Producer price hikes accelerate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Inflation at the wholesale level accelerated to a 10.6 percent annual rate in October because of higher new car prices, while unemployment edged back up to 7.6 percent despite faint signs of an improving job market.

The Labor Department reported Friday that wholesale, or producer, prices rose 0.8 percent last month. with increases on 1981-model cars and trucks accounting for half the rise.

It was the second consecutive month that cars were a major factor in the price report. In September, wholesale prices registered a rare decline of 0.2 percent because of discounts on leftover 1980 models. The government had never reflected auto discounts before last month, and the novel decline in the index coming shortly before the presidential election - prompted charges from Ronald Reagan that President Carter was "jimmying" the figures to win re-election. The government statisticians who compile the price reports said Reagan's charge was

October's rise was modest compared to monthly surges of 1.5 percent during July and August, which were attributed to sharply higher food prices. Last month's increase, compounded over 12 months, produces an annual wholesale inflation rate of 10.6

The Labor Department also reported that the nation's jobless rate increased to 7.6 percent from 7.5 percent in September as a large rise in unemployment among women more than offset a declining jobless rate

among men. Despite the rise in unemployment, government economists said the job market displayed some signs of modest recovery from the recession that jolted the economy this spring. Employment was up in construction and durable-goods manufacturing, two industries hardest hit by the recession; average weekly hours of work were up in manufacturing, and the number of unemployed people who had lost their last jobs was down.

Transition tasks well under way in Washington

By MARK S. SMITH

WASHINGTON (AP) - At the Reagan transition office, the 35 telephones ring constantly, workers carry in desks and file cabinets and staff members eagerly discuss plans for taking the reins of government.

A few blocks away, in another office building, the remaining workers at the Carter-Mondale campaign headquarters swept up the debris of election night while the furniture was being carried out. The 400 phones were largely silent.

were largely silent.

"This is a particularly depressing conclusion," sighed one Carter-Mondale staff member. "God, it's going to be tough."

"I don't really think it's hit me yet," said another. "I've been 8,000 miles in six weeks, and I just haven't had time to react."

As they spoke Friday, men in overalls unplugged Xerox machines and television sets and began crating them up. In the halls, desks and file cabinets were stacked on their sides. Table lamps were piled together, their shades tilting in seeming insobriety.

There were between 200 and 300 fulltime, paid workers at the Carter-Mondale headquarters when the campaign ended Tuesday. It took $2 million to keep the Washington office running.

Friday, a few dozen of the staff remained, many of them in the business of paying the bills and accounting to the government for how the money was spent. "Everybody is calling to ask for payment," said Larry Hayes, director of administration for the committee. "They're like vultures."

Hayes was meeting with the building's landlord and supervising the work of dismantling

At the presidential transition office, the first phones - two of them - were installed a few hours after Ronald Reagan was elected 40th president of the United States. They began ringing almost immediately.

Word travels fast in the nation's capital. The scent that attracted the would-be officeholders was the prospect of 2,700 appointive federal positions just waiting to be filled by the president-

"We've simply been inundated," said a volunteer worker. "There have been several hundred phone calls from serious applicants. And that doesn't even count the kooks. The Reagan people say they're well ahead of previous administrations in their preparations for taking power - some 10 days to two weeks ahead, according to the General Services Administration, which supplies the office

An unpaid transition staff had been working for weeks in nearby Virginia, preparing for a Reagan presidency. So when the former California governor was voted into office Tuesday, his staff was ready with floor plans and briefing books. But the transition office still has a lot of organizing ahead of it.

It wasn't until late Thursday that the first typewriters arrived. Workers were still painting names Friday on the doors of the eight floors of offices. It will take the weekend and more to move in the furniture, staff people

The budget for this operation is also $2 million. Eventually there will be 250 employees helping in the talent search.

Already, there is some grumbling among the transition staff. It concerns the new quarters.

"This is the most rundown dump of a building I've ever seen," said one employee who asked to remain anonymous. "The thing has paper-thin walls and crumbling partitions. It's hot during the day and cold at night. And the furniture is anything but attractive.

'We're afraid all the bigwigs will come out here from California, see this place and turn around and go home.'

Just as all is not sweetness and light at the transition office, all is not dejection at the Carter-Mondale campaign headquarters. "I think people will bounce back pretty quickly," said Hayes. "Most are taking a few weeks off to rest right now.

Rise in prime lending rate won't affect most Midlanders

By KAY CRITES Staff Writer

Midland's banks, following the lead set by major banks across the nation. have raised their prime lending rate to 15.5 — a full percentage point. The increase is the biggest one-day jump in more than a year. Although, this won't affect the lending rates for most Midlanders, bankers say it could have far reaching Installment loans, such as for stereos, automobiles, furniture or televisions, won't be affected. The rates for these loans are regulated by the state, and most banks are already charging the maximum allowed.

Nor will the rise in prime rate affect businesses borrowing under the discount lending rates. These, too, are regulated, and under law banks can charge 5 percent over the discount rate on business loans of $1,000 or Corporations borrowing money in relation to the prime lending rate will feel the rate hike.

Mortgages could be affected by anything from ¼ of a percentage point to a full point. "They might go with ¼ just to see what's happening," said Allan Bishop with Western State

In addition, the prime lending rate hike could lead to an increase in the discount lending rates.

