Another Midland highrise coming Firm announces $18 million complex

Midland's highrise downtown office area will expand northward with the announcement today by Gifford, Mitchell and Wisenbaker of Paragon, an 11-story $18 million office and retail complex. It will cover an entire city block bounded by Marienfeld, Big Spring, Michigan and Lousiana streets.

Deniger/Adair Inc. of Dallas, developers of the project, said the most prominent feature of the Paragon will be a five-story atrium on the office tower's south side. Stepped in design, the Paragon resembles the pattern of the area countryside, once covered by oceans which left mesas and the famous Llano Estacado to the south. The Oglesby Group, Inc. of Dallas are the architects responsible for the unique design and said the building will be finished in soft gray-blue granite with reflective glass used extensively for energy conservation

The Paragon will contain more than 200,000 square feet of tower office space, 15,000 square feet of retail space in the atrium and a 5,000square- foot restaurant facility on level two of the atrium.

Inside the atrium, retail space will be built around a 10,000-square-foot open area where a variety of community activities, events and exhibitions

Adjoining the new complex will be a 440-car garage. Additional parking is planned across one of the streets.

With strong construction, the Paragon extends the progressive, futuristic approach taken by Midland forefathers who required shelter to last and make a mark for future generations, according to a release from the firm. It is being built to meet an ever-increasing need for space in Midland and incorporates many traditionally required features of building on the

Carter goes to Europe

WASHINGTON (AP) -- President Carter, leaving on an eight-day European trip aimed at restoring unity to the Western alliance, called today for the allies to present a unified front against Soviet aggression.

"I will be totally frank with you, as I will be " with leaders of the alliance, the president said in his statement for a White House departure ceremony. "The industrial democracies are being tested ... We must sustain world opposition to Soviet agression and not allow the Soviets to derive 'any permanent benefits from their invasions of a neutral nation."

The Western alliance has been shaken by serious disagreement over how to deal with turmoil in Afghanistan and Iran and the stalled Middle East peace negotiations.

Carter will meet with the leaders of France, Germany, Great Britain, Japan, Canada and Italy in Venice on Sunday and Monday in an economic summit conference that has been expanded to include a broad discussion of major international political issues.

"It will be an opportunity for Western leaders to consult on broad political and strategic issues at the outset of the decade of the 1980s," said a senior White House official who asked not to be identified. He said the sum-

"There is not a whole lot Mobil or ny executives say gasoline prices re- any other oil company can do to ease the motorists' burden of $1.25 a gallon," he said. Energy Secretary Charles W. Duncan Jr. testified that gasoline stocks have reached "near record high levels," up about 18 percent over May 1979. In addition, he said gasoline consumption is down about 600,000 barrels a day from last year. But, Duncan said, higher production costs and skyrocketing crude oil prices keep gasoline prices high. He said, for example, the overall average cost to refiners of crude oil in March was $26.88 per barrel, up from $23.63 in December 1979. He said the projected average cost in June would e over $29. 'Therefore, the existence of relatively abundant supplies is not likely to reverse the trend of increasing prices if crude prices and other costs are also increasing significantly," Duncan said.

It will be Carter's first trip abroad since the last economic summit in Tokyo a year ago.

He will go first to Rome, for meet ings Friday with Italian Prime Minister Franceso Cossiga and other officials and for an audience with Pope John Paul II at the Vatican on Satur day.

Before returning June 26, Carter will go to Yugoslavia on Tuesday, where he will lay a wreath on the grave of Marshal Tito and meet with that country's new leaders, and then to Spain and Portugal on Wednesday and Thursday, respectively, to show support for those emerging democra-

Security for the trip is extremely tight because of the wave of terrorism that has shaken Italy in recent years. About 8,000 seaborne police, carbinieri and Alpine troops have been assigned to Venice alone, with frogmen patrolling the city's canals.

Carter, who also will be protected by a large contingent of U.S. Secret Service agents, won't take a gondola tour of Venice because local authorities believe he would be too exposed to sniper fire.

Each of the 11 floors of office space can accommodate full floor or multiple tenants who have needs of 500 or more square feet. Floors range in size from 18,000 to 23,000 square feet. Office tenants will benefit from the atrium's retail occupants, where a variety of daily needs can be met in a Gifford, Mitchell and Wisenbaker was formed in 1972 primarily as an oil and gas exploration firm engaged in developing domestic properties. Based in Midland, GMW has expanded into various segments of the energy industry, and today has operations internationally covering exploration and production of crude oil and natural gas, transportation and marketing of crude oil and refining and marketing of petroleum products.

Hospital improvements OK'd

By SUE FAHLGREN Staff Writer

Midland Memorial Hospital Board of Trustees approved a $1,070,000 hospital improvement package Wednesday at its monthly meeting.

Authorizing the application for a certificate of need from the Hospital Finance Commission, the board approved construction of six projects. Included among the six areas for improvement are: A new labora-

Federal anti-pollution costs close to EPA estimates

WASHINGTON (AP) - The cost of meeting federal anti-pollution standards, once a hot debate in environmental regulation, has turned out fairly close to - and in some cases lower than - what the government predicted, the Environmental Protection Agency reports.

A study conducted for EPA by a private consulting organization found that capital investments by petroleum refiners and by the iron and steel industry to meet federal water pollution controls totaled less than half -in fact, closer to one-third - as much as the industries had forecast, and far below the EPA's own forecasts.

The study, by Putnam, Hayes and Bartlett, Inc., of Cambridge, Mass., said water clean-up spending by the pulp and paper industry fell between industry estimates and the EPA's higher prediction.

The EPA forecasts of the automobile price increases required by its emission standards of the mid-1970s were quite accurate, the study found, while some industry's forecasts were too high and others were too low.

tory area ($385,000); improvements to the physical and occupational therapy units ($140,000); improved linen room ($85,000); improved medical records area ($205,000); an increased medical library and doctor's meeting room ($190,0000); and conversion of a CAT scan radar machine to a body scan machine ($5,000).

Coupled with an anticipated salary cost of $60,000, the total package cost will exceed $1 million.

FUNDS FOR THE PROJECT are expected to come from warrants, direct loans or private contributions. No bonds will be sold for this addition, trustees said.

In a 21/2-hour meeting Tuesday, the board also appointed interim administrators to take over when hospital administrator Wayne E. Ulrich leaves. Ulrich's resignation does not officially take effect until Aug. 1; however, his month-long vacationstarts July 2.

In the interim before a new administrator is hired, two employees of Tribrook, a management consultant firm currently reviewing the hospital.

will take over the administrative duties.

Bob Bash will be operating administrator, while A.C. Buchanan, a former administrative assistant at the hospital, will be assistant administrator of operations. Together the two are expected to cost the hospital $17,-500 to 18,000 a month.

"It's expensive," said Roy Campbell, operations committee chairman, "but we feel it is necessary.

