

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERREL HALLMARK

CISCO FANS will once again be making a trip this Friday night to watch the Lobos continue on their winning ways in the state play-offs. Fans will go to Stephenville this Friday to watch Cisco and Boyd battle it out for the quarterfinals championship.

Cisco has won the bi-district, area and regional championships going up against teams which appeared to out-class them in size and ability, but the Lobos do not give up.

They have continued to show everyone what they are made of and that they are determined to do everything they possibly can to win their ball games.

If you have not seen this year's Lobos in action, then make plans now to attend the Cisco-Boyd game. It should prove to be one of the most exciting of the year and let's all back the Lobos to victory.

They can beat Boyd, but they need the fans' support and they need to see the stand full on Friday night in Stephenville.

THE ANNUAL Santa Parade will be held in downtown Cisco this Saturday morning at 10 a.m. Plan to be there and join in the holiday festivities.

ONCE AGAIN Lobo fans are being requested to stay off the football field Friday night. Let's not blow any chances of Cisco remaining in the State play-offs by drawing a penalty against Cisco and causing a game to be forfeited.

MR. AND MRS. FRED WHEELER

Philpott Florist Plans Open House

Philpott Florist, 120 W. 8th St., Cisco, will be holding an open house Friday, December 2, from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Door prizes will be given away throughout the day.

Fred and Jo Wheeler of Cisco have owned Philpott's for the past 11 years having moved to Cisco from McCamey where they were in the Florist business for nine years.

The Wheelers purchased the local business from Joyce McCaghen in 1972. Originally owned by Barton and Alma Philpott of Cisco, the business was started in 1928 near Cisco's Oakwood Cemetery. It was moved to its present location in 1955 and Mrs. Philpott continued to run the florist after her husband's death until her retirement in 1969.

Alma Philpott will be present at Philpott Florist on Friday during the open house.

LOCAL PLANS are continuing here this week for the Treasure Hunt which is being sponsored by the Cisco Chamber of Commerce. A list of donors may be found elsewhere in this edition of The Cisco Press.

The Chamber will begin passing out tickets on Wednesday, November 30.

Fans Reminded: Stay Off Field

All Cisco High School football fans are requested to please stay off the playing field before, during and after all football games in the play-offs. Only students in uniforms are to be allowed on the field.

It is uncertain, but there seems to be a U.I.L. ruling against any persons, other than uniformed students, going on the field. Cisco High School principal Mike Turner says he does not remember seeing any written rules concerning the situation, but he does believe there is a rule against unauthorized persons on the field.

After all the hard work and dedication being put forth by the Lobos and their coaches this season, it would be a shame if an over-enthusiastic fan were to cause the Lobos to be disqualified from the state play-offs.

So, just to be on the safe side, let's all wait until the players come off the field to offer congratulations and tell them they did a fine job.

Stephenville Selected As AA Play-Off Site

Stephenville was selected as the site for the quarterfinal Class AA football playoff game between Cisco and Boyd High Schools at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Dec. 2, at a meeting of officials of the two schools last Saturday in Breckenridge.

The meeting had been planned for Graham but Supt. James Couch and Coach John Parchman of Cisco High School were involved in a highway accident en route there. The Couch's 1977 Oldsmobile was demolished when it was in collision with a trailer that came loose from a pickup truck they were meeting near Breckenridge. It was a head-on crash.

Both Mr. Couch and Mr. Parchman suffered facial cuts and bruises as they were thrown into the windshield. An ambulance took them to Stephens County Hospital in Breckenridge. They were released after emergency treatment and were in school Monday.

Boyd officials were notified of the accident and drove on to Breckenridge to meet with the Cisco men. Boyd won a coin flip to be the home team. Graham stadium was the first choice of both schools but it was not available.

Stephenville offered free use of their facilities for the game and the two schools accepted it.

Supt. Couch reported that gates receipts for the first playoff at Comanche amounted to $4,200. The second game at Weatherford brought in a total of $5,200, and the superintendent believed the third game at Azle last Friday night would probably be around $6,000. The competing schools divide receipts after game expenses.

Coach Parchman reported that he and other members of his staff saw Boyd team play Pilot Point last Thursday night. Boyd won on penetrations after the two teams fought to a 14-14 tie. Pilot Point had been rated as the state's No. 1 Class AA team and this rating was expected to pass on to Boyd.

Asked if the Lobos could handle Boyd, Coach Parchman said "we have been the underdog each week and that didn't stop us from fighting. And we don't plan to stop this week."

The coach said his Lobos "took a lot of bruising" in last week's game with the Frisco team that outweighed them 30 pounds per man. He planned very little contact work this week in order to "let the boys recover from their bruises." He expected everybody to be ready.

Ron Mouser, head basketball coach, has been the scout for the Lobos in all playoff games as well as during the regular season.

The team will leave around 4 p.m. for Stephenville. Buses will take the Lobo Band and students to the game as in past weeks.

Principal Mike Turner reported that high school students would hold a pregame pep rally at 1:30 p.m. Friday in the school auditorium. Classes will be dismissed at 2 p.m. for the day, he added.

Lobo Defense Will Be Tested In Quarterfinals Against Boyd

Kick-Off Set In Stephenville Friday At 7:30 P.M.

The Cisco High School Lobo defense will be tested again this week as the team travels to Stephenville Friday night, December 2, where they will take on the Boyd Yellowjackets in a Class AA quarterfinal game. Kick-off will be at 7:30 p.m. in the Tarleton football stadium.

Defensive plays helped the Lobos win their regional championship last week against Frisco by the score of 7-6. The defense blocked an extra point attempt and a field goal attempt, as well as held the Coons from scoring at Cisco's one-yard line.

Cisco Head Coach John Parchman said Boyd will be the best offensive team the Lobos have seen all year. Boyd runs the veer option offense and throws the ball quite a lot. Coach Parchman said, "Boyd will be a lot like Archer City, only better."

He went on to say, "Our kids will get after them Friday. They were out-matched physically last week against Frisco, but they did not give up. Anything can happen this week."

Boyd has several big players but they do not have as many across the line as Frisco; however, their largest player weighs 276 pounds. Boyd is 12-0-1 for the season having tied last week with Pilot Point in a 13-13 regional battle. Boyd advanced to the quarterfinals on penetrations.

At the end of the season Boyd was ranked number two in the state behind Pilot Point, but now they probably hold the number one ranking.

All Lobo players, except for David Seabourn and Glenn Starr, will be ready for action this week. Frankie Seabourn was rehurt in last week's game on the opening kick-off when he stepped on a clump of grass and turned his ankle which had been injured in the San Saba game.

Coach Parchman said Frankie probably could have played some more in the Frisco game, but they decided to keep him out until this week, since he was not up to his full speed. Frankie worked out with the team on Monday in preparation for Friday's game.

Cisco is 11-2 for the season and the Lobos have won their last nine games in a row, including the bi-district, area and regional championships.

The winner of the Cisco-Boyd quarterfinal game will advance to the semifinals where they will play the winner of the McCamey-Morton game.

In last Friday night's game, the Cisco defense rose to the occasion several times throughout the game to hold the Frisco Coons from gaining any more than the six points given up in the second quarter. Defensive players Sean Manire and Robert Sherman were both in on two big plays in which they blocked kicks by Frisco's Joey Franke, one an extra point attempt after the touchdown and the other a 27-yard field goal attempt.

Cisco's offense managed to pick up only seven first downs during the game and five of those were made on their only scoring drive. Throughout the remainder of the game, the offense played conservatively and kept the ball on the ground with runs by Johnny Ramirez, Doug Hendricks, Josh Potter and quarterback Joe Perry.

