The following article was written for The Catalyst, a teachers' association publication in New York. It was written by Frank Alberti, RTC President, after he visited Jim and Jean Fitzgerald in Cisco recently.

We found it interesting and want to share it with our readers. It was entitled "The Leisure Class."

"CISCO, TEXAS - For those of you who never heard of Cisco, I can tell you that it has at least two claims to fame in addition to being the home town of Jim and Jean Fitzgerald. Back in the days of the oil boom, Conrad Hilton bought the first hotel in what eventually became the Hilton Hotel dynasty. Cisco also had one of the wildest bank robberies ever seen, led by Santa Claus!

"In the early 1900's the Ranger oil field brought booming prosperity to the area of Texas where Cisco is located. Conrad Hilton arrived in town attempting to purchase a local bank. Although he thought he had a deal at first, eventually it fell through. As he prepared to leave town he observed that the Mobley Hotel, located by the railroad as a coach for all seasons. He worked with boys' teams and girls' teams in just about every sport except baseball.

"Jim's move to Cisco does not come as a surprise. His wife Jean grew up there and Jim began his career in education there. He was serving as a elementary school princial when Helmer Petersen came recruiting. Helmer really struck gold when he obtained the services of Jim and a group of other members of the Church of Christ. It must have shortened that year's recruiting and it certainly enhanced the quality of education in West Babylon. "When he retired from West Babylon, Jim did not exactly stop teaching. He moved to Northeastern Christian Junior College in Pennsylvania where he served as a History Teacher, Soccer Coach, and Dean of Students. At the same time Jean took charge of the boys' dormitory, which kept her fully occupied.

"After six years at Northeastern, Jim and Jean decided it was time to 'retire' to Cisco. However, some people don't ever seem to completely put

MANKER MEMORIAN LIBRARY

Summer theatre at Cisco Junior College seems to come into its own when children are featured in the productions. In fact, the last four summers have produced plays about children. Some of the best have been ANNIE, THE KING AND I. THE SOUND OF MUSIC and OLIVER!

The 1990 dinner theatre season is no different, except that the young people are featured in several different plays rather than just one.

Although all of the young people are theatre veterans, one is a newcomer to the CJC stage. Susy Haldeman, a senior at Breckenridge High School, makes her first appearance in BROADWAY MAGIC! Susy, the daughter of Edie Charles, plans to go to college and major in theatre with hopes of a career in performance. Active in theatre in high school, Susy has appeared in L'IL ABNER. HELLO, DOLLY!, THE CRUCIBLE, and ANNIE GET YOUR GUN, Active in many activities, Susy is a contestant in the Miss Breckenridge contest for 1990. Her "free time" is spent reading, swimming, singing, dancing and "theartre. I truly believe the statement that there are no small parts, just small actors." Susy will appear as Peter Pan on "I Won't Grow Up," will sing "Memories" from the musical CATS and as Meg in the medley from PHANTOM OF THE OPERA, plus FID-DLER ON THE ROOF. Familiar young faces appearing in BROADWAY MAGIC! are numerous. Shelley Perry, the 14-year old daughter of Mike and Alice Perry of Eastland, will appear in PETER PAN. GYPSY, and FIDDLER ON THE ROOF. Shelley has appeared on the CJC stage in ANNIE, THE KING AND I, and THE SOUND OF MU-SIC.

The daughters of Larry and Cathy Vernon of Eastland are no strangers to the stage. Ann, age 11, first appeared in AN-NIE and in OLIVER! and her sister, Laura, age 8, debuted in THE SOUND OF MUSIC in 1989. Both are active in sports in Eastland but have taken time from summer fun to appear in PETER PAN. ANNIE GET YOUR GUN, GYPSY and FIDDLER ON

BROADWAY MAGIC! Mandi appears in PETER PAN, FIDDLER ON THE ROOF, and CHORUSLINE. Cassie Schustereit and Kyle

Kolacek, children of Dr. and Mrs. Roger Schustereit of Cisco, appear again this summer after making their debut in OLIVER! in 1989. Kyle, active in athletics as a 13 year old, will appear in PETER PAN as one of the lost children, in ANNIE GET YOUR GUN as Annie Oakley's brother, and in FIDDLER ON THE ROOF as a son. Cassi, a sixth grader at Cisco Elementary School, was the mascot for the CJC Wranglers in 1988. Cassi will also appear in PETER PAN, as Annie Oakley's sister in ANNIE GET YOUR GUN and as a daughter in FID-DLER ON THE ROOF.

