

Soviet Forces Crush Afghan Opposition

KABUL, Afghanistan (UPI) — Soviet forces are in control of all major cities and highways in Afghanistan, but Moslem guerrillas still are mounting hit-and-run attacks at night, Western diplomatic sources said today.

(Other Afghanistan Stories On Page 2, Sec. A)

Diplomats said the estimated 50,000 Soviet troops, using helicopter gunships and light armored personnel carriers, are concentrating their offensive on the mountainous provinces of Badakshan and Paktia on the Pakistani border, where they are meeting isolated resistance.

"There is no question of Moslem rebels, or even defecting Afghan troops, holding towns against Soviet armor," a diplomat said. "A Soviet commander has only to give the command and a town is taken."

This conflicted with some earlier reports that said rebels and defecting government troops were holding out against a ring of Soviet armor in Herat on the Iranian border and were putting up stiff resistance in the southern provincial town of Kandahar.

Despite the rapidity and smoothness of the operation, political observers said a swift Soviet withdrawal, as promised by Moscow, is unlikely. "That would look like they were bowing to international pressure and the Soviets don't do that," a diplomat said.

(Exiled Afghan rebel leaders said Russian troop strength in Afghanistan was approaching 80,000, with more soldiers pouring into the country every day. They called their country "another Camodia," accusing Soviet troops of slaughtering hundreds of innocent Moslems in Afghanistan in mass reprisal for attacks against Russian forces.

(At the United Nations, the United States Sunday accused the Soviet Union of committing a "blatant act of aggression" in Afghanistan and asked the Security Council to take "vigorous action" to remove Soviet troops and to restore international peace and security.)

Western military analysts said Soviet ground forces launched a two-pronged offensive from the Soviet-Afghan border town of Termez, once President Hafizullah Amin was deposed in the Dec. 27 coup carried out by Soviet airborne forces and Babrak Karmal had been firmly installed as the new president.

One column of armor moved south down the paved highway that runs through Mazar-I-Sharif, the Salang Pass and Kabul to link up in Kandahar with the other column that moved through Torgundi and Herat, the analyst said.

Sources reported a particularly heavy concentration of Soviet armor in the southwest, where 300 heavy vehicles were recently reported moving from Herat to Kandahar.

Analysts discounted reports that winter snows are hampering operations in the Hindu Kush mountains, where Soviet forces are reliably reported to be using napalm against rebel strongholds.

"If the Russians don't have the equipment and experience to fight in the snow, who does?" one source said.

Carter Pressing For U.N. Action

By United Press International
President Carter, pressing for United Nations sanctions against Iran, and Secretary General Waldheim have come up with ideas "worthy of exploration" for securing release of the American hostages in Iran, the White House said today.

Press secretary Jody Powell refused to disclose the ideas. But he summoned reporters to provide an interpretation of the Carter-Waldheim meeting Sunday.

night, following published reports that the two leaders had disagreed on what action should be taken in the hostage crisis.

Powell said the American position remains that the hostages, now in their third month of captivity, must be released before any possible airing of Iranian grievances.

However, Powell said, "Within this position, there are ideas worthy of exploration, ideas that emerged from the discussion."

"There has been no change in our position that the airing of grievances should not take place before the hostages are released," Powell said.

"The airing of the grievances can certainly be done," he added. There are international forums for that. It cannot be done before hostages are released. There are other things that could take place."

Powell refused to say whether the new ideas included or went beyond the airing of grievances by an international forum.

Waldheim said in an interview earlier Sunday that he doubted economic sanctions would work against Iran and he offered a "package" proposal calling for an international inquiry coupled with the release of the hostages.

Powell said Sunday night that Carter had reiterated the American position that the United Nations should proceed with the sanctions and that an international inquiry was "not relevant" before the hostages were released.

Meanwhile in Iran, Baluchi insurgents attacked two government convoys, killing four men, in southeastern Iran and supporters of a dissident ayatollah shut down the northwestern city of Tabriz today in renewed unrest.

In Tehran, foreign press chief Abolghassem Sadegh told the state radio the government objected to the whole "system — not individuals" — connected with the Western media and was considering the expulsion of the foreign press corps in retaliation for its coverage of the Iranian-American crisis.

Sadegh said the government had taken particular exception to the international coverage of the plight of 50 American hostages, who spent their 65th day in captivity today.

The official Pars news agency said insurgent attacks Sunday killed two revolutionary guards, an army officer and a non-commissioned officer in the southern Baluchistan province.

Two guards were killed when a party of 12 troops was attacked on a highway near Iranshahr.

The insurgents lost four of their own men in the attack, Pars said.

In another attack, rebels attacked an army personnel carrier on the road to the Midwest Hit By Blizzard

A-J News Services
A blizzard whipping winds and blinding snow at hurricane force stunned much of the upper Midwest today and punished residents with arctic cold 20 to 30 degrees below zero.

The first blizzard of the season, which howled into Minnesota Sunday with winds up to 79 mph, had dumped up to a foot of snow in some areas today, closing many roads and highways.

While the thermometer hovered at 20 degrees below zero in the northern part of the state, between 100 and 150 motorists spent the night in Mel's Highway 7-71 Mobile Truck Stop and Cafe in Blomkest, about 13 miles south of Willmar.

"You can't see anything, it's blowing so badly," said proprietor El Haukos Sunday night.

Haukos said the state patrol escorted the motorists to his station before blocking Highways 7 and 71 in the area.

Blizzard warnings also were posted over much of Michigan, where 5 to 10 inches of snow had fallen on the Upper Peninsula and northern Lower Peninsula since noon Sunday.

Cold Canadian air spilling southward behind a racing cold front sent the mercury plunging early today in Northwest Texas, but no precipitation accompanied the arctic air and temperatures were much above those farther north.

Lubbock will have partly cloudy skies with cool days and cold nights through Tuesday, weathermen predict.

The high today will be in the mid-40s, the low tonight near 20 and the high Tuesday near 40.

It was 68 degrees in Lubbock Sunday. Temperatures fell to 19 early this morning, however, as the South Plains was brushed by the icy sleeve of the front.

Morton had 11 degrees this morning for the lowest reading in the area, and it was 13 at Littlefield and the Muleshoe Wildlife Refuge.

On the High Plains, it was 11 at Amarillo and 10 at Dalhart.

Temperatures plunged dramatically in North Dakota Sunday night, as the state's unseasonably mild winter came to an abrupt end as the storm roared in

Mrs. Gandhi Scores Win In Election

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi and her branch of the Congress Party headed for a smashing national election triumph today, less than 34 months after Indian voters dumped her from office to protest her abandonment of democracy for 19 months. The people, she said, have realized "their big mistake."

Results from 141 of the 524 election districts represented in the lower house of Parliament gave 115 seats to Mrs. Gandhi's Indira Congress Party and its allies. These first results were from a cross-section of districts across the country and suggested a landslide for the late Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru's 62-year-old daughter, who headed the government from 1966 until her defeat in the last election in March 1977.

Others elected included seven candidates from the Janata Party headed by Jagjivan Ram, unofficial leader of the Untouchables; two each from the old Congress Party, caretaker Prime Minister Charan Singh's Lok Dal and the two Communist parties, and nine candidates from other minor parties and independents.

More than half of the 362 million eligible voters stamped paper ballots in the voting Thursday and Sunday, and final results were expected later today.

Anticipating her return as prime minister, Mrs. Gandhi said, "You can't fool the people all the time... The people woke up, they started waking up in 1977, after they made their big mistake."

Mrs. Gandhi was rebuked by the voters in the last parliamentary election, after she turned the world's biggest democracy into a dictatorship for 19 months of emergency rule in which she suspended civil liberties.

Local Firefighters Blast Foes' Tactics

By MARY ALICE ROBBINS
Avalanche-Journal Staff

Local firefighters charged today that they "are faced with the powerful opposition of Lubbock's big money cartel" in their bid to convince city voters that the fire department needs higher wages and collective bargaining rights.

A special election is scheduled Jan. 19 to determine whether firefighters will be given a 15 percent pay increase and the right to collectively bargain with the city over raises and working conditions.

However, during a morning news conference, spokesmen for the Lubbock

Firefighters Association claimed that "unfair tactics" are being used against them.

Dick Brightwell, past president of the association, charged that the chief opposition to the firefighter-supported issues has come from what he termed "Lubbock's big money cartel" made up of local politicians, ex-politicians, big business and The Avalanche-Journal.

"This cartel has controlled Lubbock for decades," Brightwell said, "and has opposed every group that has sought changes in the status quo, ranging from minorities to property owners' associations."

According to Brightwell, the members of this so-called cartel "have pledged unlimited amounts of money and time to preserve their stranglehold" on the city.

Brightwell's comments evidently referred in part to a recently organized group of former Lubbock mayors and city councilmen, who announced Friday their opposition to the pay raise and bargaining rights issues.

"The accusations are so asinine that they are not even worthy of a comment," said Dr. Jim Granberry, co-chairman of the mayors and city councilmen's committee.

According to Granberry, the special committee is not even a week old and has not been involved as a group in any longtime behind-the-scenes activity for the city.

"All of these people have been independent thinkers and were responsive to the will of the people during the times that they served," Granberry said. "And they have not had to wait for labor union bosses to tell them what to do."

One of the firefighters' big objections in the current campaign is to a full-page group of articles published in The Avalanche-Journal on Sunday. The articles, which appeared on the Spectrum page, analyze both the collective bargaining and pay raise issues.

"Under the guise of objective, factual news, The Avalanche-Journal presented a full-page verbatim printing of the city's at goods. But since gold is used in so few everyday items — and since the market is controlled by such a small share of speculators — the rocketing price likely will not be strongly reflected in an average budget.

The dollar, also affected by President Carter's sanctions against the Soviet Union, opened downward today on the European exchanges.

In Frankfurt, it opened at 1.7060 marks against Friday's close of 1.7145. In Zurich, the opening was 1.5742 Swiss francs compared with 1.5799 Friday.

Gold Stampede Boosts Prices

LONDON (UPI) — Anxiety over Afghanistan and Iran sent gold rocketing upwards today for the second straight week on European markets, hitting record openings of $645 in London and $640 in Zurich. The beleaguered dollar opened marginally down on the currency exchanges.

In Hong Kong, hours earlier, gold zoomed up to $677 at one point, before closing at $645.

"It's crazy," said one Zurich dealer, summing up the frantic buying that has driven the price up over $120 an ounce in the last week. The openings today in London and Zurich were both $55 higher than Friday's close.

Within the first hour of trading, gold reached $647 in Zurich. But in London, it eased back to $634 by the midmorning fix.

Dealers attributed the stampede from paper currencies to gold to a variety of international factors, including uncertainty over Iran and Afghanistan, President Carter's announcement of sanctions against the Soviet Union and rising oil prices.

"There are buyers everywhere," said one Zurich dealer. "Small speculators, large clients, everyone. But who knows if the price can stay this high? In any event, we expect the market to remain very, very nervous for some time."

What does the frantic price rise mean for the average consumer? Probably moderate increases in prices for gold jewelry, tooth fillings and some industri-

Mayor Says Major Crimes Down In City

By BOB CAMPBELL
Avalanche-Journal Staff

Lubbock had a 5.2 percent decrease in most major crimes in 1979, Mayor Dirk West announced today.

Citing statistics released by Lubbock police, West noted decreases in the number of murders, robberies and thefts compared to 1978 figures.

The city had 31 murders last year and 32 in 1978; 232 robberies and 299 the year before; 7,294 thefts and 8,223 in 1978; and 4,150 burglaries last year for a slight increase over the 4,119 reported in 1978.

Arson was not included in the summary released by Police Col. C. G. Bartley, however, and a report of all crime categories shows a 600 percent increase in arson cases — 196 last year and 23 in 1978.

West said reports of arson, rape and other assaults continue to be disturbing, and he said community and law enforcement efforts to curtail crime will be even more so as crucial this year as last.

"It's going to take aggressive, hard-nosed police and a no-nonsense approach to handling criminals," the mayor said.

But West said the statistics are generally encouraging.

"I defy any city that has as good an economy as we have and as much growth as we had — a 4 percent population increase to about 185,000 — to show as much of a decrease in crime as we had," he said.

West attributed the decreases in murder, robbery, theft and automobile theft mainly to the Crime Line and Crime Eye community programs, the policies and work of Criminal District Attorney John Montford's office and the work of law enforcement agencies.

He said much of the increase in assaults — 1,038 to 1,312 or 26.4 percent — was from nightclub altercations and that a recent crackdown on clubs should ameliorate the problem.

Asked if the crackdown on traffic offenders which he has sponsored has hurt community relations with police, West said, "People that take exception to the enforcement of traffic laws — I wouldn't care who they think."

He pointed to a decrease in traffic fatalities from 52 in 1977, when Lubbock led the nation in per capita traffic deaths, to 24 last year as justification for police policies on traffic law enforcement.

"If the police can show they're doing some good, then public opinion will support them," West said.

The mayor said he was particularly encouraged by decreases in convenience store robberies from 44 in 1978 to 13 last year and in gas station holdups from 25 in 1978 to only 3 in 1979.

He said the rigid policy Montford has for armed aggravated robbery — a minimum plea bargain offer of 35 years if the defendant has no prior felony convictions and 99 years if he has one or more — and the presence of Crime Eye cameras in convenience stores are mostly responsible for the decline.

There was a 14.4 percent increase in rapes, with 111 reported in 1978 and 127 last year.

West said the work of police and the "excellent" Lubbock Rape Crisis Center are encouraging more women to report it when they are raped but said the frequency of sexual assaults on women will

Agribusiness Reeling Under Grain Sales Cutback

WASHINGTON (AP) — American "agribusiness" is reeling under President Carter's decision to cut back grain sales to the Soviet Union, but the domestic market has two days to brace for the impact of 17 million unexpected tons of grain.

The Commodity Futures Trading Commission has closed for today and Tuesday the boards of trade in Chicago, Kansas City and Minneapolis as well as the Mid-America Grain Exchange in Chicago to all dealing in wheat, corn, oats, soybeans, and soybean oil and meal.

Spokesman Dave Rosen said the commissioners' decision, made at an emergency session Sunday, was based on their feeling "that time was needed for the public to assimilate precisely what the administration was doing so that everyone in the marketplace would have a better idea about the true supply-and-demand picture."

Carter, underscoring U.S. concern about Soviet intervention in Afghanistan, announced Friday that Soviet purchases of U.S. grain would be limited this year to 8 million tons, the minimum required under a five-year trade agreement. The Soviet Union had ordered 25 million tons for 1980.

The trading commission's action technically affected only trading in futures contracts, which are speculative investments in commodities that will be delivered at some future date. But one industry observer said the actual impact would be much broader.

Melvin S. Sjerven, senior editor of "Milling & Baking News," an industry journal based in Kansas City, said Sunday the decision to cut back grain sales "can almost be described as one that could virtually destroy an industry."

Sjerven said it will affect investors and exporters in the futures market, country elevator operators who have purchased grain from the farmers and hedged it in futures — even bakers.

He said there are potentially serious repercussions for rural banking, in which bankers lend money to farmers to buy equipment and accept grain as collateral.

"If that collateral goes down in value, the banker gets concerned and you've (the farmer) got to pay back a certain amount of that loan. Bankers can get very panicky about that."

Sjerven said the export industry, which in recent years has invested heavily in facilities to conduct a large international trade, also will suffer.

"In the last analysis, the farmer is going to pay the penalty," he said. Currently, however, he said farmers already have sold at high prices an average of half of their 1979 harvests.

Much of that was sold to exporters and elevators who "bought the grain at high prices based on what the Russians were paying for the grain or what exporters were able to pay for the grain," he said.

"They're holding high-priced grain for which farmers were paid high prices."

"Farmers will suffer somewhat less than what the grain industry is going to suffer," he said. "This destroys the market not for just this year, but clouds it for years to come."

Not all experts approved the suspension of trading. Robert Wilmoth, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, said he "didn't think anything would be gained by closing the marketing for two days," adding there are enough safeguards to allow continued trading.

Spokesman Paul Johns of the Chicago board explained that trading is automatically halted when prices drop below limits set by the board. If the board had opened today, for example, trading in corn would have been halted after the price-per-bushel dropped 20 cents, he said.

Wilmoth said the government also could take other action to calm the domestic market, such as increasing grain exports to China and underdeveloped countries, and changing price supports.

And on Sunday, Deputy Secretary of State Warren Christopher said on CBS' "Face the Nation" the administration is preparing a new gasohol program that would use about 5 million tons of corn this year and diminish the impact of the curb on Soviet grain sales.

Energy Department officials said details of the program likely would be announced later this week. Gasohol is a fuel mixture of about 90 percent gasoline and 10 percent octane-boosting alcohol. One bushel of corn produces about 2.5 gallons of alcohol.

China Worried Over Threat To Pakistan

By JOHN RODERICK
PEKING (AP) — The presence of a large Soviet army in Afghanistan arouses the concern of China's leaders chiefly because of the threat those troops pose to Pakistan, an old friend and ally.

The Soviet intervention also is a golden opportunity for the Chinese to remind the United States and pro-Soviet countries of the Third World: "We told you so."

Though China shares 25 miles of its remote western border with Afghanistan, Chinese interests in its primitive, landlocked Moslem neighbor are minimal. Like the United States, it has peddled its wares and sought to implant its influence there but with little success compared to the Soviet Union.

More than anything else, China sees the Soviet move as a threat to Pakistan on one side and the Persian Gulf trade routes on the other.

"By occupying Afghanistan the Russians can take advantage of the situation in Iran at any time to direct the momentum of their push toward the gulf area, while posing an immediate threat to Pakistan," said the Peking People's Daily, the organ of the Communist Party.

Even if the U.S.-Iranian crisis subsides and a temporary calm descends on the Indian subcontinent, it continued, "the large Soviet military presence in Afghanistan can still serve as a powerful mainpring of subversive activities in these areas and a tormenting threat to the sea lane which brings oil to the West."

It added that the Soviet charge that China, Egypt, Pakistan and the United States were conspiring with the Moslem rebels in Afghanistan was shameless and not worth denying.

Both the United States and China have a stake in Pakistan. They have long been its allies and supported it in the December 1971 Bangladesh war with India, which they considered pro-Soviet.

Following the ouster of Prime Minister Indira Gandhi in 1977, China made cautious overtures to her successors, but Pakistan remains a highly regarded ally.

Perhaps more important to the Chinese in the long run than the fate of the Afghans is the credibility that the Soviet action gives to China's past warnings.

For years Peking has told the United States it should quit seeking detente with the Soviet Union because the Russians would never honor their pledges. It said the attempt to reach a new arms reduction agreement with the Soviet Union was laudatory but futile; that the thing Moscow respects is superior military power.

Premier Hua Guofeng made this point repeatedly during his tour of West Germany, France, Italy and Britain last fall. Unity and resolve were better than Soviet intentions, he said in effect.

The Chinese undoubtedly are repeating all this to U.S. Defense Secretary Harold Brown, who arrived in Peking Saturday for a nine-day visit to China. Chinese officials indicated their leaders would also urge more U.S. support for Pakistan.

Solon Urges Letters Written In Farsi

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Urging his constituents to "send a message to an ayatollah today," Rep. Les Aspin, D-Wis., has provided Wisconsin residents with phrases in Farsi, the Iranian language, to protest the holding of American hostages.

"It's essential that each of us show (Ayatollah Ruhollah) Khomeini that, regardless of how we may feel about other policies of President Carter, we back him fully when it comes to Iran's hostage taking," Aspin said in a newsletter.

"We have to get the message to Khomeini. The ayatollah doesn't understand English and few Americans write Farsi, the Iranian language," Aspin said.

Aspin asked his constituents to trace or clip out any or all of the nine Farsi sentences printed in his newsletter, and mail them to Khomeini and Iran's three other grand ayatollahs — Qassem Shariat-Madari, Shehabeddin Najafi-Marashi, Mohammad-Reza Golpayegani.

Aspin said Shariat-Madari has begun publicly challenging Khomeini. "The other two have remained silent but are thought to have grave doubts about the wisdom of Khomeini's policies."

"They may be able to get through to Khomeini because of their rank. But we have to get through to them first," Aspin said. "Send a message to an ayatollah today."

"You and your family can compose your own letter and send a direct message to Khomeini," Aspin said. "Just trace over the appropriate Farsi sentences. Your handwriting may look a trifle funny to an Iranian, but they'll get the message — and that's the important thing."

The printing of the Farsi language sentences was arranged by Warren Nelson, an aide to Aspin who is a former reporter on Iranian newspapers in Tehran.

The Farsi sentences included: "You say the American people would feel differently if the American press only told the truth about the crimes of the shah. I've read a lot about the charges against him, but nothing justifies warring against innocent people by taking hostages. Since when do two wrongs make a right?"

"I have tried to teach my children to have respect for all religions. The approval of Iran's clergy for the taking of hostages makes that very difficult now."

"I don't like Jimmy Carter or much of what he stands for. But I want you to know that I back him to the hilt in refusing to give in to Iran's demands."

"I've been a strong supporter of President Carter. I'm an even stronger supporter now because of the way he has stood up to Iran's impractical behavior."

"You have united the American people as they have not been united in more than 30 years. We were divided over Vietnam, but we all stand together in opposing Iran's taking of hostages."

"You can say all the nasty things you want about the United States because we believe in freedom of speech. But you cannot take our brothers and sisters as hostages and expect us to sit by silently."

"You must learn that when you take Americans hostage, you are not challenging the U.S. government, you are challenging the American people. You are challenging me."

Little Rock, Ark. (UPI) — An Arkansas television reporter in Tehran believes he was successful in getting a telegram delivered to hostage Robert Blucker from Blucker's family in North Little Rock, Ark.

Steve Manis, a free-lance reporter working for KARK-TV, said in a broadcast Sunday from Tehran he had been assured by a Moslem guarding the embassy that the telegram had been delivered. The guard assured him Blucker "is somewhere within the embassy grounds."

Blucker, 52, a State Department employee, is one of seven hostages who was not seen by clergymen visiting the embassy Christmas Day. His mother, Mrs. Howard Albin, suggested he might have been hidden by his captors because he had been uncooperative.

"I told him (the guard) I couldn't understand why Blucker's family had not heard from him, and he said he couldn't understand it either," Manis said.

Soviet Media Downplaying Afghanistan

MOSCOW (UPI) — It is not surprising that no war fever grips Moscow. By Soviet press accounts, there is no war.

Soviet newspapers, television and radio have not even used the word "troops" in explaining the military aid Moscow delivered to Afghanistan two weeks ago.

Instead, the Russian press has stuck to the phrase "military contingent" and has made no reference to the number of soldiers involved or casualties.

President Carter, in his Friday night speech, said as many as 50,000 heavily armed Soviet troops rolled into Afghanistan two weeks ago. In Pakistan, rebel leaders claim up to 9,600 Soviet soldiers have been killed — a figure probably inflated but indicative of heavy exchanges — as fighting has broken out in virtually all sections of Afghanistan.

Two correspondents from the official Tass news agency were in Kabul last week, even as Western reporters were being tossed out. Soviet television sent in a film crew during the weekend.

Neither has reported a word on the actual fighting nor transmitted any photographs or film of the battles involving Soviet troops, Afghan soldiers and Moslem rebels.

The television reports show only a bustling capital or official statements by the new government leaders.

The front page of Sunday's Pravda, the Communist Party newspaper, offered no information on Afghanistan, devoting its space instead to a story on moviegoers, tractor production and a message to the Canadian Communist Party.

Farm Leaders Warn President Of Embargo's Consequences

By United Press International
Leaders of the powerful Texas Farm Bureau and the American Agriculture Movement have warned that President Carter's partial embargo on grain exports to Russia could be ruinous to farmers.

Carroll Chaloupka, president of the 250,000-member Texas Farm Bureau and head of the Texas delegation to the American Farm Bureau Convention in Phoenix, Sunday called on Carter either to lift the partial grain embargo or impose a "total embargo on trade and all cultural relations."

Carter has announced only 8 million tons of grain — instead of the previously agreed upon 25 million tons — would be exported to the USSR this year as punitive action for the Soviet's role in the Afghanistan coup.

"The partial embargo on grain exports to Russia will have a devastating effect on the income of grain farmers and probably will not be as effective as hoped for as a foreign policy weapon," Chaloupka said in a telephone interview.

The national director of the American Agriculture Movement, Marvin Meek of Plainview on Saturday also said the partial embargo could be devastating unless more loan money is made available to American farmers.

"Farmers have been betrayed," Arndt said. "We were told to gear up and produce for world markets. The free market place would furnish the income for our product. Contrary to the promises of political leadership, food is being used as a weapon."

Arndt said agricultural products should not be used as a weapon in the United States' efforts to punish the Soviet Union for its invasion of Afghanistan.

"Mr. Carter's cutoff of sales and delivery of grain to the USSR is the heaviest blow to agriculture producers, agribusiness and the agricultural community since the great depression," Arndt said. "This decision will not result in even one Soviet troop being removed from Afghanistan."

"However, it will immediately remove $3.5 billion from the pockets of corn and wheat producers of this country. Some will lose farms and face bankruptcy, rural businesses will face large economic losses, while the American taxpayer is called upon to pay more to support needless government programs."

Arndt said the effects of the embargo will be felt for the next 10 years.

He said the action may spur an international black market and cause gold prices to soar, the dollar to fall, interest rates to climb and inflation to "increase at a rate never before seen in this country."

NCGA Says Carter Move Big Blow To Farmers

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — The National Corn Growers Association contends President Carter's embargo of grain sales to the Soviet Union will cost American corn and wheat producers $3.5 billion and may force other farmers into bankruptcy.

NCGA President Russell Arndt, a La-Crosse, Ind., farmer, said Sunday Carter betrayed farmers when he announced Friday the United States would not deliver 17 million tons of grain to the Soviet Union.

Arndt said agricultural products should not be used as a weapon in the United States' efforts to punish the Soviet Union for its invasion of Afghanistan.

"Mr. Carter's cutoff of sales and delivery of grain to the USSR is the heaviest blow to agriculture producers, agribusiness and the agricultural community since the great depression," Arndt said. "This decision will not result in even one Soviet troop being removed from Afghanistan."

"However, it will immediately remove $3.5 billion from the pockets of corn and wheat producers of this country. Some will lose farms and face bankruptcy, rural businesses will face large economic losses, while the American taxpayer is called upon to pay more to support needless government programs."

Arndt said the effects of the embargo will be felt for the next 10 years.

Farm Leaders Warn President Of Embargo's Consequences

By United Press International
Leaders of the powerful Texas Farm Bureau and the American Agriculture Movement have warned that President Carter's partial embargo on grain exports to Russia could be ruinous to farmers.

Carroll Chaloupka, president of the 250,000-member Texas Farm Bureau and head of the Texas delegation to the American Farm Bureau Convention in Phoenix, Sunday called on Carter either to lift the partial grain embargo or impose a "total embargo on trade and all

Carter has announced only 8 million tons of grain — instead of the previously agreed upon 25 million tons — would be exported to the USSR this year as punitive action for the Soviet's role in the Afghanistan coup.

"The partial embargo on grain exports to Russia will have a devastating effect on the income of grain farmers and probably will not be as effective as hoped for as a foreign policy weapon," Chaloupka said in a telephone interview.

The national director of the American Agriculture Movement, Marvin Meek of Plainview on Saturday also said the partial embargo could be devastating unless more loan money is made available to American farmers.

"Farmers have been betrayed," Arndt said. "We were told to gear up and produce for world markets. The free market place would furnish the income for our product. Contrary to the promises of political leadership, food is being used as a weapon."

