MOISTURE MEASURES 2.35 HERE

A total of 2.35 inches of moisture was recorded by the official gauge here following four days of heavy overcast and drizzly skies, according to City Secretary James Brunson.

The amounts varied considerably over the area. North of town there were reports of more than two inches of rain falling last Sunday afternoon along with hail that did some damage to cotton. South and east of town in the Gasoline community and in the Flomot area, the rainfall that fell Sunday was considerably less than the total reported here and north of town.

The rain was most welcome to wheat farmers and ranchers who needed the moisture on dry grassland. The cotton farmers, however, most of whom have a great deal if not all of their cotton still in the field, are looking for a freeze and a lot of sunshine in order that their cotton may be stripped.

The sun is shining brightly Thursday morning and the

REV. BILL CURRY OF ROSWELL TO PREACH AT BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY IN VIEW OF A CALL

The Rev. Bill Curry of Roswell, N. M. will preach at the First Baptist Church here Sunday in view of a call as pastor.

The Rev. Curry presently is pastor of South Manor Baptist Church in Roswell and has been pastor there for about 3 years. Previous to moving to Roswell, Rev. Curry was pastor at Lazbuddie for about 5 1/2 years, which speaks well for him. We urge every member of the church to be present at both services Sunday.

The Pulpit Committee

Mrs. Cecil Price spent from Thursday until Saturday in the hospital in Lockney. At latest report she was recuperating satisfactorily.

LOCAL LIONS HEAR GOOD PROGRAM

Twenty-five members of the Lions Club, the Club Sweetheart, Donna Bedwell and three visitors were present at the regular meeting of the Lions Club Monday night. A meal of fried chicken and gravy, beans potatoes, and several kinds of very good homemade pie was enjoyed by everyone present.

After the business session was out of the way the club was treated to a very interesting program by the visitors, who were Wayne Goodrum, Bob Douthitt and Woody Frazier, all of Memphis and all representatives of General Telephone of the Southwest.

The program was one dealing with Communications and Our Defense System.

Slides showing the makeup of the defense setup were presented first, then Mr. Frazier called Lt. Col. Galvin at the North American Defense Command (NORAD) in Colorado Springs, who explained the workings of the defense of our continent. The telephone by which Mr. Frazier talked with the Colonel was equipped with a speaker and everyone present could hear the conversation.

After the Colonel had explained in part how the defense of the country works, Lions present then were permitted to ask the Colonel questions pertaining to the subject. The program was a most interesting one and those present obviously enjoyed the evening.

JOHN EWING SERIOUSLY ILL AFTER SUFFERING STROKE

John Ewing remains in very serious condition in the hospital at Plainview where he was taken after suffering a stroke about 10 o'clock last Saturday night.

Bert Hawkins, who suffered a broken hip about a month ago was allowed to come home last week from the hospital in Crosbyton where he has been recuperating. At the last report he was doing fine.

Farmers Union Meets Monday

Gasoline Farmers Union will meet in regular meeting Monday, November 23 at 7:00 p. m. in the Community Building.

Kenneth Moss, Area Field Representative will be present to answer questions about Farmers Union work. Supper will be served. Everyone is invited to attend.

The women of the Assembly of God Church are taking orders for baking pies and cakes.

If you need baking done for the week-end or for the coming holidays, call 2721, 3791 or 2291.

REV. LUTHER S. BILBERRY BURIED SUNDAY AT SPUR

Funeral services for the Rev. Luther S. Bilberry, 83, Baptist minister, were held Sunday, November 15, at 2:00 p. m. in the Bethel Baptist Church at Spur, with Rev. Dick Horne, pastor, officiating with the Rev. Victor Crabtree of Dickens assisting.

Pallbearers were grandsons.

Interment was in Spur Cemetery under the direction of Campbell Funeral Home.

The Rev. Bilberry died at 1:30 p. m. Friday in the St. Ann Hospital in Abilene. He had been a resident of Dickens County for the past 60 years. The Rev. Bilberry has recently moved to Abilene to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Arlos O'Neal and husband. He was a member of Bethel Baptist Church in Spur.

He was admitted to the hospital October 30, and died on November 13. His four daughters and one son were present at the time of his death.

