Mrs. Chief Brown looks over Christmas Items With Juanita Hartsell and Annita Ritchie

Lemon Tree Is Cisco Business Of The Week

The Cisco Business of the Week is The Lemon Tree Boutique, located at 612 Conrad Hilton. The store is managed and owned by a mother and daughter team, Juanita Hartsell and Annita Ritchie.

Juanita is the manager of The Lemon Tree and according to her daughter, Juanita is the one who really works to build their business up to where it is today.

Juanita's first retail experience was 31 years ago when she worked for a privately owned shoe store that specialized in shoe sales and fitting. She later worked as the manager of the Sportswear and millinery department in a Sears store in Lake Charles, La. After that she worked for Sears in Houston in the luggage, handbags and accessories department. After moving to Cisco she worked in the Bray's Store in Eastland for approximately two years prior to beginning at the Lemon Tree of Cisco.

Juanita is an active member of the I-20 Church of Christ in Cisco where she teaches Sunday School to the first and second graders. She also takes a personal interest in each customer and most of them are really friends!

Annita Ritchie is the owner and buyer of the Lemon Tree and has been for 17 years. The store was first bought in 1967 and they owned it for 12 years. They sold their business in 1979, but bought the store back in April of 1982.

Annita coordinates advertising and public relations for the shop as well as helping with inventory control and keeping the times in the shop fresh and in step with Cisco needs.

Cisco Goodfellows Receive Names To Put On List For Help This Year

The Cisco Goodfellows have started receiving applications from Cisco families who are having financial troubles this year. The Goodfellows Organization was started two years ago to help people who are having a run of bad luck.

Donations are slow coming in as of now, but it is still a little early. Members of the Goodfellows board of directors are expecting a large number of applications this year due to the economic trouble in our area. The Goodfellows are asking everyone who has been blessed this year to give generously to help those less fortunate.

Donations can be mailed to Goodfellows: c/o The Cisco Press, P.O. Box 1072; or c/o Olney Savings, 701 Conrad Hilton; or c/o First National Bank, P.O. Box 1220; or c/o The Chamber of Commerce, 103 East 4th. All donations are tax deductible.

Family members or friends write to the Goodfellows and ask for help for their loved ones. One such letter reads:

I am the father of three children in school. I'm not working and my wife has been in the hospital. She just started back to work. We are loosing the house and pickup. We can't meet the payments or buy for Christmas.

Another letter from a mother of three small children ask for help because she and her husband have no work and can't buy Christmas this year.

A daughter writes in for her elderly parents who live on a very small fixed income. She said a little help from the Goodfellows of Cisco would certainly brighten their Christmas.

A friend asks for help for her elderly friend who has recently had surgery. Sometimes she does not have enough for food. She said her friend can use help from any shape form or fashion.

An elderly couple write in for help. They try to get by on social security but they don't have anything left after the bills are paid and food is bought.

Another elderly person write in for help and explained that her social security check is not hardly enough to see her through from pay check to pay check.

A mother wrote in asking for help. She said she has had a stream of bad luck this year. She is in debt for a funeral bill for a family member and she lost her job in August. She has not been able to find work. Her unemployment check is enough to pay their utility bills and buy a little food. She has been ill and owes a large doctor bill, and a large drug store bill. She also has a large car repair bill and taxes. She said any help would be greatly appreciated.

Everyone is asked to reach deep into their pockets this year and give to Goodfellows, so these people can all be helped.

Donations this week are:

Wanda's Corner

by Wanda Hallmark

In my last column I mentioned that our church is having a Sunday School contest, the men against the women, on who brings the most visitors. I also invited people to attend the Sunday School at First Evangelical Methodist Church and say that you saw it in my column and to give the points to the women. That way when the contest is over and the women will have won, the men will have to cook a pot luck dinner and serve it to everyone and clean up afterwards.

Several men of the church said that they are not planning on losing, but if they do they are going to serve TV dinners. No work, and no clean up. And I really don't like TV dinners, so if anyone wants to be a visitor in our Sunday School for the next month, it won't hurt my feelings if you ask to be counted on the men's team.

"Crossroads of Empire", a major collection of historical maps that is on a two year tour of the Southwest is the Cisco Junior College Maner Memorial Library exhibit for November. Everyone is urged to stop in at the library and view these historical maps.

Library hours are 8:00 a.m. till 4:00 p.m. and 6:00-9:30 p.m. on Monday thru Thursday. They are also open 8:00 a.m. till 4:00 p.m. on Friday and 6:30-9:30 p.m. on Sunday.

The streets by the Cisco Elementary are being widened and it will be a big help for parents who are picking up their children when it is all finished.

The Cisco Goodfellows are now taking donations to help with this year's program. All donations are tax deductible and can be made at the addresses listed in the story in this issue of the Press.

So please give generously to this worthy program.

Ground breaking ceremonies will be held Sunday, November 9, at 2 p.m. at the Calvary Baptist Church in Cisco. The church will begin construction on an educational facility to accommodate the growing number of church members.

The structure will be built behind the present sanctuary. A Victory Celebration lunch will be held at the church after morning services on Sunday to help start the fund raising.

Cisco is such a good little town to live in. When Cisco was under attack last summer with all the arson cases, Ciscoans decided that was enough and it's time to get going. People started working together and now it seems like there are more good things said about our little town than there are bad things from local folks.

With a positive attitude like this, Cisco is sure to grow.

Dr. Cleveland Presents Program At Rotary Club

A picture slide presentation and talk on the effects of high blood pressure and diabetes on the human body provided an interesting and informative program for members of the Cisco Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon last Thursday noon at the Colony Restaurant.

Dr. Stuart Cleveland, local optometrist, served as program chairman and directed the study. The slides showed the different stages of diabetes in the eyes, and Dr. Cleveland noted that the eyes were the only place in a man's body where "you can see evidence of developing diabetes."

Dr. Cleveland said that when there is evidence of diabetes showing up in the eyes it will be present elsewhere in the body. He suggested regular checkups for early detection of diabetes and high blood pressure.

Rotarian Al Alderson will be in charge of the Nov. 13th program, and Dr. Tim Boersma will direct the Nov. 20th program. The meeting scheduled for Nov. 27th will not be held due to Thanksgiving holiday. President Joe Cooper announced.

Dr. Dennis Sadowski of Breckenridge was a visiting Rotarian. Mark Dopson of Cisco was also a guest. The club had 96 per cent of its membership present. Secretary Bill Reynolds reported.

All older people are being alerted that salesmen are coming to the doors trying to sell "cheap" insurance that cover everything that medicare does not cover.

Area News Briefs

RISING STAR
Stephanie Long will be a delegate to the 55th Canadian National 4-H Conference, which will be held at the Royal York Hotel in downtown Toronto Nov. 12-17. Ninety three delegates will be attending - eight from each Canadian Province, eight guests from the United States, and five guests from the United Kingdom. There will be a number of in-depth discussions of 4-H work in these countries. There will also be social events and tours of the area. Rising Star people are excited over this honor which has come to Stephanie. She is a seven year member of the Rising Star Club, and has had a number of projects, and has won numerous awards. She is presently Secretary of the Texas 4-H Council.

The Heritage Singers from Howard Payne University will be at the First Baptist Church of Rising Star this Sunday, Nov. 9, 7 p.m. They will sing during the evening worship time. The public is invited to come out and hear some outstanding sacred music.

Rains measuring from 1 inch in Rising Star to 1.7 in. at May have slowed the peanut harvest this week. The harvest was in full swing, and work will resume as soon as things dry out. The peanut yields and grades are reported to be generally good this year.

