The kindergarten class will begin at 8:30 p. m. and continue until 11:00.

Pre-School program prepares the five year old for school, in matters of discipline, being with others, visual aids, and learning their letters and numbers.

Pete Rice, Mayor of Quitaque, report that he received a telephone call Tuesday morning from Mrs.
 Carrie Jago of Amarillo requesting that he find someone to clean up her property in Quitaque preparatory to Homecoming this weekend.
 She states that although she lives in Amarillo, her heart is still in Quitaque.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Morris and their son and grandsons, Danny Morris and sons, drove to Burson Lakes Tuesday morning to spend the day on an outing and fishing.

Mrs. Lela Mae Barrett and Mrs.

Billy Bradley of Amarillo spent a recent weekend in Tres Ritos, N.
 M. They spent one night with Mr.
 and Mrs. Kenneth Vine at Stratford enroute to New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Lee Jacobs and daughters, Charlotte and Amy, arrived Friday to visit his mother, Mrs. Letha Mae Jacobs, and his grandmother, Mrs. Lieu Cantrell.
 Grady Lee is enroute to Los Angeles, Calif. where he will enter the University of Southern California to work on his masters degree. He is serving in the Air Force.

FUTURE LOOKS PROMISING AS CITIZENS GLANCE BACK

Several weeks ago Turkey and Quitaque were subjects of stories appearing in the Amarillo Daily news. For the benefit of visitors in the community this week, as well as readers who live away from this area, we are printing the stories in The Valley Tribune.

Large, wild turkeys are still found in the area, but they used to abound, the oldtimers say, and that is how the town got its name.

Floyd Gilmore came to Turkey
 in February, 1909 from Estelline.
 "We came in a surrey," he said.
 "There was nothing between here and there but pasture and it was covered with a foot of snow. It took all day. We'd go eight or ten miles, build a fire to warm our feet and go another eight or ten miles."

Gilmore's father was the only doctor in Turkey in 1909. "He made his calls in a buggy," Gilmore said.

Jack Lacy was born in Turkey and has always lived there.

"There has been a Lacy store ever since the town began," he said. "My father had the first store in town," Lacy said. He has owned and managed the Lacy Dry Goods Store for 35 years.

A once-busy depot sits by the tracks that run through Turkey.
 The waiting room contains only a rusting potbellied stove. An occasional freight train stops at the station now, but some of the local citizenry remember vividly the first train that came through.

"It was about '27 or '28," Lacy said. "It came through from Estelline to Plainview and picked up passengers all along the way.
 There was music, street dancing,
 clowns—it was quite a celebration."

A hotel in Turkey was built a short time after the railroad came to town. The structure originally was meant to be an office building.

"The man who had it built thought he was going to move the main part of town a couple of blocks closer to the railroad,"

Sheerless Brings? Duan Weakness

A nationally-known research scientist this week assured women with varicose veins and other circulatory problems that modern "sheer" elastic hosiery is entirely adequate to meet doctor's prescriptions for elastic stockings - even though such hosiery may appear to be flimsy.

"In spandex, which is produced under various trade names, science has given us a very strong, durable, synthetic elastic," said William O. Elson, director of the research laboratories of the Bauer & Black division of the Kendall Company.

"It is quite true that ultra-sheer elastic hosiery looks very much like ordinary, fine nylon stockings. But any woman whose doctor has told her she must wear elastic stockings can now wear them with the confidence that she will be getting all the compression her veins need," Elson said.

"While there are many types of support hosiery available that are comparable to regular hosiery in appearance," warned the scientist,
 "support hosiery has only half the compression of elastic hosiery. It is not adequate for serious leg ailments."

Lacy said. "He couldn't get it done so he just made a hotel of the building."

The population of Turkey is between 800 and 900, Lacy said.
 "The town has had ups and downs.
 In '28, the population was about 1,500. Four families could live on a section of land.

"The population of the country around Turkey has also dwindled.
 'We used to have people living
 all over the country,' Lacy said.
 "But it doesn't take as many farmers as it used to."

The turkeys in the area aren't the only wildlife. "Last year, David Driskill was coming in from college and he ran over a buffalo and killed it in the city limits," Lacy said.

Although there aren't as many stores in Turkey as there once were, the town has a promising future. Three local men recently began a boat-trailer building enterprise, and Lacy said, "a school supply factory out of Dallas that will employ about twenty people is supposed to come in next month."

As in many communities, the Turkey schools are a point of pride. "People here are 100 percent against consolidation," Lacy said, "but I'm afraid we'll get it.
 It would be terrible to take our kids 45 miles to Memphis."