Survivors include four daughters, Miss Leona Bilberry of Dallas, Mrs. Bonnie Honnum, Grants, N. M., Mrs. Letha Fort, Dallas, and Mrs. Lela O'Neal of Abilene; one son, L. D. Bilberry, Flomot; three brothers, E. J. of Spur, Rev. Alvin Bilberry of Jacksboro, and Melvin of Hobbs, N. M.; 15 grandchildren and 35 great-grandchildren.

Cotton Voting Choices Defined

Just what a "yes" or "no" vote will mean in the December 15 referendum on upland cotton marketing quotas was explained by Louie Kitchens, Chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Briscoe Co. Committee. All farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1964 are eligible to vote in the referendum.

The Chairman said that the basic program choices are:

A. If at least two-thirds of the growers who vote in the referendum approve of quotas, the quotas will be in effect for the 1965 upland cotton crop, marketing penalties will apply to any excess cotton produced on a farm, price support loans at a level within the range of 65 to 90% of parity will be available to farmers who do not exceed their allotment, and—in addition—price - support payments can be earned by farmers for keeping their acreage within the farm's "domestic" allotment.

B. On the other hand, if more than one - third of the growers who vote oppose the quotas, then there will be no quotas and no penalties applicable to the 1965 upland cotton crop, no "domestic allotment" program providing price - support payments, and price support to farmers who comply with their acreage allotments will be available at 50 percent of parity, as directed by law.

The regular allotment program is not affected by the out-

Mrs. Eldon Lyles visited Mrs. Billy Lyles in Turkey Monday afternoon.

Donnie and Jess Brunson and Pete Rice left Sunday on a deer hunting trip. They were joined by Jess' son and two of his friends from Amarillo and the group drove together to Kerrville.

BULL SALE AT CLARENDON WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2

The Rolling Plains Registered Beef Cattle Association will hold its 6th annual bull sale in Clarendon on the 2nd of December, 1964 at 12:30 p. m. at the fair building. Walter Britten will be the auctioneer. 71 bulls will be offered for sale, featuring top blood lines, good beef producing bulls and good herd bull prospects. There will be 50 Herefords, 10 Galloways and 11 Angus bulls in the sale.

The new sales arena is heated and you will be comfortable regardless of the weather. If you wish to come by plane, you can land at the city-county airport, buzz the fair building and a car will meet you. Those wishing a catalog in advance of the sale can write to H. M. Breedlove, Secretary and Manager, Clarendon, Texas.

JUNIOR HIGH TEAMS BEAT TURKEY

By Johnny Pointer

Quitauque's Jr. High Panthers and Pantherettes won two games over Turkey last Thursday night, November 12. It was the first games of the season.

The girls won 51-14 with Barbara Chandler leading the scoring with 21 points. Sherry Stark followed with 18 points, Jo Beth Merrell, Carol George 4, and Kay Cochran rounded it out with 1 point. The guards did a good job holding the tall Turkey forwards to a low-scoring goal. The starting guards are all new and are coming along fine.

Jr. High boys played fine and won a 46-8 victory. Johnny pointer led the scoring attack with 15 points, Lynn Payne followed with 13. Roland Hamilton had 7, Oliver Clark 6, and David Brunson 8. The boys had a very good defense, holding the Turks down to only one field goal. The remaining 6 points were free throws.

All fans are urged to come and see the Jr. High teams play.

Coach Ted Schwarz has announced the schedule for the Jr. Hi Pantherettes and Panther basketball teams for the season and it looks like a most attractive one. Three tournaments are on the schedule, one of them to be held here in the local gym on December 17, 18 and 19. The first one will be played at Roaring Springs on December 3, 4 and 5. Matador will host a Jr. Hi Tourney on January 21, 22 and 23.

Last year's Quitauque Jr. Hi teams boasted fine season records, the boys team being undefeated for the season and the Pantherettes only lost one game and that by a very narrow margin and according to spectators who saw this year's edition of young Pantherettes and Panthers in action at Turkey for the first time this season say that Coach Schwarz's charges looked real good and put on a good exhibition for fans.

Local fans are urged to go out and watch the younger boys and girls in action. Their games are played on Monday and Thursday nights.

come of the balloting The allotments will remain in effect—whether or not quotas are approved—as a means of determining eligibility for the available price support.