The Ice House, 202 N. Main, opened for business this week. Jack Driggers of May, owner of the wholesale ice plant, says he expects to have the business open full-time by mid-November. In addition to selling ice to retail merchants, Driggers has used parts for older ice machines. He will also have used appliances and new and used appliance parts. Jack's wife and daughter, Darla and Mona will assist him at the Ice House.

BAIRD
U.S. Senator Phil Gramm has announced the award of a $512,848 grant to Baird for housing assistance. The funds will be provided by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. The money will be used to provide rental housing to low-income families, including the elderly.

George Nichols, who graduated from Baird High School in 1933, was honored posthumously by the U.S. Department of Agriculture at a recent dedication ceremony at Bonner Springs, Kansas. The family of George Nichols was presented to a deed for a square yard in the Farmer's Honor Acre at the Agricultural Hall of fame. The honoree was recognized nationally for his significant contribution to agriculture. He worked with various dairy associations, retiring in 1976 from the National Association of Animal Breeders, Columbia, Missouri. He also wrote regularly for national farm magazines.

RANGER
Karin Whittington was named as the Ranger Junior College Homecoming Queen during ceremonies Sat., Nov. 1. Karin, a Sophomore from Pasadena, Texas, was escorted by Todd Hufstutler. The new Queen majors in business, and enjoys running, basketball and tennis.

There will be no increase in taxes this year for Ranger Junior College. The Board of Regents made a decision to retain the same tax rate as last year, in spite of the reduction of state funding to the school by more than $145,000. Dr. Jack Elsom, President of the College, stated that the decrease in state funding had been expected for some time, and decisions has been made to lessen the impact. "We are not expecting the full nine percent we received in cuts, however," he said. Plans are to not replace personnel who retire or resign in cases where this does not lower the quality of instructional programs.

Ranger Junior College will play Cisco Junior College in the Lions Club Benefit Bowl in Breckenridge on Saturday, Nov. 15, beginning at 7:30 p.m. This classic annual game is certain to be a good one. The public is invited to come out and have a great evening while supporting the charitable work of the Lions.

EASTLAND
The Veterans of Foreign Wars are sponsoring a free Barbecue for all Eastland County Veterans and their families at the VFW Clubhouse on Veteran's Day, Nov. 11. The Clubhouse is located on the Lake Leon Rd. Serving will begin at 5:30 p.m., and last until all is gone. Barbecue, coleslaw and beans will be furnished. Women are asked to bring a covered dish.

The Senior Citizens Bazaar drew a great crowd out to its location in the Rebekah Lodge. A number of exhibitors displayed everything from quilts to ceramics, woodcrafts and hand-crocheted items. The food prepared by the Homecoming Clubs was excellent. People from all around the county met and enjoyed the various events each day.

Right now the Eastland Mavericks are among only nine AA teams in the state without a loss. The regular season is closing out this weekend, and the District Playoffs begin. People who have watches the Mavs in action are certain they have a chance to capture the State title again this year. Some of the Maverick wins have been spectacular, such as the 27-0 win over Dublin last week.

The Centennial Memorial Library has a special event planned for children on Tuesday, Nov. 11, beginning at 7 p.m. It is called "Pajama Party Story Time", and is for children ages 3 to 7. There will be a good story teller in the children's section, and the story will be a surprise. Both mothers and fathers are invited to bring the little ones in for this treat.

Five miles of Farm to Market Road 2461, a Lake Leon Route, are being upgraded by the State Highway Department. The section of road between FM 570 and FM 2214 will be widened two feet, topped with two inches of new base material and given a fresh surface. The work will also include safety treatment on the ends of the culverts. A contract for the work has been awarded to Stephens Martin Paving Inc. of Abilene, which entered a low bid of $463,319.89.

E.C.R.T.A. To Meet Mon.

Eastland County retired teachers are reminded that Monday, November 10, is the date for the next meeting of the Eastland County Retired Teacher's Association.

We are having luncheon meetings again this year, at the appointed hour of 12:30. The place? Friendship Inn, formerly known as Best Western, in Eastland.

Mrs. Leota Hogan of Gorman, will bring the program on "Health Care and Physical Fitness", which should be of interest to all of us. See you there?

History Book To Be Published

A New History of Eastland County will be published in 1987 and work has already begun.

Organizational efforts are underway in the project which is being coordinated by the chambers of commerce in the county.

Eastland Historian Ron Bailey has accepted the responsibility of chairing the efforts and preliminary planning is underway.

In a meeting at the Mobley Hotel Cisco Chamber Office Tuesday morning initial plans were mapped and volunteers began work in three main areas: publicity, gathering material and recruitment/training procedures.

It is hoped that this publication will "bring up to date" the exciting history that this county boasts, and it will also afford the opportunity for families to record their own histories. Even now in the initial stages, the scope of the book is being studied and it is hoped that there will be county-wide participation in the effort to bring forth as complete and up-to-date history of the county and its people as possible.

Individuals and families may begin now in assembling their family histories so that these may be included in this over-all grand history. There is discussion of incorporating much of the earlier efforts including the Langston History, the Cox History and other data including census records, rural schools, cemeteries, churches, etc., as well as individual histories to make it a treasure for generations to come.

BRADY LEVERIDGE

Memories of War And Peace

By Viola Payne
Memories come in waves to 90 yr. old Ex-Marine Brady T. Leveridge, there in his room at Canterbury Villa Nursing Home, Cisco. Sometimes they retreat across the horizon, then they come crashing in with almost painful intensity.

Veteran's Day (Armistice Day) on Nov. 11 will have a special meaning to this World War I Veteran. For the memories of his service in that War will never really leave him.

You don't shrug off a War where only four men out of your outfit of 150 survived. Nor do you forget a battle where a piece of shrapnel tore into your jaw, broke it, and knocked out all your lower teeth.

Not that Brady Leveridge is one to complain about anything. This Eastland County farmer and rancher has a ready smile, and says that it is better to laugh than cry.

"I don't have one ache or pain - I may live to be a hundred," he chuckles. He is definitely a native of this county, being born on a farm near Scranton Jan. 24, 1896. His parents were John and Edna Leveridge, and they had eleven children in all. One other of these children besides Brady survives - Mrs. Pleas Ray of Cisco.

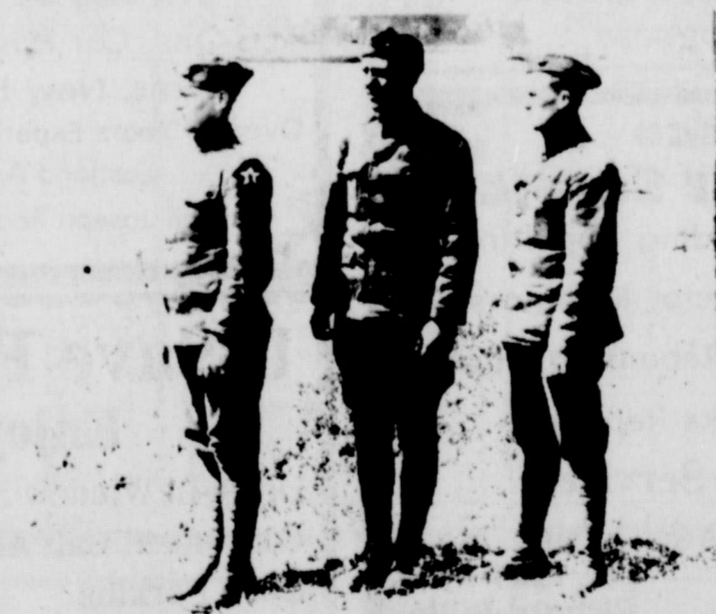

STARTING THE HISTORY-Among those discussing the publication of a major new History of Eastland County at a meeting at the Mobley Chamber office in Cisco this week were from left Arlin Bint of Cisco, History Book Chairman Ron Bailey and Taylor Publishing Co. Representative and Coordinator Jessie White. Representatives from Cisco, Eastland and Ranger attended the planning meeting. Other meetings will be scheduled. County Historical Committee Chairman Scott Bailey is active in the program. (Staff Photo)

This picture of Ex-Marine Pvt. Brady Leveridge (L) of Cisco was made just after World War I was over. Leveridge and two friends are pictured near the Rhine river in Germany.

