New Business Near Cisco

SEVEN OAKS PORTABLE BUILDINGS, located along the north access road of East I-20 in Cisco is a new business owned by Troy Hightower. The business offers portable buildings in different styles and sizes from the economy model which measures 8 feet by 8 feet, up to buildings which are 16 feet wide. They offer free delivery up to 15 miles from Cisco, and can custom order what their customer wants. It can be just a basic model or finished out in a deluxe model which could be used as an office. Owner Troy Hightower is shown with Cisco Chamber of Commerce manager Ron Scheuren as they prepare to look inside one of the styles which resembles a "little red barn." Seven Oaks Portable Buildings may be reached by phone at 442-2033. (staff photo)

HALL OF REMARKS

BY HERRI HALLMARK

FINALLY, WE are getting to enjoy some very pretty weather in the area, since the skies are clear and the temperatures have been mild since about the middle of the week. Hopefully the nice weather will continue into the weekend.

I usually enjoy cold weather, but after a while you become bored with not being able to go outside in shirt sleeves and enjoy the warm sunshine and stay outside for a while without freezing.

FORMER Ciscoans, Gene and Janie Gwinn, sent in a check for a renewal on their subscription to the Cisco Press office this week. As you know, Gene Gwinn was manager of the Otis plant here and an active member of the community.

Along with the check, Mrs. Gwinn enclosed the following letter:

Hello!

This is to pay for my new subscription. If it's incorrect, please let us know.

We really miss Cisco and all our friends. We enjoy keeping up with the newspaper.

Thanks for mailing it to us.

to avoid a penalty and income tax time is swiftly coming upon us, the following article is very appropriate.

The article is being borrowed from the newsletter of the First United Methodist Church of Cisco who took it from the February 1985 issue of "Pulpit Helps". In my opinion, the article is being published only as a humorous piece and not to complain about those who collect taxes.

Entitled "DEATH AND TAXES" the article is as follows:

Tax his cow, tax his goat.
Tax his pants, tax his coat.
Tax his crops, tax his work.

Tax his tie, tax his shirt.
Tax his chew, tax his smoke.

Teach him taxes are no joke.

Tax his tractor, tax his mule.

Teach him taxes are a rule.

Tax his oil, tax his gas.

Tax his notes, tax his cash;

Tax him good and let him know—

After taxes he has no dough.

If he hollers, tax him more;

Tax him 'til he's good and sore.

Tax his coffin tax his grave.

Tax the sod in which he lays.

Put these words upon his tomb:

"Taxes drove me to my doom."

And after he's gone he can't relax;

They'll still be after inheritance Tax!

Eastland County Newspapers Publishing Plant and Offices at 215 S. Seaman St. in Eastland.

Tours of the facility will be conducted throughout the open house, and staff members will be demonstrating the equipment.

The firm publishes the Cisco Press, Eastland Telegram, Ranger Times, Rising Star and prints other publications including the Callahan County Star and two publications out of Brown County.

H.V. and Gay Nell O'Brien, publishers, join management and staff in extending a cordial invitation to one and all to attend. An honored guest will be Cong. Charles Stenholm.

The 8,000-square foot building houses press, darkrooms, composing rooms, computerized typesetting equipment, offices and an office supply store. Mrs. Joyce Eaves will be in charge of refreshments. The facility was originally housed at 110 W. Commerce

St. The event has been scheduled to coincide with the Texas Press Association's annual convention held in Fort Worth this weekend, so that publishers and newspaper people from throughout West Texas could plan to attend.

Council Calls Election April 6

A city officer's election for council places III and IV was set for April 6, 1985, by the Cisco City Council at Tuesday night's regular meeting. The council places are presently held by Roy Dennis and Bobby Rains.

The council also approved the appointment of Mr. M.L.

NOTICE

Assoc. Meet Set For Girl Scouts Mon.

There will be an Association meeting for the Cisco Girl Scouts on Monday, Jan. 28, at the First National Bank Community Room. All leaders and interested citizens are urged to attend.

Bailey as election judge and Mrs. Margaret Torres as alternate election judge. City Secretary Ginger Johnson was named as absentee voting clerk and Beth Prickett was named deputy absentee voting clerk.

In keeping in compliance with the Texas Aeronautics Commission, the council re-appointed Joe Wheatley, Lloyd McGrew, Dean Toler, Gary Harris, Brad Kimbrough, and Jim Webb, alternate, to the Airport Zoning Board of Adjustment.

The council also approved an oil and gas lease with Ray Richey and Company, Inc., consisting of 40 acres located in the Lake Cisco Tract. The lease was approved upon condition the company agree to pay $1,000, instead of $500, on possible damages. It seemed the consensus of the council that $1,000 is the average amount agreed upon between two businesses.

A gas line easement was also approved for Ray Richey and Company of approximately 1,050 feet, located on Schlaepfer No. 1 Well Site. The gas line will be buried by the company.

A request from Walter Preston concerning the council voting on establishing an "over-65 tax exemption" on homestead residences was denied by the council. The council stressed that they would like to give the exemption, but with the financial situation of the area, they do not feel it would be much benefit.

After a study of tax losses which would occur if the city granted the exemption, the city would have to raise everyone's taxes in order to make up for the loss, so, in essence, the "over-65 exemption" would not really be much of a discount.

The council stated they will keep the idea in mind and as the city's financial situation changes, they will periodically re-examine the request. As the city grows and changes, the tax structure will be subject to change.

