Increase supports stance on recession

WASHINGTON (AP) - A record 4.6 percent increase in the government's index of economic indicators in July offered support for President The increase, reported by the Commerce Department Friday, is not sufficient evidence by itself that the economy will improve significantly. The index points to the direction of economic activity, but not the magni-

What it does is confirm what other statistics are telling us, that the economy is reaching bottom and in some areas is beginning to improve," said a high administration official who didn't want to be identified.

Any improvement, no matter how slight, is certain to be welcome to President Carter in an election year, especially since Ronald Reagan accused him this week of plunging the economy into a "severe depression." Carter, however, said in announcing his new economic program Thursday, "The recession is near bottom and we will recover."

Most economists would agree that while the recession has been serious, it has nowhere near approached depression levels. Unemployment was 7.8 percent of the labor force last month, compared to a high of 25 percent in 1933, during the Great Depression. It reached a high of 9 percent in the1974-1975 recession.

Stuart Eizenstat, the president's chief domestic adviser, told reporters Thursday that the administration believes "the recession will soon bottom out, certainly by the end of the year at the latest." But he admitted the nation faces a slow economic recovery.

The administration's own projections point to a continuing rise in the unemployment rate, to 8.5 percent by the end of this year, easing only to 8.1 percent by the end of next year even with the benefits of Carter's new $30 billion economic program.

Republicans believe that the high jobless rate likely will be a major point of vulnerability for Carter in the election campaign as it will be higher at the end of his term than when he took office. Reagan has promised to do a great deal better.

The July increase in the Index of Leading Indicators follows a revised 1.5 percent rise in June, the Commerce Department said. Previously, the index had fallen for eight consecutive months by a total of 12.6 per-

"Two consecutive increases are highly encouraging," said Feliks Tamm, a Commerce Department economist. "The combined 6.1 percent rise in June and July have been very broadly based, and upward movements of this magnitude usually signal a new future trend."

But Tamm cautioned that the July figures are preliminary and subject to labor revision, which could be sub-

Cubans take hostages, demand flight to U.S.

LIMA. Peru (AP) - A Californiabound Braniff jetliner was invaded at the Lima Airport early Friday by 168 Cuban refugees who took 15 people hostage and demanded to go to the United States.

U.S. officials said the Cubans would be arrested if they arrived in the United States. Peru refused to supply a replacement airplane and the hostages and Cubans, including women and about 65 children, remained

Witnesses said three of the Cubans were wounded by policemen who opened fire as the refugees forced their way aboard the plane at about 1

Peruvian security forces were stationed near the pilotless craft, which

They are hungry. There is no more drinking water and they are demanding food," a spokesman for Braniff International Airlines said. "They must be very nervous, because the air conditioning is not functioning and with that many people inside it must be suffocating." The plane is fitted for

Transport Minister Fernando Chaves said President Fernando Belaunde rejected the invaders' demand for another airplane after meeting with Interior Minister Jose Maria de la Jara, U.S. Ambassador Harry Schlaudeman and Foreign Minister Javier Arias Stella

Chaves said Peru's prestige and authority would be diminished by granting the refugees exit. "In Peru, it's Peruvians who determine what we do or don't do," he said.

More than a thousand Cubans were given refuge in Peru after they packed into the Peruvian Embassy in Havana, Cuba, last April seeking political asylum from Fidel Castro's communist regime. They were placed in resettlement camps here, but many seek to join relatives who fled to the United States in the massive boatlift in May and June.

Chaves said the Peruvian government had offered to help the Cubans aboard the DC-8 apply for visas to go to the United States

Brezhnev says U.S. nuclear strategy 'dangerous'

MOSCOW (AP) - President Leonid I. Brezhnev, in his first major foreign policy address in six months. Friday accused the United States of pursuing an "extremely dangerous" nuclear strategy while the Soviet Union followed a "clear and honest peace policy Brezhnev's nationally televised speech from Alma Ata, in Soviet Central Asia, summed up at the highest level the various Soviet responses to actions taken by Washington since the Soviet military intervention in Afghanistan last December.

Western diplomats said the speech broke no new policy ground. But they found it notable for its broad scope and the sharpness of its attack on the United States, and for Brezhnev's silence on the current crisis in Poland caused by widespread strikes by workers demanding independent trade unions and relief from sharply rising

From the outset, Brezhnev focused on "the forces of oppression, militarism and aggression," adding "Here special mention has to be made of the policy pursued by the government of the United States in the present

Brezhnev discussed American actions taken since the Kremlin sent an estimated 85,000 troops into Afghanistan to help oust Marxist President Hafizullah Amin, who later was executed, and install the current president, Babrak Karmai. The United States led a boycott of the Moscow Olympics and urged other nations to curb deli-

In response to bad publicity, Willie offers to perform free

BIG SPRING, Texas (AP) - Country singer Willie Nelson has offered to perform for free to help a Big Spring benefit concert stung by publicity surrounding the singer and an inmate doctor, concert sponsors said Fri-

Dr. John Marcus Young, 41, who was sentenced to three years at the federal correctional facility near here for illegally dispensing drug prescriptions, was instrumental in convincing Nelson to perform at Sunday's benefit concert sponsored by the Jaycees.

The Associated Press and the Longview Morning Journal reported Thursday that documents showed Young had earlier illegally dispensed drug prescriptions to Nelson, Waylon Jennings, Johnny Rodriquez and Priscilla Davis, the ex-wife of Fort Worth millionaire Cullen Davis.

"When people started seeing all those stories they thought that Willie was bringing a bad influence into the town," said J.D. Gregory, advisor for the Jaycees prison group.

"Willie called us today - he was very concerned with all the bad publicity this thing has had - and said he's backing us 100 percent and would donate his share (of money)," Gregory said.

"I'm kind of blown away by this offer. I hope it's good," he added.

Gregory said sponsors had agreed to pay Nelson a $20,000 "break-even" fee for his performance at the concert aimed at raising money for a Texas Jaycees-supported college for the handicapped in Gonzales.

federal facility, said Young had helped with concert arrangements, but insisted the doctor "is not running the show

Willie is one of the big money makers and all this money is going to help that school," said Gregory. "The doc just offered to contact his old friend and approach him about doing the show

But following the reports of Young's relationship with Nelson, concert sponsors drew sharp criticism from some residents of this conservative West Texas city

Members of a local church circulated a petition, signed by 700 people, that asked that the concert be can-

'An irate minister presented the petition to me today and wanted to know why I couldn't get someone with a better reputation," Gregory said. He said Willie is a bad influence on our young people.

But, Gregory insisted that money, not influence, was the issue.

'We need money for this school. These handicapped kids have nowhere else to go," said Gregory. "And where Willie goes, he makes Financially troubled Alaska pipeline consortium gains three new partners

WASHINGTON (AP) - The consortium building the Alaska natural gas pipeline picked up three new partners Friday. A spokeswoman for the financially troubled project called the additions a tremendous boost.

Acting like bargain hunters on the last day of a special sale, two U.S. natural gas pipeline companies and one Canadian firm signed on as partners with the group building the Alaska segment of the pipeline.

A company official said the new partners acted on the last business day in which the consortium was allowed to add companies who will be able to share the same profit percentage as the original partners.

The three companies Friday followed the addition of a fourth company on Monday, bringing the total number of partners to 11.

President Carter has made the Alaska pipeline a key plank in his energy independence program. When completed, hopefully at the end of 1985, the pipeline will deliver 2.4 billion cubic feet of natural gas daily to the United States, enough to replace the equivalent of 400,000 barrels of oil

The entire 4,700-mile pipeline, which will carry gas from Alaska's Prudhoe Bay to terminals near San Francisco and Chicago, is expected to cost $25 billion.

Human-rights advocate, 47, sentenced by Soviet judge

MOSCOW (AP) - A Soviet judge on Friday sentenced human-rights advocate Tatyana Velikanova to four years in a labor camp, plus five years of internal exile. Spectators in the courtroom cried "Not enough, not enough!" family members said.

Mrs. Velikanova, 47, who has been an activist since the late 1960s, was convicted of "anti-Soviet agitation and propaganda," the Soviet news agency said. Family members present at the trial said shouts arose from a what they called a hand-picked courtroom audience when Chief Judge Vasily G. Romanov announced the sentence matching the prosecution's request. "Muscovites of different ages and professions who packed the session

hall met the court's ruling with approval," Tass reported. Mrs. Velikanova, a mathematician and computer programmer, became a dissident when her former husband, Konstantin Babitsky, was arrested for demonstrating against the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1968 and was sentenced to jail and internal

She was one of the original members of the "initiative group on human rights" formed in 1969 and subsequently was active with the underground "chronicle of current

Mrs. Velikanova was ordered to serve the four years' imprisonment in "strict regime" labor camp, the second most severe type in the Soviet penal system, and after that will be exiled to a remote area of the country. family members said.

The charges carry a maximum penalty of seven years' imprisonment and five years' exile. Tass said Mrs. Velikanova received less than the maximum because she is a woman.

Her sentence came a day after another Moscow court condemned dissident Russian Orthodox priest Gleb Yakunin to five years at hard labor and five of exile on similar charges. The two cases were the first major dissident trials since the Olympics.

About 20 dissident supporters waited quietly on the sidewalk outside the courthouse in eastern Moscow where Mrs. Velikanova's trial began Wednesday. Soviet authorities per-mitted five family members inside the courtroom, but other supporters as well as Western correspondents were barred Dissident sources said Mrs. Velikanova refused to sign statements during pre-trial detention and took little part in her trial. On Thursday, the sources said, she simply declared in court: "The farce is over."

Announcing the verdict Friday, Tass said: "The court found well-grounded the charge leveled against Velikanova that she was engaged in anti-Soviet agitation and propaganda in 1969-79.

Tass said Mrs. Velikanova maintained "unlawful links with correspondents of the bourgeois mass media and emissaries of anti-Soviet organizations."

No specific correspondents, diplomats or other westerners were mentioned by name during the trial.

Maximum DPS patrols announced

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - The highway patrol will be out in force over the Labor Day weekend in both patrol and unmarked cars, the Department of Public Safety said Friday.

The DPS expects 45 persons to die in traffic accidents in Texas over the 78-hour period which starts at 6 p.m. Friday and ends at midnight Mon-

"In order to provide maximum protection for driving public, we're placing additional state troopers on the highways," said DPS spokesman Richard Grimmitt. "Many will be in well-marked black and white patrol units but in some areas of the state we will be in unmarked units.

"Our troopers will be especially watchful for the speeding driver as well as the drinking driver," he said. The final death count from last year's Labor Day weekend was 49.

Agreement near on key demand

GDANSK, Poland (AP) - Striking shipyard workers said Friday night they were nearing an agreement with the government on their key demand for free trade unions, but other issues remained unresolved.

