CONGRESS MUST RETAIN ITS POWERS

Congress is to the government what a board of directors is to a large corporation. Congress guides the actions of our government by passing laws and by determining whether or not they are properly administered. In a similar way, boards of directors set the policies of corporations and check to see that their decisions are executed by management.

In both government and business, policy-makers must be extremely careful lest they delegate to people on the managerial level powers that should be retained at the top. This, as I pointed out in last week's newsletter, has occurred too often in the Congress with the result that the authority of Congress, the direct voice of the people in their government, has been sapped. Just as stockholders in a corporation would object if the directors they elected shunned the responsibilities by passing too much power to appointed management so American citizens are protesting that Congress has let too much power slip away to bureaucrats who man departments of the government's administrative branch.

Now before the Senate is a bill that, I am convinced, would further strengthen the power of the administrative branch in overseeing the functions and practices of the quasi-judicial regulatory agencies of government. The bill, S. 1664, would establish what some have termed a "super agency". It would have watchdog authority over the efficiency, adequacy and fairness of administrative procedures followed by the regulatory agencies. The Administrative Conference of the United States, as this "super agency" would be called, would be headed by a full-time chairman appointed by the President (with the advice and consent of the Senate) and include an 11-member Council, including agency heads and lawyers, and a larger Assembly consisting of other government officials and citizen specialists.

This is a well-intentioned bill. I applaud its purpose — which is to see that unfair and capricious treatment of citizens is prevented as they deal with these agencies, whose power is in part legislative and in part judicial, and to provide for appeals procedures where none now exist. I object, however, to the philosophy of government lying behind the proposal — that watchdog authority over these agencies is not properly a function of the Congress, that it belongs in the bureaucracy. It certainly is incumbent upon the departments and agencies to administer the authority given to them in a responsible way, but the ultimate responsibility as to whether or not this is being done rests with Congress. In my view, Congress should set to work to restore to itself authority passed along over the years to the regulatory agencies. Instead of laying down the broad forms of legislation that have characterized past delegations of authority to the administrative branch, Congress should be more specific in enacting policies these agencies are to follow.

In the past few years a number of bills have been introduced in the Congress delegating to government agencies measures of authority which taken singly seem insignificant. Some of these bills have been enacted, some have been defeated by the cumulative effects of those that have

Services Held For Raldo Martin

Raldo N. Martin, 57, a lifelong resident of the Flomot area, passed away at his home last Thursday, June 13, about 1:30 P. M., the victim of a heart attack.

Funeral services were held on Friday of last week at 3 o'clock in the Methodist Church at Flomot. Officiating at the service was Rev. James R. Williams, pastor of the Flomot Methodist Church. He was assisted by Rev. Luther Baker, former pastor and Rev. Ed Spived, former pastor of the Flomot Baptist Church.

Interment was in the Flomot Cemetery under the direction of Eudy Seale Funeral Home of Matador.

Mr. Martin was born at Whiteflat and lived all of his life in the Flomot-Whiteflat communities.

Survivors include his wife, of the home; two daughters and 4 granddaughters.

FORMER PASTOR RAY RILEY DIES

J. T. Rogers, Jr. received a telephone call Tuesday morning from Gordon Riley, to report that his father, the Rev. Ray Riley, former pastor of the Baptist Church, had died of a heart attack Monday. Rev. Riley was 58 years of age.

Funeral services were held at 3:00 P. M. Wednesday in the Morgan Avenue Baptist Church at Corpus Christi.

The Rev. Riley pastored here during the late forties and early fifties. Mrs. Riley died several years ago.

ON DEAN'S HONOR ROLL

Jon Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Johnson was listed on the Dean's Honor Roll the Spring Semester at Baylor U. at Waco. Jon ended the semester with 4 A's and 2 B's. He will be in a hand picked choir of 16 members, known as the "Chamber Singers."

passed has been a massive grant of administrative power to the quasi-judicial agencies. In some instances, these grants of power have had the effect of binding the Congress to expenditures not specifically authorized in appropriation bills. In other instances laws have permitted members of the executive branch of these agencies to draft what constitute criminal laws, which then must be enforced by the judicial branch. Under these grants of combined legislative and judicial power, the agency is able to make the rules, the violations of which make the offender subject to penalty by U. S. courts.

