

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERBEL HALLMARK

YOU WON'T HEAR me complaining about the cooler weather which blew into the Cisco area Tuesday morning. To me, it was a welcome relief to the unseasonably warm temperatures we have been experiencing.

Following an afternoon high Monday of 95 degrees, the temperature at mid-morning Tuesday was 58 degrees according to the temperature-clock at First National Bank. Long sleeves, sweaters and jackets seemed to the dress of the day, although several persons seemed to be caught off guard and were dressed in short sleeves, even for outside work.

No measurable precipitation had fallen in the area when this column was written, but forecasts called for a chance of rain. A scattered sprinkle was falling early Tuesday morning, but it seemed to stop as fast as it began.

Let's all continue to pray for rain.

IF YOU HAVE lost an expensive-looking hub cap on West 12th Street, you might like to call 442-4456. The person at this number said if the caller can identify the hub cap they are welcome to come and get it.

LOCAL FOOTBALL fans will be going out of town on both Thursday and Friday nights this week to watch the Junior High and High School football games. All of this week's public school games will be played in Winters.

The Junior High and J.V. games were originally scheduled to be played in Cisco, but had to be rescheduled due to a conflict with Cisco Junior College's schedule which also planned a home game Thursday night at Chesley Field.

IF YOU ENJOY writing poetry, you might be interested in a poetry contest sponsored by the World of Poetry newsletter. A $1,000 grand prize will be offered and there will be an additional 99 prizes worth over $10,000.

"We want to encourage new poets, even those who have never entered a poetry contest before," says Contest Director Mr. Joseph Mellon. "We expect our efforts to produce exciting new discoveries!"

Home After An Alaskan Summer

"Alaska is losing its pioneer qualities, becoming more like the 'lower 48,'" remarked Lela Latch Lloyd, Cisco resident, after a summer spent near Willow, Alaska.

Mrs. Lloyd spent most of her time at the home of a sister, Mary Carey. She returned home recently, flying into the DFW airport from Anchorage.

"There have been many changes since I first saw Alaska 20 years ago. There were few paved roads then - now there are a number.

"Then there's the oil development. Last year every Alaskan received a $1,000 payment from state land alone.

"The population has increased greatly, with many conveniences in the cities. Lots of timber has been cleared, with the Japanese buying the major portion.

The Japanese also control a large portion of the fishing industry."

Lela Lloyd enjoyed the many projects on her sister's farm, with the major activities centered around a Gift Shop and the raising of fiddlehead fern. Interesting things in the shop include polished rocks, food items from Alaska, books, and art work.

There were good sales of Mrs. Lloyd's and Mrs. Carey's books during the summer. Mrs. Carey also sold fiddlehead fern products and wild berry jam about as fast as she could get them on the shelves.

Tourist from many places in the world stopped by the Gift Shop. Among them were a young man named Douglas A. McArthur, who said that the General Douglas A. McArthur was his grandfather's brother. This Douglas McArthur is an inspector for the electric line in Alaska, and brought in wild blueberries for the ladies to use in baking him some muffins.

Part of the Lela Lloyds' time in Alaska was spent in having eye surgery. Dr. Ed Crouch, a family friend, performed a laser beam operation. Mrs. Lloyd says that her vision has been improved by this procedure.

Although Alaska was warmer and drier than normal this summer, Mrs.

Lloyd reports that it was cool enough to feel great to her. The mountains still had snow, and the glacier-fed streams were flowing rapidly.

She was met by hot weather upon her return home, but Mrs. Lloyd states that it is good to be back and catch up on news and activities. Cisco has been home for many years, and she can't imagine living in any other place for long at a time.

Scouts Will Have Court Of Honor

On Sunday, September 25, at 3 p.m. the Boy Scouts will have a court of honor at the First Presbyterian Church in Cisco. The Boy Scouts of last year will be advancing and one boy will become an eagle scout. This will be Troop 101, Post 111.

Sing Set Sunday

The regular monthly gospel singing will be Sunday, August 25, at 2:00 p.m. at the Nazarene Church, located on West 10th and Ave. N. in Cisco.

All singers from all churches are welcome.

Any area church interested in having this service at their church contact Jack Roberson at 442-3922.

All Cisco Jr. and Sr. High Teams Will Play In Winters This Week

Cisco Junior High and Senior High football teams will be going to Winters this week for games on Thursday and Friday nights. The 7th, 8th and Junior Varsity teams will play there on Thursday and the Lobo Varsity will open its district play there on Friday with the kick-off at 7:30 p.m.

The 7th grade team will kick-off at 5 p.m. Thursday in their first game of the season. They will be followed by the 8th grade team which lost their season opener last week to Abilene Christian Junior High by the score of 21-8.

Cisco High School's Junior Varsity will play after the 8th grade game Thursday. The J.V. will be coming back for their third game of the year following an open week. Coach John Parchman stated the J.V. should have a chance to do real well this week since the Winters team is just about equal to the local squad. The Cisco J.V. is presently 0-2 for the season.

Friday night's game will open the Lobos district play for the year and will be "very important as far as the district race goes", according to Coach Parchman. He said he believes the players "will rise to the occasion."

Coach Parchman stated the squad should be 100 percent healthy and ready to go Friday night. The Winters team should be the same kind of team as Haskell according to Coach Parchman. He said they are a big, strong, physical team. They do not have a lot of speed and they are not really a passing team. "They do like to run right at you and play good defense," said Coach Parchman.

