JOHNNY GRIFFIN ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Johnny Griffin, 9-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Griffin, is reported to be in satisfactory condition and improving at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo after being accidentally shot in the lower right side around 2:30 P. M. Tuesday afternoon.

Word was received here just after noon Thursday that Johnny had eaten a hearty breakfast and lunch and was sitting up in bed. His doctor said that if he continued to improve he might be in condition to be moved back to the hospital in Tulia Friday afternoon.

The accident happened at the Gulf Warehouse when Johnny and Earl Lee Woods were examining a .22 caliber pistol. The boys did not know the pistol was loaded. Earl Lee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Woods and the boys are next-door neighbors.

Johnny was rushed by ambulance to the Swisher County Hospital in Tulia where he remained until early Tuesday night and then was moved to Amarillo.

Surgery was not performed on Johnny and doctors did not believe that it would be necessary, barring complications.

According to reports given to the Tribune the bullet wound was a clean one, passing completely through Johnny's body. It missed his lung but did puncture the liver.

It was thought that perhaps the boy might be able to be moved back to the Tulia hospital in a day or two if his condition continues to improve.

CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGER'S WASHINGTON REPORT

OUR COUNTRY

In recent months there has been a noticeable increase in bitter and caustic criticism directed against the government of the United States of America. This is not a new and unprecedented happening. It has occurred many times during our history and will, no doubt, occur many more times. It proves the basic strength of our type of government. It proves that if constructive criticism is offered and properly utilized, great benefits can be the result. It proves that a full and complete expression within the confines of the freedoms guaranteed under the Constitution can be enjoyed by the people without the danger of internal revolution. It proves that freedom of expression by all is one of the best safeguards against totalitarianism or dictatorship. It proves that those who were the authors of the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and the Bill of Rights had Divine Guidance in creating the greatest government ever conceived in the mind of man. History records no similar example in the field of political science.

The Constitution of this Nation has been amended 23 times. Actually, only 13 times, because the first 10 amendments to the Constitution are what we commonly know as the Bill of Rights. This great document has been attacked almost daily since its inception. It has successfully weathered all the storms and will weather many more. It has been stretched and strained by every conceivable argument, but stands today as the bedrock of the government of free men. It is the perfect answer to Communism or any other ideology of those who would subject mankind to slavery.

There are, no doubt, many imperfections in our form of government, as well as in other segments in the life of man. Constructive criticism should always be directed at the correction of those imperfections, and especially should this be done with regard to the governmental processes by which man must live. However, it must be appreciated that man is not perfect, and probably will never be perfect. In weighing our way of life, what it is, what it does, and

Death Claims Three Old-Timers Here

James L. Shannon

J. L. Shannon, one of this area's real old timers, died Thursday of last week at 1:00 A. M. in the Swisher County Hospital. He was 87 years old. Mr. Shannon had been in the hospital only one day prior to his death, but had been a patient there last month after suffering a heart attack.

He was active until just a few short weeks before his passing, and had planted a garden at his home as was his custom each spring. Mr. Shannon was one of this area's last links of another way of life in this area; he was one of the few left who owned a team of mules and used them. It was a familiar sight to local residents to see him riding down the streets here in his wagon behind his mules, or to see him breaking someone's garden plot, or plowing his own garden. J. L. Shannon was a good neighbor, sharing with his friends and neighbors the vegetables he grew himself.

Mr. Shannon left almost a hundred descendants. Surviving are 10 sons, Roy, John, Floyd, and Henry, all of Amarillo, Everett and Cots, both of Dallas, Elbert of Plainview, Bly of Quitaque, Fate of Hereford, Randall of Fort Pierre, S. Weather Wipes Out Many Crops

After a ten-day seige of weather when the Panhandle was battered by tornadoes, high winds, hail and rains, things have apparently begun to settle back to normal.

There have been many times when more rains have fallen but few can remember such a long period of daily alerts to the possibility of tornadoes and hail storms.

Our immediate area has not been as hard hit with hail as crop lands on the Plains, but local farmers a great portion of their crops to rain and weeds.

