For more details on the "Election Special" contact the local offices of the Eastland Telegram, Cisco Press or Ranger Times before 5 p.m. Monday.

Cisco Fire Department Orders Jaws Of Life

Cisco Volunteer Fire Department wishes to say thank you Cisco. With the citizens support and donations, they were able to order the Jaws of Life.

The Jaws of Life has been ordered from Texas Fire Rescue Systems of New Braunfels. The Hurst Tool with a Honda engine was ordered. This is a larger and faster unit than was demonstrated at the chili and stew supper. A 30 day delivery is expected. Texas Fire Rescue Systems has given a two year warranty instead of the usual one year. They will train all firemen in the use of the JofL, and all firemen will be certified in its use. In addition, T.F.R. Systems is giving two paid tuitions for firemen to attend their instructors training school to be held in June.

Cisco Volunteer Fire Department again says thank you, Cisco. They pledge to the citizens their help in time of need.

Pony League Meeting Tuesday

The Cisco Pony League will be forming a baseball team for 13-year old players. Anyone who is interested in playing is asked to meet at the Pony League Field on Tuesday, April 22, or Friday, April 25.

COLLEGE STATION--Regardless of your alma mater or college loyalty, you'll be proud of our state's outstanding educational facilities and opportunities after a tour of the campus of Texas A&M University.

The A&M campus was on the itinerary of our travel trailer caravan, and it was a very interesting tour. The A&M complex is spread over 5,142 acres and represents a physical plant valued at more than $500 million dollars. The school's enrollment is approximately 36,000 students, including 14,000 women.

Texas A&M University is one of the 10 largest schools in the nation. It includes 11 colleges that offer both under-graduate and graduate training in virtually every field of endeavor. Its Veterinary Medicine school is the largest in the country, and the College of Agriculture is the second largest in the nation.

The Texas A&M faculty numbers some 2,700 men and women and some 80 per cent of them hold doctorate degrees. A&M has produced three Rhodes Scholars in recent years, and three Nobel Prize recipients are affiliated with the university. Texas A&M leads the state's public institutions of higher learning in research budgets, spending some $138 million last year. The research park of A&M includes 318 acres with assorted buildings and facilities.

WE SPENT AN hour or more touring the school of veterinary medicine. They enroll 138 freshmen each year - men and women in about equal numbers who are already college graduates and who take the four year course to become doctors of veterinary medicine. Their selection process is so thorough that the graduating class each year is about 138.

Our tour of the veterinary college included their clinic where the staff of DVMs and students treat animals of every size and breed - cats, dogs, birds, horses, cows and so forth from throughout the state - animals brought in for the attention of specialists. We saw a number of horses that were being treated for broken legs, tumors and the like. They do all kinds of surgery on animals.

A DVM graduate of Texas A&M has eight years of college training.

ANOTHER HOUR was spent in the Cyclotron Building where they split atoms and deal with laser beams and magnetic fields and such in offering courses in Nuclear Science... Experimental work is going on with these instruments in seeking a cure for cancer and success is being recorded... To tour the building, you sign in and receive a Gigier Counter to measure any radiation that you might be exposed to.

TEXAS A&M U has travel trailer parking facilities near Kyle Field, their football plant. Some 30 to 40 trailers and mobile homes can park with full hookups... There is a hotel on campus with 100 rooms or so that parents and visitors may rent on trips here... The Earl Rudder Building of 11 stories is a showplace with offices and assorted facilities and with a nice dining room on the 11th floor...

Ruth Pugliese Seeks County Treasurer Post

Ruth Pugliese, well known Cisco resident for the past twenty five years seeks the office of Eastland County Treasurer in the Democratic Primary election May 3rd. Ruth, 49, is a single parent of two college students, Edward at Howard Payne and Lou Ann at Tarleton State. Ruth has worked in the Cisco area as a substitute school teacher, teacher-aide, a bookkeeper in a local oil office and as manager in Cisco restaurants. In these positions she has had money management and bookkeeping experience. She also lists basic knowledge of computers, and will be in favor of putting the treasurer's office records on computer if it is economically feasible.

Although a high school graduate with two years of college, Ruth credits the hard school of experience as her best qualification for the office of treasurer. She claims a past work record of integrity, competence, excellent health, work attendance and dependability and promises friendly, courteous, service to all.

Ruth realizes that Eastland County is facing severe economic problems and if elected, she pledges to strive to keep expenses to the bare minimum, to stay with county budget requirements, to invest your county money at the highest rate of interest in the safest place and to work for all Eastland County by being conservative in all fiscal matters.

Ruth concludes by saying "I am very grateful for the help and support offered by so many people of Eastland County. Feeling fully qualified to be your County Treasurer, I am seeking for all will appreciate your vote on Saturday, May 3rd."

Mary Jane Rowch-Brown Seeks Re-Election

To the citizens of Eastland County:

I am Mary Jane Rowch-Brown, your present District Clerk of Eastland County. I have lived in Eastland, Texas, since 1933, attended public schools and graduated from Eastland High School in 1947. I attended Cisco Junior College and two years at Texas Tech University. I am a member of the First United Methodist Church in Eastland, Texas. I have four sons, Mike, Brett, Phillip and Thane who were raised in Eastland County and eight grandchildren.

I feel with approximately 16 years of experience, knowledge and dedicated effort in this office should qualify me for this position. In assuming the position of District Clerk, which has been a rewarding experience and the responsibilities of the office at a peak when the case loads were extremely high I feel I am well prepared and aware of any and all new changes. I can and will continue to perform these duties with honesty, integrity and loyalty. I have diligently through these years performed the duties and services for the citizens of our county with pride and given every courtesy possible to everyone. The knowledge and experience of this office or any official office is an absolute necessity to be beneficial to the dignity with all those who are involved.

To the many people I have not personally contacted or seen and may not see, due to the pressing and increased duties of the office, I am very sorry I was unable to see you. Hopefully you will consider the qualifications and my experience in this office. Please re-elect the qualified person for this position! I earnestly seek your support and I wish to serve you again these next four years and pledge to serve to the best of my ability.

Today is full of many new opportunities and trying times and we should share these very positive feelings for our local, county and national governments. Please assert your right as a citizen to vote Saturday, May 3, 1986, for my continuing to serve as your District Clerk of Eastland County. Thank you.

13th Annual Folklife Festival Begins Saturday

Cisco's 13th annual Folklife Festival, April 26-27 at the historic Rockwell Lumberyard in downtown Cisco will offer something of interest everyone. Downtown festivities will begin Monday, April 21, and include window-decorating contests, poster contests, costume contests, and a treasure hunt.

Weekend activities will begin Saturday morning, April 26 at 7 a.m. at Lake Cisco Park with the outdoor breakfast for the "World's Shortest Trailride" sponsored by Cisco Junior College. Arriving in town around 9 a.m. the trailriders will be part of the colorful parade which will begin around Ave. F, enter West 8th St., go to Conrad Hilton Ave., turn north, and progress to the north end of town.

Immediately following the Saturday morning parade, the Folklife Festival will open with a large supply of freshly baked bread, sold by the slice; hot cinnamon rolls; and newly baked strawberry shortcakes which are topped with fresh strawberries and whipped cream...all ready for the parade crowd.

Starting in 1973, the Festival has three purposes: to educate, to entertain, and to raise funds for community projects. As education, special demonstrations and exhibits are available to illustrate and teach visitors some of the skills and crafts used by pioneers in daily life. Demonstrations which the visitor can frequently view and sometimes participate in include noodle and jerky making, basket weaving, spinning, soap and candle making (have you ever seen a rush light?) There will be hoe cake making, grinding of grain by hand mill and metate, shelling corn, homemade cookie cutters, homemade brooms, simple weaving, and primitive pottery making. There is a folk medicine display of some of the treatments and plants that Indians and pioneers used when a doctor was not readily available. Scheduled activities include a black powder demonstration and gun safety talk, horse shoeing, and pitching horse shoes. Special children's activities are held to make the Festival particularly enjoyable and educational for the younger set. One favorite children's activity in past years has been cookie decorating; this year ice-cream cranking has been added.

There are a variety of arts and crafts displayed by local, state, and national exhibitors. For those who come with an ever present appetite, there is a selection of home-cooked foods to tempt almost any calorie counter. With the entertainment area being near the food area, a visitor can snack and rest while enjoying the variety of entertainers. Each of those activities is held in an oversized tent with plenty of seating so the festival-goer doesn't have to worry about inclement weather or getting over-tired.

Entertainment for 1986 includes an opening mini-concert by the Cisco High School Stage Band. The ever-popular Fiddlers' Contest will be Sunday afternoon from 2-5. A country western musical will be held Saturday evening starting at 7:00. Dancing and gymnastics groups include the Jamie Dee Dancers, the Eastland County Popovers, Cisco Primary School dancers, Eastland Folk Dancers, and the Becky Payne dancers. The crowd-pleasing antique styles show will be Saturday at 2:30, and Sunday at 12:30. Vocal and instrumental groups will include ADORATION, Senior Citizens' Rhythm Band, Sweet Carolinas, Wendy Wester and Jammie Gentry, Dale Brooks, Cisco Men's Quartet. A special Children's Theater production by Cisco Junior College's Carroll Brown will be held on Saturday at 1:00. Friday night will feature a western Street dance, and Saturday night a contemporary music dance.

An added attraction to this year's Festival will be a collection of railroad memorabilia displayed by Mr. Charlie Crow of Sweetwater, who will visit with interested railroad buffs and tell about the T&P Railroad.

For a festival to please the entire family, don't miss Cisco's Annual Folklife Festival. For more information, contact the Cisco Chamber of Commerce at (817)442-2537.

Contract Awarded On

Water Treatment Plant

Waldroup & Associates, Inc. of Lubbock was awarded the construction contract for the new Wastewater Treatment Facility by the City of Cisco in a special called meeting last Tuesday.

Mike Moore, city manager, said the above named contractor submitted a bid of $579,771.00. He also said Waldroup & Associates appears to be a good contractor. The project will take approximately 180-210 days.

The old sewer plant was built in 1925 and is old and dilapidated, Mr. Moore said. It was not designed to carry the amount of sewage that is being forced on it now. He also added that it is not the City's idea to get into the problem this soon, but the State of Texas has brought a suit against Cisco and the problem has to be fixed. Cisco has been mandated by the State of Texas and there is no choice but to comply with them. The City is going through the cheapest and easiest way the State will allow, Mr. Moore said.

The councilmen also voted and approved to let the First National Bank of Cisco hold $390,000 in Utility System Revenue bonds and $150,000 general obligation tax bonds in an escrow agreement for the City of Cisco.

In other action the councilmen approved an amendment to increase monthly sanitary sewer rates.

Manager Mike Moore stressed that he regrets the increased sewer rate but it has to be done. He also said he is very happy taxes do not have to be raised at this time. This slight increase in sewer rates will prevent the city from having a tax increase. This increase in the sewer rate will generate enough revenue to pay for

Tent Crusade Begins

REDEEMER LUTHERAN CHURCH
The worship service begins at 10:30 a.m. Pastor Urban's message is entitled "The Three Tenses of the Christian Life" based on Colossians 3:1-4. Sunday and Bible class will begin at 9:30 a.m.

"Trust in God is a true ingredient for true prayer," says Dr. Oswald Hoffmann, speaker on The Lutheran Hour. "Without trust in God, prayer becomes just a stab in the dark." Hear more on the broadcast "Prayer and Action" next Sunday at 8:00 a.m. on radio station KCLW (900) and at 12:35 p.m. on KWFT (620).

Tuesday, LWML sewing day. Bring a sack lunch.

Wednesday 10 a.m. Care Center workshops. Confirmation class is at 3:45 p.m. Choir is at 7:30 p.m.

Thursday Jesus Friends meets at 9:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Board of Evangelism meets at 7:30 p.m.

After several weeks and many hours of work the time has finally arrived for the Good News America Crusade to be held at the Chesley Field parking lot beginning Sunday evening at 7:00 and continuing through Friday. Final preparations were made Saturday morning as the men of Calvary, East Cisco and First Baptist Churches "raised" the 1,000 seat tent that will serve as the auditorium for the nightly services.

One of the highlights of the Crusade Services will be the Revival Choir under the direction of Cody Voss. The choir will be made up of people from several Cisco and area churches. Everyone is invited to be a part of this great choir. The choir will meet at 6:30 each evening to prepare for the evening services.

Planning for the crusade began 12 months ago with a meeting of the pastors of the three churches. The date was set and Evangelist David Davis, Staff Evangelist for Allendale Baptist Church in Austin, and Cody Voss, Music Evangelist from Houston, were invited to serve as the crusade team.

Although it was not planned to coincide with the Cisco Folklife Festival it will be a vital part of the celebration of our folk history. An old fashioned Tent Revival will give the people of Cisco an opportunity to celebrate their spiritual heritage.

In conjunction with the crusade there will be a Prayer Breakfast on Monday morning April 21, at 8:00 a.m. Anyone who would like to attend is invited to come to the Traditions Restaurant for that special meeting.