Arndt said agricultural products should not be used as a weapon in the United States' efforts to punish the Soviet Union for its invasion of Afghanistan.

Ford Pinto Trial Opens In Small Indiana Town

TRIAL BY DOCUMENT — Jury selection begins today in Pualaski, Ind., where the Ford Motor Co. is on trial on charges of reckless homicide — an unprecedented case that grew out of a Pinto automobile crash in which three young women burned to death. If convicted of the felony, Ford can be fined a maximum of $30,000. (AP Laserphoto)

WINAMAC, Ind. (AP) — Jury selection begins today in a case that will decide whether Ford Motor Co. was guilty of reckless homicide in the deaths of three young women who burned to death in the crash of a Pinto model automobile.

Rooms at the local hotel have been jammed for weeks, and business is brisk in stores and cafes in this town of 2,400, site of a criminal trial that could have a major impact on the nation's business.

Ford is being defended by James F. Neal, a former Watergate prosecutor. Elkhart County Prosecutor Michael A. Cosentino, who will present the apparently unprecedented case, concedes he lacks Neal's reputation and flair, and has voiced concern over the financial burden the trial has placed on his county.

But he argues the three women are dead because Ford decided to "sacrifice human life for private profit."

The indictment returned last fall by an Elkhart Superior Court grand jury charges Ford with three counts of reckless homicide, a felony that carries a maximum penalty of a $10,000 fine on each count.

The charges, based on a 1977 Indiana law making corporations as well as individuals subject to criminal prosecution, were sought after the August 1978 deaths. Autopsies showed the women burned to death when their 1973 Pinto sedan exploded in flames after it was rammed from behind.

In May 1978, Ford recalled 1.5 million 1971-76 Pintos and 30,000 1975-76 Mercury Bobcats after the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration issued a preliminary finding that low-to-moderate rear-end collisions involving the models could lead to fuel leaks. The government contended the leaks posed the risk of explosive fires.

Ford officials said at the time they disagreed with the government's determination that the cars presented an unreasonable risk to safety, saying they offered fuel tank modifications "so as to end public concern."

Also that year, in California, the survivor of an accident involving a Pinto was awarded $127.8 million in a civil case. A jury later reduced that award to $6.3 million and Ford has appealed.

The Indiana indictment charged Ford knew Pinto fuel tanks were unsafe but decided to not make the repairs to save money. Ford, which denied the allegation, has argued that the 1977 law cannot be used to prosecute defects in a 1973 automobile.

Defense and prosecution attorneys agree the trial could lead to other criminal prosecutions or aid plaintiffs in civil cases.

"I think this would open a new era in regards to business and product safety," said William Conour, Cosentino's leading adviser. "If Ford is convicted, businesses will know they are going to run the risk of a stigma of criminal prosecution if they are unreasonably dangerous."

Judge Harold R. Staffeldt has said the current cause will be "a trial by documents" and will make rulings on the admissibility of several when the trial gets under way.

Prankster Telephones Women With Phony Medical Advice

MIAMI (AP) — He hasn't hurt anyone yet, but officials who call him "Dr. Upchuck" fear that it's only a matter of time.

In the past year the phantom physician, armed with an intimate knowledge of patient cases, has telephoned some 200 women with phony medical advice.

In each case, the woman was recovering from surgery at one of a dozen area hospitals. And in each case, the caller — sometimes using the name of a doctor familiar to the woman — told her to drink two glasses of water, stick her fingers down her throat and force herself to vomit.

Many follow the advice, investigators say.

"This guy is wacko — he is a madman," said Miami firefighter Chuck Manetta, who drew attention to the case when he complained to police that his wife had received such a call. Betty Manetta, recovering from spleen surgery, had drunk the water but called her husband before following the rest of the telephoned instructions.

The caller told her he was her doctor's associate. He wasn't.

Manetta, 27, said he rushed to the hospital when he got his wife's call.

"The night supervisor told me it was just a prank, it happens all the time, and I said, 'Bull. It is going to be homicide when somebody dies,'" Manetta said.

Dr. Upchuck speaks fluent English to some patients, fluent Spanish to others. He has called patients as often as six times.

"This guy has so much information it is shocking," says Stephen Seabolt, security chief at Jackson Memorial Hospital, where Dr. Upchuck has called 50 women.

Working with two other hospitals, Seabolt has failed to uncover a pattern in the calls. He has concluded that Dr. Upchuck has access to confidential records, but that only adds to the bewilderment.

"How can he have so much inside information on so many hospitals?" Seabolt asked. "It would be physically impossible for him to be at Jackson, Mercy and South Miami — yet the three of us have had calls on the same night."

Southern Bell Telephone Co. security chief Gerald Doyle is working with hospital security officers to track the caller.

"We have done some wild things like having printouts showing all the calls in to, say, South Miami Hospital, trying to isolate, filter out," Doyle says. "But without success. We have tried tracing. But the caller is sporadic. He mixes up his hospitals."

How serious the calls are is a matter of dispute.

DR. LAMB

Girth Control Trouble

By LAWRENCE LAMB, M.D.
DEAR DR. LAMB — I've been doing exercises for a pot belly — sit ups and leg lifts — and instead of getting smaller, it seems to be getting bigger. It seems to be firming up but not getting flatter. Is this normal? I thought it would get smaller and flatter.

DEAR READER — It depends on what's inside the abdomen. Being of a suspicious nature, my first question would be, are you having regular periods and are you sure you're not pregnant? In case you can rule out the pregnancy bit, then we can move on to what else might be in the abdomen, and that something else is usually fat. Exercises do exactly what you say. They firm up the abdominal muscles but they can't shrink your abdomen if there is a lot of fat inside the abdominal cavity.

Many people just don't seem to realize that it's not just the fat that's under the skin that causes the abdomen to be large. It's the accumulation of fat inside the abdominal cavity. It collects in great rolls on an apron of tissue that hangs down from the outer border of the stomach and covers all of the abdominal organs.

If a person with a lot of fat in the abdomen happens to require abdominal surgery, the surgeon will have to move away a great layer of fat. Fat also accumulates in the membranes around the intestines. This accumulation of fat cannot very well be squeezed down to nothing regardless of how conscientious you are about your exercise program.

That's why I always tell people who need to do a little work to eliminate a pot belly that they'll usually have to diet as well as exercise. I'm sending you The Health Letter number 3-7, Girth Control: Avoiding The Big Middle. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. This issue will discuss the types of exercises that you should be doing which, in general are sit ups and leg lifts. Don't neglect to get yourself on a sensible diet to help you eliminate the excess fat that you probably have inside the abdominal cavity. Then not only will you be firm but you'll be flat.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I'd like to comment on the unsophisticated way that many physicians, psychiatrists and others talk about loss of sex drive. I think at the very minimum, to establish loss of sex drive the patient should be tested with a normally sexy subject of the appropriate sex. Absence of sex between two persons out of communication says nothing about sex drive. Do you agree with this?

DEAR READER — I couldn't agree more. Sometimes a person gets tired of his or her mate as far as sex is concerned. In other instances, a couple's life takes on a new meaning which may replace sexual interest. That's just the way life is.

If people argue and don't get along very well to begin with and don't have any respect for each other, it's increasingly more difficult for them to have a meaningful, fulfilling sex life or to be sexually attracted to each other. All of which goes back to a basic point, one of the most important sex organs is the brain.

Jury Selection Set For Trial

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Theodore R. Bundy, awaiting execution for the murders of two Florida State University women, will go on trial here this week if efforts to seat a jury are successful.

Jury selection was to begin today for the 33-year-old Bundy, who is charged with kidnapping and murder in the slaying of 12-year-old Kimberly Diane Leach of Lake City.

The trial was moved to Orlando from Live Oak when Circuit Judge Wallace Jopling found it impossible to seat a jury in that North Florida town because of publicity about the case and Bundy's trial last summer in the deaths of Margaret Bowman and Lisa Levy.

Miss Leach disappeared in February 1978 on her way home from Lake City Junior High School. Her decomposed body was found two months later in a hog shed 30 miles away.

Bundy is being housed in a small cell on the sixth floor of the courthouse jail. Stringent security measures are in effect.

Cocaine Balloons Kill California Smuggler

MIAMI (AP) — A 29-year-old California man who died after 110 balloons believed to contain cocaine broke inside his intestines apparently was part of a new generation of smugglers that hasn't learned the play can be fatal, authorities say.

Victor H. Benjamin collapsed Friday while going through Customs at Miami International Airport after he arrived from La Paz, Bolivia, officials said.

X-rays taken at a hospital later revealed "little packets inside him," said

Clues Sought In Murders

MEDFORD, Mass. (AP) — Police waited today at the hospital bedside of a 25-year-old man in hopes he would regain consciousness and tell them about the knife slayings of his two sons.

Michael Urquhart is the lone suspect in the slaying of the boys, who were found dead Saturday at their grandmother's house, said Medford Police Inspector Frank Comfort. Urquhart is hospitalized in critical condition after apparently trying to kill himself, authorities said.

"Police officers are in his room, hoping he will regain consciousness and give us a statement," said Comfort.

No charges have been filed in the case.

Comfort called the case "a complete departure from the norm."

"The killings are a result of a domestic dispute. His wife announced to him a week ago that she was divorcing him. The shock of separation was more than he could bear."

"It is a departure from the norm because, usually, when a family dispute is developing to a point where violence becomes a factor, it is a progressive thing, and we hear about it."

"In this case, we have nothing. They were unknown to us."

Dr. Donna Brown, assistant Dade County medical examiner.

"This type of smuggling in the past was found to be unsuccessful — it can be lethal," she said.

A friend of Benjamin's apparently was frightened by the death, according to the San Francisco Chronicle.

The newspaper said an unidentified man claiming to be a friend of the dead man checked into Jackson Memorial Hospital on Saturday, told doctors he had 80 cocaine-filled balloons in his body and asked to have them removed.

Hospital officials could not confirm the report, saying they needed the patient's name. And then they would only be able to provide a report on his condition, they said.

"There's a new generation of people who claim this is a bright new way to smuggle drugs," said Dr. Ronald Wright, chief deputy medical examiner.

"The bags, or balloons, always do break," he said. "Rubber is semipermeable to water. As a consequence, over the length of time that it takes to pass through the gastrointestinal tract, the condoms or balloons absorb water."

Facts Of Life Not In Textbooks

WASHINGTON—An old battle seems to be heating up anew between the forces once identified by H. L. Mencken as the literati and the philistines. The fight is over textbooks purchased for the public schools, and I am minded to whoop it up for both sides.

LINED UP IN opposition are some formidable battalions: the National Education Association, the American Association of School Administrators, the National Council for the Social Studies, the American Federation of Teachers, and the International Reading Association.

schools of Texas; they were instrumental in having 18 of the books turned down for purchase. Some of the Gablers' fire was directed at the American Heritage Dictionary because it contained definitions for such words as "slut," "hot," "horny," and "bed" as a transitive verb.

THEY OBJECTED TO a textbook in government in part because it said that "Year after year, the Defense Department takes a very substantial slice of the federal budget."

THE PUBLISHERS HAVE brought their troubles on their own heads—and not only the publishers, but the la-de-da, effete, know-it-all textbook authors whose taste is oh, so much more sophisticated than the taste of the yahoos.

ers, but the la-de-da, effete, know-it-all textbook authors whose taste is oh, so much more sophisticated than the taste of the yahoos.

But the arrogance of some school officials is at least equally indefensible. A few years ago in West Virginia, a passel of over-educated doctors of philosophy undertook to impose some ultra-liberal texts upon a largely fundamentalist rural community.

THESE ARE PUBLIC schools we are talking about. If freedom of speech means anything, it means that the Gablers are as free to voice their opinions as the president of Allyn and Bacon is free to voice his opinion.

SPEAKING OF HAIG'S availability as vice president, The Economist declared: "If the (presidential) nominee is one of Reagan's age and uncertain health, the job might be worth having."

That was in 1956 when Eden, at last a Prime Minister after being Winston Churchill's caddie for so long, called upon his supposed allies to help him put down Egypt's insolent nationalizing of the Suez Canal.

But the Economist exceeds reportage and becomes almost a holler-guy for Al Haig. The magazine poses this syllogism.

Ike was a political general (a White House favorite who had never smelt gunpowder); Al was a political general (President Nixon's crutch in the crippling Watergate fall); therefore, Haig will go from NATO supreme headquarters to the presidency just as Eisenhower did.

THE ENGLISH magazine played it "cricket" right down to the final paragraph when it threw an innocent-looking snowball which contained a jagged rock.

Iran Can't Save Carter Career

WASHINGTON—The most cogent think-sheet of the English language, in one private opinion, is London's "The Economist" and its mid-December comments on the American election are particularly engaging.

Even if the reporters are writing from this hemisphere, the magazine's editors and presumably most of its readers are Over There, and the viewpoint thus is exotically Limey.

These terrorists along with several hundred others from Iran are now in the U.S. where they are waiting for their assignments and the signal to move.

THE URGENT and unprecedented warning came in a letter from F. Nory Hoffman, the Senate's Sergeant-at-Arms, to Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., the Senate Majority Leader, and passed along to other lawmakers.

Brothers Divided Over Nicaragua's Press Law

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (UPI) — Pedro Joaquin Chamorro says freedom of the press is in danger in Sandinista Nicaragua. His brother Carlos Fernando Chamorro says it is not.

At the heart of the feud splitting the famed newspaper publishing family is a communications law adopted four months ago by the Sandinista government that ousted President Anastasio Somoza.

Few complained about standard fare sections of the law, which applies to newspapers, magazines, broadcasts and movies. These sections bar articles portraying women as sexual objects or promoting laziness, crimes, drinking or smoking.

But others bristled at requirements that freedom of the press be exercised with "social responsibility" and that journalists must "express a legitimate preoccupation for the defense of a revolutionary victory."

Pedro Joaquin Chamorro, a 26-year-old who writes for his late father's La Prensa newspaper, denounces the law as a potential weapon for censorship.

"Who decides what 'legitimate preoccupation' is?" he asked during a recent interview. "I guess it will depend on the political situation at the time government officials in charge are enforcing the law."

His 23-year-old brother disagrees. Carlos Fernando Chamorro, editor of Barricada, the official Sandinista newspaper, said the Nicaraguan press is freer under the Sandinistas than at any other time in recent history.

Their father was Pedro Joaquin Chamorro, whose outspoken attacks on Somoza and government attempts to silence La Prensa earned him several international journalism awards — and a Somoza bullet.

Chamorro's assassination Jan. 10, 1978, by Somoza agents triggered the final wave of Sandinista attacks that drove the president from power last July and replaced him with the National Reconstruction Junta.

Chamorro's widow, Violeta, was one of the five junta members who adopted the communications law Sept. 13 after it was drafted by the Nicaraguan Journalists Union and government officials.

The younger Pedro Joaquin admits the law has not been applied to La Prensa even though it has called for the junta's resignation and complained about Sandinista abuses such as illegal jailing.

But he wonders why the journalists' union has yet to issue him the working permit required by the law and why some Sandinista Defense Committees — neighborhood associations of the revolutionary faithful — have been urging their members not to buy La Prensa.

And he positively bristles when he speaks of some journalists who, in trying to comply with the law, commit self-censorship.

"La Prensa endorses this revolutionary process. But we endorse it in a critical form, not in an obstinate, blind form," Pedro Joaquin said.

"I don't try to act within the boundaries of this law. I prefer to submit myself to the daily plebiscite of (La Prensa's) sales. To me the best press law is the one that doesn't exist."

Carlos Fernando, asked if the law will make some journalists think twice before criticizing the government, says, "That is not self-censorship. That is responsibility."

"I think it's more positive to consider the reality of the law, and that it has never been applied, than to consider all of these speculations about censorship."

The younger Chamorro's comments were echoed by Guillermo Rothschild, the culture ministry official in charge of enforcing the communications law.

"The wording is vague. But that's because it is a provisional law," he said. "A law is defined by its practice, and the practice of this law has been very free."

"You have to keep in mind that this law is one of the most lenient in Latin America."

Few Americans Want To Repeat 'Sensational '70s'

By JOHN CUNIFF
 NEW YORK (AP) — Would you like to repeat the 1970s, that decade of enormous economic expansion — in the number of jobs, in the level of wages, in medical insurance, pensions, vacation time, travel?

No? You don't want to repeat the sensational '70s? If so, you're like some other Americans who view the decade as one in which they slowly lost their grip just as they were grabbing for the big things in life.

Looking back, few Americans can review the past 10 years with undiluted satisfaction, even though the statistics — on increases in national product and income, for example — might suggest they should.

Island Originally Owned By Indians

NEW YORK (AP) — Ward's Island in the East River originally belonged to the Manhattan Indians, who sold it to the Dutch in 1637. It was later seized by the British before becoming part of New York City following the American Revolution.

The island is named for a family who

Many of the economic reasons are familiar to all: With expansion came unprecedented inflation, depletion of savings, and steady increases in personal and public debt. Prosperity was visible and wasn't affordable.

The decade spawned dreams — measured in cars and houses, for example. But the nation's ability to deliver was limited by lost productivity; and the ability of families to sustain their dreams was undermined by rising operating and financing costs.

Surveys repeatedly showed Americans lacked economic confidence; the thinness of their pocketbooks was a constant warning. But they also confused the surveyors by buying up a storm. Buying, it was explained, was survival; it was better to hold "tangibles" than cash. The same surveys showed many people unaware that in the decade's second half there began one of America's longest economic expansions. They thought instead that it was a recession.

Sociologists and others often attributed the misconception to a feeling that no matter how great a family's material assets, they were beset by a feeling that the quality of their lives was deteriorating.

Prof. Angus Campbell of the University of Michigan examined the attitudes of people during the late 1960s and early 1970s and found "a general decline in professed happiness among the American people."

The decline was obvious among youth, but not among the elderly. The latter actually grew more content during the two decades. But "the lives of young people lost something in general affective quality during the 1960s and 1970s," Campbell reported.

"People under 30 are more likely than older people to describe their lives as hard rather than easy, to feel themselves tied down rather than free, to worry about financial and other difficulties, and to be concerned that they might have a nervous breakdown," he said.

In contrast, "in all of these respects, people over 65 are more serene and less worried than any of the generations younger than themselves," the professor concluded.

Economists tend to find an explanation for this in how the country allocated its money. Young people, for example, were often penalized in the '70s, in seeking to purchase a house, for example. The longer they waited to accumulate a down payment, the higher the price rose. Older people, however, were frequent beneficiaries. Having owned houses, for example, they benefitted from price increases, and often escaped high financing costs. And they were on the receiving end of increased Social Security benefits financed by younger workers. It is this group of people, the younger ones of the 1960s and the 1970s, who will be moving into leadership in the 1980s. Already disgruntled, will they simply nurture their anger or will they act against the problems?

Whatever happens, you can be certain that they won't look to the 1970s for guidance, except about what to avoid. They will bury the '70s, along with its statistical evidence of prosperity. They won't turn back.

Princess Home After Surgery

LONDON (AP) — Princess Margaret has returned home to Kensington Palace after a six-day stay at the exclusive London Clinic for surgical removal of a skin lesion.

Royal sources said the surgery probably was largely cosmetic as the lesion, which could have been a wart, cyst, mole or abscess, was not malignant.

The 49-year-old divorced sister of Queen Elizabeth II canceled her official engagements for the rest of January.

U.S. Heart Specialist Sees Tito

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Yugoslavian President Josip Broz Tito has consulted with American heart specialist

Dr. Michael De Bakey and a high-ranking Soviet physician about treatment of a vascular problem in his legs, the state news agency Tanjug said.

Tito, 87, met Sunday with De Bakey and Dr. Marat Knyazhev after two days of examinations at a hospital, Tanjug said.

The condition has never been officially described, but Tito's eight-member panel of doctors said it would require "intensive treatment."

Knyazhev is one of the Soviet Union's leading specialists on cardiac and circulatory medicine and works for Prof. Boris Petrovsky, a top Soviet cardiac expert, Moscow sources said.

De Bakey, 71, is a leading U.S. heart surgeon and a professor at Baylor University Medical School in Houston. He once performed open heart surgery live on Yugoslav television. He holds a decoration presented by Tito for help in developing cardiovascular surgery here.

De Bakey, who operated on the Duke of Windsor in 1964 to remove an aneurysm, has had close ties with foreign medical establishments since the late 1950s and is an honorary member of the Soviet Academy of Medicine.

Yo-Yo Master Hoping For New Fad

COLUMBUS GROVE, Ohio (AP) — A few years ago, George Humphreys was just another kid with a yo-yo.

But thanks to his mastery of the toy, he owns a home in Hollywood and hobnobs with entertainers he has taught to Walk the Dog, Rock the Baby and Split the Atom.

Lighter Side

Of Today's News

"I'm the youngest yo-yo demonstrator in the country," said Humphreys, 21, during a recent visit here to see his family. "I'm also the best. That probably sounds conceited. But it's true."

Humphreys' rise began when he was transferred to Los Angeles from Detroit in his job as a demonstrator for Duncan Toys, the world's largest manufacturer of yo-yos. And it has taken him to China.

That trip came when a Bob Hope television special was being filmed there last summer. One day in Peking during a lull in the shooting, one of Hope's assistants pulled out a yo-yo. The Chinese were entranced, and Hope telephoned the United States for a load of the toys.

A publicist for Duncan learned about Hope's request and had Humphreys visit Hope's secretary and perform a few tricks. Soon, Humphreys was flying to China with 1,000 yo-yos.

Now, he's hoping another yo-yo fad is on the way. "I'm going to do everything I can to make that happen."

Chicago Teachers Vote To Accept Rescue Plan

CHICAGO (UPI) — The nation's third largest school system, fraught with financial problems, has won an $875 million bailout plan from state, city, education and banking leaders and a vote of confidence from the Chicago Teachers Union.

Teachers voted overwhelmingly Sunday to report to classrooms today and to accept the financial rescue plan reached during the weekend at a marathon meeting called by Gov. James R. Thompson in Springfield.

"We are directing all (CTU) members to return to work Monday and to accept the pay schedule," CTU President Robert Healey announced.

The union's governing board also voted to approve the purchase of $500,000 in city general obligation notes, which come due July 31, 1980. Healey stressed the money for that purchase will come from union general funds — not teachers' pension fund.

Healey also said the Chicago Police Officers Union will use $10 million of its pension fund to purchase notes, as part of the $25 million of notes that state, city, education and banking officials agreed unions would purchase.

Also buying notes, Healey said, are the United Auto Workers, a food lockers union and a toy workers union.

The 11th hour package was agreed upon late Saturday after marathon sessions were held by city and state officials.

Schools Open In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — The business of education resumes in Cleveland's public schools today following a teacher strike that crippled the 92,000-pupil system for 11 weeks.

Most students return to their classrooms today for the first time since Oct. 18, when teachers walked out in a bitter dispute over their pay.

The Cleveland Board of Education kept the schools open until Nov. 6, but only a handful of pupils attended classes.

The breakthrough in the 78-day strike came last Wednesday after the school board, pressured by citizens groups and a Common Pleas Court judge to find a way to end the strike, made a pay raise offer which the 5,200-member Cleveland Teachers Union accepted by an overwhelming vote.

The two-year pact includes a 24 percent pay raise spread over 20 months.

banks, members of the Chicago Board of Education and the teachers union in Thompson's executive mansion.

The three-phase rescue plan — which surprisingly contains no increase in real estate taxes but consists of loans from a variety of sources — will pump $150 million into the system immediately to pay 48,600 school employees.

The teachers and other employees had not been paid on two successive paydays and teachers had voted not to return to work if no money was forthcoming. The plan calls for back payments to be made today and again on Wednesday.

The trade-off for abandonment of plans for an immediate tax increase — which had been estimated at about 30 percent — was the prospect of a $90 million cut in the school system's operating budget. It would include both school closures and teacher layoffs, officials said.

Mayor Jane M. Byrne said the cuts would not jeopardize the quality of education, adding, "Maybe we're going to get back to basics — reading, writing and arithmetic — with no frills."

But Healey added, "To say you can cut without positions and jobs being lost is not realistic."

Catherine Rohter, who became president of the Board of Education when the school system's perilous financial posture was bared last November, predicted Spartan road ahead for teachers and other employees.

GOP Working To Win State Legislatures

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Republican Party, buoyed by ballot box successes in 1979, has a $500,000 plan to restore its pre-Watergate strength in state legislatures.

"Winning control of at least half the state legislative chambers should be our goal in 1980," Delaware Gov. Pierre du Pont said in a statement. Du Pont chairs GOPAC, a political action committee formed to help Republican legislative candidates.

The GOP picked up 27 seats in six states with off-year elections last year, raising its strength in statehouses to 2,692. Democrats hold 4,717 seats.

In an effort to regain some of the seats the party lost in 1974 after the Watergate scandal, the GOPAC plans to spend $500,000 backing 600 Republican candidates in key races around the nation. Du Pont said the GOP needs only 100 new seats to control half the legislatures in the country. He said Republicans are just a seat or two away from control of one chamber in Illinois, Washington, Ohio and Minnesota.

The GOP now controls 12 state legislatures, and the Democrats control 31. In six states the legislature's are split, with each party controlling one chamber. Nebraska's one-house legislature is nonpartisan.

GOPAC Executive Director Jeb Carney said in a recent interview Republicans would target money to areas, such as Illinois, "where we already have a base of strength."

Carney predicted a total gain of 350 to 500 seats, "some of which will be in the critical 100."

Pageant Officials Stand Firm On Decision To Dismiss Parks

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — The executive director of the Miss America Pageant denies that pageant officials are reconsidering their decision to fire host Bert Parks because of the public outcry since the entertainer was dismissed last week.

In fact, Albert Marks Jr. said Sunday that Parks' firing was "one of the nicest things that has happened to Bert in years" because the 65-year-old entertainer has already received several job offers.

Officials said they decided not to rehire Parks — master of ceremonies of the beauty and talent contest for 25 years — because they wanted a more youthful image for the nationally televised pageant.

Marks denied reports indicating that pageant officials were thinking of asking Parks to return when the contest is held next September.

"What we've decided is that if it is determined that all this uproar would hurt the pageant in some material way, then the matter would be reconsidered," Marks said. "Right now, there is no chance of reconsideration."

Marks said officials expect a "flood of mail" today at pageant headquarters.

Marks said he does not understand the "hue and cry" about Parks' firing and added he is particularly surprised by talk show host Johnny Carson's decision to mount a "We Want Bert" campaign.

"I've tried to reason out what this is all about," Marks said. "I've listened to Carson the night after every pageant and invariably he takes a pass at us and at Bert, who he's never even met, every year."

Marks said he thought Carson's decision to "take up Bert's banner" was part of Carson's attempt to force NBC, which televises both his talk show and the Miss American Pageant, to release him from his contract.

Med School To Test New Contraceptive Device

By NANCY ALLEN
Avalanche-Journal Staff

Gynecologists at Texas Tech School of Medicine are looking for volunteers to help test the collagen sponge — a new contraceptive device which could provide a more convenient alternative to birth control devices now on the market if it proves successful.

The palm-sized sponge, which has undergone five years of preliminary testing, is made of collagen, the principal fibrous protein in the body. It is inserted into the vagina much like a tampon, according to co-developer Dr. Wayne Heine, chairman of the department of obstetrics and gynecology at TTUSM.

Because the acid content of the sponge is identical to that of the vagina, explains Heine, it is both lethal to the sperm (which are alkaline) it absorbs, and non-irritating to the wearer.

