

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERREL HALLMARK

I was asked to print this article. It was originally in Carolyn's Corner in the Cross Plains Review.

Heaven's Grocery Store I was walking down life's highway a long time ago, When I saw a sign that read "Heaven's Grocery Store",

As I got a little closer, the door came open wide, And when I came to myself, why, I was standing just inside.

I saw a host of angels; they were standing everywhere. One handed me a basket and said, "My child, shop with care".

Everything a Christian needed was in that grocery store, And all you couldn't carry, you came next day for more.

First I got some PATIENCE: LOVE was in the same row, Further down was UNDERSTANDING, you need that everywhere you go.

I got a box or two of WISDOM, and a bag or two of FAITH, I couldn't miss the HOLY GHOST, for it was all over the place.

I stopped to get some STRENGTH and COURAGE, to help me run this race. By then my basket was getting full, but I remembered, I need GRACE.

I didn't forget SALVATION, for salvation that was free, So I tried to get enough of that to save both you and me.

Then I started up to the counter to pay my bill, For I thought I had everything to do my Master's will.

As I went up the aisle, I saw PRAYER, and I just had to put it in, For I knew when I stepped outside, I would run right in to sin.

PEACE and JOY were plentiful, they were on the last shelf,

SONGS and PRAISES were hanging near, so I just helped myself.

Then I said to the Angel, "Now, how much do I owe?" He just smiled and said, "Just take them everywhere you go."

Again, I smiled at him and said, "How much do I really owe?"

He smiled again and said, "My child, Jesus paid your bill, a long time ago"

WAYNE PRYOR won a prize for the best dressed resident of the West Texas Nursing Center Halloween party last Friday night. The prize was a $10.00 bill.

A large crowd attended the affair with Roland Smith and the Road Runner Band playing music. A group of eight senior citizen couples dressed in black skirts and pants, with white blouses and shirts with orange ties, danced.

Orange punch and chocolate chip cookies were served by the staff. Attending from Cisco were Mrs. Louise Pryor and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Morgan.

Loboes Will Host Jim Ned In Final Scheduled District Game

The Loboes of Cisco High School will be hosting the Jim Ned Indians of Tuscola in Chesley Field this Friday night for their final scheduled game of the season. Kick-off will be at 7:30 p.m.

Following Cisco's 27-15 victory of Hawley last Friday, the Loboes are 5-1 in district play and 7-2 for the season. Cisco should be destined for the play-offs this year, since they are tied with Albany for second place in District 9-AA. Cisco and Albany have each lost only one game this season.

Albany will be playing Winters this Friday. Should Albany win, there will be a three-way tie between Cisco, Albany and Winters for the district championship and a coin flip will determine the winner.

Should Winters win Friday night's game, Cisco will advance in the play-offs as runner-up in District 9-AA. Cisco head coach John Parchman said Tuesday that Cisco is not going to worry about the Winters-Albany game, but they are going to concentrate on defeating Jim Ned and help "control their own destiny."

Jim Ned is 3-3 for district play and 6-3 for the season. Coach Parchman said they are a big, strong, physical team which runs the power-I offense. He said they will "run right at you" but they do not have a lot of speed.

He said they have played some people real well this year. Coach Parchman said Jim Ned was in the district race until they were defeated by Albany last Friday by the score of 28-8. He said Jim Ned had the ball inside Albany's ten-yard line twice and could not put it in the end zone.

After Albany got a couple of touchdowns ahead, Jim Ned seemed to give up and did not play as well offensively.

In last Friday night's game in Hawley, Cisco scored two touchdowns in the first and two touchdowns in the final quarter of play. Hawley scored a safety in the second quarter and two touchdowns in the third quarter for a final score of 27-15.

Cisco started out the scoring on their first possession of the ball. Cisco's Mike Williams received the opening kick-off at Cisco's 20 and returned it to the Loboes 39-yard line. With Craig Foster at center and Joe Perry at quarterback, the Loboes began moving the ball. Johnny Ramirez, Doug Hendricks and QB Perry moved the ball to Hawley's ten-yard line in four plays, picking up two first downs along the way. A handoff to Ramirez gained the touchdown with 9:52 left in the first quarter of play. Glen Starr held the ball while Butch Jessup kicked the extra point making the score 7-0.

Late in the second quarter of play, Hawley drove the ball from Cisco's 39-yard line to Cisco's two where the Lobo defense stiffened and prevented the Bearcats from gaining any points. Following a fourth down try, the Loboes took over possession of the ball on their own two-yard line.

On the first play, a handoff to Hendricks, the runner was tackled in the end zone giving Hawley a safety. With 3:21 left in the second quarter, the score was 7-2 in favor of Cisco.

Cisco's Jessup then kicked the ball from Cisco's 20-yard line and Hawley started a drive from their own 46. On their second play, a handoff to Shannon Strickland, the ball was fumbled and Cisco's Sean Manire recovered it at the Bearcats 46-yard line. Cisco took over possession of the ball and runs by Franky Seabourn and Ramirez placed the ball on Hawley's 35, after two plays. On a first down with 1:22 left in the second quarter, Cisco QB Perry threw a perfect pass to F. Seabourn in the Hawley end zone for a Cisco touchdown. The extra point kick by Jessup was no good making the score 13-2, as it remained at half-time.

In the second half of play, Hawley received the kick-off from Cisco's Jessup and returned the ball to their own 18-yard line. The Hawley offense went without a huddle and lined up in a split offense. With the Lobo defense seemingly confused, Hawley quarterback Johnny New took the snap from center Jackie Florence and pitched the ball to Jimmy Faulks who scampered down the left sideline for a 82 yard touchdown run. New held the ball for Mason VanCleave who kicked the extra point making the score 13-9 with 11:41 left in the third quarter of play.

On Cisco's first possession in the second half of play, the Loboes moved the ball from Hawley's 27 to the 15, before being pushed back to the 24-yard line of the Bearcats. Needing 19 yards for a first down, Cisco elected to try for a field goal. Jessup's 42-yard attempt was not long enough and fell short of the uprights with 8:25 left in the third quarter.