A resolution calling for a public hearing to determine whether certain improvements within the city are each dangerous structures and a public nuisance was approved by the council. The resolution names one structure along Conrad Hilton Avenue, three along East 6th Street, one on West 18th, and one on West 11th Street.

The public hearing will be scheduled for February 26, at 7:00 p.m., in the Council Chambers. The owners, or any person interested, is asked to appear before the council where the issue is to be decided.

City manager Mike Moore informed the council he will be going to school to become a registered tax collector. He said everyone who deals with taxes is required to be registered. He said the FHA loan applications for the water district have been approved at the state level and he expects to be able to go out for bids and advertise the project within 30 days. He also said the city's pre-application for a waste water treatment plant was received on Tuesday in Temple and all indications were that it was in order, and would hopefully be approved.

A financial report for December of 1984 was given to the council, who was in a worksession from 6 p.m. until 7 p.m., in which they discussed city revenues, expenditures, and the financial situation.

Those present for the meeting were council members Joe Besselaar, Mayor Pro-Tem Bobby Ingram, Roy Dennis, Linton Batteas, City Manager Mike Moore, City Secretary Ginger Johnson, and City Attorney W.B. Wright, Jr. Absent were Bobby Rains, Brad Kimbrough, and Mayor Eris Ritchie.

Hospital District Orders An Election

Election of directors for the Cisco Hospital District Board will be held April 6, 1985, along with other elections set for that date. The election was called to fill the expiring terms of two directors, De Alva Chambers and Vergil Patrick.

Directors serve two year terms. Candidates for director must be more than twenty-one years of age, resident of the hospital district, own land subject to taxation and be a registered voter. A person desiring to have his name on the ballot shall file a petition signed by not less than twenty-five qualified voters asking that such name be printed on the ballot.

Candidates may secure petitions and file completed petitions with Emma Lee Donovan at the First National Bank. Filing deadline is March 6, 1985.

'Christmas In May' Project Begins Here

The annual "Christmas in May" has officially begun for 1985 with applications now being accepted at the Chamber of Commerce office in Cisco. Brad Kimbrough, chairman of the program, said that a drive for funds will also be started immediately.

The project is sponsored by the Cisco Chamber of Commerce and works with many of the churches in the area and much volunteer labor. The program calls for housing repair for the elderly and the handicapped. Money contributed to the project by citizens, organizations, and businesses in Cisco is spent only for materials to make the repairs. The labor is strictly volunteer.

The procedure for selection begins with people who would like to have their houses considered for the project to obtain an application at the Chamber of Commerce and have it filled out and returned. To be qualified for consideration, applicants must be 60 years old or older or handicapped (if not elderly); must own the home (or in the process of buying it); and have a low income (financially unable to afford repairs, receiving Social Security or Veteran Benefits).

Each application will be reviewed and each home will be visited by the selection committee. A survey will be made to determine what repairs are needed. If selected, the home will then be included for repair by the volunteer labor force in May.

Anyone interested in donating time or money to the project may call the Chamber of Commerce office in Cisco. Appeals are being mailed to the Chamber of Commerce members, churches, and civic clubs in the area. It is hoped that at least $3,500.00 can be raised by a March 15th deadline so plans can proceed on the project.

The "Christmas in May" has been recognized as an important program to improve the homes of those in the community who cannot do it themselves. If you can pledge time or money please call 442-2537 or come by the Chamber Office in downtown Cisco.

The deadline for applications has been set as February 15th.

Country Club Members Will Have Chili Tues.

Members of the Cisco Country Club will be treated to a chili supper at the club house at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 29, according to an announcement by President Bobby Smith. The menu will feature chili and apple dumplings.

Members planning to attend were asked to call Secretary Deborah Whitley (442-2560). There will be no charges. A brief business meeting will follow the supper.

Fishing Report

Terry L. Wilson

"Banging On Brush"
With most lakes being full the coming year is shaping up to be a dabblers dream. Dabbling equipment consists normally of 6 foot to 10 foot heavy action rods, 17 to 30 pound test line and a strong heart.

During presentation of your lure the longer rod enables you to reach areas one might be able to cast to; such as pockets in brush piles, inside green willow clumps, under boat docks, or directly beside standing timber. Understandably, the large line is needed for easier removal of the fish from heavy cover. And also can withstand the sudden impact when setting the hook.

Some aspects anglers do not look at when dabbling, are simple logical reasoning. Such as fishing the wind. Example: We have a dead mesquite tree with a strong south wind. Which side of the tree would the fish prefer and why? Most usually a black bass will be on the north side of this structure facing the wind waiting to prey on bait-fish being carried in the wind. Lets take the same situation and consider the time of day and water color. If water color is clear fish the shade closest to the north side, during off colored water continue to probe the north side as sunlight penetration will be less.

This situation is not 100% fool proof, as we've said many times be versatile, but it's a good starting pattern.

Remember dabbling results in reactionary strikes. 90% of all strikes are due to reaction not feeding. For example of why: If you were watching T.V. and a man dropped into your living room through the ceiling would you react suddenly or normally? And just as the loud noise would probably frighten you, so would loud noises when your bait enters the strike zone.

Remember game thieves are stealing from you, lets put a stop to it. Contact your local game warden to report violations.

It won't be too many weeks before some the annual summer lawn weeds begin to germinate and grow. Some of the common ones are crabgrass, chickweed and knotweed.