He stated the Cisco squad "is real excited about playing Winters. We had our best workout of the year yesterday (Monday)," he said.

Winters has been picked by various polls to win the District 9-AA title this year. They are presently 2-1 for the season. In their opening game of the year against Ballinger they were defeated, but they have not lost a game since. They have defeated Coleman and Bangs during the past two weeks.

Cisco's Lobos are also 2-1 for the season following their 19-14 win over Seymour last Friday night. The Lobos defeated DeLeon in their season opener and lost to Haskell in their second game of the season.

In last Friday night's game against the Seymour Panthers in Seymour, the Lobos were plagued by penalties and by seemingly bad calls by the officials. Cisco had one 70-yard touchdown run by David Seabourn called back because of a Cisco penalty.

Cisco received the opening kick-off from Seymour and went to work on their own 44-yard line. With Craig Foster centering, Cisco quarterback Joe Perry headed off to David Seabourn for a six-yard gain. Two quarterback keeps failed to gain any yardage, so the Lobos were apparently going to punt on the fourth down with four yards to go from the 50-yard line.

Punter Butch Jessup received the snap from the center and ran with the ball to Seymour's 31-yard line for a first down. Handoffs to David Seabourn and Franky Seabourn moved the ball one yard on each run. A fumble on the next play lost the Lobos three yards bringing about another fourth down, this time needing 11 yards. A pass from QB Perry to Patrick Qualls gained the first down and placed the ball on Seymour's six-yard line. David Seabourn gained three yards on a run and QB Perry kept the ball on the next play for a three-yard touchdown run. Glen Starr held the ball for the PAT kick attempt by Jessup, but the Seymour defense rushed and blocked the kick. With 7:17 left in the first quarter, the score was 6-0.

Cisco widened its lead on its next drive which began on Seymour's 47-yard line. Runs by QB Perry, Johnny Ramirez, David Seabourn and Franky Seabourn moved the ball to the Seymour one-yard line in five plays. Ramirez took the next handoff in for Cisco's second touchdown of the night. This time Jessup's PAT kick was good making the score 13-0 with 1:33 left in the first quarter. In the second quarter of play, Seymour put together a scoring drive of its own beginning on the Panthers 40-yard line. Runs by Alan Newman, Billy Beamon and Monty Morris moved the ball to Cisco's one-yard line in nine plays. A handoff from quarterback Mark Machen to Beamon netted the touchdown. With Machen holding the ball, Seymour's Ernest Curley split the uprights on his PAT kick narrowing Cisco's lead to 13-7 with 5:58 left in the first half of play.

Except for Cisco's touchdown run which was called back, neither team was able to score in the third quarter of play.

However, Seymour did begin a scoring drive during the final minutes of the third quarter of play. Beginning on their own one-yard line, the Panthers proceeded to march the ball downfield for 99 yards and a touchdown in 12 plays. QB Machen, Beamon, Morris and Newman were the ball carriers during the drive. Morris took the ball in from the two-yard line for the touchdown in the fourth quarter. The PAT kick by Curley was good putting Seymour ahead 14-13 with 10:09 left in the game.

On Seymour's next possession of the ball, Cisco's Robert Sherman recovered a fumble at mid-field to give the Lobos the opportunity for their final scoring drive of the night.

Runs by Ramirez, David Seabourn, QB Perry, Josh Potter and a pass play to Jessup moved the ball to Seymour's 15-yard line in seven plays. Potter took the next handoff and scored on a 15-yard run. A fake on the PAT attempt was stopped with no gain leaving the final score at 19-14 with 1:52 left to play.

Cisco defensive standouts included Josh Potter, Johnny Ramirez, Johnny Seabourn, Robert Sherman, Travis Long, Butch Jessup, Glen Starr and Tommy Elrod.

Defensive standouts for Seymour were Ernest Curley, Chris Gilstrap, Billy Beamon, Wayne Paul Frank, Charles Donnell, Charlie Bill Wicker and Tommy Sullivan.

Cong. Charles Stenholm will make the official presentation of the John Campanius Holm Award to John D. Isenhower, Monday, Sept. 26, when all of Putnam, this area, the Dept. of Commerce and National Weather Service honors him for his long years of service.

Cong. Stenholm will be among many thanking Mr. Isenhower for his faithful service to National Weather Service. (NWS). He's been the "weather man in Putnam" for 37 years.

The event will be held at the Putnam Community Center beginning at 12:30 p.m., and a number from this area are being given special invitations to attend, including Eastland Weather Observer Ron Bailey, County Judge Scott Bailey and Esatland County Newspapers Publisher H.V. O'Brien. According to Bob Manning, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration executive of Fort Worth.

Cong. Stenholm will be available for questions and answers following the formal program, it has been announced.

Isenhower will be presented the John Campanius Holm Award for 37 years of continuous and exceptional public service. This NWS award, for "outstanding accomplishments in the field of meteorological observation"

Jesus' Friends Will Resume Sessions Sept. 22

This ministry is for any and all children in the Cisco area three years old through second grade. Sessions are held at Redeemer Lutheran Church Parish Hall.

There will again be two sessions. The morning session from 9:30 to 10:45 is for children aged three, four and any five-year-olds that are not in Kindergarten. The afternoon session from 2:45 to 4:00 is for children from Kindergarten through the second grade.

took the first known weather observations in this country, without the use of the instruments. These climatic records were later published by his grandson, Thomas Campanius Holm.

