerous Drugs organization is to make people aware of the serious drug situation in Eastland County, Chairman Joe Cooper of the group told the Cisco Lions Club in a talk at their weekly luncheon last Wednesday noon.

Illegal drugs represent the second largest industry in the United States with some 90 billion dollars spent in buying and selling drugs during 1979, Mr. Cooper said. Of that large sum, some 23 billions went for marijuana and 30 billions for cocaine, he added.

Drugs are a two billion dollar industry in Texas, Mr. Cooper said. Due to its location, Texas is a shipping point for drugs that move from South and Central America and Mexico to cities throughout the nation, he said. Authorities have estimated that as many as 200 air flights per night come into or through Texas with drug cargos.

Survey show that some 30 per cent of the U.S. work force uses drugs, Mr. Cooper said. Another survey showed that 60 per cent of high school seniors have experimented with marijuana and that 10 per cent are daily users. Marijuana usage has increased 61 per cent in the past 20 years, officials report.

The average starting age for marijuana users is 10 to 12 years, Mr. Cooper said. This has been attributed in part to television and the movies portraying drug users. Mr. Cooper called attention to a theater ad in daily newspapers about a new movie about drug use.

Mr. Cooper described marijuana as the "gateway drug - where they begin." Chemicals from one marijuana cigarette remain in the body system for 21 days, he said. The drug affects the

CHS Student In Jail After Striking Coach

A 16-year old Cisco High School student must remain in county jail until a hearing is held next Tuesday in a case in which he is alleged to have knocked down and injured a coach last Tuesday, according to action of the 91st District Court Thursday.

The youth, an 8th grader, is alleged to have knocked Ron Mouser, girls basketball and track coach, down with a blow to the face and then battering him on the ground. The coach was treated at a physician's office and released.

Police Detective Jackie Hobbs took the youth in custody and took him to county jail after a hearing before City Judge Jasper Cook.

Under juvenile court laws, the first step is a detention hearing to determine whether the youth charged should be released to custody of someone, usually the parents, or to remain in jail. Next, the charges are considered - this will occur Tuesday - and, finally, the court will determine punishment.

Leslie Vance, Eastland attorney, was appointed to represent the youth.

City Council Studies Plans Improving Water System

Plans and specifications for a water filtration plant and distribution system improvements were outlined by Engineer Kenneth B. Martin of Jacob and Martin, Inc., consulting engineers, at the semi-monthly meeting of the Cisco City Council at City Hall last Tuesday night.

In other action, the Council approved a settlement in a claim for insurance damages resulting from rock blasting on Front Street last winter in the sewer out-fall line project, ordered an election to fill a Council vacancy, and hear a report by City Manager Mike Moore that plans have been completed for a street sealing project to begin next month.

Mr. Martin discussed details of the water improvement program and reported that he would return at the June 14th meeting with complete plans and specification for Council approval.

The Council adopted a tentative time table for the water project that calls for plans and specifications to be submitted June 30th to state health and water financing agencies, calling for bids in August and executing construction contracts in September.

Financing for the project, which is expected to cost more than a million dollars, was approved by Cisco voters in a revenue bond issue election last summer.

The Council approved a recommendation by Engineer Billy Jacob and City Manager Moore that the city accept some $1,500 to settle damage claims covered by insurance. The damages occurred on Front Street to curb and gutter and

District Court Rules State Can Use Letter

A motion by the defense that a letter written by Loyd Lundstrom to his pastor while authorities were conducting a nationwide search for him be suppressed in his murder trial was denied in a ruling announced Tuesday by Judge Jim Wright of 91st District Court.

Lundstrom, charged with capital murder in the March 3rd shooting death of his wife Doris in Cisco, will likely go to trial in August, Judge Wright said. The court's June docket has already been arranged and the judge said it was doubtful that the Lundstrom trial could be handled in the July docket, already partly scheduled.

A trial date is expected to be set in the near future, it was indicated. Lundstrom's attorney, Bill Hart of Eastland, has insisted that an early trial was their wish.

In a pre-trial hearing May 19th, Mr. Hart asked the court to suppress a letter dated March 6 to the Rev. C.L. Reneau, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, of which Lundstrom was a member, and mailed by Lundstrom to the pastor. Mr. Hart contended that the letter was "privileged pastor-parishoner communication."

Emory Walton, district attorney, argued that the letter should be presented at the trial and he called the Rev. John Clinton, pastor of First Evangelical Methodist Church in Cisco, and a friend of Lundstrom's who said Lundstrom called him by telephone and discussed the letter before it was received by Rev. Reneau. Mr. Walton said this amounted to giving the pastor permission to disclose the letter's contents. Cisco police testified that they saw it.

Lundstrom surrendered a week later at DFW Airport where officers met him as per agreement made by telephone through the minister. He remains free under a $100,000 bond set by Justice of the Peace Carlton Holder.

Program Set For Memorial Day

Cisco area residents will pay tribute to deceased military veterans in a program at 11 a.m., Monday, May 30, at Oakwood Cemetery as the Memorial Day highlight for the community. The program has been arranged by the John William Butts Post 123 of the American Legion.

Most business firms of the area will be closed Monday as Memorial Day is usually observed as a holiday. City and county offices, the Cisco Post Office, First National Bank, Olney Savings, and a number of business firms have announced plans to close.

Post Commander Brad Kimbrough of the Legion Post said that a tent would be erected and seats provided at the Cemetery for the benefit of those attending.

Jim Hatcher, minister of the Church of Christ, will be the program speaker, and the Rev. Milo Steffen, pastor of First Christian Church, will give the invocation. John Picklesimmer, youth and music director at the First Baptist Church, will direct music for the service.

The program will be concluded with the playing of "Taps" by Dickie Seider, member of the Cisco Junior College band. Miniature flags will be available for anyone who would like to place one on the grave of a military veteran.

Mr. Kimbrough said the public would be welcome at the service.

With a Monday holiday providing a long weekend, many people were expected to make short trips. Authorities have urged extra caution in highway travel as heavy traffic has been forecast.

22 Band Students In State Contest

Twenty-two Cisco High School musicians have qualified for the University Interscholastic League State solo and ensemble contest to be held in Austin on Saturday, May 28th and Sunday, May 30.

Qualifying at the Regional UIL contest was the Jazz Band: Greg Sipe, drums; Matt Ritchie, trumpet; Kendall Anderson, trombone; John Bailey, trombone; Eric Zarate, trombone; Pete DeLeon, trumpet; Randy Bateas, percussion; Harold Roan, trumpet; Randy Hastings, saxophone; Kyle Anderson, trumpet; Tommy Cross, trombone; Tricia Zellman, bass; Sheila Prickett, saxophone; Sue Scott, bass; Tracey Couch, piano; Margaret Yeager, saxophone; Leah Lambeth, saxophone and Frances Chamness, saxophone.

Also qualifying was the twirling trio of Tara Davies, Leah Lambeth and Melissa Wylie.

Soloists qualifying for state competition are Jana Jeffcoat, vocal; Matt Ritchie, trumpet; and Robin Ritchie, flute.

Six buildings of the University of Texas campus in Austin have been reserved for the 4,500 students expected to compete. Forty of the finest judges in the southwest have been hired to adjudicate the two-day competition.

"I'm very excited that we have this many young people competing at this level this year," said CHS band director Al Young. "It speaks well for their dedication and hard work throughout the year."

The group will travel to Austin Sunday afternoon, May 29th and return to Cisco Monday evening, May 30th. Adults accompanying the group are Al Young, CHS band director, Mr. and Mrs. Al Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Eris Ritchie, Mrs. Carolyn Sipe and Mrs. Davene Jeffcoat.

Youth Convicted In Slugging Case

A 91st District Court jury found a 16-year old Cisco youth guilty of delinquent conduct in slugging an elderly woman with a hammer in his trial Wednesday at the courthouse in Eastland. The jury was out 10 minutes and used half of the time to elect a foreman and read the charge.

Judge Jim Wright, who presided, instructed Defense Attorney Leslie Vance to take the youth to Wichita Falls State Hospital for a physical and psychological examination before making a decision on whether to send the juvenile to custody of the Texas Youth Council or to place him on supervised probation. A decision will be made within two weeks, the judge indicated.

District Attorney Emory Walton handled the prosecution. Mrs. W.D. Peavy of Cisco testified in closed proceedings. She had told Sheriff Johnny Morren that the youth attacked her after she refused to give him her money, car keys and car title when he demanded it. Also testifying were Mrs. Billie Joe Vickers, neighbor who came to Mrs. Peavy's aid after the attack, and Dr. Ayres Cermin who treated her.

The district attorney told the court that the youth should be confined during the time he was being examined, but the defense countered that nothing had been offered to prove that he was dangerous.

Mrs. Peavy said she was pleased with the jury's findings.

Landfill Will Be Open Monday

The Cisco Landfill dump will be open from noon until 8 p.m. Monday for the benefit of those who want to use the Memorial Day holiday as an occasion for cleanup work, City Manager Mike Moore reported.

The regular garbage pickup will not be made Monday, Mr. Moore said, as the city will be observing a holiday. City Hall will be closed.

