City Council Approves Street Grading Proposal

The Cisco City Council approved a contract with United Energex, Inc., for the grading of Cisco's dirt streets adopted a resolution for street paving policies, and approved a couple of other resolutions in Tuesday night's semi-monthly regular meeting.

The minutes of the May 1st and May 8th meetings were read and approved by the council members, along with the financial report for April.

City Manager Mike Moore gave his manager's report to the council, bringing them up-to-date on the plans for the City Park swimming pool to open Saturday and also about the swimming classes which are filled. Also in his report, he said the water filtration system installation at the Lake Cisco park is coming along nicely, but the filter for the system is being held up in Indianapolis, Indiana, because of a union strike.

Mr. Moore said the bottom two inlets of the water supply at the dam have recently been inspected, with the finding of the bottom valve inlet being completely covered with silt and un-useable. He also said the water depth was measured at 39 1/2 feet to the bottom of the lake beside the dam.

In old business, the council opened sealed bids for surplus city property and awarded the bids to the highest bidder for each item, except the 1972 Ford pickup. There were two bids on the Ford pickup, with neither bid being considered adequate.

The 1978 Dodge police car was sold to Reggie Pittman for $150, with his bid being the only one on that particular item.

The 3/4 ton chassis and cab of a 1968 Chevrolet was awarded to G.N. Creech of Cisco for $150, with it being the only bid. The Caterpillar Track Loader was sold to Abilene Tractor Parts for $1,100 and the Allis-Chalmers road grader was sold Johnson Motors of Cisco for $2,369.

After hearing a report from financial consultant Joe Smith, the Council voted to accept a proposal with First National Bank of Cisco for the purchase of Certificates of Obligation in the amount of $100,000. The Council also agreed to publish a notice of the intention to issue the Certificates, which may be found elsewhere in this edition of the Press.

The Council approved a resolution to adopt a street paving policy and procedure for the City of Cisco. After approving the resolution, it was announced that West 17th Street will be paved by a contractor this year, since it is a heavily used road. There are three churches located along the street and a fourth church located near where the street connects to the I-20 access.

Mayor Eris Ritchie and City Manager Moore stressed there will be some paving done on the east side of town and in other areas on the west side, which will be done by city crews and city equipment. Some of the main areas to be concentrated on will be around the schools.

City Manager Mike Moore recommended to the Council to accept a contract with United-Energex, Inc., for the grading of city streets. He said he feels it will be a good experiment. The Council members voted unanimously to accept the contract which calls for a term of six months, with United Energex agreeing to grade and maintain streets as directed by City. United Energex also will be a good experiment. The Council members voted unanimously to accept the contract which calls for a term of six months, with United Energex agreeing to grade and maintain streets as directed by City. United Energex also will furnish the equipment needed and shall provide the maintenance.

The second public hearing on a community development block grant was held and the council approved a resolution authorizing the filing of an application with the Texas Department of Community Affairs (TDCA) for an Economic Development Program Grant, and authorizing the City Manager to sign the application and program documents.

A second public hearing on an Economic development block grant application was also held and the Council approved a resolution authorizing the filing of an application with the Texas Department of Community Affairs (TDCA) for an Economic Development Program Grant, and authorizing the City Manager to sign the application and program documents.

The Council approved a request by property owners, Johnnie Hargrave and Joe Ingram, to vacate Hickory Street between East 13th Street and East 14th Street. City Manager Moore informed the Council that Hickory Street dead-ends at East 14th

Street, and the two men named are the only property owners in that particular section.

The Mayor and Council then discussed the Municipal Water Supply at Lake Cisco, with City Manager Moore making three requests of the Council. Mayor Ritchie stated that water is in a very critical situation, not just in Cisco, but throughout the state. He said the problem will only increase with large demands on water this summer.

City Manager Moore said he feels that a strong conservation by the public will help the city to not have any problems with water this year, but he stressed there is no water to waste. To help consumers know how to conserve on water, a brochure is being mailed with the June water bills and Mr. Moore said he strongly encourages everyone to read the brochure and put it into practice.

Mr. Moore's requests of the Council included: the writing of a letter to be published in the newspaper urging citizens to conserve water and cut out all unnecessary outside watering. Second, he requested the Council establish a priority to look into long-range water sources for the City of Cisco, should the water supply continue to drop. Mr. Moore said Lake Cisco has not caught any water in almost three years.

The third request of the Council was for the authorization of City Manager Moore to have a water attorney to review the city's water rights with the Texas Department of Water Resources. The city has been informed that it only has the right to divert 1,326 acre-feet of water per year for municipal purposes. The City will be seeking a rehearing to reinstate the original authorization of 45,000 acre-feet. Council members approved Mr. Moore's request.

Council members present were: Mayor Ritchie, Bobby Ingram, Joe Besselaar, Roy Dennis, Brad Kimbrough, and Linton Batteas. Bobby Rains was absent.

THE WATER LEVEL at Lake Cisco dam has dropped considerably over the past several years, as may be evidenced in the above photographs. The top photo was taken sometime in the 60s and shows the level of the lake almost even with the top of the spillway. The bottom photo was taken on May 20th of this year and shows that there is quite a difference in the water level. In Tuesday night's City Council meeting, City Manager Mike Moore said a recent measurement of the water level at the dam, showed 39 1/2 feet of water. Local water consumers are being asked to conserve water for the coming summer months. (staff photo)

City Hall Will

Close Monday

City Hall will be closed Monday, May 28 for Memorial Day. There will be no trash pick-up on Monday, but the landfill will be open.

CofC Offices

Will Close For

Memorial Day

The Cisco Chamber of Commerce and the telephone collection service will be closed on Monday, May 28 for Memorial Day.