The NWS, a major component of the Commerce Department's National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), uses the observations of more than 12,000 program volunteers to help document the nation's climate.

As a dedicated volunteer observer, Isenhower provides his community, the NWS and the country with dependable and accurate daily records of temperature and precipitation in Putnam and its surrounding area.

Isenhower's valuable observations have contributed immensely to Putnam's climatological history. For more than a third of a century, his diligence and enthusiasm as the area's official weather observer has been unequalled.

Even before Isenhower's appointment as an official observer in 1946, he took observations for the previous observers and kept the weather station in their name for many years.

CHANGED LIVES IN SAN QUENTIN

A dynamic new color motion picture from International Prison Ministry.

Prison Film To Be Shown At Inspiration Church Of God

Inspiration Church of God will be showing a motion picture release of International Prison Ministry entitled, "Changed Lives in San Quentin."

Actually filmed inside the prison, this documentary features the stories of four notorious criminals. Interviews conducted by Art Linkletter and the director of IPM, Chaplain Ray, focus on rehabilitation as a result of conversion to Christianity.

From inside the gas chamber Jerry Graham says, "I came very close to ending it all right here." In stark contrast to his life of crime, he now directs a ranch for abused children. James Williams served time in San Quentin after a gun battle with police. Now he's employed by a criminal justice organization teaching men "the way to go out," as he puts it.

Another changed life is George Meyer, Al Capone's favorite driver. Now 74, he counsels teenagers about the evils of drug abuse. And Jack Burbridge, once an enforcer for organized crime, is now a preacher. The film concludes with a look inside the gas chamber.

The film is free to the public and will be shown at the Inspiration Church of God, Camp Inspiration, Highway 80 West in Eastland, Sunday night Sept. 25, at 6:00 p.m.

SBA Loans $21 Million In July

Dallas—13,321 area small businesses have received loans through the Small Business Administration's (SBA) office in Dallas over its thirty (30) years of service. In addition 14,540 business and home owners have received disaster loan assistance. In total the Dallas office has proved 27,861 loans for over $1.3 billion to eligible area borrowers.

On July 30, 1983, President Eisenhower signed into law the Small Business Act of 1953. Two weeks later on August 15, 1953 the Dallas (SBA) office opened. In the first six months the office produced five (5) loans for $273,900.00. By the end of the first year of operation, the office had assisted thirty-six (36) Texas businesses with $2.6 million in financing.

Jim Reed, SBA District Director reported that, "in 1953, the Dallas office made loans to businesses in most of Texas." Today, the Dallas District Office serves only 72 counties of North Central and East Texas. This year in just the month of July, the Dallas District Office approved thirty-three (33) loans for $5.4 million. In July, SBA's five (5) Texas offices made 184 business loans for $21.6 million. Initially most loans were direct, but today approximately 98 percent are through the bank guarantee program.

"SBA replaced the Small Defense Plants Administration (SDPA). In addition to SDPA's powers and responsibilities in government procurement, SBA was given authority to make loans to small businesses and to victims of floods and other disasters. SBA took its lending authority from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC). Since its creation, Congress has assigned new and wider responsibilities to the Agency.

"In carrying out its basic mission of assistant, counseling and championing the causes of the nation's 13 million small businesses, SBA offers financial and management assistance, helps small firms with federal procurement contracts, manages special programs to help small firms owned by minorities, women, veterans and the handicapped, and perhaps most importantly — acts as an advocate for small business in and out of government.

"In Dallas alone, 4,700 individuals who were either interested in going into business or already in business took part in the Agency sponsored management assistance seminars last year. Hundreds of additional men and women have been counseled, free of charge, by the area chapters of SCORE — the Service Corps of Retired Executives. Also helping small business owners have been business administration students and professors at twelve (12) area colleges and universities. Nationally, there are 425 universities and colleges in the network of Small Business Institutes sponsored by SBA."

Reed claimed these statistics "show how important the many services SBA provides are to business activity in this area. Firms and individuals assisted by SBA have created many new jobs, and taxes generated by these companies have far exceeded the overall taxpayer costs of running the agency. I'm convinced that resident-taxpayers of this area have a real bargain in SBA."

Reflections In Perspective

i.w. Ussery

While waiting for an airliner to land at Leige International Airport outside Liege, Belgium, I was approached by a woman who could be described in a single word...commanding. She was the sort of person who could walk into a room and instantly fully occupy it. It was all in her outgoing personality and the apparent attitude of being in total command of the situation, whatever the circumstances. On the upper side of middle age, her somewhat stout figure was enhanced by the heavy clothing with which she had draped herself (all in good taste, mind you) against the damp, piercing cold of European winter.

She introduced herself as being connected in some way or other with the Presbyterian Mission Board. And she had a minor problem. She appeared to be the kind of person who thrived on problems. Without saying so in just so many words, she invited inquiry into the nature of her problem.

"It's that girl over there". She said, pointing toward a lovely young lady, tastefully done up in a navy jacket and skirt and a white blouse, and wearing a matching heavy coat. Apparently in her thirties, as to age, she was glancing about very much like a very young girl who was for the first time in strange surroundings. "She's going to London to speak a word of English. You wouldn't by any chance be connecting in Brussels with a flight to London, would you?"

The lady must undoubtedly have been gifted with Extra Sensory Perception. It so happened that I did, indeed, have a ticket and reservations on a flight to London with which the one we were in the process of having cancelled connected in Brussels. Having concluded my business in Liege, I had to go to London for a conference.

