Paint Creek... Community News

MRS. GENE OVERTON

The western part of Paint Creek community sounded like an army maneuver area Monday morning—and it really was an artillery barrage from the rabbit's point of view. The Plainview part of Paint Creek had a beautiful day for their rabbit drive, and hundreds of rabbits were killed. Every hunter we have heard say, killed from 25 to 75 rabbits, and some probably killed more. They also killed a bobcat and several coyotes. The drive started at Plainview school and the hunters went north almost to the farm to market road. Several hunters told us that at noon the women served one of the best barbecue lunches they had ever eaten.

We farmers are surely grateful. The Berryhill corner of Paint Creek had a rabbit drive Saturday, and they reported a good drive, too. Now, with all the weeds poisoned, and most of the rabbits shot, if we just don't have any hail storm, maybe we'll make a grain crop this year. I hope these two rabbit drives and the barbecue supper the seniors are having tonight have no connection. I guess it would be a chill supper if they intended using the rabbits that were killed on the drive. Our colored cotton pickers from Glen Rose used to make jack rabbit chill every fall. But the seniors assure us they have bought a quarter of a beef for their supper tonight.

The seniors have had so many nice social events this past week I could almost fill the column with them.

On Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. Albin Hokanson and Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Thane had a buffet supper for them, and served a delicious fried chicken supper.

Friday night the families of the Methodist Church honored the senior class and faculty of the school at a supper. The meal was served in the lunchroom and afterwards Mrs. Irene Ballard showed the films of her last summer's European tour. At the close of the party Rev. Thompson presented Mrs. Ballard with a gift from the members of the church.

Tuesday morning the ladies of the Baptist Church honored members of the senior class and their sponsors with an April Fool Day breakfast. A color scheme of red and white carried out with the program. Books titled "The College of Hardy any Knowledge," and a red senior mortarboards and a white diploma for place favors. The program consisted of songs by the group and also a quintet composed of Judy Earles, Nelta Walton, Wallar Overton, Fred Selby and William Overton. Rev. E. A. Eubanks spoke to them on what the letters in the word "Senior" could mean to them. A breakfast of orange juice, sausage, scrambled eggs, rolls and donuts was served by the ladies of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Welch of Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, spent last weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Welch and Mrs. Austin New and Doyler.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Jones Sr. of Rule were guests Saturday in the Gene Overton home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Merle Raughton, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Raughton and Nelta Walton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Simpson of Stamford were in Waco Saturday where they saw the Baylor-A&M baseball game in which Rudy Raughton pitched for Baylor.

Wayne Perry spent two or three days in the Stamford Sanitarium last week but is at home now, and feeling better.

Little Donald Livengood returned home after spending three weeks in the hospital with Bright's disease and a case of measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Brooke Earley, Alice and Paul were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Moberly of Albany last week.

Happy Birthday, Mother! Mr. and Mrs. Ray Perry and children spent last weekend in Sulphur Springs visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Adams whose place they farm. They also attended a registered Shetland pony sale at the J. A. Stovall & Son Pony Farm at Vera, Texas. Mr. Stovall sold 54 registered ponies in the sale for $76,000. Can you imagine that? Ray and Amelia own 3 registered ponies and their sire is the grandson of this Mr. Stovall's herd sire. Many of the buyers in the sale were from pony farms up north, but some were just rich people who wanted a registered pony.

Play Day April 1 was the nicest we have had in years. For one thing, the weather cooperated better than it has done in years. We can almost always count on a big sandstorm, but this year the weather was perfect. There was plenty of food, and a nice crowd of school children and parents. The track meet was fun, and the parents enjoyed their games against each other, and against the students, too. We were trying to remember just how long we have had play day on April 1. It began at the Post School over 20 years ago, and when Paint Creek was consolidated they carried it on. I guess this one must have been the 24th of 25th one. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton honored their twin sons with a dinner Sunday. Guests were Fred Selby, Arvie Bergstrom, Dub Sims, Jerry Fancher of Haskell, Larry Horton and Johnny Estes of Rule. Monday, April 1st was the twin's 18th birthday. They registered for the Army Tuesday.