Later in the quarter, Hawley took over possession of the ball at their own 14-yard line. With New quarterbacking, Duain Manuel and Faulks moved the ball to the Bearcats 29 yard-line. A pass from QB New to Manuel netted a 71-yard touchdown pass play. A try for two extra points was not good making the score 13-15, with the remaining quarter of play.

The Hawley play which resulted in a touchdown was started after the time ran out on the clock for the third quarter of play. When the play started, the clock read 00:00 left to the play in the quarter. The fourth quarter of play was not started until the ensuing kick-off from Hawley. Game officials ruled the play was good and the score remained at 13-15 in favor of Hawley at the beginning of the final quarter of play.

Down by two points, Cisco's Hendricks received the kick-off and handed the ball to Perry on a reverse run which started out at Cisco's 20-yard line. Perry returned the ball to Hawley's 34 before being stopped by Hawley.

Cisco's Ramirez was called upon to dig out the yardage for the Loboes. He took the first handoff from Perry and gained six yards. On the next handoff, Ramirez fought through the middle of the line for a 21-yard gain placing the ball on Hawley's five. Again the handoff went to Ramirez who scrambled into the end zone for a Cisco touchdown. The extra point attempt by Jessup with Starr holding the ball was good, giving Cisco a 20-15 lead with 10:47 left in the game.

On Cisco's next possession of the ball they strengthened their lead after moving the ball from their own 21 to Hawley's nine. Ramirez and QB Perry ran with the ball throughout the drive with Ramirez carrying three times and Perry keeping the ball five. With 4:04 left in the game, Ramirez took a handoff from QB Perry into the end zone for a touchdown. The extra point attempt by Starr and Jessup was good making the score 27-15, as it remained at the end of the game.

Standouts on the Cisco defense were Mike Williams, Josh Potter, Johnny Seabourn, Willard Johnson, Sean Manire, Robert Sherman, Darrell Stuart and Butch Jessup. Defensive standouts for Hawley included Shannon Strickland, Jimmy Faulks, Craig Cooley, Mason VanCleave, Johnny New, Jerry Schmidt, Billy Richardson, Joe Griggs, Shad Phillips, Steve Monsey, Jackie Florence, Robby Baker and Dennis Gooch.

Jr. High and J.V. Teams To Play In Tuscola

Cisco Junior High School's seventh and eighth grade football teams, along with the high school's junior varsity team, will be traveling to Tuscola Thursday night for their final games of the season.

The seventh grade game will begin at 5:00 p.m., the eighth at 6:00 p.m. and the J.V. at 7:30 p.m.

Cisco's seventh grade team is 1-4 for the season while the eighth grade is 0-7. The J.V. is 4-2 in district play and 4-4 for the season.

Loboes Will Stay In Two-A District

Officials of Cisco High School were well pleased with the new Interscholastic League football assignments that will have the Loboes moving from District 9-AA to 11-AA next year, according to Supt. James Couch.

The new District 11-AA will be composed of Albany, Baird, Cisco, Coleman, Eastland, Jim Ned, Ranger and Winters. Anson and Hawley was in the local district for the 1983 season, and Ranger and Coleman were moved into their places.

Class AA designation includes schools with a two-year enrollment average of students numbering 135 to 275. For the past two years, Cisco's high school enrollment average was 274.95, Mr. Couch said.

"We misseed moving up to Class AAA by only .05 a percentage point," the superintendent said.

Mr. Couch said that Athletic Director John Parchman expected to complete the 1984 schedule for the Loboes in the near future.

Area Walkers Will Participate In Turkeywalk Event Nov. 12th

Many area walkers are expected to participate in the Turkeywalk event to be held Saturday, November 12, 1983 in Cisco. The participants are hoping to raise public awareness about the benefits of walking while raising funds to benefit the American Heart Association in Texas. The physical benefits of walking are many. In addition to the obvious trimming and firming of the body, it also strengthens and conditions the heart by making the body work and demand increased amounts of oxygen. Enthusiasts of the activity also say it helps relieve tension and increases the ability to relax.

Event participants walk as much of the five mile course as they want. Prior to the event they recruit sponsors who make pledges based on the number of miles the participant completes. After the event, participants collect the pledges to turn in to a local American Heart Association representative.

"We are grateful for the tremendous support we're getting from Cisco citizens," said Patsy Hogan, chairperson of this year's Turkeywalk. "The funds will help us in our mission to prevent the premature death and disability from heart disease. Those people who have volunteered to put this together should be congratulated for their enthusiastic cooperation."

Cisco's Turkeywalk, this year will be directed toward young adult participation as we understand that Cisco's school children participate in an annual jump rope event for the American Heart Association. For the person who collects the most pledges in the event, the number one prize will be a 26" Western Flyer bicycle or a 20" Western Flyer dirt bike donated by Olney Savings. The second prize will be a $50

Series E savings bond donated by the First National Bank of Cisco. Third prize will be a KC-strip Dinner for Two donated by the Colony Restaurant in Cisco.

BRANDI MARIE McDANIEL

Brandi Marie McDaniel was born October 26, 1983 at Blackwell Hospital in Gorman. She weighed 7 lbs., 13 oz. and is 18 1/2 inches long. Proud parents are Billy and Kathy McDaniel of Gorman. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Powell of San Antonio. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A.J. McDaniel of Cisco.

Fourth prize will be an Electric Hot Dog Steamer donated by Western Auto in Cisco. And anyone who turns in over $60 in pledges will receive a Turkey T-shirt!

The American Heart Association urges everyone to participate in some form of a regular fitness program with the approval of their doctor, and walking is especially easy, healthy and fun. Walking is easy to start and easy to keep up with so it is a good system for getting into shape and staying there with all the essentials for a fitness program.

Anyone wanting to make a pledge in support of a Turkeywalk participant is urged to call Patsy Hogan at Olney Savings at 442-1605. Everyone is invited, so please join in the fun... "it'll do your heart good!!!"

First Methodist Church, Cisco Ladies are shown working on projects for The Lord's Acre-Fall Festival which will be held November 19, 1983 at the First Methodist Church in Cisco. The festival will feature baked goods, candies, baby items, ceramic ware, toys and Christmas decorations and Bar-B-Que lunches. Plan to be there!