Cisco received the opening kick-off from Frisco and managed to pick up seven yards on three tries, forcing Butch Jessup to punt the ball on the fourth down. The snap to Jessup was fumbled and he had to pick up the ball and kick it before the Coons got to him to block the punt. Jessup did a fine job of getting the ball away to Cisco's 48-yard line, where Frisco took over their first possession.

Frisco appeared ready to move the ball downfield, picking up a first down on their third carry of the ball. On the next play, from Cisco's 38, the ball was fumbled and Cisco's Darrell Stuart came up with the recovery giving the Lobos the ball at their own 46.

Cisco's offense came alive for its only scoring drive the game moving the ball to the Frisco five-yard line in eight plays picking up four first downs. Runs were made during the drive by Hendricks, Potter, Ramirez and QB Perry.

With the ball five yards from the goal line, Hendricks took the handoff from QB Perry but he was stopped at the line of scrimmage for no gain. On the second try, QB Perry was hit as he released the ball for an incomplete pass. On the third attempt at a score, QB Perry took the snap from center Craig Foster, rolled to his left and evaded Frisco tacklers for a run into the end zone. Wade Shackelford then held the ball while Jessup kicked the extra point, making the score 7-0 with 4:40 left in the first quarter.

Near the end of the first quarter, Frisco mounted a drive from their own 16 which they moved downfield to Cisco's two-yard line in 19 plays with six first downs. Instrumental in the drive were passes from QB Joey Franke to Jason Stigall and G. Varela, as well as runs by Varela, Ray Garza, Chris Mayfield, Rusty Mayfield and QB Franke.

Cisco's defense stiffened and stopped runs by Varela and R. Mayfield short of the goal line to end the drive by Frisco, giving the ball to the Lobos at their own one.

In three attempts, Cisco was able to pick up only three yards. With the ball resting on Cisco's four-yard line, Jessup punted the ball from his own end zone and it was fielded short at Cisco's 32.

Frisco tried a run by Varela, but he was stopped at the line of scrimmage, so they then elected to pass the ball. QB Franke hit Ricky Griffin with a 32-yard pass play for the touchdown. C. Mayfield held the ball while Franke booted the ball for the extra point attempt.

Cisco's Manire and Sherman rushed in to block the kick, allowing Cisco to remain in the lead by one point with 55 seconds left in the first half of play.

Cisco's offense managed only one first down in the second half of the game and lost two fumbles to give Frisco possessions of the ball at Cisco's 27 and 40.

The Coons' fumble recovery at Cisco's 27 was made by Chris Kubala and Frisco moved the ball to Cisco's five in six plays with two first downs. Again Cisco's defense stiffened, preventing the Coons from pushing the ball into the end zone.

On the fourth down, still five yards from the goal line, Frisco prepared to attempt a 27-yard field goal by Franke. On the snap, Cisco's Manire and Sherman rushed in to block the kick preserving Cisco's 7-6 lead with 46 seconds left in the third quarter.

During the fourth quarter, Frisco elected to try and connect on passes for big plays to get some more points on the scoreboard. However, Cisco's secondary proved to be effective in keeping the Coons from making any big plays, with Hendricks and Perry leading the Lobos.

Cisco defensive standouts included Joe Perry, Doug Hendricks, Josh Potter, Johnny Ramirez, Craig Foster, Johnny Seabourn, Willard Johnson, Sean Manire, Robert Sherman, Darrell Stuart, Butch Jessup and Tommy Elrod.

Good defensive plays for Frisco were made by Chris Mayfield, Scott Walton, Chris Kubala, Jessie Rodriguez, Jack Ferrell and Brent Whitsell.

Pecan Show To Be Dec. 9, 10 In Courthouse

The Eastland County Pecan Show will be on December 9 and 10 in the Eastland County Courthouse lobby.

In conjunction with the annual Pecan Show, there will be a Pecan Bake Show and Centerpiece division.

The Pecan Bake Show is being sponsored by the Eastland Chamber of Commerce and the Eastland County Extension Homemakers. The Chamber of Commerce will provide ribbons and cash awards. Silver trays will be awarded to the Grand Champion winner in the adult and youth divisions of the bake show. The silver trays are being awarded by the Extension Homemakers Council.

The Pecan Bake Show features an adult and youth division.

The entry classes are cakes, pies, nut breads, cookies (enter 12), candies (enter 12), and pecan snacks. All foods entered must contain pecans in the recipe ingredients. No refrigerated items or any food made with a mix will be accepted.

The entries must be registered and entered on Friday morning, December 9 from 8 a.m. until 11 a.m. Judging begins at 11 a.m. Recipes should accompany all bake show entries.

Entries in the adult bake show division will be returned to their owners between 4 and 5 p.m. on Friday, December 9. Entries not claimed will be sold to the public and money will go to the Extension Homemaker Council treasury fund.

The Eastland Chamber of Commerce sponsors the cash awards the Bake Show which are 1st place, $2.50; 2nd place, $1.50; and 3rd place, $1.00. The Grand Champion is awarded $5.00 and Reserve Grand Champion $4.00.

All pecan bake show entries should be entered on disposable plates, foil, or pieces of stiff cardboard. All baked products need to be covered with clear plastic wrap.

Congressional Intern Applications Available

Applications to become an Omar Buleson or LBJ Intern in the Washington office of Congressman Charles Stenholm will be available Thursday Dec. 1, according to an announcement received from Congressman Stenholm's office.

To be eligible, one must be an educator or student at least 18 years old, and teach or study in a high school or college in the 17th District attending any college in the school year prior to the internship.

The four interns selected from this district will "Learn through Involvement," and will spend one month, June or July, 1984, in Washington, D.C., participating in the operation of a Congressional office. They will observe first-hand committee hearings, passage of legislation, and Supreme Court decisions. The interns will also earn a $890.00 stipend.

Applicants must have a keen interest in the federal government; have good interpersonal skills with the public; have office skills such as typing, computer operation, answering phones, writing letters, and filing; and have a good academic and extracurricular activities record. Important dates to remember are Dec. 1, 1983, applications available; Feb. 6, 1984, deadline for applying; March 30, 1984, finalist notified; and April 7, 1984 for interns selected.

For further information and applications, contact Congressman Charles W. Stenholm, P.O. Box 1101, Abilene, Texas 79604, or call 915-673-7221.

Pecan Show Has Centerpiece Div.

This division will consist of centerpieces and arrangements made with pecans or some part of the pecan plant.

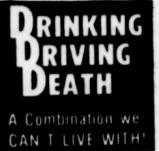

Entries need to be entered by 11 a.m. on Friday morning, December 9, and remain in place until noon on Saturday, December 10. Centerpieces should be original and must have been created during 1983.

The Pecan Growers Association sponsors the cash awards for the centerpiece division which are as follows: first place, $5.00; second $2.50 and third $1.50.

A Pecan Centerpiece division will be held during the 31st Eastland County Pecan Show on December 9 and 10 in the Courthouse lobby.

DAV Will Meet

There will be a meeting of DAV Chapter No. 92 of Eastland and DAVA at 7 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 1, at K-Bob's in Eastland, according to an announcement. There will be a dutch meal, and joint meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. These not wishing to eat may come to the meeting at 8 p.m.

The Pecan centerpiece division is open to all adult and youth (9-19) years old residing in Eastland County.

This morning a young man exclaimed, "Become a Christian now? In my youth? Why should I?" "Because," I answered, "Christ, the Founder of Christianity, was a young Man."

It was to young men that He said, "Follow Me!" And it was with them that He prayed and preached, and went from trials to triumph.

They revolutionized life. They put a new heart in man, a new face on society, and founded the Kingdom of God.

They were not high born but heaven born. They put character above comfort, morality above money, effort above ease, God above gold. They did not have possessions, but they had the priceless resources of youth.

Wise is the youth who does not employ his first years so as to make his last years miserable and his eternity unbearable. Happy will he be in old age who learns to trust God in his youth.