One of the easiest ways to take care of these weeds is to put down a preemergent herbicide that kill them before they come up. One of the problems with using preemergent herbicides is, of course, they must be applied before the weed ger-minates. If they are applied too late and the weed has sprouted the chemical will not be effective and will not provide any control at all. In this part of Texas the "rule of thumb" date for the application of a preemergent herbicide is March 1. This means that if a preemergent herbicide is applied about March 1 most years it will prevent annual weeds, but once in awhile spring comes a little early and the weeds could well germinate and be up before March 1.

Perhaps one of the best ways to approach spring weed control is to consider a two pronged attack. The first step is to kill all the weeds about March 1, including the winter weeds and if it has been an early spring, those annual weeds that may have already germinated. One of the best chemicals to do this with is glyphosate. Some of the brand names are Roundup, Kleenup and Dooms Day, follow label directions.

The next step is to immediately apply one of the preemergent herbicides accordingly to its label directions. There are a number of preemergent herbicides sold under several brand names and they all last about the same length of time. Compare the price and buy the one that costs less for the area to be covered.

This is the easiest time of the year for weed control when this is done the summer grasses will be able to form a dense-thick turf that will be resistant to any further weed invasion.

The Austin-Travis County Livestock Show has added the Capital of Texas Commercial Replacement heifer Show & Sale to their Agenda, and it will be held March 27 and 28.

Cattlemen across the state will have an opportunity to show, sell, and buy top replacement heifers at this special show and sale next March in the new 5-acre

Show Barn at the Texas Exposition and Heritage Center in Austin.

They are going to have a sale of high-quality, useful, productive females demanded by today's aggressive commercial livestock breeders.

The Show will be open to anyone who will feature fancy pen-of-three heifers. All replacement heifers are eligible and entries should be submitted by February 1, 1985.

The show will have three classes and will be divided into two weight groups. These will include F1 certified, Brahma-influenced crosses, and purebred and other crosses.

Lady Wranglers Remain Undefeated In N.T.J.C.A.C.

Cisco's Lady Wranglers remained undefeated in the North Texas Junior College Athletic Conference competition defeating Ranger 68-59 here Thursday night.

Cisco 2-0 with a 65-41 win over McLennan Community College, capitalized on late Range Ann mistakes to lead to the win. Ranger made only eight turnovers in the game, compared to 16 for Cisco, but ball handling mistakes late in the game allowed Cisco to run the clock down and protect its lead.

The game was close throughout with Cisco leading 34-33 at the half and never leading by much until the last five minutes of the game.

Elaine Browning, a sophomore post from Anson, led Cisco with 16 points along with Valerie Barnett, a freshman post from Azle. Browning was perfect from the free throw line hitting six-of-six at crucial times when Cisco needed to get the ball inside and she was fouled.

Barnett was called for her fourth foul early in the second half but went on to score 12 points in the half.

Ester Mendez had nine assists to accompany six points for the Lady Wranglers.

Ranger, 2-1, was led by Linda Zachary with 15 points while Cynthia Jones and Rhonda Moore added 13 and 11 points each.

Cisco will host Weatherford in a conference game Monday night.

We are having ideal winter weather the last several days. We have had most everything. Sunday morning we woke up to find about two inches of snow. It was so pretty! Then Tuesday night we had a nice shower. The temperature has been lovely- 30's to 60's. Today is so nice, not even fires on. The gas people won't like that!

We were sorry to learn that Mrs. Gayla Robinson had recently undergone surgery at Hendrick Hospital, but am glad to report that she is home again and doing fine. We also hear that Mr. Hulien Smith has been on the sick list, also our neighbor Judy Maxwell and little Joseph. Hope they all are good as new real soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Babe Donoway of Odessa visited their sister and brother the Milton Donoways last week. They helped Annie Mae Dunaway celebrate her 29th birthday the 15th. Many more happy birthdays Annie Mae!

SATELLITE TELEVISION

THINGS TO CONSIDER WHEN PURCHASING A SATELLITE ANTENNA

I. THE DEALERSHIP: Regardless of equipment purchased, service is a factor. Due to advanced technology and electronic sophistication the dealership you choose must be able to provide service technicians that have been properly educated to provide service after the sale.

II. ANTENNA SIZE: Quality Reception depends on antenna size and design. Antennas should be warranted by the dealership for 2° satellite spacing this means that most antennas under 9' may soon be obsolete.

III. EXTENDED SERVICE WARRANTY: Established satellite dealership can now offer extended warranty service policies that protect the consumer from additional expense due to equipment failure.

Stenholm To Conduct Town Hall Meeting

Congressman Charles Stenholm (D-Texas) will conduct the first of his quarterly Town Hall meetings for 1985, Saturday, Jan. 25, from 1-4 p.m. in Abilene Christian University's Cullen Auditorium.

Stenholm represents the Texas' massive 17th District which includes 35 counties.

He requested that the university serve as host for the meeting. Last year, Hardin-Simmons University was the site of one such event. In 1983, McMurry College served as a host.

Dr. William J. Teague, ACU president, announced the upcoming meeting this morning during a press conference in the Living Room of ACU's McGlothlin Campus Center. Teague said ACU was "pleased to provide this type of forum for the community," and encouraged all local citizens to participate.

Teague also commended Stenholm for providing the grassroots of the 17th Congressional District with a change to question their elected representative.

Robert Pitman, president of the ACU Students Association and a senior psychology major from Fort Worth, issued a special invitation to area college and high school students.

"This event provides a significant learning opportunity," for all students said

A number of items are on the agenda for the Monday, Jan. 28 meeting of the Eastland County Commissioners Court. The meeting will begin at 10 a.m. Monday in the Commissioners Courtroom, with County Judge Scott Bailey presiding.