The collagen sponge works much like a diaphragm with added conveniences for the woman, Heine continued. It is effective in the upper vagina up to four weeks at a time, compared to hours for the diaphragm.

To date, Heine has conducted sperm penetration studies to test the effects of both the plain sponge and the sponge when used with a common spermicidal agent on women whose fallopian tubes had been tied.

"Using the plain sponge an occasional sperm got by," said Heine, "but when the sponge was used in conjunction with a spermicidal agent, we did not observe any live sperm."

When a spermicide is added, however, the sponge must be removed and washed daily, he explained.

Though the sponge already has undergone extensive testing to determine tolerance with minimal irritation, whether it produces an odor (it does not), or causes cancer in laboratory animals (also negative), Heine admits he has no idea how effective it will be.

He currently is seeking 30 to 50 fertile women to participate in the upcoming six month-long phase of clinical testing to determine effectiveness and modify the sponge for convenience.

Because the spermicide used is one in use some 30 years and the sponge itself is much like protein manufactured by the body, Heine foresees no side effects from the sponge.

Heine co-developed the collagen sponge with Dr. Milos Chvapil while both were affiliated with the University of Arizona. Collagen protein also has been used for burn grafts.

According to Heine, most contraceptives never undergo penetrations tests such as those performed on the sponge.

He believes the sponge would "probably be the most thoroughly pre-tested device" introduced on the market, if tests are successful.

Lubbock participants in the study will be asked to use the sponge over a six-month period and record their comments about it. They will have four or five visits to the clinic in addition to a preliminary physical examination, according to Heine. Although participants will be reimbursed for expenses incurred in the study, by federal disclaimer, any pregnancies resulting from the study will be the participant's responsibility.

Interested women should call the Health Sciences Center department of obstetrics and gynecology at 743-2348 or 743-2354.

Police Still Seeking Suspects In Murder

HALE CENTER (Special) — Two men who shot a man, then kidnapped and killed his 40-year-old female companion, remained at large at noon today, according to a Hale County Sheriff's Department spokesman.

Authorities here sought the two men in connection with the death of Plainview resident Faye Hawkins, whose nude body was found Sunday morning in a ditch alongside a dirt road about four miles north of here.

Plainview Justice of the Peace Glenn Stone, who pronounced the woman dead at the scene, said the victim appeared to have been shot once in the face with a shotgun. Stone has made a preliminary ruling of homicide in the death and was awaiting this morning the results of an autopsy which was to be performed at Lubbock's St. Mary Hospital.

Two Lubbock hunters discovered the woman's body about 10:30 a.m. Sunday. Authorities here said they believe Mrs. Hawkins was kidnapped, possibly raped and then killed sometime after 3:30 a.m. Sunday.

The woman reportedly was accompanying Donald Ray Malone, 32, of Hale Center, when he was shot about 3 a.m. Sunday 13 miles southwest of Plainview. Malone was listed in good condition today at Hi-Plains Hospital in Hale Center, where he was suffering from gunshot wounds in the stomach, chest and buttocks.

Deputies said they were told Malone's attackers kidnapped Mrs. Hawkins, possibly sexually assaulted her and then killed her.

Both suspects were described as Mexican-Americans, possibly armed with a .410 pump shotgun and driving a 1972 green Chevrolet Impala.

One of the suspects was described as being in his 20s, 5-foot-9, 150-155 pounds with long, stringy hair and a goatee. He reportedly was wearing a dark blue zip-up sweater.

The man's companion was said to be heavy, with hair down to the middle of his neck and a mustache.

Stone said today it did not appear the woman had been beaten.

A Lubbock County Sheriff's Department spokesman said this morning the suspects' description matched that of several suspects in the rape of two Texas Tech University coeds in the county last year.

Services for the victim are pending with Lemons Funeral Home in Plainview.

Survivors include three sons, William Scott, Ernest Dean and Gary Dale, addresses unavailable; her mother, Frances Anderson, address unavailable; three brothers, Tab Anderson of Plainview, Howard Anderson of Tulsa, Okla. and Jerry Anderson of Lubbock; and two sisters, Mary Jo Walters of Plainview and Georgia Dougherty of Lubbock.

Woman, Child Killed In City Mishap

Grace Torres, 29, of 5406 25th St., and her five-year-old son, Jason James Torres, became the city's first and second traffic fatalities for 1980 after a small foreign pickup truck and a GMC pickup collided at U.S. 84 (Slaton Highway) and Quirt Avenue Sunday morning.

Mrs. Torres, one of four passengers in the 1978 Subaru Brat, was dead at the scene of the accident, which reportedly occurred about 1:10 a.m. Jason died about five hours after the accident in Health Sciences Center Hospital.

Justice of the Peace Charles Smith had not ruled in the deaths as of noon today.

Robert Duane Daniel, 20, of 1312 41st St., driver of the Subaru, and Mrs. Torres' two other children, David, 8, and Melissa, 2, were not injured in the collision. Commie Lain Oats, 28, of Slaton, driver of the GMC pickup, and his passenger, Wade Norman Carter, 32, also of Slaton, also were not injured in the accident.

Services for Mrs. Torres and Jason are pending with Franklin-Bartley Funeral Home.

Mrs. Torres was a ward clerk at the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center.

She had lived in Lubbock for one year moving here from Albuquerque, N.M. She was married to Ray Torres May 5, 1970, in Lubbock. She was a member of Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church.

Her other survivors include her husband; her parents, E.P. Torres of Albuquerque, N.M., and Rose Torres of Corona, N.M.; a sister, Helen Rivera of California.

Jason is survived by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Torres of Lubbock and his great-grandmother, Pauline Amoro of O'Donnell.

WE HAVE THIS LITTLE PROBLEM ABOUT IMAGE

In western movies, the funeral director is a shifty-eyed, no-good character who races with his tape-measure in hand to every shoot-out. In contemporary books and shows, he's the shrewd businessman who thrives on death.

How does a guy overcome an image like that?

Perhaps the best way is by setting an opposite example — by serving the living in a friendly, unselfish manner. We hope so, because that's what we've been doing all along.

Club Notables

Today is That Great Day when the kiddos do finally return to school after a loooong holiday break! And then by mid-week the college and university crew picks up their books again. And then we all can get back to routine (whatever that is)! Renewed activity by clubs in the Hub City is one result of this "business as usual" period. Did you notice what a long list of club notices appeared in Sunday's Family News?

Fred Bell, project director for the Texas Planning Commission on Epilepsy, will come from Austin to be the special speaker at Tuesday's meeting of the Epilepsy Society of the South Plains. Anyone interested in this relatively new organization which is sponsored by the Lubbock Pilot Club is invited to attend the 7:30 p.m. meeting in the home of Mrs. W. J. Cartwright, 7904 Joliet Ave. Bell's topic will be "Developing a Viable Organization."

The Lubbock Welcome Wagon Club will learn about some fascinating West Texas history from Mrs. John Harding, local history buff and an instructor of docents at the Ranching Heritage Museum. This meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Christ Lutheran Church.

Nell Poff, reporter for the Highland Extension Club, issued a special invitation to anyone interested in home extension club work to contact her at 795-2477. The club meets Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. at 2816 58th St.

The South Plains Coin Club also is looking for new members among coin collectors in the area. The club meets today at 7:30 p.m. in the Precinct 1 Clubhouse, 5012 50th St. This month's program will be a coin auction and a quiz on coinage.

Mrs. Don Workman will recap the events of the International Children's Year at Tuesday's meeting of the Junior 20th Century Club.

Guest speaker for the Pioneer Study Club will be Joy Parnell who will give helpful hints on fun and efficient use of the microwave oven and the food processor. Come Tuesday at 7 p.m. to the Southwestern Public Service Reddy Room and learn how to use your new Christmas gifts for the kitchen.

THIS WEEK AT THE LUBBOCK WOMEN'S CLUB: Sigrid Carter of Envoys Travel will give those attending the Member's Day Roundtable Wednesday at noon some tips on making travel easier at home and abroad. She will discuss such topics as obtaining your passport, learning about foreign currency and the best way to pack your suitcase.

Registration Begins For College Courses

Adult short course registration for January classes is now underway at South Plains College at Lubbock, according to Mary Rooker, Director of Special Services.

January offerings will include jewelry repair, drafting, speedwriting, secretarial refresher, plastics technology, nursing aide, stone faceting, property and casualty insurance, introduction to construction and auto maintenance.

The only pre-requisite for enrollment in adult short courses is a minimum age of 18. Also, students who are currently enrolled in Lubbock public schools are not eligible for enrollment.

Registration may be completed by mail and further information may be obtained by contacting the short courses department at South Plains College at Lubbock, 1302 Main St., or calling 747-8111.

At Wit's End...

By ERMA BOMBECK

In addition to imitation mayonnaise, fake fur, sugar substitutes and plastic that wears like iron, the nuclear family has added another synthetic to its list: step-people.

There are stepmothers, stepfathers, stepsons, and stepdaughters. The reception they get is varied.

Some are looked upon as relief pitchers who are brought in late, but are optimistic enough to try to win the game.

Some are regarded as "double agents" who in the end will pay for their crimes. Others are just "standing in" for the Star Parent who appears out of the East on visiting day.

There are few generalizations you can make about step-people except they're all locked into an awkward family unit none of them are too crazy about.

I know, I've been there. Perhaps you've heard of me. I became a hyphenated child a few years after my "REAL" father died. I was the only stepchild in North America to have a stepfather who had the gall to make me go to bed when I was sleepy, do homework BEFORE I went to school, and yelled at me for wearing bedroom slippers in the snow.

My REAL father wouldn't have said that.

My stepfather punished me for "sassing my mother," wouldn't allow me to waste food, and wouldn't let me spend money I didn't have.

My REAL father wouldn't have done that.

My stepfather remained silent when I slammed doors in his face, patient when I insisted my mother take "my side" and emotionless when I informed him he had no rights.

My REAL father wouldn't have taken that.

My stepfather paid for my needs and my whims, was there through all my pain of growing up...and checked himself out of the VA hospital to give me away at my wedding.

My REAL father...was there all the time and I didn't know it.

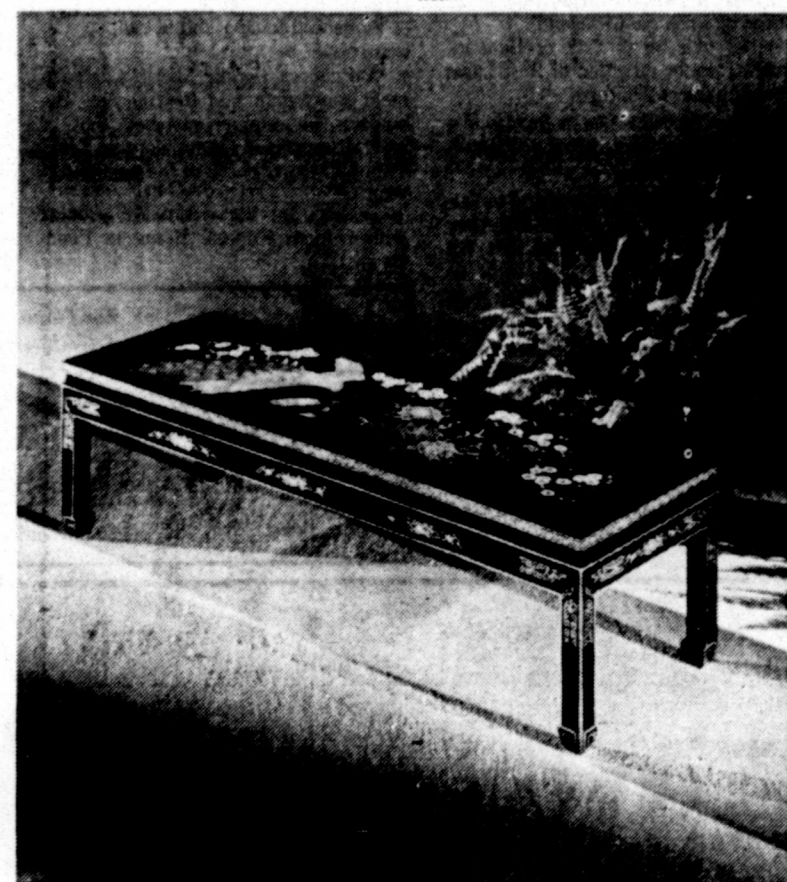

What is a REAL mother, father, son or daughter? "Real" translates to something authentic, genuine, permanent. Something that exists.

It has nothing to do with labor pains, history, memories, or beginnings. All love begins with one day and builds.

"Step" in the dictionary translates to a short distance. It's shorter than you think.

Dear Abby,

DEAR ABBY: I will be straight with you. I am 13 and smoke pot, but I am no pothead. A dude has been telling me about angel dust. He says it gives you a super-cool high. Some kids I hang out with who do drugs say angel dust can mess up your head worse than acid. What is the story? Please don't use my name.

CHICAGO

Dear Chicago: I have just completed some extensive research on drugs for my new booklet, "WHAT EVERY TEENAGER OUGHT TO KNOW," and I can tell you that angel dust is one of the most dangerous drugs on the street today. The following is a quote from my booklet:

PCP (OR ANGEL DUST)

"The boy woke up with a badly gashed hand. He found his mother in another room, stabbed to death. He had no memory of what had happened. But police said he had written on a wall with a red marking pen: 'I love my mother and didn't mean to kill her.'"

Women Contribute To Nation's Growth

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Biographies of more than a thousand American women who have contributed to the growth of the nation are included in a new book, "Liberty's Women."

"American history has usually been told through the lives of men," says William Llewellyn, president of G. & C. Merriam Co., publishers of the volume. "Virtually the only female characters mentioned have been figures of legend — Pocahontas, Betsy Ross, Molly Pitcher."

"Liberty's Women," edited by Bob McHenry and three years in preparation, documents hundreds of other women who have made "a significant contribution to American life," he adds.

Chronologically they range from Virginia Dare, who in 1587 was the first European child to be born in America, to such contemporary figures as Chris Evert, Susan Sontag and Julia Child.

Among them are artists and astronomers, church leaders and criminals, feminists and frontier heroines, poets and politicians. Each entry seeks to place the woman's work in historical perspective and to indicate its significance.

Biographies include sketches on artist Mary Cassatt, Clara Maas, who gave her life to yellow-fever experiments, orchestra conductor Eve Queler, businesswoman Sarah Walker, and Harriet Quimby, the first woman to fly the English Channel.

That is from the files of the New York police.

They said the boy had smoked two 'nickel bags' of angel dust — phencyclidine, or PCP, also known as peace pills, white powder, superjoint, busy bee, hog, elephant tranquilizer, crystal and green tea.

By any name, it's a mind-destroyer, one of the deadliest drugs on the street. And, alarmingly, the most widely used among teenagers, who mistakenly think it's just another form of pot. It's not!

"That's the tragedy of the drug," says Dr. Mitchell Rosenthal, head of the Phoenix House drug rehabilitation program. "The country has gone soft on grass, so kids think angel dust is not dangerous, that it's just a kind of superjoint." It's readily available and cheap. Many who sell it aren't aware of how dangerous it is.

Angel dust brings on hallucinations, paranoia and violence. There is evidence that those who use it might suffer long-term brain damage.

DEAR ABBY: I have a solution for the woman whose husband had a habit of getting a little drunk on Saturday night and inviting everyone within earshot to come to his home on Sunday morning for Bloody Marys and brunch:

I ran into the same situation a number of years ago in Annapolis, Md.

We were at a club when Mr. B. started issuing invitations. Mrs. B. simply went to all within earshot and quietly inquired, "Have you seen my husband's calling card?" Then she handed us each one, upon which his name was in the usual place, but on the back it read: "Don't believe anything I say tonight unless you hear it from me in the morning!"

We all had a quiet chuckle. No one's feelings were hurt, and Mrs. B. was off the hook!

GOREN ON BRIDGE

Q.1—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠9852 ♥7 ♦A854 ♣KJ62
 The bidding has proceeded:
 East South West North
 1 ♥ Pass 2 ♥ Dble.

What action do you take?
 A.—East's raise to three hearts has actually made life easier for you. You have an excellent supporting hand opposite what should be quite a good hand, since partner forced you to bid at the two-level: had East passed, you might have been forced to jump to three spades on a very ragged suit. Now you can freely bid three spades to show a reasonable hand without overstating the quality of your trump suit.

Q.2—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
 ♠8 ♥J10 ♦AQJ882 ♣AJ94
 The bidding has proceeded:
 South West North East
 1 ♦ Pass 2 ♥ Pass
 3 ♦ Pass 3 ♥ Pass
 4 ♣ Pass 5 ♣ Pass

What action do you take?
 A.—In the light of partner's jump shift response, your hand offers good play for slam. Partner surely has a good six-card heart suit, so you should tell him you have some support by bidding five hearts. Partner won't expect more from you than you have—after all, you took two other bids before supporting his suit.

Q.3—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
 ♥K93 ♦A109752 ♣AKJ4
 The bidding has proceeded:
 North East South
 4 ♣ Pass ?

What action do you take?
 A.—This is a very tempting hand, but analysis will show that any action is fraught with danger. If partner's spades are solid, he cannot have the ace of hearts—remember, four spades is a preempt—so you could be off several fast heart tricks. And the fact that you are void in spades is a warning that partner might suffer an unexpected trump loser. Pass.

Q.4—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠A1094 ♦K83 ♣97642
 Partner opens the bidding with one club. What do you respond?

A.—Right now you have no idea about the potential of this hand. You could easily make a slam, or there might be no game. It's even possible that the opponents could be cold for a slam in a red suit! The way to avoid making a painful decision is to temporize with one spade. Partner's rebid should help you decide what to do next.

Q.5—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠KQ1073 ♥AKJ4 ♦K
 ♣KQ102
 Partner opens the bidding with one diamond. What do you respond?

A.—You have a big hand—more than enough for a jump shift in terms of high cards. Unfortunately, your partial misfit makes it awkward for you to jump shift. For example, if you choose two hearts, you could easily miss a superior contract in a black suit. Therefore, we would respond with a simple one heart bid, saving the big "push" until partner has had the opportunity to make a rebid that will clarify his holdings.

Q.6—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠A106 ♥95 ♦AKJ873 ♣63
 The bidding has proceeded:
 North East South West
 1 ♣ Pass 1 ♦ 1 ♣
 2 ♣ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
 A.—There is no question about proceeding to game, but which game? There is a temptation to bid three no trump in the hope that partner has the hearts stopped, but that is not necessarily the case. A cue-bid of two spades is a possibility, but partner might misinterpret that as asking for a stopper. Probably the most flexible rebid is a jump to three diamonds. If partner shows a heart stopper, you can now bid three no trump. And if he raises diamonds, you might even think in terms of a slam.

Q.7—East-West vulnerable with 90 on score, as South you hold:
 ♠A ♥AK83 ♦984 ♣107642
 Your right-hand opponent opens the bidding with three clubs. What action do you take?

A.—There is nothing you can do. Certainly, it looks as if your chances of beating three clubs are excellent, and if you could double for penalties, we would choose that action. But a double would be for takeout and partner will almost certainly bid spades, leaving you in a spot. Pass, and wait to see what partner does. At this score he will stretch to do something.

Q.8—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
 ♠AQ43 ♥93 ♦8752 ♣Q103
 The bidding has proceeded:

West North East South
 1 ♥ Dble. 2 ♣ ?
 What action do you take?

A.—Well, well—another humorist. At this vulnerability, partner's "almost surely" guarantees a spade suit for his takeout double, so East must be taking advantage of the vulnerability to stir up a little dust. Don't let him get away with it. Double, to tell partner you have some values and spades. That will leave him well placed when the opponents try to wriggle out.

DRESSED FOR SCHOOL—These young boys are all dressed in the popular styles of today—T-shirts and jeans. Experts say to look for construction details which assure durability when buying jeans. And, when buying shoes, it is important to buy children's shoes a half to three-quarters of an inch longer than the foot and a quarter-inch wider at the toe.

Rising Cost Of School Clothes Evident Despite Casual Attire

By SIDNEY MARGOLIUS
 NEW YORK (WNS) — The casual revolution in school and college wardrobes has not brought much relief to battered family budgets. Parents caught up in last-minute shopping are finding that rough-hewn denims at today's inflation-swollen prices can cost as much as the blue suede trousers or pleated tartan skirts favored by a dressier generation.

The best way to stretch a dollar this fall is to shop for durability. Here are some tips on buying clothes to last through at least several semesters:
JEANS: The continuing demand for blue jeans or dungarees has kept prices at an all-time high. You can easily pay $13 or more for a pair of "jeans ordinaire," or $35 if your daughter wants a designer name such as Calvin Klein or Gloria Vanderbilt on her rump pocket.

Prewashed, prefaded denims also cost more, which means you pay extra for a fabric that has already been weakened. Blended fabrics—usually 50 percent cotton and 50 percent polyester—have greater shrink resistance and are more colorfast than all-cotton denims.

Look for construction details which will assure durability. The best way to examine jeans is inside out. Felled seams—that is, seams with an overcasting stitch to protect against fraying—are most satisfactory. Watch out for improperly sewn seams where the stitching did not catch all the raw edges.

Some jeans are cut off the grain. While this defect doesn't appreciably affect wear, the jeans will never hang properly.

Relative weight of fabric is a factor, although all-cotton denim tends to be heavier than blends without necessarily being more durable. Look at the fabric against a light to judge how closely and evenly woven it is.

You can usually find jeans for teenagers and adults at lower prices in the work clothes sections of stores and catalogues than in the fashion department. In fact, some adult work overalls cost less than the newly fashionable denim overalls for young children. Women can also save money buying men's work jeans for their own use. Fatigues from the Army and Navy Store or flea market can also be a bargain.

SHOES: Shoe prices on average are about 10 percent higher this year. Interestingly, but painfully for families, men's and children's shoe costs have gone up faster than women's. Behind the increase is a serious inflation in leather, up about 46 percent, due to a worldwide demand for hides. Shoes made of mostly synthetic materials do not appear to have gone up as drastically as those made largely of leather.

Children's shoes are a special concern and expense, since children can outgrow shoes in as short a time as a month.

Besides the potential harm to growing feet, improperly fitted shoes will wear out faster. The dilemma for parents is that the more expensive stores will be more careful in fitting and carry a wide range of sizes—and they last—while the mass-volume stores cannot always take the time to fit as carefully. They also often stock cheaply made imports, which, incidentally, are not as expensive as they were once.

Buy children's shoes a half to three-quarters of an inch longer than the foot and at least a quarter-inch wider at the toe. The ball of the foot should come at the widest part of the sole. Check periodically and make sure there is always at least one-quarter inch left in the length.

While synthetic soles are durable, leather is preferred for uppers because it more readily conforms to the shape of the foot.

SNEAKERS: Generally, sneakers have not increased in price as dramatically as shoes, although most are a dollar or two more than last year. Uppers should be heavy cotton duck or a blend of nylon or polyester with cotton. Look for outer cap toes, a back stay at the heel seam and heel tabs or other strong reinforcements at the heel seam and other seams.

The two layers of canvas or other cloth which comprise the upper should be sewn together rather than pasted. The sewn construction is more pliable and permits better air circulation.

Bookstore Manager Gives Tips On Caring For Books

NEW YORK (AP) — Whether you collect rare old volumes or today's best sellers, you'll want to keep your library in the best condition possible, says an expert on caring for books.

"The people who spend small fortunes on books often fail to care for them properly," says Jim Landers. "They cram books into the shelves, weakening the bindings, spill batter all over cookbooks, or leave open books lying around face down, wrinkling the fragile pages."

Landers, who as manager of a Waldenbooks store here is responsible for the maintenance of more than 100,000 books at any given time, offers some tips for keeping books in good condition:

—Leave enough space between books so they can be pulled out and replaced easily. Never stack books more than eight volumes high or shelve very large and very small books next to each other. Following this advice will make bindings last longer and keep your shelves neater.

—Store books away from moisture, preferably in a glass-fronted bookcase. Dust off the tops of your books regularly so dirt doesn't collect near the binding.

—Never bend the corners of pages to keep your place; this causes irreparable damage, especially when the book has aged and the dried-out paper breaks off easily.

—Open a new book carefully, gently easing the binding in several places; don't lay an open book pages down.

—When using a cookbook, place it on a special cookbook stand to hold the pages open, well out of the way of your ingredients.

—Teach children the value of books, and buy very young children books with plastic-coated or cardboard pages. Little children tend to walk around holding books by one page.

 —Prolong life of valued paperbacks by reinforcing the cover with cardboard and laminated adhesive paper, or cover paperbacks immediately with a purchased paperback cover in reinforced plastic or imitation leather.

—At the first sign of wear, mend pages with invisible cellophane tape; mend bindings with cloth tape. Try to preserve the paper book-jacket on hardcover books for as long as possible before exposing the cloth cover. If the binding is irretrievably worn, you can have the whole book rebound at a reasonable cost.

High Court's Ruling Blow To Teacher

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today left intact a decision allowing public schools to fire teachers who refuse to teach the pledge of allegiance and patriotic songs.

The court refused to hear the appeal of a Chicago elementary teacher fired after telling officials that her religious beliefs prohibit such instruction.

Only Justice William J. Brennan Jr. voted to hear arguments in the case. The votes of four justices are needed to grant such review.

In other action today, the high court: —Refused to hear arguments by publishers, in a case contesting Postal Service rate-making procedures, that were aimed at lowering postal rates for newspapers and magazines.

—Agreed to decide whether persons who contend some government act makes their property useless or worthless can sue for "just compensation."

—Refused to revive a citizens group's complaint that the CBS television network is unfairly "dovish" on national security issues.

—Left intact lower court rulings that the FBI acted legally when it withheld certain material sought by author Louis "Studs" Terkel from his FBI dossier.

—By a 7-2 vote, refused to hear arguments by three resident aliens in Mississippi who sought reimbursement for what they contend were tuition overcharges to state residents.

—Agreed to decide whether lawyers who "unreasonably and vexatiously" delay or complicate cases may be ordered to pay the other side's legal fees.

—Left intact the murder conviction of a 16-year-old Connecticut youth, who said he was denied a fair trial because prosecutors used his oral confession as evidence. The justices also refused to disturb the death sentence of a convicted South Carolina murderer, and the murder conviction and death sentence of an Alabama man.

In the case of the fired teacher, Joethia Palmer, who taught for one year in Chicago's Field Elementary School before being fired in 1977, charged school officials with violating her right to religious freedom.

Miss Palmer, a Jehovah's Witness, was hired in September 1976 as a kindergarten teacher. Shortly thereafter, she informed Florence Paskind, Field School principal, that her religious beliefs barred teaching "anything having to do with love of country, the flag and other patriotic matters."

For the 1976-77 school year, other instructors or parent volunteers filled in for Miss Palmer in teaching patriotism.

In September 1977, Miss Palmer received a letter from her principal ordering her to teach the pledge of allegiance, the words and music of "America," the words and music of other patriotic songs and to direct and conduct activities of holidays.

Miss Palmer believes such activities are forms of idolatry, the worship of man-made images, banned by the Bible. In an Oct. 2, 1977 letter, she refused to comply with her principal's orders.

Her letter said such instructions would "damage my spiritual relationship with God, Jehovah (and) that (it) would damage my conscience serving Him."

Miss Palmer was fired, effective Dec. 23, 1977, by the Chicago superintendent of schools for "deliberate non-conformity with curriculum."

She sued the city's school board, but a federal trial judge dismissed the suit. Last Aug. 14, the 7th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals upheld the firing.

The appeals court said Miss Palmer was not entitled to any "due process" hearing before her firing because she was not a tenured teacher. It added that her refusal to teach required curriculum was valid.

