State P-TA Offers Grants For Summer Study

Grants totaling $4,800 will be offered in 1967 by the Texas P-TA in the association's continuing program to encourage summer study for career teachers. Mrs. L. L. Ledger, state president, has announced.

Twelve recipients each will receive a grant of $400 for study next summer in a college or university of the teacher's choice. Mrs. Ledger said. Recipients will agree to take a minimum of six semester hours and study must be in a field to improve the applicant's teaching proficiency. Recipients also will agree to teach in Texas the following year or to repay the amount of the grant.

In 1966 twelve $300 summer grants were sought by more than 200 applicants. The growth of the state P-TA's endowment fund, principal source of funds for the program, has made possible an increase of $100 per grant this year.

"It is our hope that the teachers, administrators, and school boards of Texas will take this as tangible evidence of P-TA's desire to cooperate for the benefit of Texas students," Mrs. Ledger said.

Any Texas teacher with at least three years' teaching experience in the state and who currently is teaching in a school with a local P-TA unit in good standing with the Texas P-TA is eligible for consideration. Previous grant recipients, as well as members of the immediate families of the P-TA state Board of Managers, the State Office staff, and the Board of Trustees of the endowment fund are ineligible.

Teachers may obtain grant application blanks by writing prior to March 1 to Scholarship Committee, Texas PTA, P. O. Box 2164, Austin, Texas 78767. Completed applications must be received at the same address by March 31.

Each application may be accompanied by letters of recommendation from the teacher's immediate supervisors but the cover letter must be from a school district official within the applicant's district.

Barnes Announces Committee Appointments

House Speaker Ben Barnes announced committee appointments today, three days after the opening of the 60th Legislature.

Representative W. S. (Bill) Healy of Paducah was named to serve on the following committees:

Appropriations, Chairman; Insurance; Judicial Districts; and Labor.

In commenting on the appointments, Barnes said that he has confidence that "this Representative is familiar with the problems with which the committees will deal and is qualified to do an excellent job for the Legislature and the people of Texas."

REPRESENTATIVE BILL HEATLEY KEEPS LONG TIME APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE POST

AUSTIN (Spl.) The Texas Legislature is made up of 31 Senators and 150 Representatives. Most of them come from heavily populated sections. Notwithstanding that fact, however, one Representative from a West Texas county which has fewer than 5,000 inhabitants has a longevity record of service on key committees unequalled in the State's history. This was revealed with announcement of House committees by Speaker Ben Barnes to complete organization of the House of Representatives.

The legislator with this unusual record is W. S. (Bill) Healy of Paducah, Cottle County, now serving his seventh term as Representative of the 82nd district, composed of Briscoe, Childress, Cottle, Dickens, Foard, Hall, Hardeman, Motley and Wilbarger Counties.

He was elected for the first time in 1954. As a freshman legislator he was appointed to the highly important Appropriations Committee. Assignments to key House committees normally go to veteran members, but Mr. Healy made it his first term and has remained in the Appropriations Committee continuously since that time, except for one term when liberals organized the House.

In 1956 he was named a member of the Budget Board, which studies State finances between sessions, holds hearings and makes recommendations to the Governor on financial matters. The Lieutenant Governor is chairman with membership divided equally between House and Senate.

In 1957 he was appointed chairman of the State Affairs Committee, probably the most important policy-making group in the House, and remained a member of the Budget Board. Two years later he received the coveted assignment to the chairmanship of the Appropriations Committee and has held this position under three succeeding Speakers.

Mr. Healy has just been named by Speaker Ben Barnes to an unprecedented fourth term as the head of the Appropriations Committee. This record is unique in the history of the State. Only one other Representative served three terms in this position.

In 1959 the Legislature created a six-member Legislative Audit Committee with authority to check on expenditures of all State agencies to determine whether intent of the Legislature is being observed in day-to-day operations. The Committee is composed of the Lieutenant Governor, Speaker, two Senators and two Representatives.

Quitaque Teams Top Standings

The first half of play in District 10 - B was concluded Monday night and found both Quitaque teams on top of the standings with 5 wins and no losses.

The Flomot Longhorns outshot Turkey Tuesday night 77-70 and they are in second place in the district race, having lost only to the Panthers. The Estelline Bearettes are in second place in the district race, having lost only to the Pantherettes.

The district schedule will end two weeks from Friday night, on Feb. 3, when the local teams go to Matador for their final district games. One week later, on Thursday, Feb. 9, the boys district tournament will begin at Flomot. The girls district tournament will be one week later, beginning on Feb. 16, and it will also be played at Flomot.

