General MacArthur Medal For Junior Gardeners

With the food battle far from won, intensive efforts are being made by the National Victory Garden Institute to increase the number of Victory Gardens in this country. To enlist the support of young people to grow vitally needed food, the Institute announces the General Douglas MacArthur medal which will be awarded to outstanding boy and girl gardeners of the United States. In response to a letter written by Lester J. Norris, chairman of the board of the Institute, asking for permission to issue a General MacArthur medal to aid the Victory Garden program, the General replied: "Glad to do anything that will help."

Any boy or girl may qualify for the General MacArthur medal by meeting the requirements of his or her particular organization, based on inspection by local leaders. Under the broad standards set up by the National Victory Garden Institute, Boy Scouts and other organizations have established requirements consistent with the ability of their particular age groups. Constant must submit record book after it has been signed by official local chairman or leader who will have visited the entrant's garden at least twice during the season.

Keen competition and better gardens should result from this General MacArthur medal. The prize is limited to approximately $10,000 for the entire country. There will be ribbons and certificates as consolation prizes. Medal winners may compete for local and state awards, as well as the grand national award of a $500 war bond which is the major prize in the Green Thumb Contest. The Institute is sponsoring a nation-wide basis.

Information may be had from local and state Victory Garden chairmen or committees, or from National Victory Garden Institute, 509 Madison Avenue, New York 17, N. Y.

Our Kitchens Best Source Of Needed Fats

Greatest untapped source of supply to offset the national fats and oils shortage is the American kitchen, E. C. Munro, acting district representative, USDA-CCC office of supply said this week while enlisting the aid of every housewife in the used fats program.

Dangerously low supplies and an all time high demand for fats and oils makes every drop salvaged now doubly important, he explained.

More are needed for manufacture of munitions to fight the Japs, to meet civilian needs for products containing fats and oils and for shipment to liberated countries of Europe. A backlog of 250 million lbs. is needed this year for these purposes, he continued.

Cooperating with housewives in making the program a local success are the county agent, home demonstration agent and the fat salvage committee, who are also assisting in handling collection complaints.

For every pound of used fat the housewives turn in, they receive 2 OPA red ration points and up to four cents in cash. The ration points in turn can be used for purchasing meats, fats and oils and other rationed commodities. Fats which are discolored, burned, highly flavored or strong in odor are just as satisfactory as clear fats.

Whenever possible, used fats should be delivered in tin containers since they can be handled more easily than in glass jars, which require more handling and often are broken in shipment.

Largest Peach Crop In Years Reported

The largest peach crops farmers have ever grown in early producing areas is now headed for local markets and housewives are asked to take advantage of the plentiful supply and use them generously and more often.

E. C. Munro, acting district representative, CCC's office of supply, says 26 million bushels are now being harvested in 10 southern states, principally in Georgia and the Carolinas, and peak harvesting can be expected shortly.

The national crop this year will be about 78 million bushels, counting harvest from later producing areas.

Soil Conservation Supervisors Offer Suggestions To Cut Farm Mishap Toll

The story printed below was prepared by the Blackwater Valley Valley Soil Conservation District Board of supervisors which is composed of H. H. Black, W. R. Carter, R. Q. M. Beasley, Paul M. Carmickle, and Virgil Nowell.

Since our second National Farm Safety Week has been designated as July 22 through July 28, 1945, the Supervisors of the Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation District, in accordance with your attention to some facts and figures on farm accidents and submits a Farm Hazards Check List with the suggestion that each farmer or a member of his family use this list often.

In 1945 accidents killed 17,200 farm people and injured 1,500,000. Of the injured, approximately 15,000 were crippled for life. The monetary loss from these accidents totals approximately one billion dollars. Deaths from farm work accidents in 1943 totaled more than in any of the other five major industries and amounted to 28 per cent of all occupational deaths. More farm people were killed in accidents in the first two years of the war than the number of fighting men killed in the war itself.

Careless use of farm machinery is the chief cause of farm work accidents and livestock neck. Forty percent of the total farm accidents occur in the home, with falls and fires the most common cause.

Farm fires killed 3,500 people and destroyed property worth more than $60 million dollars. A farm home or building catches fire every 15 minutes during the day and farm fires cost $23,972 each day. Farm fire losses in 1943 were higher than for any year since 1932.

Learn and teach others how to recognize and correct or remove the accident and fire hazard on the farm and in the farm home. Learn and teach others how to live and work safely with those hazards that cannot be immediately corrected or removed.

SAY YOUNG CROPS DYING

After waiting so long to get to plant their feed, many farmers' elation at having seen the plants come out of the ground has gradually turned into disappointment, judging from what several have reported to the editor.

Some say the plants had sufficient moisture to get a start of an inch or so, but then lost the impetus for growth as the meagre supply of moisture from the few little showers we have had began to play out.

In some fields planting took just about all the moisture there was, and after the ground was laid open evaporation began and the moisture got away from top and bottom of the seed bed.

Well, what with one thing and another, one would certainly not say the crop prospects are bright. It has been just about a record for scant rainfall this year. Muleshoe has had slightly more than

Whether you fly 'em... or make the fuel that flies 'em... you learn something!

The boys who have been filling Tojo's fleet as full of holes as an old tin can will have some interesting stories to tell when they get home.