The wise man said in Ecclesiastes, "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth."

Households Increase Firewood Use

About 25 percent of Texas' 4.9 million households burn wood. The average Texas family burns just over one cord each year, totaling almost one and one-third million cords per year for the entire state.

A U.S. Forest Service survey confirms that stoves, fireplaces and furnaces in American homes now burn more wood than at any other time since World War II, according to Chuck Stayton, wood products specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

In 1981, residential wood-burning used 42 million standard cords, which is almost five times the amount burned 10 years ago. This wood burned in our homes is about one-fourth of the total wood used for all other wood products in the U.S. and would make a wall 8 feet wide by 44 feet high stretching from Washington, D.C., to San Francisco, Stayton points out.

Some 5,500 U.S. households were surveyed to determine increases in residential woodburning and sources of fuelwood. Results show that one-fourth of all U.S. households burned wood in 1981 and that three-fourths of all fuelwood used was cut by homeowners within short distances of their homes, Stayton continues. One-half of all rural households burn wood while less than one-fourth of urban area households use fuelwood.

People in the Pacific Northwest, Northern Rocky Mountains and New England burned the most wood per household. Southern households burned as much, on the average, as those in the Midwest states from Ohio to North Dakota, notes Stayton.

Half of all household fuelwood consumers used relatively inefficient fireplaces, burning one-fourth of the 42 million cord total, Stayton continues. Eight percent of all U.S. households, representing one-third of the woodburning households, use wood as their main heating fuel. They burned an average three and one-third standard cords per year.

Stayton says a standard cord is a stack of fuelwood 4 feet high, 4 feet wide and 8 feet long. Households using wood as a supplemental heat source burned about one and one-half cords each, and those burning wood in a fireplace, mainly for enjoyment, used about one-half cord each per year.

Stayton, headquartered at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Overton, points out that if fuelwood sales were a single business, it would be one of the 500 largest companies in the U.S., with a nationwide sales value of $620 million in 1981. Fuelwood is bought in amounts ranging from an armload up to a 17-cord truck load. Prices per cord range from about $400 when purchased in small amounts to $50 for loads of more than three cords, Stayton says. The average cost of one delivered cord is $71.

Fuelwood displaced only 2 to 3 percent of other home heating fuels, Stayton points out. Although the energy contained in the 42 million cords used in 1981 equalled 9 percent of the energy level in other heating fuels used, only 30 percent of the wood energy was converted to useful heat.

This conversion rate is low because much of the wood was burned in inefficient fireplaces, says the specialist. High oil and electricity prices have encouraged woodburning in rural households but did not influence urban households nearly as much because it is more inconvenient and expensive, says Stayton. Thus, the largest reduction in fossil fuel use due to replacement by fuelwood is in the forest products industries.

The survey suggests that home woodburning will not increase as natural gas prices increase. Rural natural gas users will probably burn more wood, says Stayton, but most natural gas users live in urban areas and burning wood will remain inconvenient and costly. Also, it is unlikely that fuelwood will be competitive with pulpwood. Only one-fourth of the fuelwood is purchased. The other three-fourths is cut by consumers, half of whom found it within 6 miles of their home, Stayton points out. In addition, more than three-fourths of the fuelwood comes from trees that are seldom used for pulpwood, and prices paid for large quantities of delivered fuelwood were not much higher than for pulpwood.

Removing waste wood to use as fuelwood allows more space for growing tree species needed for plywood, lumber and other important uses. The increased income to landowners is also an incentive for more effective forest management, notes Stayton.

Dec. 15 Is Deadline For State Hay Show

Texas farmers and ranchers who would like to see how their 1983 hay crop stacks up have until Dec. 15 to submit entries for the Texas State Hay Show.

The show will be held Jan. 24 at the Sheraton Crown Hotel in Houston.

"The main purpose of the annual hay show is to give producers over the state an opportunity to put up their hay against the competition and to have it evaluated for its nutritional content," points out Don J. Dorsett, forage specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. He expects about 400 hay samples to be entered in the show. Hay quality varies widely over the state in any given year due to growing conditions, the weather and other factors, notes Dorsett. 1983 has been a particularly interesting year in hay production, he points out, due to the adverse spring weather, lack of summer rains in some sections, and some late-season heavy rains in various parts of Texas.

Hay producers may submit one sample in each of seven classes in the show, says the forage specialist. Classes include coastal bermudagrass, other bermudagrasses, other perennials, mixed grasses, summer annuals, winter annuals and legumes.

Entries should be sent to Dorsett, 355 Soil and Crop Sciences Bldg., Texas A&M University, College Station

77843. County Extension agents can provide additional information on submitting hay samples.

In addition to the judging of hay samples, the annual show will include hay judging contests and special programs concerning forage by members of the Texas and American Forage and Grassland Councils. The hay show will be held in conjunction with meetings of the Councils, Jan. 23-25.

County Government Is Doing The Job

COLLEGE STATION--County government is alive and well in Texas and is doing a good job just the way it is, a professor of political science said here recently.

Addressing the first annual Tax Assessor-Collectors Seminar at Texas A&M University No. 15-17, Dr. Willard Stouffer of Southwest Texas State University pointed out some of the things that he viewed as being "right" about county government.

"First of all, county government in Texas is run by some mighty patient, hard-working people, and secondly, it works," Stouffer said. "For over 100 years, in both good times and bad, the men and women elected by the people of Texas have made county government work."

One reason that county government works as well in the 20th century as it did in the 19th century is that it adapts to changing conditions, Stouffer told the more than 125 county officials in attendance. "This is the third thing that is right about county government; it can change and does," he noted. "County government has changed through Constitutional amendments, statutes, court rulings, attorney general opinions and by the actions of county officials. In every case it has been the county officials that have brought about effective change."

"Another thing that is right about county government is that the folks who run it are professionals," Stouffer said. "They take their jobs seriously, and they are constantly looking for new ways to improve the way they do things."

County government also is flexible, he noted. There is a lot of structural variety in county governments across Texas, enabling them to address specific needs.

In addition, county government offers a wide range of services, depending on wheels, roads, hospitals, libraries, water and sewer service, and solid waste management.

"A final thing that is right about county government is that it is only beginning to realize its vast potential," Stouffer emphasized. "In the years to come the counties of Texas will play an increasingly important role in meeting the problems of statewide growth and metropolitan sprawl."

"While all these are 'right' things about county government, there is one thing that is 'wrong,'" the political science professor added. "It has to do with overcoming your inherent modesty. You have not been doing a good job in telling the people of Texas the good news about county government."

"Let your local news media know about the accomplishments of county government," he told the seminar participants. "You are performing a valuable service with such actions because many people don't believe that our system of county government works. You can help the young people of today become the leaders of tomorrow by telling all the good things about county government. Newspaper like success stories, but you've got to help them get the information."

"Let's not keep the good news of county government a secret," Stouffer challenged the officials.

The seminar was sponsored by the V.G. Young Institute of County Government, an educational program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M University System.

Mrs. Lela Huskey is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Mae Pickens and Mrs. Loretta Wall in Irving, this week. Mrs. Pickens is having surgery on Monday on her eyes.

The Eastland County Law Enforcement Association is sponsor of the event, and arrangements were made through Laverne Key of the 19th District Court here.

Jane Bingham, Director of the Rape Crisis Center in Fort Worth, and Carolyn Key Jones, Counselor for the Center, will present the program on Rape Awareness and Prevention.

A film will be shown Friday evening and Saturday morning actual training session for volunteers, law enforcement officers, medical personnel, legal personnel and any others interested in knowing more about rape prevention and awareness.

The program includes basic prevention, safety techniques, after-effects, treatment, why men rape, who is the victim, myth vs. facts, and other information. Further information may be obtained by calling Laverne Key at 629-1797.