"...What in effect this could do is that you may see in the next week discount rates being raised." The current discount rate is 11 percent, and on business loans over $1,000 banks can charge 5 percent over the discount, making it 16 percent. Should the discount rate be raised to 12 percent, banks could charge 17. "What it's going to do," said Bishop, "is slow down the demand for borrowing a little more and, for those who do have to borrow, it will increase the amount of the goods. The cost (of the prime lending rate increase) to the consumer will not be in the interest rates on their loans but in the price for their food and their

Bill Parker with The First National Bank of Midland said the overall rate structure may be discussed in the next legislature. Conrail freighter strikes Amtrak train stopped on wrong track

DOBBS FERRY, N.Y. (AP) - An Amtrak passenger train stopped on the tracks was struck head-on by a Conrail freight near the Dobbs Ferry station Friday afternoon, and police estimated that as many as 100 persons were injured. A congressman said the Amtrak train was on the wrong track.

There was no initial report of fatalities, and a spokesman for one hospital where between 30 and 40 injured passengers were taken said most had cuts and bruises but did not require hospitalization.

Rep. Peter Peyser of New York, one of the first persons at the scene, said the freight train was supposed to be the only train on the track. "How this Amtrak train got on the same track is a mystery," he said.

Three of the Amtrak cars derailed and fire broke out in a food service car, apparently because of a shortcircuit on the electrical third rail. Screaming passengers kicked open windows in order to escape, according to one reporter at the scene.

Hospitals reported treating a total of 88 persons and admitting 14, including at least two crewmen. Others were treated at the scene.

"We had just stopped. There was a crash. The other train ran into us," said Dr. Dennis Fabian of New York City, a passenger on the Amtrak train, which carried about 225 passen-

"It wasn't as bad as it could have been. A few people were hysterical and there were some crying children," he said.

A witness, Mark Walter of Dobbs Ferry, said the Amtrak train passed him and stopped. "I saw this freight train coming around the bend. There was a big crash, a screeching for about 10 seconds. The Amtrak train moved backward."

Conrail spokesman Bob VanWagoner said it was the first head-on collision in 10 years involving Conrail trains. "It is Conrail's responsibility to know where the trains are," he said. He added that the Amtrak train passed a control tower in Tarrytown to the north of Dobbs Ferry.

The injured were taken to five area hospitals including Dobbs Ferry Hospital, St. John's Riverside in Yonkers, White Plains Hospital, Phelps Memorial Hospital in North Tarrytown and Westchester Community Medical Center in Grasslands.

"It sounded like an earthquake" when the two trains hit, said Bob LaColla, an employee at the Chart House restaurant near the station.

"The Amtrak train is still pretty much on the track and the freight just climbed right up on top of the engine. The bottom of the freight motor is sitting on top of the Amtrak train. It just kind of crushed it," he said.

"We have no guess even at this point about the cause," said Jung Lee, an Amtrak spokesman. Amtrak officials said at about 4:30 p.m., Amtrak train 74, the Empire State Express, collided with the Conrail freight train that was bound for Albany from the Bronx. Both trains were on the track closest to the Hudson River in this suburban community seven miles north of the New York City limits.

The freight train, which had 106 cars and three locomotives, carried no dangerous substances, Conrail officials said.

There were no roads nearby and rescue workers had to walk to the scene carrying stretchers. The park-ing lot of the Chart House was turned into an emergency field headquar-

Police said a Westchester County disaster plan was in effect with emergency workers being brought in from other towns. Doctors and nurses streamed into hospitals as news of the crash circulated.

Judge warns jurors against 'hasty verdict'

The all-white jury of six men and six women was cautioned by Superior Court Judge James H. Long not to 'jeopardize a unanimous vote by taking an early vote.'

The judge noted, "It took more than six weeks to pick this jury and 11 weeks to present evidence.'

About 5:30 p.m., jurors adjourned until 9: 30 Monday morning. The decision on weekend deliberations had been left in the hands of the jurors by Long. They decided, however, that they would deliberate on Tuesday, which is Veterans' Day, if no decision has been reached by then.

The defendants each were charged with five counts of first-degree murder and one count of felonious rioting arising out of the clash between the extremist groups.

Long told the jurors that they could return five possible verdicts: guilty of first-degree murder, guilty of premeditated first-degree murder, guilty of second-degree murder, guilty of voluntary manslaughter or innocent.

Long gave a written copy of his 67-page charge to each juror, citing the complexity of the case as the reason for the unusual written

Defense lawyers tried to show that the defendants, who arrived in a caravan of cars and vans at the staging area for the rally, fired their weapons only after some communists attacked their group.

Repeatedly during the trial, lawyers for both sides replayed at various speeds television news videotapes of the confrontation which show an 88-second battle fought with sticks and guns.

RULEVILLE, Miss. (AP) — A gunman who swapped a female hostage for an off-duty detective following a bank holdup Friday surrendered after holding dozens of officers at bay for almost four hours along a rural highway.

No one was hurt, but the gunman, wielding a .357 Magnum, fired at police several times as he and his hostage sat in a bank car while officers talked with him by two-way radio.

"Don't do anything rash right now," an FBI negotiator told the gunman in repeatedly urging him to stay calm and release his hostage, Greenwood detective Andrew Cates.

Cates had offered himself as a hostage in exchange for receptionist Meredith Bond, 25, seized by the gun-

U.S. preparing response to Iranian 'conditions' WASHINGTON (AP) - After five has ruled out a flat rejection of the days of consultations, the United States is on the verge of a response to Iran's conditions for releasing the 52 American hostages, the State Department said Friday.

American officials refused to say what the response will be but said the administration has ruled out a flat rejection of Iran's four conditions, which were approved last Sunday by the Iranian parliament.

