The $1 a bale check-off will not, of course, go into effect unless it is approved by the growers in the coming referendum, said Box. The referendum is simply a vote, where cotton growers can accept or reject the proposal.

Box said there are two ways the Cotton and Research Promotion Act may be approved by the growers in the referendum. First, by a "yes" vote of twothirds of all growers who vote in the referendum. ### Although we are not an official auto inspection station, and cannot put a sticker on your auto, we will inspect your vehicle free of charge and tell you what you will need to pass the inspection. If your vehicle needs repairs or parts, such as wiper blades, taillight or headlight repair, brakes adjusted, etc., we can do this for you, although you will not be obligated to us to have it done at our shop. However, we might save your having to make more than one trip to the inspection station. Remember, the inspection is a free service with no obligiton to you.