Haskell and Rule Groups Attend Magnolia Meeting

Automobile dealers and service station operators of Haskell and Rule, were guests of Magnolia Petroleum Company at the annual district meeting in Abilene Monday night. More than 800 guests attended the affair, held in Rose Field House. Purpose was to introduce Magnolia's Special Gasoline for 1957, according to Thos. B. Roberson, local distributor for Magnolia who headed the Haskell and Rule group.

Attending the Abilene meeting were Gerald Smith, Buford Cathey, Howard Perry, Owen Peisue, Jimmy Turner, H. A. Bayless, R. B. Bishop, Wilda Medford, Trav Everet, Don Taylor, W. R. Howard, Slick Boyd, L. W. Robertson, of Haskell; and W. V. Almond, Harvey Norwood and B. W. Denison of Rule.

Mrs. M. E. Helber Directs Harmony Club Program on Italian, Hungarian Music

Mrs. M. E. Helber was director of the program on Italian and Hungarian music at the meeting of the Harmony Club held March 28 in the Homemaking Cottage.

Mrs. Helber stated that Italy, the land of song, owes a great musical debt to Greece. Ancient Greece had 1,000 years of musical history before she disappeared as a nation under the conquering Romans. With the absorption of Greece, music received new impetus, and it became fashionable with both sexes. Italy is not over-rich in folk song, possibly because the native mind believes nothing it cannot see. So they are not colorful as the imaginative fairies, witches and sprites are absent in their songs as in other lands. However, in their folk songs there is some distinctive touch of local color. Italy is rich in her national songs set to marital tunes which are heard all over the land.

Almost since the days of its invention, music in Italy has meant Opera. It is the life of its people, a necessity rather than a luxury. One can tell what opera is being produced by the snatches of songs, sung or whistled as the people go to and from their work. Almost all the great musical forms had their origin in Italy. The Opera, the Oratorio, the fugue, the sonata and symphony. All the great violin makers were Italian. Italy owes her long ascendancy in music to the fact she was the first of the nations to receive the impress of Grecian culture.

The Hungarians are intensely musical, and the gypsies are their musicians. The gypsies have a deeper, wider and more original feeling in their music and dancing. Their songs deal with love in all its phases, war and the Romany Road. Their music is improvised and is never done twice the same. It is of melancholy character and most of the old Hungarian tunes are minor mode. All of the leading cities of Hungary possess conservatories, musical and choral societies. The concert season at Budapest is as brilliant as that of Leipzig or Vienna.

Mrs. A. C. Foster rendered two beautiful solos, "The Hungarian Rhapsody" and the ever haunting melody, "Liebestraum" by Liszt.

Mrs. C. L. Lewis gave an interesting sketch of the life of the Hungarian composer Liszt. Franz Liszt was born in Raiding, Hungary, in 1811. When he was nine years old he played so marvelously that a number of noblemen guaranteed his father $1,000 a year for six years so that the talented child might continue his musical education. He studied in Vienna under the famous teachers, Saleri and Randhartingelo and won the praise of Beethoven.

He lived in Paris for 15 years, teaching, composing and playing concerts. His works include three oratorios, three cantatas, three symphonies, many masses and orchestral works. His piano compositions include an immense number of arrangements and transcriptions ranging from the organ works of Bach, Wagner, Rossini, Verdi, and Schumann. He died in 1886.

The club members sang the song, Funicelli, Funicella and the hymn of the month, "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name." Dr. Robinson, as hostess, served refreshments of white cake squares with red rose decorations, hot punch to the following members: Mesdames Tammy Squyres, Tommie Hawkins, R. L. Harrison, O. E. Patterson, C. L. Lewis, M. E. Helber, A. C. Foster, Jr., Miss Beryle Boone.

MR. AND MRS. JERRY PENNINGTON

Glenda Davis, Jerry Pennington Exchange Nuptial Vows March 31

Miss Glenda Joan Davis became the bride of Jerry Boyd Pennington in a double ring ceremony at 3 p. m. Wednesday, March 31 in the East Side Baptist Church. The officiant was Rev. M. D. Rexrode, pastor of the First Baptist Church and the nuptial sermon was read by Rev. Roland Williams, pastor of the East Side Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodley Davis of Haskell and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pennington, Haskell.