Mr. Kitchens pointed out that, the Secretary of Agriculture is directed by law to proclaim quotas for the next crop when the total upland cotton supply exceeds normal, it is the growers themselves who decide whether or not quotas shall be used. Previous votes on the subject have been outstandingly favorable. Marketing quotas for the 1964 upland cotton crop were approved by 94 percent of the growers voting.

Allotments and other program details for individual farms will be made available within the next few weeks, so that farmers may have the information prior to the December 15 referendum. Details of the domestic allotment program will be announced later if quotas are approved.

FUNERAL SERVICE HELD TODAY FOR MRS. J. J. VARDELL

Mrs. Nellie Vardell, 82, a resident of Silverton 40 years, died Tuesday afternoon in the Lockney General Hospital.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. today (Thurs.) in the First Baptist Church with the pastor, Rev. Clyde Cain, officiating, assisted by Earl Cantwell, minister of Rock Creek Church of Christ.

Burial was in the Silverton Cemetery under direction of Silverton Funeral Home.

Born in Wise County, Mrs. Vardell was a member of the First Baptist Church at Silverton. She was married to J. J. Vardell on July 10, 1904, and came to Silverton in 1924.

Panthers Outshoot Eagles

The Quitauque High basketball team won one game out of four played in their last two outings, but that one win was a big one for players and fans alike.

Both local teams dropped their second loss of the season to the Quail Hi teams last Friday night in games played in the local gym.

The Pantherettes lost to the Bobwhites 32-37 after putting up a good battle and having a good chance of winning their first game of the season.

The Panthers lost to the visitors by the same 6 point margin as in the first meeting between the two. The final score of Friday nights contest was 79-73.

Tuesday night the local teams drove to McAdoo and split a doubleheader there, the Pantherettes losing 38-23 and the Panthers pulled an almost impossible upset by beating the Eagles at home. That score was 70-63.

In the Quail game the Pantherettes kept firing away on even terms with the Bobwhites until the fourth quarter. The locals led at the end of the third period, 25-24 but cooled off in the final minutes of action. Barbara Reagan was high scorer for the Pantherettes with 13 points, while Patricia Brunson was dropping in 12. Devorah McKay and Carol Myers each contributed 3 points. The Bobwhite's Breedlove won scoring honors with 23 points.

The Panthers were out to even matters with the Quails and for awhile were well on the way to building up a commanding lead until they found themselves in sudden foul trouble and were forced to ease off. The Quitauque lads lead 28-17 at the end of the first period of play, widened the lead to 13 points during the second quarter but fell behind 43-45 at half-time. During the third quarter, behind the almost unbelievable jump-shooting of the Quail's Dale Morris, the Panthers trailed one time by 11 points, but the Panther's Eddie Monk was matching Morris in scoring and Quitauque battled to within the final 6 point margin as time ran out.

Eddie racked up 30 points to snark the Panthers and Jamie Johnson notched 23. Monte Stephens tossed in 11 points, Tinton 8 and Warren Lee Merrell 1. Morris of Quail won scoring honors for the evening, however with 34 points. At McAdoo Tuesday night the Pantherettes had trouble scoring as the final tally indicates. The McAdoo girls were having their troubles, too, as the first quarter 5-1 tally shows.

The Pantherette starting forwards, in fact were only able to score 4 points in the game. Coach Gene King, trying to find a scoring punch, had freshmen Carol Myers and Lynette Taylor and Jill Johnson playing at forward posts and these three scored 19 points between them with Lynette Taylor getting 10 points, Myers 7, Brunson 4 and Jill Johnson 2. Coach King's younger players are battling for spots on the team and they may take them before the season is over. Freshman Shirley Dowd is already starting, Gwen McKay is coming fast, Carol Myers is playing a lot already and Lynette Taylor showed a lot of class and hustle Tuesday night and she may take over a starting spot one of these times.