Other opportunities to get acquainted with the Evangelist Team will include meetings with the Baptist Student Union at CJC on Monday, Civic Club luncheons during the week and a City Wide luncheon on Friday, April 25th, at noon at the First Baptist Church.

The church families of Calvary Baptist, East Cisco Baptist and First Baptist Church of Cisco invite all folks to join with them for a "Celebration of Spiritual Heritage" April 20-25 at 7:00 nightly. This will be a time of "Old Fashioned Preaching and Singing." Bring your friends and neighbors and join us beginning this Sunday evening.

Mental Impairment Review Rules Improved

New Social Security rules for deciding whether a mentally impaired person is disabled and unable to work are now in effect. The first such changes since 1979, they were developed as part of the Social Security Disability Benefits Reform Act of 1984.

The Social Security Administration began revising the rules prior to the legislation in close cooperation with leading public and private mental health experts. Many recommendations of this working group were incorporated into the 1984 law, and later into regulations published in August 1985.

The changes in the new rules reflect evolving knowledge of mental illness and the latest advances in diagnosis, evaluation, and treatment. They help to ensure that mental impairments will be judged fairly, accurately, and uniformly at all decision levels, nationwide.

The revised medical evaluation criteria for mental impairments clearly outline when an individual's condition is so severe that he or she can be presumed disabled. If a presumption cannot be made based on these revised criteria, but a severe impairment exists, a special assessment will be made of the individual's remaining ability to work.

The new rules emphasize the need to review the total history of a mental impairment. There is increased recognition that an individual may seem relatively symptom-free while hospitalized or under medication, yet may be unable to function satisfactorily in work situations.

Mentally impaired individuals who were found not disabled when they were previously reviewed, and who appealed that decision, will have their cases reviewed automatically under the new rules. Anyone who is still found not disabled and who believes he or she cannot work, can reapply to be considered under the new rules.

The recent disability reforms represent but a beginning toward an improved review process. The medical criteria, under which disability decisions are made, will continue to be evaluated to ensure that they reflect the most up-to-date knowledge.

For more information, you may visit the Abilene Social Security office located at 142 S. Pioneer or you may call 915-698-1360.

A. E. R. AUCTION

An auction sale of Agricultural, Energy related, and Recreational equipment will be held Saturday, May 3, beginning at 10 a.m. at the Northington, Inc. yard, 4 miles west of the San Angelo city limits, on Highway 67 (Mertzton Highway). A portion of the proceeds from the event will go to benefit West Texas Boys Ranch.

All agricultural, energy and recreational consignments are welcome. Consignments will be taken anytime between now and April 25th. Minimum bids will be accepted and consignments can be left for future sales. Auction fees will be 10 percent to $5,000 and 5 percent above $5,000. These fees do not go to Boys Ranch. The portion going to Boys Ranch will be strictly up to the seller.

Pre-sale donations of equipment to West Texas Boys Ranch will be cheerfully accepted.

Equipment will be on display at the Northington yard as it comes in. Consigners and buyers are urged to call either Odus Wittenburg at (915) 949-2647 or Ty or K.V. Northington at (915) 949-8820 for details.

Refreshments will be available at the auction with all proceeds going to West Texas Boys Ranch.

Tax Plan Benefits Nation's Small Business

WASHINGTON, D.C.—America's small businesses, which create more than 70 percent of all the nation's new jobs, stand to reap many benefits from a tax reform plan now being considered in the U.S. Senate.

Drafted by Oregon Sen. Bob Packwood, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, the proposal contains several pluses for small firms ranging from cuts to simpler filing methods.

"Senator Packwood's efforts to help American small business grow are evident in this plan," National Federation of Independent Business President & CEO John Sloan Jr. said. "While many trade-offs were necessary to provide a revenue-neutral tax reform bill, the chairman has shown his commitment by offering a proposal which will stimulate economic expansion."

Tax reform has long been a priority of the half-million-plus members of NFIB, who see the present tax code as too complex and biased in favor of big business. In surveys of its membership, the federation found that 51 percent of those responding thought Congress should lower taxes and eliminate deductions and 87 percent viewed the current tax code as too complicated.

Proposals which benefit small businesses include: reduced individual and corporate graduated rates; simplified inventory accounting rules; increased levels of expensing; fairer treatment in tax cases; and a 50 percent health insurance deduction for the self-employed business owner.

While big businesses stand to benefit greatly from proposed rate reductions, small firms would not. But a provision in the plan which allows business to expense up to $50,000 of the costs of tangible personal property would help small business recapture some of its loss and serve as a growth incentive by encouraging capital investment. The House of Representatives-passed version would allow companies to expense only $10,000.

"It greatly concerns me that some special interest groups are already attacking this pro-small business plan as being too generous," Sloan said. "For decades, the tax code has been written purely for the benefit of the big corporations at the expense of small firms."

Recent figures have shown 70 to 80 percent of all new jobs are created by businesses employing fewer than 100 people, Sloan said. According to one MIT economist who studied employment trends for nine years, no net new jobs were produced by the nation's top 500 corporations, while all the growth was attributed to small businesses.

"We are contacting our members, (National Federation of Independent Business), now to encourage them to appeal to their congressmen and senators to help get this proposal passed," Sloan confirmed. "There will be a long and difficult debate over the issue in the next few weeks and we plan to make sure that the voice of small business is heard."

Host Families Sought For Exchange Students

Host Families are being sought for 25 high school students from Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Holland, Belgium, Austria, Switzerland, Germany, France, Italy, Brazil, Ecuador, Australia and Japan for the school year 1986-1987, in a program sponsored by the American Inter-cultural Student Exchange (AISE).

The students, age 15 through 17, will arrive in the United States in August 1986, attend a local high school, and return to their home country in June 1987. The students, all fluent in English, have been screened by their school representatives in their home countries and have spending money and medical insurance.

Host Families may deduct $50.00 per month of Income Tax purposes.

AISE is also seeking American high school students age 15 through 17, who would like to spend a high school year in Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Switzerland, France, Spain or Australia or participate in a five week summer Host Family stay throughout Western Europe.

Families interested in this program should telephone toll free-1-800-SIBLING.

AN INDISPUTABLE FACT

The theological confusion in the Church today is basically the result of her rebellion against the authority of Paul as the divinely-appointed apostle for the present "dispensation of the grace of God" (Eph. 3:1-3).

On every hand Paul is referred to merely as one of the apostles, sometimes even as one of the twelve, though the record of Scripture proves that he could not possibly have qualified as one of the twelve (See Matt. 19:28 and cf. Acts 9:1).

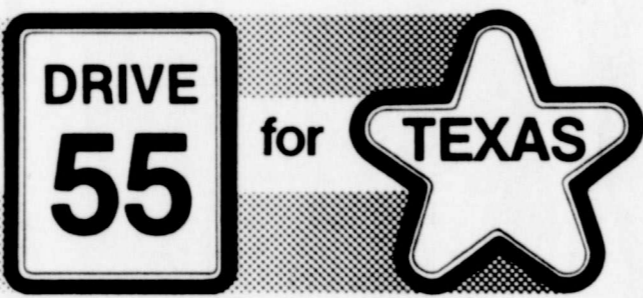

In Galatians 1 and 2 the Apostle throws down the certificate of his apostleship, as it were, to those who questioned it in his day. He opens his argument with the declaration: "... I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man."

"For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ" (Gal. 1:11,12).

The Scriptures teach beyond the shadow of a doubt that Paul's apostleship and message were absolutely unique and separate from that of the twelve or of any who had preceded him. This is what Christendom as a whole has refused to accept. Is it any wonder, then, that they confuse God's prophesied kingdom program with "the mystery," committed to Paul for us in this present dispensation?

The Scriptures emphasize not only the Apostle's constant use of the first person pronoun, "I," "me," "my," but the unique character of his apostleship and message. Ignore this fact and confusion must inevitably result; accept it and a hundred seeming contradictions in Scripture disappear.

Combat Team Seeks Former Members

The 187th Airborne Regimental Combat Team Association is actively seeking former members of the Regiment who served any time during World War II, Korea, Vietnam or the present. Members of any of the battalions and attached units, either when the Regiment was a glider infantry regiment, a parachute infantry regiment, an airborne regimental combat team, designated air assault, or its present configuration as an infantry regiment are invited to participate in Association membership and activities. This is the only airborne infantry regiment who qualified members are authorized to wear glider wings, parachute wings or helicopter assault wings. The Association publishes a quarterly newsletter called "The Rakkasan," and holds annual reunions in different parts of the country. If you are not already a member, you will undoubtedly wish to affiliate with the Association and contact comrades that you haven't seen for perhaps as many as 42 years. For further information, please contact Dr. Donald A. Parks, Director of Recruitment, P.O. Box 1406, Carefree, Arizona 85377, or call 602-488-4264.

As the 187th ARCT Association grows and expands, the history of the Regiment becomes more important than ever. Your input as a former or present member of the Regiment is invaluable in sustaining the heritage of the Regiment and the honor of those that made the supreme sacrifice. The Regiment formed in 1942 as a glider infantry regiment, later to become a parachute infantry regiment, and fought in World War II in the Pacific. As an airborne regimental combat team, the 187th fought in Korea, and as part of the 101st Airborne Division, elements of the Regiment fought in Vietnam. The Regiment also participated in the campaigns in Santo Domingo and Beirut. Presently two battalions are stationed in Panama, and three battalions are stationed in Fort Campbell, Kentucky, as part of the 101st Airborne Division, one of which is presently on rotation duty as part of the Peace Keeping Force in the Sinai Peninsula. In total, five Rakkasan battalions strong.

It is interesting to note that the 187th Rakkasans have been deployed in battle utilizing every vertical means of envelopment, namely the glider, parachute, helicopter, air landing, air mobile, air assault as well as amphibious landing craft. Therefore, the 187th Airborne Regiment has entered combat in each mode of airborne warfare and has pioneered the tactics that govern these modes. The 187th is also the highest decorated airborne regiment in U.S. military history boasting five Medals of Honor, and continues to earn and honor the title of Rakkasans.

The Association plans many activities in the future and has enjoyed four annual reunions and is planning a fifth reunion in Las Vegas, Nevada, July 1986. The officers, directors and members of the Association encourage you to participate with us in our outstanding activities with the purpose towards perpetuating the heritage of the Regiment and encouraging pride in the young new members of the Regiment. Your membership and participation is needed in order to achieve these ambitions. Be part of this Association of the 187th Rakkasan Regiment in which you proudly served.

ORDINANCE NO. 0-86-4 AN AMENDMENT REVISING SECCION 20-24, SUBSECTIONS (a) AND (b) OF THE UTILITY RATE ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF CISCO, TEXAS INCREASING MONTHLY SANITARY SEWER RATES AND USERS CHARGE; ENACTING PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE SUBJECT AND PURPOSES OF THIS ORDINANCE; PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE; AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, the City of Cisco is in the process of providing and constructing a new wastewater treatment facility as mandated by the State of Texas; and,

WHEREAS, it is now proper and necessary to increase certain sanitary sewer system charges and rates to fund the operating and debt expenses for said new wastewater treatment facility; now, therefore,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CISCO, TEXAS THAT:

PART I: Section 20-24.

Subsections (a) and (b) of the City's Utility Rate Ordinance be amended as follows:

(a.) All sewer usage charges shall be based upon the total water usage registered on the customers' water meter. Along with the "base charge" established in this ordinance, there shall be a user charge to fund operation and maintenance cost of the treatment facilities.

(b.) The monthly rates for sanitary sewer service shall be as follows:

- (1.) Residential
 - a. First 4,000 gallons metered $8.75
 - b. First 4,000 gallons metered for persons over sixty-five years of age; totally disabled persons, city employees and volunteer firemen $7.25
 - c. Next 8,000 gallons, per 1,000 gallons metered

- (2.) Commercial
 - a. First 4,000 gallons metered $8.75
 - b. Over 4,000 gallons, per 1,000 gallons metered. $0.60
- (3.) Public Schools
 - a. First 4,000 gallons metered $8.75
 - b. Over 4,000 gallons, per 1,000 gallons metered. $0.60

(c.) The "base charge" for a sewer user as defined herein shall apply to each sewer user individually as a residence, mobile home, commercial building, or other dwelling; and in instances where more than one user is served by one master meter, the "base charge" shall be multiplied times the number of apartments, dwelling units or mobile homes being served by a master water meter.

(d.) Any sewer user located outside the city limits shall pay a monthly charge of $17.00.

PART II: The City administration shall review the rates and charges established under this ordinance on at least an annual basis and make adjustments to said rates as necessary.

PART III: Effective Date - These revised rates and charges shall be effective as of May 15, 1986.

PART IV: Any portion of any ordinance in conflict with the rates and charges established by this ordinance, but only insofar as the provisions are in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed.