Lacy said there has been some talk about consolidating Flomot, Turkey and Quitaque schools, but they "haven't gotten together," he said.

"Nearly all the kids that leave here do good," he said. "We have doctors and lawyers."

Gilmore said he came across a 1919 gradebook not long ago that showed only four months of school were held that year.

"When the money ran out, we just had to close it up, I guess,"
 he said.

"My wife-to-be was in the eighth grade then," Gilmore continued. "The teacher had three-fourths of the students marked failed. They didn't go long enough to pass, I guess."

THIS IS QUITAQUE

Several weeks ago Turkey and Quitaque were subjects of stories appearing in the Amarillo Daily news. For the benefit of visitors in the community this week, as well as readers who live away from this area, we are printing the stories in The Valley Tribune.

"I like the idea of raising my children in a small town—there is so much happening in the large ones.

"We are hanging onto our businesses," she continued. "Our drug store closed, but someone is already set to open another one. We The highway becomes Main Street, and the first building on the left at the east edge of town is the Sportsman's Restaurant. Mrs. W. Cheatham runs the cafe and a visit with her is a bit like reading Chamber of Commerce literature. The town immediately beyond the restaurant substantiates her claims.

"We're proud of the third place award," Mrs. Cheatham said. "But we were disappointed we didn't get first.

"Small communities are getting hit," Mrs. Cheatham said, noting the shift of population to metropolitan areas. "But we (in Quitaque) are fighting to exist. Nestled next to the caprock is one of the most attractive towns in Texas. Quitaque was third place winner in a field of 300 in competition in the Texas Community Improvement Program sponsored by Texas A&M Extension Service. Have several new homes in Quitaque.

"There is a new car wash and several businesses have now fronts on them. An implement business in town is just about a year old and the hunting and fishing in the area are as good as you will find anywhere."

Mrs. Cheatham's pride is typical of the 700 residents who worked for a year to beautify their town.

One of four large silver trays presented to finalists in the community improvement program is in the First National Bank.

The tray is handsome, but the real trophy is the town itself. Neat flower and vegetable gardens appear on every block. Grass is neatly trimmed, and well-cared-for trees are in abundance.

"We hauled away a great many old, rusting car bodies," Bob Ham, vice president of the First National Bank, said. "And area farmers plowed up the vacant lots to be used as gardens, for grass, and some of them were planted with grain to keep them from looking like weedy, neglected lots."

The Lions Club started the program, Ham said, but it was "a chain reaction" after that. "People would see their neighbor working and they would start," he said.

The Boy Scouts aided the Lions Club on special projects like cutting weeds out of the cracks in the city sidewalks. "I still pull out my pocket knife and cut weeds from around the Post Office," Ham said, "and most everybody else does too."

Other projects included helping people cut down and haul away dead and dying trees and planting about 250 Gareii Cyprus trees along both sides of Main Street, extending well past the city limits, around the cemetery and at other locations in the city.

The trees are a variety of blue-gray evergreen that is consistent in color, said Ken Cook, Briscoe County Agent. "They should be big and beautiful in about three years," he said.

The town also has new luminous "Welcome to Quitaque" signs.

Ham said the $350 the city won for third place in the beautification contest will be spent for more beautification. The city plans to build additional planters in the business district.

Pride in the community is not confined to recent improvements. "I'll bet we have more paved streets per capita than any town in the state," Ham stated.

Quitaque community spirit extends far past the city limits. "There are 19 dams and lakes in an 8-mile radius of town," Ham said. "We have one of the best soil conservation projects going anywhere," and he pointed out contour plowed fields that were controlling erosion.

Farmers are conscious of neatness in the area and keep the weeds in their fence rows burned and plowed, Ham added.

The town boasts a manufacturing company that produces a blade powered by the hydraulic system of a tractor. Ham said, "It will do almost as much as a maintainer."

A new feedlot has been located on the east edge of the city. It will be used as a pre-feeding operation primarily, said Ham.

The owner plans to condition about 5,000 head of cattle annually in the lot before moving them to a larger lot.

The new look at Quitaque was prompted by the desire to do well in a contest, local citizens admit. But the new found, intense pride in the community will keep it beautiful and prospering for years to come, the same citizens predict.

The following story recently appeared in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. We reprint it for the benefit of the visitors in Quitaque this weekend for Homecoming.

Tragedies In Quitaque Area THE "VALLEY OF TEARS" IS RECALLED HERE

It was called "Valle de las Lagrimas"—Valley of the Tears.

Its location was in "Quitaque Territory," an area bordered by Palo Duro Canyon on the North, the Pease River on the South, Tulia on the West and Turkey on the East.