The Panthers, disappointed with their poor showing against McAdoo here two weeks ago, went to McAdoo Tuesday to play and acted like they were out to run the Eagles right out of their own gym. The Panthers were never behind in the ball game, scoring first and leading 23-15 at the end of the first quarter, although the score was tied 15-15 at one time. Quitauque went on to build up a 20-point lead during the second period only to have two of the starting five Monte Stephens and Larry Tipton, get into foul trouble. From half-time until the game's last minute of play the Panther's kept at least a ten point margin over the Eagles, in spite of trying circumstances. It might be mentioned that the Panthers never lost their composure during the game, though they could have been forgiven for doing so. They went to McAdoo to win a ball game and that is just what they did and a good win it was, though on a neutral court it is doubtful if the Eagles could stay within forty points of Quitauque.

Jamie Johnson topped the scoring parade for the Panthers with 21 points, while Eddie Monk was runnerup with 20; Warren Lee Merrell contributed 13 points. Tipton 9 and Monte Stephens 7 points.

The local teams have an open date Friday night, but will host Paducah Tuesday night.

George Lay of Littlefield, former Gasoline and Quitaque groceryman, is apparently recovering from a serious illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Lay, father of Mrs. Hayden Carter of Paragould, Ark., had spent a week with their daughter and her family in Arkansas and were enroute home Wednesday of last week and had stopped in Bonham to spend the night when Mr. Lay became seriously ill. The doctor and an ambulance was called and he was taken to the hospital there. He was unconscious until 11 a. m. the next day. Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Carter had been called in the meantime and they arrived to be with Mrs. Lay, then drove them home to Littlefield after Mr. Lay regained consciousness and was released by the hospital. His illness was due to a heart condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Carter spent Friday night with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carter enroute to their home in Arkansas. They reported that Mr. Lay was improving when they left him.

Mrs. Wayne Whittington, Brenda and Dee were dinner guests Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ida Farley and Mrs. Whittington's and Mrs. Farley's mother, Mrs. Ida Faulkner. Mrs. Faulkner is leaving Friday of this week to spend the winter with her son, Leo Faulkner, in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gregg of Amarillo spent Thursday night of last week with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Morris. Mr. and Mrs. Morris accompanied them home Friday to spend the weekend. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Aline Welch spent Sunday in Kress visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Pigg and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harvey and Patricia of Amarillo spent last week-end with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Hamilton visited their son and family, the Robert Hamiltons, in Amarillo last Thursday. They also visited Mrs. Hamilton's sister, Mrs. W. N. Weatherwax and her husband. Mrs. Weatherwax returned home with the Hamiltons that afternoon and remained until Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton and family joined his parents and Mrs. Weatherwax Friday night and Mr. Weatherwax joined them Saturday morning. They remained until after supper Saturday night before returning to Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Thomas of Silverton are "ham" radio operators and as a consequence are in touch with people all over. Two such people are Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Youngberg of the Pan American Health Service, Inc. in Honduras. The Thomas' recently received a letter from the Youngberg's telling of some of the experiences they are having day to day. As we near a Thanksgiving season here in this land of plenty, perhaps this letter might cause us to say an extra word of "thanks" to our Maker for our abundance and perhaps we might show our thanks in a more solid way by sharing of our abundance with others—here or in some far-off place as described in the letter below. The letter follows.

Dear Friends,

You will be glad to know that 1137 sacks of rice have been cut from the rehabilitation farm here at Lake Yoja. We thank the Lord for a very good harvest, and we thank you who have helped to make it possible. We have many little people waiting to benefit from whole brown rice—which up to now has not been available here.

HuMoR SECRETS
By STEVE ALLEN
Host of "I'VE GOT A SECRET"
Monday nights, CBS-TV

I have no idea why, but certain words always sound to me like double-talk. Bryn Mawr, for instance. And Croyden. And tantamount. And crevice. And storm drain. And plethora. There is a plethora of crevices in the Bryn Mawr storm drain at the Croyden, which is tantamount to the hyperbole in Llewellyn's redundant memorandum on the Waldorf debacle.

Have you ever thought, hearing a conversation between two foreigners, that they spoke more rapidly than we do? Well, you were wrong. The reason this misconception is popular is that we hear our own language in words and sentences, while a foreign language falls on our ears in the forms of separate syllables or sounds.

The more I think of the lyric that goes, "I May Be Wrong, But I Think You're Wonderful," the more it sounds like an awfully backhanded compliment.