Holiday Flags Being Shown By Evening Lions

The members of Cisco Evening Lions Club will be providing American Flag service beginning Monday May 28th, Memorial Day. Thus far, over twenty local businesses have signed up to receive the service. Lions Club members will display "Old Glory" in front of the businesses on six national holidays and will also remove the flags before sunset. The E.L.C. also maintains the flags and poles, replacing or cleaning when necessary. The cost of the service is fifteen dollars per year.

Local businesses who have not been contacted can still receive this service by calling Clyde Sublett (442-3413), Cisco Evening Lions Club incoming president. The Cisco Evening Lions Club would like to encourage everyone to show their love for our country by flying the flag on Memorial Day.

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERBELL HALLMARK

A BUSY weekend was found in Cisco this weekend, with local merchants holding a sidewalk sale and a flea market being held at the Cisco Steakhouse and Inn parking lot.

A "Little Miss Cisco" pageant was also held in Cisco on Saturday.

LOCAL SENIORS graduated from Cisco High School in Friday night commencement exercises... Local public schools dismissed for the year at 2:30 p.m.

A RING, apparently expensive, was found on Tuesday in Mott's Variety Store. It may be claimed by contacting Ed Clark at Mott's.

WITH THE local water conditions as they are, the Post Office has taken steps to do their share in water conservation, according to Bobby Ingram. Mr. Ingram works for the Post Office and said they have been instructed to only water the shrubs outside the building, not the grass.

Let's all follow their lead and do our part to conserve water, until we receive a good, steady rain which will add several feet to Lake Cisco.

SPEAKING OF rain. Wednesday morning Cisco received a really good rain in the downtown area. Reports in other parts of town, north and west of town, reported less or no rain.

Let's all thank God for the rain and continue to pray for more of the same.

THE E.L. Jacksons of Cisco were the happy folks you may have seen having lunch in a restaurant Thursday. They were observing that day 62 years ago when they said their "I do's" over in eastern Oklahoma where she was a young school teacher and he was the handsome young man who looked after the electric company... The post office flag was at half mast Friday in honor of the return of the last Vietnam war veteran... And Mr. J.W. Sitton says you can't imagine how glad he is to be back home in Cisco.

Places Available For CJC's NY Trip

Brochures describing details of the Cisco Junior College sponsored tour to New York City scheduled for Thanksgiving of this year are now available to the general public, according to an announcement by college officials. The tour will accompany the CJC Band and Wrangler Belles to an unprecedented fifth appearance in the famous nationally-telecast Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.

The brochures may be picked up at the Cisco Junior College Fine Arts Building from Charlotte Speegle at 442-2567. They also are available at the Cisco Chamber of Commerce office, the First National Bank, and at the Southwest Enterprises offices, and the Cisco Press.

Cisco Mayor Eris Ritchie is coordinating and directing the tour. Mr. Ritchie has conducted the four previous New York trips for CJC, as well as two to Washington, D.C. Tim Jones, CJC Band Director, is in charge of taking applications and receiving monies.

Approximately 200 places are available on the tour for the general public, although some of these have already been reserved. Mr. Ritchie stated, A reservation may be assured by making a deposit of $100.00 per person with Mr. Jones or Mrs. Speegle at CJC. The deposit is refundable up to 30 days prior to the tour.

A package price of $525 per person has been set for the four-day, three night tour to the "Big Apple". The price is based on double occupancy in the hotel, Ritchie pointed out. Included in the price will be air transportation on American Airlines from D/FW Airport, all necessary ground transportation from Cisco to D/FW as well as in New York, three nights in a mid-Manhattan hotel, and several entertainment sight-seeing features. Among these will be a tour of the world's largest theater, the Radio City Music Hall, a Gray Line sight seeing tour of Lower Manhattan, a ferry boat ride to Liberty Island and the statue of Liberty, a guided tour of the United Nations Headquarters, a full-course Thanksgiving dinner with musical entertainment, a multi-media presentation, "The New York Experience," admission to the observation deck of the Empire State Building, and one of world's best-known and most spectacular productions, the Christmas show at the Radio City Music Hall. Also included will be walking tours of Rockefeller Center, St. Patrick's Cathedral, and Times Square, and of course all participants will be on hand in person for the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. Mayor Ritchie also pointed out that the tour members will have at least one, and probably more, rides on a New York subway, which he described as "quite an experience if you've never done it before!"

A special option for tour participants will be the opportunity to attend a hit Broadway musical, "My One and Only," starring Tommy Tune and Twigg. "This show is one of the really popular ones in New York at this time," Ritchie said, "and we have a block of tickets reserved for tour participants." Tour members would pay for their own tickets should they wish to attend the show, he said. All of the CJC band and drill team members will be going to the show, and the tickets that are reserved are for the same performance the student group will attend, Tuesday evening, November 20. Mr. Ritchie pointed out that only a limited number of extra tickets have been reserved for the show, and they will be available to tour participants strictly on a "first-come, first-serve" basis.

With the $525 per person price based on double occupancy in the hotel, other

1600 Bliss, home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles M. Cleveland, has been chosen as Yard of the Week by the Cisco Garden Club. The club, in cooperation with The Cisco Press, will focus on a pretty yard each week to be featured. Due to the water shortage, a green lawn is not a must for the award. Any suggestions would always be helpful and may be made by calling 442-2134 or 442-3511. (staff photo)

Good nutrition and good health go hand in hand. Recommended foods provide nutrients that are essential to the proper functioning of the body. There are six major classes of nutrients - carbohydrates, fats, proteins, vitamins, minerals, and water. Too much of any of these nutrients can throw the normal functions into a turmoil, just as will too few of any of these nutrients. Nutrients perform the following body functions:

(1) provide fuel that is converted into energy (2) provide materials for building up the soft tissues and skeletal structure and maintains these areas (3) provide materials necessary to regulate normal body processes.