Brady remembers that World War I interrupted his busy and happy life on the farm. He decided to enlist in the Marine Corp, partly because a cousin, Lanham Brown, was already in this branch of the service. So he joined the Marines in Dallas on Aug. 10, 1918.

Things moved fast from then on. After a short time of training in Virginia he went with the 6th Marine Division to the battlefields of France. The Germans were making a drive toward Paris, and heavy fighting was under-his own pain and blood. Badly wounded, he was carried to a field hospital, where the Army Doctors did a skillful job of patching him up.

After some weeks they let him out of the hospital to "recuperate", but didn't put him back into combat duty. As he began to make contact with this old outfit, however, he learned of the heavy casualties in his outfit. Later he was put on guard duty.

Brady was back of the combat lines the day the Armistice was signed, Nov. 11, 1918. But he rejoiced just as much as the rest of the fighting men when learned the war was over.

A service in the Army of Occupation followed the Armistice. Then Brady came to the United States, and was discharged from the Marine Corp on Aug. 13, 1919. He resumed his life in Eastland County, married, and became a successful farmer and rancher. He stayed on way. On day the Marines were near the German lines, and shelling was bad. Brady heard a certain big shell leave the German cannon before it hit. He could tell it was coming toward his section of the trenches, and he tried to get in a dugout. "The shell burst over my head," he says. "A curled piece of shrapnel went in to my jaw." The other shrapnel sprayed in a big arc around Brady but he hardly noticed what was happening beyond housekeeping, joys and sorrows.

9. Vocation: Training, promotions, achievements, etc.

III. Avocations:
1. What did you do for recreation?
2. Civic and Political activities.
3. Church: Activities, Influence
4. Hobbies
5. Travels
6. Family landmarks and historical sites.

IV. Remembrance of unique family experiences.
1. Special celebrations
2. Holidays: Christmas, birthdays, etc.
3. Ancestors: Impressions of those you knew and others you heard about.

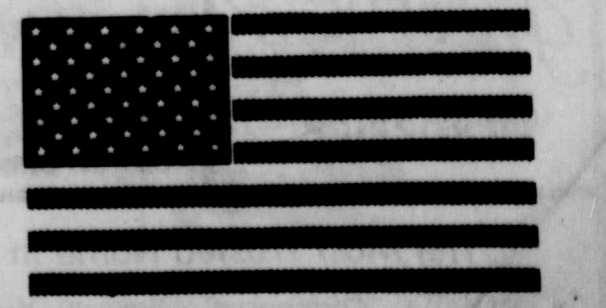

4. Hardships
5. Remembered impressions of the land and people
6. Problems: Water? Dirt? Animals?
7. Humorous incidents. Frightening experiences.
8. Recollections that are unique to your family.

V. Writing tips:
1. If you tell what is interesting and meaningful to you, it will be more than adequate.
2. You will not be graded. This is not a test.
3. Any story that does not embarrass or hurt someone is acceptable.
4. If your story is not included, the history of the County will not be complete.
5. Do it now.
More details will be forthcoming.

his land as long as he was able to work it. Unfortunately his son, an only child, died in an accident at age 26. Then his wife died a number of years ago. On Sept. 10, 1984 Brady T. Leveridge was awarded a Purple Heart for his wound and service in France. This deserved recognition came after a long wait, needless to say. But Brady Leveridge was appreciative of it, and the framed award hangs with other cherished keepsakes in his room.

Brady has quite a bit of time to think about his experiences now, and he feels that things are right between him, God, and his fellow man. He also says that he hopes it is never necessary for the young people of this country to fight another war.

He sums up some of his impressions in one sentence. "War is worse than hell," he says.

Spotlights & Sidelights

By Julia Worthy

THE NUMBERS GAME
Whether you use estimate or guesstimate, figures or figures, an AP release of the results of an ABC News poll may interest you.

An exit poll of people who had already voted showed women favored the Democrats 55-43 while men went Republican 50-48. (The missing two percent is the standard variable in polls.)

What that would seem to mean is that if women vote as a bloc, our system of government would be matriarchal instead of patriarchal.

This is not news. It is a statistical fact which has been available every since the census numbers began showing more female population than male.

In fact, woman can take over running the show any time they make up their collective mind to do so.

It is doubtful, as I see it, that such circumstances will come to pass very soon, despite the "liberation" movement.

When women became voters and managers of their own property, that should have been enough—just as the Emancipation Proclamation should have been enough. Legally, it was; but in practical application, it wasn't. Still isn't.

Liberation of whatever kind is not the point here. Some things can be legal but not right just as often as they can be right but not legal—the reason for lawyers, no doubt.

Why, if the ABC poll is correct, didn't the election returns show a Republican sweep of offices?

There are many factors that could have (and probably did) influence the polls.

The women who were counted wanted to get to the voting booth. They let nothing stop them.

Others may have excused themselves with a sprained ankle, a baby with the colic, or a bout with the flu. Or they may not have thought the nation's business was their business, too.

Also, some of the women have voted against a Democrat as much as they voted for a Republican.

My own idea is that everyone should be an independent voter. I have no objections to party names, but voters should be independent.

I also think that campaigns should be limited to six weeks before the election and candidates should not be allowed to spend more than a year's salary on expenses for the office for which they are running. But then, I believe a lot of things that never will be popular.

How far would the money spent on campaigns go in aid to the needy? I do not refer to the ones already on the rolls, but to the ones who fall between the cracks—the ones trying to help themselves.

If a candidate can afford to run for office, why can't he volunteer to work for nothing? Living expenses could easily be met by using the obscene amount of money paid out on the campaign trail. This, of course, applies chiefly to the "big boys," but it extends surprisingly far down the line before getting to the really "small fry."

However, I am far from in sympathy with the recent advocate of putting the have-nots in office on the theory that they'd be able to spend tax monies more wisely. How can money be managed by someone who's never had any money to manage?

Maybe inexperience would fare no worse than experience has, but I would fear the results. On the other hand, would it be any worse if the national debt were six trillion instead of three?

How much of that is foreign aid? I'd like to see how much money Russia has laid out in any nation except to gain Russian objectives. Is France ante-ing up for any other country? Mexico? Are they even paying the interest on their national debts—especially to the United States?

If women had controlled foreign aid, would Imelda have had so many pairs of shoes? Would Mexico be discussing defaulting on that billion dollar loan? Would we ever have made those ill-

I Am Your Flag

I was born on June 14, 1777. I am more than just cloth shaped into a design. I am the refuge of the World's oppressed people. I am the silent sentinel of Freedom. I am the emblem of the greatest sovereign nation on earth. I am the inspiration for which American Patriots gave their lives and fortunes.

I have led your sons into battle from Valley Forge to the steaming, treacherous jungle of Viet Nam.