JUNIOR HIGH TEAMS SPLIT GAMES WITH SILVERTON

Quitaque's Junior High basketball teams drove up to Silverton Monday night and split a doubleheader with the Silverton Jr. High teams, the young Pantherettes losing 16-20 while the Quitaque boys won 19-17 to remain unbeaten for the season.

Neither of the four teams in action Monday night had a scoring punch, as evidenced by the scores.

Beverly Rogers scored 8 points to lead all Quitaque players, on both teams. Neva Morrison and Vanessa Robison each hit 5 points for the young Pantherettes. Quitaque led most of the way until about midway of the third period when Silverton tied the count at 10-10, then went ahead 13-12 at the end of the third quarter and the Quitaque girls could never catch up again.

The Jr. Panthers lead all of the way in their game, but not by any margin to speak of. The Quitaque boys lead 6-1 at the end of the first quarter, then went scoreless the second quarter but still were ahead 6-5 at half-time. The third and fourth quarters were just about shot for shot between the two teams doing a lot of shooting but no scoring.

Danny Tiffin won scoring honors for Quitaque with 5 points.

The Junior High teams are playing this week - end in a round-robin tournament at Matador and both teams will play Thursday night, Friday night and Saturday night. The two Jr. High teams will host the Silverton Jr. High teams here Monday night and will go to Estelline next Thursday night.

MRS. GERALD SMITH UNDERGOES SURGERY IS AMARILLO TUESDAY

Mrs. Gerald Smith underwent surgery Tuesday morning at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. Her husband called later that day to report that she came through the surgery in fine condition.

Except for the 1961-63 biennium Mr. Healy has been a member of this Committee since its creation.

The explanation of why this unusual record has been achieved by a member of the House from a sparsely settled section of the State is an interesting commentary on generally unrecognized facts of the political setup in Texas.

16, and it will also be played at Flomot.

Last Friday night the local teams drove to Lakeview for a pair of games, the Pantherettes winning 74-39, and the Panthers taking an 83-24 win over the Eagles.

For the Panthers, Bobby Cochran scored 18; Monte Stephens 18; Ramsey 13; Hamilton 12; Payne 9; Jimmy Pointer 6; Jacobs 4; Lucero and Brunson, 2 each.

Tuesday night here in the local gym, the Quitaque teams took three wins over Matador. The Pantherette B girls teeing off on Matador B 72-20; the Pantherettes won 63-33; and the

CONGRESSMAN BOB PRICE'S WASHINGTON REPORT

This is my first weekly newsletter of the 90th Congress and I am looking forward to visiting with the residents of the 18th district by this means regularly.

My principal function as your Congressman is to be your legislative spokesman. It is certainly my duty as set forth in the Constitution. I have already exercised my duty several times. From the mail I have received I believe that I represented your wishes in voting to have Adam Clayton Powell barred from taking his seat until allegations against him can be investigated.

I am here as your representative. It is important that I hear from you as an individual. I am going to represent all 400,000 people in the district and to do this I must know how you feel on the issues which come before the Congress. I welcome your letters.

If you ever need any help in dealing with the Federal Government I stand ready and willing to do so. This is usually complicated and I can often help expedite matters. As you know, Congress makes the laws which are then administered by the Executive Branch—the various departments, agencies, and bureaus—in other words, the "bureaucracy."

Sometimes the bureaucracy's interpretation of these laws is somewhat different than was intended by Congress. So when you have problems with the Federal "bureaucracy" don't hesitate to call on me.

A very important part of my job as your Representative is in keeping you informed on what is happening in Washington. By means of press releases, radio and television reports, and this weekly newsletter, I will get the facts to you. If you would like to receive my newsletters just send your name and address and I'll be happy to put you on the mailing list.

If you need to contact me the best way is write a letter. If you call, chances are that I'll be in committee meeting or in debate on the Floor. If you write I'll have a record in my office of exactly what you want. Here's where to write me:

Congressman Bob Price
1323 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D. C. 20515

For your convenience I will also maintain two offices in the district. Eddie Baird and Mrs. Elizabeth Ravencraft will be in the Amarillo office which is temporarily located in Room 623, Bank of the Southwest. Mrs. Charles Wilkerson is in charge of my Pampa office at 800 North Sumner. They are in direct contact with me here in Washington should you ever need to contact me quickly.

In closing, I would like to remind everyone that January 31 is the deadline to register to vote in 1967—I would like to urge everyone to be sure and register.