The note of optimism came as a wave of new strikes hit transporation and dozens of industries in most of Poland's major cities despite pleas for restraint from the government, the Roman Catholic Church and strike leaders themselves

At the Lenin Shipyards at Gdansk. nerve center of the strike movement, three strike leaders agreed a settlement was probable on the trade union

We are nearing a solution on point one," said Lech Walesa. Bogdan Liz said a new union formula drafted by two small negotiating groups "generally corresponds with our wishes." Florian Wisniewski told 1,200 workers gathered at the shipyard gates that the trade-union talks were nearing completion and the government had agreed strikers would be paid for the time off their jobs

None gave details, and a press officer for the strike committee, Lech Badkowski, said, "There is still some haggling over point three," which deals with censorship.

Top-level negotiations in Gdansk broke down Friday, but Wisniewski said they would be resumed at 10 a.m. Saturday. A government source in Warsaw confirmed that report and said the Communist Party Politboro met for the third straight day to study the strikers' demands.

Strike leaders said workers in the crucial coal and steel industries in Silesia, southwest Poland, were threatening to leave their jobs Monday if a settlement isn't reached. While Poles waited for the main negotiations to resume Saturday. smaller committees at the shipyard continued discussing specific issues.

The government's main delegation, led by First Deputy Premier Miecyzslaw Jagielski, had canceled a fourth round of negotiations and appeared rejuctant to face the workers' call for "a direct answer" on their demand for free trade unions to replace the government-controlled labor organizations.

Earlier Friday, television commentator Borys Mokryzszeski told viewers, "I would like to pass on to you better news. Unfortunately, since yesterday, the situation has not changed and as a matter of fact it has changed for the worse. We have new spots of unrest.

Despite appeals this week by Poland's Catholic Primate Stefan Wyszinski and Walesa, public transport halted in at least 11 major cities, affecting more than 3 million Poles, according to unofficial estimates.

More than 20 major cities experienced industrial or manufacturing strikes. Many of the workers declared solidarity with the Gdansk workers who refused to settle until the government granted something approaching their key demand - separate and independent trade unions under worker control Organizers of the Joint Strike Committee in Gdansk said they represent more than 300,000 workers in 627 enterprises in the northern industrial region alone and it appeared that hundreds of thousands of workers were out elsewhere.

In Szczecin, on the Baltic coast nearly 130 miles west of Gdansk near East Germany, serious shortages and a fledgling black market in food were reported, caused by the crisis.

'Growing difficulties are placing us in a tragic situation." Szczecin Radio quoted local Communist Party Secretary Janusz Brych as saying. "Today we cannot afford to wait any longer. The seriousness of the situation demands that all reasonable people, not in words but in deed, should demonstrate their sense of responsibility for the fate of our city and our coun-

In West Berlin, the Working Group for Human Rights claimed several hundred Polish workers in the East German port of Rostock had called in sick in a "solidarity action" with strikers in Poland. But the group, which monitors human rights in East Germany, said there were no indications that East Germans were joining the Polish strikers. East Germany's ADN news agency

denied the report

The Communist Party newspaper Trybuna Ludu issued a strong statement of "solidarity" with the Soviet Union and praised the Socialist alliance. The page-one commentary seemed an attempt to assure the Soviets that the Polish government would permit no breach of Communist control.

The fear throughout the strike has been that failure to control the problem internally would prompt Soviet intervention.

In Warsaw, dissident sources said authorities charged one of 11 prominent dissidents taken into police custody recently with "anti-state activities." The dissidents have provided accounts of the strikes to Western reporters.

In Gdansk, strikers said police began stopping trucks carrying food to the estimated 10,000 workers occupying the shipyards.

Strikebound areas formed a broad swath through central Poland. Much of the northern Baltic coast has been paralyzed since Aug. 14, when protests over meat price rises triggered the current unrest.

Since then, the strikes spread south along a broad plain bordered by Elblag, Bydgoszcz, Lodz, Krakow, Bielsko Biala, Walbrzych, Wrocław and Poznan, where transport and factories shut down. The strike boundary extended east to Rzeszow in the south, and to Olsztyn and Swidnik in the north and central areas.

Only Warsaw, and the northern agricultural and lake district were still generally unaffected, as were the vital steel and coal regions, where workers earn higher pay than the $170 monthly national average and form an equally vital power base for Communist Party leader Edward Gierek

Sources said workers at a locomotive plant in Poznan had joined the walkout. A strike at the same plant in 1956 led to riots which forced a shakeup in the top ranks of the Communist Party, bringing in Wladyslaw Gomulka, who fell in Gdansk's 1970 price

Bani-Sadr repeats opposition to spy trials for U.S. hostages

By The Associated Press

Iranian President Abolhassan Bani-Sadr has reiterated his opposition to spy trials for the 52 American hostages who spent their 300th day in captivity Friday.

Moslem militants holding the hostages said they they considered the day "nothing special." They declined to permit an Associated Press correspondent to talk to any of the Americans when he telephoned the U.S. Embassy in Tehran from Nicosia. Cyprus, to ask about them.

A militant said: "This is just another day for us, there is nothing special about it. Nothing has changed. the situation is the same. Bani-Sadr, in an interview with the French socialist newspaper Le Matin. was quoted as saying he opposed trials for the Americans because it would provide the United States with a pretext for intervening in Iran. 'To try (them), to sentence the hostages, what would that serve?" Bani-Sadr asked. "It would serve simply as a pretext for an American intervention.

"In our eyes...it is now the United States that doesn't want the hostages freed and Washington is ready to sacrifice (them) if that would save the system. It is the United States that has created the hostage problem and which is still preventing a solution." Iran's revolutionary leader, Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, has given Parliament the responsibility for dealing with the hostage issue. Parliament has set no timetable for considering the matter, however.

Iran's U.N. representative, Jamal Shemirani, said in an interview with The AP that he thought the Iranian Parliament might speed up consideration of the hostages if the United States would release an estimated $8 billion in frozen Iranian assets as a "symbolic gesture." He added: "I can assure you that the hostages are safe and are treated well.'

A high U.S. government official at the United Nations, who asked not to be named, said the Carter administration has made no move to free the Iranian assets. He also said he knew of no new diplomatic initiative being undertaken through the United Nations to free the hostages.

Tehran Radio said 16 people convicted of drug offenses were executed in Iran Friday. It said two Pakistanis were among those executed by firing squad, the first time foreigners had been reported put to death in Iran for drug offenses.

Another broadcast by the state-run radio said six Revolutionary Guards were killed in a clash with raiders in a section of western Iran where Kurds have been seeking autonomy. Tehran Radio said the attackers, whom it described as "mercenaries in the pay of international imperialism,' suffered heavy losses.

Accidents Friday night have resulted in injuries to several Midland people, and a West Virginia man is in Odessa Medical Center after a wreck in his truck-tractor.

Three people received minor injuries in a three-vehicle accident about 7 p.m. at Garfield and Front streets. According to police, Bobby Ray Henderson, 1910 W. Kentucky Ave.; Gwen Gates, 1407 W. Washington Ave.; and Charles Thomas Luckett, 500 S. Lee St., were westbound on Front when they collided. Luckett and his wife and child were taken to Midland Memorial Hospital emergency room. Luckett refused treatment. His wife and child were treated and released, a spokesman said. Linda Sherman, 2308 Shandon Ave., and a passenger in her car, Mrs. Elvin Burkett of Fort Worth, also received minor injuries in a 5: 30 p.m.

traffic accident. Police said Ms. Sherman and Jennifer Long, 2613 N. Midland Drive, were eastbound on Wadley Avenue when they collided in the 2300 block. The two women weren't treated at Midland Memorial, according to an emergency room spokesman.

Lawrence Parsons of West Virginia was listed in stable condition Friday night in Odessa Medical Center after his truck-tractor ran off the road.

A Department of Public Safety spokesman said the accident occurred at 6:09 p.m. one mile west of Odessa on Interstate 20. The front tire on Parson's truck-tractor apparently blew out, causing Parsons to lose control and the vehicle to run off the right side of the road.

The accident was investigated by Trooper Randy Reynolds of Odessa.

Sanda Joy Lashbrook, 21, of Eagle River arrived late Thursday night without a prized antique guitar she had planned to play for her bluegrass offering in the talent competition next

The guitar was lost between Anchorage and Seattle, but the University of Alaska junior expected the airlines to locate it quickly. If not, she said, her father would bring another to Atlantic City next week.

Others scheduled to arrive Friday were Miss Hawaii, Keone Cook of Aiea; Miss Oklahoma, Susan Powell of Elk City; Miss California, Robin Jelene Brooks of Elverta; and Miss Ohio, Kathleen Ann Vernon of Youngstown.

The reigning Miss America, Cheryl Prewitt, 23, of Ackerman, Miss., joined the pageant's new master of ceremonies, former television Tarzan Ron Ely, for some early rehearsals in preparation for next Saturday night's televised finals.

The 50 contestants will spend the weekend posing for pictures at an Atlantic City maritime park, a casino hotel swimming pool, in Convention Hall and on the Boardwalk.

In an important switch with recent procedure, the contestants' crucial seven-minute interviews with the judges will begin Monday afternoon and continue through Tuesday.

In past years, the interviews had been held late in the week as the women rotated through three nights of preliminaries in the talent, swimsuit and evening gown competitions.

But some pageant critics claimed that contestants with Wednesday interviews had an overwhelming advantage because judges could get an early opinion on them and follow them through other competitions.

On Tuesday night, the contestants will participate in a parade on the Boardwalk. The preliminary competitions will be held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights.

Miss America 1981 will be chosen on national television just before midnight Saturday. She will win a $20,000 scholarship and probably more than $70,000 in personal appearance fees

PBRPC gets state funds for nutrition program

AUSTIN - The Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission has received $296,831 from the Governor's Committee on Aging to be used toward nutrition programs for the elderly in fiscal year 1981.

The grant was an increase of 33.8 percent.

The committee approved Tuesday an across-the-board increase of 10 percent in funding for fiscal 1981 in the nutrition programs, carried out by area agencies on aging in nearly 30 regions, with some agencies granted additional increases.

The state has more than $17.12 million to allocate to the nutrition programs for 1981, a $2.5 million increase over 1980. Those agencies receiving more than the approved 10 percent increase are agencies which have been underfunded in the past, said John Pokorny, a Texas Department of Community Affairs planner.

Pokorny said the adopted funding formula moves the state closer to the federal "parity" policy, but that achieving the goal is still a long way off, perhaps three years.

'The 1978 amendments that were passed to the Older Americans Act had in the law that all funds would be allocated on an equitable basis," Pokorny said. "At the beginning of the program there was no such stipulation. They wanted the meals to begin as soon as possible and projects were funded according to what they felt they could serve.

Pokorny said San Antonio was given a large appropriation because it was capable of serving a large group of elderly persons while the City of Houston was not ready to conduct a large program.

"As the years went on, this inequity in terms of population continued. Now we're having to switch to a per population basis, and because of our imbalance we're having problems getting equity without cutting back." The committee approved the 10 percent increase after San Antonio officials argued they needed at least an 8.5 percent increase or be forced to cut 521 persons from their program. William Donahue, director of San Antonio's human resources department, said the city is feeding 343 more persons than they are funded to

Officials in Houston, whose program has never served the number of meals it is funded to serve, also argued recent gains in the program would be wiped out if their funds were cut, as proposed under one plan.