(Miss Palmer's) right to her own religious views and practices remains unfettered, but she has no constitutional right to require others to submit to her views and forego a portion of their education," it ruled.

Firefighters

The articles were taken from a fact sheet prepared by City Manager Larry Cunningham and his staff and presented in a report to the council Dec. 13. The fact sheet was later submitted to The Avalanche-Journal at the newspaper's request.

Firefighters earlier had objected to publication of some of the same information in City Profile, a newsletter distributed to city employees.

Brightwell contended today that those opposing the firefighters' issues are seeking to divert attention from "the core issue" of the election.

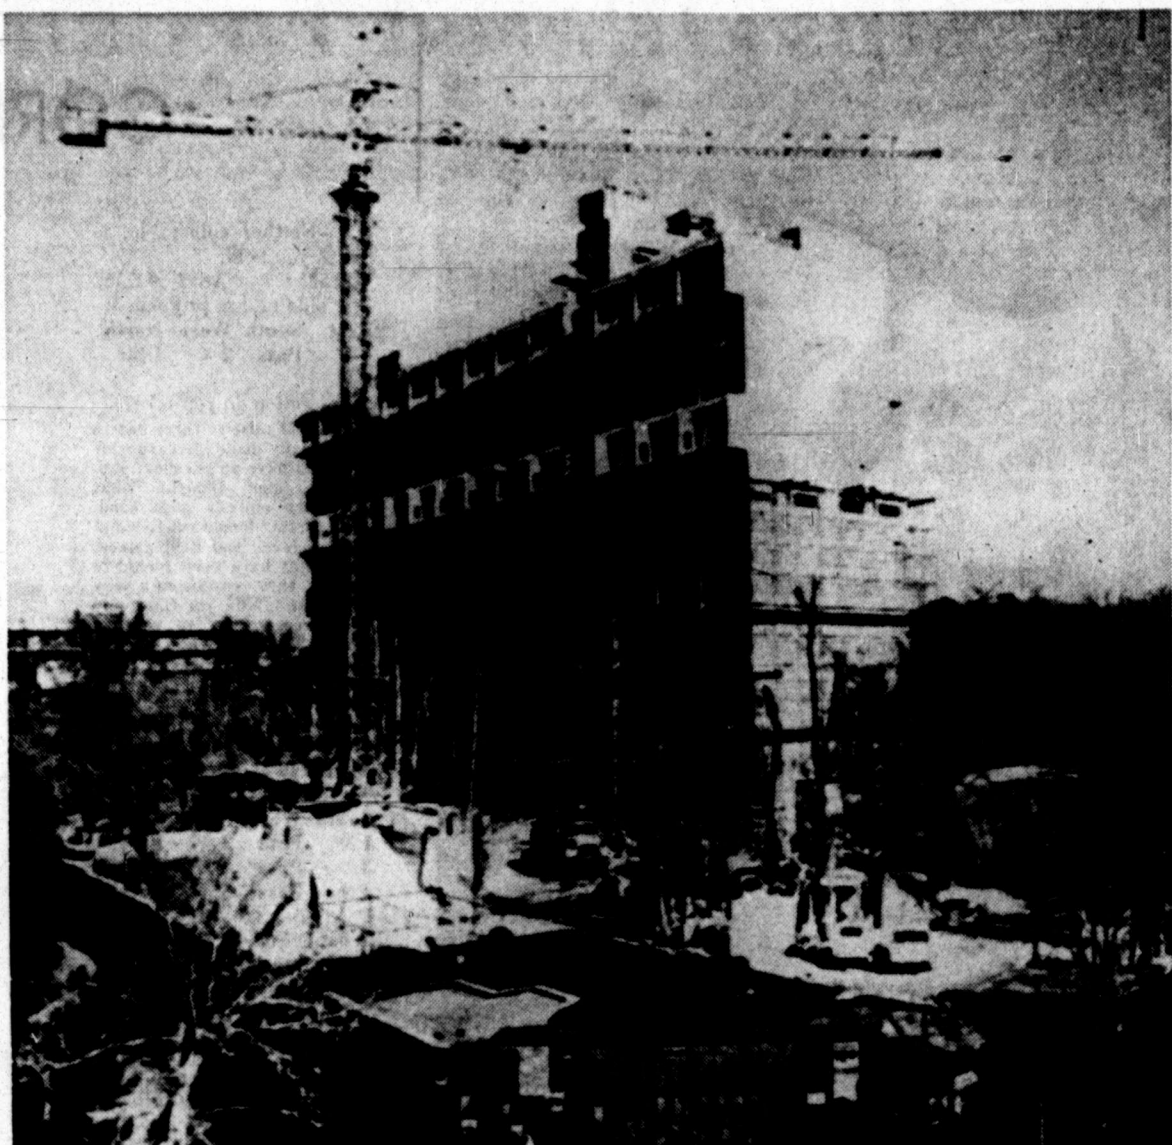

"The fact is that in a year of 18 percent inflation for necessities (14 percent overall inflation), city workers were given an inadequate 7 percent pay increase," Brightwell said.

Brightwell noted that the council cut 2 percent from the city manager's proposed pay raise of 9 percent. "Then in the ultimate gesture of contempt, the council used that 2 percent to finance pet projects, such as speeding up the development of some city parks," he said.

"Not a penny was returned to the taxpayers," Brightwell said. "In effect, the council paid for its pet projects out of the pockets of city employees."

The firefighters maintained that the first year cost for their requested raise could be paid for by transferring money back out of "pet projects" and into employee salaries. "The taxes for this firefighter raise will be less than $10 per year on a $70,000 home," Brightwell said.

Members of the firefighters group have called another news conference for 10 a.m. Wednesday. Brightwell said that conference will cover the collective bargaining issue.

SOVIET EMBASSY GROWING — In contrast to the situation at the U.S. Embassy in Tehran, where militants have seized the compound and are holding 50 Americans as hostages, the Russian Embassy is increasing its operations and expanding its facilities. southern port of Chah Bahar, killing the two army men.

In the northwestern city of Tabriz, supporters of Ayatollah Sayed Kazem Shariat-Madari imposed a virtual general strike on the city amid renewed demonstrations and protests.

About 150 stick-wielding supporters of Shariat-Madari went on a rampage across Tabriz, attacked the city's bazaar, shops and revolutionary committee headquarters, state radio reported.

The rioters, who carried posters of Shariat-Madari, burned a public service bus, smashed several cars and forced the shopkeepers to close down their businesses, the radio said. Two local offices of the revolutionary committee were set on fire, the broadcast said.

The disturbances began last week with an attempted attack on Shariat-Madari's home in the holy Moslem city of Qom near Tehran and spread to Tabriz, the ayatollah's main stronghold.

Most shops, offices and schools in Tabriz remained shut today as demonstrators paraded in the streets shouting slogans in support of Shariat-Madari, reporters in the area said.

The trouble in western Iran took a weekend toll of at least 66 dead in the Islamic Republic.

In Tehran Sunday, a small group of Afghan exiles seized their country's embassy Sunday and occupied it for nearly five hours to dramatize their protest over the Soviet military involvement in Afghanistan.

In Tabriz today, a group of the marchers gathered in front of the Tabriz office of the Moslem Peoples Republican Party, the main political group loyal to Shariat-Madari, to announce their support to the party despite the ayatollah's order to dissolve the party.

Shariat-Madari, faced with increasing pressure from the ruling Moslem clergy, announced last week he was withdrawing his support from the party which, he said, was dissolved. The central office in Tehran was seized by a Moslem group last week.

The newspaper Kayhan reported that authorities had arrested 45 persons after weekend rioting in Tabriz. It said no more than four were injured in rioting Sunday.

In a continuing crackdown on left-wing political groups, also suspected of aiding People's Republican Party protesters in West Iran, security agents arrested five members of the Marxist Fedayan Khalq guerrilla organization in the mountains north of Tehran.

The agents seized 14 rifles, two grenades and a map of Tehran Polytechnic University, the newspaper Ettelaat said.

There was no immediate explanation as to why those arrested were carrying the university map.

In the Kurdish city of Sanandaj, thousands of people continued a mass sit-in at the office of governor-general Hossein Shahveissi for the sixth day today.

But the protesters' main demand that the Islamic revolutionary guards be expelled from Kurdistan was rejected by the ruling Revolutionary Council.

The guards are the chief security force in the tense area, where they have fought Kurdish insurgents since the Islamic regime took over in February, 1979.

Shahveissi was reported to have resigned, then told by the council to stay on, as the crisis continued.

There were no injuries during the Pakistani embassy takeover and the group surrendered after consultations with a Foreign Ministry representative and after they were allowed to broadcast their demands from a loudspeaker in front of the embassy while television cameras recorded the event.

The official Pars news agency reported the deaths in fighting Sunday and said they were the result of bloody clashes between Iranians and Iraqis who crossed the border into Iran.

The worst fighting of the weekend was in the southeast port city of Bandar Lengeh, where 28 people were killed Saturday, according to casualty figures from the Pars news agency.

Analysts in Kabul confirmed the guerrillas are continuing to harass the Soviet forces with small-scale attacks under cover of darkness.

An 11 p.m. to 4 a.m. curfew remains in force and Western embassies in Kabul are advising their nationals to keep off the streets after 6 p.m.

The capital itself has been quiet since last Monday, with shops, cafes and markets doing business as usual, but with Soviet forces guarding the prime minister's building, the interior ministry, the TV and radio compound, the central post office and some key intersections in the center of the city.

Beyond the perimeter of the city, Soviet troops with tanks, heavy armored personnel carriers and heavy-duty trucks are watching all access roads.

from southern Montana with winds of 50 mph. The mercury plummeted to 30 below zero in a matter of hours.

Flights were canceled until late Sunday night at airports in Grand Forks, Bismarck and Fargo, and bus depots shut down until early today.

Snow was forecast today from northern New England across the lower Great Lakes and into the Dakotas. Rain was likely through the central Gulf Coast, the Carolinas and the Middle Atlantic states as temperatures hovered around zero along the central Canadian border.

Blizzard warnings were posted across North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan. A heavy snow warning was in effect in lower Michigan and storm warnings extended over the Great Lakes and into New York.

Winds gusted up to 114 mph as the first major storm of the decade blew into Colorado Saturday, cracking car windshields and shattering windows in Georgetown and other mountain communities.

At least two people died in Washington — one of exposure and one in a traffic accident — in a weekend cold snap that kept power companies busy as people turned up the heat to ward off temperatures in the teens.

In Maryland, where up to 9 inches of snow fell over the weekend, officials reported five deaths, including the death of a 20-month-old girl who apparently got excited at the snow and toddled outside into the freezing weather. One man was charged with murder when a shooting incident followed a snowball-throwing, police said.

And in Iowa, the resumption of classes at Iowa State University was postponed due to winter weather for just the second time in the school's history.

Mideast Summit Opens

ASWAN, Egypt (AP) — Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin arrived here today for a four-day summit with Egyptian President Anwar Sadat that is expected to focus on Soviet intervention in Afghanistan and the militant Moslem revolution in Iran.

Their talks on foreign affairs are likely to overshadow negotiations aimed at providing autonomy for the 1.2 million Palestinians on the occupied West Bank of the Jordan River and the Gaza Strip.

In the peace treaty they signed last March, Begin and Sadat committed themselves to a May deadline for arranging an autonomy plan. Eight months of negotiations have produced near-agreement on procedural issues, but have made little headway on the key question of how much home-rule the Palestinians will have.

At the start of their ninth meeting, both men appear more interested in what they see as the start of a possible Soviet thrust toward the West's Persian Gulf oil lifeline and the potential of such a move to ignite a world war.

Sadat and Begin have condemned the seizure of American hostages by Moslem militants in Tehran and the Soviet intervention in Afghanistan. In separate declarations they have offered America the use of their facilities in the event of any U.S. military action in the Persian Gulf.

The State Department quickly turned down such offers in the past so as not to inflame the Arab world, already bristling over the Israeli-Egyptian peace. But for the first time last week a spokesman said the department was studying the Israeli and Egyptian offers.

Before leaving for Aswan, Egypt's southernmost city, Begin indicated he expected Washington would take up both nations' offers of facilities.

Egyptian Defense Minister Kamal Hassan Aly denied an Israeli television report that Egypt has offered the United States use of its military bases. Aly said Egypt's aid offer consisted of refueling rights, and the use of Egyptian airspace to move American troops "sent to the defense of any Arab country" that requests them.

On the eve of the summit, Sadat announced a series of measures designed to demonstrate his reliability to the West, as well as trying to overcome Arab opposition to the peace treaty that has left Egypt an outcast in the Arab world.

He ordered the Soviet Union to pare down the side of its 40-member mission in Egypt to an unspecified bare minimum, and offered to train and arm the anti-communist Moslem militants who are fighting Soviet troops in Afghanistan.

He also called for an Islamic summit conference to arrange a concerted anti-Kremlin campaign and suggested that such a meeting be held in Cairo. However, diplomats said even the Arab moderates, such as Saudi Arabia, are unlikely to forgive Sadat and come to Cairo for talks.

"Despite their concern for the big picture, the Arabs still place great interest on the local conflict with Israel over the Palestinians," said one Western diplomat, who declined to be identified.

The summit also will allow Israel and Egypt to clear any last minute hitches in the historic establishment of full diplomatic relations between their countries, set to occur on Jan. 26.

Israeli officials in Jerusalem said privately Sunday that Israel is concerned that Sadat is not placing the same stress on the normalization of ties that Begin is. The officials reportedly were surprised by Sadat's choice of Saad Mortada as his ambassador to Israel. They noted that Mortada was not a top-ranking diplomat and has not been involved in the peace process.

Begin has chosen Eliahu Ben-Eliassir, his top personal aide and a key negotiator in the peace talks, to represent Israel in Cairo.

Begin, accompanied by his wife and daughter, will be staying at the Aswan Oberoi Hotel, on an island in the Nile River. He'll have the same presidential suite used by the Shah of Iran last January after he fled into exile.

A spokesman said the demonstration at the Cologne Cathedral recently was not meant to take sides in the conflict between Kung and the church, but to express the group's concern over conflicts in the Roman Catholic church leading to the censure.

Kung was censured by the Vatican's Sacred Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith for challenging the doctrine of papal infallibility and for questioning in his books whether Christ was the son of God and born of a virgin.

The Vatican body that ruled on Kung's case was once known as the Inquisition.

Until Kung decides whether to challenge his censure, he continues to lecture seminarians at Tuebingen University, where he has worked since 1960. But he will not grade tests, he said.

Chrysler Aid Bill Signed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Carter today signed the $3.5 billion Chrysler aid bill, a government-backed plan which officials hope will rescue the controversial automaker from the brink of bankruptcy.

The bill, which provides $1.5 billion in federal loan guarantees, was signed at an early afternoon White House ceremony.

The measure calls for stiff cash concessions from Chrysler employees and requires the auto company to raise another $1.5 billion from private sources.

United Auto Workers officials say the fate of the No. 3 automaker is now in the hands of the company's hourly workers.

After two days of talks in Detroit over the weekend, the UAW and Chrysler reached agreement on a revised contract granting $446 million in concessions to the company.

The amended pact will be presented Tuesday to the UAW's 250-member rank-and-file Chrysler Council in the crucial first step toward ratification, which UAW President Douglas Fraser hoped would be completed by the end of the month.

"I think they (workers) will realize that in realistic terms, there is no alternative," Fraser said.

The renegotiation concluded without major disagreements between the two sides, and Chrysler officials expressed satisfaction and gratitude at the result.

"We greatly appreciate the additional sacrifices our employees are making," said William M. O'Brien, Chrysler's chief negotiator. "We now have an agreement we can all live with over the next three years, and we are looking forward to the 1980s with eagerness and confidence."

Fraser said the aid figures are solid and conservative, and should withstand government scrutiny.

Oklahoma Suspect In Jail Here

A 35-year-old man, accused of killing a woman in Oklahoma City, remained in the Lubbock County Jail today after surrendering to authorities here Sunday.

Accompanied by a Lubbock attorney, Alfonso Lopez of Oklahoma City turned himself in here about 4:30 p.m. Oklahoma City police Det. R.D. Logan said Lopez was charged today with the shooting death of Debra Kay Sweigart, 22, also of Oklahoma City.

Miss Sweigart was fatally shot at her residence about 1:40 a.m. Saturday.

The dead woman's 24-year-old male companion, Jesse Carpiorch, also of Oklahoma City, was shot once in the shoulder during the Saturday morning incident, according to Logan. However, charges in connection with that shooting had not been filed by this morning, the detective added.

Logan said Lopez is a former boyfriend of Miss Sweigart's and that the shooting was the apparent result of a quarrel. The suspect allegedly entered the woman's house wielding a rifle.

It had not been determined this morning when Lopez will be returned to Oklahoma. Logan said he did not know why the suspect was in Lubbock.

Jury Panel Quizzed At Plainview Trial

PLAINVIEW (Special) — Attorneys for both sides in the long-delayed trial of two self-professed witches accused of the Halloween 1977 slaying of a 15-year-old Dimmitt girl spent nearly three hours qualifying jurors here this morning.

No jurors are expected to be seated until at least Wednesday, said prosecuting attorney Jimmy Davis, who along with defense attorneys James Doores and Travis Shelton, disqualified several of the approximately 200 potential jurors expected to be interviewed before arguments begin.

Loy and Louise Stone, avowed members of the Church of Wicca, are charged with the shooting death of Roxanne Casas, who died that Halloween night after being struck by shotgun blasts while riding in a pickup near the Stones' rural Dimmitt residence. Two others in the pickup with the girl also were injured by the gunshots that allegedly came from the Stone's farmhouse.

More than 50 witnesses are expected to appear before District Judge John T. Boyd during the trial, which attorneys are predicting will last at least two weeks.

The trial has been delayed several times in the 26 months since the incident because of trouble in locating some of those witnesses, Davis said. It was moved from Dimmitt to nearby Plainview after 15 of 16 witnesses at a change of venue hearing told a state district judge the Stones would not receive a fair trial in Dimmitt.

Unwed Parents To Get Gifts

LITCHFIELD, Ill. (UPI) — A 17-year-old unwed mother and her child are going to get the traditional gifts given the New Year's baby.

The Litchfield News-Herald, sponsor of a promotion in which the year's first baby is showered with gifts, said Teresa Cooper and her baby, Michelle Marie, will be eligible providing the father also shows up to claim the gifts today.

Miss Cooper's baby was the first born to a Litchfield girl this year, but the newspaper at first decided against honoring the baby because it was born to unwed parents.

Robert Park, the baby's father, said he and Miss Cooper will show up to collect the gifts worth about $200.

Fuel-Saving Tips Offered To Consumers

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

Brrr!
High fuel costs are making it harder to keep warm this winter, but you don't have to choose between shivering and going broke.
"In energy conservation, even little things mean a lot," says the trade and consumer protection division of the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture.
Among the "tested, no-risk, common-sense" measures the department suggests are controlling indoor temperatures, limiting air leaks and reducing heat loss through windows.

Here are some specific dos and don'ts:
— Don't heat unoccupied areas. If a particular room is seldom or never used in winter, turn off the radiator and keep the door closed. Bedrooms don't need to be kept warm during the day; turn the heat on an hour or so before you retire for the night.
— Do take advantage of the energy generated by the human body. Rooms where several people are gathered need less heat than areas occupied by only one or two individuals.
— Do turn down the setting on the thermostat if you haven't already done so. Temperatures of 65 degrees Fahrenheit during the day and 55 degrees at night are comfortable for most people, although the elderly should check with their doctors before lowering temperatures. The U.S. Department of Energy says even infants can cope with temperatures in the range of 60 to 70 degrees if they are dressed warmly and the humidity is relatively high. Each degree you lower your thermostat should cut your fuel bill by 3 percent.

— Don't forget to turn the thermostat way down when you will be away from home. "Contrary to popular opinion, warming your house back up does not use more fuel than you have saved," says the Wisconsin consumer office.

— Do consider storm windows or inexpensive plastic taped over regular windows. The air pocket created by the extra layer of glass or plastic can cut heat loss in half. Heavy, tight-fitting drapes or insulated shutters also reduce heat loss sharply, but you should make sure that windows can be opened quickly if they are needed as an emergency exit.
— Do plug leaks. Cloth or newspaper can be used to seal attic doors and to fill cracks around windows on a temporary basis. If cold air still seeps through, get some tubular gasket weather stripping at the hardware store and apply it around the edges of windows and doors.

— Do take steps to keep pipes from freezing. Wrap them in specially designed insulation tape or in layers of old newspaper, overlapping the ends. Cover the newspaper with plastic film to keep out moisture. When it is very cold, let the faucets drip a little. You'll waste water, but you may prevent freezing damage.

Reward Offered In Area Murder

Crime Line is offering a $1,000 reward for information in a Lamb County murder in which the identity of the victim remains unknown.

The body of a man law enforcement officers identified as "a Mexican male," 38-42 years old, was discovered Dec. 16 on a dirt road 2 miles south and 1 1/4 mile west of Springlake in Lamb County. The victim was 5 feet 1 inch to 5 feet 2 inches tall and weighed 110-115 pounds. He had black hair and a heavy mustache slightly gray in color.

A hunter discovered the body which had a deep wound from the chin to the breast bone and also from ear to ear. A Case three-bladed pocket knife with a black handle was in the victim's throat. An autopsy revealed the victim was dead or near death from strangulation prior to the knife slashing.
The murder victim, who has not been identified, was last seen leaving the Starr Dance Hall in Dimmitt about 12:30 a.m. Dec. 16, 1979. No identification was found on the body which was clothed in a green western shirt with a white yoke and dark Levi type pants. He was wearing brown soft leather shoes with thick rubber soles. There was a black muffler scarf with cotton lint on it near the body.

Persons with any information on the identity of the murder victim or the person or persons who committed the crime are urged to call Crime Line at 741-1000. Callers may remain anonymous.

Information leading to the arrest and indictment of the assailant or assailants in the Lamb County murder can gain the caller a $1,000 reward.

Crime Line, in operation since last April, is supported by donations. Reward amounts, which are fixed by the Crime Line board, range from $300 for a felony to $1,000 for murder.

"The results of the first eight months of Crime Line are truly outstanding, far surpassing my expectations when I founded this program," said Lubbock Mayor Dirk West.

Crime Line has averaged clearing almost three crimes per week. Since the beginning of the program, 108 persons have been arrested and charged with crimes.

Persons wishing to contribute to the Crime Line Reward Fund should mail checks, which are tax deductible, to Box 2000, Lubbock.

A $500 reward has been posted in the aggravated assault on a 12-year-old boy who was wounded while standing in a yard in the 3600-block of 55th Street. The boy told police he was talking with five other persons when a brown and white pick-up truck drove by and he heard shots fired. He was struck behind the right knee. The pick-up was last seen northbound on Memphis Avenue.

It is undetermined whether the bullet came from a pellet gun or a .22-caliber rifle. The hospital did not remove the slug from the boy's body because it was too near an artery.

A $300 reward is being offered for information in the burglary of Margaret's, 2002 Broadway, which lost 18 fur coats in the early morning break-in on Dec. 29. A witness told police he was walking in the area about 7 a.m. when he heard a loud noise like glass breaking. He then saw a black male, 25-30 years old, with a small thin build and a beard that "stuck way out" join another black male and run north to the alley behind Margaret's from the broken window on the east side of the building. The witness said the two suspects left the alley in separate cars, one described as a large black car and the other vehicle as a late model, possibly small blue or gray two-door Buick with heavy damage to the right door.

Southwest Christian Counseling Service, 2315 50th St., Suite 1, suffered a loss of $3,500 in equipment in a burglary which was reported to police at 9:30 p.m. New Year's Day. Taken in the burglary were a Sony video camera, an RCA video tape recorder, two video cassette tapes, a cassette tape recorder, a black briefcase and $20 cash. Crime Line is offering a $300 reward in the case.

A $300 reward also is being offered for information on a house burglary which netted the burglar or burglars $3,750 in clothing, jewelry and firearms. Police arrived at 2427 20th St. about 7:30 p.m. Dec. 31 and discovered that a person or persons entered the house by prying open a bedroom window on the southeast side. Taken in the burglary were a 19-inch Hitachi portable color television set, a Springfield bolt action 30.06 caliber rifle with 4X Weaver scope with a new sling and case, a single shot 410 gauge shotgun, a Norman magnum custom rifle, a 50 caliber Hawkins black powder rifle new reproduction, a men's brown leather coat size 44, a women's brown leather coat with woven leather on sleeves and a small round blue jewelry box.

Crime Line is offering a $300 reward for information leading to finding Robert Earl Smith, white male, 6 feet tall, who weighs 165 pounds and is 41 years old. Police said he is a fugitive and there is a warrant from the 72nd District Court charging him with felony theft.

Dallas Authorities Believe Sniper May Have Committed Suicide

DALLAS (AP) — A city park sniper who died in a hail of police gunfire as he drove toward a roadblock may have killed himself, officers said.

An autopsy was ordered today to determine the cause of death for Jose Angel Vargas, 29, of Dallas, described as an illegal alien by authorities.

Police spokesman Bob Shaw said Vargas began firing a .22-caliber rifle at random inside the large, busy park just south of downtown Sunday afternoon.

"He was shooting in all directions," said eyewitness Joe Christopher, who lives across the street from the park and called police with the shooting report. "It's just by the grace of God that he didn't hit somebody. There were a lot of people over there."

When police dispatchers received word of the shooting, a squad of tactical and patrol officers sped to the park and set up a command post about 100 yards from Vargas, said Shaw.

"I think the sniper fired somewhere in the neighborhood of a dozen shots after police went to the scene," Shaw said. "I don't know how many he fired before that."

Shaw said when officers established their command post, Vargas turned his rifle on them, and Christopher confirmed that account.

"The first cop that arrived pulled into the park, got out of his car and got on the speaker, telling the guy to come out," Christopher said. "The guy started shooting at him. I thought he (the officer) did a super job. He was very 'in command' of the situation."

Vargas then got in his car and drove toward the police roadblock, and tactical officer Ronnie Woods fired at him three times, Shaw said.

One bullet hit the car window, another struck Vargas in the abdomen, said Shaw. There was a third bullet in Vargas' head, but Shaw said it was not immediately known who fired it.

"He suffered a head wound, but there were powder burns on the forehead and he was holding a .38-caliber pistol in his hand," Shaw said. He said authorities had ordered an autopsy to determine whether Vargas died from a police bullet or one of his own.

Vargas' sister told investigators her brother had been in the country illegally for about three years, and said he had four children at home in Guatemala, Shaw said.

The sister, Blanca Piniagua, 27, told police she had seen Vargas earlier in the day and he appeared to be drunk or under the influence of drugs, Shaw said.

She also told officers, according to Shaw, that he had made an attempt on his life once before. Mrs. Piniagua also said Vargas worked as a machinist in the garment district downtown.

Three Suspects Arrested For Child Pornography

HOUSTON (AP) — The parents of half a dozen young boys were surprised to discover the three men who gave their children candy and took them to ball-games also paid them to pose for nude photographs, according to police.

"There could be another 100 kids involved as far as we know," said juvenile officer John Freeman, after officers questioned six boys aged 9 to 14.

Charges of indecency with a child were filed Saturday against Golden Preston Hatcher, 54; Frederick Keller, 34; and Jon J. Johansen, 64.

Bond for Hatcher and Keller was set at $35,000 apiece. Johansen, whose bond was set at $30,000, was still being sought late Sunday.

Officers said they arrested Hatcher early Saturday in his apartment, where they found photographic equipment and pictures of nude children, plus jars filled with candy, cookies and "anything a kid would like to have," according to Sgt. R.R. Benestante.