Breck Air Show Kicks Off Sunday

BRECKENRIDGE-The skys over Stephens County Airport in Breckenridge will look as busy as the skys over D-FW Airport when the fifth annual air show kicks off Sunday from 2-5 p.m.

The annual event, which has attracted as many as 3,000 people in the past, will begin at 8:00 a.m. when the gate will open for the viewing of vintage and stunt flying aircraft.

Admission will be $5 per adult and $2 per child.

According to show officials about 100-120 aircraft are expected to participate in the show and many planes will be World War II vintage. An example of this will be a Dr. Hoppers, of Fort Worth, and his four-engine B-17.

Both large and small aerobatic planes will also perform routines, among them a T-6 flown by Ron Iberg.

Breckenridge pilots and aircraft collectors Howard Pardue and Jim McMillan will also be flying. Pardue will feature his Corsair in the show.

Trophies and ribbons will be awarded at the show. A concession stand will also be open throughout the show.

The show is sponsored each year by the Stephens County Pilots Association and Xi Chi Upsilon sorority.

Proceeds from the event will be used to make improvements at the airport and will be donated to local charities.

PADD Committed To Inform Citizens Of Drug Problem

"If not us, who? If not now, when?" That quotation has become the unofficial motto of Eastland County's PADD Committee which believes the time has come to clean up the drug problem in Eastland County.

One of the goals of the PADD Committee has been to "inform all citizens of the magnitude of the County's drug problem" in the belief that the good citizens would unite in an effort to eliminate a problem that affects us all.

Awareness is becoming a reality as evidenced by the demand for orange balls that are beginning to appear on automobiles throughout the various county towns. These balls are being distributed by local Lions Clubs and are an expression of support for what the Committee is trying to achieve. In addition, it is reported that one employer has instructed his employees to be alert to any possible illegal drug activity and to report any such activities along with available license numbers and other information to the proper authorities via the county "Hotline".

The PADD Committee believes that persistence along with future efforts similar to the above will in the long run be successful in eliminating local illegal drug trafficking and consumption.

Many Good And Sincere Individuals

...give little thought to the question of values when we should measure them in terms of personal worth in everything he buys, enjoys or does. For example, some folks will buy real estate without any kind of evidence of title disregarding the fact that the principal value of the purchase is in the title, not in the land itself or the improvements thereon. This kind of thinking costs property owners thousands of dollars annually which could be saved and a part of the savings wisely spent for an abstract of title or title insurance.

Season Tickets Available For Roof Garden Theatre

For the first time season tickets are available for the summer season at the Roof Garden Dinner Theatre in Cisco. Season tickets entitle the holder to preferential seating as well as significant savings. Season tickets are being sold for $32 while individual ticket prices will be $12 for the plays and $12.50 for the musical. According to director Philip Craik, "This summer will be by far the most ambitious and entertaining to date." Starting off with DEATHTRAP, by Ira Levine, theatre goers will be treated to one of the greatest popular successes of recent Broadway history, which offers a rare and skillful blending of gasp-inducing thrills and spontaneous laughter.

Dealing with the devious doings of Sidney Bruhl, a writer of thriller whose recent works have all been flops, and who is prepared to go to any lengths to improve his fortunes, it provides twists and turns and sudden shocks in such abundance that audiences are held spellbound until the very last moment.

FIDDLER ON THE ROOF by Joseph Stein, Jerry Brock, and Sheldon Harnick is quite simply one of the finest and best loved musical plays ever written. Based on the Sholem Aleichem stories, the play centers around Tevye, a simple peasant dairyman, who along with his wife and daughters, comprises one of the hard-working families of the small town of Anatevka. Their lives are filled with simple joys of living guided by their ability to take adversity with gentle humor and an abiding faith in God. Well-known songs from the score include "Matchmaker, Matchmaker", "If I Were A Rich Man", and "Sunrise, Sunset".

TARTUFFE by Moliere is one of the funniest and best known French farces. It is the story of a hypocrit named Tartuffe who manages through deception to gain control of his benefactor Orgon's estate. Not until the scoundrel makes advances on Orgon's wife does the master finally see the light and banish Tartuffe. Too late, it appears, for the villain has gained control of certain incriminating evidence and threatens to blackmail Orgon. Of course good triumphs in the end and evil is punished, but not before everyone has been treated to a thoroughly elegant evening of comedy.

Those interested in purchasing season tickets should send a check or money order to Cisco Junior College, Roof Garden Dinner Theatre, Cisco, Texas 76437. For further information write to Cisco Junior College or call (817) 442-2567, extension 128.

A Reminder.....

The social will begin at 8 p.m. following the evening service in the Community Room of the church and friends are asked to bring either a freezer of ice cream, a cake or cookies. The Smiths will also be given a love money tree.

Roof Garden Auditions Are Tuesday At 7

Auditions for the Roof Garden Dinner Theatre's production of FIDDLER ON THE ROOF will be held Tuesday, May 31 at 7 p.m. at the Fine Arts Building Auditorium on the Cisco Junior College campus. While a few of the major roles have already been cast with professional actors serving as guest artists for the summer season, many major and minor roles remain to be filled by people from the community as well as students enrolled as apprentices in the professional summer program. People interested in auditioning for major roles are requested to prepare a song and provide sheet music for the accompanist or they may bring their own accompanist. All others need no special preparation. There are still a limited number of apprentice positions available for this summer, particularly for young men. Apprentices are eligible for free lodging in college dormitories, up to 14 hours of college credit at a low cost, scholarships and stipends. In addition, they get to participate as actors and/or technicians in all three summer productions and work and study with theatre professionals. For more information concerning the summer dinner theatre contact Philip Craik, Director Summer Theatre, Cisco Junior College, Cisco, Texas 76437 or call (817) 442-2567, extension 128.

Vietnam Veterans Memorial Will Be Dedicated Monday

Vietnam. The name evokes memories of darkness, sorrow, perhaps confusion. For the families of young men who died there, the word still brings pain too deep for tears.

During the undeclared war in Vietnam a number of Eastland County young men took up their part of the burden. This followed in the local tradition, for men of this area have always supported their country.

Two local men lost their lives in this conflict - Bubba Everett of Olden, and Frank Tyrone of Carbon.

Out of Eagle Nest, New Mexico, all who fought and died in Vietnam will be especially remembered this Memorial Day 1983. There a soaring DAV Vietnam Veteran's National Shrine, high on a hill, will be the center of ceremonial activity.

Thousands of Vietnam Veterans, families of those killed in Vietnam, and veterans of other wars are expected to throng the northern New Mexico valley below the Memorial.

Significantly, the dedication of the DAV Vietnam Veterans National Memorial will occur almost 15 years to the day since U.S. Marine Corps Lieutenant David Westphal and twelve of his comrades were killed in an enemy ambush in Vietnam.

David's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Victor Westphal, and his brother, Douglas, almost single-handedly built the majestic structure as a tribute to David and all who fought in the Southeast Asia during the Vietnam war.

In late 1962, with Dr. Westphal's full approval, disabled American Veterans established a nonprofit corporation, the DAV Veterans National Memorial, Inc., to assume ownership and responsibility for all operations, expecting the Memorial to become a major American landmark.

Spiritual values have been part of the chapel from its inception. The deceased David Westphal believed that the cause for which he gave his life was just, according to his father. Words that David wrote bear testimony to his belief in a more ultimate justice and an ethical code whereby peace could prevail. These words of David Westphal's are inscribed on a plaque in the rear of the chapel:

"At the sight of the heavenly throne Ezekiel fell on his face, but the voice of god commanded: 'Son of Man, stand on your feet and I will speak with you'. 'If we are to stand on our feet in the presence of God, what, then, is one man that he should debase the dignity of another?'"

At the entrance of the chapel is another inscription by David Westphal, which perhaps sums up his feelings about war:

"Greed plowed cities desolate
Lusts ran snorting through the streets
Pride reared up to desecrate
Shrines, and there were no retreats.

So man learned to shed the tears
With which he measures out his years."

Someday the tear will flow freely for Vietnam.

Federation Of Women's Clubs Will Hold Sale

The City Federation of Women's Clubs will hold an indoor-outdoor Rummage-Bake Sale Friday and Saturday, June 3-4, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., each day at the Federation Club House, 400 W. 7th Street. The door will be open all day Thursday, June 2, for the members to receive articles for sale and to make arrangements for the next two days.

The City Federation is NOT a Club, but is the union (federation) of six of Cisco's earliest Study and Service Clubs for women. The purpose of the Federation, as the "Founding Mothers" stated it was, is "to bring into closer relationship, one with another, the women's clubs of Cisco, to afford facilities (the Federation Club House and the Federation Meetings) for the helpful exchange of ideas and club methods, and to promote, through their common interest, the general welfare."

Though the City Federation is not itself a club affiliated with any broader organization, it is the six member-clubs in Cisco. The members in their separate member-clubs, belong to County, District, National and/or International Federations, eg., Beta Upsilon Chapter of The Delta Kappa Gamma Society, International.

Together, the members of these member-clubs of the Cisco City Federation give a tremendous amount of money through contributions to causes all over the world beginning in Cisco, Eastland County. They also give many hours of physical thought, study, time and personal to interests that include every category of human needs and welfare.