This is broken country, full of hideout sites and sheer rock-ribbed canyons that empty out onto rolling ranch land.

Once the savage Comanche lurked here. And so did the stealthy Comanchero.

Here on Los Lingos Creek was a trading point for Indians and Comancheros, dark, swarthy men of Mexican descent.

At this site, thousands of cattle that had been stolen by the Indians were traded to the Comancheros.

The Comancheros themselves admitted trading for more than 300,000 head of stolen cattle. Also, they probably transported more than 100,000 head of stolen horses into New Mexico during the period that the trade flourished.

Southwest of Quitaque on the J. R. Stroup Ranch is the site that is known as "Valley of the Tears."

Here is the sad story of how the grim basin got its name:

In the 1850s and 1860s, when the Indian tribes were dealing death and destruction all over the area, many times white women and children were captured.

Mounted behind braves, the captives were taken on wild horseback rides to the breaks of the Quitaque, usually ending up on the spot later to become known as "Valley of the Tears."

Here, in this lonesome setting, children were jerked from their mothers and traded to the Comancheros or other Indian tribes.

Some unknown person, after hearing the wailing of mothers who were seeing their children for the last time, first came up with the name "Valle de las Lagrimas" or "Valley of the Tears."

Mr. and Mrs. James Barefield and Joey spent from Friday until Sunday in Breckenridge visiting his brother, Don and family. The men spent most of the time fishing and report pretty good luck.

Mrs. Dessie Stewart and daughter, Frances, of Denton, spent from Saturday until Monday with Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Rucker and family.

Minnie Mae Roberson, Yolan Roberson, and Mr. and Mrs. Pierce White attended a Roberson family reunion at Clarendon Sunday. The get-together was held at the home of Mrs. Roy Roberson with approximately 25 present.

VITAL BRIDGE

Living on an island has its problems! Islands are just fine . . . until you run out of bread or need the refrigerator fixed. That's why we built this rustic bridge last summer. It's safer for the children than our old boat, and it links us with our neighbors if we or they need help in a hurry.

There is great need for another bridge these days . . . not of wood or stone, but of understanding between the world's people. "No man is an island . . ." We are all children of God, made in His image.

The Christian Church is the living bridge that seeks to unite men everywhere in the fellowship of Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. By supporting your church and striving to live by its teachings, you help to span the gulf of ignorance and fear that still separates us from our brothers.

Bridal Shower Honors Mrs. Hal House At Turkey

The home of Mrs. Jack Hutton in Turkey was the scene for a bridal shower held recently honoring Mrs. Hal House. The bride's chosen colors of blue and white were used throughout the decorations.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mes. Ricky Fuston, Arville Setliff, Jack Hutton, James Fuston, Floyd Gilmore, Bruce Gibson, Smitty Guest, Jess Browning, Bill Lane, Travis Lyles, Leon Lane,

Milton Cotten, Jack Lacy, C. P. Driskill, Jr. Preston Moseley, and Billy Wheeler. Their gift was a bedspread.

Mrs. Floyd Gilmore registered the guests. After viewing the gifts the guests were served punch and cake squares from a table laid with blue net over white. It was centered with a bride doll which was flanked on each side with blue candelabra holding white tapers. Appointments were crystal and silver.

Out of town guests included the grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Neva Hickey of Dimmitt; the groom's grandmother, Mrs. L. H. Price of Clarendon; the bride's sister, Shelly Hickey of Amarillo. Other guests were Mrs. Murray Morrison, Neva Dale, Mrs. Murry Wayne Morrison, Mrs. Reg Cushmanberry, and Elaine Boyles, all of Quitaque.

Miss Jones is a 1938 graduate of Turkey High School, and presently is in nurse's training in Dallas.

The prospective bridegroom is also a graduate of Turkey High School, and West Texas State University, Canyon. He is presently serving in the Army and stationed at Fort Walters at Mineral Wells.

The wedding is planned for October 25 in First Baptist Church at Turkey. Donald Lacy of Canyon will officiate.

Grandparents of Miss Jones are Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Rickman of Kirkland, and Mrs. Minnie Jones of Turkey.

Mrs. Fred Lacy of Turkey is grandmother of the groom-elect.

The Boyles family reunion was held Sunday at Sudan at the City Park with approximately 40 present.

On Monday of this week Mr. and Mrs. Griff Boyles of Sudan, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gregg, and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Beauchamp of Lovington, N. M. came to Quitaque to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Boyles Monday. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rogers and girls joined them for a visit, also.

The Griff Boyles and Willie Beauchamps visited Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Persons Monday afternoon, then the Beauchamps spent the night with the Morris'.

