

Jack Heald Shows Grand Champion In Annual Gilt Show Held Saturday

Mr. Muleshoe

Seen & Heard: Implement Dealer: If it would rain a couple of inches all over this territory I would buy a page spread in the paper.

Editor: If it would rain a couple of inches all over this territory I would give you a page spread in the paper.

Bud Holdeman: My mother in law says there won't hardly be no rain for a right smart spell yet.

Well, John A. Lomax, the folklore man of Texas, used to quote a poem in his talks, a verse of which went like this:

"...On that wild western Plain,
Where the prairie dog kneels,
On the back of his heels,
And silently prays for rain."

And you understand that if it rains before press time you won't see this in the paper, probably.

Rev. Cole: What does a fellow do when he doesn't get his paper?
Editor: Dog gone, did you miss your paper?

Cole: I didn't say I missed it, but I sure didn't get it.

This happened quite a few months ago, and ye editor hasn't thought up a suitable repost yet.

Our Eight Favorite Noses

A zoology professor at the University of Nebraska who has a hobby of collecting pictures of noses, says there are eight basic kinds, and we don't know what they are, but our eight favorite kinds of noses are as follows:

The nose that is followed by its owner, the nose that is not poked into other people's business, the nose that isn't kept too close to the grindstone, the nose that isn't altogether as plain as one on a man's face, the nose that isn't being paid thru, the nose that isn't cut off to spite a face, the nose that isn't turned up at anything, and the nose that isn't looked down at anyone.

When these eight basic noses are brought together in one basic nose, we not only like it, but the person that goes with it.—The St. Louis Post Dispatch.

H. K. Freeman Out As Commissioner Candidate, Prec. 1

H. K. Freeman this week told The Journal that he will not be a candidate for the office of Commissioner of Precinct 1, Bailey county. Mr. Freeman had announced his candidacy, but said he has decided to withdraw from the race.

"I do not feel that it is fair to Mr. McKillip to oppose him when he is running for his second term," Mr. Freeman told the editor. He added that he believed Mr. McKillip is doing a good job as commissioner, and thought that roads are showing much improvement since the commissioner has received new equipment.

He said he wished to thank all who had taken an interest in his candidacy.

Lazbuddy Will Vote On Bonds Saturday, May 22

Voters of the Lazbuddy Independent School District will decide Saturday, May 22, the question of issuance of $100,000 in bonds to build a new high school and a gymnasium at the site of the present school, Elber: Nowell, member of the board of trustees told The Journal.

It will be the second time in recent weeks when Lazbuddy people had the opportunity to vote on this matter.

In the first election, the proposal was to issue bonds in the sum of $200,000, and that the new school building and gymnasium should be built at a spot about two and one half miles from the present location. The proposal was defeated nearly three to one.

Now it is proposed to issue a less amount of bonds, and to build near the present grade school building, saving considerable money in construction costs.

A full expression of opinion of the people of the district is desired. Roy Daniel has been named judge of the election, and R. D. Precur, Ernest Merriott, and T. L. Glasscock will be clerks. Voting will be in the school building.

HEAR CONCERT

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Alsop were in Amarillo, last Wednesday night to hear Jose Iturbi.

Jack Heald, Bailey county 4-H Club boy, exhibited the grand champion in the registered gilt show held here Saturday. Jack won with a Poland China gilt that was first in that breed. He also showed the second high Poland China gilt.

Jimmie Clements, Voc. Ag. boy of Muleshoe, showed the reserve champion gilt, a Chester White. Jack won $20 in premiums and Jimmie received $17.50.

Ollie Limer, county agent of Pomeroy county, judged all breeds. Out of town men at the show included Supt. Macon, Morton schools, Andrew Essery, Morton Ag. teacher Mr. Woods, Ag. teacher at Levee, and Robert Morton, Ag. teacher at Farwell. The latter is president of the Plains Swine Breeders Association.

Thirty-six registered gilts of four breeds, Poland China, Duroc, Hampshire, and Chester Whites were on view at the show, held in the new vocational agriculture building.

Awards by breeds were as follows (where no designation is given the boy is a Muleshoe Voc. Ag. student):

Hampshires
Marvin Davenport, 4-H boy, 1 and 2; Bill Stinson, 3 and 4; Jimmy Winstead, 5; Phillip Garrett, 6; J. W. Youngblood, Three Way Voc. Ag. 7.