State Department spokesman John Trattner's statement that the administration is "at the point of decisionmaking" followed daily meetings this week between department officials and Iran's designated intermediary, Algerian Ambassador Rehda Malek. Trattner's comments appeared to be directed at an Iranian call three days ago for a speedy U.S. response through the media to the four condi-Since receiving the official translais not as easy as it might seem, Trattner said. It's not a matter of receiving a letter in the mail one day and dropping a reply in the letter box the next, he said. "We fully understand the urgency of moving forward," he said. "Nobody in the world is more anxious and interested in moving this forward to a solution than this country and we are doing this." He also said the consultations with Malek have not involved clarifications of Iran's conditions. He denied reports that the United States has been in a "dialogue" with Iran in recent days on the hostage issue. "With the time that we've had to study this, we've certainly developed our ideas about what they (the conditions) mean, and that's an important part of developing our response to those ideas."

Trattner was unable to say when the administration will respond to Iran but it was understood no such communication will be made before

Malek has visited the State Department for consultations five times over the past four days. His meeting Thursday evening was the longest -

McQueen dies of heart attack

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Steve McQueen, the rugged actor whose unorthodox battle against cancer epitomized his character on the screen, died Friday of a heart attack at a clinic in Juarez, Mexico, one day after surgeons removed a five-pound tumor from his abdomen. He was 50.

"After the operation, he was improving, he was even talking. He seemed in good spirits," said Rosa Maria Santos, administrator of the one-story, 20-bed, brick Clinica de Santa Rosa.

"But suddenly he had a heart attack and died," about 2 a.m. EST on Friday, she said. McQueen's wife, Barbara, and two children by a previous marriage, son Chad, 21, and daughter Terri, 20, were with him

His death shocked the film industry and his fans. It had appeared that McQueen, star of such films as "Bullitt," "The Great Escape" and "The Sand Pebbles," for which he received an Oscar nomination in 1966, had been making a recovery of sorts from mesothelioma — a form of lung cancer that many doctors regard as incurable.

Yet, McQueen was "very aware of and prepared, if necessary, to die," said his publicist Warren Cowan, who announced the death in Los Angeles. Dr. Cesar Santos, the administrator's husband who performed the surgery, said he removed both the abdominal tumor and a second, smaller tumor from the actor's neck. McQueen's body was taken to the Prado Funeral Home in Juarez, and

Santos said the Mexican government had granted legal permission for it to be removed across the the Rio Grande to El Paso, Texas. Santos said that McQueen checked in on Nov. 4 using the pseudonym Samuel Sheppard, a Cleveland osteopath who was the defendant in two sensational trials in the 1950s and 1960s for allegedly killing his wife. He was eventually acquitted. Cowan said no funeral was planned.

"I'm really shocked," said actor James Stewart. "He was an excellent actor and made a wonderful contribution to pictures. I've seen most of his pictures, and I thought he was a splendid movie actor.

Added Glenn Ford: "I knew him as a friend. It's another great loss, another legend gone. I feel a great sadness, especially because of the passing of a man as vital as he was.' Robert Wise, who twice directed McQueen, said, "I had a tremendous regard for him. I gave him his start in pictures, in 'Somebody Up There Likes Me' (a bit part with Paul Newman). I cast him in New York and brought him out here for what was a small part. "Of course, he made a magnificient contribution to 'The Sand Pebbles,' "

Wise said in a telephone interview from San Francisco, "and many people feel that was his outstanding performance. I feel a tremendous sad-

Although his illness had long been rumored, McQueen had revealed his condition for the first time in a written statement last month.

"Hopefully the cheap scandal sheets and curiosity seekers will not try to seek me out so I can continue my treatment, he said. "I say to all my fans and all my friends, keep your fingers crossed and keep the good thoughts coming.'

In some two dozen films since 1958, McQueen assumed a variety of roles, playing prisoners in "The Great Escape" and "Papillon," a soldier in "The War Lover" a sailor in "The Sand Pebbles," and cowboys in "The Magnificent Seven," "Nevada Smith," "Junior Bonner" and "Tom Horn."

The enigmatic McQueen, 50, was also charactervery complicated" and "a real loner" who chose "to die in private.'

"He gave tremendous thought to everything he did on the screen - the ease and nonchalance that he displayed was a character that he created," said Walter Marisch, who produced two of McQueen's best known movies, "The Great Escape" and 'The Thomas Crown Affair.'

Mirisch added: "He was a first-rate actor, not just a handsome personality. He was not easy to work with because he was very demanding. But I always liked Steve, because we were very successful together. He was a giant who will not be easily re-

"It's very difficult to talk about the end of somebody who was the beginning for me," said Crenna. 'The Sand Pebbles' was what I consider the first important role I had in films. We spent very close to a year on the project, and we got very close. It became a very familial kind of thing. Hearing about Steve's death was like losing a member of the Crenna added that McQueen "was a very private man, a man who had a lot of friends, but...he died in a very private way. It was obvious he was trying to keep his illness a secret from everyone.

"I think he underrated abilities," Crenna added. "I think he underrated himself as an actor and didn't realize the respect his fellow actors had for him by the nature of his self-imposed solitude. Textbook critics angered by poems

AUSTIN, Texas (AP)

— Textbook critics have urged deletion of material they claim makes fun of the American moon landing, dwells execessively on death and demonstrations and presents evolution as fact rather than theory.

"And if suicide, death and demonstrations aren't enough," Mrs. Sheila Haralson said Thursday, one text "concludes with an entire chapter on terrorism."

What a way to end the school year," said Mrs. Haralson, a staffer for textbook critic Norma Gabler of Longview.