Wranglers Win, Leaving For Finale In Oklahoma

The Wranglers of Cisco Junior College, who scored an easy 52-to-0 victory over Baptist Christian College's Warriors of Shreveport in a homecoming football game here last Saturday afternoon, began preparations Monday for their season's finale.

The Wranglers will go to Miami, Okla., to take on the nationally ranked Northeastern Oklahoma University Junior College in a game at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. The Oklahoma eleven is undefeated while Cisco has a 6-2 record for the year.

Plans called for Coach Bob Keyes and his staff to take a traveling squad of 60 players to Miami. They will leave early Friday by chartered bus, and plans call for an afternoon workout at the University of Tulsa stadium in Tulsa. The Wranglers will spend Friday night in Miami and return home immediately after the game Saturday night.

The Wranglers completely dominated the Shreveport team in their Saturday afternoon game here, scoring seven touchdowns, a field goal and six extra points. The Warriors were limited to a net of two yards by the Wrangler defense. They had two passes complete for 22 yards and had a net of minus 20 yards rushing, leaving them only two yards on the plus side of the statistics.

The Cisco team, with John McCabe of Abilene and Gene Kennedy of Copperas Cove alternating as quarterback, had 16 pass completions in 26 attempts for 235 yards and three touchdowns. Wrangler backs had 95 yards rushing. Cisco scored three times in the first quarter - on each of their first three possessions. Opening the game, Henry Cassidy took the kickoff back to the Baptist 43. Kennedy circled for 11 yards, and Ron Lewis drove to the 35. Kennedy passed to Roy Bell for a first down on the nine, and Curtis Johnson circled for the score.

Moments later, Tony Brown recovered a fumble and gave CJC the ball on the Baptist 12. McCabe passed to Melvin Modesty for a touchdown. In the same period, CJC got the ball on a punt on their 32. Edward Glenn drove 11 yards, Kennedy passed to Modesty for 18 yards, and Darrell Denman got loose for 26 yards and a touchdown.

In the second period, Walter Green covered a Baptist fumble and gave Cisco the ball on the Baptist 28.

MCCabe passed to Modesty for a touchdown. A third quarter score was made on a 10-yard run by Curtis Johnson to climax a 60-yard drive.

In the fourth quarter, Walter Rule, who kicked six extra points, booted a 32-yard field goal.

The Wranglers scored two touchdowns in the final quarter - one when Marcus Burnett intercepted a pass and ran 25 yards to score and later on a 16-yard run after David Loree made an interception.

The Wranglers used every able-bodied member of their 100-man staff in the game. Twice, they attempted long field goals in an effort to hold down the score.

Score by quarter:
Cisco 21 7 7 16 - 52.

BROWNWOOD—The State Highway and Public Transportation Commission authorized construction of 194 miles of Farm to Market roads today. The action allows the Highway Department's 24 districts to move forward with details concerning design and right of way acquisition for their respective Farm to Market Road Programs for the 1983-84 period.

Actual construction of the proposed roadways must await the accrual of necessary right of way which is the responsibility of local officials in the 64 counties where the 68 new projects have been authorized. That process often takes several years or more. Most of the projects involve upgrading existing county roads which have rapidly increasing traffic volumes.

In the Brownwood Highway District a total of 6.7 miles of new roadways have been authorized. The three projects are in Eastland and San Saba Counties.

In Eastland County the Scranton Road is being extended from FM 1864 to SH 206, a total of 1.6 miles; and FM 8 is being extended 1.7 miles to SH 6, approximately three miles west of Gorman.

In San Saba County FM 1031 will be extended 3.4 miles southeast from its present end at approximately six miles southeast of San Saba, and will include a new bridge over Rough Creek.

These are extensions of existing farm to market roads, according to Brownwood District Engineer Lawrence Schulz.

"We'll call it closing the gaps," he said, "but we haven't closed all the gaps. Eventually, as funds become available, we want to connect FM 1031 to FM 501 at Chappel in San Saba County."

The money for the new construction comes from the state's general fund and the $50,250,500 is roughly the same budget as for previous years. A decrease in inflation in the last three years has allowed the Highway department to get more miles of work with its budget. During the highly inflationary 1979-80 budget period, the department authorized only about 60 miles of new farm to market construction per year. The current commission action allowing 97 miles per year is made possible by that decrease.

The construction boost for the 1983-84 biennium was aided by a $4 million savings resulting from cost underruns that occurred during the last funding period for the farm to market program.

The increase in total miles of farm to market highway construction represents a small bright spot in an otherwise austere budget period for the highway department.

The increase is characterized by department officials as "catch-up" construction from the lean inflationary years. This increase is not nearly keeping up with the traffic volumes generated by rapidly developing Texas communities. At its monthly public hearing earlier today, the commission listened to requests for highway projects by several Texas cities and restated its inability to accommodate traffic needs with the current state funding level.

Earlier this month, Mark

Goode, Engineer-Director for the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, announced several new measures to cope with the dwindling highway budget. Goode's department has been authorized by Governor White "to borrow" up to $22.9 million in federal funds for FY 1984 allocations.

Goode has also cut maintenance services by five percent and is freezing purchase of new equipment.

Gas dryers maintain one's appearance for less.

Saving money is important. For everyone. That's why natural gas dryers are the preference for those who know. They cost less to operate than non-gas models. In fact, high-efficiency gas dryers dry about three loads of wash for the cost of drying one in a non-gas dryer. And gas dries clothes faster. And it makes them feel soft and fluffy. So get more for your money and get a gas dryer for your home. Today. After all, in these times, looking one's best for less is something everyone can appreciate.

CJC Homecoming Is Good Success

Some 850 persons, including students, ex-students and members of their families, registered for the annual homecoming at Cisco Junior College on Saturday, Oct. 29, and the event was a good success, Dr. Norman Wallace, president, reported. Olin O. Odom III, registrar at the college, was elected president of the CJC Ex-Students Association for the coming year at a business session following the luncheon Saturday noon at the Corral Room. Mr. Odom succeeded Charlie Hubbard of Rising Star.

Mangham of San Antonio, Sherri Russell of Houston and Dr. Norman Wallace, CJC president. More than 100 Belles and former members of the drill team signed the guest register. Gifts to Mrs. Owens included a music box, which she collects, and a handsome silver serving tray. —Staff Photo.