Check yourself to see if you are achieving good nutrition through an adequate diet. Do you:

- Have one or two glasses of milk every day?
- Eat two servings of meat, fish or poultry daily?
- Limit eggs to two a week?
- Have citrus fruit or juice daily?
- Eat a dark green or deep yellow vegetable or fruit at least every other day?
- Also have two servings of other vegetables?
- Include four servings of enriched breads, cereals, pasta or grains in your daily diet?
- Watch your calories, avoid excess carbohydrates and fats and adjust the size of servings to your weight?
- Do you have a positive attitude about eating? Are you:
- Making mealtimes enjoyable?
- Eating slowly and chewing well?
- Going out to eat or inviting friends in?
- Planning and cooking meals that meet the standards of good nutrition?

Are you getting the most from your food dollar? -Taking advantage of special sales? -Shopping when stores aren't crowded? -Buying most important foods first, extras later? -Limiting quantities to your needs? -Managing storage and use of foods to retain quality? Are you contributing to good mental and physical health by:

- Taking exercise regularly?
- Getting fresh air and sunshine?
- Reading newspapers, listening to radio and TV?
- Communicating with family, friends and neighbors?
- Having a medical checkup periodically?

If most of the above answers are "yes" keep up the good work. If most are "no", start changing your habits and routines.

RECIPE FOR THE WEEK:

H-SU BAND AT DEDICATION CONCERT - Forty Three Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band members, their director and sponsors "did" Europe in a 16-day whirlwind tour touching four countries with concerts and parades all along the way - and all got back Friday evening. Vance O'Brien, senior pre-med student, of Eastland reported the tour fun, exciting and hard work. The band performed in churches, schools, military bases and is shown here in London at the dedication services of a new rail service. Charles Richardson, H-SU information officer who accompanied the band, said the group represented the United States, the school and their faith well in England, France, Switzerland and West Germany. Most of their non-church concerts opened with "The Eyes of Texas", and the natives and Americans-abroad loved it, Vance reports. Dr. Rufus Spraberry, director of church relations at HSU, accompanied the group and spoke at most church concerts where the band performed instrumental and choral works. The Texas good-will ambassadors were warmly welcomed and especially in Germany, where they were seen on the streets in their trademark 10-gallon Stetson hats, were often identified by the natives, as "J.R."

Run-Off Election June 2

The Democratic Party run-off election will be Saturday, June 2, and the polls will open at 7 a.m. There are three races appearing on the ballot. The contest drawing the most attention is the one for United States Senator. Two candidates who won the most votes in the May 5 Democratic primary and who are in the run-off are Lloyd Doggett and Kent White. Absentee voting for the run-off election will end Tuesday, May 29. The courthouse will be closed Monday, May 28, so no votes may be cast that day. A light voter turnout is expected. There are no local races on the ballot.

YOU AUTO KNOW

OOOOO
IN THE INTEREST OF SERVING THIS AREA, JIM CALDWELL BRINGS YOU THESE IMPORTANT MONEY-SAVING ARTICLES:

Get better performance from your car's air conditioner by cleaning it, particularly between the condenser and the radiator. Clean condenser coils, too.

Drunk driving is the leading single cause of death among young Americans aged 15 to 24. Many states are raising the minimum drinking age.

If your car is hard to start after rain-wet ignition parts are usually to blame—solve the problem with silicon spray that repels moisture. Recoat periodically to keep wires dry.

When engine performance is erratic, alternately hesitating and flooding, dirt on the carburetor is often to blame.

Planning a trip? Be certain your car is in first-class running condition BEFORE you start.

MEMORIAL DAY

It is unlikely that it makes any difference to the dead whether they are honored on May 30, or on the Monday chosen by Congress, or at all.

This patriotic holiday is an American native which originated, according to tradition, when Southern ladies chose to decorate the graves of Union and Rebel soldiers who died fighting for their beliefs.

No one has pinned down the exact day of the first observance of Memorial Day, but Major-General John A. Logan named May 30, 1868, as the special day for honoring the graves of Union soldiers, and this is the date picked by Congress for our current legal holiday to honor the service people of all military branches, regardless of which conflict in which they served.

Memorial Day is a holiday, but as with Christmas and Thanksgiving, there are moral responsibilities that go with it.

The flags we raise and the flowers we place on graves, the poppies we buy and the speeches we hear are more than appreciative symbols of the obligation we have toward the service people of our country.

The military parades, the programs sponsored by the Scouts and fraternal organizations, the memorial services at Gettysburg National Military Park and the National Cemetery at Arlington should remind us of the history of our nation.

These actions keep alive the patriotism that helps us to survive as a nation. Somehow, patriotism doesn't seem to be in as good standing as it was when I grew up. I believe it should be.

Patriotism is an intangible, but it is fed by such tangibles as the July Fourth celebrations, recitations of Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, and the thumping good renditions of "The Stars and Stripes Forever"—by a marching band with lots of lung power and strong armwielding the drum sticks!

Patriotism gets a put-down only from those who feel no responsibility for their country nor for anyone in the country, including themselves. They feel their country owes them a living but that they owe it nothing. It is not fair for me to make a judgement on such people, for I have no common ground for understanding "their side." I don't even think they have a "side," so I know not "from whence they cometh."

If individuals do not learn while very young the meanings behind the tiny ships, filled with flowers, that are set afloat to honor the lives lost at sea, the wreaths placed on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, and the story of the man who made the brief speech at Gettysburg, we can expect deserters from the nation. We will survive them.