Jeffrey Parker is the son of Robert and Katherine Parker of Cisco and has been active on the CJC stage since 1989. Appearing as a Von Trapp child along with Laura Vernon and Shelley Perry, he also was a member of the cast of OLIVER! and LITTLER SHOP OF HORRORS. Active in UIL events in school, Jeffrey will appear in PETER PAN and FIDDLER ON THE station, had a line of men outside. Further investigation revealed that lodging was so scarce that beds were being rented in three shifts a day. Hilton soon negotiated a deal and became the owner, although the name was never changed. In recent years the building was renovated and serves as the Chamber of Commerce office, a museum and a community center.

"The so called Santa Claus robbery took place in 1927 and was the type of incident you would think was dreamed up by a movie scriptwriter. On December 23 a man in a Santa Claus costume walked down the street and entered the bank. It soon became clear that he had served as a distractor while three other bandits positioned themselves. In spite of their numbers they were unable to prevent someone from escaping and spreading the word. The sheriff quickly had the bank surrounded, including the alleys where the getaway car stood. With two small children as hostages the bandits shot their way out and left in a hail of gunfire. It was estimated that over 150 shots were fired in the alley behind the bank, killing the sheriff and another officer and wounding the others on both sides. A wild chase took place, but in spite of the huge posse it took several days to capture the last bandits. One died of bullet wounds, one was executed after a trial, one was lynched after killing a guard in an attempted prison break, and one served a long prison term. It's amazing what you can learn when you go to visit an old friend.

"Jim Fitzgerald was well known in the Junior High School as a member of the Social Studies department and an end to employment. It wasn't long before Jim was back in harness, teaching an evening course for Cisco Junior College. He also began to work as a substitute in the local high school. There are times when his attendance is better than some of the regular staff members. The principal told me that he loves to have Jim come in. He said, 'Jim tells them a story, gets them settled down, and before they know what's happening the classwork is getting done.' "I had looked forward to this part of my trip and I wasn't disappointed. I am sure that

Jim would like to hear from some of his old friends in West Babylon. You can write to him at 7009th Street, Cisco, Texas 76437.

New Landfill Rates Take Effect July 1

The new ordinance amending Chapter 10"Garbage and Trash" of the city's Code of Ordinances went into effect Sunday, July 1, according to City Manager Michael Moore.

Anyone now using the Cisco Landfill must pay a fee, Mr. Moore reminded residents. The fee depends on the size of load taken to the landfill, he said. The ordinance was passed by the Cisco City Council on May 22.

Rosa Gene was coming around on her first lap, a slow eight-minute one. A thin gray light was creeping across the track. I could spot her now as she circled the wide loop. I realized that no way did she intend to fail.

"Depend on the Lord, have a good, positive outlook," she always told people.

Now she was picking up time on her laps. Six minutes for the quarter-mile, then a steady grind of five minutes, or about one mile every twenty minutes.

Several other people had joined her on the track, apparently out walking for their health. Some, like Mrs. Carroll, looked happy - others looked grim.

VIDEOTAPERS ... THE HILTON NEEDS YOUR HELPH

Persons in or around Cisco who have had videotape recorders over the past few years, and have taped certain programs, could be of valuable assistance to the Hilton Community Center, Board President Eris Ritchie has stated.

Ritche said that the Hilton board is now in the process of completing programming work on a permanent video exhibit that will become a part of the Hilton's attractions in late summer or early fall. the project has been made possible by grants totalling nearly $14,000 from the Hilton Foundation in Los Angeles, the organization that funded the rehavilitation project which converted the old Mobley Hotel into the Conrad N. Hilton Memorial Park and Community Center.

Videotapers can provide absolutely invaluable assistance to the project IF they have good, sharp recordings of any or all of the following programs, in a normal or standard speed:

1. The "Big Country Reporter" program about the Mobley/Hilton project, done approximately late summer or fall of 1984, broadcast by KTAB-TV, Abilene, Channel 32.

2. The "Big Country Reporter" program abou the "Santa Claus Bank Robbery" done in November or December of 1984, broadcast by KTAB-TV, Abilene, Channel 32.