The board also approved hiring Witt & Dolan, a professional health care firm, to conduct a search for Ulrich's replacement. The Oakbrook, Ill. firm will be given input from the trustees search committee as well as make final recommendations to that committee. The firm will cost the hospital 30 percent of the new administrator's first year salary, plus expenses, to be paid upon completion of the search.

and demand is down, because the usual economic principles don't apply to their industry.

But the chairman of a Senate Judiciary subcommittee on antitrust and monopoly thinks the high prices stem from the "gouging of the American consumer.

Sen. Howard M. Metzenbaum, D-Ohio, adds that government decontrol of crude oil prices also keeps gasoline prices up.

Robert G. Weeks, a Mobil Oil Corp. vice president, told Metzenbaum's panel Wednesday that gasoline prices remain high due to crude oil costs, inflation and state and local taxes on gasoline sales and oil companies.

"Forces which are far stronger than textbook economics continue to dominate gasoline prices," Weeks said.

Texas Republicans, Democrats to gather

Republicans

HOUSTON (AP)- Texas Republicans, a vital factor in the upcoming general election because of the 26 electoral votes, apparently will go along with Ronald Reagan in their platform recommendations.

The state Resolutions Committee heard testimony Wednesday from spokesmen for and against the abortion issue, for the use of nuclear power and against the Equal Rights Amendment.

Later they were to listen to representatives of the Texas Farm Bureau, the Grain Sorghum Producers Association, the League of United Latin American Citizens, and spokesmen on Cuban immigration and the right to work law. The committee made it rather clear Wednesday that it would support an anti-abortion plank and showed a de-sire to support the use of more nuclear energy. Cecila McDonald of Houston, repre-senting the Texas Right To Life orga-nization, told the committee, "we need a resolution to the Republican platform to protect the life of those unborn children. We need to call for a constitutional amendment. We must have some law that will include the unborn child as a person, not as a thing.

Ray Balch of Houston, a teacher of government, asked the committee to scrap the anti-abortion plank because it could be "political suicide and also abortion is a moral question, not a politicial one."

He said, "the Right To Life people could care less if the Republicans win the election. They just want to get a major party to endorse their stand. Our party should take no stand on an issue backed by a special interest group that represents a minority of Americans.'

Local delegates selected in May at county conventions will be armed with resolutions approved at those half-day meetings. About 6,000 Republicans should be gathering at the Sam Houston Coliseum with 46 of those from Midland.

County Chairman Bill Shaner said he didn't expect to see much heat arise over the resolutions or in selection of delegates to the national convention.

Jimmy Carter's supporters outnum-ber those of Sen. Edward Kennedy at the State Democratic Convention but Kennedy forces hope to retain some say in party affairs.

The state convention with its 3,900 delegates and almost as many alternates formally opens Friday night and continues Saturday.

However, pre-convention activities began today with a meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee set for 5 p.m.

The major duty of the committee meeting is to canvass votes cast in the June 7 Democratic runoff primary. Possible changes in state party

Possible changes in state party rules may discussed. Nationwide, Kennedy's backers are urging a change in party rules to release national convention delegates from any pledges made to presiden-tial candidates at state conventions. "I am firm on this," said State Democratic Chairman Billy Gold-herg, Houston, an avowed Carter supporter. "I don't think we should do any tampering with party rules for the 1980 convention. I think it would be destructive and disastrous to throw out the decisions already made in the primaries."

Other sources predicted Kennedy supporters in Texas would try to offer the "open convention" rule change. According to reports from county conventions, there will be 2,462 local supporters of Carter at the state convention, plus 770 for Kennedy and 621 uncommitted.

Goldberg has predicted, on the basis of the county convention re-ports, that Carter will get 106 national convention delegates and Kennedy 33, with 13 delegates uncommitted. The way delegates sign in at the 31 state senatorial district caucuses Fri-day night will determine exactly the division of delegates between Carter and Kennedy. Both sides hope to win over some of the uncommitted dele-gates.

Bani-Sadr is still believed to have the support of Khomeini, the all-powerful kingpin of Iran's revolution, and as long as that backing remains he is likely to stay on as president. At the same time. Khomeini has empowered the IRP-dominated Parliament to decide the fate of the hostages, a move that could portend hostage trials. Ayatollah Mohammad Beheshti, the Moslem fundamentalist who heads the party and the Iranian Supreme Court, told a news conference Wednesday that Parliament probably won't take up the hostage issue for another month.

"For the time being the Majlis (Parliament) has a lot of things to do," he said, adding: "There is a possibility of a hostage trial, but everything depends on the Parliament.

budgeted excess of $5,671 brought an unfavorable variance of $117,942.

For the year, there is a deficit of $107,786 compared to a budgeted excess of $119,609, leaving an unfavorable variance of $227,395. When depreciation is figured into the variances, May's final deficit is $189,671 while deficit for the year is $698,186.

Robert Abernethy, assistant administrator in charge of finance, said the major expense contributing to the May deficit was surgery costs amounting $28,073.

Because this is the second month with a large, unexpected deficit, the finance committee recommended hiring an aide for Abernethy to study and control the problem.

"Right now," Abernethy explained, "its kinda hard to tell exactly where the expenses are coming from." He said he thought salaries as well as supplies were creating the unexplained increases.

Making a comparison to other area hospitals, Abernethy said MMH's costs were generally running higher. "In some instances," he said, "we're in pretty bad shape." But, he said, he wanted to find out why before making any changes.

"I, for one, do not want to go into surgery and say, 'Hey doctor, you're using too many supplies," Abernethy told the trustees.

Abernethy and Doug Scharbauer, of the finance committee, recommended hiring an assistant controller to make such an analysis and to act as an aide

The question arose at a special June 5 meeting when the trustees were asked by the media whether trustees were subject to the state law requiring open public sessions.

WASHINGTON (AP) - After two days of meetings, officials say Jordan's King Hussein and President Carter agree on the need for peace in the Mideast but continue to disagree on how to achieve it.

Hussein, leaving the White House on Wednesday, indicated he is keeping up his boycott of the Egypt-Israel negotiations on Palestinian autonomy, and Carter said, "we've not tried to change each otner's minds." "I don't think our vision of the end of the process differs a great deal from Jordan's," a senior administration official said. "There is really no disagreement about the need for a comprehensive peace. The issue is how to get from here to there."

Carter's way is to begin by having Egypt and Israel decide on a fiveyear plan for Palestinian autonomy. The president has declared his opposition to a Palestinian state.

Hussein reaffirmed his call for "self-determination," which is taken to mean a state. He said there will be peace in the Middle East only when 'the Palestinian people have their legitimate rights on their soil."

The king has joined with most of the Arab world and the Palestine Liberation Organization in rejecting last year's Egyptian-Israeli peace treaty as well as the autonomy negotiations

Despite the apparent conflict, the president and administration officials portrayed Hussein's first official visit here in more than three years as valuable.