Poland Chinas
Jack Heald, 4-H Club, 1 and 2; J. R. Henry, 3; Carter Taylor, 4; Benny Douglass, 5; Gilbert Dupler, 4-H Club, 6; Marion Waggoner, 7; Marvin Waggoner, 8; Joe Wheeler, Three Way Voc. Ag., 9 & 10; Robert Martin, 11; Wendell Penny, Three Way Voc. Ag., 12; Murrel Kelton, 13.

Chester Whites
Jimmie Clements, 1 and 3; Jerry Julian, 2 and 5; J. R. Henry, 4; Ed Nickels, 6; Melvin White, 7.

Duroc Jersey
Bill Thomson, 1 and 7; M. L. Borren, 4-H club, 2; Kiel Quesenberry, 4-H Club, 3 & 4; Charles Mayhugh, 4-H Club, 5; Harvey Coffman, 6; Gerald Bass, 8.

Total expenses of the show, including premiums and judge's fee was $174.50. Edward White, vocational agriculture teacher here, said and amounted to considerably less than was anticipated, principally because all classes were not full. However, the show had more animals than were expected and all exhibited high quality and care on the part of their owners.

J. K. Adams, county agent, a recognized authority on swine types and swine shows, said that the boys, although the show was confined to this county, faced as strong competition as they would at any show he has attended.

It was the first time the new vocational agriculture department of Three Way high school has taken part in the gilt show, and the teacher, Mr. Tilger and his boys made a creditable showing and were an appreciated part of the exhibition. Fine progress is being made at Three Way in the FFA work.

Muleshoe School Host At Luncheon Held Here Saturday

Several business men, FFA and 4-H club boys, their dads, local school men and visiting agriculture workers were guests of the school Saturday at a luncheon featuring a ranch style dinner. W. C. Cunningham, superintendent, made luncheon arrangements.

Edward White, vocational teacher, introduced the visitors, following the luncheon and Johnny Seid, agriculture student, gave a report on achievements of the local FFA chapter in the last year. He reviewed the boys' projects and their winnings at the various shows and contests held in the state and territory.

Seid pointed out that the local FFA chapter last year produced 13 Lone Star Farmers, highest number ever produced by a chapter.

Many of the men went direct from the luncheon to the new vocational agriculture building where the show was held.

SCHOOL BONDS SOLD MONDAY

One of the last hurdles to be cleared before heading into the tinna' stretch leading to construction of the new high school building in Muleshoe, pictured on page one of The Journal last week, was taken by the independent school district board here Monday when they sold $350,000 in bonds to provide funds for the building's erection. The bonds were voted several months ago by the people of the district.

The board announced that the bonds were purchased by First of Texas Bonding Company, of San Antonio, which will act as broker to resell them wherever they are desired.

At the same time, the board announced that the members and school authorities here are pleased with the terms of the sale, especially in view of the current situation in the bond market.

Muleshoe's bonds will run for a term of 30 years; they will bear 3 1/4 per cent interest during the first 20 years and 3 1/2 per cent during the remaining 10 years.

A spokesman for the board said bids for construction of the new building likely will be asked for in June. Construction probably will be underway by midsummer.

The architects, Butler & Brashear of Lubbock, report much interest has been manifested in school circles in the plans for the building here. They have had requests from widely separated points for pictures of the local school. In addition, The Contractor, a nationally distributed magazine has asked for permission to use the picture on their front cover.

Supt. W. C. Cunningham announced that complete plans of the floor layout are now in his office and that the people are invited to come to his office and make a thorough examination and to tender any suggestions that may occur to them.

Admission will be $1.50 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Muleshoe Airport Is A Busy Place

From a low pasture of a few months ago, Muleshoe Airport has been transformed into one of the busiest spots in the territory, figures released by Stephen Hopkins, manager show.

For instance there are 35 students taking lessons in flying at the field now, about all that the traffic will bear. The airport owner, Elvie Jennings, has had to employ an assistant to Mr. Hopkins. He is Walter Little who recently passed the examination for instructor's license.

Bengtr Airpark at Friona, also owned by Mr. Jennings, has added an instructor and another plane mechanic, Mr. Hopkins said.
All driveways at the Muleshoe Airport have been repaired and placed in excellent condition, and local fliers who have used other airports in the territory while on cross country trips say the local field does not suffer by any comparison.