PART V: Due to the fact that this amendment in sanitary sewer system rates and charges is effective May 15, 1986 and must be a part of the ordinances issuing the Revenue and General Obligation Bonds for the new wastewater treatment facility approved on April 15, 1986, the City Council hereby declares an emergency and that the provision of the Charter of the City of Cisco calling for two readings of an ordinance be dispensed with, and that this ordinance take effect as an emergency measure immediately upon its passage and approval and upon publication thereof in accordance with the requirements of law.

PASSED AND APPROVED on this 15th day of April, 1986.

Joe Wheatley, Mayor
ATTEST:
Ginger Johnson,
City Secretary
APPROVED AS TO FORM:
W.B. Wright, Jr.,
City Attorney.

CHS Senior Class To Present 3 Act Melodrama

Something evil is afoot on Market Street. Solid (and wealthy) citizens are disappearing, most in the vicinity of the barber shop of Sweeney Todd and the bake shop of Mrs. Lovett, whose specialty is meat pastries and whose intended, Mr. Scruples, does not suspect a thing. Also (Alas!) Widow Fairoak's ship does not come in, leaving her and her lovely daughter, Lily, at the mercy of the demon hair-clipper, Todd, to whom they owe a fortune. Will Brooklyn Jake and Minnie find Sailor Tom and the valuable pearls in time to pay the debt? What has the scruffy sailor, Barnacle, to do with this affair? What of the orphan boy, Billy, whom Todd has so "generously" given a home and a job? Will the scheme of Todd and Mrs. Meanly of the orphanage be discovered by Mrs. Noble and Mrs. Worthy? It is dangerous to learn the truth about Todd, as Rose, the newspaper seller, finds out. Will the Prisoner's revelation come in time, or will the Matron make her "hold her tongue"? Will the Policeman be successful in finding the missing Oriental gentleman, the Honorable Mr. Chang? Will Belle ever be able to sell her matches to the citizens? It is up to the Inspector to unravel the mystery and see that the villains are punished.

In the tradition of an old-time melodrama, the Cisco High School Senior Class will present "Sweeney Todd: Demon Barber of the Barbary Coast" on Friday, April 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Cost of tickets will be $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for students.

During the course of the evening all except one of the above questions (and others too terrible to contemplate) will be answered.

The three act play has been adapted by Tim Kelly from the classic stage melodrama of George Pitt and the novel "The String of Pearls" by Thomas Prest and is produced by special arrangement with I.E. Clark, Inc., Schulenburg, Texas. This script predates the musical version presented on Broadway which starred Angela Lansbury.

The cast of characters, in the order of their appearance on stage are as follows: Rose, a seller of newspapers, Frances Chamness; Sweeney Todd, a fiend in human form, Nathan Urban; Mrs. Lovett, Todd's partner in crime, Mary Ann Jaramillo; Mr. Scruples, the betrothed of Mrs. Lovett, Russell Williams; Minnie, maid to Miss Lily, Lisa Endebrook; Mrs. Meanly, underpaid employee of the orphanage, Darla Harris; Billy, victim of the fiend's treachery, Sampty Sipe;

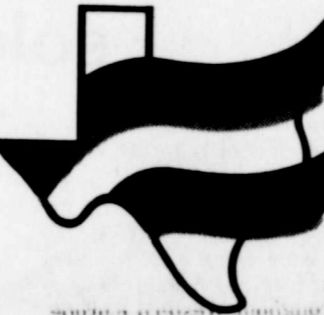

Mrs. Noble, a charity worker, Renee Stewart; Mrs. Worthy, another charity worker, Brenda Ayala; Honorable Mr. Chang, another victim, Kyle Anderson; Belle, a matchgirl, Leslie Covert; Barnacle, a cutthroat, James Deadman; Lily Fairoak, delicate, noble, gentle, Tami Roberts; Brooklyn Jake, a sailor, Travis Griffith; Policeman, upholder of the law, Chris Jobe; Sailor Tom, Lily's heart-throb, Jeff Kinser; Widow Fairoak, Lily's mother, Robin Ritchie; Prisoner, life's victim, Cricket Jones; Matron, a jailer, Kristi Hogan; Police Inspector, servant of justice, Cliff Hatcher; Citizens, Cassandra Bradford, Vickilea Morton and Hazel Worley.

The play is directed by faculty members Lou Jane Qualls, Dianne Fisher and Jerry Davis with set construction under the supervision of Russell McLeskey.

CISD Student Transfers

Any student wishing to transfer to the Cisco Independent School District at the beginning of the 1986-87 school year must have transfer papers completed and turned in at the superintendent's office by May 1, 1986.

Martin Pate

SIoux FALLS - Martin Henry Pate, 79, died after a lengthy illness on Friday, March 28, in the Good Samaritan Center at Sioux Falls. He was a patient in the Veterans' Hospital for a month, and last November was transferred to the GS Center.

Services were held Tuesday morning at the Dindot-Klusmann Funeral Chapel, with the Rev. Dennis Eide officiating. Organist was Deloris Bunjer and vocalist was Russell Poppens. Pallbearers were step-grandsons: Merle, Larry and Tony Schumacher; Michael, David, Roger and Alan White, and Douglas Mills. Burial was in the Lennox Cemetery with military rites at the graveside by Brethorst-Burma American Legion Post No. 174.

Martin Henry Pate was born at Barstow, Texas on May 31, 1906, the son of George Calvin and Mary Pearl (Sarrett) Pate. He attended school and grew to manhood in Texas. He was a veteran of World War II, having served in the U.S. Army Air Corps. Most of his life he was employed in road and dam construction.

On December 12, 1957, he was married to Anna Catherine (Gerken) Curtis at Kadoka, S.D. Following their marriage the couple lived in Texas for a short time and then returned to South Dakota, living at Worthing, Valley Springs, Sioux Falls and Elk Point. They then lived at Grand Island, Nebr. for a short time, and in March of 1982 moved to Sioux Falls where they lived for a few months. In December of 1982 the couple took up their residence at Sunrise Manor in Lennox and here continued to make their home. His wife preceded him in death on December 1, 1983.

Besides his parents and wife, he was preceded in death by one step-son, Virgil White; two sisters and one brother.

Deceased is survived by two step-daughters, Mrs. Walter (Veda) Neverovich of Houston, Texas and Mrs. Daniel (Roberta) Avery of Alpena, S.D.; ten step-grandchildren; ten step-great-grandchildren; one brother, George R. Pate of Ranger; two sisters, Mrs. Frank (Frances) Wright of Odessa and Mrs. Frank (Danalene) Plumley of Round Rock; three nephews and three nieces; and one step-daughter-in-law, Mrs. Donna White of Lennox.

Myrtle Scott

SAN ANTONIO - Myrtle Scott, 82, passed away Tuesday in a San Antonio hospital.

Services were 3 p.m. Thursday in the Wilson Chapel of the First Baptist Church, with the Rev. Dr. Jimmy Allen officiating.

Burial was in Sunset Memorial Park, directed by Porter Loring Funeral Home.

She was born in Ranger and moved to Abilene in 1919, after the death of her father, Jerome Christmas, in 1918. She attended school in Abilene and later married Leonard Scott. They had one daughter and lived at 840 Poplar St. for several years, later moving to San Antonio where Mr. Scott was in the tile business.

She was a member of First Baptist Church in San Antonio, Order of the Eastern Star, and was active in the hospital auxiliary. She also served as mother advisor of the San Antonio Rainbow Girls Assembly.

She was president of the Augusta Club, Woodlawn Agenda Club, Sorosis Club, and the San Antonio Musical Club. She was a member of the San Antonio Women's Club, the President's Council and other organizations.

Survivors include a daughter, Jo Ann (Mrs. R.E.) Wheelis of Mobile, Ala.; a sister, Hazel Lee of Ranger; a brother, Jerome Christmas Galatin of Anson; four grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

'Red' Newnham

EASTLAND - Truman "Red" Newnham, 75, of Olden, died Tuesday at an Abilene hospital.

Services were 2 p.m. Thursday at Olden Baptist Church with the Rev. Bobby King officiating.

Burial was in Macedonia Cemetery, north of Ranger, directed by Bakker Funeral Home.

He was born in LaCassa community, north of Ranger, where he grew up. A former resident of McCamey, he was a pumper for Gulf Oil Corporation until his retirement in 1975, when he moved to Olden. He was a World War II Army veteran and member of Olden Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife,

Mabel Bargsley Newnham of Olden; two brothers, Cletous W. Newnham of Eastland and Brady Newnham of Breckenridge.

Memorials may be made to Olden Baptist Church building fund.

J.C. Cook

EASTLAND - J.C. Cook of Houston died Wednesday night there. Services were held Saturday in Houston.

He was the brother-in-law of Myrtle Wetsel and uncle of Buddy Aaron, both of Eastland.

George Hallmark

GORMAN - George David Hallmark, 90, a farmer and former owner of the Dairy King here, died Wednesday at an Abilene hospital after a long illness.

Services were held at 11 a.m. Saturday at Higginbotham Funeral Home.

Burial was held in Oaklawn Cemetery.

He was born in Texas and lived in Gorman most of his life. He was a U.S. Army veteran in World War II serving in France. He was the widower of Ozy L. Hallmark.

He owned and operated the Dairy King from 1948 to 1962 and worked for Southwest Peanut Association from 1938 to 1948. He was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors include three sons, Horace Hallmark of Hartshorne, Okla., Bid Hallmark of Lake Leon and Bob Hallmark of Crystal City, Mo.; four daughters, Nell Allredge of Eastland, Wilma Ruth Cagle of Clyde, Joy Rogers of Gorman and Sue Burrows of Breckenridge; 27 grandchildren; 43 great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.

Bruster, pastor; Dr. Elwin L. Skiles, chancellor of Hardin-Simmons University; and Judge Austin McCloud, chief justice of the 11th Court of Civil Appeals in Eastland.

Burial was in Elmwood Memorial Park, directed by North's Funeral Home, 242 Orange.

Judge Walter died Wednesday at his home, 3365 S. 27th.

He was a judge on the 11th Court of Civil Appeals in Eastland for 21 years, retiring in 1978. He was district attorney in Abilene from 1940 to 1950 after serving six years as county attorney.

Attorney Bryan Bradbury, a brother-in-law who will serve as a pallbearer, characterized Walter as "a commoner."

"He had a very astute mind. But he kept the common touch," Bradbury said. "He was always able to reach what I would call the common denominator in every situation."

Other pallbearers were Jim Jennings, George Stowe, Jim Binion, Morey Miller and H.T. Weaver.

Esco Walter

Services for Judge Esco Walter, 77, retired judge and former district attorney, were held at 2 p.m. Friday at First Baptist Church. Officiating was Dr. Bill Honorary pallbearers were members of the Abilene Bar Association.

Miller said, "I first knew him at Baylor University in 1929. I've known him in many situations since then. He was a fine lawyer and an excellent judge."

Former law partner Hudson Smart said, "He was such a fine lawyer and a fine person in every way."

He was an all-state quarterback at Abilene High School in 1927, when the Eagles were state runners-up.

He also played football at Baylor University, where he earned his undergraduate and law degrees.

A few months after graduation from Baylor Law School in 1932, he was elected justice of the peace, serving a two-year term.

He served three terms as Taylor County attorney from 1934-40 and was 104th District attorney from 1940-50. One of his cases as district attorney was the successful prosecution of a Taylor County man for the murder of Merkel constable Chester Hutcheson.

Walter was a partner in private practice in the law firm of McMahan, Springer, Smart and Walter.

He was appointed by Gov. Price Daniel in 1957 to serve the remaining two years of the term of Judge Milburn S. Long, who had died in office.

When he retired in 1978 he noted that the appellate court had written 1,668 opinions during his tenure.

Survivors include his wife, Oma Beth Kerr Walter of Abilene; three daughters, Betty (Mrs. Richard) Whitt of Corpus Christi, Janet Measor of Houston and Carol Russell of San Antonio; three brothers, Dr. L.P. Walter of Austin, Woodrow Walter of Fort Worth and Robert Walter of Abilene; and eight grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to Hospice of Abilene, Box 1922, Abilene 79604.

A Fine Quality Diamond Engagement Ring.

There's no better way to say "forever."

When you shop for a Diamond Engagement Ring, ask us about the 4Cs: Cut, Color, Clarity and Carat-weight, the characteristics that determine the quality and rare beauty of a diamond. Quality is important in a Diamond Engagement Ring, and today that means spending about two months' salary for the best quality diamond you can afford. Come in and see our wide selection of fine-quality Diamond Engagement Rings in elegant settings. A diamond that you'll own "forever" should be a fine quality diamond.

THE HAPPY TIMES

By Lillian Cogburn Price

HUNTERS

By Lillian Cogburn Price

Thurman and his friends Elvis Allgood had loads of money, so I thought.

They were trappers. They set traps in the woods and caught skunks, opossums and bobcats. They skinned the poor animals and stretched the hide over a board shaped just right for each animal. The skunk hides were buried in the ground for a few days (to kill the odor) before they were put up on the smoke house wall with the other hides. The east wall was usually lined with hides until they dried, then they were neatly packed in a box and mailed to Funston Brothers Fur Company, St. Louis, Missouri. In a few days the boys had money to jingle in their pockets. Hunting and trapping was a great thing to do. It was lots of fun and brought in a little cash to boot.