Remember, I am in Congress to serve you. Please do not hesitate to write if you have problems I can help you with.
Sincerely,
Bob Price

MEDICARE NOTES

Older people in the Panhandle who have paid doctor bills but have not yet claimed their medicare insurance payments are invited to have their claims checked by the Amarillo social security office before mailing them to the medicare insurance carrier, according to Travis C. Briggs, district manager.

Some benefit payments are delayed because the applicants do not include all the necessary information with their claims. Briggs believed most people should need this help only the first time they make a medicare claim. "The 'Medicare Handbook' which is given to all beneficiaries explains how to make the claims," he said.

The doctor can apply for the medicare payment directly and bill the patient for the amount not paid by medicare, or the patient can pay the doctor and request reimbursement from the medicare insurance carrier, which is Blue Cross & Blue Shield in Texas. A statement from the doctor showing treatment given and charges already paid by the patient must be furnished. The request for payment form is mailed to the insurance carrier by the doctor or the patient.

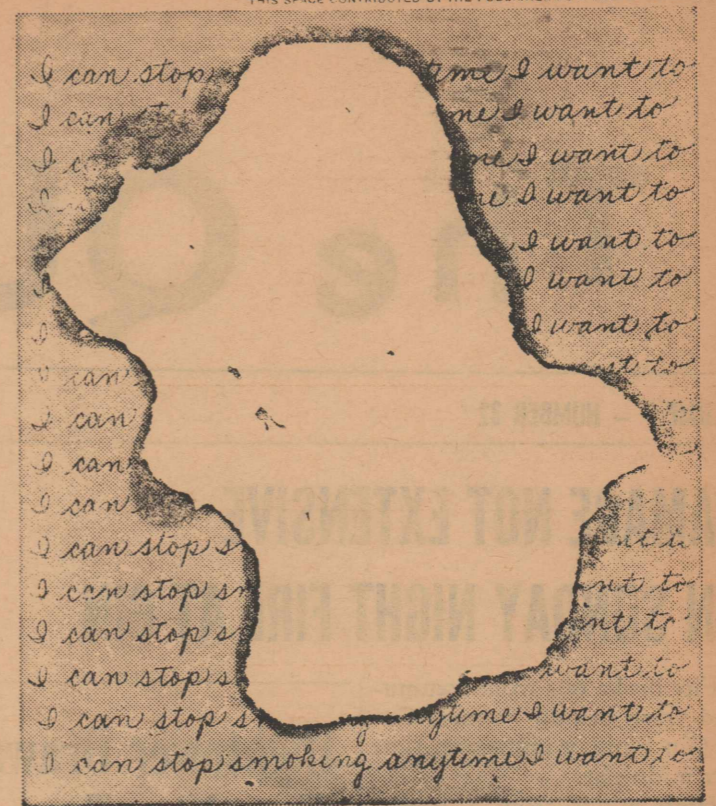

"The social security office does not make the decision or pay the claim," Briggs said. "The law requires that payments be handled through the selected medicare insurance carrier. But we can help answer questions about medicare and assist people in our area to get their applications ready."

The Amarillo social security office is located at 1006 S. Adams, telephone is DR-6-5151 and is open 8:15 a. m. to 4:30 p. m., Monday through Friday, and is open until 7:30 p. m. on Thursday evenings.

March of Dimes Teen Age Program Sets Pace in Birth Defects Battle

Paul Petersen, the 21-year-old television, motion picture and recording star, plans to some day "get married and have at least nine kids."

"I also want to adopt all the orphans I can from around the world and bring them all together each year during the holiday season," says the young man who once played the role of Jeff on the Donna Reed TV show.

Like thousands of members of his generation, Paul perhaps best demonstrates his love for children through his efforts to fight birth defects. He is national chairman of the March of Dimes Teen Age Program (TAP) for the second consecutive year.

The National Foundation-March of Dimes is conducting an all-out war against birth defects which strike 250,000 infants born in the United States each year. As national TAP chairman, Paul is working to stimulate interest in this vital problem among young people—the nation's future parents.