I walk in silence with each of your Honored Dead, to their final resting place beneath the silent White Crosses row upon row.

I have flown through Peace and War, Strife and Prosperity, and amidst it all I have been respected.

My Red Stripes—symbolize the blood spilled in defense of this glorious nation.

My White Stripes—signify the burning tears shed by Americans who lost their sons.

My Blue Field—is indicative of God's heaven under which I fly.

My Stars—clustered together, unify 50 states as one, for God and Country. "Old Glory" is my Poetic Verses...

Believing
Some people say that my Lord is dead
But they don't know Him like I do
The blessing that we receive
Is meant especially for you and me

We see His works in the stars in heaven
Or the leaf of a newly planted tree
For we feel His presence near us
And truly answer our needs

When you are lonely and blue
And have no one to turn to
There is always a door that is open
And someone that cares for you.

For He gave His all for you
The one that loves you so
With both arms open wide
The Lord will welcome you home.

First Fall Freeze Nearing

COLLEGE STATION—Although much of the High Plains received freezing temperatures in mid October, most of Texas is still awaiting the first fall freeze.

Just when this will occur at any given location is always cause for speculation, but a knowledge of past weather records can help narrow the possibilities, says Mickey Flynn, agricultural meteorologist with the National Weather Service's Southwest Agricultural Weather Service Center located at Texas A&M University.

Below are different probability levels for freeze occurrences and the dates these levels are generally reached based on past temperature records.

West Central, Early (one in ten yrs.) 10/26; Average (five in ten yrs.) 11/10; Late (nine in ten yrs.) 11/23.

This information shows that in central Texas, for example, a freeze occurs by Nov. 15 in five out of 10 years. However, there is a 10 percent probability (one in 10 years) that a freeze will occur by Oct. 26. On the other hand, there is a 90 percent chance (nine in 10 years) that a freeze already will have been recorded by Dec. 3.

The National Weather Service outlook for November calls for temperatures to run below normal over the High Plains, the Rolling Plains, the eastern Trans-Pecos, and West Central and South Central sections, with near normal readings expected elsewhere. So, the first fall freezes should occur a bit early this year over the eastern Trans-Pecos, the Rolling Plains and most central areas but close to the average dates over much of North Central, Northeast and East Texas, notes Flynn. Knowledge of the first freeze dates will give farmers and ranchers a good idea of when to prepare for winter.

A freeze will help defoliate cotton for clean picking. Peanut growers need to plan digging and curing so that the crop can be threshed by the time a freeze arrives.

Ranchers should prepare animals for wind, rain and colder temperatures. Trucks, irrigation and other equipment, and buildings need to be winterized.

Flynn says that home gardeners can use this table as a guide to when they will have to start bringing sensitive plants indoors at night to avoid freeze damage.

Farmers and other residents living in a river valley or other low-lying area may experience freeze temperatures a little sooner than surrounding areas because of cold air drainage at night, adds the meteorologist.

Skeeter Features, Best In Industry

Skeeter incorporates a wide array of outstanding features in their entire line of boats, ensuring their position as the industry's leader for years to come.

The Skeeter Starfire 175, one of the most popular bass boats on the tournament scene, has been ranked number one in a recent test conducted by Popular Mechanics Magazine.

The five boats involved in the test were all equipped with identical Evinrude motors and were rated on the basis of performance and fishability. The Starfire performed exceptionally, from the high speed handling tests through the trolling motor maneuvers tests on its way to the number one ranking.

And if this isn't enough to convince you to go with Skeeter products, listen to this. All Skeeter Starfire, Wranglers and Stradas have now been classified by Underwriters Laboratories, an independent, non profit testing organization in accordance with U.S. Coast Guard safety regulations.

Underwriters Marine facility conducted extensive tests while classifying the boats in the areas of capacity, power, floatation, electrical, steering and fuel system characteristics.

"As product safety becomes a major concern, this breakthrough in boat classification should be of great importance to the boat buying public," said Mike Allbritton Vice-President and General Manager of Skeeter.

The UL classification process, lasting more than a year, involved major tests at both the Skeeter factory and UL's marine facility in Florida. It should be noted that Skeeter is the first bass boat to be UL classified and all future classifications involving other bass boat manufacturers will be based on this test series.

N.C. has captured the Bass 'N Gal Classic out of Kenlake, Ky. with the help of Bagley's "DB3 Magnum" and Bagley's new "Silver Thread" line. Fishing in competition with the best of the lady anglers from all over the United States she squeaked by by only one ounce to win over Linda England.

This win is nothing new to Betty, she holds the all time total of 47 pounds 2 ounces from Talquin, Florida in 1981. She also holds the one day record of 26 pounds 10 ounces also from Talquin, Fla. and of course, these records came while fishing Bagley's quality baits again. Congratulations to both Betty and Bagley, a winning combination.

Mrs. Dinah Lea Wilson (Mrs. Gary) was welcomed as new member with ancestor Abner Chappell, honored.

After reading of minutes and report on the 1990 DAR Centennial plans, a national defense report was given concerning waste in the military forces. Illegal immigrations and violence against America.

Mrs. Stanley Pirtle gave a very interesting program on the Ninety-Fifth Continental Congress of National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution and the Two Hundred Years of the signing of the Constitution and stated a recent effort to destroy the constitution by sabotage. The Constitution has served us well and been a pattern to live by.

The DAR stands against terrorists, unfair practice of tax laws, drug abuse. Illegal drugs are unacceptable and disastrous. We would hope our government will stand up against intruders.

Writer's Club Meeting Held

Wayne Floyd of Clyde, Donna Behringer of Albany and Ruth York of Cisco were new members of the Cisco Writers' Club who read manuscripts at the November meeting of the club.

President Mary Ann Ziehr called the meeting to order and conducted the business session, then asked Viola Payne, program chairman, to take charge of the workshop session.

Most members brought manuscripts for read-and-critique participation. Topics and locales ranged from bullets in Thailand to motorcycles in Scotland, from the diety in government to a redbird in camp.

Brief written comments were offered by club members to the writers of these stories, articles and poems. Before the reading began, Mrs. Payne refreshed memories about points to consider when evaluating the manuscript.

"Know where you are going with your work," she said. "Keep it vivid but simple; concise, but fresh."

Some sixteen members and guests were present. The next meeting is Dec. 2, and everyone is expected to bring a manuscript for another such workshop session. Subject matter does not have to relate to Christmas.

The council will conduct a series of educational programs the morning of Dec. 12. Concurrent sessions will deal with forage seed production, lean beef production, forage for horses and forages for dairy cattle, Dorsett points out.

Another feature of the hay show will be a 4-H and FFA hay judging contest the afternoon of Dec. 11. Youth interested in participating can register from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Producers wishing to enter hay in the state competition should identify samples as to their name, address, telephone number and type of hay and send them to one of the following: Don Dorsett, 355 Soil and Crop Sciences Bldg., Texas A&M University, College Station, Tex. 77843, or Bill Thane, County Extension Agent, County Courthouse, Brenham, Tex. 77833.

Check Heat System Or Improve Efficiency

COLLEGE STATION--Cooler weather has brought relief from both from the heat and high air conditioning bills. But another kind of heat -- from the furnace -- will begin to drive utility costs up again.

Fine-tuning your heating system may help hold utility costs down by increasing its efficiency, says Dr. Susan Quiring, a housing specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service.

Gas heating systems should be checked and cleaned at least every other year, she explains.

Dirt accumulation inside the furnace is difficult to remove and reduces heating efficiency, she adds.

