Producers Congress At Plainview Nov. 21-22

Plainview, Nov. 15—M L Wilson, under secretary of agriculture of the United States, rates as the top notch speaker for the West Texas Producers Congress to be held here Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 21 and 22.

Slated to speak at 2:45 on the afternoon of the opening day, Wilson's topic will be "National Agricultural Problems." Appearing here for one of the two addresses he will deliver on a tour through the Southwest, Wilson will speak to an estimated 3,000 farmers gathered to study the producers' angle of agriculture.

Virgil Parr, executive manager of the Pitchfork Ranch, Spur, is accredited with "landing" Wilson for his appearance here. For more than a decade Parr was connected with Wilson in the Bureau of Animal Industry and terms the under secretary "one of the biggest men I have ever known."

President Roosevelt chose Wilson, a Montanan, to administer the original wheat production control program. He is an agricultural economist of international reputation.

Such topics as conservation of soil and water, Farm Credit Administration functions, the dairy industry, cotton and wheat, state and federal farm legislation will be discussed by able speakers during the two-day congress, according to A B Tarwater, state representative, and a member of the agricultural committee of the state legislature.

Opening at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the city auditorium, the congress will launch into vital farm topics following preliminary procedure. H S Hilburn, Plainview, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will make the address of welcome to which C E Bowles, A and M C College, will respond.

Addresses as well will be made by Sen. G H Nelson of Lubbock; Mrs W G Kennedy, Muleshoe, vice president District 2, home demonstration clubs; E H Grimes, White Deer, president of the Consumers Association; and Mr Tarwater; Dr R H Montgomery, professor of economics at the University of Texas; L T Mayhugh, Plainview, president of the Producers Grain Corporation.

George Mahon, congressman for the 19th district will preside at a night session and banquet at the Hilton Hotel, when B E Stallones, Houston, president of the South Texas Milk Producers Association will speak.

The second day's congress will be called to order at 9:30. Speaker will be K J Edwards, district 2 agent; Dr. J Wheeler Barger, head of the department of agriculture at A & M; Paul A Cunyus, manager of the Southwestern Turkey Growers Association; R A Manier director of vocational agriculture for the state department of agriculture; J E Montgomery; F E Liehte and J S Sharp, Paris, president of the Texas Cotton Growers Association.

John McCarty of Amarillo will preside at the afternoon session which will be highlighted by an address by Marvin Jones, Amarillo, congressman and chairman of the agricultural committee of the house of representatives.

"The committee on arrangements for the congress has attempted to secure competent authorities on all topics vitally important to producers," said A B Tarwater, chairman of the arrangements committee, "and we want producers to join in the discussions that will follow the different speaking sessions."

CULTURE CLUB TO SPONSOR "42" PARTY SOON

Fourteen members of the Womans Culture club responded to a call meeting at the home of Mrs Jim Tunnell Wednesday afternoon. A business session was held to discuss way and means of raising funds for the work of improving the cemetery property which is a project to be sponsored by the club this year.

The first money-raising event decided upon was a "42" tournament, date of which will be announced in the near future.

COTTON RECEIPTS

The Quitaque gins received 294 bales of cotton this week up to 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon making a total so far for the season of 3866 bales. Up to the same date last year the three local gins had received 5,167 bales.

Two Longhorn Herds Battle To 13-13 Tie

Before a crowd of approximately 30000 enthusiastic fans two herds of Longhorns battled for an hour in vain last Friday afternoon in the 4-B meeting of Flomot and Lockney on the former's war field. The game ended in a tie, 13-13. This was the football classic of the season in this area and each team used every shenanigan they knew and all the force they had (and both had plenty of everything) trying to come out on top.

Starting with the whistle in the first quarter, every strategy possible was used but sufficient offense could not be mustered by either herd to push across a marker.

On the second play of the second quarter, however, things happened; Ferris Martin, Flomot guard, intercepted a Lockney pass and raced 30 yards for a touchdown. Kicking into the wind Gilbert's try for extra point was low.

Opening the second half Lockney turned on the power and marched down the field, in short gains, to score. Trial for extra point was wide.

After Flomot had made a concerted drive for 70 yards down the field. Tolbert Brown, quarterback, raced 15 yards to cross the stripe. Gilbert's kick for extra point was good, making the score 13-6.

But the game wasn't to end this way. With only a few moments of the contest remaining, Hill, Lockney quarterback, circled left end for ten yards and a touchdown. Davis plunged the line for the extra point to tie the score.

