QUITAQUE BALL CLUB STILL HAS THAT WINNING STREAK

Quitauque ball club went to White Flat Sunday and trimmed that aggregation 19 to 13. It looked like a bad day for the Squawtown tribe as they entered the ninth inning trailing 13 to 9.

However they opened up with the heavy artillery in the last stanza to score ten runs and top the ball game. Sixteen of Joe Bedwell's men batted in the ninth. Lefty Womack went all the way on the mound for Quitauque.

The lineup: Rush 3b, Bedwell ss, Van Meter c, Earl Morrison 2b, Patrick lf, Herrington cf, Cooper rf, Marion Wilson 1b, Womack p.

White Flat is scheduled to play a return game in Quitauque next Sunday.

BROTHER OF PETE CLARK DIES OF HEART ATTACK

Pete Clark received a message Wednesday morning that his brother, Charles Clark, 30 years old, had died Tuesday night of a heart attack at his home at Poolville, in Parker county. Mr. and Mrs. Clark and sons left Wednesday morning to attend the last rites which had not been set but probably were held Thursday with burial at Springtown.

Charles, only brother of Pete, was a veteran of World War II, being with an infantry division. He saw lots of service in the Pacific where he participated in the liberation of the Philippines from the Japs.

He was with the first group of American soldiers to hit the island of Leyte and also participated in the invasions of Luzon and other islands of the Philippine group.

Other survivors besides Pete Clark, are four sisters.

Charles was known by many people in this area, having helped his brother harvest his crops for a couple of years back in the '30s.

FISHING PARTY

A pleasant day was spent Tuesday by a group who left here early in the morning for Buffalo lake to spend the day fishing. They stopped to cook breakfast at the park at Canyon, and put in a good day at the lake, catching all the fish they could eat—don't know how much that might be. The group included Mrs. Edgar Morrison and Travis, and Ray Morrison who is on a visit from Austin; Hubert Setliff, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bedwell and son and Mr. and Mrs. Murry Morrison and Murry Wayne.

WOUNDED IN ACTION

Glynn Morrison stuck a paring knife through his left hand Saturday morning while helping his wife do some canning. The blade pierced the fleshy part and passed under the thumb. He received treatment at a Matador hospital where he was also given anti-tetanus serum. The hand was doing ok Monday.

Newcomers

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Tyler have a son, born Tuesday at a Matador hospital.

A son was born Monday at Fort Worth to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gardiner, Jr. We did not learn the boy's name, news of his arrival was so exciting.

A daughter weighing 7 pounds and 14 ounces was born Tuesday at Plainview to Mr. and Mrs. John T. Reagan. The little lady was named Freda Mae.

BOY PAINFULLY BURNED

James Adams, 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Adams was severely burned last Wednesday when he removed the cap from a hot tractor radiator. The youth was burned badly on his face and chest, and about his eyes. He was taken to Matador for treatment and was reported improving.

Miss Viola Robins of San Antonio was here last week visiting in the Jess Grundy home and with other friends. Miss Robins returned home from overseas service in Germany and received her discharge from military duty about three weeks ago. She served as sergeant in the Womens Army corps. She left here Monday for a visit to her home at San Antonio.

Quitauque School Monday Opening Program At

Quitauque schools opened Monday, Sept. 9 and are progressing very well, gradually working out the snarls caused by an incomplete faculty.

The public was invited to the assembly and program Monday morning and responded quite well, a large crowd of parents and patrons being on and to greet the new school year.

Supt. R. H. McAdams, who comes to Quitauque from Bridgeport, introduced himself and the other members of his "administrative" staff, Joe Weldon Bailey, principal of the high school and coach, and Prof. E. P. Lewis, principal of the grade school.

Rev. A. L. Shaw opened the program with a prayer, and Rev. E. B. Thompson addressed the assemblage.

Students reported to their classes Tuesday and work was begun in earnest. Prospects are bright for a busy and interesting school year.

GLEN EDWARD LEWIS WILL SEE ACTION ON TECH SQUAD

Lubbock—Indications are Dell Morgan, Texas Tech head football coach, will be able to field one of the strongest teams in Tech's football history this season, with first game the night of Sept. 21 against West Texas State.

Upwards of 150 candidates reported and from these Morgan will have a hard time picking starters. About 60 percent of aspirants are war veterans, most of them big and rugged.

Tech will take to the road after its first home game with West Texas, visiting San Antonio Sept. 28 for a game with the Texas Aggies and Dallas Oct. 5 for a game with SMU as a feature of West Texas Day at the State Fair of Texas.