Services of the members of the clubs of the City Federation, to mention a few, range from clean-up and beautification projects of neglected property, baskets of food for the needy, stamps, games, books and magazines for prisoners to contributions for "Christmas in May." There are awards, scholarships and libraries, and programs and aids in problems of Home Economics, Safety, Health and Welfare and many more social and legal interests.

Members of the City Federation are cooperative citizens interested in the "general welfare" and are automatically members of the City Federation because of their membership in a member-club. They are entitled to the use of the Federation Club House for any club-related occasion. The six member-clubs are: The Delta Kappa Gamma Society, First Industrial Arts Club, The Music Study Club and the Twentieth Century Club. The members of the various clubs will be in contact with their presidents to know how they can help with the coming events.

Phone Service Is Improving

Telephone service is improving significantly in Cisco, according to local manager Bob Cox.

A recent study by the company showed 23 percent fewer customers calling the company's repair center from the last three months of 1982 to the present. "The improvement is a result of a recent program we implemented to make local service more reliable with better transmission quality," said Cox.

The program, called the Loop Treatment plan, helps our technicians identify problem areas and correct them. We've spent thousands of dollars in Cisco to add new equipment to our loop system - the circuits connecting customers to our switching centers. Cox said the equipment will insure less static and other noises on customers' lines. It also makes the lines less likely to be out of service.

The company counts the number of reports to repair service and compares it to the number of local customers. In the last three months of 1982 there were 3.4 reports for every 100 customers. That number dropped to 2.6 per hundred customers in the first three months of 1983. "The Public Utility Commission objective for reports per hundred customers is 8.0, so our results are almost four times as good as the goal," said Cox.

Real Estate Consumer

David S. Jones

THE REAL ESTATE CONSUMER is provided as a public service by this newspaper and the Texas Real Estate Research Center. Address inquiries to The Real Estate Consumer, Texas Real Estate Research Center, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas 77843.

When inflation is a problem, many people turn to tangible investments to protect themselves from the declining value of money. That's one reason real estate investment has become so popular.

Well located real property, if purchased at a reasonable price, can provide an excellent inflation hedge. Many people buy small parcels of undeveloped land in the path of development for just such a purpose. Other small investors purchase duplexes and houses to gain extra income.

But real estate investment does involve certain drawbacks and risks. Income and resale value are not guaranteed. Time and knowledge are required to buy, sell and manage the property. Invested money cannot be withdrawn quickly.

In short, investment in real estate can be very rewarding. Your local real estate professional can help you find real estate that fits your particular needs.

SHOP FOR A MORTGAGE

Before you shop for a home, shop for a mortgage. The difference in terms and lenders may save you much more than the difference in the prices of two similar homes. The prepayment penalty clause inserted in some conventional mortgages is an example. Simply stated, this clause requires you to pay a fee if you pay off the mortgage early. Although you may not expect to pay off the mortgage before it is due, this may happen if you sell to someone who wants to refinance the loan.

Ask different lenders in your area about their prepayment penalties before you agree to sign any mortgage application. And, remember, in Texas no prepayment penalty may be charged on mortgage loans with interest rates greater than 10 percent.

By shopping for the best terms before you shop for a home, you can save a great deal of money now and make your home easier to sell later.

DETERMINING YOUR HOME'S WORTH

When selling your home, you can offer it at any price you wish. If your home is priced above its market value, however, it is unlikely to sell. It certainly will not sell quickly.

If your home is offered below market value, you may not make as much money as you could on the sale. For these reasons, an accurate estimate of the market value of your house is quite useful.

Get an appraisal report from a professional appraiser. Don't rely on values provided by neighbors or tax assessors. Some tax rates are updated infrequently, and property values may have changed greatly since the last assessment.

Designated members of such recognized organizations as the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers and the Society of Real Estate Appraisers should be qualified to appraise your home. They belong to professional associations with high ethical standards.

HIGH INTEREST RATES ARE RELATIVE

Do you feel current mortgage interest rates are too high? If so, relative to what? They certainly are higher than they were a few years ago, and they are high relative to people's ability to pay. During the last five years, interest rates rose by two-thirds while median family income rose by only one-third.

Interest rates are not high, however, relative to the rate of inflation. Mortgage interest rates historically average about 3 or 4 percentage points more than the rate of inflation. Thus given the current 12 percent inflation, mortgage rates are not unusually high. If inflation can be reduced sufficiently, the interest rate will decline to a level at which more people can afford to buy a home.

CLASSES ON REAL ESTATE

Are you considering entering real estate sales, or do you just want to learn more about real estate for personal reasons? Whatever the reason, there are nearly 50 community colleges in Texas which offer two-year associate of applied science degree in real estate.

These programs consist of seven to nine real estate courses reinforced by accounting, economics, government and other courses. You may wish to investigate real estate courses offered by private real estate schools regulated by the Texas Real Estate Commission. In addition, many four-year colleges and universities offer real estate concentrations or options, usually in the college of business within the finance curriculum.

So, if you want to know more about real estate, chances are there are one or more educational opportunities in your community.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR

Recently, I read a copy of Crossroads of Texas spring 1983 newspaper. It was very interesting and informative. I noticed that throughout the paper frequent mention was made to the friendly people in Eastland County. On the very first page I read the words "Where welcoming folks are just downright friendly." I question that statement.

I am a construction foreman for Sun Exploration and Production Company. My job is supervising construction of pipelines, tank batteries, and other oilfield related construction projects. In September 1981 I started working in Eastland County. Some of the landowners that I tried to work with were not welcoming folks and they were definitely not friendly.

One landowner in particular was not only unfriendly, he was downright belligerent. He locked us out of the lease where we were working. He threatened to shoot several of the men working on many occasions, and tried to dictate exactly how we were to do our work.

I am not a criminal looking for property to destroy. While on this project, I completed the construction work I was assigned to do. Right-of-ways must be bulldozed to install pipelines, ditches have to be dug to bury the pipe and roads must be built to tank batteries and wells.

The work I supervised was done in an orderly manner according to the instructions I received from my supervisors. Upon completion, the construction sites were clean up properly.

A few months later on this same landowners property which is also Sun's lease, I had similar problems. This belligerent landowner threatened to shoot me on countless occasions because I would not shut the construction job down, although he had previously agreed to all the work being done.

I don't carry a gun and I don't threaten people with their lives. This belligerent landowner keeps several guns within an arms reach at all times and often threatens people with them.

I feel that I have bent over backwards trying to get along with this person, and he has always threatened me and accused me of being a liar and a thief.

On February first of this year, while doing my job, I drove onto his property to look at a future construction site. The road I was on was Sun's lease road; and as I was leaving, he was waiting at the gate. He flagged me down, pointed a pistol at me, shot a hole in the water can on my pickup and threatened to kill me if he ever caught me on his property again.

After this, Sun transferred me to another area to work. I am not the only person who has had problems with this landowner. Other people, employees of Sun and employees of other companies, have had problems with him also.

Is this the manner in which Eastland County welcomes?

Perhaps you should take a poll of Eastland County citizens to be sure that the people of Eastland County want anyone else coming to Eastland County. Perhaps the established population wants new industry and growth for the county, but they aren't willing to accept some changes and new people trying to work there.

Is your paper representative of the majority of Eastland County? If so, you might consider trying to convince the established citizens of the benefits of industrial growth and expansion.

Sincerely,
James T. Robbins
Rt. 2 Box 133
Breckenridge, Texas 76024

Dear Editor

You have published a story about the Memorial for Marine Corps Lieutenant David Westphal, a shrine which has been built near Eagle Nest New Mexico.

Memorial Day 1983 is a very special day for us in the Disabled American Veterans and the DAV Auxiliary. For today the shrine that the Westphal family built is being dedicated as the DAV Vietnam Veterans National Memorial.

It is dedicated to the memory of all 58,000 Americans who lost their lives in the Vietnam War, and also as a shrine for all who served there.

Indeed, the Memorial calls to mind not only those who died and served in the Vietnam War, but all of those who have given their lives for our country. In all, a million and a quarter Americans have died in this nation's defense, beginning with our Revolutionary War and most recently in such places as the Middle East.

The men and women who had this supreme sacrifice richly deserve the tributes we pay them in observances across the United States on Memorial Day. No one - not even those of us who came home disabled - has paid the price of America's freedom more fully.

the men and women who fought our wars were moved by idealism. This idealism is based on the principles found in our Declaration of Independence and our Constitution. Ours is a great country because every citizen has a personal and spiritual stake in its life and future.

It is often been said that the best way to honor the war dead is to serve those who lived - those who came home from war sick or disabled. Members of the DAV and its Auxiliary believe deeply in this principle.

Each year they donate approx. a million hours of their time to volunteer work in VA Hospitals and other medical facilities. But this is just the beginning of their contributions to American society. All across the country and here in Eastland County the DAV is working to increase membership. We are pleased because our Eastland DAV Chapter 92 has grown from 10 members in Jan. 1982 to 60 members at present. We invite others to join and support us.

Sincerely,
Pink Haley

It's pecan nut casebearer spray time for Eastland County. This is the little worm that can destroy the entire pecan crop in a matter of days if not controlled. Commercial pecan producers as well as homeowners with back yard trees need to be on the lookout for the casebearers.