Junior Culture Club Met With Mrs Slack

The Junior Woman's Culture club met at the home of Mrs Joe Slack Tuesday night.

The program was on "Housekeeping Yesterday and Today." Roll call was answered by giving one of our grandmothers' tasks.

Mabel Atkinson gave a paper on "The Homes of Yesterday." Mrs A C Bickford gave a talk on "From Sun-up to Candlelight With Our Pilgrim Mothers." Mrs Baird followed with a talk on "Homes of Today."

Miss Sybal Hazel was co-hostess with Mrs Slack. After the program a delicious and delightful buffet refreshment plate was served to Misses Allen, Persons, Atkinson, Bergner, Cottingham, Cooper, Olyphint, Puckett, Roberson and Mesdames Baird, Bickford, Cushenberry, Gillespie, King, Roberson, Scoggins and the hostesses.

Mrs Slack was surprised with a shower from the club members.

POLK ST. METHODIST CHURCH TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Polk Street Methodist church, Amarillo, will observe her fiftieth anniversary in an all week service beginning November 20. There will be preaching by some former pastor or presiding elder each evening of the week. Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, has been designated as Homecoming Day and the church is especially anxious to have all former members and any others interested to spend the day in worship and fellowship; Rev. L N Stuckey, a former pastor will have charge of the services both morning and evening hour.

An old-fashioned basket dinner is to be spread in Fellowship Hall at noon. All former members of the church and friends are cordially invited to attend any of these services and make a special effort to spend Thanksgiving Day in the church celebrations.

CALIFORNIA VISITORS

Mrs S J Richardson and her son Hoyt Richardson, wife and small daughter of Los Angeles, Cal., spent Tuesday night with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr and Mrs A L Patterson. Mrs Richardson had been visiting relatives in several Texas cities while her sons, Hoyt and S. J., Jr., went to Detroit for delivery of new automobiles to be delivered at the factory. Junior also visited in Texas enroute to California, however, his itinerary missed Quitaque. The Richardsons formerly lived here and Junior worked for his uncle, A L Patterson.

Miss Evalyne Messimer went to Sudan Monday where she is working in the office of Morris Shook, cotton grader.

AGRICULTURAL BRIEFS

BY THE BRISCOE COUNTY AGENT

Time marches on—and still no rain. Kinda looks like the boys who took advantage of the wheat insurance plan have out smarted the weather man. And by the way since we've mentioned the insurance business it won't be out of line to state right here that November 19, Saturday, is the final date for paying wheat insurance premiums. If you made application for insurance and haven't paid your premium yet be sure and don't let Saturday, November 19, slip past without your doing something about it.

Community Meetings

This week a series of community meetings are being held throughout the county. The purpose of these meetings is to acquaint the farmers with the AAA Farm Program—and some of the proposed substitute programs now being offered to farmers.

It is true that the AAA program is not new, but it is equally as true that most farmers are not as thoroughly acquainted with the program as they should be. At these community meetings an effort is being made to bring about a better understanding among farmers of their own farm program and farm problems.

The attendance and discussions at these meetings indicate that the farmers are tremendously interested in the present farm situation.

If you haven't attended one or more of these meetings you're cheating yourself. Look the line-up over and pick out the nearest place to you and attend one of these farm meetings. Here's the line up:

Kent school house November 17 at 7 p. m.

Gasoline community house Nov. 18 at 7 p. m.

San Jacinto school house, Nov. 25 at 7 p. m.

Things worth your knowing will be discussed at each of these meetings.

Wheat Measurements

Word has just been received from the State Office that measurements for 1939 wheat acreage compliance should be done before January 1. This means that it will be necessary for us to start measuring P D Q.

This bit of information to those of you who have overseeded your wheat acreage. It will be necessary for a mixture of barley or rye (25 percent by weight) be seeded in the excess wheat acres. Regardless of whether or not your excess wheat has come up, the barley or rye must be seeded in it. Ofcourse if you seed this barley or rye mixture that acreage will not be counted as wheat and it may be harvested (if by chance it makes) and will count in your general base just like maize, Kaffir, etc.

If you are over planted on wheat and do not want to seed a mixture of barley or rye in the excess acreage you have the privilege of destroying the excess acres before the supervisor measures your farm.

If you have volunteer wheat left for grazing it will not be counted as wheat provided it is turned under by April 15, 1939.