The maid of honor was Miss Mary Lou Roberts of Haskell and the bridesmaids were Maurice Fouts, Haskell and Shelley Pennington, cousin of the groom, Haskell. Serving the groom as best man was Felton Everett, cousin of the groom, Big Spring.

Ushers for the ceremony were Alton Peiser, Dallas, Don Pennington, cousin of the groom, and James Davis, brother of the bride, Haskell.

Before the altar was an arch of greenery intertwined with pink gladiolas and side baskets flanked the arch. The organist, Betty Rexrode, played traditional wedding music and accompanied John Winters as he sang "Because" and "Always."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding, she chose a gown of white embroidered satin styled in the princess silhouette and of ballerina length. She wore embroidered mitts trimmed with a small ruff of white tulle. Her headdress was a tiara of pearl and rhinestone which held a veil of fingertip length. She carried white carnations atop a white pearl studded Bible, the gift of Mrs. E. M. Frierson, a friend of the family.

For the traditional something old, she wore in her slipper a 103-year-old coin, something new were her pearls, a gift of the groom, something borrowed was the coin, from Otho Nanny and something blue her garter.

The maid of honor and the bridesmaids were dressed in identical gowns of pink cotton satin, fashioned with round necklines, and cap sleeves. The bouffant skirts were styled with pink chiffon cummerbunds fastened in the back with large bows from which fell streamers of pink chiffon. They wore pink mitts and bandeaus of pink cotton satin trimmed with pink and white flowers. They carried nosegays of white carnations.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Davis chose an aqua dress in the sheath style with black and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. Mrs. Pennington wore a gown of navy blue with black and white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered with a sheer white grass linen cloth edged in lace. The table was centered with a four tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom figures flanked by the bouquets of the bridal attendants. Jeanette Jones registered guests and Myrna Cooper and Barbara Lackey presided over the bride's table.

The bride's traveling outfit was a two piece navy blue linen dress with matching jacket trimmed in white pique. She wore a white carnation corsage taken from her bridal bouquet. The couple are now at home at 824 Garage Apartments, Heights Boulevard, Houston.

The bride attended Haskell High School and plans to complete her senior year in the Houston School System. The groom is employed by State Roofing of Houston.

Rex Felker isn't the only man in Haskell who might put the town on the map, movie-wise. We understand that Wallace Cox, Jr., has received a delicately scented bouquet from a femme known as Gina Lolligewhiz. It seems that the Signorina Gina is in search of a co-star in a series tentatively titled "The Egghead and I." Understand he turned it down. What Price Glory?

This is a tip to Pete Frierson that he is by way of being in trouble. Mrs. F. recently purchased a pair of gray shoes at a terrific bargain. Of course, the inevitable happened. She returned home to find that she didn't have a thing to wear with them! So now she's looking for a costume to go with the accessory.

The boss and family returned from a two week trip to California Thursday afternoon after the paper was out. (Nasty thought. Did he plan it that way?) Even if he did all was forgiven the minute he began hauling out gifts and large bags of fruit for the staff members. Ah, to be in Cucamonga, now that April's here.

Rex Felker called a meeting Friday of some of the persons involved in the filming of Haskell County History. The group had a brainstorming session dreaming up scenes which were shot Sunday afternoon at Scott's Crossing. Among the suggestions considered and discarded was a plan to invite our local Yul Brynner (Mr. Smith to sprinkle cat-soup on his rugless dome and pose as a scalped White man.

Mrs. Shelly Royall volunteered a gen-u-wine Indian stone grinder for the Indian maidens to be working with in one scene. The maidens will be Christy Royall, Charlotte and Susie Redwine and Fatielle Allen of Rochester. Mrs. Royall got carried away with her magnanimity (that's one for you graduate students) and assured everyone, at great length, that she was more than happy to volunteer the grinder, for she felt everyone should do his bit. After about five minutes or so Rex interrupted her and asked, "You wanta put a name plate on it?"

The Royalls and the Lloyd Feemsters recently made a trip to the Matthews Ranch down in Shackelford County. The ranch abounds in wildlife: buffalo, deer, wild turkey and boars. The small son of the Feemsters went back to school Monday morning and made an excited report to the class about all the varmints he had seen. Hmmm, thought his teacher. I'd better do something about that imagination before it gets out of hand. So she made the poor lad stand in a corner.