I'm in support of every step Congress can take to wrest this sort of authority away from the agencies and return it to where it belongs. By enacting specific legislation delegating less sweeping administrative authority, placing enforcement of laws in the judicial branch by repealing enforcement powers now held by bureaucrats, by enacting laws to provide for better appeals machinery, by conducting a thorough inquiry into the vast realm of agency-exercised powers — these things would help. Also helpful would be a re-examination by the Congress of its own role in government, a study that might go far to restore the emphasis of Congressional activity to legislative business.

SURPRISE!

All box rent is due. Beginning now you may pay your box rent for one quarter (three months) or for one year, July 1st to June 30th, 1964.

The main thing we want to observe is this: The Post Office Department wants to know how many boxes we have rented at the beginning of the new year, so we hope you will pay yours on or before Saturday noon, June 29th, since the quarter closes on Sunday, and the rents are due on or before the last day of the month.

Thanks,
S. T. Bogan

NEW ZIP CODE NUMBER ANNOUNCED FOR QUITAQUE

Postmaster Sid Bogan announced today that Quitaque's new five-digit ZIP Code is 79255.

"Everyone in Quitaque, Texas will use this ZIP Code on all their correspondence to speed mail deliveries and reduce the chance of mis-sent mail," Postmaster Bogan said.

ZIP Code, the Post Office Department's revolutionary new system of improved mail dispatch and delivery, goes into effect on July 1.

Postmaster Bogan stressed the importance of all citizens of Quitaque learning this city's ZIP Code and using it in their return address on all correspondence. In answering mail, he said, ZIP Codes taken from return addresses on incoming mail should be used.

"The ZIP Code is literally the last word in mail addressing," Mr. Bogan said. It should follow the city and state in addresses.

He cited this example of the proper use of the ZIP Code:

Sidney T. Bogan
Postmaster
U. S. Post Office
Quitaque, Texas, 79255
The new ZIP Code plan, Mr. Bogan said, for the first time will permit the Post Office Department to short-cut repeated address reading.

"The address on mail must often be read as many as eight or ten times by postal employees to get it to the proper destination," Mr. Bogan said. "Each handling slows the process of mail dispatch and adds to the opportunity for human error."

"With the ZIP Code, a clerk needs only to glance at the code to know immediately to what national area, state and post office the letter is destined, and to speed it on its way, cutting up to 24 hours off the time between deposit and delivery." Mr. Bogan said that when ZIP Code is in full swing, the United States will have "the most modern system of mail distribution and delivery in existence."

Recreation Program To Get Underway Next Monday

RAINS CONTINUE TO FALL ON PANHANDLE

For the past month the Panhandle of Texas has been having thunderstorms and in some instances, very heavy rains every few days but here in our immediate area we have been more fortunate up to now.

Tuesday night's cloud produced one of the noisiest nights and hardest rain thus far but it was short-lived and only .55 of an inch of rain fell. A little bit of hail fell and sent residents scurrying to shelter with automobiles but fortunately there was not enough of that to cause much damage here in town. Loud thunder and brilliant flashes of lightning kept residents worried for a few minutes, however.

Since May 21, when the rainy cycle hit, the official gauge at the City Hall in Quitaque has caught 7.30 inches of rain. Since May 21 there have been 10 days when rainfall has been measured in the rain gauge but only four of these times has there been as much as an inch of rain fallen and only once has there been as much as two inches of rain in any 24 hour period. Much of the Panhandle has not been so fortunate. And this area has not had very much hail. A number of times storm clouds have threatened and it appeared that floods and hail were almost a certainty. Most farmers have had to plant their cotton over only one time thus far.

To date the rain has fallen like this:

May 21	1:00
May 23	1.10
May 26	1.00
May 27	.30
June 1	1.24
June 3	2.25
June 4	.29
June 7	.19
June 16	.38
June 18	.55

This month is much like June of last year when 6.73 inches of rain fell. However, unless farmers have to replant again, this year's crop will be at least two weeks earlier than that of last year.

