THE DECEMBER issue (fall, 1985) of The Cross Timbers Review, the nice magazine published at Cisco Junior College, has come to our desk. And we spent an interesting three hours reading pieces of historical importance and entertain-

Dr. Monte Lewis of CJC is the editor and his staff includes Dr. Ken Hammes and Dr. Cleatus Rattan of CJC and profs at H-SU and Midwerstern . . . We enjoyed a piece about the late Fred Gipson's Trail Driving Rooster, a novel for juveniles. Fred has been called "a modern day Mark Twain" for such books as his "Old Yeller." The feature story deals with an uprising in the Taos country of New Mexico during the 1850 era ...

. There are two nice illustrations by CJC's Sue Millinax and another by Tina Walker, freshman student at CJC from Lubbock who is an art major as a member of the Lady Wrangler basketball team.

If you're not already a subscriber, send a check to Dr. Lewis for $6 and start getting The Review.

THE GOOD RAIN early this past week had various effects. For example, the dog out at the Roy Dennis home didn't want any part of it. He went into the dog house and wouldn't come out. They had to hand his food and water in to him. And Mr. Earl Ray, local welding shop proprietor, has a dog that is a real ham. Earl made some movies of the dog with his video camera and then showed the film on their TV. The dog sat up and took notice and seemed to enjoy every minute of it. When the segiment with the dog went off, the Ray dog moved away from the TV. But any time they show the bit with the dog in it, he comes running.

MRS. POLLY Wright of our town recently underwent surgery and the recuperation process includes a very strict diet. She was invited to eat out with friends the other night, and they all went to Ramona's, the nice Mexican food place near Eastland. After studying the menu, Polly ordered the only thing compatible with her diet - a flour tortilla. And she ate it with a bit of butter. Polly's dinner check amounted to 30 cents plus tax. "That's the smallest check I ever wrote,' remarked Maggie Jeminez, one of everybody's favorite waitresses.

WHAT'S JOE Heyser, No. 2 son of the J.V. Heysers, doing these days? He has a truck that's leased to an Illinois company and he hauls assorted things any and everywhere. This week, he was in Florida.

The J.V. Heysers were in Houston to visit daughters Sherry and Sicily and families last weekend. And Joe stopped in en route with his truck toward Florida. They enjoyed a reunion.

Dorothy Pyke

District Clerk

Announces For

Dorothy Pyke has announced for election as 91st District Clerk and has authorized this newspaper to issue the following statement: Dorothy Pyke has announced her candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the office of 91st District Clerk. This year's primary will be held on May 3rd.

Dorothy resides at Lake Leon where she and her husband, the late H.D. (Doug) Pyke, built a lake house in 1959. Doug and Dorothy, with their five children, made Eastland County their permanent residence in 1968 following Mr. Pyke's retirement from an overseas assignment in Europe. Her three youngest children, Shirley, Weesie and Joni are all graduates of Eastland High School, while Carol and Jim attended Texas Colleges

Dorothy is a member of the First United Methodist Church of Eastland, Texas.

Dorothy cites her twelve years as a legal secretary in Eastland as one of her qualifications for the office of district clerk. "In my capacity as a legal secretary I have had the opportunity to familiarize myself with the duties and responsibilities of the office I now seek. As your district clerk I will carry out the duties of the office in a friendly, courteous and efficient manner.

"The number of cases filed in the 91st District Court has risen dramatically in the past several years. I understand that it will require diligence and hard work to keep the pace with the increasing demands of the case load. I consider this to be a top priority.

"I will appreciate your vote on May 3, 1986."

County Official Proclaims 10th-14th "Farm Bureau Week" In County

County Judge Scott Bailey has signed a proclamation designating February 10-14 as "Farm Bureau Week" in Eastland County.

The week is part of a statewide observance during which county Farm Bureaus will make a special effort to enroll new members, according to Bob Shults of Rising Star, president of the Eastland County Farm Bureau.

John Kidd of Eastland is chairman of the membership committee which is responsible for membership acquisition maintenance. Other committee members are: Bill Walton and Morris Underwood both of Ranger. "The Texas Farm Bureau, with more than 300,000 member families, is the largest state Farm Bureau in the nation," the proclamation reads.

"Farm Bureau is a grassroots organization and its foundation is the county unit. There are 217 organized county Farm Bureaus in the state including the Eastland County Farm Bureau," the and proclamation states.

Shults said the local county Farm Bureau has 1,923 member families and is seeking to exceed that figure in 1986.