Richard Campbell, director of the Hoston-Harris County Nutrition Program said their program has made significant gains in the past six months. The program currently is providing 2,274 meals daily, and Campbell predicted that number would increase to 2,450 by Septem-

Committee member Alton Bowen had recommended that programs which were underserving, such as the Houston program, might have their funding reduced in six months if they were not meeting the funding levels.

However, Pokorny said Bowen's recommendation was contrary to the federal policy and the goal adopted by the committee. Several officials from rural agencies on aging expressed a concern that they might mistakenly be classified as underservers. "We can't be classified as guilty of underserving because there have not been enough funds allocated to start the program," said W.E. Smith of the Permian Basin Regional Planning

Officials of the Panhandle Regional Planning Council said they "need more funds desperately" because they currently are serving 20 percent more meals than they are getting

Fall recreation program readied

The Parks and Recreation Department is dusting off the football equipment and getting geared up for the fall and winter schedule of activities in trying to offer something for everyone, including the dog. Pre-school programs for 3-, 4- and 5-year-olds start Tuesday and will be held in the Parks and Recreation gym, 300 Baldwin St. This development program for preschoolers will include music, dance, reading readiness, stories, games, directed play activities and an introduction to numbers and the alphabet.

The class is limited to 10 and the fee is $15 per five-week session.

The first session is Tuesday through Oct. 2; the second, Oct. 6-Nov. 6; the third, Nov. 10-Dec. 11; the fourth, Dec. 15-Jan. 29; the fifth, Feb. 2-March 12; and the sixth, March 12-

An exercise class for expectant mothers begins Sept. 8 and continues through Oct. 16. The class will meet from noon to 1 p.m. on Mondays and Thursdays in the gym, 300 Baldwin

A post-partum class is scheduled for Sept. 9 through Oct. 16. It will meet from 1 to 2 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays. Fee for each class is $12 per person and doctor's permission is required. All exercise routines are done to music and stress flexibility, general tone-up and strength.

Two sessions of a women's keep-fit class will be held this year with the first session Sept. 8 through Dec. 18 and the second Jan. 5 through April 24. This program consists of walking, jogging and exercising to maintain a high level of fitness. The class meets at 1:30 p.m. Mondays and Wednesdays and at 9 a.m. on Fridays. Fee is $9.50 per session.

A women's swimming class also starts Sept. 8 and continues through Dec. 18. Fee for this first session will be $9.50. For the second session,

Jan. 5 through May 7, it will be $12. The class will meet at the City of Midland Pool on North A Street Mon-

Labor Day the traditional day honoring the labor force of the nation. It's a legal holiday when working people across the country take a one-day break on the first Monday in September.

Work has long been viewed as the cure for most of the troubles of the world. Honest and productive work, which one intends to get done, is a real blessing for humans. It keeps us moving forward and making our days on this earth worthwhile.

As the parable of the talents shows. God expects us to do something with our abilities. Draw fresh inspiration for your life and work in your house of worship this week

RELIGION IN BRIEF

Rev. Fadeley will be special speaker Sunday

St. Marks United Methodist Church, 1701 N. Main St., is hosting the Rev. Tony B. Fadely as a special speaker Sunday at its 10:55 service.

From February of 1965 through June of 1978, the Fadelys served as missionaries of the United Methodist Board of Global Ministries in Liberia, West Africa. Fadely served for five years as the director of the Annual Conference Department of Christian Education, 21/2 years as dean of the Gbarnga School of Theology and two years as the director of the Liberia-Sierra Leone Curriculum Project. In addition, Fadely was the founding pastor of the S. Trowen Nagbe United Methodist Church in Monrovia.

Rev. Tony B. Fadely Group to perform in concert

Randy Richardson and Koinonia will perform in concert at the Foursquare Church, 415 Alta Ave., Friday at 7:30 p.m.

The group has performed its versatile and contemporary music in many churches, at Knott's Berry Farm, as well as prisons, high schools and colleges. For two consecutive years the group took first place honors in gospel music competition at Cal Expo in Sacramento.

Randy Richardson plays the guitar and sings lead vocal. Don Allen performs on the bass guitar and singer Lisa Shimmick plays percussion and piano. Mike Abeg plays the drums.

The public is invited to attend. A free will offering will be collected.

Choir program registration set

Registration for a church and community children's graded choir program begins Sept. 6 from 10 a.m. to noon at the First Christian Church, 1301 W. Louisiana Ave. The program includes both children's choirs and children's handbell choirs from kindergarten through sixth grade. Enrollment is free and open to the congregation and community at large. The program consists of a 12-week session which includes singing, handbell ringing, ear training, theory, rhythm coordination and playing musical instruments such Darryl Knapp is the director of musical activities for the church.

St. Ann's to show film series

The public is invited to see the second film in the series "Focus on the Family" at St. Ann's Catholic Church, Illinois Avenue and M Street. This week's segment is "Shaping the Will Without Breaking the Spirit" and it will be shown Sunday at 7:15 p.m. at the church and Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the church's Adult Renewal Center. The series is by Dr.

Griffith to speak at meeting

The Full Gospel Businessmen's Meeting will be tonight at 7:30 at the Holiday Inn, 3904 W. Wall Ave.

The special speaker will be Ron Griffith of Carlsbad, N.M. Griffith has a master of music education degree from Eastern New Mexico University. He served as an instructor of music at Abilene Christian College. He is now occupied with full-time ministry work. Coffee and cake will be served at 6:30 p.m.

Some programs banned in Mexico

HARLINGEN, Texas (AP) - The Mexican government recently cracked down on religious programming in that country and knocked off the air programs broadcast on Mexican stations by American evangelistic operations.

A local minister who had broadcast a Spanish program on Mexican stations and Back to the Bible, a Lincoln, Neb., outreach ministry, said Friday they have been notified of the government order.

A reliable source in Mexico City with the Mexican Interior Department confirmed Friday that radio stations have been "reminded" by telegram that the country's constitution prohibits broadcasts of "religious propaganda or proselytizing of any kind."

"We will be affected by this on the handful of stations we operate on," said Vernon Friesen, director of radio business for Back to the Bible. The ministry learned two days ago of the crackdown from its Mexican agent.

The Nebraska operation has a 30minute program, "La Biblia Dice" that aired on seven Mexican radio stations and a five-minute program in English, "Pause for Good News" that ran on a Mexico City station.

One station airing the Spanish program already notified the Lincoln office that the broadcast has been can-

Clinton Looney, a minister who has operated programs for 12 years in Mexico, said Friday he received a copy of the government's telegram that had been sent to a station using his broadcast.

"It said that by order of the government, cancel all religious broadcasts of every type and to notify the government in writing of the date of cancellation," he said

Looney said he works with two evangelists from Mexico and Cuba who broadcast "La Hora Cristiana," a 15-minute program in Spanish in nine countries.

"We made a point in our programs never to mention a church. We started with a hymn and then a seven-minute Bible-based message," said Looney, who lived in Mexico for 13

The broadcasts advertised Bible correspondence courses offered from four schools in the United States, Guatemala, the Dominican Republic and Honduras, he said.

Looney's programs aired on sta-tions in Tapachula, Aguascalientas, and several towns in the state of Coahuila on the Texas border.

The Back to the Bible broadcasts affected aired in Comalcalco, Leon, Merida, Monterrey, Torreon, Jalapa and Veracruz.

"This doesn't kill our work because we still have programs on 34 stations in nine countries even after the cancellation," Looney said.

Back to the Bible also broadcasts in several Central and South American countries and along the border. Programs beamed into Mexico from other countries are not affected

The Mexico City source said religious messages will be permitted as long as they are not "propaganda or proselytizing."

"Abuses" of that restriction have been increasing, especially along the border, the source said.

Mexico has a strict separation of church and state. Priests and other clerics may not wear religious clothing in public. A notable exception was allowed for Pope John Paul II's visit to Mexico.

Church property is owned by the state in Mexico and leased to denomi-

Looney said he did not understand why the sudden order cancelling his programs, which have been aired more than a decade.

Back to the Bible officials had expected the action, they said, for almost a year and were not surprised but found the situation "serious and

Moonies to appeal court decision

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — The Unification Church says it will appeal a jury's $30,000 award to a man who claimed the church had violated his rights as a parent when it recruited his 16-year-old daughter and used mind control to keep her a member.

David Hager, the church's legal director, said Wednesday's finding was unprecedented. But he discounted its significance, saying the case dealt with parental rights, not the church's recruiting practices.

However, James Winston, the lawyer for Don Kieffer, who brought the suit in 1977, said, "I think at least 99 percent of the trial was directed to establish that there was mind control."

Members of the Unification Church, headed by Korean industrialist the Rev. Sun Myung Moon, are sometimes called Moonies.

Kieffer saw his adopted daughter, Jana, for the first time in five years when she testified against him in the U.S. District Court trial. The jury reached its verdict Wednesday after 15 days of testimony and five hours of

Kieffer charged that the church "denied his natural parental right" by recruiting his daughter when she was a minor. He also contended that the church "continued to exercise its mind control methods" to keep her a Jana, now 21, joined her mother, Gloria Kieffer Paradis, at the church's Barrytown, N.Y., seminary in 1975. Church officials said they were not aware that the Kieffers were divorced and that Jana was in her father's custody. Kieffer adopted Jana, a child of his wife's first marriage, before the divorce.

"It was an argument over the facts, whether the church had knowledge" of the custody arrangement, Hager said. Mrs. Paradis is a member of the Hager said the case should not affect any other civil suits against the church because none deal with minors who joined without parental consent. He said minors constitute "less than one-half of one percent" of the church's membership.

He said the case would be appealed because it involves the issue of religious liberty.

However, Winston disagreed that the case focused on Miss Kieffer's age when she joined the church. "They said it was a legitimate religion, and we had to rebut that to show they are not a legitimate religion because of their recruiting techniques, their use of brainwashing and mind control,"

Although he called the award a victory, Kieffer said he would not be satisfied until his daughter returned home.

"I feel good about the decision, but I still feel badly that Jana is not back with her family," said Kieffer, who lives in Bedford, N.H., and works for a shoe manufacturer.

"I would give up everything to have her back."

On Aug. 20, Miss Kieffer, who was living with relatives in Concord when she left to join the church, testified that she didn't think "brainwashing"

"You can't control somebody's mind," she said. "That's ridiculous." Miss Kieffer also testified the church had taught her that "evil is selfish motivation, good is unselfish motivation." She called her father

But Kieffer said, "I'm still hopeful of reconciliation, of bringing her home to her family. And that's my next goal."

In a statement issued Thursday, Allan A. Ryan Jr., head of the Justice Department's Office of Special Investigations, said the government would soon ask a federal judge in Detroit to sign the formal order revoking Trifa's citizenship. GOP fund challenge tossed out

WASHINGTON (AP) - A three-judge federal court has rejected suits to block plans by independent 'political committees to raise millions of dollars to support the presidential campaign of Republican Ronald Res-

In two brief orders Thursday, without writ ten opinions, the court turned down challenges by the Federal Election Commission and Common Cause It said the decisions were expedited because of the nature of the case and that written explanations will follow

The FEC had asked the court to uphold the constitutionality of a portion of the campaign financing law that prohibits unauthorized political ommittees from spending more than $1,000 on behalf of candidates who accept public financing

Common Cause, while joining in the constitutionalty challenge, contended in a separate suit that the committees were not truly independent because their activities and officials were closely related to the Reagan campaign.