To those of you who are not ready for the supervisor, may we suggest that you put your place in order as early as possible so that we may proceed with the measuring. Your cooperation in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

"People Are Funny" Thinks the Junior Class

The event of the week (according to the junior class) is the presentation at the school auditorium, Friday night, of the annual junior play, the proceeds of which will be used to compliment the seniors with the usual annual banquet. This year's juniors claim that they have the "greatest show on Earth" and will have little difficulty proving it. It won't be hard for that group of young folks to make a funny show out of "People Are Funny", a brand new farce-comedy, that has just been released by the publishers.

The cast and their sponsor, Mrs Scheid, have worked hard and faithfully to prepare real entertainment for the patrons and are looking forward to a big crowd. Dont disappoint them. Come out Friday night and give them a big hand.

An added feature of the evening will be the presentation of the "Sweetheart of the FFA." The local FFA chapter last week sponsored a contest to choose them a sweetheart and Miss Ima Jo Overstreet was elected. She will represent them at district meetings and be otherwise honored in their activities throughout the year.

DEATH COMES TO BRISCOE COUNTY PIONEER

Muleshoe, Nov. 15—On November 2, Mrs J F Sutton passed away at her home in Snyder, Texas. She had been in ill health for several months.

Mrs Sutton and her husband, the late J F Sutton (Uncle Frank) were old pioneer settlers of Briscoe county and leave lots of friends in that county, both among the old and the young people.

She is survived by five children, four boys and one daughter: M M Sutton of Dolores, Colo., C W Sutton of Dolores, A R Sutton of Snyder, Texas, Roy Sutton of Tucumcari, N. M., and Mrs Violet Foster, Muleshoe, Texas, and thirteen grandchildren. Only two of her children were at her bedside when death came, A R Sutton and Mrs Foster. (A Friend)

Ray Hutcheson and Mrs Cleo Stephens, both of Pampa were married Sunday, Nov. 6, at Panhandle. They will continue to make their home in Pampa where he is connected with the Cabot shops. Ray is a son of Mr and Mrs O E Hutcheson of Quitaque.

Joe Mercer of Silverton, owner of the Palace theatre there, was in Quitaque Wednesday morning.

Mrs. B. D. Witcher Is Buried in Lovington

Mrs B D Witcher, 38 years old, of Lovington, N M, died at 6:15 o'clock Sunday morning in a hospital in that city where she had been under treatment for about ten weeks following an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Witcher had been suffering for several years from an ailment thought to be asthma, but examination at the hospital before the operation disclosed it to be heart trouble.

The funeral service was held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Lovington Methodist church, of which she was a member. Burial was in the cemetery there.

Surviving are her husband and three children, Geraldine and Mary Joyce, daughters, and Marvin D, a son. Also surviving are her mother, Mrs M J Boyles, and Everett, Marvin, John, Cecil and Wirt Boyles of Quitaque, Griff Boyles of Sudan and Jesse Boyles of Dallas; three sisters, Mrs S H Kimbell, Mrs Lee Gregg and Mrs Edna McBride of Quitaque, all of whom were present for the last rites except Jesse who could not be located.

Teddie Reva Boyles was born in Johnson county, Texas, near Cleburne, and came to Quitaque with her parents and family when she was seven years old. She was married to B D Witcher of Oklahoma in 1919, the ceremony being performed at Turkey. The couple lived in Oklahoma a year before moving to Texas to make their home and later to New Mexico. Deceased and family had been living at Lovington about six years.

Quitaque relatives who were at the bedside when the end came and attended the obsequies returned home Monday night.

Certificate Men's Assn. To Meet Here Nov. 22

The Certificate Men's association of the 96th district will meet with the Quitaque Masonic lodge Tuesday night, Nov. 22, about 50 or 75 visitors being expected.

Preceding the meeting a turkey supper with all the trimmings will be served by the host lodge. A big time is expected and lots of enthusiasm among local Masons will no doubt be generated by the meeting.

There are several counties in the district, and several representatives from each will no doubt be present. The meeting is open to all Master Masons. All members of the Quitaque lodge are urged to be present.

METHODIST CONFERENCE IS IN SESSION AT MEMPHIS

The Northwest Texas annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, met in annual session in the First Methodist Church in Memphis, Wednesday of this week. The sessions will be held daily throughout the week. Bishop Ivan Lee Holt will preside at all the business sessions. He will also hold special sessions of his cabinet which is made up of each of several presiding elders. After council together the appointments of the preachers to the several districts and churches will be made. These appointments will be read Sunday afternoon or night.

This conference will also elect delegates to a unification conference to meet next year in Kansas City at which time the three large branches of Methodism are expected to be made one great denomination.