They have exchanged their birthright for a mess of pottage. I can pity them, but I cannot help a mental withdrawal, a reservation, a lack of trust. As we have no common viewpoint, the gulf between us will grow wider, and that is a shame as understanding is what is needed.

Of course, our nation has faults, but our nation includes the homegrown misfits and not a few we have imported. The nation and the people are in-

Judge Grants 'Gag Order'

Apparently to insure that there is no question that a 27 year old Eastland man can receive a fair trial in Eastland County, 91st District Court Judge Jim Wright granted some points of a defense motion by defense attorney Bob Chappell in the capital murder trial of Richard Dwan Gaeta.

Gaeta, who had been held without bond in the Eastland county jail since surrendering to officers last December in Irving, was released on $25,000 bond set by Judge Wright shortly after the pre-trial hearing. After Chappell stated that the full and complete coverage of the investigation for Gaeta to receive a fair trial, Judge Wright granted a "gag order" to prohibit anyone from commenting about the case until its conclusion.

Judge Wright denied a separable. One is no stronger than the other.

Not only on Memorial Day is it fitting to honor our dead. Let us remember them every day while we make clear our expectations of the living.

defense request that no photographs be taken of anyone connected with the case, but ruled that no photographs may be taken in the courtroom or on the third floor of the courthouse.

Judge Wright also granted to a motion to restrict the news media from reporting in detail the evidence obtained by the court during hearings.

A July 16 trial date has been set for Gaeta, also known as Terry Dwayne Gaeta, after an Eastland County grand jury returned capital murder indictments against him and Timothy Dean Lucky.

They were indicted for the murder of Gaily Carter, a 64 year old Eastland man, who according to autopsy results was strangled and stabbed with two knives.

Robbery of from six to eight thousand dollars from Carter's billfold was thought to be a possible motive for the killing.

A murder committed during the course of another crime is considered capital murder and upon conviction may result in the death penalty.

Absentee Voting For Run-Off Elections Are Set In May

Homeowners Need To Get The Most From Watering

COLLEGE STATION-- With dry weather already plaguing much of Texas, homeowners need to get the most from irrigation water to keep their yards and gardens lush growing.

Everett E. Janne, landscape horticulturist with the Texas A&M University System, says much of the water used on yards and gardens is often wasted because of improper methods of application and poor cultural practices.

Cisco Men Embark On Canoe Trip

If you saw Ivan Webb driving around town with two canoes perched atop his Suburban and were wondering why you might be interested in reading further.

Ivan Webb, Glenn Deitiker, Joe Besselaar, and Frank Spangler joined by Elizabeth Webb's brother and brother-in-law from Dallas embarked on a canoe trip down the Ouachita River in the Southern portion of Arkansas.

Mr. Webb designed some colorful "T-Shirts" depicting the state of Arkansas and the location and name of the river where the adventure would begin.

The weary travelers are expected to return sometime Monday evening. We hope no one got too wet, as there were thunderstorms predicted for the area over the Memorial Weekend.

Shreveport Players Sign With CJC

The following high school players from Shreveport, La., have signed scholarship agreements with CJC Men's Basketball Coach, Dan Montgomery:

Cedric Ellis, a 6-0 guard from Shreveport Woodlawn. Averaged 19.3 points, 7 rebounds and 5 assists for his district championship team. He was named all-district and All-Caddo Parish, and was rated by one recruiting service as one of the top 20 college prospects in Louisiana.

Howard Knight, a 6-4 forward from Shreveport Fair Park. Averaged 13.2 points a and nine rebounds for his high school team. He was named all-district and All-Caddo Parish.

According to Coach Montgomery, "We feel that we have signed two premier players in Cedric and Howard. Cedric is a pure shooter who was overlooked by the majors because of his height, and Howard has the quickness and jumping ability to become one of the top players in the Northern Texas JUCO Conference."

soil can absorb it, emphasizes the horticulturist. If it is applied too rapidly, much of the water will be lost to runoff and evaporation. Excessive amounts of water can cause soil to become water-logged in the root area, causing rotting, especially if internal drainage is poor.

"Be careful not to over-water plants native to more arid regions of the state," Janne says. "They can be damaged by root rot. Also, since they often fail to go dormant due to the more than adequate water supply and stay soft and succulent into the winter, such plants can be damaged by low temperatures."

Shrubs and trees near foundations, under eaves or on southern and western exposures need watering more frequently than others, says Janne. These plants often receive less benefit from rainfall and have to deal with heat reflected from south and west facing walls.

Areas under overhangs should usually be leached

Obituaries

Services For George Downie Held Friday

Mr. George Wilfred Downie of San Antonio, Texas, formerly of Winnipeg, Canada and Cisco, Texas, died May 22, 1984 at the age of 95.

He is survived by his daughters, Ellen E. Crosthwait and Jean Cambell, both of San Antonio; grandchildren, Audrey J. Sparks and Ellen Anne Campbell, both of San Antonio, Guy G. Campbell, Spring, Texas and Daniel R. Brandenburg of Los Angeles, Cal., six great grandchildren and four great-great grandchildren and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, May 24, 1984 at the Bethany United Methodist Church, San Antonio with the pastor, Rev. Phillip G. Robberson officiating and under the direction of Colonial Funeral of Universal City.

Pallbearers were Clayton A. Sparks, Mark L. Sparks, Clayton B. Sparks, Guy G. Campbell, Chris Campbell and Terry A. Kayser.