Last Thursday afternoon between 4:30 and 5:00 P. M. local residents were sent scurrying for shelter when a big funnel cloud dipped and hit the ground and moved directly toward Quitaque. The twister was located almost due west of town. It was reported to have hit the ground the first time about 10 miles south of Silverton. Apparently it lifted again then hit again in the brakes just on top of the 'Cap. According to reports the twister did come down off the 'Cap west of the Gerald Smith farm then lifted again and dissipated. Another funnel was sighted a short time later in the Gasoline community. No damage from that one has been reported. The tornado that was headed toward Quitaque was possibly the one that hit the Gordon Monotague farm south of Silverton, destroying buildings and equipment and causing several thousands of dollars worth of damage. Other twisters were reported in the Silverton area that same afternoon. Much damage was received from hail and rain over a wide area from that storm. On the Ed Vaughan home place, where Mrs. Gaston Owens' brother lives, huge chunks of ice fell along with smaller hail. All of the windows except two, on the north of the house, along with the screens were knocked out. The TV antenna was left in shreds. He estimated that perhaps 20 percent of his wheat was left standing after the storm, but this was all destroyed in a later hail storm. Almost all of the crops have been washed away and haled out in the Silverton area in the past week. Many in the Silverton area, particularly in the Rock Creek area, have already planted their crops three times, in addition to losing their wheat crops.

Some 3.54 inches of rain has been measured at the official gauge at the City Hall. Last Thursday, .68 of an inch of rain fell; June 9 brought 1.10 more; on the 11th 1.19 was recorded and on the 12th another .57 of an inch fell to bring the year's total to 10.77, which is near normal for this time of year.

BOX RENT DUE!

Next week we will place in your post office box a box rent due notice. All box rents will be due. The Department has given us some new cards. These cards have a lot of information on them about when box rents should be paid. Please read all of the information on the card. Especially do we want you to notice this: "Post office box rent is due on or before the last day of this month, (this is not the first day of the next month, as some have understood heretofore). It also says "If not paid by date due, box will be closed and your mail placed in the General Delivery section." This is especially important at the close of each quarter, and especially so this quarter, as the first day of next month falls on Sunday.

Remember, this is the order of the Post Office Department. Be sure your box rent is paid on or before the last day of June.

Lakes Big News Here These Days

Quitaque's newest attraction, the lakes are much in the news these days. The newest one, first of the Twin Lakes, located on the Theo Geisler - Chester Hawkins land about 4 miles north of town, is now a good sized body of water and promises to give fishermen many hours of pleasure in the very near future. The editors and son Eddie, were given a boat ride on the new lake Monday afternoon.

C. A. Hawkins states that the water in the deepest part is now 36 feet deep and is backed up more than half a mile. The water is 13 feet below spillway level at the present time or, according to the engineers, about half full of its capacity.

Chester says that they will begin stocking the lake with fish later this month, when the first of bass, channel cat and crappie will be placed in the lake.

An even bigger dam than this one is now being constructed by Mr. Geisler on Holmes Creek just above the Hawkins-Geisler dam. When full, the second of Twin Lakes will form a good sized fishin' hole to go along with those now in existence in the area.

Gerald Smith's Cottonwood Lake west of town is full and going over the spillway following the rains. This was the first time that Cottonwood Lake, which is a little over a year old, has been completely full. The spill way carried the run-over in good shape and things look good out there.

Johnny Cagles dam went out during last Friday night's rain. During the time that the dam was being built on Johnny's place, a hard rain fell and the dam was washed away and Friday night's wash out left a great gap in the middle of the dam. Work was begun this week in restoring the dam and it is almost intact again.

There had been seepage near the top of the dam and it was believed that this was the reason for the washout.

Mrs. Clyde Saul and son, Bob, were in Waco last week and enrolled Bob at Baylor University for the fall term.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were at Dalhart cutting wheat but due to the wet weather, the harvest has stopped for the present.

BURSON LAKES REPORT

Dusty Taylor out at Burson Lakes reports that up to Monday morning, they had already received six and three-fourths in. of rain during the month of June.

Despite all of the rain Mr. Taylor reports that fishing has been good at the lakes with pan fry fishermen catching full strings on flies and worms. He reports that many of the brim weigh from one-quarter to a pound. No outstanding catches of bass were reported but W. H. Harris of Quitaque took a string of bass that weighed up to 3½ pounds. Henry Ivory and son, also of Quitaque took 86 panfry one day, 124 the next day and the third day caught another 176.