Mr. and Mr. Clifford McBride of Childress and their two granddaughters from Bowie spent Wednesday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Boyles.

Mrs. Ova Felton of Seminole, Okla. and daughter, Mrs. Mona Barrett and three children of Shawnee, spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Leon McCracken. Mrs. Felton formerly taught school at Gasoline

A renewal came this week from Miss Frankie Hawkins for her subscription to The Valley Tribune, along with a note. Miss Frankie is now making her home at the new Bivins Home in Amarillo. J. G. Gowin is also living there and both report that they are liking the new home. Miss Frankie says that they go to church at a nearby church (she failed to mention the name of the church) and that the people there and at the home are very friendly. If you know Miss Frankie and Bro. Gowin, you know that it would be almost impossible to be unfriendly with them.

Following the ceremony, the couple was honored with a reception in the bride's home. Parents of the couple and wedding attendants assisted in receiving the guests.

cred carnations with white streamers, centered with two orchids atop a white Bible.

For something old, the bride wore white shoes; something new, the wedding gown; something borrowed, a pearl necklace belonging to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lynn Kidd; and something blue, a blue garter. She carried the traditional six-pence in her shoe for good luck.

Maid of honor was Miss Carol Crawford and Miss Debbie Corley was bridesmaid. They wore identical sleeveless formal length gowns of lue sparkle bonded crepe, with round collars. White lace insertions laced with blue ribbons highlighted the front and back panels of the dresses.

Best man was Bob Wood and groomsman was Lynn Kidd, brother of the bride.

Carol Lybrand, pianist, accompanied Benny Lybrand, cousin of the bride, as he sang "Wedding Prayer" and "Whither Thou Goest."

RECEPTION

Following the ceremony, the couple was honored with a reception in the bride's home. Parents of the couple and wedding attendants assisted in receiving the guests.

Mrs. Lynn Kidd, sister-in-law of the bride, registered guests from Snyder, Abilene, Quitaque, Fort Worth, Gainesville, Edilla, N. M., and Long Island, N. Y.

The reception table was covered with a white cloth with an overlay of net trimmed in lace, and highlighted by a three-tiered wedding cake of blue and white and topped with wedding bells. Two heart-shaped cakes, one bearing the name "Kay", and the other "Earl" flanked the wedding cake. Blue ribbons and bows outlined the cloth.

Serving at the reception was Miss Vicki Carter, Mrs. Jimmy Graves, Miss Kathy Hillhouse, and Mrs. Raylene Crawford.

For the wedding trip, the bride wore a street length blue bonded sparkle crepe dress with an A-line skirt. Jeweled buttons accented the front of the dress. She chose short white gloves and white shoes, and her orchid corsage was from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Woods is a spring graduate of Lamesa High School. Mr. Woods is a graduate of Quitaque High School and Elkins Institute of Radio in Dallas. After the wedding trip the couple is at home in Amarillo where he is employed by KGNC Television Station.

Wedding Plans Revealed

MISS DARLENE JONES

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jones of Turkey announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Darlene, to Johnny Lacy, also of Turkey.

Mrs. Hoy Lacy of Canyon and the late Mr. Lacy are parents of the groom-elect.

Mr. and Mr. Clifford McBride of Childress and their two granddaughters from Bowie spent Wednesday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Boyles.

Bridal Shower Honors

Mrs. Hal House At Turkey

The home of Mrs. Jack Hutton in Turkey was the scene for a bridal shower held recently honoring Mrs. Hal House. The bride's chosen colors of blue and white were used throughout the decorations.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mmes. Ricky Fuston, Arville Setliff, Jack Hutton, James Fuston, Floyd Gilmore, Bruce Gibson, Smitty Guest, Jess Browning, Bill Lane, Travis Lyles, Leon Lane,

Milton Cotten, Jack Lacy, C. P. Driskill, Jr. Preston Moseley, and Billy Wheeler. Their gift was a bedspread.

Mrs. Floyd Gilmore registered the guests. After viewing the gifts the guests were served punch and cake squares from a table laid with blue net over white. It was centered with a bride doll which was flanked on each side with blue candelabra holding white tapers. Appointments were crystal and silver.

Wedding Plans Revealed

MISS DARLENE JONES

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jones of Turkey announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Darlene, to Johnny Lacy, also of Turkey.

Mrs. Hoy Lacy of Canyon and the late Mr. Lacy are parents of the groom-elect.

Miss Jones is a 1968 graduate of Turkey High School, and presently is in nurse's training in Dallas.

The prospective bridegroom is also a graduate of Turkey High School, and West Texas State University, Canyon. He is presently serving in the Army and stationed at Fort Walters at Mineral Wells.