Boys And Girls Scouts

Ask For Chest Donations

Shown above is a Boy Scout scene. The Cisco Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts provide year-round programs available to young people of all ages. In addition to providing professional staff headquartered who assist local groups, each organization maintains a permanent camp, and equipment available for activities for the young scouts throughout the area. The programs offered by each are intended to be safe, educational, and to develop character, leadership and citizenship.

Some of the funds of the 1984 Boy Scouts of America budget of $107,657 will be generated through summer camp revenue, trading post sales, and program activities (Scout-O-Rama). The remainder will be sought from participating Council communities. Cisco's projected share of the 1984 BSA budget being requested from the Community Chest is $4,500.

The Cisco share of the Girl Scout budget being requested from the Community Chest is $3,023. A great part of the Girl Scout Council total budget is derived from community chests, and cookie sales. In order to avoid having any other local fund drives, it is vital that the community support the Community Chest to help Scouting.

Other organizations helped by the Community Chest include ABC League, Cisco Little League, Cisco Child Care Center, American Red Cross, Cisco Welfare, Salvation Army, Cisco Public Library, West Texas Rehabilitation Center

Police Probing Rape Case Here

A 27-year old white woman was raped last Sunday morning by a man wearing a ski mask who threatened her with a gun. Sergeant Lonnie Knight of the Cisco Police Department reported Tuesday. The crime took place at the family home here.

The woman's husband was at work and their two children were asleep elsewhere in the house, Sgt. Knight reported. The man entered the house at 3 a.m. The woman told police he had a gun pointed at her when she woke up with him near her bed.

Some two hours after the man left, Policeman Randy Haskins received a call and began investigating the crime. The woman was examined by a doctor. She was not injured.

Sgt. Knight said the woman thought doors at their home were locked, but police found no evidence of forced entry. An investigation was continuing, he said.

In other weekend activities, police arrested one man on charges of driving while intoxicated, two for public intoxication, and one man for carrying firearms.

Country Club Luncheon Set Wednesday

The Cisco Country Club Luncheon will be held Wednesday, December 7 at noon. The price is $5.00 for members and $5.50 for non-members. Call 442-3846 for reservations.

Gas heat for penny pinching no one will suspect.

Whether you own a mansion or... well, something a little smaller, natural gas can heat your home for less. In fact, high-efficiency gas furnaces heat homes for about half the cost of non-gas types.

And they keep gentle, warm air flowing evenly. So you save money without skimping on comfort. And, just to make things even more comfortable, most come with a 20-year limited warranty on the heat exchanger.

So get more for your money and get a gas furnace for your home. Today. You'll be pinching pennies, but no one will ever notice.

Eastland Oil Co. Of Midland Began In Eastland County

The Eastland Oil Co. of Midland had its beginnings in -- you guessed it -- Eastland County.

One of the principals of the company writes to the Archives of Eastland Centennial Memorial Library as follows:

The Eastland Oil Company was organized in March, 1922 as a Delaware Corporation by A.M. Donnelly, Garrett J. Donnelly and George A. Donnelly.

A.M. Donnelly, the father of the other two, was a drilling contractor in Phoenix, New York and operated a natural gas company. Some time around 1916 the A.M. Donnelly Drilling Company moved to Tulsa, Oklahoma. At this time Garrett and George were old enough to work on the rigs. George worked around Muskogee and Okmulgee, Oklahoma. I do not know what Garrett was doing in this period.

George brought a cable tool to Eastland County the first time about 1918, then returned to the Muskogee, Oklahoma area. About 1920 George returned to the Eastland area and drilled a well a few miles south of Eastland on the Martin farm. The well was productive and Garrett moved to Eastland. A.M. Donnelly Drilling Company headquarters was moved to Fort Worth about this time along with the A.M. Donnelly family.

In 1922 the A.M. Donnelly Drilling Company was recognized as The Eastland Oil Company. The Eastland Oil Company developed the Martin Field, and drilled wells throughout the Eastland, Ranger, and Cisco Area.

One of my early memories was a frantic visit in the early hours of the morning by Oscar Yates, one of the drillers, telling George that there was a fire out on well number so and so. We all wanted to go see the fire, but George would not let us. Another fire on the Martin lease happened when the proper mixture of gas and air caused an explosion in the vacuum plant. This fire burned the plant, warehouse, garage and bunkhouse.

Some of the early employees of the Company were Oscar Yates, Ray Sindorff, Harve Bordner, Frand Halton, "Doc" McQueen, Delbert Behene, George Behene, and others, but time has erased their names.

Delbert Behene and his younger brother, George, came to Eastland County by way of Wyoming. Delbert was a cable tool driller and worked for Eastland until the middle 1930's when Eastland changed from a primary cable tool drilling company to a rotary drilling company. George Behene was a high school student when he first worked for the Company and continued to work as a tool dresser then as a Rotary driller until 1968.

Frank Halton was an Eastland County boy when he went to work for the Company as a roustabout and was another faithful employee who contributed so much to the Company. Frank became a tool dresser then a cable tool driller, tool pusher and was a tool pusher on a rotary rig when he passed away in 1967.

Harve Bordner was a cable tool driller in the early development of the Martin Field and came to Eastland from Roswell, New Mexico. He would quit working sometimes for a month or a year but would come back and say he was ready to go back to work. He would not say where he had been or when he was going again. It was always interesting speculation as to where he had been and what he had done. Harve continued to work as a cable tool driller until age took his ability to "dress bits". He then accepted a job as a pumper on a lease in Howard County, Texas.

Ray Sindorff was a cable tool driller and later became a cable tool contractor in the Permian Basin. His son is still in the cable tool contracting business. I lost track of the other men that worked for the Company in Eastland County.

The Eastland Oil Company sold its Eastland County properties in 1924 or 1925. Some of the drilling equipment was loaded on a train and shipped to Moahans, where it was used to drill the Wink, McCamey Penwell and South Ward areas.

Some of the people of other companies who worked in Eastland were the Cox family of whom Ed T., Carolyn, and Robert, who became a district manager for Atlantic Richfield, were the children. Mr. Cox was an employee of the Prairie Oil & Gas Company as was Mr. Leary, whose son John Browns ran a laundry in town. "Armie" Armstrong was a geologist for Sinclair Oil Company, who later moved to Midland, "Armie" came to Eastland from Tulsa, Oklahoma.

In 1923, there was no a Catholic school in Eastland so a Model "T" Ford Truck was converted to a school bus. The seats were a plank down each side and 2 planks down the center of the covered truck bed. This bus took the Catholic children to school in Ranger. When it rained the bus could not get up the hill east of Olden, since there was no pavement on the road at that time. The passengers would unload and push the bus up the hill.

A.M. Donnelly died in 1926 and the presidency passed to Garrett J. Donnelly who resigned in either 1929 or 1930. George A. Donnelly assumed the presidency at this time. He held that position until his death in 1977.

The Company is still family owned and operated. George's son George, Jr., is now president and his other son Richard is Vice President. Recently a fourth generation of Donnellys in the form of Robert R. Donnelly has joined the Company. I lived in Eastland until 1926 when the Company moved all of its offices to Fort Worth.

March 1, 1984

Just as you're getting into the fall/spring tillage season, John Deere announces a big dollar-saving offer on major tillage tools. Depending on the tillage tool you buy (see the chart), your dealer will deduct 5 or 10 percent from the latest base machine price. For example, the discount on an 18 1/2-foot 235 Disk would save you more than $1,100.

On any of these you can save even more by financing with John Deere. Finance charge will be waived to March 1, 1984, for qualified buyers.

Machine	Discount from Suggested Retail Price
Moldboard Plows	5 percent
Chisel Plows	10 percent
Field Cultivators	10 percent
Disks	10 percent
Mulch Tillers	10 percent
Mulch Finishers	10 percent

*Availability of John Deere financing plans subject to approval of credit. This offer may be reduced in value or withdrawn at any time.