Keller was arrested about 30 minutes later as he drove into Hatcher's driveway with three boys he had taken to a wrestling match.

Benestante said the men would approach disadvantaged children, offering them entertainment their parents often could not afford, such as trips to the movies and to sporting events.

The men often received parents' permission to keep the boys overnight after taking them out, police said.

The investigation began, officers said, after a woman called police when she became worried after talking to her son.

Italian Guerrillas Slay President

PALERMO, Sicily (UPI) — Italy's urban guerrillas carried out their first assassination of the new year, gunning down the president of Sicily's regional council, the most important official killed since former Premier Aldo Moro was slain last year.

Santi Mattarella, 44, a Christian Democrat and protégé of Moro, was shot to death Sunday afternoon while returning home from church with his wife, son and daughter.

Within hours of the killing, three urban guerrilla gangs claimed responsibility for the shooting — the Red Brigades gang, which killed Moro, the ultra-leftist Front Line gang believed closely linked to the Red Brigades, and the ultra-rightist Revolutionary Fascist Squad group.

Mattarella was killed by six shots from a .38 caliber pistol fired at close range into his chest, side and head through the window of his Fiat 132 automobile.

His wife Irma, who was sitting next to him in the car, was wounded in the hand when she tried to move between the gunman and her husband. The children were unhurt.

He was the highest ranking politician killed by urban guerrillas since Moro was shot by the Red Brigades May 9, 1978 after being held hostage for 54 days.

The Sicilian regional council president also was the first victim of political violence this year. Last year, urban guerrillas killed 22 persons and wounded 83 others.

"I saw the killer come up close to the car and I knew something was about to happen," Mrs. Mattarella told reporters later. "I instinctively put my arms over Santi's head and this caused the killer to hesitate for an instant."

The Almanac TODAY IN HISTORY

By United Press International

Today is Monday, Jan. 7, the seventh day of 1980 with 359 to follow.

The moon is moving toward its last quarter.

The morning stars are Mercury, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening star is Venus.

Those born on this date are under the sign of Capricorn.

Millard Fillmore, 13th president of the United States, was born Jan. 7, 1800.

On this day in history:

In 1789, George Washington was elected as the first president of the United States.

In 1927, regular trans-Atlantic telephone service began between New York and London.

In 1972, President Nixon announced his intention to run for a second term. He overwhelmingly defeated Democratic Sen. George McGovern that November.

In 1973, a sniper was shot and killed on the roof of a New Orleans hotel after he had killed seven people and wounded 14.

A thought for the day:

"It seemed like an hour to me," she said. "I was looking into his eyes and he was hesitating. Apparently killing me wasn't in the plan."

"But then his face changed and he started to shoot. I'll never forget those eyes, just before he started shooting, and I'll never be able to forget the man who killed my husband."

Investigators said they were unsure which urban guerrilla gang killed Mattarella, but Rome dispatched a special squad of anti-terrorist investigators to Sicily to help with the inquiry.

The killing of Mattarella was the latest in a series of increasingly violent attacks in Sicily, which has been largely spared from the urban terrorism that has plagued Rome and northern Italy.

French novelist Andre Maurois said, "There are certain persons for whom pure truth is poison."

Housewife sells 'glass plate' for $40; worth $1,800

NILES, Ill. — The story of a small fortune, lost because a housewife had no idea her glass plate was a collector's item, recently came to light.

In a letter to J. R. MacArthur, chairman of the Bradford Exchange, world's largest trading center in collector's plates, a Madison, Wis., woman wrote: "I had a Lalique 1965 plate . . . which I sold to a friend for $40. I had not heard of you at that time."

The plate she sold is actually valued at more than $1,800. Although MacArthur points out that this price is exceptionally high, he said, "I'm afraid others may be losing hundreds or thousands of dollars by not knowing what their plates are worth."

To aid in identifying valuable plates, the exchange issues a report that includes current prices on more than 900 plates, guidelines on what to look for and when to buy, and the plate evaluation checklist used by the exchange.

To obtain a copy without cost or obligation, just send your name, address, and zip code before Saturday of next week to: The Bradford Exchange, Dept. A72502, 9301 Milwaukee Avenue, Niles, IL 60648. A postcard will do.

Petrochemical Diet Noted

BARTLESVILLE, Okla. (AP) — Cows, chickens and other farm animals have a diet of corn, soybeans, and other grains, called feedstocks.

The chemical industry also has a diet. It consists of petrochemicals such as ethylene and propylene, which also are called feedstocks.

Petrochemical feedstocks, derived in part from oil and natural gas, are the ingredients for plastic, rubber, pharmaceutical and other products.

"Few people realize how important they are and how little a fraction they represent in total costs of finished consumer goods," said Leo H. Johnstone, president of Phillips Chemical.

For the polyester fibers in a $17 man's shirt, the petrochemicals cost only 21 cents, he said.

Spring Crest January Sale Event Pinpoints Specific Savings

What better opportunity than the big Annual January Sale at Spring Crest Draperies to "move up to Spring Crest!" Throughout this month, really banner values prevail at Spring Crest Draperies, 5302 Ave. Q, in Briercroft Shopping Center, Lubbock, and at the Spring Crest store, under same ownership, at 2613 Yonkers in Plainview.

"Come in to either store . . . the one most convenient in your own situation, and profit by the following prices:

Specific Markdowns
During the sale, all fabrics are marked at a full 20 per cent off!
Mini blinds and woven woods are also at a big 20 per cent price reduction.
And Crestrand, the sheer alternative, is at a whopping 30 per cent markdown.

"Quite possibly you have been wanting to move up to Spring Crest, and this month's sale provides a most inviting opportunity.

"Spring Crest wants you to have the finest in drapery treatments in your home at affordable price, now and for seasons to come.

Home Owned
Ben and Brenda Powell are owners of Spring Crest in Lubbock and Plainview, and they are most appreciative of the trade and friendships they have been privileged to enjoy. Their New Year greeting includes full recognition and thankfulness for past blessings.

Free estimates are featured, in every season, at Spring Crest, and there is a full assurance that each valued customer is completely satisfied with the latest in design and workmanship that are hallmarks of Spring Crest, "the finest in the industry."

Computer-Assisted
Brenda and Ben call special attention to a new convenience . . . their use of the Compucrest, computer developed especially for Spring Crest by Texas Instruments.

Programmed for Spring Crest service, it computes the cost of an entire operation or transaction, with almost instant information. A tape immediately shows such information as hardware type, rod size, finish length, fabric cost, lining cost, rod cost, fabric widths, cut length, fabric yards, total fabric cost, installation cost, sewing cost, lining widths, lining yards, total lining costs, pleats, stacking space and total price.

Spring Crest is modern in every respect!

Hang From Steel Spring
Why is Spring Crest different?
"Actually, Spring Crest Spring-Pleated Custom Draperies are the neatest hanging draperies in the world because they actually hang from a steel spring inserted in the top hem, with no crinoline headers to get soft and fall apart. They must be seen to be thoroughly appreciated."

Furthermore, aside from their beauty and simplicity, they are competitively priced.

Spring Crest Draperies of Lubbock and Plainview stocks a complete line of drapery fabrics.

A large line of decorator rods is stocked.

Warranty Unique
There is 10-year warranty on drapery hardware.

Only three to four week delivery time is involved for the custom made drapes.

Also available are woven woods, shades, shutters, custom bedspreads and the Classique metal blinds.

Drapery hardware is stocked for the "do it yourself" trade, too, with its simplicity lending itself to ease in installation.

Crestrand, the alternative to sheers (the elusive sheer that is different and popular) is stocked. It is beautiful, unique and thoroughly different.

BankAmericard and Master Charge purchase plans are welcomed at Spring Crest.

And remember this:
"No matter what your style, Spring Crest can dress your windows better; these custom draperies add elegance to the most formal setting, but also can be the perfect finishing touch to a casual room. These unusual draperies are formed by threading a spring steel pleater through a narrow hem at top of the material. Result: a drapery that hangs beautifully with rounded, supple folds rather than the sharp, stiff edges of conventional pinch-pleated draperies."

Gunther Piano Studios Conducting Enrollment, Interviews During Week

Enrollment and interviews will be conducted throughout this week at the fantastically different Gunther Piano Studios, 4819 58th St., phone 793-1672.

Classes will begin this week, also.

The innovative group instruction for which the Gunther Piano Studios probably is best known, has gained wide acclaim, and the Fall '79 semester was most successful. Now the opportunity is afforded for the first 1980 semester, with participation including age 4 through adults. But early attention is advised as the classes are traditionally popular and enrollment is limited.

Gunther Studios are located across the street from Williams Elementary School, just three blocks east of South Plains Mall, easy to find and easy to reach.

Bonnie Apple Gunther, a Texas Tech graduate of '64, an area native (from Monahans) is more recently from Urbana, Ill., where she was assistant professor of music at the University of Illinois. As a special consultant to the national education office of Baldwin and Wurlitzer companies, Mrs. Gunther has conducted workshops and seminars in class piano at universities and public schools throughout the nation. She often is featured as a special clinician on national and state convention programs.

Electrical pianos dominate the big studio, and during piano practice, Mrs. Gunther and the children wear headphones. Switches on the piano enable the students to tune in only on their own and the teacher's piano or to listen to the entire class. The instructor can tune in or talk to any of the students when desired, and the piano can be turned to full sound or muted. Sounding boards are replaced by an electronic device.

Fun exercises, such as a giant keyboard to serve as "home base" in a catching game, are part of the comprehensive programs arranged at the Gunther Studio.

Operating on theory that children learn best when they learn with others, in a lab atmosphere and with finest lab facilities, the students grouped by age level acquire such important skills as solo performance, sight reading, transposition, harmonization and improvisation.

For All Levels
In addition to learning to play the piano, students learn here about music in general through theory study, rhythm activities and critical listening.

It is a real delight to be included in studies at the Gunther Piano Studios! Classes are available for beginners, intermediate and advanced. Special exciting pre-school classes for 4 and 5-year-old children are conducted.

Morning and afternoon classes are available, and each involve four to six students.

Pre-schoolers come for one hour, twice a week. All other classes meet once a week for an hour.

Bonnie Gunther is a member of the Lubbock Music Teachers Association, Texas Group Piano Teachers, and Music Teachers National Association. She has co-authored a series of studies used in public school labs.

Bonnie enjoys teaching. "It is fun," she emphasizes "to introduce and assist the student to new achievements and joys," and a visit to the studio will correctly convey that the student . . . from age 4 to even those above 70 . . . share in the pleasure. It is a different kind of studio, a fun laboratory, an innovative gateway to new horizons.

"This, in brief is the Gunther Studio contribution in Lubbock. For inclusion in its program, immediate inquiry and arrangements are well advised.

Village Craft Corner Announces Impressive Classes, Workshops

Village Craft Corner in South Plains Mall comes through in 1980 again with a most impressive class schedule and with instructors of note. Possessing an enviable record of superior workshops, art and craft classes, the impending schedule appears even greater, with the selection of instructors, courses and merchandise inviting full consideration.

Classes Start Immediately
Classes begin next Monday, Jan. 14. Immediate inquiry and enrollment therefore is necessary to be included in the class of one's choice.

Included among instructors are Mary Stewart, Georgia Bartlett, Barbara Bilberry, Mac Carow, Jean Green, Barbara Lindner, Sally Wax, J.D. Keel and Bill Huffaker.

Special workshops will be conducted by the highly-renowned Danny Gamble (workshop on Feb. 25 through Feb. 29) and Paul Wylie (workshop during that same week).

These hand-picked instructors hardly need introduction, do they?

A resume of classes follows below, but full details should be sought this week at the Village Craft Corner, in South Plains Mall, phone (806) 797-2114. Don't be left out of your desired class or workshop.

Schedule Posted
Beginning dates of the classes are listed, together with hours and instructor:
Monday, Jan. 14: Beginning Oil Painting, Barbara Bilberry, 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. Oil Painting, Mac Carow, 6 p.m. until 9 p.m.; Beginning Tole Painting, Barbara Bilberry, 6:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.
Tuesday, Jan. 15: Oil Painting, Mac Carow, 10 a.m. until 1 p.m.; Beginning Tole, Barbara Bilberry, 10 a.m. until 12 noon; Mini Painting, Barbara Bilberry, 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. and another class at 6:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.

Wednesday, Jan. 16: Oil Painting, J.D. Keel, 10 a.m. until 1 p.m.; Dough Art, Barbara Lindner, 10 a.m. until 1 p.m.; Watercolors, J.D. Keel, 2 p.m. until 5 p.m.; Oil Painting, J.D. Keel, 6 p.m. until 9 p.m.; and Watercolors, Sally Wax, 6 p.m. until 9 p.m.

Thursday, Jan. 17: Beginning Tole Painting, Mary Stewart, 10 a.m. until 12 noon; Oil Painting, Jean Green, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., and another class 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.; Portraits (pastels or oils), Mac Carow, 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.; and Dough Art, Barbara Lindner, 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Friday, Jan. 18: Portraits (pastels or oils), Mac Carow, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.; and ART CLASSES BEGINNING — Joyce Gilbert of Village Craft Corner calls attention here to artwork by some of the highly qualified instructors scheduled to conduct classes at the South Plains Mall location beginning within a few days. Check the accompanying story for specifics.

Watercolors, Sally Wax, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Saturday all-day workshops, conducted one per month by each following instructor, will include Oil Painting by Georgia Bartlett (first class Jan. 12); and Oil Painting, Bill Huffaker (first class Jan. 19).
"Wouldn't you say Village Craft Corner has outdone itself?"
Aside from instruction, Village Craft excels in supplies, picture frames, "how to" books, art supplies, craft needs and all.

Jack Faulks Auctioneers Professional Staff Holds Sales Of All Types Items

"A properly conducted and advertised auction assures a fair market price for the seller because of competitive public bidding."
Jack Faulks Auctioneers, located at 2414 Oberlin (just off North University Avenue, four blocks south of Loop 289) is a professional auction team with 22 years experience conducting all types of auctions.

Its experienced personnel assist the seller in arranging, allotting and tagging each piece of merchandise that is to be sold at auction. An attractive and orderly arrangement of merchandise or equipment benefits the seller by providing a better opportunity for the buyer to inspect and appraise each piece, therefore bringing a better price at the auction.

Selling the "auction way" provides many benefits that other types of selling does not offer the seller, Jack Faulks points out.
"First of all, transactions are made by cash; there is no better or faster way to turn your assets into cash than by public auction." Also, Jack Faulks Auctioneers' personnel are thoroughly knowledgeable in state sales tax laws. Sales tax is collected by Jack Faulks Auctioneers for the auctions they conduct.

Versatile Service
Secondly, auctions provide a means to sell any type merchandise or real estate. An auction can be held for an individual wanting to turn his personal property or real estate into cash. Auctions are excel-

Mahon Martinizing Cleaners Welcomes Problem Garments

"Is it new or was it Martinized?" This is an understandable query when one's clothes look their best!

And it is a question that might be asked at especially frequent intervals now just after the Christmas season when new clothes were one of the major items given.

(Incidentally, if you received quality garments for Christmas, don't you think only the best in dry cleaning care is merited? Then, there is this assurance: the finest service is available at a Mahon Martinizing Cleaners easily accessible to you, no matter your Lubbock address.)

The same great services are available at each of the plants . . . at 49th Street and Knoxville Avenue where Sam Caddell is manager, at 3322 83rd St. (one block east of Indiana on 83rd) with Scott Rickman managing, or at the 30th & Slide unit managed by Johnnie Bates.

Suede Cleaning
 It is emphasized that the Mahon Martinizing Cleaners are equipped to handle the special situation needs . . . such as cleaning of fine leathers, suedes, cashmere coats, delicate fabrics, camel hair garments, the expensive problem garments, ultra suedes, manmade furs, etc., all cleaned superbly in the local Martinizing plants.

For cleaning of these materials, and for bonded fabrics, knits, most plastics, fur-lined and fur-trimmed garments and even jeweled apparel and pile coats, one can entrust the job with confidence to the nearest Mahon Martinizing Cleaners owned by Gordon Mahon.

Valclene Process
 With post-holiday demands on the wardrobe, with back-to-the-classroom situations for many, with the promise of more adverse weather, and with the new materials popular this season, expert cleaning attention is advised. These materials deserve no less than the gentleness and other advantages of Valclene drycleaning. (If you have a problem garment, ask your cleaner to Valclene!)

Added Convenience
 Check these among the other Mahon Martinizing advantages:

Cleaning brought in before 11 a.m. Saturdays can be picked up the same day before closing at 3 p.m.!

One likely has recognized that one-day cleaning service is available throughout the week, but the added Saturday convenience may not have been realized . . . and all this considerate service is at no extra charge. College students, other students and traveling men seem especially appreciative of this convenience.

Pillow cleaning is a very important and specialized service, whether foam rubber or feather bed pillows.

In the pillow cleaning process, all feathers are removed from ticking and the contents are individually sanitized. Repluffed and clean, they are put into new ticking, returned soft and buoyant as new.

Ozone gas is utilized in deodorizing the feathers. New ticking plus added feathers as desired are part of the finished operation. (You get your own feathers back, with added ones as asked.) A choice of ticking in coloring and patterns is available, with all guaranteed fast color 100 per cent new cotton that is feather-proof and down-proof.

Each Martinizing facility here serves as a pick-up station for laundry, too.

Drive-in window service is afforded at each of the locations.

Maxey Improvement Center Cites Customer Benefits, Sends Greetings

Maxey Home Improvement Center, 120 N. University Ave., is proud year after year to serve area needs for the do-it-yourself handyman, the homebuilder and the contractor alike, understanding the preferences of each, and stocking accordingly.

"We are most grateful for the trade accorded us in the year just past, and we wish each of you the best that 1980 can hold; we hope to have a measurable part in your achievements, stressing service, quality products and pricing to please."

Maxey Home Improvement Center, remember, is the home of the famous Benjamin Moore Paints, Genie automatic garage door openers, finest in storm doors, and many, many other products recognized for quality features.

With savings in every department, and with a selection in which it takes pride, Maxey Home Improvement Center works hard in justifying its name as an improvement center. It seems it has been most successful in this goal and continuing effort.

Whatever the painting need, for inside, outside, enamels, exterior stains, varnishes, etc., Maxey feels it has a really outstanding offering.

With the large stock of paints now presented, Maxey emphasizes that whatever the color, it can be secured now; custom mixing enables over 1,000 colors.

For new beauty, luster, resistance to blistering, alkali and fumes, Benjamin Moore comes through. Whether selection is from MooreGlo latex house and trim paint, MooreGard vinyl-acrylic, exterior paint for wood siding, trim, shakes and shingles, even unglazed brick and asbestos shingles, stucco, cement and cinder blocks, or from Moore's Impervo high-gloss enamel, with its bold, bright, durable, wet-look finish, one cannot go wrong with Benjamin Moore.

"Be our guest at Maxey Home Improvement Center and look before you buy."

Maxey is a "family type of place" in which to shop, select and purchase; with a record of satisfaction.

Look at some of the other Maxey features:

"Have you discovered the beauty and utility of Amerock decorative hardware?"

"And have you realized that Maxey Home Improvement Center includes a huge Amerock display and stock among its many products for the home?"

For fine decorative hardware, whether the item is an entry lock, towel bars, switch plates, and more, the Amerock collection of Maxey Home Improvement Center, 120 N. University Ave., phone 765-7736, is most impressive.

Not only is there a wide variety at the Maxey firm, but prices are kept in line throughout the stock, with specials arranged whenever possible to further assist.

There are very good buys on water heaters, bathtubs, marble top vanities, faucets, light fixtures, paint, etc.

And some may not realize that the Maxey Home Improvement Center stocks a good assortment of hand tools, both in sets and individual pieces, for auto repair.

Genie Recommended

Genie automatic garage door openers are featured by Maxey, and one is invited to come in and learn all the details of why a Genie "should be in your immediate future."

"Happy New Year!"

Alamo Beauty Salon Announces Specials Until Valentine Day

"Best wishes for a happy and successful 1980 from the entire staff at Alamo Beauty Salon, 5023 Ave. H in Lubbock."

'A Staff You Know'

Specials Posted

The invitation is to begin the new year with a new precision haircut and style from the Alamo for $12, or for a curly look. A uniform will be on special for $20 on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays only until Valentine Day, Feb. 14.

"We also have the Helene Curtis foam perm for $35; men's haircut and style for $8. We also give men's design perms. Manicures are $4; plain shampoo and set, $6; ear piercing the painless way, at $10 including gold studs."

The Alamo Beauty Salon has a full line of Redken, Jhirmack, KMS and Moisture Quotient beauty products.

Curling irons are $11.95, and there also is a large selection of sleep nets, rain caps and scarves.

Frances and Jimmy Bilbrey, owners at the Alamo, would like to invite all their new and old friends and customers in for a friendly chat and a cup of coffee anytime after 7 a.m., Mondays through Saturdays, at 5023 Ave. H.

Call Wanda for appointments, at 744-2588 or 744-7296.

Dura' Bilt Portable Buildings Sets One-Week Special Pricing

It is "First of the Year Savings Time" at Dura' Bilt Portable Buildings, 6415 Ave. H, just south of the Tahoka traffic circle in south Lubbock, phone 745-2891!

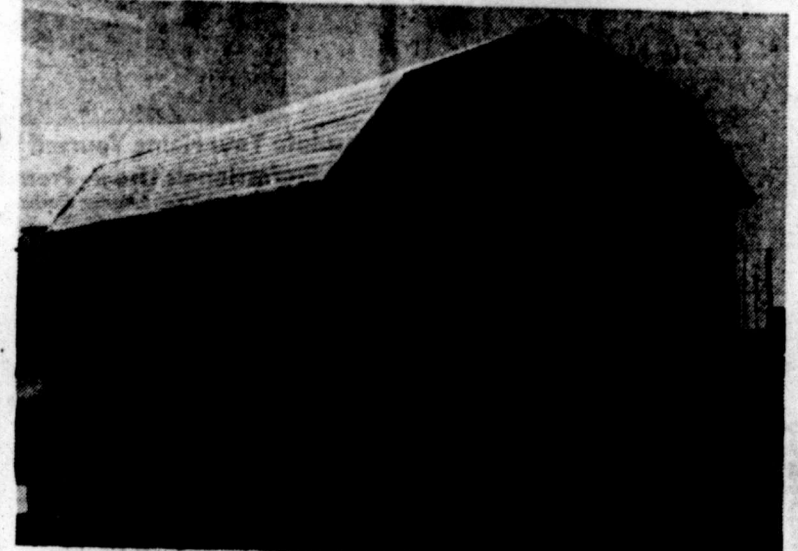

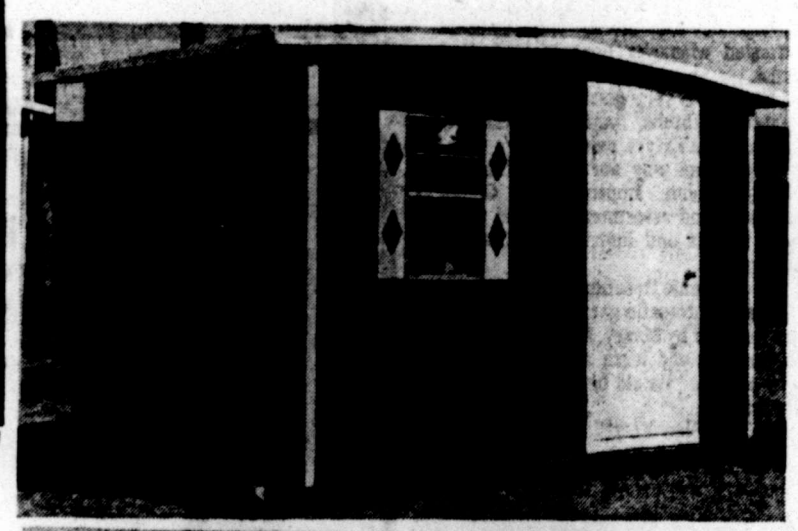

This means that every one of the more than 35 buildings on the lot is marked today through Jan. 14 at 10 per cent to 15 per cent off regular price. It is a special "one week" opportunity and is Dura' Bilt's way of saying "we have appreciated your business in the past year and want to save for you again in 1980."

The sale takes on added significance when it is recognized that Dura' Bilt's prices already are low (tomorrow's buildings at yesterday's prices).

So... check the selection of units in stock, from size 6 x 8 to 12 x 24, note the quality and versatility, and Dura' Bilt surely will be your choice. Early attention is advised to be sure of full selection while at sale pricing.

VERSATILE, PRACTICAL... AND ON SALE — The pictured units are among those on the Dura' Bilt lot marked this week at reduced prices.

"Dura' Bilt Portable Buildings are manufactured locally to better serve you. Whether the need is an office, garage, barn, backyard storage, well house, warehouse, concession stand, hobby shop or a mobile-home add-on, as example, Dura' Bilt can be the economical and practical answer.

(With today's housing costs, and with many living in mobil homes, wouldn't an add-on to that mobil home make sense?)

Features of Dura' Bilt buildings include pre-finish masonry exterior that requires no paint or maintenance; it is of best quality and available in various colors.

Strong steel roofing guards against hail.

Exterior grade plywood flooring is utilized, with floor joists on 16-inch center to assure further quality.

Baked-on enamel aluminum trim in lovely colors is another feature.

And rubber closures in the eaves to guard against dust.

Custom Units, Too

Custom design to the customer's specifications is one of the services at Dura' Bilt, and many "extras" can be added to standard buildings to assure a unit that meets one's needs and preferences.

All lumber is top grade, No. 2 or better (no sap problem here to cause twisted studs).

Bank rate financing is available.

Dura' Bilt delivers the units and emphasizes that no expensive site preparation is needed.

Another service some may not realize is afforded at Dura' Bilt is moving of portable buildings.

"We hope you'll come to see us during the one-week sale; but you are welcome at any time; come by and browse, even when 'just looking!'"

PLEASURE IN ART, CRAFT PURSUITS IS AS NEAR AS MRS. B'S

Three-Day Sale, Instruction Scheduling Told At Mrs. B's

"Don't be left out!" We are speaking of (1) the most impressive schedule of oil canvas and toile painting instruction during forthcoming weeks at Mrs. B's Arts, Crafts & Gifts, and of (2) the 3-Day Specials, today, Tuesday and Wednesday, involving many items in the large and unique shop.

Sale items for the three days at Mrs. B's, 5106 29th Drive, phone 797-5850, include:

- All books at 10 per cent off;
- Numerous items at 10 per cent to 30 per cent price reduction.
- Frames are still at 25 per cent off, too.

Select from these and other sale items: the stock and the savings are most impressive.

Classes Beginning
Enrollment is underway for the sought-after classes beginning the week of Jan. 21, just a few days away.

"Pee Wee" Lanier
Canvas oil classes will be conducted by the popular and talented Frankie "Pee Wee" Lanier who will be offering both day and evening schedules in landscapes and florals.

Sarah Storrs
Toile classes, also offered on both a day and evening schedule, begin Jan. 21 under direction of Sarah Storrs, well-known and outstanding artist in this specialty.

Jo Daugherty
Jo Daugherty, long acclaimed locally for her expertise, will conduct one-day workshops Monday, Jan. 21 and again Jan. 28 in palette knife flowers.