"We understand better the U.S. position." Hussein said.

He also made a veiled offer of recognition of Israel as well as respect for its security.

Tax-evasion trial expected to go to petit jury today

The tax-evasion trial of Dr. Austin B. Tibbetts, 59, founder of the United Tax Action Patriots, is expected to be presented to the petit jury today for deliberation in Judge Lucius D. Bunton's federal court in Midland.

Tibbetts, former Midland osteopath who operated Lee Optical as an "eye doctor" here," has been indicted on six counts of failure to file proper tax forms and with criminally evading the paying of taxes for 1974, 1075 and 1976.

All told, the prosecution has presented 13 witnesses to bolster its case against Tibbetts, who now lives in Amarillo, and the defenses has called on six witnesses in Tibbetts' defense. Prosecuting the case is Assistant U.S. Attorney Wayne Speck. Shoring up Tibbetts' defense are attorneys Mark McClellan and Don MacPherhere. Describing Texas Republicans as a 'pretty conservative bunch," Shaner said that "we don't have far out left field resolutions.

"Now, I hate to say it's going to be one great big love-in," he added. The key issue before the GOP delegates will be energy, and resolutions will speak "against the rape of Texas" natural resources by non-producing states and the windfall profits tax. Before the convention officially begins Saturday morning, GOP delegates are asked to bring their cowboy hats and boots for the "Peanut Stomp" on Friday night. Here the Republicans can take out their dislike for the present Administration by pinning the tail on the donkey or throwing darts at the animal which symbolizes Democrats.Others can show their support for the GOP by buying a "Bury the Democrats" Tshirt.

Once the convention gets started Saturday, delegates will vote on who will represent them at the national convention and select a new national committeewoman. Mrs. Eddie (I'm Mad) Chiles is opting for the spot.

MIDLAND IS SENDING three times more delegates this year than it did four years ago, Shaner said. But because Bill Clements received an overwhelming number of votes from Midland in the 1978 gubernatorial race, Midland qualified for more delegates.

The delegate count this year is 46 for Republicans and 15 for Democrats Democrats will start their official convention Friday night (no kickingup-the-heels partying) and continue Saturday morning in the San Antonio Convention Center.

Amemdments in his defense.

A 3-year-old Midland girl was listed in serious condition this morning in Midland Memorial Hospital with a skull fracture after a fall off a flight of stairs Wednesday afternoon.

presidential candidate and who isn't. according to Democratic County Chairman Darrell Smith. About 60 percent of the 15 delegates from Midland are committed to Carter while the remaining 40 percent, including Smith, are uncommitted. However, at the Midland county convention, uncommitted delegates outnumbered those for Carter, 52 to 48 percent.

While most of the agenda for the Democrats admittedly isn't too exciting, Smith is going to stir things up by challenging party rules which require a party official to be removed for supporting candidates of another party

The problem, said Smith, is that "I don't think Billy Goldberg (state Democratic chairman) in Houston has a feeling for what Midlanders think.

HE POINTED OUT that if there isn't a Democrat running for an office, such as in the recent county attorney's contest in the primary, then Democrats should be allowed to support a candidate of the other party

And if Midland Democrats don't like their leaders, they should be the ones to remove the head people, not the state officials, Smith added.

"I don't want a bunch of automatons in the Democratic Party. We need people who can think and figure things out. It's a matter of conscience

Local Democrats will be pushing foradoption of their resolutions on deregulation of the oil and gas industry and support of free enterprise.

President Carter's people will be in control of the convention, the local chairman predicted, and "they'll exercise all the control they have."

Caucuses will be held by numerous factions including the Carter whip people, steel workers and Lesbian-Gay Democrats of Texas.

Camerman killed, 11 injured during 'Dukes' stunt rehearsal

LAKE SHERWOOD, Calif. (AP) -A cameraman was killed and 11 crew members injured when a camera rig tumbled over an embankment during a practice run of a high-speed chase scene for the CBS television series "Dukes of Hazzard."

Rodney Lee Mitchell, 31, of Hollywood was pronounced dead by Ventura County firefighters shortly after the accident Wednesday morning.

One crew member was critically injured and two were listed in serious condition at Westlake Village Community Hospital, authorities said.

Except for a second-unit director who refused treatment, the other crash victims were treated for minor fractures and cuts and released. Those crew members were not identified

The crew was testing several camera angles for a scene at the Lake Sherwood Ranch, about 40 miles northwest of Los Angeles, when the northwest of Los Angeles, when the accident occurred, Ventura County fire dispatcher Donna Coleman said. "They were running what would have been a high-speed scene to film later," she said. "The camera car lost control on a curve and rolled over a 6-foot embankment at least twice. They were probably going pretty fast."

The camera rig, described as a three-quarter ton remodeled pick truck, rolled over Mitchell and other crew member, Ms. Coleman said.

CBS spokesman Roy Guiver said the second-unit camera truck was filming stunt work.

"Dukes of Hazzard," now filming for its third season, is a series about a pair of fun-loving good ol' boys who seem to be forever fleeing stodgy and unprincipled lawmen and leaving a trail of wrecked vehicles in their wake.

The show has consistently been rated among the top 10 television shows and has been No. 1 in the ratings several times.

Group wants state tuition boost

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - A special citizens committee wants the 1981 Legislature to at least double tuition at state-financed colleges.

Doubling tuition, which has not been raised since 1957, would raise it from $4 to $8 a semester credit hour or from $60 to $120 for a normal 15-hour semester load.

The committee, which was created by the Legislature to study the financing of higher education, made its recommendation on a 10-0 vote

Historic home destroyed

ODESSA - Flames destroyed an historic ranch home south of Odessa early Wednesday morning, but Bessye Cowden Ward and her cats were left unharmed.

Mrs. Ward left her home at the Cowden Ranch about 8 a.m. Wednesday to feed her cats outside. She was home alone and said she left her washing machine running in the kitchen.

Five minutes later, when she returned, thick black smoke was pouring from the south door of the house. "It happened all at once," Mrs.

Ward told police. Two men who spotted the blaze three miles south of Odessa from the highway were unsuccessful in their attempt to extinguish the fire with well water.

The Odessa Fire Department received a call about the house at 8:20 a.m. It dispatched three fire trucks and three water tankers to the scene, but by the time they arrived, the fire was already too advanced to save the structure.

It also recommended on voice vote that legislators raise annual medical school tutition from $400 to $3,600 and dental tuition from $400 to $2,500.

None of the 10 members voting asked to be recorded against the proposals.

To offset doubling tuition costs, the committee proposed setting aside 10 percent of the increased tuition reve-

Fire destroyed the entire house except three stone columns and the Texas historic site marker on the grounds.

The ranch house, known as a showplace for invaluable antiques, was burned to the ground in a matter of minutes.