There will be two requests for permission to cross county road with a pipeline. One is a request for permission to cross County Road No. 159 in Precinct 1 - submitted by Mrs. Ernest Sneed Jerry Cater.

The other request is for permission to cross County Road No. 223 in Precinct No. 3 with a pipeline, submitted by Hutch Petroleum, Bob Covington.

The Commissioners will be asked to consider maintenance of County Road No. 329 in Precinct No. 15.

Another item of business is the consideration of Secretarial help for the Department of Public Safety in Eastland.

A final decision will be made on naming the new Justice of the Peace in Precinct Two. (Ranger). This will fill the office vacated by James Veal on Jan. 1. Four people have applied for this position.

The Commissioners will continue their discussion of prohibition of damaging travel on rural roads in the county. They will consider which roads to specify, what load limits, and a uniform sign system.

The last items of business will be the naming of a complete Salary Grievance Committee, budgetary and appropriation matters, and bills, claims and accounts.

Pitman who challenged ACU, Hardin-Simmons and McMurry students to send delegations to the meeting.

The ACU Students' Association will provide volunteers to publicize the event and to serve as ushers and assist with the question and answer exchange in the auditorium.

Dr. Robert D. Hunter, vice president of the university, will serve as moderator for the event.

Stenholm, a native of Jones County, was elected to his first term in 1978 and immediately gained national attention as a member of the "Boll Weevils," a coalition of conservative southern Democrat Congressmen. A farmer himself, who has taught agriculture in the public schools, he has become well-respected in the Congress for his knowledge on issues facing the American farmer.

Legal Notice

Section 33.06 of the State Property Tax Code requires that each year the Chief Appraiser publicize the following information concerning the Deferral of Property taxes on the resident homestead property of those persons that are sixty-five (65) years of age or older, who satisfy the necessary requirements.

The property owner must occupy the residence homestead on which the tax is being levied or on which a suit has been filed for collection of delinquent taxes.

To obtain a deferral, the individual must file with the Chief Appraiser for the Appraisal District in which the property is located an affidavit; stating that they are sixty-five (65) years of age or older and that they do own and reside in the house that the tax is being levied on.

If a suit has already been filed by a tax unit, the individual must file with the court in which the suit was filed the same type of affidavit.

By filing the affidavit with the proper authority, the payment of taxes or forced collections through suit is postponed until the person filing the affidavit no longer owns and occupies the property as a residence state winner, third you must complete and turn in a 4-H Record Book.

No, they are not for everyone, but every 4-H'er needs to at least keep records on his/her project(s) on what is called a project record form. By completing these forms you'll get a certificate if its turned in. Take a step further and complete a 4-H Record Book on your favorite or strongest project. This opens up a world of its homestead.

Although the tax is deferred, it is not cancelled. A tax lien remains on the property and penalties and interest continue to accrue during the period collection of tax is deferred.

For information or assistance in filing an affidavit for tax deferral, please contact the Eastland County Appraisal District. The office is located on the second floor of the Eastland County Courthouse and the telephone number is 629-8597.

Last year Eastland County had only "5" 4-H'ers try for these honors...out of these, one advanced to state. So it is possible to win and it can happen to you if you'll just put in the little extra.

How can you learn more about "Record Books?" The extension service is providing a countywide training February 2nd, 9:30 - 12:00 at the Texas Electric Reddy Room. Bring old records project records, etc. Examples are available on the new forms, plus suggestions on service projects in various projects. We have new forms this year and different age divisions, so come on by to find out the latest scoop!

Oil-Related Issues Confront Legislators

The 69th Texas Legislature is now in session, and probably the biggest issue is the state's fiscal problem and what to do about it.

Legislators also face a number of issues that are not as widely discussed as budgets and taxes, but which are of vital importance to oil producers and royalty owners.

These include the leasing of highway minerals, the transfer of Railroad Commission water protection jurisdiction to the Department of Water Resources, extinguishing title to abandoned mineral interests, modifying the gas proration statutes, increasing permit fees at the Railroad Commission, bonding of oilfield pits, changes in gas utility regulations, oil and gas liens involved in purchaser done mineral interests, modifying the gas proration statutes, increasing permit fees at the Railroad Commission, bonding of oilfield pits, changes in gas utility regulations, oil and gas liens involved in purchaser bankruptcies, and uniform royalty reporting requirements.

Millions of dollars generated here in Eastland County hang on what our representatives do about these matters. Study these issues and let your opinion be known on them. Some have been discussed recently in the local newspapers. Be informed and work for the best legislation possible.

 BRINGS YOU THESE IMPORTANT TIPS...
YOU AUTO KNOW

You're more valuable than a tire; get well off the road before you try to change a flat, even if the tire will be ruined. It's dangerous to change a tire on a busy road—and highway death statistics prove it.

The wrong antifreeze in your car's cooling system may damage the engine. Check your owner's manual to be sure.

The engine will warm up faster if you drive than if you just let it idle. Keep speed low for a while.

Radial tires handle differently from others; don't mix them. Different tires should never be on the same axle. If the odd tire has been used as a spare, get the flat fixed and mounted as soon as possible.

Are you carrying beach chairs or other weight in your trunk? Put 'em away! Remember that every 100 pounds you carry cuts mileage by one or two percent.

Business Renditions Required

Section 22.01 of the State Property Tax Code requires that all tangible business personal property be rendered for ad valorem taxation each year. The rendition must be filed with the Chief Appraiser of the Central Appraisal District between January 1 and May 1 of each year.