Based on our scouting the last few days, casebearers should be showing up on the young pecans about May 30 to June 3.

Because of cooler spring temperatures, the casebearer is emerging a little later than normal this year. To time spray applications for casebearer control, first check for eggs on a daily basis. The insect eggs are normally found on the tips of nutlets and are about the size of the ball in a ball-point pen.

The eggs are white when first laid, then turn red over a three-to-five day period before turning white again after they hatch. Apply an insecticide the third day after the first egg hatches so as to kill the larvae before they enter the nutlets. Since the larvae will hatch over a week-long period or more, a second spraying may be necessary.

If you are going to spray only one time, spray about June 2 or 3. If you plan to spray twice apply one spray about May 30 and a second about June 6.

I found the first casebearer egg on May 25 in the Gorman area. This indicates that the moths have begun to deposit eggs and we can expect to find more by the weekend.

Insecticides recommended for casebearer control include Sevin, malathion, Zolone, diazinon, Guthion and Pydrin. Before using these materials, read the label directions; then follow them carefully.

The casebearer has 3 generations per year. It is approximately 42 days between the occurrence of each subsequent generation. Some years the second and third generation of this pest cause considerable nut damage. Total nut loss is usually greater during the spring generation because an individual larvae may destroy a complete nut cluster. Later generations usually damage one or two in the cluster.

The threat of a federal quarantine on Texas cattle has cattlemen wondering what might happen. There is one thing that cattlemen can do and should do. All female calves should be vaccinated for brucellosis.

We urge livestock producers to begin a vaccination program against brucellosis as soon as their calves are eligible.

Vaccination with Strain 19 vaccine is an excellent tool in the control of brucellosis, and all dairy and beef producers should contact their veterinarians and set up a schedule as part of their regular vaccination program.

According to the National Brucellosis Technical Commission, Strain 19 has proven to be about 95 percent effective against brucellosis under average field conditions. The state will pay for the vaccine as part of the revised brucellosis control program.

For best results, and to decrease the number of false reactors in later tests, dairy heifer calves should be vaccinated at four to six months of age, and beef heifer calves at 3 to 10 months of age. However, you may vaccinate heifers up to 12 months of age. Calfhood vaccination is an important element of the revised Texas brucellosis control plan and should be considered as routine as vaccination for other diseases.

POSITIVE SELLING Vs. NEGATIVE HAGGLING

Don't become another victim of negative haggling. Have you noticed how people haggle over the price and try to talk you down when you have something to sell? There is a better way.

Let me sell your items by auction. We're the pros at talking your things up.

A public auction is positive selling at its best. I'll list your items and advertise them properly so crowds of interested people will come to bid.

And when I conduct the bidding the prices increase for you. More bids mean more money for you. It's as simple as that.

I work quickly and can get cash for you right away. Avoid negative haggling by giving me a call now. You'll be pleased at the way my positive auction selling adds up to profits for you.

Remember, when it comes to buying or selling AUCTION'S BEST (SM).

NOW. BUY THE REFRIGERATOR THAT ALMOST PAYS FOR ITSELF.

A new Frigidaire Frost-Proof Refrigerator. The refrigerator that is energy efficient, almost pays for itself. In fact, if you own a 30 year old inefficient refrigerator, you can't afford to keep it.

Because a new energy-efficient Frigidaire Frost-Proof Refrigerator will save you enough money over the next 10 years, it energy costs alone, to almost pay for itself. Something that can't be said for that 30 year old refrigerator of yours.

The chart on the right will show you just what we mean.

It illustrates how much more it costs to operate a 30 year old 17 cu. ft. Frigidaire Frost-Proof model (for the next 10 years) versus one of the new Frigidaire Frost-Proof models in this ad.

And since Frigidaire Refrigerators were some of the most efficient available 10 years ago, if you now own another brand, chances are your savings will be just as much or more.

Come in today, and we'll show you how much you'll save when you trade-up to a new Frigidaire Frost-Proof model.

You'll find the work-saving conveniences you want. The dependability you expect. And a refrigerator so energy efficient it will do something your old refrigerator can't.

National Nursing Home Week Focuses Locally On 65th Wedding Anniversary

MR. and MRS. J.D. GREEN

Cisco Care Center will observe both National Nursing Home Week and the 65th wedding anniversary of residents Mrs. and Mrs. John Dee Green on Sunday, May 29, 1983.

Open House will be held at Cisco Care Center on Sunday afternoon, May 29, from 2 to 4 p.m. co-sponsored by Calvary Baptist Church and the Volunteer Council.

Louella Hanna were married in Meridian, Texas, on May 4, 1918. To this union were born two sons and four daughters: Buford and Alfred Green of Cisco; Mrs. Dorothy Nash of Aspermont; Mrs. Margie Fannan of Rule; Mrs. Jean Hammer of Bowie; and Mrs. Norma Lou Florence of Rule, who died in 1973. The Greens have fourteen grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren. The two sons and three daughters are expected to be present for the celebration.

The Greens have been residents of Cisco for 35 years and are members of Calvary Baptist Church. They request there be no gifts for the celebration.

The Rev. Buddy Sipe of First Baptist Church, Cisco, will hold the regular three o'clock service at the Care Center on Sunday, and guests for the anniversary observance are invited to join this service.

Diane Wheeler, administrator, invites all friends of the Greens and friends of the Care Center to join in this observance on Sunday, May 29.

News From The Center

By Mae Green

During the month of May, things went about as usual. The cool fresh air make it possible for the residents to get out and enjoy the patio again. Thank to the Garden Club, we now have an added attraction of beautiful hanging baskets of flowers on the trees around the patio.

On May 2nd, Mrs. Betty Hastings taught a Bible lesson on "I CAN DO ALL THINGS THROUGH CHRIST THAT STRENGTHEN ME". Philippians 4:13.

The Heavenly Halo Singers will be singing Sunday May 29th at 2:00 p.m. at the Center as part of the celebration of the 65th Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Dee Green, in conjunction with Nursing Home month.

On May 10th, Roland Smith and Wanda Rainey presented a program of Country and Western tunes and hymns of faith, Mr. Smith stated that he would not be able to visit the Center in June. If there is a change in his schedule the public will be notified.

On Thursday, May 12th, Mr. Lonnie Knight accompanied by Mrs. Cora Lee Thomas, conducted the weekly sing-a-long during my absence. As an activity director, I am very pleased to have residents able to carry on in my absence.

On May 19th the residents monthly birthday party was held at 2:30 p.m. It was hosted by the Pleasant Hill Homemakers Club. The birthday honorees were: Frankie Eaton, Lonnie Knight, Nancy Jones, Nick Gray, Mary Sargent, Cora Lee Thomas, Alfred Weise, Amy Rick, and Lovella Green.

We thank the Senior Citizen Rhythm Band for your visits to the Nursing Home this month. The residents enjoy your visits so much.

Pastors conducting services for the month of May were: Rev. Arno Bentley, East Cisco Baptist; Rev. Joe Philpott, Mitchell Baptist; and we are looking forward to seeing Rev. Buddy Sipe Sunday at 3:00 p.m. We appreciate the area churches for donating carnations for each lady on Mother's Day. The churches were: Mitchell Baptist, First Baptist, East Cisco Baptist, United Pentecostal, First Christian, Calvary Baptist and Redeemer Lutheran Church.

Any one desiring to do something special for the men on Father's Day, it will be appreciated.

Our thought for the month is: Let everything you do each day, be a guide for someone's tomorrow.

CISCO'S SIXTH Graders enjoyed an "end of school" party Wednesday afternoon at the Cisco City Park and Swimming Pool. The students went swimming, enjoyed eating and dancing on the afternoon of their last day of school this year. (staff photo)

County Church Nearing Ward Membership Level

The Eastland County Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, now a branch of the church, is nearing membership level to qualify it as a Ward, and with the attainment of that level, a large Cultural Hall addition to the present facility, located in southwest

Eastland, is planned, it has been announced.

The new addition to the present facility, which is slightly over a year old, would include a gymnasium, stage area and generally room for many family activities.

The two young men whom you may have seen wearing white shirts and ties and either walking or driving around town are not business men, lawyers, doctors, FBI agents, or even inspectors from the Board of Health.

They are missionaries for the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The two are Ron Hill, from Riverton, Utah and Robert Huskey whose home is in Tucson, Arizona. As missionaries they have left family, friends and normal life at the age of 19 to devote 18 months of their lives to the church. They pay all of their own expenses to have the privilege of sharing what they say is a very important and special message with all people.

There are 30,000 missionaries for the church throughout the world today, who work seven days a week and 12 hours a day without pay.

Hill and Huskey are currently working in both Eastland and Stephens Counties. Huskey has been out 14 months and Hill has been here in Texas for 10 months.

"This is the greatest area I've been in so far!" said Hill. "The people are real friendly and receptive for the most part. We love it here."

local news in brief

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Joyner and daughter Wanda, from Collegé Station visited his mother, Velma Joyner, and his sister, Wanda Nelms and her family recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Toland went to Hollis, Okla., Friday to attend funeral services for her brother who passed away.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bradshaw returned home Wednesday after visiting for a week in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, at Plainview. Mrs. Miller underwent surgery and was reported to be doing nicely.

