H.R. 3 AGAIN

On June 24, 1959, the House of Representatives passed a Bill Numbered H.R. 3. This Bill had a deliberate and primary purpose to prevent Federal law from striking down and over-riding State laws in the absence of an irreconcilable conflict, unless the Congress affirmatively stated the contrary. H. R. 3 was called by the popular title "The States Rights Bill". Its author was the Honorable Howard Smith of Virginia, Chairman of the Rules Committee of the House.

The need for this legislation grew out of the application of the doctrine of Federal preemption of the United States Supreme Court. H. R. 3 simply provides that no act of Congress shall be construed as indicating an intent on the part of the Congress to occupy the field in which such act operates, to the exclusion of all State laws on the same subject matter, unless such act contains an express provision to that effect, or unless there is a direct and positive conflict between such act and a State law so that the two cannot be reconciled or constantly stand together.

It has long been the recognized rule that acts of Congress take precedence over State laws where there is an irreconcilable conflict between the two. It has only been in recent years that the application of this doctrine has been extended to the nullification of State laws by the mere existence of a Federal statute, and where there is no conflict and where the Congress has not so expressed itself in the act being construed. H.R. 3 simply spells out the proper application of the doctrine. It would not change the law where there is an irreconcilable conflict between a Federal statute and a State law. It would not change the law where Congress, in passing an act, expressly stated that it was the intention of the Congress that the act superseded all State laws in that field. It would nullify the decisions of the Supreme Court which have struck down State laws not in irreconcilable conflict with Federal law and when the Federal law does not expressly preempt the field.

Probably the most famous case involved and the one that prompted the introduction of H.R. 3 was the Steve Nelson Case. The Steve Nelson Case decision nullified a Pennsylvania sedition statute on the basic theory that the Federal Government had preempted the field between passage of the Smith Act of 1940 and various other Federal statutes dealing with National Security. It is a strange coincidence that the author of the Smith Act referred to here is the same Howard Smith of Virginia who is author of the present H.R. 3. Certainly Congressman Smith never intended that the Smith Act of 1940 should be so construed by the Supreme Court as to result in nullifying sedition laws in 42 states. Congressman Smith had always been one of the leading advocates of States' Rights. He is a southern gentleman of the highest degree, and a man who has always subscribed to the dual sovereignty form of government with complete separation of powers as provided under the Constitution. Those of us who have supported him in his long and difficult fight to correct the decisions of the Supreme Court in this particular are looking forward to many obstacles and difficulties. It is true that we were successful in passing H.R. 3 on June 24, 1959, by the vote of 225 to 192. It is regrettable that further action was not had during that session of Congress in the Senate. Whether, or not the lack of action at that time was due in whole or in part to the vigorous opposition to the measure expressed by the then President Eisenhower, I do not know, but I do know that this is a measure of tremendous importance insofar as the basic policy of government in this country is concerned.

H.R. 3 is AGAIN before the Congress and has recently been approved by a subcommittee of the

It's Time To Pay Cemetery Dues

The time is here again to give the public an account of the financial status of the Quitaque Cemetery Association. Many have or will soon receive a reminder that the annual dues were due in January. This is a necessary step which the officers and directors must take each year. We have tried to save that expense, but the collections are so small when notices are not mailed that it has been decided to send them out each year from now on.

On January 31, 1962, the Association had a balance of $144.26. Total disbursements for 1961 were $771.49. This was paid out to:

|-----------------------------|----------|
| W. W. Cain, labor           | $718.75 |
| Jennings Farm Supply        |          |
| Mower                       | 45.00    |
| Gulf Service Sta., gasoline | 2.40     |
| Bedwell Hdwe. & Imp.,       |          |
| Hoes and miss. supplies     | 5.34     |

Many people have asked who should shoulder the responsibility of keeping up the Cemetery. The answer to that is simple: We can all have a part. Those who own property in the cemetery bear the bulk of the responsibility but any one who is interested in the beauty and upkeep, may have a part. It is a non-profit, private corporation (according to laws set up in the beginning) and your money paid is very much appreciated by the members, officers and directors. The money you pay to the association is a donation and therefore, is deductible on your income tax.

Again, we thank you for your support in the past and for that which is forthcoming.

Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives. It is my hope that it will soon be approved by the full Judiciary Committee. It should then be passed upon promptly by both Houses of the Congress and laid on the desk of the President of the United States, regardless of who he is or what party he represents. Until this matter is finally determined by the Representatives of the people of this country, it will not have been passed upon by more than one Branch of our Government. Certainly the Legislative Branch and the Executive Branch should assume their full responsibilities in the determination of this vital question.

1962 Is Cancer Progress Year

The American Cancer Society and the National Cancer Institute have designated 1962 as Cancer Progress Year in an effort to point up the advances made against cancer in the last 25 years.

While they cannot offer anything as spectacular as the man in space science has given us, they can show, in human terms, dramatic and remarkable results. Twenty-five years ago about 160,000 persons were alive, cured of cancer. Today there are more than 1,100,000. The number is increasing each day.