A good-sized crowd of youngsters and their parents were on hand at the school house last Monday afternoon to sign up for the first Summer Recreation Program here in Quitaque and to hear the plans explained in detail by Coach Gene King, who will direct the activities.

According to Coach King the swimming classes is drawing the most interest, as was expected, since it is a popular summer sport in any kids' book. Some 56 signed up for beginners lessons and 22 for advanced instruction, a total of 78. It is expected that the figure will reach 100 or more by the time actual classes get under way and all the kiddoes arrive back home from vacation trips.

Thirty-four indicated that they would take part in basketball, 31 will play baseball and 23 signed up for tennis. All of these numbers will grow because several groups were out of town on Monday and could not sign up.

Coach King has asked that all baseball players to meet at the school grounds Monday afternoon for their first meeting of the program. Coach King has announced that he needs adult volunteers to help in the baseball program. Thus far, only 3 men have volunteered to work in the baseball program and more are needed. If you are interested and can give some time to the baseball program, the coach sorely needs your help.

Coach King has asked that 8th grade and under girl basketball players to meet at 6:00 P. M. Monday; 8th grade and under boys will meet at 8:00 P. M. Monday. High School girls basketball players will meet at 6:00 P. M. Tuesday and High School boys will meet at 8:00 P. M. on Thursday.

O. R. Stark, who will coach the tennis players, will meet with all tennis players Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock to get that phase of the program going. Coach King has asked that anyone who might have some old tennis balls that are usable, and would donate them to the program, to please let him know of them because they are sorely needed.

The swimming program will not get underway until Monday July 1. The biggest problem confronting the program at the present time is that of transporting the swimmers to and from the pool at Silverton. Coach King has requested anyone who might have a truck that can be used for this purpose to get in touch with him.

Coach King emphasizes that it is not too late to get in on the fun and urged all boys and girls who are interested to sign up for the activities.

LOCKNEY GENERAL HOSPITAL IN THIRD EXPANSION PROGRAM

The Lockney General Hospital is in about the middle of its third expansion program in 15 years.

The new addition will include space for an operating room, a delivery room and a central supply room. There also will be a pharmacy and a basement, the full size of the new addition, with space for storage of records and supplies.

The basement also will contain a classroom for vocational nurse training, a program which at this time is inactive and a fall-out refuge for patients in case of emergency.

In addition to the new wing, extensive remodeling will be done in the clinic to give more clinical space to better serve patients; including a larger laboratory and more examining rooms.

One of the features in the new addition will be a modern hospital communication system which will offer a patient to nurse communication from each room to the nurses' desk. This will cut down on time and steps for the nurses as well as provide additional comfort for patients.

Another feature will be a glass in walkway leading either to the clinic or to the pharmacy. The pharmacy also will have a glass front.

The wing will be all masonry construction and floors will be of tile. The operating room and delivery room will have ceramic tile on the walls.

The pharmacy has been leased by Fred Byrd, owner and operator at this time of Byrd Pharmacy on Main Street.

Lockney General Hospital was first incorporated in 1945 as a community hospital under the name of Floyd County Co-Operative Hospital. The first patients were admitted in 1948.

The hospital's original name was changed by charter amendment to Lockney General Hospital. The hospital began active operation in 1948.

In 1954 the hospital was sold to Dr. W. J. Mangold, who at that time was chief of medical staff. Dr. T. L. Glen has since become a partner.

The hospital was originally approved for 11 beds with clinical facilities which included state approved laboratory and x-ray. In 1955 and eight bed ward was added, making a total of 19 beds.

In 1956 a total of almost 16,000 patients were seen in the clinic with 853 patients, excluding newborns, being admitted to the hospital.

Need for expansion to care for patients was felt again in 1957 and an addition for seven more beds was provided and clinic facilities expanded.

In 1962 there were 29,701 patients registered in the clinic with 1,328 patients admitted to the hospital, excluding newborns which numbered 306 for the year. Again it was deemed necessary to expand the hospital's facilities and consequently the present construction was begun.

The hospital disburses some $18,000 to $20,000 in the community each month. There are 35 employees on the regular pay roll.

