His Little Prayer

Sammy's father was an ardent radio fan. Every evening he had special programs to which he listened, but of them all his favorite was a "continued" mystery thriller. The four-year-old couldn't take it all in, but he was quite content to sit for hours in his father's lap, listening to the music and dialogue pouring from the speaker.

So his mother was surprised to hear him conclude his little prayer one night with the announcement: "Tomorrow night, God, at this time there will be another prayer"

YOUNG SNAKE HUNTER GETS TWO BIG RATTLERS

Jan Turner, 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alga Turner of Turkey, is the champion hunter in this area, so far as we know. Jan, like most other boys likes to go with his daddy. He has been out all summer helping with the plowing and shooting rabbits, ground squirrels, birds and rats. While out Wednesday, July 21, on the John Kelly wheat farm, 3 miles northwest of Turkey, he found some new game. It was a big rattle snake.

Jan, being armed with his .22 rifle, killed the snake and reported to his father who was plowing nearby. Being informed that if he would return he probably would find another snake

The boy decided this time he would go in the pickup, since it would be easier on him—and some safer. Upon arriving at the place, he killed another. One snake measured 50 inches and had 13 rattles and the other measured 48 inches and had 12 rattles.

Now the moral of this story is this: Jan's mother has a dreadful fear of snakes whether they be rattlers or decoys. Jan is getting the news to his mother, through the local paper so the shock won't be so great, and also the plowing job will be finished by the time the Enterprise is published.

Jan will spend the remainder of the summer visiting friends in Greensburg, Ind.