"Well Now." Observed the lady. "And do you know any Spanish or French?" By sheer dint of good luck, I did have a working acquaintance with Spanish, and could manage in French, provided my audience was patient and understanding. "Then you are the answer to my prayer". Spake the lady. I am going to place this girl in your hands, and you will please be so kind as to see that she makes the connection, and by all means gets through Immigration and Customs at London Airport. Come along, I shall introduce you." And come along I did.

It was developed that the young lady was indeed of Spanish origin. Her fiancée had emigrated to Belgium shortly after World War II for the purpose of working in the truck farms outside Liege. Having put aside a goodly stake, he had sent for the girl who became his bride. They had worked together, and now were in the process of paying for their own small farm. She had been living in Belgium for twelve years, and had never returned to her native province of Andalusia, even for a visit.

She had a sister and "some" cousins living in London, and her mother had managed a visa to Britain which would allow her to visit for an indefinite period of time. The girl was going to see her mother, and had somehow come under the protecting wing of the missionary who had immediately made a project of seeing that she made it through with a minimum of bother.

The flight to Brussels was duly cancelled, since the clouds were practically dragging the ground, and the airline provided taxi transportation for the few Brussels passengers. We arrived in Brussels with time to spare. The driver was apparently an escapee from the Grand Prix Rally.

Taking the young lady to the appropriate counter, I produced our tickets and passports, which were properly and duly stamped while the agent gave the usual flight of information of gate number, flight number, time of departure...and all that. The agent appeared a bit perplexed when he noted that, while we were obviously travelling together, we were in separate cabins. Oh, well. Belgians take foreigners in their stride. We boarded the aircraft via the First Class door, I saw her to her assigned seat and returned to mine. She had followed the missionary's instructions to the letter. At no time would she allow me to be beyond arms reach of her.

Upon landing at London, the aircraft had barely more than come to a complete stop when I arose from my seat, and there stood my ward, bright and cheerful and with her face aglow with anticipation of seeing her mother and sister.

The inspector at the Immigration desk took our passports, asked if we were travelling together, was assured that we were (although we failed to add that our togetherness ended as soon as we'd cleared Customs), stamped our passports and gave the usual "Welcome to London".

Into Customs we went. Now at Heathrow Airport at that time there was a very sensible arrangement for baggage claim and Customs declaration. The baggage is delivered directly from the aircraft via conveyor to Customs. The passenger makes his declaration form, identifies his bags, and is inspected and turned over to him on the spot. Apparently taking note of the difference in our ages, the Customs Inspector may have assumed that she was a child bride who had not yet had time to change the name in her passport. We were kindly waved through without any preliminaries whatsoever.

And then the fun began! As we reached the exit, it appeared that no less than two dozen assorted sisters, mothers, cousins and aunts descended upon us. Excitedly chattering at nineteen-to-the-dozen my ward was swept into the arms of first one and then another. I was kissed on the cheek and given a strong "abrazo" by Mama and at least half a dozen assorted kinspeople before it finally got through to them that our association was only very temporary. But when it was made clear that I had only served as her

"patron" and protector...I thought it was going to begin all over again.

It was quite a happy occasion, and I rather felt good about the whole matter. I had done my good deed for the day, and it had taken a very minimum of effort.

RETIRING OR MOVING?

At least 18 per cent of the people in America will move this year. And many of you are thinking about retiring. These decisions are a part of your life and will affect at least one out of every five of your family and friends soon.

When making your retiring and moving decisions you'll soon discover that you've really accumulated a lot of possessions in the last few years. And you'll quickly see that it will be very difficult, time consuming and quite expensive to haul your possessions across the country or even around town.

But, you can turn these accumulated possessions into quick cash by holding an auction. A well planned auction can cash out your entire household in just a few short hours. And, I provide complete auction service so you don't have to worry about a single detail.

It's a whole lot easier to have an auction and put cash in your wallet than it is to put your piano, refrigerator & hide a bed in a truck. And remember, when it comes to buying or selling AUCTION'S BEST (tm).

SUPER HARVEST SPECIALS

September closeout specials on John Deere 40 Series tractors: finance charge waiver to March 1, '84, or up to $1,850 in lieu of waiver

The supply of new John Deere 40 Series tractors is going, going, and will shortly be gone. So to get the new tractor power size you want at Super Special savings, act real soon.

Sicker prices on 40 Series tractors date from 1981, meaning big initial savings for you on a tractor that'll perform with higher priced 1983 competitors. And you'll get our good deal to boot.

Here's more. During September, finance your new tractor with John Deere and you'll save $1,000 or even $1,000. Because purchases made by September 30 are eligible for finance charge waiver to March 1, 1984. Or you can get a cash rebate in lieu of waiver for the amount shown here.

More yet. If you anticipate 1983 taxable income, buy your new 40 Series tractor now to take advantage of 83 Investment Tax Credit plus full-year depreciation to reduce your taxes. You'll shield income while greatly reducing actual cost of your new 40 Series.

Another option. Lease a new 40 Series tractor and lease payments will be discounted by an amount comparable to the finance charge waiver. Use leasing to get modern power, plus tax advantages, even if your '83 taxable income is low.