Charlotte Taggett of Albany was elected vice president, and Emma Watts of Cisco was re-elected secretary and treasurer. Named to serve on the board of directors were Mr. Hubbard, Darlene Dunham of Cisco, Olga Fay Parker of Cisco and Randy Speegle of Cisco.

The morning program included registration at Manor Memorial Library from 10 to 11:30 a.m. The Wrangler Belles held a reception in the Texas Room in honor of Mrs. George Owens who retired last September as director of the Belles. Open house was held at the various buildings and dormitories.

A football game between Cisco Junior College and Baptist Christian College of Shreveport was played at 2:30 p.m. as the feature of the afternoon program.

Mrs. Bertha Tripplett Kerr of Lubbock, who attended CJC in 1929, was presented as the coming home queen. She was introduced at the football game and was escorted on the field by Mr. Hubbard, the retiring association president.

Miss Kelle Burnett of Merkel was chosen by the CJC student body as the homecoming queen. She was presented at half time and was escorted by Jim Menas of Abilene, vice president of the Student Government Association. She is the daughter of Dwayne Burnett of Merkel and Mrs. Jan Watson of Hamby. She is a sophomore.

Other homecoming nominees and their half-time escorts were Miss Ruth Hill of Boyd, escorted by Butch Rich of Cisco, president of the sophomore class; and Miss Angela Edgar of Breckenridge, escorted by Delbert McNeil of Abilene, freshman class president.

Olga Fay Parker of Cisco, who retired in 1977 after teaching 40 years at CJC, was presented a plaque at the football game in recognition of her selection as the ex-students association's 1983 outstanding educational award winner.

At the time of her retirement, Mrs. Parker was chairperson of the language and communications department. She graduated from Randolph College, a forerunner of CJC, in 1943 and holds BA and MA degrees from Texas Tech.

Other nominees for this honor were Clyde Fisher and Dr. Ken Hammes, members of the CJC faculty, and O.L. Stamey, the first full-time president of CJC.

A large number of students turned out Friday night for a pep rally and bonfire at College Hill.

Firemen Make Two Area Runs

The Cisco Volunteer Fire Department sent a truck to Scranton late Thursday after a grass fire threatened to spread to buildings in the downtown area. Fire Chief C.W. Guthrie and Fireman Elmer Escobedo took the truck that helped control the blaze without damage to property.

Cisco firemen took a truck to Moran on Wednesday night, Oct. 19, when a residence caught fire and threatened to spread to nearby homes and a school building. The home was destroyed but the blaze was contained by Cisco, Albany and Baird firemen helping Moran firemen.

Making the trip to Moran were Fire Chief C.W. Guthrie and Firemen John Jarvis, David Gill, Kay Jackson, Bobby Rains, Billy Rains and Ken Boyd.

The same day, firemen went to the Cisco Nursing Center when an air conditioner began smoking. There was no damage.

The exhibit of pictures and models of Indian homes, created by students of the Fifth grade of Cisco Intermediate School, will continue at the Cisco Public Library throughout the coming week.

The drawings are illustrations of a book review of "Ida Early Comes Over The Mountain" presented by Librarian Mary Bob Leveridge to students of Mrs. Joyce Schaefer's class.

The Indian home models were created by students of three classes of Fifth Grade students of Mrs. Schaefer, Miss Janice Hobbs and Mrs. Suzette Eisenbach.

The work, originality and ingenuity is exceptional and well worth anyone's time to see and admire. It is hoped that the Library may be afforded future opportunities for similar displays.

Noted and saved for reference at the Library was an article in the Thursday morning, Oct. 27, Abilene Reporter about the Earle North Parker Essay Contest open to Highschool Senior of Texas. Subject for the essay is: "My Country, My Home, My Responsibility".

The essay should be from 500 to 600 words, with awards of five scholarships beginning with Place No. 1 for $1,250. Sponsored by the Air Force Association of Texas, deadline for submission is January 4, 1984. Papers are to be sent to the Abilene Chapter of the Air Force Association. More details are contained in the clipping available at the Library.

Why not a winner from Cisco Highschool Seniors? Perhaps the coincidence was noted: on the same Sunday, Oct. 2, that the Cisco Press Library column carried the article about the book at the Library: "The Sinking of the Titanic and Great Sea Disasters", Channel 13 carried a documentary on the sinking of the Titanic, produced by a British Television company. Many of the pictures were the same as those contained in the book, and narratives were very similar.

James Creel Requests Parole

The citizens of Eastland County have another opportunity to respond to a request by James Duke Creel who has asked for a parole from a life sentence for the rape and murder of a young Abilene girl.

The Eastland County Criminal District Attorney's Office has been asked by the Parole Board for comment on possible parolement.

Creel was convicted in 91st District Court on a charge of venue from Abilene and began the life sentence in March of 1971. A request for parole was denied last year, primarily on the basis of opinions expressed to the board by citizens from throughout this area.

Address of the board is: Texas Board of Pardons Room 711 Stephen F. Austin Building P.O. Box 13401 Austin, Tx 78711 letters to the editor ...

Dear Editor, THE AFTER MYTH OF LEGALIZED BINGO

By Pat Otts
Once upon a time the cry of "Bingo" would have brought me running like an old fire-horse, but legalized Bunko (Oops! sorry) legalized Bingo for Churches and Charitable organizations has turned the old fire-horse into a horse of another color, and awakened in me a feeling of nausea (Oops! must be the typewriter) a feeling of nostalgia for the childhood days—the error (sorry) the era of the "Guess What" can-ny.

As I recall, the candy was terrible, but the element of chance was delightful. It gave a child (me) the opportunity to gamble like the grown ups. A nickel bought a chance to get a grand prize, neatly concealed in the wrapper.
I remember the nickels taken from my lunch money, from mother's purse, and sometimes just taken, and with trembling, sweaty little hands, given to the man behind the candy counter for another "Guess What".
Hastily, I would tear open the wrapper, letting the candy fall where it may, to search for my precious prize.