He said that the Farm Bureau is a general farm organization that seeks to improve income and living conditions of farm and ranch families. It represents the farmer and rancher at the local county courthouse, in Austin, and in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C.

The Empressarios: Rooting a Culture

Still reeling from Anglo-Saxon filibusters and revolutions on the Spanish Texan frontiers. Texas Governor Martinez was given strict orders by representatives of the Crown to keep foreigners out of the territory, recounts T. R. Fehrenbach in his book. Lone Star. But a combination of circumstances and business savvy provided the Anglo-American Moses Austin the first empressario contract in 1821. The land grant allowed him to settle 300 of the "right sort" of North Americans-Roman Catholics who agreed to pledge their loyalty to Spain

The time was ripe for Austin, who was reeling from his own catastrophe back in St. Louis. The bank for which he was the principal stockholder collapsed, as speculative land values fell and the first depression of the United States took hold. But the 60-year-old Austin never realized his dreams for colonization in Texas. He died from the rigors of his return trip through the wilderness from Texas to Missouri. His son, Stephen F. Austin, then 27, took on the grant and rode south to Texas to negotiate with Spanish authorities and map out his colony

The young Austin was a diplomat and a visionary. There was no shortage of applicants for his land titles. which sold for a fraction of the cost of U.S. land. Historian Margaret Henson tells us that each family received a league (4,428 acres) of pasture land and a labor (177 acres) of farm land for a modest payment of $60 in fees to the land commissioner, surveyor, and the clerk making the deeds. The empressario received no money, only five leagues and five labores for each

Roman Catholic and fewer still understood the implications of the official Hispanic system of municipality. Instead, as both Fehrenbach and Henson suggest. Austin took on the more critical roles-judge, mayor, "father confessor"-and delegated the details of governing to the avuntamiento, or governing council.

Austin ultimately received three more contracts allowing the settlement of 900 more families, Henson says, on land between the Brazos and Colorado watersheds below the Old Spanish Road from San Antonio to Nacogdoches. In addition, he managed a small area in central Texas and an extension from the coastal area to the San Jacinto River. By 1831, Austin claimed 5.665 residents in his colonies and had earned well over 200,000 acres of premium land.

Other relatively minor empressarios began to develop settlements a few years after Austin. Green DeWitt settled some families near Gonzales. Martin DeLeon established a colony of mostly native Mexicans around Victoria. The Robertson Colony on the Brazos watershed changed hands several times. (eventually returning to agent Sterling Clark Robertson). and farther south, two Irish colonies struggled to survive.

After a decade of empressarios, Fehrenbach states in Lone Star. thousands of Anglo-Americans were established in Texas and the foundations for cotton and cattle kingdoms were laid. Just as the Spanish authorities had anticipated, Texas settlements faced a profound clash of cultures. Indeed, the trusted empressario Stephen F. Austin found himself balancing between Mexican interests and "the swarm of his own race." The

Dinner Theatre Production "The Servant Of Two Masters" To Preview February 24th-26th In Cisco

Caroll Brown, director of theatre at Cisco Junior College, announces the cast of the Fine Art Department's upcoming dinner theatre production, "The Servant of Two Masters". This classic comedy will preview 24, 25 and 26 February and open for dinner theatre audiences 27 and 28 February and 1 March.

Briefly, the story takes place in old Venice in the mid-18th century at the engagement of Pantalone's daughter, Clarice, to the Widow's son, Silvio. We meet Beatrice, who comes to Venice diguised as her brother, to look for her fiance who was Clarice's fiance who was killed in a duel...by her fiance. The standard melodramatic mixups are furthered by Truffaldino who keeps Beatrice and Florindo apart by apprenticing to both of them. Sounds confusing, but it's all a part of the zany comic style which is a trademark of the commedia d'el arte period.

By Ma'e Green

Canterbury Villa, 1400 Front Street, will have a Valentine Open House and Benefit for the Jaws of Life on Friday, Feb. 14. There will be sweetheart dinner and a concert held there.

Performing in the concert will be Bob Bevers, a oneman band and the Senior Citizens Band. Dr. Fred Cullens, administrator, will also play the accordian and piano.

Dr. Fred, as he is known at the nursing home, has played in programs on T.V. and radio. He has also played in a gospel quartet in Springfield, Mo.

Donations to the Jaws of Life will be accepted and this benefit is to promote the Jaws of Life. The open house is for the public to see the work recently done at Canterbury Villa.