There are two types of hanging baskets, the wire type and the plastic type and they may vary in size. But the average is 10 to 12 inches. For the wire type you will need unmilled sphagnum moss that is not needed for the polastic basket. For the wire basket attach the three hanging wires so that they cover a wire coming form the bottom of the basket, not just the circular wire at the top. For the plastic basket attach the three hanging wires in the hole provided and wrap over the top and around the same wire. For the wire basket place the unmilled sphagnum moss loosely in a three gallon bucket and cover with water and push the moss down to get it thoroughly soaked. Writing out a hand full of the moss at a time and pat the moss down in the bottom and then on the sides of the wire basket. Let the unmilled sphagnum moss extend over the top of the basket. Hold up the basket and inspect it to be sure that the sides are completely covered. Then place a clay-pot saucer or aluminum in the bottom of the basket which will partially overcome the drying out of the basket after it is hung.

The foolowing applies to both the plastic and wire types of baskets. Fill in one-third of the basket with potting soil. Select the plants and set them out in a space representing the basket. Don't overcrowd the plants as you set them out. Remeber they need room to grow in the basket. If the plants are in pots, set thim in the basket to see how they will look. At this point you can tell if the soil level is enough. Never plant the plants any deeper then they were growing at the nursery. Add any potting soil that is needed to bring the soil level to within one inch of the top of the basket. Let the soil slope to the center of the basket in order th retain some water. Plant the center plant first then work out tho the sides planting the other plants. After planting, water slowly until water runs from the basket. Hanging baskets need to be watered daily and fertilized every two weeks with a light solution of water soluble fertilizer.

Some plants for hanging baskets that require 80 per cent shade and no more than two hours of morning sun would be, fibrous Begonias (try Filesta White, Galaxy Pink, Jewelite Red), trailing Strawberry, Wandering Jew, Chlorophytum, Geraniums, Coleus, Marigold, Petunias, Chrysanthemums and the Shrimp Plant.

Hanging Baskets can be used to brighten up the smallest place to the largest. Now that we have spent the time and money for our hanging baskets lets go one step futher to help them thrive and give us more enjoyment. Most Hanging Baskets die from either too MUCH or too LITTLE water. Let hang above our baskets on the same hook "A Little Dripper." This will gradually dispense water and or liquid fertilizer on the hanging basket. all you have to do is fill the "Little Dripper" once or twice a week and it does the work of watering and or fertilizing. The "Little Dripper" sure saves your Garden Editor a lot of time in taking care of his Hanging Baskets. If you would like more information on the "Little Dripper" write your Garden Editor 1/2 of this newspaper. GOOD GARDENING UNTIL NEXT WEEK FROM YOUR GARDEN EDITOR TED BRICE.

Lights From The Christian World

by Josephine Cleveland

It has been said that the philosophers of Athens called Paul, the Apostle a babbler until he spoke of the resurrection of the dead. Then they pricked up their ears and said, "We would like to hear more."

Jesus was in command of every event of the cross. He went through the Word of God on the cross. God pulled back the curtains and allowed Jesus to see the sin and anquish of the world. He prayed before He made His way to the cross.

"And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one; I in them; and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me." John 17:23-24.

David foretold that Jesus strength would be dried up like a potherd; and His tongue would cleave to His jaws; and He would be brought into the dust of death. Jesus knew the scripture. As He hung on the cross and knowing the scripture would be fulfilled, said, "It is finished; and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost." John 19:30.

Center, formerly called Eastland County Work Center. This work center is a very important place in our community for the mentally handicapped to have their own place to work and socialize. The government has been less than adequate, so the parents and friends have pitched in, and through rummage sales, bake sales, handcraft sales, and very generous donations of items to be sold, and money, we have managed to raise the extra funds needed to keep the work shop going. There have been many people who have volunteered their time and energy, too many to name here, but I want to express our special thanks to Mr. H.V. O'Brien, and to Mrs. Viola Payne for

Also we want to thank the two radio stations for allowing us to advertise on their stations.

We still need donations of money and we will have other means of raising funds. The clients of the work center are grateful for your generosity, as are the parents and people who work with them.

Fall is Fair Time
Time for fairs again, and the Eastland County Fair is getting organized right down to the starting point which is Wednesday, Sept. 28.

Fairs have been traced back at least 600 years in the Old Testament, and the peddler with his pack of goodies antedates the beginning of the Christian era at least 2500 years.

The peddler our early traveling salesman, looked for church festivals as a display place for his wares. He was guaranteed a crowd of potential customers if he could get there at the right time for the "feria," of fair.

supermarket. They were organized and run to show off a nation's wealth and demonstrate its superiority. Youngsters may not believe this, but the carnival-midway-sideshow part of a fair is only incidental to its main reason for being.

In America, too, the earliest fairs were merchandise markets—not entertainment centers.

The purpose behind all fairs and bazaars is to make money for an organization of and individual. Garage sales have about taken over as quick fund raisers. They began with individuals, even as the peddler was a solitary salesman. But groups of families have come to hold them, and service organizations were quick to spot the potential in this kind of

There's not much difference among fairs, festivals, expositions, exhibitions—even bazaars and garage sales. All of these provide an opportunity for trade, whether in the atmosphere of feasting and celebrating a festival of the display of arts and skills in an exhibition.