The wedding is planned for October 25 in First Baptist Church at Turkey. Donald Lacy of Canyon will officiate.

Grandparents of Miss Jones are Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Rickman of Kirkland, and Mrs. Minnie Jones of Turkey.

Mrs. Fred Lacy of Turkey is grandmother of the groom-elect.

The Boyles family wedding was held Sunday at Sudan at the City Park with approximately 40 present.

On Monday of this week Mr. and Mrs. Griff Boyles of Sudan, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gregg, and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Beauchamp of Lovington, N. M. came to Quitaque to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Boyles Monday. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rogers and girls joined them for a visit, also.

The Griff Boyles and Willie Beauchamps visited Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Persons Monday afternoon, then the Beauchamps spent the night with the Morris'.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McBride of Childress and their two granddaughters from Bowie spent Wednesday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Boyles.

Mrs. Ova Felton of Seminole, Okla. and daughter, Mrs. Mona Barrett and three children of Shawnee, spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Leon McCracken. Mrs. Felton formerly taught school at Gasoline

A renewal came this week from Miss Frankie Hawkins for her subscription to The Valley Tribune, along with a note. Miss Frankie is now making her home at the new Bivins Home in Amarillo. J. G. Gowin is also living there and both report that they are liking the new home. Miss Frankie says that they go to church at a nearby church (she failed to mention the name of the church) and that the people there and at the home are very friendly. If you know Miss Frankie and Bro. Gowin, you know that it would be almost impossible to be unfriendly with them.

Kidd-Woods Vows Exchanged At Lamesa Recently

Miss Betty Kay Kidd and Earl Lee Woods exchanged wedding vows Saturday, July 26 at 7 p. m. in the home of the bride's parents, with Dr. George Worrell, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Lamesa, officiated the double ring ceremony.

The wedding party stood before a picture mirror entwined with ivy, flanked by two palms. The chosen colors of blue and white were carried out in the decor.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bill L. Kidd of Lamesa and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Woods of Quitaque.

As the bride approached the altar she presented her mother with a single long stemmed red rose. After the ceremony the groom presented his mother a single long stemmed red rose.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown, made by Mmes. B. B. Baylor and Jim Rush, of white peau de sois with a fitted high rise bodice and collar of chantilly lace. The wrist length chiffon sleeves were accented with cuffs of chantilly lace. The A-line skirt was encircled with appliques of lace.

The chapel length train of chiffon was bordered with chantilly lace and highlighted with appliques of lace. Her elbow length veil of white nylon tulle fell from a pill box hat with seed pearls. For her bridal bouquet, she carried feathered carnations with white streamers, centered with two orchids atop a white Bible.

For something old, the bride wore white shoes; something new, the wedding gown; something borrowed, a pearl necklace belonging to her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lynn Kidd; and something blue, a blue garter. She carried the traditional six-pence in her shoe for good luck.

Maid of honor was Miss Carol Crawford and Miss Debbie Corley was bridesmaid. They wore identical sleeveless formal length gowns of lue sparkle bonded crepe, with round collars. White lace insertions laced with blue ribbons highlighted the front and back panels of the dresses.

Best man was Bob Wood and groomsman was Lynn Kidd, brother of the bride.

Carol Lybrand, pianist, accompanied Benny Lybrand, cousin of the bride, as he sang "Wedding Prayer" and "Whither Thou Goest."

RECEPTION

Following the ceremony, the couple was honored with a reception in the bride's home. Parents of the couple and wedding attendants assisted in receiving the guests.

Mrs. Lynn Kidd, sister-in-law of the bride, registered guests from Snyder, Abilene, Quitaque, Fort Worth, Gainesville, Edilia, N. M., and Long Island, N. Y.

The reception table was covered with a white cloth with an overlay of net trimmed in lace, and highlighted by a three-tiered wedding cake of blue and white and topped with wedding bells. Two heart-shaped cakes, one bearing the name "Kay", and the other "Earl" flanked the wedding cake. Blue ribbons and bows outlined the cloth.

Serving at the reception was Miss Vicki Carter, Mrs. Jimmy Graves, Miss Kathy Hillhouse, and Mrs. Raylene Crawford.

For the wedding trip, the bride wore a street length blue bonded sparkle crepe dress with an A-line skirt. Jeweled buttons accented the front of the dress. She chose short white gloves and white shoes, and her orchid corsage was from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Woods is a spring graduate of Lamesa High School. Mr. Woods is a graduate of Quitaque High School and Elkins Institute of Radio in Dallas. After the wedding trip the couple is at home in Amarillo where he is employed by KGNC Television Station.