"The World's Shortest Trailride" Set April 26

"The World's Shortest Trailride" sponsored by Cisco Junior College will be held Saturday, April 26. CJC invites anyone interested in participating to contact Mrs. Watts ahead of time at (817) 442-2567, extension 112.

Breakfast will be served to participants from 7:00 to 9:00 a.m. at the Lake Cisco

Park. Trailriders will leave at 9:00 to join the downtown Cisco Frontier Jubilee Parade which begins at 10:00. It is not imperative that you ride in the trailride to enjoy the breakfast and fellowship. In case of rain breakfast will be served in the college cafeteria. Prizes will be awarded at the end of the trailride and parade.

KTAB's Bob Bartlett To Be Cisco Parade Grand Marshall

KTAB's Bob Bartlett will serve as Grand Marshal of the Cisco Frontier Jubilee Parade. The parade, held in conjunction with the Cisco Folklife Festival, will begin at 10 a.m. in downtown Cisco on Saturday, April 26. Theme for the parade this year is "Happy Birthday, Texas".

Entries are still being accepted in the various divisions which include floats, automobiles, bands, marching and performing groups, riding clubs, children's division and much more.

For more information or to enter contact Emma Watts at Cisco Junior College, 817/442-2567, extension 112.

Six Flags Over Texas Cuts Price For Senior Citizens

SAVING ON A SOAKING - Everyone gets wet on Six Flags Over Texas' Roaring Rapids ride, including these senior citizens on a weekend outing. For the first time in its 25 year history, the Arlington theme park is offering a discount admission price for persons age 55 and over. Senior citizens pay $9.95 to enter the park this year. The regular price is $14.95.

Arlington, Texas - For the first time in its 25 year history, Six Flags Over Texas is offering a special discount for senior citizens.

Persons age 55 and older may purchase one-day park tickets for $9.95. The regular ticket price is $14.95.

"Folks who had just turned 30 when we opened back in 1961 have been among our most loyal supporters through the years," said Six

Flags General Manager Bob Bennett. "Back then, they brought their children to visit the park. Today, they're bringing their grandchildren, and we appreciate that loyalty."

Bennett said the lower price was introduced, without fanfare, when the 1986 season began, March 1. "Already, more than a thousand persons have taken advantage of the discount," he said.

Six Flags is currently operating on weekends only. Daily operation for the summer months will begin May 24.

Gordon Spot

By DeMarquis Gordon, County Agent—

Fire ants are still present in Eastland, but action will be taken soon to try eradicating the unwelcome pests. A survey by Texas Department of Agriculture fire ant specialists last Tuesday confirmed that the fire ants had been slowed by last fall's treatment, but they are trying to recover. The infestation has spread some since last fall.

Mark Trostle of the Texas Department of Agriculture said that he had attended a meeting with USDA officials and a decision was made to begin an eradication effort on isolated infestations. The Eastland infestation was identified as one of these areas.

The eradication effort will consist of the drenching of each mound followed by distribution of Amdro fire ant bait.

The two areas of infestation are along West Main Street at Virginia, Folts and Bedford; and along South Daugherty Street in the 1000 block.

We need the help of homeowners near these two areas to locate all fire ant mounds. Contact me at the Extension office if you have infestations of fire ants on your property.

Fire ants are spread sometimes where trees and ornamentals are transplanted. Before purchasing plants in containers or plants with balled roots inspect to make sure you are not buying fire ants. If you find ants in containers at transplanting time be sure to drench the soil with Dursban or diazinon.

Cucumber planting is about finished in the county. Four or five growers have planted about 145 acres of cucumbers during the last two weeks. Those planted on April 7 & 8 were coming up on Thursday of this week. The blowing sand was causing some concern on one field.

Thursday, May 8, is the date of the Heart of Texas Cow-Calf Clinic in Brownwood. It will be at the Brownwood Coliseum. The clinic was planned by livestock committees in Brown, Callahan, Comanche, Eastland, McCullough, Mills and San Saba Counties. Registration begins at 8:15 a.m. and the first discussion topic is scheduled for 9:00 a.m. Featured speaker will be Sister Thomas More Bartels, a professor at Silver Lake College in Manitowoc, Wisconsin. Her topic is "Say It With Power - Family-Style Agriculture."

Other speakers will include Ranchers John S. Cargile of San Angelo, John Dudley of Comanche and Weldon Edwards of Clyde. Other speakers will be Dave Ferrelli of the Kroger Company, Robert Hooper Chief of the Farmers Home Administration, Herbert Loeffler of the Federal Land Bank Association, Rancher Don Neal of Rochelle, Texas, Wlat Richburg of Uvalde, Dr. Milo Shult, Extension Service, and Robert Whitten President of Cattlemen's Production Credit Association.

This should be an outstanding program. Besides all this there will be a free lunch. There will be no fee for the program either.

All this is being paid for by Texas Power and Light Company, Brownwood Chamber of Commerce, The Federal Land Bank plus twelve agribusiness companies who will have booths at the clinic.

County Republican Convention

Jim Keffer of Eastland County Chairman of the Republican party, announces that the Eastland County Republican Convention will be held on May 17 at 10 a.m. in the County Commissioners Courtroom on the second floor of the Courthouse. Keffer also states that there will be five Republican voting boxes for the May 3 Primary at various locations in the county. The locations will be posted at the Courthouse and published in the newspapers.

Bill Herring

Art Classes

Cancelled

It was announced here this week that the art classes to be instructed by Bill Herring have been cancelled due to Mr. Herring's illness.

The classes were scheduled for April 21 through May 2 at the First United Methodist Church.

No details as to whether the classes would be rescheduled later were available.

Hendrick League House is becoming a reality... but we still need your help to finish this home away from home for outpatients and families of patients at Hendrick Medical Center. With your support, neighbors will have a place to stay when family members are critically ill. Show your love and concern with a donation to Hendrick League House. Pledges and donations from outside the city of Abilene, received by March 1, will be matched by a $50,000 anonymous challenge grant. Please help us reach that goal. Brings You These Important Tips... YOU AUTO KNOW

Why is wearing seat belts safer than being thrown clear? Because if a person goes through the windshield or is thrown out the door, the result is more certain to be severe injury.

Neglected oil changes may result in piston-ring and valve gumming. Stick to the manufacturer's recommended schedule, or surpass it.

Starting in January, the lead content of gasoline will be reduced by 90 percent, in response to a ruling by the United States Environmental Protection Agency. In a few years, leaded gas may disappear altogether.

Watch your gas mileage. If your car needs a tuneup, you could be using as much as 11 percent more fuel than you should.

Fishing Outdoors

By Terry Wilson

Area anglers meet at Lake E.V. Spence Sunday, April 13th for a tough, but educational day of fishing. Seven members of the Eastland County Bass Club were able to bring in only 6 fish which measured 12" or longer. First place was won by Eddie Green with 3 fish weighing 4.48. Eddie also was our big bass winner with a little lunker which tipped the scales at 2.17. Second place went to Terry Wilson 1 fish 1.57. And third was won by Tommy Maynard 1 fish 1.18. Trace Dunlap also weighed 1 fish in at 1.00. All anglers were in agreement that the fish were not only very shallow but also spooked due to pressure from the previous days tournament.

The Snyder bass club held their open invitation Saturday. 236 entries were on hand, but only 37 persons weighed a fish of 14" or longer. Winning string was 3 fish 10 lbs. 10 ounces. We would like to thank the members and spooners of this tournament for such an excellent event.

Parks and Wildlife officials have recently stocked 172,600 white crappie fingerlings at Lake Calaveras and 117,200 were released into Lake Fairfield. This is only the beginning for what looks to be a successful attempt to realine, the before thought undamageable crappie population of our lakes.

Specific attention is planned for the power plant cooling lakes which crappie have had poor reproductive success, heavy fishing pressure, or a combination of the two.

At press time we are attempting to prove or disprove the story which we received concerning the Catch of a 16 pound 9 ounce black bass coming from a private pond east of Strawn, Tx. This fish if weighed on state certified scales would be ranked as the number 2 largemouth in the state. Anyone with information concerning this catch please contact me at 629-3255.

Lake Leon: Water clear, black bass are full of eggs largest catch 6 pounds average size 2 1/2 pounds on lizards.

Proctor, water slightly off colored due to high winds, bass good to 4 pounds on spinner baits, crappie fair, catfish good on skinner lines.

Cisco Lake, bass slow some on jig and eel, crappie poor.

Hubbard Creek, water clear, 64 degrees, 8 feet low, bass good to 6 pounds, on worms in 8 feet of water, crappie slow, white bass good at Mile Long Bridge, catfish good to 20 pounds on cutbait.

Lake Brownwood, water clear 4 1/2 feet low, black bass good to 6 1/2 pounds on worms and crankbaits, striper fair to 6 pounds on Chome Model A's, crappie fair to 18 fish per string on minnows and jigs, catfish good to 5 pounds on shrimp and perch.

Gibbons Creek, water slightly off color 75 degrees, one foot low, bass fair mostly within slot limit, crappie fair to 20 fish per string, catfish slow.

Whitney, water clear, 61 degrees, 4 feet low, black bass fair to 7 pounds on worms, jig and eel, striper good to 27 pounds around Katy Bridge, Bee Bluff, Point 8 and the island.

Lake Fork, water murky, 63 degrees, 2 feet high, black bass good to 8 1/2 pounds on Rogues, lizards early, crappie good in shallows on Puddle Jumpers 60 fish strings.

Monticello, water clear, 69 degrees, normal level, bass good to 8 pounds 4 ounces on 6 inch grape worms, crappie fair to 12 fish per string on minnows and jigs.

Palestine, water murky, 2 feet over spillway, black bass slow to 6 pounds on lizards and spinners, crappie slow, catfish excellent on trotlines due to rising water.

Falcon, water clear, 29 feet low, bass fair to 6 pounds on cranks and worms off rocky points, brushpiles, striper slow, crappie very slow.

Fort Phantom Hill, water murky, 10 feet low, black bass slow to 3 pounds on purple worms, hybrid striper fair to 5 1/2 pounds on Model A's and Big O's, crappie good to 20 fish per string, walleye fish to about 15 inches, catfish fair to 3/4 pound on live shad.

Arkansas Man Hit By Truck Thursday

An accident which occurred about 4:45 p.m. Thursday afternoon, a short distance east of Olden at about the 347 milemarker on the south access road injured a 19-year-old Arkansas man, who suffered serious injuries.

Carol Wayne Petty, who works for a paving contractor, was taken to Eastland

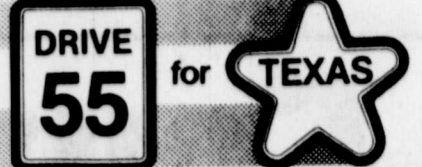

Memorial Hospital then transferred to Humana Hospital, after being hit by a pickup driven by Moya Navidad, 31, an employee of an Eastland foundry. Navidad was cited for not having a valid drivers license and failing to control his vehicle, according to Department of Public Safety Trooper, Richard Treece.

County Treasurer

Qualified
Dependable
Efficient
Honest

I feel I can best serve you due to my experience in the fields of Bookkeeping and Computers in updating the County Treasurer's Office and efficiently fulfilling the decisions of the County Commissioners on where and how the county's money is invested. With 15 years work experience I feel I am qualified and mature enough to handle the responsibilities of this office, but at the same time young enough to meet the challenges of the future. As your Treasurer, I would coordinate with the Auditor's office in returning all the duties of the Treasurer to that office so as to fully comply with the guidelines delegated by the Legislature. Your vote and support in the May 3rd Democratic Primary will be greatly appreciated.

Lunch And Learn
Thurs., April 24

A noon "lunch and learn" program on "Sewing Silks and Silk Like Fabrics" will be presented on Thursday, April 24 from 12 noon until 12:45 p.m. announces Janet Thomas, County Extension Agent. The program will be in the Eastland Texas Electric Service Co. Reddy Room. Those women planning to attend during the noon hour are invited to bring a sack lunch.

This program also will be presented at 10 a.m. for Extension Homemakers Program Leaders. The program is available to the public free of cost. Silk is very popular this year as people have become more interested in natural fibers. Sewing silk takes some special consideration so, come to the program and learn to sew silk and silk like fabrics.

Texas Most Wanted

Ed Neilly

HOUSTON, Texas - Friends say Edward James Neilly is one of the "nicest guys you would ever want to meet".

But law enforcement officials in Houston and Toronto, Canada, have another description for Neilly - they call him a slick con artist.

The Canadian-born Neilly is wanted on outstanding warrants in his native homeland and in the United States on charges ranging from theft to fraud.