Firefighters spent more than two hours at the scene making sure the fire was completely out.

A fire department spokesman said investigators were not sure what caused the fire.

Speaker Bill Clayton offered the loan fund amendment, stating, "Texas taxpayers should not have to subsidize doctors who go elsewhere to practice.

the recommended rate was presented by former Chairman Frank Erwin of the University of Texas Board of Regents.

"The only way we're going to get doctors and dentists in West Texas and in our cities is to flood the market with them," said Erwin.

Tuition for non-resident and foreign students would be set at "not less than 50 percent of the total cost" of educating the students.

Taking the plunge

President Jimmy Carter's stand-by draft registration program earlier this week was moving rapidly toward final approval in the Congress.

That's good. We should never have dismantled the machinery for the draft. Without a peacetime draft plan at the ready, this nation was left precariously, perched at the mercy, virtually, of its enemies.

Now wisdom has returned and our elected representatives have chosen to rebuild the machinery of the draft, thus ensuring the United States' ability to respond swiftly and certainly to aggression or hostility.

Under the plan, an estimated four million young men 19 and 20 years of age will be registered for the draft in this nation. That registration process is expected to begin in mid-July and be spread over a two-week period.

Perhaps some of the young men of draft age in this country are wondering just why we have to reinstitute the draft registration process? We stayed at peace without it for several years. We might have stayed at peace for several more years without renewing the draft registration process, too.

But then we might not have.

Hostilities among some of the nations of the world have increased tremendously during the last several months and some observers claim the world has been closer to a nuclear conflict than it was during the Cuban missile crisis of 1962.

The Soviet Union's invasion of Afghanistan and the continuing hostage crisis in Iran also threaten the security of the nations of the world. To be able to defend our . own shores or to respond to a threat in another corner of the world quickly, the draft would be necessary.

The true purpose of the draft registration program is to deter aggression in the world, not to promote it. Use of military force should be viewed as an option, not a necessity, in dealing with world tensions and hostilities

But to be an effective government - to maintain and hopefully, regain some of this nation's lost prestige - we must have that option.

It truly is essential that draft registration be revitalized. Hopefully we'll never have to reinstitute the draft.

If reinstituting registration helps this nation to avoid that second step, it will be well worth the effort.

WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND Iranian's lives better under shah's rule

WASHINGTON - Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, glowering fiercely from his shaggy countenance, declaring his hatred for America and all its works, has staged a "Crimes of America" conference. It would serve the Iranian people better to hold a "Crimes of the Ayatollah" conference

OIL WAR? - The United States, the Soviet Union and the Arab oil powers are maneuvering dangerously near the edge of world war. Here's the ominous scenario:

Shall we say eight o'clock at my place?'

"You don't give me any choice. Oh mother, please forgive me. I'm doing it for you.

Now this is how the men in the office tell it: "Mr. Schlitz, I don't believe I will be able to finish the typing you want by five o'clock. Would it be all right if I call you at home when it is done, and then you could come over to my place and pick it up?'

"Miss Samuels, do you mind not leaning against my desk in that slit skirt? It's very distracting.

"I'm sorry, but these skirts are so comfortable in the hot weather. If you wish, I can pick up some wine on the way home so you can relax and study the report.

"I don't think my wife would approve of that idea. "Oh tush, Mr. Schlitz. You're entitled to a mid-life crisis like everybody else. "The offer is very attractive, but I don't believe a man should get personally involved with someone in his office.

"That's our business. I'll tell Mr. Carlyle your report won't be ready by tomorrow and the client will just have to wait. By the way, there's a big rumor that heads are going to roll next week. I hope yours isn't one of them. You're an awfully nice guy.

"All right, Miss Samuels. I'll be over, but I have to be home by 11:30. My wife is afraid to watch Johnny Carson alone.'

The real truth concerning sexual harassment in the office may lie somewhere between the two: "Miss Samuels."

"No reason. It just came out."

"Okay. I'm free Friday night."

Today is Thursday, June 19, the 171st day of 1980. There are 195 days left in the year.

TODAY IN HISTORY

Today's highlight in history: in 1885, the Statue of Liberty, a gift from France, arrived in New York City. On this date:

In 1756, 146 British prisoners suffocated in a dungeon in India, which became known as the "Black Hole of Calcutta."

In 1862, Congress prohibited slavery in American territories.

In 1953, Julius and Ethel Rosenberg were executed in New York's Sing Sing Prison after being convicted of giving atomic secrets to the Soviets.

In 1964, Sen. Edward Kennedy, a Massachusetts Democrat, was seriously injured in a plane crash in Massachusetts that killed two other people.

Ten years ago, the Soyuz 9 spacecraft landed in the Soviet Union, setting the record for the longest manned space flight at 17 days, 16 hours, 59 minutes.

Five years ago, U.N. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim opened the first major world conference on the status of women, in Mexico City.

Applying the guidelines of the United Nations Human Rights Commission, here is a list of the ayatollah's human rights violations:

- He has ordered hundreds of summary executions; the secret death list is known to exceed 1,000. His victims have been political opponents and religious violators, ranging from dissidents to prostitutes to homosexuals. They have been accused at whim and tried before revolutionary councils without regard for due process or defendants' rights.

- Last December, I charged that Khomeini had revived the shah's dreaded SAVAK secret police and that he had kept in power the shah's closest confidant, Hossein Fardoust, who headed the imperial inspectorate with authority over SAVAK. Khomeini has merely changed the name of the secret police to SAVAMA. This was confirmed by the Washington Post in a front-page story on June 7. SAVAMA, though not yet as cruel as SAVAK, has allegedly tortured its victims. There have been reports of beatings, cigarette burns, suspension by the feet and psychological tains political opponents just like SAVAK used to do. Estimates of the number of political prisoners vary from 1,500 to 17,000. Many have been held incommunicado for long periods without formal charges or trials. SA-VAMA also taps telephones and intercepts letters.

- SAVAMA also arrests and de-

Khomeini has encouraged religious persecution, which reportedly has become rampant. The religious minorities, such as Jews and Bahais, live in terror. They have been hounded and harassed. Their religious property has been seized and their shrines desecrated.

- He has also curtailed personal freedoms. He has restricted the legal rights of women, authorized searches without warrants often at night and barred freedom of movement.

- He has cracked down on press freedom, closing more than 40 newspapers and magazines he didn't like. expelling foreign correspondents whose reports displeased him, detaining and questioning newsmen, interfering with international telephone, telex and satellite communications. The ayatollah appears to be oblivious to the contradiction, as he commits the same crimes against human-

The Soviets, meanwhile, are expected to cross the great divide into oil dependency in a matter of months. In anticipation of this, they are closing in on the Persian Gulf. President Carter has warned that the United States will use military force, if necessary, to maintain access to Persian Gulf oil.