The cure rate for cancer climbed from one out of seven in the late 1930's to one out of three in the late 1950's. Today, according to the Society, it could be one out of two if all cancers were diagnosed early and treated promptly.

While the final conquest of cancer is not in sight, the Society and the Institute can take great satisfaction in their uphill struggle. In 1962 some 42,000 men, women and children will be saved from cancer who would have died had they developed the disease 10 years ago. This is indeed compelling reason for all to join in observing Cancer Progress Year.

Progress against cancer is attributed to two major factors. First, developments in research which have resulted in new diagnostic techniques and improved methods of treatment. Second, response to public and professional education which has resulted in earlier detection, prompt treatment and better, more available facilities.

Among the goals of Cancer Progress Year are, "to intensify the efforts being made to persuade the public to act for its own protection, to improve the care of the cancer patient, and to step up all programs to speed the final victory over cancer." Final victory will come from the laboratory, and while today we are in the midst of the most massive research attack ever launched against a disease, there is still great need for expanding the cancer research effort.

These are worthy goals. The best way to observe Cancer Progress Year is to have a health checkup and to make a contribution to the American Cancer Society's April Crusade.

Mrs. Orb Payne underwent major surgery in the Goodall Hospital in Memphis Tuesday morning of this week. At latest report, she was resting well.

Notice!

The Panther Club would like to know if you failed to receive your birthday calendar. If so, phone Bob Saul at 2436 or Johnny Mason at 2756, and delivery will be made.

Panthers Thank Fans For Support

The Quitaque boy's basketball team wishes to express its appreciation for the fine way in which their friends backed them in their efforts beyond district play. The school and team feel that that this effort on the fan's part played a big role in the success that the Panthers enjoyed this season.

For those who might be interested, there is an itemized account of all donations and expenditures of play-off games in the office of Supt. Johnny Mason. Below is a statement of donations, game receipts and expenditures to date for your consideration:

The San Jon and Quitaque schools each received $71.00 after expenses were paid; and the Quitaque-McAdoo game brought each school $331.00 after expenses. Salty Jones fed the boys at the Griddle Cafe in Plainview following the McAdoo game.

At Canyon, the total contributions from the school and the fans was $91.60. Meals and motel expenditures were $91.60.

Again, we wish to thank all of you for the fine way in which you supported your team the entire year.

Supt. Johnny Mason (Ed. note: we might add right here for the benefit of some who may not have seen the account in the papers, San Jon won the New Mexico class B state championship last Saturday, defeating Eunice in the finals 69-65. Gene Martinez, the Coyotes' very fine center, scored 11 points in the last 6 minutes of play to bring his team from behind and on to win. Thus, the only teams to beat the Panthers this year was the team that won third place in the state of Texas, the New Mexico state champions, the team that went to the finals in the Texas Catholic schools state championship tournament and Kress, a class A school.)

Mrs. F. M. Sachse left Tuesday evening for Lubbock where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. E. P. Lewis and Mr. Lewis for a few days.

Methodist Women Plan Annual Meeting

The Quitaque FFA and 4-H Project Show sponsored each year by the Quitaque Junior Livestock Association will be held Saturday, March 17 at the football field.

Judging is due to get underway around nine o'clock and Ag. teacher, Elmer Berryhill, has asked that all animals be on the grounds and ready for judging at that time.

Billy Peacock, a former Ag. teacher here, will judge the livestock this year.

In addition to the livestock show, a pet show will be held again this year. That feature was added for the first time last year and proved to be one of the highlights of the show. James Brunson, Jimmy Davidson and Coach James Roberts will brave the ire of the younger set and pick the winners of the various entries in this event. Boys and girls from the first through the seventh grades who have pets of any kind are eligible to enter them in the pet show.

Lightweight gilts will be judged first to start off the day. This will be followed by judging of the heavyweight gilts, the selection of the Grand Champion and the Reserve Champion gilts. All classes of barrows will be judged next.

There will be a class for heifers (which will be kept by the boys for breeding purposes) this year and following this class the fat steers will be judged.

There will be no sale this year. The merchants of Quitaque have donated money for prizes which will be given to the boys.

The final event of the day will be the judging of the pets.

Mothers of the F. F. A. boys will have a concession stand on the grounds.

Hi-Plains Hi-Lights

NEWS from the High Plains Research Foundation

Seven varieties of pecans were planted in a new research project at the High Plains Research Foundation on February 17th. One hundred pecan trees were supplied by John Speck and Robert Meinecke from their nursery near Olton.

The varieties included were: Western Syle; Improved San Saba; Burkett; Wichita; Barton; and Perroque. Two year tops, grafted on five year root systems were used in the planting. The trees were planted forty feet apart, twenty-seven trees to the acre in this experimental orchard. They were planted south of the new headquarters building and greenhouse, west to the Farm to Market Highway 1070.

There are several commercial pecan orchards in the area, most of them in the experimental stage, just beginning to bear. Pecan production is expanding in the High Plains. Those interested in pecan growing desire answers to several problems, among them are: the varieties best adapted to the area; irrigation quantity and time of application; fertilizer quantity, method and placement; cultivation; disease control and inter-planting. Dr. Thomas C. Longnecker, Director of the Foundation said, "The pecan testing will be observed through the years to see if pecan raising can become a cash crop in this area."