Fans expect Morgan to start a team composed entirely of war veterans, at least as starters.

Certain to see plenty of action this year are: Ted Moss, 225-pound Amarillo freshman and ex-marine; Jimmy Blesson, 200-pound Amarillo tackle; Calvin Steveson, 200-pound end from Brownfield; Roland Nabors, 208-pound, 6 foot, 3 inch center from Lubbock; Glenn Lewis, speedy Quitauque back; R. W. Moyers, 210-lb. Lubbock end and letterman; James Reed, 200-pound Ralls guard; J. W. Thompson, all-state back from Odessa; and Bennie Winkler, 210-pound Temple tackle.

J. T. ROGERS, JR., IS NEW OWNER OF THE VARIETY STORE

The Tiffin Variety store was sold last week to J. T. Rogers, Jr., and his mother and sister Miss Coleen have taken over operation of the business. For the present J. T. plans to continue to help his father operate the farm at Gasoline.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tiffin and Miss Edna Murray have moved back to their farm south of town, and at present J. B. Tiffin to whom the store belonged, has not made any definite plans.

GRANDCHILDREN HERE FOR F. M. SACHSE LAST RITES

Grandchildren who were here last week end to attend the last rites for their grandfather F. M. Sachse, included Kit Williams, Jr., of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Sachse and baby, and J. N. Montgomery of Amarillo, Mrs. Leo B. Hawkins and baby of Kearney, Neb., Mrs. Ruth Murdock, Florent Williams and Betty Clinton of Fort Worth, Glen Edward Lewis, Gale and Don Montgomery of Lubbock and Billy Joe Sachse of Canyon.

Elevator Nearing Completion

Work is progressing rapidly on Geo. A. Setliff's new grain elevator at Quitauque and George said the plant would be finished some time next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rice and son Jarrell spent a delightful week end visiting the Bill Hardcastles and the Jess Jenkins at their ranch homes near Meridian. They also drove to Waco before returning home.

EVERYDAY RELIGION

AVAILABILITY TO GOD

By E. B. Thompson

Dr. Thomas F. Chilcote Jr., has written a suggestive word in the following statement: "We do not miss God because He has not made Himself available, but because we have not made ourselves available."

We have always had much preaching and teaching about accountability to God, and it certainly is a timely and necessary theme—for without it, life would be left without restraint, and as such would become utterly irresponsible and therefore beset with hazards and excuses. But, there is another theme which is equally important—this theme of "availability to God!"

Paul was aware of this needed emphasis when he wrote,—"present your bodies as living sacrifices, wholly acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." And in that beautiful Book of Revelation, John the Divine, represents the Spirit as saying, "Here I stand, knocking at the door. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will be his guest—" In the everyday language of our own homes, "If anyone makes himself available to me I will enter his life with the blessings already available for him."

Prayer is more the laying hold of God's willingness, than the overcoming of His reluctance. Certainly He stands ready and anxious to bless and save. It would hardly be necessary to beg, chide and persuade Him to give us His life and His spirit. Our problem in these sacred matters is in becoming available—of getting on the beam—of tuning in the wave-length or frequency of the Master. Once that is done and maintained, His power is ours, and the usefulness of our lives is His.

TURKEY CHILD HAS POLIO

The first case of polio in Turkey was reported Wednesday when Carl Lance Lee, two and a half year old son of Mrs. Alpha Lee was carried to the West Texas Polio Center at Plainview. The child was taken to a Matador hospital Tuesday night, where it was advised that he be taken to Plainview Wednesday morning.

The boy's father, Lt. Perry Lee, was killed in action in Europe during the war and had never seen his son, one of cutest, smartest and brightest little tots we have ever known.

He is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Mullin of Turkey.

Lynn Hamilton received a broken arm Sunday afternoon while scuffling with his brother. He was taken to Matador for treatment.

THE RAINS CAME

The rain that everyone has been wishing for fell Wednesday night and Thursday morning, totaling an inch or a little over, and from reports, was general all over this area. The rain fell gently and all went into the soil.

Crops were right at the stage when rain was essential, or else. And it looked "else" for awhile. Production will be greatly increased, and providing frost holds off the yield is unpredictable.

Tourists from Matador report that all the streams along the highway, have water in them, particularly Quitauque creek, which became a running stream by noon.