It was unclear whether the court, in the FEC case, had found the law unconstitutional or decided it was inapplicable to the case. The committees had contended that the $1,000 limit did not apply to committees which are independent of the candidate.

In the Common Cause case, the court dismissed the question about the committees' independence for lack of jurisdiction. The committees had contended that challenges to their independence would have to be made first to the FEC.

The FEC went to court for a constitutional ruling after the Democratic National Committee and President Carter's reelection campaign complained that the Reagan campaign should not get public financing if it was to benefit from money raised by independent committees established by prominent Republi-

Alamo 'Y' offers gym classes for younger folk

Alamo YMCA is offering gymnastic classes for ages 2 to 16. The classes are designated by student age and ability and are designed to "meet the challenges of the 1980s.

Students share learning experiences that enable them to develop decipline while achieving new skills," physical director Guy Fish said.

The beginner gymnastics class is designed to teach fundamental skills in tumbling, trampoline, uneven bars and balance beam, Fish said. By the end of each four-week session, gymnasts form these skills into routines on each event and may compete with other beginner-level gymnasts, he said.

Intermediate gymnastics is designed to teach more difficult skills on all events, as well as more difficult routines. These gymnasts may also compete with each other at the meet ending each four-week session. Gymnasts may advance to this class only by recommendation of the coaching staff.

Advanced gymnastics will increase in difficulty in all phases. Students will learn the national competitive routines and will be prepared for area competi-

Registration for classes will be Sept. 2-8. Boston remains 'troubled'

By DANIEL Q. HANEY

BOSTON (AP) - When court-ordered busing began in 1974, the code word for Boston schools was "troubled." The label is still appropriate - this time because of a budget crisis, a teachers' strike threat and the firing of the school superintendent.

When schools open Wednesday for Boston's 65,000 public school students, they will be run by a temporary chief administrator, no budget will be in effect, and teachers may be off the job. Busing, which has brought sporadic violence, is in the back-

The latest imbroglio surfaced two weeks ago when the Boston School Committee fired Robert C. Wood, school superintendent for two years.

Wood, 56, is a former secretary of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development and former president of the University of Massachusetts. His hiring broke with the tradition of promoting from within, and some fear his departure will disrupt efforts to upgrade the schools.

The schools are run by the School Committee, a five-member, unpaid board that has long been a stepping stone in politics. Two moderate members gave up seats in the last election, one after an unsuccessful bid for the U.S. Senate and the other to run in vain for mayor. Their replacements made for a new, more conservative panel.

Wood had riled some long-time school employees by hiring young, idealistic out-of-towners to help run

'There's been trouble here between members of the old guard and the new guard," said Mary Ellen Smith, a Wood aide who is leaving voluntarily. 'Some of the new people flaunted their authority and refused to try to work with people who have been here for years and years. They showed a lot of

The movement to oust Wood seemed to gain strength Aug. 7, when the committee rejected his choice of an outsider to run a new $35 million vocational center. Wood angrily walked out of the meeting

Committee President John J. McDonough described that action as "really bush." But he said Wood was fired because he built up an $18 million budget deficit. McDonough denies Wood's claim that he was a victim of patronage politics. 'We we're busting up an old network," Wood said. "Now I see it going back to the old patronage ways. The new committee is really old politics."

At a news conference preceding a rally in Portland, Maine, the Republican vice presidential nominee told reporters the hostages were languishing in the Persian Gulf nation because of Carter's "failed foreign policy.

But when asked what he would do to win their release, the former United Nations ambassador replied: "I have no specific answer, nor am I empowered to come up with one."

During his unsuccessful campaign for the GOP presidential nomination, Bush had repeatedly assailed Carter's efforts on behalf of the hostages, taken captive by militant Islamic students last Nov.

Bush, preparing for an intensive campaign schedule, also accused Carter of making a "shambles" of the nation's economy

He said Carter's proposed $27.6 billion tax cut would represent little in the way of savings for the typical American worker earning $15,000 a year. But Bush also said he did not know the impact on that same worker of Ronald Reagan's economic pro-

Palestinian families moved

JERUSALEM (AP) - Israel ordered three Palestinian families out of their homes in Arab East Jerusalem adjacent to the new office building Prime Minister Menachem Begin is to occupy, officials said

Political observers interpreted the order as a sign that Begin intends to move into his new office in the Arab sector despite protests from the United States and the diplomatic storm over Israel's new law declaring Jerusalem its undivided capital

In Cairo the Egyptian government said it will not resume the Palestinian autonomy talks unless U.S. envoy Sol Linowitz convinces Israel to change its stance on Jerusalem.

The statement published Friday in the semi-official newspaper Al Ahram came on the eve of Linowitz's visit to Egypt and Israel to negotiate a return to the bargaining table. Egypt suspended the talks earlier this month to protest the Jerusalem

'The success of the Linowitz mission in the region is hinged on his success in changing the Israeli rigid stance that imposed a fait accompli (the Jerusalem law) during the negotiation process," the newspaper quoted a government official as saying.

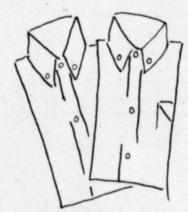

"But the mere call for resuming the talks as if the negotiations are a target in themselves would be productive only if Washington adopted a new policy for pushing forward the peace process," it said. In other developments:

An Israeli court sentenced an Arab from the ccupied West Bank of the Jordan River to 25 years in prison for terrorism, and police worked to stop a spate of small terrorist bombings this week in southern and central Israel.

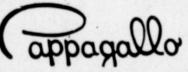

-In Kuwait, Palestinian guerrilla leader Yasser Arafat said this week's dogfight between Syrian and Israeli jets heralds an escalation of conflict not only in southern Lebanon, but in the entire Middle East, according to the Kuwait newspaper Al-Qabas. Israeli jets shot down a Syrian MiG jet Sunday over southern Lebanon.

-Egyptian Vice President Hosni Mubarak arrived in Bonn, West Germany, on the first step of a lengthy European visit to discuss Middle East developments.

Chuck Fusina leads Bucs over 'Skins

By The Associated Press

Tampa Bay reserve quarterback Chuck Fusina scored a fourth-quarter touchdown and the Buccaneers benefitted from a pair of safeties to post an 11-6 National Football League preseason victory over the Washington Redskins Friday night.

Fusina, a second-year pro from Penn State, directed a 59-yard scoring drive in the waning minutes and ran the final four for a touchdown which gave the Bucs a 9-6 lead with 3:34 remaining. Highlighting the drive was a 31-yard pass to wide receiver Danny Buggs and a 10-yarder to tight end Jim O'Bradovich.

Tampa's other scores both came on safeties as Redskins punter Mike Connell's chased down bad snaps from center and was tackled in the end zone.

Washington took a 6-0 lead in the second quarter on field goals of 32 and 42 yards by Mark Moseley. The Bucs closed the margin to 6-2 in the third period when Redskins center Ted Fritsch, centering from the Tampa 47-yard line, hiked the ball over Connell's head. The Washington punter raced back, picked the ball up at his own 18 and ran into the end zone.

Fusina's touchdown put the Bucs ahead and the second safety with a minute left made it 11-6. On that play Fritsch hiked the ball from the 37, Connell ran it down at the three and ran into the end zone.

Tampa Bay improved its preseason record to 3-1, while Washington dropped to 3-1.

Dolphins 20, Saints 0

Bob Griese and both of his understudies led scoring drives, and a fierce defense kept New Orleans off the scoreboard, as the Miami Dolphins whipped the Saints 20-0 in a National Football League exhibition game Friday night.

Griese was at quarterback for 10 of the Dolphins' points. He engineered a drive that led to a 41-yard first-quarter field goal by Uwe von Schamann. Running back Delvin Williams capped a 10-play, 58-yard secondquarter drive with a 1-yard burst for a touchdown with Griese at the throt-

Griese hit 8-of-11 passes for 141 yards.

Rookie David Woodley directed a 64-yard, 4-play drive, capped by an 11-yard touchdown pass to rookie receiver Elmer Bailey. The final Dolphins score came with Don Strock at quarterback in the fourth quarter. That drive covered 83 yards in 12 plays and ended with a 27- ard field by von Schamann.

Falcons 41, Colts 7

Rookie Reggie Smith's 96-yard return with the opening kickoff triggered an explosion that saw Atlanta build a 41-7 lead before the Falcons held on for a 51-35 National Football League preseason victory over the Baltimore Colts Friday night.

The Colts' comeback was keyed by 12-year veteran Greg Landry, who threw four touchdown passes and scored one after entering the game midway through the second quarter.
Landry completed 25 of 42 passes for 353 yards for the Colts, 2-2.

Smith, from North Carolina Central, ripped up the middle of the field on his kickoff return, reaching the Atlanta 30 before he headed for the right sideline and raced the distance.

The Falcons, 1-2, took advantage of a 42-yard pass interference infraction at the 1 to set up a touchdown plunge on the next play by Lynn Cain to take a 14-0 lead after less than five minutes had elapsed.

Quarterback Steve Bartkowski then fired touchdown passes of 29 yards to Cain and 5 yards to Midland's Junior Miller before Baltimore finally got on the scoreboard on Landry's 4-yard toss to Reese McCall.

Landry's other touchdown passes were 8 and 17 yards to Ray Butler and 28 yards to Roger Carr. He scored on a 3-yard keeper.

Seahawks 30, Patriots 23

Quarterback Jim Zorn returned to the Seattle Seahawks lineup Friday night and directed his team to a 30-23 National Footbal League exhibition finale victory over the New England Patriots.

Zorn, who missed two preseason games because of an injured left knee, completed 13-of-24 passes for 139 yards and one touchdown in an aerial battle with Patriot quarterback Steve Grogan.

Grogan was 14-of-30 for 266 yards and two touchdowns, both to tight end Russ Francis.

The victory allowed the Seahawks to finish with a 3-1 record in preseason play, while New England wound up 1-3.

New England took a 10-0 lead in the opening quarter as Grogan completed a 2-yard touchdown pass to Francis and John Smith booted a 42-yard field

The Seahawks came back to score on a 2-yard pass from Zorn to tight end John Sawyer in the opening quarter.

After a 31-yard field goal by Smith, the Seahawks went ahead on a pair of touchdowns by Jeff Moore and a career-record field goal of 53 yards by Efren Herrera. Moore scored from two and three yards out as Seattle scored 17 of its points in the second quarter.

Pass defense, fumbles mar Purple Pack's performance

By BOB DILLON Sports Writer

SAN ANGELO — "We've got an awful long way to go before we are a competitive football team," said new Midland High goach Pat Culpepper following a 2-2 Mexican standoff with the Brownwood Lions on the Angelo State University campus Friday night.