Movie photographer Charles Swinson was gingerly hobbling around Monday after a strenuous Sunday afternoon climbing Rattlesnake Hill. Busily putting Jerry Hannsz on film for posterity, he kept creeping forward looking like mad. By the time he had finished the scene he was at the top of the hill. He put down the camera and looked around in amazement. "No wonder. I thought my heart was beating faster." Anyone who can forget those rugged surroundings with the sharp and jagged rocks--now, there's an artist! Band aid, anyone?

4-Day Santa Rosa Roundup Opens at Vernon May 1

Vernon, Tex. (Special)—An estimated 20,000 rodeo and parade fans are expected to converge on this Northwest Texas city May 1 for the opening of the 12th annual Santa Rosa Roundup and Livestock Exposition.

The four-day event will open with a two-mile-long parade at 2 p. m., featuring scores of floats, 10 or more regional bands, and more than 1,000 Texas and Oklahoma riding clubs.

Rodeo performances are scheduled each night at 8 o'clock, rain or shine. Approximately 200 performers will be in action including several of the top riders and ropers in the world.

A prize list of $8,000 has been posted to which entry fees will be added, making the purse one of the largest to be offered this season in the State of Texas, according to John Biggs, general manager of the Roundup.

Intermission acts will include the Zeppe-Zavatta family of acrobatic equestrians, and Bobby and Gene Clark, bull-fighting clowns who also will appear in specialty acts.

Hundreds of the nation's best quarter horses will be judged both at halter and on performance during the four days.

Advance rodeo tickets may be obtained by calling 2-6868 or by writing Santa Rosa Roundup Ticket Headquarters, Wilbarger Hotel, Vernon, Texas.

ROADMASTER 75
Custom Built by Buick

A NEW CONCEPT in motorcar excellence awaits your inspection in the ROADMASTER 75 just introduced.

You will see what we mean the first time you glimpse the interior.

The impeccable tailoring and taste of the rich appointments are as obvious as the comfort is opulent.

The seats, for example. They are meticulously fashioned in glove-finished fabrics of broadcloth or Nylon, with backs topped in supple, hand-buffed leather. They are thickly layered with contoured foam rubber. They are wide, deep, superbly soft.

The doors present a new standard of luxury and restfulness—fully upholstered and softly cushioned from floor line to window.

The instrument panel, below the safety cushion, is chromed from end to end. The deep-pile carpeting is backed by foam. The integral armrests are fully in keeping with the spacious grandeur of the car.

The complete interior is matched by the mechanical excellence that is ROADMASTER tradition.

Indeed, nowhere else among the world's fine cars can you enjoy superb performance quite like that of a ROADMASTER 75—from the instant response of its brilliant new Dynaflo, to the smooth obedience of its all-new air-cooled aluminum front brakes—newest and the finest in the car field.

Your Buick dealer is ready to show you this magnificent new automobile. See him this week.

He stated that about 50 workers will cover the town soliciting funds for the Cancer drive.

Refreshments will be served to the workers following the drives. Chairman Condron said, "We hope everyone will dig deep in his pocketbook when the Legionnaires workers come around and help medical science to alleviate and eventually find a cure for the dread killer, Cancer."

"That proves it to me... the J-2 Rocket is like two engines in one!"

ME: Right! This J-2 Rocket* is really a new driving experience!
FRIEND: Well, I've handled a Rocket Engine before, but nothing like this. They've always had pep, but this one's got that extra pep when you need it!
ME: Don't forget economy.
FRIEND: Yes, but you can't feel economy.
ME: Feels pretty good to the pocketbook.
FRIEND: Right! But it beats the how you get economy with a big car like Olds.
ME: Easy. For cruising around, you just use one dual-barrel carburetor.

FRIEND: Bet that waters down your performance some.
ME: Not a bit. I've got regular Rocket performance right through the economy range. And believe me, that's plenty. But if you need more power...
FRIEND: Then what?
ME: Go to Stage Two. You just saw what that does. Give it three-quarters throttle and you've got three dual carburetors dishing up more power and torque.
FRIEND: Tell you the truth, I've always liked an Olds. I thought we might get one ourselves some day.
ME: Checked the price lately? You'd be surprised how easy it is to own.