There are some 5.2 million members of the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and that number increases daily. "When people are baptized into the church one of the promises that they make to the Lord is that they will do all they can to love and help their fellow men," said Huskey. "We both feel that serving a mission is one of the ways we can keep that promise." Hill adds, "The main purpose of the church is to help people live more happy, joyful and productive lives as families and individuals." He went on to say, "The church helps people to learn and understand why they are here on the earth, so they can receive all the blessings that God has in store for them both here and in the eternities ahead."

At the end of their 18 month ministry, both of the young men plan to attend college and further their education. Huskey is thinking about going into the music field or becoming an oral surgeon while Hill is planning on either a career in music or electronics.

Graham Firm Low Bidder For Paving

The Zack Burkett Company of Graham was the low bidder for a contract to pave Front Street from 8 to 2nd Street at a bid opening at city hall in Cisco Thursday.

The City Council held a called meeting to open the bids. The Burkett company's bid was $71,227 for the job. Three other bidders included two from Abilene and one from Tye.

Specifications call for seven blocks to receive hot mix treatment with curb and gutter from 8th to 4th Street. The street will be 34 feet wide from 8th to 4th and 26 feet wide from 4th to 2nd Street. The present pavement is 34 feet to 4th and 18 feet from there to 2nd.

The contractor asked for 120 days to complete the project. Work was expected to commence by mid-June.

Mayor Eris Ritchie presided at the special meeting. Engineer Billy Jacob of Jacob and Martin, Inc., Abilene consulting engineers, was here to assist City Manager Mike Moore with details of the bid opening.

Front Street, north of 8th Street, has been in a bad state of repair since the building of a new sewer outfall line last winter. The pipeline ditch was dug along the west side of the street.

Part of the financing for the project was included in the contract for the sewer project.

Senior Citizens Nutrition Menu

Monday, Memorial Day, will be honored by the hundreds of senior citizens in Eastland County.

It is a day for remembrance, a day for meeting with our loved ones, and for many a day of rest.

The Senior Center in Cisco will be closed on Monday, May 30, enabling the staff and the members of the center to recognize the memorable day.

During the past week the following programs were held at the Senior Center: Janet Thomas gave a presentation entitled "Home Canning," and checked the pressure cookers that were brought to the senior center. Bob Bevers and his "One Man Band" is always a delight and presented his usual fine program. Many 80 plus and 90 plus members were brought into the 80 plus club and 90 plus club during the past week. Always we recognize our many volunteers because without these people the program at the senior center would not operate as smooth. Game day was held in Cisco and Eastland was guest to the covered dish luncheon. During the week the tables were decorated with beautiful flowers and they were arranged by the Garden Club. The flowers came from the Garden Club Flower Show. Dinner music for the week was presented by the following: Al Sims, Leah Brown, Anna Dytzel, Marguerite King, and Mildred Johnston. All played the piano.

The menu for the coming week will be: Monday--The Senior Center will be closed for Memorial Day. Wednesday--hamburger steak/gravy, blackeyed peas, vegetable salad, pudding, cornbread, butter and drink.

Friday--roast turkey roll/dressing, stewed tomatoes with green beans, tiny potatoes, apple crisp, bread, butter and drink.

The city leased some 320 acres in the Lake Cisco area to an oil company more than a year ago, but there has been no drillings, Mr. Moore reported.

$30,653 Paid City For Oil, Gas Royalty

Oil and gas royalty revenues from wells drilling of Cisco land during the past year have produced a total of $30,653.03 through May 24, 1983, City Manager Mike Moore reported Friday. The first royalty income was received on Nov. 30, 1982.

Mr. Moore said that so far oil and gas royalty monies and interest earned by same are on deposit in a special "Oil & Gas Royalties Savings Account" at First National Bank. These funds are earmarked for future capital projects and expenditures, Mr. Moore added.

The city has four producing wells. Royalty from oil and gas production is being received from three wells - two in the landfill area and one at the airport. No revenues have been received yet from the fourth well located north of Cisco Junior College.

MRS. STANLEY WILLIAM DAVIS

Cynthia Ann Foster & Stanley William Davis United In Matrimony

Saturday evening, May 21st, 1983, Miss Cynthia Ann Foster and Mr. Stanley William Davis were united in holy matrimony at 7:30 in the First Baptist Church of Cisco by Rev. Buddy Sipe.

Cynthia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Foster of 908 Ave. N, Cisco, Texas. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Phippen and Mr. and Mrs. Buster Foster, all of Cisco.

Stan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis of Fredericksburg, Texas. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sellers of Long Beach, California and Mr. and Mrs. Stokes Davis of Fredericksburg, Texas.

The church was decorated with candlebrams entwined with greenery, an archway with pink, red and white roses, two baskets of pink and rose carnations, white stocks and greenery, and pew bows.

The candles were lighted by Craig Foster, brother of the bride, and Dana Fuller, cousin of the bride.

Music was provided by Trey Kendall on organ and piano and Mrs. Carolyn Sipes singing "The Wedding Song" and "My Own True Love."

The ushers seated the guests and the grandparents: Mrs. Stokes Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Phippen and Mr. and Mrs. Buster Foster. Ushers were Tobin Davis and Bryan Davis, brothers of the groom, and Craig Foster.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her dress was made of slipper satin with overlay of Valencian lace. The ruffled yoke of illusion was accented by a high neckline outlined with lace and seed pearls. The flounced hem with shirred front skirt was ornamented with hand-made rosettes.

The long, cathedral train was tiers of ruffled lace. The fitted sleeves of lace were pointed over her hands. The fitted bodice came to a point at the waistline. The bride's dress was a gift of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Phippen.

Mrs. Phippen created the flowing cathedral-length veil of illusion appliqued with baby roses and edged with embroidered flowers. The tiara was designed from seed pearls and roses. Her bouquet was made of a white orchid surrounded by pink and white roses and cascading flowers and ivy set on a bed of white lace with white streamers.

Michelle Dempsey, maid of honor, wore a deep sude rose empire gown of organza with bustleback attached at the waistline with a rosette. The sweetheart neckline had a triple-tiered collar forming capelet sleeves. A bandeau of white picot ribbon was worn in her hair and she carried a pink bowed carnation.

Bridesmaids, Traci Williams and Sandra Ransleben, wore identically styled dresses in pale sude rose and carried rose colored carnations. Flowergirl, Kelly Singleton, cousin of the bride, wore a matching dress of deep sude rose, carried a white basket of petals and had a pink wrist corsage.

Candlelighter, Dana Fuller, wore a dress of pale pink and white print with flounced skirt trimmed in white lace over pink tafeta. Her short jacket of pink organza had white lace capelet sleeves. She wore a pink wrist corsage.

The mother of the bride wore a pink gown with empire waist covered with draped collar edged with Venise lace and a long pleated skirt. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The mother of the groom wore a blue gown of lustrous polyester knit and organza. The empire bodice was v-necked with a flared skirt and sheer sleeves. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride presented her mother with a red rose as she and her father approached the groom. Upon leaving the church, she and the groom presented her mother-in-law with a red rose.

The groom wore a white textured polyester tail coat with inset satin peak lapel and top collar with self fabric trim, double pleated center vent, contour back and matching trousers with satin leg stripe and five button vest in self fabric with white wing pleat shirt. A red rose boutonniere adorned the lapel.

The best man, Jeff McHalek, wore a burgundy textured polyester jacket with satin peak lapel with burgundy velvet top collar, angled flap pockets with velvet trim, side vents and matching trousers with satin leg stripe, five button self fabric vest and velvet bow tie with burgundy dorado shirt. A white carnation boutonniere was worn.

Fathers of the bride and groom and groomsmen, Tobin Davis and Bryan Davis, both of the groom and Craig Foster, usher, wore identical tuxedos to that of the best man.

The ceremony included the reading of the marriage license number and the touching story of why wedding rings are worn on the left hand. The couple was blessed by prayer and repeated their wedding and ring vows.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at 908 Avenue N. The lighted yard was decorated with hanging baskets and potted plants. The tables were covered with bright pink cloths.

The bride's table was topped with a white lace cloth. The bride's bouquet was the centerpiece. The traditional wedding cake was decorated in varying shades of pink roses by her aunt, Frances Fuller. Pink silk wedding bells adorned the top of the cake. Pink fruit punch and nuts completed the table.

The groom's table had a basket of burgundy and white flowers. The chocolate groom's cake was topped with figures of the groom being caught by the tails of his tux by the bride. Pink lemonade was served.

The hors d'oeuvre table displayed an array of cheeses, finger sandwiches, with a variety of other tidbits and coffee. A basket of pink and white flowers centered the table.

Mary Kay Philpott, Amy Philpott Teaff, LeAnn Agnew, Joyce Hutchens, Kristi and Lana Hogan, Caryon Garrett, Melanie Kendall and Alma Williams hosted refreshments for the guests. Rice bags were passed out by Billy Fuller, Desray and Ricky Singleton, cousins of the bride.

The couple left on their wedding trip to Fredericksburg and San Antonio. They returned to their home Wednesday, May 25, at 307 West 18th Street in Cisco.

