Do not fail to read the large advertisement by the Amarillo Mercantile Co. in today's paper.

Ladies ought to pay a visit to Mrs. Logan's flower conservatory.

Hugh Taylor and Mr. Warren, witnesses in the Logue case, returned last night from the examining trial at Claude. Logue's bond was set at $10,000.

Bob McCord went to hear Bro. Briney preach last Sunday, and says the sermon was a good one. Briney, it seems, catches many of the boys.

The Atchison Champion purposed to be run as the Devil would run a paper. Its editor and editor Gaut of the Amarillo Advocate had a scrap some weeks ago. They accidentally met the other day, for the first time since. Each caught the others off eye—hesitated—dilemma.

Amarillo: [not knowing what else to do] "Want to shake?"

Atchison: "Yes, I'd shake with the Devil"

Amarillo: "So will I," and they clasped.

ADAM.

"Of all the men the world has seen
Since Time his rounds began,
There's one I pity every day—
Earth's first and foremost man;
And then I think what fun he missed
By failing to enjoy
The wild delight of youth-time, for
He never was a boy.

He never stubbed his naked toe
Against a root or stone,
He never with a pin-hook fished
Along the brooks alone;
He never sought the bumble bee
Among the daisies coy,
Nor felt its business end, because
He never was a boy."

Connally is making the right prices on new goods.

Mr. A. L. Ridings—announcing last week—is a lif-long blacksmith, having literally beaten all the material prosperity ever enjoyed of iron. He has succeeded in rearing sons and daughter to maturity in paths of rectitude and industry; and now growing old in years, and worn of toil feels no scruples in asking his friends for lighter burdens.

Mr. Tudor has always been the manager of the Amarillo water works, owned by Mr. Sanborn, and all know how faithfully and honorably he has discharged his duty both to employers and patrons. But holding the position so long is "proof of the pudding." More than this, Mr. Tudor has the confidence of the people to such an extent that an election is rarely called but that he has been called to preside.

Mr. C. D. Jackson, the youngest man and last to enter the arena for public favor, keeps so indoors attending to business that he is probably not so ununiversally known, outside the horse user's circle. He is the foreman and manager of Stringfellow & Hume's extensive Sadlery and buggy establishment. His quiet demeanor and intensive adhesion to business have won for him the admiration of all who know him.

There is no question of the ability of either of the three gentlemen to efficiently discharge the duties of county treasurer.

The Evening News enjoys an innocent joke, with its friends; so, also, do most of its patrons—even at their own expense; yet, there are some who do not, and it is the purpose to respect their wishes in the matter. So any request in that direction will be thankfully received. Jokes can be carried too far, we are well aware, and in two instances have already been. They are some times written and handed to the reporter, and in extreme busy moments escape sufficient scrutiny. In such cases, if ever recurring, we beg our friends to give us opportunity, in a kindly way, to make amends. We repeat again, as we have more than once before, that jokes are run on no one but its friends. Personal allusions outside of pleasantries or compliments have no place in a well regulated newspaper, and they will not appear in the News, knowingly.

Mr. L. H. Stephens and wife are both in very feeble health. Dr. Cunningham has brought them to his home to stay a while, and says the old people would greatly appreciate short calls of friends—also of the Masonic fraternity.

ORDINANCE NO. 40.

An ordinance granting to Wayne C. Wright a franchise of the city of Amarillo, Tex., for the construction, operation and maintenance of a telephone exchange, in said city, for a period of ten years.

Passed 15th day of February, 1900, M. W. Cunningham, City Sect'y.

Liquors for medicinal purposes can be obtained only at saloons in Amarillo. Understanding this we purpose keeping all that is needed—and the best that is made. See Taylor, Peale & Brittain—on either sides of Polk street.

Pursuant to "dodger call," several citizens met yesterday at the court house to organize a baseball club. W. S. Maddrey was made chairman and H. B. Jones sect'y. A committee of four, including the chairman, was appointed to select the grounds and improve same.