Karen Sherman
A new member of the instructor staff at Mrs. B's is Karen Sherman, recently of Boulder, Colo., but now of Lubbock. Karen has taught Toile in Denver and in Longmont, and has studied from master toile teachers Pat Wakefield and Kay Baranowski. She will conduct both beginner and intermediate classes, on a Tuesday and Wednesday schedule from 9 a.m. until 12 noon, with this schedule commencing Jan. 22 and Jan. 23.

Charles Lyles
Charles Lyles, highly regarded artist and instructor from Hereford, has been secured again for special workshops, with the first one-day workshop set Jan. 26. Limited-edition prints of Lyles' works are available at Mrs. B's.

Other workshops and instructors will be scheduled from time to time, so watch for announcements or check regularly with Mrs. B's where something new always is in stock and in store for happy crafts and art pursuits.

Don't overlook the fact that advance registration is necessary for classes and workshops; get your name in now!

What an outstanding Winter '80 season is arranged at Mrs. B's Arts, Crafts & Gifts, including the finest instruction and new merchandise that is in abundance and even outstanding at the shop recognized for the new and different!

All materials necessary in any of the classes are stocked.

A very good frame selection is maintained, together with intriguing wood shapes for toile paintings.

Weekly there are new arrivals throughout the shop, and frequent visits are invited and advised to stay abreast of all that is new.

Everything at Mrs. B's, owned and actively operated by Margie Berryhill, says "welcome" and "a great new year for all!"

Quilt Shop Tells Instructor Staff, Comprehensive Classes To Begin Year

A most interesting new instruction schedule at The Quilt Shop, 2253 34th St., has been announced to commence this month.

Sharon Newman, long-time Lubbock resident recognized for her seamstress expertise, including instruction, opened The Quilt Shop just a year ago, and customer appreciation has been most heart-warming.

Not only is the stock and custom services unique and comprehensive, but the new classes are believed to be the most valuable yet.

Qualified Instructors
Scheduled among instructors are Sharon, Jackie Reis, Elaine Jebson, Margaret Jordan and Donnie Little.

The impending classes (with early registration urged due to limited number accommodated in each class) include:

Beginner Tote Bag class, Jackie Reis instructing, daytime classes starting Jan. 10, evening sessions beginning April 14; involving basics-patchwork, applique and how to quilt.

Pillow class, Margaret Jordan teaching, beginning Tuesday evening, Jan. 29.

Quilt-as-You-Go, Elaine Jebson teaching, starting Thursday evening, Jan. 17, involving pattern piecing and how to choose a quilting design, quilt, join squares and border while constructing a wall hanging in this block-by-block method.

Mini-Sampler, Jackie Reis, day classes beginning Jan. 15, choosing patterns for crib quilt or wallhanging.

Machine Piecing, Jackie Reis, day class starting Jan. 15, learning techniques of design, yardage estimation, pattern drafting and piecing shortcuts for machine sewing a quilt top.

Machine Applique, Margaret Jordan, classes beginning Jan. 30 and Feb. 29, learn to stitch professional machine applique while sewing The Quilt Shop's exclusive butterfly block.

Sampler: Jackie Reis, beginning Jan.

12, Jan. 14 and Mar. 6, sewing a quilt top with a variety of patterns and techniques.

Trapunto, Elaine Jebson, starting Feb. 1, March 29, learning this decorative raised quilting form by choosing and completing a design for a sample square.

How to Quilt: Jackie Reis, Jan. 23, Feb. 21, techniques of putting on quilting designs, putting together the layers, and stitching.

Cathedral Window: Donnie Little, one session, Feb. 13.

Stained Glass, Sharon Newman, one day, Feb. 22, a new class on Roberta Horton's beautiful technique as seen in Quilters Newsletter.

Full details regarding class duration, costs, times, materials, etc. are available from The Quilt Shop, 2253 34th St., phone (806) 762-2822.

"Aside from the classes, won't you come in and see just how very much The Quilt Shop has to offer in merchandise just not found anywhere and any day!"

ARCADIA STONE FOR BEAUTY, VERSATILITY

Arcadia Stone Now In South Lubbock, In All-New Facility

"Did you realize that Arcadia Stone in Lubbock late last year moved to a new home?"

Arcadia Stone Co., Inc., long at 1922 Ave. E., is now in big new facilities at 327 E. 74th St., just off the Loop 289 access road in southeast Lubbock; phone 745-6328.

"We at Arcadia Stone, in our new home, invite your visits, inquiries and inspection, and most of all, wish you a Happy New Year... all year long!" Most likely you have observed and admired the use of Arcadia Stone in homes, businesses, yards or institutions in your neighborhood or community, wherever you live within the South Plains area. We would consider it a privilege to give a free estimate in your own situation.

For a truly beautiful and functional fireplace, for stone work to modernize an existing home or business, to be utilized in expansion or new construction, commercially or for the home, Arcadia Stone is the firm to know, again in 1980.

"Individuals and contractors alike, throughout the region, have voiced enthusiasm for Arcadia Stone. This is no surprise, for after all, can you imagine a lightweight and durable man-made stone at a fraction of the cost of some other materials, and available in seven decorator colors?"

Full details of the product and services are available at the home-owned and home-operated Arcadia Stone Co., Inc.

Arcadia stone has been used for exceptional beauty and warmth in numerous area situations... commercial and residential. It can be used wherever stone or masonry veneer is desired. It can be used to veneer complete homes or to enhance the quality of one's present residence.

Arcadia Stone is an enduring investment, whether for attractive fireplaces, for beautiful wall and floor tiles, for stepping stones, even the very popular exterior use on metal buildings. (Or interior walls for offices, as another practical and functionally-beautiful usage.)

Arcadia Stone is ideal for other interior ornamental work such as walls, arches, columns and planters; it affords the attractive way to add a distinctive new look to the home's interior.

The Lubbock firm has its own installation crews, or one can purchase the stone for "do-it-yourself" projects.

Adaptable for either inside or exterior use, Arcadia Stone is flexible; it can be used on any sound surface including metal, wood, block and even sheetrock. It can add architectural beauty to shopping centers, commercial and professional buildings.

Maybe it is an entryway, a bath or a kitchen... or exterior landscaping and fences... whatever the situation, Arcadia Stone is an attractive accent.

"And don't forget our new address and phone number, 327 E. 74th St., phone 745-6328."

Budget Rent A Car's Airport Valet Parking Aids Traveler

Yes, one can park his or her vehicle at Budget Rent A Car, 1701 N. Quirt, at cost of only $1 per day, when taking advantage of the free valet service provided right to the airport (with Budget Rent A Car servicing all flights, early and late!)

(Many also find it advantageous for the folks at Budget Rent A Car to service the vehicle while it is there.)

Budget Rent A Car of Lubbock, 1701 N. Quirt Ave., not only operates from all-new facilities said to be the most modern in the area, but it provides likely a much greater scope of services than some may have realized.

You don't have to be in need of rental units to be served at this complete Enco service center where there's even a big used car lot.

As for the rental part of the business, the owner emphasizes, that "we save you money," inviting comparison of the low rates afforded on current model GM and other fine cars of all sizes.

Valet parking is one of the much-appreciated services, with Budget Rent A Car enabling one to leave a personal car there, with a firm representative taking the driver and occupants right to the airport, affording the same service upon return trip! Thus there are no long walks from parking areas: the customer is taken right to the airport doorway.

A full-service station is provided, open six days a week.

Rentals are available every day. Some 70 to 80 cars are kept in the rental fleet at most times, right here in Lubbock.

(There is no drop charge for cars dropped in Amarillo.)

Budget Rent A Car of Lubbock (a budget Rent A Car System licensee) opened in September '78.

Don Crow Chevrolet Continues Special Oil-Lube Price Offer

"We believe it is generally known that the Don Crow Chevrolet, Inc., Service Department is really something special; otherwise, we just wouldn't be having the trade that we enjoy!"

Jess Nichols, service manager of the Don Crow firm at Slide Road at South Loop 289, joins with the entire firm in expressing appreciation for the confidence and trade accorded this department, and as a graphic gesture of this appreciation makes the following announcement:

Special Low Price
"We are extending our offer of an oil and lube job just $9.95! Yes, just $9.95, and this includes up to five quarts of Quaker State HD 30 oil, AC filter, and grease!"

"Of course, we welcome your business throughout the department, but we are listing this good price as indicative of the customer-considering operations at Don Crow Chevrolet."

And Don Crow still has some of those sought-after Target engines, with the 350 Target engine priced at just $995, including installation, intake gasket set and labor for Chevrolet passenger cars and light duty pickups. Cost for heavy duty trucks understandably is slightly more.

From the service manager to the service advisors and technicians (including five master technicians) at Don Crow Chevrolet, Inc., all take pride in the ultimate in customer service at a price that can be lived with.

"And don't forget Don Crow Chevrolet's invitation to compare costs; we are glad to show you the posted hourly rates and allotted Chevrolet factory time for any job, eliminating any confusion. We are aboveboard in all dealings."

Don Crow believes that it pays you to know all the facts; it pays to know and trust Don Crow Chevrolet!

"When you consider our honesty in dealing, the dedication of a professional staff with true know-how, our reputation for saving for you in dollars and cents, then why consider anything less than Don Crow Chevrolet for your every auto repair need?"

All service work is guaranteed 90 days or 4,000 miles on all General Motors parts and accessories.

More than a dozen technicians and three service advisors are on the job.

Tuftwick Carpet's Early-Year Clearance Affords Opportunity

"Surely you have heard... but if possibly you have not, let us save you money by reminding: Tuftwick's January Clearance is underway, with rock-bottom prices posted throughout the stock in the big Lubbock store.

"Don't delay... come to Tuftwick Carpet, at Brownfield Highway and Slide Road in Lubbock, and select during the sale. You'll readily recognize the quality and the selection that sets Tuftwick apart; and Hal, Arvel, Nancy and Beth will be glad to assist in any manner possible; they know carpet, and they know that satisfied customers are the biggest asset a firm can have.

"Tuftwick wants to serve you now and throughout 1980 just as they have in years past, and they believe this sale kicking off the new year is the most practical way of proving their desire to serve best."

Whatever the selection in the very large stock, including full rolls, short rolls and remnants, one can save by purchasing from Tuftwick during this meaningful sale.

"Tuftwick takes pride in selling at $3 to $5 per yard under suggested retail, no matter the selection, no matter if just arrived in stock!"

Treated For Static
One must surely see the new rolls arriving, from such famous mills as Lees, Milliken, Philadelphia and Horizon. Seldom has there been such a variety of fabrics and colors and patterns. All the new fabrics received by Tuftwick are treated for static and soiling, with either Scotchgard or Teflon.

A really great selection of Antron (the best Dupont nylon) is noted.

Remember, the new carpet arrivals are being introduced at sale prices! So don't delay in selection, comparison and purchase.

With the quality of workmanship, with fine materials and beautiful new patterns, more for the money in carpet is provided than ever before, the folks at Tuftwick welcome opportunity to explain and prove.

Also, of prime interest at this time, is recognition that carpet is a great energy saver, a definite instrument in insulation. (And energy savings mean dollar savings.)

Furthermore, at Tuftwick, expert installation is assured.
All labor is guaranteed.

"Longtime recognition of Tuftwick Carpet, Inc. as a headquarters for attractive pricing, utmost in value, and always a wide selection is a matter of general knowledge.

"But in appreciating Tuftwick for its inflation-fighting prices, have you realized that this big firm at Slide Road and Brownfield Highway in Lubbock includes the most elegant wool carpets, even custom made for your own situation, along with its wide choices in other materials and grades?"

Finest 100 per cent wool carpet from Philadelphia Carpets, even in custom colors, is available at Tuftwick... so "let us custom make your carpet" is no idle claim there.

"Seriously, if you can't find the color you need, as example, consider custom carpet manufactured especially for you.

"Imagine... the exact color or any imaginable color, from the softest, most delicate color of your favorite rose to the deep rich auburn shade of your Irish setter!

Building Supply Center, On West 34th, Serving Handyman Or Contractor Alike

"Are you among those who found in 1979 that Building Supply Center, Inc., 5238 34th St., seemed to be stocked especially for your particular needs?"

After its establishment in April, Building Supply Center gained wide popularity from contractors, homebuilders and the home handyman alike. And when you stock and serve to meet the needs of each, you must be doing things about right!

Greetings Expressed
"At this time we want to express our deep appreciation for the friendships and the trade that has made our present stature possible, and we pledge all efforts to serving you in the new year to the best of our ability. With demands upon the pocketbook at every hand for the consumer, we emphasize that we are re-doubling our efforts to provide quality materials at lowest practical prices in the new year."

Whether the need is selection from a full stock of paint, plumbing supplies, electrical materials, even an increased line of hardware and tools, Building Supply Center comes through strong.

Not only are southwest Lubbock residents and builders fortunate in having this home-owned and home-operated firm in its area, but folks throughout the region turn to this complete building supply company.

Veterans In Business
Billy Morris, longtime Lubbock resident in the paint and related businesses for over 30 years, is president of the corporation that bought the Murray-Wright Lumber business formerly at the 5238 34th Street address, changing its name and expanding the stock for the April opening. Virgil Murray of the former firm remains as a stockholder of Building Supply Center.

Lyle Avey, recognized for his hardware and lumber knowledge and wide experience, is general manager.

Building Supply Center stocks Jones-Blair and TCI paints, plus the good hardware selection, glass, lumber, roofing, hand tools and more.

Building Supply Center, Inc., 5238 34th St., just a short distance west of Slide Road, pledges again in 1980 to remain foremost in the things that count... customer consideration, good stock of quality merchandise, and prices that can ease entry into the '80's. May we have the opportunity of proving our capability to you as a valued customer?

CUSTOMER-ORIENTED SERVICE — Billy Morris, left, is president of the home-owned Building Supply Center, and Lyle Avey, right, is general manager of the firm established back in April. Long in related businesses they each benefit the customer with experience, interest in personal assistance and in stocking the right products at sensible price.

WOOLCO, FOR VALUES IN TYPEWRITERS

Office Furniture, At Woolco's Low Pricing, Can Save In '80

"Had you realized that a wide selection of office furniture is stocked at Woolco . . . and at low Woolco prices?"

"Yes, you can turn to Woolco for your office supply needs, just as you have relied upon its other departments, saving appreciably in 1980.

Quality is the watchword throughout, but still with those low Woolco prices.

File Cabinets

At present, special attention is directed to the two-drawer and four-drawer filing cabinets, locking or non-locking, and with matching desks.

Desks are stocked in three sizes and in three colors from which to choose.

There are security chests, desk organizers, bond boxes, letter files, etc.

Even typewriters and calculators. The new "ball" typewriters are stocked at very competitive prices; select from electric typewriters with the convenient cartridge system; and a wide variety of calculators including both desk and pocket units.

Woolco always has a good selection of stationery needs, tax ledgers, appointment books, expanding files, business calendars and daily aids and appointment calendars.

For stationery and office furniture, Woolco again proves that "we want to be your favorite store."

City Man Reports Attack For Denying Use Of Car

Two men allegedly pulled a cast off the arm of a 29-year-old Lubbock man about 1:45 a.m. today after they were refused the use of the victim's car in front of a convenience store at 50th Street and Avenue D.

George Castro of 4603 54th St. said the men confronted him and asked to borrow his vehicle as he was about to drive away from the store.

After he refused to hand over his car, the pair began beating Castro and pulled off the cast, according to reports. Castro, who was treated and released at Methodist Hospital, had undergone surgery on his wrist about three weeks ago.

After the assault, the men ran north behind the store. Castro drove to his employer's house and was then taken to the hospital.

Both assailants were described as tall, muscular black men between 18 and 25. One man was wearing a white shirt, the other a plaid shirt, and both were clad in blue pants, according to reports.

In other activity, police early today continued to look for the bandit who made off with $111 from the Dunkin' Donuts store at 317 N. University Ave. about 7 p.m. Sunday.

Store attendant Joanne Denise Worcester, 23, told police the suspect entered the business, displayed a blue-steel, automatic revolver and said to her, "Lady, I want your money. Act like this is not a robbery and you won't get hurt."

The clerk said she emptied the cash from two registers into a paper sack and then was escorted into a back office where the bandit threatened, "If you stick your head out, you will get shot."

Reports indicate the bandit fled out a back exit and the attendant stayed in the office until she heard a customer come in.

The suspect was described as a short Mexican-American about 19 years old, wearing a yellow leisure suit and sunglasses.

A 14-year-old Lubbock boy told police he was assaulted by four young white men about 8:30 p.m. Sunday in the 500-block of East 5th Street after they accused him of flirting with one of their girlfriends.

The youth said when one of the four pulled a knife, he then displayed a weapon and was jumped by the knife-wielding man's three companions. The teen-ager was treated at a local hospital for a swollen nose and multiple abrasions and released.

The suspects were described as four white men between 18 and 25.

Two brothers, ages 19 and 22, were arrested about 12:20 a.m. today after an off-duty policeman spotted them allegedly stealing lumber from a construction site in the 1600-block of Norfolk Avenue.

The officer said he placed the men in custody after watching them load lumber into their pickup truck.

A Lubbock woman, naked except for a bathroom mat wrapped around her, told city police a man disrobed her in a motel room about 10:45 p.m. Sunday.

The complainant said she locked herself in a bathroom, climbed out a window at the motel, located in the 800-block of 34th Street, and ran to a nearby grocery store where she called police.

The woman said the man did not sexually assault her.

Deborah D. Leonard of 5211 92nd St. said she lost more than $1,500 in property after her suitcase, containing clothes and jewelry, was stolen from the baggage claim area at the Lubbock International Airport shortly after 3 p.m. Sunday.

A 22-year-old Lubbock woman said a man she had been living with several weeks became enraged Sunday after she told him to move out and damaged her television set and furniture, resulting in about a $1,450 loss.

Richard D. Hurt of 2714 Third St. said his house was burglarized between Friday and Sunday night and $1,900 in property stolen, including stereo equipment and tools.

An apartment at 2217 57th St. shared by Joe Niel Clement, David Specter and Mark Sheen, reportedly was burglarized between 1 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Sunday, resulting in about a $2,000 loss, including stolen stereo equipment and shotguns.

Texas Tech student Scott Alan Henderson of 1001 University Ave., Apt. 328B, said he returned home from Christmas vacation about 7:30 p.m. Sunday to find his residence burglarized and $1,000 in property missing, including a television set and stereo equipment.

Police investigated numerous assaults involving city and area residents during the weekend's criminal activity.

A 30-year-old Lubbock woman told police that a man socked her in the face and then threatened to stab her in an incident about 4:55 a.m. Sunday at a parking lot near the intersection of Parkway Drive and Quirt Avenue.

The victim said that she had just left a nearby club and was sitting in her car when the suspect walked up, asked her to roll down the window and assaulted her.

Reports show that two men approached and told the suspect to leave the woman alone, and that the suspect grabbed the woman's car keys and fled the scene.

The suspect was described as black, 25 to 35, thin and of medium height and was wearing a red shirt and white pants.

A 49-year-old woman was in serious condition Sunday at West Texas Hospital with injuries she suffered during an assault at her East Lubbock home about 4 a.m. Sunday.

The woman said that when she told her husband to let her sleep, he left the house, came back with a pipe and began beating her. The victim said she ran to a relative's home, and a few hours later, she sought treatment at West Texas Hospital.

A 54-year-old man was treated and later released from Health Sciences Center Hospital Sunday for a gunshot wound to the leg he sustained during a domestic dispute at his south Lubbock home Sunday morning.

The victim told police that he and his wife had been arguing and that she picked up a .22-caliber pistol and shot him in the leg.

The man said that he and his wife resolved their differences, and he went to bed. Reports indicate the woman later called some friends of her husband, and they took him to HSC.

A Brownfield man was treated and later released from University Hospital Sunday for a stab wound to his side that he suffered about 1:30 a.m. Sunday in an assault at the rear of a club in the 1700-block of Fourth Street.

The victim, Nabor Castro, 20, told police that he and two friends were leaving the club when two men jumped him. Castro said that one of the suspects struck him in the face, and that the second suspect stabbed him in the side. The victim said that two other men then began beating him.

Reports show that Castro's friends ran from the scene but when they heard Castro yelling for help, they returned and took the victim to their truck. When the pickup truck drove off, the suspects reportedly fired at it.

The suspects were described as Mexican-American, and 18-to-25-years-old.

An 18-year-old Lubbock youth was treated and later released from HSC Sunday for injuries he suffered in an assault late Saturday at the party house at Mackenzie State Park.

Michiel Sosa of 2110 Colgate St. reported that he was kicked and hit by about 15 youths after he told them that the party was over. When several persons approached Sosa, reports show the suspects fled in a brown Torino and a white Ford van which had red stripes along the sides.

The victim could not describe his attackers.

Gary Bruce Ufford, 18, of 5421 86th St. was in satisfactory condition Sunday at Methodist Hospital with a stab wound in the stomach he suffered during a fight in the 7000-block of Joliet Avenue Saturday night.

Ufford told police that he and a friend were westbound on Loop 289 when they saw a brown pickup truck and a silver Nova racing. Ufford said that the pickup almost collided with his vehicle and that he chased the pickup to a business area just south of the loop.

Reports indicate that the occupants got out of their vehicles and began arguing. Ufford said that the two young white men in the pickup truck pulled out knives and that one of the suspects chased his friend, telling him that he was going to cut his throat.

Ufford told police a scuffle ensued between him and the other suspect, and that the suspect stabbed him in the stomach. Ufford said he got into his vehicle and that his friend drove him to Methodist Hospital.

Rolando Estrado, 28, of Brownfield was beaten and then his legs were allegedly run over in an assault about 11 p.m. Saturday in the parking lot of a club in the 1900-block of East Fourth Street.

Estrado was treated and later released from HSC.

Two security guards told police they saw a man get out of a black Blazer and start beating Estrado. Reports show that when the security guards began driving toward the suspect's vehicle, a 1977 blue Pontiac Grand Prix blocked them and the suspect got into the Blazer and left. The driver of the Pontiac then reportedly ran over Estrado's legs and left the scene.

Ex-Officer Faces Murder Hearing

WAVELY, Tenn. (AP) — A former prison guard faces a preliminary hearing on Jan. 28 in the beating death of a 21-month-old girl, who died last week of extensive head injuries.

The toddler, Stephanie Johnson, was buried Sunday. She died after clinging to life for six days with the help of a respirator.

James Henry Jr., 27, a boyfriend of the girl's mother, has been charged with first-degree murder.

DPS Chief Reports Drug Traffic Highway Deaths Major Concerns

AUSTIN (AP) — Col. Jim Adams, new chief of the Texas Department of Public Safety, says his two most immediate concerns are curbing organized drug traffic and reducing highway deaths.

Adams, 53, the first lawyer to head the DPS, said in an interview his plans also include stepped-up legal training for troopers and investigators.

"I hate to see a good case built up and then lost because of a faulty search warrant. ... One of my freaky buttons is to make sure our people know the law," he said.

Adams, former No. 2 man in the FBI, became chief of the DPS on Jan. 1, the day after former director Wilson Speir retired.

Texas Plans Promotion On Tourism

ARLINGTON (AP) — The state of Texas plans to pump almost a million dollars into tourism to help overcome a series of disasters that cut into the industry last year and may hurt in 1980.

Frank Hildebrand, executive director of the Texas Tourist Development Agency, said icy roads, spring floods, tight gasoline supplies and the world's worst oil spill conspired to cut attendance at Texas attractions by 4 percent in 1979.

"It was not a particularly bright year for the Texas travel industry or the nation as a whole," Hildebrand said, during an energy and tourism conference.

Hildebrand said Six Flags over Texas here and Aquarena Springs in San Marcos came through 1979 in good shape only because of extensive promotion and advertising.

In 1980, the tourism agency will use $925,000 in state funds for advertising — a 123 percent increase over last year's budget.

The money will be used to highlight Texas and its four adjacent states in an attempt to offset energy shortages and inflation, Hildebrand said.

There will be a "substantial falloff in the number of motorists using cars for pleasure purposes," Hildebrand said, predicting gasoline prices would jump to $1.50 a gallon by the end of the year.

In addition, he predicted inflation will drive air fares up. In 1979, fares increased an average of 23 percent, and the travel price index rose about 14 percent, Hildebrand said.

Finally, he said, the black oil that slogged onto Texas beaches will return after Gulf currents reverse in about 60 days.

Despite the gloomy forecast, Hildebrand said he expects tourism in Texas to fare better than in other states.

"The image of Texas causes Texas to be high on the list of must-visit places" for foreign visitors, he said. Direct flights from European capitals and the Far East are pending, and direct flights from England are already in service.

State To Modernize Railroad Signals

AUSTIN — The State Highway and Public Transportation Commission has approved an $8.55 million program to improve railroad warning signals at 119 locations throughout Texas, including one in Lubbock.

The Lubbock project, costing an estimated $55,000 is slated for the intersection of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad and Avenue U.

The projects are part of the 1980 Federal Railroad Signal Program including installation and modernization of signals at railroad crossings with state-maintained highways, city streets and county roads.

The Battle of the Nile in 1798 marooned Napoleon in Egypt.

his license to practice law before the U.S. Supreme Court.

Adams said he still is working out detailed priorities for his administration but drugs and traffic deaths are the top two problems on his mind at the moment.

Drugs can't be considered apart from organized crime, and Adams said that can involve outwardly respectable businessmen as well as the rank-and-file pushers and smugglers.

Mentioning the seizure of the "Mister Jake" off the Texas coast near Galveston, Adams said, "It takes money to buy 60 tons of marijuana. Those high-level financiers are the ones we are going after."

"We have to look at the fact that we do not have only the traditional criminal types involved in the drug traffic. You can have businessmen and bankers," Adams said.

He said he expects DPS officers to be scrupulous in following legal requirements laid down by federal courts — "I don't believe in cutting corners."

Adams said the DPS "can do the job within existing laws, subject to minor modifications by the Legislature."

One such "minor modification" would be Gov. Bill Clements' wiretap bill, which he plans to submit as an issue for a special legislative session this year.

The bill would allow only the DPS to intercept telephone conversations, only in drug cases and only with permission of a state district judge.

Adams moved into his job as the state reached an unhappy milestone.

"We hit the 4,000 mark on traffic fatalities in 1979, an all-time high. Four thousand deaths is unacceptable to the state of Texas. When we have hostages in Iran we in Texas can't do much about it, but we can do something about 4,000 deaths," he said.

He indicated one thing he will ask the 1981 Legislature to do is enlarge the highway patrol, currently limited to 1,494 troopers.

"We have one trooper for every 110 miles of highway, and that's not saturation coverage, in my opinion," Adams said.

Speir once admitted that motorists generally can drive at least 60 mph with impunity because troopers have time only to arrest the worst speeders.

But Adams said he would make no such statement — "I don't believe in sanctuary ... The law is 55 miles per hour." He acknowledged, however, that if a trooper spends eight hours a day arresting people driving 70 mph or more, he has little or no time to ticket others.

Asked his personal opinion of the 55 mph law, Adams said, "You probably will find it hard to believe, but in the last several years I have found it more enjoyable to drive at 55. It's a safe limit, and I have felt very comfortable with it."

Accountants Set Meeting

The Lubbock Area Chapter of the National Association of Accountants has scheduled a meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Gridiron Restaurant.

Jack Hughes of the Dallas office of the American Appraisal Co., Inc., will discuss current property values.

A native of Midland, Hughes is a graduate of North Texas State University with degrees in industrial engineering and economics. He has been with American Appraisal for five years. He has worked as an engineer for a number of years and for Republic National Bank for five years.

The meeting is aimed at determining property values for use in sales, evaluations and other applications.

Kenyans Probe Author's Death

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — The Kenyan police announced today they believe Joy Adamson, the conservationist-author of "Born Free," was murdered and are questioning three persons about her death last week.