Mrs. Davis is employed at City Drug. She graduated from Cisco High School and attended Cisco Junior College.

Mr. Davis is employed by the Cisco Junior College Drama Department. He will be appearing in the Roof Garden Summer Theatre. He is a graduate of Fredericksburg High School and has attended two years at Cisco Junior College. He will continue his studies this fall.

The rehearsal supper was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis at the home of the bride. The outdoor grilled meat was enjoyed by all.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Frances Fuller, Dana, Dona and Billy of Clyde; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Singleton, Kelly, Desray and Ricky of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Little of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Doug Little, David and Joe of Eastland; Mrs. Cathy Hester and Clinton of Arlington; Mrs. Freda Doran of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Voight of Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. Dale McHalek of Fredericksburg; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Ransleben, Sandra, Wayne and Nicole of Fredericksburg; Mr. and Mrs. Craig Childers of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Webb of Bedford; Jeff McHalek of Arkansas; Mrs. Alma Williams and Traci of Euless.

Expression Of Thanks

This is just a small edition of appreciation to two people that have a special place in our hearts.

We were just a young couple with 2 children looking for something to hold us together. As the Lord, led us, thru much prayer, to the church where we now worship, is where we first met them back in January of 1976.

As this cold dark dreary world will tear homes apart, they helped so much to put ours back together with much counseling and prayer. They have done the work with which they have been called to do very well. As just a part of the church that Bro. and Sister Begley pastor, we would like to say "Happy 25th Anniversary. We could never express all the appreciation that you two have done for us all. We thank you so much for your time, physically and spiritually and our prayers are with you this very special day. Only Jesus Christ can keep a marriage together for 25 years and more!

We love you and appreciate you, Jeff and Debra Ingram Risa, Tim, Isaac, and Hannah

County Veteran Shares WWI Experiences

(Editors Note: In one way all wars are alike - someone always gets hurt. Howard W. Cole of Cisco, a soldier during World War I, has a deep scar on his legs to remind him of what it is like to be wounded on a battlefield.

Memorial Day has a special meaning for this 87 yr. old veteran. The son of T.F. Cole, pioneer schoolteacher and farmer of Wayland, Howard Cole left his parents, six brothers and four sisters in 1918 for the front lines in France.

Last year he wrote his war experiences for his son, Dr. James Wiley Cole of Houston, and family. Fortunately he agreed to share them with our newspaper readers this Memorial Day. So we are indebted to Mr. Cole for this vivid, first-hand account of events during World War I.)

By Howard W. Cole
Cisco, Texas

I took the State examination for a teacher's certificate at Breckenridge, Texas on April 5-6, 1917. On April 6, news came that war had been declared against Germany. I was called in August, 1917 for examination for military service, but failed to pass the examination as I was 3 pounds under the minimum weight for service.

Howard W. Cole of Cisco as an infantryman, 36th division, in 1918.

In the early winter of 1917 a friend resigned from a one-teacher school in Stephens County. He came to see me and asked me to finish the school and I did. I was called for military examination on January 12, 1918 and I was accepted. I was told that I would not be called until my school year was finished. I was called and reported to Camp Bowie at Fort Worth on May 27, 1918, and was assigned to Company B, 141 Infantry, 36 Division.

We left for France about the middle of July, 1918. Guards were stationed at the front end of each car to prevent people from giving or selling anything to the soldiers because of danger of poisoning. That night a short time after passing through Little Rock, Arkansas, we had a train wreck. The car I was in broke loose, turned on its side, and slid down a high embankment. I had been relieved of guard duty about 15 minutes before the wreck. Unfortunately, the soldier that relieved me was killed.

We arrived at Camp Mills on Long Island in due time where we remained for about 10 days before being taken to Hoboken. We board the U.S.S. Maui for our journey to France. Shortly thereafter, because of the need for minor ship repairs, we were removed from the ship and taken to Camp Upton on Long Island. After a delay of a few days we returned to Hoboken and sailed and we arrived at Breast, France on August 11 and promptly board a train for "somewhere in France".

From now until we were sent into the front lines was to be a period of training. We lived in small towns in large old homes and went into the surrounding country for training. A certain point was designated as "the enemy" and we were to surround it and take it as though it were real. Officers were concealed near this point and every time they saw a soldier they would blow a whistle. Regardless of the rain and mud we were supposed to keep low and crawl the same as if it were real. Being seen meant that you had been a target for the enemy. I do not recall that we were ever successful in taking our objective, but we were told many times that if it had real, it could have been disastrous.

I suppose the motto of the army should be "hurry, get ready, and wait". We were told on October 5, 1918, that we were leaving for the front lines, and for us to get our packs made. That meant putting all of our possessions, including our blankets, in our packs. About midnight we were loaded into big trucks and were on our way. We traveled until almost night, and, as we were in a few miles of the lines, had to unload and wait for darkness to enter the lines. We traveled from there in single file, each holding onto the man ahead, and keeping very quiet.

Even then we lost some men before entering the lines about midnight, October 6, 1918. We were stationed one man in a place, fairly close together. Immediately we took our shovel off our pack and dug a hole deep enough to conceal us when sitting.

There is where we stayed the remainder of that night, all of the next day, and until five A.M. October 8th. The only time we left this hole was when we had to go the bathroom. All of the time we were holding the lines there was continuous but irregular artillery bombardment by the enemy. We kept quiet.

We got orders during the night that we were to "go over the top" the next morning, October 8th at five A.M. We were to run a certain distance, 100 yards, as I remember, fall and crawl. We were not to bunch up as that would draw machine gun fire.

The 141st and 142nd regiments of the 36 Division were sent into the lines first. We were sent in as "shock troops" which meant that we were to force the Germans back regardless of the cost of manpower. I talked with a Co. B soldier after the war was over and he told me that the first time they had a chance assess their loss they had 45 out of the original 200 men. Homer Maxwell was in the 143rd regiment. This regiment and the 144th went into the lines after the 141st and 142nd were relieved. Homer told me that we saw more fighting in an hour than they saw in the three or four weeks they were in the lines. I was wounded fairly early in the morning of October 8th. I crawled into a shell hole soon after a sargent did. He said "lets try to make it to that next shell hole". He crawled out. I waited for a while until he got about half way and followed. I crawled as low as I could possibly get, but when about half way, I was hit by shrapnel from a shell that burst in the air. I got a slight wound in my right leg and a severe wound in the left as the shrapnel was ranging down.

There was no pain at the moment, just a force of the blow. I looked back to see if my leg was still there and kept crawling. When I crawled into the shell hole, I told the sargent that I was wounded. He said nothing, just reach back, took my first aid pack off my belt, laid it down in front of me, crawled out and on his way. That was my last time to see him. I hope he made it.

I opened my first aid and dressed my wound. I was very difficult as you could not sit up without exposing yourself to danger. I had bought a large towel and had it with me. I wrapped all of it around the wound and tied it with shoe laces. I give it credit for keeping me from bleeding to death.

A soldier that had been shot in the hip crawled into the shell hole. I put his first aid on for him. He was Howard Bennett from Oklahoma. The next time I saw him was in Camp Bowie when we met in the mess hall.

Near sundown that afternoon a soldier from our company stopped and told us that our troops were going to have to drop back and the Germans would retake that ground. I had heard Americans talking in some timber to the rear during the day. It was medical corps men waiting for darkness to come in to carry out the wounded and dead.

I remarked that they might kill me but would not take me prisoner. I said I was going back. They told to tell the men where they were, and for them to come get them. I could not crawl because of the pain; so, I stood up, used by gun for a walking stick, and walked back to the timber as bullets and shrapnel whizzed by. Dead and wounded were as thick as shocks of wheat. When I got to the edge of the timber, a captain saw me and sent a man to assist me.

When I got to the captain I gave him my name, number, company etc. and he said "Oh, you are one of my men".

Four men took me on a stretcher - two to rest while two carried - and started for the first aid station. It had been moved because of shelling and they got lost. We met some men coming from the new location and they got their bearings. We soon made it. A bus took us to a field hospital where dressings were changed and then on to the avacuation hospital. I was operated on here and fragments of metal were removed.

I was transferred by train with many others to Base Hospital 35 arriving there October 10, 1918. After about 6 weeks say in Base 35 an unsuccessful operation was done on my leg. They cut the skin loose from the muscle together with a thin layer of muscle with the skin. This cut ran down my leg for 6 or 8 inches. The scar was 3 or more inches wide. They proposed to stretch that skin that far. They did and sewed it up.

I told the captain before the operation that it would not be a success. When I awoke after the operation my leg was propped up with pillows and the nurse told me not to straighten my leg as it would tear out the stitches. Abscesses developed and the stitches tore out. The only result was about two more months longer in recovering.

On the last day of January 1919 I was issued a uniform after having been in hospital clothes since October 9, 1918. I had not had my feet on the ground since being hospitalized.

I left Base Hospital 35 as a walking patient on February 1, 1919. We traveled by train to Breast. We sailed from Breast on the U.S.S. Finland on February 18, 1919 and landed at Hoboken March 1, 1919. We were kept in New York City in a hospital for about a week while getting our belongings sterilized. We left there on or about 9th or 10th of March by train for Camp Bowie in Fort Worth.