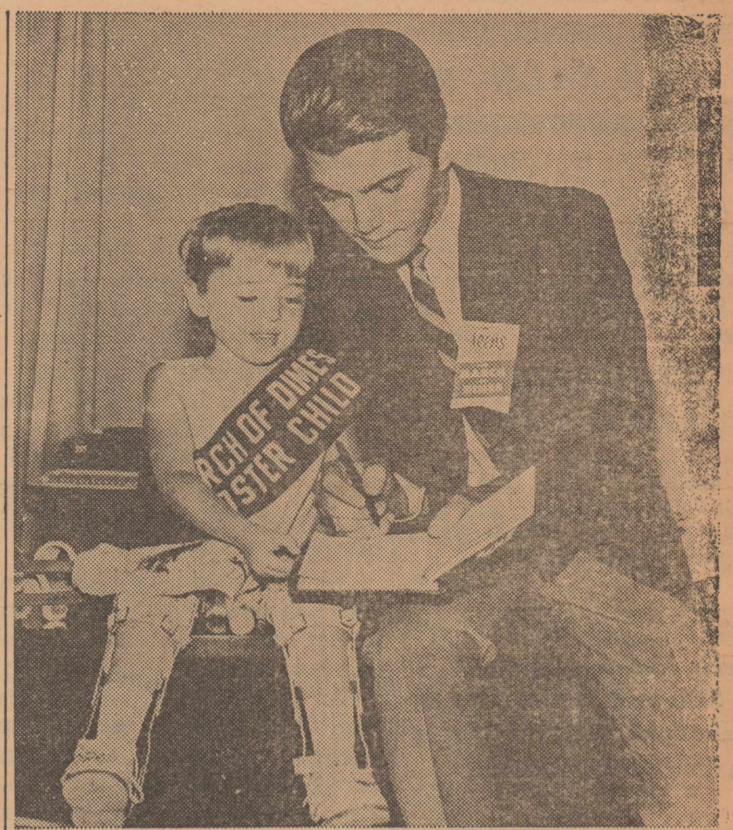

Thousands of TAP members across the nation are taking an active part in the fight against birth defects through year-round programs of education, service and fund raising. A good portion of the contributions raised by TAP members has helped the March of Dimes finance its rapidly growing nationwide network of 77 birth defects centers for diagnosis and treatment of infants born less than perfect.

To carry on this fight, teenagers have raised money for the March of Dimes by holding dances, basketball games, car washes, skating parties, and by selling everything from balloons to spaghetti dinners.

Who are these teens? And how have they channeled their energies into the TAP movement?

Paul Petersen, a native of Glendale, Calif., is one teenage idol who is serious about education. In high school he maintained a straight A average, and in college he is now an honor student in night school and university extension courses.

For two years Paul was TAP chairman in Los Angeles. Then, in 1965, he was named national co-chairman along with Luci Baines Johnson, the younger daughter of the President.

TEENAGE IDOL PAUL PETERSEN signs his autograph in a big hand for the little lady, Donna Dill. Both have signed up for the fight against birth defects—Paul as national Teen Age Program chairman and Donna as March of Dimes 1967 National Poster Child.

The National Foundation offers the Luci Baines Johnson Service Award to young adults who best exemplify the significant contribution of youth to the fight against birth defects.

The TAP co-chairman of Baltimore, Md., 18-year-old David Green, is the 1966 national winner of this award. Among his accomplishments was the organization of educational, service and fund-raising programs involving more than 75 youth groups. This year he is president of his high school student council.

A 17-year-old Denver, Colo., resident is the western area winner. Carolyn Beck, state TAP chairman and a high school honor student, raised $1,400 for The Salk Institute for Biological Studies in 1965 with the help of the International Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Thomas M. Johnston, 18, Warsaw, Ind., the midwest area winner, organized a series of dances to raise funds for the March of Dimes and built his chapter TAP membership to more than 400. A former high school honor student and president of his student council, he is now studying at Indiana University.

Southern area winner, John Thomason, 17, Corpus Christi, Tex., was able to organize 800 teenagers in a successful shopping center sale to raise money to fight birth defects. He is now a student at Baylor University. Many March of Dimes TAP volunteers are honor students, leaders in school and members of many youth service groups. All TAPs share the common interest of helping to bring about the day when every child has the chance to grow up healthy.

QUICK TIPS for Smooth Trips

Are safety belts really necessary in the back seat of a car? Isn't having belts up front enough? No, not unless the back seat is never used.

In an accident, rear-seat passengers can be thrown up and over the front seat in a kind of catapulting action that sends them into the dashboard or windshield with far greater force than if they were sitting up front. Or they can plunge into the front seat itself, causing injury to themselves and those ahead of them.

The fact that most back-seat passengers are children increases the need for belts all around. The special harness-type belts for small children keep them sitting down and yet allow them some degree of freedom to squirm. (For a child, standing behind the front seat is the most dangerous position in the car.)