Commissioner of Police Ben Gethi said in a statement that the death of Mrs. Adamson is being treated as a murder case following new information on the circumstances surrounding the death. He gave no details.

The 69-year-old Austrian naturalist, a longtime resident of Kenya, was killed Thursday night in the Shaba Game Reserve about 175 miles north of Nairobi. She was taking a walk outside her tent camp, where she was conducting experiments on leopard behavior.

First reports from police and her co-workers indicated she was mauled and killed by a lion. But the Sunday Standard newspaper reported the police reopened their investigation after receiving reports that there was little blood at the site where Mrs. Adamson was reported killed, that there were no claw marks on her body and that her car had been stolen.

President Daniel Arap Moi ordered a full investigation into the death, and police officials returned to the isolated camp Saturday.

The body was brought to Nairobi and an autopsy was performed Saturday. The results have not been made public and sources say they may not be released.

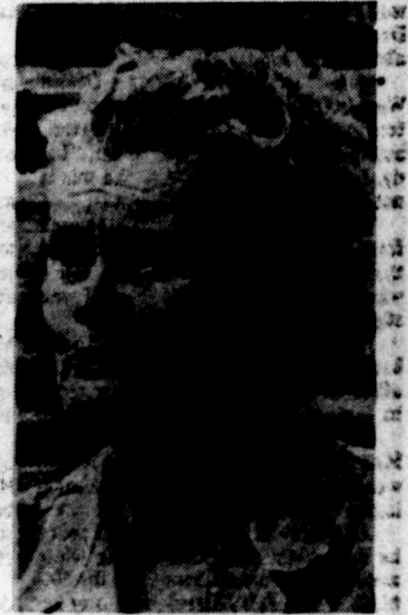

Wildlife associates said Mrs. Adamson's body will be cremated tomorrow. They said the ceremony will be attended only by family and friends and there will be no religious service.

In Geneva, Switzerland, an official of the World Wildlife Fund said today he was not surprised that Mrs. Adamson's death was being treated as murder by Kenyan authorities.

The fund's conservation director, Dr. Lee Talbot, said: "When I first heard of Joy's death, I stated that I was skeptical that a wild animal did it. Joy was so knowledgeable about wildlife that it was highly unlikely she would be killed by a wild animal."

Dr. Talbot declined to say what motives, if any, there might have been for murdering Mrs. Adamson.

Mrs. Adamson's husband, George, a retired game warden, was in Nairobi today but was not available for comment. He was in another game reserve conducting experiments when he received word last week of his wife's death. Both were well known for their work in the rehabilitation of wild animals by taking a tame female, gradually returning it to the wild, breeding it to produce a litter and observing the animal's relations with them and with wild animals.
The best known of their subjects was the first one, the lioness Elsa, who was the heroine of Mrs. Adamson's international best-seller "Born Free." She wrote many other books about her work, and all income from them, motion pictures made from them and the song "Born Free" went to the Elsa Wild Animal Fund, which financed conservation and education-in-conservation projects.
Mrs. Adamson and her husband had lived apart for some years although they remained on good terms and conferred frequently about their work.

Small Savers Aided By New Certificates

NEW YORK (UPI) — New 30-month savings certificates are giving small savers with as little as $100 to deposit a chance to benefit from currently available high interest rates.

The new certificates, with interest pegged to the rates for similar Treasury securities, were available for the first time Jan. 2 at some banks and thrift institutions.

They have not yet caught on with savers — for a number of reasons:

— Many institutions around the country have delayed offering the new certificates, deciding the deposits are not worth the cost or that they want to stick with the already popular six-month money market certificates.

— Some institutions have the certificates available but are not advertising them or are limiting their use to certain types of accounts.

— Even those pushing the certificates, mostly savings and loans and mutual savings banks, are imposing varying requirements, which can confuse depositors.

Such a mixed reception is not unusual with the introduction of a new banking product and analysts say time and bank competition are likely to boost the popularity of the 30-month certificates.

If bought in January, new certificates

New Gasohol Program To Use Leftover Grain

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Using grain originally destined for Soviet cattle herds, the administration plans a new gasohol program this year to produce hundreds of millions of gallons of fuel.

"I think our farmers would rather be growing grain to solve our energy problems than they would for the Soviet Union's herds," Deputy Secretary of State Warren Christopher said Sunday.

He said announcement of the program's details could come as early as today.

The 5.6 million gallons of gasohol that Christopher said could be produced would supplement only a fraction of the 294 million gallons of gasoline that U.S. drivers use each day.

Calling the development "a major new gasohol program," the No. 2 man at the State Department said during an interview on the CBS "Face the Nation" program that by the end of the year "over 10 percent of a particular kind of gasoline will have alcohol added to it."

Current forecasts put 1980 ethanol production at about 50 million gallons. Each gallon of ethanol is mixed with nine gallons of gasoline to produce gasohol.

Christopher, who has been meeting with the United States' European allies about a response to Russia's invasion of Afghanistan, said the program could make use of about 5 million tons of grain originally destined for sale to the Soviet Union.

The figures cited by Christopher puzzled some at the Agriculture Department, according to published reports. One USDA official said the amount of grain mentioned by Christopher could be converted to about 456 million gallons of alcohol, or about 4.56 billion gallons of gasohol.

The official said a crash gasohol program this year could increase alcohol production by about 150 million gallons.

President Carter announced Friday that the sale to the Soviets of 17 million tons of grain would be blocked. He tried to soften the political impact by telling farmers the government will buy some of the grain for world hunger programs and gasohol production.

A spokesman for the Manhattan district attorney said a grand jury hearing the case against Miss Abraham would be told of the child's death. She currently is charged with first-degree assault.

TODAY'S STOCK PRICES

Dow Jones Up 7.00 To 835.84

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market took off on heavy buying of mining and defense-related companies today after a slow start in early trading.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 blue-chip industrial stocks rose 7.00 to 835.84, after a decline of 10.07 points last week.

Gainers took an 8-5 lead over losers among stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

International tensions increased Friday night when President Carter announced a curtailment in grain exports and a ban on exports of technology to the Soviet Union in response to the Soviet Army's intervention in Afghanistan.

Prices of gold, silver and other metals continued to rise on world markets.

The cut in grain exports could harm the farming industry and shippers, as well as have repercussions throughout the economy, dragging it into a deeper recession, analysts said.

President Carter also announced he was withdrawing from Congress, at least for the time being, the SALT II arms limitation treaty. This, coupled with calls by several members of Congress for greater defense spending, apparently led to the surge in defense-related companies, analysts said.

Benguet Consolidated Mines class B led the active list, up 1/4 to 7 1/2% with more than 348,000 shares traded. The mining company announced the opening of a new gold and copper mine in the Philippines.

The NYSE's composite stock index stood at 61.51, up .34. On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was up 2.21 at 245.76.

Big Board totaled 17.43 million shares over the first two hours, compared to 17.73 million Friday.

Asarco, another mining stock, rose 2 1/2 to 42 1/2. Kennecott Copper was up 2 1/4 to 34 1/4.

Three aerospace companies that could benefit from increased military spending were also active. Rohr Industries, up 1/2 to 2 1/2%; Lockheed, up 2 1/4 to 40 1/4; and McDonnell Douglas, up 2 1/4 to 41 1/4. Kaiser Aluminum was up 1/4 to 19 1/4.

Macrodyn led the Amex active list, up 1/4 to 3 1/4.

The Road Back

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE foes of the Dallas Cowboys are dancing in the streets these days over the apparent collapse of the Dallas dynasty. When the Rams clipped the 'Pokes 21-19 a week ago, the shock waves spread all the way from the New Jersey meadowlands to the Golden Gate.

America's Team finally had dropped back into the pack, it seemed. Two of Dallas' NFC East rivals were not a bit surprised at the turn of events, because they had been saying for weeks that Doomsday, like the ol' gray mare, wasn't what it used to be. Philadelphia coach Dick Vermeil declared, just before meeting the 'Pokes for the second time in '79, that his guys had discovered they could compete on equal terms with the Cowboys. "We are just as good as they (Cowboys) are," Vermeil asserted. "But their players get all the publicity and attention. We know we can beat them, though."

So the Cowboys went to Philadelphia and defeated the Eagles in their own nest, while 71,000 fans and Vermeil tried to cheer the home team to victory. But the loss didn't shake the confidence of the Philadelphians at all. They still think they are the team of the future in the East.

THE WASHINGTON REDSKINS believe Dallas' days of wine and roses are over, too. Even though the 'Skins lost the division crown to the 'Pokes on the final weekend of the season, they left the field at Texas Stadium proclaiming their superiority and expressing their contempt for the Cowboys.

Running back John Riggins, who seems to have replaced Diron Talbert as unofficial spokesman for the Redskins, was sniping at the 'Pokes before he got to the locker room.

"We proved that they (Cowboys) are just an ordinary team now," Riggins sniffed. "No one has any respect for them any more!"

Listening to the Eagles and Redskins, one gets the impression that Dallas ought to give up its NFL franchise. Otherwise, the 'Pokes are going to be humiliated and run right out of the league next season.

THE ONLY THING wrong with that theory, according to professor Thomas Wade Landry, is that it is based on false data and hasty conclusions. The Cowboy coach thinks NFC East rivals missed the boat in not dethroning the champs this year, when they were riddled by injuries, retirements and Thomas Henderson's big mouth.

"Washington and Philadelphia had their best chance ever to knock us out," Landry remarked last week. "But now we will regroup before next year. It will be different then!"

Notice that Landry said it WILL be different. He didn't say maybe or perhaps or hopefully.

That statement probably will touch off a round of guffaws and jeers on the banks of the Potomac and in the City of Brotherly Love, but history shows that Landry ain't just whistling Dixie. He has been in this position a couple of times before, in 1969 and 1974, and both times he brought the 'Pokes back to Super Bowl glory.

LANDRY'S TASK WILL not be easy, admittedly. Dallas has drafted at the bottom of the list in all but three of the last 14 years, so Landry hasn't had a chance to collect a herd of superstars.

Landry, picking 28th in 1978, had to gamble on Larry Bethea, while Houston used the top choice to grab Earl Campbell. That narrowed the talent gap between the Oilers and the 'Pokes in a hurry.

Last May, with Dallas picking 27th, Landry had no chance at blue-chippers such as Ottis J. Anderson or Tom Cousineau. So he took a Tennessee center named Robert Shaw, who may or may not still be around a couple of years from now.

To make the situation even worse, Dallas gave up its top two choices in the next draft to Baltimore in exchange for defensive end John Dutton. Unless the Cowboys eventually get a high pick for Henderson, they will have to wait while the top 70 or 80 prospects are nabbed by other teams.

Good players, even a few with superstar potential, can be found in the lower rounds. There's a Ron Springs or a Doug Cosbie out there somewhere, if you can find him. But the odds are very long.

LANDRY IS PINNING most of his hopes for improvement on players now on the roster. If All-Pro safety Charlie Waters returns to the team in good health next summer, then one of the biggest headaches will vanish.

Landry also believes that summer camp will bring Dutton back to his Pro Bowl-form and give some coordination to the defense. That should prevent the kind of lapse that cost the Cowboys against the Rams.

Linebacking may be the toughest problem of all, although younger players such as Mike Hegman and Guy Brown have potential. But D.D. Lewis is over the hill and Bob Breunig doesn't make the big plays that Lee Roy Jordan was famous for.

Landry is aware of all this, but remains optimistic. "We just never had a chance to jell as a team last season," he said in summation. "It will be different next time."

Philadelphia and Washington better delay those victory celebrations.

Battered Rams Rekindle Dreams Of Super Bowl

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — The battered Los Angeles Rams didn't the Lord, passed the gauze and didn't stop until they had ended six years of frustration, leaving the Tampa Bay Buccaneers tending to their wounds at the end of a Cinderella season.

The upstart Bucs, who made it to their first National Football Conference title game with the same starting lineup that opened the season, lost all-Pro end Lee Roy Selmon and linebacker Cecil Johnson to ankle injuries, quarterback Doug Williams with a torn bicep and end Wally Chambers with a knee injury during a 9-0 loss to the Rams Sunday night.

Severe injuries weren't enough to stop the inspired Rams.

"It's hard to conceive what we've accomplished here today," said end Jack Youngblood, who played despite a hair-line fracture in his left leg.

"That's the most injuries we've had all year, but I would just say the Rams out-hit us," Bucs coach John McKay said. "We tried to knock a couple of them out, but they'd limp out and limp back in."

Placekicker Frank Corral booted second-quarter field goals of 19 and 21 yards and a fourth-quarter clincher of 23 yards — despite a hamstring pull suffered in his kicking leg last week. Halfback Wendell Tyler, who gained 86 yards rushing on 28 carries, played despite twisting a knee that underwent surgery last year.

"All year, everybody's been playing injured on this team. We've got a lot of guys who are going to need operations when this is over," said Rams linebacker Rich Saul, who climbed out of a hospital bed with a raging fever the previous week to play in the Rams' 21-19 upset of Dallas.

The Rams, shedding themselves of a hard-luck chokers' image that dogged them through playoff losses the last six seasons, were subdued after the game.

"We've had so much frustration,"

Saul said. "We've had great teams who couldn't do it. Nobody thought this team had a chance, but we kept the faith in the Lord, and we feel he showed us what we should have realized before — that we couldn't do it on our own."

"The Lord wanted us to win," said wide receiver Preston Dennard. "In all those past years, he was just testing us. Today, he gave us our reward."

Youngblood sucked in breath sharply as he maneuvered through the locker room. Grimacing with pain, he said: "I think it's the type of thing where if you're strong enough you can block it out. I honestly believe the good Lord blessed me with some kind of healing power that let me play today."

"When you see Jack Youngblood making those big plays, it helps us. He just played as long and as hard as he could," defensive tackle Larry Brooks said as he watched Youngblood hobbling.

With 72,033 Buc fans chanting and roaring against them, the Rams put together offensive drive after drive, only to fall short.

ICING THE VICTORY — Pittsburgh running back Rocky Bleier hits the turf just over the goal line to score the final touchdown of Sunday's AFC championship contest between the Steelers and the Houston Oilers. The score came late in the fourth quarter and iced a 27-13 victory for the Steelers and a spot in Super Bowl XIV Jan. 20. Pittsburgh will face the Los Angeles Rams, who defeated Tampa Bay 9-0 in the NFC title match Sunday. (AP Laserphoto)

Call Taints Steelers' Win

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The controversial call stands, the gutsy Houston Oilers have fallen, and maybe the Pittsburgh Steelers should just list the Super Bowl on their schedule.

"This WAS the Super Bowl as far as I'm concerned. Pittsburgh is going and they're going to win," Oiler quarterback Dan Pastorini said Sunday after he had a potential touchdown pass erased by the officials and Pittsburgh won the American Football Conference title game, 27-13.

The actual Super Bowl comes Jan. 20 in Pasadena, Calif., when first-time-finalist Los Angeles meets a Pittsburgh team aiming for its fourth title in six years.

Can the Rams beat Pittsburgh? "Who knows? We haven't beaten them yet," said Terry Bradshaw, aware the Steelers are 0-3 against Los Angeles in the past decade.

Meanwhile, the question of whether Houston is the second best team in the game is a matter for debate — just like one of Pastorini's passes was until the referee settled things by way of the back judge, side judge and field judge.

"One thing for sure, the score stands," Steeler cornerback Ron Johnson said after the ruling that receiver Mike Renfro did not have control of the ball while inbounds on an apparent scoring pass.

The play came with Pittsburgh leading 17-10 in the third quarter of the title rematch between the two AFC Central Division rivals.

complexion of the game," Renfro said. "There was clearly a lot of pressure on us at that point. They had gained the momentum," said Pittsburgh's Joe Greene.

Earlier, Bradshaw had a first-quarter pass stolen and returned 75 yards for a touchdown by safety Vernon Perry, who worked defensive magic in the Oilers' seminal upset of San Diego.

Bradshaw countered with touchdown tosses to John Stallworth and Bennie Cunningham to give Pittsburgh a 17-10 halftime lead.

In the third quarter, Houston had first down at the Steeler six and a chance to tie.

Pastorini lofted the ball to Renfro in the corner of the endzone. "We had you on that one," Pastorini later told Johnson. Renfro leaped and grabbed. He had the ball as he tumbled beyond the end-line. "I thought right away that he was out of bounds," said Johnson.

"I knew I was very close," said Renfro.

Line judge Donald Orr did not signal touchdown. Renfro jumped up to appeal. Orr signalled an incompletion.

After a conference among the officials, referee Jim Tunney upheld the ruling. He cited Orr's claim that Renfro was juggling the ball as he went out. Replays showed Renfro touched both feet in-bounds, but they did not reveal whether he juggled the ball.

"He did not have possession," said Tunney.

The Oilers settled for a field goal, and Pittsburgh put the game away with a 10-point fourth quarter.

Bradshaw watched the Renfro play from the sideline.

PASSING UNDER PRESSURE — Tampa Bay quarterback Doug Williams (left) and Dan Pastorini of the Houston Oilers (on ground at right) were under a great deal of pressure from Los Angeles and Pittsburgh defenses during Sunday's NFC and AFC championship games. Williams, shown being sacked by Ram defensive end Fred Dryer (89), completed only two of 13 passes before leaving the game with an arm injury. The Rams defeated the Bucs 9-0. Pastorini, being helped up by Steeler tackle Steve Furness (64), was more effective — completing 19 of 28 passes for 203 yards — but the Oilers still lost 27-13. gamo, displaying veteran poise, hit Dennard for a 35-yard gain to the Buc 4 to set up a first-and-goal late in the first quarter, but the Rams settled for Corral's 19-yard field goal.

Late in the second quarter, Ferragamo hit four straight passes to move to first down at the Bucs' 13, but again settled for a Corral field goal.

But while their offense struggled, the Rams defense bottled up the running of hard-charging Buc fullback Ricky Bell and kept up the pressure on Williams, who completed only two of 13 passes before leaving the game in the third quarter with his arm injury.

"We said, 'They are not going to run on us,'" said linebacker Jim Youngblood. "And you couldn't have a better exhibition of pass coverage." "We just kept turning the screws, turning the screws, bearing down, stopping them one play at a time," said Jack Youngblood.

Early in the third quarter, an apparent 20-yard touchdown pass from Ferragamo to Dennard was wiped out by an official's ruling that Dennard was out of bounds, and Corral missed a 37-yard field goal attempt on the next play.

On the Bucs' series, Williams was injured when tackle Mike Fanning hit him as he threw, and he joined Selmon, Chamber and Johnson on the Bucs' sideline.

Reserve quarterback Mike Rae completed just one of his first five passes and was sacked by Fanning on the next two series. Gains of 13 yards by Tyler and 12 by Cullen Bryant around a 15-yard Ferragamo completion to tight end Terry Nelson set up Corral's clinching 23-yard field goal with 8:09 left in the game.

"The fact our defense didn't give up any touchdowns doesn't matter," Buc linebacker Richard Wood said. "If you can't score you can't win, and they scored."

"We came a long way, and I guess it was just supposed to end this way," added kick returner Danny Reece.

McKay continued to defend Williams, who was under fire at several times during an up-and-down season.

"I don't think he was so ineffective," McKay said. "We had a couple guys who don't understand that if they blitz, you have to run a different pattern. He has to get rid of the football."

Williams had his arm in a sling, and Chambers, Selmon and Johnson had their injured legs taped or packed in ice.

The Rams trainers were busy with Youngblood, Corral and Tyler, too.

"My operated knee was twisted during the game, but I had to hang in there because there was no tomorrow," Tyler said.

"I figure that if I make it through two more weeks, then I'll have a whole year to nurse it along," Corral said of his hamstring injury. "I didn't want to start nursing quite yet."

The Rams, whose 9-7 regular season record was the worst of the 10 playoff teams, will be heavy underdogs to defending champion Pittsburgh in the Super Bowl. But clearly, getting there was most of the fun for the Rams.

"It's been a long six years," said defensive end Fred Dryer. "It's finally here."

Malavasi Wants To Win One More

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — It looked more like a war zone than a football field, and when it was over coach Ray Malavasi collected his wounded but triumphant Los Angeles Rams and said, "All I'm thinking about is winning one more."

Finally, after five tries in six years, the persistent Rams won a trip to the Super Bowl to play the three-time world champion Pittsburgh Steelers.

"Pittsburgh will be tough, but I'm not afraid of them," said Malavasi in a subdued locker room, thinking ahead to Pasadena two weeks away.

The Rams shut out the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 9-0 Sunday, stopping their running game, then methodically sidelining key players to capture the National Football Conference title.

It was the midnight hour for the Cinderella Bucs after their fabled rise from worst to first in the NFC Central, and the glass slipper was on Rams kicker Frank Corral.

"I felt it might come down to a couple of field goals, but I never dreamed it would be like this," said the second-year player from UCLA after booting field goals of 19, 21 and 23 yards for the only scores of the game. "I'm just glad, just glad."

The Rams are the first NFC Western division winners to ever reach a Super Bowl. They got there despite a 9-7 record, worst among 10 playoff teams, and despite a pack of ailments.

"We had a lot of guys injured but we didn't worry about it," said linebacker Jim Youngblood. "We've been fired up all week long. The wait was killing us. We wanted to play them last Wednesday."

Los Angeles quarterback Vince Ferragamo said it doesn't matter if his team is the underdog with a mediocre record. "I don't care what they say. We're going to the Super Bowl and nobody can take that away from us," he said.

"It's always thrown up to us about the West division being weak. It's no big deal. It doesn't keep us from winning," added wide receiver Preston Dennard.

Across the field, in a somber Bucs dressing room, coach John McKay said, "The season is over for us. We will get back together on July 15. I could say that we didn't play well, but that would detract from the Rams."

McKay was softspoken as he fought back the disappointment. "We didn't play very well defensively.

We kept the score down. But our offense was sitting on the bench so much while they were running up and down the field."

Los Angeles had the ball for nearly 38 minutes, to Tampa's 22.

Defensive end Fred Dryer said Los Angeles went into the game with specifics in mind. "Our primary interest was Ricky Bell, secondary interest Doug Williams."

The Rams shut down Bell, holding the charging fullback to just 59 yards on 20 carries. Williams left the game midway through the third period with a torn bicep in his right arm after taking a hit from tackle Mike Fanning. Lee Roy Selmon, All-Pro defensive end, was knocked out with an ankle sprain.

The dressing room was quiet, but the battered Bucs corps, some sitting around taped up, tried not to show the frustration of defeat.

"We just didn't get the job done, but we had a hell of a season anyway," said Tampa kick returner Danny Reece.

"No tears. I did my best," said linebacker David Lewis. "We have nothing to be ashamed of. We'll be back. And that's a promise."

Bum Phillips Tells Fans What They Want To Hear

HOUSTON (AP) — A tearful Houston coach Bum Phillips told 55,000 screaming, banner-waving fans in the Astro-dome what they wanted to hear Sunday night.

"Last year we knocked on the door," Phillips said, dabbing his eyes. "This year we beat on the door. Next year, we're gonna kick in the SOB."

The Oilers had just been escorted into the packed Astro-dome upon their return from Pittsburgh, where they had lost to the Steelers 27-13 in the American Football Conference championship game.

Quarterback Dan Pastorini, running back Earl Campbell and linebacker Robert Brazile led the procession, riding on the backs of Houston police motorcycles.

The fans, some of whom had been waiting since 5 p.m., let out all the emotions that had built up over the past several hours.

And Phillips' emotions welled over, also.

"I want to tell you why I don't want to say anything," Phillips said, his voice quivering. "It's because I'm crying."

After being prodded by several players, Phillips said, "I'm not eloquent enough to tell you how I feel about this reception. I said last year you'd never top that rally. Well, you topped it."

Gates to the Astro-dome opened at 5 p.m. and within 30 minutes the stadium was half-full. Officials closed the gates at 7 p.m., saying the Dome was filled to capacity.

Houston police estimated another 20,000 fans were left in the Dome parking lot and crowding surrounding freeways, unable to get in.

Officers asked local radio and TV stations to warn their listeners and viewers away from the Astro-dome because it was becoming dangerously crowded.

During the long wait for the team to arrive, fans amused themselves by singing and listening to various Oiler fight songs, including one recorded by Oiler center Carl Mauck entitled, "The Oiler Cannonball," and sung to the tune of "The Wabash Cannonball." Fans also heard wide receiver Ken Burrough singing his recording, "The Super Bowl Itch."

In a replay of last year's rally, when 47,000 fans came to the Astro-dome after Houston's 34-5 loss, players were genuinely touched by the fan support.

"I cried in the dressing room after this game," veteran Oiler defensive end Elvin Bethea said. "I said I was gonna retire. But after seeing this I'm not gonna retire. I guarantee you we'll be going to the Super Bowl next year."

Numerous signs in the Astro-dome referred to an official's call in the game touchdown." Bradshaw said. "But I didn't care. If they scored, we were gonna score again. They had to stop us — and they didn't."

On their first drive of the fourth quarter, the Steelers moved 55 yards before Matt Bahr kicked a 39-yard field goal. After Guido Merkens fumbled on the next Oiler series, Pittsburgh went 45 yards for a touchdown that came on a 4-yard run by Rocky Bleier with 54 seconds left.

The Oilers never threatened after the Renfro call.

"That was the key play right there," said Pastorini. "A touchdown there might have turned things around."

But Oiler coach Bum Phillips didn't complain, just as he didn't here last year when Houston lost 34-5 to Pittsburgh in the same title game played in freezing rain.

"Even after I look at the films, I'm not going to blame the officials," he said. "They're human. We had 50 other minutes in the game to beat Pittsburgh and we didn't."

Pittsburgh held NFL-rushing leader Earl Campbell to 15 net yards on 17 rushes. He had just two net yards in the first half.

"I think the two best teams in the National Football League went at it today, no doubt about that," said Campbell, who sat out the previous week with a groin pull.

The Rams will have something to say about that.

"A lot of people have a tendency to say the Super Bowl was today," said Bleier. "That means there will be added pressure on the Steelers because we go in with a no-win situation. We're supposed to win."

Greene's view: "Getting there is not our goal... if we're not successful in the Super Bowl — it was all for nothing."

Meanwhile, Greene admitted the taste of victory had been tainted by the controversial call.

but I asked after the game and I was told... Greene said, his voice trailing off.

He didn't say who he asked but the inference was that he had been told the decision was in error.

"I can't take any satisfaction in that call. That's what I'm saying," said Greene. "What do we say? Do we say, 'Things like that happen.' I mean how do you explain that to the Oilers?"

"Don't get me wrong. I feel damn good that we won. But I'm not in a celebrating mood yet. It'll come. I'll get happy — later."

In 1920, Stan Coveleski of the Cleveland Indians won a nine-inning World Series game against Brooklyn by throwing only 72 pitches.

Johnson's 33 Points Propels Beavers

By The Associated Press
Steve Johnson didn't look so hot against UCLA. But against Southern Cal, he was smoking.

"I was trying to prove myself today (Saturday) for those who were watching on television," said the Oregon State center.

What they saw was Johnson hit 16 of 19 shots from the field and score 33 points Saturday as the 14th-ranked Beavers defeated the Trojans 82-68 in a Pacific-10 Conference basketball game.

In dramatic contrast, Johnson had scored but two points in a desultory effort against UCLA last Thursday night.

"Steve didn't play good team offense against UCLA," said Oregon State coach Ralph Miller. "He rushed some of his shots. Today he depended on his teammates to get him the ball. He rushed a few, but 16 of 19 is a pretty good day."