Mr. Little was to complete his final papers for instructor's rating today. Ace Freeman recently received his private pilot license, Marion Little took the examination Saturday, and Chuck Julian took his examination Sunday. These have all completed the work since Mr. Hopkins has been in charge.

In this week's paper is a notice concerning the type of work for which the local airport is now qualified, and a special notice to ex-G. Is who wish to learn to fly.

Sweet Sudan Is Ideal Grass For Summer Pasture

Station—Permanent pastures change from cool, fresh, dark green grazing in the spring to a dry, stemmy, dormant condition in the summer. It's fine today, but tomorrow or the next day or some time next summer, it will be a different story. In the late summer the permanent pasture grasses are not as good eating for the livestock as they are now. Then is the time the cattle want something besides the dry, brittle grass. Then is the time for sweet sudan, says E. A. Miller, extension agronomist of Texas A. & M. College.

Sweet sudan is the ideal grass for temporary summer pasture. It is adapted generally throughout the Texas croplands, and can be planted from spring to early summer, depending upon the moisture. Cross-fencing for rotation grazing and for cutting any surplus hay or silage is well worth while.

Johnson grass, even though it lives from year to year, grows better if it is cultivated, fertilized and has good grazing management. A good grazing combination is Johnson grass and sweet clover.

There are four general steps in growing sweet sudan: (1) prepare your land the same as for other crops, (2) apply 200 to 300 pounds per acre of 5-10-5 commercial fertilizer before or at planting time in the humid sections of Texas. In addition to the 5-10-5 it is well to make one or two top dressings of ammonium nitrate or other good nitrogen fertilizer, (3) plant about 10 pounds of seed per acre in rows and (4) cultivate as other row crops. When the pastures are at their best, that is the time to plant more. The best way to have high producing, year-round grazing is to plan ahead, so that new grasses are ready for grazing when today's grasses in permanent pastures are passing on beyond their peak production.

The permanent pastures and native grasses furnish the best grazing this time of year. With coming of the drier, hotter summer months, the present pastures will begin to fade and will need a rest from grazing. If planted now, sweet sudan will keep the livestock on their upward swing of gains.

Sweet sudan is one of the most practical temporary summer pasture crops in the South. Planted at this season, it can be grazed when the sod pastures are on their way out. And it often gives fresh grazing until late fall. Sweet sudan grass is leafier, heavier yielding, more palatable and the livestock like it better than common sudan. Another good point in favor of sweet sudan is that it is more resistant to leaf diseases, and therefore stays greener longer than common sudan.

Sudan is popular because it will grow nearly anywhere, it is easy to plant and it has a large quantity of forage high in total energy value, vitamins, minerals and protein, says Miller.

ver of their rise to power. Goebbels' story has been skillfully brought out of the huge mass of material, which the Nazi leader kept in his diaries, in this book by Louis Lochner.

"The Best of Clarence Day" is another book to be enjoyed by everyone. Included in this collection are selections such as God and My Father, Life with Father, Life with Mother and This Simian World.

Uncle Sam Says

You howled your head off when home town player, bat on shoulder, let a perfect pitch wham into the catcher's mitt for the third strike. Well, you'd have the same right to howl if you saw the man who works next to you miss the ball on this tax reduction business. By taking the extra money and putting it into United States savings bonds through the payroll savings plan he actually would be hitting a home run for security for self and country. Your country needs millions of savers now to preserve the nation's security. America's security is your security.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Jeb Had the Folks in Stitches!

At the Friday Night Social, Jeb Crowell had the audience in stitches—doing a take-off on the blustering character who belittles everybody and everything that isn't from his own home town.

Well, we can laugh at that sort of character because from where I sit, Americans are just the opposite. We like to boast a bit perhaps, about the paint job on the new barn, or the missus' style of cooking—but we aren't intolerant of people who don't think or act exactly the same way we do.

In our town, for instance: Some folks like band concerts, others don't—some families serve beer with dinner, others, buttermilk—and as for politics, there's plenty of healthy disagreement.

But when it comes to denying folks the right to think or act as they choose... no, we're like you—we don't believe in it, whether it goes for serving beer, or speaking one's mind on public affairs.

Sunshine Club Met In Chambless Home

The Sunshine Club met Thursday, May 6, in the home of Mrs. George Chambless.

The meeting was called to order and each member answered roll call by reading a verse from the Bible. Mrs. John Ladd was honored and showered as Club Mother. Each member read a Mother's Day verse and everyone joined in singing two Mother's Day songs.