Dr. and Mrs. Monty Kester of Baytown criticized all seven proposed science books, including two alternates recommended by the State Textbook Committee.

On Saturday the State Board of Education board will approve as many as five textbooks each for several subjects, including basic reading, bilingual readers, science, psychology, sociology, graphic arts and business and trade.

The adoption of new textbooks is expected to cost $29.7 million. Kester scoffed at the phrase "mysteriously

In Northern California, male party was big loser

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - Nationally, Democrats took a drubbing in the election, but in Northern California it was men. Women won majorities on three boards governing the lives of millions — the first time in the nation women are in charge of local government on such a scale.

The San Francisco Board of Supervisors, which governs both city and county affairs, now has a 6-5 female majority. The city already had a non-voting female mayor. San Jose's City Council has a 6-4 female majority, plus a voting female mayor. And in Santa Clara County, where San Jose is located, women now hold a 3-2 edge on the Board of Supervisors.

Texas Republican leading battle to oust Tip O'Neill

By SOLL SUSSMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) A Texas Republican congressman said Friday he planned to press ahead with an attempt to make the House leadership more conservative.

"I believe that the couraged by responses American people do not want this Congress to operate business as usual," Rep. Bill Archer of Houston said about his plan to encourage conservative Democrats to join Republicans and oust House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill. "That means we need new leadership in the House.

Archer suggested the speaker should be someone closer in ideology ald Reagan.

He called the plan a setts liberal, said Friday long-shot that would be historic if successful.

The plan has two parts - to persuade all Republicans to vote for a conservative Democrat for House speaker and then to get the votes of 26 conservative Democrats to clinch O'Neill's oust-

Archer said he would prefer to see a Republican in the speaker's post but saw little hope of persuading 26 Democrats to side with the GOP on that issue.

"That would certainly be my first desire. It may not be realistic," Archer said in a telephone interview. "In the past that has almost been viewed as tantamount to changing your party affiliation.'

Many prospective Dallas voters had to stand in line for four hours or more to cast their ballots election night, with some people who got to the polls late in the day Tuesday having to wait until 1 a.m. Wednesday before they could pull a voting machine lever.

On Wednesday several local Republican Party officials claimed that County Clerk Larry Murdoch, a Democrat, deliberately failed to provide enough voting machines in heavy Republican precincts. County officials acknowledged Thursday that more than 200 working voting machines did sit idle in a county warehouse on election day.

Murdoch, however, left town "for a few days" and was not available for comment, according to his staff.

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) The Texas Classroom Teachers Association said Friday that those who actually teach should get a 33.5 percent pay raise the next two years but administrators are worth only a 22 percent hike.

"We feel that increasing the pay of classroom teachers by a greater amount than other pay grades involves a basic principle," Betty Pyle, Odessa, head of the association's legislative committee, told a news conference. "Our method provides the most costeffective way to remedy the teacher crisis by attracting qualified people to the field of education and keeping experienced teachers from leaving the professions.

'The state is facing a crisis in teacher recruitment and retention, Rae Juan Markunas, Killeen, president. "Our proposed salary increase will be a message of encouragement to teachers.

Hopes dim for rescue of miners

ROBINSON, W.Va. (AP) - Five miners were trapped in a Boone County coal mine Friday following a predawn explosion that filled the narrow mine shaft with dense, toxic smoke, and officials said hopes for a rescue were dimming.

"It doesn't look good," said United Mine Workers
President Sam Church outside the Westmoreland Coal Co.'s Ferrell Mine No. 17.

By mid-afternoon, rescue crews had crawled along the 48-inch high seam to within 2,000 feet of the trapped men, said Martin McDonnell, vice president for finance and administration.

Barring unforseen problems, "we should be able to reach them by noon" Saturday, said Herschel Hayden, assistant vice president for operations, during a news conference at the mine Friday evening.

Asked about the miners' chance of survival, Hayden said, "The only hope is if they were able to barricade themselves, but there's no way to tell." He said rescuers would work through the night. Howard Green, a UMW field representative at the scene, said the rescuers reported that a conveyor had been overturned and twisted by the force of the explosion and that there was soot "every-

Imperials spice their gospel music

By GEORGIA TEMPLE

"Jesus is alive with us in the world," was just one of the statements made by The Imperials during their Thursday night concert that brought rousing applause from 2,300 fans at Chaparral Center.

The Imperials, who formed as a group in 1964, spiced their gospel singing with anecdotes, such as the humor-laced story told by David Will, lead singer and Assembly of God minister.

Will described his father as a large, imposing man with a booming voice who would, when Will was a child, always start each meal with a prayer.

"In a restaurant, when Dad would say, 'Children, let's pray,' I would do one of those headache because his dad's voice would carry throughout the restaurant. Then "I'd look around the restaurant and everyone would be praying.

definite ministry. We feel God has called us to present the gospel in testimony and music.' Besides Morales, the group includes co-founder Jim Murray, who sings tenor, David Will and Russ Taff, the baritone lead and an ordained minister in the Pentecostal Organization. After their formation, the group worked with Elvis Presley for three years and Jimmy Dean for six years. They appeared with Elvis in his movie "That's the Way It The Imperials have, Morales said, "done all the

For entertainment, while they are on the road, they enjoy sports and videotaped movies. Since their set-up time is at 3 p.m., Morales said, "we spend a lot of time rehearsing.