3. The CJC Wrangler Band and Belles in the Macy's Parade in New York in 1977, broadcast by NBC Television.

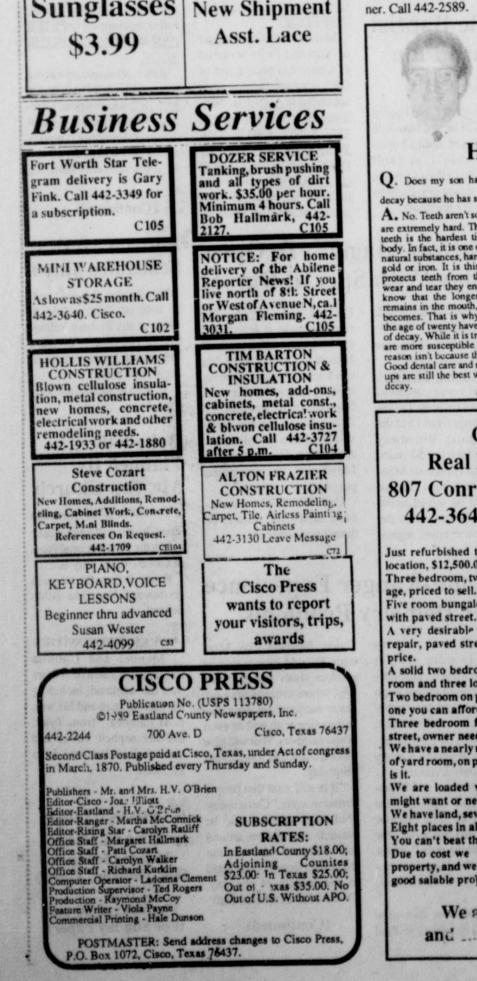

4. The CJC Wrangler Band and Belles in the Macy's Parade in New York in 1981, broadcast by NBC Television.

5. The CJC Wrangler Band and Belles in the Macy's Parade in New York in 1984, broadcast by NBC Television.

6. KTAB-TV news coverage of Hilton Community Center dedication on October 13, 1986.

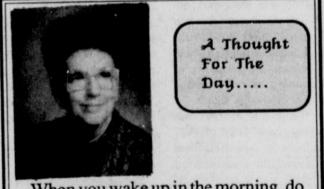

Mr. Ritchie stated that he has all of the above videotapes in his possession, but most of them are recorded at extended play (very slow) speeds. For purposes of the video permanent exhibit, tapes are needed that are recorded at normal speed. The tapes are also dated so far back that the Abilene television stations do not have them on file.

"Anyone having one or more tapes of these programs could be of tremendous assitance to us in the development of this project," Ritchie said. We need only to borrow the tapes, and they can be returned to the owner unhampered in anyway. Any person who can help provide a tape or tapes is asked to call Mr. Ritchie at Southwest Enterprises, 442-2500, or at home, 442-1613.

When you wake up in the morning, do you ever think how very important this day is? You can never live this same day again ... You must make the most of it now-today. The day can be happy or sad; it can be pleasant or disastrous....

You can hear from loved ones and they are just fine or you find out of an illness in the family...There can be a torrential rain on the day you planned a special outing or you can wake up to birds singing in the sunlight.

"You had better live your best and act your best and think your best today; for today is the sure preparation for tomorrow and the other tomorrows that follow" ... Harriet Martineau

Some old adages come to mind: "There is nothing so bad that it couldn't be worse" ... "Live each day as though it is your last." "If you do your best, it is the best you can do" ... "Don't put off until tomorrow, what you can do today"....

Yes, this day is important ... Work at it! Try to make the best of each day as it comes...

Mr. & Mrs. C.B. Harris

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harris will be celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary July 8. The reception will be hosted by their children, Mark and Laura Horn of Fort Worth, John and Jone Harris of De Leon, and Wayne and Pat Harris of Whitney. The reception will be held Sunday, July 8, from 2 until 4 p.m. at the Inspiration Church of God, Eastland.

All friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Series Of Expectant Parent Classes Planned In July

Eastland Memorial Hospital is sponsoring a series of four classes to be held from 7-9 p.m. on July 5, 12, 19, and 26, in the Teaching Conference Room of the hospital. There will be no charge for participants. Highlights of the classes will include psychological and physical changes during pregnancy, do's and don'ts of pregnancy, how to meet newborn baby's physical and emotional needs, and a tour of labor and delivery and breastfeeding. There will be demonstrations of exercises to do before and after delivbathing, and feeding a new baby. Class members will have ample opportunity to ask questions of doctors, nurses, and other health professionals. Eastland Memorial Hospital hopes that prospective ery, of diapering, dressing, fathers will attend since it is important that they learn how to help their wives through pregnancy and how they can influence their baby's development after birth. Further information can be

Boating Mishap Claims One Life

Tragedy struck at Possum Kingdom Saturday night following the huge fireworks display at scenic Hells Gate on the lake. A huge crowd of boaters were on hand to watch the show afterwards while returning in the heavy traffic in the dark two boats met. Three passengers of one craft were injured, one lived only a short time at the hospital, one more is critical and the third remains hospitalized. Details were hazey to the cause. As the severly damaged boat was being removed from the water late Sunday afternoon it appeared not to have any running lights. A true tragedy for any reason, lets all think and act in a safe manner.

The following boat maintenance tip is compliments of Mercury Marine: Many boaters who are meticulous about maintaining their fishing equipment, outboard motor and boat in tip-top shape for some reason are inclined to ignore their boat's battery. But the battery is as important to the operation of your rig as any item aboard, say the Mariner Outboards experts.

Member of Congress Public Hearings

Set For tal that the flag protects those Redistricting Seats

The Texas Legislature's committees on redistricting will conduct public hearings in Fort Worth on July 13 and in Dallas on July 14 in preparation for the drawing of new district lines for seats in the U. S. Congress, in the Texas Legislature, and on the State Board of Education. The legislature is required to redistrict after publication of the 1990 United States census. Districts drawn in 1991 are to be in effect for the next 10 years. The public hearings are to gather information about how district lines should be drawn.

Redistricting in the past two decades has resulted in significant increases in legislaeas have gained population and legislative seats while rural areas have lost.

The 1990 census is expected to reveal the continuation of population trends that have shown increases in the percentage of the state population that is Black or Hispanic, as well as a shift in population away from the rural East and West Texas and metropolitan central city areas toward suburban communities

A study by the Texas Legislative Council indicates that the state is predicted to have grown by about 20 percent between the 1980 and the 1990 census, increasing in population from 14.2 million to 17.11 million. Collin, Denton, Ellis, Hood, Parker, and Rockwall counties are projected to have grown by more than 50 percent, with Rockwall County showing the largest growth rate in the state, with 98.4 percent.

Dallas County, with a 21.6 percent increase in population, is projected to have approximated the state rate of growth. Tarrant County's projected growth rate of 35.9 percent is substantially higher than the state rate and appears to be great enough to give the county an additional seat in the Texas House of Representatives. Growth in both Tarrant and Dallas counties appears to have occurred outside the urban centers in the surrounding suburban areas.

As a result of these uneven population changes, the census is expected to show that about half of the current Texas house districts in the hearing region have more population than that required for the "ideal" size of a district (114,100). Although districts 90, 100, 103, and 111 are all 20 percent or more below ideal district size, district 93 is projected to be 38 percent above ideal size. Senate districts also show a wide range of variation in projected growth rates, from 19 percent below the ideal district size (552,000) in district 23 to 40 tricia Hill (R-Dallas) are the North Texas area member of the House Committee.

The hearing in Fort Worth will be at the Brown Lupton Student Center Ballroom, Texas Christian University campus, and will begin at 2 p.m., Friday, July 13. The committees will recess at the completion of afternoon testimony and will reconvene at 6:30 p.m. for additional testimony. Limited public parking will be available in the lot adjacent to the Student Center with additional parking available at the Amon Carter Stadium lot located on Stadium Drive. The Dallas hearing will begin at 10 a.m. at the Dallas Convention Center, Room W101, Saturday, July 14. The committees will break for lunch at 1 p.m. and resume the afternoon hearing at 2 p.m. Committee chairs will be available to answer questions from the news media prior to the hearings. These hearings are two of 14 public hearings to be conducted by the committees around the state between March and September of this year

The Brashears Will Perform At Harmony Baptist Church

The Gospel Singing Group "The Brashears" will be in concert at Harmony Baptist Church on Saturday July 7 at 7:00 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend. Harmony Baptist Church is located about 5 miles north of Eastland on 69, at Morton Valley! The Brashears are well known in the United States, Canada, Mexico, and Jamaica. The Brashears are a full-time group singing about 325 dates a year. They originated Gospel Music Month in Arizona, the Gospel Music Revue at the Arizona State Fair. The Brashears host the Southwest fering will be taken.