Much of the mischief and nonsense in current politics are traceable, not to malice but, to a clumsy use of labels. And even when labels are used correctly, they tell very little about a man.

I do not think we can even begin to think of calling ourselves a civilized people so long as many of our large hotels and office buildings have no thirteenth floor.

People love to criticize currently popular songs like "Beans In My Ears" and "Drag City," but they should remember that every age has its nonsense lyrics. "Diga Diga Doo" and "Meet Miss Mumbo Jumbo Jij-ji-boo J. O'Shea" weren't exactly the preamble to the Constitution.

Every time my car is washed, I have the illusion it runs smoother and faster.

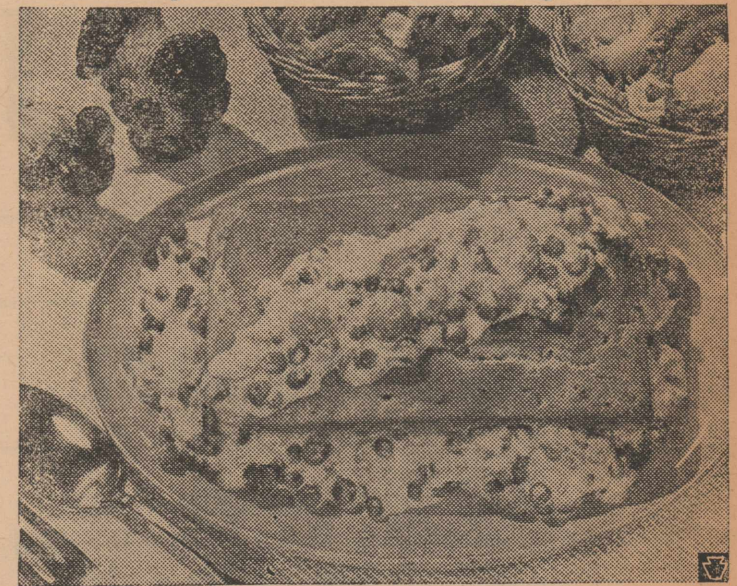

The long line of swollen, starving children keeps coming. There seems to be no end to the line. When the babies go off breast milk, they are usually placed on white rice water, sweetened with white sugar. And they have a hard tortilla to chew on, and a few dark beans to clutch in their little hands as they crawl around in the mud and dirt of their mountain huts. They are usually loaded with several kinds of worms long before they can walk. So there is no wonder the long line of swollen babies and children keeps coming through the doors of the clinic.

We have the rice in abundance—we have the starving children, without an end it seems. But urgently needed is a mill to prepare the rice for use. So we are sending out this SOS letter to you—the friends of these hungry children.

We face other urgent needs as well. Our supplies of medicines sent down so generously are nearly depleted. We need medicine for intestinal parasites, eye ointments, antibiotics, hematinics, intravenous fluids, etc. So many desperately sick patients have come in lately—inletinal obstruction, ectopic pregnancy, two cases of tetanus, etc. It is just heart-breaking to see these little week-old babies in convulsions from tetanus of the cord, with their backs bowed. Rabies is another problem we have been facing also. So many of these sicknesses could be prevented with proper education.

We told you previously about Amalia—the 3 and a half year old who got down to 10 pounds of weight after she lost the edema fluid of starvation from her tissues. She has now gained a few pounds of solid tissue, but her arms and legs still look like matchsticks. Her older brother, Jorge, is not doing as well as she is. He lost some 15 pounds of edema fluid after an improved diet and began walking. But he had a relapse with pneumonia and diarrhea, and the swelling returned. However, this week he is some better, and his eyes are a little more opened. Jorge usually has a sweet smile for us and we have learned to love him as he fights the battle for existence. The smile says "thank

Turkey Encore Second-Day Feast

Leftover turkey becomes a second-day feast when combined with peas and mushrooms in a deftly seasoned sauce, and served shortcake fashion over hot corn bread. The creamed turkey mixture is made in one saucet in a matter of minutes — an idea welcome to any cook. The full-flavored creaminess and smooth body of the sauce is due to double-rich evaporated milk used in its preparation, to say nothing of the extra food value which this whole milk concentrate provides. The shortcake is a walk, made from a convenient corn bread mix with chopped green pepper for flavor accent.