Delicious refreshments of devils food cake and kool-aid were served to the following: Mesdames C. H. Odom, Robbie Hart, Ruby Crawford, John Ladd, Fred Simmons, Lillie Barnhouse, L. D. Tipton, Dave Coulter, Cecil Harvey, R. E. Dorn, L. E. Ware, a new member, Mrs. O. H. Ekerhart and the hostess, Mrs. George Chambless.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Dave Coulter Thursday, May 20. All members are urged to be present.

"There's a New Look to foods just as there is in fashion," says Miss Anne Director, famous writer and food consultant. "Probably the elegance of the new gowns has inspired this return to more gracious dining. Food stylists, like dress designers, are rediscovering the charm of nearly forgotten fashions and customs."

Miss Director, author of the new Standard Wine Cook Book (Doubleday & Co.) which is already a national best-seller, points out that in the field of foods this renaissance is marked by widespread interest in the centuries-old art of cooking with wine to add magic new flavor to foods.

"The celebrated chefs of France and other countries have always used wine in cooking," adds Miss Director "and American women are now finding that cooking with wine is a short cut to culinary success. When wine is used in cooking, the alcohol evaporates, then the delicious natural flavor of the grapes is blended with the food flavors."

Uncle Sam Says

Seeding time on the farm calls for the use of strong, pure seed able to meet weather and pest attacks and still come through with a good harvest. United States Savings Bonds are like good reliable seed. They grow a crop which can be left to fall, rich maturity in ten years at the rate of $4 for every $3 invested. Take a tip from the wise farmer who is storing up a crop of security by investing now in Savings Bonds. He is growing more money, security for himself and his family and security for his country. Chocolate Topped Nut Crunchies

"Mom, how about one of those hot cookies?"

The mother who regularly bakes cookies is the champion—not only to her children, but also to her husband who still likes to raid the cookie jar.
For something different in the way of cookies, try these chocolate topped nut crunchies. Into the top of each crunchy cookie press chocolate frosting and garnish with a whole almond.
These taste delights are good to have around on house-cleaning days when time is at a premium or on days when it's fun to be outdoors and picnics are a spur-of-the-moment entertainment.

CHOCOLATE TOPPED NUT CRUNCHIES

1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 egg
1 cup coarsely chopped nuts
Chocolate frosting or melted chocolate candy bar thinned with cream
Sift together flour, salt and soda. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add vanilla extract. Add egg, mixing well. Add flour mixture and nuts. Drop by teaspoonfuls on greased baking sheets. With spoon make hollows in center of each cookie. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) about 10 minutes. Drop chocolate frosting by teaspoonfuls in hollows. Top with nut if desired. Yield: About five dozen cookies, one and one-half inches.

Estimated 843 Farms in Bailey

Bailey county had 843 farms in 1947 and their combined estimated income for the year is $11,669,952, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Highest county in these parts was Lubbock with $32,821,740, on 2,121 farms. Hale county had the highest average of Plains counties in number of acres per farm, 1,647. Bailey county farms averaged 590 acres, against Lubbock's 262.

Estimated income per farm in 1947 in this county was $13,843. Lowest estimated income per farm was that of Dickens county, $6,445 and highest was Garza, with $18,006 return on 448 farms. If there are only 843 farms in Bailey county, the number of farms that are irrigated now total about 42 per cent of the aggregate, since 362 wells were counted in the area north of Muleshoe in a recently made survey by the Bailey County Water Conservation Association.

"New Look" In Tractors Is Here

"The New Look In Tractors," a machine embodying radical departures in farm power machinery, is now on view at the Muleshoe Implement & Supply company store here, Earl Ladd, manager announced. It is the Model "G", now in production in quantity in Allis-Chalmers' new plant in Alabama.

The tractor features an engine mounted on the rear, with tools placed in front. They are pushed, and are so situated that the tractor operator may observe the manner in which they are doing their work. The tractor is designed to cultivate one to five rows, and besides will do a multitude of farm jobs.

The motto for the Model G is: "It will do some jobs on all farms—all jobs on some farms," and when the listener hears Mr. Ladd explain the purpose of the full line of tools that are manufactured for it, he can readily believe the motto states the case.