Neilly is charged with stealing $268,000 worth of jewelry from the Jewel Palace in Houston. Investigators say the 58-year-old Windsor, Ontario, native was working for the jewelry company at the time of the thefts. Most of the items disappeared between inventories, over a period of several months, and were not discovered until after Neilly had left the company.

A detective who investigated Neilly said the fugitive "is a drinking man and he apparently attempted to trade some of the stolen jewelry for drinks in several Houston bars."

Toronto authorities want Neilly on 17 separate warrants charging him with credit card fraud.

Sgt. Bob Lord of the Toronto Metropolitan Police Department said Neilly was arrested in 1982 on several fraud charges, then was released and ordered to appear in court to stand trial. While he was out on bail, he allegedly continued his fraud activities. He never appeared for his trial and a Canada-wide warrant was issued for his arrest.

Neilly apparently fled to the Houston area. The change in scenery did not alter his habit of breaking the law, investigators say.

They describe Neilly as a white male, 6-1, 180 pounds, with brown and gray hair. He usually wears a moustache. He is said to have "an outstanding personality", detectives report, and usually works as a jewelry salesman.

Neilly is believed to have fled back to Canada since his scrape with the law in Houston. However, authorities have learned that he has visited a step-daughter in Houston at least once in the past year.

This week Edward James Neilly has been added to the Texas Most Wanted list. A $1,000 reward is being offered by the Governor's Office for information leading to his arrest.

Anyone who might have information concerning Neilly's possible whereabouts is asked to call the Texas Crime Stoppers Advisory Council toll-free at 1-800-252-8477 or their local Crimer Stoppers program.

In all cases, callers do not have to reveal their identities.

Texas Most Wanted is a cooperative program between the Department of Public Safety and Texas Crime Stoppers. Since it started in January, 1985, a total of 20 Most Wanted fugitives have been arrested. The latest to be captured was Austin Robbins, who was wanted in Young County on narcotics-related charges. Robbins turned himself in to Fort Worth police officers on March 18.

As of April 7, 1986, the Department of Public Safety reported that Edward James Neilly is wanted on the following warrants:

- Felony Theft & Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution - Harris County.
- Fraud by Credit Card (17 counts) - Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Neilly's date of birth is January 21, 1928.

Last week we were talking about the many causes of ear problems. Well, tinnitus has many causes, and that is what we will be discussing in this article.

Some are due to diseases of the inner ear (The Cochlea) and are accompanied by hearing loss. Medication (for example aspirin in high doses), tumors (rarely), metabolic disorders (for example diabetes) metabolic disorders (for example otosclerosis) poor movement of bones in the middle ear and other causes. In addition, tinnitus may come from the arteries in the brain, especially if there is a bulge (aneurysm) in one of them.

Finally, complete or partial blockage of the eustachian tubes, which run from the back of the nose to the middle ear on each side is another cause for tinnitus.

We will discuss next week what you should do if you have hearing problems.

The programs for the past week included: Ima Thompson, Billie Wood and Lois Holder provided the dinner music. Jerome Ray from Comanche spoke to the Center members in regard to the Silver Haired Legislature. Linda Knight conducted a blood screening program.

The menus for the coming week will be:

Monday-- Creamed chicken, rice, peas & carrots, tossed salad, peach cobbler, bread, butter and milk.

Wednesday-- Ham, cranberry sauce, hominy casserole, tossed salad, fruited gelatin chiffon, bread, butter and milk.

Friday-- Chili with beans, lettuce salad, fruit jello with topping, peanut butter bar, cornbread, butter and milk.

Oil And Gas Association Shows Concern About Oil Prices

AUSTIN, Texas - Richard C. Hudson, chairman of Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, expressed his concern about the valuation of oil and gas properties by local jurisdictions in light of the dramatic drop in crude oil and natural gas prices.

"These dramatic declines in oil and gas prices are unprecedented in the last 50 years that the Texas oil and gas industry has been supporting our state and local governments through severance taxes and local property taxes," Hudson said. "This economic condition was recognized by the State Comptroller in May of 1985, almost a year ago, when he gave his estimate for revenues for the current biennium, and there have been many other factors that have heralded this dramatic event."

Never before in history has the oil and gas industry experienced such an economic downturn. Drilling operations and the workover of older wells have been curtailed or in many instances abandoned. Oil and gas exploration projects are being postponed or totally scrapped as companies restructure their organizations to survive.

"The property tax law provides that valuations be on a fair market value," said Hudson. He urged that "local taxing jurisdictions make their valuations based on market conditions that have existed for well over a year and currently exist in the values of oil and gas."

Hudson stressed that "in areas where major oil and gas properties are located, government officials must seriously consider drastic reductions in budgetary funding requirements for 1986 and subsequent years." He said, "All taxing entities which are touched by the current economic downturn should trim operating budgets and defer capital spending in all cases where possible."

THANK YOU

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere love and appreciation to all of our friends who helped us during Glenn's illness.

Your cards, calls, flowers and visits, but most of all your prayers meant so very much to all of us.

A very special thanks to Dr. Boersma and the staff at the E.L. Graham hospital for the care and attention that was given to Glenn. May God bless each and every one of you.

Bullock Paid The Bills

AUSTIN, Tex. — State Comptroller Bob Bullock Wednesday said that checks written to pay the state's bills for the month of March ran 15 percent more than the bills had averaged in the previous six months.

March was the first full month that state agencies were under Governor Mark White's executive order to cut spending.

Bullock's bill-paying report also showed that the number of state employees increased by 889 in March from 186,632 to 187,521.

"This is strictly a book-keeper's report," Bullock said of the figures.

"The agencies sent us their bills and we wrote the checks. The figures mean nothing more and nothing less."

In March, Bullock's office wrote $1.6 billion worth of checks, up $217 million from the monthly average from September through February.

Bullock pointed out that the 15 percent increase would have been cut back to about three percent except for unusually large payments to Texas public schools.

"Maybe next month the total will be less, maybe it will be more. That's what this monitoring is all about," Bullock said.

Bullock will issue a monthly report on state spending until the Legislature meets.

Bullock Sends Checks

AUSTIN, Tex.—State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday sent checks totaling $50.6 million in local sales tax to the 1,015 cities that levy the one-percent city tax.

April checks represent taxes collected on sales made in February and reported to the Comptroller by March 20.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, it is the express goal of the Cisco Civic League to provide community service and education opportunities to our citizens; and,

WHEREAS, in pursuing their goal, the Cisco Civic League sponsors, organizes and provides the annual Folklife Festival of Cisco for the purpose of educating, entertaining and raising money to fund community improvement projects; and

WHEREAS, this will mark the 13th consecutive year for this most popular and successful event; and,

WHEREAS, in addition to providing quality entertainment for our residents, the Folklife Festival is a major event in our community that attracts tourists and adds greatly to the enjoyment of guests to our area;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor, and with the full support of the City Council, I do hereby proclaim in the City of Cisco that the week of April 21 through April 27, 1986 be known as

and hereby commend the members of the Civic League for their creativity, hard work and dedication in providing the Folklife Festival and making it an exceptional and successful event for our community.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, the Mayor of the City of Cisco, on behalf of the City Council, has hereunto set his hand and caused the seal of the City of Cisco, Texas to be affixed to this Proclamation on this the 15th day of April, 1986.

Joe Wheatley, Mayor

Reward Offered In Break-in

Pastor Timothy Gray of the New Life Tabernacle, 306 W. 17th, Cisco, is offering a $500 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person of persons who broke into the church and stole several musical instruments last week.

The break-in was discovered last Saturday evening and Pastor Gray reported the burglary to police at that time.

Taken in the robbery were a Les Paul guitar and a Silvertone guitar. Pastor Gray said the Les Paul guitar would be easy to identify because it is an older Gibson guitar and that brand is not made anymore.

Also taken was a 700 Drum Stand with a large cymbal and a Peavy amp.

To report any information, call the Cisco Police Department at 442-1770 or Pastor Timothy Gray at 442-4149.

"MY PRAYER"
 I've never had much of life's worldly goods,
 Don't care if I ever do;
 As long as I know that Gods by my side.
 To lead me all the way through.

And I pray that when my life here is over
 And I've done all I can do.
 When I get to God's great Kingdom.
 He will carry me all the way through!

Written by:
Billie Mae Bollinger

Some folks are striving for worldly acclaim.
 Some folks are working just to make a big name.
 But I'll be contented to be just the same.
 If God will just lead me all the way through.

Their Memorial Student Center is a fine facility that honors deceased Aggies, including those who lost their lives in the service of their country. Didn't get to visit the athletic facility or to meet their heralded Coach Jackie Sherrill. We came away with a new appreciation for Texas A&M.

THIRTY OR forty miles southeast of College Station in the Navasota area is Washington-on-the-Brazos State Park, a historical place revered as the site of the signing of the Texas Declaration of Independence on March 2, 1836. There's a painting of the scene where 53 men from over the territory gathered and wrote the document. And the wooden building where the meeting was held stands there today for you to see and photography and contemplate. It is known as Independence Hall.

As our state observes its sesquicentennial, it is fitting for one and all to visit historical sites, including this cradle of democracy.

The park includes the original home of Anson Jones, the fourth and last president of the Republic of Texas - the man in office when the state became part of the United States. The Jones home is remarkably well preserved with much of the original furnishings, including his eye glasses and Bible.

Jones County and its county seat of Anson were named for the republic's last president.

There is also a nice museum in the park with a fine collection of antiques and items of those days 150 years ago. And the Brazos River flows past the park, adding to the beauty of the area. Wild flowers, including many varieties, provide you with a good reason to linger and make more pictures.

Softball Season

Begins

Monday Evening

Our Softball season begins on Monday night, April 28, 1986, at 6:00 p.m. We play at Whitley Field located at the corner of Front and Harrell Ave. (W. 4th S.). The teams starting the season will be ages 6-9 and 9-12. The teenagers' season will begin later. We would like to take this opportunity to invite each and everyone out to see the games.

We have had some inquiries about why we charge for the children to play. We would like to set the record straight at this time. THERE IS NO CHARGE FOR ANY CHILD TO PLAY SOFTBALL. Perhaps you have us mixed up with the Little League or some other form of baseball. Our revenue comes from the merchants of Cisco who sponsor these teams, the children selling candy, and our concession stand. Again there is never a charge to play softball.

I wish to thank each of these merchants at this time and will name them at a later date. We feel we are teaching these children to learn sportsmanship and maybe to help them cope with things they come in contact with in later years, basically how to win and also how to lose.

We salute the following Ciscoans who will celebrate birthdays this week.

April 20- Grant Robinson, E.D. Posey, Sr., Dale James, Monty Oakley.

April 21- Gary Wheat, Johnny Cagle, Lora Ford.

April 22- Barbara Eaker, Jerry Taylor, Ollie (Elizalda) Smith.

April 23- No listing.

April 24- Jack Stowe.

April 25- Mrs. George Owens.

April 26- Shelly Smothers, Kay Carey Bryant, Richard Ballinger, James Elliott.

O'Brien Honored By National Federation Of Music

H.V. O'Brien, Editor of the Eastland Telegram, and with his wife GayNell O'Brien the Publisher of the Eastland County Newspapers, was presented a Special Award of Merit at the Eastland Music Club program April 16.

The large Award Certificate was from the National Federation of Music Clubs and was signed by Thelma A. Robinson, the National President, and Marion M. Richter, the Chairman of the American Music Department.

The Award stated that the Eastland Telegram attained this special Award of Merit for the year 1985 in the Parade of American Music Celebration.

Mrs. Sayre noted that the support of the O'Briens in the whole field of music through their newspapers was of great benefit to cultural affairs in Eastland County.

Bring hoes, rakes, shovels, mowers, garbage sacks etc. and a lunch. Drinks and water will be furnished.

In accepting the recognition, Mr. O'Brien stated that he was very honored to have an award from this group.

"I appreciate what you folks are doing - the contributions you are making," he said. "In this world of warring factions, we need all the beauty and harmony we can find."

The Battle of San Jacinto

Battle of San Jacinto, April 21, 1836

Texas Army: According to official reports, 783 soldiers took part in the battle; between 200 and 250 men were left in camp at Harrisburg either because they were sick or were detailed to guard the army's baggage. About 900 men later claimed to have taken part in the battle. Commander in Chief: Samuel Houston.

Among the Texans were Capt. William M. Eastland and William Pike Tindell. Capt. Eastland is buried at LaGrange and Hero Tindell died in 1901 and is buried at Eastland Cemetery.

Benjamin Rice Brigham, 19, of Massachusetts, killed at San Jacinto, was an ancestor of the late Jim Horton of Eastland.

Mexican Army: The Mexican force present for the engagement numbered between 1,300 and 1,600 men. Commander in Chief and President of Mexico: Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna Perez de Lebron.

Events Leading up to the Battle

Oct. 02, 1835 - First shots of the Texas Revolution are fired at Gonzales.

Oct. 11, 1835 - Texas's first revolutionary government, the Permanent Council, meets at San Felipe de Austin.