Officials from Texas Health Enterprises, Inc., will also be there.

Correction

In a recent article printed in the Cisco Press it was stated that Dale Stewart, who recently earned a diploma from International Correspondence Schools, is employed at Cisco Independent School District. At the present time Mr. Stewart is employed at Hoka Hey Art Foundery in Dublin. He does metal work and is the "metal chaser" there.

Mr. Stewart has been employed with the School District until last June when he went to work for Hoka Hey. The Press would like to apologize for this error.

"YOU'RE NOT SHOPPING IN CISCO THIS YEAR?" By Bill Austin Jr. Of course not and there's a bunch of good reasons, just listen; "First, I love potholes and gravel streets, spending my money out of town means less local sales tax coming back to the city to use fixing and paving streets.

"The same hold true for water processing and sewer treatment. If I spend most of my money out of town, perhaps the day will come when there won't be funds available to maintain our water and sewer systems. Then I can put a privy out by the alley start hauling water from the nearest water hole.

"Also I want to put more people out of work and increase our unemployment and welfafe costs. By spending my money out of town, it creates jobs in those cities, and costs jobs here since there is less cash flow in town.

"I don't think we are paying enough taxes which incidentally will have to increase to pay for those increased welfare and unemployment costs caused by the lost jobs and business here.

"I'm tired of seeing the kids around here get a good education and spending my money out of town can help force local businesses to close, meaning less tax base at home, therefore less money to finance schools and teachers salaries.

"Cisco is too big. If I spend my money out of town it will shrink and someday be the size it ought to be, you known, forty or fifty people.

Now you may think the foregoing comments are pretty ridiculous, but hidden in that bunch of fluff and nonsense are some serious and sobering truths.

Truth number one is that our business community has been for the past two or three years and is now in serious difficulty due to lack of faithful patronage by local resaidents. A logical extension of that fact is that every local business person has in the back of his mind the perfectly vaiable option of closing his doors, packing it all up and moving on down the road to some other community where his efforts would be better received.

This is not to say that any one of them wants this to happen but business decisions do not always follow the leanings of our hearts. So if you think that it can't or won't happen here I would urge you to think again. A conscious effort on your part will make the difference.

Another truth is that the taxes to services relationship will most definitely be affected adversely. One business closing can remove thousands of sales tax dollars from city coffers to say nothing of the loss of property taxed to city, school, county and other taxing entities. Falling property values makes it a continuous dibilitating cycle.

A third but far more subtle factor is the attidue of many of our people, the concept that Cisco and what it has to offer is not good enough. While it is true that you can not get absolutely everything you need or want here in town, most of the needs of everyday life can be met by the business people who have put themselves at risk to serve this community. Reason enough to always give them the first look before going elsewhere.

The point is that if we do not make a concerned conscious effort to change our shopping habits, if we do not care about what happens to our town, if we like spending our money out of town that much, all we have to do is keep on doing it and pretty soon we will have to.

few years, City Manager Mike Moore told the Cisco Lions Club in a talk last Wednesday noon at their weekly luncheon at the Colony Restaurant.

Two of the problems, water treatment facilities and water distribution lines, are in the final stage of solution, the city manager said. The new water treatment plant at Lake Cisco has improved the quality of city water to the point that regular tests show good results.

The city hopes by April 1 to reach a goal set by Mayor Eris Ritchie and the City Council- to be able to post "Approved Water Supply" signs on the roads leading into town. Officials of the State Health Department have been invited to inspect the city water facilities, Mr. Moore said.

All primary lines and valves for the city water distribution system have been replaced and upgraded, the city manager said. A few more main line improvements are needed to complete this project.

The city expects to open bids at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 4, to award a contract for the construction of a new wastewater treatment plant, Mr. Moore reported. Plans and specifications for the project have been given final approval by the City council and by state agencies.