J. F. Wise has been getting along well enough to be returned to his home Thursday from the Plainview sanitarium.

Pierce White, supervisor for the soil conservation district at Quitauque states that the district has bought a Ford hydro-scoop for use in maintaining terraces, building fills, etc. Also have a rotary type frezno ordered for heavier tractors. These will be handled through the coop group leaders of the district at a cost of $1.00 per day.

The Ford hydro-scoop is now ready for use, and the frezno is expected to arrive soon.

Walter Graham, a cooperater with the Cap Rock Soil Conservation District, who operates the W. A. Graham farm southwest of Quitauque, seeded 2,000 acres of wheat land on the contour last week.

W. W. Wood, a cooperater with the Cap Rock Conservation District, who lives two miles south of Quitauque, has strip planted cotton and grain sorghums on the contour on his farm.

W. A. Stephens, a cooperater with the Cap Rock Soil Conservation District, who lives six miles south of Silverton, established layout and design for a stock water dam on his farm last Friday with the assistance of soil conservation technicians.

H. H. McPherson, a cooperater of the Francis Conservation Group,

F. M. Sachse, Sr., Is Buried At Quitauque

Last rites were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Methodist church for Francis Marion Sachse who passed away Thursday, Sept. 5, at Wichita Falls, Texas, at the age of 69 years and one month. Rev. E. B. Thompson officiated at the service, assisted by Rev. A. L. Shaw.

Interment was in Quitauque cemetery under direction of Stewart Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Jim Stell, H. G. Gardiner, J. T. Persons, J. C. Rhoderick, Sr., Jack Hutcherson and Dellis Hooks.

Survivors are the wife and seven children, all of whom were present for the last rites, twenty-four grandchildren and four great grandchildren; a brother and sister, J. N. Sachse and Mrs. A. R. Brand, both of Sachse and both of whom were present for the funeral. Three nieces and three nephews, all from Sachse, also were here for the last rites.

The children are Mrs. Jewel Williams of Carey, Mrs. May Lewis of Quitauque, Mrs. Daisy Graham of Silverton, Mrs. Edith Montgomery of McLean, W. D. Sachse of Amarillo, Lake Sachse of Loco, and F. M. Sachse, Jr., of Dallas.

Mr. Sachse was born August 1, 1877 at Sachse, Texas. He married Miss Nora Meek in Dallas county on December 27, 1894. He was a farmer and in 1912 they moved to a place near Brice in Hall county, where they lived until they moved to Quitauque in 1928.

Mr. Sachse joined the Christian Church in early boyhood and clung to that faith until death. He was a jovial man who loved life to the fullest and his sprightly humor and brisk manner brightened the community in which he lived until his health failed him about four years ago. He bore his illness with fortitude and faced the end unafraid, even to the point of choosing the theme for his burial service. The pastor complied with his request made some months ago, that the passages from the 14th chapter of John and the Twenty-third Psalm, be read at his funeral.

GRAVES MAYFIELD HOME FROM SERVICE IN KOREA

Graves Mayfield arrived home last Thursday from San Antonio, where he checked in upon returning home from overseas duty in the Pacific area. He is on a 56-day terminal leave at the expiration of which he will receive his discharge from the army.

Graves entered service in August, 1944, and went overseas in February, 1945, first to the Philippines and later to Korea. He was with the 40th Infantry Division, the first troops to land on Mindanao, and he remained in the Philippines until the war ended. His latest military duty was supervisor of Korean civilian police, and his rating was staff sergeant.

Graves is planning to enter college if he can find one which is not already too overcrowded to enroll one more ex-GI.

BRIDAL SHOWER

A bridal shower was given last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. P. Richmond, honoring Mrs. A. B. Ramsey, Jr., nee Miss Marie Duck. Mrs. Richmond was assisted by her daughter Miss Elizabeth as co-hostess.

A large crowd of friends attended and the many lovely gifts were greatly appreciated by the honoree.

Refreshments of cake squares and punch were served by Mrs. Richmond, assisted by Miss Jessie Lee Metersker.

SMASH UP

Mrs. E. F. Rumph fell at her home Monday evening, while carrying a large vessel of water to some trees to which her hose would not reach, and suffered some skinned places on her limbs and a bad laceration on her cheek in which a piece of gravel was imbedded. Mrs. Rumph said the pain in which she carried the water suffered more than she did, as she fell on top of it and smashed it completely out of shape. She took the accident very lightly and told about it jokingly, although it could have been serious.