The scrimmage sets the stage for the season opener Friday in Amarillo against Tascosa's Rebels.

Midland tailback Jerry Zachery had a brilliant night running by picking up 218 yards in 28 carries, but the 200-pound senior also coughed up the football three different times. "We've got to learn to tuck the ball in after we get hit or we are in deep trouble," Culpepper said afterwards.

On one drive, the Bulldogs went 75 yards only to lose the ball on a fumble and the Lions alertly took advantage of six MHS turnovers.

"We did hit hard on defense, but our secondary needs a lot of work. Brownwood burned us good on deep patterns and I would imagine Tascosa will use of crossing patterns against us Friday after watching our poor pass defense."

Midland opened the scrimmage by putting the ball into play on their own 20 and then drove to the Lion 10 only to lose the ball. Besides fumbling away the football four times, quarterback Michael Feldt also had two passes intercepted by Brownwood's Greg Williams and Terry Wilde.

On the plus side, Feldt played both ways on offense and defense and really stood out at the free safety slot for the Bulldogs. The gifted senior made several key hits in the secondary and ran well in testing a knee that was hurt last year.

The Bulldogs' secondary got burned early in the scrimmage when quarter-back Tim Oehalen hit Bill Donahugh with an 80-yard TD bomb on its first possession. Oehalen also hit Williams with a 17-yavd touchdown for a 2-0 lead before the Bulldogs scored. Gene Gibson was another of Oehalen's favorite targets during the scrimmage.

Elston Montgomery, Gary Willis, Lance Langford, Feldt, Scott Yocham and Matt Carr stood out on defense for Culpepper's crew. On Brownwood's third possession, Carr knocked Mark Campbell loose from the ball with Montgomery recovering for MUC

While Zachery gained 218 yards, fullback Johnny Garza and Yocham also ran well and Feldt picked up some key gainers.

Midland pretty well shut down the run, but the pass was something

Zachery's four-yard touchdown run capped a 70-yard TD drive for Midland to cut the Brownwood lead to 2-1, but the Lions cranked up and marched all the way to the Bulldog eight where Gibson dropped a sure TD pass from Oehalen. The ball was moved all the way back to the Lion 30 where Langford pulled off his heroics. He picked off a swing pass and returned it 30 yards for the second Midland score to tie the scrimmage at 2-2.

The Midland Bullpups took a 3-0 win in the junior varsity scrimmage with Wesley Williams, Scott Sears and David Nelson standing out. In fact, Williams broke for 75 yards and a TD on Midland's first possession. He also had a short four-yard TD run and Sears dialed Nelson's number for the third TD on the final play of the scrimmage from 17 yards out.

Mustangs stun Lee Rebels with 5-1 scrimmage victory

By GEORGE FOULSHAM City Editor

ANDREWS — If pre-season football scrimmages are to be used to learn lessons from your mistakes, the Midland Lee Rebels must have learned quite a bit here Friday night as the Andrews Mustangs coasted to a surprisingly easy 5-1 win over the Rebels in a controlled scrimmage that got a bit out of control as the evening wore

It was the 1980 competitive debut for first-year Coach Spike Dykes' 5-A Rebels, who open the season next Friday night at home against the always powerful Killeen Kangaroos. Andrews, one of the favorites for the District 2-4A title, also opens it 1980 season next Friday night at home against Seminole.

"Well, we learned where and what we need to work on," understated Dykes after the 2½-hour workout. "That's what these scrimmages are for — to find out what you need to work on before the season starts.

"Obviously, we need to work on our tackling," he added in another understatement. "We're just not tackling well at all right now."

Defense, or lack of it late in the scrimmage, did seem to be the Rebs' biggest problem. After staying close for most of the evening, Andrews broke it open with three straight touchdowns within minutes to blow the "game" away. All three scores were set up by big plays and, not surprisingly, all were breakaway runs.

The Mustangs feature the proverbial stable of good running backs, led by super sprinter Van Pearcy. The 6-2, 180-pound senior tailback stirred the quiet crowd with a 40-yard touchdown run around right end, breaking two tackles rather impressively en route, to make it 3-1 and signal the start of the romp.

Moments later, the Mustangs scored again, this time on a 63-yard wingback counter run by Marty Keesee.

Andrews made the final 5-1 on a 1-yard squeeze by starting fullback Ruben Acosta. Acosta's run was set up by two impressive open field runs by Andrews' "other backs" — Bill Daniels and Brent Petross. Petross' contribution was a 29-yard run, while Daniels, a transfer from Big

Earl Weaver decides to serve suspension over weekend

BALTIMORE (AP) — Baltimore Manager Earl Weaver decided Friday to begin serving a three-day suspension for a run-in with umpires two weeks ago.

An announcement by the Orioles said Weaver would sit out the remaining three games of a weekend series with the California Angels. He is allowed in the stadium for the games but cannot go into the dugout or onto the field.

the field.

The team also said Weaver had dropped the appeal of the suspension, which had been ordered last week by American League President Lee AacPhail.

It was the third suspension in Weaver's career as manager of the Orioles and his second in the last two seasons.

John Blake, an Oriole spokesman, said third base Coach Cal Ripken was expected to run the team in Weaver's absence. Blake also said Weaver would pay a fine to the league office soon.

MacPhail suspended and fined Weaver an undisclosed amount in connection with a rhubarb during the Orioles' game with the New York
Yankees Aug. 16.

Lake who joined the Mustangs only a week ago, had a tough 13-yard carry to the 1.

"It was impressive, wasn't it," beamed Andrews Coach Bill Shipman. "That Pearcy can really run." Pearcy finished the night with 82 yards on nine carries and two touchdowns.

It wasn't all bad news for the Rebels. Quarterback Barry Corley looked sharp, both running and passing. The senior guided his team 65 yards in 12 plays on Lee's second possession for a touchdown, the score coming on a 5-yard pass to tight end Terry Thompson.

Other big plays in that drive were a 15-yard scramble by Corley, a 12-yard run by junior fullback Calvin Riggs and a 10-yard pass completion to wide receiver Kenneth Brown, also a junior.

Andrews tied it at 1-1 against Lee's first team defense as quarterback Keith Brooks led the Mustangs 65 yards in 11 plays, pitching out at the last second to Pearcy on a 5-yard run to get the touchdown.

Both teams then went to second units on offense and defense. The Rebels, with junior Bart Ryan at quarterback, were able to produce only one first down in six possessions. Ryan, however, did complete two out of three passes for 20 yards. Corley completed five of eight passes for 64 yards.

Andrews' second team offense scored the go-ahead touchdown when junior quarterback Kyle Longley rolled left out of the pocket and threw a bomb to senior end David Smartt that went for 64 yards and the score that put the Mustangs ahead to stay. Leading the defense for Lee was left

Leading the Mustangs ahead to stay.
Leading the defense for Lee was left tackle Barry Crowder, a 200-pound senior. Other defensive stars for the Rebels were linebacker David Cornelius, Riggs and Clyde Smith. The Mustangs were led defensively by Marty Slaton, Rodney Lewis and Mark Petross.

In the junior varsity scrimmage, Andrews slipped past Lee, 1-0, on a 65-yard run by sophomore tailback Darrell Ray late in the contest.

Midland Cubs defeat Dodgers, but Gold Sox win

BY TED BATTLES Sports Editor

The simmering Texas League West Division pennant race boiled down to the final night of the season with Midland's Cubs facing a "must-win" situation and needing, at the same time, an El Paso victory over Amarillo in the final night of the regular season tonight.

The Cubs and Gold Sox remained in a flat-footed tie for first after both notched wins Friday night.

The Cubs squeezing the final drop of drama from every game as well as the season again held off the San Antonio Dodgers at the wire for a 9-8 win before 1,170 fans at Cubs Stadium Friday night while Amarillo reeled off its fourth straight victory over El Paso, 3-1, in the Border City.

Paul Semall, who will be married at 1 p.m. today on the pitcher's mound at Cubs Stadium, will take the mound at 7:30 p.m. in quest of his 10th victory and perhaps a second half pennant. Ricky Wright, 7-9, former University of Texas, hurler will go for the Dodgers.

The season's final night also will be Fan Appreciation Night.

There was high drama in the ninth inning Friday when lefthander Norm Churchill stalked out of the bullpen in to relieve the Cubs' Super Saver in recent weeks, Herman Segelke, with the score 9-7, one out and runners on second and third.

The southpaw got Tom Beyers, who yanked a two-run homer over the right field fence in the first, on a sacrifice fly to center. That left only Dale Holman to dispose of. Holman had walked, singled in the third, homered in the sixth and his two-run homer in the eighth had whittle Midland's 9-5 lead to 9-7.

Holman fouled off three pitches after the count reached three-two before Churchill whipped a swinging third strike by him to end the game.

For the Cubs, Tom Grant's bases loaded in the triple in the four-run third and Randy La Vigne's two-run double in the seventh were the big hits, but it was Dave Stockstill's run-producing single to left after La Vigne's double that drove home what proved to be the winning run, giving the Cubs a 9-5 lead at the time.

The Cubs took the lead for good with a bit of larceny in the sixth when Gary Krug doubled, moved to third on a bunt before J.W. Mitchell walked with two out. Krug and Mitchell then worked a double steal, Mitchell drawing the throw as Krug sped home to make it 6-5.

Brian Holton, going for his 15th win, got his 10th loss instead while Bob Blyth, who relieved starter Jon Perlman and worked two innings picked up his 10th win.

fine stop behind second in the third robbed Larry Fobbs of a hit and he, Mike Shepston and Scott Fletcher all singled in the third to set the stage for Grant's triple, a single that bounced over right fielder Mark Bradley's head and rolled to the wall. Tom Beyers had to come all the way over from center to field the ball.

Dallas Tornado coach resigns

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas Tornado head coach Al Miller says an inability to reach a contract compromise prompted him to submit his resignation after five years with the North American Soccer League team.

He said he reached the decision
Wednesday after two contract discussions with general manager Kent Kramer failed to "meet at a middle ground" on the new contract.

"No way do I want to leave here," Miller said Thursday, his voice cracking with emotion, "but this decision had to be made. It is a very complex and complicated situation. There has been a lot of misunderstanding, and a problem with communication."

A major area of disagreement concerned the Tornado's participation in a winter indoor soccer league, sanctioned by the NASL. Miller said he wanted more money for the extra games; Kramer said no.

"I made the gut decision that if I was going to stay on as the Dallas coach, I wanted to get reimbursed for the indoor season," Miller said.

"This game is not a money-making

"This game is not a money-making proposition right now," said Kramer, explaining the team management did not think it could afford the higher salary Miller wanted. "We made offers. He did not accept them."

Dodgers lose Smith

LOS ANGELES (AP) — All-star rightfielder Reggie Smith of the Los Angeles Dodgers will undergo surgery on his right shoulder next week and is lost for the rest of the season, the Dodgers said Friday night.

Smith injured the shoulder in his throwing arm six weeks ago. He was put on the 15-day disable list last week, and the decision to have surgery was made after a Friday evening examination by Dodgers' team physician Dr. Frank Jobe.