Rev T S Barcus, presiding elder of the Clarendon district, having served his four years, by the law of the church will be returned to the pastorate. A new presiding elder will be appointed to this district. The local pastor, Rev. G L Keever, was busy up to the last minute gathering material for a complete report in the finances of the local church.

Mr and Mrs Jack Grundy of Houston drove out last Friday to attend homecoming at Tech and spent a day here with their parents. Miss Willie Mae Grundy, who has been visiting in South Texas, accompanied them home, and Misses Dorothy Dee Sachse and Bernice Grundy, students at Tech, accompanied them home from Lubbock for a week end with home folks. Mr and Mrs Grundy returned to Houston Sunday.

F M Sachse, Tom Persons and Edwin Grundy from Tech, spent the week end here with home folks.

Panthers Best the Owls Here Last Thursday

November 11, two decades ago the Armistice was signed in Germany, which signified that war was to cease. However since that time the Eleventh has been set aside for the Silverton Owls and the Quitaque Panthers to settle their annual grudges.

Sometimes the Panthers get their fur pulled out and otherwise disgraced. This time it was the Panthers' day from the first whistle until the final gun. The Owls went back to their roost among the cliffs, rocks and forked trees minus a good many tail feathers for they suffered a 7 to 0 defeat at the hands of a fighting, inspired, determined group of Panthers who defended their fair as only good strong Panthers can.

It would be hard to pick a star for the game. All the boys gave a good account of themselves.

J C Rhoderick, Jack Powell, Johnnie Gowin, Bob Grundy, and Billy Brown Hutcheson were playing their last game against the wise old Owls. These fellows all did justice to themselves, their school, and community. These boys should be congratulated by all true football fans.

Panther Line Up:
Jack Powell, left tackle.
Will Lee, center.
Bob Grundy, right guard.
Sterling Herrington, right tackle.
J C Rhoderick, quarter back.
Walter Patrick, full back.
Byron Wise, left half.
Curtis Latham, right half.

The following fellows also saw action:

Harold Jacks, W E Helms, Bob Lee, Jean Grundy, Dennis Gregg, Carmon Bass, Joe King was sick Friday afternoon and did not get to pluck feathers. However, he has been fighting hard every game this year.

Under the heading "Quitaque Panthers Upset Dope", here is what the Briscoe County News had to say about the game:

With the Quitaque boys playing all the football and the Silverton boys doing all the watching the Quitaque Panthers defeated the Silverton Owls Thursday afternoon 7-0 in one of the biggest upsets of the season.

With the wind to their backs, the Panthers mixed an aerial and running attack to push over for a touchdown in the first four minutes and then hung grimly to a 7 point lead the remainder of the game.

First Quarter
The Panthers recovered a fumble on their own 47 and picked up a first on their own 31. A pass, Rhoderick to Wise, for 25 yards, placed the ball on the 6 yard line. On the next play Rhoderick crossed the line standing up for the lone score of the game. The try for extra point was good. Score: Quitaque 7; Silverton 0.

The Panthers chalked up another first down and passed, incomplete from the Owls 30 as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter
Silverton got possession of the ball early in the second quarter but were forced to punt, Hank Brown got off the best punt of the game, 70 yards. The Owls got possession of the ball again on their own 25 after blocking a Quitaque punt. On plunges and end runs the Owls drove within 11 yards of a score but a fumble killed the scoring chance. The half ended with the Owls in possession of the ball on their own 46.

Third Quarter
The half opened with Quitaque receiving the ball. The Owls forced them to punt. The Owls opened with a running attack that netted them two first downs but they bogged down after reaching the 17 yard line. The Owls got possession of the ball again before the end of the third quarter and traveled within 18 yards of pay dirt but they lacked that necessary punch they needed to score.

Fourth Quarter
The fourth quarter opened as a punting and passing duel with neither team making much of a showing. With 55 seconds of time left, the Owls took possession of the ball on their own 24. A pass, Brown to Rampley, was good for 30 yards. Another pass, Brown to Walker, picked up ten yards as the game ended, first and ten for the Owls on the Panthers' 36 yard line.

Coach Leo Jackson and Mr Tanner of Flomot were in Quitaque Monday.

