Basketball Workouts Begin

Although the tail-end of the baseball season is still with us and the football season is just now in full swing, basketball workouts have begun in many of the smaller Class B schools over the area and such is the case of Quitaque, who has no football anymore.

New Coach Joe Streun and the Panthers and Pantherettes started Monday in preparation for the season basketball opener, which will be here against the Samnorwood High School teams Tuesday night, October 16, less than two weeks away.

The Panthers will have the toughest row to hoe this year, that of defending their district and regional championships, and with only one other letterman back who saw considerable action last year.

The Pantherettes returned more of their regulars from last season but they did not boast such a gaudy record as the Panthers and will not be under as much pressure as the Panthers. The Pantherettes might be tabbed the district favorites for the coming season except for the fact that Lakeview, who battled Matador right down to the wire for the girls' championship, returns most of her regulars and again will be real tough.

The 1962-63 basketball schedule for the Quitaque teams has been released this week, and it appears that fans here will have one of the most attractive non-conference schedules in recent years. In fact, the first part of the Panthers opponents looks very much like the "Who's Who" of the basketball powers of the area.

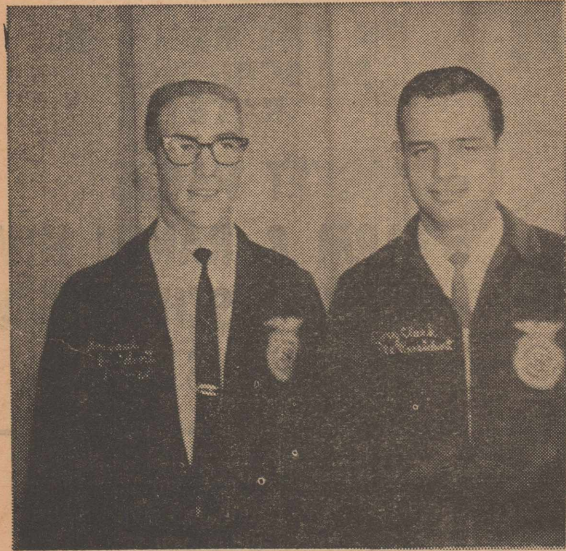

Samnorwood, the first opponent on the local teams' schedule is always in that section along with Hedley, the second team to appear on this year's schedule. Then comes a pair of games with McAdoo, always tough for anybody to beat. Adrian, always a power in the upper Panhandle, is the locals next opponent, then comes a pair of Class A teams, long-time traditional Silverton and then Kress, one of the four teams able to boast of a win over last year's champ Panthers.

In addition to these games the local teams will play in the Silverton, Kress and the Estelline Invitational tournaments. It looks like basketball fans here have a lot of good basketball action in store for them this coming season. Fans who have been out to witness the workouts at the local gym report that Coach Streun has a very large group of boys and girls out, hustling and eager to win a starting berth on the team.

A great deal of quiet enthusiasm can already be felt among the fans as well as the boys and girls who will be wearing the black and gold of QHS this basketball season. When Coach Streun accepted the job here last summer he expressed the hope that fans would not expect to have another team to go to Austin next spring, and probably there are none who are quite so optimistic as all that. One thing is already evident; Coach Streun is a young man dedicated to his chosen profession and he knows basketball and how to pass along his knowledge of the game to the boys and girls.

Quitaque may not win any championships this year but we predict that the QHS teams will be well-coached and will scrap any and all right down to the wire. We repeat: it looks like a most interesting season on tap for fans here.

Sammy Johnston spent the week end at home with his parents, the Odell Johnstons. He had injured his big toe-nail in basketball practice on Tuesday and had worked out again on Wednesday. When he arrived home his toe was badly infected and he has to go to the doctor at Matador on Saturday and again Sunday for medical treatment. He returned to school Monday morning, and his toe was better. The doctor told him the nail will have to be removed.

Jim Saul, above right, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Saul, is Pres. of the Quitaque FFA Chapter. With Jim is Jerry Clark of Buna, who is the State FFA President. Jerry was in the Panhandle helping promote FFA work.

Quite a number of area FFA officers were here for the Greenbelt District FFA meeting Wednesday of last week. Left to right is Larry Clark of Buna - State FFA President; Larry Combest of Panhandle, Area I President; Neal Lowry of Wellington, Area I Vice-president; and Curtis Dickson of White Face - Area I State Vice-president. Standing in front of the boys is Donna Bedwell, this year's FFA Sweetheart. Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bedwell; and Charlene Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bailey, who was last year's Sweetheart.

The board has petitioned the U. S. Dept. of Labor to allow the school to continue under the same conditions as last year's classes and it is expected that permission will be received soon.

CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGER'S WASHINGTON REPORT CUBAN CURE

I had an uncle who considered himself quite a philosopher. He had many sayings among which was the following, 'there are more ways to kill a cat than stuffing it on butter.' I think this axiom could be applied to Castro and the present Cuban situation.

Much has been said about the possibilities of a blockade. A blockade, as such, under international law is an act of war. Whether or not a war would be precipitated by a physical blockade is unknown. Such action would involve the calculated risk incident thereto. However, it is my opinion that if a physical blockade procedure is followed, this Country should be ready, able and willing to go to war so that there would be no misunderstanding on the part of the American people. It is my personal feeling that Cuba now constitutes a cancer on the Western Hemisphere that must be removed — a job that can be done with great success just as a skillful surgeon would remove the cancer from a human body if the matter is properly approached.