Nov. 03, 1835 - A new Texas government, called The Consultation, meets at San Felipe de Austin and sets up a temporary government. The Consultation adjourns November 14, 1835, and agrees to meet again on March 1, 1836.

Dec. 4-10, 1835 - Texas forces capture San Antonio and force General Martin Perfecto de Cos's army to leave Texas.

Jan. 17, 1836 - Sam Houston sends Jim Bowie to San Antonio with orders to blow up the Alamo.

Jan. 25, 1836 - Santa Anna and his army leave Saltillo, Mexico, bound for Texas.

Feb. 02, 1836 - Bowie writes to the head of the Texas government that he and Col. James C. Neill had decided to defend the Alamo rather than blow it up.

Feb. 03, 1836 - Colonel William Barret Travis arrives at the Alamo. David Crockett arrives a few days later.

Feb. 16, 1836 - Santa Anna and his army cross the Rio Grande.

Feb. 23, 1836 - Santa Anna's army reaches San Antonio, and the siege of the Alamo begins.

Feb. 24, 1836 - Travis appeals for help: "To the People of Texas & All Americans in the World."

March 01, 1836 - The Convention of 1836 meets at Washington-on-the-Brazos.

March 02, 1836 - Delegates to the Convention of 1836 adopt the Texas Declaration of Independence.

March 04, 1836 - The convention elects Sam Houston commander-in-chief of all land forces of the Texas Army.

March 06, 1836 - The Alamo falls. Houston leaves to take command of the troops at Gonzales.

March 11, 1836 - Houston arrives at Gonzales, finds 374 men.

March 14, 1836 - Houston learns of the fall of the Alamo; begins retreating toward East Texas.

March 16, 1836 - The convention adopts a constitution and sets up a temporary government of the Republic of Texas with the following executive officers: David G. Burnet, President; Lorenzo de Zavala, Vice-president; Samuel P. Carson, Secretary of State; Bailey Hardeman, Secretary of the Treasury; Thomas J. Rusk, Secretary of War; Robert Potter, Secretary of the Navy; David Thomas, Attorney General.

March 17, 1836 - The convention adjourns, and the government leaves for Harrisburg. Houston reaches Burnham's Crossing on the Colorado, remains two days, proceeds to Beason's Ferry near the present town of Columbus and encamps for a week while scouts Deaf Smith, Henry Karnes, R.E. Handy, and three others are sent back to scout the position of the Mexican army.

March 19, 1836 - Texas forces under James W. Fannin are defeated in the Battle of the Coleto near Goliad.

March 26, 1836 - Houston continues his retreat; colonists east of the Colorado panic and begin fleeing for Louisiana in the Runaway Scrape.

March 27, 1836 - Fannin and his troops are executed at Goliad. Houston reaches San Felipe de Austin.

March 28, 1836 - Houston leaves for Groce's plantation. Moseley Baker and 120 men remain to guard San Felipe and the crossing on the Brazos. Wylie Martin and 100 men go to hold the crossing at Fort Bend (Richmond). Moseley Baker's scouts mistake a herd of cattle for an approaching Mexican army, and they burn San Felipe to the ground.

March 31, 1836 - Houston's army reaches Groce's plantation, where they are to remain for almost two weeks. Houston uses the time to train the men to fight as an army.

April 06, 1836 - Thomas J. Rusk, Secretary of War, joins the army.

April 07, 1836 - Santa Anna reaches the ruins of San Felipe. Finding the crossing guarded by Baker and his men, Santa Anna moves downstream to Fort Bend, where he takes the crossing on April 10.

April 11, 1836 - The "Twin Sisters," two 6-pound cannon given to Texas by the citizens of Cincinnati, Ohio, are received by Houston.

April 13, 1836 - Houston crosses to the east side of the Brazos and begins, on the 14th, to concentrate his forces at Donoho's, a few miles to the east. Santa Anna leaves Fort Bend for Harrisburg, trying to capture the official of the Texas government.

April 15, 1836 - After a forced march, Santa Anna reaches Harrisburg at about 11:00 p.m. but finds the city abandoned except for three printers in the office of the newspaper "Telegraph and Texas Register." The printers tell Santa Anna that the government officials had left Harrisburg for Galveston Island, and that Houston is at Groce's.

April 16, 1836 - Houston leaves Donoho's for Harrisburg.

April 17, 1836 - Santa Anna sets Harrisburg afire and leaves for New Washington, still pursuing the fleeing government officials.

April 18, 1836 - Santa Anna arrives at New Washington, on the shore of Galveston Bay, barely missing capturing President Burnet and his party. Houston learns from a captured Mexican courier at Harrisburg that Santa Anna will next head for Lynch's Ferry on the San Jacinto River.

April 19, 1836 - Near Harrisburg Houston leaves sick, wounded, and baggage behind and marches for Lynch's Ferry, arriving there on the morning of April 20 after marching most of the night.

April 20, 1836 - Santa Anna burns New Washington and starts for Lynch's Ferry; contacts Houston's pickets for 2:00 p.m. The two armies take up their positions after a brief skirmish between cavalry forces.

Events of April 20-21, 1836
Early on April 20, Houston's army arrived at San Jacinto and seized Lynch's Ferry. Houston then led his army into a grove of live oaks from which they could watch the wagon road to the ferry.

Only one company of men in Houston's army was made up entirely of native Texas. These twenty to thirty men of Hispanic origin were commanded by Juan Nepomucena Seguin. Seguin was the son of Erasmo Seguin, a close friend of Stephen F. Austin and a man who was instrumental in the Anglo settlement of Texas. Erasmo Seguin, a wealthy rancher near San Antonio, turned over his resources to the colonists during the revolution and contributed huge amounts of food, horses, and mules to the fight for freedom.

Others of Houston's army had only recently arrived in Texas. Fewer than 200 of his men owned land in Texas. Many had come to Texas in the weeks just before the battle in order to assist Texans in their struggle for the right to govern themselves. The nature of Houston's army was recorded by a recruit from the United States who arrived on the morning of the battle: "We found the Texian force under Gen'l S. Houston encamped in the timber near Lynch's ferry over the San Jacinto River. A scene singularly wild and picturesque presented itself to our view. Around 20 or 30 campfires stood as many groups of men: English, Irish, Scots, Mexicans, French, Germans, Italians, Poles, Yankees, all unwashed and unshaved, their long hair and beards and mustaches matted, their clothes in tatters and plastered with mud. A more savage looking band could scarcely have been assembled. Yet many were gentlemen, owner of large estates. Some were distinguished for oratory, some in science, some in medicine. Many had graced famous drawing rooms. Their guns were of every size and shape. They numbered less than 800."

Santa Anna arrived at San Jacinto early in the afternoon of April 20. Trying to bring on a general battle or to feel out the enemy's strength, Santa Anna sent a company of soldiers out to fire on Houston's army. Then a cannonball whizzed over the Texans' heads, which was soon answered with a hail of broken horsehoes from the "Twin Sisters." A half-hearted artillery duel followed, neither side doing significant damage.

A Texan attempt to take the Mexican cannon with a cavalry charge provided some exciting action but not the desired result. Mirabeau B. Lamar, a private in the cavalry, so distinguished himself that the next day he was promoted to colonel and placed in command of the cavalry.

On the morning of April 21, General Cos arrived with about 500 men, bringing Santa Anna's force to about 1,500. Houston sent Deaf Smith to destroy the bridge over Vince's Bayou, on the road from Harrisburg, to hinder the arrival of more reinforcements for Santa Anna's army.

At noon Houston held a council of war. Most of his commanders, some of whom had been criticizing him for his failure to attack the Mexican army earlier, voted against such an action now. Houston revealed his thoughts to no one, but at about 3:30 in the afternoon, he ordered the army into position for attack.

Between 4:00 and 4:30 p.m., with the sun at their backs, the Texans advanced. The Mexican army, most of whom were asleep, had posted no guards. The Texans marched almost a mile across the plain of San Jacinto undetected. Then, with cries of "Remember the Alamo! Remember Goliad!" the Texas army swept over the Mexican position to the tune of "Will You Come to the Bower?" played by a black drummer and three fifers.

The surprise was complete. Santa Anna was asleep in his silk tent. General Castrillon was drinking champagne with an aide Panic quickly set in among the Mexican troops, despite efforts by several officers to rally them. In eighteen minutes, organized resistance was over.

Texan casualties were light. Only nine Texans were killed or mortally wounded. Thirty other Texans were wounded, including Houston, who took a rifle ball in the ankle. Both the lower bones in Houston's leg were shattered, crippling him for several months.

The Mexican army did not fare so well. Intent on avenging the lives of their comrades slain at the Alamo and Goliad, the Texans continued to pursue and kill Mexican soldiers until darkness overtook them. The area of heaviest casualties was around Peggy Lake, where hundreds of Mexicans, attempting to cross the boggy ground, either drowned or were shot as they struggled to get away. When the fighting finally stopped, 630 Mexicans lay dead, 208 were wounded, and 730 were captured.

Santa Anna was captured the next day by a group of soldiers who did not know who he was until they brought him into the Texan camp. Mexican soldiers recognized their leader and blurted "El Presidente!"

Santa Anna congratulated Sam Houston on having captured "the Napoleon of the West."

As a result of the Battle of San Jacinto, Texas won its independence from Mexico. Ten years later, Texas was annexed by the United States. In 1846 the United States and Mexico went to war over the disputed boundary between Texas and Mexico. As a result of this war, the United States acquired almost one million square miles of land: the states of New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, California, and Utah, and parts of Colorado, Wyoming, Kansas, and Oklahoma.

HAVE A BIG TIME IN TEXAS.

The Battle at San Jacinto

By the time Sam Houston rode into Gonzales, Texas on March 11, 1836, the signal cannon from the Alamo had not been heard for five days, causing concern in Gonzales. Houston sent Erastus "Deaf" Smith toward San Antonio to learn what had happened. The news he brought back confirmed everyone's worst fears—the Alamo had fallen to Mexican troops.

Houston realized that his small force of 374 men, no matter how determined, was no match for Santa Anna's army. He ordered Gonzales to be burned and moved his force east to the Colorado River, where he intended to drill the men and make a stand. But news of the massacre at Goliad caught up with the Texans and Houston knew that even more troops would be joining Santa Anna. He moved again, this time to the Brazos River.

The defeats at the Alamo and Goliad and Houston's retreat in March and April produced panic—the muddy spring roads were soon clogged with Texans moving east. Meals were left on tables, corn abandoned in cribs, heavy furniture cast on the roadside in the hurry. Although the government fled with the people, this "Runaway Scrape" infuriated Ad Interim President David Burnet and Secretary of War Thomas J. Rusk, who asked Houston to halt his retreat and take a stand.

"You must fight.... The salvation of the country depends on you doing so," Burnet admonished Houston. But Houston responded, "I consulted none—I held no councils-of-war. If I err, the blame is mine."

In April, the Mexican troops followed Houston across the Brazos at San Felipe, about 60 miles west of Fort Houston. Santa Anna thought that Sam Houston would escape to the safety of the United States, but that it still might be possible to capture President Burnet and the Texas government, which had been moved to Harrisburg. But he arrived there too late and decided to have Harrisburg burned.

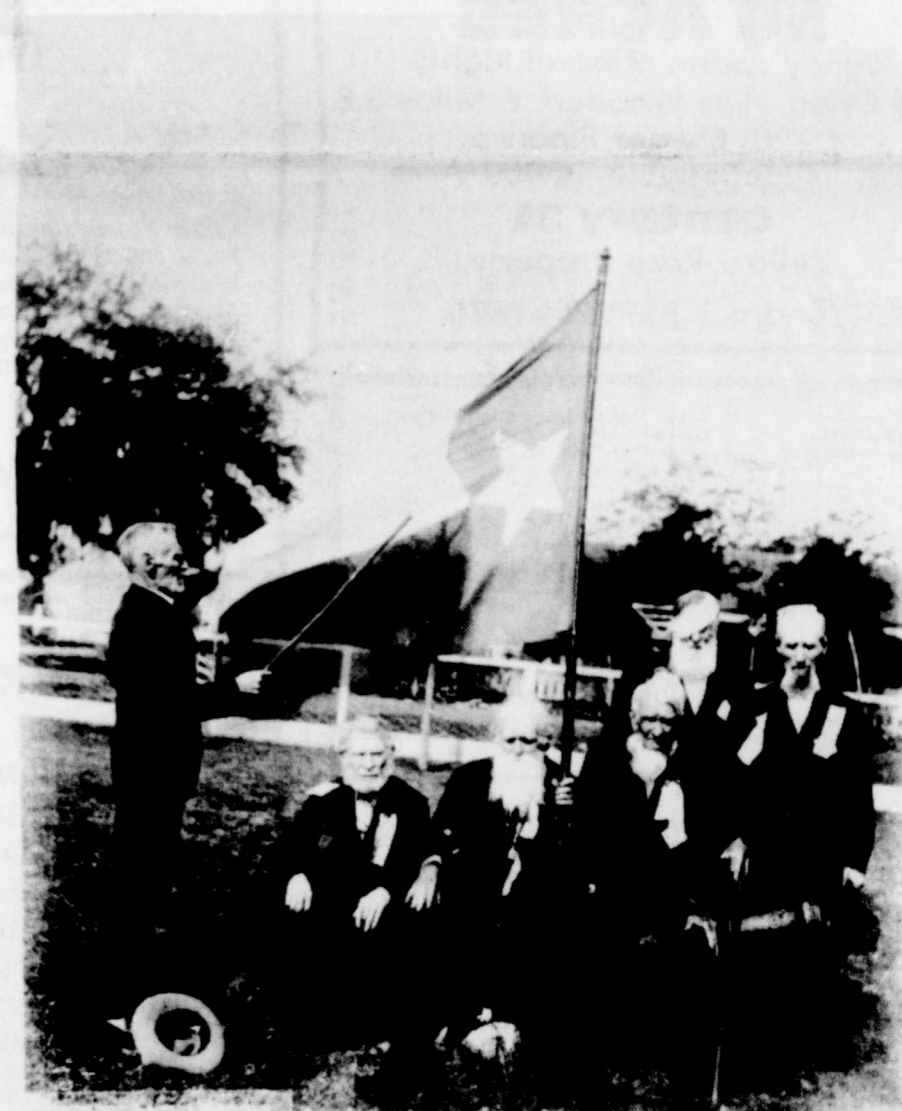

As historian Archie P. McDonald tells it, when Sam Houston learned that Santa Anna had burned Harrisburg, he moved his men due east without conferring with anyone. Many felt they were being led away from battle, but he wrote to his friend Henry Raquet two days before the final confrontation: "We go to conquer. It is wisdom growing out of necessity to meet the enemy now; every consideration enforces it. No previous occasion would justify it."