Non-Traditional Families Build Strengths

COLLEGE STATION--This holiday season many non-traditional families -- mom and dad, children and step-children from previous marriages, and several sets of grandparents -- will gather for a "traditional" family celebration.

"Although the number of families created by divorce and re-marriage has increased dramatically in the past decade, this doesn't necessarily mean that the family as an institution is growing weaker," says Diane T. Welch, a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension home economist.

"Changes in families mean educational, community and church programs dealing with families have had to change too," says Welch. "Perhaps the most significant change is a greater concern with building family strengths in all types of families."

Family strengths are thought of as a set of factors -- relationship patterns, interpersonal skills, social and psychological characteristics, she explains. These factors create a sense of positive family identity, promote satisfying and fulfilling family interaction, encourage the development of family members' potential and help the family deal effectively with stress and crisis.

Families can actively work to develop these strengths especially at holidays, says Welch.

Because traditional family life is often idealized during the holidays, members of non-traditional families may feel badly about being "different," she says.

But non-traditional families should recognize that they are not alone, says the specialist. An increasing proportion of all marriages

Senator Bob Glasgow

State Senator Bob Glasgow has been advised of an extension to March 31, 1985, of benefits under the Federal Supplemental Compensation (FSC) program. This extension will provide additional benefits for claimants under the following guidelines:

1. Claimants who received FSC benefits prior to April 1, 1983, are not entitled to these additional benefits.

2. Those individuals who have previously qualified for FSC claims subsequent to 4-1-83 and have exhausted their benefits prior to 10-23-83 will be entitled to an additional 5 weeks of benefits up to a maximum of 13 weeks total payment under the FSC program.

3. FSC claims established prior to 10-16-83 with benefits remaining after 10-23-83 will be entitled to 2 additional weeks with total entitlement not to exceed 10 weeks.

4. Claimants who establish FSC entitlement between October 16 and 23, 1983, will be entitled to one additional week for a total of 9 weeks.

5. Claimants who qualify for FSC on or after October 23, 1983, will be entitled to the lesser of 8 weeks or 55% of their maximum benefit amount.

Senator Glasgow stated that notices would be mailed to Texas claimants who have exhausted FSC benefits as soon as possible. Additional questions may be referred to the local Texas Employment Commission office.

Some varieties of Chrysanthemums will bloom in the spring and again in the fall. The bloom for the Chrysanthemum is controlled by the amount of light. It takes twelve and one-half hours to initiate the bud and eleven and one-half hours of light to set the bud. I speak of these two time in reference to the maximum amount of light to accomplish both functions. There are many Chrysanthemums shown in the shows were grown outside and not in the greenhouses.

Throughout the South and Southwest we have many Chrysanthemum Chapters that are associated with the National Chrysanthemum Society, which welcomes visitors to their monthly meetings and shows. If your area does not have a Chrysanthemum Society Chapter and there is a minimum of ten interested people I will be most happy to help you set up a chapter and obtain your national charter. If you are interested you may contact me by writing this newspaper.

So long for now and good gardening till next time from you "Garden Editor" Ted Brice.

Texas Campers May Choose From 357 Public Camp Sites For Back To Nature Excursions

AUSTIN--From sandy beach sites fronting the Gulf of Mexico to craggy heights of the Chisos Mountains, Texas campers may choose from among 357 sites to chart back-to-nature excursions. Their options are detailed in a revised, free folder, "Texas Public Campgrounds," just released by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

The folder is strictly informational (no pictures), but is replete with details about where to pitch a tent by a dinosaur trail, park an RV by an 18th Century Spanish mission, or bed down in an Indian campground.

Listed information includes precise directions from the nearest town, facilities available, and recreational activities that may range from hiking and biking to fishing, swimming, boating, golf or nature study.

The folder's 357 campgrounds are those administered by federal, state, or local governmental authorities. The state's "public" campgrounds directory is designed to supplement other available guides that list commercial campgrounds.

A free copy of the new Texas Public Campgrounds folder is available at any Texas Bureau, or by mail from P.O. Box 5064, Austin 78763.

All proceeds will go to the annual Toys for Tots Christmas project.

Bro. Jim Andrews of the Kokomo Baptist Church has been called as pastor of Ranger Eastside Baptist Church. Bro. Jerry Speer, previous pastor, will become semi-retired and he and his family will continue to live in Ranger. Bro. Andrews, his wife Brenda and two sons live in Eastland. Prior to Andrews pastorate at the Kokomo he was Youth Director at the First Baptist Church in Eastland or two years.

The Ranger Volunteer Department Ladies Auxilliary will be having a gigantic garage and bake sale Dec. 9 and 10 at 601 W. Main. There will be lots of clothing, all sizes, knick-knacks, toys and plenty of homemade cakes, cookies and pies. Donations for the sale would be appreciated. They may be brought to 601 W. Main or to the Fire Station. Proceeds will go into the Auxilliary Fund to help the Fire Department's Annual Christmas project.

RISEING STAR

Rising Star Nursing Center has a new Administrator, Russell Gray. He recently moved to Rising Star from Clyde, where he served as Administrator for the Clyde Nursing Center for the past four years. A native of Eastland, Gray received his training at two nursing homes there, Valley View and Eastland Manor. Following his training, he worked as an Administrator in Baird for three years. Gray plans to feature the Center residents in newspaper profiles.

Five Hurt In Auto Mishap

Five persons suffered minor cuts and bruises and a Plymouth Duster automobile was demolished in a one-car accident a half mile west of Cisco on I-20 early Tuesday morning. The injured persons were given emergency treatment at E.L. Graham Memorial Hospital.

Darrell Staff was driving the car and the passengers included Mrs. Doris Matt and her three children, James Lindsey, LaConda Lind and Donna. They were en route from Kentucky to Modesto, Calif.

A Ted and Rex wrecker picked up the demolished car. Authorities said that a front tire blew out and the driver lost control. The car overturned.

A dog that belonged to the family was taken to the local veterinary clinic for emergency treatment. The family was dismissed from the hospital after treatment.

A GROUP of the CJC Madrigal Singers rehearse for the 10th annual Madrigal Dinner, which will be Friday and Saturday, December 8-9, at the Roof Garden Theatre atop the Laguna Hotel in Cisco at 7 p.m. Standing (l-r) are John Crone, Delbert McNeill, Terrance Copling and Stanley Swann. Director Wyley Peebles is seated with Hector Ibarra, Sarah Rice, Beverly Jones and Terry Walker. Reservations for either evening may be made by calling (817) 442-2567.

Gun Club Will Meet Monday

The gun club will meet Monday, December 5, at 7:00 p.m. at the Range Club House.

Putnam News

By Mrs. R.B. Taylor

Well, Thanksgiving is past history. I truly hope it was a real Thanksgiving to all our readers. We indeed have much to be thankful for. Now Christmas is just around the corner! Where has 1983 gone? It seems only yesterday that I was trimming the Christmas tree and hanging the stockings on the mantle!

This writer had a very happy Thanksgiving Day. I went with Homer and Carolyn to have dinner with her parents the Arlin Bints, near Cisco. All the Bint family except the youngest daughter, Mrs. Shirley Miller and her family of Houston were there, including the Jim Webb family, the Janice Fry family, the Gerald Bint family and the Homer Taylors, also Mr. and Mrs. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fry and your truly.

The Milton Donaways also had most of their family home. Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Donaway of Odessa, Warren and family of Brownwood, L.C. and family of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Babe Donaway of Odessa, Miss Kelly Donaway and friend Joe Egger of Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Red Stovall of Odessa, and Mrs. Nettie Speegle of Putnam.