Mr. Downie was taken to Kimbrough Funeral Home, Cisco, Texas, where he was to lie in state Friday morning. Graveside services and interment were in Oakwood Cemetery in Cisco at 2 p.m. Friday. Members of the Cisco Lions Club served as honorary pallbearers. The family requested donations to the charity of your choice.

every few months to remove concentrations of salt and left from water evaporation.

Plants on mounds or steep slopes suffer from drought stress more easily than those in level areas. Once sloped areas become dry, it's difficult to get good moisture penetration by surface irrigation unless water is allowed to seep for a long period of time.

"Newly transplanted trees and shrubs require special care," Janne points out. "Water both the base of the plant and the surrounding soil. Often there is adequate moisture in the soil but the original root ball is dry. An organic mulch of pine bark, chopped straw, hay or similar material will greatly reduce irrigation needs of both newly established and older plants."

Water potted plants according to the type and condition of the pot and the plant and the location and conditions of the area, suggests the horticulturist. Clay pots dry out faster and root-bound plants require frequent watering, especially during hot, dry weather. It's also possible to overwater, leading to root diseases.

"Allow lawns to show some stress before watering to avoid losing too much water runoff," says Janne. "However, water lawns deeply and thoroughly."

Lawns and gardens can be watered any time of day, but evaporation is less at night or during the early morning. However, night watering can promote more disease problems.

"By treating water as a valuable resource and irrigating wisely, your yards and gardens will flourish without skyrocketing water bills," says Janne. "Plus you'll be helping to conserve declining water supplies."

Photographing Kids Is Child's Play

I think the fellow had it all wrong. He should have said, "Kids--you can't live with 'em and you can't live without 'em."

Heaven knows, if you're a parent, you think about living without them. In fact, there are times, if you're "normal," you're probably ready to run an ad in the Sunday classified section.

"For Sale--Kid, current model, in excellent running condition. Immaculate inside and out, although shows dirt easily. Will sell outright to highest bidder." But then, not 15 minutes after you compose the ad, in comes a grimy little urchin clutching a bunch of wilted black-eyed Susans and wearing a tentative smile. Who can help but love them?

Part of the joy of children is their timing. They never seem to do anything "by the book." Whether it's slamming the screen door while a cake's in the oven or crawling into your lap when you're feeling unexpectedly low, they have a knack for doing the unanticipated.

That's what makes getting good photos of them so difficult. It's something like photographing the family kittens at play. Just about the time you get the camera, tripod, and electronic flash unit set up, the kitties find something more interesting to do...usually in another room.

But there is a way to get shots of your children doing memorable things, photos to cherish the rest of your life. It's called taking the bull by the horns or something like that. It may not be as easy as grabbing your camera and snapping off a quick exposure, but it's guaranteed to be more productive.

You can get started by sitting down with a piece of paper and a pencil. Think about half a dozen different things you can do with your child--things likely to lead to interesting photographs. If you need help, thumb through a few magazines. It shouldn't take too long before you've assembled a list something like this:

- 1.) Zoo
- 2.) Art Museum
- 3.) Fishing
- 4.) Neighbor's Farm
- 5.) Watering Lawn
- 6.) Weeding Garden

Weeding the garden? Why not? Just because something may not be your idea of how to spend a Sunday afternoon, that doesn't mean your child won't get a kick out of it. And imagine a photo of a four-year-old proudly displaying a "tomato weed" freshly plucked from the ground. Sure, I know. That was one of your favorite plants. But kids learn by making mistakes. And losing a tomato plant seems a small enough price to pay for decades of visual memories.

Although you'll naturally need your camera and accessories with you when setting up an informal photo session, remember not to make a big deal out of it with your child or you're likely to have one very large, unboiled ham watching your every move, awaiting the magic moment. The results? Shot after shot of a kid mugging for the camera. Sure, one or two such photos aren't bad. But 20 or 30 get to be old news. If you have a ham for a child, you'll have to get in the habit of sneaking your photos, taking them as quickly as possible before letting the camera down to your side, again.

Remember, though, that if you make a big deal out of the shot ("Oh, that was really good, Johnny; grandma will love that one!") you're just asking for a repeat performance.

Since what we're talking about here are candid or "grab" photos, you can get remarkably good results with nearly any camera that works. Certainly a 35 mm SLR equipped with a 110 mm telephoto will allow you to step away from your subject, thus removing you from intruding on the action. But, with caution, you can be as sneaky and effective using an instant-print, mini-35, cartridge, movie, or disc camera as with anything.

In fact, because of their lightness and small size, small-format "point-and-shoot" cameras--especially those with built-in electronic flash for use when needed--are ideal.

You can create situations like this just made for photographing.

Senior Citizens Nutrition Menu

For the past two weeks we have been gleaning information from the writings of Dr. Frank Columbu. This week he makes reference to the subject of being calorie conscious, and what it really takes to hold your weight to the desired condition and still be a healthy individual.

He recommends that every diet should be as simple and natural as possible with all things in moderation, that is, protein, fat and unfrefined carbohydrates. Instead of overloading yourself at one meal, have several small meals a day. Eat only when physically hungry and not to compensate for frustration, anxiety, stress or emotional upheavals. Too often, he states, food is used as a tranquilizer when intense physical activity would serve the same purpose of alleviating tension.

There will be one more excerpt from Dr. Columbu's writings, and it will concern foods to eat to be a well individual.

The Senior Center evaluates the food that is served to the older individual. We encourage you to call your Senior Center, 442-1557, and make reservations for the Monday, Wednesday, and Friday Luncheons. These meals are wholesome, plus the fine fellowship that you have with your friends.

The Senior Center will be closed May 28, Memorial Day, to enable the staff to be with their friends and relatives.