THE EYE

The FFA sweetheart seems to be mainly between the sophomores and seniors—that's the way it is at present... but before it ends, we're sure it will be a heated race between all four classes... Allene Broxson is a person who should be respected by everyone—she is the best sport I ever saw... she'll get further in the world than the average person... Boy, talk like we're not proud of the football boys!... Thursday's game was the best one we've seen this year... At last we've gotten started... now watch us strut our stuff!... What's wrong with Jane Scott this week?... she usually is the first one to turn in her news... I guess this is just "one of those times"... La Rue Patrick wears a brand new dress every day... Tuesday she wore a black wool fur-trimmed dress that was very becoming... Saturday night she was seen at Turkey... she and Doreen Shelton... and La Rue wore a red satin, or wool, or velvet dress... I don't know for sure which it was—but to go on with my story, the two girls were having a high-heel time... there was some kind of a show over there, and I think they went there... wonder why Elene Chandler would go all the way to Childress to buy shoestrings?... visitors Sunday from Turkey... those two "Buddies" you hear so much about... they'll probably be back Friday night to see the play... Jean McBride is wearing a bandage on her neck this week... maybe she strained her neck looking at the airplane Sunday... but wait—I believe I noticed the bandage Friday... Overheard; two or three girls wishing they had lockets... it's not too long 'till Christmas... maybe Santa Claus will be good to you!

Senior News—

The football boys played a very good game last Friday. We are especially proud of the senior boys who play on the team. This is the first game they have won this year, but they will probably not lose any more games this season. We hope.

Turkey must have something that Quitaque doesn't have because most every senior was seen at Turkey sometime over the week end.

Nora Dale Lewis spent the week end in Canyon.

Richard seems to be something like "Barnacle Bill the Sailor". He seems to have a girl in every port.

Mr Scheid: How did the drought of 1936 affect the farmer?
 Johnny: They had to put their postage stamps on with safety pins.

Elene was absent from school Monday. Maybe "speech" had something to do with it, but she says she went to Childress to buy her some shoe strings.

Things We Can Do Without
 Jane asking so many questions
 Starkey sitting behind a certain junior girl.
 Johnnie being so love sick.
 Rosalind and Bob talking.

Juanita Mayhall was seen in Silverton sometime over the week end.
 You should have heard Inez trying to explain "love" a few days ago.

JUNIOR NEWS

News that is news—Ma's funny, Pa's funny, Bettie's funny, Helene's funny, in fact the cast is funny in "People Are Funny." Isn't that funny? (It's really funny how funny it is).

Junior Play News
 The Junior Play is progressing rapidly. The stage properties were gathered and arranged Monday afternoon. The juniors are really doing their part—doing their parts and dishing out the fun so come and get your share.

Say who's the dope who doped our football boys. They were doped! And by the way, look that cast of characters over again—

Jussie Budd, a defeated mother,

Betty Budd, a wise child, flip but lovable, Jane Scott.

Winnie Wehle, bashful to an annoying extent, Lorene Rhoderick.
 Florence Fairchild, goodlooking, and well attired, Ima Jo Overstreet.
 Gladys Bliss, an attractive blond, Maurine Boswell.

Olga Oginspanski, exotic type of foreigner, Nadine Morris.
 Prudence Paine, typical country relative, Mildred Coker.

Pamela Paine, and she really is a pain, Marie Hall.

Kenny Budd, Edwin Drake, our local Andy Hardy.
 Arthur Fairchild, handsome and intriguing, W E Helms.

John Budd, easy-going head of a typical American family, Walter Patrick.

 Elmer Wehle, about fifty, bald and wizened, Marion Wilson.

Junior Slogan (the last two weeks)
 —Mrs. Scheid, please let us out early enough to go the show tonight. (Why, oh why, did the best run of shows this year have to come in the past two weeks.)

Gossip—
 There ain't none! We ain't had time, we've been too busy preparin' to show you "People are Funny" to make gossip.

Mildred Osman, Maurine Boswell, Eva Lee Curtis, Bart Stephenson—if doin' something don't get publicity for you—then here's some for doin' nothin'.

It's Driving Us Nuts!
 This Jr. Play—Emily Margaret: "No, Joe, that's not your cue. You're just not supposed to sleep in study hall."

W E: I may be crazy—but I can prove it. (from the script.)
 Walter: It won't be necessary. This play is driving us all nuts. Call the police. (Also from the script.)

As I said before and now repeat—the only news that is news is "People Are Funny" to be presented by the juniors at the school auditorium Friday night, November 18. Don't miss it.

It all depends on you whether we feed the seniors "milk and crackers" or "turkey and fixin's."

SOPHOMORE'S LATEST NEWS
 Nothing—
 The same students, the same studies, and the same grades.

Social Item—Where were so many of the sophomores Friday night? At church, I suppose, where all the 'sophs' go.

Maybe so, but what is the name given to a church in which the people, coupled off, move about to swing music in the order they were doing there?