Subscriptions in money was made. Meeting adjourned, subject to call of the president.

The Evening News' printer's devil asked Steve Ridings, who was laying the new sidewalks, to put the planks closer together—that he hitched his toes in the cracks. Steve told him to trim his toe-nails off!

Mr. Warren is laying the News' side walk to Polk street, directed by the clear headed, eagleeyed Lowndes of the First National, is guaranty that it will line up all right—which some other sidewalks do not do.

Judge J. L. Penry announces today as a candidate for the responsible position of county Judge of Potter county. He is a lawyer, and fully qualified in all respect, to fill the office to which he aspires. He is a man of family and permanently with us, and in consequence would have the best interest of the entire county at heart. He is affable, enterprising and attends closely to his business; and in addition to his general practice as a lawyer, he is at present, city attorney of the city of Amarillo, and has filled the position to the entire satisfaction of all, in so far as we have been able to learn; all of his official acts relative to the preparation of ordinances etc. relative to the issuance of the city's bonds for the construction of the proposed new school building having been by the authorities at Austin, in all things approved. We bespeak for him the careful consideration of his claims by the voters of Potter county.

Hon. W. B. Plemmons.

The Galveston Republican pays the following high tribute to one of Amarillo's political favorites:

Hon. W. B. Plemmons, of Amarillo, an able lawyer, legislator and district judge, was in the city this week. For many years we have known the distinguished gentleman, especially as a legislator, where he was justly considered as one of the leading and most influential members. We understand he will be a candidate for congress from his district. His people might look the district over and they could not find a better, abler or more worthy man. While he is a democrat of the strictist school and as a pronounced republican, we always recognize merit and worth, no matter in which party it is found, and in Judge Plemmons can be found all the attributes of true manhood; and that nobility of character that is always admired by all true and honest men. He would reflect great credit on the Lone Star, and at the end of his stewardship would hand it over to his successor, not only with undimmed luster, but with increased brightness, glory, and splendor.—Texas Republican.

Railroads Pointing This Way.

The Rock Island is busy throwing dirt at Kingfisher and Mountain View. It is supposed both the above will be complete within sixty days and the force brought to work on the Pauls Valley branch—Chickasha Express.

The Amarillo people seem to think that Rock Island will swallow up the Choctaw. Don't you believe it, neighbor. The Choctaw has sufficient capital to build its Weatherford Amarillo extension and must have an outlet. The Choctaw will soon have the dirt flying all reports to the contrary notwithstanding.—Berlin Venture.

Grading on the proposed extension of the Choctaw from this city to Amarillo, Texas, will begin shortly according to advice from good authority. Work will begin and be pushed from both ends of the line. When the extension is complete the road will have direct connection east and west. Connection will then be made with the Ft. Worth & Denver at Amarillo for the west.—Berlin Venture.

War

Is an awful calamity when waged against a weaker nation by a stronger, but when a concern, like the Amarillo Mercantile Co. gets on the warpath, after that arch enemy of the people, High Prices, the result is a blessing. It is now declared by everybody that the Amarillo Mercantile Co. routed High Prices, and put goods within the reach of modest purses. The good news spread abroad, reaching as far as Roswell N. M., where we ship goods.

Peace has not been declared by us, we will continue to make the prices so that goods cannot be bought cheaper anywhere in the United States

than at Amarillo. Every day is a bargain day with us--one day being as good as another to get goods at low prices.

We are pleased to announce to the ladies of the city and surrounding country the arrival daily of new fashionable goods consisting of every thing for ladies wear in novelties etc. The prices on all will be lower than ever known in Amarillo.

We are justly proud of our grocery stock, consider it the best in town in quality--Nothing in town touches it in prices.

We put the prices down, others try to follow. We offer Queen Bee, the best Missouri flour, at $1.10 per sack, or $2.15 per 100 lbs.

Don't forget that we handle feed stuffs, cane and millet seed, at lower prices than heretofore paid other dealers.

Don't pay credit prices for cash goods. We save you money; it is for you to say how much.