'Our wives travel with us a lot because we believe the family is the top priority," Morales said, adding that among the group, including the five member band, there are eight children. Two of the band members are getting married in the near fu-

NEW YORK (AP) — Evangelical political activists have high hopes the conservatives' election sweep will answer their prayers: to restore America's "moral sanity" by banning abortion and pornography and to bring back voluntary prayer in public

Israeli warplanes strike Palestinian strongholds

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) - Israeli warplanes blasted Palestinian guerrilla strongholds in southern Lebanon on Friday, a day after guerrillas fired Soviet-made Katyusha rockets into northern Israel. Lebanese authorities said five were killed in the Israeli raids and dozens were wounded.

Israel said the guerrillas' Thursday night rocket attack injured five people in the northern Israeli border town of Kiryat Shmona.

Yasser Arafat's Palestine Liberation Organization said Israeli jets ran 45-minute bombing raids on eight Palestinian targets, drawing intense anti-aircraft barrages. The PLO communique claimed no hits.

Israel said all its planes returned safely to base.

The raid apparently was in retaliation for Thursday's attack in which guerrillas launched Soviet-made Katyusha rockets against the border town. THIS could be the most unusual gift you give this Christmas!

Even after 90 years it has not outlived its usefulness.

When the Godin Foundry first cast the Petit Godin wood and coal burning stove, it was among the world's first great, airtight stoves. It was also dered a work of art.

Today, after 90 years of continuous production, Petit Godin lives on. Still a marvelously efficient and convenien stove. Still one of the world's most beautiful stoves. Still saving Godin owners 20, 30 often 50 % of the cost of heating a home. Greatness never ages. (In two sizes, 6 enamel colors.)

SPORTS

Midland Lee in top offensive effort of year

By TERRY WILLIAMSON Sports Writer

When the Midland Lee Rebels lose to Odessa Permian one week, one theory has it that the Rebs are also supposed to fold the next week against Abilene High. The other theory is that Eagle quarterback Loyal Proffitt has the Rebels' number.

Well, at Memorial Stadium Friday night, Lee shattered both myths as the Rebels bounced the Eagles 35-11 with an awesome running attack and a defense that would even please Ronald Reagan. Proffitt - well - he spent a great deal of time on his back and also had to watch in horror as the Rebs picked off three of his would-be bombs.

This was a game totally dominated by the Rebels, and it couldn't have come at a better time. Lee is now 5-3-1 on the year and insured of a winning season under first year coach Spike Dykes. It also stopped Abilene High's domination of the Rebs over the past two years when Proffitt proved to be a magician against Lee. Proffitt had Rebels draped around his neck all against the rugged Cougars.

AND OFFENSIVELY, the Rebels had their best outing of the year with 419 infantry style yards. Abilene High was probably expecting fullback Calvin Riggs to carry the ball all night, as he has done against other foes while gaining the 5-5A rushing lead.

But Lee came out giving the ball to tailback Rodney Hemphill. Hemphill ended up rushing for 143 yards and two touchdowns on 18 carries.

And by the time AHS figured out the Hemphill attack, Riggs ended up adding 114 yards to his league leading total on 13 carries. Both retired with 10 minutes left in the game to give the reserves some playing time in the laugher, something the Rebels haven't had much of this year.

Oddly enough, the Rebels had to come from behind to take the win as Ken Hall toed a 37-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead the first time AHS touched the ball. However, it took Lee only eight plays to tie the game with a 40-yard field goal by Van Gravitt, certianly his longest effort ever.

The Riggs recovered a Leo Parrish fumble at the AHS 22 to set up another quick Rebel score. It took four plays and a 19-yard tight end reverse by Kenneth Hardison to cover the distance and a 9-3 lead, one they never surrendered.

THE EAGLES did get back to the Lee three in the second period, but quarterback turned safety Barry Corley intercepted a Proffitt misguided missle to stop the threat, and then Corley guided the Rebs 80 yards in eight plays for a 15-3 lead. Corley ran for 29 yards and later scored from 13 yards out as Hardison paved the way with a good block.

Lee never skipped a beat in the third period. They took the opening kickoff and went 70 yards with Hemphill racing 44 yards after a block by David Parkhurst and scoring from 15 yards out on a tackle busting run. and a 22-3 lead after Gravitt's extra

A David Thompson interception of another Proffitt pass in the third period set up another score. Thompson intercepted at the 37 and returned it to the AHS seven. Hemphill got the final four for a 28-3 lead.

The reserves put up seven more points in the final period as David Rivas busted up the AHS middle for 29 head busting, never-say-die yard touchdown. Ed Leps then toed his first extra point of the year.

The Eagles scored first and last. Mark Smith set up Abilene's last score with a 38-yard run and Karl Kearney got the points with a oneyard TD. Kearney ran for the conversion with 28 seconds left in the

But the Lee defense was just too much for the frustrated Eagles. In addition to interceptions by Thompson and Corley, Clyde Smith picked one off after Thompson deflected it in midair. Riggs was all over the field. Irl Conally stayed in the AHS backfield. Barry Crowder came up with some big plays. And, well, the list could go on and on.

ABILENE had only 135 yards rushing, but the unhearlded Smith was the leader with a mere 63 yards, 38 coming on one play. Parrish, the main threat was held to a season low 24 yards. Proffitt carried 13 times for zero yardage, the hazard of trying to pass with Lee rushers on your back. He did-complete seven of 15 aerials for 112 yards, but the three interceptions really kept him off the scoreboard.

Lee will now have a great deal of momentum heading into the season finale against Midland High next Friday night. The year's bragging rights will be up for grabs in that one.