The programs for the past week included: Dick Lindley presented an organ musical, and played the piano when the group of members were singing; Janet Thomas the Eastland County Extension Agent, Presented a talk using the subject "Canning and Saving," and also she checked the pressure cooking gauges; the blood pressure screening clinic was conducted; and the band and choir entertained the members. The menus for the coming week will be:

Monday - The Senior Center will be CLOSED

Wednesday - Turkey Roll, Stewed Tomatoes @ Green Beans, Potatoes in Butter, Cheese Apple Crisp, Bread, Butter and Drink.

Friday - Cheese Ham Rice Casserole, Green Peas, Celery-Carrot-Raisin Salad, Choc. Pudding, Bread, Butter and Drink.

EXERCISE FOR ANYONE
How's your I.Q. doing these days?

The "I" does not, as usual, refer to intelligence but to imagination.

If your arthritis has curtailed your major exercises to running up bills and jumping to conclusions, haul out your imagination and dust it off. There's a whole world out there, and it's all yours.

A copy of the classified ad section of the paper gives you a point of departure for flights of fancy...might widen your horizon in more ways than one.

Does "brush hog" mean anything to you? A modern generation javelina would be my guess, but this brush hog is listed under "Tractor Services," so '84 vintage javelinas are out.

Since brush hogs and tractors are associated in the ad, a logical explanation is quickly possible. But I prefer my first vision of javelinas practicing "root, hog, or die" survival back in Davy Crockett days.

"Two-way roofing" is one I'm going to mull over a long time. Two-way roofs. In this I.Q. game it is not fair to ask a roofer, so until such time as the subject comes up naturally in a conversation, I am stuck with this vision of a roof that keeps the elements out and all the people, furniture and pets in.

Under "hauling," I find several listings that only go to prove that city slickers can make just as interesting errors as their country cousins when it comes to making up a paper. Why else would "Elec. garage door openers installed cheap" be listed under "Hauling?"

That's titillating enough, but go on: Can't you see the disgust of the fellow who placed the ad having a fit! If your Imagination Quotient is in fine fettle, you can come up with a disaster equivalent to "for want of a horsehoe nail." If you are strongly physical, you can "see" our frustrated garage-door-opener installer jerk open a newspaper office door and punch out the first nose he sees!

A "Granny's Girls" ad not only prods my imagination, an old-fashioned indignation switches my blood pressure on "Boil." But that's jumping to a conclusion. The rest of it very primly states, "Bonded housecleaning."

"Investigate Before You Exterminate" has all kinds of possibilities. I must be on a criminal track as the first thing that comes to mind is a sinister picture of the crafty research necessary to eliminate an opponent who blocks you from what you want.

That brings up a question often debated between me and myself. Would I really kill someone? I don't even like to squash bugs--especially not a stink bug. I'm not a vegetarian, but I have had little interest in slaughter since I used to writing the necks off chickens. (If you have to kill chickens, invest in a short-handled axe.)

Cats and dogs might take over the world if it's up to me to do in the kittens and puppies. However, I do believe I am tough enough to survive on whatever level. I could bash what heads were necessary to protect my family...Kipling put it well when he wrote, "The female of the species is more deadly than the male."

"Do unto others as you would be done by" is a motto for a good life. The modern, survival version seems to be, "Do unto others as they would do unto you--and do it first."

I don't particularly yearn to test my extermination quotient, but I think it's only fair to say I have a strong prejudice in favor of living. It must show as a recent gift is a sticker that warns, "Never mind the dog; beware of owner!"

So, How's your Imagination Quotient today?

Homebuyers Can Save Thousands

Homebuyers can save thousands of dollars by choosing a mortgage that is paid off sooner than the traditional 30 years.

"Many borrowers diligently shop for lower interest rate loans while overlooking possible savings from shorter-term mortgages," contends Dr. Don Stebbins, real estate specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

For example, a 30-year mortgage at 13.5 percent interest will cost the homebuyer $288,634.87 principal and interest. If the same mortgage is paid off in 20 years, total principal and interest payments equal $202,838.95.

"In this example, monthly payments have to be increased by $43.37 to reduce the term of the mortgage from 30 to 20 years," notes Stebbins. "But this extra $43.37 per month is a reduction of the loan principal, so it really is a form of savings because it's an increase in the homebuyer's equity each month. This is attractive not only to individuals who prefer to reduce their debt but also to people who have difficulty budgeting for other forms of savings and investments."

"Of course, since interest payments are tax deductible for taxpayers who itemize deductions, the savings after taxes will be less but still quite substantial," Stebbins points out.

An alternative for homebuyers who stretch their budget to the limit to purchase a home is to obtain a 30-year mortgage to minimize current payments and then to increase the monthly payments as their income rises in future years.

"For example, I know a couple who plan to increase their mortgage payment by $25 per month each year," says Stebbins. "If they follow through, they will be able to pay off their mortgage in about 15 years and save a lot of interest cost without too much of a financial burden."

As costs associated with home ownership have increased to a level where they are the largest item in most family budgets, it has become increasingly important that families consider ways to reduce those costs, says Stebbins. The early retirement of a mortgage is one effective way for homebuyers to do just that.

Authorities Continue Search

For Stephens Co. Escapee

Authorities continued their search for a Stephens County Jail trustee Thursday night after the inmate walked away from the jail earlier in the day while taking out the trash.

Stephens County Chief Deputy Sheriff Terry Mahaney said 39-year-old Darrell Jay Hobbs, an Eastland County native, disappeared from the jail about 7:05 a.m. Thursday when "he took some trash out."