During the next few weeks, an effort will be made by a personal property appraiser for the appraisal district to contact each of the business owners of the county. The appraiser will have 1985 rendition forms available at that time.

If you own a business and are not contacted soon, you should contact the Eastland County Appraisal District and request a rendition form. The completed form is required to be returned to the Eastland County Appraisal District prior to May 1, 1985, if it is to be considered timely filed.

For information concerning renditions or other pertinent property tax information, please contact the Eastland County Appraisal District which is located on the second floor of the Eastland County Courthouse. The telephone number is 1-817-629-8597.

1985 Exemption Applications Available

Eastland County property owners wishing to sign up for 1985 property tax exemptions may obtain the necessary application forms at the Eastland County Appraisal District Office in the Eastland County Courthouse.

The completed applications must be on file with the Appraisal District Office by May 1, 1985, if they are to be allowed for the 1985 tax year.

A list of several of the exemptions available appears at the end of this article. If a property owner has any question as to his or her eligibility for an exemption, they should contact the Appraisal District Office for assistance.

Residential homeowners who have been claiming a residential homestead exemption in prior years do not have to sign up again for 1985, as long as they own and still reside in the same residence as they claimed on their original application.

Those homeowners who have moved or have reached the age of 65, since their original application for 1985.

Exemptions: residential Homestead, over 65 residential homestead, disabled residential homestead, open space land, disabled veteran.

For information concerning these of any other type of property tax exemptions, please contact the Eastland County Appraisal District. The Appraisal District Office is located on the second floor of the Eastland County Courthouse and the telephone number is 629-8597.

WORD of GOD

But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

4-H'ers Learn About Photography

Saturday, January 19th, 14 4-H'ers and adults explored the world of photography. The day began with Kathy Hall of Rising Star giving tips on photography. She talked about basic techniques and form. Then later the group got in some practice shots outside. Two 4-H'ers film was processed and each photo was evaluated. What they could do to improve each shot etc. Then the 4-H'ers and adults took a tour of Express Photo on Main Street in Eastland. Mr. Farmer showed the group how he processed each type of film. From the processor, to the dryer and then to setting each picture. Each 4-H'er received a 5x7 photo of the group, compliments of Mr. Farmer. We would like to express our appreciation to the Farmers for opening up their place of business to the 4-H'ers of Eastland County. The day closed with handouts from the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Some of the conclusions reached by all these citizens, as well as their proposals for the future, will be discussed in future articles.

Long-Range Extension Program Book Off Press

The latest revised edition of the Eastland County Long Range Extension Program Book is just of the press. The first book of this type from the County Program Building Committee was published in 1963, and one other revised edition was published in 1976. So this current 64 page book is very timely, with information dated as late as Dec. 1984.

"This book mainly concerns agriculture, home economics, 4-H and community development in the county," states DeMarquis Gordon, county agent, "but of course these fields have a lot of influence on the quality of life in other areas. "It is put together by representative people from all over the county, who worked two years on the project. I think they did a great job. "The book is not meant as a manual to solve problems - it identifies problems and sets goals in an overall plans for the next five years. At that time we hope to have out another edition of the book with some of the current problems taken care of.

"These books are intended for the use of anyone in the area who is interested in improving Eastland County. You may obtain one by calling one of the agents."

County Extension Agents, in addition to DeMarquis Gordon, agriculture, are Mrs. Janet Thomas, home economics, Faith Ballard, 4-H and Paul Brown, 4-H.

About 80 Program Building Committee members and Resource People contributed time, information and effort to the publication.

The Executive Committee of the Program Builders is composed of Mrs. Dorothy Underwood, extension homemaker, chairman; Roy Johnson, peanut farmer, vice-chairman; Mrs. Betty Hart, community leader, secretary; and members: Charles Walerk, Pecan Grower's Association chairman, Ruth Cartee, coordinator for three Senior Citizens Centers, Joe Taylor, Farm and Ranch Management Committee chairman, Arlin Bint, rancher, Robert Donovan, Livestock and Forage Committee chair-

Resource people who contributed to developing the long-range plans outlined in the book are Scott Bailey, Eastland County Judge, Dr. Fred Cross, District Extension Community Development Specialist, Jack Jones, State Extension Community Development Specialist, the Eastland County town, Eastland County District Clerk, the Eastland County Department of Human Resources, Eastland Texas Electric Service Co., the Soil Conservation Service, the Farmer's Home Administration, and H.V. O'Brien and the Eastland Telegram.

Club Holds Meet

The Lake Cisco Extension Homemakers Club held their first meeting of 1985 on Wed., Jan. 23 at the Club House.

Janet Thomas, County Extension Agent gave a very interesting and challenging message on Eating and Cooking to stay fit. Each of those present will surely benefit if we follow the tips and recipes we received from her, and from the exchange of ideas offered by members in the discussion that followed.

Plans for the coming year are being formulated and we'd like to have you join us and help make '85 a productive year.

Express Thanks

The Cisco Rythmn Band entertained at the Putnam Nutrition Center Tues., the 22nd. All 25 members participated.

Several beautiful selections were played and the group sang several songs.

The people at the Nutrition Center enjoyed the music and visiting old and new friends. A good lunch was enjoyed by all. We at Putnam welcome all of you back soon.

Homemaking Hints County Extension Agent Janet Thomas

This week my Extension co-worker, DeMarquis Gordon, shared with us an article published in the Charolais Commercial Newsletter which was a reprint from the Livestock Market Digest. We enjoyed reading this article and I thought you might also!