Abilene High fell to 4-5 on the year and 2-4 in district. Lee is 3-2-1 in loop

By MIKE CRUVER Sports Writer ANDREWS - Andrews, pre-season favorite to win District 2-AAAA, tallied 21 points in the second half to claim the crown with a 29-8 win over a scrappy bunch from Sweetwater Friday night in Andrews. It looked like it would be an easy evening for Andrews the first time the Mustangs touched the ball. Starting at their own 30, Andrews moved down field behind the running of Van Pearcy and Keith Brooks. Marty Keesee pitched in with a 30-yard run from the Sweetwater 40 to the 10 on a wingback

With the ball on the ten, Pearcy took a pitch from Brooks, bobbled the ball and Rodney Griggs pounced. Ricky Jarvis added the PAT as Andrews grabbed a on the loose ball for Sweetwater.

What followed shocked the Andrews' fans. STARTING at their own 13 Sweetwater, controlling the line of scrimmage, marched 83 yards in a 19-play drive to score. The drive consumed 7:22 off the clock. Junior Garcia getting the touchdown on a two-yard run with only 32 seconds left in the first quarter. Garcia ran over the two point conversion giving the visiting Mustangs an 8-0 lead. Andrews, getting belted around at the line of scrimmage, finally got a drive going with 7: 18 left in

Taking over at the Sweetwater 44 following a punt, Andrews put together a seven-play drive to score the equalizer with 4:34 left in the half. Quarterback Brooks found end David Smartt wide open in the end zone and hit him with a 7-yard pass for the score. Pearcy added the two-point conversion In the second half Sweetwater could move the ball for a first down or two, but could not muster a sustained drive.

ON THE other hand, the first three times Andrews got its hands on the pigskin the Mustangs scored. The first second half TD followed a defensive stand by the Mustang defense at their own 32. Facing a fourth and five, Sweetwater decided to to go for the first down. The attempt came up two yards short and Andrews was in business on its own 30. Nine plays and four minutes later Andrews put the going ahead TD on the board. Pearcy recorded the score by going up the middle from eight yards out. 15-8 lead with 5:41 left in the third stanza.

Unable to move the ball, Sweetwater was forced to punt. Gaining control on their own 35 the Mustangs moved in for the killing blow. Taking advantage of the defensive end situation, Sweetwater had gone through seven defensive ends in two weeks, Andrews was able to get Brooks and Pearcy outside for sizeable yardage. Pearcy picked up his second TD of the night by going outside for three yards and the score. Jarvis' PAT try was block leaving Andrews on top 21-8 with 11:57 left in the game.

DISASTER hit the visiting Mustangs following the kickoff. Sweetwater had moved the ball from its 20 to the 47 before the drive bogged down. The punt attempted was partically blocked and Andrews took over on its 37-yard line. By now the injury riddled Sweetwater defense could not stem the tide as Andrews swept in for its fourth touchdown of the night. Pearcy did the damage, getting outside and racing 20 yards to paydirt. George Gonzales hit Keesee for the two-point conversion building the margin to 29-8 with 7: 10 to go in

Two TD runs, one by Pearcy and the other by Brooks, were called back on clipping penatlies in the last five minutes of the encounter.

With the victory Andrews climbs to 7-0 in district, 9-0 for the season and faces Snyder in its regular season finale before moving into playoff action.

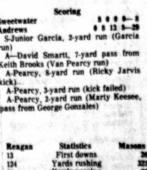

Sweetwater, after going 1-9 in 1979, finishes its season with a 6-4 mark, 5-3 in district, behind the direction of freshman quarterback Scott Richardson and new coach W. T. Stapler.

Over the last two weeks, the Southwest Conference has done much to restore its image as the onriest college football league in the nation.

During that period, Arkansas and Texas have taken so many falls, either one could be mistaken for a Northwestern. The Hogs and Longhorns aren't the only ones who have been suffering. In the last two weeks, six of the nine games ended in upset.

IT'S the kind of stuff that made the SWC the country's most exciting, an unpredictable, circuit back in the Aerial Circus days. But with the advent of two platoon football, the state schools took over and dominated the championships through the 1960s and 1.970s. The private schools, and the SWC has more of 'em than any other imajor conference in the land, just didn't have the resources to keep pace, not when some schools were recruiting kids just so they wouldn't have to play against them. It was tough on the kids, who languished four years on the bench, and the private schools, who could have used

Of course, other conferences, top heavy with state schools, were having their problems, too. In the Big 10, it was Ohio State and Michigan while on the West Coast Southern California, a private school, incidentally, dominated with an occasional meek protest from UCLA or Stanford. The Big Eight was Oklahoma and Nebraska while Alabama has had things all its

The State of Georgia will have a lot to say about who's No.1 in the world of college football this weekend ... and isn't that just peachy?

While downtrodden Georgia Tech hosts Notre Dame, the nation's new No.1 team, in Atlanta on Saturday, the second-ranked Georgia Bulldogs will be a few hours down Interstate-75 in Jacksonville, Fla., for what is lovingly known as the world's largest outdoor cocktail party. That translates into the annual war with the surprising Florida Gators, who are ranked No.20 in this week's Associated Press poll and, with a 6-1 record on the heels of last year's 0-10-1 debacle, flirting with the sharpest turnaround in NCAA history.

IN THE wake of last week's rash of upsets —
Alabama, UCLA, North Carolina and Baylor all bit

the dust - Notre Dame and Georgia are the only remaining teams with perfect records, leading Georgia Coach Vince Dooley to remark;

"It points out what can happen to any team at any time. And it says again what I have mentioned for so long and is often referred to about me - that you can't count on beating any team. It emphasizes greatly our game with Florida, a team that has already beaten Mississippi State, which upset Alabama.