It wasn't long before "Guess Whats" became peanuts for me—peanuts that came in a little red box and sold for a nickel. Inside the box was a chance to find up to five dollars. I had finally made the big-time. Hallelujah! What Joy! It was worth losing all my worldly possessions (dolls, jacks, peashooter, rubber gun, marbles) to have one last chance to get even.
As I grew older, peanuts became "kid stuff". It was time to move on to bigger and better things—"Guess-Whats-cum-Bingo". It was illegal, but it was primarily for a good cause (clubs, churches, hospitals) so who cared?
Ex-Senator A.R. "Babe" Swartz cared, that's who, and he worked religiously to see that the Bingo Bill was passed, and passed it was (1980)—right into the laps of each respective precinct in Texas.
Now, let us all 'raise' and give 'hail' to the "Hep" voters, who in some places took our sins away. We can gamble Saturday night and go to church Sunday morning with a clear conscience because it's all done under the same ruse (What can I say?) under the same roof. Yes, we can come out of our closets wearing halos and long white robes, singing "Hallelujah, We Are Free". In deed the "Hep" voters

Pipelines... make good neighbors

America has over 220,000 miles of petroleum pipelines carrying crude oil and products to refineries and storage terminals across the United States. Each day, more than 1.5 billion ton miles of crude oil and products move through this network. These pipelines have a safety record second to none in the transportation industry... and we want you to help us keep it that way.

GROUND MARKER

GROUND MARKER

CASING VENT

AERIAL MARKER

When you see signs like those shown above, they tell you that there's a pipeline nearby. If it's underground, you can't see it, of course. But it's there, working quietly to provide energy for you and other consumers throughout this nation.

Some of these signs list the commodity transported in the pipeline, the name of the operator, and a telephone number where the operator's representative can be reached at all times.

Although pipelines have an exceptionally good safety record, once in a while a leak can occur. Indications of a leak might include:

- A strange or unusual odor in the vicinity of a pipeline.
- A hissing or roaring sound (caused by petroleum or product escaping from a pipeline).
- A dense white cloud or fog.
- A spot of dead or discolored vegetation.
- An accumulation of petroleum liquids on or a mist above the ground in the area of a pipeline.

- Flames originating from an opening in the ground.
- If you become aware of a pipeline leak...
- LEAVE THE LEAK AREA IMMEDIATELY.
- Avoid driving into vapor clouds.
- Avoid direct contact with the escaping liquids.

- Avoid creating sparks or sources of heat which could cause the liquids or vapor to ignite and burn. If you find yourself in a suspected vapor area, do not light a match, start an engine or even switch on an electric light.

- Notify the pipeline operator as soon as you reach a safe area. Call collect. Give your name, a description of the leak and its location. If you do not know who the pipeline operator is, call your local fire, police or sheriff's department, or the state police. Advise them of the nature and location of the emergency.

If you see someone digging near a pipeline or doing other construction work... or if you plan to do such work near a pipeline yourself... please call the telephone number shown on the sign and let the pipeline company know so damage can be avoided. It's in your interest... and the nation's.

America's Petroleum Pipelines

Pipelines are the safest way to move petroleum and products and you can help keep it that way!

really know "where it's at" today because they helped to put it there, but do they fully understand the profanity (I'm losing control) the profundity of this great deed which they have done? Knowing where it's at is important, but do they know what "It" is? Leaving them to their "Guess Whatting", let us move on to examine some of "Its" binge (I fold) benefits.

1. "It" is leading the church hand-under-handedly down the primrose path, turning many from sinner to Saint overnight; creating new born-to-gain Christians, who, given a chance, will eventually clean up with gambling casinos, liquor stores, night clubs, prostitution—a whole world of vice may be cornered by so-called "churches" and "charitable" organizations.

2. "It" offers a new game called "Musical Charities", with adult players marching around their favorite charity to the tune of "Babylon is falling down", whistled of course by "Babe Swartz."

3. Thanks to "It", hypocrisy has been replaced by hip-pocketry! They have hooked the compulsive gambler right in his hip pocket—but good! Bother the chance that his family will lose—that's the name of the game. If they can't stand the odds, they should cash in their chips, and many do just that—permanently!

4. "It" turned the innocent "Guess What" era into the "You know what" era—the error of apostasy. A man once said, "Let he who is without sin cast the first stone". Well, they certainly tried—they cast him up on a cross, cast lots for his robe, cast his disciples into prison, cast doubt on his resurrections, and now, almost two thousand years later, many people have cast ballots for his house in which to cast lots. (I do believe we're coming full circle here!) If sin is computed by what the "church" does not allow, then a sin-free society could be (you guessed it) just a stones throw away.

Well, that's about it. As for this writer, who is a potential gambler, I'm all for "It", but as a Christian (don't forget the typewriter), "It's" no dice, and you can make book on that, just as long as the book isn't the Bible. The bookie isn't Christ, and "It" isn't done in His house and in His name.

Ever since I can remember, raffles, cake walks, and Bingo have been used by decent people to raise money for a good cause (e.g. - the recent effort of the PTO in Gorman to raise money for the school) with no objections until someone decided to make it legal. In the good ole days, the REAL gamblers, who were more interested in high stakes and a low profile, didn't dare take chances on being overtly involved in "illegal" gambling. Ah—BUT, if "it's" legal, they can bet on a sure thing. Such irony! Hell has been defined as "truth seen too late", so the bottom line is: Keep it illegal, and keep it just "kid stuff".

BANK EMPLOYEES were outfitted in their Halloween best Monday as they went about their routine business day. Tellers and secretaries were costumed as various characters and greeted customers in their unusual dress. (staff photo)

AARP Hears Maria Duncan

Mrs. Maria Duncan from the Eastland office of the Department of Human Resources was speaker at the October meeting of the Cisco Chapter of American Association of Retired Persons, held in the Corral Room.

Mrs. Duncan is a Social Worker involved in services to the aged and disabled. In addition to statistics on number of clients in Eastland County, kinds of services and future programs of assistance, Mrs. Duncan answered questions from the audience and distributed material intended to inform as well as correct misinformation about the life-style of older citizens, problems, opportunities for self-help as well as public assistance, and the dangers of victimization.

In the business session, with President Walter Knowlden presiding, a slate of candidates for officers for 1984-1986, was presented by the Nominating Committee. Election of officers will be in November and installation in December.