Mrs. Speegle went home with the Hubert Donaways. Her son, Billy Speegle of Ft. Stockton will meet her there and she will go home with him to spend the winter. We will miss you Mrs. Speegle.

Mr. Ray Green had Thanksgiving dinner at his home for his parents Mr. and Mrs. I.G. Mobley of Baird and his sons Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Green of Clyde and Ronald Green.

The Ray Maxwell family had Thanksgiving dinner with his sister Dale at Cisco. Buddie Waddell of Abilene spent the Holiday with his parents the Clinton Waddells.

Mrs. Ollie Burnam is still recuperating from eye surgery at the home of her daughter, the James Isenhower family at Coleman. Ollie and Gayle went to Ft. Worth to visit with the Bill Browns for the holiday.

Helping their parents celebrate were the children of the John D. Isenhowers. Mr. and Mrs. David Isenhower, James Isenhower of Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Butch Petty of Eastland and Mrs. Mary King of Putnam.

Visiting the George Weeks were their sons. Mr. and Mrs. G.W. of Brownwood, Mr. and Mrs. R.D. of Eastland and a grandson, Dale Weeks of Cisco. Mr. Weeks celebrated his 90th birthday last week.

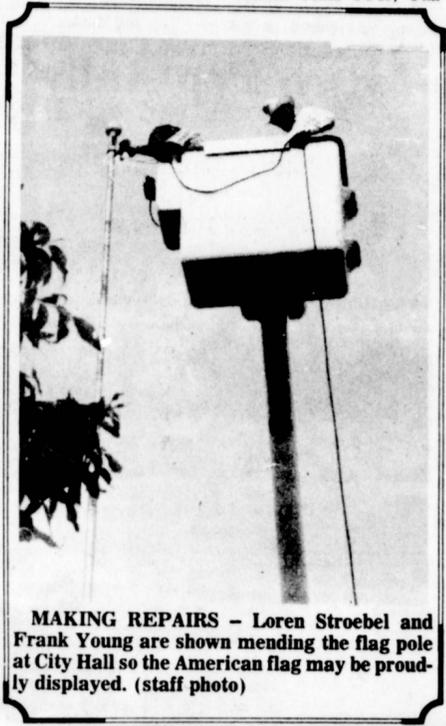

About 20 young people from the Mitchell Baptist Church enjoyed playing at the Putnam Park last week. The park is an asset to Putnam and is sponsored by Mr. Milton Donaway. The young people really enjoyed playing there.

Lady Wranglers Defeat Amarillo

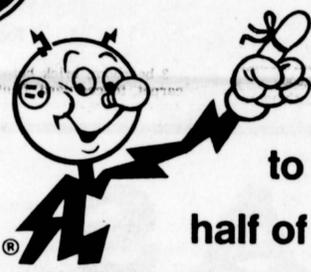

The Lady Wranglers won one and lost one for a good outing in the Western Texas Classic at Snyder last weekend. They were due to return to Snyder to play Western in a game Tuesday night.

In the Friday first game, Cisco lost to favored Howard County JC by a score of 83-to-77. Barbara Williams of the Wranglers had 29 points as high for the game. She also had 19 rebounds. Nina Barber had 13 points and six assists.

In the Saturday contest, the score was 54-to-54 at the end of the regulation game.

In the overtime period, Cisco out-scored Amarillo JC, winner of 5th place in the national junior college tournament last year, and won by a score of 67-to-63.

Coach Ronnie Hearne's Lady Wrangler's were led in scoring by Nina Barber with 26 points. Linda Bubert, six feet and one inch, had 14 points and played only about half of the game. She suffered a leg injury during the summer and appeared in the lineup only for the second time this season. Nancy Butler had 13 rebounds and Esther Mendez had 12 assists.

The Making Of Champions: 1983 Loboes

It all started in 1978 when this year's seniors were in the seventh grade. That year we were in the district that included Comanche, Coleman, Brady, Breckenridge, Clyde, and Eastland. The 1978 seventh grade team was truly a bunch of "Midgets" compared to every team they played. Only eighteen boys were on that team. They were outweighed and outmanned in every game that year. They didn't win a game that year, but they did tie Eastland. Coach Clyde Ewalt was the head coach of the Loboes. He was also the head coach of the seventh grade team. They played every game tough and learned sized didn't make that much difference. It was from this lowly beginning the ore was extracted for the 1983 Loboes.

In 1979, the 1983 seniors were in the eighth grade. The new head coach of the Loboes was Rick Calhoun. The eighth coach was Danny Kent. We were still in the same district. This year the games were closer, but the eighth grade only won one game. They beat Eastland.

These boys had formed a bond of closeness that would never be broken. The ore was milled in 1979.

In 1980 these boys were now freshmen and on the J.V. team. Ron Mouser and Tom Slagle were the J.V. coaches and they were both new to Cisco. Cisco was also in a new district with Early, Bangs, San Saba, DeLeon, Dublin, Ranger, and Eastland. The J.V. team of 1980 had the best record in district. They had learned how to win. The bond between these boys grew stronger.

In 1981, the now young men saw another change in head coach. Jim Puryer had returned to coach one more time. For the first time the team was split. Some were playing J.V. and some were in back up rolls for the varsity. The 1981 Loboes had a good season winding up in a three way tie for the district championship. But the super talented 1981 Loboes wound up disappointed when they lost out on the flip of a coin.

Eastland advanced into the play-offs. Even though the young men were split between Varsity and J.V. the bond between them remained intact.

In 1982 these young men were now Juniors in high school. Some were still on the J.V. team. The rest were on the Varsity. We were in another new district. Now we played Winters, Jim Ned, Hawley, Anson, Albany, Baird, and Eastland. This was the first year the first and second place district teams advanced into the play-offs. Cisco was picked as a pre-season favorite to come in second. Although the team was talented they lost the second place spot in the play-offs to Winters. Even though they had had another winning season they were disappointed.

It was after the 1982 season that the first glimmer of things to come happened. Jim Puryer had announced his retirement as head coach. Rumors were prevalent throughout the school as to who the new head coach would be. How it happened wasn't formal. It was more like a rap session. Just a bunch of young men talking together. Most of them were Juniors, but not all of them. It was then they decided they would be a contender regardless of who the new head coach would be. They knew they weren't as talented as some of the previous teams, but they dedicated themselves to each other knowing that working hard together would help them overcome their lack of talent and size. The die was cast for the 1983 Loboes.

In August of 1983 the Loboes met with their new head coach, John Parchman, officially for the very first time. Not only was he new, but his entire staff was new. None of them knew what to expect. By the end of the two-a-day practices and the two scrimmage games the 1983 Loboes consisted of twenty-two young men. All who had made the commitment to each other were on that team. By then they knew that their new coaches had the same howls they had. The bond between them was expanded to include their new coaches.

At the De Leon game the public saw for the first time the unveiling of the 1983 Loboes. They were just out of their cast and they still had some rough edges to grind off. They beat DeLeon who were superior in size and talent. In the next three games the rough edges were ground off, but not without some nicks being put into the finished product. The Loboes lost two of those games and they lost David Seabourn for the season.

After David was lost these young men rededicated themselves to fill in the gap that David had left. It was the Albany game that proved the difference. In a gutsy call near the end of the game the Loboes went for a two point conversion and a win. They made it. The Albany game tempered their metal to a fine hardness.

The rest of the season was spent polishing the Loboes into their final product. At the end of the season the surprising Loboes owned an eight and two record that put them into the play-offs for the first time in ten years. They went in as the number two team in the district. Another nick plagued the Loboes when they lost Glenn Starr in their last regular season game.