Meanwhile, third-ranked Florida State entertains Virginia Tech and the rest of the Top Ten also are at home — Kansas State at No.5 Nebraska, Louisiana State at No.6 Alabama, Illinois at No.7 Ohio State, Oregon at No.8 UCLA, Louisville at No.9 Pitt and North Carolina State at No.10 Penn State.

In the Second Ten, No.11 Oklahoma visits Kansas, No.12 Michigan is at Wisconsin, North Texas State at

No.13 Brigham Young, No.14 North Carolina at Clemson, The Citadel at No.15 South Carolina, Arkansas at No.16 Baylor, Iowa at No.17 Purdue and No.18 Southern Methodist at Rice. Mississippi State. the No.19 team, is idle.

NOTRE DAME Coach Dan Devine hopes Georgia Tech plays down to its 1-7 record but, like any coach worthy of his salt, must be publicly pessimis-

'Tech's record right now is extremely deceiving because of the caliber of teams it has played, Devine points out. "I think the last time the NCAA updated the strength of the schedules, Tech's was rated fourth toughest in the country. Three of their losses have come to Alabama, North Carolina and Florida and those teams have a combined 20-3 record right now and two of them were unbeaten until Saturday."

The Irish are 7-0 thanks targely to the efforts of senior halfback Jim Stone, freshman quarterback Blair Kiel and a defense which had not allowed a touchdown in its last three outings. In his four starts while replacing the injured Phil Carter, Stone has become the first Notre Dame player ever to rush for 100 or more yards in four consecutive games.

"Jim Stone's play the last month is typical of the way things have gone for us all fall," says Devine. Despite the number of injuries, we've had people who have stepped in and filled the gaps. It's tough to ask much more of a defense than we've gotten the last few weeks. We've allowed an average of 155 total yards the last three weeks and we haven't given up a touchdown during that time. That means someone in there is doing something right. It took us a few weeks, but we're getting the kind of consistency we had hoped for."

GEORGIA'S record is 8-0 for the fifth time in history and all four other teams which reached that level (1927, 1942, 1946 and 1971) went on to 9-0.

But, says Dooley, "Florida has some exceptional talent and at least two No.1 NFL draft choices in flanker Cris Collinsworth and linebacker David Little. They play with tremendous intensity and I think their defensive front is the best we've seen all year, including South Carolina's. And their run-andshoot offense will cause a problem for our de-

Florida's task will be the same as those of Georgia's other opponents — stopping freshman whiz Herschel Walker. After last week's 219-yard effort against South Carolina, Walker ranks sixth in the national with a 137-yard average, and that includes only nine carries (for 69 yards) in a romp over Texas Christian and 11 (for 44) against Mississippi, when he was slowed by a sprained ankle.

STANFORD faces what seems to be the biggest game on its schedulein USC, although the traditional Stanford-California windup is called The BIG Game in Northern California.

"Our offense seems to be functioning at a high level," says Stanford Coach Paul Wiggin. "The test will come this week, however. The greatness of USC's defense has been a topic of conversation since last spring.'

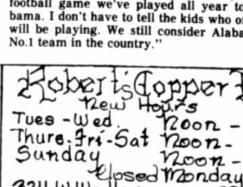

Nebraska, Alabama, Ohio State, UCLA, Pitt and Penn State are all comfortable favorites, if there is such a thing in these upset-filled times. Oklahoma Coach Barry Switzer says Nebraska's once-beaten (by Florida State) Cornhuskers may be the best team around.

"I wouldn't be surprised of Nebraska isn't the best team in the country," says Switzer, who doesn't have to face the Cornhuskers for two weeks. "I think they've got a better offense than Alabama. Nebraska would be ranked No.1 right now if they hadn't fumbled on the 3-yard line against Florida State. Just being realistic, they lead the country in just about every statistic

Alabama will try to get back on the winning track after having its 28-game winning streak snapped last week by Mississippi State. The Crimson Tide meets Notre Dame next week and is hoping for a shot at Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. First, however, they must dispose of a 6-2 LSU team.

"This is gut-check time," says Bear Bryant. "Losing is never good for a team, in my opinion, and this is a test of the character and pride we have, of what we are made of. We can go on and have a real fine season or we can become very mediocre very

On the other hand, LSU's rookie Coach Jerry Stovall says the Tigers "will have to play the best football game we've played all year to beat Alabama. I don't have to tell the kids who or where we will be playing. We still consider Alabama as the No.1 team in the country."

Kansas City Kings GM John Begzos was fired last week because he may have unwittingly purchased $120 in postage stamps that had been used previously, according to the Kansas City Star. The paper said information from several sources indicates Begzos purchased $240 worth of stamps from a neighbor at half their face value. The stamps reportedly bore no cancellation marks and postal authorities are investigating the possibility the stamps may have been used previously. The investigation is centering on the person who sold the stamps to Begzos reportedly bought the stamps in September and resold them to the Kings for the $120 he paid. The club used some of the stamps in a mailing and a postman noticed some of them may have been used previously. Postal inspectors visited the Kings' office and notified Begzos

Can anyone remember when the Southwest Conference had this many crucial games so late in the season? With the exception of Texas A&M and TCU, everyone is thinking bowl and whether or not it becomes a reality for most will be determined in the next two weeks.

IN THE early TV game on ABC, Baylor could just about nail down a Cotton Bowl berth by beating Arkansas, providing Texas defeats Houston at Austin. Despite the loss to San Jose State, the Bears are 5-0 in conference, 8-1 for the season and barring a collapse in the stretch, only Houston stands a chance of catching the Bruins.