Because of his age, 35, Smith had said recently that he wanted to avoid surgery that might end his baseball career prematurely.

Dallas, Pittsburgh to set off sparks

By BRUCE LOWITT
AP Sports Writer

It's not the Super Bowl. It doesn't count in the standings. But whenever the Dallas Cowboys and Pittsburgh Steelers get together, sparks fly.

Dallas hasn't lost to the Steelers in an exhibition game in six years — but when the games count, it's a different matter. In that same stretch, with the standings or titles on the line, Pittsburgh has won four from the Cowboys including a 14-3 muffling last year and two Super Bowls before that.

Tonight's exhibition will no doubt gear up each team for its season opener, and each one of those will be a beauty — Pittsburgh taking on division and playoff rival Houston on Sept. 7 and the Cowboys visiting division rival Washington the next night.

Dallas goes into the game unbeaten in the preseason with close victories over Green Bay, Los Angeles and Houston. The Steelers, 2-1, beat the New York Giants and Atlanta and lost to the New York Jets.

The game will start at 8 p.m. in Texas Stadium.

"Sure I'm surprised we're 3-0," Cowboys Coach Tom Landry said. "We very easily could have lost any of the three games. But I'm satisfied. Winning is winning and it's very important for us to get off to a good start this year."

Tonight's other National Football League exhibitions are San Diego at Los Angeles, St. Louis at Chicago, Denver at Green Bay, Detroit at Cincinnati, the New York Jets at the New York Giants, Cleveland at Minnesota, Philauelphia at Oakland, and Kansas City vs. San Francisco at Tucson, Ariz.

In Friday night's games, it was Washington at Tampa Bay, Baltimore at Atlanta, New England at Seattle and Miami at New Orleans.
On Thursday night, Houston beat Buffalo 24-7.

The Steelers, who won't have to chase the retired Roger Staubach this time, will give the Cowboys' new quarterback, Danny White, a taste of the tough life in this Texas Stadium meeting. And Terry Bradshaw, his counterpart with Pittsburgh, will be out to prove that his marital problems aren't getting in the way of his game.

Landry said White has "had a good summer," particularly a week ago when he rallied the Cowboys to a 20-13 victory over intrastate rival Houston. "He did as Roger does in that game," Landry said. "That drive was very significant to this team."

It's not certain whether running back Tony Dorsett will play for Dallas. He has a deep thigh bruise. At fullback, veteran Robert Newhouse and second-year man Ron Springs will be battling for the starting job.

In Los Angeles, the great quarter-back battle enters its final round with Pat Haden and Vince Ferragamo dueling for the Rams' starting job. Haden was No. Hast year although he was injured midway in the season and watched Ferragamo guide the Rams into the Super Bowl. Coach Ray Malavasi has said a starter doesn't lose his job because of an injury, and each quarterback has performed admirably in the exhibitions so far

Texas Rangers 7-3 Friday night. The Royals' George Brett homered and doubled in five at-bats as his major league-leading batting average remained at .404. McRae hit solo homers in the first and fifth innings

four runs with a pair of home runs, a sacrifice fly and a single as the Kansas City Royals defeated the off loser Ed Figuroa, 3-8, drove in a third run in the seventh with a sacrifice fly and another with a single Brett followed McRae's first-inning homer with his 17th homer of the season, to right field.

Dennis Leonard, 16-8, held the Rangers to one hit over the first five innings before Al Oliver slammed his 16th homer with one out in the sixth. The homer extended his hitting streak to 12 games and improved his RBI total to 98.

Leonard gave up six hits and left in the ninth in favor of Dan Quisenberry after the Rangers scored twice, on an RBI double by Jim Sundberg and an RBI single by Mickey Rivers.

Angels knock Birds back

BALTIMORE (AP) - Rick Miller rapped a tworun triple and Freddie Martinez fired a six-hitter and outdueled 21-game winner Steve Stone in pitching the California Angels to a 5-0 victory over the Baltimore Orioles Friday night. The loss dropped the Orioles to 11/2 games behind

New York in the American League East following the Yankees 5-1 victory over Seattle. California's triumph snapped a five-game losing streak and gave the Angels their first decision over the Orioles in 13 regular-season games, dating back to July 1979.

Martinez, 4-6, completed his first game in 16 starts this season. He had a three-hitter entering the ninth, but gave up singles to Al Bumbry, Ken Singleton and Eddie Murray. Bumbry, who led off the inning, was erased when Rich Dauer hit into a double play.

Yankees trip Mariners

NEW YORK (AP) - Willie Randolph lashed a tie-breaking single in the seventh inning and Bob Watson capped a four-run rally with a three-run homer Friday night, leading the New York Yankees to a 5-1 victory over the Seattle Mariners.

Tommy John gained his 18th victory of the season with a seven-hitter, completing his first game since July 22

Randolph's game-winning blow, his third consecutive hit, scored fleet-footed Bobby Brown from second. Bucky Dent led off the Yankees' second against Rob Dressler, 3-7, with a single and was sacrificed to

Then, Brown lined a single to center but Dent was out trying to score on a perfect throw from Juan Beniquez to Larry Cox. Brown took second on the play and raced home on Randolph's solid single to center to give the Yankees a 2-1 lead.

Detroit defeats Brewers

DETROIT (AP) - Steve Kemp drove in three runs with a homer and a double to back the seven-hit pitching of Milt Wilcox as the Detroit Tigers defeated the Milwaukee Brewers 8-2 Friday night.

The Brewers grabbed a 2-1 lead in the second when Don Money and Dick Davis both singled and eventually scored on singles by Jim Gantner and Robin

But the Tigers took the lead for good with three runs in the bottom of the second off loser Bill Travers, 12-6. Rick Peters' single delivered one run and two more came home on Kemp's double

Boston extends streak

BOSTON (AP) - Carl Yastrzemski, Carlton Fisk and Dave Stapleton belted homers Friday night, powering the Boston Red Sox to their fifth consecutive victory, a 6-3 decision over the Oakland A's.

Veteran right-hander Mike Torrez, 8-12, and southpaw reliever Tom Burgmeier combined for a sevenhitter as the surging Red Sox fashioned their 18th victory in their last 24 starts, moving 12 games over 500 for the first time this year.

Yastrzemski put the Red Sox in front in the second when he drilled his 14th homer into the Oakland bullpen in right-center field. The blast pushed the 41-year-old slugger into eighth place ahead of Lou Gehrig among baseball's all-time total base leaders. Yastrzemski hiked his total to 5,061 with a single which triggered a two-run rally in the sixth.

Fisk lined his 14th homer just inside the left field foul pole in the fourth and Stapleton snapped an 0-for-15 slump with his seventh homer in the fifth.

Indians nip Chisox, 6-5 CLEVELAND (AP) - Miguel Dilone hit a two-run, two-out eighth-inning double and Jorge Orta and Joe Charboneau each slugged two-run homers to lead the Cleveland Indians to a seesaw 6-5 triumph over the Chicago White Sox Friday night. Alan Bannister and Rick Manning both walked against Chicago reliever Ed Farmer, 6-7, and Tom Veryzer got an infield single to load the bases before Dilone came through with his game-winning two-

Twins defeat Jays twice

TORONTO (AP) - A two-run homer by Rick Sofield and a solo shot by Ron Jackson in the second inning powered Minnesota over the Toronto Blue Jays 5-2 Friday after the Twins had taken a 7-5, 15-inning victory in the completion of a suspended game.

The Blue Jays opened the scoring in the regularly scheduled game with two runs in the first inning on singles by Alfredo Griffin, Bob Bailor, Garth lorg and Roy Howell, a balk charged to Geoff Zahn, 11-17, and Damaso Garcia's sacrifice fly

But the Twins took the lead for good in the second on Butch Wynegar's triple, Sofield's ninth homer of the season and Jackson's fourth homer.

Minnesota made it 4-2 in the third when Rob Wilfong tripled and scored on Ken Landreaux' sacrifice fly. Landreaux added an RBI single in the ninth.

ST. LOUIS (AP) - Dale Murphy slugged a two-run homer to cap a three-run rally in the fourth inning, and Gary Matthews added a ninth-inning shot to lead the Braves to a 4-3 victory Friday night over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Atlanta's triumph, its 10th in 12 games, spoiled the debut of Red Schoendienst as interim St. Louis manager. Schoendienst took over earlier in the day when Whitey Herzog was named general manager. The Braves, overcoming an early 1-0 deficit, scored all three runs in the fourth after two were

Rafael Ramirez triggered the uprising with a leadoff single. Gary Matthews and Bob Horner each grounded out, advancing Ramirez to third. Chris Chamblis then rapped an RBI single, and Murphy homered. Murphy's blast was his 24th of the season, pinning the defeat on Silvio Martinez, 4-9, the fifth loss in a row for the Cards right-hander.

Matthews added what proved the winning run with one out in the ninth when he hit his 17th homer of the season. St. Louis scored a run with two out in the ninth on consecutive doubles by Dane Iorg and pinch-hitter Terry Kennedy. St. Louis scored the game's first run on consecu-

Andrea Jaeger continues phenominal tennis rise at O

NEW YORK (AP) — Andrea Jaeger, tennis' newest wunderkind, made her debut at the 1980 U.S. Open an impressive one with a 6-0, 6-2 second-round victory Friday over Jeanne DuVall.

"I'm not going to put pressure on myself by predicting how far I might go," said the 15-year-old Jaeger, who had a first-round bye. "I'm here to have fun, gain experience and do the best I can." Jaeger's best was far too much for the 21-year-old DuVall, a baseline player with few attacking weapons.

Jaeger, her blonde hair bouncing around in two floppy pony tails, returned virtually everything hit in her direction with strong groundstrokes, occasionally venturing to the net behind deep approach shots. She won the first nine games of the match and was never in any trouble.

Also enjoying an easy second-round match was third-seeded Jimmy Connors, who blasted Butch Walts 6-3, 6-1, 6-3 in his second strong showing here. Connors won this event in 1974, 1976 and 1978 and is eager to keep up his string of successes in even years.

'Today's scores weren't close," said Connors, "but we played good tennis out there. Believe me, I was hitting some shots."

John McEnroe, who dethroned Connors last year and is seeded second behind Bjorn Borg, had a tough first set but then eased into the third round with a 7-6, 6-0, 6-2 victory over Steve Krulevitz.

Ilie Nastase, the 1972 Open champion but unseeded this year, looked tired and sluggish in the humid weather and lost to No. 7 Harold

Nastase, who was fined $50 for misbehaving in his first round match, was twice penalized points - once for an obscenity and once for throwing a ball at the umpire. He was fined an additional $504 Friday by the Grand Prix supervisor for twice throwing balls at officials.

Two other seeded men also advanced to the third round. No. 10 Ivan Lendl of Czechoslovakia beat Chris Mayotte 6-2, 6-2, 6-2 and No. 13 Brian Gottfried defeated Tim Gullikson 6-3, 6-2, 7-6. The afternoon matches drew a total crowd of 20,026, the most ever to watch a session of any tennis tournament - except Wimbledon, which sells grounds passes as well as stadium seats. The paid crowd was 17,- Jaeger's game is mature beyond her years, but there is still ample teenager in her. She's trying hard to achieve the right mix between 15year-old girl and touring tennis pro.