Hobbs was in jail awaiting trial for burglary of a building, a second-degree felony, and a pre-trial hearing was held on Wednesday, Mahaney said. He added that the inmate had been in jail about a month.

The deputy said roadblocks had been set up and Department of Public Safety troopers from surrounding counties were "trying to locate the suspect."

About 4 p.m., Hobbs dressed in a blue shirt and jeans, was spotted in Albany, driving south toward Cisco. Mahaney said the escapee was in a light-blue car with another man.

Mahaney also said Hobbs is wanted in Brownwood for failing to appear in court on a driving while intoxicated charge. Hobbs previously served a prison sentence on a burglary conviction.

The escapee was described as a white male, brown hair and eyes, 5 foot 11 and 165 pounds.

Grand Jury Writes Letter Concerning D.W.I. Law

At the conclusion of the Eastland County Grand Jury session this week, the members thereof discussed the current DWI law and the apparent leniency of the Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles. The Grand Jurors expressed concern that the DWI law provides a maximum confinement in the penitentiary of only five years regardless of how many times a person is convicted of a DWI offense. They were also concerned about the leniency of the Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles, for example, in allowing and authorizing the release of persons from prison after such persons have served only 6 to 8 months on a three year sentence.

It was the unanimous concern of the individual Grand Jurors that everyone should be concerned about the dangers and problems posed by DWI's and that the Governor and our legislators should be asked to help strengthen the laws in these regards. The Grand Jurors wrote the following letter to Governor Mark White, State Senator Robert Glasgow and State Representative Jim Parker (Senator Glasgow and Representative Parker represent Eastland County):

Eastland County, Texas
May 15, 1984
The Honorable Mark White
Governor of the State of Texas
Capitol Station

The most pressing needs for cattle in Eastland County are grass and water. However, we can't overlook the need for parasite control. Now is the time to treat cattle for grubs.

Cattle grubs are under-covers workers—all their damage is unseen, yet they cause greater economic losses to the U.S. beef cattle industry than any other insect pest.

While grubs are usually found on the backs of infested animals during the winter months, that's not the time for control measures since the pests have already done their damage.

Grubs are the larvae or worm stage of heel flies, and adult heel flies have been active in Eastland County.

The time to control grubs is during the period of May through August when they are small and before infested animals suffer stress, weight loss and decreased feed efficiency.

Heel flies cannot sting, have no mouth parts and cause no pain to cattle. Yet, they frighten animals, making them difficult to manage.

Heel flies lay their eggs on an animal's hairs in the stomach and leg region, glued in position. Tiny larvae hatch in a few days, crawl down to the base of the hair and burrow into the animal's skin.

Then they begin a migratory course through the animal's body, congregating in the throat after a few months, and after six to eight months, appear in the grub stage of the animal's back.

If a producer has a history of grubs in his cattle herd, I recommend treating each animal over three months of age with one application of an approved systemic insecticide during the May through August period.

Systemic insecticides come in various forms—dips, pour-ons, injections and spot-on treatments. A listing of approved insecticides and methods for controlling cattle grubs is available at the County Extension Office in the Eastland County Courthouse basement.

Friend To Friend

by Jim Hatcher

The practicality of the Word of God never ceases to amaze me.

It is so practical as the avenue of peace, not only with God, but also with our fellow man.

The world would have us to believe and accept that being at peace with someone depends upon the other person. Nothing could be further from the teachings of God's word.

The inspired apostle Paul writes to the Romans, "Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse not"

(even though that would be wrong). What Paul is exhorting us to do is not wish that person any ill will! Paul is pleading with us not strike back at those who wrong us! He goes on to say, "render to no man evil for evil...Avenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place unto the wrath of God: for it is written, Vengeance belongeth unto me; I will recompense, saith the Lord." (Romans 12:17,19)

So the practical Word of God outlines the way to be at peace with men. Return evil with good and leave the vengeance of the evil doer to God! Paul concludes his

'Mission Celebration' Is Set Sunday In Eastland

Sunday, May 27th, will herald a "Mission Celebration" in Eastland, Texas. The Eastland area is currently being studied for the establishment of a new mission congregation of the American Lutheran Church. However, this "mission" is different from most in the A.L.C. in that it is being done entirely by another congregation, Emmanuel Lutheran Church of Knippa, Texas.

Sunday, May 27th, a chartered bus will be bringing 50 men, women and children from the Knippa Church to share and celebrate with their "partners in mission." The day will include a barbeque dinner at 1:30 p.m., worship at 4:00 p.m., and Bible study at 5:15 p.m. This occasion demonstrates very tangibly their commitment to one another.

For the last month, this ministry has been called Eastland Outreach Ministries and draws families from Eastland, SHOULD MY WIFE HAVE A WILL, TOO?

If your wife owns property, solely or jointly, or if she is heir to an estate, she should have a will of her own. This applies in quite a few other cases, too.

Husband and wife may be double victims of a fatal accident. The husband may have designated his wife as major beneficiary in his will. Without the wife's having a will of her own, distribution of her share of the estate will not have been provided for. Her share may be subject to state laws, tying it up for long periods right when it may be needed.

If the wife is a business partner in a family business, it is to the firm's advantage to have its business continuity assured by her having a will.

After the man has made his will, he should discuss with his lawyer a separate will for the wife. Above all, be sure to consult your attorney. We've seen bad situations arise because no wills were made or because they were drawn up by amateurs.

Your questions and comments on this and other subjects are welcome - in private or publicly through this column.

Cisco Steakhouse Sign Displays A Christian Symbol

If you have noticed the fish symbol on the sign at Cisco Steakhouse and Inn and wondered whether it meant they serve seafood, wonder no more. The fish is a Christian symbol, and since all the partners in the corporation which owns the establishment are Christians, they chose to display the symbol on their sign.