After a four-hour executive meeting on Friday, Jan. 31, City of Eastland Commissioners decided to void a recent land sale between the city and Municipal Judge Robert Webb. The following statement was issued: "Several months ago the City of Eastland and Robert M. Webb attempted to enter into a sale of city property consisting of approximately 10.46 acres. Subsequent to the execution of the deed by the City of Eastland and Webb, it was discovered by both parties that various statutory requirements concerning conveyances by a municipality had not been met. No intent of wrong doing was determined on the part of either party. In order to resolve the matter, it is agreed that the property in question be reconveyed to the City of J.V. Heyser, Cisco rancher, and J.P. of Pct. 4, has been inducted into the Cattle Breeders Hall of Fame. Heyser, president of the Texas Angus Association for 1965, has raised and shown a fine line of Angus cattle for the last 15 years. The Heyser ranch represents the third generation of the family engaged in the breeding of cattle, dating back to 1887. One of Mr. Heyser's biggest contributions to the Angus breed in Texas has been his importation of a fine strain of Canadian-bred cattle over a period of several years. These cattle are widely known for quality and showmanship.

sometimes sport a trashy look of late, it makes me wonder how many of us made a point to compliment Mr. Elmore on the neat job he did? How many people could you tell right now that they are doing a good job? Or have I quit gossiping and gone to meddling? One of the school principals I had appreciated what a lift a word at the right time could give a teacher. If he didn't happen to make the rounds of the rooms, he'd leave a note in your box. Of course, he could hit on you with downers, too. Our faculty meetings were at eight on Tuesday morn-

Marvin Payne played the theme, accompanied by Marvin Payne. No, no clones here. Not even people by the same name. Just one "Ol' Marvin", as he is usually referred to by his mother, Viola Pavne, no mean performer herself, but the violin is her instrument. Marvin managed this musical feat by laying down a sound track for his accompaniment on some new recording equipment he has acquired recently.

This talent comes through Viola, their mother and their father, the late Travis Payne. Travis could make a harmonica stand and talk to you without half trying as well as being the source of the guitar talent.

Well, I could go on about some more musicians from the Autry's (Viola's) side of the family, but I figure this is enough to have Marvin breathing fire. If I don't have a column next week, check on Marvin.

But I'm not through the Payne-ful subject yet. (If you can't stand puns, pretend that didn't happen.)

Viola Payne was working as interim editor of the RANGER TIMES when a group of Western Manor decided to publish a "little booklet." Times Remembered is the name of the group, and "Bits of Wisdom", title of the book they came up with, was suggested by Viola. She chipped in with bits of her own wisdom about writing and the book was a sell-out...over 500 copies. Mary Lee Langford of Eastland is Activities Director of the Western Manor center, and Anita Walton is a volunteer. Both of these people contributed to make the book a reality. Recently, the Times Remembered group wiped out its funds with a contribution to the Ranger Fire Department...they are going to come up with another project, and they feel they can expect the same cooperation on publicity from Charlie Jordan of KTAB, Maybelle Trout of the Abilene-Reporter, and the Eastland

By Lillian Cogburn Price First Blue Northern: Hog Killin' Time!

The first Blue Northern was a sure sign it was hogkillin' time!

A big fire was built around the big black washpot, so the water would be boiling hot by the time the hog was ready to be scalded and scrapped clean. Neighbors helped each other during this time. Papa had good neighbors and brothers who helped. When the men went to the hog pen to shoot the hog, the women and girls stayed behind the house with their fingers in their ears so they could not hear the shot. It was soon over, and the hog was ducked in the boiling water, laid on a wagon frame to be scrapped clean as a whistle. Then he was hung on a shingletree, fastened to a big tree limb, and cleaned out.

He was now ready for the cutting of the hams, shoulders, and all other nice cuts. The women trimmed the fat off and cut it into small pieces to be rendered into lard. The bladder was

A TRIBUTE TO THE ADDYS

On this very happy occasion, twinged with sadness, I want to take the opportunity to express my appreciation and love for two very special people. My thoughts go back more years than I care to number- but it's been a long time. Childhood memories of growning up as your neighbor on Park Drive and jumping out of a big tree in the park right on top of a very large mesquite thorn. Dr. Addy to the rescue to tenderly remove the thorn and soothe away my tears. Tomboy that I was, it was very reassuring to know that my next door neighbor was a doctor just in case I broke something out there falling out of trees, off bicycles, etc. (Never did break anything.) I remembr your patience when I just had to have my ears peirced and you knew I was too young, but you did it for me anyway. Sure enough, they grew up as the fad passed, and you laughed. Through measles, mumps, pimples and flu, you were always there at my bedside- healing, helping and caring. Later as I raised a family in the city. I remembered those times and learned to appreciate a "country doctor", one that comes to you when you are too sick to go to him.