A Column Telling You Who's Who—
 Alton Anderson, a "tall, dark and handsome", who is intelligent in his studies and who seems to be taking time about in taking a sophomore brunette and a grade school blonde to enjoy the scenery (or is it the moon?)

Christine Bedwell, a small girl with auburn hair, blue eyes, and light complexion and who has no trouble with studies. Christine is interested in a boy who has a "sir" name that also begins with a "B".

Charles Berry, a nice looking blonde, who is the "Bing Crosby" of the sophomore class. He watches a girl whose given name begins with the same letter as his and also her "sir" name. (What a cinch.)

Heard—
 A freshman girl to a sophomore boy: "Friday night I got in bad because I was supposed to be in at straight 11 o'clock, and it was 11:25 when I reached the house."
 The sophomore boy: "But we turned you in your pasture by 11 o'clock."

Some Difference, Eh?
 Helen McBride: "Oh, Dad, I've just discovered there's a girl sitting next to me who has a hat exactly like mine."
 Father: "So I suppose you want me to buy you a new one."
 Helen: "Well, darling, that would be cheaper than changing schools."

Did you ever notice the like of birthdays in November! Every other person was born in November, but the most interesting one to be noted is Mrs Scheid. Yes, it's true that she told us when her birthday is and she even told us how old she is. But why not? She's still young and won't even start getting middle-aged for about thirteen years.

The FFA sweetheart contest ended Tuesday evening, but the winner has not been announced at the time this is written. However, whoever the lucky person is, congratulations, and here's sincerely hoping for future success.

FRESHMAN NEWS
 Football boys, we are proud of you. As you all know, Silverton is our greatest rival for almost anything.

We Wonder—
 Who's football jacket Lena Etta was wearing Tuesday?

Where two of our freshman girls were last Thursday night? (Turkey is a nice place isn't it Isabell?)

If some of our freshmen weren't at Turkey Friday night, there were so many other high school students?

Why Jeane Hamilton is wearing so many new clothes lately? (Jeane, it couldn't be a boy, could it?)

Mildred Boswell look so lonesome all the time lately? (Time about with sister is fair play, they say Mildred)

Oles Case doesn't want his name in the paper. (All of Turkey doesn't get the paper, Oles)

For Me To Know and You to Find Out
 (Answers to last week—1st Jean McBride; 2nd William Lee.)

She is a very pretty blond. She has blue eyes and is very slender. Her favorite colors are blue and green. She has a wonderful personality and is very smart in her books. Boys don't interest her.

She has beautiful brown hair and the color of her eyes depends on how she feels. If she is angry her eyes get stormy looking and if she is happy they are a sky blue. Her favorite colors are blue and brown. She says boys make her sick.

Events on the Social Calendar—
 Junior Play, November 18
 Piano Recital, November 23 at Turkey by Turkey and Quitaque pupils.
 Senior Play, two or three weeks from Friday night.

HIGHWAY 86 ASSOCIATION MET HERE TUESDAY

The regular monthly meeting of Highway 86 association was held in Quitaque Tuesday afternoon with the vice president from Tulia presiding in the absence of Judge Coffee, the president, who has been indisposed for several days.

A resolution was offered by Judge B C McCaslin of Tulia embracing several road matters to be requested of the highway commission, chief among which as far as highway 86 is concerned is resumption and completion of work on the cap rock, continuation of caliche base work on the road near Tulia and replacing of the hazardous bridge two miles east of Quitaque. The resolution was endorsed by the body, the judge stating that additional projects submitted by courts or civic bodies from counties not represented at the meeting would be accepted by him as amendments to his resolution before the document is filed with the highway commission, however stress was placed on the matter of getting the items before the commission at the earliest date possible.

Several matters of highway improvement were discussed and a number of improvements that have been accomplished were enumerated.

Due to a misunderstanding of the meeting place no meeting was held last month, Quitaque having been selected and a subsequent announcement going to press that the session would be held at Turkey, the association's business got into a jam. Decision was made at that time to hold the current meeting here. Twelve members attended, representing Swisher, Hall and Briscoe counties.

The next meeting will be held at Tulia on Tuesday after the second Monday (which is Dec. 12) at 2:30 o'clock at the court house. Judge McCaslin stated there would be refreshments for those attending.