Electric furnaces don't need much maintenance, but heat pumps require periodic servicing. A trained service technician can clean and adjust your system to assure maximum efficiency.

"With a forced air system, simply keeping the filters clean will help save money," Quiring says.

The specialist says that the entire volume of air in a house is circulated through the furnace three to four times in a single hour of operation.

The furnace filter traps airborne lint and dirt, preventing it from coating the fan and furnace heat exchanger. But when the filter accumulates dirt, it begins to restrict the air flow and heating efficiency.

Quiring recommends checking filters every four to six weeks during the heating season, and replacing dirty filters promptly.

Disposable fiber glass filters cost 50 cents to a dollar each, so you may find it easiest to buy a season's supply and keep them on hand.

Metallic or plastic filters can be cleaned and reused, Quiring says, but they must be sprayed after each cleaning with a special coating that allows them to attract small dust particles.

Talking Turkey Safety

COLLEGE STATION--Turkey isn't a hazardous food, but what the cook does -- or doesn't do -- to the bird can literally make you sick.

"Like all protein foods, turkey can harbor food poisoning bacteria, such as salmonella," says food safety expert Marilyn Haggard.

"Because it's a large, dense food that requires several steps in preparation, bacteria have even more opportunity to grow if proper precautions aren't taken."

While food-borne illnesses are rarely fatal, they can cause unpleasant symptoms that can last for several hours or even days, she adds.

Medical experts estimate that a high percentage of symptoms attributed to over-eating or flu are actually food-borne illness.

The Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service specialist advises the following precautions in preparing a stuffed turkey:

- Thaw the turkey in the refrigerator as recommended on the package directions. Thawing the bird in a microwave oven or by putting it in a watertight package under cold running water are also safe thawing methods. But don't thaw the turkey by letting it sit on the kitchen counter, since room temperatures allow bacteria to grow.

- Wash the defrosted turkey thoroughly, running water over its inside and outside areas. Drain the body cavity and wipe the turkey fairly dry.

- Stuff the turkey right before you cook it. Warm, moist dressing is an ideal medium in which bacteria can grow.

You can prepare the dry stuffing ingredients the day before, cover them tightly and leave at room temperature. But keep the perishable ingredients, such as butter, mushrooms, oysters, cooked celery, onions and broth in the refrigerator. Then combine ingredients just before stuffing the turkey.

- Cook the turkey in a 325 degree oven. Cooking in a very slow oven at 200 to 250 degrees is not recommended. Because of the low temperature, the turkey and stuffing could take more than 4 hours to reach a high enough temperature to destroy bacteria.

- Make sure the turkey is fully cooked. Insert a meat thermometer into the thickest part of the thigh muscle without touching the bone. Then cook the bird until it reaches 180 degrees fahrenheit to destroy salmonella bacteria.

- Once the turkey is completely cooked, remove all the stuffing from the cavities. Harmful bacteria is more likely to grow in the stuffing if its sits in the bird after cooking.

- After dinner, refrigerate the turkey and stuffing immediately. Food poisoning bacteria can grow quickly in high protein food left at room temperature.

IDEAS TO HELP YOU
If you are looking for some empty rooms because you have just arrived in town, or because you may not be staying at your current address very long, you may be asking some important questions.

Like "How can I easily find something to my taste on a short-term basis?"

Look into furniture rental. Showrooms offer a full selection of styles, finishes and fabrics of furniture available within days. Items available on a rental basis from members of the Furniture Rental Association of America (FRAA) run the gamut--sofas, beds and dining sets to rugs, lamps, desks and objects of art.

Another often asked question is "When is it better to rent furniture than to buy it?"

A basic budget-saving reason is when you want to avoid costly moving expenses for a limited time in another place. Other reasons are convenience related--you need instant or temporary furniture. Or you may want to test a new trend of furniture style or add an exciting piece to a settled room.

Call 800-FOR-RENT for a free listing of showrooms belonging to FRAA. (In Alaska, Hawaii and Ohio, call 614/895-1273.)

...if you are interested in buying real estate soon or at any time in the future. Buying good titles is just as important as buying good food or good medicine. Yet some people have spent life-time savings for a farm or city property with little or no thought about the title. Of course, they will learn better later, but why not avoid the pitfalls and expense of poor judgement by getting an abstract or title policy first and buying the property later.

Gordon Spot

By DeMarquis Gordon, County Agent—

Fall is often the time when fruit tree care is forgotten or neglected, but it's a critical time for controlling many peach and plum tree diseases to insure a good crop next year.

With the arrival of fall, there's often a tendency to forget our peach and plum trees that served us so well last summer.

Applying a copper fungicide now can stop or reduce three of the major diseases that attack peach and plum trees in Texas. These are peach leaf curl, bacterial leaf spot and bacterial canker.

Puckered and distorted tree leaves that were either bright red or light green in diseased areas last spring were due to peach leaf curl fungus. The only time to effectively control this disease is in the fall with a copper-containing fungicide. One example of this fungicide is Kocide 101.

Timing of the fall spray is critical for effective control and for avoiding tree damage. Copper is a metal and may cause severe defoliation unless applied correctly.

We advise spraying when 70 percent of the leaves fall off the tree. Spraying too early will cause leaf shed or cause the spray to be ineffective later.

Fungicides containing chlorothalonil can also be used for the control of peach leaf curl.

Bacterial leaf spot and bacterial canker can be partially controlled by fall spraying with a copper fungicide, but not fungicides containing chlorothalonil. But again, it's important to spray at the right time to prevent foliar burn with the copper fungicide.

Bacterial leaf spot affects both fruit and foliage. The infection causes fruit to crack and leaves develop angular spots which drop out. Bacterial canker will kill trees slowly. Infected trees will have a gum or wax forming on the main trunk and main limbs.

Fall spray in northern Texas is most often applied from now to November 15, in Central Texas from Nov. 1 to Dec. 1. Application time will vary with the season, so we suggest checking your fruit trees closely.

Fall spraying is important to the health and production of fruit trees, because there's no other time when peach leaf curl of peach and plum trees can be controlled.

Farmers and ranchers have until November 21 to submit entries from this year's hay crop for the Texas State Hay Show.

The show will be held Dec. 11-12 at the Coach Light Inn in Brenham and more than 300 entries are expected.

The state hay show will feature hay samples from throughout Texas plus a program of interest to hay producers, users and commercial suppliers.

Concurrent sessions the morning of December 12 will be presented by members of the Texas Forage and Grassland Council who will be meeting in conjunction with the hay show. These will deal with forage seed production, lean beef production, forage for horses, and forage for dairy cattle.

A hay judging contest for 4-H and FFA members will be held on December 11 starting at 1:30 p.m. Registration is from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Winning hay show entries will be recognized at a luncheon on December 12.

Producers may submit one sample in each of the seven hay show classes. Classes are the same as in past years and include Coastal bermudagrass, other bermudagrasses, other perennials, mixed grasses, summer annuals, winter annuals, and legumes.

Homemaking Hints

From Janet Thomas, County Agent—

All around Eastland County pecans are dropping. This is a beautiful time of the year which means that the annual Eastland County Pecan Show will soon be coming up.

The Pecan Bake Show and the Pecan Centerpiece division will be held in conjunction with this annual event. The Eastland Chamber of Commerce and the Extension Homemakers' Council sponsor this annual bake show. The Pecan Bake Show and Pecan Centerpiece Show will be on Friday, December 5th in the Eastland County Courthouse lobby.

There will be an adult and youth division. The youth division is open to school age children (third grade and up to 18 years of age).

All recipes made with mixes will be accepted.