Children's belts benefit the driver, too. A youngster kept sitting is better behaved, and, in case of an emergency or sudden stop, the driver can concentrate on controlling the car rather than on catching flying children.

In most parts of the country, winter is synonymous with snow and ice. And snow and ice can be synonymous with a stuck car unless you're well-prepared for the possibility. Two of your car's most important items of winter equipment are a small shovel and a bag of sand. Spread generously in the path of the rear tires, sand will give you instant traction on almost any slick spot.

Stored in the car trunk over the wheels, the sand and other equipment provide weight that might give your tires enough added traction to keep you from getting stuck in the first place. For carrying the sand, you can buy a special dustproof, waterproof bag with a zippered pouring spout, although you can quickly make a carrier that works just as well. Simply wash and dry out an empty milk carton—the two-gallon size is best. The spout is ideal for pouring, and, turned in, it keeps the sand from sifting out when the carton is riding in the trunk.

"Always keep the gas tank as full as possible so you won't be stalling far from a service station."

"If followed or curbed by another car, blow your horn repeatedly to attract attention and roust the pursuer."

"In case of car trouble, get out, raise the hood, then get back in, locking all the doors and windows. Accept only official help."

These are some of the practical directives in a new pamphlet called "Out After Dark?"—required reading if you're a woman who ever has to drive or travel alone at night.

Actually "Out After Dark?" contains good advice for protecting yourself and avoiding unwelcome experiences out of your car as well as in—when you're walking, for example, riding public transportation, or sitting in a public place. The pamphlet is available free by writing Women's Representative, American Oil Company, 910 S. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60680.

FARMING WILL COST MORE IN 1967

COLLEGE STATION—The cost of farming and ranching will be higher in 1967, according to John McHaney, Extension economist at Texas A&M University. Farm production expenses will again increase in 1967 but at a slower rate than in 1966, said McHaney.

The 1966 cost of farming—as measured by overall farm production expenses—was up a whopping 8 percent over 1965, he said. It cost farmers about $3 billion for overall production expenses in 1966.

McHaney said the increase in expenses results in part from higher prices for certain production inputs—particularly feeder livestock and feed. Prices paid by farmers moved up slightly for motor and other supplies, and building and fencing materials. Then too, he said, more purchased inputs were used in 1966, contributing to the increase in total for expenses.

The A&M economist said farm production expenses will likely rise again in 1967 though not quite as much as the 1966 increase. Increases are highly probable in 1967 for taxes, interest, and insurance. Higher expenditures for several production items, including fertilizer and pesticides, are likely because of increased use of these items.

Part of the increase in the cost of farm inputs in recent years can be attributed to increasing use of services that were formerly done by the farmer or were not even available, said McHaney. Farmers now may have feed delivered directly into their beef, poultry or hog feeders. They may have buildings constructed, fences built or fertilizer applied rather than doing the work themselves.

These extra services, as well as the supplies themselves, are often financed by the supplier, who will normally add a financing charge—all contributing to higher input costs, said McHaney.

EO ACT AMENDMENT OFFERS NEW RESOURCES FOR RURAL POVERTY USE

Additional and much needed resources for hard-pressed, low-income Texas rural people desiring to improve their farm income or start small businesses will be provided through amendments to Title III of the Economic Opportunity Act recently signed by President Johnson.

This fact was pointed out this week by Donald B. Cruce, Farmers Home Administration county supervisor for Briscoe County.

"This important Economic Opportunity Act amendment increases from $25,000 to $35,000 the maximum war-on-poverty loans that the USDA Farmers Home Administration can make to individual Texas farmers or other rural residents," Supervisor Cruce said.

This amendment also authorizes additional credit to borrowers as long as their outstanding indebtedness for an economic opportunity loan does not exceed $3,500.

The new economic opportunity loan provisions will more adequately cover the financing of needed land, working quarters and equipment needed to establish many Texas economic opportunity individual enterprises on a sound basis," Mr. Cruce explained. "Another important point is that the program can now supplement original loans with capital for improvements or expansion."

Since the office of Economic Opportunity loan program started in January 1965, the Farmers Home Administration has extended $2,851,065 in credit to some 1,705 Texas families and $52 million in loans to over 30,000 families throughout the United States, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

Economic Opportunity borrowers throughout the Nation are operating more than 400 different kinds of non-agricultural enterprises—in addition to farming—as a result of credit through this program. Texas loans averaged $1,672.