Mr. Ladd expects to be able to deliver some of the Model G in this territory this season; the present tractor is a demonstrator, and when

Your part in the Security Loan takes minutes but benefits of your action may last a lifetime. By signing up today for the payroll savings plan for buying United States Savings Bonds where you work, or the bond-a-month plan where you bank, if you are self-employed, you will be on the road to security. Small savings become big savings when you save systematically—automatically—probably—safely. For example, an allotment of $3.75 a week for savings bonds amounts to $2162.45 in just 10 years. more tools are received, it will be demonstrated on various farms in the neighborhood. The tractor burns only a fraction of the gas required for a big tractor, costs only a fraction of a regular tractor's price, but will do lots of work in a day's time, the implement firm believes.

For instance, very small beets may be cultivated with the tools designed for the tractor. They chop up the dirt, then gently push it around the tender plants.

Mr. Ladd quoted Farm Implement News, a trade magazine published in Chicago, which said that the Model G "becomes a milestone in tractor history, the first really new concept in tractor designing, completely worked out to the last detail, that has appeared on the American agriculture scene since Bert Benjamin's first Farmall became a reality."

The Allis-Chalmers factory, especially built to produce the new machine, has a production schedule of 100 tractors per day, so Mr. Ladd believes he will get several for sale to farmers in this territory. Meantime, he invites the public to come and see the "new look in tractors," and to watch for demonstration date to be announced later.

Lighting activities around the shoe Airport during the past week is the fact that three of the students who have been training under the G. I. program have received their private pilot's licenses. They are Ace Freeman, Edward Little and Chock Julian. These are the first to obtain such tickets through the local air field since it was re-approved as a veterans' school in February.

With the recent eligibility to offer a commercial pilot's course, also, training is now well underway for this part of the course. Those who received private licenses earlier and who are already chalking up time for this rating are Emanuel Jennings, A. R. Edmiston, Glenn Rockey, D. L. Smith, Sherrill Creamer, Little and Julian. Going for his instructor's rating is Walter B. Little.

On the list of students who have made their solo flight: George Tompkins, Willis Farrell, Billy Jo Stevens, Bobby Gene Peace, James Meason, William Bovell, Clifton Griffiths. Scrambling through the files, one may note three members of the Barbour family (not radio) Babe, Pinkie and Jack Barbour, all of whom have passed the solo grade.

Each Sunday morning a cross country flight is scheduled, weather permitting. Those participating

Just as a passing thought, wonder where Conrad Williams has been all week. Perhaps he wasn't been strong enough to drift him in.

Sam Johnson and Leo Laux are catching up on a bit of lagging time in their own plane lately. We detected same flying several times during the past few days.

That maroon colored Navion which was here Friday afternoon came in from 89 miles east of St. Louis. Piloting was Carol Petree, whose folks live at Lariat. He brought along his wife and five-weeks-old daughter for a brief visit with the family.

We see Bob King around occasionally—he uses the Cruiser (red and yellow plane to non-fliers), and yellow plane to our non-fliers, for recreational and business trips.

As a bit of explanation about the airplanes, there are on the field, nine which are based here: one cub, one supercruiser, one Taylor Craft, one B. T. (meaning basic trainer is a veteran of World War I and of the I. S.), one P. T. (primary trainer), one "24" Fairchild, one Stearman (two wing), one Timm and one Swift (this is the fast one.)

More transient aircraft are using the field lately. Wonder if it is because of the free coffee for them or because we have the best field in this section. (Ask anyone who files.)

They have resided in Frederick since before 1920. He first operated a gin, then went into the cotton and grain brokerage business. He is a veteran of World War I and during World War II served as secretary of the Frederick selective service board. He is a member of Frederick Masonic bodies, is a Shriner, and was formerly a member of the Lions club. Mrs. Stovall, who is very active in Frederick social and civic circles, formerly taught in the high school there. The family are members of the Presbyterian church.

Miss Jane Stovall is graduating this year from Frederick high school with highest honors; she is class valedictorian. She will enter Texas Tech college this fall. The younger daughter, Helen Ann, completed the sixth grade at Frederick this spring.

The Frederick Leader expressed the regret of the town and county that this fine family was leaving. The Journal, in turn, expresses the thought of Bailey county and Muleshoe people in saying that the Stovalls are entirely welcome here, and that we are "mighty glad to have them aboard."

Members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce voted at their regular meeting Monday night to sponsor the showing of Joe E. Brown's new picture, "The Tender Years," at the Valley Theatre the nights of May 20 and 21.