On April 20, McDonald recounts, the Texans reached a field east of Fort Houston and a Mexican force faced them a mile away across a rolling prairie. An indecisive skirmish occurred that afternoon. Then sometime during the night, General Martin Perfecto de Cos arrived with 500 men, making Santa Anna's force the larger army—"upwards of 1500 men" in Houston's words. On the morning of April 21, the armies faced each other, the Texans anxious while their leaders

INSTALLATION
Siebert Elementary's P-TO is set for next school year. A new slate of officers, headed by Alice Perry, was installed at the Tuesday meeting.

TAXES
There was available trained help on income taxes for the shady-siders and the handicapped, but I hear not many people took advantage of the aid offered by AARP MEMBERS.

This speaks well for independence, but would more people have asked for help if the fact it was at hand had been more widely publicized? Let's keep this in mind for next April's go-round with the IRS. The way things are heating up in the Mediterranean area may mean a difference in taxes, you know. If you check the business cycles at all, you already know it takes a war to pull us out of a depression.

...OH, MY DARLINGS...
Brownie Troop No. 238 sings the blues these days. Leader ANITA DARLING and her two little darlings in No. 238 are moving to Graham. Daddy Darling and the other two little darlings are going, too. It's a matter of economics--like going where the work is.

MOONYEAN MOONLIGHTING
MOONYEAN STACY, assistant leader of No. 238, will move into the leader's spot now. There will be no meeting the 21st, but MS would like for the mothers to meet with the troop 4/28 to work out a schedule for mothers to take turns assisting the assistant.

THANKS
The Music Club ladies had a great time at their open-house meeting this week. MILLIE SAYRE, at the request of National Federation of Music Clubs, made a special presentation to H.V. O'BRIEN in appreciation for his contribution to their Parade of American Music.

Incidentally, have you ever noticed that bushel basket H.V. carries around? It's to hide his light under. I can't really fault him for modesty, but how about ...let your light so shine...?

MAY DAY
The May Day Hey Day for the GIRL SCOUTS is set for May 17. More details later, but put this on your calendar...it's a Saturday.

WEEKEND FUN
THE RANGER ELEMEN-TARY P-TO'S Sesquicentennial doings are scheduled for this weekend. Sounds like fun for anybody's taste.

TEST DATES
CISCO and RANGER have moved their California Achievement Tests to next week. EASTLAND'S CAT's are finished...in elementary school. I don't know which: LOYS ALLMAND, principal, or CYNTHIA MITCHELL, teacher, is due the credit, but Mandi took herself off to bed an hour earlier this week because of the tests.

SAN JACINTO DAY
The Thursday Study Club is having a reception at the Eastland Memorial Library Monday, April 21. This is a state-wide school holiday, and the Library holds summer programs for the town's youngsters...for which all readers, and some who are just lookers, are thankful.

CHOIR SUPPORT
The BAND BOOSTERS CLUB presented DAVENE JEFFCOAT with a check at SIEBERT'S last P-TO meeting. The Siebert fifth and sixth grade choir is invited to sing this fall in Dallas in a presentation of "Gone To Texas." They had the ability to get invited; now, they need the cash to get there. They appreciate the Band Boosters' aid--and all the rest of the money, encouragement, and help they get.

PIECEWORK
How many of you have called CARROLL BROWN (442-2567) to volunteer to piece a 10x10" quilt block for the upcoming CJC production of "The Quilters?" I haven't talked to her--she's always rehearsing, painting scenery or teaching--but I have left word that I'll piece a block if I don't have to quilt it. I tried to learn to quilt, but quilting a quilt and milking a cow are two "pioneer" activities I never got the hang of. I got stuck by the needles and kicked by the cows--though what I HATED was getting swatted in the face by a tail full of cockleburrs. Ugh! Dougle ugh!!

GAME TIME
RANGER ELEMEN-TARY P-TO is sponsoring a teachers-vs-girls basketball game in the gym at seven PM April 25. This is a fundraiser to finish enclosing the slab the P-TO added to the elementary building--just off the cafeteria. It has a roof, but they want to make it an all-weather area where the youngsters can get rid of some energy on bad-weather

State Comptroller Sends $50.6 Million In Sales Tax Checks

State Comptroller Bob Bullock has sent checks totaling $50.6 million in local sales tax to the 1,015 cities that levy the one-percent city tax.

Houston's check was the largest--$8.7 million--bringing total payments in 1986 to $47.1 million, down 1 percent over 1985. Dallas received $6.1 million for a total of $33.6 million in total payments for this year, a decrease of 4 percent.

San Antonio's payment of $3.1 million increased that city's 1986 payment to a total of $18.2 million, up 5 percent over last year. Austin's check for $2.4 million pushed payments to $13.5 million for 1986.

Fort Worth received $1.7 million for a 1986 total of $11.4 million, up 10 percent. El Paso's payment of $1.2 million brought its total to $7.1 million, a 9 percent increase over last year's payment.

April checks represent taxes collected on sales made in February and reported to the Comptroller by March 20.

Yet some people have spent their life-time savings for a farm or city property with little or no thought about the title. Of course, they will learn better later, but why not avoid the pitfalls and expense of poor judgement by getting an abstract or title insurance policy first and buying the property later?

Anyone For Cookie Decorating?

Remember the good old days when mom baked out-cakes, and you had beautiful decorated cookies for Christmas...or a birthday...or any special occasion?

Well, the good old days are back. Started in 1964, the cookie-decorating demonstration was so popular with youngsters (and a few people who are young at heart) that the Civic League has tried to make this an annual event. Children will be invited to decorate a cookie after they wash their hands, of

Want To Fiddle Away

The Cisco Folklife Festival's annual fiddler's contest will be held under the big entertainment tent on Sunday afternoon, April 27 from 5-7 p.m.

There will be two categories for entrants: over 18, and age 18 and under. Cash prizes will be awarded. For more information, please contact Mrs. Susan Cramer at 482-689 after 5 p.m.

Home Made Bread Is Hard To Resist!

Who can resist the odor of freshly baked bread? That's the odor that greets the festival-goer at the Rockwell Lumber grounds and even the most conscientious dieter has a difficult time not queuing for a warm slice of homemade bread with melting butter.

During some past years, the Civic League bakers have encountered difficulty ranging from cold weather, which kept the bread from rising, to blowing sand, and stoves with ovens that wouldn't work. Persuading dough to rise in adverse conditions posed quite a problem which finally was resolved by the use of a large crock, and a dough box (similar to a large wooden food dehydrator) and the super Civic League bread recipe which was especially developed to encourage easy yeast growth.

Yum! Yum!

As you visit the Festival this year, you will be enjoying some accommodations provided by community-minded, helpful businesses and institutions. First National Bank of Cisco and Cisco Junior College are co-sponsoring one of the oversized tents provided for your comfort. A second gigantic tent is being furnished by Olney Savings Association and the Cisco Civic League, in assisting the Civic League in providing music for a western music street dance

The new popular snack food item, funnel cake, will be available at the 13th Annual Folklife Festival. Mrs. Mona Lambeth has signed an agreement with the Civic League to make the busy snack the weekend of April 26-27.

Served piping hot, dusted with powdered sugar, the funnel cake is a treat that's hard to resist.

Folklife Festival History

1986 marks the 13th Annual Cisco Folklife Festival which originated in 1973 under the sponsorship of the Cisco Civic League. With the cooperation of only a handful of volunteers, and not many more exhibitors and entertainers, the first Festival was produced on a shoestring budget. The Festival parade that year was spearheaded by the Civic League President, Peggy Maddox Beck, now a resident of Bedford, Texas. The first Festival was organized by Beck & Jo Ann Cermin, one of the current directors of the '86 Festival.

The Festival now involves some fifty Civic League members and their families. Assisted by the Cisco Chamber of Commerce, Cisco Junior College, the City of Cisco, and several other community service organizations, several hundred more volunteers are engaged in helping produce and promote a weekend of enjoyable family fun.

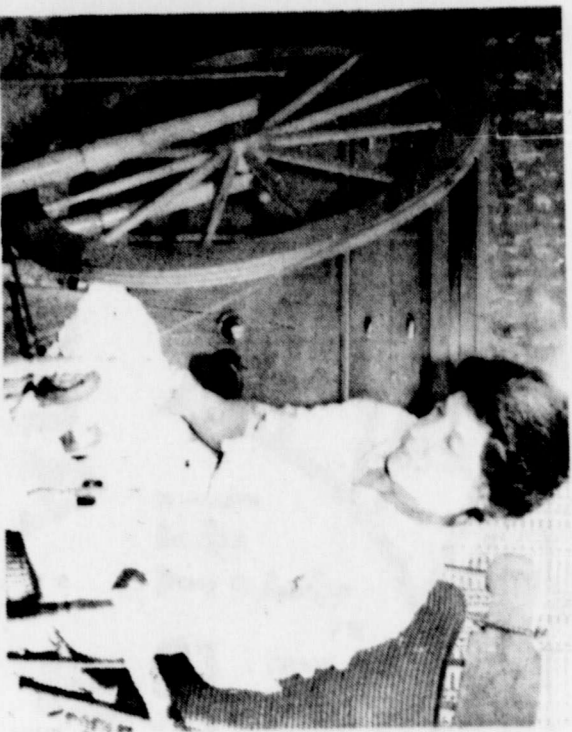

The Festival has a threefold purpose. 1) To educate: Special demonstrations are held to teach visitors about skills and crafts used by the pioneers to survive in this sometimes harsh land.

2) To entertain. An almost continuous parade of popular area talent with a variety to suit nearly every taste. 3) To raise funds. All proceeds from Festival profits are directed back into the community.

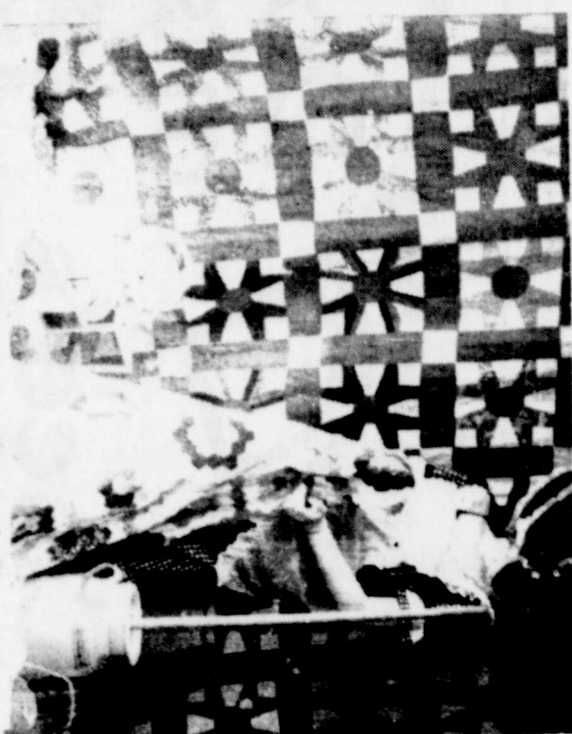

For those who love to try tempting foods, the Festival selection is usually available. Featuring homemade foods, the Festival has become famous for its fresh strawberry shortcake and homemade bread.