In pursuing this thought which I have tried to study very carefully, I decided during the early part of this year that efforts must be made to prevent trade with Cuba at every turn. Prior efforts on the part of a number of us in Congress had produced the discontinuance of the sugar purchases as well as several other economic sanctions. The Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, of which I am a member, gave approval to a bill introduced by my good friend and colleague, Congressman Paul Rogers. This measure prohibited the shipment of Cuban goods into the United States and in interstate commerce. The bill cleared the House by an overwhelming vote but has not yet been passed upon by the Senate. It would express to the world the opinion of the House of Representatives on this subject.

It is apparent that the United States alone cannot solve this problem so long as the nations friendly to us continued shipments to Cuba. Many of these nations were receiving foreign aid from this Country, while ships owned by nations of these countries are listed on the registry of those countries were continuing to ply the seas in trade with Cuba. My next thought was to limit the authority of our government to pay foreign aid to the countries permitting such practice. Hence I offered an amendment to the Foreign Aid Appropriations Bill which has met with favorable comment all over this Nation. This Amendment would simply give to a foreign country authorized to receive aid from this Country the choice of permitting this continuing trade with Cuba or accepting our foreign aid, grants and loans. The amendment would, therefore, help to solve one of the major problems and afford us the opportunity of seeing just who our friends are in this scrap.

However, a country could say that they preferred to trade with Cuba and turn down the foreign aid, or some countries, friendly to us but not receiving foreign aid, would not be effected. Efforts were being made and had been made in our diplomatic circles to persuade friendly nations to cease this trade with Cuba. It was the opinion of many that if effective results could be brought about by agreement with these nations, it would be more helpful in the solution of the overall problem. However, as time ran on, it became apparent that all the foreign nations were not going to make such an agreement. In recent weeks several of such nations freely voiced publicly their intention not to cease this trade. Consequently, it was my opinion that it was time for the Congress to act on this subject. Therefore I introduced HR 13214 which reads as follows:

"That all ports of the United States are hereby closed to all vessels while engaged in trade or commerce with Cuba except United States installations therein), except where such vessels are required to enter ports of the U. S. for repairs or emergencies recognized as such under international law.

"Sec. 2. Any vessel which enters or attempts to enter any port of the U. S. during a period when the ports of the U. S. are closed to it under the first section of this Act shall, together with such cargo, be forfeited."

Much could be said about this law but space here will not permit. Suffice it to say that if this proposal can be enacted into law, it will be one of the most effective weapons that has been employed in the cold war.

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

I was with Grady L. Tyler on the Hughes-Blair place last week and saw the results of some very good range management. Some of the best and most vigorous growing grass I have ever seen was observed. Blue grama and side oats grama was growing over knee high. One result of grazing so as to have abundant grass is heavy calves at weaning time. They had weighed one short yearling the day of my visit which weighed 665 pounds. Other calves in the pasture looked heavier.

Another beneficial effect of plentiful grass is a high percent calf crop. They have been getting ninety - eight percent calf crops or better each year. When the mother cows have an abundant supply of high quality forage, they stay in good condition and thus have much less calving troubles. Of course, from the conservation standpoint, tall grass with a large amount of litter is the best method in the world of conserving soil and water.

I would like to express my appreciation to all my friends in Quitaque, Flomot and surrounding communities for their prayers, cards and flowers that were sent to me while I was in the hospital. It would be impossible for me to thank each one of you personally. May God Bless each of you.

with his father and brothers near Littlefield, Texas. He received his bachelor of Science degree at Texas Technological College in 1953. He was employed by Agricultural Chemicals Inc., Greenville, Mississippi. He was employed by the Plainsman Supply Co., Plainview in 1956 and 1957.

In the spring of 1957, he commenced his graduate program at Texas Technological College receiving his Masters degree in Agronomy in August, 1958. He was accepted for graduate work at Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana, in September 1958, securing his Doctor of Philosophy degree in Soil Chemistry in 1961. He is at present conducting post doctorate research in biochemistry at Michigan State University, Lansing, Michigan.

His work in this field of soil and plant relationships will be of great value to the agriculture industry in the High Plains. His studies of the yields of cotton and grain sorghum of irrigated Amarillo Clay Loam in two moisture levels; cotton insect control activities in Lubbock County together with his scientific studies and publications at Texas Tech, Purdue, and Michigan State will be very helpful as he starts his activities at the Foundation.

The new soil and plant research laboratory given to the High Plains Research Foundation by the Killgore Foundation in Amarillo is already equipped for some of the work Dr. Gohlke will be doing in soil and plant research. Other laboratory equipment needed will be secured to give him the facilities for his studies which will be directed to continue the strengthening of the agriculture business economy of West Texas.

COTTON HARVEST STILL MOVING SLOWLY

Cotton harvest is still moving slowly, according to Charles E. Cox of the Altus Classing Office. Only about 1500 samples were classed during the week, as compared to more than 12,000 for the same week last year.

Statistical averages showed a further decline in grades. An estimated 10% of the cotton was called in the white grades, 74% light spotted, and the remaining 16% spotted. Strict Low Middling Light Spotted and Low Middling. Light Spotted were most predominant and about equal together accounting for about 60% of the grades.

A wide range of staple lengths continue to show up, but the average dropped to 31/32. 15/16, 31/32, and 1 inch accounted for an estimated 88%, with about equal amounts of each length.

Micronaire estimates on cotton received during the week made a definite upward trend for the first time this season. Estimates showed 17% reading 2.9 and lower; 21% between 3.0 and 3.4; 18% between 3.5 and 3.9; and 45% reading 4.0 and above.

Little or no cotton is going into trade channels. Some small amounts are reported going into the government loan.