Clinton Keeter left Monday for Big Spring to visit his grandparents, Mr and Mrs H C Wolf, the first stop on his itinerary of visiting relatives before going to San Francisco, Cal., to begin his term of re-enlistment in the U S Army. From Big Spring he will go to San Antonio for a visit with his aunt, Mrs J M Martin and then to Corona, Cal., to visit his brother-in law and sister, Mr and Mrs Paul Miller. Clinton stated that he likes army life and that it's a hundred percent better than loafing around on the streets.

The Story Of "Marie Antoinette"

Maria Theresa, Empress of Austria, has crowned her career as a diplomat by arranging the marriage of her daughter, Marie Antoinette, to Louis August, Dauphin of France. As an Empress, she has schemed for the French alliance with her astute ambassador, Count de Mercy. As a mother, she is troubled, having heard stories that Louis is a strange creature, not the one she would select for her daughter's husband.

er, King Louis XV, and ridiculed by his elegant brothers, the Princes Provenca and Artois; his crafty cousin the Duke d'Orleans, and Du Barry, the King's mistress.

Louis leaves a bewildered and tearful Antoinette on their wedding night, after telling her brutally that he is not capable of being a husband. Louis, at heart, a simple and kindly person, has only three interests, his blacksmith shop, his clocks, and Gamini, a dull giant, his only friend.

Hated by Du Barry, who looks upon Antoinette as a rival for her power, the little Hapsburg Archduchess becomes a lonely and forlorn figure in the Palace at Versailles. Denied the love of a husband and the counsel of trusted friends, she becomes a tool in the hands of the unscrupulous d'Orleans, who, eager for personal glory, plays her against Du Barry. D'Orleans tells Antoinette that all Paris is eager to pay her homage, that she must be more brilliant than Du Barry in every way. "Conquer Paris and you conquer Du Barry," he says.

Antoinette finds escape, excitement and thrills in gay and expensive parties. She becomes a sponsor of the opera, the most lavishly-dressed woman in France. Her escapades are on every tongue. She loses fortunes at the gaming tables and races, while the French people become more oppressed and weighed down by poverty.

At a riotous affair in a gambling house, Antoinette must find a Russian, or pay a heavy forfeit. She calls a stranger in from the street, the dashing Count Axel de Fersen, a Swedish nobleman and makes him play her Russian. When Antoinette kisses him, he insults her and leaves. Antoinette is furious, but forgets Fersen as her position is endangered. Du Barry has used the pretext that Antoinette is childless to influence the aging King Louis against her. Ill, and no match for Du Barry, the King agrees that Antoinette should be sent back to Vienna. The Dauphin, loving Antoinette in his own shy, wavering way, pleads for his wife, revealing that now it is possible for her to have children, but the King is determined on his course.

Antoinette goes to Count de Mercy for help and meets Fersen again. Gallantly offering his aid, Fersen reveals his love for her. They have a moment of romance and Antoinette gives him a ring inscribed "Everything Leads to Thee." Fate steps in when the King dies suddenly of smallpox, and Antoinette becomes Queen of France. Fersen, realizing that he could dare love a Dauphine, but not the Queen says, for America with these final words, "You must live openly, in sight of all, with authority—and never with regret."

Antoinette, happy in the memory of her love, determines to become a good Queen, and bears a son and a daughter. Louis is an affectionate father, who attempts to be King, but lacks force and decision during the critical times that follow. As King Louis XV said before his death "After me, the deluge."

D'Orleans, who refused to aid Antoinette during her difficulties, is denied her favor when she becomes Queen. Embittered, he plots against the throne, and becomes a leader in the agitation for revolution. The situation reaches a climax when a Paris mob storms Versailles, and the King and Queen are made prisoners.

Fersen, learning of Antoinette's danger, goes to her. An escape is arranged, a carriage obtained and passports forged that will make possible flight to safety across the border. The plan fails when Drouet, a Citizen, recognizes the King and has the carriage stopped at Varennes, almost to the border and freedom. The Royal family is returned to the Prison of La Force, Louis and Antoinette are separated, but allowed one evening together after the Convention, with d'Orleans casting a deciding vote, has condemned the King to death.

Antoinette's son is taken from her to testify against his mother. On his testimony, she also is condemned. On the eve of Antoinette's execution, Fersen risks his life to see her. His second plan to effect her escape comes too late. Antoinette, aged by suffering, horror and despair, but still the Queen, goes to the guillotine and to rest.