Rev. O.T. Killion, former City Judge and former Pastor of the Assembly of God Church, was nominated for the Presidency. Other candidates were: Vice-President, Gid Bowers; Treasurer, Rose Knowlden; and Nominating Committee Chairman, Thelma Bosworth. Maurine Thompson will serve her second year as Secretary. For Board of Directors, Walter Knowlden, Jack Montgomery and Alberta Sims were nominated for two year terms. One year of service on the Board remains for Oren Speegle and Charlie Ben Cagle.

The nominating committee was chaired by Mrs. Lela Lloyd. Committee members for two years were named as Dee Chick, Eva Jamison, Marguerite Lane, Betty Wallace and Louise Zander. Beryle Estes was named for one year.

For the November meeting, President Knowlden reminded members to bring canned goods or non-perishable foods for the Thanksgiving baskets for distribution to needy families.

AARP members in Cisco now number 134, according to a report by the treasurer, Velma Joyner.

Thelma Watson Celebrates Her 80th Birthday

Mrs. Thelma Watson celebrated her 80th birthday, Saturday, October 29, 1983 at the Fellowship Hall of the Nazarene Church in Cisco from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. All of her relatives and friends were invited to attend.

Thelma was born October 26, 1903 in Cisco. Her parents were the late John and Martha Boatman. She married Eugene Watson on Feb. 23, 1924. She was a telephone operator from 1918 until she retired in 1968.

She has two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Farnsworth of Cisco and Mrs. Charlene Campbell of Bayton and 5 grandchildren.

Amendment Will Allow Garnishment For Child Support

On Nov. 8, people are going to be able to vote for a constitutional amendment which will allow garnishment of wages for overdue and unpaid child support.

The November issue of Redbook reports, the economic atmosphere of divorce is:

One year after a divorce, a woman's standard of living has decreased 73 per cent; her ex-husband's has increased 42 per cent.

Three years after a divorce, only 19 per cent of fathers continue to pay child support. (God Bless those 19 per cent.)

More than half of the households headed by women live in poverty, and the number is rising by 150,000 per year.

By the year 2000, virtually all the poor in this country are expected to be single mothers and their children.

In Texas alone an estimated $10 million per year is presently being paid out by taxpayers as Aid to Dependent Children. It is not fair to these taxpayers to ask them to do this when there is a parent who is capable of doing this themselves.

Garnishment of wages is a drastic measure to take, but a child's welfare is important enough to demand it.

This will not only apply to men, but to women also, if they are the ones who are supposed to be paying the child support.

Remember to vote on Nov. 8 for this important amendment.

Spotlights & Sidelights

Julia Worthy

How was your Halloween? Will the family be home for Thanksgiving? Do you plan an all-out Christmas?

Perhaps people are more outspoken these days; maybe my ears are sharper. Too, I could be more attentive to the opinions of others.

Regardless of the reason I think the time has come for me to get equal time to express my own ideas on "pagan practices." Halloween wound me up on this subject of Christian observances with pagan roots. There is barely room here to scratch the surface but I want to take a couple of swipes at it anyway.

Halloween, also on our Christian calendar as All Hallow's Eve, has a history that goes back to the Druids, at least.

The Druids celebrated October 31st, which they called "Samhain," as the end of their year. The crops were laid by, a pretty bleak season was coming up. They knew that many of them never would see spring, so they threw a super party.

The Lord of Death was very real to the Druids. Their religion was a compound of natural and supernatural beliefs, and no effort was spared to appease the powerful Lord of Death.

This fearsome figment of the Druids imagination let the spirits of the people who had died in the past year come back home for a few hours.

The spirits of the good folks didn't worry anyone, but the Druids knew there were many less-than-saintly souls among the dear departed. Too, the Devil was reported to come around snapping castanets made from dead men's bones. Fun! Fun! Fun!

Our school carnivals held for Halloween do have pagan roots. So does all of mankind if you will think about it. Everything that happened before the birth of Christ is called "pagan." Christianity has an uneven progression at best, and human kind is not structured mentally or physically, for immediate change. It is natural to incorporate new ideas with old.

Adapting to external demands possibly accounts for survival. It pleases me, rather than offends, that schools have managed to instill a little reason into Halloween. It is not enough for the individual to say, "I'll not participate!" in what does not approve. There must be positive action to nullify what he considers negative.

Would anyone accuse the Puritans of paganism? Giving thanks for a bountiful harvest goes far, far back in to antiquity—survival is the name of the game! Primitive man may have been a pagan according to our lights, but he expressed his gratitude for being a live pagan.

Even Christmas. Santa Clause, the Three Wise Men, or any of the gift-givers has a basis in Christianity, but the Christmas tree?

The church services held at Christmas, observed with deep sincerity and which provide an opportunity for spiritual experiences—these rituals hold a wavering line against prevalent commercialism which is tainted with more than a touch of paganism in my book.

Easter, an important date on the Christian calendar, owes its festive air to pagan practices rather than to crucifixion of Jesus. How many anti-paganists will tell Sister and Sonny they absolutely may not hunt the eggs the Bunny laid?

There are many questions left unasked, but they would go unanswered. That's all right, too. When questions are asked, people are thinking. When people make objections, they are thinking.

My concern about damning an idea as "pagan" is chiefly that the good is discarded with the bad.

The roots of Halloween are fully as pagan as Easter's rites of spring. But school carnivals can be held on Halloween or the Fourth of July.

My belief is that any activity that fosters community spirit and helps provide for the safety and well-being of schoolagers should be welcomed at any time despite its genealogy.

Lights From The Christian World

by Josephine Cleveland

Genesis 3:14-15 tells of an irrevocable curse which refers to the devil and his spiritual brood, "Upon thy belly shalt thou go."

God promised that he would subdue Satan under our feet. This prostrate condition of Satan assures us that the devil shall never lift his head (wily policies) higher than our heel. Satan may make you limp, but he cannot snuff out your spiritual life.

God said to the devil, "Upon thy belly thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life." Consider this, Satan cannot devour whom he wills. The dust is his food, which restrains his power to only the evil, who are of the earth, earthy. To those who are partaking of the true and living bread, Christ Jesus, their souls Satan cannot consume.