Mrs. Hertha Walker had offered the sponsorship of the picture to the young organization and it was accepted by the group. They will sell the tickets at the regular admission price for the two nights, and will receive a portion of the receipts to go in their treasury.

"The Tender Years" is another delightful Joe E. Brown comedy, and purchasers of tickets are promised an evening of hilarious entertainment.

Blackspot Is Killer Of Roses, Says Agent

Blackspot, the rose killer: This flower enemy number one may be attacking your garden right now. He comes in the form of black or dark brown spots on the leaves, and is sometimes found on the shoots. Look over the rose bush leaves very carefully. If these dark colored spots are present, then it's time to do something about it.

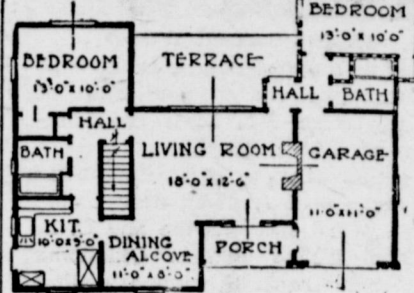

Mrs. Laurette Williamson, County Home Demonstration Agent, says that blackspot is responsible for killing more roses in Texas than any other leaf disease. It is active

Apartment Size-Dwelling Home

The financing of a home keeps many of us from acquiring this most worthwhile of all possessions. With today's easy bank loans and short interest rate together with long amortization, financing a home today is much simpler. Another of the difficulties in connection with financing is that the prospective home-builders bite off more than they can chew. Having been satisfied for instance, with a three-bedroom apartment, the same family seldom considers a three-room detached dwelling. In the transition from renter to owner, the tendency is to double the floor space occupied. This makes home-ownership seem too expensive a proposition in many instances.

The exterior of this Colonial cottage is finished in traditional white paint to provide an appearance of high quality and taste. Today, white paint on homes is not an extravagance. Better grades of house paint now are self-washing and stand up exceptionally well. In fact, Sherwin-Williams house paint, specified for this home, is said to give an extra year's service over pre-War good grades of paint as a result of new formulation. For a distinctive touch, note the contrasting color used on shutters. A deep green was used in this case, but any

The floor plan is conveniently arranged for life in quarters of this size. Plans are shown for adding bedroom and bath later or they could be built with the first unit.

The cost of building this home will vary greatly because of the differences in labor and material prices. We suggest you consult your local building contractor or building supply dealer before building your house. If you desire other drawings, a house pattern catalogue is available at publishers cost for 25c by writing Architectural Department, Ladies' Home Journal, Independence Square, Philadelphia, Pa.

mainly in the spring and fall of the year. Dew, fog or rain are the allies of blackspot, and encourage its growth during the cool nights. On the other hand, hot, dry weather checks it, but does not destroy it. These dark areas on the leaf may be less than 1-16 of an inch, but soon grow to 1-2 inch or larger, forming irregular blotches on the leaves. As the spot grows, the leaf may turn yellow and fall off. On some rose varieties the leaves turn yellow and fall when they have only few small spots. Others stay green with a large part of the leaves covered by blackspot. All ages of leaves may have blackspot, but it spreads faster on the young leaves, and will attack both the top and the bottom of the leaf.

Badly infested roses shed most of their leaves. When a large number of the leaves have been lost, the shoots begin dying first at the top, then back down the stems toward the ground.

Now that's what blackspot does. So here's what to do when your roses are attacked by this disease. Burn all the fallen leaves, and don't let irrigation water touch the leaves. Blackspot can be controlled by dusting the leaves each week with finely ground sulphur containing 10 per cent insoluble copper. Remember to dust the plants within 24 hours after a rain. Also keep in mind that the sulphur may burn the leaves if it is applied too heavily, and it should not be put on the roses in hot, dry weather.

Ask the nurseryman to supply varieties resistant to leaf spot. Although roses are badly affected by this disease, polyanthas, tea roses and hybrid tea roses are even worse victims. Those varieties originating from Wichuriana and rugosa type are resistant.

Rangeland Conservation Needed

About half the rangeland of the country is in poor condition. Too many animals kept on the same land for too many months at a time have finally served to drive the better forage grasses from some of our best native ranges. Wartime demands for livestock products put the pressure on the range. As we go into the 1948 grazing season some 600 of the 728 million acres of Western range are eroding.