In a few days I was given a 10-day pass and visited my family on the farm near Wayland. Although my wound was almost healed when I left Base 35 in France, lack of proper care during travel and caused most of the new skin to be lost and the healing process to be greatly delayed. I received my discharge on June 7, 1919 and returned to my home near Wayland.

No government is perfect or ever will be perfect because government is of the people and people are not perfect. Some governments are better than others. I regard our government to be the best in the world, and I am very thankful for the privilege of living under it. I remember well how happy I was when my military life was over and I could return to normal life, but I was glad to have been of service to my country. I gave little in comparison with those who gave all.

In 1923 he decided to prepare himself further for teaching, so he enrolled in North Texas State Teacher's College at Denton.

In 1924-27 he taught school at Postoak, a community near Breckenridge. After that he attended North Texas State gain, graduating with a BS Degree in Economics.

Cole became Principal of an 8 teacher school at Sidell, Wise County, then left to run a Postoffice for one year. He returned to Wayland to teach at his home school for three years.

In Jan. 1935 Howard Cole began a career in government work with an appointment in the Alcohol and Tax Office Division of the Internal Revenue Service. He worked for a short time in San Antonio, and was transferred to New Orleans.

While living there, in 1936, he married Allee Loudder of Gunsight, whom he had known since childhood days. Allee had become a teacher, and was teaching school at San Angelo at the time of their marriage.

Their son, James Wiley, was born in 1940. James Wiley is now a dentist in Houston, and he and his wife Alma have four daughters.

Cole was transferred from New Orleans to Texas City, where he did gauging and testing at such companies as Carbide and Carbon Corp., manufacturers of synthetic alcohol. In 1948 he moved to Pasadena, Tex., where he tested at Shell Chemical Corp.

Howard Cole retired from this type of work in 1964, and decided to make his home in Cisco. Besides buying a comfortable house in town, he purchased an 80 acre pecan orchard S.W. of the city.

He and his son and grandchildren have spent many pleasant hours at the farm, as well as at the home in town. Both Howard and Allee Cole have been active members of the community. They have assisted in the work of the United Methodist Church, as well as Club and Civic affairs.

Although Howard Cole managed to survive World War I, he lost two brothers in World War II. Edwin S. Cole, U.S. Army, was killed in action near Salerno, Italy. Abner Cole, paratrooper, was killed in France.

In 1948 these brothers were returned and buried with a joint funeral at Wayland. Strangely enough two other brothers, Alfred B. Cole and Robert A. Cole of Cisco, died one day apart in March, 1981. So they also had a double funeral ceremony, and were buried with other members of the family at Wayland.

The insight of age has illumined some of Howard W. Cole's early experiences with war and death.

"I hope for peace," he says. "War never really settles anything."

POSTSCRIPT TO HOWARD W. COLE'S STORY

Life became much easier for Howard Cole after he came home. His Uncle, David Cole, the Caddo Postmaster, gave him a job there until Oct., 1919. Then his father, mother and the younger children moved to Cisco, so he stayed on at Wayland to farm.

Cisco Dinner Theatre To Hold Auditions

Auditions for the Roof Garden Dinner Theatre's production of Fiddler on the Roof will be held Tuesday, May 31 at 7:00 p.m. at the Fine Arts Building Auditorium on the Cisco Junior College campus.

While a few of the major roles have already been cast with professional actors serving as guest artists for the summer season, many major and minor roles remain to be filled by people from the community as well as students enrolled as apprentices in the professional summer program. People interested in auditioning for major roles are requested to prepare a song and provide sheet music for the accompanist or they may bring their own accompanist. All others need no special preparation.

There are still a limited number of apprentice positions available for this summer, particularly for young men. Apprentices are eligible for free lodging in college dormitories, up to 14 hours of college credit at a low cost, scholarships and stipends. In addition, they get to participate as actors and/or technicians in all three summer productions and work and study with theatre professionals.

For more information concerning the summer dinner theatre contact Philip Craik, Director Summer Theatre, Cisco Junior College, Cisco, Texas 76437 or call (817)442-2567, extension 128.

Kokomo News

Zelda Jordan

We were lucky that no hail fell here during the thunderstorms that came through the community the latter part of the week. I understand that there was some hail on toward Gorman. We did receive some rain. Reports were from a half inch to one inch, with nine-tenths of an inch here at our place. The moisture was needed as the farmers are planting peanuts.

Mandy Rice of Brownwood was a visitor at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday morning. She was visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell Creager of Kaufman and their daughter, Nita Williamson of Roswell, N.M., Blanton Clearman of Lamesa and Hugh Clearman of Lawn were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Clearman and attended the homecoming and cemetery working at Kokomo.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bennett of Lake Leon were visiting with Mrs. Dora Garrett on Monday. Mrs. Eva Treadway of Eastland visited from Wednesday until Friday with Mrs. Garrett. Mrs. Bryan Johnson also visited in the Garrett home.

Mrs. June Hawkins and Matt and Mrs. Glenn Jordan were in Stephenville on Wednesday.

Mrs. Claude Fuller visited on Saturday in Abilene with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Eaton, Chad and Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. L.D. Pyeatt of Pasadena visited on Wednesday and Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hendricks and her aunt, Mrs. W.A. O'Neal at the Gorman Care Center. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoy and Robin of Plano visited during the weekend with the Hendrickses and Mrs. O'Neal.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rice, James and Mandy of Brownwood and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bailey of Weatherford were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Rice on Sunday.

Mrs. Dora Garrett and Mrs. Jimmy Little visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bennett on Saturday and helped Mrs. Bennett celebrate her birthday.

Mrs. Bernice Rodgers

and Mike Rodgers were honored with a birthday supper and ice cream party on Saturday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rodgers. Others attending the celebration were John, LaTonne and Jonna Rodgers of Carbon, Bob, Kathy, Kevin, Jason and Corby Rodgers of Brownwood and David, Ann and Lindsay Weeks of Midland. Bernice and Mike share the same birthday May 21.

Mrs. Dora Garrett and Mrs. Eva Treadway were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dean Collins on Thursday.

Lance, Layne and Lenny Morrow spent Sunday night with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Morrow.

Mrs. Billie Stacy of Carbon, Mrs. Ima Brown of Gorman and Mrs. Bernice Rodgers spent Monday in Jonesboro with an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Timmons. Another aunt, Mrs. Fannie Huckabee and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James Yows and Mr. and Mrs. Bill McKithin all of Gatesville and Mrs. Marlin Timmons of Jonesboro met them there for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rodgers of Midlothian visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cullen Rodgers.

Mrs. Alvie (Ethel) Noell of Oklahoma City passed away on Tuesday in Oklahoma City. The funeral was held in Oklahoma City, with graveside rites at the Simpson Cemetery here at 2:00 p.m. Thursday, May 26. The Noells are former residents of Kokomo and she was a sister-in-law to the late Mr. and Mrs. J.A. McNeely and an aunt of Mr. J.D. McNeely and the late Mrs. Ola Rollins. We extend our sympathy to the family.

We extend sympathy to the family of Mr. Charlie B. Henderson who passed away last week in DeLeon. Mr. Henderson was the brother-in-law of Mr. Bill Joiner and the stepfather of Bro. Lowell Skaggs who has preached at Kokomo several times.

The regular fifth Sunday night singing will be held at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday, May 29.

Kingdom Kids I & II Hold Last Meeting Before Summer Break

As the last event of the year before the summer break, Kingdom Kids II met at First Evangelical Methodist Church for sandwiches and chips on Tuesday, May 24, before going to Eastland for a skating party at the DDD Racquet Club. Sponsors accompanying the 22 children were Mrs. Sue Gosch, Mrs. Elaine Schaefer, Mrs. Sharon Elton and Mrs. Evelyn Clinton.

"We have had a blessed year and expect to resume the sessions when the public schools open for the fall semester," said Mrs. Elton, director of Kingdom Kids II. "Be sure to look for the announcement in the local paper," she added.

Kingdom Kids I located at First United Methodist Church, also held its last session of the school year on Tuesday, May 24. "We have had a fulfilling year with record attendance," said

Mrs. Louanne Gerhardt, a teacher for the school, "and we expect to begin again when the public schools re-open."

Lights From The Christian World

The greatest danger of our day, writes Fletcher Callaway, "is that Christians will become apologetic and mumble the words of Jesus." The ringing words of Hamlet could well be Christ's words to His ambassadors today. "Speak, I pray you, ripping on the tongue; but if you mouth it, as many of your players do, I had as lief the town crier spoke my lines."

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." (Romans 1:16)

WHITCOMB'S WAR

Film Will Be Shown June 5 At F.E.M.C.

A 65-minute film entitled "Whitcomb's War" will be shown at 11 a.m., Sunday, June 5th, at the First Evangelical Methodist Church on West Highway 80. The film has won two Christian Oscar's.

latest release from Heartland Productions, will be enjoyed by all ages, and will find a special place in the hearts of all who believe the church can be a place of joy and laughter.

"Whitcomb's War" is a delightful Christian comedy placing an earnest young pastor into the middle of a lukewarm church. He struggles with his congregation, and with the servants of church services ...