Festival of Gospel Music held in Phoenix, Arizona and their annual anniversary in Russellville, Arkansas. Gospel Music is very entertaining; however the Brashears sing only songs that they personally believe in and identify with. They sing gospel songs that truly spread the. "Good News" of Jesus Christ. Harmony Baptist Church extends an invitation to everyone, to come and enjoythe Brashears, and come prepared to receive a blessing. There is no charge for the concert, however a love of-

Justice Charles A. Loreto

Justice Charles A. Loreto, who served twelve years on the Municipal Court and fifteen years on the New York State Supreme Court in the First Judicial District of Manhattan and The Bronx, N.Y. died in Eastland, on July 1 in Eastland Memorial Hospital.

He was recognized for his quiet judicial restraint, his high sense of integrity, and marked legal ability. For many aspiring young lawyers he was a role model.

In retirement, beginning December 31, 1972, in Stony Brook, New York .and Eastland, Judge Loreto worked on his memoirs, which appeared in book form in 1985, aptly entitled In The Name of Justice - with Compassion in Judging. The book is a reflection of the man as well as a rich collection of some of the matters on which he ruled, such as evaluating the private property taken to build the World Trade Center in New York City, resolving the contractual rights of the New York Central and New York, New Haven, and Hartford Railroads in the area of the Grand Central Station, and deciding the public schools of the City before receiving his B.A. degree from Columbia College in 1923 and his LLB degree from Columbias University Law School in 1925. (Classmates were former Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Justice William O. Douglas of the United States Supreme Court.)

The Judge was active in community affairs in The Bronx and Manhattan - the Boys Scouts, the Columbus Alliance, public educational affairs, and as a Corporator of the New York Botanical Garden.

Judge Loreto is survived by his wife, Rosalie Leslie Loreto, former Assistant Dean of Women at the University of Maryland. Rosalie Loreto graduated from Eastland High School in 1927. Her parents, Judge and Mrs. W. P. Leslie, were long-time residents of the city.

Also surviving Judge Loreto are two brothers, Michael Loreto of West Palm Beach, Florida and Arthur Loreto of North Palm Beach, Florida, and ten nieces and nephews.

He was preceeded in death by two brothers, James Loreto of Sag Harbor, New York,

Some cases - many of which are recorded in his book brought private anguish to the Judge, for he often ruled on such matters as the rights of mentally ill patients in Bellevue and in custody suits. When interviewed once he said, "I put my heart, I put everything I had into resolving those cases. I was touched time and again, but could not show it." In custody suits, the rights of children always took precedence in his evaluations. Whatever the case came before him, however, Judge Loreto found one thing to be fundamental: "I prayed about

Kokomo News By Zelda Jordan

KOKOMO NEWS

We hope and pray that everyone has a happy and safe July 4th. Let us thank God for our Country and all it stands for. Even tho sometimes it doesn't seem like the Godfearing nation the we have known America to be at times, I feel that it still is the best place on the earth to live and enjoy the freedom that we have. Let us sing "God Bless America" and pray that God will use us to do his will to make it an even better place.

Wanda Rainey, Leona Wilson, Helen and Woodrow Browning and J. L. Morrow rendered the special music at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday night.

Chronically ill and disabled children who are eligible for Medicaid but have been denied access to health care services due to administrative delays in adjusting the computer system at the Texas Department of Health, according to State Senators Chet Brooks (D-Pasadena/ Galveston) and Bob Glasgow

(D-Stephenville). Arrangements were made by the senators with the Chronically Ill and Disabled Children's (CIDC) program at the Department of Health after TDHS advised Brooks and Glasgow it would not have its computer system "reprogrammed" until August 1. The two senators became aware of TDHS' computer problem after inquiring on behalf of children in their respective districts who were not receiving badly-needed medical attention even though the children became eligible for Medicaid benefits under a new federal law which went into effect April 1, 1990. The new federal law, signed by President Bush last December, increased the income eligibility for Medicaid to 133% of poverty for children up to age six and for pregnant women. Cottonwood Exes met at the Corral room Saturday, June 30, 1990, for their school reunion.