Definitions of fairs change as do fairs themselves, but they always reflect the econ-

Whatever these conditions, whether for state or national reasons, or merely

PUBLIC NOTICE BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 8, 1983

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 91 proposes a constitutional amendment which requires a county with a population of 30,000 or more to be divided into not less than four nor more than eight justice of the peace precincts. A county with a population of 18,000 or more but less than 30,000 shall be divided into not less than two nor more than five justice of the peace precincts. A county with a population of less than 18,000 shall be designated as a single justice of the peace precinct or, upon a finding of necessity by the commissioners court, shall be divided into more than one justice of the peace precinct but not more than four. The amendment provides further, that in any precinct in which there is a city with a population of 18,000 or more, two justices of the peace shall be elected. The amendment allows a justice of the peace, constable or commissioner to continue in office until the expiration of his term, although a change in precinct boundaries results in the officer no longer being a resident of the precinct for which he was elected or appointed and allows a justice of the peace or constable to continue in office until the expiration of his term even though a change in precinct boundaries results in the abolition of the precinct or more than one justice of the peace or constable serving the precinct. Vacancies in the office of justice of the peace or constable that result from a precinct boundary change shall be filled by the commissioners court until the next general election. The amendment would take effect on January 1, 1984, and counties with populations of less than 30,000 and with more than four justice of the peace and constable precincts would have until January 1, 1987 to comply with the amendment.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing fewer justice of the peace and constable precincts in counties with a population of less than 30,000 and providing for continuous service by justices of the peace, constables, and county commissioners when precinct boundaries are changed."

PROPOSITION NO. 2
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 105 proposes a constitutional amendment which would limit a homestead in a city, town or village to a lot or lots amounting to not more than one acre of land, together with any improvements on the land. The constitutional requirement that, at the time of designation, an urban homestead not exceed ten thousand dollars in value without reference to the value of any improvements on the land would be eliminated.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment replacing the limitation on the value of an urban homestead with a limitation based on size."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 1 proposes a constitutional amendment that authorizes the Legislature to enact legislation that permits representative associations of agricultural producers to collect refundable assessments on their product sales to be used solely to finance programs of marketing, promotion, research and education relating to those products. It provides, further, that adoption of the proposed constitutional amendment will bring into effect Senate Bill 607, Acts of the 68th Legislature, Regular Session, 1983, with rejection of the amendment resulting in Senate Bill 607 having no effect.

The proposed constitutional amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment providing for the advancement of food and fiber production and marketing in this state through research, education, and promotion financed by the producers of agricultural products."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 30 proposes a constitutional amendment which authorizes the Legislature to enact laws to provide for the succession of members of the Legislature in the event of enemy attack and allows the suspension of procedural rules imposed by the Constitution in the event of, or immediate threat of, enemy attack. The amendment empowers the Governor, after consultation with the Speaker of the House and the Lieutenant Governor, to suspend the constitutional requirement that the Legislature hold its sessions in Austin and allows the suspension of procedural rules by the Governor issuing a proclamation in which the House of Representatives and Senate concur by resolution approved by a majority of the members present. Suspension of the constitutional rules may not exceed a period of two years under a single proclamation; however, the Governor may renew the suspension by issuing a new proclamation concurred in by the House of Representatives and the Senate through a resolution approved by a majority of the members present.

The amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing statutory provisions for succession of public office during disasters caused by enemy attack, and authorizing the suspension of certain constitutional rules relating to legislative procedure during those disasters or during immediate threat of enemy attack."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 12 proposes a constitutional amendment that authorizes the Legislature to enact legislation providing for the use of the permanent school fund and income from the permanent school fund to guarantee bonds issued by school districts. The amendment provides, further, that the Legislature may appropriate part of the available school fund for administration of the permanent school fund or of a bond guarantee program established pursuant to the amendment.

Artists Work To Be Unveiled At Roaring Ranger Days

Mr. Hugh Riker, nationally famous artist, has been commissioned to do an original art work of the historic Texas & Pacific Depot in downtown Ranger. Mr. Riker was hired by the Ranger Chamber of Commerce to do the work that will be unveiled at Roaring Ranger Days, Saturday, October 8th.

The original work of the depot will be set in the boom day period and will feature muddy streets and figures representing characters of the era.

Limited edition, signed and numbered prints of the work are available on a first come, first serve basis, Mike Ford Chamber president said. In order to obtain one, you may purchase a sustaining membership to the Roaring Ranger Museum. Each sustaining member will receive a print while they last. Cost of a membership is $100 and is tax deductible. All proceeds go toward the support and improvement of the Roaring Ranger Museum. Ford reports that over twenty of the prints have already been sold.

Mr. Riker will be here in person for the Roaring

Hugh Riker

Ranger Days and will auction off the original work at that time.

Riker is well-known for his works of "Texas Courthouses," "Colorado Mining Camps" and his "American Railroad" series. He is currently "Artist in Residence" at Fort Concho Museum and is the official artist for the city of San Angelo.

Collectors of his works include the late President and Mrs. John F. Kennedy, President Gerald Ford, the Henry Ford family, Mr. Gregory Peck and many others.

Mr. Riker is a native of Flint, Michigan and is a graduate of the Flint Institute of Art, Layton School of Arts in Milwaukee, School of Practical Arts in Boston and the Chinnard School of Design in Los Angeles. He was only the second American admitted membership to the elite International Organization of Pen & Ink Artists which has less than ten members.

His Texas Courthouse collection will be published in a book in 1984. He has exhibited his work throughout the United States and his collectors are world-wide.

Anyone interested in purchasing one of the limited edition prints or would like to bid on the original should contact Mike Ford at 647-1145.

