ARE YOU 'NORMAL'?

Lately we have heard conflicting claims about who needs supplemental vitamins and who doesn't.

Without much doubt, the healthy, average adult eating a well-balanced diet sees little need to add vitamins to his daily intake.

But how about teenagers on the go, burning calories like a furnace—and living on hamburgers and soft drinks? Or finicky tots who pick at what foods they dislike—and going heavy on forbidden sweets. And the elderly, often living alone, never feeling quite up to par—eating a narrow-range choice of foods.

Of course, the best source of advice on nutrition for you is your family physician. And the best place to buy full-potency, assured-quality vitamin preparations is your neighborhood pharmacist.

Some other churches must have had a big attendance Sunday, for we certainly did not. Perhaps they will come back this next Sunday. The absolutely last day that we can do anything about our financial condition, as it pertains to conference recognition, comes then. But most of it is already over.

There will be no evening service. All are urged to attend the Baccalaureate at the school. In the morning, which marks the ancient and highly regarded Whitsunday, or Pentecost, the sermon topic is "The Glorious Slavery," from Gal. 5:13-26.

The Conference Year is nearly over. Where has it gone?

The Caprock Baptist Association meeting was held Tuesday night, May 12, at the South Plains Baptist Church.

The meeting got underway at 5:30 with a Board meeting, followed by supper, served at 6:30. The program began at 7:30. Theme of the meeting was "Teaching the Word." The program was opened with a song service, followed by scripture reading and prayer by the pastor of the South Plains church, Sealy Smith.

The Quitaque pastor, Rev. Roy Davidson and Mrs. Davidson were both on the program. The Chapel Choir of Quitaque Baptist Church, directed by Mary Stark, presented two numbers, "His Eye Is On The Sparrow," and "Lead Me To Calvary." Peggy Stevens is accompanist for the Choir.

There were 28 from Quitaque who attended the meeting, including Sunday School Supt. Bruce Price and other officers and teachers.

The Association asked each church to consider an additional gift of $6.00 per month to the Association to help take care of the Wayland Scholarship for Mrs. David Akande, a student from Nigeria. David Akande has visited in Quitaque several times.

is right," but I do know WHO is right, and with the Apostle Paul, I can say, "I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto HIM against that day." All Christians are relying upon one person for their Eternal Welfare, some by making His life an example to follow, some by endeavoring to obey His orders, some by the "New Birth" profession, and others by varied means, related to this person's acts and teachings concerning redemption, by which the entire human race is given a right to be partakers of the deliverance afforded by His Grace, and enjoyed by all who accept Him as Redeemer, with all His benefits added. Of course, this person is none other than "The Lord and Savior Jesus Christ the Righteous," who with His more than 130 names, titles, and epithets given in the Scriptures, makes Him to be, not only one that knows what is right; the one personification of all righteousness and the full display of "The Life, The Truth and The Way;" and not only a safe example to follow, with a right doctrine to accept, etc. But He is become the head of the church, which is His body, and stands as the only means of security for the Divine Reconciliation of mankind to and with God. Therefore "To be sure we are right" depends on our relationship and reliance on He who said, "Without me ye can do nothing." John 15:5; and "It is given unto you (disciple) to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven," Matt. 13:11; and since the God-ordained ministers of our churches are told to "Preach the Word," 2nd. Tim. 4:2, we will do well to hear them regularly as they "break the bread of life" giving forth the teachings of Christ, ever remembering that "Faith cometh by hearing," and hearing the Word of God, preached by the God-sent pastors and evangelists of our churches as they proclaim the Whole Bible for the Whole Man, in the Whole World.