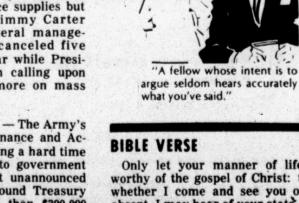

Thus armies and navies with hydrogen-headed missiles are already encircling the Persian Gulf. Strategists in the backrooms of the Pentagon believe war is inevitable. Indeed, it could erupt into World War III.

Yet this horrendous calamity can be avoided simply by pushing ahead, full speed, with the development of alternate fuels. But first, the politicians in Washington must break loose from the financia' grip of the oil companies. The threat of nuclear war ought to have priority over protecting the profits of the insatiable oil tycoons.

What the country needs is a Manhattan Project that will bring together the nation's best brains and industrial resources to find a substitute for oil.

WASHINGTON WHIRL - President Carter politicized the 1980 census by giving political loyalists the first crack at the jobs. The resulting national head count has been flawed by incomplete returns, inadequate follow-ups, staggering errors and widespread confusion ... Officials from more than one government agency have complained to my office that they are short of office supplies but have a surplus of Jimmy Carter photos ... Under federal management, Amtrak has canceled five trains in the past year while President Carter has been calling upon Americans to rely more on mass transportation.

WATCH ON WASTE - The Army's Washington (D.C.) Finance and Accounting Office is having a hard time accounting for itself to government auditors. On a recent unannounced visit, the gumshoes found Treasury checks totaling more than $300,000 strewn around the office, lying on the floor, scattered on desks and stuffed helter-skelter in drawers.

Such a record alone should ensure the ouster of Mr. Carter. However, regardless of how ineffective a president he is, the Georgia peanut man is a tough campaigner. He does not worry about fairness, misuse of his Oval Office prestige or any other nicety of high office. He is consumed with his own ambition, a street fighter of the toughest type - and he knows how to appeal to the riffraff that can ers can find a way to keep Anderson in the race, they will reap sizable rewards, and the rewards will be just as important if the president can be forced to accept Anderson in any

Anderson is quick with figures, convincing in his rhetoric and can fight in the streets equally and possibly more effectively than Mr. Carter can. He will appeal to the liberals Mr. Carter will need to win and he will appeal to the riffraff that never would vote for Reagan. This independent appeal will draw significant numbers of votes from Mr. Carter, particularly in the East, the Midwest, California, Oregon and Washington. And, while Mr. Carter might cut Reagan to ribbons in a one-on-one debate, Anderson would be more than a match for the president in any three-man encoun-

Reagan also had better find a way to avoid the sulking and the arrogance that permeated his organization in 1976, thus bringing about the defeat of President Ford. Already one of his top men, the very able Anderson Carter, has quit his campaign. Reagan aides also talk of "taking over" the GOP National Committee by putting in their own men to overrule National Chairman Bill Brock, who has been most effective as a party leader. Reagan needs a 100 percent united party, and if he doesn't have it in the September-October campaigning it will be his own fault.

Last, he needs to study national and world affairs between now and the fall days of vigorous and tiring campaigning.

He has proven vulnerable to charges of incorrect statements and his responses of "that's what I was told" will not win - or keep - votes in the main event.

Reagan learned his job well as overnor of California and left the state in far better shape than it was when he inherited it from Democrat Edmund G. "Pat" Brown eight years earlier. He would seem to have the capacity to do the same on national

While he is learning his lessons, he also had better learn to get tougher in his attacks on Mr. Carter. It was all very fine to be restrained, courteous and decent while running against fellow Republicans in the primaries. But, he will get no mercy from the president's low-blow attacks and he should be prepared to respond, not with dishonesty or street tactics, but with a vigor that will show him to be a potentially strong president in the eyes of the blue-collar electorate that applauds a man who fights back. Beating Mr. Carter is no easy task.

However, Reagan's chances are excellent - unless he engineers his own defeat.

Brunansky's four home runs destroy Midland

By TED BATTLES Sports Editor

Tom Brunansky, El Paso's young centerfielder, hadn't hit a home run since May 24 and after 23 games he was beginning to wonder if he'd ever hit another. He did and did and did and did, Nos. 9, 10, 11, 12, to set a modern Texas League, thus saving what otherwise would have been a dreadful game in leading the Diablos to a 19-9 win over Midland at Cubs Stadium Wednesday night.

What's more, he had all four homers in the first five innings and had three more chances at No. 5, but it wasn't to be.

Three of the blows went over the scoreboard in center while the final blast cleared the left field fence at the light pole. An inspection of the bat carnage revealed the 19-year-old from West Covina, Calif., had knocked in nine teammates and Tom couldn't remember ever having a game like that before, even when his Colt League team won the national championship.

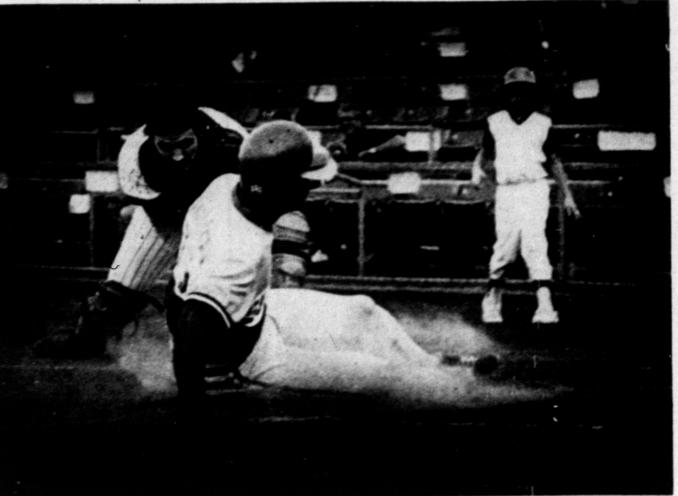

In fact, the last time he hit two homers in a game was a Lyman Bostock charity game at Cal-Northridge. After the game, he was still in a daze. "It just hasn't sunk in." His two-run homer in the first was off a slider and his solo belt in the second was an overhand curve, both off Herman Segelke, 4-5, and came with the flag limp. The three run homers off Kent Hunziker in the fourth and fifth both came off fastballs. By this time the wind was blowing.

AS ONE OF THE scouts in the stands marveled, "four homers and he didn't even get his uniform dirty.'

"I was thinking about when I came up in the second," Brunansky admit-

In his final two at bats he whiffed and was robbed when third baseman J.W. Mitchell went to the line to back hand his shot and make the play.

THE WIN GAVE El Paso a 2-0 lead in the series and moved the Diablos a game ahead of the Cubs in the battle for third place in the TL West Division with four games to go. Joel Crisler, 4-5, will be Manager Jim Saul's pitching choice for El Paso.