Stenholm Explains Notch

Editor:

A number of folks have contacted me with reference to a "Dear Abby" column which recently ran in newspaper columns throughout the 17th District and across the nation. The subject of that particular column was the social security "notch". Unfortunately, some of the information contained in that particular column was both incorrect and misleading, and I am attempting to inform my constituents accordingly.

I have written a Congressional Comment concerning the social security "notch" effect, a copy of which is enclosed, and I would sincerely appreciate any consideration you might give to making this information available. This entire subject matter has generated concern and anxiety on the part of many individuals, and I think much of this could be alleviated if people were given an opportunity to study and understand this issue.

Thanking you for your attention and assistance, and with best wishes, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
Charles W. Stenholm
Member of Congress

Congressional Comment:

The Social Security "Notch" A number of folks have contacted me with reference to a recent "Dear Abby" column in which a reader commented on the social security "notch". Unfortunately, some of the information contained in that particular column was incorrect and misleading, and I think it is necessary to discuss this issue in some detail. Let me begin by providing some background information concerning the social security "notch".

The 1972 Social Security Amendments indexed social security benefits to the cost-of-living or in other words, provided social security beneficiaries with a cost-of-living adjustment (COLA) every year. Every time retirees received a raise, the amounts in the benefit table also increased; these amounts would be used to compute benefits for and future retirees. At the same time that the benefit tables were increasing, many workers in the labor force were receiving wage increases. The result was the new reworkers in the labor force were receiving wage increases. The result was that new retirees were compensated twice for increases in the cost-of-living during their working careers (through higher benefit tables, and higher wages upon which their benefits would be based). If this system had been left in place, many people would have received retirement benefits higher than their salaries had been while they were working.

In 1977, two years before I came to Congress, the Congress established a new benefit computation formulas which affects all those born after 1916. The new formula went into effect in 1977, and lowered overall benefit levels by about 5 to 7 percent. Everyone who turns 62 after 1978 is going to get lower benefits than they would have received under the previous formula. Contrary to current rumor, however, there will not be a $100 difference in benefits between those born in 1916 and 1917 except in a limited number of cases at the maximum benefit levels.

The term "notch" refers generally to the difference between the age-65 benefits for those who turned 62 before 1979, and those who turned 62 during and after 1978. This difference is caused by the reduction in overall benefit levels brought about by the 1977 amendments. In order to ease the transition into the new benefit computation, the Congress made provision for a five-year phase-in of this new formula. Thus, people who turned 62 in the period 1979-1983 came under the transition provision which allowed them to get the higher of two benefits: either a benefit using the old law benefit table (frozen at 1978 levels, and thus not increased for inflation but using only earnings before age 62; or a benefit using the new formula and using all earnings both before and after age 62.

As a result of this provision, individuals born during the years 1917-1921 receive benefits which are somewhat greater than they would have been under the new formula. The "Dear Abby" column implied that the folks born during the years 1917-1921 would receive less in social security benefits, and everyone born before and after those years would not be affected; this is simply not true. The 1977 Social Security Amendments affected everyone born after 1916.

If this issue had not been addressed by the 1977 Congress, benefits to retirees would have far exceeded the ability of the social security trust funds to pay them. The alternatives were steeper tax increases or a bankrupt system. By the time Congress had corrected this problem, benefit levels had already climbed higher than any time in the history of the program; these are the high benefits enjoyed by many people born in or just before 1916. A line had to be drawn somewhere, and any delay would have made the problem worse. Already, it would cost $9 billion in the first year, $20 billion the second year, and more thereafter to go back to the old formula.

Earlier this year, the Congress made certain reforms of the Social Security Program and addressed the financial crisis facing the trust funds. The Congress determined that increased payroll taxes were necessary to meet the needs of today's social security recipients and the needs of future generations. Given the fact that the use of the old benefit computation formula would be prohibitively expensive, it is highly unlikely that the Congress will make any further changes in this particular provision of the law. Our nation's elderly have worked hard to make this nation what it is today, and I do not believe that they want to leave a legacy of excessive taxation and debt to their grand-children and great-grandchildren; a return to the old benefit computation formula would do just that.

Time Out for Sports

Sports. Action. The two words go hand-in-hand. That's what makes sports photography so exciting. And difficult. Capturing action on film isn't all that hard to do. But anticipating action is. Unlike many other forms of photography, sports shooting leaves little or no control in the hands of the photographer. The best he can do is be there at the right time and be prepared for action. That means he must be poised, finger on the shutter release button, gauging and guessing at the precise moment to take the shot.

Every experienced sports photographer has his own theories about shooting, but here are a few general tips that can help you capture some of those spectacular moments.

1.) Know something about the sport you're photographing. It's nearly impossible to come up with a prize-winning shot if you haven't the faintest idea of the goals, techniques, and philosophies of the sport you're covering.

2.) Know how to use your camera quickly and properly. That means being able to turn the focusing ring the right way without having to take your eye from the viewfinder and losing track of the action. Likewise, all your camera's controls should be permanently etched into your mind.

3.) Give careful thought to where and how you'll be shooting before the big event. Try to anticipate any problems that may arise so you won't end up frustrated and photoless.

4.) Stay well clear of the competitors and officials. And don't block the view of the spectators. You may think your goal is far more important than that of the average Joe sitting in the stands, but he's not likely to agree...especially not if he paid 10 or 15 dollars to watch the action.