David Allen, local manager of the steakhouse, said they don't want to be garish with the symbol, but they do want it on their sign as a witness to others. Originally from Roscoe, Mr. Allen said he used to work in a cotton gin and became acquainted with Dan Biggs, who worked in a cotton seed plant. After the gin where David worked was sold to new owners, he found himself without a job.

David went by the cotton seed plant where Dan worked and told him he would no longer be associated with the gin, since new personnel were hired by the new owners. While they were talking, Dan asked David if he had ever thought about running a restaurant.

"As a matter of fact," David said, "I have thought about opening a steakhouse." But, David said he did not have the money for such a venture. Dan informed David that he and his partners, Marvin Mayfield of Colorado City and Lester Hill of Lorraine, were thinking about opening a restaurant, but they needed someone to operate it for them.

David and Dan continued to talk and in the process David informed Dan he did not want to go into business with anyone who is not a Christian. "Fine," said Dan, "We feel the same way."

After David's acceptance of the opportunity, the search was begun for a suitable facility. First plans were to build a restaurant in Colorado City, but there were problems with the building site which the group wanted. So, a partner had been traveling along Interstate 20 in Eastland County and noticed a vacant restaurant with a large for sale sign in Cisco.

He said renovations were started in September of 1983 and the restaurant was opened on November 4 in the same year. The restaurant averages 12 to 1 employees. A complete renovation of the restaurant was done, along with some renovation in the motel rooms. The kitchen has been re-arranged with APPEARANCE CHANGES are evident on the outside of Cisco Steakhouse and Inn, as well as on the inside. Outside, the rock garden and cactuses were done away with, because "we felt they made it look hot," says David Allen, manager. So, trying for a cooler look, grass and pine trees were planted, and potted plants were placed outside the building. (staff photo)

Twenty CHS Students Will Compete At UIL State Contest

Twenty C.H.S. students will compete at the University Interscholastic League Texas State Solo-Ensemble Contest to be held in Austin on June 2nd and 4th.

Competing will be the C.H.S. Jazz Band, C.H.S. Twirlers, a saxophone quartet, and a trombone solo. All of these groups qualified for state at the Regional Solo-Ensemble Contest held in Brownwood February 23, 1984. Approximately 11,000 students from all over the state will compete at the State Solo-Ensemble Contest. Members of the C.H.S. Jazz Band are: SAXOPHONES: Margaret Yeager (lead), Randy Hastings, Laura Hutchens, Leah Lambeth, Rusty Hughes; TROMBONES: Tommy Cross (lead), Kyle Anderson, Mike Jones, Harold Roan; TRUMPETS: Kelly Pierce (lead), Kyle Anderson, Mike Jones, Harold; RHYTHM SECTION- DRUMS: Randy Batteas, Kristi Cozart; PIANO: Cheryl Casey, Tracey Couch; BASS: Sue Scott, Dana Carlile; GUITAR: Farris Pittman.

CHS Twirlers are Leah Lambeth, Robin Ritchie, and Melissa Wylie. They have practiced many hours in preparation for this event.

The Saxophone Quartet that qualified for state is comprised of Tracey Couch, Alto Saxophone; Margaret Yeager, Alto Saxophone; Leah Lambeth, Tenor Saxophone; and Rusty Hughes, Baritone Saxophone. They will be performing "Quartet in G Minor" by Casseiday.

Performing a trombone solo is Thomas Cross, CHS drum major for 1984-85. He will be performing "Sonata No. 1" by Galliard. "It is not everyday that a sophomore qualifies for state," said Alvin Young, CHS band director. "Thomas is a very talented and devoted young man."

Special Fund Is Set Up For Jessica Gaeta Here

A special fund has been set up for Jessica Gaeta, 7 year old daughter of Al and Helen Gaeta of Cisco. Jessica broke her leg on the school grounds March 1, just after school and was admitted to the Eastland hospital. She was transferred to Hendrick Hospital on March 20. Jessica spent a total of 28 days in the hospital. Of these, 26 days were spent in traction. She was dismissed from the hospital in a body cast that she wore for 37 days. Jessica is still not permitted to walk or put weight on her leg.

Her mother, Helen, started working as Secretary of Cisco Chamber of Commerce in Feb. but had to be hospitalized herself soon after with pneumonia and has had to be home with Jessica since her accident.

Al and Helen are widely known in this area as both attended local schools. Helen was very familiar to just about everyone in Cisco as she worked for Southwestern Bell for 12 years in the Business Office. She frequently worked in the surrounding towns of Albany, Breckenridge, Eastland and Ranger. Al works for United Energex.

Insurance did not cover much of the hospital and doctor bills nor the many days of work that Helen had to miss.

Contributions may be sent in care of the First National Bank of Cisco, 76437.

Henningtons Purchase Home

Dothan Cemetery Meet Planned For May 28th

A cemetery meeting is planned for May 28 for all persons who have relatives and or friends buried in the Dothan Cemetery. The gathering will begin about 10 in the morning for a cleanup time, lots of visiting, a sack lunch and a business meeting to formulate a plan for a perpetual care organization.

If you are able to help in the cleanup, bring your tools. If you cannot work, come to meet your friends and talk over yesteryear. This will be the first gathering for Dothanites since we all scattered. Do come if you can only stay a part of the day.

Bring a sack lunch and a thermos of water. A shade will be provided. There has been a lot of enthusiasm shown and some are coming from as far away as California.

Mark May 28 on your calendar and meet your friends and former neighbors for a good day at the Dothan Cemetery from 10 a.m. until we all give out. If you need a ride or information call 442-2116.