Southern Cal coach Stan Morrison called Oregon State "by far the best team we've played thus far."

"We didn't show the imagination on defense that I would have liked to have seen with Johnson in there," he added.

Three ranked teams were upset Saturday — No. 2 Kentucky losing to Tennessee 49-47; No. 10 Iowa dropping a 68-65 decision to Michigan and No. 11 Indiana suffering a 52-50 defeat by Wisconsin.

Elsewhere, top-ranked Duke routed Colgate 73-44; No. 3 DePaul defeated Loyola of Chicago 80-75; No. 4 Louisiana State crushed Mississippi State 80-58; No. 5 Ohio State trimmed No. 8 Purdue 67-58; No. 12 Virginia defeated No. 6 North Carolina 88-82 and No. 9 Syracuse walloped Seton Hall 99-76.

Also, No. 12 Missouri beat Lamar 71-60; No. 15 Louisville stopped Kansas State 85-73; No. 16 UCLA edged Oregon 76-72; No. 17 St. John's defeated Connecticut 83-73; No. 18 Georgetown whipped Iona 95-84; No. 19 Brigham Young edged Texas-El Paso 70-69 and No. 20 Illinois beat Northwestern 81-71.

Johnson, shooting a phenomenal 75 per cent from the field so far this year, hit four quick baskets inside to get the Beavers off to a 13-2 lead against Southern Cal. Oregon State held a 40-28 margin at the half and the Trojans never came closer than eight points thereafter.

"We had about 35 minutes of good defense, one of the best efforts we've had this season," said Miller.

Howard Wood scored on a baseline shot with two seconds remaining to lift Tennessee over Kentucky in a closely-fought Southeastern Conference game. Wood, starting in place of the suspended Reggie Johnson, finished with 14 points.

"I think Tennessee was emotionally up," said Kentucky coach Joe Hall. "They applied good pressure and did a job defensively."

Tennessee coach Don DeVoe: "Needless to say this is one of the greatest wins for this basketball team. We may have run out our luck on close SEC games, but we beat the nation's No. 2 team and we deserve this victory."

Marty Bodnar scored 10 of his 14 points in the second half to lead Michigan's upset of Iowa. The Wolverines trailed the Hawkeyes 39-34 at intermission, but battled back in the second half behind Bodnar's sharpshooting. A 20-foot jumper by the 6-foot-3 junior guard late in the game gave the Wolverines a 60-58 lead and they never trailed again.

Wes Matthews' 20-foot shot with 43 seconds remaining lifted Wisconsin over Indiana. The Hoosiers, who began the season ranked No. 1, lost their second straight Big Ten game and their fourth in 11 starts.

Gene Banks scored 21 points and Mike Gminski added 16 to lead Duke's triumph over outmanned Colgate. Mark Aguirre's 22 points triggered DePaul past Loyola in what coach Ray Meyer described as a relatively poor effort.

"We've been playing up to the opposition," said Meyer. "We didn't play as hard as we did at Missouri, but if we play a national contender, it'll be a different game."

Durand Macklin scored 25 points with 12-of-12 field goal shooting and helped Louisiana State dominate the boards in the Tigers' victory over SEC rival Mississippi State. The Tigers wound up with a 41-23 rebounding edge.

"Most of it was hard work underneath," said Macklin of his big game. "I just knew we were going to come back with a strong game."

The Tigers had suffered a shocking 11-point loss to Vanderbilt last week, their first of the season.

Herb Williams scored 10 of his 14 points in the last 12 minutes, rallying Ohio State past Purdue. "I got the ball more in the second half," said Williams about his stronger performance in the second half. "They were collapsing on me in the first half. I stepped outside more in the second half."

Jeff Lamp scored 25 points and Ralph Sampson added 21 as Virginia defeated North Carolina. Roosevelt Bouie scored 19 points as Syracuse beat Seton Hall. The Big East contest marked the first conference game for Syracuse after a long history of independence.

Steve Wallace, Ricky Frazier and Larry Drew teamed for 54 points to pace Missouri over Lamar. Wiley Brown scored 16 points in the first half and Darrell Griffin added 22 in the second as Louisville beat Kansas State.

Rolando Blackman did a great job on Griffith in the first half, but Darrell showed his true abilities by coming back and having a great game statistically," said Kansas State Coach Jack Hartman.

Rod Foster's 13 points led UCLA over Oregon; Bernard Rencher's 17 paced St. John's over Connecticut; Jeff Bullis came off the bench to score 17 points and lead Georgetown past Iona; Devin Durant scored 22 points, including four free throws in the final two minutes, to lead Brigham Young past Texas-El Paso; Eddie Johnson and Perry Range teamed up for 35 points in Illinois' triumph over Northwestern.

Texas Provides Early Surprises

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Writer

Texas A&M, Texas Tech and Arkansas were the only three Southwest Conference basketball teams to survive unbeaten after the first week of the 1980 season with Texas providing two big surprises, one of them pleasant.

The Longhorns started the week by losing for only the second time in the Super Drum at home — a 57-53 setback at the hands of Texas Tech — then shocked Southern Methodist on the road without the help of freshman guard George Turner, who was a no-show for the car ride to Dallas.

After Texas had lost to Tech on Thursday night, Texas coach Abe Lemons asked a writer: "Did George even score?"

Turner had missed last Tuesday's practice, complaining of back problems.

Lemons said Saturday, "I've never said anything but 'Hi' to George. I had a kid once who would leave every week or two. He'd just leave a note, saying he had to go. But he always came back."

Lemons inserted another freshman guard, Fred Carson, into the game and he teamed with 6-foot-10 frosh center LaSalle Thompson to dominate both ends of the court in an 85-75 victory.

"We surprised a lot of people tonight, including myself," said Lemons.

Carson had six assists as Thompson scored 25 points and collected 17 rebounds.

Deal Paying Off For New Jersey

By The Associated Press

The New Jersey Nets got Mike Newlin for a second-round draft pick and $25,000.

Boy, what a steal. Since moving from Houston this year, Newlin has become the heart of the Nets' offense, once scoring 52 points and six times going over 30.

It was another one of his high-powered games Sunday night, when Newlin scored 34 points to pace the Nets to a 108-100 National Basketball Association victory over the Cleveland Cavaliers.

"I always know I can do it in the fourth quarter," said Newlin after putting in eight of his points in the last period to hold off a Cleveland surge. "I can be missing the whole game and still feel confident I can make the shots in the fourth quarter."

The key to the game was obvious to Cleveland coach Stan Albeck.

"It was out inability to control Mike Newlin," said Albeck. "He's a great basketball player and the key to their team. If he gets off and cooking, he gets the whole team going. He got off tonight and then made the clutch baskets. We had our chances and couldn't get over the hump."

In other NBA games, Milwaukee defeated Los Angeles 113-103; San Diego edged Seattle 105-103; Kansas City turned back Denver 120-101 and Portland stopped Detroit 119-102.

Newlin ignited a fourth-quarter rally that brought the Nets their fifth victory in six games. After Eddie Jordan tied the score 95-95 and then put New Jersey on top with another jump shot, Newlin added a basket to give New Jersey a four-point lead.

But Cleveland's Randy Smith, who finished with 21 points, hit a basket, then a foul shot by Fouts Walker brought the Cavaliers to within 99-98 with three minutes remaining. Newlin, however, dashed any hopes of a Cleveland victory when he hit a long-range jumper and then another basket to give the Nets a 103-98 lead.

minutes before halftime, Milwaukee stormed back behind Brian Winters, Dave Meyers and Marques Johnson to beat Los Angeles.

Meyers put in 21 of his 28 points in the second half, Winters 11 of his 25 and Johnson 19 of his 25 as the Bucks broke the Lakers' four-game winning streak.

"We made the decision that the only way we could get back in it would be to push the ball upcourt every single time," said Milwaukee coach Don Nelson. "I don't think we called more than 10 plays the whole second half."

"We were flirting with the possibility of getting beat by 50 points — or winning — and we took the gamble to run. It was a gamble because the Lakers run pretty good and they're patient. If you start a running game and you miss your first five or six or eight shots against a patient team, they can make you look pretty bad."

Clippers 105, Sonics 103

Brian Taylor's short jump shot with 2:54 remaining put San Diego ahead and the Clippers went on to a tight victory over Seattle.

Taylor's shot broke a 101-101 tie and Lloyd Free gave San Diego a four-point advantage 21 seconds later with a layup. The Clippers didn't score after that, but Seattle could manage only a pair of free throws by Dennis Johnson with 59 seconds to go.

Kings 120, Nuggets 101

Bill Robinson came off the bench to score 14 points and grab 12 rebounds, leading Kansas City over Denver. The Nuggets, losing a road game for the 11th straight time, were playing without two of their starters, George McGinnis and Charlie Scott.

"You just can't wish Scott or McGinnis is here or that Kim Hughes' back is going to get better," said Denver coach Donnie Walsh, not wishing to feel sorry for himself. "Everybody should be ready to play. You can't talk about hardships."

Blazers 119, Pistons 102

Ron Brewer and Maurice Lucas led a third-quarter surge to help Portland beat Detroit. Brewer, who led Portland's scoring with 28 points, contributed 10 points as the Trail Blazers outscored the Pistons 37-16 in the third quarter.

Lucas totaled 17 points for Portland, seven of them in the third period, as the Trail Blazers took their third victory in four games.

"They just destroyed us on the boards," said SMU coach Sonny Allen, whose Mustangs lost to Arkansas Thursday night. "They just kept getting all those second shots. That was the story."

The Aggies beat Baylor, 74-57, behind forward Vernon Smith's 26 points and 13 rebounds; Rice downed Texas Christian, 57-47. Texas Tech trimmed Houston, 77-70, and Arkansas downed Northeast Louisiana, 74-51, in a non-conference game.

In games Tuesday, Arkansas is at TCU, SMU is at Baylor, Texas is at Houston and Texas Tech is at Texas A&M.

Baylor coach Jim Haller said the Aggies played the best defense of the year against the Bears.

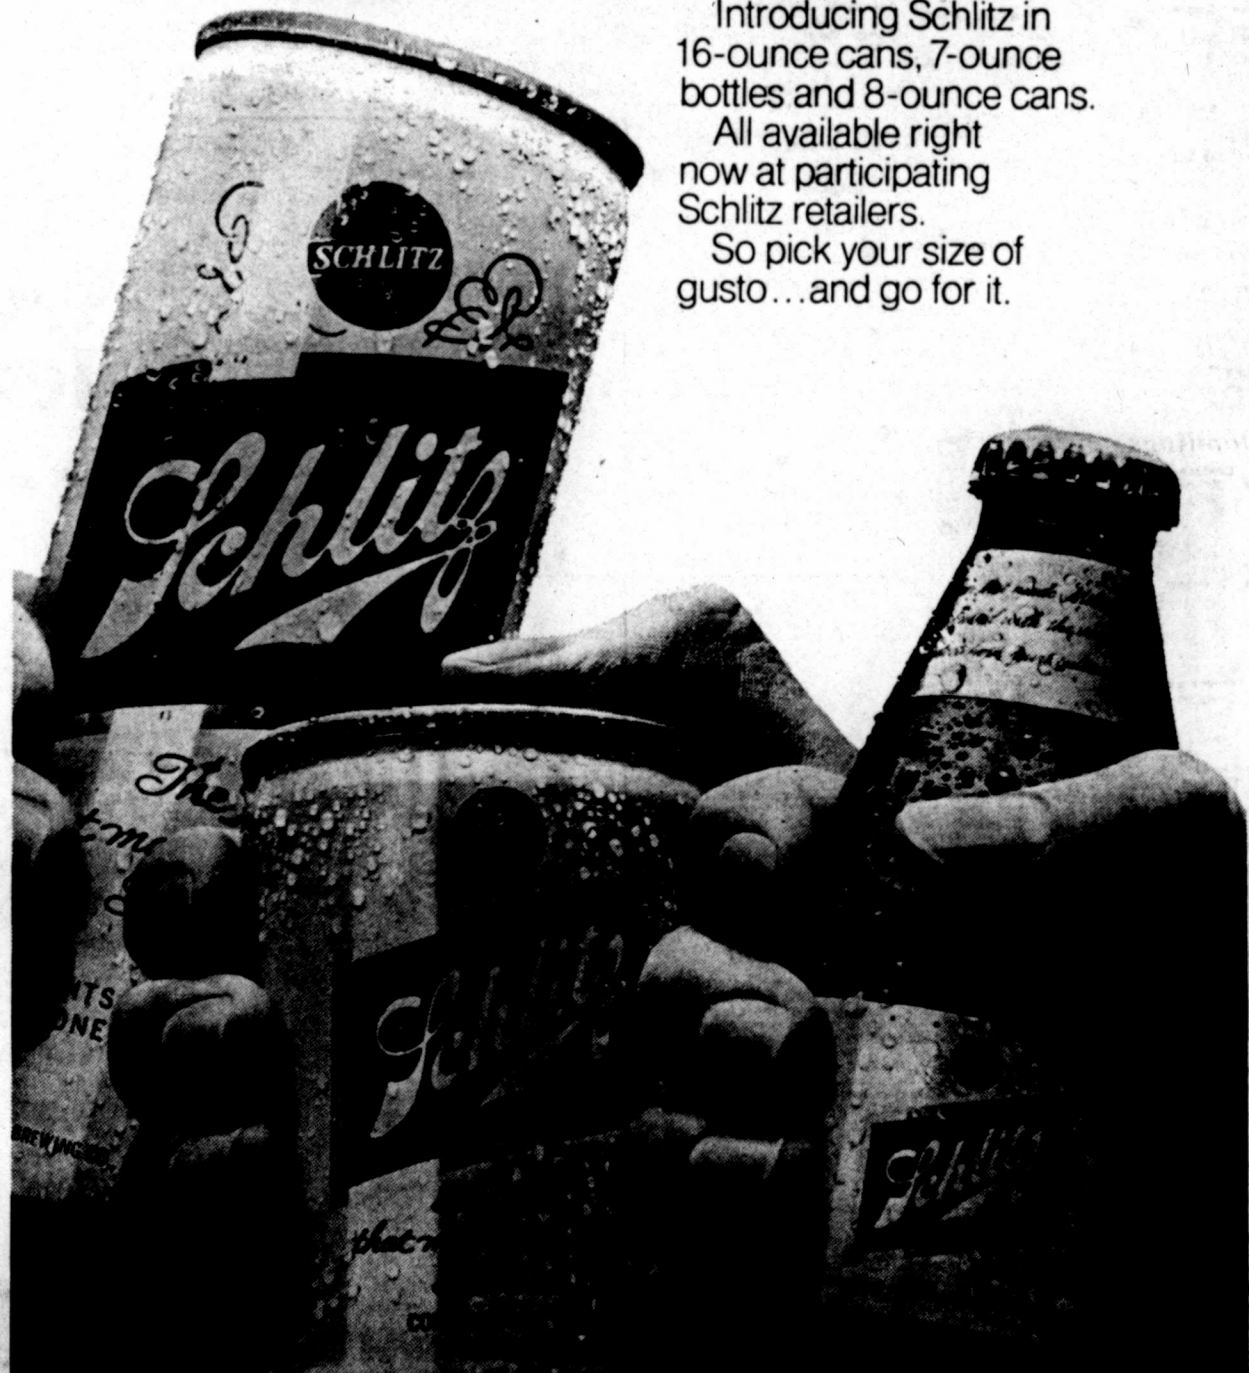

"I saw the Aggies the other night against TCU and they were in slow motion," said Haller. "Tonight, they were in first gear and moving. Add that to their outstanding defense and you can see why it was a nightmare."

He added, "I really believe that was the best defense A&M has played in the last three to four years."

Rudy Woods collected 14 rebounds for the Aggies as they held Baylor to a paltry 35 per cent shooting percentage from the field.

"We haven't shot that poorly all year long," said Haller.

NCAA Delegates Ready To Debate

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Many of the nation's most successful basketball programs were gathering in opposition to one of the most hotly debated pieces of legislation offered in years today as the National Collegiate Athletic Association opened its 74th annual convention.

More than 1,000 delegates, a record number, were expected for the three-day meeting of the decision-makers of collegiate athletics. They will deal with 103 pieces of legislation as well as discuss the controversial Title IX, federal legislation mandating equal opportunity for women.

One proposal, submitted by the NCAA's policy-making Council, would require sponsorship of at least eight sports to qualify for Division I basketball status. This has drawn bitter opposition from such basketball powers as Marquette, DePaul and St. John's, which do not sponsor eight sports. "The cost of adding sports would be tremendous for all of us," said Bob Brooks, athletic director at Oral Roberts University of Tulsa, Okla. "A scholarship at our school now costs about $5,000. The addition of two sports would probably mean the addition of at least 10 scholarships. And if we add sports, we would not only have to add sports for men, but women, too. We are flirting with Title IX when we add sports. It would cause many schools problems."

Vic Bubas, commissioner of the Sun Belt Conference, is another leading the opposition.

"I just hope enough schools feel the same way," he said. "I hope the representatives of schools realize what affect it would have on schools whose funding does not come from state sources"

Division I schools, the major athletic institutions, figured to spend much of their time Monday discussing ramifications of Title IX.

In its latest interpretation of the controversial guidelines, the department of Health, Education and Welfare has mandated that funds spent on athletic scholarships for men must be matched by funds for men.

Jim Frank, president of Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Mo., and secretary-treasurer of the NCAA, said in a news conference Sunday the policy-making NCAA Council had approved setting up a "Title IX Advisory Service," to assist schools in meeting HEW regulations.

"Because of ambiguity in the regulations, it is anticipated that the membership might need some advice on Title IX," Frank said.

Divisions II and III, the smaller institutions, will vote this week on whether to sponsor championships for women, a move that will be closely watched by the more than 140 major athletic institutions. If passed by the smaller schools, most NCAA officials feel women's championships will become a reality a year later in the larger schools.

Another important piece of legislation, and one which is expected to pass, would eliminate the three parttime coaching positions for football.

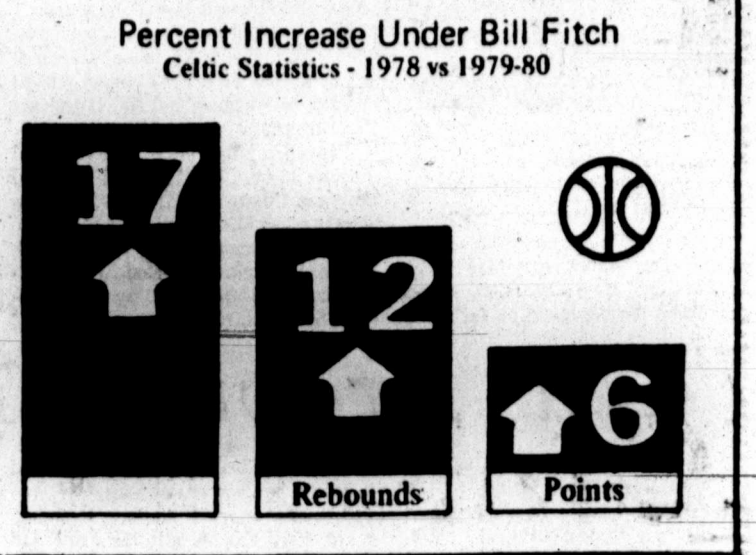

"I'm not for it, and the Pac-10 is not for it," said Dee Andros, athletic director at Oregon State. "The only way a young guy can get into coaching is to be a part-time coach. Take that away from him, and how is he going to get started in this business?"

NCAA To Vote On New Issue

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Despite complaints that it is stepping on another organization's turf, the NCAA will go ahead with a vote on establishing championships for women in five sports.

In a telegram from Washington, the executive board of the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women said it strongly objects to intrusion by the NCAA into women's sports.

The telegram pointed out that the AIAW has been the recognized organization for intercollegiate sports for women for seven years.

Two resolutions before the NCAA convention in New Orleans would establish championships for women in basketball, field hockey, swimming, tennis and volleyball. One resolution covers Division II schools, and the other covers Division III.

"Our only response is that the proposals come from the membership, not the executive council," said David Cawood.

U.S. Swimmers Gain Confidence In International Competition

AUSTIN (AP) — Olympic swimming coach George Haines of the United States surveyed what his teen-age girls had done against topflight international competition and said, "We have a lot of confidence — we're all right."

The 15-member U.S. women's national team, paced by Tracy Caulkins, 16, won eight of 12 individual first place events and both relays in a two-day meet that was billed as a preview of the 1980 Olympics.

The strongest competition came from East Germany, which won 11 of 13 gold medals at the 1976 Olympics, and the Soviet Union.

Of the 36 top places — which could correspond to the gold, silver and bronze medals in the Olympic games — the United States won 19, East Germany 10, Russia 6 and Canada 1.

"We'll have some kind of a role at Moscow," Haines said Sunday night, grinning, "but a lot can happen in six months."

"We're a much stronger team than in 1976," said Linda Jezek, a Stanford University sophomore who won the 100-meter and 200 backstroke in the third annual U.S.A. Women's International Swimming Competition. "We have a much more positive attitude about the East Germans."

Caulkins, a high school junior from Nashville, Tenn., lowered her own world record in the 200 individual medley to 2 minutes 13.69 seconds Saturday night and finished as the high point maker with 77.

Jezek was second with 55, and Kim Linehan, 16, and Cynthia Woodhead, 15, also of the United States, tied for third with 52 each.

Linehan is an Austin high school senior, and Woodhead is a high school sophomore from Riverside, Calif.

Caulkins set an American record of 1:10.65 in the 100 breaststroke Sunday night, which was close to the world record of 1:10.31, after Petra Schneider of East Germany had upset her in the 400 individual medley, 4:42.96 to 4:43.00.

Both 400 medley times were above Caulkins' world record of 4:40.83, set in 1978.

In the weekend events, East Germany's Barbara Krause extended her four-year unbeaten string in the 100 freestyle; Lina Kachushite of Russia won the 200 breaststroke; Caulkins won the 100 butterfly; Andrea Pollack of East Germany won the 200 butterfly; Linehan took the 1,500 freestyle — an event in which she holds the world record — and the 400

Dolphin Dies In Captivity

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (UPI) — The dolphin named "Christmas," born in captivity on Christmas Day, died this week of apparent respiratory failure.

Bel Babus, manager of the Niagara Falls aquarium, said the dolphin broke the surface of the water about 10 a.m. exhibiting breathing difficulty.

"In a minute and a half, her vital signs ceased," Babus said. "She never submerged, so she did not drown."

He said tests would be conducted to determine the exact cause of death.

Babus said the dolphin had appeared healthy and normal since birth and had been nursing regularly with its 22-year-old mother, Gabrielle.

"Gabrielle is quiet," Babus said. "Obviously, she feels the loss."

Gabrielle gave birth to the 30-pound, 3½-foot-long calf before an anxious staff that had been caring for the dolphin since the first labor signs in November.

Aquarium officials said that dolphin births are rare in artificial environments.

Gabrielle gave birth once before in captivity — to a dolphin that lives in the aquarium along with Gabrielle's mate, Sunny.

Talk Of Boycotting Olympics Causes Jitters At NBC, ABC

By JOAN HANAUER
NEW YORK (UPI) — Talk of boycotting the 1980 Moscow Summer Olympics has caused jitters at NBC — and at ABC, for that matter.

"We are sensitive to the situation and are watching it closely," the NBC official statement reads. "We don't believe we should comment at this time."

NBC is spending a total of $120-125 million on broadcasting the Moscow Olympics, and network executives are silently applauding the Olympic committees of NATO nations who have protested against a suggested boycott on the Moscow Olympics. The boycott was proposed to protest the Soviet Union's invasion of Afghanistan.

It isn't just the money. Of the $120-odd million NBC has budgeted for the Olympics, $87 million is covered in the rights deal negotiated with the Soviets. The remainder would cover actual broadcast production expenses and no big bucks have been spent yet.

Of the $87 million, $35 million goes for broadcast rights. It gets split, two-thirds to the Soviet Organizing Committee and one-third to the International Olympic Committee. In addition, $52 million goes to the Soviets toward construction of a new broadcast center.

While NBC has paid an estimated $63 million to date, it is insured for 85 percent of that amount.

What would trouble NBC is losing the huge Olympic audience it hopes to gain.

ABC has its own Olympic problems. It negotiated a $25 million deal to broadcast the winter Olympics from Lake Placid, N.Y., Feb. 12 through Feb. 24. No one has suggested a boycott of the winter games, and on the record ABC's comment reads: "The Olympic Games are non-political and will go on as scheduled."

Off the record, ABC must worry that any precipitous action on boycotting the Moscow games might inspire the Soviets and their bloc to retaliate at Lake Placid.

ABC is counting on the winter games to push way ahead of CBS, which is closing the gap in the ratings race.

'Star Trek' Nominated For Awards

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — "Star Trek, the Motion Picture" has captured 10 nominations for the annual awards of the Academy of Science Fiction, Fantasy and Horror Films.

"Star Trek" will vie with "Alien," "The Black Hole," "Moonraker" and "Time After Time" for honors as best science fiction film of 1979 in the television awards ceremony later this year.

"The Amityville Horror," "Dracula," "Love At First Bite," "The Mafu Cage" and "Phantasm" are competing for honors as the year's best horror film.

Nominated for the best fantasy film of the year were "Arabian Adventure," "Dinner for Adele," "Nutcracker Fantasy," "The Muppet Movie" and "The Last Wave."

"Star Trek" stars William Shatner and Persis Khambatta were nominated as best actor and actress in categories open to all three film types. Leonard Nimoy and Nichelle Nichols, both of "Star Trek," were nominated for best supporting actor and actress, respectively.

Other best actor nominations went to George Hamilton in "Love At First Bite," Frank Langella in "Dracula," Christopher Lee in "Arabian Adventure," and Malcolm McDowell in "Time After Time."

Play Comments On Morals In Politics

NEW YORK (AP) — The first Broadway opening of 1980, or any other time, is a perfect time to open a well-crafted revival of Lillian Hellman's strong play about individual morals in world politics, "Watch on the Rhine."

Such a revival opened recently at the John Golden Theater, transferred intact from presentation in the fall at the Long Wharf Theater in New Haven, Conn.

The play, which first opened on Broadway in 1941, is set in a large, gracious American home in 1940.

One house guest is a German in the anti-Nazi underground. Another is a Romanian count who is smart, broke and without principles rather than evil.

The count intends to blackmail the German and sell his astute guess about him to the Nazis as well.

The grande dame of the house, who uses her brain mostly for quips and gossip, and her lawyer son never expected to be mixed up in international rights and wrongs. Their awakening is as interesting as the main battle.

Jan Miner, the grande dame, delivers the play's wittiest lines in an imperious but not querulous manner and is the star of the evening.

And all the women are good: Mary Fogarty as a quick-tongued old French housekeeper; fragile Jill Eikenberry, who decides finally to divorce the count because she hasn't liked him for years; and Joyce Ebert, who is maternal toward her German husband.

Harris Yulin is the most successful of the men, a complete character as the count. George Hearn is much better talking tenderly with his family than he is suggesting the underground fighter that he is away from them.

Melodrama, which director Arvin Brown keeps mostly away, seeps in with Joel Stedman. Either his lines as the lawyer son, carping at his mother or being a stout fellow, aren't as good as other characters' or he doesn't feel comfortable with them.

Producers are Lester Osterman, Marc Howard and the Kennedy Center in association with Spencer H. Berlin. Miss Hellman attended the opening.

Walter Kerr, New York Times — Since the evening at the Golden patently will not come to life, Lillian Hellman's "Watch on the Rhine" is inevitably going to be dated.