"My bill at the grocery store last week was $137. If I had five kids and a hungry husband at home, that wouldn't have been too bad. But I thought it was a terrible price to pay for food for two people.

I was home stashing my supplies in the cabinet when a friend came over. In the midst of my singing the grocery store blues, she commented, "Oh, well, you probably bought a lot of meat."

She didn't know that we have half a beef in our freezer. The $137 went for flour and sugar and canned goods and cabbage but not meat. But her comments piqued my interest. Her opinion is a popular one. Most people blame their high grocery bills on the "high" cost of meat.

I decided to do some comparative pricing next time I went shopping. I found that the same grocery store sells beef loins for 16 cents an ounce charged 31 cents an ounce for halibut steak and 37 cents an ounce for lobster. Something was starting to smell a little fishy.

I like good home-grilled hamburgers, so I decided to find out what they were really costing. Ground beef was a bargain at 7 cents an ounce. But the accompanying catsup, mustard and mayonnaise retail for six, 16 and nine cents an ounce. Ouch!

In the next aisle, peanut butter was selling for 13 cents an ounce...and an ounce of crackers to go with it cost 26 cents. The new sugar-free jello is selling like hotcakes, at the prohibitive price of $1.36 an ounce. And corn chips at 90 cents and cheese puffs at 98 cents could sure run the bill up quickly!

At those prices, I didn't think eight cents an ounce was too much to pay for pork roast. Prepared breakfast cereal was selling for 18 cents an ounce, four cents more than the cost for an ounce of Choice Sirloin steak. Beef was looking a better buy all the time! I was glad I didn't like steak sauce when I found it cost 23 cents an ounce to put sauce on my 14 cents per ounce steak.

I found that a quarter would purchase an ounce of toothpaste or shampoo and razors retailed for 30 cents apiece. Light bulbs go for a dollar apiece. Deodorant costs 30 cents an ounce. And you can take a Porterhouse steak home for 20 cents an ounce, a nickel less than it takes to buy a roll of toilet paper.

And the list continues. One ounce of tea bags sells for 89 cents, but we haven't seen a reenactment of the Boston Tea Party. An ounce of KoolAid costs 75 cents and coffee goes for 27 cents an ounce. But boneless hams are sold for nine cents per pound.

I just can't figure why people will complain about paying 8 cents an ounce for round steak and turn right around and buy Stove Top stuffing for 16 cents an ounce. That is double the money! I prefer standing over a hot grill tending the beef ribs I bought for 6 cents an ounce to dusting furniture with my 11 cents an ounce polish. (Mmmmm, I can almost taste the barbecue right now!)

The store was full of paradoxes, salad dressing mix is sold for $1.87 an ounce and breakfast bars go for 30 cents. Chuck steak, on the other hand, can be bought for less than a dime. Ounce for ounce, candy bars sell for more than three times the price of Chuck steak.

When steaks are cheaper than paper towels or chocolate chips or coffee, I find it hard to believe that people can gripe about the prices they pay over the meat counter.

RECIPE FOR THE WEEK:

On these cold winter nights, you might like to try this recipe for Beef-Tortilla Casserole. Sounds delicious and is printed in the Texas Dept. of Agriculture's bulletin entitled "Cooking with Texas Beef".

BEEF-TORTILLA CASSEROLE

- 6 flour tortillas
 - Oil
 - 2-3 cups shredded roast beef
 - Salt to taste
 - 1/2 cup sour cream
 - 1/2 cup chopped green onions
 - 1 cup grated Monterey Jack or cheddar cheese
 - 1/2 to 1 cup canned green chili salsa
 - Guacamole (optional)
 - Sour cream (optional)
- Cut tortillas into 1 inch squares and fry in hot oil until crisp; drain. Mix beef, salt, sour cream, onions and cheese together. Place half the tortilla chips in medium casserole; cover with meat mixture. Sprinkle with remaining chips. Top with chili salsa. Bake, uncovered at 350 degrees for 20 minutes or microwave for 4 minutes. Top with guacamole and sour cream, if desired. Serves 3-4 people.

Attention Dog Lovers

There will be a dog obedience school for all 4-H'ers and other interested parties. The classes will begin Tuesday, January 29, with an organizational meeting and will run for about ten weeks, culminating in a County Dog Show in April. The organizational meeting will be at the County Courthouse basement in Eastland starting at 7 p.m. No dogs at the organizational meeting! The classes will last about an hour, once a week at the Eastland County Showbarn.

Dogs do not have to be registered. It is best that dogs are at least 6 months of age. Dogs need to visit their veterinarians and get their shots. A certificate, proving he has had his shots, need to be present before the dog will be able to participate.

The Los Pinos Kennel in Gorman will be teaching the classes. The school is offered to anyone interested but will probably be divided into two groups. One group will be for all 4-H'ers and younger people. The other group will meet immediately after the first group and will consist of adults and older 4-H'ers. The school will be offered free for all 4-H'ers interested. For adults and others the total cost of the eight to ten week course will be $30.00 per dog. The course is offered to everyone, for more information, contact Paul Brown at the Texas Agricultural Extension Office in Eastland at 629-1093.

Directors Of Eastland County Water Supply District Seats New Member

The Board of Directors of the Eastland County Water Supply District seated a new member Thursday afternoon.

Tom Crowder of Eastland will serve the unexpired term of Bruce Pipkin, deceased. Government leaders of Eastland and Ranger were invited by board members to attend.

City Manager Roy Underwood and Commissioner W.Q. Verner represented Eastland. Mayor Raymond Hart and Councilman Ron Butler represented Ranger.