"I don't think I'm missing out on anything," she said. "I have a better life than any 15-year-old I know. I'm having a good time on the tour, I'm enjoying school, I have a good family and lots of friends. What more could any 15-year-old want?"

Still, life is not all fun and games.

"Tennis is now work for me," she said. "Once you turn pro, you don't just wear a T-shirt, goof around and do what you want. As a pro, if you have a contract to wear certain clothes, you wear them. That's being a pro, contracts and endorsements and all that.

'But the game itself, that's still fun." Jaeger, who was the youngest person ever to make the main draw here when she competed as an amateur last year, lost to the eventual champion, Tracy Austin, 6-2, 6-2 in the second round. This year she is seeded eighth and coming off a victory over Austin in the semifinals of a tournament at Mahwah, N.J., last week.

"Last year I didn't go out with a very positive attitude and I got killed," she said. "Now it's different. I think I've gone pretty far in a

Far enough to know the difference between the juniors and the touring

"The pros are so much more experienced, and that means so much," she said. "Juniors might get ahead against pros, but then they tighten up and lose because of a lack of experience. Even now I have that problem. Once I played Chris Evert Lloyd and when it got close, she just pulled away

Second-seeded Martina Navratilova, who struggled to a 6-1, 4-6, 6-2 second-round victory over Leslie Allen, observed that a new wave of youngsters, led by Jaeger, had made its mark on women's tennis and that the older players were getting "older and worse." Navratilova numbered herself among the latter.

'That's funny," said Jaeger. "I sure don't think Martina's getting any worse, or Chris. I think people get the idea that because juniors come up and do well right away, after they're around for a couple of years. Like Tracy — people consider her old because she's been around for a couple of years, and because of me. "But she's only 17."

Third-seeded Jimmy connors stretches for a return in Friday's action in the U.S. Open tennis tournament in New York. Connors defeated Butch Walts, 6-3, 6-1, 6-3. (AP Laserphoto)

Cards name Herzog as

ST. LOUIS (AP) — In a surprise move, the St. Louis Cardinals Friday named Whitey Herzog their general manager and appointed Red Schoendienst interim manager.

Herzog, 49, was named manager of the club June 8, replacing Ken Boyer, who was fired. Schoendienst, who managed the club for 12 seasons beginning in 1965, has been a St. Louis coach the past two seasons. "When Whitey Herzog was named Cardinal manager last June, we were aware we were getting one of the top managers in baseball," said an announcement from August A. Busch Jr., board chairman.

'But we also knew we were getting a man with total baseball experience, including significant experience in the front office. At the time, Whitey's

Herzog, who led Kansas City to American League West Division titles in 1976, 1977 and 1978, was fired by the Royals following a second-place finish in 1979

As Cards manager, he has guided the club to a 38-35 record. When he took over, the team was 18-34. As general manager, he takes over the general manager's post left vacant Aug. 18 by the firing of John Claiborne.

"Decisions made this season can have a very great effect on the team's performance in the 1981 season and beyond," Busch's announcment said. 'We felt it was critical to fill this position - one of the most critical in the Cardinal organization — as soon

"Luckily, Whitey was with the team already and, when asked, was more than anxious to serve as the team's general manager. Trevino fires blistering 64

ENDICOTT, N.Y. (AP) - Lee Trevino made up for a poor first round by blistering the En-Joie Golf Club course Friday with a 7-under-par 64 to share the halfway lead with three other golfers in the $275,000 B.C.

Tied with Trevino at 6-under-par 136 were Peter Jacobsen, who got his first Professional Golfers' Association tour victory last week, firstround leader Artie McNickle and defending champion Howard Twitty.

Jacobsen shot a 5-under-par 66 second-best of the day - to catch McNickle, while Twitty had rounds of 67-69. McNickle, who fired a 66 Thursday, shot 70.

"I three-putted the first hole yesterday," said Trevino, who had a lackluster opening round 72. "I didn't even go to the practice tee today. I just started over from my room about 15 to one, got my cleats and some balls and teed it up."

Gary Hallberg, Bob Murphy, Mike
Reid, D.A. Weibring, Andy North, Doug Johnson and Don Pooley were bunched in second place with 5-underpar 137. Bobby Wadkins, Buddy Allin, Dave Hill, Phil Hancock, Terry Diehl, Lanny Wadkins and Bob Eastwood clustered in 12th place at 138.

In all, 54 of the 152 pros who finished the second round broke par-71. The cut at 1-over-par 143 included 75 play-

Mark Lye, who shared the 18-hole lead with McNickle, skied to a 74 in his second round and was four shots off the pace at 2-under 140.

Trevino came within one stroke of the course record during a seven-birdie, no-bogey round. He rolled in birdies from 35, 15, 10, 25 and 25 feet, and he two-putted the 528-yard eighth hole after slamming a 4-wood shot to the green on his second shot. He birdied from one inch on the 12th hole

1980 tour with more than $326,500 in his pocket, Trevino said he hoped to add first-place money here - $49,500 and in the San Antonio Open to build his total to more than $400,000. But he added he was most interested in winning his race against Tom Watson for the Vardon Trophy - awarded for the lowest stroke average in 80 rounds of play.

'That's one thing I was conscious of today - I didn't want to miss the cut," he said.

Going into the tournament, which Watson skipped, Trevino had an even 70-stroke average to Watson's 69.94. Trevino won the award four straight years ending in 1974.

Jacobsen, won last week's Buick Open, said he was confident about the next two rounds.

"I'm playing ... like I'm physically psyched up and mentally I'm very relaxed — kind of flying by the seat of my pants," he said.

Carter, 30 years old and a former midget and sprint car champion, had the misfortune Thursday of hitting the wall after sliding in a pool of oil dumped from a blown engine in another car.

Unsers are very different, but Albuquerque is still

By SHAV GLICK The Los Angeles Times

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - The main tourist attractions in this largest of New Mexico cities are the Sandia Peak Tramway, the pueblo-type architecture of the University of New Mexico and Old Town, a 250year-old antiquity.

The Chamber of Commerce is missing a bet. Overlooked is an item that helps keep Albuquerque's dateline in the news.

Bobby and Al Unser live here. Bobby, 46, winner of two Indianapolis 500s, three California 500s and two national driving championships. Al. 41, winner of three Indianapolis 500s, two California 500s and one driving championship.

Their homes are west of town, across the Rio Grande from bustling downtown Albuquerque, on the remains of Route 66, that legendary ribbon of concrete that connected Los Angeles with Chicago back before there were freeways. Route 66 was the "Main Street of America" in the '30s and that's why the Unser family set its roots here. When cars came rattling and steaming across the great deserts of Arizona and New Mexico, the first garage they saw was Route 66 is all but deserted now. Interstate 40 carries the flow of cars through Albuquerque today and what was once Route 66 is now Central Ave. The Unser like it that way. Even if you know they live here, it takes a sharp eye to spot their homes -Bobby's on the south side and Al's across the highway.

There's an old white stucco building that looks as if it might have been a garage. A cement walk across a dusty parking lot, past a corral with spotted deer, leads to a rambling adobe-style ranch house, that's where Bobby and Marsha Unser live.

From the garage — it's the original one Daddy Unser built that Bobby has turned into a racing shop - you can look across Route 66 and see a wrecking yard of rotting cars. Leaning against a corrugated tin building is another sign: UNSER WRECKERS. Off to the right is a residence. That's where Al and Karen Unser live.

The wrecking yard was Al's principal source of income until he won the Indianapolis 500 in 1970. His check was $71,697.

"When I came home I gave the crew two weeks notice, locked the gates and that was the end of my wrecking business," said Al. The broken cars are still there, desert grass and weeds creeping up their sides, tumbleweeds their only attendants.

The brothers grew up playing, catching snakes, working on cars and brawling together in the desert. They are close yet their lifestylesare light years apart. Bobby is outgoing, confident to the point of appearing arrogant, a gregarious individual who wants to meet everybody, do everything and be in the spotlight. Racing's man in mo-

Al is quiet, introspective, likes nothing more than to be left alone. He shuns the limelight, preferring the company of his wife and a close friend or two to a party atmosphere.

Bobby's home is a racing museum. Pictures, trophies, helmets, racing paraphernalia line the walls, file cabinets occupy most of a giant-size den. Much of the time his home is an airplane. Bobby spent only 40 to 45 days here last year.

He tests and races exotic ground-effects cars for Roger Penske - winning three championship car races this year - and builds and prepares cars for Dick Ferguson (Formula Ford), Rich Galles (Sports 2000 series), son Robbie (go-karts) and himself (Pikes Peak car). And he is involved in 10 businesses - Clayton Manufacturing (dynomometers), XRG fuel additives, KYB shocks, Heublein (Ortega chili from Mom Unser's recipe), Goodyear (tires), Chevrolet (dealership in Phoenix), Chalfont Industries (Stop-a-Flat), SK tools for mechanics, Polaris snowmobiles and Farrah clothing.

"Bobby makes a personal appearance, either as a spokesman at a convention or doing a commercial, or a visit to a firm to chat with the personnel, nearly once a week," says Bruce Barnes, the Unsers' business representative. "Al, on the other hand, doesn't care for that sort of thing. Al represents only Polaris, American Motors Corp., Valvoline and SK tools. His participation is usually limited to appearing in commercials and putting their decal on his race car.

Al, when he's not testing Bobby Hillin's new longhorn car in Midland, Texas, or racing in one of CART's championship races, is either at home, restoing an antique car or swimming in his backyard pool, or at his ranch in Chama, in the northwestern corner of the state.

Although Al and Bobby operate on different wave lengths they remain fiercely competitive, on and off the race track.

Both are among racing's finest test drivers. It was Bobby who wrung out Dan Gurney's Eagle that broke the 200 mph barrier in the early '70s and he did the development work for the Penske cars that finished 1-2-3 in last year's California 500.

The brothers will match wits and horsepower this week in the 11th annual California 500 at Ontario Motor Speedway. Bobby's Penske and Al's Longhorn are the major threats to Johnny Rutherford's favored Midland Chapparral of Jim Hall in the $300,000

Tampa vs. Taiwan in LL series final

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) -- Tyrone Griffin, 12-year-old shortstop from Tampa, Fla., does drum solos with the bamboo chopsticks he was given by a player from Taiwan.

We tried to get them to teach us karate, but they wouldn't," said Griffin, who will suit up against Taiwan today in the championship game of the 34th annual Little League World Series.

Relaxing outside the dining hall in the Little League barracks area, Griffin looked at ease for a guy awaiting the biggest ballgame of his life. It was the same with his teammates, an all-star squad picked from Tampa's Belmont Heights Little

'It's nice to be here. Taiwan is pretty good, but I think we'll beat them," said the 5-foot-2, 95-pound Griffin, who hit two of the four home runs that helped Tampa beat Kirkland, Wash., 16-0 in Thursday's

TAIWAN, SEEKING its fourth title in a row, and ninth in 12 years, hit a record seven homers in a 23-0 semifinal victory over Canada.