And Phillips is going to have some interesting things to tell you (and show you) too!

Because a big part of our job the last five years has been to produce the 100-octane Aviation Fuel that has kept the big boys over Berlin and Tokio. And it hasn't always been an easy job.

In some ways it has involved almost as many trials and tribulations as a pilot goes through before he wins his wings. We've built vast new laboratories and staffed them with the wisest and most experienced scientists we could find. We've built new plants and introduced new processes. In short, we've gone "all out"—with every bit of brains and brawn we have—to give our fliers every ounce of precious 100-octane fuel that could be produced!

The result—today Phillips is one of the very biggest producers of 100-octane Aviation Fuel in the country! That's a mighty important fact—and one of which we're very proud.

And it's a significant fact, too—for every man and woman who plans to drive a car after the war. Because you can get your bottom dollar that all the experience, all the know-how, all the scientific knowledge we've gained in becoming one of the largest producers of 100-octane gasoline—will be packed into the Phillips 66 Gasoline which powers your post-war car!

When you see the Phillips 66 Shield, remember—it stands for fuels for Victory today, and fuels for better driving tomorrow.

Railroads, Navy Need Many Men

DALLAS—Troop movement toward the South Pacific has given manpower priority "one" to railroads and west coast navy yards so that overwhelming amounts of men and material may be brought into the battle against Japan, according to officials of the U. S. Civil Service and War Manpower Commissions in a week end meeting for discussion of their joint responsibilities.

The navy yards are seeking electricians, machinist and sheetmetal workers especially, and the needs of Mare Island are most pressing just now. A qualified man in a hurry can be on his way in a day or two.

The railroads need switchmen, brakemen, firemen and similar tradesmen.

Walter Witte, local Civil Service Secretary in the Muleshoe post office, remarked how fortunate it is that the difference in the type of work to be performed leaves both the Navy and the railroads free to employment without competing against each other. He invites persons interested in Civil Service employment at Mare Island or any other of several west coast navy yards to see him for job information.

However, Walter Kinsella, star of the MBS laugh hit, "Leave It To Mike," wonders if you know when a game resembling modern football was first played.

Football appears to have originated in England in the 11th century, with a Danish shell or the first target of the bow.

MAKE EVERY EGG COUNT

College Station.—Eggs are perishable food and should be handled as such, says E. D. Darnell, poultry husbandman for the A. and M. College Extension Service, in a plea to "make every egg count this summer." The demand for eggs currently is abnormally high and the maintenance of high quality is equivalent to conserving the largest number possible to supply summer needs. Eggs lose quality and even edibility very quickly unless they are properly handled.

For example, fertile eggs exposed for two days to July heat may develop blood rings and thus be lost as food, Parnell says. On the other hand, infertile eggs exposed to heat remain edible much longer. If electric refrigeration is not available to producers he recommends that they obtain plans for the Extension Service iceless refrigerator from the county farm agent.

COUNT SUGAR CRYSTALS

College Station.—Long before the next sugar becomes due you will likely be doing a little backward wishful thinking—wishing you had counted your sugar crystals a little more carefully.

And a little plain arithmetic even now may help. If you are really systematic, you'll add the amount of sugar you have available from stamps not cashed add that amount of sugar on hand and divide by the number of days until September 1, and you'll see how much sugar you have to spread over the remaining time.

Have you ever tried jellies and preserves for anything except for breads? A few spoonfuls of marmalade or jam mixed with custards or bread pudding gives them a different flavor that's very pleasing, and is a sugar saver, too. A little jam goes well in place of sugar in an open face pie.

Sweet muffins can serve well for dessert, and are made by sandwiching a small spoonful of preserves into the batter as you pour it into the muffin tins.

TOWN AND FARM WOMEN BEATING CITY FOLKS AT FAT SAVING

Our government knows that city women have done an outstanding job saving used fats—but, now that you town and farm women have rolled up your sleeves, you are providing more used fats per kitchen than any other group in the U. S. Keep it up! 100,000,000 more pounds of used fats are needed this year to help make vital war supplies. Without your record savings, we'll never make that quota. Save every drop! Remember, it's the small amounts that fill the salvage can faster. Drippings, skimmings, scrapings, and fat scraps melted down. Your butcher will give you 2 red points and up to 4¢ a pound. YEARS OF PROVED PERFORMANCE
MAYBE You Can Make Money Without ADVERTISING?

Advertisement by HENRI, HURST & McDONALD, INC.

If you buy farm equipment of unknown brands, you undertake a field-testing job at your own expense. You take the chance that the machines won't give the service you hope for.

Play it safe! Choose farm equipment that's both nationally known and field-proved.

Fairbanks-Morse products are backed by 115 years of successful engineering and manufacturing experience. Every unit is performance-proved. You know before you buy that it will serve you long and well... because it has proved its merit on thousands of other farms.

You know, too, that repair parts will always be available should you need them.

The 7th War Loan Is Over ---
But The WAR Is Not!

The people have made a splendid, even remarkable, showing in the 7th War Loan, which was oversubscribed in a big way.

But — let us remind ourselves that the War is not over. And the need of Government to raise money by sale of Bonds and Stamps continues.

Let us keep up a systematic plan of Bond and Stamp purchases — and thereby help to bring the war to an earlier end — and add to our own security in the peace years to follow.