MissLucy McGaha was the upper grade teacher at the two room school. Miss Pearl McGaha was the lower grade teacher. Miss Lucy called the meeting at the Corral Room to check on her ex-students of yester-year.

The meeting was called to order by Dr. C.M. Cleveland, who asked Newt Hagan to offer thanks to the Lord for each one present and His blessings upon the delicious meal that was prepared by all. After a wonderful meal Dr. Cleveland called a business meeting and open discussions on happenings and experiences by different members of the group.

We didn't have to have dress codes in those days. We wore what ever we could get. What you bought at the store was permissable anywhere.

Nobody was on starvation but money was scarce and one closet would hold the entire familys wardrobe.

There was so much love between neighbors then that you didn't miss not having alot of earthly possessions. The whole neighborhood

'Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles' To Show In Eastland

· Yes, those_mutant turtles are coming to Eastland! The movie "Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles" will show at the Majestic Theatre from Friday, July 6 through Monday, July 9.

Show time will be 7:30 each evening, with special Matinees on Saturday and Sunday at 2 p.m. Tickets will be $3 at the box office, and the film is rated PG.

The Matinces will give persons in town for Super Saturday City Wide Garage Sale an opportunity to come in out of the heat and enjoy this popular new picture.

"We've made this movie for both kids and adults," says Director Steve Barrow of New Line Cenima Co. "The tone is unique - strange creatures living in a contemporary setting. It touches the subconscious of most people."

The picture stars Judith Hoag as April O'Neil, New York TV Reporter, and Elias Koteas as Casey Jones, a self- , appointed vigilante against thieves.

But stealing the show are those overgrown, surfer-type turtles - Raphael, Leonardo, Michaelangelo and Donatello. Based on characters created by Kevin Eastman and Peter Laird, these irradiated mutants come from a subterranian den to enjoy pizzas and other aspects of city living.

The setting of "Teenage Mutant Turtles" moves from New York to the countryside and back again. The film's authentic "New York" rooftop sets were created at the North Carolina Film Studios.

Much advanced technology also went into the making and movements of the turtles, with the late Jim Henson involved in the production. The movie's chief puppeteer and second unit director was Brian Henson, son of Jim Henson. This picture is a Limelight Production, presented by Golden Harvest and released by New Line Cinema. These are generally innovative, young companies - and they have some hot property here.

Pharmacy Topics

By Bob Mueller

Children with chicken pox seem to get better faster when treated with acyclovir, a widely used antiviral drug, according to a study at the University of Minnesota. The severity of the illness is reduced, too.

The University of Southern California's School of Dentistry has done a five-year trial of a new dental "anesthesia" that doesn't use novacain or needles. Instead, low level of electrical current blocks pain signals.

On the way to a vaccine against Lyme disease, researchers at the University of Wisconsin have come up with a serum that prevents laboratory animals from developing symptoms.

For those who have difficulty digesting milk, adding a little chocolate helps. (Mama knew this -- but researchers at the University of Rhode Island checked it out scientifically.)

New once-a-day antibiotic, cefixime, is effective against many bacteria resistant to amoxicillin. It's available in both pediatric and adult dosages.

When new drugs became available, you'll find them at Wal-Mart Pharmacy, Hwy. 80 East, Eastland, 629-3347.

MORAN NEWS

By Mrs. Luke Huskey

Elma May Huskey has returned from a vacation trip, where she visited points of interest in Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas. She accompanied her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dunaway and grandson, Billy Don. A very enjoyable trip was enjoyed.

Mrs. Lovelle Speegle of California visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cline, last week.

Funeral for Mrs. Earl Blackstock was held in Cisco, Friday, with burial in the Moran Cemtery. Mrs. Blackstock passed away Thursday, after suffering a stroke. She is the former Ada Midkiff, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Midkiff.

Mrs. W. H. (Dub) Midkiff passed away Friday, and funcral for Mrs. Midkiff was held in Cisco. Burial was in Breckenridge.

She is survived by her husband, W. H. (Dub) of Moran, a sister of Breckenridge and a brother in New Mexico.

Mrs. J. R. Collinsworth spent a few days in Houston with their daughter, Mary.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Mohen and two friends of Houston spent the weekend in Moran and attended the Fandangle in Albany.