Competition aside, the players from Tampa and Taiwan live in adjacent barracks in a wooded area overlooking the Little League field, where a crowd of 30,000 is expected for the final.

"They're nice. We play together," said Griffin. "We play with a little plastic ball, throw frisbees, play chase and things like that.'

When they leave the barracks area, the players? from Taiwan are followed by youthful autograph seekers. One Taiwan player printed up his own calling cards. "Shun-Chi Kuo, catcher, Little League Baseball team, Republic of China," say the cards, which also carry Kuo's home address and telephone

"They (the players) say they are proud and very happy to be here. They love mixing and making new friends," said an interpreter from Drexel Universi-

Tampa's pitcher in Saturday's final will be either Dr. Poo Walker or Dallas "The Junkman

Griffin wasn't sure where Walker got his nickname, but he knows how Brown got his and it has nothing to do with his pitching style. "Dallas keeps his room real junky and messy." Griffin said.

TAIWAN WILL pitch Shuh-Shin Li, who tossed a two-hitter against Latin America and had two homers against Canada.

'I never say I'm an underdog," said Tampa Manager Vernard Selder, whose players average about three to five inches shorter than the Taiwanese, most of whom are 5-5 or better.

"Just like they hit the ball, we hit the ball. They've got to throw to us and we've got to throw to them. We'll play ball," said Selder.

Last year, Campbell, Calif., lost 2-1 to a team from Pu-Tzu Town, Taiwan, in two extra innings. This year, Taiwan is represented by an all-star team from the province of Hua Lian.

"There are three teams (in Taiwan) who are very competitive, and we lost two games to them, Taiwan manager Ching-Con Hsiaw, said through the

Today's final will be televised live in Taiwan, beginning at 2 a.m. there. The game starts at 1 p.m.

Pittsburgh Pirates team captain Willie Stargell, currently on the disabled list, will provide color commentary for ABC, which will televise the game in the United States at 4 p.m.

In consolation games Friday:

-Pawtucket, R.I., defeated the team from the U.S. Air Force base in Madrid, Spain 6-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Steve Bergeron, the tallest player in the tournament at 6-feet and a lean 123 pounds. Pawtucket placed seventh and the Air Force team was eighth in the tournament.

-Al Gallardo pitched a three-hitter with 14 strikeouts in six innings to lead Des Moines, Iowa to a 2-0 victory over Latin America. Des Moines's Mike Straite snapped a scoreless tie with a run-scoring single in the top of the sixth, and another run scored on a throwing error. The victory gave Des Moines fifth place and Latin America was sixth.

Canada met Kirkland, Wash., late Friday in the third-place consolation game.

Flag football program ioins NFFL after meeting

After the first meeting of the Parks and Recreation Department's Men's Flag Football League, a decision has been made to join the National Flag Football League. Twelve teams have been submitted.

The league has created a common set of rules that will help bring cities and states together. The NFFL rules were developed from comparing rules submitted from 21 states and over 100 cities.

The new game is safe, offensive oriented and fun since more players can share in the passing, receiving and scoring.

The league's next meeting has been set for Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Parks office. The deadline for fees has been set for Friday, Sept. 12. The fee is $230 per team and the first game is scheduled for Se. .. 15. Officers will be elected

The league also is seeking officials for the games. Officials will be anid $10 per game with three games per night. For fund or information, call 683-4281, ext.

Man, 18, gets 40-year term

HOUSTON (AP) - An 18-year-old man has been sentenced to 40 years in prison after being convicted of murder in connection with the stabbing death of a 10-year-old boy. Christopher Goyes, 18, was sentenced Thursday by a state district court jury in connection with the Feb. 26 death of Aaron Harless, who died after being stabbed 17 times. The jury was escorted from the courtroom by Harris County Sheriff's deputies after relatives of the victim, upset with the verdict, hurled angry comments at the defendant, his attorney and the jury Prosecutors had asked for a life

Goyes gave a statement to police that said he and his brother Joseph, 16, returned to a school gymnasium after the victim and Joseph had exchanged words.

Goyes told police he held Harless while his brother stabbed him with a 2-inch knife. Joseph Goyes has been certified as an adult and is scheduled to stand trial in September.

"Forty years is not anything at all to make up for the loss I've had, for the pain and suffering he went through and my family's gone through," said Jeanine Harless, mother of the victim.

Hines' trial moved

CULLMAN, Ala. (AP) - A judge has ordered the rape trial of Tommy Lee Hines, a mentally retarded black moved from this racially-torn north Alabama community to Birmingham because of excessive news coverage.

Cullman County Circuit Judge Jack Riley said a change of venue was needed to guarantee Hines' constitutional rights. He said excessive news coverage made it impossible for

Hines to get a fair trial here, the site of his first trial.

Hines, 28, is charged with raping a white railway clerk in Decatur in 1978. His original conviction on the charge was overturned in March by a state appeals court on the grounds that he did not understand his trial proceedings.

A trial date is pending in Jefferson County Circuit Court in Birming-

Abscam jurors consider fate of Myers, 3 others

NEW YORK (AP) - The nation's first Abscam trial went to the jury Friday, with the panel asked to decide whether U.S. Rep. Michael Myers and three co-defendants had conspired to take a $50,000 bribe to help a fictitious Arab sheik with immigration mat-

That the Philadelphia congressman actually took the money was not in dispute - undercover FBI agents posing as the phony sheik's representatives videotaped the transaction,

Casino plans to open tables

STATELINE, Nev. (AP) — Operators of a bombed-out casino said Friday they would reopen some of their gambling tables, hoping to cash in on the crowds of curious the governor predicted would be drawn to the re-

A small section of Harvey's Resort Hotel-Casino was scheduled to resume operation Friday evening, offering gambling, drinks, meals and a

Guards were hired to keep customers away from areas damaged when an extortionists' bomb exploded Wednesday, doing more than $3 million damage. The area to be reopened, known as the old Lake Club section, was not affected by the explosion.

The hotel-casino has been closed since early Tuesday, when it was evacuated after the bomb and a threatening letter were found. The explosion came during an attempt to disarm the device after a botched effort to deliver the $3 million the extortionist demanded. No one was injured, and no arrests have been

Gov. Robert List predicted the explosion would make the casino more of a tourist attraction than ever, saying: "Knowing Americans love the bizarre, I bet it will be mobbed

Meanwhile, more than 50 federal agents, aided by Nevada and California officers, worked on tips received on a special hotline, interviewed ca-sino employees and looked into other clues, "trying to piece together a huge puzzle," said one agent.

FBI supervising agent Joseph Yablonsky said the key clue so far may be fingerprints lifted from the bomb before the explosion. He said agents were working to identify the prints.

Agents said they had no hard leads on the identities of two men and a woman seen with a van about the time the bomb was delivered by men posing as computer technicians.

FBI agent Bill Jansen said Harvey's employees on duty when the bomb was delivered were being interviewed, and some were being questioned under hypnosis.

Deliberations by the panel of nine women and three men began shortly before noon after U.S. District Judge George C. Pratt instructed them on legal issues. Over defense objections, the judge told the jury a defendant has "a motive to lie".

Accused in the three-count indictment charging bribery, conspiracy and traveling interstate to commit bribery were Myers; Mayor Angelo Errichetti of Camden, N.J.; Philadelphia councilman Louis Johanson, and Philadelphia attorney Howard Cri-

Myers was accused of accepting the money to influence performance of an official act, while the others were charged with aiding and abetting him in the commission of the crime.

If convicted of the most serious allegation, the bribery charge, each defendant could get up to 15 years in

The trial, which began in Brooklyn on Aug. 11, was the first involving six congressmen indicted on charges stemming from an FBI investigation code-named Abscam - for Abdul Enterprises scam.

Three videotapes and scores of sound recordings, all secretly made by the FBI, were played for the jury during the three-week trial.

The tapes, along with the testimony of convicted con man Melvin Weinberg and more than 10 FBI agents who worked on the undercoveer sting operation were the crux of the government's case.

The defense contended that Myers was just play-acting when he told the sheik's purported agents that he would help their boss solve an immigration difficulty. The lawyers argued that no private immigration bill was ever introduced.

The Democratic congressman took the stand and the defense went to great pains in an attempt to discredit Weinberg, credited with inventing the Abscam endeavor.

The government called Myers' testimony "split-personality nonsense." The bribery count included two subsections, one commonly called the bribery section and a lesser "criminal gratuity" section, which carries only a possible two-year prison term.

Pratt instructed the jury that they had to find Myers guilty of either subsection of the bribery statute in order to consider the conspiracy and interstate travel accusations.

SALE STARTS SATURDAY AUGUST 30

He also told the panel that if they acquitted Myers on the bribery charge, they had to clear the other three defendants of all the charges.

In concert stampede

in concert stampede

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) - About 20 people died in a stampede outside a concert hall Friday night in Maseru, capital of the kingdom of Lesotho, when police fired tear gas at a crowd of young people trying to force their way in, according to reports reaching here.

The South African Press Association said its correspondent in Maseru counted 18 bodies in the local mortuary after the stampede at the AMI concert hall and many other injured fans were admitted to the Queen Elizabeth II hospital.

The South African Broadcasting Corp. reported that "at least 20 people were trampled to death" in the stampede when the fans tried to push their way into the already full hall to hear a performance by a black singer from Johannesburg, Steve Ke-

"Eyewitnesses said the stampede took place halfway through Kekana's show," SAPA said. "The hall was packed with fans who had queued for hours before the start of the concert." The agency quoted the witnesses as saying, "Police inside the hall fired the tear gas into the crowd at 8:30 p.m. when the fans tried to force their way in."

and contract documents may be examined and/or obtained at the office of the City Engineer, City Hall, Midland, Texas.

A bid bond or proposal guaranty is to accompany the bid thereby guaranteeing the good faith of the bidder and that the bidder will enter into the written contract. The guaranty is to amount to five percent (5%) of the total bid and must be in the form of cash or certified check, issued by a bank satisfactory to the City of Midland, or a bid bond. If in the form of cash or certified check, it is hereby expressly understood and agreed that the City of Midland is given the right to retain such as liquidated damages. If such bidder without a such bid. The such bid is opened and before official rejection of such bid. or if successful in securing the award thereof, such bidder falls to enter into the contract and furnish satisfactory performance bond and payment bond. If a bid bond is submitted, it shall be executed on forms contained in these contract documents by a corporate surety authorized to do business in the State of Texas, and acceptable to the City of Midland. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a performance bond and a payment bond each in the amount of the contract, written by a responsible surety company authorized to do business in the State of Texas, and satisfactory to the owner, as required by Article 5160. V.A.T.C.S., as amended by H.B. 344, passed by the 56 Legislature, Regular Session, 1999.

The City of Midland, Texas, reserves the right to accept or reject any or all proposals or bids, to waive technicalities, to make any investigation deemed necessary concerning the bidder's ability to perform the work covered by the plans and specifications, and to accept what in the judgment of the Mayor and City Council is the most advantageous bid.