The staff is headed by Doctors W. J. Mangold and T. L. Glen. Mrs. L. K. Sherman has served as business manager for the past 10 years; Jimmy Stennett, M.T. (ASCP) is director of the laboratory and x-rays; Dr. William L. Reed is consulting radiologist; Mrs. Florence Barnes, R.N., heads the nursing staff; Mrs. Louise Weathers is receptionist; Mrs. Ione Young, bookkeeper; and Mrs. Grace Lemmons and Mrs. Bette Minter are in charge of the insurance office.

More construction is planned at the hospital in the near future to include the addition of eight private rooms.

TWICE AS MUCH COOLING

With the patented features of Paramount Coolers

Yes! This famous Paramount 5000 c.f.m. evaporative cooler gives you up to twice as much cooling because of these patented features:

— Many coolers lose as much as 70% of cooling efficiency because dust, dirt and salts clog the filters. Patented No-Clog Sta-Fresh Filters are guaranteed clog-proof, assuring 100% cooling efficiency all summer long.

— Filters saturated with water become heavy and often sag and settle from the top, drawing hot, unfiltered, uncooled air into the cooler which may create as much as a 70% cooling loss. Patented Grip-Lock Filter Holders are guaranteed to prevent sagging and settling of filters assuring 100% cool, clean, filtered air.

— Without correct water trough adjustment, sections of the filters remain dry, resulting in substantial cooling loss and costly service expense. Patented Free-Flo Visible Water Troughs with external adjustment assure 100% saturation, and 100% cooling for the entire life of the cooler.

— Added feature — Patented Window Closing Attachment lets you close and lock your window. Eliminates entry of dust, rain and drafts into your home.

GENERAL TELEPHONE TOWNS ON THE MOVE

How Community Spirit Built Perryton

Population figures more than double... 30 new industries added... all since 1950! That is the miraculous record of Perryton in the Texas Panhandle wheat growing area.

When oil was discovered in the early 50's, an aggressive, long-range program was launched by the Chamber of Commerce. An 84-acre industrial tract was secured and plotted; its streets were paved and a railroad spur was built.

So successful was this community development that today a second industrial tract has been acquired and plotted. Perryton, former population 4417, is now known as The Oil Center of the Anadarko Basin, with 9400 citizens. It is another reason we say big things are happening in General Telephone towns.

These towns are on the move. Community improvements are under way, local resources are being developed, new businesses, new industries are coming in. If your town seeks additional information about expansion perhaps we can help. Just write our Community Development Department, Box 1001, San Angelo, Texas.

SHOWER HONORS MRS. VERLON HAMILTON

Mrs. Verlon Hamilton, the former Etwoile Colvin, was the honoree at a miscellaneous shower Tuesday afternoon in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

The room was beautifully decorated in the bride's chosen colors of orchid and white. The register table featured a white wedding bell with orchid bows, the gift table held a bride attired in white with orchid streamers and the white linen serving table centered a floral arrangement of orchid and white.

Miss Judy Colvin, sister of the bride, registered the guests as they arrived. After viewing the large array of gifts, each guest was served white cake squares, decorated in orchid roses with green leaves, and orchid punch with nuts and mints. The appointments were silver and milk glass, and the napkins were white trimmed in orchid. Mrs. Johnny Mason and Mrs. Jim Mayfield served the refreshments.

The bride was presented with a white rose corsage, trimmed with orchid, by the hostesses. Their gift was a service for eight of Melmac in the Wheat pattern. Other gifts included pottery, stainless steel flatware, bedspreads, blankets, sheets, pillows, a broiler-toaster combination, an electric blanket and other gifts too numerous to mention.

George Ray Colvin, father of the bride, took motion pictures during the hours of the shower. Approximately fifty guests registered and many sent gifts who were unable to attend.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mmes. Novelle Wise, Alton Johnson, Ralph Carter, VOLLIE Hodges, Wayne Whittington, Johnny Mason, C. A. Hawkins, Murry Morrison, James Brunson, Preston Woods, George Setliff, Jim Mayfield and Pete Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard McNabb and children of Amarillo spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Barrett. The McNabbs and Mrs. Barret attended the wedding of James Roy Brown and Becky Mallow at Silverton Sunday afternoon. Cheri McNabb was one of the attendants in the wedding. She is James Roy's cousin. The McNabb's and Mrs. Barrett attended the reception following the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents, two miles west of Silverton. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. George Seaney before returning to Quitaque.