MOUNTED SQUARE DANCERS FEATURE OF CHILDRESS FAIR

A featured attraction for the Childress State Fair this year will be the appearance of the Childress Mounted Square Dance Team. This team, composed of local cowboys and cowgirls, has appeared at some of West Texas' biggest celebrations, and during the Fair will be "at home" to give the people in this area a look at the show that has thrilled thousands. The Square Dance Team will make two appearances during the Fair—on Thursday afternoon and Saturday evening.

Also scheduled for this year's show is a big fireworks display and a band marching contest. The big fireworks display will be held on Saturday night and will be even bigger and better than the stupendous display last year.

The band marching contest will feature the outstanding high school bands of West Texas and will be presented on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Childress State Fair is being presented to the people of this section after a lapse of 18 years and will officially open on Thursday, September 26 with a huge down-town parade.

Merchants exhibits, poultry shows, agricultural exhibits, carnival attractions, all the fun and entertainment that goes to make up a Fair, will be presented for the amusement of the people of this section.

YOUNG FOLKS ENJOY EVENING AT BAPTIST PARSONAGE

The Baptist parsonage was the scene last Friday night of a delightful buffet supper.

During the meal the guests were entertained by the following program:

Accordion numbers, Miss Patsy Stark.
Solo, Earl Morrison.
Reading, Miss Jo Dean Bedwell.
Piano numbers, Miss Lela Faye Morrison.

After supper the group played games and ended a pleasant evening singing popular songs.

Those present were Travis, Earl and Lela Faye Morrison, Hope Hamilton, Ina Ruth Morrison, Wanda Thompson, Jane Hamilton, Arville Setliff, Rudell James, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Jones, William Rucker, Glen Francis Ramsey, Roberta Duck, Elizabeth Richmond, Willie Joyce Ramsey, Evelyn Kimmel, Jessie Lee Metersker, Patsy Stark, Jo Dean Bedwell, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burgess, and Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Shaw.

FOLLEY HOMEMAKERS CLUB

The Folley Home Demonstration club met with Mrs. H. H. Hodge, Sept. 10. After the usual business of the club was attended to, the members assisted the chairman in making a yearly report for the club of this community.

Several home improvement projects could not be finished for this year's report on account of lack of material but all plan to keep the projects going this next club year.

New officers were elected as follows: Mrs. J. H. McDonald, president; Mrs. H. H. Hodge, vice president; Mrs. Harry Folley, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. James Nall, reporter.

One new member was added to the club and Mrs. Henry Shannon and Mrs. O. V. Simpson were guests.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Harry Folley, Sept. 24.

Miss Willie Mae Grundy has resigned from her work in Denison and is here for a month's visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Grundy. She is planning to make her home in Amarillo where she will be associated as nurse in a new clinic which will be opened there soon.

Miss Mary Simmons returned home today (Thursday) from a week's stay in the Plainview sanitarium.

Billy Joe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark of Flomot left last week for San Antonio where he began a three year enlistment in the army air corps.

TURKEY YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED AT SILVERTON

Wedding bells rang for another Turkey young couple over the week end. Miss Nora Elizabeth (Pie) Meacham and Earl Buchanan drove to Silvertown Saturday night where they were married by a justice of the peace. They are planned it differently, but when they arrived the preacher was not at home.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Meacham and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Buchanan. Both of the contracting parties were born and reared in Turkey community.

FLOYD GILMORE BUYS TURKEY PHARMACY

Floyd Gilmore "drifted" back into Turkey last week from Childress and decided he wanted to remain here and make this his home again. He went into a huddle with Jesse Browning last Thursday and bought the Turkey Pharmacy which he took over immediately and went to work rearranging the stock.

Floyd operated the City Drug Store here for a number of years (he says all of his life) until three years ago when he sold out and entered the drug business at Childress. He disposed of his interest in Childress some months ago.

He says he is happy to be back in Turkey, among real friends and neighbors, and that he hopes to stay here from now on.

Thanks To All

Having sold the variety store to J. T. Rogers, Jr., I wish to express my thanks for the nice business you gave me while I owned and operated the store.

It was pleasant serving you, and I appreciate the patronage of all with whom I had any transactions.

Thank you most sincerely.

J. B. Tiffin

Announcing...

New Ownership of the Variety Store.

J. T. Rogers, Jr., is the new owner of the variety store and for the present Mrs. Rogers, Sr., and Miss Coleen Rogers are in charge of the business, while J. T. is helping at the farm.

The business was purchased last week from J. B. Tiffin and the Rogers have assumed management.

The continued patronage of customers of the store is cordially invited, and you are urged to call often and bring your friends and neighbors with you.