The divisions are pies, cakes, candy, nutbreads, cookies and pecan snacks. An entry for candy and cookies is 12 pieces. On the snack division, you may enter a whole recipe or ample portion for judging and display.

All entries are to be registered in between 8 a.m. and 11 a.m., Friday, December 5th. The judging will begin at 11 a.m.

The Extension Homemakers are sponsoring engraved silver trays for the Grand Champion winners of the adult and youth division of the Pecan Bake Show.

The public is reminded to be sure and enter their baked goods on disposable plates and cover with clear plastic wrap. Recipes should accompany the entry.

All entries should be picked up between 4 and 5 p.m. on Friday, December 5th.

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

I'd like all of you to meet my friends, Stan and Nita Rawson. Nita is a native Texan and Stan is from Iowa, but since 1967 they are retired Rangerites.

QUESTION: Nita, Do you smoke?

ANSWER: I never did smoke, thank the Lord, and my husband quit 2 years ago last October.

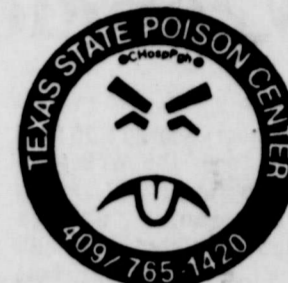

QUESTION: Why did he quit?

ANSWER: Cigarettes were getting him down and he was coughing terribly. I don't believe he would have lived 2 more weeks if he had not quit smoking. He was looking like a dead person. He tried to taper off, but Stan says, "just lay 'em down and don't pick 'em up again." He has had cancer called Adenocarcinoma. After quitting smoking and after surgery, he is gaining weight and walking.

Nita says, thanks to the Lord for answering the prayers of many friends during this time. And thanks to American Cancer Society Rehab for all the supplies we receive, a walker and colostomy bags.

Freshmen To Play Howard Payne Monday

Wranglers To Play Ranger JC

The Blinn Junior College Buccaneers scored a 15-10-13 victory over the Wranglers of Cisco Junior College in a Texas Junior College Athletic Conference football game at Brenham last Thursday night. The contest was played on a rain-soaked field that made ball handling difficult.

The game, which left Cisco with a 5-4 season's record, leaves only a contest in Breckenridge on Saturday, Nov. 15, against Ranger JC in the annual Lions Benefit Bowl as the last outing for the year. Blinn defeated Ranger last week.

The victory gave Cisco and Blinn an even split for the year as the Wranglers defeated the Brenham team in a game last September at Gatesville. Blinn scored Thursday night on their first possession. They worked the ball to the three-yard line and the quarterback sneaked over. The extra point was good.

In the second quarter, Blinn scored on a one-yard plunge but missed the extra point. Late in the period, Cisco Running Back Randy Rowe was tackled in the Cisco end zone for a safety to run Blinn's score to 15 points. Just before the half, Kicker Eric Edwards booted a 27-yard field goal to put Cisco on the scoreboard at the half.

Early in the third period, Defensive Back Andra Horton intercepted a Blinn pass and ran it back 53 yards to the Buc 21. On fourth down, Edwards kicked a 21-yard field goal.

Also in the third quarter, Cisco covered a Blinn fumble deep in Blinn territory and Running Back James Dixon got loose for 25 yards and a touchdown. Edwards converted to make the score 15-13.

Fumbles, penalties and sacks prevented the Wranglers, who moved the ball well, from getting in field goal range in the final period.

Horton, sophomore from Austin LBJ, was voted the outstanding Wrangler defense award. He had 16 unassisted tackles along with five assists and one interception. Mark White, defensive back from Vernon, had 10 tackles.

The Wranglers chalked up 10 first downs on 154 yards rushing and 58 yards passing. QB David Dacus went all the way for Cisco. He had 13 completions in 19 attempts for 154 yards with no interceptions. Cisco lost two fumbles that were costly.

Coach Rick Frazier said there were no disabling injuries.

The Wrangler 60-man traveling squad arrived back home in Cisco at 5 a.m. Friday and were given the weekend off. Plans called for the CJC freshmen to go to Brownwood on Monday to play a Howard Payne University freshman team.

WORD OF GOD

Psalm 91:1-7

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

Texas Farm Bureau, the state's largest farm organization, will hold its 53rd annual meeting here Nov. 30 - Dec. 3. More than 1,300 voting delegates from 217 organized county Farm Bureaus will decide policies for 1987.

Theme of the convention which will be held at the McAllen Civic and Convention Center will be "The Voice of Texas Agriculture." Approved resolutions on national issues will be forwarded to the 68th annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation, Jan. 11-15, at Anaheim, Calif. Adopted resolutions dealing with state-level matters will become state policies for 1987.

U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen of Texas is scheduled to be the keynote speaker during the general business session Dec. 1.

TFB President S.M. True, a cotton and grain farmer from Plainview, will make his annual address that same morning. S.M. True spoke at the Farm Bureau in Eastland County in 1985.

TFB Secretary-Treasurer Neal Burnett of Plainview will also make his annual report at the Texas Farm Bureau meeting in McAllen.

A Young Farmer and Rancher breakfast will be held 6:30 a.m., Dec. 1 at the meeting. John Sykes, El Paso, chairman of the TFB Young Farmer & Rancher Advisory Committee, will be the speaker.

Four special conferences will be conducted from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m., Dec. 1. These include federal farm legislation, agriculture and the environment, commodity check-off programs and political action committees.

They will be followed by six commodity conferences from 2:45 p.m. to 4 p.m. These include beef cattle, wheat and feed grains, cotton, dairy, rice and soybeans, and forestry and hay and forage.

Youth activities will include selection of Miss Texas Farm Bureau from 13 district winners, a talent find winner from district finalists, and a free enterprise speech contest winner chosen from district winners.

The speech and talent find contests will begin at 6:30 p.m., Sunday Nov. 30. The Miss TFB contest begins at 7 p.m. on Dec. 1. Announcement of the Outstanding Young Farmer and Rancher for the year will be made during the Miss TFB pageant.

The speech winner receives a $2,000 scholarship, the runner-up a $1,500 scholarship, and the four other finalists a $1,000 scholarship each. All district winners are assured of at least a $750 scholarship. The talent find winner will receive a $1,500 scholarship and the runner-up a $1,000 scholarship. District winners are assured of a $500 wardrobe of natural fibers. The runner-up will receive a $1,000 scholarship. All district winners will receive a $500 scholarship.

The other two finalists will receive one year's free use of a Ford Ranger. Each of the district winners received up to $100 toward purchase of a pair of boots. The trucks are provided by Bird-Kultgen Ford Co. of Waco.

All three finalists have been assured of an expense-paid trip to the 1987 AFBF Young Farmers and Ranchers Leader Conference, Feb. 8-11, 1987, in Lincolnshire, Ill.

Delmon Eaves

Honored

Mark Eaves of Dallas and Deliah Eaves of Ennis were hosts for a retirement party for their dad, Delmon Eaves, on Saturday night, November 1, at the Kokomo Community Center. Delmon, who was also celebrating his 55th birthday on Saturday, has retired from Texas Electric Service Co. after 28 years of employment with them.

Assorted sandwiches, vegetables, chips, dips, peanuts and cold drinks along with German chocolate birthday cake was served to the many relatives, friends and neighbors who came to wish Delmon "Happy Retirement and Happy Birthday".

Delmon plans a busy "retirement" to work in his shop and to help his wife, Joyce, with her catering service.

Medical Perspectives

By Robert Matthews, M.D.