In the first play-off game against San Saba the true quality of the Loboes emerged. Two young men in team jerseys stood with the aid of crutches beside the bench of their teammates. All through the game they shouted their encouragement to their teammates who were playing. Both would have given anything to be able to play. Both shared the joy of their teammates as they celebrated their team's victory after the game, but not without tears. Tears flowed freely from their faces. They weren't forgotten because the team shared their sorrow. One of the Loboes put his arms around Glenn, his voice was cracking with emotion as he shared Glenn's grief, "You're still part of this team. You helped us get here." The Loboes gave the game ball to Glenn. The Loboes may be small in size, but they stand ten feet tall. They are champions.

The final chapter is yet to be written. Already they have faced Archer City and Frisco. The two wins won them the right to be one of the final eight teams left. This Friday night at 7:30 in Stephenville they will face Boyd in the quarterfinal play-offs. Even though Boyd is the number two ranked team in the State, the Loboes know they can win with hard work and teamwork. Come support the Loboes this Friday- They are Champions!

Just one of the many proud Lobo fathers,
Bill Manire

Conditions Good But Hunting Slow

Warm weather and abundant forage across much of Texas' deer range may have caused a slightly lower harvest during the first week of the deer hunting season, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials.

The deer season is Nov. 12, 1983, to Jan. 1, 1984, in most Texas counties.

Horace Gore, white-tailed deer program leader, said the deer apparently were moving very little and generally did not respond well to feeders because of good acorn crops and other available forage.

"These conditions are good for the deer, and the reports I get indicate that body weights and antler development are good this year," Gore said. "However, when the deer don't have to move around to find food it definitely makes hunting tougher."

These good forage conditions are fairly widespread, Gore noted, except in drought areas of the western Edwards Plateau.

Gore pointed out that the better hunting may occur later in the season, when colder weather, the rutting season and shorter food supplies may force the deer to move around more during daylight hours.

"In view of the conditions, I think this is an excellent season to harvest antlerless deer for the freezer," Gore said. "We still have a problem of deer overpopulation in many areas, and the herds may be heading for a die-off when the next dry spell arrives. Hunters should take advantage of the antlerless deer permits to which they are entitled, because the deer are in good shape and the herd needs to be reduced."

Christmas Contributions Sought For Foster Kids

Christmas for Foster Children will be made possible by caring citizens again this year.

The Eastland County Welfare Board in a regular meeting this week voted to seek public donations to buy holiday gifts for Eastland County children in foster home.

Tax-deductible contributions will be mailed to Alice Pritchard, Department of Human Resources, Post Office Box 876, Eastland, TX 76448. Details and/or further information may be secured by talking with her or Patricia Mahan at the DHR office, 629-1713.

Organizations and individuals throughout the county are being asked to assist, for Christmas gifts for Eastland County youths who are in foster homes.

There is a constant shortage of available foster homes here and a number of the local children are in homes outside this county.

Art Dinner Sat.

The Eastland County Art Association Christmas salad dinner will be 6:00 p.m. Saturday Dec. 3 at Texas Electric Reddy Room. All members are to bring small a small gift and door prizes will be given.

Rape Prevention Program To Be Dec. 9, 10 In Eastland

A program on Rape Awareness and Prevention will be held Friday and Saturday, Dec. 9 and 10, in the Eastland High school Cafeteria. Conducting the seminar will be Jane Bingham, Director of the Fort Worth Rape Crisis Center, and Carolyn Key Jones, counselor of the center.

The Friday session will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will last approximately 90 minutes. A rape awareness and prevention film will be shown.

The Saturday session will begin at 9 a.m. and will end at noon. Mrs. Bingham and Mrs. Jones will present a training session for volunteers, law enforcement, medical personnel, and legal personnel and any others interested in rape prevention and awareness.

The program includes basic prevention, safety techniques, after effect, and myth vs. facts.

The public is urged to attend these important sessions. Further information may be obtained by calling Laverne Key in the 91st District Court at 629-1797.

Countians Attend Family Reunion

A reunion of the descendants of the B.L. and Susan Autry family, who lived N.W. of Colorado City, Texas, was held during the Thanksgiving Holidays at the Prude Ranch near Ft. Davis, Texas.

Several persons from Eastland County attended the event: Angline (Autry)

Stovall and Howard Stovall of Cisco, Viola (Autry) Payne of Cisco, and Marvin Payne of Cisco. Another family member attending from this area was Linda Autry of Brownwood.

Joining the group at the Guest Ranch were J.B. and Wanda Autry from Mitchell County, Lance and Sherry Autry of Scurry County, and Katherine (Autry) Talbot and Charles Talbot from El Paso. Scott Talbot also came from El Paso. A Talbot daughter, Marci, came from Little Rock, Ark.

Relatives attending from New Mexico were Tommy Talbot, Anthony, N.M., Joni and Karen Jones from Las Cruces, Glenn and Jackie Grisson, Las Cruces, Toby Jones from Albuquerque, N.M., Capt. (U.S.N. Ret.) Mottoret and Rowena (Autry) Mottoret of Silver City, N.M. and Alan Mottoret of Silver City.

Traveling the farthest were B.J. and Frances (Autry) Jones of Soldatna, Alaska, and Kyle Jones of Anchorage, Alaska.

Time at the reunion was spent in visiting, hiking, viewing slides, and playing music. There was good weather until everyone started home - then a snowstorm hit the Davis Mountains. But all agreed there is nothing like getting together with your family again!

GO, LOBOES, GO...

That's the cry from throughout Eastland County as the Cisco High School Lobo Football team advances in post-season Double AA football playoffs.

At this writing excitement runs high in Cisco and spills over to the neighbors. All of the team members, coaches, band members, cheerleaders, pep squad and entire student body can take pride in the fact that your supporters and fans are behind you all the way: win, lose or draw.

The staff and management of Eastland County Newspapers are among your strong supporters and we all join in wishing you the best. We believe that you are made of the metal that will take you "all the way."

Be assured that we are proud of you!

Cisco has a rich heritage - and you are a part of it.

Sisters Honored On Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving was double cousins day at the home of Roy and Venita Smith, Yellow Mound Road, Eastland. The children of Ella Carlisle and Samuel A. Davis Jr. and Cleo Carlisle and the late Thomas E. Davis honored their mothers at a Thanksgiving Day reunion. Ella and Cleo are daughters of the late Joseph and Zora Myrtle Carlisle of Bedford. The Davis brothers are the sons of the late Samuel A. and Laurah P. Davis of Regan Valley.

The Davis mothers were presented with two twenty-six inch plum and burgandy wreaths decorated with silk flowers and a miniature china baby doll created by CANDY CRAFTS of Gastonia, North Carolina. Matching corsages were also presented.

Ella, the spokesman for the sisters stated, "An old fashioned TEXAS THANKSGIVING is always a joyous time sharing the good and important things - life, fellowship, children, food, stories and the rekindling of family ties. There have been some bleak days, bare moments and hard times in our seventy odd years. But, we did what we had to do to grant our children the opportunity for a better and easier life than we had. The LORD has truly blessed and rewarded us richly with HIS love and our sixty-four children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. With this winning combination what more does a mother need."

The Microplex Photo Club will hold its December meeting in the Texas Electric Reddy Room on Sunday, December 11, 1983, at 3 p.m.

An interesting and informative program on "Multiple Exposure" will be given by Carl Boustead and a Christmas party will follow.

All members and interested persons are invited to attend.

For more information, phone Ron Mouser at 442-3775 or Neal Raney at 629-2798.

Is This A Lost Dog?

Willis and Vallie Parker have grown accustomed to dogs (and cats) coming to their home south of Cisco.

But the young dog which appeared on the farm on Sat. Nov. 27 is such a beautiful and affectionate animal that they think she may have become lost from her owner during the Thanksgiving travels.

The Parkers may be reached at Ph. 442-2681.