HINTS OFFERED IN LAWN CARE

College Station, March 15 — Want to have a beautiful lawn this summer? Now is the time to start planning for it. E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist, says you need to watch all management factors because neglecting one may keep you from having an attractive lawn.

Fertilizer should be applied according to soil test recommendations. You can, however, use a sufficient amount of a complete fertilizer to supply two pounds of nitrogen per 1000 square feet. Which ever method you choose, the fertilizer should be applied about the time the grass begins to grow. This should be done again in the fall, 30 days before frost, says Trew.

Throughout the summer, at 30 to 40 day intervals, the lawn should be topped with nitrogen at the rate of about one pound per 1000 square feet.

Another thing that will detract from lawn beauty is the presence of weeds. One of the best defenses against weeds is a thick, vigorous growth of grass. Weeds can also be controlled with chemicals. For chemical recommendations and application rates, ask your county agent for a copy of L-425, "Chemical Weed Control on Lawns."

Lawns should be mowed regularly, points out Trew. Bermuda grass should be kept at a height of about 1 to 1½ inches, and St. Augustine and bluegrass at about 1½ to 2 inches. No more than one inch should be removed at a time.

Lawns should be watered when the grass begins to wilt, says Trew. Then they should be soaked to a depth of 6 inches or more.

If you start now, and continue managing your lawn through the summer, you can be the envy of the neighborhood. Local county agents can supply additional information on lawn management and care.

Highway Patrol February Report

The Highway Patrol investigated 2 rural accidents during the month of February according to Sergeant D. R. Dowdy, Patrol Supervisor of this area. These wrecks accounted for one person injured and an estimated property damage of $700.00

The rural traffic accident summary for Briscoe County from January through February of 1962 shows a total of 6 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were no persons killed and five persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $2,360.00.

The patrol supervisor reported that as of Thursday, March 1, a total of 227 traffic deaths had been reported to the department, as compared with 264 during the same period in 1961. "This represents a decrease of 37 deaths or 14 per cent," he said, "and presents all of us with a stern challenge to help in further reducing deaths for the remainder of 1962." This will be no easy job.

"Defensive driving is one of the keys to traffic safety," the sergeant added. "If all motorists were alert when driving and knew the defensive procedures used by a professional driver, the number of

This friend of mine is a pretty good auto mechanic. He worked hard and saved some money. He wanted to invest his money in a privately-owned company. Lucky for me he picked my company. He bought some shares of stock. So this friend became one of the thousands of people who own my company. AND THIS IS WHAT WE MEAN WHEN WE SAY — "We are an investor-owned company."

One Month Remains For Auto Inspection

Texas drivers have approximately one month in which to have their vehicles inspected before the April 15 deadline.

"After that date," said Captain Alan Johnson, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service of the Texas Department of Public Safety, "enforcement officers will begin to issue tickets to those drivers who fail to display the new 1962 safety stickers." There are over 325,000 vehicles in the Northwest Texas Region of the DPS that must be inspected before the April 15 deadline. Although there are 611 approved inspection stations in this 60 county region, these stations will be hard pressed to finish the job before the deadline, unless the motorists start having their vehicles inspected now.

Johnson stressed the importance of car owners having their annual safety check at a licensed inspection station as soon as possible. The DPS captain cautioned that motorists are likely to experience last minute traffic jams at inspection stations if they don't move without delay. "As spring approaches, we face the possibility of wet weather, which means that most inspection stations cannot utilize all of the working days left. Take advantage of this pretty weather and take your vehicle in now for the state inspection," Captain Johnson concluded.

Health Returns

Sammy Cherry

"I am writing this testimonial and giving it to Dr. S. Dale Brewer to use as he feels best to enlighten others to the benefits of chiropractic. It is my desire that others may be helped by chiropractic."

"Sammy, my fifteen year old son, had 'blackout' spells, was very nervous, had no appetite, and weighed only seventy-five pounds. Naturally I was very concerned about him and I decided to take him to Dr. S. Dale Brewer, because I myself had been helped by chiropractic when I was so very nervous several years ago."

"Dr. Brewer gave Sammy an examination and made a large x-ray of his spine. He explained the x-ray to us and showed us where pressure was being made on nerves. The spine was very crooked."

"Dr. Brewer suggested a series of adjustments, after which he would re-x-ray Sammy. Sammy was started on the series and within one week's time I could see improvement. His condition steadily got better."

"At this time his nerves are so much better, he's much easier to get along with, he has had no 'blackout' spells since the first adjustment, and I have noticed he studies more for school. His grades in school have improved. He gained 15 pounds in five weeks."

"After the series was completed Sammy was re-x-rayed and I was amazed at the improvement in his spine."

"I am so very grateful for Chiropractic doctors and I wish everyone could realize how this wonderful science can help people. I will ever be grateful for what chiropractic has done for my family."

Mrs. J. L. Cherry
Lockney, Texas
December 18, 1961"

If you are ill, it may well be that your particular condition will respond readily to chiropractic adjustments just as Sammy's did.