TURKEY ENCORE

- 1 package frozen peas (10 oz.)
- 1 can mushrooms (4 oz.)
- 2 cups cut-up cooked turkey
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 tall can evaporated milk
- 1/4 cup chopped pimiento
- 1 (1-1/2 cups)
- 2 teaspoons grated onion
- Hot corn bread

Cook peas according to package directions, but shorten cooking time to 3 to 4 minutes. Stir in turkey, then butter, pimiento, onion, mushrooms with their liquid. Remove from heat. Stir in flour, blending well; then gradually stir in evaporated milk. Return to heat and cook over medium heat until thickened, stirring constantly. Add salt, if needed. Serve hot over Pepper Corn Bread. Makes 6 servings.

To make Pepper Corn Bread: Prepare 1 package corn bread mix (10 oz.) according to package directions. Mix in 1/4 cup finely chopped green pepper. (If milk is called for, you can substitute evaporated milk diluted with water.) Bake according to package directions. When ready to serve, split hot corn bread into two layers. Ladle half of turkey mixture over bottom layer, spreading evenly. Replace top layer and ladle over remaining turkey mixture. Garnish with parsley, if desired.

you." I wish you could each see his smile! To those of you who have helped with the milk, the medicines, the land, the buildings, the farm equipment, the transportation, the toll, sweat and tears—and prayers—one look at Jorge's smile would do more to say "thank you" to you than a thousand letters!

waiting for us. We thank you for helping to answer their call! The Christian Medical Society will donate medicines for a 10 percent handling charge, plus transportation. And this beautiful rice harvest can be turned into a nutritious, edible product with a rubber-roller mill which costs about $1200.

REMEMBER WHEN?

Netleton Industrial Museum

"If you're under 40 you won't remember your grandmother straining her back over this old fashioned washing apparatus. It's hard to believe that a washing machine like this actually existed and yet this 1905 model was the first one put on the market. In only 59 years, washing machines have improved to the point of complete automation. All the modern young housewife of 1964 does is put the clothes and detergent in her automatic, press a button, set a dial, and forget it. Isn't modernization remarkable? You too can gain the pleasure and satisfaction of push button washing. See your local appliance dealer right away."

Mrs. Barrett taught the lesson, "A Practical Strategy for Outreach." The closing prayer was led by Frankie Hawkins. This lesson was the last in the book for this year. There will not be another meeting until after the first of the year. The lessons have been an inspiration to all attending. It was good to meet with our friends who could not attend our regular Sunday School classes.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval L. Reynolds of 3311 Lenwood in Amarillo, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Gloria Jean to Layne Cushenberry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Cushenberry of Quitaque. The couple will be married December 29 in First Baptist Church of Amarillo. Miss Reynolds attended Amarillo College and was graduated from West Texas State University. She is a substitute teacher for the Amarillo Public Schools. Mr. Cushenberry has studied at Clarendon Junior College and is a student at West Texas State University. He is employed by Pioneer Natural Gas Co. in Amarillo.

Mrs. C. H. Hamner spent last Thursday night with her daughter, Mrs. Gerald Imel, and her family in Tulia.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Foster had several of their children at home over the week-end. Here to enjoy the day together were Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Richardson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Mapp and children, all of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Gene McKinney and family of Childress and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Fred Foster and family of Estelline.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gregg of Amarillo brought Mrs. Bessie

Frier and Miss Lizzie Gregg of Lovington, N. M. to Quitaque Wednesday night of last week to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ewing. They were joined here Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Gregg of Silverton. It was the first time for the Gregg family to get together in some time. All of the family except one brother, Lee Gregg, were together.

Layne Cushenberry and Miss Gloria Jean Reynolds of Amarillo spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Cushenberry. Other guests at the Cushenberry home Sunday were Mrs. Cushenberrys sisters,

The following poem was pinned to the wall near the front door of the home of Mrs. A. F. VanMeter and was so yellowed with age that it almost crumbled when it was removed. It expresses the philosophy with which she met life. So many of her friends have expressed the wish to obtain a copy that we were requested to print it.