Conservation of rangeland does not offer too many drastic pictures. Some ranchers are mowing sand sage to promote growth of more desirable vegetation. Farther west, ranchers use discs and similar heavier equipment to rid the range of brush. Little by little, they are reseeding the range, building water-spreading installations and providing for even more grazing by a better distribution of salt licks and water supplies. Conservationists estimate that nearly 8 million acres of range have been reseeded during the past 10 years, primarily to crested wheat grass.

Well-managed grazing is the key to continued productivity over much of the nation's sheep and cattle range. Conservationists estimate that the Western range could up its output by 50 per cent or more with seasonal grazing, proper stocking and other good management methods.

This information is furnished by the Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation District.

Fixing Up the Farm by BURTON WILLIAMS

Hog Watering Trough
A LONG with proper feed in adequate amounts, hogs must have plenty of clean, fresh water in order to make profitable gains. The water should be made easily accessible to them, and the arrangement should be such that it saves as much farm labor as possible.

The watering trough illustrated here was designed with those points in mind by specialists at the University of Illinois Department of Agricultural Engineering. Any farmer who is handy with a hammer and saw should be able to build one. The drawing at the lower right shows a cross-section of the trough, looking lengthwise.

Sturdiness of construction is a feature of this trough. Note the wide end pieces which give plenty of support to prevent tipping. The center rail and uprights help keep the hogs out of the trough. When used for young pigs, a 1 x 4-inch board can be placed between the uprights just above the trough. Wide and shallow, a trough of this design is more sanitary than one which is square or V-shaped.

Hogs that have ready access to clean, fresh water and liberal amounts of proper feed will make the most rapid gains. Self-feeders, which also save labor, usually are recommended. The diet should include ample protein, vitamins and minerals. These not only are essential to good growth, but effect considerable savings in grain.

Horsley, Goss Co-Captains Of '48 Yellow Jackets - 65 Prospects Listed

It appears that Muleshoe will have more than 60 boys in football suits next fall. Coach James A. Beam opined after a meeting of the candidates for the various squads, held at the high school Friday. Sixty five boys attended.

The Yellow Jackets squad after some discussion, decided to elect two captains for 1948. Bobby Goss, a line mainstay for a good part of last year, although he is a backfield man at heart, was elected back-captain. Bobby's position is full-back. Joe Bob Horsley, tackle on the 1947 eleven, was elected line captain.

Preparations for the 1948 campaign will get underway here August 1 when candidates for the squad will assemble for daily workouts in shorts at 5 p.m. Bobby and Joe Bob will conduct this part of the training, to August 15, when the boys will put on shoulder pads and get into contact and other serious work. Coach Beam will join the team on the 15th, after attending the annual coaching school of the Texas Coaches Association, to be held at Hardin-Simmons in Abilene this year.

Seven lettermen will be back for the 1948 season: Bobby Goss, Weldon McCarty, Donald Fudge, Joe Bob Horsley, "Wild Bill" Thompson, Phillip Garrett, and Gene Harvey.

Grades To Be Sued Out

MULESHOE NINE TASTES DEFEAT AT SUNDOWN

It took a team that isn't even a member of the Capitol Baseball League to beat the Muleshoe nine. Sundown did it, 18 to 15, in a night game played there last Thursday. Carroll Goss and Bill Boothe, managers, thought the lights may have made their charges a little bit nervous.

Les Lambert, left fielder and lead off man for Muleshoe, clouted a home run on the first ball pitched in the game. And until the eighth inning the boys from Bailey county capital had a comfortable lead. Sundown scored 9 runs in their half and shut out the boys from the Blackwater Draw in their time at bat in the ninth. Pitchers for Muleshoe were Barbour and Davis.

COTTON MEETING SET

J. K. Adams, Bailey county farm agent, calls attention to the cotton insect meeting at Littlefield, Saturday, May 22, under direction of W. L. Insect control recommendations will be given and Mr. Adams believes the meeting will be well worth the time and trouble of anyone who is at all interested.

Howdy Folks: When it takes you twice as long to rest and half as long to get tired, you're getting old.

The years pass silently, but old age creeps up on us. Some men don't have any respect for old age, unless it's in bottle form.

Of course if you want to make light of your age, put the correct number of candles on your birthday cake.

Men and women differ on the subject of years. A man hopes his lean years are behind him, while a woman hopes hers are ahead.

Old age brings experience, but some experiences bring old age.

Old or young, we would like to have you as a customer. You have a standing invitation to drop in on us and get acquainted.

It is now Deepfreeze weather. Come in and look them over.