Midland Manager Randy Hundley was saved the ordeal of watching the 3 hour, 40 minute holocaust when he was thumbed by plate umpire Randy Knuths, Hundley's fourth ejection of the season. Facing minor surgery today, the Midland manager will be out of action for 10 days or so with former Detriot Tiger manager and Chicago's roving pitching coach Les Moss taking over in the interim.

Steve Brown, who has been a 2-1, 2-1, 3-2 loser this season, went eight innings to notch his seventh win in 13 decisions. He probably could have finished, but he cooled off during the Diablos' long ninth and Mike Walters (Adams). T-3: 40. A-427.

completed the game as Midland scored three times on five hits.

Every batter in the El Paso starting lineup hit safely for the second night in a row and Tom Bhagwat collected three hits and three rbi while Brian Harper poled out his eighth homer in the Diablos' five-run fourth.

Chico Alfaro, who had three hits along with Gary Krug, parked his fourth homer, a two-run job in the first, for the Cubs' lone roundtripper.

BRUIN BREWIN'S — Several players, of course, held the modern TL record with three homers and one of them was Charlie Moore, now catching for Milwaukee, who hit three at Cubs Stadium for the San Antonio Brewers in 1973...The all-time Texas League home run record for one game was set by Nig Clark, June 15, 1902, when he hit eight as Corsicana beat Texarkana, 51-3, however, that wasn't a pitchers' battle...Six of Brunansky's 12 homers have come in Midland. "Everyone on the team loves to play here because of the field and the lights." Tom notes.

With little more than a month to go, this pre-season preparation leaves him actually looking forward to training camp, the Siberia of the NFL.

Three Cowboy draft picks still are without contracts. Eighth-round choice Larry Savage of Michigan State, 6-2, 213-pounds, was signed to a series of one-year contracts. Gil Brandt, director of player personnel, said Savage was an outside linebacker prospect.

Norm Wells, a 6-5, 249-pound defensive tackle from Northwestern, was also signed to one-year contracts. Wells was a 12th-round pick in the draft.

Roberto Duran favorite of Montreal fight fans

By DAVE KINDRED The Washington Post

MONTREAL - This city that wishes it were Paris has given its heart to the fighter who wants to knock out the American hero.

"This whole town is pro-Roberto Duran," said Ray Arcel, Duran's manager, a scholarly, white-haired veteran of 60 vears.

"The reception Montreal has given Roberto is amazing,' Arcel said. "I was absolutely stunned to hear it. Did you see that thing yesterday? That thing in the Complexe Desjardin? They loved him there, and he loved them."

Maurice Chevalier, he ain't. But Roberto Duran virtually owns this city. "They love him here," said Freddie Brown, 73, Duran's curmudgeon of a trainer. "I thought Leonard would be the hero here, but Roberto has fooled them. That personality of his, it's getting through to these Frenchman better than it does to you Americans."

Here, then, is Sugar Ray Leonard, ethnic underdog.

Who would have believed it? A certain pleasing symmetry attended Leonard's return here. This is the city of the big bang that made him a star. And now, after 27 professional fights without a defeat following a gold medal in Montreal's 1976 Olympics, Leonard is back with the biggest fight of his life - against Roberto Duran, a certifiably great champion

Sugar Ray might as well be a tourist from Keokuk trying to order dinner in Paris.

There is some resentment in Montreal, said boxing writer Daniel Cloutier of Le Journal de Montreal, that Leonard's $3.5 million asking price for the fight made tickets so expensive that the ordinary boxing fan cannot see the fight.

"Most of the boxing fans are workers,"Cloutier said. "It is difficult for them to give $100 only for a fight. And a lot of Montreal peoples were shocked by the fact the fight was not on TV until a month later.

"The Montreal peoples don't know the box so well. If you brought in Antuofermo or Beni-tez, both good fighters, I don't think you can get a good crowd. But Leonard and Duran are big, big stars. All have watched Leonard and Duran on the TV. The peoples are more interested in the fight than in the Expos, who are winning every day." If Duran's appeal here is that

Fighters edgy as bout nears

MONTREAL (AP) - It's the calm before the storm for Sugar Ray Leonard and Roberto Duran. But the calm is not necessarily an easy one. The physical preparation is finished and it's a time of edginess for the fighters, a time to think about their highly-anticipated showdown for Leonard's World Boxing Council welterweight championship defense Friday night at Olympic Stadium.

"I just want to get in there and get it over with," said Leonard. "Leonard, two more days, two more days. Remember," snarled Duran Wednesday when the fighters showed up at the Place de Jardins to sign some required documents and to be unofficially weighed. Leonard, stripped to his shorts, weighed the class limit of 147 pounds. Duran, wearing pants and shoes, scaled 154. But after a workout Tuesday, he reportedly weighed about 148. The official weigh-in is at noon Friday.

Leonard did not answer Duran's taunts Wednesday. But when Leonard blew a kiss to the former lightweight champion as he was leaving, Duran leaped to his feet and made a slurring remark to Leonard. Leonard finished his workouts Tuesday but Duran sparred three rounds and skipped rope to conclude his serious training -Wednesday.

Pirates' Eddie Solomon victimized by bad luck, old team

By KEN RAPPOPORT AP Sports Writer

When he was with the Atlanta Braves, Eddie Solomon earned the reputation of a "hard-luck" pitcher. Now that he's with the Pittsburgh Pirates, nothing's changed. Solomon lost a tough 3-2 decision to Atlanta Wednesday night in the opener of a twi-night doubleheader. The Braves also won the nightcap,

Elsewhere in the National League, Los Angeles nipped-Montreal 8-7; San Francisco beat New York 8-5; Chicago blanked Cincinnati 7-0; Houston blanked St. Louis 3-0 and Philadelphia tripped San Diego 5-1.

Dodgers 8, Expos 7 Bill Russell hit a three-run homer to key a six-run seventh inning as Los Angeles came from behind to edge Montreal.

The Expos built a 7-2 lead after six innings for starter Steve Rogers, who left the game with a tender elbow. Stan Bahnsen took over and, after walking two batters in the seventh, gave up a homer to Russell.

Giants 8, Mets 5 Jack Clark belted four singles and scored three runs to lead San Francisco over New York. The Mets, losing their fourth straight game, committed four errors and had four wild pitches to help the Giants score three unearned runs.

Jose Moreno knocked in three runs for the Mets, one with a homer in the third and two more with a double in the ninth when New York drove John Montefusco, 3-5, from the game. Cubs 7, Reds 0

Jerry Martin hit a grand slam homer and Dennis Lamp and Bruce Sutter combined on an eight-hitter to lead Chiicago past Cincinnati. Martin's one-out blast, his 12th homer of the season, came in the seventh inning off reliever Doug Bair.

Lamp, 6-6, struck out three, walked none and yielded seven hits before giving way to Sutter with two out and two on in the sixth. Sutter shut the door on the Reds and went on to record his 14th save.