"Somebody Might Come Hungry"

By Margaret E. Bruner
 "Somebody might come hungry,"
 My mother used to say
 After meals, as we cleared the table:
 And so we put away
 Food that was left on the platter,
 Or in the large main dish,
 Lest some unexpected caller
 Knocked, and perhaps might wish
 A bit to eat as he journeyed
 On to some distant spot.
 She always thought of sharing,
 Though she had not much—her lot
 In life was a modest portion;
 Yet often her words came back:
 "Somebody might come hungry."
 Did her giving fill a lack
 That her being somehow needed:
 For by this she was comforted,
 By relieving their bodily hunger,
 Could it be her spirit was fed?

Mrs. Claude Hickey and Mrs. Brigham Young, both of Memphis.

Prepared by American Foundation for Animal Health

This is the foot rot season for cattle and the problem will be a constant threat from now until spring.

The infection is a problem now because the organisms often find their way into feet which have been injured on the frozen ground of feed lots. Later, as the weather warms, ground thaws and as spring rains start, the constant exposure to moisture softens the tissue between the claws of the animals' feet and again makes it easy for foot rot organisms to invade.

Although foot rot is most often seen among cattle in feed lots, it may also develop when the animals are on range or pasture. Lameness is the most prominent first symptom. But, unfortunately, many cases of the infection appear to start in the deep tissue without showing immediate symptoms.

A slight swelling and reddening of the skin just above the hoof usually is seen early in the course of the disease. Animals with foot rot may be reluctant to move to feed and water and as a result lose weight, and milk production declines.

The best way to hold losses to a minimum is to have a veterinarian examine the feet of any animal which appears to be lame. If the cause is foot rot, surgical trimming of the feet or medication may be necessary. But prevention also is important. This means that lots and pens used by infected animals should be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected before new animals are permitted in them. It also means that lots, pens and pastures should be kept clear of foreign objects which might injure animals' feet. Surfaces should be harrowed if they become hard. Other preventive recommendations include continuous feeding of iodides in salt and medicated foot baths at gates or alleys.

CARD OF THANKS!

I would like to say "Thank You" to our many friends for each act of kindness for me while I was in the hospital and since I came home. Thank you so much for the visits, the flowers, the cards and letters, the gifts and, most of all, the prayers. May God bless each of you in my prayer.

Mrs. O. P. (Texie Jo) Clark

CARD OF THANKS

I want everyone to know how much I appreciate everything that has been done to make my stay in hospital a bit more cheerful. I thank you for the cards, the flowers, food and visits, both in the hospital and since coming home.

Sincerely,
Bert Hawkins

THANK YOU

I wish to thank the people of Precinct 2 for the fine spirit of cooperation and the interest shown during the time I served as our county commissioner. I have really enjoyed working with you and for you. I have enjoyed working with all the other county officials. Even when there was opposition the spirit of friendship remained the same. I wish to congratulate Orval Cobb, our new Commissioner, and I feel sure that you will give him the same cooperation you gave Mort and me.

I am now employed at Brown's Dept. Store in Lockney. My P. O. box is 703. If you are in Lockney or passing through, stop and say hello. I will be moving to Lockney. I shall miss my friends in Quitaque and Briscoe County very, very much. Quitaque will always be home to me and I do hope to return. To me the most wonderful people I have ever known live in Quitaque.

Yours very sincerely,
Edna Hawkins

MARIO POLENDO PARTICIPATES IN RECENT ARMY EXERCISES
Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. (AHTNC)—Army Pfc. Mario L. Polendo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio C. Polendo of Quitaque, and other members of the 1st Infantry Division participated in Exercise GOLD FIRE, a 16-day field training exercise conducted in the vicinity of Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., ending November 13.
The exercise, involving two opposing forces, Joint Task Force Sioux and Joint Task Force Ozark, is designed to test and evaluate the suitability of the U. S. Air Force concept for improving the use of aviation in support of Army ground forces.
Polendo participated with the Sioux force which used current doctrines and procedures while the Ozark forces employed the new concept of support and attack. About 20,000 men took part in the maneuver.
The 23-year-old soldier, a grenadier in Company B, 1st Battalion of the division's 18th Infantry at Fort Riley, Kan., entered the Army in January 1964 and completed basic combat training at Fort Polk, La. He attended Quitaque High School.
