Children's Photos To Be Taken

The publisher's of this newspaper would like to give our readers a look at the children of this area, these children who are our future citizen's and the leaders of tomorrow.

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best reproduction of the pictures, they must all be of uniform size and quality.

Winston B. Lucas, an expert children's photographer, who is well-known to people of this area, with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work, will be here Saturday, April 11 and will take pictures at The Tribune office from 10 A. M. to 4:00 P. M.

No Charge to Parents

There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation to bring the kiddoes in to have their pictures made. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with the studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper. It is entirely up to them.

The More Pictures The Better

This paper wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more, the better. So the mothers and fathers should remember the date, Saturday, April 11 and bring their children to the photographer.

You'll be mighty glad afterward, if you do and the kiddoes will be proud to see their pictures in print.

Appointments may be had by calling 3131.

Beatles? Here In Quitaque???

The editor almost fell out of his chair the other day when he looked up and saw the two characters pictured above come into The Tribune. He was sure that Quitaque had been paid a visit by the famous you-know-who. After adjusting his bifocals and taking a closer look, the editor finally recognized a pair of local lads—name of Butch Brown and Clyde Dudley. After much coaxing and arm twisting they consented to pose for the picture.

Streets To Be Paved

Plans are almost complete to add more paved streets within the city here, it has been announced.

Almost certain to be paved is two blocks of Jago St., which is the street behind the schools. Paving is scheduled to be done from First to Third Streets. Also included in the plan for paving is the block on the west end of the school campus, from Morris Street to Jago. The School Board voted Monday night in their regular meeting to participate with the property owners concerned along the two streets concerned.

There are other streets in town that might possibly be paved at the same time as the ones mentioned above. The paving will be done by the crew that will do the paving on the highway and the streets can be paved at this time for about half the price that it would take to get a crew to move in and do a street paving job alone.

Anyone who might be interested in having their street paved should contact City Secretary James Brunson.

METHODIST NOTES

The revival has gotten off to a good start. The interest seems to be keen, the hospitality and fellowship delightful. As this was written on Tuesday morning the church has had two accessions to membership on profession of faith and baptism. It is hoped that many others will see their faith increased and have a real new series of baptisms by the Holy Spirit. Rev. Jim Boswell of Abilene, formerly of Turkey, is leading our thinking about great people of the past, and making this relevant to our own day. He began the series with "John the Baptist, Magnificent Fool," and is to finish it next Sunday morning with "Peter: Shifting Sand Becomes Solid Rock." Meanwhile our children and youth have become a significant part of our music service, our accompanists have rendered their usual fine service, and we have been borrowing a song leader from the Baptists, George Owens. His leadership has been great. He really gets people to sing. Our hospitality committee, our people who have furnished meals, and others have been of great help.

The pastor is to finish the study of OUR MISSION TODAY in the regular Sunday evening service at six this time. It is called "A Postscript on Hope," the text being "Peace to all of you who are in Christ." I Peter 4:14.

BERRY-REDDITT VOWS EXCHANGED IN SAN ANTONIO

Mrs. Charles Clayton Redditt

Tulia — (Spl.) In a wedding ceremony at 6:00 p. m. Saturday, March 28, in the Thrift Chapel of Trinity Baptist Church at San Antonio, Miss Carol June Berry of Tulia became the bride of Charles Clayton Redditt of San Antonio. Dr. Buckner Fannin officiated in a candlelight service for a double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Berry of Tulia. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John B. Redditt, Sr. of St. Joseph, La.

Music was provided by Mrs. George Wright, organist, and Sam Hicks, soloist, who sang "How Do I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer." Both were from San Antonio.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza over taffetta fashioned along princess lines. The scoop neckline and brief sleeves were enhanced with scalloped re-embroidered Alencon lace. Tiny covered buttons fastened the back of the gown. The bouffant bell skirt featured appliqued bands of self fabric and Alencon lace. Unpressed pleats accented by a back bow at the waistline formed a full chapel train.

Her veil of imported silk illusion fell from a crown of Alencon lace traced with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of phalaenois and stephanotis.

For something old, the bride wore a small mother-of-pearl brooch belonging to her maternal grandmother, the late Mrs. Amos Persons of Quitaque. Her something borrowed was her wedding gown from her friend, Mrs. Sammy Brietzke of New Braunfels. She had the traditional blue garter. She wore a seed pearl necklace which the bridegroom's stepmother wore at her marriage to his father.

Mrs. J. D. Purgason of Levelland was her sister's matron of honor. Miss Elizabeth Redditt, sister of the bridegroom, St. Joseph, La., was bridesmaid. They wore floor-length gowns of deep aqua, dull-finish satin with bouffant bell shaped skirts and matching hats, in miniature, covered with aqua net and topped with two tiny spring flowers. Each carried cascades of pale yellow roses.

Wylie Berry of Tulsa, Okla., brother of the bride, was best man. Groomsman was Walter Maxmillan of San Antonio. Berry and Maxmillan were also ushers. Miss Susan Redditt, St. Joseph, La., sister of the bridegroom, lighted the candles. Darden Purgason, Levelland, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Berry chose a mauve silk twill dress with matching accessories and rose floral hat. The bridegroom's stepmother wore a white linen dress with pastel embroidery, white straw hat, and pink shoes. Both mothers had white orchid corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the garden of the LaDauphine Apartments. The garden was lighted with hurricane lamps and roped off with white satin ribbon. The two round tables were laid with white organdy cloths and decorated with the bouquets of the bride's attendants. The three tiered white wedding cake, decorated with yellow roses and pastel green leaves and topped with bride and groom, was served from one table and the punch was served from the crystal bowl at the other table. Members of the garden party were Miss Charlene Poach, Miss Barbara Wyres, Mrs. Samuel Carroll Brietzke, Mrs. Leslie Taylor, and Miss Michele Stevens. Miss Stevens registered guests at the entrance to the garden. This table was decorated with a small silver bowl floating a white camellia.

For a wedding trip to Lake Travis, the bride traveled in a pink Italian suit with bone patent accessories and a hat of spring flowers.

The couple will live at San Antonio, where he is employed at Sears, Roebuck and Company and she is a homemaking teacher in the Northeast Independent School District. The bride is a graduate of Tulia High School and Texas Technological College. Redditt attended Louisiana Polytechnic Institute and was graduated from St. Mary's University. Their San Antonio address is 133 Parland Place.

Out of town guests at the wedding were J. D. Purgason, Levelland; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Savage, Ann, Judy and Jimmy of Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Vacek, Michele and Lesia, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Carroll Brietzke, all of New Braunfels; Miss Melva Lightsey, Jonesboro; and Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Cassels, Gloster, Miss.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom Friday night at the Branding Iron Restaurant in San Antonio. The tables were decorated with roses in shades of pink.