Astros 3, Cardinals 0 Joe Niekro pitched a six-hitter to lead Houston over St. Louis. The Astros took a 1-0 lead in the first with a run-scoring single by Enos Cabell off Jim Kaat, 1-4. They made it 2-0 in the third on Cesar Cedeno's RBI grounder and 3-0 in the fourth when Niekro hit into a double play.

Phillies 5, Padres 1 Pinch-hitter Keith Moreland belted a two-run double in the ninth inning to snap a 1-1 tie and trigger Philadelphia over San Diego as hot-handed Steve Carlton won his 12th victory of the vear.

Red Sox find themselves in happy rut

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON AP Sports Writer

The Boston Red Sox are in a rut. And, in case you haven't checked today's standings. they're also in second place in the American League East.

The rut the Red Sox are in is a nice one. They have rapped out at least 10 hits in their last 10 games and have won eight of their last nine in climbing from sixth place to second.

Wednesday night, they collected 11 hits in defeating the Seattle Mariners 6-2, but more important was the seven-hit pitching of Dennis Eckersley, who has turned in three strong efforts since missing almost a month with a sore back.

Elsewhere, the Texas Rangers trounced the Milwaukee Brewers 8-1, the Kansas City

Royals whipped the Cleveland Indians 10-2, the Baltimore Orioles nipped the Oakland A's 3-2 and the Toronto Blue Jays swept a doubleheader from the Chicago White 5-4 and 3-1. Detroit and Minnesota were rained out

Yankees 5, Angels 0 Ron Guidry fired a six-hitter to break a personal two-game. losing streak and Bobby Brown and Graig Nettles homered as the Yankees handed the Angels their eighth consecutive setback

Rangers 8, Brewers 1

Al Oliver blasted a three-run homer and Bud Harrelson drilled a rare home run, a tworun shot, to back the six-hit pitching of Doc Medich, who sent Milwaukee tumbling into third place in the AL East. Oliver singled a run home in the third inning, then knocked in three with his fifth-inning homer, his seventh of the sea son. Harrelson hit the seventh homer of his 14-year major league career, and his first since 1977, in the sixth. "It was a weird feeling," said the 37-year-old Harrelson, who was batting only .182. "I get one. of those every 1,500 times at bat. I don't believe it. In fact, I've never seen one of my homers. I was digging like crazy for second base. I don't like to take any chances. There were a lot of shocked faces as I circled the infield.

Royals 10, Indians 2

Jamie Quirk drove in three runs and Amos Otis two to back the seven-hit pitching of Larry Gura, who tied New York's Tommy John at nine victories

most in the league

Orioles 3, A's 2 Pinch hitter Lenn Sakata drove in the winning run with a one-out single in the ninth inning after Ken Singleton singled and took second on a wild pitch. Singleton also singled to ignite a two-run first inning. Mike Flanagan allowed seven hits in pitching Baltimore to its fourth consecutive victory. Blue Jays 5-3, White Sox 4-1

Ernie Whitt hit a solo home run, his first of the year, and John Mayberry and Otto Velez delivered RBI singles to help Jack Kucek, just up from the minors, win the nightcap. Mayberry's hit gave him a club record 17-game hitting streak. The Blue Jays took the opener on Rick Bosetti's two-run homer in the seventh inning.

Bristol, Montefusco allegedly scrap

Giants 8-5 victory over editions of the San Franthe New York Mets cisco Chronicle, Bristol and Montefusco resumed Wednesday. Montefusco held an 8-2 their argument - with lead over the Mets in the blows - in the managninth inning of the game. After walking Claudell Washington and giving up a single to John Stearns, Montefusco fell behind 2-0 on the count to Mike Jorgensen. Bristol visited the mound at that point and removed Montefusco from the game, much to the pitcher's dislike. Montefusco and Bristol then had a lively discussion before the pitcher headed for the dugout to game. "You'll never know," if the pair came to blows. "He did come in and say a lot of things I didn't like, so I ran him out of my office. He was pretty mad and so was I.'

Stove topples Martina in Wimbledon tune-up

By The Associated Press

TENNIS - Betty Stove of the Netherlands upset top-seeded Martina Navratilova 6-3, 3-6, 7-5 in the third round of the Women's Grass Courts Tournament

In other action, Tracy Austin advanced with a 6-3, 6-2 victory over Wendy White 6-3, 6-2; South Africa's Greer Stevens beat Andrea Jaeger, 7-5, 6-3; Wendy Turnbull of Australia defeated Kate Latham 6-7, 6-2, 6-4; Leslie Allen was beaten 6-4, 6-4 by Diane Fromholtz of Australia; and Diane Desfor edged out Betty Nagelsen 5-7, 6-3, 6-2.

Raul Ramirez defeated Britain's Mark Cox.6-4, 6-4 and Brian Gottfried beat Britain's John Feaver, 7-5, 7-6, in second round play in the Surrey Grass Courts Championship at Surbiton.

SOCCER - Belgium and Italy played a scoreless tie, giving the Belgians the right to play West Germany in the European soccer championship final on Sunday.

The Belgians only needed a tie to make it to Sunday's final because of their better goal average.

BASKETBALL - Al Wood scored 17 points and Sam Bowie added 16 to lead the U.S. Olympic team to a 97-66 victory over a lackluster team of NBA All-Stars.

GENERAL - Six competitions have been arranged in five countries for athletes who are boycotting the Moscow Summer Olympics, the U.S. State Department said.

Department spokesman Hodding Carter announced that equestrian, boxing and gymnastics competitions will take place in August and a women's field hockey tournament will be held in October.

ILE BIZARD, Quebec (AP) - Jack Nicklaus' record-setting victory in the United States Open represented a turning point in his incomparable ca-

'Golden Bear' prepares to stalk Canadian Open

There had been speculation -Nicklaus had talked of it - that continued frustration built up by a twoyear non-winning string could force him into retirement.

That all changed, he said, with his dramatic triumph last weekend at Baltusrol

"It gave me confidence that I can go on and play well for several years to come," the 40-year-old Nicklaus said before teeing off today in the first round of the $350,000 Canadian Open, one of the few events remaining on his schedule this year.

"Winning any major tournament is important," said Nicklaus, who has built his golfing life around the world's four major tests of golfing greatness: the U.S. and British Opens, the PGA and the Masters. He's won them a record 16 times.

"But this one, coming as it did after all the things I'd gone through for a year and a half, not winning for so long, was important in that it proved to me that I can still compete, can still

"It will keep me going for a while. It gives me confidence. All the hard work paid off.

"The last one you win, the one of the the most important. But this one was a thrill. As you get older, it's a bigger thrill because it's harder to win."

He has a restricted schedule for the rest of the year: here, the British Open, the PGA and the World Series are the only definite commitments. Neither he nor his fellow pros would be surprised if he won again.