The possibility of an increase in cost of water pumped to the two towns was discussed. Board member M.H. Perry said rates had not been increased in five years and stood at $6,000 plus 17 1/2 cents for each 1,000 gallons of water per month.

Perry said the $6,000 will probably remain, but board members are considering increasing costs per 1,000 gallons by 5 cents to 22 1/2 cents.

"This will enable us to stay in the black," Perry said.

Underwood asked if more water could be allocated to Eastland, and Mayor Hart countered with, "We'd be glad to just get the amounts promised in our contract."

"We should get 1.8 million gallons in a 24-hour period," Hart said.

Perry answered that Ranger's contract allows the town 1.5 million gallons. City fathers were assured they will get notice of the planned rate increase at least two months before it takes effect so arrangements can be made to adjust customers bills if necessary.

NOTICE

The Flatwood Cemetery Association will hold their annual meeting, Monday, Jan. 28, at 7 p.m. in the Texas Electric Reddy Room.

All interested persons are urged to attend.

Fiuggi
We spent four days here, and visited many of the towns and battlefields from this site.

Fiuggi, or the relaxation holiday. The mineral springs of Fiuggi have curative properties which have earned the gratitude of millions of people from time immemorial, including Michaelangelo and those monarchs who, in ancient time, had the water sent to them in butts, held to be more precious than those containing wine.

The waters of Fiuggi make a truly valid contribution to the treatment of uricaemia, stone and other kidney afflictions.

But Fiuggi itself is a beautiful town (2,360 ft.) in a wooded valley in Southern Latium and is also a noted resort area. The town, although modern and possessing all that a spa and a holiday resort should have, belongs to ancient Italy, an ancient brown and green Latium with great trees, massive walls, austere mountains. All around there are peaceful villages where life is still patriarchal, with high walls, flights of steps, shady and smelling of wine-cellars, of meat being grilled over wood-ash and of trees.

Fiuggi, in the province of Frosinone, is a pleasant modern town set in chestnut woods and surrounded to the north, east and west by the Ernici range of mountains. Due to the geographical position the climate is cool, dry and breezy during the summer months. The two urban centers, Fiuggi Town, which stands on a rise and has the appearance of a medieval village, and Fiuggi Fonte, an elegant spa area that lies on the slopes of the town has many parks, hotels, clubs, gardens, for those tourists and those taking the cure.

The baths are to be found in two buildings: the "Fonte Fontafacio Ottavo", recently enlarged and modernized, and the new "Fonte Anticolana".

The former stands on the area occupied by the traditional "Bonifacio" spring and is a combination of open and closed spaces, with walks enclosed in bold arches.

The large theatre-cum-cinema at "Fonte Anticolana" is used during the summer for performances by the leading Italian companies, orchestras and singers of international standing, and for musical and variety shows.

There were three hotels located along the street not far from the town, and our tours stayed here. Bus No. 1 an 2 stayed at the Grand Hotel Vallombrosa, which was four stories high and our room was on the third floor, and faced west. This gave us an excellent view of the activities that were going on, and we watched the Italians who went to the spa each morning, and again in the evenings for their daily mineral water.

These mostly were older men, they wore suits, a sweater vest and carried umbrellas. The women walked a few paces behind the men, and were dressed in dark clothing, dresses, sweaters, wore black hose and wore heavy black oxfords.

At the spa, which was also a special gathering place, the mineral water flowed freely into fountain like containers. The water was at various temperatures, and they would feel of the "spigots" to see which degree of heat they wanted their water to be, then fill their cups and drink it. Our guide warned us to be very careful if we drank the water, however, I doubt if any had enough nerve to do so.

Our room was comfortable and well furnished, and we had noticed while driving thru southern Italy that many of the apartments and other buildings had some type of "shade" on the outside of the windows. Our room had this and it was a wooden blind something similar to the venetian blinds, there was a device inside our room that raised or lowered the "blind" which make the room warmer in winter with it down and cooler in summer with it raised.

Here again the elevators were very small, which seemed to be typical of the hotels but the stairways were wide and many used hose instead of the elevators which were usually crowded.

The lobby was very spacious and had a number of "sitting" areas, the gardens were very pretty, and there was a large swimming pool. The weather was much cooler here than near the ocean, and some rain had made it even more so.

Again we all ate breakfast and dinner together. Breakfast was not a big meal, and usually consisted of sweet rolls, toast, jellies, fruit and coffee. The coffee was brought to the tables in small pitchers and another one contained warm milk, thus one could make his own "American Coffee."

One morning, one of the young ladies in the group, who was traveling with her parents, ordered scrambled eggs, and she did get them, they were seasoned with salt paper and a little wine, but uncooked, they were raw, and we all had a good laugh about this. However, the next morning there were scrambled eggs, cooked, the waiter called them "eggas."

The Italians eat a very good large meal at noon and again at night so this is why breakfast is always a small meal.

Very few of the people at the hotel could speak English, one of the young man that worked at the desk in the lobby could speak a little, but there was an older man who had many duties, who spoke fairly good English.

Each evening in the dining room, he saw that everything was taken care of properly. He always wore a red jacket, trimmed with gold braid and gold buttons (during the day he wore a blue jacket when he was supervising the maids, etc).

Then another man had charge of the young men waiters. Two young men were assigned to each table. We usually had soup, and this was brought in a large container on a serving table with soup bowls, then the young men would serve us. There was always cheese in a small container, and they brought this around and sprinkled this on the soup. We believe this recipe was used throughout Italy in the hotels, always we had this soup. Then we always had some type of pasta. The Italians are "big" on pasta.