Arm your self with God's grace. You will discover more and more that you have abundant privileges in Christ. His love and grace is sufficient to sustain you.

Hance Calls On President To Stop Purchases From Iran

WASHINGTON—U.S. Rep. Kent Hance, D-Texas, called on President Reagan today to immediately order a stop to all purchases from the government of Iran.

"It is obvious from the evidence we have collected," Hance said, "that terrorists loyal to the Ayatollah Khomeini's government are behind the massacre of American troops in Lebanon.

"Khomeini-supported terrorists took over the U.S. Embassy in Tehran in 1979 and held more than 50 Americans hostage for 15 months; they bombed the U.S. Embassy in Beirut this year and killed 63 people, including 17 Americans; and, last Sunday, terrorists attacked the U.S. Marine headquarters in Beirut, leaving more than 200 Americans dead.

"In addition to a very small portion of our oil needs, the U.S. buys millions of dollars worth of other products from the Ayatollah. I believe Americans would be willing to do without the yarns, hides, carpets, artwork and fish they buy from Iran if they knew that this money supports terrorists intent on killing Americans. "In August," Hance pointed out, "almost 300 million American dollars went to Iran in exchange for these products.

"How long is the Reagan Administration going to continue financing Khomeini's goons," the Lubbock Democrat asked.

"It is not the American tradition to do business with our enemies, and Khomeini is definitely an enemy. I know Americans would support the President if he ordered all imports from Iran stopped," Hance said.

Dairymen Face Lower Prices And Higher Feed Costs

Dairymen are struggling to survive with a lower milk price and higher feed costs. A meeting has been organized by the Texas A&M Extension Service to assist with this struggle.

A meeting at Stephenville on October 28 will start at 10:00 a.m. and conclude by 3:00 p.m. The current dairy situation will be reviewed with a report on the prospects for the future. Financial alternatives will be presented to assist with each dairyman's personal decision for his farm. Feed represents half of the cost of producing milk. Higher feed costs have made a balanced program even more critical. The use of forages and feeding management will be discussed as well as possible "new" feeds that may not have been used in the past.

Breeding and sire selection will be on the program to illustrate other ways to survive in the current situation.

Herd management or "putting it all together" will provide some methods of checking each herd's operation. Many times a few small management changes can make the differences in profit or loss.

Lunch will be served and a copy of the proceedings given to all in attendance.

Mother Nature's Quiet Revolution

COLLEGE STATION—It's a quiet revolution that happens each fall. Slowly but surely Mother Nature goes about painting leaves on the trees and shrubs to produce a riot of red, purple, orange and yellow for spectacular fall displays.

Just what is taking place is enough to cause even the most avid skeptic to marvel. It's all tied to chemical processes in leaves as the summer season gives way to fall and the approaching winter.

"Leaves are actually little factories that manufacture food to support a tree's or other plant's growth," points out Alan D. Dreesen, a forestry specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. "They are busy producing food during spring and summer, but as fall approaches, their work slows down as temperatures and daylight hours change. Chlorophyll—the green pigment in leaves—breaks down and other pigment, mainly yellows and oranges, become visible and gives leaves their fall splendor."

At the same time other chemical changes are occurring to form additional pigments varying from red to blue, notes the forester. These give rise to purplish leaves on such trees as dogwoods and sumacs and brilliant orange or fiery red and yellow leaves on sugar maples. Some trees, such as quaking aspen, birch and hickory, boast only yellow colors while many oaks and others display predominant brown or bronze leaves.

"Leaf colors will vary greatly from year to year, depending on weather conditions and the amount of chlorophyll and other pigments in leaves," explains Dreesen.

"Warm, sunny days in the fall followed by cool nights with temperatures below 45 degrees F. are ideal for the formation of brilliant red colors, he points out. These conditions enable leaves to produce a lot of sugar during the daytime but slow down the movement of these sugars from leaves at night. Consequently, trapped sugars form the red pigment that is so vividly displayed in leaves of the red maple, flowering dogwood, sweetgum, black tupelo or blackgum and sassafras.

"A lot of warm, cloudy, rainy weather in the fall, on the other hand, will produce leaves with less red coloration because of the reduced sugar production in leaves," notes Dreesen.

"Fall leaf color can also vary from tree to tree," he adds. "For example, leaves directly exposed to sun may turn red while those on the shady side of the same tree or on other trees may be yellow. Some leaves simply turn dull brown from death to decay."

Where can one find an abundance of showy fall displays?

The eastern United States and southeastern Canada boast large areas of deciduous (trees that shed their leaves) forests with brown-leaved trees and favorable weather conditions for vivid fall colors, notes the forester. Some mountainous areas of the Western U.S. also offer vistas of fall colors along with eastern Asia and southwestern Europe.

While arranging for all the fall leaf colors, Mother Nature is also preparing the twigs that hold leaves to gradually sever themselves from the branches, says Dreesen. When the leaves finally fall, due to their own weight or a sudden burst of wind, they enrich the forest floor, returning part of the nutrients that were used by the tree.

H. Jones Shares Memories Of Early Day Mangum

Harland Jones of Denton, Texas recently shared some old photographs with the Eastland County newspapers, some of these show the early-day town of Mangum.

Mangum was built in the early 1900's at the junction of two railroads about eight miles S.W. of Eastland. Mineral water had been discovered in the area, and a Mr. and Mrs. Switzer decided to establish the settlement as a health resort.

The Mangum Mineral Water was found in 18 wells, and this potent brew was supposed to cure rheumatism, kidney trouble, stomach trouble, skin and blood diseases, and other ailments.

"The Switzers built a three-story hotel, the Don Carlos, about 1908," says Harland Jones. "They operated it as a hotel for people to stay in while taking mineral baths for their health. Train crews also ate in the large dining room."

"Mineral water was bottled by the Switzers and shipped by rail to other places." "The Don Carlos was the only hotel in Mangum, and it lasted until the late 1930's. Not so much as the hotel, but Mrs. Switzer lived there and operated a cattle ranch until she died about 1960."

Jones mentions that in 1915 Mr. Bob Mangum ran the post office. Mr. Pete Mangum was Depot Agent at the town, and the settlement had two grocery stores and other buildings.