As traditionally, the Festival will open immediately after the Saturday morning downtown parade and be open until 10 p.m. It will reopen Sunday from 12 noon until 5 p.m.

Try your hand at spinning...several drop spindles will be available at the Folklife Festival.

Want to learn how to quilt...or knit...tat or crocket? Demonstrations will be given at the Folklife Festival.

ENTERTAINMENT GALLORE!

Exciting entertainment to suit all tastes will be on hand for 1986 Folklife Festival visitors. Mayor Joe Whealey will open the festivities with the invocation and welcome. The Janine Dee Dancers will be the first performers on the large stage under the oversized and colorful tent. They will be followed by the Cisco High School Stage Band, led by director Wayne White. Other morning entertainment includes "Adoration" and the Eastland County Popovers.

Festival director Barbara Pope, who is supervising the entertainment activities announced that afternoon scheduling includes a Children's Theater treat from Cisco Junior College. At 1:30 the Senior Citizens Rhythm Band will perform, followed by a group from the Cisco Primary School. A crowd favorite, the Vintage Style Show will begin around 2:30. At 3:00 the Sweet

Interesting Medicinal Plants To Be Displayed

One unique exhibit which is periodically displayed at the Folklife Festival is "FOLK MEDICINE." The display is a collection of living herbs and kitchen items which were used by the pioneers and Indians in their fight for survival in this sometimes harsh, primitive land.

Developed for its historical significance, visitors to the display can see and identify some of the local plants which contain medicinal ingredients, and read descriptions of why the pioneers used these weeds and domestic herbs.

Some of the plants that grow easily in the Eastland County area included dill, parsley, comfrey, thyme, fennel, oregano, lemon balm, mint, chives, garlic, willow, oak, horseradish. This is only a sampling of the many items contained in the collection.

A brief warning is given to all browsers. The same ingredients that can make a plant have healing properties can make the plant a potential poison. Use of herbs for healing should only be done with careful directions.

Festival demonstrations chairman Sarah Hounshell is delighted to announce that Randy and Jo Ann Rust will be returning to the demonstration area to show and teach how sausage was, and still is, being made in the home.

Attention Railroad Buffs!

As an added feature at the 1986 Folklife Festival, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Crow of Sweetwater will be present to show and talk about a collection of railroad memorabilia.

The son of a T&P railroad man, Mr. Crow has a vast knowledge of Texas railroad history, and will be discussing the history of the Texas and Pacific, why it went through Dallas, Fort Worth, and why it chose Cisco instead of Breckenridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Crow have met with the Conrad N. Hilton Memorial Park and Community Center and part of their collection will be on display later in that Cisco museum.

Shelling Corn

Through the efforts of area ranch family, Travis and Nancy Chapman, fresh dried corn will be available for folklike festival youngsters to run through an early Texas cornsheller. A child, or anyone young-at-heart will be given the opportunity to husk an ear of corn, and crank it through the hand-powered sheller.

Making Primitive Pottery

Several years ago, while visiting on an Indian reservation, Mrs. Valie Parker became interested in the beautiful clay pots that were being made. She investigated the earlier techniques, and learned that she could make similar simple pots from local clay, and she has been sharing the skill with festival visitors ever since.

Gun Club To Demonstrate Black Powder

Mr. Mike Moore of the Cisco Gun Club has announced that the club will have an exhibit and demonstration at the 13th Annual Folklife Festival at 4:00 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, April 26-27. The demonstration, conducted by Jon Dennison will feature loading and discharge of black powder, and teach how to melt and mold lead bullets.

How About A Fresh Hoe Cake?

For the past seven years the Cisco Civic League has been invited to the Texas Folklife Festival held in San Antonio, to demonstrate hoe cake making. "Hoe cakes? That's just hot water corn bread, isn't it," you say? That's right, hoe cakes are just hot water corn bread, but when did you realize that the origin of the term "hoe cake" was the use of a hoe to cook the cornbread.

Originating with the Indians, corn cakes were first cooked on ashes, or hot rocks, and called "appones." The tasty cakes who traveled north in the

CISCO
The Cisco Civic League and Chamber of Commerce are sponsoring a Festival Treasure Hunt, and any Eastland County resident is eligible to win. The prize will be $25 Festival currency. There is a message in a cryptographic story published in The Eastland County Newspapers, and if you can solve the code and carry out the instructions you have a good chance to win. This may take some brain power!

"Ranch Day" at Cisco Junior College is set for Wednesday, April 23. Morning activities include the annual "Battle of the Sexes" volleyball game at 10 a.m., and judging of the student/faculty chili cookoff at 11:30. Activities will continue in the afternoon, moving to the CJC Rodeo Arena at 1 p.m. Contests will include an egg toss, tow sack race, rescue race, girl's goat tying and tug-of-war. At 8 p.m. there will be a western dance in the SUB for the student body.

Edward Wende, Cisco Post Office employee, has been presented a Service Award pin for 25 years service. As he presented the award, Postmaster Wally Cox stated: "Mr. Wende is a good employee of the Postal Service. The reputation is built by such local people." The public, as well as the postal officials, recognizes the hard work of Edward Wende at the local postoffice. He and his wife, Lola, have lived in this area all their lives.

A slide presentation of the Holy Land will be given by Earl and Jane Ray at First United Methodist Church on Sunday, April 20 at 6 p.m. This is a professional slide program, and will last about 1 1/2 hrs. All interested persons are invited to attend this very special presentation.

EASTLAND
At the 1986 Sesquicentennial Celebration at San Jacinto, Eastland will be represented by Internationally-acclaimed trumpet player Stacy Blair. He will be featured in a classical music concert with the Austin Chamber Music Center at 10 a.m. Monday, April 21, on the grounds of the monument. There will be other programs and features of the two-day event, ending with a San Jacinto Day ceremony from 4-5 p.m. on April 21.

There is a new manager of the Super-Duper Food Store - Mike Snowden, who has moved to Eastland from Abilene. In assuming his responsibilities, he also reaffirmed the store's commitment to providing the people of this area the finest quality at the lowest prices. He extended an invitation to the public to come by and get acquainted. A number of innovations are being planned, and announcements will be forthcoming.

The Herrera Sign Company has been passed on to a new generation. Richard Q. Herrera, who has built up a good business over the years, sold the Sign Company to his son, Ricky, who will continue to offer this service. Ricky Herrera has worked with his father since he was 12 years old, and understands the business. He promises the same quality work that has helped build the establishment.

H.V. O'Brien, Editor of The Eastland Telegram, and Publisher, with Mrs. O'Brien, of the Eastland County Newspapers, was honored with a Certificate of Appreciation from the National Federation of Music Clubs on April 16. The Award was presented during a program of the Eastland Music Study Club in the Women's Clubhouse. Mrs. Frank Sayre, President of the local Club, cited O'Brien's contribution to music and area musical programs through his newspapers.

The attractive park at West Commerce and Main has been restored, and dedicated ceremonies were held by the Rotary Club this week. This local organization sponsored the renovation of the park, and worked the area over. The project will continue with the planting of geraniums around the flag pole, and the Club will install a watering system on the grounds. Flood lights have been installed, and will turn on each night at dusk to light the American and Texas flags that are now flying.

RANGER
Ranger City commissioners have accepted the resignation of H.W. (Jack) Veal as Police and Fire Commissioner. Veal said that he was resigning due to business and personal matters, and thanked the Commissioners for the cooperation he received the last two years. Mayor Pro Tem Buddy Vinson deferred the appointment of a replacement to the office until Mayor Raymond Hart is present.

"Who's going to sign the note?" still seems to be a question in the minds of everyone involved in the building of the new fire station. The city indicates that due to legal questions they can't sign it. Several independent businessmen who are members of the fire department volunteered to co-sign the note. The proposition of possibly 20 people the note for $2,000 each has come up, and a lawyer is studying it. Public support for the Volunteer Fire Department, as always, continues to be high.

There will be a meeting of the Citizens For Good Government on Monday, April 21 7 p.m. at the Community Clubhouse. Come out to this interesting and informative meeting. The CFGG group is particularly interested in the up-coming Primary elections, and will bring all information possible about issues.

BAIRD
Callahan County Commissioners have voted not to fund county misdemeanor probation work. This action was the result of a questionnaire from the Texas Adult Probation Commission, asking the county if they would fund the caseload once state funding runs out. This echoes actions taken last week by the Taylor County Commissioners. According to Paul Hurt, Director of Probation for Taylor, Coleman and Callahan Counties, eliminating misdemeanor funding will "Limit the judicial options". During the Commissioners meeting County Judge Mack Kniffen commented: "I don't know what will happen from here on - we may fill up our jails."

RISING STAR

Herring

Exhibit Opens Here

—Classes To Begin Monday Also—

William (Bill) Herring

Bill Herring, artist in residence and consultant to the Ysleta School District.

Paintings and drawings of expressionistic watercolorist, William Herring, son of Jan Herring, will be displayed during the fifteenth Herring Art Exhibition beginning Monday, April 21, 1986, at the Eastland National Bank Community Room.

Herring, who is artist in residence and consultant to the Ysleta School District, is both painter and teacher and maintains a studio-school in El Paso and a studio in Clint, Texas. He also teaches workshops in the Herring Studio in Cloudcroft, New Mexico each summer.

Though they deal with a wide variety of subjects, the paintings share the artist's very distinctive style. They are delicate, ephemeral, almost shimmering in form and vibrant in color. One finds oneself peering intently into each piece to finish the artist's line here only to discover a shape or line there not seen before. The artist has created the space in which the viewer becomes a participation in the creative process.

"I paint only that which is necessary, leaving much unsaid," said Herring in a recent interview. "The expressionistic style has a slow, but long-lived impact."

And so it is, one sees one side of a young man's face, but when the viewer's eyes seek the line of the jaw and cheek on the other side, it is impossible to find its boundary. The paint is applied in such a way that the face and background become, at some imperceptible point, as one. This flowing use of color is called "open color" and is a technique whereby the artist expands the color beyond the boundaries of form. Few sharp clear lines appear in this work. "The values are cushioned," says Herring, "which, when done correctly, moves the eye around the piece, keeping it inside the painting."

Herring uses, almost strikingly bright colors, which he rarely mutes. Opera pink, peacock blue and permanent violet make up a palette whose sheer brilliance is a feast of color for the eyes.

A flurry of bright flowers in a vase, race horses pounding to the finish line, ballet dancers suspended in a leap and a patchwork puppy capture and hold both the eyes and the imagination of the viewer.

"Seated Child"

The fifteenth annual Jan Herring Art Exhibit will be held in the Community Room of the Eastland National Bank Monday, April 21, 1986 through Friday, May 2, 1986. The show will feature the works of Jan Herring, her son, Bill Herring, and her daughter, Helen Herring Green, and will be composed mainly of oils, watercolors, enamels and drawings. Area art lovers are extended a cordial invitation to visit during regular banking hours during this two week period.

As in the past fifteen years, this exhibit is being held in conjunction with Jan Herring's annual two week workshop here.

ABOUT JAN HERRING
The oil paintings and watercolors of Jan Herring are a celebration of Nature. As a mature professional teacher and artist, she brings to her oeuvre, masterful techniques, sound composition, and a pallet as vibrant as the flowers in her garden. Her themes are disarming in their simplicity and universality, but never sentimental or boring. The family, motherhood, childhood, memory, nostalgia, and the ever present beauty of Nature are echoed and revealed in ever changing perspectives that constitute this artist's world.

A protege of the great Frederic Taubes, Jan has learned well the lessons of a master, but more importantly, she has used her knowledge and talent as a foundation for the evolution and invention of her own unique style. There is, in her abundant and happy life, a metaphor for her creativity, artistic accomplishments, and visions. Leonard P. Sipiara, El Paso Museum of Art, Director.

Jan Herring is a painter, author, and teacher. She is both versatile and prolific working in oils, watercolors, enamels and sculpture. Her subjects range from portraits, figures, landscapes to flowers and still life. She has written two books on painting and has been a contributing author for articles in American Artist Magazine, Palette Talk and most recently to a book, LEARNING FROM THE PROS.

Jan Herring has exhibited her paintings throughout the west, southwest and south. She has had two New York shows and has exhibited in a number of Museums and Universities.

In private life, she is Mrs. Henry Herring. She was born in Montana and now resides in a hundred year old adobe house in Clint, Texas. She is the mother of three children and grandmother to seven grand-daughters. She maintains a large working studio in Clint and a summer teaching studio in Cloudcroft, New Mexico.

When asked what philosophy of Art she expresses she replied, "Now, after 35 years of painting, teaching and writing, seeking fame and fortune, I'm painting primarily for my own pleasure. Teaching is still exciting to me. I enjoy the talented people and traveling to the various parts of the country that I never would have seen if it were not for teaching. Teaching has also forced me into research and study in order to verbalize my approach to art. I'm sure I never would have gone into writing if it weren't for my students. I have discovered that anyone who picks up a brush and squeezes paint onto that palette wants to succeed in expressing their talents and it's the teacher that can inspire and direct that effort."