TURKEY STUDY CLUB HAS HOMECOMING

A delightful luncheon at the Hotel Turkey in Turkey last Thursday climaxed the celebration of Homecoming Day for the 1929 Study club. About 40 members and ex-members were present. The very entertaining program was presented by children of members of the club. Attending the luncheon from Quitaque was Mrs Fletcher Chambers. Others from various towns who were present were Mrs Richards and Mrs Hedrick of Childress, Mrs Frank Anderson of Wellington, Mrs R C Bryan of Clarendon, Mrs J N Cypert of Memphis, Mrs Doyle Pyatt and Mrs Elvis Lowry of Estelline.

MRS. W. F. BITTAIN, JR IS COMPLIMENTED WITH SHOWER

A miscellaneous shower complimenting Mrs W F Brittain, Jr., was given Tuesday afternoon at Turkey at the home of Mrs W R Mohon. The hostesses for the affair were Miss Opal McGinty, Mrs Ruby Leggett, Mrs Madeline Mohon and Mrs Elith Gregg. The array of lovely and useful gifts was displayed to about forty five guests who called during the afternoon. A dainty refreshment plate of apricot whip, sandw iches and coffee, ornamented with favors of miniature brides, was served.

HEALTH AND SAFETY CULTURE CLUB STUDIES

The Womens Culture club met Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 9, at the home of Mrs H G Gardiner for the study of "Health and Safety." Mrs Tim Moore was leader.

Roll call was answered by naming a health and safety precaution.

Mrs V T Hall brought information of "The Fight Against Infantile Paralysis," and Mrs E C Price discussed "Measures Being Taken to Safeguard Public Health." Mrs J B Russell read a paper on "Safety at Home and on the Highways."

The next scheduled program is a dinner in honor of the members of the Junior club on November 23.

TECH RED RAIDERS HOLD UNDEFEATED RECORD

Lubbock—Texas Tech's Red Raiders successfully protected their untied, undefeated record with a 7-0 victory over their Gonzaga Bulldogs.

Held scoreless through the first half, the Raiders struck pay dirt in the third period and then relied on defensive football to keep their record untarnished. It was the eighth consecutive Texas Tech win and was played in a roaring West Texas windstorm, although there was no sand blowing on the field.

Mr and Mrs A C Bickford attended the football game in Pampa Friday between Pampa and Lubbock high schools. They were accompanied by her brothers, W L and Leon (Rittenberry) Graham.

Fred Buchanan was in Quitaque Wednesday evening from his farm on the Plains.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

The women of the Methodist church are busy selling and collecting subscriptions to the Quitaque Post, a substantial percentage of the money collected going to the church funds. If you are not a subscriber now is a good time to become a member of the happy family, if you are already a member, now is a good time to help three causes—yours, ours and the church.

The only records we have are our mailing list by which we must be guided. Many of our readers are in arrears, some even after a payment has been made but not sufficient to bring the subscription up to date. This is due no doubt to the fact that no effort was made toward collection in 1936 and only a haphazard effort in 1937. We want every subscriber that we can get and are going to be as lenient as possible. After giving all who are behind an opportunity to pay up, we are going to remove from the list those who have failed to do so or do not care enough for the paper to pay for it.

We will appreciate your renewal immediately, either payable at the office or to one of the ladies.

How Safe Are You at Home? Red Cross Warns of Hazards

- 1. Loose rug at top of stairs is a dangerous hazard.
2. Keep medicine cabinets locked or out of reach of youngsters.
3. Teach children not to put safety pins or other small objects in their mouths.
4. Good luck if you hang it up, but bad luck if you step on the nails in this horseshoe.

DURING the month of October, the American Red Cross will carry a safety message into ten million homes and farms throughout the nation, urging a check-up on accident hazards. Do you know these hazards? How safe are you at home? Do you know that deaths from injuries on the farm are steadily increasing? What are the causes? These are a few of the questions the Home and Farm Accident Prevention Service of the Red Cross will send into homes, on an accident check list to be distributed through

Chapters, by millions of school children and members of the Junior Red Cross. And the answers are provided on the check list, too. National attention was concentrated on the Home and Farm accident problem in 1935-36 by the Red Cross. In that year 37,000 men, women and children lost their lives in home accidents, which were largely preventable. In 1937, this toll of life was reduced, and only 32,500 lives were sacrificed to carelessness. The spread of knowledge on hazards which were subject to correction was everywhere credited with this cut in the death toll. The 1937 deaths from home accidents were divided as follows, according to the National Safety Council: falls, 17,500; burns and explosions, 5,600; poisonings, 1,700; firearms, 800; mechanical suffocation, 1,000; poison gases, 1,100. The Red Cross appeals to those in the home and on the farm to carefully check hazards which may exist inside and outside their houses, and perhaps save a life or prevent a life-long injury.