5.) Be alert and ready to shoot. Watch for that sudden burst of action which, in a split second, can summarize the entire contest. Be ready to catch the center fielder dropping the fly ball or the quarterback fumbling the snap from center. The action may be unpredictable, but it should never be unanticipated.

Being in the right place at the right time is only half the answer to getting sports action photos like this shot of a BMX race.

While it's possible to use nearly any camera to shoot sports scenes, your task will be easier with a single-lens reflex model with interchangeable lenses. It will show you exactly what you'll get right up to the split second of exposure, and you'll be able to match the proper lens to the action.

In some sports like basketball and hockey, the photographer is usually close to the action, so a normal or wide-angle lens works well for most pictures. In fact, a longer lens may be difficult to use and impossible to keep in focus.

Sports like football and baseball, on the other hand, require a telephoto lens because of the subject-to-camera distance encountered. For best results, choose either a straight "tele" in the 100-200 mm range or better still—a telephoto zoom in the range of 80-200 mm. That will allow you to zoom down for close action or wide-angle shots and zoom up for dramatic closeups of distant action.

Longer telephoto lens in the range of 300-600 mm or more may also be beneficial in producing tightly cropped shots, but these longer lenses sometimes create more problems than solutions. The longer the lens, the less the depth-of-field (zone of acceptable sharpness before and beyond the focused-upon subject), making critical focusing mandatory. If you're off on your focusing even a little, the results could be blurred, worthless shots.

Also, many long lenses are heavy and cumbersome and must be used with a sturdy tripod in order to obtain sharp shots. Tripods, though, can slow you down in fast-action sports. Often, by the time you've panned or tilted the tripod to follow the action, you've missed the shot altogether. Keep that in mind when selecting lenses to use at a sporting event.

KINGSTON, JAMAICA—OUR TRIP TO Jamaica in the West Indies began at DFW Airport at 1 p.m. on September 8th. Flew American to Miami and, after a layover of about four hours, Air Florida took us the rest of the way. The flight to Miami was about two and a half hours, and it took an hour and a half to fly over Cuba and drop down to Jamaica.

The arrival in Kingston, the capital of Jamaica, was around 10:30 p.m. The airplane, a Boeing 737, was virtually full and another plane or two arrived about the same time. This resulted in quite a hassle to clear customs. It was 2 a.m. by the time we got to bed.

JAMAICA IS an island with a lot of mountains — 150 miles long and up to 90 miles wide. Christopher Columbus landed here on his second voyage to the New World a couple of years after he landed in America that day in 1492. The British conquered the island in 1655, and it was part of the British Empire until it was granted commonwealth status in 1962.

As an independent nation, Jamaica has a prime minister with a cabinet, a senate of 21 members and a house of representatives of 60 members. Population of Kingston totals about 700,000 and of Jamaica about 2,500,000.

The weather and temperature remain pretty much the same year around — warm and humid. There's usually a sea breeze and you're comfortable when you're in the shade.

THE MINING OF aluminum ore is probably Jamaica's biggest business. Agriculture, particularly bananas, coffee and pineapples, provides employment for some 40 per cent of the

Services For John Dee Green Are Sunday

John Dee Green, 93, of Cisco, died at 6:35 p.m. Friday at Eastland Memorial Hospital. Services were at 2 p.m. Sunday at Kimbrough Funeral Home.

The Rev. Ronnie Shackelford of Calvary Baptist Church officiated. Burial was at Oakwood Cemetery. Born Feb. 21, 1890, in Hill County, he was an Army veteran of World War I in France and Germany. He married Louella Hanna May 4, 1918 in Meridian. He was a farmer and rancher and a member of Calvary Baptist Church and the Ranger Chapter of World War I Baracks.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Alfred and Buford, both of Cisco; three daughters, Dorothy Nash of Aspermont, Margie Fannin of Rule and Jean Hammer of Bowie; 13 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren. Grandsons were pallbearers.

work force. Their Blue Mountain Brand Coffee has a wide reputation as being delicious, and we already agree with that reputation. The island is pretty self sufficient in that they produce just about everything they use and need.

The economy isn't too good right now. Inflation is a problem. Their money, the Jamaican dollar, amounts to about 39 cents US.

THE US TOURIST is important to Jamaica's economy. They have a good many top rated hotels that are real comfortable. We're living at the Pegasus Hotel which was built on about 25 acres of grounds that are fenced. They have many flowers and shrubs and trees for guests to admire.

The hotel pool is quite large and attracts many swimmers, including hotel guests and local residents who join their swimming club. There is a quarter mile jogging trail on the grounds. Folks look askance when we walk around it instead of jogging. Several restaurants are located in the hotel.

Haven't noticed any USA places like McDonald's, Colonel Sanders or Super Burger. But there are a good many local quick food

AS THE CAPITOL city, Kingston has the governor general's compound plus numerous government buildings. One building has a department that intrigues us — the Jamaican Department of Integrity. We hope to drop in there one day before leaving and inquire about the nature of their work.

There are numerous places in the arts and culture file, churches of all faiths, colleges and universities, public gardens, theaters, golf course and the like.

We're looking forward to our stay here.

It's still Hot and Dry at Putnam. We are glad we didn't get the storm that struck Merkel Thursday night, but we sure could use some rain. They are making plans to move on to where they go to spend the winter.

The new slide for the park has come and been installed. It is a nice big one and I'm sure the youngsters will enjoy it. The park is a very good asset to the community.