Mr. Taylor stated that 90,000 bass were put into the main lake last Thursday. He says another 120,000 will go into the lake in September, along with a load of crappie and channel cat. This is done each year, according to Mr. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Stephens and Kristie of Childress returned Debbie Bailey to her home here Friday after a week's visit there. Mrs. Stephens is Mrs. Bailey's sister.

Hi-Plains Hi-Lights

NEWS from the High Plains Research Foundation

One of the major decisions that a farmer makes every year is the date to plant his crops. Research by Delbert Langford, Associate Agronomist at the High Plains Research Foundation, on the date of planting grain sorghum, suggests that certain dates are more favorable than others. The grain sorghum date of planting test included four different planting dates; (1) April 10th; (2) May 15th; (3) June 1st; and (4) June 25th. At each date of planting two varieties of an early maturing, medium maturing and late maturing grain sorghum were planted.

The report prepared by Mr. Langford indicates that the average time from planting to bloom was 24 days longer for the April planting than for the June 25th planting. From this standpoint the early planting was less favorable because more water was required to grow the crop to maturity. The April planting required 18.5 inches of water whereas the June 25th planting required only 11.3 inches of water.

Mr. Langford stated that the height of plant and its standability is important. The hybrids in this test planted in April averaged 12 inches shorter in height than the same hybrids planted June 25th.

Sincere Thanks!

(Ed. note: This note of thanks was turned in to the Tribune to be run in last weeks issue of the Tribune, but was lost before being set in type. The editors apologize for this mishap.)

Edna and I wish to express to all of you for the splendid vote which I received in the second primary. Knowing that a man can only be measured by his friends and supporters, I am humbly grateful to you who have placed your faith in me. It is my earnest desire to serve you in such a way as to merit your confidence always.

Sincerely,
Mort Hawkins

The May 15th and June 1st plantings produced the best yields last year. There was no advantage in the April planting with respect to early harvest. Little difference was noticed in the moisture content of the grain from the April and May planting which were harvested on the same date. Additional information can be obtained in High Plains Research Foundation report No. 29. The date of planting test will be conducted again in 1962.

Initial plans in preparation for the third annual Flame Cultivation tours and demonstrations on Aug. 10th at the High Plains Research Foundation were made recently by representatives of the Foundation. A full day of activities were planned at the meeting. A press conference for agricultural editors and reporters was scheduled at the Foundation's new office building for Friday morning. The tours to view the research results on various crops were scheduled

BRIDAL SHOWER HONORS BRENDA KAY LEATHERS

A bridal shower honoring Miss Brenda Leathers, bride-elect of John Lynn Johnson, was held in the Community Room of the First National Bank, Thursday, June 7, from 3:00 to 5:00 P. M.

The gift tables were laden with many nice and useful gifts, including bed spreads, electric blanket, Mix Master, pillows, cooking-ware, and the hostesses' gift, a vacuum cleaner.

The refreshment table was beautifully decorated with white organza and pink lace tablecloth, with a pink and white center piece of an imitation wedding cake, topped with the bride and groom, and surrounded at the base with white net lace and pink roses. Pink twisted tapers in crystal candelabra, enhanced with lace stood on either side of the centerpiece.

The refreshments of punch, nuts, mints and white frosted cakes, centered with a pink bell, were served to many relatives and friends, including Brenda's mother, sisters and aunts; however, the turbulent weather kept many from attending.

The race between stocking manufacturers to get a run proof nylon on the market is on the home stretch. One is on the market now. Others will come soon. They will cost about $2 per pair.

Leathers-Johnson Vows Exchanged At Paducah Saturday, June 9

Mrs. John Lynn Johnson

Vows were solemnized by Brenda Kay Leathers and John Lynn Johnson in a double-ring ceremony at 7 P.M. Saturday, June 9, from the First Methodist Church in Paducah.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Leathers of Paducah and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Johnson of Quitaque are parents of the bridegroom.