ARTHRITIS

Arthritis is an extremely common illness, all too familiar to many of us. Arthritis means simply an inflammation of a joint. There are numerous causes of arthritis, the most common being osteoarthritis, rheumatoid arthritis, and gout. Infection of a joint is also referred to as arthritis. Arthritis may accompany psoriasis, inflammatory bowel disease, and lupus.

Osteoarthritis, or the arthritis of aging, is by far the most common. It is also called degenerative joint disease. It eventually happens to everyone, though not all will be aware of it. There is normally a cushion of cartilage at the end of a bone and a fluid-filled space between two bones allowing the two bones to glide smoothly. As these tissues begin to break down, the bones begin to contact each other, friction increases, and pain results. Factors which may contribute to this progression are weight and overuse or trauma, as in athletics.

Pain and swelling of the joints may occur. Hips, knees, fingers, and the spine are commonly involved. Pain may occur with exercise. Stiffness may occur in the morning or in damp, cold weather. It may eventually lead to muscle weakness from lack of use, leg cramps, and loss of motion.

There is no cure for this type of arthritis, but the inflammation and pain can often be relieved. Regular exercise and heat as directed by your physician or physical therapist will be helpful. Losing weight may be very beneficial in some cases. A large class of medications, referred to as anti-inflammatory drugs, are commonly used. The oldest and best known is aspirin. Another is ibuprofen (Motrin, Nuprin and Advil). All of these drugs can cause an upset stomach and so should be taken with meals or a snack generally. Occasionally a person will have to try several different drugs before finding the right one for that person. In some cases, an injection of a corticosteroid into a particular joint will bring much relief.

Rheumatoid arthritis is a disease of younger people, more often women, and occurs when the body's own immune system, for unknown reasons, attacks the joints. Joints of the hands, wrists, and feet are often involved and may be red, swollen, and tender. Morning stiffness is common but may improve as the day progresses. Fatigue is common.

There, again, is no cure for this disease and, yet, there is much that can be done. Regular exercise and heat are helpful here as in osteoarthritis. Anti-inflammatory drugs are used as are corticosteroids, gold, anti-malaria drugs, and others. Treatment will be for a lifetime, so one should take the medications as directed. Affected joints must also be protected from injury. All of these therapies and precautions together can help minimize joint deformities and disability and hopefully allow one to carry on the normal activities of life.

kind it is so that the proper treatment can be instituted. It is often a life-long condition and the cause of much suffering, a lot of which can be relieved by current methods of treatment. Robert C. Matthews, M.D.

Cisco School Annuals To Be Ordered On Thursday

On Thursday, November 13, Cisco public school students will have their once-a-year opportunity to reserve a copy of the school yearbook, The Lobo, to be published in the spring semester. Cost of the yearbook remains at $20.00, the same price as last year. Students are encouraged to pay the full purchase price at the time the order is placed. However, by special arrangement a copy may be reserved with the payment of a non-refundable $10 deposit.

The annual sale is conducted on a one-day basis so that the school will not be required to pay sales tax on the proceeds. This will mean approximately $500 more available to be used toward payment of publishing costs. An energetic fund-raising campaign by the yearbook staff in the spring of 1986 and particularly successful advertising sales this fall have made it possible to keep the price of the yearbook at last year's level, although the publisher's fee has increased slightly. Base cost for publishing is near $10,000, which does not include expenses such as film and other supplies necessary to the production of the yearbook. The school budget provides $750, plus proceeds from the school picture sales at Junior-Senior High. The remainder must be earned by the yearbook staff through sales, advertising, and, if necessary, special fund-raising projects.

Yearbook sales at Cisco Junior-Senior High will be conducted by the yearbook staff and their sponsor. At Cisco Elementary School orders will be taken by homeroom teachers. Students will be receiving reminders during the week, and parents are urged to remember that the sale is Thursday, November 13, only. The yearbook spokesperson expressed appreciation for everyone's efforts last year which resulted in a

People n Things

DEER SEASON, 1986, was scheduled to kickoff bright and early this Saturday, Nov. 8. And the outlook is right good, according to reports. Deer are pretty numerous and nice and fat. What is more, there's turkey aplenty in the hunting fields and pastures.

The folks out at Rust Processing Center were all set. They moved in a trailer Friday so somebody would be available day and night to log in game animals. And Mrs. E. W. Rust, the deer lady, reports they've added a walk-in freezer and other equipment to meet the growing demand for their services.

BOW AND ARROW deer season opened Oct. 4th and a number of bucks were logged in at Rust by B&A men, including Bruce Ferguson of Cisco and Gary Wheat of Eastland and two Dallas hunters. The Rust plant handled six out-of-state elk and deer, including a large deer shot by Brad Wilcox and three Wyoming deer brought in by Gary Wheat, Clay Wheat and Neal Skinner of Eastland.

An Eastland man named Ritchie and an Abilene policeman named Huckaby logged in elk shot in Colorado.

FOUR HUNTERS - Bill Wright of Cisco, Bill Hoffmann and Jim Moylan of Eastland and Ross Montgomery of Moran - returned home Wednesday night after a 10-day deer and elk hunt in Idaho. They brought in one elk and one deer. They saw a lot of same but were too "picky" - waiting for a better trophy and didn't score.

The four men were scheduled to miss opening day on the deer leases of Texas. Their plans called for escorting their wives to Fort Worth for the Texas Tech-TCU football weekend. Mr. Montgomery is a former star footballer at TCU and the other three men and their wives are graduates of Texas Tech.

POLICE CHIEF Billy Rains received a phone call Tuesday afternoon. Two very young looking boys are hitching a ride out on Highway 183," the reported said. Chief Rains and Sgt. Frank Thumsden drove out and found two 15-year old lads from Austin.

The boys had run away from home and were tired running. Chief Rains called Austin and the parents of one boy asked him to hold them and he'd come after them. So local police "baby sat" two youths until one of their dads arrived here around 10 p.m.

DIRECTORS OF the Mobley Hilton's official board held a meeting Thursday morning to work on details of the recent restoration project. No real business was transacted. President Eris Ritchie reported.

The board is real pleased with the way volunteers are keeping the hotel open Saturdays and Sunday afternoons. Mr. Ritchie said. And visitors are enjoying tours during the weekend. Secretary Helen Gaeta of the CoC reports that folks drop in throughout week days to tour the hotel and museum. Several visitors have told Mrs. Gaeta that they came after noticing the signboard on I-20 in the first Hilton hotel.

LAST TUESDAY was another birthday for Mrs. Lucy Collier, one of the dormitory supervisors out at CJC. But it wasn't one of her better birthdays, she reports. Her left arm is in a cast while a bone fracture in the wrist heals.

The John McGuire's picked Lucy up and took her to their Lake Cisco home for birthday dinner and cake. Lucy says it was her first trip out to the lake in three years and "I was shocked that the water is so low."

After two weeks in the cast, Lucy is now going to the CJC cafeteria for meals and gets about town a bit.

THERE'S BEEN an identity change out at the Dick Woolley home. Their daughter Jan used to be known as that - the daughter of Dick and Sandra Woolley. In the past year or so, it has changed about. Dick and Sandra Woolley are now known as Jan's parents.

Jan, senior at CHS, is the 1986 homecoming queen and the 1986 football queen of the high school. She is also a star basketballer.

MR. BILLY Bacon, Jr., tells us that "I was right pleased with the election result last Tuesday." As you know, he was elected Commissioner of Precinct 4 to succeed Mr. C.B. (Runt) Dill, who is retiring at the end of the year after several years on the job.