Satan. The battle ranges from the humorous to the poignant as he leads his sheep to the truth that wins victory over the enemy — "We are more than conquerors through Him that loved us." Romans 8:37.

Advance publicity of the film states, "Come prepared to arm yourself with laughter, as you aim for the solid scriptural heart of this film. It will delight your community with a look at the results of 'fighting the good fight,' and winning!"

STUDENTS OF Cisco Primary School enjoyed a project in the final days of the spring semester. Principal Geneva Webb and her staff had them do paintings in water colors. And the students were taken to Brownwood to see a display of paintings by primary school students in China. The work of the Chinese students were brought to this country for display.

Mrs. Webb reported that the China paintings were displayed at a mall in Brownwood and were very interesting. Indeed, a comparison of the paintings was interesting.

SOME 60 FOLKS turned out Tuesday night when the Chamber of Commerce's "Christmas in May" committee entertained with a backyard barbecue at the Dan Dixon home on Country Club Ridge. Dr. Norman Wallace, chairman of the group, Dan Dixon and Vernon Honea did the cooking that included barbecued brisket, sausage and duck (Mr. Honea cooked it in a dutch oven). The Honea oven also turned out some fruit cobbler that were delicious.

Workers brought covered dishes and everybody had a good time with plenty to eat. The Christmas in May project was a good success, reports Chairman Wallace.

AT LEAST THREE Cisco Junior College profs will attend colleges for graduate study this coming year.

Steve Wheeler, who teaches computer science, will study at East Texas State University to complete work for his master's degree. Cleatus Rattan, head of the English department, is scheduled to return to East Texas State for more work on his doctor's degree. And Michael Laugh, government instructor, plans to go to North Texas State University to complete work for his doctor's degree.

Shirley Smothers, who will supervise work on next year's CJC yearbook, is due to spend the coming week at Tarleton State University to attend a workshop for yearbook supervisors.

Obituaries

Services For Arless Pierce Are Thursday

Services for Arless Pierce, 69, of Cisco, an insurance salesman, were at 10 a.m., Thursday at Cisco Funeral Home. Leao McDaniel of Abilene, Church of Christ layman, officiated. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery.

Mr. Pierce died early Tuesday morning at his home.

He was born Oct. 25, 1913. He married Bonnie Pierce, Sept. 8, 1940, in Eastland.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Clinton of Eastland; a daughter, Brenda Lane of Cisco; and five grandchildren.

Services For Bill Robinson Are Friday

Funeral services for William Andrew "Bill" Robinson, 70, of Route 2, Cisco, a retired farmer, were at 10 a.m. Friday at First Baptist Church, directed by Higginbotham Funeral Home. Rev. Leverett Yielding officiated, assisted by Burley Taylor. Burial was in Old Bethel Cemetery near Bryan.

Mr. Robinson died Wednesday night at his home.

He was born Dec. 15, 1912, in Howard County. He married Vera Bell Thomas Jan. 4, 1930, in Lovington, N.M. He was a member of the First Baptist Church in Cross Plains.

Survivors include his wife; four sons, Joseph Andrew of Rio Grande City, Wesley Aubrey of Irving, Andy of Utah and William Thomas of Brownwood; three daughters, Mary Susan Riskus of Abilene, Linda Bynum of Bryan and Wanda Louise King of Texas; a brother, A.C. of Cisco; 19 grandchildren; and a great-grandchild.

THEY GOT THE RICK Whatleys moved to the country last Saturday. The CHS distributive education teacher and wife and daughter are now residents of the Lake Road just before you turn off to the country club - in the place they bought from the Bill Lee Estate.

It was quite an operation. They used Rick's cattle hauling van and pickup with six high school boys and a number of strong men like Billy Wright, Ron Mouser, Danny Claborn and Jimmy Yowell helping. It was all done in one day.

Mrs. RW tells us they're delighted with their new place.

Since they're living in the country, Rick has an obligation to his wife - to provide her with a good milk cow, a sharp axe and a flock of laying hens.

Mr. John Parchman, the new CHS football coach and athletic director who bought the Whatley home at Avenue N and West 7th, planned to load his household into a U-Haul truck and move from Lubbock to Cisco this Saturday. They hoped to get here before night. You'll want to join us in an expression of "welcome to Cisco!"

THE FOLKS AT First National Bank have something new. They're part of a 13-bank network tied into a computer setup centered in Abilene. And some new and sophisticated equipment has been added. You may see the Bankers looking at books to learn about it all.

Prexy Dick Woolley says the new equipment provides them with more and better information so they can do a more efficient job of serving their patrons. Sounds impressive, huh? The bank has been in computers since 1969 and the system has been updated regularly.

Mr. Woolley reports that their No. 1 son Audie is home for a few days after completing the spring semester at Angelo State University. He'll return there for the summer to work in a hospital. He hopes to attend medical school after another year at ASU.

LOOKED IN AT Western Auto Associate Store the other afternoon and the Harold Reichs, the new owners, were busy waiting on customers and rearranging things. They're taking in the building to the south and will add to the stock of merchandise.

Harold, who has leased his garage down on Hilton Avenue, says they'll be holding their official opening before long. Mrs. HR says she has noticed a difference: Harold's clothes are not grease soaked when he comes home these days. The store will be a family operation for the Reichs.

Mrs. A.G. Sander, who sold the business after more than 30 years, plans some vacationing before thinking about the future, we hear. She made the trip to Washington with the CJC group and has been visiting son Dick and wife over in Big D.

IF YOU WANT a nice flag to fly in your front yard on Memorial Day and other occasions, call Mr. E.L. Jackson or Mr. Brad Kimbrough of the American Legion Post. They're selling them for $20, complete with a ground anchor. CHS Valedictorian Kyle Anderson plans to attend CJC next year and begin pre-med studies. There must be more than you'd think to being judge of the city court. Otherwise, why would Judge Jasper (Grandpa) Cook be wearing a hard hat?

WHEN FOLKS GO in the CoC offices, they usually ask Office Secretary Joan Schindler if she is manager of the telephone company. SWBell telephone bills are payable there or by mail these days and Joan looks after it all. Her husband Joe works for Dick Donovan's City Garage. A magazine article we read the other day quoted a lady who wants her gravestone epitaph to read thusly: "She never bought pre-sweetened cereals."

THE TRUMAN Kirks were over in Arlington last weekend to attend the wedding of their daughter Karen and Mr. Larry Lint. Karen, a CPA, works for a firm in Arlington, and Mr. Lint is in computer science work. They're honeymooning in Hawaii. You'll want to join us in an expression of best wishes. There will probably be a formal write-up about it all soon. The Frank Barretts were in Austin a few days this past week where their daughter underwent surgery.

THE WAYNE Ikonens are a new family in town, having arrived a few weeks ago. He's in construction work hereabouts. Wayne lived with his family here for a good many years, moving to Lampasas while he was in high school. He is a nephew of Letha Stafford and Mrs. Bill Philpott.

The Ikonens have four children - Patti, 13, Jackie, 9, Mitzi, 8, and Louis, 7. Patti works part-time at the pro shop at the Cisco Country Club. A golfer we know lost a ring, one of those little finger jobs, at the golf course recently. If you find one, she'd appreciate it if you'd turn it in at the pro shop.

AT LEAST TWO Cisco golfers will play in the annual Breckenridge Country Club tournament this weekend. Bennie Nichols and Tracy Owens, both championship flight golfers, have entered. The first two days of the tourney will be match play with the final day a medal affair. Bobby Smith and Delbert Schaefer and maybe others will play in the annual Lake Proctor CC partnership tournament this weekend.

Film Set For Inspiration Church

Women in Crisis will be shown at the Inspiration Church of God Sunday night, May 29, 1983 at 6:00 p.m.

The film is a sensitive, yet powerful look at the heart-breaks and hopes of the world's forgotten women and their families. These women of the developing nations, work two-thirds of the world's working hours, yet receive only one-tenth of the world's income. In one-fourth to one-half of the families in developing countries, women are the sole providers. In many coun-

Abilene Branch Of CJC May Move To Westgate

Cisco Junior College will reportedly open classes at Westgate Mall in Abilene about August 1. The Abilene City Council must approve a change in June to allow educational institutions in general commercial zones.

CJC's Abilene program will occupy 14 locations in the mall totaling 16,778 square feet of non-retail space, said Ross Beard, regional manager of First Union, the company that owns Westgate.

The location of CJC in the Westgate Mall will benefit both parties, Beard said, allowing CJC to expand its Abilene programs and bringing new customers to the Mall.

"They (CJC) will bring to Westgate Mall some 600 to 1,000 working, adult students, their families and friends," Beard said. "This will bring terrific buying power directly to the Mall."

CJC's Abilene facility is currently located in the Holy Family Catholic Center, 1600 Sherman Drive, which is being bought by St. John's School.

News of Cisco Junior College's move has generated interest from retail merchants in obtaining space in the mall, said Bill Kendrick, general manager of Westgate.

"We have at least one strong retail firm a week checking on moving to the Mall," he said.

Dr. Norman Wallace, president of Cisco Junior College, said "there is no question in our minds that this move will be highly beneficial to us, to the mall, and to the community generally."