The store now has as good line of merchandise as usually found in a store of this kind, and as quickly as merchandise becomes available, the stock will be enlarged and more complete.

Every effort will be made to furnish your variety store needs, and courteous friendly service is assured you at and think it over! . . .

A new school term is about to begin. Hundreds of thousands of eager eyed little boys and girls, soon will be overflowing sidewalks and darting thoughtlessly out into traffic . . . It is not because they want to complicate your driving problems. It is only because their youthful exuberance sometimes makes them forget the dangers that lurk in our streets . . .

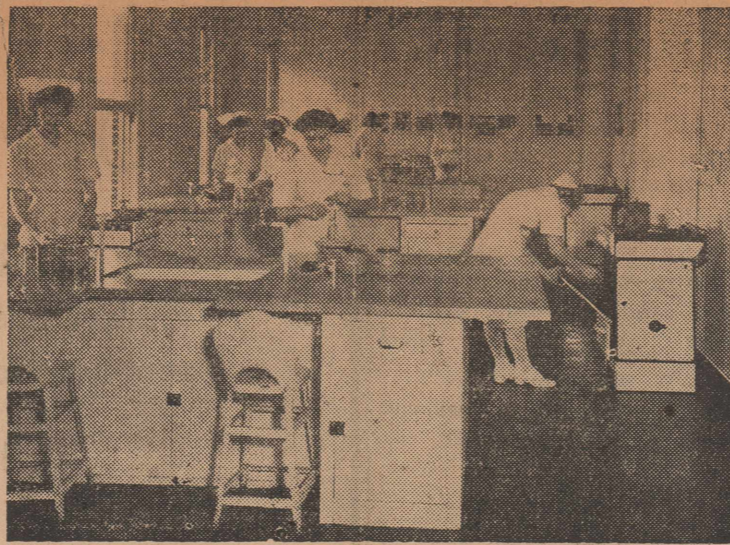

Let every motorist in this city make a pledge to be on the alert from now on . . . to assume some share of the responsibility for keeping our youngsters from being hurt.

Hospitals of Texas Face Severe Crisis

The hospitals of Texas are facing a crisis more serious than any in recent years. Already 23 per cent of the nation's beds are closed and undoubtedly this figure will be larger because of the alarming shortage of nurses. Inadequately-staffed hospitals constitute a serious menace to the health of every community in the state. And particularly at a time when many diseases have grown to epidemic proportions because of the population increase during the war. Although educational, recreational and living facilities currently are the best in the history of the nursing profession, student nurse enrollment in the 37 accredited schools of nursing throughout the state declined to 1,137 during 1945, and now has dropped to the pitiful figure of 300 for this year. The fall term, scheduled to open September 1, has been re-set to September 15, and to October 1, in some instances, in an attempt to help this situation. A great number of young high school graduates in the state are not yet aware of the opportunity for an education and for giving service while obtaining this education. This, coupled with postwar indecision, has magnified the situation.

It isn't easy to become a skilled nurse.

But despite the current shortage of student nurse enrollments, there will be no relaxation of requirements for entrance in the state's 37 accredited schools of nursing, according to Miss Lucy Harris of Fort Worth, president of the Texas League of Nursing Education.

"We have instituted many changes that give our students the same advantages and recreational facilities as college and university students, but we feel it would be unfair to the girl, the profession, and the patients to whom they eventually administer to lower our entrance requirements," Miss Harris asserted.

Spearheading a drive to secure 2,000 student nurse enrollments in September, the Texas League of Nursing Education has outlined a number of basic entrance requirements.

Applicants must be at least 17 years old, of high moral character, and possess at least a high school education. Arrangements now have been completed between nursing schools and major universities so that credits in many instances are interchangeable. For example, a nursing school graduate is credited with 30 semester hours toward a Bachelor of Science degree at most of the larger universities. Also, students who have had the two year pre-nursing course at universities prior to admission to a school of nursing may, upon completion of the three-year nursing course, be awarded the Bachelor of Science degree in nursing from whichever school they previously attended.

Nursing schools are noted for their well-equipped lecture rooms, laboratories, and libraries, and increased dormitory facilities in recent years have greatly enhanced the college atmosphere. An attractive feature to students has been the low cost of securing such a varied higher education, plus the training preparation for a vocation that is regarded as one of the most skilled and one of the highest paid open to women.

The year following the end of the war has been one of the worst in nursing school history from the standpoint of enrollments, but league officials are hopeful that an early end of "postwar indecision" will bring students back to school in greater numbers this fall.