I remember many times coming in from dates, ballgames, etc., late at night, seeing your car leaving on yet another mission of mercy to someone in need. I grew up thinking that doctors must not require sleep like other people. It was such a privilege to watch you about your work- helping and healing mankind-knowing that your enemies of pain, suffering and death were somehow defeated each time you helped a tiny, squirming "miracle of life" into this world. I remember the fun of toting your kiddoes around when they were toddlers and being a mother hen to them whenever you would let me. Speical memories of Ina Jean's homemade cookies and popcorn balls on Halloween and Christmas. What a treat to look forward to! Then graduation from high school, and the lovely gold bracelet you gave me is still among my speical treasures. It is as lovely now as it was then. After I married and moved away from Cisco, I didn't see you too often, but our lives would touch many more times, because Cisco was, and is, "home." In 1973 when my daddy passed away your gentle comfort and sympathy were a great help. And I sensed your own loss at having said good-bye to a dear old friend.

When tragedy struck our lives in 1982 nd we lost our grandbaby to SIDS, you ere there as always with comforting ords of sympathy and understanding. our compassion then, as always, was o very evident. In the months that ollowed as Tami quickly had another aby to try to fill the great void in her ife, her body began to rebel against the motional and physical trauma it had een through. Again we leaned on you or medical treatment and your gentle, teady assurance in the middle of the ight helped us through yet another of fe's storms.

You have always been tehre, and we ould always depend on you. So to say ve will miss you is so inadequate; to ay that you are greatly admired is apropriate, but still inadequate; but to ay that we appreciate and love you is incerely heartfelt. May the Lord's reatest blessings overtake you as you njoy many more years as our eighbors and very dear friends.

THE EDDIE McMillans went over to San Angelo last Tuesday for him to attend to some business. Mrs. McM spent the day with her grandchildren and their parents, Lee and Angie McMillan . . . Mayor Eris Ritchie reports that he neglected to mention Brad Kimbrough's name when he was recognizing CofC directors at the annual banquet the other night. "Brad is a valuable member of the board and a good citizen and I'm sorry for the omission," the mayor said . . . You'll want to see the paintings by Bertha Reimers, the First National Bank's Artist of the Month. They're very nice, indeed.

THE BILLY Joe Taylors, who have had Post Office Box No. 1 here for a good many years, received a postcard the other day. It was addressed to The Taylor Family, Cisco, Texas. It was from a San Angelo television producer and he told the Taylor family that "your Whammy Rhymes will be on the 'Press Your Luck' TV show Thursday, Feb. 20th." This message doesn't ring any bells at their house, Mrs. BJT told us. They feel that some Cisco area Taylor family will know what the card means and will want to be listening and looking.

ONE OF OUR scouts was reading the Abilene a good many years. newspaper the other day and noticed a story that Olney's "Star" theater was to get the wrecking ball treatment. The story quoted an Olney man, Mr. Will Morris, as saying "I guess it (the old theater) used in filming inside scenes for the movie, 'The Last Picture Show,' really is the last picture show.

Not so, says our scout. Cisco's Palace Theater located at 112 W. 8th Street, is board up but intact.

Mr. J.D. Yowell, who once worked at the Palace, guesses a movie has not been shown there in 15 years or longer. The Palace has a telephone listing in the 1985-86 directory but when the number (442-9991) is dialed, a recording comes on and says the number is not a working one and to please consult your directory or dial again. Understand the Palace is owned by Wesley Walker of Abilene. He operated it for a number of years as well as a drive-in movie out on Highway 80 east.

When we moved to Cisco in the year 1948, you had to stand in line to get tickets to attend the Palace. And you needed a reservation to get a room at the Laguna Hotel.

This bank and its customers are affected continually by what takes place in our community.

Conversely, our community is affected continually by the part the bank and its customers play in its daily life.

Thus, the interest of the bank and its customers, on one hand, and the community, on the other, are close. In fact they are identical.

We are proud to share with you what your local bank did in Cisco during the 1985 calendar year:

Donations and Contributions to Local and County Non-profit Organizations and Charitable Organizations - $14,595.44

Municipal and School Bonds Purchased during 1985 and Bonds Held in the Bank's Bond Portfolio - $390,332.22

Commercial, Agricultural, Consumer and Real Estate Loans Covering the Trade Territory of First National Bank in Cisco - $13,228,954.19

Employment for 26 Officers and Employees Actively Involved in Community Affairs

We are proud of the contributions we are making and pledge to you that we will continue trying to be a good corporate citizen and offering you the best that banking can offer.

Sincerely,

FIRST NATIONAL BANK IN CISCO BOARD OF DIRECTORS