Rev. Grady Adcock, pastor, officiated for the rites before the church altar decorated with an arrangement of white gladioli and string smilax, and the altar rail was decorated with streamers of smilax. The kneeling bench was flanked with four candelabra holding white tapers entwined with white gladioli. Pews were marked with a white gladiolus tied with white satin ribbon and string smilax.

Traditional wedding music was played by Joe Powell, organist, who accompanied Mrs. Marvin Smith, soloist, who sang, "I Love Thee" and "Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown of peau d'ange lace featuring a tube skirt with overskirt of white organza over white taffeta and forming a chapel train. The bodice was fashioned with a portrait neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached by seed pearls to a crown of illusion shaped into a rose. She wore a string of pearls, a gift from her aunts. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses with garlands of stephanotis and white satin picot ribbon.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Paula Leathers. Bridesmaids were Jill Johnson of Quitaque, sister of the bridegroom, Joalyn Sims of Plainview, Mrs. Truman Reese of Pampa and Mrs. Monty Bray of Austin. They wore identical dresses of street length in pastel pink organza with organza overskirt falling from a fitted bodice into petal points at the hemline. Their headpieces were bandeaus of pink satin roses with pink French net veils. They carried a long stemmed Rhome Glory rose tied with matching ribbon streamers. Their accessories were pink opera pumps and white wrist length gloves.

Connie and Glenda Bridgeman of Lubbock were randleighters and wore street length dresses of pink organza over pink taffeta with fitted bodice, scooped neckline and bouffant skirts. They wore wristlets of pink carnations.

Reception

The bride's parents were hosts for the wedding reception held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The cake and punch tables were covered with a white net cloth over white satin bordered with pink appliques of spring flowers. A silver candlestick with white tapers entwined with smilax and an arrangement of pink carnations adorned the table. Streamers of smilax were crossed in the center of the table and run into each corner. A silver punch service completed the table decor.

MAINTENANCE CONSULTANT, THE PERMATEX COMPANY

Cool Car, Cool Driver
Thousands of motorists will make the trek this year to see "Old Faithful", the famed geyser that spurts hot water and steam in Yellowstone National Park. For many, the big steam bath will look mighty familiar, since the do-it-yourself version is right under the hood of their old faithful car.

Nearly all cars of the American road are water-cooled. That is, the engine heat is carried off by circulating water which passes through the radiator, giving the heat to the open air. Deprive your car of water, or be careless about cooling system care, and you will turn it into a hot-headed blow-top. These may be seen lined up along the side of the road on any hot, traffic-jammed weekend.

In the North, the biggest offenders are those who neglect to drain their winter alcohol, which boils off at a lower temperature than water. Draining anti-freeze, however, is the beginning of cooling system maintenance, not the end.

To prolong cooling system life and to keep rolling along on the hottest days you should turn your car over regularly must not lose sight of our blessings. The United States of America stands today as the foremost Nation in the history of the world in providing the many freedoms which man enjoys, as well as the material things that contribute so measurably to provide a pleasant life span. Those who would condemn our free enterprise economic system, and our government, need only to look to the obvious to see a full complete, and clear picture of the blessings that we in this country enjoy. The comparison with other countries in what we know as the free world reflects benefits which we accept in every day life, that are not even remotely hoped for in other nations. When compared with the Communist or Communist Satellite Nations, the picture is like night and day. All of the automobiles in the 16 Soviet Republics wouldn't make a good-sized traffic jam in New York City. All of the television sets wouldn't provide the needs of one good apartment complex in Chicago. All of the washing machines wouldn't meet the needs of one of our medium-sized cities. (This would be interpreted in Russia as meaning that American cities and our people are dirty.) In that regard, it might be said that this country has the cleanest people in the world because we have the means by which to stay clean and healthy. Where else in the world do you have the fine food, the fine automobiles, the fine houses, the fine labor saving appliances and devices, the beautiful parks, the fine clothes, and the right and power to move about at will without being required to answer to anyone? These are only a few of the blessings with which God has seen fit to endow us. This has not come about without toil and sacrifices of those who have lived before us. It is our responsibility to see that this great country with all of its bounties be fully preserved and made better during our generation. We must also keep in mind that those who follow us must be armed with the knowledge, the understanding, the initiative, and the love of freedom to carry on.