"He's the man to beat here," defending champion Lee Trevino said. He's coming in riding a high. He's gonna be hard to handle. You'll see some guys win a big tournament, then miss the cut the next week. But this is the Golden Bear we're talking about. "The Bear is back.

"And he really wants to win the Canadian. It's one of the few tournaments he hasn't won.

Nicklaus agreed about the lack of a letdown that is common in the wake of a major triumph.

"I haven't felt any at all," he said. "In fact, I feel so good, I'm enjoying golf so much, that Tuesday I took care of some work in the office, then went out and played nine holes.

He played a practice round in a chilly, drizzling rain Wednesday over the 6,628--ard, par-70 Royal Montreal Golf Club course that is the site of this year's Canadian national champion-

His chief opposition for the $63,000 first prize was expected to come from Trevino, a three-time Canadian champion

Many pro baseball players follow in fathers' footsteps

By HAL BOCK AP Sports Writer

Bloodlines and breeding are the heart and soul of thoroughbred racing but baseball seems to be moving in that direction as well.

A fistful of major league players this season grew up as baseball brats, whose fathers were big league performers of another era. And being around the clubhouse atmosphere day-in and day-out must have rubbed off on them

Players like Dale Berra of the Pittsburgh Pirates, Bump Wills and Buddy Bell of the Texas Rangers, Bob Boone of the Philadelphia Phillies and

KENNY REDIN'S

Roy Smalley of the Minnesota Twins head the list of performers who've followed their famous fathers to the majors

Al Campanis, vice president of the Los Angeles Dodgers, once arranged a trade in which Kansas City acquired a young catcher from the Dodger organization. The catcher's name was Jim Campanis, Al's son. The explanation?

"It was," shrugged the elder Campanis, "a good deal for us." So who ever said blood is thicker than water? When Hall of Famer Yogi Berra managed the New York Mets, his son was draft eligible and Yogi ached for the Mets to pick him. But Dale Berra was selected by Pittsburgh instead and was part of the Pirate Fam-il-ee that won the world championship last season.

Chicago Cubs vice president Bob Kennedy, a former major league player, saw his son Terry, a catcher, drafted by St. Louis. The younger Kennedy is the backup for all-star Ted Simmons.

Texas regularly uses the sons of two major league stars in its infield. The third baseman is Buddy Bell, whose dad, Gus, was a National League slugger in the '50s. The second baseman is Bump Wills, who spent the early part of his career in the shadow of his father, Maury, who was a star shortstop for Los Angeles two decades ago

"I didn't let it bother me because my concentration level was very high and I was determined to make it on my own," Wills said. Roy Smalley, plays shortstop for Minnesota, just like his dad did for the Chicago Cubs, Milwaukee Braves and Philadelphia Phillies. And the family ties remain intact every day because Smalley's manager with the Twins, Gene Mauch, is also his uncle.

Philadelphia catcher Bob Boone and his father, longtime Cleveland and Detroit shortstop Ray Boone, are the only father-son all-stars. Both appeared in the mid-season matches between the two leagues' best players, Bob for the Nationals and his dad with the Americans.

Here are some of the current major league father-son combinations:

-Buddy Bell, 29, Rangers, son of Gus Bell. Buddy is in his ninth major league season and second with Texas. His father played 15 years with Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, the New York Mets and Milwaukee Braves and had a career batting average of .281.

-Dale Berra, 23, Pirates, son of Yogi Berra. Dale is in his first fuil major league season having played part of 1978 and 1979 with Pittsburgh. His father, a Hall of Famer, played 18 full seasons with the New York Yankees with a .285 career batting average and 358 home runs. He managed the Yankees for one year and the New York Mets for four seasons, winning pennants in both leagues. He is now in his fifth year as a Yankee coach.

-Bob Boone, 32, Phillies, son of Ray Boone. Bob is in his eighth full season with Philadelphia. His father played 13 years, most of them with Cleveland and Detroit with a career batting average of .275.

-Terry Kennedy, 24, Cardinals, son of Bob Kennedy. Terry, a catcher, is in his first full season with St. Louis after playing parts of 1978 and 1979 with the Cardinals. His father, a vice president of the Chicago Cubs, played 16 years for the Chicago White Sox, Cleveland, Baltimore, Detroit and the Brooklyn Dodgers, with a career batting average of .254.

-Milt May, 29, Giants, son of Pinky

May. Milt, a catcher, is in his 10th major league season and first at San Francisco after playing at Pittsburgh, Houston, Detroit and Chicago. His father, now working part-time in a liquor store in Indiana, played five years for the Philadelphia Phillies, batted .275 for his career.

-Roy Smalley, III, 27, Twins, son of Roy Smalley, Jr. Roy III, is in his sixth major league season and set a major league record for double plays (144) and American League record for assists (572) by a shortstop in 1979. His father, also a shortstop, played 11 years with Chicago Cubs, Milwaukee Braves and Philadelphia, and batted .227

-Bump Wills, 27, Rangers, son of Maury Wills. Bump is in his fourth full season as Texas' second baseman. His father played 14 seasons in the major leagues with Los Angeles, Pittsburgh and Montreal and set a single season stolen base record with 104 in 1962.

Texas may have the largest deer population in the United States, but it also has some of the poorest quality.

There is no simple explanation, but it results from too many deer competing with domestic livestock on overgrazed habitat. The best way to deal with the probelm is to remove a significant number of anterless deer from the depleted range annually.

Fin & Feather

A Texas Parks and Wildlife official said, "Landowners and sportsmen traditionally have failed to adequately utilize the anterless deer hunting permits the department has issued in the past 27 years, so the problem has deteriorated instead of improved."

The condition was evident in the late 1940s and the TPWD began programs to alleviate the problem as early as 1953 by issuing anterless deer permits. It could have halted the decline, but less than a third of the permits issued have been used in any year since 1953.

pulated herds are gradually depleting their own habitat.

"One of these days, I'm going to have to hang my tack up, and I'm going to have to do something else. That's why I want a degree," said the 35-year-old mother of three teen-agers.

However, she knows she'll miss the competition when she quits riding.

"I don't care whether I'm riding at a county fair or away. Churchill Downs, the idea is the same. It's a horse Barton won her first race in 1969 at Pikes Peak Meadows in Colorado. She scored her 1,000th victory a week ago at River Downs here, riding Black Power to a come-from-behind triumph in a $3,000 claiming race.

The Daily Racing Form credits her with being the first woman to reach the 1,000-victory milestone. The next closest woman rider is about 400 victories bar for $1 an hour, she was injured.

"The compensation was $12.50 a week. With a jock's license, it would have been $50 a week,' Barton said. "My first jock mount was worth $14.50. That was 14 horses I didn't have to gallop or 14 hours I didn't have to tend bar. It was strictly a matter of economics."

She quickly discovered a passion for riding. "I finished third in my second race, and I fell in love with racing," Barton said.