"My father, Wm. Henry Jones, lived and worked at the Don Carlos Hotel," Harland Jones says. "He married Sarah Belknap in 1915, and they stayed on there a short while. Then they moved to a house on the Nimrod-Scranton Rd., where I was born Dec. 16, 1916."

"My parents moved from Eastland County in Jan., 1919, to Denton County, Denton, Texas, when I was only two years old. My father worked at Acme Brick Plant in Denton."

"I finished school in Denton in the spring of 1933. I went to work at the Brick Plant in Oct. 1935 and worked there 43 years.

"During this time I served 3 years in the Army in World War II, and was in action in Italy, France, Germany and Austria."

"I married in Dec. 1938, and have a daughter and two grandchildren. I still have one aunt, Mrs. J.M. Eudy, living in Cisco. She is my Mother's sister. I also have a cousin from my father's side, Gerald Parks, who lives in Cisco."

Harland Jones, as well as others who visit Eastland County, must be amazed at how little remains of Mangum. The elegant Don Carlos is gone, the split log bath house behind it, the passenger station, business

The birthplace of Harland Jones, located on the Nimrod-Scranton road.

The Don Carlos Hotel, constructed at Mangum in 1908, was considered very modern. It had its own electric light plant buildings and homes. Both railroads have long been abandoned, with grass growing where the tracks once stood. But one active spot is the Mangum Baptist Church building, a friendly place with a growing membership. So you certainly can't say this town is "dead"!

COUNTY FAIR WINNERS SHARE RECIPES

Fall weather makes home-baked desserts taste so very good. There were a number of delicious treats exhibited recently at the County Fair, both in the Adult and Youth Divisions.

Pictured is a stunning cake decorated by Nancy Trout, who won First in the professional Decorative Cakes Division. The cake featured a colorful replica of Thanksgiving dinner.

In the picture with Mrs. Trout and her cake is Mrs. Helen Phillips, who served this beautiful creation for her family reunion.

Those of us not lucky enough to taste the prize winners will have a chance to try some of these recipes, which are shared with us by winning participants.

People n Things

LAST SATURDAY'S annual Cisco Junior College homecoming was a fine success, reports Dr. Norman Wallace, CJC president. He told us that 850 exes and members of their families sent in reservations for the homecoming luncheon at the Corral Room.

And at the Corral Room, which seats 300 if you pack them in pretty tight, they started serving at 11:30 a.m. and continued until everybody was fed at about 1:30 p.m. Oscar's Barbecue of Cisco catered the affair, and Oscar told us that it was the biggest catering chore he had ever undertaken.

The menu featured beef, pork ribs and sausage with all the trimmings. And it was very tasty, indeed. Oscar reported that he had all of his barbecue pits in operation all night and much of Saturday morning to turn out enough for the big event.

LOOKED IN AT the Maner Library at CJC for the reception that present and past Wrangler Belles gave for Mrs. George Owens, who resigned last September as Belle director. They served punch and cookies and greeted the many folks who went to pay their respects.

Mrs. Owens was real proud of a music box clown that the Belles presented her. It's of a clown sitting on top of a world globe. And when the clown turns around and around, the music machine plays "On Top of the World."

THE FOOTBALL Game at Chesley Field was the afternoon attraction, and the half-time feature was a fine show put on by the CJC Band and Belles. A good crowd of ex-students and parents of players turned out. The weather was perfect.

The Rev. Buddy Sipe, pastor of First Baptist Church, served as the game announcer and did a nice job.

MET UP WITH ex-student Jammie Fry at a reception for former students at the Best Western Motel's convention room after the game. Rancher Fry reported that it doesn't bother him to think about growing older when he considers the alternative.

Mr. Fry said that he can't remember the earthen stock tanks being so empty of water as they are right now. They have tanks that are dry for the first time in some 40 years. While the tanks are dry or low, they're cleaning them out and, in some cases, deepening them, he reported.

The Frys had bad news from their son Phil, student at Southwestern State University, San Marcos, the other day. Phil's pickup truck was stolen from a San Marcos street. The truck's contents included several large paper bags of groceries that he had just brought.

CJC VOCATIONAL school director Gerald Bint, who has a peanut farm south of town, told us that the folks out his way are baling their peanuts into hay. Not enough nuts to make harvesting them profitable, he added.

The Dick Cuttings of Lake Leon were over for the CJC reunion. He had just caught a big string of bass and crappie in a trip to a stock tank. Leon is down some seven feet and fishing isn't very good right now, Dick reported. CJC students contributed some 70 pints of blood in the Blood Bank project out there one day last week.

AT HAWLEY LAST Friday night, the Lobo Band presented the marching routine for their Saturday IL contest in Brady during the half-time. Fans sat up and took notice while they put on the nice half-time show. And as they concluded with the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" number, the whole Hawley stadium stood in a big appreciative ovation.

At Brady on Saturday, the same routine was presented.

One judge gave the band a I rating, another marked a II and the third put down a III, reports Bill Roberts of our town. Neither Bill or anyone else in the stadium could believe that the Lobo Band brought home anything less than a I rating.

FRIENDS AND neighbors of the J.C. Fletchers were pleased to hear Tuesday morning that Mrs. JCF's condition has shown improvement the past two days. She's in the ICU at Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene. Mrs. Winston Heidenheimer was due home Tuesday night after spending a week or ten days with her sister in Winterhaven, Fla. Mrs. WH's sister was recovering from an illness.

And Brian Fleming of our town, who suffered serious injuries in a recent auto mishap, was doing nicely in Hendricks Memorial Hospital.

In Service
Ricky Dale Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fleming of Cisco, enlisted in the Air Force's Delayed Enlistment Program today, according to Sergeant Dave Stevens, Air Force Recruiter located at, 4201 N. 1st, Suite K-2, Abilene, Texas.

Airman Fleming, a 1980 graduate of Baird High School, is scheduled for enlistment in the Regular Air Force on Dec. 29, 1983. Upon graduation from the Air Force's six-week basic training course at Lackland Marine Lance Cpl. Stephen C. Covert, son of Curt Covert of Route 3, Cisco, Texas, has been promoted to his present rank while serving with the 2nd Marine Division Camp Lejeune, N.C.