Mr. Bacon plans to retire as a veteran of some 35 years with SWBell Telephone Co. at the end of the year as he takes over his duties as the area commissioner. He is a native of the area and is looking forward to his new job, he told us.

Mr. Dill has done a good job during the several terms of office he has served.

THE BRANCH office things for banks on last Tuesday's election ballot still hadn't been decided in Cisco after the ballots were counted. The final count showed 637 people for it, 637 people against it. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Shivata and two children, Jason, 3, and Lara Helen, 2 months, were due to spend this weekend with Mrs. RS's parents, Vernon and Helen Orr, in Cisco. Attending the Baptist Convention of Texas gathering in El Paso during the past few days were the Rev. and Mrs. Harry Garvin and the Rev. and Mrs. Buddy Sipe of Cisco.

THIS WEEKEND was scheduled to find Manning and Martha Davis of Cisco in Corsicana for the Navarro County Junior College homecoming. Both are graduates of Navarro JC in the year 1957. They were there last year for Manning's high school class reunion. Martha graduated from nearby Kearns High School and they met at Navarro.

The Davises went from Navarro to Howard Payne University where they also were graduated. Manning played football at both Navarro and Howard Payne not to mention Corsicana High School. They both work at Cisco High School - Manning as a teacher and Martha as business manager. And they've been good citizens of our community for nearly 30 years.

THE JACK Martins are now officially and completely residents of Cisco. Mr. Martin, principal at Cisco High School, went to Houston last weekend and loaded up his household goods and wife Carol and moved them to Cisco. And they're living in the house formerly occupied by Lee and Angie McMillian out overlooking Lake Cisco.

Mr. Martin took over his duties here last August and, they report, they're happy to be completely moved to Cisco.

OUR SCOUTS report that the Rev. Jim Hooten and wife Peggy, who have been in Uganda for several years working as missionaries, are due home in Eastland next month. He is a former Eastland and Cisco pastor.

The board of regents of CJC meets Monday night and the agenda includes presentation of the annual audit by CPA Bobby Smith. The board of trustees of the Cisco Public Schools will hold two meetings Monday night. At 6:30 p.m., they'll hold a special meeting to consider awarding a contract on Phase II of the Elementary School Building. And the regular meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. Joe Cooper, CPA, is due to present the annual school audit.

LOCAL FIREMEN answered a call to the Bill Pence place out on Bliss Street the other day. A brush pile was burned after a rattlesnake sank its teeth into Bill's dog's foot and then dashed into the brush. Firemen said they didn't find the snake. And we didn't learn how Bill's dog was doing after the biting. The TV cable was off a couple of hours last Monday. Said they were working on a trunk line.

CHS Students Are Selling Smoked Turkeys

Perkins To Speak At East Cisco Baptist Church Revival This Week

REV. BRUCE PERKINS

The membership of East Cisco Baptist Church has spent the past few weeks preparing for a week long revival emphasis. Beginning Sunday morning, Nov. 9th, and continuing through Friday, Nov. 14th. Services on Sunday will begin at 10:50 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

Evangelistic preaching will be led by Bruce Perkins, senior minister of the Memorial Baptist Church of Grapevine.

Bro. Perkins grew up in the Frederick, Oklahoma area. During his high school years his pastor was Bro. Cecil Deadman who presently serves as the pastor of East Cisco Baptist Church. "I have known this young man for nearly 15 years and during these years I don't know that I have met anyone who is more obviously called or used of God," said Bro. Deadman.

Perkins graduated from Frederick High School in 1974 and began his college work the same year at Howard Payne University in Brownwood. While a student at HPU he met and married Pamela Kay Ulmer of Fort Worth. He graduated from Howard Payne in 1978 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree and was named the Valedictorian of his graduating class. He completed his Master of Divinity work at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth in 1982. For a year he continued studies toward a Doctor of Philosophy degree. It was during this time that he served as pastor of First Baptist Church of Forest Hill in that city. His love for the pastorate led him to at least temporarily abandon his work toward a doctorate.

He served as pastor at Big Valley Baptist Church near Goldthwaite while at Howard Payne and served at First Baptist Church in Troop, Texas before beginning his ministry at Memorial Baptist in Grapevine earlier this year. The Grapevine church has seen much progress during the short time he has served as their pastor. Average attendance in Sunday School has increased by 25 percent over the previous church year. The church has seen 66 new members join the congregation since March and a net increase of 61 additions in Sunday School enrollment. The last Sunday in October the church had an all time high attendance of 379 in Sunday School, 109 more than the previous week. Their average attendance is at the 277 mark. The unprecedented growth has led the congregation to begin a second worship hour on Sunday mornings. November 16th will mark the beginning of that second service. In July of 1986 the church dedicated a new $500,000 Educational Building debt free and have added three new staff members.

The membership of East Cisco Baptist Church invites you to hear this exciting preacher of God's Word. God is using him in a mighty way and you can receive a great blessing from his ministry. The music for the week will be under the direction of Steve Smith, former staff member at East Cisco Baptist.

You are extended a special invitation to join the fellowship of believers at East Cisco Baptist Church, 506 E. 11th, in revival Nov. 9-14. Noonday, covered dish luncheon will be held Monday through Friday beginning at 11:45 a.m. and everyone will be out in time to return to work. Evening services, Monday through Friday, will begin at 7:30 p.m.

"IT IS GOING to be hard to replace the Murphys," stated Ruth Cartee, Senior Center director. Merle and Virgil Murphy have supported the Cisco Senior center by volunteering scores of hours. The Murphys will be moving from Cisco to California to be near their children. The Murphys were honored by the members of the Cisco Senior Center last Friday.

rodeo team as a bullrider. He won contests in livestock judging contests. After graduation in 1973, he went to Tarleton State University in Stephenville, Texas. He was also in their agriculture club as well as the rodeo club. Jimmie graduated from TSU in 1976, and stayed there to complete his Masters Degree in Agriculture in 1977.

While attending TSU, Jimmie met Brenda Kay Sponsor, and the two were married in 1977. The Cearley's have two children - Amanda, 9 and Justin, 6.

In 1977, Jimmie went to work for Paint Creek and Weichert School Districts as an agriculture cooperative teacher. After four years he became a full time agriculture teacher in Paint Creek Independent School District and worked for them until this year. In August Jimmie was employed by the Cisco Independent School District as a vocational agriculture teacher. Jimmie was an honorary Lone Star Farmers teaching award. He was named conservation teacher of the year of Haskell County in 1985 as its first recipient. His teams in the past have qualified six times in range and pasture judging. He trained one team to go to state in dairy cattle judging. He also qualified teams in the leadership contests. This year Cisco High students have already qualified to go to the area leadership contest. He has taught 12 Lone Star Farmers over the years. He has received other awards and honors.

Mr. Cearley wants a well-rounded agriculture program in Cisco. He wants his students to know as much as they can about agriculture. He feels that these young future farmers should participate as much as possible in all events involving agricultural events such as leadership contest, judging contests, showing of their projects and conventions. He wants to improve the agriculture farm north of Cisco by clearing land to plant crops. Improvement of the buildings is needed to better house the project animals. The improvement of existing pens and stalls as well as the general appearance of the whole farm is high on his heavy list of priorities. To take on this much needed task, he needs the support from the school, students, parents as well as the whole community. "We need any person who has any time, supplies, and equipment who is willing to give us a hand. We feel this community effort would give us a farm for our students that we all can be proud to visit," said Mr. Cearley. If you would like to help with this endeavor, please contact any FFA member, Mr. Cearley or Mr. Jack Martin. Article by Jack Martin, High School Principal