This was served from large baking dishes that were on the serving tables. Then the main course was brought in, on large platters. One young man carried the planter and the other served the guests. This was usually some type of veal, pork, and fish, though we did not have fish but once, and potatoes, beans, or peas. We never had any fried food at the hotels.

The dessert was a pastry filled with some type of custard, very delicious. Then after the tables were cleared, large bowls of fruit were brought in, apples, pears, and large plums, all grown in southern Italy. Then the grapes were served, in large bowls and small bowls of water were brought in also. We washed the grapes in the water and ate them. This seemed to be a custom to do this.

When we walked through town, we noticed the Italians here were all very dark. They wore dark clothing, the women wore skirts and sweaters and most of the men wore suits. We did not see women wearing pants here, and we saw no one wearing blue jeans.

We saw very few teenagers or children, on the streets. Very few people spoke English here, however, it was very difficult to shop, so we did not have that much trouble with the language.

The shops are very small, just the size of a single garage door, and they used what seemed to be the garage door that rolled up and down at the front of the shop to close it up.

It was locked at the bottom to a piece of metal attached to the side walk. Many of the shops were "closed" for the season.

Others opened from 8:30 to 1 and we were usually gone on a tour during this period. Sometimes they did open late in the afternoon. It seemed all the people ate large meals at noon, and needed to rest for a period of time before returning to work. It did not seem to bother them that here were tourist that might spend some money in their shop if they were open.

We did find a shop or store that was similar to our grocery stores, but on a much smaller scale. It did have American brand products, but the containers had the information in Italian on them.

We saw very few TV's in southern Italy and it was impossible to buy an English newspaper. After awhile, it did not seem to matter if we did not hear the news several times a day or read the newspaper. It seemed that we were isolated from the outside world, but we enjoyed it.

WINTER OVERCOAT.

Newspaper Plant Established In 1971

When the doors opened for an open house at Eastland County Newspapers Co.'s new $100,000 web-offset printing plant in Eastland on Sunday, Sept. 17, 1971 it was the culmination of a long-held dream for the principals involved. It was also the beginning of a new era for this prime agricultural-oriented area.

As is often the case, the 3 to 5 p.m. open house followed one of the "heaviest" production weeks since the plant went into operation in its re-modeled building on the south side of the square in Eastland about the first of August.

Approximately 300 attended on a "World-Series, Dallas Cowboy" afternoon, and were rewarded with a complete look-see of the new equipment in operation. Staffers made photos early and visitors were handed a four-page souvenir edition fresh off the press before they left. It was the "cleanest" plant in the state on that date - never having been so scrubbed before, or since.

Publisher H.V. O'Brien and his No. One assistant, Wife Gay Nell, left the plant about 4 a.m. Sunday, after over-seeing and helping with the cleaning, following a full-day's production Saturday when big Sunday open house editions for Eastland, Cisco and Ranger were printed.

Among the distinguished guests at the opening were Lt. Gov. and Mrs. Ben Barnes.

The year '71 goes down in history for this organization as one not to be soon forgotten. The publisher had double-hernia surgery in late January and converted to offset in the summer. Today he can't remember which was the most painful.

The firm prints eight different issues a week - seven of its own and a weekly on contract - plus junior college papers four times a month.

Made up of the Cisco Press, Eastland Telegram and the Ranger Times, the company prints a Tuesday afternoon Cisco issue; a Rising Star on contract Wednesday morning and an Eastland Telegram and Ranger Times on Wednesday afternoon for Thursday morning delivery; a Cisco Press Thursday afternoon issue; and one each Press, Times and Telegram each Saturday for Sunday delivery. The college papers are "worked in" to the schedule without difficulty.

The new three-unit NewsKing turns out 12 pages in one pass, and the staff is developing techniques including color runs. Type is all set by Compugraphic, utilizing a 7200 head machine and a 4961 twin-lens computer. Type is punched on a new AKI keyboard, backed up by an old Fairchild "brown" tapepuncher. Process camera is a Kenro vertical and darkroom is modern with fiberglass sinks.

Formerly operating in a better-than-average, hot-type shop located at Cisco, the transition, not without trauma, actually wasn't too bad. There wasn't an issue missed even though the first efforts were far from ideal. Expertise is coming gradually.

Remodeling of the 50-year-old Eastland Telegram two-story building to accept the new plant was an experience. All typesetting equipment and pasteup is done upstairs away from the traffic of the downstairs office supply business and other allied newspaper business.

A dumb waiter shuffles copy up and page layouts down.

An existing photographic darkroom was modified and modernized.

The building is only 23 feet wide, and aisles on either side of the press are three and a half feet wide. The press is positioned with the delivery toward the front (just outside the publisher's office window) and the roll stands are toward the rear. A four-legged "table" was constructed to carry an "I" beam for the electric hoist, and rolls are fed out of an added newsprint storage room at the rear (formerly in the alley), and onto the hoist for delivery to the press.

Most personnel was kept and retained and only recently has a man, David Snyder, been added who comes with actual offset experience. The operation began with what had been garnered from texts and gained from salesmen. David heads up the darkroom and platemaking department very efficiently.

Press installation was ideal and Chief Pressman Ted Rogers, an A-1 letterpress pressman for many years, proves that good printer who knows good printing, can learn to operate the new "water and ink" system perfectly.

The firm continues to do its commercial work in a modern offset-letterpress shop at its Ranger office, under the direction of Veteran Printer Hale Dunson.