Bass Club Report

"Awards Presentation Planned"

Once a year, we the members of the Eastland County Bass Club come together, to recognize the accomplishments of our members, as well as the achievements of our organization as a whole. 1983 has been one of new heights for us all. We won't thank everyone who has helped us this year not only as a Club, but also as an environmental active organization. Our ceremonies will begin at 8:00 p.m. We hope all members will plan to attend. 1983's Angler of the year will be announced during our awards ceremonies as well as other special recognition's and awards.

The dog is female, medium sized and solid brown, except for a tiny white spot on her forehead and two white toes on each foot. She is wearing a dark brown collar, but has no tags. She appears to be a good breed - a Begal or something similar.

Willis was out working with a neighbor on a combine Saturday Vallie reports, when the man said: "You have a dog". The animal looked in good shape, but was cold and want out of the wind.

"The dog is carefully trained," Vallie says, "And so polite that she lies down when you pet her. She is actually the nicest I have seen."

"She seems to prefer Willis' company to mine, and follows him around. Then sometimes she goes to the mailbox and stands and waits, as if she thinks someone will pick her up."

"We want to keep her, and certainly will if she is unclaimed."

The Parkers, as one might gather, love animals. They can't understand anyone dumping a dog like this latest. Perhaps some owner will reply to their plea.

But if no one shows up to claim the animal there is one thing certain - this dog has hit upon one of the best homes around!

AS FAR AS we know, the Cisco High School Loboes of 1983 have gone further in the state football playoffs than any other team. Back in the days of the Big Dam Loboes there was no Interscholastic League program as we have today and teams of large and small schools of a region played each other.

In the late 1950's, the Loboes won district twice but lost to Stamford both years in a bi-district game. In the 1970's, Coach Jim Puryear and a CHS team won district but lost to Bowie in the bi-district playoff.

The Loboes of 1983 will go into the quarter finals this week as they meet Boyd at Stephenville at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

AT AZLE Friday night, both sides of the stadium were full with crowds from Frisco and Cisco. There were a good many former Ciscoans at the game. Sitting in front of us were Mike Morris, an ex-Lobo who now is a prof at Tarrant County Junior College in Fort Worth, and his wife, an ex-Lobo Band Drum Major, the former Kay Wallace.

Sitting directly in front of us were Mr. and Mrs. John Goforth and two children of Holiday. Mrs. JG is Lobo Coach John Parchman's little sister. They had visited relatives who lived in Frisco and planned to join them at Graham after the game to visit other relatives.

AFTER THE final whistle and the 7-to-6 win was nailed down, Loboes players grabbed Coach Jim Parchman, hoisted him to their shoulders and proudly carried him off the field... The Azle CofC provided a handsome trophy for the regional champs and it was presented to the Loboes by the president of the organization... All Cisco is proud of the Loboes and their fine staff - Coach Parchman, Doyle Walker, Rick Land, Galen Kaemingk, Rusty McLeskey and Ron Mouser.

Cheer Leaders Margaret Yeager, Tami Elton, Lynn Pittman, Paula Potter, Dana Carlile and Kim Batteas were very much on the job.

EX-LOBO Cam Webb, Cisco business man, got a big hand for the second week in a row with a fine cheer leading job. Twice, he left his seat in the stands and went out front. He had a commode seat with a lid. When he raised the lid, you could see "RAH" in big letters.

As Cam raised the lid, folks yelled "RAH!" After doing this several times with the yells getting progressively louder, Cam concluded his act by taking Lobo Mascot Sampty Sipe in wolf costume on his shoulder for a parade in front of the Cisco fans. Everybody loved it.

AS USUAL, THE Lobo Band did a fine job. They almost didn't have time to appear at half-time as the Frisco band stayed and stayed and stayed. We'd say the Lobo band won the half-time battle of bands... Weekend visitors in Cisco were Mr. and Mrs. James Starr and daughter Ethel and her two children of Houston and their daughter Rose and family. Saw Rose at the football game... One of the best Lobo fans is Jim Puryear, last year's coach who resigned after a 7-3 season.

VISITING IN Cisco for a week or so is Donnie Carr, son of the Bill Carrs. Donnie, 21, suffered two broken legs a couple of years ago in an oil drilling rig accident out in New Mexico. After treatment in a Hobbs hospital, he was taken to Denver where he is still a hospital patient. His broken bones were slow to heal and a few months ago he fell and re-fractured one leg.

Understand Donnie will be in a wheel chair for a few months before they let him try crutches. He's due to return to Denver Dec. 4, we were told.

COME A GOOD suggestion. Let the restoration of the Girl Scout House be the CofC's next Christmas in May project... Our face is still red. We used the wrong last name in reporting that the Robert Millers of Plainview were here to visit her parents, the Ed Brad-shaws... Ken and Kathy Kirk of Big D spent the weekend here with his parents, the Truman Kirks. Ken works in the media department for the Southern Baptist Convention.

THE CONGREGATION of the First Baptist Church sang "happy birthday" to Miss Mayme Estes, retired CJC librarian, last Sunday morning... An article in Sunday's Abilene newspaper told about Bob Latson, who grew up in Cisco, being selected to play the part of Scrooge in an upcoming dramatic production at McMurry College's theater. Bob's first acting part came at age 12 when he was a student here. He has been appearing in Abilene community theater productions for several years. Bob and wife Ruby were popular and good citizens of our town before moving to Cross Plains and, later, to Abilene where he works for an oil company.

THE FACT THAT an area of Cisco doesn't have good water pressure is very regrettable, particularly in cases of fire such as happened a couple of weeks ago. And there wasn't anything wrong with the Abilene newspaper running a story about it all.

But how can a regional newspaper that serves a dozen or more counties justify devoting some 20 percent of its front page (such as on Nov. 26) to such a story?

MEMBERS OF First United Church have purchased 35 poinsettias for use in decorating the auditorium during the Christmas season... Never ask a Texan where he was born, we were told. "If he's not a native, you'll embarrass him," our informant said.

THURSDAY, Dec. 1, 1983, was wedding day number one for Mabel and J.C. Fletcher of 809 West 6th Street. And they had planned to have their 50th wedding anniversary party this coming Sunday but it has been postponed until her health problems are cleared up.

Plans call for Mrs. JCF to return to Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene on Dec. 1st for medical tests and possible treatment. She spent several weeks there recently and has been slowly recovering.

You'll want to join us in wishing for the Fletchers many more good years as their 50th anniversary is observed quietly this week. We'll all look forward to the belated party in the not too distant future.

HOME AFTER A few days in St. Louis, Mo., are the Winston Heidenheimers. They went there to attend a wedding reception for Mrs. WH's niece. Their trip home was delayed a few hours by wintery weather in the St. Louis country... And old Santa Claus will be in Cisco at 10 a.m. Saturday. That's what he told us when we ran into him last Friday in Fort Worth. We went there en route to Azle to attend the football game. Cisco's annual Christmas parade is set for this Saturday. See you there.

CofC Will Have Treasure Hunt Tickets Nov. 30

Ave.—one year subscription to the Cisco Digest.

This Treasure Hunt will be like those that have been enjoyed in the past in Cisco. Free numbered tickets can be picked up at the Chamber of Commerce office beginning Wednesday, Nov. 30. There will be one ticket given to each member of a household. Numbers will be chosen on December 8 to correspond with prizes being offered. To find out if you hold a winning ticket, you must go to each business that lists a prize, and look for a card displaying their winning numbers. If your ticket number appears on the display card in the business then you win that prize. Tickets can be picked up at the Chamber office from 9:00 to 12:00 and 1:00 to 5:00 up until 5:00 p.m. Wednesday, December 7.

Everyone is invited to join in the fun by participating in the Treasure Hunt.

C&W Musical

Planned Dec. 8

At Scranton

There will be a Country and Western Musical at Scranton Community Center Saturday, December 3, beginning at 7:00.

Everyone is invited, especially area musicians. There will be a concession stand.