Mrs. R. C. McDonald and MayVon of Spearman are visiting her parents, the Vaughn Tiffins. She also visited the Horace McDonalds and the Johnny Brummetts.

Boating Tips...

The boater's most common use for line is tying up to a dock. To do the job like a real "salt", learn these two simple hitches, suggest Mercury outboard authorities: use the upper knot in the illustration to tie up to a cleat. Pass the line around the cleat under both horns, then diagonally across the top of the cleat and under the first horn. Tuck the loose end under the line where it passes across the top. The more pull by the boat, the greater the holding power of the hitch—yet it can be loosened easily by tugging at the free end. Use the other knot, the clove hitch, to tie up to posts or piles. It consists of two loops with the free end tucked under. Don't use this hitch for permanent fastening, since it may eventually slip.

LONE STAR AGRICULTURE PROPER INSECT CONTROL

Killing crop insects is a lot like a marriage proposal. A little thought beforehand may prevent a pack of grief afterwards. Fortunately, farmers can learn from their previous errors in insect control and making the same mistake twice can usually be prevented. And the Texas Department of Agriculture entomologists are under pressure now for some quick changes to our pest problems.

The most common error is spraying the right chemical at the wrong time. Application of pesticides too early or too late in the season has two inevitable results—wasted money and an insect damaged crop. This error can be avoided by checking with your county agent or a Texas Department of Agriculture official—plus following the directions of correct application issued by the chemical company.

There are some insects against which current products on the market offer little defense. The pink bollworm must be controlled primarily by planting and plow up deadlines in Texas. Late planting cuts down the time for a destructive buildup of the bollworm population and a good, early cleanup of the stalks in the field destroys the winter nesting place.

The grasshopper is an annual visitor to Texas crops and can be dealt with effectively most of the time. But some seasons, he gets completely out of hand and emergency measures are necessary. The more we can learn about the causes of the rise and fall in numbers of the grasshopper, the better and we can forecast and prevent these epidemics and the resultant damage. It is essential that our techniques of survey and identification be rapid, certain, and inexpensive.

This year, keep in touch with the federal and state agricultural people in your area when planning your insect control program. Their recommendations and advice may save you much time, money and effort.

NEWS from the High Plains Research Foundation

FLAME CULTIVATION FIELD TOURS

The United States were founded on the principle of self help through the idea of private enterprise. This is the idea behind the two flame cultivation field tours that will be held in the Rio Grande Valley by the High Plains Research Foundation in cooperation with local industries and business firms.

The first flame cultivation tour will be held on June 18 from 2:30 to 5:00 P. M. at the Russell Plantation which is located south of Harlingen. The other flame cultivation field tour will be held at Donna, Texas, on Thursday, June 20, from 2:30 to 5:00 P. M. on the Jim Steidinger farm. Persons from the High Plains Research Foundation and local representatives from business and industry will conduct visitors on a walking tour through the research plots. The purpose of the research work on flame cultivation at these two sites is to determine the feasibility of using flame cultivation as a means of weed control in the area.

The research program with flame cultivation came about when several of the local leaders for industry and business called on the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway, Texas, and asked the Foundation to conduct a full time Year-round program in the Valley. The present research program is being supported entirely by the LP Gas industry, butane dealers and several business firms throughout the Valley.

Don Staggs, who is laboratory assistant in flame cultivation research at the Foundation, resides in Harlingen, Texas, and is conducting the flame cultivation research program. The Rio Grande Valley program is coordinated and directed by the Foundation in its flame cultivation research program over the state of Texas.

Research information already obtained indicates that flame cultivation can reduce the cost of producing crops by means of reducing the hand labor costs of weed control. Flame cultivation is a completely mechanical means of weed control. Plan to attend the Field Day, and see this cost saving method of controlling weeds in action.