Arkansas comes into the game out of the Cotton Bowl running at 1-3, but the Razorbacks are 4-3 and a strong finish would make them an attractive bowl possibility for someone.

Elsewhere, Texas Tech, fresh from its 24-20 upset of Texas, is 2-2 in SWC and 4-3 for the season and with an improbable turn of events could figure in the Cotton Bowl race. TCU is 0-5, 0-8 and primed for an upset.

SMU AND Rice clash at Houston at 2 p.m. and the Mustangs at 6-2, 3-2 are ranked in the top 20 and need a couple of more wins to insure a post-season trip. Rice, coming off victories over A&M and Arkansas, bringing the Owls' record to 4-4, 3-2 is enjoying its best season in years and don't want to stop.

A sellout is slated at Waco where Coach Grant Teaff is seeking to improve on a dismal 1-6-1 record against the Hogs. Last year, Arkansas rallied for a 29-20 win after Baylor jumped to a 17-0 lead in the third quarter...Last week both teams blew leads, Arkansas 16-0 over Rice and Baylor 15-0 against San Jose...Although Baylor's winning streak ended, Max McGreary kept his penchant for blocking kicks alive, blocking a field goal, giving him six punts and six

THIS YEAR Rice has learned to come from behind, but a year ago, the Owls led 17-7 at half against SMU only to lose 35-17...Mustangs had 255 yards in return yardage against A&M last week, which must be a record. John Simmons returned three punts for 122 yards and Byron Hunt returned a blocked field goal 51 yards, then scooped up a loose ball and ran 56 yards for a TD ... The Owls are on the check lists of the Hall of Fame, Liberty, Sun, Peach, Holiday and Bluebonnet bowls, but need a win to stay there..

Some 80,000 are expected at Austin for the seventh game of a series that stands 3-2-1 Texas...The big question is whether Donnie Little, who rallied UT to its win over Oklahoma, or Rick McIvor, who almost rallied the Horns to 20 points against second half Tech last week, will start at quarterback...Texas handed UH its lone defeat last year, 21-13...Cougars have won last four in belated bid to keep Cotton Bowl domination alive, but the one loss was to Baylor. Brent Chinn gained 143 yards against TCU last week, most by a UH quarterback in a game...Cougs' Lonell Phea is averaging 16.1 yards on punt

Tech's Renie Baker (4.2 catches per game) and TCU's Bobby Stewart (4.0) provides a match up of two of the SWC's top pass catchers at Fort Worth...Tech defensive back Tate Randle not only came up with a game-saving interception at the one against Texas, but made two key third down tackles to stop the Longhorns...Ron Reeves needs 13 yards to set a TT school

Maloney is facing 'must win' game

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Frank Maloney, who has been under fire in recent seasons for his failure to make the Syracuse University football team competitive with Penn State and Pittsburgh, reportedly is the subject of discontent again.

One week after Syracuse was blitzed 43-6 on television by Pittsburgh, Maloney's job is rumored to be on the line, according to a report in the Syracuse Post-Standard.

The newspaper reported Maloney may not be back next season if Syracuse does not beat Navy (5-3) Saturday. Syracuse has a 4-4 record with three games remaining.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) - Mario Andretti, making one of his rare appearances on the championship racing circuit, roared to the pole position Friday in qualifying for the Phoenix 150. Andretti's Penske Racing PC-9 zipped around the one-mile Phoenix International Raceway oval at 142.891 mph, outdistancing Johnny Rutherford, who already has nailed down the 1980 Indy car championship. Rutherford, who blew his turbocharger just as he completed the first of two scheduled qualifying laps, still was a solid second at 142.264 mph.

Borg triumphs but draws $500 fine after match

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) -Top-seeded Bjorn Borg breezed into the quarter-finals of the $175,000 Stockholm Open Tennis Championships with a 6-2, 6-3 victory over Heinz Gunthardt Friday and then was assessed another $500 fine for skipping a press conference.

"I'm not going to talk to any report-ers, that's all," Borg told the tournament director in the locker room after ousting the unseeded Swiss on the slow indoor court.

Joining Borg into the quarterfinals Friday were Gene Mayer of the United States, Yannick Noah of France and Per Hjertquist of Sweden.

Mayer, seeded third behind John McEnroe, scored an impressive 6-2, 6-1 victory over fellow-American Butch Walts, Noah downed Victor Amaya of the United States 7-5, 6-3, and Hjertquist beat Ulf Eriksson in an all-Swedish match 6-2, 6-4.

Nets prexy apologizes

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) - New Jersey Nets President Joseph Taub was forced to humble himself by apologizing to a partner he wrongly accused of telling the press that Coach Kevin Loughery's dismissal was imminent.

"I called that owner yesterday and apologized. I thought by all the input I got that he was the owner and should sell his stock," said Taub, who also is the National Basketball Association club's principal owner.

Taub said he had demanded the partner, whom he would not name, relinquish his interest in the club and resign from the board of directors.

Zilner confident of 4th winner in International

Stubborn 7 pin foils bid for 300

Jim Campbell saw a seven pin se-perate him from perfection and a 300 game Monday night in the Monday

Church League. Campbell, whose activity in the game spans the 50s, 60s and 70s and now the 80s, rolled a 299 game at Dellwood Lanes in the third game of the second shift five-person league and attracted over 120 people in attendance at the time to watch the talented righthander begin his assault on the first perfect game in the cen-ter's six week history. Campbell, had rolled several 279 games, a total that also requires 11 strikes in the game, but this was the closest he had ever been to 300. Campbell says his next goal is 700, which he says he has never attained, 693 being his highest total so
